Planet gazers

IF THERE EVER was a time to get a good glimpse of Mars, now is the time to take a peak at this mysterious planet. On past Saturdays (Sept. 17 and 24), a "Mars Watch" activity has taken place at the Fred G. Dale Planetarium at Wayne State College. Visitors were acquainted with Mars, its surface, characteristics and changing sky positions. On Sept. 21, Mars is nearest the Earth at a distance of 36.5 million miles. At its closest since 1971, Mars won't be this close again until 2003. Visitors went on the Observing Deck of the Carhart Math/Science Building to allow observation of the red planet and other objects in the evening sky, including the moon and the planet Saturn. The last "Mars Watch" program is slated for Saturday, Oct. 1.

This fall Wayne State is fielding a men's golf team on the club sport level and will petition for intercollegiate athletic status this spring, according to Dr. Arnie White, coach of this year's club team.

'I discussed the possibility of starting a golf team during my interview ting-a golf team during my interview hast spring. I'm completing my doctoral research using computerized analysis of the golf swing and I've coached golf before. Dr. Barclay (Division Head of Health, Physical Education Land Recreation) and athletic director Pete Chapman both thought the time was right to get back into the sport," White said.

Golf is a relative low-cost sport and the travel is relatively minor. Most importantly, there's an opportunity present right now to improve our intercollegiate program and we're going to move in that direction."

White's background in golf cludes the technical aspects of the sport and participation. He is com-pleting work on his doctorate in bio-mechanics studying the sport and averages a 79 on the Wayne course, a

Blue Devils shut out by West Point

Wayne's offense was unable to punch the ball into the endzone Friday night in a home game with West Point. The result was a 14-0 victory for the visitors leaving the Blue Devils with a 2-2 season mark and looking at David City this Friday.

To say Wayne was dominated by West Point would be a farce. West Point never saw paydirt until the fourth quarter when Steve Nitzsche ran in from five yards out.

Later in the same quarter quarter back John Arensberg went around the end for 78 yards to give West Point a comfortable cushion.

The Blue Devils had chances to score during the contest but they defeated themselves with penalties and dropped passes. Field goal kicker Corey Frye missed a 34 yard attempt which was long enough and high enough, but it hit the upright.

attempting a field goal when the Blue Devils jumped offside. With the penalty Frye attempted the kick from a five yard distance from the line of scrimmage instead of the usual seven yard distance, and the kick was blocked.

Never-the-less, Wayne put up a challenge that was worth the effort. For the folks with a fond memory, Wayne was defeated last year by West Point, 60-0.

'We really didn't seem to have the "We really didn't seem to have the killer instinct on offense," head coach Lonnie Ehrhardt said. "We ran the ball hard into the line, but every time we had an opportunity to get into scoring position, we stopped ourselves."

Rusty Hamer wound up being Vayne's leading rusher with a total f. 68 yards on .13 carries while Châd avis ran for 31 yards on eight car-les. Mike Hillier rushed the ball six times for 15 yards.

Due to the injury to Jess Zeiss against South Sloux last week, Greg Schmidt was thrust into the starting quarterback role. Schmidt was 3-12 with one interception against West Point for 51 yards.

The recipients of the three completed passes were Elliot Salmon, 1-16 yards, Kevin Hausmann, 1-20 yards and Eric Runestad, 1-13 yards. Kip Mau was the leading tackler for the Blue Devils with 11 tackles. Jeff Lutt and Chris Lutt each record Things started off on a bad note for coach Duane Blomenkamp's troops as on the initial kickoff Schuyler returned the ball to the Blue Devil 25 yard line. Three plays later the Warriors scored their first touchdown.

Wayne received the kickoff and wayne received the kickoff and after failing to pick up a first down, punted to Schuyler. The first play from scrimmage resulted in a 50 yard run and Wayne quickly found themselves down by a 16-0 count.

"We settled down after the first three or four minutes," Blomenkamp said. Wayne will now take its 0-2 record into next weeks game with Battle Creek in Wayne. The game is slated for Thursday at 5 p.m. at the practice— field.

THIS WEST Point runner found the going tough as Blue Devils Eric Runestad and Willy Gross converge on him. Wayne's defense played marvelous throughout the game but the offense never really got untracked in the 14-0 setback. Wayne 2-2, will look to get back on the winning track this Friday, when they travel to David City.

Winside drops to 0-8

Winside volleyball coach Paul Glesselmann still hasn't witnessed his first team win a volleyball match yet, but the first year helmsman knows what it's like to win at least a set now, as Winside lost to Stanton on Thursday night, but it took three sets.

"Again I think we played a good match and we had chances to win it, but now that the girls have won a set, it shows our improvement and the ability of the girls to not give up, Giesselmann said.

"Stanton has a very strong team," Glesselmann said. "With its win over glesselmann said. With its win over us, their record went to 5-2." Win-side's record dropped to 0-8, and the Wildcats will have a week to prepare for Coleridge, who travels to Winside this Thursday for the second confron-tation between the two this season.

Wayne will now travel to Schuyler Thursday, October 6.

Allen Eagles soar

The Lady Eagles of Allen raised their season record to 6-3 after defeating Beemer last Tuesday in Beemer. The Eagles won in straight sets, 15-6, 15-8.

best transition volleyball that we have played all year," head coach Gary Troth said. "We were able to stay on offense a lot with our stronge front line."

Troth noted that the front line played extremely well. "Beemer played pretty good defense," Troth said. "They took some of our best spikes and returned them."

Allen was boosted by some strong serving from the likes of Anneta Noe, Missy Martinson and Toni Boyle. The threesome combined for a 33-33 serve performance with 10 aces.

Missy Martinson had an excellent night spiking with a 16-19 effort and seven kills. Parm Kennelly was good on 10-13 attempts and five kill spikes. Candace Jones enjoyed a 9-12 performance with a pair of kills. Carla Stapleton was 92 percent in setting with a 23-25 outing with five assists while Anneta Noe was good on 13 A with fare section.
