Wakefield set for Pumpkin Days

By LaVon Anderson
Assistant Editor

Wakefield area residents are beginning to see orange as yards and businesses set the tone for the community's second annual Pumpkin Days celebration slated this Friday and Saturday.

The two-day event will begin Friday evening, Oct. 7 with a pork feed and free square dance.

The pork feed will take place at 4th and Main St. and is sponsored by the Northeast Nebraska Pork Producers. Serving will be from 5 to 8 p.m., and cost is $1.75 per plate with drinks extra.

Square dancing is scheduled to get underway at 7:30 p.m. in the Wakefield National Bank parking lot. Caller will be Dean Dederman.

Four-H Junior Leaders also will sponsor a beverage and popcorn booth that evening from 5 to 10 p.m. at 4th and Main St.

A FULL DAY of Pumpkin related activities is scheduled Saturday, Oct. 8, including a kiddie parade, free omelet feed, arts and crafts show, pumpkin bakeoff and bake sale, one-act play, car show and dance. There also will be various games for youngsters, including a diaper race, pumpkin roll and kiddie tractor pull.

Entries for the arts and crafts show will be accepted Friday evening from 5 to 8 p.m. at the Wakefield Legion Hall. All art and craft items are acceptable, however only items with a pumpkin theme will be judged.

SATURDAY'S SCHEDULE of activities includes:

8 to 9 a.m. — Pumpkin entries accepted at the basketball court in the park. Carved, decorated and heaviest pumpkins will be accepted in four divisions for ages four through adult. Judged pumpkins will be on display from 10:30 a.m. to 2:30 p.m.

8 to 9 a.m. — Pumpkin bakeoff entries will be accepted in the enclosed shelterhouse at the park. Categories include pies, cakes, bars/cookies (plate of four), and miscellaneous. Entries must include pumpkin as an ingredient, and a recipe must accompany each entry. There also will be a category for decorated cakes using a pumpkin theme. Pumpkin need not be an ingredient in the decorated cakes. All baked items will be on display from 10:30 a.m. to 2:30 p.m.

8 a.m. to noon — Bake sale at the Wakefield Legion Hall sponsored by the American Legion Auxiliary. Coffee and rolls also will be served.

8 a.m. to 6 p.m. — Arts and crafts show at the Wakefield American Legion Hall.

9:30 a.m. — Kiddie parade through Main St. Youngsters are asked to line up at 9 a.m. at 5th and Main Sts. All pumpkin related entries will be judged.

11 a.m. — Kiddie tractor pull for ages three through eight at the tennis court.

11 a.m. to 1 p.m. — Free omelet feed compliments of the Milton G. Waldbaum Co. and the Wakefield Community Club. Serving will be in the open shelterhouse in the park. Entertainment during the omelet feed will be provided by the Elderberry Band and singing group from the Emerson Senior Citizens Center.

11 a.m. to 2 p.m. — Show 'N' Shine car show open to all antique and collectible cars. Trophies will be awarded, and cars are to be registered at 11 a.m. at the east gate of the Wakefield city park.

12:30 to 2:30 p.m. — Pumpkin roll at the football field at the park. Participants may compete anytime with their time recorded in their division. Divisions are pre-school, kindergarten through third grade, fourth through six grades, junior high, high school, adult and large pumpkin.

1 to 2:30 p.m. — Kiddie games near the football field in the park. Games include wheelbarrow race, dart toss, pumpkin beanbag toss, big wheel race (one and two-year-olds at 1:30 p.m., and three and four-year-olds at 2 p.m.), orange egg toss (at 2 p.m.) and straw scramble.

2:30 p.m. — Diaper race in the one-act play staging area.

3 p.m. — One-act play at the park, "The Ghost of Punkin Holler," a hillbilly mystery/comedy. Persons are asked to bring their sunglasses for admission.

8 p.m. to midnight — Dance at the American Legion Hall sponsored by the American Legion Post. Music by Explorers of Fremont.

THE WAKEFIELD Senior Citizens Center will be serving pumpkin pie, bars, cookies and coffee all afternoon in the park.

Serving pop and popcorn in the park during the day will be the 4-H Junior Leaders.

In the event of inclement weather, Friday and Saturday's outdoor activities will be held at the Wakefield school.

Persons who would like additional information about Pumpkin Days activities are asked to contact Mrs. Tom Turney, 287-2228, or Mrs. Derwin Hartman, 287-2560.

County approves jail agreement

By Chuck Hackenmiller
Managing Editor

A resolution approved Tuesday morning by the Wayne County Commissioners will permit Wayne County's jail to become a centralized juvenile detention facility.

The motion by Commissioner Gerald Pospishil gained two of three votes. Pospishil and Robert Nissen favored the resolution while Merlin Beiermann voted against the resolution.

It was stipulated in Pospishil's motion that approval of the resolution be given subject to approval by the Nebraska State Crime Commission of the $159,377.17 in juvenile justice grant funds requested earlier by Wayne County. The hearing for the grant, by the crime commission review committee, is slated for Friday, Oct. 7 in Lincoln.

AGREEMENT TERMS state that a juvenile detention facility shall be installed in the current Wayne County Jail, under the operation supervision of the Wayne County Sheriff.

Other counties could use this facility for their juveniles based upon space availability at a per diem cost to be established by the county commissioners.

Wayne County would then transfer its adult prisoners to nearby jails. A joint board, consisting of at least one commissioner or supervisor from the counties which have contracted with Wayne County for juvenile detention, would determine the financing, necessary for the expenses of operation and maintenance of the facility.

Wayne County Sheriff LeRoy Janssen provided more juvenile bookings statistics to the county commissioners during Tuesday's meeting.

The local match of the state funding requested, Janssen said, would be $43,557.68. Using a six year average figure of juvenile bookings, Wayne County's share of that amount would be $1,768.

Former mayor dies

Kent Hall, former Wayne mayor and long-time Wayne businessman, died Sunday at Providence Medical Center in Wayne.

His funeral service was Wednesday morning at Redeemer Lutheran Church in Wayne.

Wilbur Kent Hall took over the operation of the Wayne Greenhouse in 1950 following the death of his father, Wilbur. Kent was a graduate of Wayne Prep School and Wayne State College.

He served as council member for two years, and from 1970 to 1973 he was mayor of Wayne. Kent also held positions on the city's planning commission and with the Wayne State College Foundation.

In 1973 he was named as a Foundation trustee. In fiscal 1984-85 he served as vice president of the foundation, and then served the next two fiscal years 1985-87, as president of the organization.

He was also a member of the Nebraska Florist Society, Wayne Kiwanis, Wayne Area Chamber of Commerce, Wayne Industries, Second Guessers, the Wayne Volunteer Fire Department and he assisted with the Boy Scout program.

The complete obituary of Kent Hall appears in this edition of The Wayne Herald.

Float contest underway

By LaVon Anderson
Assistant Editor

Wayne Area Chamber of Commerce Ambassadors are inviting area residents of all ages to take up their sketch pads.

The Ambassadors are conducting a contest to solicit designs for a new float to be used in parades in Wayne and surrounding communities.

Al Cramer, a member of the Ambassadors, said one winning design will be selected from the entries, with the winning designer receiving a $200 prize awarded by the Wayne Area Chamber of Commerce.

Deadline for entries in the contest is Monday, Oct. 31.

CRAMER SAID the winning design will replace the current Chamber float which is in disrepair. He added that contest is for design only, not construction, of the new float.

The float will be used to advertise Wayne, and Cramer said the design must feature the community's involvement in agriculture, business, industry and education.

The float must be easily understood, readable and visibly attractive, with a minimum of written text and large pictures, letters and other graphics.

In addition, the design must be easily modified to fit a particular theme (centennial, parades, etc.), and materials used must be available and reasonably priced.

GUIDELINES FOR the float design also specify that it must be a scaled graphic representation showing three views (side, end and plan views), and must be designed to trail to surrounding areas, with durable and lasting materials. Use of living plant materials is permissible.

The float will be on a trailer bed

Radio control cars off to the races

By Chuck Hackenmiller
Managing Editor

Many people have never heard of Higrobee Speedway in Wayne.

But according to Chuck Higbee of Wayne, who along with Rick Giroue is one of the founders and designers of the track, this Wayne off-road car dirt racing track just west of Pac 'N' Save is the state's finest.

"It's one of the finest tracks that I've raced on in the state," said Higbee.

What's nice about it is that in this car racing event, going off the racing track doesn't result in anyone getting injured. Participants don't sit before the dashboard in these races.

Drivers control the vehicles with skillful fingertips while away from the path of the track — standing right on top of special stands where they can oversee the entire circuit layout.

WELCOME TO the world of radio control car racing. One-tenth scale off-road racing, that is.

In early July the track opened near Pac 'N' Save on the west edge of Wayne. Since then there have been seven races, with an average of eight racers participating each time. The track features small jumps, table top jumps, sharp drop-offs, sharp corners and moguls.

RADIO CONTROL cars having a combination of high speed and quick cornering ability do well on the Wayne track, said Higbee.

Latest remodeling additions to the track include an underground sprinkler system, keeping traction at its best, and a drivers stand where car owners stand several feet off the ground to look down upon the race track.

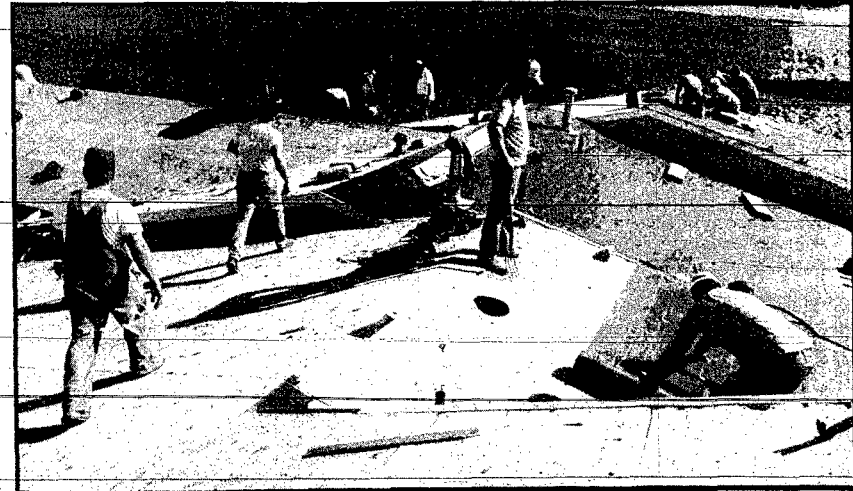

"In order to be a good driver," Higbee said it helps to have excellent "hand and eye coordination."

"Age does not dictate skill. Most of the top drivers are teenagers," Higbee said. There are four cars in his family. His interest in the hobby grew since January of this year, after he purchased two of the cars for his two daughters.

Now, he and Giroue are working with others towards establishing a Wayne Radio Control Car Club.

Most of the one-tenth scale radio control cars come in kits. They are

Project hard to top

CONSTRUCTION PEOPLE, often competing in the business world, united for the benefit of Ron VonSeggern this past Saturday and Sunday, working on a condominium roof project along East 14th Street in Wayne. Tenants of the condominiums paid for the materials and the construction workers donated the labor for the roofing project to the Ron VonSeggern fund. Ron VonSeggern Day has been set for Sunday, Oct. 14 in Wayne. More photos on page 8A.

News and Notes

by Mary Temme, Extension Agent-Home Ec.

Furnaces use most energy

Furnaces use more energy than any other household appliance. Continuing increases in heating-fuel costs have prompted an in-depth look at furnace efficiency. Devices are on the market that can conserve energy by reducing the amount of fuel a furnace will burn each year, resulting in lower fuel bills.

It is important to note that many furnaces are too big (oversized) for the home and geographical area. The devices for improving furnace efficiency are designed to effectively reduce energy consumption by altering the burner's flame size, or reducing the furnace's flue or chimney.

Before you alter your furnace, check with the local building inspector to find out exactly what modifications are allowed by local codes. These differ in various localities, so what is permitted in one city or town may not be permitted in another.

Local codes are being revised to include these devices as they become certified or approved by recognized national testing laboratories such as Underwriters Laboratories and the American Gas Association.

In most locations, the building inspector will issue a permit before work can begin and may require a final inspection of the installed device before the furnace can be operated.

LOCAL CONTRACTORS should be aware of building code restrictions in your area. You may wish to call a contractor directly. The contractor will then apply for all required permits before the work begins.

Examples of add-on furnace devices include automatic flue dampers to close off the flue when the furnace is not operating to prevent heat loss up the chimney. Flue restrictors also reduce chimney heat loss.

Two-stage valves adjust the size of the furnace flame. Electronic pilots replace continuous-burning gas pilots, using a spark to ignite the furnace flame.

Holcomb-Lundahl repeat vows in fall ceremony at Coleridge

Immanuel Lutheran Church in Coleridge was the setting for the marriage of Diane Lucille Holcomb of Hartington and Kenneth Allen Lundahl of Laurel on Sept. 24.

Parents of the couple are Lucille Holcomb and the late Dean Holcomb of Hartington, and Earl and Joyce Lundahl of Laurel.

The 7 o'clock ceremony was performed by the Rev. Rollin Olesen of Coleridge. Ushering guests into the church were Darrell Kotalik of South Sioux City and Brian Lundahl of Wakefield.

Decorations for the ceremony included candelabras adorned with lilies and bows, and emerald green bows at the pews.

SHIRLEY ANDERSON of Coleridge, organist, played the processional, "Jesus, Joy of Man's Desiring" and "Trumpet Voluntary."

Wedding music included "Wedding Song," "He Has Chosen You for Me," "Author of Love" and "The Lord's Prayer." Singers were Brian Holcomb of Coleridge and Sherie Lundahl of Laurel.

Deborah Kotalik of South Sioux City was her sister's matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Melody Holcomb of Coleridge, and Sheila and Doreen Holcomb of Hartington. The bride's personal attendant was Lisa Jacobsen of South Sioux City.

Ron Lundahl of Laurel served as best man for his brother. Groomsmen were Mike Dietrich of Wayne, Mark Lundahl of Wakefield and Jeff Sukup of Wayne.

Lighting candles were Kevin Holcomb of Hartington and Spencer McBride of Laurel. Hollis Holcomb carried the unity candle.

Flower girls were Kayla Kotalik of South Sioux City, Danielle Holcomb of Hartington and Jennifer Lundahl of Laurel, and ring bearers were Roland and Jarod Holcomb of Hartington and Sean Kotalik of South Sioux City.

THE BRIDE WAS escorted to the altar by her brothers, Ralph Holcomb of Coleridge, and Dale, Daniel and Michael Holcomb of Hartington. Each presented her with a long stemmed white rose.

On her wedding day, the bride appeared in a white bridal gown, overlaid with lace, pearls and sequins. Pearls and lace trimmed the oval neckline and fitted bodice. The cathedral train featured appliques and ruffles of lace and satin.

She wore a fingertip veil trimmed with pearls, and carried a cascade of lilies and ivy accented with pearls.

THE BRIDE'S attendants wore tea-length dresses of emerald green velvet and taffeta. They carried bouquets of lilies and pearls.

The men in the wedding party were attired in black tuxedos.

The bride's mother wore a peach dress in street length, and the bridegroom's mother chose a gray dress, also in street length.

Their corsages were of lilies and pearls, and each received a long stemmed rose from the bride and bridegroom following lighting of the unity candle.

A RECEPTION FOR 225 guests was held in the Coleridge Community Building following the ceremony. Brenda Jussel of Laurel was seated at the guest book.

Hosts were Mr. and Mrs. Ralph DeLong of Belden and Mr. and Mrs. LeVern Lundahl of Wakefield, and gift carriers were Andrea Lundahl and Lance Simpson.

The wedding cake was served by Carol DeLong and Carol Kastrop. Joan Hartman poured, and Arlene Lundahl and Marilyn Bohken served punch.

Waitresses were Cindy DeLong and Kandy Frerichs. Galen Hartman was toastmaster,

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Lundahl and Rolly DeLong recorded the wedding on tape.

Dan Kardell of Wayne chauffeured the newlyweds in a limousine to the reception and to a wedding dance in Randolph.

FOLLOWING A wedding trip to the Black Hills, the newlyweds will make their home on a farm near Laurel.

The bride is a hairstylist at My Own Beauty Shop in Laurel, and the bridegroom is engaged in farming.

The newlyweds are making their home at 8111 No. 19th Ave., Apt. 1114, Phoenix, Ariz., 85021.

Eagles schedule special activities

The Wayne Eagles Auxiliary 3757 held its Oct. 3 meeting with 16 members present. President Jan Gamble presided.

It was announced the District 6 meeting will be held in Norfolk on Sunday, Oct. 9 at 2 p.m.

Local firemen and law enforcement officials will be honored by the Eagles during a potluck supper Sunday, Oct. 16 at 6:30 p.m. Auxiliary members are asked to bring two dishes of food other than meat, potatoes or dessert.

A program will follow the dinner.

STATE PRESIDENT Peg Breckner of Lincoln will visit Wayne on Monday, Oct. 17. She will be a guest at a 6:30 p.m. potluck supper prior to the meeting. Members should bring one dish of food other than a dessert.

Also honored at the Oct. 17 meeting will be Elizabeth Carlson of Blair, organizer of the Wayne club who was recently inducted into the Grand Auxiliary's Hall of Fame.

A MERCHANDISE party will be held Oct. 20 at 7:30 p.m., hosted by the Nebraska Boys Ranch, State President's Project and Diabetes Fund committees. All proceeds will be given to humanitarian projects.

Eagles are planning a Halloween costume party on Oct. 29.

On Nov. 12, the Eagles Auxiliary will participate in the Women of Today craft show with their annual bake sale.

HONORED WITH the birthday song were Jan Gamble, Linda Gamble, Kim Triggs and Dorothy Kabisch.

A sympathy card was mailed to the Byron Heier family following the death of his father.

Serving lunch at the close of the meeting were Arlene Bargholz and Cathy Lindsay.

PRESIDENT JEFF Triggs conducted the Oct. 3 meeting of the Wayne Eagles Aerie 3757.

Toys for needy children are being collected by the Wayne Aerie for Goldenrod Hills.

Winners of the Oct. 1 drawing were announced. They included Arthur Pollard, Wayne, beef quarter; Terry Muehlmeier, Norfolk, half pork; Bryan Euse, Wakefield, $75 grocery certificate; and Betty Hank, Carroll, $50 grocery gift certificate.

Chairmen of the drawing were Jim Markham and Bob Behlers.

Brummonds wed 60 years

MR. AND MRS. ARTHUR BRUMMOND will celebrate their 60th wedding anniversary on Saturday, Oct. 15 in the Wisner city auditorium. There will be an open house reception beginning at 6:30 p.m., followed with dancing. All friends and relatives are invited, and the honorees request no gifts. The event is being hosted by their children and grandchildren.

Marking 80th

FRIENDS AND relatives of Anna Jansen are invited to help celebrate her 80th birthday on Sunday, Oct. 9 from 2 to 4:30 p.m. at the Pender Community Hall in Pender. Persons unable to attend are asked to send a letter or card for her scrapbook recalling a treasured memory.

SHELLY PICK spikes the ball against one of the seven different CSIC teams who were in Wayne this past weekend. The Wildcats did not display one of their best weekends as they came away with only one match victory in seven attempts. The weekend started out with a three set loss to Washburn. Then the Wildcats defeated Pittsburg State 15-4, 16-14. Missouri Western then defeated Wayne State, followed by the Wildcats loss in straight sets to Missouri Southern. On Saturday, Wayne State lost to Kearney State, Emporia State and Fort Hays State. WSC now maintains a 16-16 mark.

Pierce defeats Laurel

Pierce invaded the confines of Laurel's football field Friday night and came away with a 33-6 victory leaving the Bears with a 1-4 record on the season.

Pierce scored 27 first half points before being shut down in the second half, while Laurel scored its lone touchdown in the second period. The Bears ended up with more passing yards than their counterparts but was held to 61 yards rushing.

Doug Manz and Todd Erwin each took turns in the quarterback slot with each of them completing four passes. The twosome combined for 121 total yards and three interceptions.

Troy Twohig led the Bears rushing attack with 34 ground yards. "We were hurt by the interceptions in the first half," coach Tom Luxford said. "Pierce scored on both half interceptions."

Luxford also noted that Pierce had a lot more numbers on the squad than his Laurel team. "Pierce is a good Class B school," Luxford said. "Right now we have only three seniors on the team. We're looking for leadership and it's coming from our underclassmen."

John Schutte led the Bears defensively with 14 tackles while Darren Martinson notched 13.

Russ Reiffenath recovered two Pierce fumbles to lead Laurel in that category. "Right now I think the kids are showing a lot of poise for being 1-4," Luxford said. "The attitudes are great in practice and I really think that we'll get it turned around."

Walthill blasts Allen

Gary Troth's Allen Eagles suffered perhaps their worst outing of the season in a home contest with Walthill last Thursday. "It was just one of those nights when everything we did just didn't work," head coach Gary Troth said. The Eagles succumbed to the visitors in straight sets, 10-15, 5-15.

Setters Amy Noe and Annetta Noe had perhaps one of their best nights but it was to no avail as Allen's net game deteriorated throughout the night.

Cindy Chase led the Eagles in serving with an 8-8 performance including one ace. Leslie Isom was 5-6 from the line and also recorded one ace.

Candace Jones and Missy Martinson led the spikers with Jones connecting on 9-15 with four kills and Martinson good on 8-16 with five kill spikes. Martinson also had one block.

"Usually when someone has an off night, someone else picks up the slack on another end," Troth said. "Against Walthill though, everyone had a bad night and no one picked up the slack."

Although Allen's record fell to 7-5 on the year, Troth feels that his squad will rebound from the poor outing against Walthill.

"We still have time to get through this," Troth said. "It's better to have that kind of an off night in the regular season instead of during districts."

Trojans still unbeaten

The Wakefield Trojans took their number three ranking to the hostile confines of Osmond Tuesday night and came away with a two set victory, which puts the Trojans at 8-0 on the year.

"We were down 13-9 in the first set," head coach Paul Eaton said. "Then Karen Hallstrom served out the set." Eaton noted that the Trojans didn't start off very well but played well after the initial first half of the first set.

"Our serving was still down a little from where we would like it to be," Eaton said. "We ended up with about an 85 percent serving ratio." Karen Hallstrom was Eaton's top server with a 12-13 outing with eight points.

Vickie Thompson followed with six points on a perfect 8-8 showing while Julie Greve was 7-8 with four points. Hallstrom also led the spikers with six kill spikes on a 9-10 outing.

Jessica Robins followed with four aces on her 8-9 showing while Julie Greve was 11-11 and had two ace spikes. Karen Witt led the setters with a 30-32 performance with 13 assists. Cathi Larson was 17-19 with four assists.

Meanwhile Jessica Robins and Karen Hallstrom were singled out by Eaton as having "extremely good passing nights. Robins also had two blocks with one ace."

The junior varsity team also won, 12-15, 15-8, 15-13. The "C" team won in straight sets, 11-3, 11-5.

Blue Devils storm South Sioux

Blue Devil volleyball mentor Marlene Uhing saw what assistant coach Dale Hochstein brought back from South Sioux City Monday night and decided that she, too, would like to have some hardware in the South Sioux volleyball tournament.

Hochstein and the reserve squad swept the tournament resulting in a first place trophy on Monday, and Tuesday the Wayne varsity squad was hoping to do the same.

South Sioux, the host school was the first team standing in Wayne's way of sweeping the reserve and varsity tournaments. The Blue Devils disposed of the Cardinals in three sets, 15-8, 10-15, 15-7.

In the championship game Wayne got past Sioux City Heelan in straight sets, 15-8, 15-6 to complete the sweep. The tournament victory was the second consecutive tournament the Blue Devils have captured in the past week.

"We came ready to play," coach Marlene Uhing said. "When we come ready, we usually play very competitive, but if we're for some reason not really ready to play, we will lose."

The Blue Devils got up 12-0 in the first set against South Sioux but then relaxed a little bit and South Sioux tried to climb back into the set. Wayne however, responded to the comeback effort and thwarted the rally with a set ending 15-8 victory.

"Our team passing was really good," Uhing said. "Dana Nelson had the most receptions at 20 and she was .750 successful on her passes." Others passing at .750 was Robin Luff, Karmyn Koenig and Deanna Schluns.

Robin Luff was the top spiker with six aces and a .210 kill spike percentage, while Dana Nelson and Teresa Ellis also had four kills. Kristy Hansen led the setters with nine assists while Teresa Ellis managed four assists.

Robin Luff had 17 points to lead the Blue Devils on two ace serves and a 19-20 serving ratio. Dana Nelson was good on 11 of 12 serves for 11 points and four aces while Kristy Hansen was a perfect 10-10 for six points and three aces.

Karmyn Koenig had three blocks to lead the Blue Devil defenders. In the championship game Wayne totally dominated the much taller Sioux City Heelan team.

"Heelan had a 6-1 and a 6-2 girl playing middle blocker," Uhing said. "We played a very good net game and served well though. We also placed our tips very well."

Uhing was especially pleased with the defense as they allowed Heelan only a couple ace spikes in each set, not allowing them to set up their offense the way they wanted too.

Once again Dana Nelson did a fine job of passing the ball with a .833 success percentage. "Dana covers a lot of territory and has a lot of responsibility in the back row," Uhing said. "Her play was especially critical if we were to be successful in the tournament."

Karmyn Koenig had six kill spikes for a .272 kill spike ratio while Kristy Hansen and Teresa Ellis led the spiking chores with six and five respectively. Koenig also led the team in blocks with four.

Kristy Hansen led the servers with a perfect 13-13 outing with nine points and one ace. Robin Luff followed with an 11-11 showing with nine points and one ace, and Deanna Schluns was good on seven of eight serves for five points and three aces.

Karmyn Koenig, Teresa Ellis and Robin Luff were named to the all tournament team while Deanna Schluns and Rachel Haase were the two varsity players who participated in bringing home the first place trophy in both the varsity and junior varsity tournaments.

Wayne's record improved to 10-6.

Eagles soar past Bancroft

Bancroft-Rosalie fell victim to a strong Allen volleyball program Tuesday night in Allen as the Eagles flew to a two set victory, 15-3, 15-0. "We played well but Bancroft didn't play that good of a game so it was hard to measure just how good we did play," coach Gary Troth said.

In fact, in the second set, Annetta Noe began serving and she served 15 consecutive points to blank the visitors. On the evening Noe was 20-20 in serving with 19 points and seven aces. Cindy Chase followed with a 5-6 showing while Toni Boyle mustered four of five and Candace Jones, three of three.

Missy Martinson was the top server with a 10-13 outing with five kills. Pam Kennelly was 5-5 with two kills and Candace Jones was four of five with two kills.

The Eagle setters had a perfect night as Amy Noe was 18-18 with five assists and Annetta Noe was 7-7 with three assists.

"Our net play started off bad," Troth said. "Bancroft got up three to nothing on us and then we scored 30 straight points." The junior varsity team also won in straight sets, 15-2, 15-7 while the freshman won 11-9, 11-6.

Wakefield, Winside to keep winning

The Crystal Ball was 90 percent last week in a 9-1 effort. The only game missed was the professional contest between Washington and New York Giants. For the year then, the mark stands at 18-7 for 72 percent.

—This week there is some tough games to predict as the Crystal Ball looks to near the 75 percent. LeMars 24, Wayne 16 — The Crystal Ball feels uncomfortable about this game because of the way Wayne has been playing. However, LeMars you have to remember is like a Class A school in Nebraska.

Bancroft-Rosalie 48, Allen 12 — The road continues to be tough for Mike Bussetman in Allen. This week's homecoming game for the Eagles is no exception.

Winside 36, Wynot 24 — Wynot boasts a 4-1 record coming into the contest with Winside, but they have not played anybody, so to speak. Winside at 3-2 has had much more competition which will pay off.

Bloomfield 38, Laurel 14 — Laurel will be remembering these teams that are beating them this year because they have a lot of players coming back next year plus the junior varsity and junior high teams are playing very well.

Wakefield 40, Beemer 26 — Beemer has not lost since its opening game against Winside. However, Wakefield has too many weapons and will expose the Beemer weaknesses.

Other games
Nebraska 56, Kansas 3; Oklahoma State 31, Colorado 21; Oklahoma 38, Texas 15; San Francisco 27, Denver 24; Cleveland 24, Seattle 20.

Wayne State routed by Emporia St.

The Wayne State Wildcats ran into a hostile bunch of Hornets last Saturday in Emporia State. The sixth-ranked team in the country in NAIA defeated Pete Chapman's Wildcats 52-7.

The game was totally dominated by Emporia State as they treated their hometown crowd of 5,000 to 229 yards rushing and 232 yards passing. Wayne State was held to 18 yards rushing on 28 attempts.

Scott Raue did complete 10 of 25 passes for 103 yards and a touchdown, (a 27 yard pass to Pat Wordekemper in the third quarter). Kirk Meyer completed two of five passes for 21 yards.

Wordekemper was the leading receiver in the game with four receptions for 85 yards. Kevin Hagedorn caught three balls for 25 yards while Travis Bahnsen caught three passes for 20 yards.

Bahnsen incidently, was the leading rusher on the day with 20 yards on three carries. The busiest man for the Wildcats was punter Pat Wordekemper with 13 punts for an average of 38.5 yards per kick.

Wayne State quickly found themselves down in the contest as they failed to move the ball on the opening possession and had to punt. Emporia State scored on its fourth play on a 52 yard pass play.

Later in the same quarter Emporia State scored on a seven yard run. Then with just over two minutes remaining in the opening stanza, the Hornets returned a Wayne State punt 67 yards for their third touchdown and a 21-0 lead after one.

The Hornets added 10 more points in the second quarter to take a 31-0 lead into intermission. Defensively for the Wildcats, Chris Matzen led the charge. Matzen recorded 14 total tackles and had two passes broken up and a fumble recovery.

Tony Wiese notched 13 total tackles while Rony Woodard managed ten. Glen Suttan was in on eight tackles and intercepted an Emporia State pass. Cordell Gregory, Paul Parker and Joel Ott were all in on five tackles.

David Gerkin recorded Wayne State's only quarterback sack of the game. Wayne State will return home this weekend for homecoming with Fort Hays State.

Three Important Medicine Labels

The small labels attached to many prescription containers are called auxiliary labels. These are provided in addition to the prescription label to help clarify directions and improve therapy. Four commonly used auxiliary labels include:

Take With Food or Milk: Certain medicines may irritate the stomach lining, resulting in nausea, heartburn, gas pain, or indigestion. Food or milk may provide protection against such irritation by preventing significant changes in stomach acidity and by diluting the medicine.

May Discolor Urine or Feces: Some dye-containing medicines that are used to relieve the symptoms of urinary tract infections will color the urine blue-green. Iron supplements may darken the stool. Red or orange urine may result from tranquilizers, antibiotics, or blood thinners.

Drink Plenty of Water While Taking This Medication: Water is needed to help prevent certain medicines from forming crystals in the urinary tract, which could result in kidney damage. Water also aids the swallowing of tablets and capsules.

Wayne golfers victorious

After a disappointing showing at the Wayne Girls Golf Invitational a little over a week ago, the Wayne linksters have bounced back to win their last couple of meets. The locals defeated Columbus Scotus in a dual the Monday following the Invite, and Monday afternoon, Wayne won a triangular with foes Columbus Lakeview and Stanton.

Wayne's fivesome of Ann Perry, Holly Palge, Jill Jordan, Cher Reeg and Jessica Rothfuss combined the top four scores to break the 200 barrier, something head coach Dick Metfeer would like to see his squad do in every outing.

Incidentally, the linksters' best outing of the season was the 194 they carded in their first outing against Norfolk.

Ann Perry took medalist honors in the triangular with a 44. Teammate Holly Paige however, did not stray too far as she finished second to Perry with a 46. Jill Jordan fired a 51 for the Blue Devils while Cher Reeg and Jessica Rothfuss tied with 57's each.

All that remains now for the Lady Blue Devils is district competition which begins this Thursday in Columbus. "There will be some pretty solid competition at districts," Metfeer said. "We figure Blair, Columbus Lakeview, Omaha Duchesne and ourselves to be the front runners."

Metfeer was quick to point out however, that none of the 10 teams competing at districts is a pushover.

"Only the top three teams qualify for state," Metfeer said. "So we will have to golf up to our potential to qualify."

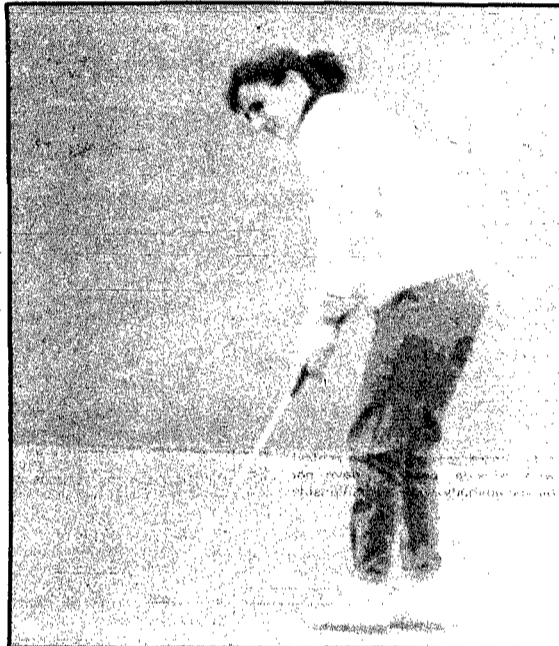

Incidentally, the top ten individual scores will also qualify for state competition. State golf tournament for Class B is slated for Lincoln's Mahoney Park a week from this Thursday, October 13.

Other teams in competition with Wayne at districts include Columbus Lakeview, Blair, Columbus Scotus, Eikhorn, Omaha Duchesne, Schuyler, Stanton, Valley, and Wahoo.

Wayne native wins Wayne Herald contest

Alvin Meyer

Alvin Meyer of Wayne was this week's Wayne Herald football contest winner. Meyer like everyone else, missed the tie game between Michigan State and Iowa, but the only other game he missed on the sheet was the Ohio State loss to Illinois. Meyer was the only entrant to miss only two games. However, second place in the contest had to be decided by the tie-breaker. Nine entrants missed three games and through the tie-breaker system, Dwayne Hedell of West Point emerged victorious over the other eight.

Hedell, if you recall, won the first week's contest and had rebounded a couple of weeks later to place second. Hedell edged Wayne's Margaret Schram by nine yards to earn the runner up prize.

Hedell missed on the tie between Michigan State and Iowa, Ohio State and Illinois, and LSU's loss to Florida. Schram incidentally, missed the same three games.

Others missing only three games were Todd Koeber, Ann Perry, Allen Hansen and Jason Johs of Wayne, Mary Ann Lillibe of West Point, Bill McQuistan of Pender, and Dean Rickett of Ponca.

Good luck to everyone on this week's contest!

JV's romp Schuyler

One might think that the Wayne junior varsity football team showed no mercy on their counterparts from Schuyler on Monday afternoon in Wayne, as the Blue Devils rolled to an impressive 41-0 victory.

However, while Wayne was advancing its record to 3-0 on the season, they scored 35 first half points and only one touchdown after that.

"Once again we were totally outnumbered by the other team," coach Ron Carnes said. "We suited up around 16 while Schuyler had at least 30."

At any rate, Wayne jumped out to a 28-0 lead after the first quarter. The Blue Devils amassed 326 yards rushing and 53 passing to finish with 379. Four Wayne gridgers gained at least 50 yards rushing.

The foursome was led by Corey Wieseler's 74 yards rushing. Others over 50 included Greg DeMaeyer, Mike Hillier and Chris Fredrickson. Matt Bruggeman recorded all the extra points on touchdowns.

Hillier led the Blue Devils with a pair of touchdowns while Fredrickson, Wieseler, Craig Dyer and Brian Moore each found paydirt once.

Jess Thompson, Chris Fredrickson, Brian Moore and Corey Wieseler led the Wayne attack on defense. Wayne has two more games scheduled in the junior varsity portion of the season which guarantees them a winning season.

The locals will travel to West Point on Monday night for a 6:30 p.m. contest. The last game is slated for Monday, October 17, in Wayne at 5 p.m. against Pierce.

Wayne spikers win Tilden Invite again

The Blue Devil spikers have been struggling this season to gain some kind of consistency in their game. Head coach Marlene Uhing was hoping her squad could gain some momentum heading into last weekend's Invitational at Tilden.

Wayne, winners of the Invitational the past two seasons was again expected to challenge for top honors. The Blue Devils expectations became reality as they captured the Tilden Invitational for the third consecutive year.

Wayne defeated Humphrey in the first round, 15-11, 15-13, and then disposed of Madison in straight sets, 15-6, 15-6. The Madison match was kind of a revenge match for Wayne, as Madison had dumped the Blue Devils in Wayne's own tournament a week earlier.

In Wayne's match with Humphrey, Uhing felt her squad played just well enough to win. "We missed some serves and I thought we played well at times, but it seemed like we just excelled enough to win," Uhing said.

Dana Nelson led the passers in the game with a .833 percentage. Rachel Haase and Teresa Ellis led the servers as Haase managed 10 points on one ace and Ellis, nine points on one ace.

Nelson led the spikers with four kill spikes while Kristy Hansen led in setting with three assists. Betsy Lebsack had four blocks to lead Wayne in that category.

Against Madison Dana Nelson was once again the leading passer while in the spiking area, all of the girls recorded a kill spike and Uhing was especially pleased with the minimal errors the Blue Devils suffered.

Nelson scored 10 points for Wayne while Kristy Hansen notched seven. Both Kristy Hansen and Teresa Ellis had a pair of assists in setting while Karmyn Koening recorded three blocks on defense.

"Overall I thought our communication on the court was the best I had seen all year," Uhing said. "The girls all gave support to who ever came in off the bench."

sophisticated vehicles that need to be put together like model cars and carry features such as fully independent suspension, oil dampener, adjustable spring rate or limited slip differential.

THESE CARS cars sell anywhere from $60 to $200. If anyone would prefer a kit with a battery and charger, they are looking at the $300 price range, according to Higbee.

"But the benefits of the cars are that parents can get involved with their children in putting together and operating the cars," Higbee said.

"The children get a chance to understand the workings of a car — what turns what," he said. "They also find out that if they do not maintain their car, they usually won't be able to race it."

"Most of radio control car racing is not for money. Basically the rewards are a trophy or ribbon and the excitement of being a winner."

Being a member of a radio control car club has many advantages, Higbee mentioned. Some of those include:

- Promoting the radio control car racing events.
- Pooling ideas to help those who want to get involved in radio car racing, keeping them from the mistake of purchasing a racing car for the wrong purpose.
- Getting together on a periodic basis and helping out with racing tips.
- Helping to assemble cars from kits or with paint jobs.
- Or traveling in the winter, possibly to Omaha where they can race on an indoor carpet track as a team.

HIGBEE SAID there is no cost to join the club. The fee charge for races, he said, is $3.

During the races, the drivers control their vehicles through the course in four minutes. The car that comes over the finish line first with the most laps within four minutes wins the race.

There are qualifying heats. Higbee said each of the drivers race their vehicle a minimum of three to four times.

There are stock, hobby, 2-wheel and 4-wheel drive, modified stock, monster classes. The cars can be of one-tenth, one-twelfth, one eighth and one-fourth scale versions of off-road and on-road racers.

"I can still feel the excitement with each race. It doesn't matter if I win or lose. The only thing that irritates me is if my vehicle is not properly maintained and it quits on me," Higbee said.

"Even if you lose, you have a good time doing it," he said.

Higbee said there are radio control racing tracks in Merrill, Iowa; Oakland, Nebraska; a dirt track in Omaha and Nebraska City; and carpet tracks in Omaha and Lincoln.

THIS SUNDAY (Oct. 9), Higrubee Speedway is closing out the 1988 off-road one-tenth scale radio control racing season with an event at the local track near Pac 'N' Save. Purpose of the event is also to promote radio control car racing.

"We want people to come out here and look. We would like them to know we are forming a club promoting radio control car racing," Higbee said.

Prizes will be awarded "olympic style" from Higrubee Speedway (gold, silver and bronze medals) to the top three finishers in the main races. Entry fee is $3 per car. The track will open at 11 a.m. and races start at 2 p.m.

Float

with drop panels at the sides and rear of the trailer.

APPLICATION FORMS with complete contest details are available at the Wayne Chamber Office, First National Bank, State National Bank, Sav-Mor Pharmacy, Griess Rexall Pharmacy, The Diamond Center, Carhart Lumber Co., Wayne Greenhouse and Pamida.

Completed applications must be in the Chamber office, 108 West Third St., no later than 4 p.m. on Monday, Oct. 31.

Cramer said all applications submitted to the Wayne Area Chamber of Commerce become the sole property of the Chamber, and designs will not be returned.

He added that the Chamber also reserves the right to alter or modify the winning design to adapt to the construction of the float.

The winning design will be announced on Monday, Nov. 7.

SERVING WITH Cramer on the Ambassador float committee are Bud Froehlich, Carolyn Vakoc, Linda Brown, Jim Remick, Phil Kloster and Grant Ellingson.

Flag thefts reported

Authorities are continuing to investigate the thefts of flags from public and private grounds that occurred last week in Wayne.

Sometime between last Thursday evening and early Friday morning, the cords which hoists the flag to the top of the tall poles at the Wayne County Courthouse and Wayne City Hall were cut and the U.S. and state flags were stolen.

Also at the courthouse, flying with the other flags, was a POW/MIA (Prisoner of War — Missing in Action) flag that was recently presented to the Wayne County Commissioners several weeks ago.

The police department reported two other incidents of flag stealing around the Wayne residential area.

Patrol investigates accident

The Highway Patrol investigated an accident that occurred Tuesday around 5:15 p.m. approximately 3 1/2 miles north of Wayne.

A car, driven by Beth Stoltenberg of Wayne was heading north when Stoltenberg attempted to pass a tractor and wagon being driven by David Draghu of rural Wayne.

She noticed another car and applied her brakes to get back into the north lane. Her car hit the right rear of the wagon filled with soybeans, nearly totaling out the left side of her vehicle.

She was taken to Providence Medical Center where she was treated for lung and left knee contusions, according to the accident report. The report said that Draghu suffered no serious injury from the incident.

Agreement

interest or have agreed to the centralized juvenile detention facility include Antelope, Boone, Brown, Burt, Cedar, Colfax, Cuming, Dakota, Dixon, Holt, Knox, Madison, Nance, Pierce, Platte, Stanton, Thurston and Washington. All these counties, including Wayne, combined last year for a total of 327 juvenile bookings.

JANSSEN SAID he tallied the juvenile bookings of the above-mentioned counties, average stay in jail by the juveniles, per diem costs and each county's share of the match. Wayne County would still come out ahead by nearly $12,701, according to his figures.

"And even if we cut our jail population in half [the jail facility currently has a maximum capacity of 20], we would still break even," Janssen said.

Pospishil asked if that excess amount could be used to transport prisoners, stating that the Cuming County transports adult prisoners to other facilities at $10,000 a month and Blair transports prisoners at almost $12,000 monthly.

Beiermann asked Janssen about the liability issue in regard to Wayne County becoming a central detention facility for juveniles. Janssen, after talking to the county's insurance carrier, said there would be no liability. However, Beiermann said he had talked with the same carrier who informed him that liability "would be higher because there is higher risk on juveniles and there would be more numbers at the facility."

County Attorney Bob Ensz and Janssen were asked to obtain a written statement from Warnemunde Insurance of Winside concerning the liability increase. Ensz said he can't see counties requesting "exemptions from liabilities."

Under the agreement, liability increases would be addressed by the joint board, he said.

ENSZ SAID he doesn't believe Wayne County will experience any increased liability. The decision on the grant money for the project is the biggest stumbling block, he said.

Pospishil mentioned he anticipates that in the future there will be a juvenile detention center built in the area. "This is just a starting point," Pospishil said.

He asked if Wayne County could contract with counties outside the northeast Nebraska district.

Janssen replied that if there were beds available in the jail facility, they could accept out-of-district prisoners, but the counties would be paying a higher per diem cost.

Pospishil asked why other counties across the state were not taking any action in regard to the Federal Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention Act which necessitates the establishment of separate juvenile detention facilities. The law was passed to eliminate the jailing of juveniles in adult jails and must be in place after Dec. 8 of this year.

"Everyone thinks that something ought to be done. But nobodys doing anything about it," Janssen said. "The whole project involves a lot of people. This will tide us over until something else comes up."

"Too bad this has to be on the taxpayers' backs," said Pospishil. "I don't like it."

HOWEVER, HE made the motion to approve the resolution subject to the grant approval.

Nissen seconded the motion, adding that he didn't want Wayne County "holding the bag" should things not work out as planned.

Beiermann voted against the proposal, saying that "there too many unanswered questions."

Some of those questions, Beiermann said, dealt with the tutoring of the juveniles while they were held in detention.

"I think the horse is on the wrong end of the cart," Beiermann said.

Dear Wayne High supporters:

Many of you may have noticed that the Wayne High School students are not in charge of the concessions at their home football games this year. The concession proceeds have previously been used by the junior class to support their Junior-Senior Prom. Since we have a high school junior, we were curious to find out why they would give up this large part of their class funds.

The response from two school board members was that the concessions had been taken from Wayne High because of a contract between the college and private business. It was also indicated that the privilege of using the college football field was a delicate situation and giving up the concessions was of little concern to them in view of losing the use of the football field entirely.

An oral agreement between Wayne High and the concessionaire indicates that Wayne High may receive 12.5% of the gross sales from their games. This is also the amount the college receives at their games. What a far cry from the approximate 50% of the gross sales that they have earned in the past by having their own concessions! Can any local business concern need money so badly that they have to take it away from the high school students?

Wondering why the college had the authority to award Wayne High concessions to a private concessionaire after all these years, the head of the Wayne State Athletic Department was contacted. It was at this time that we learned that the concessionaire would accept the contract for the college athletic events only if the Wayne High School football concessions were included!

The following questions are of great concern to us as we hope they are to you.

1. Is it fair for the concessionaire to demand that Wayne High give up its concessions?
2. Is it right for Wayne State College to assign the concession rights of Wayne High?
3. If Wayne State College can contract the concessions, can they also contract the referees for Wayne High games?
4. Did Wayne High officials agree to this contract under threat of losing the use of the football field?
5. Why wouldn't the concessionaire accept Wayne State College activities only?
6. Is it possible that Wayne High's athletic events are more profitable than Wayne State's?
7. Does the fact that the concessionaire is a member of Wayne State College faculty raise any questions?
8. Is this Wayne State College's answer to community relations?

As it now stands, Wayne State College has a contract with the Dairy Queen of Wayne for the sole concession rights at all athletic activities on the college campus through 1991! Although this may be a perfectly legal and binding contract, we question the judgement, ethics and the sense of fair play of both parties. WE have therefore spent our last dollar at the Dairy Queen/W.C. Corn!

Appreciation

The Wayne Lions Club would like to thank the various groups in the community who helped make their annual Halloween Candy Sales a success this past weekend.

First we thank all the Wayne residents who supported our project by buying the candy. The proceeds have been designated to support the Quest Program which is being introduced in the Wayne Middle School this year.

We also thank the Wayne Herald, radio station KTCH, and the First National Bank for their news releases and articles and public service announcements informing the public of our project.

And we thank Pamida Inc. for supplying us with the bulk candy at cost and the Wayne Vet's Club for providing the facilities to sack the candy.

And of course we thank the Lions Club members and friends who sacked the candy and who went out and sold the candy this past Sunday and Monday.

HOMECOMING

The 1988 Homecoming royalty candidates disclosed at the Pep Rally held last Tuesday afternoon are Queen: Toni Boyle, daughter of Michael and Sheryl Boyle; Candace Jones, daughter of Wayne and Merna Jones; and Melissa Martinson, daughter of Barry and Linda Martinson. King: Tyler Harder, son of Lee and Audrey Harder; Kurt Lund, son of Duane and Barbara Lund; and Jim Preston, son of Michael and Donna Preston. Mistress of Ceremonies is Amy Noe, daughter of Robert and Ellen Noe, and Master of Ceremonies is Greg Stapleton, son of Jim and Carol Jean Stapleton. Junior Escorts are Leslie Isom, Jennifer Lee, Carrie Smith, Kelly Boswell, Kent Chase and Matt Hingst. From the kindergarten class are crown bearer, Micky Oldenkamp, son of Mark and Vicky Oldenkamp, and flower girl Melissa Wilmes, daughter of Tim and Kathy Wilmes. From the first grade are crownbearer Randy Sullivan, son of Randy and Laura Sullivan, and flower girl Alaina Bupp, daughter of Richard and Vicki Bupp. The royalty will be crowned at a ceremony at 2 p.m. The public is invited to attend. The community is invited to participate in the parade to follow. If you have an entry contact Mr. Kumm at the school or students Todd Hohnstein or Ben Jackson in charge.

ELF EXTENSION CLUB

ELF Extension Club met Friday afternoon at the home of Fran Schubert with 10 members present and answering roll call with what my home means to me. Pearl Snyder, president, opened the meeting with a poem. Reports were given on the extension meeting for all county council members and presidents. Accomplishments were reported in reading and exercise by club members to be reported to the county. Lessons for the coming year were voted upon. Election of officers was held with Mary Lou Koester, President, Shirley Lanser, Vice President, Evelyn Trube, Secretary, and Fran Schubert, Treasurer.

HOT LUNCH WEEK

The school staff invite everyone to help celebrate National Hot Lunch Week by eating lunch at school between Oct. 9 and 15. The theme this year is "School Lunch, Your Harvest of Health." You are asked to notify the office by 9 a.m. if you wish to eat lunch with them on a certain day. The cost for an adult lunch is $1.25.

BENEFIT

The community of Allen raised over $600 at the pancake breakfast held Sunday morning for the Sharon Greenleaf family. Mrs. Greenleaf has purchased a trailer home to be placed on the farm site where their home was burned to the ground several weeks ago. Living at home with their mother are Bonnie, a junior, and Clifford, a freshman, at the Allen school.

LIBRARY FOUNDATION

The Board of Directors of Graves Public Library Foundation held its second annual meeting on Sept. 26.

At its annual meeting, the foundation elected officers for its forthcoming fiscal year, running Oct. 1, 1988, through Sept. 30, 1989. Proposals for funding of special projects to improve the library were considered.

Officers and members of the Graves Library Foundation are Mike Salmon, president; Christine Wilbur, vice president; Mary Brudigam, secretary; Roy Wiggins, treasurer; Iris Larson, Marian Christensen, Valerie Bard, Robert Blachford, Roberta Engstedt, Jim Clark, Mary Kay Oite and Sharon Crossdale.

The foundation is in the process of submitting its application to the IRS for tax-exempt status as a non-profit.

community betterment and civic organization. IRS approval of the application will make contributions to the foundation tax exempt.

The foundation invites suggestions from the general public as to projects the foundation might fund which would benefit the library. The foundation also encourages generous donors to contribute either presently or through a bequest to the Graves Library Foundation to help it carry out its purposes of promoting and enhancing Graves Public Library.

WSC concert band on radio

In October, Public Radio KWIT-FM 90 presents various classical and jazz ensembles on its programs of regional performers, underwritten in part by the Iowa Arts Council and the National Endowment for the Arts. Siouxland Concert airs Sundays at 3 p.m. The Wayne State College Concert Band will air on Oct. 9 (recorded on April 26) at that time.

Church music workshop

A workshop designed to assist persons working in church music is scheduled Oct. 14-15 at Trinity Episcopal Church in Norfolk. The workshop begins Friday evening, 7:30, with an anthem reading session. All interested persons are invited to sing and need not register if they are attending only the Friday evening session. The workshop continues Saturday with sessions for adult choir directors, organists, and children and youth choir directors. The final session Saturday afternoon will include a hymn string featuring old and new ideas for revitalizing hymn singing in the church. Pre-registration is encouraged and the pre-registration workshop fee is $35 per person. Three persons attending from the same church may attend for the price of two. Persons from small churches and churches with modest resources are especially encouraged to attend. For more information or to register by phone, call Michele Deaton, School of Music at 402/472-2503 or Orvid Owens at 402/466-9340.

Berry completes NROTC orientation

Robert Berry, son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Berry of Wakefield, is one of 76 freshmen who have completed Naval Reserve Training Corps (NROTC) Orientation week at the University of Nebraska-Lincoln. The students will begin a four-year course of study leading to a degree and commissioning as Ensigns in the U.S. Navy or as Second Lieutenants in the U.S. Marine Corps.

Garlick presents paper

Maestro Antony Garlick, professor of music at Wayne State College, recently attended Cornell University as a visiting scholar where he presented a paper titled, "Melody as a Dramatic and Expressive Element in Mozart's Operas." He has been commissioned by the music faculty of Northwest Missouri State University in Maryville, Mo., to write an original work for voice (tenor), oboe, organ, and strings to be performed later this year. Garlick has also been invited to perform in a recital at Northwest Missouri State during which he will play his Sonata da Chiesa for oboe and organ.

Gross awarded scholarship

The Winthrop and Frances Lane Foundation this month awarded $80,000 in one-year scholarships to the University of Nebraska College of Law and Creighton University. University of Nebraska College of Law first year student Francine Gross of Wayne was among the recipients of the scholarships.

Band enjoys role at Emporia

Wayne State band director, Gary Davis, says the marching band's trip last weekend to Emporia State evolved into much more than just supporting the football team. "It was a great trip," Davis said. "It was kind of an ambassador of goodwill trip. There are good feelings between the two schools. They were all very pleased with what they saw from Wayne State College. I think that's part of the ambassadorship that is often overlooked." Davis said the Emporia State marching band has struggled the past few years, much like Wayne State's did several years ago. But Emporia band leaders were encouraged by the Wildcat's marching band because they observed the progress it's made the past couple of years. Now they have hope, Davis said. Following the ballgame, the band traveled to Kansas City for a Sunday visit to World's of Fun. "This was reward for them," Davis said. "They've really worked hard, and they deserved a reward."

by Pat Meierhenry

What a gorgeous day! And on a Saturday, too. I've logged four miles today and could do four more; if I didn't have things like laundry, shopping, and baking interfering. It's been such a long, hectic week, I was even glad to do those things. The crickets have subsided, and the boxelder bugs are moving in. We grilled steaks this noon, and the little buggers were all over the east and south sides of the house. I drove in rain on Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday evenings, which gets very old. Then, on Friday, it was foggy when I went to work. Naturally, I left my lights on. Friday was not a good day. I also tried to mail my pay check. I had a handful of letters to mail in the box in the hospital lobby. I stopped in Personnel and picked up my check, then headed for the box. I pulled down the lid, put my letters in, turned around, heard the lid bang, and yelled, "Oh, no! I just mailed my check!" Fortunately, I have friends in high places. The Postmaster's wife works at the hospital, and she called for assistance. Turns out I am not the only idiot in the world; they've had to rescue checks before.

It's THE LAST night of the Olympics. I haven't had time to see much of them. We continue to marvel at Jackie Joyner-Kersey and Florence Griffith Joyner—what amazing ladies. The U.S. had never won a medal in kayaking; and got two gold yesterday. I felt bad for the men's basketball and the 4x100 relay, and cheered for the women's basketball team and men's volleyball. I hated to see Carl Lewis get beat, but didn't want him to get the gold because of steroids either. It all makes quite a show. When someone calls and says they've had a hard time catching us home, I wonder again if we should get an answering machine. I heard a funny story at work about one.

This couple had a pre-recorded message by Flip Wilson on their machine. It featured "Geraldine" at her best, inviting the caller to leave a message. They left on vacation. When they returned, they found there were so many messages, they had run out of tape. But when they ran the tape, they heard lots of giggles and very few words. Finally, a relative clued them in. He worked at Gillette Dairy and overheard one of the drivers giving out a phone number, saying the recipient should call it just for fun. When he told the fellow he knew whose phone number it was, he learned that it was being passed around at Hy-Vee, too! All told, my friend counted 100 calls, 19 legitimate, before the tape ran out. I guess folks are just needing some good laughs. The last of the wedding gifts went to South Dakota today. Now I have no excuse for not tackling fall cleaning. But first we have to wash the car and mow the lawn. All the rain has resulted in more work. I've seen a lot of pheasants lately. There were four deer in the ditch by North Bend Wednesday eve. The trees are turning color. The beans are dry. Combines and pickers are lumbering down the roads. Pumpkins and scarecrows are beginning to appear. It's October.

DID YOU KNOW THAT...

- 2.2 million children were reported abused and neglected in 1986. This represents an increase of 90 percent since 1981.
- There were 1,200 fatalities from child abuse and neglect in 1986. This is an increase of 23 percent over 1985.
- Approximately 1.8 million women are victims of domestic violence each year. It is estimated that 40 percent of the children of victims of spousal abuse are also abused.
- Between 1.2 and 1.5 million children run away from home each year. One third of these children are fleeing from physical and sexual abuse and 40 percent from other family problems.
- An estimated 7.5 million children and adolescents are in need of mental health services. Three million suffer from serious emotional problems.
- Youths who by age 18 have the weakest reading and math skills are: 9 times more likely to drop out of school before graduation; 8 times more likely to have children out of wedlock; 5 times more likely to be out of work and out of school.
- Poor teens are four times as likely to have poor basic skills as teens with family incomes above the poverty guidelines.
- 700,000 students ages 14 and older drop out of school each year.
- Each day 2,800 teenagers become pregnant (2,300 of the pregnancies are unintended); 1,300 children are born to teenage mothers. Eight hundred of these mothers have not completed high school; 100 have not completed the ninth grade.
- 40 percent of teenage girls who drop out of school do so as a result of pregnancy or marriage.

Cards of Thanks

THANK YOU to my friends for all the cards, visits, food and phone calls I received while I was in the hospital and since returning home. A special thank you to Maynard and Marie Hansen and Lois Stapleton, for their many acts of kindness. Wanda Van Cleave. 06

A SPECIAL thank you to everyone who took part in making my retirement such a happy and memorable occasion. It was very much appreciated. Tubby Blatchford. 06

THANK YOU fellow carpenters and those who helped in any way with the shingling project last weekend. The news we hear from home on this unique project has been truly overwhelming. The last week has been a turning point in my recovery from the bone marrow transplant and I am out of the hospital. I will stay in Rochester for another week or two on an out-patient basis. I am looking forward to my return to Wayne and to hear of the camaraderie that took place. Thank you for your generosity. Ron VonSeggern. 06

THANK YOU for making our anniversary such a special one with your presence, cards and gifts. Edwin and Mildred Fahrenholz, Allen.

WE WOULD like to thank all our relatives and friends for helping us during our sale and while moving. Herman Galtje. 06

I WISH TO thank everyone for their prayers, visits, flowers, and cards, while I was in the hospital and since I returned home. Your thoughtfulness will always be remembered. Lloyd Behmer. 06

THANK YOU for all the cards, gifts, flowers, & visits while I was hospitalized. Anne Keating. 06

MY-APPRECIATION goes to all my friends, neighbors, and relatives for the visits, cards, flowers, and gifts I received while at Marion Health Center in Sioux City. Also to all who brought food to my home. To Robert Greenwald for the many trips he made in my behalf and for his presence the morning of the surgery. To Doctors Stavens, Roman, and Wanner, the fine nurses and staff of the hospital. To the clergy for the prayers and concern for me-May the Lord bless you all for your thoughtfulness, and many thanks again. Ronald Greenwald. 06

The GOLDEN YEARS

If you will be 60 or over in the year 2000, you will have plenty of company. The total United States population in that year will be about 280-million, according to United States Census Bureau projections. (In 1900, it was only 76-million.) Contributing to the population growth is longer life spans. In its projections for the year 2000, the Census Bureau estimates there will be about 20 million Americans in their sixties, and 26 million aged 70 or older.

Jane Scott, at 68, is going strong as a music critic for the Cleveland Plain Dealer. Her beat is rock music, dating back to covering the Beatles in 1964. She shares her appreciation of rock, not with her contemporaries, but with their children. Rock music, she says, has everything - "freshness, rhythm and excitement."

Remember When? September 2, 1930, three years after Lindbergh's pioneer transatlantic flight, two Frenchmen became the first to do it in reverse. Pilot Dieudonne Costa and copilot Maurice Bellonte flew nonstop from Paris to New York in 37 hours, 18 1/2 minutes.

Presented as a public service to our senior citizens, and the people who care about them by the Wayne Care Centre, 918 Main Street, Wayne, Nebraska 68787.
