Support group

A Parent Support Group meeting for parents of middle school-age students and interested patrons has been set for Monday, Oct. 24 from 8 to 9 p.m. in the Wayne-Carroll High School Lecture Hall.

The Parent Support Group was formed to bring in guest speakers to address topics concerning the adolescent. Some parents have expressed an interest in this being available to that they can get assistance in working with their children as they go through the very difficult adolescent years.

Guest speakers will give a formal talk for approximately 30 minutes on such topics as parenting skills, nutrition, stress, suicide and other subjects. This will be followed by a question-answer period. The speaker will be available after the formal session to talk with small groups or individuals.

The first speaker for this program will be Jo Anne Owens-Nauslar from the Nebraska State Department of Education.

Store purchase

The Allen Village Board has purchased the former Drug Store building with plans to remodel it for the village office and to house the Springbank Township Library.

A spokesman for the board said work has begun and volunteers are needed to assist with various projects and painting.

Residents of the community interested in assisting with the remodeling project are asked to contact committee members Clair Schubert, Rob Bock, Jerry Schroeder, Pearl Synder of Jackie Mitchell.

Marching on

Wayne-Carroll's high school marching band will participate in marching competition sponsored by the Nebraska State Bandmaster's Association on Saturday, Oct. 22 at Memorial Stadium in Lincoln.

Band director Brad Weber said the Wayne band is scheduled to perform at 10:45 a.m. Other bands competing in the same class include Schuyler, Ashland-Greenwood, Auburn, Wahoo, Minden, Raymond Central, Norris High School, North Bend Central and Fort Calhoun.

The competition is open to the public. Admission is $3 for adults and $2 for students.

Police patrol

The Wayne Police Department has invited sixth grade students to attend the 20th annual Junior Police Patrol at the police department one Thursday every month from 7:30 to 9 p.m.

The schedule is: Thursday, Oct. 20 (What the Police Do); Nov. 17 (Emergency Preparedness); Dec. 8 (Basics of First Aid); Jan. 19 (Crime Prevention); Feb. 16 (Traffic Safety); March 16 (Alcohol, Drugs and Tobacco); and April 20 (Juvenile Delinquency).

Area responds to VonSeggern benefit

By Chuck Hackenmiller
Managing Editor

Up to 2,000 people or more poured into Wayne Sunday, providing a healthy portion of generosity — all in an effort to make "Ron VonSeggern Day" a successful event.

Pat Gross, co-chairman of the event along with Mark Ahmann and Maynard Warne, said that almost $15,266 was raised during "Ron VonSeggern Day" activities and during events which took place prior to Sunday.

Gross was extremely pleased with the contribution amount. "I think there is one thing that should be mentioned. A community can be measured by its generosity. And the community of Wayne, and the whole northeast Nebraska area, responded," Gross said.

St. Mary's Parish of Wayne coordinated the event. However, other organizations, agencies and individuals played a key role in making the event a success.

"In a way, it makes you really enjoy living here," Gross said.

THE PRE-SUNDAY activities had included contributions made at both the State National Bank and the First National Bank, both in Wayne; and a roof construction project on a condominium located on West 14th Street. The many construction workers re-shingled the roof in two days and donated their $2,291 worth of labor to the "Ron VonSeggern Day" fund.

Then last Saturday, high school students raised $339 with a car wash at the Dairy Queen parking lot in Wayne.

Sunday started off with a pancake and sausage breakfast, sponsored by Wayne County Lutheran Brotherhood Branch 8212 at the city auditorium. The pancake feed drew $2,910 in donations and the Lutheran Brotherhood match was $650.

A bake sale took place at the auditorium throughout Sunday, raising $782. The auditorium prize drawings netted approximately $1,165.

Winners were: Figurine "It's A Miracle" — Marian Jensen (VonSeggern's mother); Greeting Phone — Tom Kramer; Mr. and Mrs. Santa Claus figures — Jeremy Meyer; Ducks Unlimited Picture — Les Thompson; Antique Rifle — Pat Finn; Whole Hog and four pounds of lard — Ralph Olson; Quilt — Lee Tiengen; and the Console Television Set — Steve Muir.

A trap shoot at the Wayne County Fairgrounds took place Sunday afternoon, sponsored by the Logan Valley Gun Club. The trap shoot and grand prize drawing brought in $1,829.

A BARBECUE took place later Sunday afternoon and early evening, sponsored by the Knights of Columbus with assistance from the Shriners and Boy Scouts. Another $2,374 in free will offerings was received.

The final event on Sunday was a square dance, sponsored by the Leather and Lace Square Dance Group. The event drew many square dancers from around the Wayne area and as far as Yankton, South Dakota. Through the square dance and prize drawings, $770 was raised, bringing the total amount contributed for "Ron VonSeggern Day" to $15,266.

Gross said the events on Sunday represented various facets of life which Ron VonSeggern and his family enjoys. "The day involved so many people. Everyone did their own thing, and they did it together," Gross said.

Some other organizations he mentioned included St. Mary's Men's Club and Ladies Guild, St. Mary's School and teachers, Wayne State Newman Club and the many people

Board rescinds earlier motion on central jail

By Chuck Hackenmiller
Managing Editor

Wayne County's Board of Commissioners will be looking at other alternatives in housing juvenile offenders.

During a Tuesday meeting, the commissioners unanimously voted to rescind a previous motion which would have allowed Wayne County's jail to become a centralized juvenile detention facility for a 23-county northeast Nebraska area.

The Oct. 4 motion, which was passed after being approved by Commissioners Gerald Pospishil and Robert Nissen and was voted down by Merlin Beiermann, carried a stipulation. Passage of the motion was subject to the Nebraska State Crime Commission's approval of the $159,377 in juvenile justice grant funds requested earlier by Wayne County.

Three days after the motion was approved, the State Crime Commission review committee conducted a hearing. At that hearing, they decided to recommend to the State Crime Commission that $125,000 in grant funds be allocated to Wayne instead of the $159,377 previously requested.

The State Crime Commission was to act on the review committee's recommendation at a Friday, Oct. 28 meeting in Lincoln.

BUT FOR now, the county's decision to host the juvenile detention facility has been withdrawn following Tuesday's vote to rescind the Oct. 4 motion originally made by Pospishil.

Several county citizens appeared before the county commissioners Tuesday morning during the commissioners' regular meeting. Most of them, when surveyed by Commissioner Pospishil, did not favor Wayne County hosting a juvenile detention facility.

Wayne County Sheriff LeRoy Janssen traced the origins of the juvenile detention facility proposal, beginning back to 1974 when the federal government came up with the juvenile justice act that dealt with juvenile delinquency programs.

Initially, monies were dished out to the state and used for administration purposes. It was several years ago, after a juvenile died in a jail in a nearby state, that getting states into compliance "came to light," Janssen said.

The state of Nebraska was informed that Dec. 8 was the deadline for counties to conform to the act which virtually says that juveniles are required to be sight and sound separated from adult inmates.

ONE OF THE options for Wayne County, to comply with the act, was to become a centralized juvenile detention facility for a 23-county area. The other alternative, Janssen said, was "to make our facility sight and sound separated from adults in the cells."

To do so, he said, would probably entail the installation of a wall down the middle of the county jail's cell area and do other types of remodeling. Janssen estimated that this could cost between $10,000 to $20,000.

He said four counties within the 23-county area of northeast Nebraska have said they would not participate in the centralized juvenile detention facility proposal. Eleven counties have signed contracts stating they would participate and the other eight counties have remained uncommitted.

Each of the counties would have been charged a base amount to participate in the program, based on the county's population. Plans were to charge each county $15 per diem for each prisoner housed in the Wayne County juvenile detention facility.

JANSSEN told the audience at Tuesday's meeting that the county's original grant request to the state crime commission was $115,000. That was changed when it was suggested that the amount be increased to $175,000 to allow for programs that must be administered to the juveniles. "So on Oct. 7 they recommended that we get $125,000," Janssen said.

Last year, the Wayne County Jail held four juveniles for 16 juvenile days, Janssen said.

Stan Baier, in the audience, said his concern is "government growing at the tremendous rate that it does." What he sees in the agreement that would involve 19 counties at one facility, are problems in transportation, inconvenience to juveniles who would be removed from families, and that juveniles would have less access to their attorneys. He suggested that the county commissioners consider the alternative of remodeling the present facility to take care of its own juveniles to keep in compliance with the act. He wondered if this would be more feasible in the long run.

JANSSEN WAS ASKED if money would be available to help finance the remodeling changes proposed to get only Wayne County into compliance.

Janssen replied that $259,000 is available from the state for assistance in bringing counties into compliance with the federal act. "There is not enough to go around and finance every operation," he said.

He said the centralized juvenile detention facility proposal "is not a long-term project and is no indication of what the future will be."

"If the state has a problem, then let them keep the problem," said Herman J. Luschen. He asked if the juveniles could be put under 'house arrest' and if a house instead could be rented to hold the county juveniles.

LIABILITY IS A concern if the county continues to jail juveniles with adult prisoners after the Dec. 8 deadline. Lawsuits could develop in regard to non-compliance if the county continued with its present jailing procedures, Janssen mentioned.

"There are no federal regulations saying that they are going to fine you $5,000 a day if you don't comply. But there is this threat of liability against us," he said.

Janssen added that it would more cost effective for the county jail to be completely full rather than a quarter-full of prisoners when considering heating or other fixed costs.

A question was raised from the audience about why other counties did not offer to host the centralized juvenile detention facility. Janssen said none of the other jails in the 23-county area could meet the standards of the juvenile detention facility. "There is no money available for new construction under this program, so the counties would have to come up with their own money," Janssen said.

Other reasons for the Wayne location, Janssen said, was the proximity of Wayne State College to the jail facility. Counseling services, on an internship basis, could be furnished by the college. There was also an

Chamber selects officers

The Wayne Area Chamber of Commerce Board of Directors announced the selection of three new directors for 1989.

They include Jim Markham of Peoples Natural Gas; Gene Fletcher of Fletcher Farm Service; and Ken Kwapioski of Godfather's Pizza.

They will begin their three year terms on Jan. 1, 1989. Fletcher, Markham and Kwapioski will be attending the Chamber Board Retreat on Wednesday, Nov. 16 along with the 1988 Board of Directors and council chairpeople.

Also at their October meeting, the Board of Directors selected 1989 officers. They include Brian McBride, McBride-Wiltse Mortuary, president; Jacques Kinnett, Dairy Queen, president-elect; and Fletcher, treasurer.

Other board members for 1989 are Joan Lage of First National Bank; Jeff Beckman of Wayne State College; Bill Jammer of Jammer Photography; and Mark Sorensen, State National Bank and Trust Company.

Great Dane announces acquisition of Timpfe

Harvey Granger, president of Great Dane Trailers, Inc., announced on Wednesday (Oct. 19) the acquisition of the Timpfe refrigerated trailer manufacturing plant in Wayne.

The Wayne plant employs approximately 270 people. "While no expansion is anticipated at this time, we plan to maintain the existing workforce and almost all of the management team," said Granger.

Ken Mendel, who has headed the manufacturing at the Wayne facility since September, 1986, has been appointed as plant manager. Great Dane is the second largest trailer builder in the United States with other manufacturing plants in Savannah, Georgia; Brazil; Indiana and Memphis, Tennessee.

Granger said that the addition of the Wayne facility brings together two ideally matched organizations whose refrigerated trailers have achieved a wide spread reputation for highest quality, durability and light weight.

"The Super Seal trailer, built in Wayne, will be an outstanding addition to the Great Dane line," he said.

Goals, purposes outlined

Woman's Club sponsors weekly chamber coffee

The Wayne Woman's Club held its monthly meeting on Oct. 14 and hosted the weekly Wayne Area Chamber of Commerce coffee in the Woman's Club room.

Attending the coffee were 58 Chamber members and 16 clubwomen.

The coffee was held to acquaint Chamber members with the goals and purposes of the Woman's Club for the betterment of the Wayne community.

PRESIDENT DOROTHY Grone spoke briefly on the history of the Woman's Club, which was formed with 36 charter members and was active long before joining the national federation in 1919.

In 1987, clubwomen voted to withdraw from the national federation because of the rising dues and distances required to attend meetings.

President Grone also talked about the many projects and organizations which have been assisted by the Woman's Club through donations received from rental of the Woman's Club room.

THE WOMAN'S CLUB sponsors scholarships for two girls to attend Wayne State College.

In addition, the club has made donations to the Wayne State Foundation, the Wayne Hospital Auxiliary, the Wayne County Historical Society, the Winside Historical Museum, the American Cancer Society and Heart Fund.

The club also has donated cash and food to the Wayne County Food Pantry and contacts approximately 60 clubs, churches, veterans and civic organizations each year to assist in providing Christmas gifts for residents of Wayne Care Center.

President Grone added that present club membership is down and new members are always welcome.

A BRIEF business meeting was conducted following the Chamber coffee.

The serving committee included Marian Jordan, chairman, Florence Rethwisch, Evelyn Kay and Helen Echtenkamp.

The next Woman's Club meeting will be Nov. 11. Guest speaker will be a representative of the veterans organizations.

Clara Spahr marking 85th

Clara Spahr of Wayne will celebrate her 85th birthday on Monday, Oct. 24.

An open house reception in her honor will be held Sunday, Oct. 23 from 2 to 4 p.m. in the Wayne Woman's Club room, located in Wayne city auditorium. All friends and relatives are invited.

The event is being hosted by her children and families, LeRoy and Gayle Spahr of Wayne and Lois and Claude Harder of Fremont.

Bridal Showers

Jennifer Benstead

Fifty-five guests from Sioux Falls, S.D.; Sioux City, Iowa; Concord, Allen, Laurel, South Sioux City and Wayne attended a bridal shower honoring Jennifer Benstead of Sioux Falls on Oct. 8 at the Concord Evangelical Free Church.

Miss Benstead, daughter of Wilmer and Joyce Benstead of Allen, and Doug Geigle, son of Lucille Geigle of Wall, S.D., will be married Nov. 5 at the Concord Evangelical Free Church.

Decorations for the bridal fete were in the honoree's chosen colors of teal and light pink. The program included devotions by Mrs. Evonne Erwin, a vocal solo, "Unfailing Love," sung by Sharon Boyesen, a pencil game conducted by Margie Kardell and Deanna Gunnarson, and prayer by Ave Olson. Diane Olson poured and Heather Benstead served punch.

Hostesses were Evonne Erwin, Carolyn Hanson and Ave Olson, all of Concord; Eleanor Carlson, Judy Carlson, Donna Forsberg, Mary Dahlquist, Betty Dahlquist, Lucille Carlson, Sharon Boyesen, Jan Kamrath and Margie Kardell, all of Laurel; Muriel Kardell of Dixon; and Deanna Gunnarson of Wayne.

Kimberly Mohr

October bride-elect Kimberly Mohr of South Sioux City, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Duane Mohr of Butte, was presented a miscellaneous shower on Oct. 9 at the Hoskins fire hall.

Hostesses were Mrs. Bill Willers of Stanton, and Mrs. Richard Doffin Sr. and Mrs. Lane Marolt, both of Hoskins. Twenty-five guests were present from Butte, Plainview, Norfolk, South Sioux City and Hoskins.

Decorations were in dusty rose and white, and contests provided entertainment. Elizabeth Gross assisted with gifts.

Miss Mohr and Joel Broekemeier, son of Mr. and Mrs. Orville Broekemeier of Norfolk, are planning an Oct. 29 wedding at Trinity Lutheran Church in Hoskins.

Centennial event

Mother-daughter banquet held at Redeemer Church

Nearly 200 persons attended a centennial mother-daughter banquet on Oct. 12 at Redeemer Lutheran Church in Wayne.

The meal was catered by Joyce and Herb Niemann and served by men of the church.

Toastmistress was Mrs. Mary deFreese. Mrs. Sandy Rothfuss gave a salute to daughters, Amy Wriedt read a salute to mothers, and Holly Holdorf presented a salute to grandmothers.

THE PROGRAM was entitled "Bits 'N Pieces" and included readings by Alma Geewe, Sandra Wriedt, Pauline Lutt, Roberta Carman, Erna Karel and Betty Heier.

Joni Holdorf, Donna Lutt and Jeanie Sturm sang "Side by Side." Guests also sang several selections, accompanied by Rae Kugler.

Rebecca Janssen October bride of Gary Schamp in Ord rites

Rebecca Janssen and Gary Schamp, both of Grand Island, exchanged marriage vows on Oct. 15 at St. John's Lutheran Church in Ord. Decorations were in teal and white, and the Rev. Paul Kern of Ord officiated at the 6:30 p.m., double ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Richard and Georgia Janssen of Winside. Parents of the bridegroom are Ben and Betty Schamp of Ord.

HONOR ATTENDANTS for the couple were Melinda Janssen Nuss of Ord and Jim Hoyt of Kansas City, Kan.

Bridesmaids were Sandra Totten of Kearney and Karmen West of Honolulu, Hawaii, and groomsmen were Randy Dwinell of Grand Island and Kevin Knapp of Ord.

Flower girl was Samijo Hruby of Arcadia, and ring bearer was Jonathan Nuss of Ord.

The bride's personal attendant was Kelly Brockman of Carroll.

GUESTS WERE registered by Karen Reeg of Norfolk and Jose Johnson of Ord, and ushered into the church by Marc Janssen of Winside, and Jim Connors, Jered Schamp and Benny Schamp, all of Ord.

Lighting candles were Jason and Lucas Shultheis of Carroll.

Sparks Pryess of Denver, Colo., sang "Forever and Ever Amen." Organist was Loretta Misko of Ord.

THE BRIDE WAS given in marriage by her father and appeared in a white satin and Venice lace gown in floor length with a chapel train.

The dress was designed with a fitted bodice, Queen Anne neckline and long Elizabethan sleeves, with a full skirt and tiers of Chantilly lace.

She wore a satin hat trimmed with Venice lace and pearls, and carried a bouquet of teal and white roses.

The bride's attendants wore satin teal frocks in tea length, fashioned with fitted bodices, open backs and cutout sweetheart necklines. They carried candles.

The men in the wedding party were attired in black tuxedos.

The bride's mother selected a wine lace and satin dress in tea length, and the bridegroom's mother chose a dusty rose satin dress in floor length.

FOLLOWING THE ceremony, a reception for 200 guests was held at the Ord Veteran's Club. Mark and Jill Bofenkamp of Omaha served as hosts, and Tammy Creek of Burwell arranged gifts.

The wedding cake was cut and served by Carla Oakeson of Columbus and Thelma Schamp of Ord. Jenni Topp of Winside poured, and Barb Dwinell and Tamson Dearmont of Scotia served punch.

Waitresses were Mandi Topp of Winside and Stephanie Oakeson of Columbus.

THE NEWLYWEDS ARE making their home at 1415 N. Webb Rd., Apt. 4, Grand Island, Neb.

The bride was graduated from Winside High School in 1985 and attended the University of Nebraska-Lincoln and Kearney State College.

The bridegroom was graduated from Ord High School in 1985 and is employed by Werner Construction in Grand Island.

Reception, dance honors Brummonds

Wayne residents Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Brummond celebrated their 60th wedding anniversary on Oct. 15 with an open house reception and dance held in the Wisner auditorium.

Hosting the event were Lester and Laura Beerbohm of Wisner and Wallace and Ann Breitbarth of Bancroft.

The couple's children served lunch and presented a program.

GRANDDAUGHTER Lynne Warfield of Bancroft, Mich., registered approximately 300 guests, attending from Long Beach, Calif.; Las Vegas, Nev.; Cheyenne, Wyo.; Colorado Springs, Colo.; St. Joseph, Mo.; Bancroft, Mich.; Sioux City, Iowa; Mound City, Kan.; Prairie Du Chien, Wisc., and several Nebraska communities.

Arranging gifts were great granddaughters Greta and Amy Howell of Bancroft, Mich.

Among those attending were the bridegroom's sister, Eleanor Carter of Wayne, and the bride's brother, Charles Jorgensen of Carroll, who were attendants at the wedding ceremony 60 years ago.

DAUGHTER MARILYN Ott was mistress of ceremonies for the program, which included introduction of immediate family members and a duet by Don and Larry Beerbohm.

The lunch was catered by Coleen Kloth of Wisner. Pearl Strudthoff of Wisner baked the anniversary cake, which was cut and served by Louise Brummond of Cheyenne, Wyo., and Connie Reimers of West Point.

Pouring coffee were Ann Breitbarth of Bancroft and granddaughters Cindy Brummond of Wayne and Jean Potts of Norfolk. Punch was served by Debra Reinhardt of Wayne, a granddaughter, and Joan Prather of Colorado Springs, Colo.

BRUMMONDS WERE married at Wayne on Dec. 12, 1928. They resided on a farm west of McLean for three years, on Wayne County farms for 12 years, and on a farm west of Pilger for 41 years, before moving to Wayne four years ago.

The couple's children are Duane Brummond of Norfolk, Marvin Brummond of Wayne, Marilyn Ott of Peoria, Ill., and Virgine Stuthman and Gary Brummond, both of Las Vegas, Nev.

There are 15 grandchildren and 10 great grandchildren.

Policy on Weddings

The Wayne Herald welcomes news accounts and photographs of weddings involving families living in the Wayne area. We feel there is widespread interest in local and area weddings and are happy to make space available for their publication. Because our readers are interested in current news, we ask that all weddings and photographs offered for publication be in our office within 10 days after the date of the ceremony. Information submitted with a picture after that deadline will not be carried as a story but will be used in a cutline underneath the picture. Wedding pictures submitted after the story appears in the paper must be in our office within three weeks after the ceremony. Wedding photos to be returned should include a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

WAYNE/CARROLL GIRLS GOLF TEAM STATE CHAMPIONS!

COACH DICK METTEER

Coach Dick Metteer realized that he had something special with a hard working group of girls this season. "I knew with three seniors on the team that we would have excellent leadership," Metteer said. "With each match we had, the leadership really came to the forefront."

Metteer noted that part of his coaching strategy was from the old adage of taking one match at a time. As far as Metteer knowing that his team had the capability to win the state championship, let's just say that after the first meet of the year with Norfolk when the Blue Devils defeated the Class A contenders, that his squad was well on its way to issuing a challenge to the rest of the Class B contenders.

"We aimed toward a high district finish at the beginning of the season," Metteer said. "After finishing third the previous couple of seasons, the plaque for runner up honors was an accomplishment of one of our goals."

Metteer attributes Wayne's success on the links from a type of desire and attitude that can't be coached.

"The nice thing about being a golf coach is that you don't have to make decisions on who should be the number three golfer or the number one golfer or any of that," Metteer said. "If there is a chance that someone should move up the ladder it would have to come via a head to head competition."

"I thought our team showed a lot of character," Metteer said. "I believe there were three keys to our success. 1. The love and support of family and friends. 2. The very healthy and positive attitude toward life the girls showed. 3. The positive use of the girls' god given ability."

Metteer noted his appreciation for the parents who supported the athletes all season including making the trip to Lincoln.

"It's not true that nice guys finish last," Metteer said. "Because this group of girls were super to work with."

HOLLY PAIGE

Holly Paige may often find it hard to stand tall on the basketball court at 5-4, but nobody stood taller than the senior golfer last Thursday at Mahoney Park in Lincoln.

Paige ended her high school golfing career as a state champion, a goal that even she, thought might have been just a little out of reach when the season began.

"When I golf in meets I always want the team to do well and then myself," Paige said. "I realize though that in order for the team to shoot well then I have to perform well."

And perform well she has this season. Paige finished first in every outing except one — The Wayne Invitational, this season.

Paige has played golf for a long time and it was during her sophomore year that she decided to let volleyball go, to play golf on the varsity level. "I had talked it over with Marlene Uhing, and I just felt like I could do better on the golf course than in volleyball," Paige said.

"It was a hard decision for me to make," Paige said. "I liked volleyball very much, but I just felt that you can play golf a lot longer than you can volleyball."

About a week before the district meet, Paige hit what she felt was a slump. "I just wasn't putting a complete round together," Paige said. "I just told myself that I had to play through it."

Less than a week later Paige was crowned district medalist. "I didn't really feel comfortable playing at districts," Paige said. "Playing with all number one golfers was something that I never got the chance to do last year."

Paige made the most of her opportunity however, because at the state meet, she was the very first girl to tee-off with all eyes upon her. She shook off the butterflies and went on to capture the state meet individually, and played a big part in the team's first place finish.

Paige says she would like to play golf at college somewhere next fall. She has not decided which college she will attend, but here's betting that come fall, Paige will be hitting the links with the best of them. Paige is the daughter of Jim and Sharon Paige.

ANN PERRY

Ann Perry was Wayne's number two golfer throughout the year and what a job she did. Perry finished third at the state golf tournament a year ago and then came back to duplicate that feat this year. Her 88 at state, was her best outing of the year and she was glad it came when it did.

Perry spoke about the team goals this year. "Our main goal was to get a district plaque," Perry said. "For three years in a row we have finished third and they only give plaques to the top two team finishers."

Perry said the second team goal was to make it back to Lincoln. "Individually I wanted to do better than I did last year," Perry said. Perry bettered her last year score by six strokes.

Paige and Perry both noted that having fun while playing golf was important to the success of the team as was the support from the other golfers on the team.

Perry will probably travel south after graduation to be with her parents in Oklahoma (Mike and Jill). She also plans to attend college Oklahoma State.

JILL JORDAN

The third of the seniors and the tri-captain was Jill Jordan. Jordan had an individual goal of breaking 50 on a nine hole outing. Her goal was quickly achieved in the first meet of the year against the Class A runner up Norfolk.

Jordan also broke 50 in the final nine holes of the state meet. Jordan was one of the three girls who met with school officials about starting a girls golf program four years ago. The other two were Ann Perry and Lesa McDermott, (since graduated).

"I have always liked to golf," Jordan said. "Both my parents enjoy golfing and I just picked it up from them." Jordan noted that her freshman year was the first real competition she faced.

"I felt the team goal was to get back to state and place higher than fifth place like we finished last year," Jordan said. There's no doubt that Jordan's 49 on the final nine holes played a major part in Wayne's number one finish.

Jordan says her plans are leaning toward going to Lincoln next year to the "U" but things are not definite. Jordan is the daughter of Bob and Sheryl Jordan.

CHER REEG

Cher Reeg, daughter of Bill and Betty Reeg, was one of the two underclassman on the varsity this year. Reeg knows that it will be up to her to be a team leader next fall, but at the present time she is just pleased to be a part of the first Wayne girls golf team to win the state tournament.

"I already know that next year I have to shoot better than I have this year," Reeg said. "My individual goal for this year was to shoot in the 40's." Reeg did that once with a 49, but she feels that she will have to step forward next fall and do it consistently.

Reeg noted that she was pleased with the support that her teammates gave to each other, especially at times when one of them might have been in a slump.

Reeg plans to play a lot of golf over the summer months even though she plans on getting a summer job.

JESSICA ROTHFUSS

The last of the five golfers is Jessica Rothfuss. Rothfuss moved to Wayne over the summer months from Holdrege. Rothfuss, a sophomore may have the most intriguing story of all.

"I had never picked up a golf club until four days before school," Rothfuss said. "My friend Emily McClellan kept pushing for me to go out for the team and finally I decided to go out and try the sport."

Rothfuss was excited over the newly found sport and she did go out for the team and midway through the season she became Wayne's number five golfer.

"I was very shocked to compete on the varsity level since I had never really played before," Rothfuss said. "I played volleyball at Holdrege as a freshman and when my friend talked me into going out for the golf team, I had no dream of making varsity."

Having a gold medal draped around your neck would make anyone smile, but Rothfuss was quick to point out that the other members of the team were the ones that gave her support when she needed it most.

"My individual goal throughout the year was to continue to improve," Rothfuss said. "The team was very helpful to me in that respect. I know there is no way I could have been successful without them and Mr. Metteer."

Rothfuss plans to play golf every day this summer and come next autumn she won't need her friends pushing her to take to the links — It'll come natural. After all, she has a gold medal to her credit and she's only a sophomore. Her work is not yet complete.

Wakefield sweeps Bancroft-Rosalie

It was another complete sweep by the Lady Trojans of Wakefield Tuesday night as they traveled to Bancroft to chalk up another win.

Wakefield, 11-1 on the year, entertains Emerson tonight (Thursday) in parents' night, thus ending the regular season. The Trojans however will remain at home for the Lewis and Clark tournament which begins Monday.

At Bancroft, Paul Eaton's squad leaped to a 15-0 decision in the first set. Then the Trojans cooled off a little bit, but held on for a 15-7 victory in straight sets.

"We seemed to slack off a little bit in the second set," Eaton said. "We missed a couple of serves which we didn't do in the first set."

At any rate the Trojans were right at 90 percent in serving for the night which is about where they should be. Julie Greve led the team in scoring with 15 points on an 18 of 19 performance.

Karen Hallstrom scored six points on a six of seven serving outing. Karen Witt was the leader in setting with a perfect 13 of 13 with five assists. Cathi Larson followed with a 13 of 15 outing with four assists.

The spiking chores were manned by Karen Hallstrom and Jessica Robins and the twosome did a fine job. Hallstrom was 11 of 11 with six ace spikes while Robins was a perfect 10 of 10 with three kill spikes.

Eaton noted that the quality play of the Trojans, Karen Witt was 10 of 11 in passing and Sharon Wenstrand was five for five.

As mentioned previously, Wakefield recorded a clean sweep as the jv's downed Bancroft in straight sets as well, 15-10, 15-3. The "C" team won 11-7, 12-10.

Conference begins Monday

Wakefield, Allen, Wausa and Walthill are the sites of the first round games of the Lewis and Clark Conference Tournament which begins Monday.

Wakefield will play the winner of Osmond and Hartington at 8 p.m. Monday in one bracket while in the other bracket the Wausa-Winside winner will take on the Wynot-Coleridge winner at 8 p.m. in Wausa also on Monday.

The winner of Wakefield's bracket and Wausa's bracket will square off at 6 p.m. Tuesday night in Wakefield.

In the opposite division brackets, the Walthill-Beemer winner will play the winner between Emerson and Homer at 8 p.m. Monday in Walthill. While that is taking place Allen will be playing Bancroft with the winner playing the Ponca-Newcastle winner at 8 p.m. in Allen.

Bracket winners in each will go head to head in Wakefield at 7 p.m.

Tuesday with the winner taking on the victor of the first two brackets mentioned for the Conference championship.

All the brackets in the four sites begin at 6 p.m. with the finals slated for 8 p.m. In the final four set up to be held in Wakefield on Tuesday, the first semi final will take place at 6 p.m. followed by the other semi final. The finals will take place at approximately 8 p.m.

Off to State

THE BLUE DEVIL cross country team will be represented at the state meet this Friday by two freshmen runners, Tammy Geiger and Todd Fuelberth. Geiger finished third in the girls division with a 17:32 time. Fuelberth ran to a ninth place time of 17:20. Wayne finished sixth in district action.

JV's capture districts

Rocky Ruhl's cross country junior varsity squad captured first place in the harriers district meet last Friday.

Wayne score 14 points, 24 ahead of runner up O'Neill. Mike DeNaeyer and Ben Wilson ran across the finish line in first and second place respectively. DeNaeyer defeated Wilson by 13 seconds.

The Blue Devils also finished with fifth, sixth and seventh place as well with Troy Frey, Aaron Wilson and Dave Ostercamp supplying the top ten boost. Brian Lentz finished ninth to round out the top six runners. On the varsity level Wayne finished in sixth place with one state qualifier in Todd Fuelberth, a freshman. Fuelberth finished ninth in the meet while teammates Rob Sweetland and Shane Geiger finished 21st and 22nd respectively.

Meanwhile in the girls competition for varsity, Tammy Geiger qualified for the state meet with her third place finish individually. Edith Janke and Sherri Wortman finished 21st and 22nd respectively.

Sports Briefs

Wayne hosting conference

Wayne will be the host of the NAC volleyball conference meet this Thursday at Wayne High. The four team invite will start at 5 p.m. with top seeded Hartington Cedar Catholic, (11-2), taking on South Sioux, (5-7).

The match following the first match will pit second seeded Wayne, (11-7), against O'Neill, (6-5). The consolation match is tentatively slated for 7 p.m. with the championship match to follow.

Allen junior high wins

The Allen junior high volleyball team hosted Laurel last Monday and the seventh graders came out a 15-13, 15-9 winner. Coach Sandy Chase felt it was the best her squad has played to date.

Dawn Diediker and Penny Brenflinger were highlighted for their performances. The eighth graders also won in straight sets, 15-13, 15-2 while Shawna Hohenstein and Stacey Jones were highlighted for their serving success.

Lions football contest coming

The annual Lion's Football Skills contest will be held Sunday, October 23 at 2 p.m. at the Wayne Public Schools track. Children who were twelve or under as of July 1, 1988 are eligible to participate.

Registration forms will be made available at the Wayne schools. Walk-in registration will also be accepted. Trophies will be awarded to the top three finishers in the following divisions: 8 and under; 9 year olds; 10 year olds, and 11-12 year olds.

JV's end season 5-0

It was billed as the battle of the unbeaten Monday afternoon as Wayne's junior varsity football team hosted Pierce's junior varsity. Both teams had unblemished marks heading into the season finale.

Both defenses dominated the game but a three yard run in the first quarter by Mike Hillier and the extra point conversion by Matt Bruggeman was all the Blue Devils needed to finish their season at 5-0.

"Our defense was called upon three times to hold Pierce from scoring inside of our 15 yard line," coach Ron Carnes said. "And all three times they rose to the challenge and kept Pierce out of the endzone for a 7-0 victory."

Frederickson led the Blue Devils on offense with 78 yards rushing while defensively, Carnes highlighted the efforts of the whole team with emphasis on Matt Bruggeman, Chris Wiseman and Rusty Hamer.

Laurel downed by Neligh

Laurel traveled to Neligh last Friday evening to attempt to earn its second victory of the season. However, Tom Luxford's Bears ended up on the short end of a 20-6 outing.

There was no scoring in the opening quarter but Neligh opened the second quarter with a four yard touchdown run by Kevin Christensen. Neligh connected on the extra point and after holding Laurel on downs on the ensuing possession, Neligh successfully completed a four play drive of 54 yards to push the lead to 14-0 at intermission.

Once again both defenses dominated the third quarter and heading into the final quarter, the score was the same 14-0.

Laurel struck paydirt in the fourth quarter as Troy Twobig picked up a John Schutte blocked punt and rambled 27 yards for the score. With just over a minute remaining in the contest, Neligh scored once again, accounting for the final score.

"Our kids played hard at times," Luxford said. "We did however, miss defensive assignments and that really hurt us. Our offensive line got handled by Neligh and nothing against our kids, but Neligh was stronger and more experienced."

Wayne seeks fifth

The Crystal Ball suffered its worst week of its brief existence last week. I prefer to call it the lost weekend.

"The Ball" was 4-7 and lowered the season pick to a somewhat disappointing 28-17 record for just over 60 percent.

This week promises to be better as we start off with a Blue Devil victory. Wayne 36, Hartington Cedar Catholic 6 — Look for Wayne to pick up win number five on the season this week at Cedar who has yet to win. Blue Devil lineman Matt Bruggeman feels that the Wayne defense will rise to the occasion of playing rival Cedar and he predicts a shutout.

Wakefield 38, Wausa 14 — The Trojans will have their way against Wausa even though the Vikings can hit pretty hard. Trojans better beware of Lance Lundberg, the behemoth that plays line for Wausa, but who also has fine speed and agility. Lundberg will no doubt get offers to play college ball.

Allen 26, Hartington 20 — Mike Busselman's Eagles are looking to end the season on a high note. The first of Allen's final two victories will come at the hands of winless Hartington.

Plainview 26, Laurel 12 — The young Bears have had plenty of time to mature this season. The only trouble is, so has everyone else who began the season in better shape than the Bears did to begin with.

Bancroft-Rosalie 36, Winside 24 — As much as I admire Randy Geier's coaching technique at Winside, his squad is put in what I call the spoiler situation. Bancroft is still battling to make the playoffs as a wildcard and Geier's Wildcats are in a perfect situation to put a stop to that. However, the game is in Bancroft and I feel that the Panthers have to much to gain to let Winside get the best of them.

Other games: Oklahoma 31, Colorado 17; Michigan 23, Indiana 20; Iowa 27, Purdue 21; UCLA 31, Arizona 21; Oklahoma State 38, Missouri 17.

Harold Ritze

Harold Ritze, 66, of Winside died Friday, Oct. 14, 1988 at the Veterans Hospital in Omaha.

Services were held Monday, Oct. 17 at the Theophilus Church in Winside. The Rev. Gail Axen officiated.

Harold Lyle Ritze, the son of Carl and Dorethea Rohlf Ritze, was born Aug. 24, 1922 on a farm in Wayne County. He graduated from the Winside High School in 1940. He enlisted in the U.S. Army Air Corps during World War II serving the South Pacific 2 1/2 years. He married Ruby Fischer on March 14, 1958 at the Peace Church of Hoskins. He farmed several years, helped organize and managed the Winside CO-OP 11 years, owned a farm supply business four years, was a Norfolk Mutual Insurance Agent 10 years and worked at Norfolk Processing 12 years. He had served two terms on the Winside Town Board. He was a member of the Theophilus Church, having served as a Deacon and Trustee and the Theophilus Cemetery Board, and was a member of the American Legion.

Survivors include his wife, Ruby of Winside; four sons, Larry Ritze of Denver, Colo., Robert Ritze of Baffle Creek, David Ritze of Denver, Colo., and Randy Ritze of Winside; two daughters, Mrs. Lonnie (Wilma) Fork of Carroll and Mrs. David (Barbara) Kounovsky of Norfolk; eight grandchildren; one brother, Willis Ritze of Braidwood, Ill.; one sister, Mrs. Esther Svenson of Sebastian, Fla.; nieces and nephews.

He was preceded in death by his parents and one brother. Honorary pallbearers were Gorthill Jaeger, Herman Jaeger, Cecil Prince, Arl Grone, Dr. N.L. Dittman, C.O. Witt, Donald Weible, Ted Olson, Frank Weible and Dallas Schellenberg.

Active pallbearers were Jack Brockman, Leroy Herscheid, Warrén Jacobsen, Warren Gallop, Warren Baird and Dale Krueger.

Burial was in the Theophilus Cemetery in Winside with Schumacher Funeral Home in charge of arrangements. Military rites were by the Winside American Legion Post 262.

Edwin Nelson

Edwin Nelson, 82, of Wakefield died Monday, Oct. 17, 1988 in the Wakefield Community Hospital.

Services were held Wednesday, Oct. 19 at the Salem Lutheran Church in Wakefield. The Rev. Joe Marek officiated.

Edwin Manfred Nelson, the son of Nels A. and Anna Swanson Nelson, was born in Dixon County on Oct. 14, 1906. He attended rural schools and was a farm laborer for several years. He served in the U.S. Army during World War II. He married Lola Cook on April 26, 1946. The couple made their home in Wakefield where he worked for Salmon Well Company for several years until retirement. Mrs. Nelson died in March, 1982 and he moved into the nursing home. He had now been a resident at the Wakefield Care Center. He was a member of the Salem Lutheran Church and the American Legion in Wakefield.

Survivors include two step-daughters, Mrs. Darold (Sharon) Anderson of Ponca and Mrs. Paul (Judith) Wig of South Sioux City; four grandchildren; two brothers, Melvin of Fredricksburg, Va. and Robert of Independence, Iowa; and five sisters, Alice Walchek, Ruth Salmon and Mildred Heikes, all of Wakefield, Marian Jackwin of San Diego, Calif. and Velma Forsberg of South Sioux City.

Pallbearers were Larry Heikes, Charles Heikes, James Salmon, Michael Salmon, Russell Warnock and Gary Warnock.

Burial was in the Wakefield Cemetery with the Bressler-Humlicek Funeral Home in charge of arrangements.

Albert Behmer

News Briefs

Youth ambassador program started

The National and State Pork Association has announced that it will no longer have a queen's program. However, the organization is sponsoring a Youth Ambassador Program and area youths who will be 18 to 21 years of age by July 24, 1989 are invited to participate. The state winner will join other state winners for a week's activities, including two days in Des Moines, Iowa and three days in Washington, D. C. Area winners will be involved in state functions. A spokesman for the Wayne County Pork Producers said the organization would like to send a representative from this area. A prize of $50 for first place, and a $25 second place prize will be offered along with other rewards. Interested youths are asked to call Don Johnson at Hoskins, 565-4440, or Gene Lutt at Wayne, 375-1686, by Nov. 1, 1988. Persons interested in helping get the program started also are asked to call Johnson or Lutt.

Magazine campaign underway

Wayne Music Boosters are conducting their annual magazine subscription campaign through Nov. 1. A spokesman for the organization said the campaign brings in substantial income for the Music Boosters and enables them to assist the music departments at Wayne Community Schools. Persons who have not been contacted and would like a new subscription or renewal are asked to call Linda Carr, 375-4905.

Kerrey county coordinator announced

U.S. Senate candidate Bob Kerrey announced the appointment of Sheryl Lindau of Wayne as the Wayne County coordinator and Robert Jordan, also of Wayne, as the Wayne County Finance Chair. The County Coordinators head up the County Committees, which are responsible for yard sign distribution, leafletting, volunteer recruitment, phone banking and getting supporters to the polls on election day. The County Finance Chair's are responsible for helping to raise money in their counties. Commenting on the appointment, Lindau said, "I am proud to be a part of our county's efforts on behalf of Bob Kerrey. I truly believe that Bob Kerrey is Nebraska's best and I hope that even more people will become involved in Wayne County. Everyone is welcome to join us in taking advantage of our opportunity to send Bob Kerrey to the United States Senate."

Combine burns

Randolph firemen were called to a scene of a combine fire on the Monty Granfield farm 1/2 mile south of Sholes.

The incident was reported approximately 3:45 p.m. Tuesday.

The fire to the combine occurred after the final row was combined. The extent of damage to the combine was not established at this time.

Sheriff's Log

The Wayne County Sheriff's Department investigated two accidents occurring on Friday, Oct. 14.

A pick-up, driven by Daniel K. Frevert of Wayne, hit a calf on a gravel road six miles south and 1 1/2 miles east of Wayne. The car was considered as a total loss.

Also that day, on a road three miles west and two miles south of Wayne, a one car accident occurred.

Jill Nelson of Wayne was driving south on a county road when she lost control of the vehicle, slid sideways and rolled once. The car was considered a total loss.

who donated food and services for the special day.

VonSeggern, who had recently undergone a bone marrow transplant, returned home from Rochester on Friday of last week. He appeared at most of Sunday's activities. Currently, he is confined to his residence as his body continues to strengthen its immunity system.

HIS WIFE, Margaret, said the family has been overwhelmed with the generosity shown. The money right now, she said, is an afterthought. "What we found most generous was the special support we have received from individuals in the community and around the area," she said.

Board

Education Service Unit in the area. Luschen asked what it would cost to transport adult inmates to nearby counties if the juvenile holding facility in Wayne were approved. Janssen said the $42,000 estimated cost for this was written in the grant request.

POSPISHIL THEN introduced his motion to rescind his previous motion made on Oct. 4. It was seconded by Beiermann.

Later, Pospishil said he made his rescinding motion based on available funding and not specifically because of the group that was present at Tuesday's meeting. Beiermann said there were "no rules or regulations set out that were definite."

Baier told the commissioners, after the vote, not to completely abandon the centralized juvenile detention facility proposal. "Something might come up that it would still be feasible to go the other way," he said.

Janssen said the first concern should be where the $20,000 (more or less) will come from should the commissioners decide to remodel the jail facility and make it sight-sound separated from the adult prisoners.

There also must be a non-secure area for the juveniles, and an area proposed for this would be what is now the sheriff's residence at the jail site.

Others in the audience included Dennis Lutt, Lawrence Backstrom, Wilber Nolte, Randall Bargholz, Elmer Bargholz, William Claybaugh, Ivan Freeze and Don Liedman.

Mock Trial Team places in regional

A seven member team from Wayne-Carroll High School recently participated in the Mock Trial Competition.

This competition took place Oct. 10 at the Madison County Courthouse. The Mock Trial Project is an interschool competition sponsored by the Nebraska State Bar Association. It is designed to educate students about the steps involved in the criminal justice process.

The students are assigned the task of role-playing the characters supplied in a fictitious case.

This year's case dealt with a teenage girl who was accused of driving home from a party and hitting a jogger, and then fleeing from the scene of the crime.

The team from Wayne was responsible for prosecuting the accused. Team members were Robb Reeg-lawyer; Joel Hansen-lawyer; Chris Corbit-lawyer; Sharon Foote-witness; Dan Wurdinger-witness; Jean Hansen-witness; Amy Bliven-witness.

Wayne performed very well in defeating Clearwater in their trial and was third place finisher overall in the regional competition.

The teacher-coach for the Wayne team was John Murtaugh and the attorney-coach was Bob Ensz.

Understanding Nuclear Technology

WHAT IS RADIATION?

Our Radioactive World

Our universe has been radioactive since the beginning of time. Radiation occurs naturally in our earth, air, water, food and bodies.

Within the last hundred years, man-made radiation has been created through the scientific development of medical diagnosis and treatment procedures, research activities, industrial applications and more recently with the generation of electricity by nuclear energy.

Living With Radiation

People fear radiation because they don't understand it. Radiation is a form of energy. It can produce numerous benefits. Like any form of energy, it must be properly managed.

Scientists and others who work with radiation on a regular basis understand its characteristics and have learned to work safely with radioactive materials. These people, along with state and federal regulators of nuclear material, operate under strict regulations established to insure safe handling, utilization, transportation and disposal of radioactive materials.

Risks and Benefits

Everything we do has some risk. Riding in a car, playing golf, or riding a bicycle are common activities. Sometimes people are injured while doing these things. Everyone agrees that the benefits of these activities far exceed the risks.

The controlled use of radiation for medical, industrial, research, and electricity generation purposes continues to produce many benefits.

Nebraska Public Power District believes that these uses, and the proper disposal of low-level radioactive waste produced by these uses, are a very small and reasonable risk when compared to other risks we accept daily, and to the benefits of nuclear energy and technology.

Low-level radioactive waste can be safely disposed of in Nebraska.

The Safe Disposal of Low-Level Radioactive Waste is Every Nebraskan's Responsibility.

Learn the FACTS about nuclear technology.

The Farmer's Wife

by Pat Mcierhenry

It was a memorable morning. It sprinkled a bit at 9 a.m. but then cleared off. It was a crisp, clear October day as we drove to Norfolk. The maple trees have been glorious shades of red and gold all week. The sun kept peeking out at the group assembling in front of the Lutheran Hospital.

There was a small stage, with a dozen chairs and a podium with a microphone. There were more chairs in a semicircle facing the stage. People came quietly, carrying cameras. An air of anticipation filled the silence.

Finally, at 10:25 the "dignitaries of the day" emerged from the hospital. They included the mayor, the administrator, chairman of the board, the governor, the publisher of the Norfolk Daily News, and the entire Carson family; Kathryn and Ralph, Dick and Pat, and of course, the guest of honor, John, and his wife Alex.

There were several short speeches, many acknowledgements, and lots of applause. Jerry Huse made reference to "The Great Carson" and to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. "Kit" Carson, for whom the new radiation center is named.

Then it was Johnny's turn. His speech was brief, too, but poignant and nostalgic, and I felt a few tears.

He began by saying that, sitting there listening to all the nice things that had been said about him, a fellow should really have the decency to be dead!

He commented on the beautiful weather, which it was; while admitting that he knew it could be snowing tomorrow.

He said they were having a great weekend. (1) His adopted hometown had won the first game of the Series on Saturday night (and we thought Kirk Bison was injured) (2) His alma mater, Nebraska, had beaten Oklahoma State on Saturday afternoon (that first quarter was unbelievable) and (3) They were now in Norfolk, where they had all grown up.

HE WENT ON to say that he believed that if a person was lucky enough to make more money than he ever needed, it was a moral obligation to give some back. And he had given some back to the town he had "been brought up in."

Johnny told us that the "cynical" New Yorkers who worked on the production of the TV special in 1980 had been amazed at the "Midwestern warmth" displayed by the people in his hometown.

All too soon, it was over, and there was a standing ovation. Balloons were released, and Jerry joked, "Nebraska made another touchdown." Then the guests formed for autographs.

I was standing in front of a lady who said she did not ordinarily seek autographs. I told her I had one of Bobby Reynolds, and she asked me who that was!

Alex graciously signed programs, too, and gave one surprised little gal a kiss.

I should mention that Kay Orr looked lovely in a blue dress, and her remarks were very appropriate, centering on the themes of healing and hope.

I don't think I've ever been so proud of Nebraska and of the folks involved with our hospital.

My Mother-in-law went to Omaha for x-ray treatments 45 years ago. People have been going east on Hwy. 275 for that purpose ever since. The dream has come true. The campaign is over. The radiation center will soon be operational. The convenience will help so much. Thanks, Johnny.

LADIES AID AND LWML
St. Paul's Lutheran Ladies Aid and LWML of Wakefield met Thursday afternoon, with Janelle Nelson as hostess. Eleven members were present and guests were Imogene Samuelson, Edna Hansen and Donna Nelson, Vanessa and Amanda.

Pastor Ricky Bertels opened the meeting with prayer and led the lesson discussion on the Second Commandment. Singing of the hymn "A Mighty Fortress is Our God" followed the lesson in observance of the Reformation.

Barb Greve, president, called the business meeting to order. Dorothy Meyer reported on the last meeting and Marilyn Hansen gave the treasurers report. The mite box offering was taken and the Christian Growth chairman, Elaine Hansen, read a poem entitled "LWML Mite".

A letter was read from the Open Door Mission in Omaha. The fall zone rally of the Lutheran Womens Missionary League was to be Oct. 1 in Newcastle with St. Johns Lutheran LWML as hosts. Discussion was held on items that could be sold commemorating the centennial of St. Paul's Church. Names were drawn for the Christmas gift exchange.

Janelle Nelson prepared a program to observe the 65th anniversary of the Ladies Aid. She read a history of the Aid and read the names of the nineteen charter members. The Aid became associated with the LWML in 1947. She presented praying hands pins to the 15 present members for their years of membership. Lillie Tarnow was honored as a 50 year member. A decorated anniversary cake was served with the luncheon.

"Praise to the Lord the Almighty" was sung by the group to honor the birthdays of Lillie Tarnow, Gertrude Ohlquist, and Janice Bertels, and the anniversary of Mary Lou Krusemark.

The next meeting is Nov. 10 with Barb Greve as hostess.

SCHOOL BOARD

The Wakefield School Board listened to a presentation by a representative of a long distance telephone service during their regular meeting Oct. 10. Marvin Bittnerman of Dial-Net explained his company's service. Later during the meeting the board discussed the phone service again and tabled the issue for further study.

Sandra Remer, school guidance counselor, reviewed the ACT testing program with the board. She also gave the board members an informational sheet showing what last year's Wakefield High School graduates are now doing.

Supt. Derwin Hartman reported that board members and superintendents from Newcastle, Ponca, Emerson-Hubbard and Wakefield have been invited to a meeting at the Allen High School Oct. 19 to discuss common concerns.

Mr. Hartman told the board that the school's asbestos management plan has been completed and sent to the Nebraska State Health Department. The inspection showed that the Wakefield school has no friable asbestos. Non-friable asbestos was found in the floor tiles and in the glue beneath the carpets. A.T.L.C.'s recommendation was to maintain the non-friable asbestos as it is.

Mr. Hartman reviewed the school calendar with the board. Christmas vacation time was altered because New Year's Day bowl games will be played on Monday, Jan. 2. The change is for school to be dismissed at 2:30 p.m. on Thursday, Dec. 22 and resume on Tuesday, Jan. 3. Originally school was to dismiss at 2:30 p.m. on Dec. 21 and resume on Monday, Jan. 2.

OES NEWS

Goldenrod Chapter No. 106 Order of the Eastern Star met for its monthly meeting on Oct. 4. The Charter was draped for Frank Brubridge, Zelma Megrue, Rev. Charles Kurtz and Lorene Peterson.

Golden Chapter was invited to attend Guest Night in Wayne's OES Chapter Hall on Oct. 10. The worthy Grand Patron and Worthy Grand Matron asks all members not to forget the residents at the Children's Home and Plattsmouth Home during the upcoming holiday seasons.

The tickets are for sale through the DeMolay, Job's Daughters and Rainbow Girls in support of the Knight's Templar Eye Foundation. Any Star member interested should contact Nancy Kinney. Nancy also reported that over 40 members need to pay their 1988 dues and 1989 dues may be pre-paid.

A Saturday cleaning day will be set soon with the phone free used to notify members. Exemplification of Initiation was held. Hostesses for the evening were Bonnie Bressler and Brenda Gustafson.

RESCUE MINUTES

The regular meeting of the Wakefield Rescue Squad was held Oct. 3. Captain Larry Soderberg called the meeting to order with 15 members answering roll call.

Merle Kay, Beverly Herbolzheimer and Cheryl Roberts attended the training workshop at Pender on Sept. 17. They each gave the group a brief report of the sessions they attended.

Merle Kay will be the delegate for the E.M.S. meetings held at the Firefighters Convention at Kearney on Oct. 21.

There is a possibility of having an 81-winter E.M.T. class start in later winter for interested members and possible new members from Wakefield, Allen and Emerson making up the class.

The Tele-Conference training session will be held at the Wayne Hospital on Tuesday, Oct. 25 at 7:30 p.m.

After the meeting the squad worked with the air chisel. The meeting will be held Monday, Nov. 7 at 8 p.m.

Allen community honors Hills

MANY ALLEN RESIDENTS turned out for an appreciation supper Monday evening at the Village Inn to honor longtime Allen business owners Keith and Gail Hill. Hills, who have owned and operated The Cash Store since 1958, recently sold the business to their son, Kevin Hill. Keith had worked in the store since 1938 while still in high school. The Hills were presented an appreciation plaque Monday night from Rob Bock, at right, on behalf of the Allen Commercial Club. Bock thanked the Hills for their many years of service and support in Allen. In addition to owning the grocery business, Hills have been active volunteers in the community.

Feed grain program announced

Secretary of Agriculture Richard E. Lyng announced a 10-percent acreage reduction (ARP) for 1989 crop corn, grain sorghum and barley and a five-percent ARP for 1989 crop oats.

The 1989 crop corn, sorghum and barley ARP's are reduced from the 20-percent ARP set for the 1988 crop while the oats ARP remains the same as the 1988 crop.

Other provisions of the 1989 feed grain program include:

--Target prices established per bushel are $2.84 for corn, $2.70 for sorghum ($4.82 per hundredweight), $2.43 for barley and $1.50 for oats.

--Loan and purchase rates per bushel are $1.65 for corn, $1.57 for sorghum ($2.80 per hundredweight), $1.34 for barley, $0.85 for oats and $1.40 for rye.

--No marketing loan program for feed grains will be implemented.

--Marketing barley will not be exempt from the acreage limitation requirements established for the 1989 barley program.

--Oats will not be subject to the limited cross-compliance provisions.

--There will not be a paid land diversion program.

Common program provisions that apply to the 1989 feed grains, wheat, upland cotton and rice programs were announced on June 14.

Sign-up dates and other details for the 1989 feed grain program will be announced later.

DEMOCRACY IN NEBRASKA.

The following is a letter sent recently to the Federal Election Commission:

October 11, 1988

Christina H. Van Brakle
Federal Election Commission
Washington, D.C.

Dear Miss Van Brakle:

I have your letter of September 15, 1988.

You state: "Rather, the Act, when defining who is a candidate, limits the registration and reporting requirements to only those individuals who seek a Federal office and have received contributions or expended more than $5,000 for this purpose."

Farther down you state: "An individual who seeks election to a congressional office must fulfill the ballot requirements for the State in which he or she seeks access to the ballot."

I call your attention to these facts:

The recent session of the Nebraska Unicameral Legislature amended the voting laws. I have been unable to obtain a copy of these new laws, either from the Secretary of State or from publishers of two previous election handbooks.

I do know these new laws allow independent voters to vote for partisan candidates in the primary election. I know of no provision to allow independent voters to vote for independent candidates.

In 1942, when I ran for Congress as an independent, I was required to file petitions signed by 200 voters. This year the number required was 2,000 signatures.

I attempted to meet that requirement by hiring agents. Although the United States Supreme Court recently ruled such agency legal, I was not allowed to hire helpers through the State Employment Service. The State Attorney General frustrated my attempt to offer pay in an ad in a Lincoln newspaper.

The Alliance Party, which has 14 or 15 members in Nebraska, will appear on the ballot and its Senatorial candidate appeared in a public debate on Nebraska television stations. My request to file petitions with 40 signatures was denied.

In response to a letter from Mr. Bill Ganzel, senior producer Public Affairs of the Nebraska Educational Television Network dated September 14, 1988, I proposed a joint debate to include the three candidates for Congress in the First Nebraska District on this question: "Resolved: That the U.S. Government give the same bailout to bankrupt family farmers as was given to bankrupt American bankers." I have received no response.

It is clear that the State of Nebraska denies my right either to appear on the ballot or to debate the issues publicly.

This in open violation of Article IV Section 4 of the United States Constitution. Therefore I ask the Congress and the Federal Judiciary to declare the election in the First Nebraska District null and void.

Sincerely,

Paul Burke

MABS: New Weapons Against Cancer

When they first appeared in the laboratory several years ago they were referred to as "magic bullets." They are more correctly referred to as monoclonal antibodies or MABs. These powerful substances hold promise in helping the body prevent the rejection of transplanted organs. MABs may also become one of the most important of all the weapons that will be used in the future in the fight against cancer. When injected into the body, MABs spot foreign materials, attach themselves to these materials, and then signal other immune system components to destroy the foreign materials.

Although cancer specialists have experienced varying results using MABs, there is now a new direction in MAB research. Since MABs are moderately active against tumor cells, it is thought that they may be more effective if they are attached to cancer-fighting drugs. MAB-drug combinations are now being tested at several cancer centers.

One of the challenges of this research is to produce combinations that attack specific types of cancer cells. If this new research is successful, we eventually may have available injectable products that can be used to pinpoint and eradicate cancers in a more effective way than is now possible.

Activities Week promoted

The Principals Office
By Donald V. Zeiss

NATIONAL HIGH SCHOOL ACTIVITIES WEEK

Dates: Oct. 16-23, Sunday through Sunday.

Honorary National Chairman: Merlin Olsen & Mrs. Merlin Olsen.

Congressional Resolution: Whereas more than half of the students in this nation's schools are involved in at least one extracurricular activity;

Whereas this other half of education plays a significant role in the total education development of high school students;

Whereas participation in activities such as athletics, speech, music, debate, drama, and others generally leads to positive development for all and often leads to superior achievement;

Whereas participation and achievement in those areas often contribute to increased interest and performance in strictly academic areas;

Where both academic and extracurricular achievement contribute greatly to the social development and interaction of all high school students;

Whereas that development directly benefits local communities by channeling young people's interest and talents into positive efforts, and by instilling in them an early sense of civic duty and community pride;

Whereas former President Gerald R. Ford has acted as honorary National Chairman of the effort to recognize the important role of extracurricular activities in this nation's high school.

Now, therefore, be it Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America that the President should designate "National High School Activities Week" in recognition of the valuable contribution that such programs make in developing the interests and talents of young people at the community level.

Special Dates: National Officials Day, Monday, Oct. 17. High school contests are officiated by some dedicated persons who are involved because they see the benefits of school activities and should be recognized for their work in this area.

National Speech and Music Day, Tuesday, Oct. 18. School activities are not solely sports. In fact, speech and music involve as high a percentage of the student body as athletics in some schools.

National Chemical Health Awareness Day, Wednesday, Oct. 19.

National Coaches Day, Friday, Oct. 21. They are teachers first, coaches next and they help build the youth of the state in both instances.

As to the values of activity programs, there are several very vivid, documented examples:

—National surveys reveal that students participating in high school activities are more likely to have higher academic averages and far better attendance records.

—Of the students who drop out of high schools, ninety-four percent have not been involved in any school activities such as athletics, music, speech, student government, etc.

—The best predictor (according to ACT and SAT studies) of success in later life is previous participation in high school activity programs—not high school or college grade point average, test score or rank-in-class.

—Generally, participation in activity programs teaches values that make students happier and better citizens, builds strong minds and bodies, emphasizes the good points of competition and that race, color, sex and economic status are not obstacles for participation, and finally instills poise and confidence.

—Nationally, over one-half of the high school student population participates in high school activity programs for approximately one percent of the total school budget, obviously the best value in public education today.

—Activities support the Academic Mission of Schools. They are not a diversion but rather an extension of a good education program.

—Activities are Inherently Educational. Activities programs provide valuable lessons on many practical situations—teamwork, sportsmanship, winning and losing, hard work. Through participation in activities programs, students learn self-discipline, build self-confidence and develop skills to handle competitive situations. These are qualities the public expects schools to produce in students so that they become responsible adults and productive citizens.

Students participating in a number of activities not only achieve better academically but also express greater satisfaction with the total high school experience than students who do not participate, according to a survey conducted for the National Federation by Indiana University. The grade-point average for "high activity" students is 3.05 on a 4.0 scale, compared to a grade-point average of 2.54 for "low activity" students. Researchers defined high activity as involvement in four more activities, while low activity students were involved in one activity or none.

—Besides higher grades, participation in activities helps students have a better attitude, according to a study conducted at the request of the Utah State Board of Education. In the study, students, parents, teachers and administrators agreed that being part of such activities serves not only as an incentive, to do well in academic work, but it relieves tension and increases self-confidence.

Harrison gets state teacher award

Todd Harrison, speech, drama, reading and Spanish teacher at Pawnee City High School, was presented the Dale E. Black Outstanding Young Teacher of Speech Award at the Nebraska Speech Communication Association fall convention Oct. 7.

Harrison, who is in his second year of teaching at Pawnee City, earned a B.A. at Wayne State College and a M.A. at University of Illinois. He taught in Illinois for two years and then worked for 10 years in Hollywood in set design before joining the faculty at Pawnee City.

At Pawnee City he directs the one-act play and coaches forensics. His one-act play qualified for state last year, and 11 students qualified for the state speech contest. He also directed a high school musical "How to Succeed in Business Without Really Trying."

The Pawnee Players, with Harrison as artistic director, is sponsoring a play writing contest. Three plays will be picked to be performed in January.

Harrison, the son of Darrell and Jane Harrison of Wayne, said the community of Pawnee City has contributed 150 percent in time and effort in supporting the speech and drama productions.

In nominating Harrison for the award, Pawnee City Superintendent Larry Harnisch wrote, "Todd has done an excellent job of motivating and stimulating students to do their best in all speech related subjects." Wayne hospital

In Ag Lending It Isn't Enough To Just Know Credit
To do the right job of ag lending it takes more than a knowledge of credit. A loan officer also has to understand agriculture.
When your only business is ag lending, it requires a real working knowledge of your customer's business...an ability to understand their practical day to day needs. This has always been one of the strengths of Farm Credit.
Meet the people who are part of today's Farm Credit Services team, people who not only know lending...they understand agriculture.

Vocal concert

A Wayne-Carroll High School and Middle School Vocal Concert has been scheduled for 7 p.m. on Monday, Oct. 24 at the high school gymnasium. Participating in the concert will be the high school choir, the swing choir and the seventh and eighth grade choir. The concert is free and open to the public.

Play dates

"A View From The Bridge" opened at 2 p.m. Sunday at Wayne State College's Ley Theatre. Other performances are scheduled for tonight (Monday, Oct. 24) and Tuesday, Oct. 25, both curtain times at 8 p.m. The Arthur Miller production, which gained popularity in New York, London and elsewhere, has proved again that Miller knows how to make tragedy "entertaining" for modern audiences. His pungent tale of the Brooklyn waterfront is concerned with a bewildered longshoreman, driven by a jealousy that he himself doesn't suspect, to the most degrading of betrayals and a destruction of his whole household. See this dramatic production at Ley Theatre.

Ticket info

Tickets will be available next week for the Missouri Repertory Theatre's Thursday, Nov. 10 performance of "The Immigrant," the second installment in Wayne State College's 1988-89 Black and Gold Series. Students may obtain their tickets Oct. 24-26 at the Information Desk located in the lower level of the Student Center. Faculty and staff may pick up their tickets the same dates in the Budget & Finance Office, Hahn Administration, Room 311. Tickets for the general public go on sale Thursday, Oct. 27, in Hahn 212. Tickets are $4 for adults and $2 for high school age or younger.

Sunday music

The Junior Choir from Grace Lutheran Church appeared on KMTV Sunday morning (Oct. 23) at 8:30 on Miss Jean's Story Time, a children's religious program.

Contest deadline

Deadline for entering a contest to come up with a design for a new Wayne Chamber of Commerce Ambassadors float is Monday, Oct. 31. The float will be used in parades in Wayne and surrounding communities. The float will be used to advertise Wayne, and the design must feature the community's involvement in agriculture, business, industry and education. It must be easily understood, readable and visibly attractive, with a minimum of written text and large pictures, letters and other graphics. The design must be easily modified to fit a particular theme and materials used must be available and reasonably priced. Contest application forms are available at the Wayne Chamber Office, First National Bank, State National Bank, Sav-Mor Pharmacy, Griess Rexall Pharmacy, The Diamond Center, Carhart Lumber Co., Wayne Greenhouse and Pamida. The applications must be in the Chamber office no later than 4 p.m. on Monday, Oct. 31. The winning design will be announced on Monday, Nov. 7.

Morris believes costume designing a fitting business

By LaVon Anderson
Assistant Editor

If it's the Pink Panther that tickles your fancy — Corinne's got it. If it's a clown that leaves you laughing — Corinne's got it. If it's a dinosaur that makes your spine tingle — just see Corinne. And if it's the Count (Count Dracula, that is) that leaves you thirsting for more—you got it—just call Corinne.

ADD THEM ALL up, and rural Carroll resident Corinne Morris says she has hundreds of costumes to "suit" just about anyone's taste. Corinne's interest in costumes stems from her college days and before.

Following graduation from Win-side High School, Corinne attended Wayne State College where she majored in home economics and theatre — a perfect combination for someone who enjoys sewing and costuming.

"A lot of my costuming ideas stem from my theatre background," says 27-year-old Corinne. "I also inherited a lot of material from both my grandmothers that is perfect for certain costumes."

COSTUMES AND other clothing have filled the Morris attic for years.

This year, Corinne decided to make use of her collection and go into the business of selling and renting costumes for all occasions.

Corinne and her husband Ed, who is employed at Great Dane, Inc. of Wayne, reside on a farm southwest of Carroll. They are the parents of two sons, Eric, age 3, and Daniel 1½. In addition, Corinne babysits for two neighbor children.

"This is something I can do from my home and still take care of my family," says Corinne, adding that although she had thought of renting costumes for years, it wasn't until this past August that she began advertising her new business.

CORINNE'S COLLECTION of about 50 costumes includes the Pink Panther, dinosaurs, raisin men, a wolf, a king and queen, pirate, princess, witch, Count Dracula, clown, monkey and a pig. "Animals seem to be the most popular," points out Corinne, "especially among the adults. They want something they'll be completely covered in."

Corinne is quick to point out that she has costumes for all ages, and that she will also custom make costumes for someone with a particular idea in mind.

In addition, Corinne's attic is filled with dresses, purses, hats and gloves for persons looking to create their own costume from a certain era — such as the 50's and 60's.

"I've really cleaned out my mother's closet," smiles Corinne, daughter of Mary Lou George of Win-side.

ALTHOUGH SHE enjoys all types of sewing, Corinne says she likes sewing costumes best.

With small children in the house, she adds that much of the sewing is done at night after the youngsters are put to bed.

"I'll occasionally sew during the day," smiles Corinne. "The kids pull things out everywhere, but that's okay. They're just being kids."

"I'M JUST BUSY enough," says Corinne, adding that she has been taking anywhere from three to four costume orders per week.

Corinne's ready-made costumes rent for $5 for three days. "They can pick their costume up the day before Halloween and return it the day after."

Corinne will also custom make costumes for a rental fee of $10.

For those who haven't yet chosen their Halloween costume, Corinne invites them to call and stop by her home. From Wayne, the Morrises reside 12 miles west and three-quarter mile north. Their Carroll telephone number is 585-4700.

WHEN HALLOWEEN creeps by, Corinne says she'll begin thinking of costumes for other occasions such as Christmas.

"I've already got a Santa beard, and I'm working on the suit."

Corinne takes time out from the interview to soothe a crying child and answer the telephone. It's another order for a Halloween costume.

"I'm just busy enough," she smiles.

CORINNE MORRIS adjusts the skunk costume of a customer, who wishes to remain unidentified. Morris, who resides on a farm southwest of Carroll, says she has a collection of about 50 costumes. Animal costumes are the most popular items that she rents. She does the sewing from within the confines of her own home.

According to higher education study

College system badly underfunded

By Chuck Hackenmiller
Managing Editor

A study shows that students at Nebraska's four state college are paying more than their share of the colleges' yearly budgets.

The study, furnished by the National Center of Higher Education (NCHEMS), also mentions that each of the four Nebraska State Colleges — Wayne, Chadron, Kearney and Peru — are badly underfunded.

In addition to inadequate funding for academic programs, they said the public service role of the four state colleges is clearly underfunded.

This has resulted in the colleges' inability to provide badly needed community economic development programs to the colleges' service regions.

Celia LaGreca of Omaha, board trustee and budget subcommittee chairperson, shared the briefing information from last Wednesday's meeting during the state college board of trustee meeting Friday morning on the Wayne State College campus.

A NEWS RELEASE from the board of trustees, distributed Friday, outlined the study. Service activities are best done by local and regional agencies such as the state colleges — therefore greater funding is imperative if the state is to realize the maximum benefit from those institutions, according to Dennis Jones, president of NCHEMS, who briefed a group this week.

Among those attending the briefing were legislative-fiscal analysts, budget analysts with the Department of Administrative Services; Senator Jerome Warner, chairman of the legislature's appropriations committee; Huston Carlyle, chief of staff to Governor Kay Orr; Cynthia Milligan, director of banking; and John Rochford, state budget director.

"The interim report prepared by NCHEMS, a highly respected and independent higher education management organization, was the basis for the Board's budget request which provides for the findings of the adequacy study to be funded over the next four years in a phased approach," said Jean Lovell, Gering, chairperson of the Board.

"By phasing in funding over four years, our board demonstrates a fiscally conservative approach and the responsible management of proposed state funding. It will bring each state college to a level at the mid-point of the comparison reference college used in the NCHEMS study," Lovell mentioned.

SHE ANTICIPATES a good response from the legislature in regards to the study.

Dr. Donald Mash, president of Wayne State College, voiced approval of the board's efforts.

"We see adequate funding as an investment to our programs," he said Friday.

Wayne State College, and the three other state colleges, could "be a vehicle for that investment."
"And the state would get a significant return on their investment," he concluded.

From Wayne Vehicle stolen

Law enforcement officials are continuing to investigate the theft of a vehicle, taken from the Wayne-Carroll High School parking lot during an athletic event Thursday evening.

A 1987 Olds 88 vehicle, owned by Wayne-Carroll athletic Ron Carnes and his wife, Patricia, was stolen from its parking spot on the south side of the high school near the industrial arts area.

It was later found in Neligh, according to reports from the Wayne Police Department. It appears that the vehicle had not sustained any type of damage. It had less than a quarter tank of gas when it was stolen, the police report mentioned.

Carnes was attending the Northern Activities Conference volleyball tournament at the high school gymnasium. Wayne was hosting the tournament with participants including O'Neill, Hartington Cedar-Catholic and South Sioux City.

The vehicle was reported as missing at around 9:45 p.m. The keys were left in the vehicle, the police report said.

Later, the vehicle was found in Neligh. A 1985 pickup had also been reported stolen in Neligh sometime on October 20. This stolen pickup was later located in the rural Neligh area.
