Holiday band

A holiday concert, emphasizing family and children, will be presented by the Wayne State College Jazz Band and Concert Band on Sunday, Dec. 11 at 3 p.m. in Ramsey Theatre, located in the Val Peterson Fine Arts Building at Wayne State.

Highlights will include traditional Christmas carols, swing music from the Big Band era, and a special guest, according to Gary Davis, director of bands at Wayne State.

The concert, which will last less than one hour, is free and open to the public.

Christmas music

Music celebrating the Christmas season will be featured as the Wayne State College Orchestra presents a concert Tuesday, Dec. 13, 8 p.m. in Ramsey Theatre located in the Val Peterson Fine Arts Building at Wayne State.

Selections, which are for string orchestra and full orchestra, will include Michel de Lalande's "A Christmas Symphony."

Guest soloists for the concert will be Dr. Christopher Bonds, associate professor of music and director of orchestral activities at Wayne State; Debi Bonds, violins; Sharon Foote, cello; and Mary Beth Podany, harpsichord.

The concert is free and open to the public.

Mailing ease

An extra mail truck will be coming to the Wayne Post Office starting Dec. 8 and continuing until Dec. 23.

Mail brought into the post office by 2 p.m. will be sent out on the extra truck. The other mail trucks will come and go on regular schedule.

Also, starting on Dec. 12 and until Dec. 23, the Wayne Post Office window will be open all day long, from 8 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. During normal hours, the window is closed from 11:30 to 12:15.

School program

Wayne County District 57 school students will present their Christmas program today (Thursday) at 2 p.m. and again on Friday, Dec. 9 at 7:30 p.m.

Teachers are Jennifer Widner, Debra Davis, Gloria Leseberg and Doris Wilson.

Carolling

Wayne and Carroll elementary school students will Christmas carol in downtown Wayne during the week of Dec. 12-16.

The schedule includes: Wayne 1st graders on Monday, Dec. 12 at 12:30 p.m.; Wayne 3rd graders on Tuesday, Dec. 13, 9:15 a.m.; Carroll kindergarten through 4th grade on Wednesday, Dec. 14 at 9:30 a.m.; Wayne 2nd graders on Thursday, Dec. 15 at 2 p.m.; and Wayne 4th graders on Friday, Dec. 16 at 10:30 a.m.

Blood bank

The Siouxland Blood Bank will be accepting donations at Providence Medical Center in Wayne on Thursday, Dec. 15 from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m.

"The need for blood never takes a holiday. Please help this holiday season by giving the greatest gift of all — life," said Rita Smith, donor consultant with the Siouxland Blood Bank.

At Wayne County Jail

Detention center opens Thursday

By Chuck Hackenmiller
Managing Editor

Nebraska's pioneer project — a juvenile detention center in Wayne — will be ready for operation on Thursday, Dec. 8, according to Wayne County Sheriff LeRoy Janssen.

The site of the juvenile detention center is the current Wayne County Jail.

Earlier in 1988, it was brought to the attention of the Wayne County Board of Commissioners that the Federal Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention Act necessitated the establishment of separate juvenile detention facilities. Wayne County, as well as other counties across the state with jail facilities, was required to keep juveniles "sight and sound separated" from adults at the jail sites.

In order for Wayne County to keep juveniles and adults at their facility beyond Dec. 8, it would require extensive remodeling to meet the federal jail standards, Janssen had said. The estimate cost for remodeling, to comply with the federal law, would reach over $100,000, he said earlier this year.

Another option presented was to allow the Wayne County Jail to become a centralized juvenile detention center for counties in northeast Nebraska — under the operational supervision of the Wayne County Sheriff.

The 23 counties within the Northeast Nebraska Sheriff's Association District would be entitled to use the central facility for their juveniles on a space available basis and for a per diem cost.

THOSE SAME counties would accept adult prisoners from Wayne County on a space available basis and for a per diem cost.

The Wayne County Commissioners approved the centralized juvenile detention center concept on a trial basis, as long as the center would be funded by the state according to what was requested in grant assistance.

A $175,000 grant for the centralization juvenile detention center plan in Wayne County was approved by the Nebraska State Crime Commission in October of this year. The grant will be used, in the first year of the project, to assist Wayne County in the operation of the juvenile detention facility.

A match of about $43,000 by local governing units, added to the $175,000 in federal money, makes $218,000 available for the operation of the facility.

Counties who have contracted, or will be contracting, for use of the centralized juvenile detention center include Wayne, Madison, Antelope, Knox, Cumming, Colfax, Cedar, Dixon, Stanton, Platte, Pierce, Nance and Burr.

JANSSEN said the contract fee for each county using the juvenile detention facility represents 75 percent of the local match share.

"The remaining 25 percent of the local match will be gained on the $15 per diem charge to the counties that provide the juveniles," Janssen added.

Conway post challenged

By Chuck Hackenmiller
Managing Editor

A State Board of Canvassers certified Monday the re-election of District 17 State Senator Gerald Conway of Wayne.

However, former State Senator J.R. Murphy of South Sioux City has voiced objections to Conway serving in the legislature while he still is a professor at Wayne State College.

Under the Legislative Power Article III Section 9 in the Nebraska Constitution (Legislators; disqualifications) it states the following: "No person holding office under the authority of the United States, or any lucrative office under the authority of this state, shall be eligible to, or have a seat in the Legislature. No person elected or appointed to the Legislature shall receive any civil appointment to a state office while holding membership in the Legislature or while the Legislature is in session, and all such appointments shall be void."

It was reported in the Omaha World-Herald that Murphy met with the State Board of Canvassers and said Conway should not be issued the election certificate because two constitutional provisions bar him from holding office. Being a teacher at Wayne State College, thus having a lucrative state office, would bar him from serving in the legislature, according to Murphy.

CONWAY, who was elected this past November to a second term as District 17 legislative representative by a 55 percent to 45 percent margin over Tore Nelson of Emerson, currently is seeking the chairman post of the legislature's Banking Committee.

The legislature will begin its 90 day session on Jan. 4, 1989.

Conway said Tuesday he teaches in the division of business at Wayne State College during the fall, when the number of offered courses are greater than in the spring. During the spring, Conway performs his duties as a legislator while he is on an unpaid leave of absence from Wayne State College.

He said the issue about holding two offices was brought up four years ago while he was campaigning for a first term in the legislature. At that time, he sought legal council "from a well-respected law firm," he said. The legal interpretation from the law firm indicated Conway could remain

Of carbon monoxide

Winside student dies from asphyxiation

Funeral services took place Tuesday morning at the Winside High School gymnasium for Christopher Nau, who died Sunday at his Winside home.

According to the Wayne County Attorney, Chris, age 17 and a senior at Winside High School, was found dead by a family member around 3:20 Sunday afternoon. Chris was in his vehicle that was parked inside an unattached garage near his home. The car was running at the time he was found.

An autopsy report revealed that Chris died of asphyxiation from carbon monoxide.

Chris was born March 27, 1971 in Norfolk, the son of Donald Nau and Joann Nau (Kramer). He was baptized at St. Peter's Catholic Church in Stanton and confirmed at Trinity Lutheran Church in Winside.

While at Winside High School, he was active in sports, drama and music.

Chris is survived by his parents Donald Nau of Wayne and Joann and David Kramer of Winside; three brothers, Dallas Nau of Columbus, Brent Nau of Winside and Aaron Nau of Winside; a step brother, Scott Kramer of Winside; two step sisters, Jenny Kramer of Winside and Heidi Kramer of Norfolk; grandparents Roman and Jeanette Nau of Stanton and Mrs. Jesine Bauermeister of Wayne. He was preceded in death by one grandfather.

Rev. John Fale conducted the funeral service Tuesday in the Winside high school gym. Music for the service included songs sung by Tina Hartmann, members of the Winside High School Choir and the congregation.

Wakefield man dies from gunshot wound

A rural Wakefield man, Michael Carlson, was found dead from a gunshot wound early Saturday morning on a county road southeast of Wayne.

Carlson, age 36, was found by a neighbor on a county road six miles east and 3 1/2 miles south of Wayne at approximately 7:45 a.m. He had died of an apparent self-inflicted handgun wound, according to the Wayne County Attorney's office.

Services for Michael Lynn Carlson took place Wednesday at St. Paul's Lutheran Church in Wayne, with Rev. Wallace Wolff officiating. Burial was in Greenwood Cemetery.

The son of Walford and Donna Carlson Jr. was born Dec. 13, 1951 at Wayne. He attended Wayne High School and served in the U.S. Army in Germany.

He had worked for a railroad at Lincoln and at meat packing plants in Wichita and Dodge City, Kansas. After residing at Emporia, Kansas, he returned to Wayne in September, 1988 and had been employed at Heritage Homes in Wayne.

Survivors include his mother, Mrs. Marlin (Donna) Meier of rural Wakefield; one daughter, Erin Carlson of Emporia; wife, Dana Carlson of Emporia; brothers, Bill of West Point and Brad of Lincoln; and sisters, Mrs. David (Shelby) Owens of Carroll and Tammy Carlson of Wayne. He was preceded in death by his father.

Poster contest slated

The Farmers Home Administration (FmHA) announced plans to work in cooperation with Mothers Against Drunk Driving (MADD) as one of its public service projects in the coming year.

MADD was founded in Fair Oaks, California, in 1980 and has grown into a national success. FmHA/MADD are supporting the third annual Nationwide Poster/Essay Contest with the theme "Drive Sober, Drive Smart!"

This year's national spokesperson is Edward James Olmos from TV's "Miami Vice" and the movie "Stand and Deliver".
Lavern Ostendorf, county supervisor at the FmHA Wayne County office, said: "There are now over a half million supporters and members of MADD in nearly 400 chapters in 48 states. We are proud to be part of the Mothers Against Drunk Driving Campaign and hope the Poster/Essay Contest is a big success."

The Poster Contest is open to students in Grades 1-12, and the essay contest is open to Grades 4-12. The entry deadline is Feb. 13, 1989. Individual entries are welcome.

Winners will receive a cash prize, plaque and certificate, plus a trip to New York for the first prize winner.
Contact the Wayne FmHA office or local MADD chapter for further information or official contest rules and required entry blank; or contact the MADD National Youth Program, 669 Airport Fwy., Suite 310, Hurst, Texas, 76053.

Conway

as a legislator because, as a teacher, he was an employee and not a office holder.

"I asked for a legal opinion and I reacted by the way I was advised," Conway said. "The question revolves around whether an employee of the state is considered an office holder in the state."

"This is never something I have tried to hide behind," he added.

SHOULD IT be decided, through legal interpretation, that Conway's teaching position is an office of the state, he has a choice in selecting what office he wishes to pursue.

His choice, he said, would be to continue serving as a representative of the 17th District. "I think I have an obligation to the majority of voters who expect me to represent them," Conway said.

The legal interpretation "would not force me out of the legislature," he said.

A Legislature Credential Committee seats the senators at the start of the legislative session. A majority vote by the legislature, to not allow the seating of the state senator, could take place.

Conway said Murphy has "opposed him every time he has run for the state legislature post."

He said the issue of "two offices" was posed earlier to the attorney general, who did not act on the question.

News Briefs

Ak-Sar-Ben nominations

For the 45th year, Ak-Sar-Ben invites nominations from citizens throughout Nebraska and western Iowa for its annual Good Neighbor Awards. The program honors individuals and groups cited by neighbors for performing unselfish, neighborly deeds during 1988 without compensation or personal gain.

Nominations will be accepted from organizations and/or individuals and must be sent to the Ak-Sar-Ben Ambassador for the community. Names and addresses of Ambassadors are available, as well as nomination forms, by writing the Ak-Sar-Ben Good Neighbor Awards Committee, Ak-Sar-Ben Field, Omaha NE 68106.

All nominations must be received not later than March 1, 1989. Framed citations and gold lapel emblems are awarded annually to those selected by a statewide judging committee. Honorees will be announced about June 1, 1989.

Graduates from Kearney State

Two area students will graduate during winter commencement ceremonies at Kearney State College, slated for Friday, Dec. 16 at Cushing Health and Physical Education Facility.

Area graduates include Brian Cattle of Wayne with a Bachelor of Science degree in business administration (Magna Cum Laude); and Daniel Mundil of Winslow, Bachelor of Science degree in computer science and criminal justice.

Children's Christmas party

The TKE/Kappa Delta Gamma fraternity and sorority at Wayne State College will sponsor their 19th annual children's Christmas party today (Thursday), beginning at 7 p.m. in the gymnasium at West Elementary School in Wayne.

All youngsters of the Wayne community, grades kindergarten through four, are invited to attend the party free of charge.

There will be a movie and games, plus a visit from Santa Claus at 8:15 p.m. Parents are invited to join their youngsters when Santa visits.

Northeast music groups performing

Three music groups at Northeast Community College will ring in the season with a Christmas concert on Monday, Dec. 12 at 7:30 p.m. in the Activities Center Theater.

Members of the college community band are Virginia Maas and Kevin Maroltz of Hoskins; Shelly Buss of Laurel; and Leah Jensen of Winslow.

Meier in concert band

Brenda Meier, a freshman student at Midland Lutheran College, was recently named to the college's concert band. She is the daughter of Maxine and Harold Meier of Wakefield and is active in speech and drama as well as band.

Detention

counties (per diem rate not included) are as follows: Wayne County, $1,211; Dixon County, $878; Cedar County, $1,332; Stanton County, $803; Cuming County, $1,434; Knox County, $1,408; Madison County, $3,858; Platte County, $3,554; Antelope County, $1,064; Colfax County, $1,215; Pierce County, $1,042; Burl County, $1,084; and Nance, $581.

The grant money and local match will finance education and counseling of the juveniles, payment of staff, operation of the facility and purchase of necessary supplies.

Janssen said the detention facility will be ready for operation by Dec. 8.

"Our juvenile secure detention area is in place and ready to go. Up to 15 juveniles can be placed in the secure area of the Wayne County Jail," Janssen mentioned.

UP TO six juveniles can be placed in the non-secure area of the detention facility. The non-secure area had been the living quarters of Sheriff Janssen and his family.

"If we have 15 to 20 juveniles, we are at or near capacity," he said.

Janssen said six full-time and two part-time jailors are in the process of being hired for the new detention facility. At present, Wayne County employs eight part-time jailors.

"The newly hired people will go through 60 hours of training," said Janssen. Those on the staff at the present time will also undergo training the first year.

"Some training is about learning to recognize the problems of the juvenile individual — some counseling-type training," he said.

Counseling for the juveniles will probably be by a professional counseling service agency. The average stay for a juvenile, Janssen said, could be two weeks to 30 days.

Adult prisoners will be sent to neighboring counties with jail facilities at a cost of $25 per day per diem. At present there are no adult prisoners in the Wayne County Jail.

Wayne County's jail facility was selected for the site because it was more modern and adequately sized than other facilities in the area. "And our adult population in the jail was low enough," Janssen mentioned.

Wayne County is centrally located in the northeast Nebraska district, he said and Wayne State College serves as a valuable resource.

NO STRUCTURAL changes took place at the jail to accommodate the detention center program. "We'll have to put in an air conditioner for next summer in the secure detention area," Janssen remarked. Wayne County is also installing fire alarms in the jail area, which was required anyway to meet the fire code standards.

The juvenile detention center project runs Dec. 1 to Nov. 30. Seventy-five percent of the $175,000 ($131,250) in federal funding will be available for the next year. "Then we will anticipate going strictly on a per diem basis," Janssen commented.

Fifty percent will be available the following year, then 25 percent in the ensuing year, according to Janssen.

A joint board consisting of the counties involved in contracting for the juvenile detention facility will be established. Each board of commissioners or supervisors from the participating counties can appoint one member and an alternate member to the joint board.

An administrative committee to the joint board will also be appointed, comprised of seven members. At least three representatives from Wayne County will serve on the administrative committee.

The joint board, or the administrative committee, if so designated by the joint board, will annually determine the financing necessary for the expenses of operation and maintenance of the juvenile detention facility.

"Wayne County has no obligation to continue the project after the first year," Janssen said. "The Wayne County Commissioners review the budget of the facility and have the final say on the claims."

Janssen said he looks at the Wayne juvenile detention center venture as only a "temporary solution" in fulfilling the obligations of the juvenile justice act.

He foresees the project to be "phased out" and the state later establishing a juvenile detention facility and taking it over, if it meets with the legislature's approval in the years ahead.

Estrogen Hormone Replacement Therapy

Estrogen hormone is often given to women who have reached menopause (cessation of menstrual periods) or undergone surgical removal of their ovaries, the site of natural estrogen production. Although estrogen replacement therapy is often associated with reducing the incidence of "hot flashes" following menopause, estrogen may also help alleviate other potential problems such as osteoporosis (bone thinning) and bladder-genital problems including burning, itching, and infection. The replacement of estrogen may be accomplished with oral tablets, vaginal creams, intramuscular injections, or transdermal patches applied to the skin.

Endometrial hyperplasia is an abnormal increase in the number of cells in the endometrium (lining of the uterus). The increase in cells may occur with estrogen use. Some authorities believe that estrogen-induced endometrial hyperplasia can be prevented through the use of progestin, a female hormone. Progestin is often given for this purpose during the last 10 to 13 days of the estrogen dosage cycle.

Side effects of estrogen replacement therapy may include enlarged and tender breasts, water retention, weight gain, headache, nausea, and heartburn.

TERESA ELLIS leaps to tie up the ball against Pierce in action Saturday night.

Grapplers win dual

One of the biggest questions Wayne wrestling coach John Murtaugh was asking himself before Wayne traveled to West Point for a dual Tuesday night was, whether his team would have a let down following their success in Blair three days earlier.

Murtaugh was more than pleased with the way his squad responded with a 6-3 victory. "The sign of a good team is when you don't have let downs," Murtaugh said. "We came out and wrestled well and we intend to keep wrestling well."

There were five reserve matches before the varsity matches began. At 145 lbs., Dwayne Junck lost by pin twice. Jesse Brodersen at 160 lbs., also lost by pin twice. The only winner Wayne had in the reserve matches was Dave Hewitt at 171 lbs. Hewitt won by an 11-5 count.

The varsity matches got underway with Mike DeNaeyer pinning Ryan Meier at 3:49. DeNaeyer was Wayne's 103 lb. wrestler. At 112 lbs., Eric Cole won a 6-4 decision over Mark Burmood.

Chris Janke won by pin in the 119 lb. category over Dave Hanel at the 3:19 mark. Meanwhile at 125 lbs., Trevor Wehrer won by pin at the 5:34 mark over Brandon Ruppert.

At 130 lbs., Jason Fink won by forfeit. At 135 lbs., Greg DeNaeyer won 6-0 over Clay Throener. Chris Corbit won by pin in the 140 lb. match over Joe Ventris at the 2:57 mark.

Corey Frye also won by pin in the 145 lb. match over Cory Hanel at 4:10. Tom Etter kept things going in the right direction with an 11-2 decision over Doug Kreikemeier.

Wayne's only loss on the evening was Jason Cole's 7-2 loss to Eric Ruppert. Incidentally, Cole has an injured knee and is questionable for Saturday's meet in West Point's Invitational. "Jason injured his knee at Blair, and he's been struggling since," Murtaugh said.

At 171 lbs., Jason Ehrhardt came away with a 7-3 win over Lance Schademann. Meanwhile at 189 lbs., Chris Luft needed just 3:19 to pin Shawn Holtz. Matt Bruggeman recorded the fastest pin for the Blue Devils as he needed just 1:26 to pin Craig Schmeckpeper.

Laurel defeated

Laurel's Lady Bears lost their second game in as many outings last Friday, losing to Crofton by a 55-39 count.

Coach Pam Tishaw saw her squad surrender 20 first quarter points which put them in a catch up situation for the rest of the game, as they could only net six first quarter points.

Amy Newton led the Bears in scoring with 12 points. She also led in rebounding with seven caroms. Sherri McCorkindale was the only other Laurel player in double figures with 11. McCorkindale also accounted for six rebounds.

Heather Thomas and Kim Mathiason each netted five points while Amy Adkins netted four. Jesse Monson rounded out the scoring with two points.

Addink wins

The Wayne Herald Football Contest was won by Wakefield resident John Addink. Addink missed only two games while no other contestant could fare as well. Addink's two losses came with Houston's loss to Pittsburgh and Oregon's loss to Hawaii.

Runner-up honors went to Wayne resident Alvin Meyer. Meyer edged another Wayne resident Jackie Nicholson by way of the tie-breaker. Both contestants missed three games but Meyer was 11 points closer to the total number of points scored between Army, Hawaii and the Minnesota Vikings.

Meyer's three losses came with Oregon's loss to Hawaii, Philadelphia's loss to Washington and Houston's loss to Pittsburgh. Nicholson's three losses included Seattle's loss to New England, Philadelphia's loss to Washington and Houston's loss to Pittsburgh.

Good Luck everybody on the Wayne Herald's final contest of the year!

Wayne girls win home opener

By Kevin Peterson
Sports Editor

The Lady Blue Devils opened their 1988-89 basketball campaign at home Saturday night as they hosted traditionally tough Pierce.

Coach Marlene Uhing watched as her team sputtered some in the first half, trailing by one point, 22-21 at intermission.

In the second half however, they began gathering momentum and composure, and they went on to outscore Pierce 35-20 in the second half, to post a 56-42 victory and a 1-0 start on the year.

"It took us a while to get into sync," Uhing said. "We let Pierce own the boards in the first half, as they outrebounded us 16-7." In the second half however, Wayne outrebounded Pierce 15-8.

Wayne, relying on its quickness used the full court press to help Pierce commit 19 turnovers to Wayne's seven. "Our defense did a pretty good job for the first game," Uhing said. "It's not quite the defensive intensity that we want, but it's still early."

Uhing was pleased with the competitiveness of her squad. "We played hard and well together," Uhing said. "We overcame some of the things we weren't doing that well."

Dana Nelson seemed to pick up right where she left off last year, scoring from long range goals and using her quickness on defense to force turnovers.

Nelson and inside threat Heidi Reeg each scored 16 points to lead Wayne in scoring. Teresa Ellis was the third of three to net double figures with her 11 points. Nelson connected on four 3-point field goals while Ellis notched one from bonus range.

Kristy Hansen added five points while Holly Paige began her senior season with four points. Rounding out the Blue Devil scoring attack was Tonya Erxleben and Robin Luft, each with two.

As mentioned earlier, Heidi Reeg may prove to be an inside force for Uhing. She not only scored 16 points, but came up with a team leading seven rebounds. Kristy Hansen and Robin Luft each hauled down four rebounds to offset Reeg.

Dana Nelson led the team in assists with four while Teresa Ellis and Holly Paige recorded three assists apiece. Nelson also led the team in steals with three while Ellis and Hansen recorded two each.

"Overall I thought that some of our individuals played pretty good," Uhing said. "As a team we did a much better job of rebounding in the second half."

Uhing also noted that her squad will be working on controlling the tempo, as well as running the fast break the way they think they should and not the way they did.

Wayne will be at home tonight (Thursday), against Battle Creek.

Jarrad Wood led in scoring with 15 points and he also pulled down 14 rebounds. Neil Carnes had 12 rebounds along with his four points. Willy Gross added 10, while Rob Sweetland had nine. Doug Larsen netted seven and Jess Zeiss rounded out the scoring with four points.

Wayne out rebounded Battle Creek 39-27.

Winside places third

The youthful Winside wrestling team traveled to Creighton Saturday to take part in the Creighton Invitational. The host team virtually ran away from the rest of the field as they tallied 16 1/2 points.

Winside however, found themselves in a race for second place honors among the 10 team field. Pender ended up gaining the plaque for runner up honors with 98 points, edging Winside by one point.

Winside, with its most experienced wrestler, only a junior, did a good job of competing with the senior oriented schools they were competing against.

"We fared pretty well," coach Paul Sok said. "The guys I expected to do well did." Winside had three individuals place first and one placed second.

Chad Carlson at 103 lbs., went 3-0 on the day to earn Winside's first championship medal on the day. Shane Geiger at 130 lbs., also enjoyed a 3-0 record on the afternoon and Winside's third first place finisher was Max Kant.

Kant won the championship over Corey Young of Creighton who had picked Kant up and slammed him to the mat head first. Kant won by injury forfeit, and suffered a mild conussion from the ordeal.

Winside's second place finish came from Brian Thompson. Thompson at 189 lbs., lost to Troy Adams of Creighton in the finals. "Brian really did a good job for us on the day," Sok said.

Other Winside wrestlers taking part but not placing were Jason Magwire, who went 1-2 on the day; Charles Bloomfield, 0-2; Jason Bargstadt, 1-2; Jeff Gallop, 1-2; Kerry Jaeger, 1-2; Trevor Topp, 0-2, and Jason Krueger, 1-2.

"Shane really had a good tournament," Sok said. "He was probably our wild man of the day." Sok was also pleased with the performance of Chad Carlson.

"Chad was our most consistent wrestler on the afternoon," Sok said. Sok also noted that even though his squad competed well, they have a long way to go to be in good form both physically and execution wise.

"We have to spend some time working on our moves from the bottom position," Sok said. Rounding out the 10-team field behind Winside Saturday was, Norfolk JV, 86; Clarks Fullerton, 77 1/2; Neligh, 76 1/2; Osmond, 70; Plainview, 58 1/2; Norfolk Catholic, 57, and Clearwater, 43.

Ponca downs Allen

Candace Jones scored 19 points Tuesday night as Allen traveled to play Ponca. Unfortunately, it was not enough to offset Ponca scoring sensation Kristi Wellenstein and the rest of the Ponca team.

Allen, after leading 32-25 at halftime, was outscored by the host team 42-20 in the second half to lose by 15, 67-52.

"We feel that the game was much closer than the score indicated," coach Jeff Schoning said. "We just played two different halves of basketball. The first half we played very good defense and Candace was getting the shots we like to see her get, and she was hitting them. In the second half they went to more of a zone and Candace only got four second half points while Wellenstein scored 18 third quarter points for Ponca."

Wellenstein ended the game with 33 points. An Allen downfall also came in the form of 31 turnovers, something Schoning would like to see cut drastically.

"We outrebounded Ponca 29-21," Schoning said. "The storyline was however, the many turnovers we suffered."

Toni Boyle followed Jones' scoring outburst with nine points. Amy Noe and Pam Kennelly each added eight points while Missy Martinson and Jenny Lee rounded out the scoring with four points apiece.

Allen's junior varsity team defeated Ponca 35-26, behind the 11 points of freshman Cindy Chase.

Trojans finally win

After suffering through a winless season in 1987, Wakefield girls coach Ellie Studer witnessed only 12 girls interested in playing basketball this school year.

There are no seniors on this team, just 12 hard working girls with positive attitudes. The Trojans lost their opener to Pender by 21 points, and thoughts of last year were again popping up.

Studer however, put those negative thoughts to rest last Friday night as her Trojans broke into the winning column with a 40-38 win over Homer. The win came at home which made it even sweeter.

"The girls really looked good," Studer said. "They showed excellent patience on offense and didn't rush their shots."

The Trojan defense didn't look that bad either. Homer's scoring machine Melissa Webb had come off her first game scoring 31 points. Against Wakefield, she managed only 12.

Three Trojans were in double figures on offense led by Lisa Blacke's 12 points. Wendy Kratke and Kristen Miller each scored 11, and Theresa Stelling netted four. Lisa Anderson rounded out the scoring with two points.

In Wakefield's loss to Pender, Lisa Blacke notched 19 points, followed by Wendy Kratke's six and Kristen Miller's four. Theresa Stelling had two points and Julie Greve scored one.

KRISTY HANSEN looks to score two during Wayne's 14 point victory over Pierce. Wayne, 1-0, will host Battle Creek this Thursday.

Grapplers finish second

Three Wayne grapplers came away with first place finishes Saturday, in the Blair Invitational. The meet was won by the top rated team in Class C, Tekamah-Hermann, who scored 209 points. Wayne was runner-up in the meet with 148 points, 53 1/2 points ahead of third place Gretna with 94 1/2.

Rounding out the field of eight teams was, Logan View, 85; Arlington, 79 1/2; Blair 78 1/2; North Bend 59, and South Sioux City, 33.

Gretna, which finished behind Wayne by over 50 points, is rated number seven in Class B. Out of the 13 different weight classes, Wayne came away with nine medals.

"I was extremely pleased with the way we performed this early in the season," coach John Murtaugh said. "Last year we finished sixth in the Blair Invitational."

Mike DeNaeyer grabbed Wayne's initial first place finish in the 103 lb. category. DeNaeyer finished first last year in the same meet as a freshman. He defeated Trey Mytty of Tekamah in the finals by the count of 4-2, following a first round pin and a second round 11-2 decision.

Eric Cole in the 112 lb. weight class, went 1-2 on the day and did not place. He did win his second match by pin, however.

Chris Janke at 119 lbs., placed second in the meet. After winning his first two matches by pin, he lost to Bret Ray of Tekamah, 6-1 in the finals.

Trevor Wehrer at 125, did not place, losing both his matches. Jason Fink at 130, did not place either, losing both his matches as well.

At 135 lbs., Greg DeNaeyer finished in third place. DeNaeyer won his first match 7-1, before being pinned in the second match. His third match resulted in a 14-1 victory, and his final match resulted in a 6-4 win over R.J. Ryan of Blair.

At 140 lbs., Chris Corbit did not place. Corbit lost a 6-5 decision in his first match before winning in overtime in his second match. He then lost by pin in his last match.

At 145 lbs., Corey Frye placed third. After losing his first match 7-4, he received a bye. He then pinned his next two opponents including Kent Plummer of Tekamah, the same person he lost to in the first round.

Tom Etter brought home a fourth place medal in the 152 lb. category. Etter recorded a pin, a 4-2 decision win, a 9-2 loss in the second round and a 10-0 loss in the consolation finals to Jason Jorgensen of Blair.

Jason Cole, wrestling at 160 lbs., brought home a runner-up medal losing 6-5 in the finals to Martin Metzler of Tekamah. Cole had pinned his first opponent and won by Technical Fall over his second opponent.

The most pleasant surprise of the day came with Jason Ehrhardt in the 171 lb. category. Ehrhardt brought home the gold by defeating Kord Quick of Tekamah 8-7 in the finals. Quick incidently, placed third at the state meet a year ago.

Ehrhardt won his first match by pin and his second match was a 6-5 victory.

Chris Luft at 189 lbs., took first place honors with a 13-1 victory over Jason Stinson of Tekamah. Luft also received a bye, and a pin.

In the heavyweight category, Matt Bruggeman placed third. After losing by pin in his first match, Bruggeman responded by winning his next three matches, all by pins. Including a consolation final victory over Ray Raymond of Arlington.

"Overall Tekamah ran away with the meet," Murtaugh said. "However, going head to head with them, we went 4-5, which isn't too bad against the number one team in Class C."

Murtaugh was extremely pleased with the wrestling of Jason Ehrhardt. "Jason has trained very hard during the off season, and he is really coming on," Murtaugh said.

Wayne will travel to West Point this Saturday for the West Point Invitational. O'Neill and David City Aquinas will sport teams at that meet, and Murtaugh says that both those schools will be very competitive.

Wildcats win fourth straight

The Wayne State mens basketball team won their fourth straight game Tuesday night in Wayne's Rice Auditorium, defeating Briar Cliff, 77-71. The win followed another big win for coach Steve Aggers. This past Saturday, the Wildcats traveled to Omaha to play UNO. Wayne State came away with a big time victory, 78-75.

"The win over UNO was a great win for our program," Aggers said. "When you beat an established NCAA Division II team on their home court, you're making a positive statement about your school."

Against UNO the Wildcats played with great intensity for the entire 40 minutes. "This is my fourth year at the helm and this is the best team chemistry I've seen since I've been here," Aggers said.

Aggers noted that his squad is made up of very unselfish players who work hard together. "This is also the first year that all the kids are our recruits," Aggers said.

Marques Wilson and Steve Dunbar were the major inside and outside forces for Wayne State's victory over UNO. Wilson scored 27 points and hauled down 11 rebounds while Dunbar blistered the nets for 19 points including four 3-pointers.

Sherman Petite added 13 points including two 3-pointers while Doug Kuzsak added 12. Mike McNamara netted four points while Arnie Hayes and Eric Priebe rounded out the scoring with two and one point respectively.

Wayne State is certain to draw some big time attention after defeating the Mavericks on their home court and then on Tuesday night, defeating another successful program in Briar Cliff.

The game started at an extremely fast tempo with Briar Cliff scoring, and then Mike McNamara answering on a 15-foot jumper, just a few seconds later.

Wayne State again played very intense defense. Aggers substituted quite freely to keep fresh people in all the time. It also helped with the full court pressure they applied to Briar Cliff, which resulted in 13 turnovers.

Wayne State led the visitors by six at intermission, 41-35. In the second half, the Wildcats built leads up to 16 points before Briar Cliff cut the margin to the final count of six.

The closest Briar Cliff came was four points late in the game. Steve Dunbar and Arnie Hays help shut the door by hitting the front ends of one-and-one opportunities.

"We did a nice job of playing pressure defense and passing the ball," Aggers said. "In the first half we hit 65 percent of our shots on 15 of 23 attempts."

Aggers feels that Wayne State's biggest weakness right now has to be the turnovers they suffer. "We had 15 against Briar Cliff," Aggers said. "I think a lot has to do with number of people we play."

Aggers also noted his gratitude toward the big crowd which witnessed Wayne State's fifth win of the season in seven attempts.

The Wildcats were again led by junior Marques Wilson. Wilson scored 24 points and again hit double figures in rebounding with 12. "No player since I've been here, has gone this many consecutive games with double figures in both rebounds and points," Aggers said. Wilson has scored over 20 points in every outing this season and hit double figures in rebounds in every game.

Steve Dunbar and Mike McNamara each netted 10 points for the Wildcats while Sherman Petite added nine. Doug Kuzsak added seven points and Eric Priebe scored six. Others aiding the Wildcats were Arnie Hayes with five, and Casey Gates, Oliver Cesar and Bryon Young all had two points each.

Wayne State will now turn its attention to the University of South Dakota, which comes to Rice Auditorium next Tuesday. "This will be the first time a major University has ever come to Wayne State to play basketball," Aggers said.

Schnitzler leads WSC

Linda Schnitzler poured in 27 points Saturday night in Rice Auditorium, as she led her Wayne State Wildcats to a blowout of St. Mary's, 80-53. The win upped first year head coach Liz O'Brien's record to 2-3. St. Mary's record remained winless at 0-4.

"It was a big score, but we really didn't play all that well," O'Brien said. "We suffered 29 turnovers in the game and that is entirely too many."

O'Brien noted that the Wildcats were called for traveling a lot and tried to force a lot of passes into the middle. "We were down 13-6 in the first few minutes of the game," O'Brien said. "We called timeout to regroup and then we came out and played with good intensity."

One area O'Brien hopes her team improves on quickly is free throw shooting. "We only made six free throws in 16 attempts," O'Brien said. "And a lot of those were front ends of one-and-ones."

One of O'Brien's most consistent performers throughout the first five games is Linda Schnitzler. The Battle Creek native is well on track to eclipse all the WSC scoring records.

"Linda is a very consistent performer," O'Brien said. "But we feel our success will come with Shell Schumann and Mary Beth Ehrhorn also hitting the double figure mark each game."

Against St. Mary's, Schumann scored 17 points, her best outing of the season, while Ehrhorn notched 13 points. Schnitzler as mentioned earlier, led all scorers with 27 points. She also led all rebounders with 11 caroms to her credit.

Kristie Lierman and Amy Wattier followed with six rebounds apiece to help Wayne State rebound St. Mary's, 59-43.

Lori Rath and Julie Heath each scored six points to aid in Wayne State's victory while Jodene Fink netted four. Wattier finished with three points and rounding out the scoring was Jodi Gillilan and Cindy Savage, each netting two points.

"Right now we're spending time in practice trying to be more consistent as a team," O'Brien said. "Since our point guards are so small, we have them shoot in practice with other girls in their face."

O'Brien feels that although the Wildcats maintain a 2-3 record, the three losses were aided by Wayne State defeating themselves. "We had 32 turnovers against Missouri Western last week," O'Brien said. "Eventually I would like to see our team cut the turnover margin to 10 per game."

O'Brien also feels that the defense has been to inconsistent so far, but that it should turn around as the team gets more used to what is being asked of them.

Bowl down Cancer week results

Bowl down Cancer Week was held last week with 334 men and women bowlers in their respective leagues taking part. Seventy percent of the $1 donation went to the Cancer Foundation, while 30 percent was used for a prize fund for the participants.

The contest was broke down between men and women and the participants who bowled the most total pins over their average during the three regular league games of that night, were the winners.

Ardith Sommerfeld captured the women's crown with a 122 pins over her average on the night. Jo Ostrander was second bowling 90 pins over her average while Mary Sturm placed third, bowling 84 pins over her average.

Fourth place went to Janet Heithold, bowling 83 pins over her average, while fifth place went to Carol Niemann, bowling 73 pins over her average.

The men's crown was copped by Todd Beacom, who bowled 114 pins over his average. Second place went to Bryan Denklaue, bowling 98 pins over his average while third place was won by Elmer Peter, bowling 84 pins over his average.

Fourth and fifth places were won by Neal Greenwald and Chris Lueters, bowling 83 and 82 pins respectively, over their average.

Junior high girls in action

The Wayne seventh and eighth grade girls basketball teams were in action Monday night in Wayne's City Auditorium.

In the first contest, the Wayne seventh graders downed Schuyler by a 16-13 count. Tami Schluns and Claire Rasmussen led the way with four points each. Audra Sievers, Jill O'Leary, Twila Schindler and Beth Dorcey each added two points.

The Wayne eighth grade got past their Schuyler counterparts, 24-17. Susie Ensz led the way with 12 points. Liz Reeg added nine while Erin Pick and Danielle Nelson rounded out the scoring with three and two points respectively.

This past Saturday, Wayne's junior high girls competed against visiting South Sioux City. The seventh grade contest was won by Wayne, 18-11. Tami Schluns led the way with 11 points. Twila Schindler added three while Audra Sievers and Jill O'Leary added two each.

The eighth grade contest was totally dominated by the host school in Wayne. The Blue Devils won by a 39-13 margin. Leading the way was Liz Reeg with 12 points. Erin Pick followed with nine while Danielle Nelson added six.

Susie Ensz and Kris DeNaeyer each added five points while Teresa Witkowski rounded out the scoring with a deuce to her credit.

The junior high girls are coached by Nannette Schulz. Their next contest is slated for Saturday, December 10 in Pierce.

Allen competing well

The high spirited Allen Eagles boys basketball team may have an 0-2 record, but those thinking it could be another winless year, such as last year, may have another thing coming.

First year coach Gary Troth has watched his Eagles play two very competitive games against teams which literally blew them out last season.

The game against Winside last Thursday may have ended up being an 18 point game, but the score was close throughout much of the game.

Last Friday then, Allen played a very talented Coleridge team. Allen stayed close to the Bulldogs, trailing by only three at intermission, 31-28. Coleridge's experience then took over in the second half as they outscored the Eagles 27-16, to post a 15 point victory. "It was a very competitive performance by our team," Troth said. "The kids really feel pretty good about their performances."

Troth said his Eagles felt coming into the season that their first three games would be among the toughest all year against Winside, Coleridge and Ponca.

Allen was led in scoring against Coleridge by Kent Chase. The junior nailed two 3-pointers and ended up with 10 points and eight rebounds for the game.

Matt Hingst and Todd Hohenstein followed with eight points apiece while Shane Dahl netted seven. Tyler Harder added six points and rounding out the scoring was Ben Jackson and Jim Preston with two points apiece.

Laurel defeats Osmond

After losing their opening game on the road at Crofton, Laurel boys basketball coach Mark Hrabik was hoping his squad would respond to the challenge of winning its first home contest the following Saturday night against Osmond.

The Bears came out gunning quickly in the first quarter and built a seven point cushion heading into the second period. A margin which would never be threatened by Osmond as Laurel doubled the score on the visitors 32-16 at intermission.

The Bears went on to post a 69-40 victory to even the season mark at 1-1. "We played a lot more intense basketball against Osmond," Hrabik said. "During the last few minutes against Crofton we picked up our intensity level quite a bit, and we just carried that over against Osmond."

Laurel pressed full court nearly the whole game and that resulted in 26 Osmond turnovers. That pressure defense turned into a productive Laurel offense.

"We feel that we are in good shape conditionally," Hrabik said. "We used eight kids in the first half and nine in the second half to keep our press fresh."

John Schutte led the Bear attack with 22 points and 11 rebounds. Doug Manz and Troy Twohig were also in double figures with 14 and 11 points respectively.

Matt Jonas scored nine points for the Bears and recorded Laurel's only 3-point field goal. Matt Felber and Todd Erwin each netted four points and rounding out the scoring was Jon Pehrson with two points and Bruce Haisch with one.

Trojans defeat Pender; then lose to Bancroft

The Wakefield Trojans are 1-1 following an opening day win at Pender, and dropping a seven point decision at Bancroft last Friday.

Coach Paul Eaton watched patiently last Thursday as his Trojans dismantled Pender on their home court, 70-47. The Trojans were led by Andy McQuistan's 15 points.

Mark Johnson followed with 14 points, but Johnson also accounted for seven rebounds. Stuart Clark and Matt Tappe each contributed 10 points apiece while Scott Lund managed seven.

"We shot 68 percent from the field," Eaton said. "That was better than our dismal 11-22 free throw shooting."

Eaton said his Trojans played extremely good defense and played an overall good first game, especially on the road.

On Friday night, Wakefield traveled to Bancroft for a rematch of last year's sub-district final in which Bancroft won handily.

Bancroft defeated Wakefield 52-45, in a contest which was more or less won by Wakefield. "We led the whole way," Eaton said. "In the fourth quarter we were outscored 24-15. I don't know if we just got tired from two consecutive road games in two days or what."

With about 1:30 left in the contest, Bancroft jumped ahead of Wakefield. Down by two points, Wakefield, looking for perhaps the last shot, double dribbled and the ball was turned over to Bancroft.

They went down and scored two points, and Wakefield was called for touching the glass, and Bancroft was given two technical foul shots. That accounted for the seven point margin.

"We didn't play that well at all," Eaton said. "We played good defense for three quarters." Wakefield's bright spot was the play of Stuart Clark. "Stuart played a real good ball game," Eaton said.

Clark hit seven of his nine field goal attempts and finished with 14 points. "Our problem was that we didn't give Stuart the ball enough," Eaton said.

Matt Tappe followed with 10 points while Andy McQuistan and Mark Johnson accounted for eight and six points respectively.

KEEP YOUR DISTANCE

The safest way to avoid problems with broken power lines this winter is to stay away — and be sure that other people and livestock stay away. If you're inside a vehicle that is in contact with a broken line — stay inside until the line is safely moved. And, if you're outside, never attempt to touch the vehicle. If you see a broken power line, contact your local power supplier immediately. Above all, never assume that a power line laying on the ground is "dead" — it could be "deadly."

Remember, you'll have a safer winter if you keep your distance from broken power lines.

Independent Faith Baptist Church welcomes pastor

Pastor Neil Heimes is serving Independent Faith Baptist Church of Wayne as the congregation's new minister.

He and his wife Kris are the parents of two daughters, three-year-old Amy and 20-month-old Joy.

Heimes is a native of St. Helena, Neb. and a graduate of Pioneer Baptist Institute in Rapid City, S. D.

The Heimes family comes to Wayne from Hot Springs, S. D., where they had resided since 1984. Heimes was assistant pastor for two years at Calvary Baptist Church, Hot Springs, and senior pastor for three years. He also conducted weekly services in the county jail for five years.

Heimes's are excited to serve the community of Wayne and welcome residents to attend services at Independent Faith Baptist Church.

Students can apply for private grants and scholarships

Graduate, undergraduate and college-bound students in need of supplemental funding for college are urged to write to the Scholarship Bank for information on private scholarship sources.

The Scholarship Bank is a non-profit foundation which works with private foundations, the U.S. Department of Education, and financial aid offices to assure that high school and college students already attending college receive information on private aid sources.

Funds are normally awarded on the basis of the student's academic standing, major, financial need, and even on their willingness to consider a special research project.

It is estimated that over $500 million in private aid money will be distributed next year, or roughly one-fourth of all available aid.

Funds for undergraduate students range from $1,000 to $20,000 per student, with most scholarships renewable yearly. Graduate level grants also are available with values up to $25,000.

National organizations are funding women 25 and older who are returning to school to continue their education. Older female awards range from $500 to $20,000.

Students can obtain information by sending a stamped, self-addressed (business size) envelope to The Scholarship Bank, 13941 East Amar Rd., La Puente, Calif., 91746.

The Farmer's Wife

by Fat McLehenry

It's a little hard to get in the mood for Christmas when the weather is so balmy, but I will take the balm! I do have the cards almost finished. We received the first one on Dec. 1.

Many of my friends have their trees up. The lights began before Thanksgiving.

One of the things that happens when the season is so rushed is that the stores already look "picked over." Merchandise is already marked down, almost as if it were the last two shopping days.

When you get my age, the merchandise really isn't important. It's a minor part of the season. It's things like the little kids singing "Jesus the King is Coming" in church, poinsettias on the altar, and the Good Neighbors collecting food and toys and clothes.

It's holiday get-togethers, traditional foods, letters and photos from old friends, and most of all, carols and choirs.

THE BIG Farmer shared an article from "Working Fires" magazine that describes the world Plowing Contest, held this year in Iowa.

The World Plowing Organization was founded in 1952 as a way to give meaningful interpretation to the Biblical injunction to "beat swords into plowshares." Plowing competitions have been held in England and Scotland for 200 years and in the U.S. before the Civil War. Of course, those were ox-drawn plows.

There is plenty of time allowed. The objectives include plowing to a uniform prescribed depth; leaving only a single impression of a tractor wheel mark at the finish; making furrow slices that are straight, neat, and uniform; and completely burying all stubble and grass.

It sounds like an interesting event. I'm sure farmers can find many things in common, no matter what land they farm in. This year's winner is from England, and received a Golden Plow trophy. Next year's contest is in Norway.

AND I found a report by an outfit called Priority Management Pittsburgh, Inc. that contained some interesting statistics: the average American spends eight months opening junk mail (horrible thought!) five years waiting in line, and four years doing housework in a lifetime.

I wonder how much total time is spent: listening to telephone answer machines or a local radio station while on hold, hunting lost eyeglasses, and reading columns in local newspapers written by local ladies looking for local tidbits.

Happy Advent. There are eighteen shopping days left. Or, to put it another way, there are three weeks of music, food, and fellowship still to enjoy.

Business Notes

Farm Credit Services of Norfolk has announced the opening of a "service office" in Wayne.

The office will be located in the Professional Building at 112 West 2nd in Wayne. Initially, a Farm Credit Services loan officer will be available at this location each Tuesday from 10 a.m. to 1 p.m.

"The Wayne Office will be a convenience to existing Farm Credit customers as well as an opportunity to serve more farmers in Northeast Nebraska," according to Richard Herink, President of the Nebraska Farm Credit Services Region.

Farm Credit Services provides a full range of agricultural loans for operating, equipment, improvement and real estate through the Production Credit Association and the Federal Land Bank Association. The organization also provides financial related insurance services to its member/borrowers.

The service point will be part of the Eighth Farm Credit District which serves farmers and ranchers in Nebraska, Iowa, South Dakota and Wyoming.

'Hacken' Away
by Chuck Hackenmiller

Okay, okay — I'm doing it, I'm doing it. I hope people are happy. In this column is where I will mention the 'antics' of Lyle George, a Wayne area resident and a pillow salesman.

George, as many have read in other daily newspapers across the nation (I've had clippings sent from New Mexico and California), is trying to raise $5 million to send John Denver into outer space "as long as he could be assured that none of the money would be spent to bring Denver back down."

He has opened a fund drive account with State National Bank and Trust Company in Wayne, he said, and he has donated the first $10 to get it started.

If it exceeds $5 million? "We'll just see if we can get him into a higher orbit and if we hit $10 million dollars I'm going to personally request a geosynchronous orbit on the far side of the planet so he doesn't interfere with American satellite TV dishes," he said in a news release.

I made a promise to myself that I wouldn't write anything about this topic until I had seen at least the contribution total reach $5,000. But the pressure from people who have been wondering why there hasn't been anything mentioned about Lyle's project in the local paper — when radio stations and newspapers nationwide have picked up the story from the Associated Press news service — is getting to me.

So I've mentioned it. It's done. It's over. I strongly disagree with Lyle. But that's my own personal feeling. Denver, to me, is an enjoyable and refreshing change of pace from modern rock and roll. Could be, too, that my age is showing a bit.

Lyle is a good promoter of Wayne. I'll grant him that. He has given Wayne some national recognition with his statements about Denver.

I had never thought that Wayne, Nebraska would become Wayne, America — but it did under Lyle's persistence. I'm glad of that.

But I'm not supporting him on this one. No offense, Lyle, but I'm not biting. Guess I feel that there are five million other worthwhile things to raise $5 million for.

And sending John Denver into space, particularly in a Russian spaceship, is not one of them. The grinch is out again. Stealing holiday decorations from somebody's outdoor display is cruel and heartless. Especially during the season when the spirit of Christmas is giving.

There have been cases reported to the police department of light strings missing. We know of a person who had displayed a personal hand-crafted gift made by a father now deceased. It was stolen, according to a source.

Lay off! This town has no room for people that show disdain for other peoples' property. Lay off the theft business and direct those energies to doing some good will. You'll feel lots better about yourself.

A form of tatoo called "Blue Star" is being sold to school children in some parts of the county. We don't know where this drug is being sold. We don't even know where this information came from, but evidently many newspapers have been provided the information.

It's a small sheet of white paper containing blue stars the size of pencil erasers. Each star is soaked with LSD.

Some brightly-colored paper tabs resembling postage stamps, with a variety of pictures on them, have also been detected as a way of selling ACID to young children. They are stamps packed in a red cardboard box wrapped in foil, the news release says.

Other stamps can also be laced with drugs, the news release (from who knows where) says. Symptoms are hallucinations, severe vomiting, uncontrolled laughter, mood change and change in body temperature. Don't panic over it. Just be aware of it.

COMMUNITY CHILDREN'S CONCERT

The Carroll Community Club and a group of parents are planning to sponsor a community children's concert for all area youngsters in grades kindergarten through six, including those not attending Wayne-Carroll school.

All youngsters of the Carroll area are invited to participate on a voluntary basis. The concert will consist of traditional Christmas carols. Santa Claus also will make an appearance with treats for all children.

The concert will take place in the Carroll auditorium on Monday, Dec. 12 at 7:30 p.m. A practice is scheduled Sunday, Dec. 11 at 3 p.m. at the auditorium.

Parents who would like additional information about the event are asked to contact Joni Tietz, 585-4805.

SUNDAY SCHOOL TEACHERS MEET

Six Sunday school teachers and the Rev. Mark Miller met Nov. 28 in St. Paul's Lutheran fellowship hall.

Plans were finalized for the children's Christmas program, "Little Children Can You Tell," to be presented Sunday, Dec. 18 at 7:30 p.m. Practices are scheduled Dec. 10 and Dec. 17 at 10 a.m.

A Sunday school Christmas party will be held Sunday, Dec. 11, beginning at 10 a.m.

Superintendent Mrs. Harold Witter was in charge of opening devotions. Mrs. Gerry Hurlbert reported on the last meeting and announced that perfect attendance certificates for September through November will be presented to Jessica Claussen, Chris Junck, Ryan Junck, Carrie Junck, Shauna Dunklau and Cindy Dunklau.

Pastor Miller was in charge of lesson helps and had the closing prayer.

There will be no Sunday school on Dec. 25, and the next teachers meeting will be Jan. 23 with election of officers. Classes were promoted on Dec. 4.

METHODIST CHRISTMAS PROGRAM

The Carroll United Methodist Church will present a children's Christmas program on Monday, Dec. 19 at 7:30 p.m. Theme is "Birthday Party for Jesus."

Program practices are scheduled Dec. 11 and Dec. 18 at 9 a.m.

MEET FOR BRIDGE

Mrs. Ann Roberts hosted the Delta D&K Bridge Club at the Black Knight in Wayne on Dec. 1. Guests were Mrs. Mildred Jones and Mrs. Genevieve Williams.

Receiving prizes were Mrs. T. P. Roberts, Mrs. Clara Rethwisch and Mrs. Mildred Jones.

Mrs. Alice Wagner will host the Dec. 15 meeting.

EOT CLUB

Thirteen members of the EOT Social Club met Dec. 1 with Mrs. Melvin Magnuson and had a Christmas gift exchange.

Mrs. Ron Magnuson conducted the business meeting and Mrs. Dan Hansen reported on the last meeting. Members answered roll call with their favorite Christmas tradition.

Winners at cards were Mrs. Cyril Hansen and Mrs. Ray Reeg. Mrs. Ron Sebade was honored for her birthday.

Clubwomen and their families met for a cooperative supper on Dec. 2 in the Wayne Woman's Club room. Cards were played with prizes going to Mr. and Mrs. Mike Dunklau, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Reeg, Melvin Magnuson and Mrs. Larry Sievers.

Mrs. Jerry Alleman will host the next regular club meeting on Jan. 5, with Mrs. Larry Stevers assisting.

SOCIAL CALENDAR

Thursday, Dec. 8: Carroll Woman's Club ($2 gift exchange), Carroll Steakhouse, 1:30 p.m.

Friday, Dec. 9: Pitch Club, Clair Swansons.

Sunday, Dec. 11: Carroll community children's Christmas concert practice, auditorium, 3 p.m.

Wednesday, Dec. 14: United Methodist Women; St. Paul's Lutheran Ladies Christmas party and gift exchange.

Mrs. Opal Cúrright, Kearney, spent Nov. 29 through Dec. 2 in the Clarence-Morris home. She came to attend funeral services for her sister, Mrs. Bonnie Stephens. Also attending the funeral service was Mrs. Margaret (Muggs) Helmers of Montrose, S. D., formerly of Sholes.

Jerry Junck of Carroll visited recently with Alan Cook in a Dallas, Texas hospital. Junck returned home Dec. 4 after being in Texas, where he called square dances in Dallas and in other area towns. He is a national square dance caller.

The Arnie Siefkens, Kendra and BrieAnna, Jamestown, N. D., spent Nov. 26-27 in the Merlin Kenny home. Joining them for dinner Sunday in the Kenny home were Jill Kenny and Rick Kenny, both of Wayne, and the Joe Kennys, Jim Kenny and Bob Kenny, all of Carroll. The group observed the second birthday of BrieAnna.

Overnight guests Dec. 3 in the Arlyn Hurlbert home for Kristen's 12th birthday were Christy McDonald and Angie Hudson, both of Wayne, Mandi Hall, Jennifer Hank, Carrie Junck and Sandy Burbach.

Guests Nov. 29 in the John Dunklau home to honor Megan, who was three years old on Nov. 30, were Mr. and Mrs. Harris Heinemann of Wayne and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Heinemann of Winside. Guests Nov. 30 included William, Gene and Lucille Schwede of Hadar. Thanksgiving Day dinner guests in the John Dunklau home to also honor Megan's birthday were Chris and Donita Barefield of Norfolk, William, Gene and Lucille Schwede of Hadar, Mr. and Mrs. Harris Heinemann, Scott, Steve and Doug of Wayne, and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Heinemann of Winside.

Mrs. Clara Rethwisch returned home Nov. 27 after spending 10 days visiting with her daughter and family, the Clarence Abbots of Morristown, Tenn. Joining them for Thanksgiving in the Abbott home were Mr. and Mrs. Kurt Rethwisch, Cynda and Derek of Monroeville, Penn.

Mr. and Mrs. John Rees flew to Las Vegas on Nov. 21 to visit their daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Bob (Penny) Williams and Robby. The event also honored Mrs. Williams' birthday. Reeses returned to Carroll on Nov. 29.

The Jim Hurlberts, Lincoln, came Nov. 24 and took his mother, Mrs. Faye Hurlbert, to Madison for Thanksgiving in the Ed Wolfgram home. Hurlberts were overnight guests with his mother before returning to Lincoln on Nov. 25.

GIRL SCOUT CEREMONY

An important evening for 28 Wakefield Girl Scouts was Nov. 21. The scouts were invested or re-dedicated for the upcoming year.

The girls opened their investiture ceremony with a flag presentation followed by the awarding of pins to the sixteen first time scouts of Brownie Troop 98. All of the girls recited the Girl Scout Promise.

This year Brownies of Troop 68 re-dedicated themselves and also gave a presentation of the Girl Scout Law. All of the Brownies sang the "Brownies Smile Song" for their parents and friends who attended the ceremony held in the school multipurpose room. A closing flag ceremony concluded the program followed by refreshments.

Leaders of Troop 98 are Brenda Puls, assisted by Karen Victor. The troop sponsor is Graves Public Library. Mary Brudigam, assisted by Joyce Wagner, are the leaders of Troop 68. Their sponsor is Brudigam Construction of Wakefield.

This year there were two Cadets who also re-dedicated themselves last week during the special presentation. They were Melissa Wirth and Laura Kucera. Cadet leader is Mary Kucera.

DONATIONS NEEDED

More than 20 children have already been designated for the Lions Club Christmas project for the less fortunate. The Lions are receiving donation of food, clothing, toys and monetary gifts.

While the Lions accept adult clothing, there is a special need for children's clothing of all sizes. The items should be clean and in good condition with the sizes noted where necessary. The toys should be clean and in good repair.

All items are distributed. Left over clothing is saved for future use, or made into quilts. This year six quilts will be included in the distribution.

Any items, material or monetary, may be left at the City Clerk's Office, The Wakefield Republican, Lefty Olson's office or with any Lions Club member. The Lion's mailing address is Post Office Box 69, Wakefield, Neb. 68784.

NEW BOOKS

The Graves Public Library has new books for the adults—the librarian recommends the following: "Tucker" by Louis L'Amour, "Pearl" by Tabitha King, "Thornhold" by Mary Stewart, "Sands of Time" by Sidney Sheldon, "Twist of the Knife" by Stephan Salomita, "Time Flies" by Bill Cosby, "Upon a Moon Dark Moor" by Rebecca Brannerwyne, "Blaze Wyndham" by Bertice Small, "Rumors" by Catherine Mann, or "Biscayne" by Barry Jay Kaplan.

For the younger readers they have several new National Geographic Young Explorer books—"Let's Explore the Rivers", "Animals in Summer", "Busy Beavers" and "Animals at Play". Plus the library has "Pee Wee Scouts Christmas", "Soup on Ice" and "How to Fight a Girl".

They also offer read-a-long books with cassette tape. The latest for youngsters is "Little Witches Big Night".

CITED FOR SAFETY RECORDS

Three truck drivers for the Milton G. Waldbaum Company were recently cited for safe driving records. Receiving Safe Driver Awards from the Nebraska Motor Carriers Association were Bob Smith, Bob Watson and Ed Sherer. President Dan Gardner presented the three their awards after a driver safety meeting on Nov. 25 at the Hotel.

To qualify, the drivers had to be accident free for the last three years with the company and have no violations, either with the truck or their personal vehicle.

SCHOOL CALENDAR

Friday, Dec. 9: Boys and girls basketball, Wausa; National school studios, picture retakes.

Monday, Dec. 12: Girls basketball, Emerson, there; school board meeting, 8 p.m.

Tuesday, Dec. 13: High school Christmas musical, 7:30 p.m.

Food processing center helps new industry; a response to state's changing economy

About three years ago, a Grant farmer walked into Steve Holmes' office with a handful of his crop and asked the seed dealer to clean it. Holmes expects such requests at his business, Steve's Feed & Seed in Grant. Still, this farmer surprised him.

"I looked at his hand and asked what seed," Holmes recalled while speaking in Lincoln at Food Processing Center Day. "The seed was so small that when we ran it through our cleaners, it spewed every which way."

Holmes didn't give up. He contacted the Food Processing Center at the University of Nebraska-Lincoln. The center provided him with technical assistance to adjust machinery to clean small seed.

Today, Holmes said, his business is the world's largest processor of amaranth, the tiny-seeded cereal grain. The reddish-flowered crop grows on more than 3,000 acres near Grant, in western Nebraska. Holmes said the dryland grain makes $1,000 an acre for producers.

"We have farmers who can't wait to grow this crop," he said.

Holmes credits the real success to UNL's Food Processing Center. In addition to the amaranth project, the center has advised him how to export alternative crops, such as tolu soy beans, to Japan. In the last eight years, Steve's Feed & Seed has grown from a husband-and-wife business to 12 employees.

OTHER entrepreneurs and industry leaders who spoke praised the center for helping the food industry evolve in Nebraska.

About 200 food processing industry representatives, state senators and University of Nebraska-Lincoln officials attended event designed to update legislators on current and potential food processing activities in Nebraska.

UNL's Food Processing Center, in cooperation with the Nebraska Food Industry Association, a network of industry leaders, sponsored the event.

The center provides technical, research and marketing development assistance to new and established food processors. A building for the Food Processing Center is scheduled for completion in December 1989 on UNL's East Campus.

Irv Omtvedt, vice chancellor of agriculture and natural resources, said the center unites several departments within the university to help private industry. The result is a good marriage for the public, private and university interests.

Steve Taylor, director of the center, said the facility has helped 47 Nebraska food processing businesses, such as Holmes', since it began operating in 1983. He said 75 more inquiries are pending.

"The growth since 1984 has been phenomenal and shows no signs of abating even with better economic times on the farm," he said. "So far, our biggest problem has been our own success."

Food processing is the Nebraska's leading manufacturing industry with 220 companies and more than 25,000 jobs, Taylor said. Food processing adds $2 billion to the value of the state's raw agriculture commodities and industry accounts for $332 million or 45 percent of the state's annual total manufacturing exports.

ADDITIONAL growth in food processing can be expected to close the gap between the state's No. 5 ranking in the sales of farm products and the No. 19 ranking in the sales from food processing, Taylor said. However, he said, the state must face problems in transportation and work force availability.

"Food processing is already a powerful economic force in the state," he said. "But I believe that we can do much better if we make a commitment to building upon this particular strength in our economy."

Other speakers echoed Taylor's comments about the state's need to make a commitment to food processing if the industry is to grow and aid economic diversification.

Food processing "is our future," said Virgil Froelich, president and general manager of Affiliated Foods of Norfolk, a food distributing company.

"Yes, there's a lot of opportunities. But, yes, we have problems sometimes seeing those opportunities," Froelich said.

Froelich cited the Food Processing Center as a good example of what happens when the state commits itself to building industry. He and others praised the cooperation among the university, the private sector and state government.

Mary Jane Edney, vice president of U.S. Mills in Omaha, said the Food Processing Center is the key to helping Nebraska respond to a changing economy. Edney, president of the Nebraska Food Industry Association, pleaded with legislators for continued support for the center.

"Remember the Food Processing Center is the heart, the lifeline and the core of the food processing industry," she said. "It must be supported."

Year-End Tax Planning

The 1988 year is rapidly drawing to a close and income tax time is just around the corner. The new tax laws affecting farmers and other business people makes it difficult to take tax deductions this late in the tax year.

There is a way, however, to still secure a significant tax deduction and at the same time prepare for your future retirement. As a business person, you can deduct as a business expense for the 1988 tax year of up to 20% of your net farm income (Form F) or your business income (Form C).

It is important at this time to give careful consideration to the opportunities which are available in 1988, because in some cases, you will need to take action before year end in order to take advantage of these opportunities. It is far too easy for us to put off tax and retirement planning during the busy holiday season, but just a few minutes of your time today can be a tremendous benefit to you in the long run.

If you are interested in exploring the 1988 tax advantages available to you and how these advantages can benefit your retirement in the future, stop by the IDS office at 416 Main Street in Wayne, or phone 375-1848 for an appointment.

LIGHTING CONTEST
Winside area residents are invited to take part in a Christmas lighting contest being sponsored by the Winside Women's Club.

Entry blanks are available at Oberie's Market. Judging will take place between Dec. 16-19.

DRAWING WINNER

The Winside museum committee sponsored a drawing for an 18-inch hand crocheted clown doll with a wooden cradle during the Winside craft show held Dec. 3.

Mrs. Bob Cleveland of Winside was winner of the doll, which was donated to the museum committee by Ruby Ritze and Victor Mann.

GIRL SCOUTS
Twelve Winside Girl Scouts met Dec. 1 with leader Peg Eckert. The girls each made an angel and star tree decoration for the Girl Scout's entry in the Fantasy Forest display in Wayne City auditorium, and a small Christmas wreath. Treats were served by Kate Schwedhelm.

The girls will have a Christmas party today (Thursday) after school. Dec. 15 will be the last meeting until January, and on Dec. 16 Girl Scouts and Brownies will go Christmas caroling after school.

Kate Schwedhelm, news reporter.

LADIES AID-LWML
St. John's Lutheran Ladies Aid and LWML of Wakefield met Dec. 3 for a Christmas luncheon and program with approximately 65 members and guests present.

Harriet Stolle was in charge of the afternoon program. Musical numbers included piano solos by Sara Mattes, entitled "What Child is This?" by Brian Mattes, entitled "Christmas Day Secret," and by Carmen Beckman, entitled "Good King Wenceslaus."

Lila Barner and Neva Kraemer presented a duet, "There Will Always Be a Christmas," accompanied by Imogene Samuelson, and LeAnn Schroeder sang "O Holy Night," accompanied by Sondra Mattes.

A devotional skit was presented, entitled "Christmas Customs Relating to Scripture." Eleanor Jensen and Harriet Stolle were narrators, assisted by Aid members as speakers. Members and guests joined in singing Christmas carols included in the narration.

Third and fourth grade girls Carmen Beckman, Sara Mattes and Julie Schroeder sang "C-H-R-I-S-T-M-A-S."

The program concluded with a vocal solo by Martha Prochaska, "Gesù Bambino," accompanying herself on piano.

Hostesses for the dinner and program were Mrs. Myron Meyer, Mrs. Kermit Turner, Mrs. Arvid Samuelson, Mrs. Eugene Meier and Mrs. Kenneth Victor.

During the business meeting, members discussed purchasing Christmas gifts for two residents of Wakefield Health Care-Center. A donation was made to the St. John's furnace and air conditioning fund.

Officers of 1988-89 will meet today

(Thursday) to plan the 1989 program. SERVE ALL
Serve All Home-Extension Club held its Christmas party on Dec. 2 with all 12 members attending. The group met for a noon luncheon at The Hotel in Wakefield.

Berneice Kaufmann and Alice Heimann were in charge of the social afternoon. Christmas carols opened the program.

Christmas pencil games were played with prizes going to Ruth Boeckenhauer, Grace Longe, Virginia Leonard and Gertrude Ohlquist. A grab bag gift exchange was held.

Next meeting will be Jan. 18 with Peg Kinney as hostess.

The Clarke Kais, the Terry Kais, the Kevin Kai family, the Brian Kai family and Cathy Kai and children were Sunday dinner guests in the Marvin Baker home. In the afternoon they had a Christmas tree decorating party and celebrated the birthday of Mrs. Kevin Kai.

The Arvid Samuelsons attended the Bancroft Saddle Club supper and Christmas party Sunday night at the Senior Citizens Center in Bancroft.

The Bill Hansens were Sunday guests in the Jack Hansen home, Omaha. In the afternoon they attended the piano recital of Joshua and Kiley Hansen.

The Alvin Ohlquists, the George Hollorfs, Margaret Kohlmeier, Hillsboro, Ore., and the Edgar Marburgers, Iowa City, Iowa, were dinner guests last Tuesday in the Lillian Fredrickson home.

STATISTICS

• A 10 percent increase in the median years of school completed by adults increases the rate of state employment growth by 17 to 19 percent, according to a national study conducted at the University of Illinois.

• In 1987, 23.9 percent of all children under age 18 lived with one parent, up from 19.7 percent in one-parent homes in 1980.

• By 1990, the Census Bureau predicts, one-quarter of the nation's population will be minority, a figure which will climb to 30 percent by the year 2000.

• Today, only 69 of about 15,000 public school districts in the country operate on some kind of year-round calendar.

• Increases in teacher salaries nationwide outpaced inflation in 1987-88 for the fifth consecutive year.

• The average combined state and local tax burden for the 50 states and the District of Columbia was $1,547 in fiscal year 1986.

• Americans have about eight million fewer children in school now than they did in 1970; about 8,000 school buildings have been closed.

• The U.S. Department of Education estimates that 120,000 to 260,000 children are being educated at home.

• The National Public Health Service estimates that by 1992, more than 179,000 people will have died of AIDS.

• Four out of five girls who become pregnant in high school drop out, while less than 10 percent of those who do not become pregnant to do so.

The GOLDEN YEARS

American patterns of health and safety habits tend to vary by age groups, according to a Louis Harris survey of 3,569 people. Those over 50 reportedly are best at eating right, not smoking, limiting alcohol use, and obeying the speed limit. The same age group is worst at exercising regularly and using smoke detectors. In contrast, people 25 to 39 are better at getting seven to eight hours sleep and using seat belts and smoke detectors, and worse at smoking and driving after drinking.

ADVENT LUNCHEON

Concordia Evangelical Lutheran Church, Concord, held their Advent Luncheon on Thursday evening, served by a special committee, to 46 ladies. Following the meal the Dorcas Circle gave an Advent program—Preparing for the Baby Jesus, with Naomi Peterson leader.

Theme—Christmas is a Time for Faith, Sharing, Family, Peace, read by circle members with Prayer and Christmas Hymn singing by the group after each article read of the Advent weeks ahead.

Also a piano duet by Marilyn Wallin and Naomi Peterson during offering, and solo by Bonnie Marburger at the close of the program.

Serving tables were decorated with Advent wreaths of evergreen boughs and red candles which were lit after each advent article read.

Thanksgiving dinner guests in the Roy Pearson home, Nov. 24 were—Don Pearson's, Casper, Wyo.; Harold Pearson's family, Akron, Iowa; James Coan's, Wayne; Kevin Erickson, Wayne; Alan Dinsmore's and Nickolas, Omaha; Kay and Kathy Coan of Omaha, and Vic Carlson's of Concord.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Hanson and Verlin Hanso, Concord; Joan, Lincoln; and Monica Hanson of Marysville, Kan. joined family members of the Hordville Gym Sunday for a pre-Christmas family gathering.

Celebrating Marlen Johnson's birthday at his home following bowling at Laurel, Nov. 29 were his fellow bowlers and their wives. Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Swanson, Mr. and Mrs. Pat Erwin, Mr. and Mrs. Evert Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Harlin Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. Verdel Erwin, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Nelson, Mr. and Mrs. Bud Hanson, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Anderson and Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Magnuson.

Mr. and Mrs. Bud Hanson were Sunday guests in the Marc Lawrence home in Waverly, in honor of the hostess' birthday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Swanson and Mrs. Evert Johnson spent Sunday in Omaha. Mrs. Johnson spent the day with Mr. and Mrs. Don Noecker and family at Boys Town, and Swanson's met their son Lon and Becky Swanson of Merriam, Kan. and Mr. and Mrs. Ray Segura of Shawnee Mission, Kan. for dinner in Omaha.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Marburger, Tipton, Iowa and Margaret Kohlmer, Longview, Wash. were Saturday overnight guests and Sunday guests of Pastor Marburger's. Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Marburger are staying until Dec. 8.

Mrs. Les Bohlen entertained her troop of second grade Brownies 225, Friday evening at her home. Attending were—Lacy Deberkow, Elli Harder, Lori Johnson, Kim Johnson, Amber Thompson and Melissa Thompson.

The girls worked for their badges; made a Mexican supper, made apple crisp, followed by crafts with dough art, played games, camped in overnight, made their own French-toast breakfast in the morning and returned to their home Saturday.

TRINITY LADIES AID

Trinity Lutheran Ladies Aid met for its annual no-host Christmas dinner on Dec. 1. Guests were Mrs. Dorothy Christiansen of Napa, Calif. and Trinity school children and teachers.

Following the meal, the meeting opened with a hymn and devotions by the Rev. James Nelson.

President Mrs. Hilda Thomas conducted the business meeting and read a thought for the day. Mrs. Bill Borgmann read the secretary and treasurer's reports. Committee reports were given and correspondence read.

Serving on committees in December are Mrs. Alfred Mangels and Mrs. Walter Koehler, visiting; Mrs. Carl Hinzman, church notes; and Mrs. Alfred Mangels and Mrs. Howard Fuhrman, care of communion ware.

Mrs. Bill Borgmann and Mrs. Larry Severson will serve on the current flower committee. The Aid will purchase two poinsettias for the church.

Monetary Christmas gifts will be given to the African Medical Mission, the East Fork Lutheran Nursery at East Fork, Ariz., and to Trinity teachers and custodian.

Yearbooks for 1989 were distributed and reviewed, and the meeting closed with the Lord's Prayer.

Mrs. Larry Severson and Mrs. James Nelson presented a program of Christmas songs and carols, telling about each one and with group singing of the songs as they were named. Accompanists were Mrs. Lane Marotz on piano and Mrs. Nelson on guitar.

A cookie and candy exchange was held at the close of the afternoon.

Next meeting will be at the school library on Jan. 5 with Mrs. Scott Deck as hostess.

ZION LUTHERAN LADIES AID-LWML

Zion Lutheran Ladies Aid-LWML held its annual no-host Christmas dinner, meeting and food sale on Dec. 1.

President Mrs. Duane Kruger welcomed the 21 members, 19 guests and Pastor George Damm, who conducted devotions.

Guests were ushered to their tables by hostesses Lindy Anderson and Mrs. Mel Freeman. Mrs. Darrell Kruger and Berniece Saegbarth were honored with the birthday song.

President Kruger conducted a brief business meeting following the meal. For roll call, members paid three cents to the penny pot if they were wearing red or green, and five cents if they were not.

Mrs. Ralph Saegbarth, Mrs. Orville Luebe and Mrs. LeRoy Koepke were in charge of the food sale. Proceeds will be sent to the Carson Regional Radiation Center.

Recognition was given to Mr. and Mrs. Earl Anderson for their 60th wedding anniversary of Dec. 26. Pastor Damm had a special message and closed with prayer.

Mrs. Galen Anderson and Mrs. Ryan Saegbarth will serve on the Altar Guild for December. The December flower committee includes Lindy Anderson and Mrs. Galen Anderson.

A program, entitled "Christmas Is," was presented by Pastor Damm and Aid officers, and included Christmas carols. Afterward, gifts were distributed by the hostesses.

Next meeting will be Jan. 5.

DORCAS SOCIETY

The Peace Dorcas Society met

Dec. 1 for a no-host Christmas dinner, with 16 members and 10 guests attending.

Mrs. Alfred Vinson and Shirley Wagner were on the decorating committee.

President Mrs. Norris Langenberg conducted the business meeting. Shirley Wagner reported on the previous meeting and Mrs. Bud Walker gave the treasurer's report. Christmas cards were sent to shut-ins.

Monetary Christmas gifts will be sent to several institutions and organizations.

Members were reminded of the Delta Kappa Gamma salad luncheon and bake sale held at the church on Dec. 3.

Mrs. George Wittler was program leader and presented a "Gather Around the Christmas Tree" candlelight service, assisted by Mrs. Norris Langenberg.

A gift exchange was held, and coffee, cookies and candy were served at the close of the afternoon.

Next meeting will be Jan. 5 with election of officers. Mrs. Hazel Wittler will be hostess.

In Ag Lending It Isn't Enough To Just Know Credit
To do the right job of ag lending it takes more than a knowledge of credit. A loan officer also has to understand agriculture.
When your only business is ag lending, it requires a real working knowledge of your customer's business...an ability to understand their practical day to day needs. This has always been one of the strengths of Farm Credit.
Meet the people who are part of today's Farm Credit Services team, people who not only lend...they understand agriculture.
