At Chamber annual meeting

Olds named Citizen of Year

By Chuck Hackenmiller

Managing Editor

Attorney Ken Olds was named "1988 Citizen of the Year" during Sunday evening's Wayne Area Chamber of Commerce Annual Meeting at the Black Knight in Wayne.

The announcement came from last year's recipient of the outstanding citizen award, Paul Otte, during a ceremony that followed the annual meeting luncheon.

Otte, in leading up to naming Olds as the Citizen of the Year, said that this year's choice "was a stabilizing supporter of the community; one who donates time freely; an encouraging force in a subtle way; and is a terrific role model."

"He [Olds] is a special person always putting first the interest of others. He puts his heart and soul into the community and it's people. These are very deserving words of this person," Otte, in describing Olds, said.

"When the criteria for the Citizen of the Year Award was received for this year's recipient, I can see how important the award was to me," said Otte.

OLDS, AN attorney with the Olds, Swarts and Ensz law firm, has served as a scout troop chairperson and assisted with the establishment of the Wayne Baseball Association. He has been a long-time member and booster of the Wayne Area Chamber of Commerce, Wayne Industries, Wayne State College and Providence Medical Center.

"It would be hard to find an improvement to our community in which this year's recipient did not participate," Otte said.

Olds was, or currently is, a member of the Wayne Kiwanis Club, Wayne Hospital Foundation, Wayne State Foundation and Educational Service Unit No. 1. He currently serves on the board of directors of the State National Bank and Trust of Wayne.

He has served as president of the Kiwanis, Wayne Industries, ESU 1 and the Wayne Hospital Foundation.

"Ken was an instrumental force in assisting to raise money to build the Providence Medical Center," Otte mentioned.

Olds has served in virtually every position in the management and operation of his church. He has been a member of the administrative board, in some capacity, every year. Recently he was appointed to the Trustees and the President's Council of the National Methodist Foundation.

"His primary contributions are those which often go unnoticed," Otte said. "He is a quiet man, who goes his own way. Always doing his part, plus a little more."

Otte then presented the award to Olds. After accepting the plaque, Olds expressed his gratitude.

"Wayne is a good place to live and to raise a family," he said.

Olds and his wife, Inez, have three children.

PAST RECIPIENTS of the Citizen of the Year Award include Dean Pierson (1978); Stan Morris (1979); Arnie Reeg (1980); Wayne Marsh (1981); Bob and Marilyn Carhart (1982); Lyle Seymour (1983); David Ley (1984); Bud Froehlich (1985); J. Alan Cramer (1986); and Otte (1987).

Sam Schroeder, who served as president of the Wayne Area Chamber of Commerce in 1988, opened the meeting by highlighting accomplishments of Chamber committees (Ag Business, Education Council, Legislative Council, Marketing Strategies, Retail Council, Visitor/Newcomer Council) during the past year.

He commented on the proposed new signs to greet visitors as they enter or leave Wayne. "Hopefully, when we meet again [at the annual meeting next year] we will be seeing the 'Welcome to Wayne' signs. They are going to be something for the community to be proud of, and they will set us out as a forward, progressive community," Schroeder said.

Visitor/Newcomer Committee Chairman Gil Haase has made a challenge that he will push a brick the length of a city block — with his nose — to raise the necessary funds to complete the sign project.

Approximately $4,000 is needed to construct the four signs on each edge of Wayne. The signs will be made with brick and concrete and each will be lighted.

SCHROEDER also gave credit to the Chamber Board of Directors. "They did a lot, doing perhaps what is not so visible to members of the community. They accomplished things such as revising or adopting policies, procedures or bylaws," Schroeder said.

He recognized the retiring members of the Wayne Area Chamber of Commerce Board of Directors: Marie Mohr, Rich Zrust and Carolyn Vakoc (as past president).

Afterwards, 1989 Wayne Area Chamber President Brian McBride presented Schroeder with a plaque for service as 1988 Chamber president.

MC BRIDE THEN commented on upcoming events, including the emphasis on the Education Council's "Friendliest of All College Towns" (FACT) program in 1989.

It is anticipated that Rivercades officials will select Wayne as an Honor City, which he said explains the theme of Sunday evening's annual meeting: "Charting Our Course For The '90's'."

Fund drive planned in battle against heart disease

By LaVon Anderson

Assistant Editor

February is Heart Month and the Wayne Affiliate of the American Heart Association has scheduled its annual residential drive on Sunday, Feb. 12.

"Everyone's help is needed to fight heart disease — the number one killer in the United States," said Marian Simpson, a member of the Wayne affiliate.

Simpson added that all interested persons are invited to assist with Sunday's drive and are asked to meet at Ellingson Motors at 1:30 p.m.

Among those planning to participate, in addition to the local committee, are members of the Modern M's, Loyal Lassies and Lads, Gingham Girls and Pleasant Valley 4-H Clubs.

Local committee members will meet at 1 p.m. at Ellingson Motors and the 4-H clubs, along with other volunteers, will arrive at 1:30 to receive their assignments.

Volunteers will be calling door-to-door between 2 and 5 p.m. and will meet afterward at Ellingson Motors for pizza being provided by the local Pizza Hut and Godfather's Pizza.

"WE HOPE THAT all of you will be generous with your gifts to help with research and education," said Simpson.

"Only through these approaches can we continue to lower the number of deaths related to heart diseases."

IN ADDITION TO Sunday's door-to-door campaign, residents also are asked to remember the American Heart Association's memorial program which provides an opportunity to honor the memory of family, friends, neighbors or business associates while helping fight cardiovascular disease through the funding of research and community service programs.

Claudia Koerber is chairman of the American Heart Association's Wayne County Memorial Program.

"A memorial is an appropriate tribute to the deceased," said Koerber. "However, memorials also are a tribute to the living."

For every memorial contribution to the American Heart Association, the AHA sends an appropriate memorial card on behalf of the donor. The amount of the contribution is not disclosed to the recipient of the card.

"THE AMERICAN Heart Association has been supporting cardiovascular research for nearly 40 years and over that time has contributed over $691 million," explained Koerber.

Koerber added that the American Heart Association has already made possible much progress in the detection and treatment of heart disease, including new advancements in high blood pressure control, cholesterol-lowering drugs, synthetic heart valves and pacemakers.

Wayne County citizens who would like to learn more about the memorial program are encouraged to call or write Koerber at 1010 Lilac Lane, Wayne, phone 375-1656.

PAM CALLAHAN and Barb Cunningham have roles in the production "Picnic" to be performed at Wayne State College.

Theatre department schedules 'Picnic'

A play, billed as "earthy, romantic, funny and full of sentiment," will soon be presented by the Wayne State College theatre department.

"Picnic" will be presented at Ramsey Theatre on Sunday, Feb. 12 at 2 p.m. and Monday and Tuesday, Feb. 13-14 at 8 p.m.

The production is a Pulitzer Prize-winning comedy-drama depicting the conquests of a "Kansas Casanova."

The setting is the backyard of a house too near the railroad tracks and grain elevators of a small Kansas town, where a group of women are preparing for an evening picnic to liven up the monotony of their lives.

Marco Garlic, Wayne, has the role of Hal Carter, the thick-witted college football player, turned tramp, whose carnal earthiness upsets the small Kansas community.

Admission for the public to "Picnic" is $3 per person. Wayne State students, faculty and staff will be admitted free with the proper identification cards.

Wayne girls avenge recent loss

Although the Wayne Lady Blue Devils wore the same home uniforms in Tuesday night's game against South Sioux as they did Saturday night against South Sioux, the results were different as Wayne was able to avenge its conference championship loss of three days earlier with a 58-53 victory.

The win gave Wayne the outright conference title for the season. South Sioux was hoping they could give Marlene UHING's squad some of the same medicine it did in the NAC tourney and for much of the game the Cardinals led.

However, when the game came down to free throw shooting, Wayne rarely missed. In fact, in the fourth quarter alone the Blue Devils connected on 13 of its 19 free throw attempts. For the game Wayne went to the charity stripe 44 times and connected on 28 of them.

"South Sioux really played physical basketball," UHING said. "Obviously when you shoot 44 free throws a number of fouls had to be called."

South Sioux did everything in their power to control Wayne's leading scorer in Dana Nelson. They had several girls rotating into the line up just to chase Nelson all over the court.

Both teams were knotted at 10 after one quarter of play but South Sioux got the ball rolling in the second quarter by outscoring Wayne 17-12, for a halftime cushion of five points, 27-22.

Midway through the third quarter Wayne went to a man-to-man defense and the change may have crossed up the Cardinal offense. At any rate, it fired up the Wayne team as they overcame an eight point deficit. Heading into the final eight minutes, the Blue Devils had chopped the lead to three.

Wayne took the lead about three minutes into the fourth quarter and eventually they stretched it to three and four points, forcing South Sioux to foul which enabled Wayne to go to the line so much.

Heidi Reeg and Robin Lutt came up with vital offensive rebounds off of missed free throws and scored on their ensuing shots which also proved to be a back breaker for South Sioux.

"You have to win the close ones if you're going to be a good team," UHING said. "Our girls showed a lot of composure by not getting shook by the aggressiveness South Sioux showed."

Dana Nelson and Heidi Reeg had 13 points apiece to lead Wayne. Teresa Ellis finished with 11 while Robin Lutt managed nine. Tonya Erxleben had seven and Kristy Hansen netted four. Holly Paige rounded out the scoring with one.

Heidi Reeg led the rebounders with 10 caroms while Tonya Erxleben and Robin Lutt managed eight boards apiece. Kristy Hansen also pulled down seven.

DANA NELSON lays a one hand shot off the glass during Wayne's 58-53 victory over South Sioux. The win gave the Lady Blue Devils revenge from last Saturday's championship loss in the Conference Tournament.

Lady Eagles down Wakefield by three

The Allen girls basketball team traveled to Wakefield Tuesday night looking for its seventh victory of the season against eight losses.

It was a close fought ball game throughout but Jeff Schoning's Lady Eagles prevailed, 52-49. "It was pretty close all along," Schoning said. "It was a good game to watch from the fans standpoint."

Wakefield jumped out to a 16-15 lead after one quarter of play but Allen maintained a slim one point lead at intermission, 29-28.

Wakefield edged the Eagles by a single point in the third quarter to knot the score at 36 heading into the final eight minutes.

Amy Noe led a well balanced scoring attack for Allen with 17 points. Noe has consistently been in double figures throughout all of January and the beginning of February.

Toni Boyle netted 13 points and Missy Martinson was the third Allen player in double figures with 10. Candace Jones was very close behind with eight.

Wakefield was led by a pair of freshmen in Lisa Blecke and Lisa Anderson. Blecke netted 22 points and Anderson poured in nine in a losing effort for the Trojans.

Candace Jones and Missy Martinson led Allen's rebounding charge with 11 and 10 respectively even though Allen was out rebounded as a team, 41-32.

Winside teams lose

Both the Winside boys and girls basketball teams were in action Tuesday night in the Wildcat gym against Wynot.

Paul Giesselmann's Lady Wildcats hit the hard court first and kept the crowd in the game throughout as they overcame a 14 point deficit in the fourth quarter only to miss a buzzer shot that would have sent the game into overtime.

"We got off to a very slow start," coach Paul Giesselmann said. "We just didn't seem very intense in the first half."

The ladies got off to a slow start indeed. Wynot took command early and held a 10 point advantage heading into the second quarter, 16-6.

Winside matched the visitors point for point in the second quarter but they couldn't erase any of Wynot's double digit lead and at intermission the Wildcats were still in the same boat, down by 10, 31-21.

The third quarter did not go as Giesselmann planned either. Wynot outscored the Wildcats 14-10 in the quarter to take a comfortable 14 point bulge into the fourth quarter.

Winside's defense though, came alive. Wynot could only manage five fourth quarter points while offensively, Winside went on a tear, scoring 17 points.

"I thought our overall execution was good," Giesselmann said. "If we could have just come out and played a little better in the first quarter it might have been a different story."

Part of Winside's first half troubles stemmed from the fact that they allowed Wynot to get ahead of 10 offensive rebounds. "In the second half we held them to one offensive board," Giesselmann said. "I think our halftime adjustment in that category did the job."

Winside was led in scoring by Kristy Miller's 27 points. Miller also hauled down a team high 13 rebounds which helped Winside to a 44-41 rebounding advantage for the game.

Christina Bloomfield was also in double figures for the Lady Wildcats with 12 points. Bloomfield also charged the boards fairly hard, coming away with eight rebounds and dishing out four assists as well. Bloomfield only took 10 shots on the night and hit six of them.

Tinia Hartmann finished with five points while Lisa Janke netted three. Jenni Topp rounded out the Wildcat scoring attack with one point.

Topp and Janke finished with seven and six rebounds respectively. Hartmann finished as the game's top assist player, dishing out seven.

The ladies fell to 5-9 and will travel to Osmond this Thursday.

Boys lose big

In the nightcap, the boys had to play a complete game without their star in Tim Jacobsen for the first time in the Jacobsen era.

Jacobsen sprained his ankle during the finals of the Lewis & Clark Conference Championship against Ponca last Saturday. Jacobsen's status is doubtful for this Thursday's contest at Osmond, but he should be back for next Friday's contest at Newcastle.

Although Randy Geier's troops put out a 100 percent effort, there was no way they could overcome the loss of a Jacobsen, who averages around 28 points per outing plus around 15 rebounds per outing.

At any rate, Winside led after one quarter of play by four points, 14-10. The second quarter proved to be a nightmare for the home folks. The Wildcats suffered eight turnovers in the eight minutes span and were outscored 17-4 to trail at the intermission by nine points, 27-18.

As if the loss of Jacobsen wasn't enough, Winside players were hit with the flu bug as both Gary Mundil and Mark Brugger were feeling the effects.

Steve Heinemann and Randy Prince led the Wildcats in scoring with 15 points each. "Hondo" managed three 3-pointers. Darren Wacker netted four points and Vince White added three. Mundil rounded out the scoring with a bucket.

Winside was out rebounded 43-39. Heinemann and Prince led the carb charge for the Wildcats with 12 and 11 respectively.

"I was pleased with the exception of the second quarter, with the way we played," Geier said. "The ball just wouldn't go into the hoop for us and we just seemed to turn the ball over every time we had it."

Wayne loses championship

The Northern Athletic Conference girls final pitted the host team South Sioux against Marlene UHING's Lady Blue Devils Saturday night.

Many Wayne fans made the chilly trip to South Sioux to watch as both the boys and girls teams were competing for the Conference Crown.

Wayne's girls jumped to a 14-10 lead after one quarter of play helped by a 3-point shot by Holly Paige. South Sioux though, rallied in the second quarter as Wayne began playing a little flat.

The host team outscored Wayne 12-8 in the second quarter to tie the game at 22 at halftime. South Sioux's Amalia Litras did a good job of faking her passes and then shooting during the second quarter spurt by the Lady Cardinals.

Wayne, trailing 25-24 just into the third quarter went on a 9-0 run to lead by eight at 33-25 with 5:27 remaining in the period.

Wayne would only score three points through the remainder of the quarter. South Sioux battled back and tied the score at 33 before Kristy Hansen sank both ends of her one-and-one opportunity and Robin Lutt sank one free throw with three seconds left in the quarter.

Wayne outscored South Sioux 8-5 to start the final quarter putting them up by a 44-38 margin. Tonya Erxleben sank a soft jumper and Dana Nelson sank four free throws following a technical foul on South Sioux's bench.

With 5:01 remaining and that same 44-38 lead, the Cardinals mounted another comeback. In fact, Wayne would only score four points through the remainder of the game.

The game was tied at 46-46 with just over two minutes remaining. Both teams missed chances to take the lead on their ensuing possessions. Finally South Sioux hit a bucket for a 48-46 lead.

Wayne was fouled but missed on the one-and-one opportunity. South Sioux responded hitting two free throws on the opposite end of the floor for a four point lead with just 22 seconds remaining.

Dana Nelson was fouled and sank her free throws to cut the lead to two. But Amalia Litras put the lid on the game by sinking two free throws when Wayne was forced to foul.

South Sioux finished the contest with a 53-48 advantage. "We had a couple of six or seven point leads in the game and we just made some poor decisions," coach Marlene UHING said. "We were flat most of the game. We expected them to do something to stop Dana's offensive potential, but we did a poor job executing at times."

Nelson went the entire game without scoring a field goal but the senior guard sank all 10 of her free throw attempts.

"Dana was 10 of 10 from the free throw line but the rest of our team was 6 of 16," UHING said. "South Sioux finished with a 17-22 effort from the free throw line."

Nelson led all Wayne scorers with her 10 points. Holly Paige and Heidi Reeg scored eight points each while Robin Lutt managed seven. Teresa Ellis, (6), Kristy Hansen, (5), and Tonya Erxleben, (8), rounded out the Blue Devil scoring.

Amalia Litras of South Sioux led all scorers with 15 points. Kathy Peltz and Kelli Bartels each netted 10 points for the winners.

The rebounding category was even at 34 each with Tonya Erxleben leading the way for Wayne with eight rebounds to her credit. Wayne turned the ball over 17 times, two less than their opponents.

"It was a case where we were not able to prepare for the game properly as a team," UHING said. "We did not have a team practice in our gym on Friday," UHING said. "The results showed because we were not ready to play."

Winside hosts districts Cats compete

Winside wrestled for the final time before Districts last Saturday in the Clearwater Invitational.

Only five teams showed up for the meet because of the inclement weather. The Wildcats under the dictatorship of Paul Sok, finished right in the middle of the five team field with 110 points.

Elgin Pope John virtually ran away with the team title scoring 155 points. Howells edged Winside by seven points with 117 total. After Winside came the host team Clearwater with 88 points. Rounding out the field of five was Albion's JV team, scoring 38 points.

Chad Carlson and Jason Magwire at 103 and 112 lbs., respectively were unopposed in the meet, thus automatically winning.

Max Kant recorded a first place finish with a 13-4 pounding of state rated Chris Kluthe of Elgin Pope John. Winside's final first place finish of the day came in the 189 lb. division with Brian Thompson avenging a defeat from a week ago to Clearwater's Brian Schroeder.

Thompson went on to pin Schroeder at the 3:59 mark. Schroeder incidently, is the fifth rated wrestler in Class D at 189 lbs.

Jeff Gallop, Jason Krueger and Trevor Topp all brought home third place medals while Doug Heinemann and Kerry Jaeger finished fourth in each of their weight divisions.

"With four of the teams backing out of the meet, it took away some of the luster of the tournament," Sok said. "I thought our kids wrestling was a little inconsistent."

Winside will host the D-2 district meet which begins this Friday and continues through Saturday. 14 teams including five rated teams will invade the Winside gymnasium with some excellent wrestling on the agenda.

Unofficially, three Winside grapplers will have excellent seedings at this weekend's district meet. Both Chad Carlson and Max Kant, both at the top of their respective weight classes in the state at Class D, will be top seeded.

Brian Thompson at 189 lbs., is likely to end up being the third seeded wrestler in his weight division. Shane Frahm and Jason Krueger may end up being fourth or fifth seeds.

Carlson and Kant finished the regular season with a combined record of 49-3.

Puttin' up with Pete

by Kevin Peterson

This column is going to cover about three or four subjects, but don't worry, I'll keep it short.

First off, I would like to congratulate the Wayne Blue Devils for winning the NAC Conference Tournament. They had to beat a stubborn and rated Cedar Catholic team for the second time in as many outings this season.

I would also like to congratulate the Wayne Lady Blue Devils for avenging its loss to South Sioux in the NAC Conference final.

In watching the games, I come to realize that the Uhing's not only teach the game of basketball to their young people, but they teach sportsmanship.

It was disappointing watching some of the South Sioux girls taunt the Wayne girls during their game, and it was disappointing watching some of the Cedar players crying to the officials after every call in the boys division.

O.K. enough of that. This past week many of us read in the World Herald of Lincoln Christian's game with Friend. An athlete from Lincoln Christian broke the backboard on a slam dunk.

It was reported that in the World Herald that an NSAA spokesman said it was the first time he could recall that the game was actually called because of a broken backboard.

Duane Smith reacted quickly to the alleged first time happening, and he contacted me at the Herald. Apparently, late in the 70's during a Wakefield-Allen clash, a gentleman by the name of Val Johnson of Wakefield broke the back board on his slam dunk.

Talking with fellow associate Rick Kerkman, who was raised in the friendly confines of Clearwater, the incident has happened around that area before as well.

Well at any rate, on to something else. Another friend of mine, Darrin Barner, feels that we should do something about the floor in the City Auditorium.

This is where we play our city league basketball in A-B-C. Looking at the floor a little closer, I can definitely see where Barner is on to something.

The floor is always slick and the wood is so run down that you can't tell it's wood. But what can we do? Apparently the conditions have been this bad for several years.

With all of the fund raising that goes on around here, I think we should do something to raise money to resurface the floor at least.

It's a little unnerving to be dribbling the basketball up the floor only to hit a dead spot and of course suffer a turnover.

Although city league basketball is just for fun and the auditorium is used for many other things, the resurfacing of the floor would not detract from anything. In fact, it might even attract!

Winside's boys basketball team has overcome a lot of adversity through their 1988-89 campaign. Yet, Randy Geier's Cats continue to persevere and with the completion of the Lewis & Clark Tournament where his team mustered a runner-up finish to Ponca, Winside has earned some respect.

Last Thursday in the quarterfinal round of the tourney, Winside defeated highly respected Coleridge. It was the first time a Wildcat team had escaped on the top side of a Coleridge team in a decade.

Geier's squad knew however, that their work was not yet complete. On Friday night, Winside was pitted against Wynot, a team which had also beaten them earlier in the season.

Winside jumped out to a seven point halftime advantage at 35-28, and never looked back enroute to an 80-65 advantage and a berth in the finals on Saturday at Wayne State's Rice Auditorium.

"We held a 15 point lead with 1:30 left in the third quarter," Geier said. "But Wynot began chipping away at the lead and at one point had the game down to a six point difference."

Geier felt his team showed a lot of poise by not folding under the pressure of Wynot's comeback attempt.

Tim Jacobsen and Gary Mundil combined for 49 of Winside's 80 points. Jacobsen poured in 27 points on offense but was a definite force on defense as well, hauling down 19 rebounds. "Jac" also dished out five assists in the contest.

Gary Mundil has been playing his last few games like he is a man with a mission. Mundil's normal role for Geier is to be a scrapper. Any points beyond six or eight is usually icing on the cake.

Lately however, Mundil has been an offensive threat and just one more thing the opposition has to worry about. Against Wynot the senior netted 22 points.

Randy Prince was the third player in double figures for the victorious Wildcats with 12 points. Mark Brugger and Darren Wacker each netted six points while Steve Heinemann netted five. Vince White rounded out the scoring with two points.

Steve Heinemann and Mark Brugger did a fine job on the boards coming away with 11 and 9 rebounds respectively.

Winside outrebounded Wynot to the tune of 57-48 and the Wildcats only suffered eight turnovers. Wynot only gave the ball away five times in a well controlled game.

"This could have been a game where we suffered a letdown," Geier said. "After beating a team like Coleridge for the first time in 10 years you just don't know how your team is going to react. Our guys reacted in a positive manner."

Ponca downs Winside
Saturday's final was a tough assignment for the D-1 Wildcats as they were to play C-1 rated Ponca with a 13-2 record on the year.

Ponca has a solid team and is a prime candidate to be in Lincoln next month for the state tournament. Winside's Tim Jacobsen seemed unimpressed by the little odds Winside had of beating Ponca.

Jacobsen scored all of Winside's first quarter points with seven. Even though the Wildcats trailed Ponca 14-7 heading into the second quarter, Jacobsen responded by hitting two straight 3-pointers to close the gap to 14-13, thus Jacobsen had netted the game's first 13 points for Winside.

Ponca's defense then went to work. They outscored Winside 17-6 the rest of the second quarter to take a 31-20 lead into intermission.

Geier's Cats did not fold however. They came out gunning in the third quarter and outscored the Indians 21-17 in the period to cut the gap to seven with eight minutes remaining.

Tragedy then struck Winside. Jacobsen suffered a sprained ankle just barely into the fourth quarter and was forced to leave for the rest of the contest.

Winside had just cut the Ponca lead to five when the mishap occurred. Winside was unable to contain the big men of Ponca in Gerald Armstrong and Phil Carter.

Armstrong finished the game as the top scorer with 25 points. Carter was right behind with 23. Tim Jacobsen had scored 21 points before being injured. The senior all-stater also had hauled down 10 rebounds to lead the team.

"The fourth quarter had been our strongest quarter all season," Geier said. "When Jac went down right away in the fourth, it severely hindered our chances."

Geier however, could not say enough nice things about the Indians. "They have a real nice team," Geier said. "In our last six games we were averaging over 80 points a clip, but their defense held us to 52."

Winside also been averaging over 60 shot attempts per game this season but could only get off 45 against the tenacious Ponca defense led by guards Ty Armstrong and Bob Lowe and of course Armstrong and Carter.

Randy Prince also finished in double figures with 13. Prince was 6-9 from the field. Gary Mundil and Darren Wacker finished with six points each while Mark Brugger, Steve Heinemann and Vince White all netted two each.

Laurel improves to 9-8 with win

Laurel held off a charging Coleridge team enough to post a 74-69 victory in Laurel Monday night, improving the Bears record to 9-8 with two games remaining.

The visitors came out gunning in the first quarter, opening a 12-3 lead before Laurel responded. Coleridge maintained an 18-15 advantage heading into the second quarter.

The Bears traded buckets with Coleridge in the second quarter eventually outscoring them by two points to trail by only one at the half way point of the contest, 34-33.

Things didn't get much easier in the third period as both teams kept the crowd on its toes with the lead changing hands time and time again.

Heading into the final quarter the game was knotted at 47.

Laurel opened up the fourth quarter in a frenzy. The Bears jumped out to a 10 point lead and forced Coleridge into a catch up situation.

Coleridge chopped the lead to three points and had the ball with just under a minute remaining in the game.

The Bulldogs missed a three point attempt and John Schutte was fouled on the rebound. Schutte sank both ends of the one-and-one opportunity he was given.

In fact, in the fourth quarter alone Laurel went to the free throw line 20 times and connected on 15.

Schutte had a phenomenal game scoring 26 points and hauling down 12 rebounds. Laurel did a marvelous job of holding off Coleridge who hit four 3-pointers in the final stanza.

"We did a good job considering we had to play much of the game without our top scorer," coach Mark Hrabik said. "Troy Twohig got his third foul toward the end of the first quarter and didn't play a minute in the second quarter. In the third quarter he played about 45 seconds before he committed his fourth foul and thus he didn't play until the fourth quarter."

Twohig still managed to hit double figures with 10 points. Todd Erwin offset Schutte's performance with 19 of his own. Erwin also dished out five assists.

Doug Manz was the fourth Bear in double figures with 11 points. Manz led the team in assists with eight. Matt Felber, Matt Jonas, Chad VanCleave and Kelly Daberkow all scored two points each.

"We got outrebounded 38-29," Hrabik said. "I wasn't happy to see that but Coleridge has a pretty good sized team." The Bears did a better job of holding onto the ball however, only suffering 11 turnovers. Coleridge finished with 20 turnovers.

Laurel will host Neligh this Friday night. They close out their regular season schedule a week from Friday against Wausa.

On the road

WSC men earn back-to-back wins

Both the mens and womens college basketball teams took to the road this past weekend with a Friday night stop in Joplin, Mo., for Missouri Southern, and a Saturday night contest in Pittsburg, Kan., against Pittsburg St.

Liz O'Brien's Lady Cats took their tumblers over the weekend with a pair of losses which dampened their season record to 5-14 and 1-7 in CSIC play.

At Missouri Southern, Wayne State only trailed by one point at intermission, 38-37. The host team got things rolling in the second half however, and rolled to a 75-64 victory over the Wildcats.

Mary Beth Ehrhorn and Linda Schnitzler led Wayne State in scoring with 22 and 21 points respectively. Schnitzler also led the Cats in rebounding with eight caroms to her credit.

The Lady Wildcats were only outrebounded by two at 44-42, but suffered 23 turnovers while the opponents held on to the ball better, only turning it over 16 times.

Men route hosts

The nightcap game pitted Steve Aggers' squad which is enjoying a successful season, at Missouri Southern, always a tough place to play.

The Wildcats came out ready to play however and point guard Steve Dunbar virtually lit up the scoreboard in the first half. The Omaha product hit six of his seven shots from three point land in the first half alone.

Dunbar went into intermission with 26 of Wayne State's 39 points. The Wildcats maintained a 39-31 advantage at halftime.

"Missouri Southern came out in a 1-3-1 zone defense and Dunbar exposed it," coach Steve Aggers said.

"Southern's game plan was to stop Marques Wilson but they let us shoot the perimeter jump shot and we have a lot of guys who can hit the outside jumper."

Aggers said that Southern was forced to play man to man defense in the second half which fell right into the Wildcats plan.

Wayne State went on to route the hosts, 85-61. "We hit 62 percent of our shots from the field," Aggers said. "Our bench also contributed heavily as Eric Priebe and Mike Rombout stepped off the bench to score 10 and eight points respectively."

Mike McNamara also scored eight points and led the team in rebounding with eight caroms as well. Incidentally, Marques Wilson, currently the eighth leading rebounder in America in the NAIA ranks, finished with only four rebounds and four points.

"Marques was suffering from a head cold," Aggers said. Steve Dunbar went on to score a career high 32 points in the game.

Cats get back-to-back wins

Wayne State's 82-73 victory over Pittsburg St., Saturday night, unofficially marked the first time in Wildcat history that they had ever swept back-to-back road games in the CSIC.

Blue Devils capture NAC crown

By Kevin Peterson
Sports Editor

Wayne captured the NAC Conference Tournament Crown by opening Hartington Cedar Catholic Saturday night by a single point, 57-56, in South Sioux's Mini Dome.

It was the second time that Wayne had defeated Cedar this season. The two teams clashed back on January 20, with Wayne coming out a 10 point winner.

Cedar was rated ninth in Class B at the time of the first Wayne victory. They re-entered the top 10 in tenth place just last week after dropping out following Wayne's initial win.

Well the Blue Devils spoiled another top 10 entrance with its second victory over Cedar in two weeks.

Wayne's victory over Cedar followed with a newly released publication of the top 10 in Class B. The Blue Devils, winners of seven of their last eight, including three over rated World Herald teams and four over Northeast Nebraska ratings, jumped in at number eight in Larry Porter's World Herald Poll.

Wayne came out sharp in the opening quarter against Cedar. They held a 16-9 advantage heading into the second quarter. Cedar's defense told the story though in the second quarter. They outscored Wayne 16-6 in the period to lead by three at the intermission, 25-22.

Chris Wiedenfeld led the way for Cedar in the first half scoring 11 points. Doug Larsen however, put on a spectacular defensive show in the second half for Bob Uhings' squad.

Larsen only gave up three points to Wiedenfeld in the third and fourth periods as he finished with 14 points. "I thought Doug did a very good job of defending Wiedenfeld," Uhing said. "And when he had to help out on someone else, Jed Reeg did a good job of playing defense on him."

Wayne outscored Cedar 10-4 to begin the second half. By the end of the third quarter the Blue Devils had a 41-37 lead. Wayne built their lead to eight points in the final period.

With 2:51 remaining in regulation the Blue Devils were up 52-44. But with the invention of the 3-point field goal, you're never out of a game.

During the next 1:34 of the game Wayne would only score one basket. Cedar down by seven at 54-47, got a 3-pointer from Marche Noecker to close the gap to 54-50 with 56 seconds remaining.

With 40 seconds remaining Cedar fouled Jed Reeg who calmly sank both ends of a one-and-one to give Wayne a 56-50 lead. Cedar answered quickly and called timeout.

Wayne got the ball out of bounds with 32 seconds left and a four points lead. Jess Zeiss was fouled immediately and his one-and-one attempt missed the mark. Cedar came down cranked a 3-point attempt which fell off the rim. They got their own rebound though and put it through to cut the gap to 56-54 with 13 seconds left.

Cedar called its final timeout. On the ensuing inbounds pass Cedar fouled the one man they did not want to foul — Jed Reeg.

Reeg walked to the other end of the court and hit the front end of his one-and-one attempt which meant that in order for Cedar to win they would have to hit a 3-pointer and then win in overtime.

Reeg missed his second shot and Cedar came down the court. Cedar found an open Marche Noecker on the baseline. Noecker fired a 3-pointer which drew iron. Cedar got the rebound and hit the shot with four seconds remaining.

Cedar had used its final time out moments earlier so Wayne was just able to hang on to the ball out of bounds which Rob Sweetland did.

Willy Gross led a well balanced scoring attack for Wayne with 14 points. Doug Larsen followed with 13 and Jarrod Wood netted 12. Jed Reeg hit for nine points while Jess Zeiss and Rob Sweetland rounded out the scoring with five and four points respectively.

Wood led the Blue Devils in rebounding with 11 while Gross hauled down seven caroms of his own. Wayne outrebounded Cedar 36-30.

Both teams did a good job of ball control as they combined for a total of 17 turnovers. Wayne suffered 11. Doug Larsen and Jess Zeiss were named to the all-tournament team.

"I thought our execution on offense was good," coach Bob Uhing said. "Our defensive effort was also a highlight."

One of the reasons Wayne has enjoyed success since Christmas is the role factor. "All of the kids know their roles and they do a good job of filling those roles," Uhing said. "The kids know they can be a good team but they also realize they have to keep improving."

Uhing noted that if his team could ever develop that killer instinct, who knows what might happen. "We still have a couple of areas to improve upon including rebounding," Uhing said. "This Friday's game at South Sioux will be another important game because it will be for the outright conference title."

Uhing was pleased with the total effort by his bench as well as his starters throughout the tournament. "I thought Jarrod Wood and Rob Sweetland also had good tournaments," Uhing said. "Jed Reeg hit clutch free throws and our bench was also a factor."

Schoenherr pastor of newly formed church

Pastor Bob Schoenherr is minister of a newly formed congregation in Wayne. Wayne World Outreach Center, which is affiliated with the Assemblies of God, opened its doors at 901 Circle Dr. last June. Schoenherr, who conducted his first service on Father's Day 1988, comes to Wayne from Bellevue where he was associate pastor at the Bellevue Assembly of God Church for two years. Prior to that time, he and his wife Sue served as missionary school teachers for one year in Guam.

Pastor Bob Schoenherr

A NATIVE OF Detroit, Mich., Schoenherr spent five years in the United States Air Force following his high school graduation. It was while he was in the Air Force that he met his wife in Texas.

He was graduated from the University of Nebraska-Omaha in 1984 with a teaching degree in secondary education, and taught one year at Bellevue Christian High School before going to Guam.

Sue, who is very active in the children's ministry within the church, is a native of Chesterton, Ind. She is a 1985 graduate of the University of Nebraska-Omaha with a degree in human development and the family.

Schoenherrs are the parents of two sons, 10-year-old Abraham and nine-year-old Nicholas.

SCHOENHERRS EXTEND an invitation to anyone who doesn't attend church regularly to join them each Sunday morning at 10 a.m.

There also is a Sunday evening worship and prayer meeting at 6 p.m., and adult Bible teaching and children's ministries each Tuesday evening at 7 p.m.

Schoenherr said Wayne World Outreach Center has a membership of approximately five families and several single persons.

"We're presently learning how to relate to one another as a body in Christ," said Schoenherr, "and we're here to serve this community in any way we can."

Education available

Wayne County is renewing its efforts in the battle against illiteracy and the push to have more people earn a high school diploma.

Caroline Apland, Northeast Community College Adult Basic Education (ABE) representative, recently announced the appointment of Marie Skokan to oversee the program in Wayne and surrounding communities.

Wayne is one of 40 programs in a 20 county area.

Those programs range from individual tutoring in homes to General Equivalency Diploma (GED) testing high school diplomas.

The basic reading class includes one on one tutoring which begins with phonics, improved reading and vocabulary skills, writing and spelling.

Also offered through the ABE program are life skills for Region IV clients, GED test preparation, English as a second language, Math, career counseling and a 60-hour citizenship class for foreign-born people.

All services of ABE are free and confidential. The only cost involved is the final testing for the GED, which is $25 in Wayne.

An organizational meeting took place at the Wayne High School on Monday, Jan. 30 to set up an advisory board.

Members of the Wayne ABE Advisory Board are Mark Ahmann, Sara Campbell, Jeannette Carlson, Father Don Cleary, Donna Eckhoff, Gordon Grandberg, Georgia Janssen, LeRoy Janssen, David Ley, Terry Munson and Bette Ream.

These members volunteer their time to oversee the ABE program in Wayne and to ensure that the program reaches both those in need of its services and those with two or more hours a week to invest in helping others improve their skills.

"We know there are many people in the Wayne area who could benefit from our services and we encourage them to contact Marie Skokan (375-1553) or one of the board members for information about our program," said an ABE spokesperson.

The advisory board is also recruiting volunteers at this time.

Conducting a survey

Firemen will be calling

Wayne residents: don't be surprised upon answering the telephone that a fireman is on the other end of the line.

Brooks Widner, Wayne fireman, told The Wayne Herald on Tuesday that the Wayne Fire Department members will be conducting a telephone phone survey during the remainder of February.

Those being surveyed will be asked if there is a smoke detector in the resident's household.

Widner said there will be no sales pitch, but perhaps some words of encouragement about the benefits of smoke alarms. "We just want to know how many people do, or how many people don't have smoke alarms," Widner said. "So people should not be so alarmed when called," he said.

Don't Refrigerate All Medicines

How medicines are stored is important to their effectiveness. Some medicines are best stored at room temperature, while others require refrigeration.

A cool environment maintains the potency of some medicines. Insulin has a longer life when kept cold, and some suppositories keep their shape. One antibiotic syrup tastes better if its kept cold, while many liquid antibiotics quickly lose potency at room temperature.

But not all medicines require refrigeration. In fact, the condensation formed inside a cold bottle when it is opened in a warm, humid room can spoil some medicines. Most tablets and capsules should be kept dry. If wetness builds up, tablets can absorb water and lose potency, and capsules may stick together.

Pharmacists receive some medicines in a cold state and store them in refrigerators until they are dispensed to customers. You should be able to identify these medicines by the "Keep in Refrigerator" label attached to the container by the pharmacist. Remember--keeping medicines cold means in the refrigerator, not the freezer.

4-H'ers gain recognition

Several Wayne County 4-H'ers were selected to receive district award nominee recognition.

The Nebraska 4-H Incentive Program provides inspiration and motivation to many 4-H'ers. Members compete for county, district, state and national recognition by reporting their 4-H project achievements and accomplishments, along with leadership and citizenship activities.

Sixty 4-H'ers from all 13 counties in the Northeast District participated this year in district competition.

Competition was up slightly from last year, according to Vickie Genoff, Northeast District 4-H Youth Specialist.

Over 100 records were reviewed by the 1989 Awards Judging Committee and about half of the records were selected to go on to state competition this summer.

Five 4-H members from Wayne County participated in District Awards Competition, including Lana Casey and Lisa Prokop of Wayne, Jennifer Puls and Matt Stoffel of Hoskins and Marta Sandahl of Wakefield.

Three 4-H'ers from Wayne County — Puls, Stoffel and Sandahl — were selected by the District 4-H Awards Committee to represent the Northeast District in state competition.

They were selected for their outstanding 4-H leadership in the following areas: Puls — National Dairy Conference; Stoffel — Ag Achievement and Entomology; Sandahl — Achievement, Leadership, National 4-H Conference, Invitational Events and Junior Leader.

The Farmer's Wife

by Pat Meierhenry

We gave up mandatory attendance at basketball games this season, and haven't even had withdrawal symptoms. That doesn't mean we don't pay attention to the sports pages. And the Big Farmer catches a couple of college games a week on the tube.

The small high schools in this area belong to the Lewis and Clark Conference. I have no idea when this conference originated, but I can bet who it's named after. There are so many member schools, it's divided into two halves.

When it's time for a conference tournament, each half plays until they have a winner; then these two teams meet in the championship game, which has been played at WSC the past few years. We've never been to one of these games because no Winside team has ever made it that far. In fact, I can remember distinctly the times we made it past the first round.

There have been some fairly good teams, and lots of exciting games, but never a division champion in round ball.

The gals' part of the tournament began last Saturday night and Winside was defeated. The guys played Osmond on Monday night.

I ended up making a home visit to Meadow Grove after 5:00 p.m. on Monday and didn't get home very early. We kind of figured our guys could win that one, and they did.

Jon says he remembers that he and his buddy Brian used to help the PE teacher with this current senior class when they were sixth graders. Everyone knew by then that there was one boy in that class who could play basketball, but the rest were unknown quantities.

He got to see them play a year ago and was delighted to see what they could do. Then, in December, they lost a teammate, and fell on hard times. The predicted victory over Coleridge failed to happen, Wynot defeated them, and so did Wakefield, though they played them tough.

We did see the Wausa game last week, and that victory was suspect because the Vikings were missing two starters.

SO OUR Wildcats were to get another chance at Coleridge last Thursday night. On Wednesday, the weather took a drastic turn. The game was moved up to 5:00 p.m., and a surprising number of fans drove to Wausa in the cold and wind. Ann came home with the news: Winside surprised Coleridge, and Wynot squeaked by Wakefield!

The third game would also be at Wausa at 5:00 on Friday, and the wind chill was still -50! I had to go, just to show these kids how proud we were of them.

So I packed boots, ski pants and gloves, hats, and blankets, and drove to Wausa after work. My co-workers told me I was crazy. I said it was a historical event, and I needed to see it.

Schools all over the area were closed, and all kinds of things were cancelled. But things were warm in the Wausa gym.

The kids in the blue suits put up a good fight, the perennial Wieseler made some three-pointers, but our boys in white wanted it.

They played together; two came off the bench when they were in foul trouble and did very well, and they won.

Moms were hugging and yelling—it was a great scene. And these cool cats just quietly accepted our accolades and walked to the showers. Not a bit like the screaming that occurred after the girls' game. But Winside had won their half of the conference basketball tournament.

HALF OF Winside was in Rice auditorium in Wayne on Saturday, and the wind chill was still -40. The winner of the other half, Ponca, proved to be too much for us and we had to settle for the second place trophy.

You've never seen a group of folks so happy to be runners up. Everything is relative. I remember a sad group of wrestlers being awarded a state champ trophy with very long faces because they did not have an individual champ for the first time ever.

To make the day complete, the Cornhuskers surprised Kansas, and the Okalahoma State Cowboys knocked the Sooners off their throne. (Note to the crew of the Independence: Oklahoma was ranked number 1 for exactly one week.) The surprises of the world of basketball continue, cold weather or not.

Oats considered alternative

Farmers eyeing oats as an alternative crop were told by economists Tuesday (Jan. 31) to have a risk-management strategy during a live satellite videoconference originating from the University of Nebraska-Lincoln Department of Agricultural Communications.

The conference was sponsored by the Nebraska Cooperative Extension Service, Institute of Agriculture and Natural Resources.

"Farmers need to look at how to protect the price they receive for oats," said Lynn Lutgen, UNL extension economist. "Oats is a volatile market."

Oat interest stems from sharp increases in consumer demand. When regularly consumed, oats helps to decrease human serum cholesterol levels and consequently decreases chances of heart disease.

Oat food processors General Mills, Quaker Oats and ConAgra are increasing production capacity to meet the demand. Currently, much of the oats for human consumption is imported from Sweden, Argentina and Canada.

Oat imports is expected to exceed 60 million bushels in 1989, although industry representatives said their companies prefer buying U.S.-grown oats since U.S. oats have a higher protein content than imported grain.

A reason for low U.S. oats production for human food market is the low price subsidy paid for oats relative to other grains such as corn and barley.

FARMERS ARE taking a higher risk on oats with less of a guarantee of receiving an acceptable price. That is due to the low target price of $1.50 per bushel compared to last year's market value of $3.25 per bushel.

Oat producers can take steps to reduce their risk in the marketplace, Lutgen said, by looking to the futures market to cash contract, basic contract, hedge or option market.

Tim Powell, extension economist at the NU Northeast Research and Extension Center in Concord, compared enterprises on a short-run basis with oats, corn and soybeans. The gross income (revenue) minus the operating (variable) costs equals the gross margins.

When comparing the gross margins in dryland farming in northeast Nebraska, Powell's model assumed some straw would be harvested off the oats at $45 per acre.

An acre producing 80 bushels of oats at $2.25 per bushel ($180), plus straw valued at $45, would equal a gross income of $225. With anticipated costs of $95, the gross margin would be $130.

CORN SELLING at $2.84 with $5 of byproducts would have variable costs of $90 and a gross margin of $142.20. Soybeans penciled out even better with a gross margin of $210 after variable costs of $70 were taken out of a gross income of $280.

While the model appears that oats may not be able to compete with corn, Powell noted that there are other reasons for growing oats.

"It's hard to put a dollar figure on the benefits of following a rotation of oats, reducing yield risk with one crop, reducing weed and pest control risks, better distribution of labor and machinery, reduction of soil erosion, using oats as a nurse crop for hay and the payment limitations, assuming a producer was not enrolled in the oats program," said Powell.

Individual producers were urged to estimate the gross margins for their operation. John Neuberger, state director of the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service, urged farmers to visit their local ASCS office to develop personalized options for a producer's total crop acreage.

FARMERS currently are showing more interest in soybean-sunflower possibilities rather than oats, Neuberger said. That may change since farmers have until April 14 to make decisions on enrolling in the farm program.

Brumm receives Extension award

Four University of Nebraska-Lincoln Cooperative Extension Service staff members received the Excellence in Extension Programming Award for their agriculture programs.

They include swine specialist Michael Brumm of Wayne and Jan Mohrmann (financial analyst), Larry Bitney (farm management specialist) and Alice Jones (soils specialist). They received plaques for their programs in swine analysis and soil compaction.

The Extension Programming Award recognizes extension staff for creating outstanding programs on agriculture, home economics, community resource development or youth development. An awards committee selects four programs annually for the honor.

Brumm, Mohrmann and Bitney received recognition for a swine enterprise records and analysis program they developed and are carrying out. Bitney is also a professor of ag economics and Brumm is an associate professor of animal science.

Their program offers a record-keeping plan to an average size, farmer-owned and operated swine enterprise. The two also built a data base from individual analysis and helped producers compare their performance to group averages.

This program began in 1987 with 10 participating swine producers from northeast Nebraska. This number grew to 75 in 1988 and the program designers expect to see an increase of 175 in 1989.

This program demonstrates excellence in a team effort to teach, organize and coordinate a staff from two departments, said Donald Hudman, director of the UNL Northeast Research and Extension Center near Concord.

Jone's award-winning program is related to helping producers to deal with soil compaction and understanding deep tillage technology. Her objective is to instruct farmers about compaction and how they can lessen its effect on crop yields.

LOVE YOU THE SHEPHERD

The Golden Years by Gil Haase

Boxer Max Schmeling used shadow boxing to help keep himself fit into his senior years. To unwind after one of his active days running his soft-drink bottling company, even at age 82, he'd "go" a few rounds at home in Hamburg, West Germany. Schmeling's boxing peak came in 1936 with his surprise knockout of Joe Louis. Two years later Louis knocked-out Schmeling in the first round of their rematch.

Exposure to cold temperatures is particularly risky for older people, the National Institute on Aging points out. The danger is accidental hypothermia, a drop in body temperature to 95° F or below that can be deadly if not detected and promptly treated medically. Signs of accidental hypothermia include shallow breathing, speech slurred, sluggishness, confusion or other changes in appearance or behavior.

Remember When? December 13, 1924 - Samuel Gompers, 74, leader of the American Federation of Labor (AFL) for more than 40 years; died in San Antonio. His last words: "Nurse, this is the end. God bless our American institutions. May they grow better day by day."

Presented as a public service to our senior citizens, and the people who care about them by the Wayne Care Centre, 918 Main Street, Wayne, Nebraska 68787.
