Projected in city budget

Council looks to hold tax askings

By Chuck Hackenmiller
Managing editor

Upon reviewing the Wayne City Council's projected 1989-90 fiscal year budget, it could be up or down from the previous fiscal year — all depending on what the council's decision would be concerning the municipal swimming pool.

At present, Bruce Gilmore and Associates engineering firm is studying the swimming pool to provide the city council with some options — among those options are to rehabilitate the pool or to build a completely new one. They will make their report to the city council sometime in August.

As of now, the $300,000 cost to rehabilitate the nearly 35 year old pool, and increase its life expectancy another 20 to 25 years has been added to the projected budget, setting the proposed 1989-90 budget at $1,748,149.

If the pool rehabilitation was not entered into the budget, then the proposed budget would be down slightly from the previous fiscal year's budget by 2.2 percent. The city council will also be looking to meet with Wayne-Carroll Board of Education officials to see if the school district would be interested in the use of the pool for education classes.

ONE POSITIVE aspect of the proposed budget is that property tax askings will still remain at the same level as the two previous fiscal years ($352,650). That figure remains lower than property tax askings in 1986-87, 1985-86 and 1984-1985.

Wage adjustments were built into the budget at around 6 percent. Those wage adjustments will be decided upon later in the fiscal year.

A significant increase is also projected for the police department, increased $43,000 from the previous year. City Administrator Phil Kloster said the amount was increased to include money for the enhancement of the present 911 System to be installed in the coming year.

The street department, he said, is projected for a decrease of approximately $17,000. "The majority of that is coming from a decrease of street and alley work," Kloster said. Plans are to do some asphalt overlay work on a few alleys and streets and at the park located on the south end of Wayne.

Kloster said the Parks Department fund is proposed to increase $10,000, with much of that allocated toward more work to be done at the newer Sunnyview park. The Recreation Department proposed budget figure will also increase around $15,000. "Five thousand of that will be used for bus replacement funds and the balance is staff monies," Kloster said.

THE PUBLIC building budget is proposed for a decrease of around $21,000. There still needs to be some door work done and upgrading of the shower rooms at the Wayne City Auditorium, Kloster mentioned.

Congregate meals are on the rise, according to Kloster. That is one reason the projected budget for the Wayne Senior Citizens Center is increased nearly $19,000. "More and more people are participating in the congregated meal program," Kloster said. He said another $5,000 of the increase will eventually be directed toward mini-bus replacement.

The city library proposed budget is up $6,000 from the previous year, with $5,000 of that money to be allocated toward improvement of the library building (rain gutters, painting for example).

Kloster said the city council is facing the project of rehabilitating the transfer station facility. Nearly $100,000 has been added to the projected budget for the upgrading, he said.

THE FACILITY is about 11 years old and still contains its original compacting equipment which Kloster said has "worn out."

New Environmental Protection Agency regulations aimed at landfill sites will leave some questions for the city council to solve, Kloster said, such as: "Where are we going to be taking our solid waste in the future? Will we have to recycle a portion of it? How can we best accomplish that?"

Kloster said the council is looking toward making the transfer station self-sufficient.

Spangler begins task starting new National Guard unit

By Chuck Hackenmiller
Managing editor

Paddy Spangler of Wayne is part of a team that will be making Nebraska Army National Guard history.

Spangler and a Lincoln woman, Cathy Knight, are in the process of organizing the 267th Postal Company-General Support of the Army National Guard. Both Spangler, a first sergeant, and Knight, a captain, will lead the company — a unit training postal workers for work in military posts around the world.

"We'll be the first lady team in Nebraska to start up a company," said Spangler, who is the first female in Nebraska to make first sergeant class within the Nebraska Army National Guard.

She has been a National Guard member for 15 years. "Not as a full-time guard member, but I do one drill each month and attend two weeks of annual training each summer," Spangler said.

Prior to her change in classification, Spangler was a sergeant-first class with the Headquarters Task Force 1-134 Infantry (Mechanized)

Paddy Spangler

in Omaha. "I took care of administrative work covering six Nebraska units in Columbus, Wayne, Norfolk, O'Neill, Wahoo and Omaha," she said.

SPANGLER, co-owner of the Amber Inn Motel in Wayne, was also involved in the Guard's family assistance program — a program that helps "get the word out" to soldiers or family if a personal crisis occurs while in annual training or participating in other exercises.

Her husband, Dennis, is a full-time sergeant major of the First Task Force-134th Infantry (Mechanized) in Omaha.

During drills and annual training, Spangler has enjoyed going out on maneuvers with soldiers. She has had the opportunity to drive personnel carriers and does the lifting of heavy boxes or equipment just as the male soldiers do. "I'm going to hate being detached from the military units," she said.

She firmly believes that there is a place for women in the military.

"Men in the unit accepted us and did not work against us. They have accepted us as soldiers," she said.

The Guard, she said, is a close knit group. She and Dennis have been known as "mom and dad" to many of the young men who enter the Guard. "We watched the high school kids come in and some become officers when they go out. That makes us feel good," Spangler said.

Spangler said she has been overseas at least three times. She has been in Japan, working protocol details and escorting dignitaries during the Yama Sakura exercises, a joint U.S. Japanese training program held in northern Japan.

THE POSTAL company will have the opportunity to work overseas, she said.

During past years, complications have risen in getting the mail to the people at the annual training camp and getting the mail back to the families. That will change with the establishment of the 267th Postal Company-General Support. The company will be equipped with the necessary trucks and forklifts to load and distribute the mail.

Other equipment includes artillery equipment. "We will have all the weaponry that a normal Guard unit will carry. We all have to be qualified on everything," Spangler said.

And mail is not classified as just letters or magazines. All types of mail — such as parts for jeeps, weapons or other military equipment — will be distributed to all areas of the training site or military base — and the unit will cover many miles.

"We have been authorized 44 personnel. We now have 18 on board," she added.

"My main responsibility will be to see if people in the postal company are being properly trained," she said.

CAPTAIN Knight, who is an English teacher at Lincoln High School, is very ambitious and has a "lot going for her," Spangler said. "She is not one to back down easily. She will be a good commander."

"I think that they have put a good pair together."

Concert being planned at WSC Willow Bowl

By Chuck Hackenmiller
Managing editor

If at first you succeed, then why not try it again.

That's the attitude felt by Jeanne Brown, who will be a senior at Wayne-Carroll High School this fall.

Earlier this year, in February, she and others worked to organize a Contemporary Christian Music Concert at Grace Lutheran Church. A count of over 250 young people and adults who attended the concert made the event a success.

SO NOW they are going to present another concert with the same variety of music — only it will be on the lighter side.

The "Light Contemporary Christian Music Concert" is scheduled for Saturday, Aug. 5, starting at 5 p.m. at the Wayne State College Willow Bowl. If it should happen to rain that day, it will be rescheduled for Aug. 6 at the same starting time.

The outside performance should provide enough seating for anyone who has an interest in attending the concert.

Songs made popular by Sandy Patti, Michael Smith, Amy Grant and Kim Boyce will be sung by local talent.

PERFORMING will be Stephanie Bourek of Wisner; Missy Eckhoff, Pastor Jim Pennington, Bonnie Stiefken, Kathy and Coryn Stollenberg, Heather Thompson, all of Wayne; Jeanna-Marquardt of Wisner; Tracey Kumm of Osmond and Tonya Kamrath of Laurel.

Noone auditioned for this concert. They just volunteered to sing the Christian music. The program will last approximately 1 1/2 hours, according to Brown.

The music, she said, will be light — because summer is the time for being "light" or easy going.

Brown said she would like to see more youth involvement in the concert program. Another concert is in the planning stages later in the school year. "We'll keep doing it for awhile, as long as there is an interest in it," said Brown, who plans on pursuing a career in nursing. "Our first concert went easy. We just went out and sang," she said.

SHE SAID the Contemporary Christian Music is not identical to "gospel music or hymns."

"They are songs like you would hear on the radio, only they have Christian lyrics," Brown said, adding that she is more a fan of this type of music than present rock music.

There is no admission to the Aug. 5 concert, Brown said, and refreshments will be served following the event.

News and Notes

By Mary Temme, Extension Agent-Home Ec

So you plan to sew this summer?

When the weather is nice people don't like to be inside all day sewing. Try these hints that may make summer sewing a pleasant experience.

Choose fast patterns. That means to look for such styles as pull-on bottoms, pull-over tops, wrap styles, cut-on sleeves and fuller styles that will reduce fitting.

Also, select fast fabrics. Knits are faster to sew than wovens since the seams do not need to be finished. Avoid plaids, stripes or prints that require matching. Use fusible interfacings whenever possible since they can give a great look in less time. Try using your sewing machine for every step possible.

THE MANY SEWING notions available at the fabric stores can be time savers. Look for pattern weights. They come in different sizes and shapes. Some are shaped to fit the curves and edges that are common to most pattern pieces. Simply sit them on top of the pattern and cut.

Look for marking tools that provide an easy way to mark, such as water soluble marking pens designed for washable fabrics. It is always the wise sewer who will test the marking pen on a scrap of the fashion fabric first. Chalk wheels release just the right amount of chalk on the fabric and can be easily brushed away.

Try using a glue stick for easy basting of seams, trims, pockets, appliques, facings and zippers in place before stitching. Or try wash-away basting thread. It is designed for temporary stitching on washable fabric and can be removed with a wet cloth and steam iron. Use this wash-away basting thread on the spool holder at top of the machine and regular thread in the bobbin. Once the top thread is dissolved, the bobbin thread will fall away.

OF COURSE-NOTHING speeds up sewing faster than a serger since it stitches at about 1,600 stitches per minute. This machine turns many steps into one since it can trim and finish seams simultaneously.

Organize the sewing center for fast sewing. Pin, tape or clip the pattern instruction sheet directly above the sewing machine. Lost scissors are easy to find when attached to a ribbon and tied around the neck.

Cleanup is easy if a paper bag is taped to the edge of the sewing machine table and the edge of your ironing board.

Annual count of homeless planned

The second annual "census" of homeless children and youth throughout Nebraska is now in the planning stages. The federal mandate for the yearly count is based on Public Law 100-77, the McKinney Homeless Assistance Act. Responsibility for conducting the census, limited to school-age children and youth, is placed by Congress on state education agencies.

Goldenrod Hills Community Action Agency will be the coordinating agency in this area. Goldenrod C.A.C. serves 12 counties including Antelope, Burt, Cedar, Cuming, Dakota, Dixon, Knox, Madison, Pierce, Stanton, Thurston and Wayne Counties.

Months. A final push to organize for a complete and unduplicated count will begin after Labor Day. The actual census is scheduled for the 24 hour period from midnight till midnight on Wednesday, Oct. 18.

Nebraska's Department of Education has appointed Dr. Carl M. Schmitthauser as Coordinator of Education for Homeless Children and Youth. He has asked the nine Nebraska community action agencies to coordinate the census efforts throughout their service areas.

Also cooperating in the count of homeless will be the regional and local offices of the Nebraska Department of Social Services, the County Superintendents of Schools and each local school district in the counties listed.

Members of the public are asked to be alert to the presence of homeless people, including teen-agers, in their communities. Homeless people as defined by the McKinney Act are not only those people out on the streets or sleeping in their car. They also include people who are "doubled-up."

Schmitthauser has met with representatives of the three major data collecting groups to do preliminary planning. The ground work is being laid over the summer

For example, two families are occupying a dwelling unit intended for only one because one of the families lacks the resources to have a home of their own. Also considered homeless are teen-aged youngsters who stay for brief periods with a series of friends or relatives.

In other cases of homelessness, youngsters are left in the care of relatives or friends while homeless parents travel from city to city seeking employment.

Federal law now prohibits excluding school-age homeless youngsters from attending school or levying tuition because they do not meet the school districts residence requirements. The annual census is intended to help identify areas where homeless may be denied access to free public education.

For Your Information

Question: A. Is it true that Peoples Natural Gas Company has offered to study the water distribution system issue in the city of Wayne to determine whether they could operate that utility more efficiently, and thereby deliver the product to consumers more economically?

Answer:
A. The PeopleService Division of Peoples Natural Gas made a proposal to the city council on March 28, 1989 whereby they indicated that they would like to review the City of Wayne's water and sewer operation to determine if they could operate it more efficiently than the city. During that presentation, they indicated that they currently are operating a system in Missouri and that they were in the process of making proposals to other communities to run their utilities. Prior to the meeting, they had indicated that they were going to make like proposals to the other Peoples towns in eastern Nebraska.

As part of their presentation to the city council, PeopleService indicated that they would provide information regarding the Missouri system they are currently operating, as well as feedback regarding the acceptance of their proposals to other communities that they were currently in the process of making.

Following their presentation to the city council, I wrote them requesting that they provide the information they had indicated was available on the Missouri community that they are currently operating utilities in, as well as the communities that they were making proposals to. To date, we have received no response to that request.

At the present time, we have our water and wastewater operation staffed by certified operators that have been with the City of Wayne for a number of years. It seems unlikely that an organization from the outside could come in and take over the operation of the water and wastewater departments and operate them for a profit cheaper than what we are operating that system without a profit.

I am sure that once the information is provided us on communities currently being operated by PeopleService, as well as the general opinion of other communities that have received proposals from PeopleService, that we will be in a better position to evaluate whether that type of service would best serve the residents of Wayne. If it does, we are certainly going to study that issue further.

Thank you

We would like to thank the young adults of Winside who made up the Wayne County Old Settlers Reunion committee for 1989.

Having worked on this committee for many years we realize how much planning and work is involved. The committee did an excellent job of organizing this year's celebration.

We know the rain caused many changes in your plans nevertheless you worked around the problems and made the day a big success. Thanks for a job well done.

Midgets slip by South Sioux; Juniors win one, lose one

By Kevin Peterson
Sports Editor

The regular season for the Legion and Midget baseball teams in Wayne were completed Thursday night with a home contest against South Sioux. The Midgets had their hands full with the visitors as they trailed 8-5, heading into the bottom half of the fifth inning.

Wayne however, rallied and scored five times in the bottom of the fifth inning and held on in the sixth inning to record its 23rd victory of the season against four losses. Wayne won by a 10-8 count.

As already mentioned Wayne had its hands full with the visitors. Matt Bruggeman started the game on the mound for Wayne and the first four batters that he faced were all strike out victims as he appeared to be red hot.

In the second inning however, four straight batters reached base via a hit and South Sioux led 1-0 with Wayne yet to bat in the second inning. Wayne did not score in the inning and South Sioux came back in the third and added another run and could have added more but Wayne's defense stiffened when they had to. South Sioux ended up stranding six total batters in the second and third innings as Wayne ended those innings with the bases loaded.

Wayne rallied in the third inning as Chris Fredrickson led off the inning with a walk, followed by a double by Cory Wieseler. Rusty Hamer then singled for an rbi followed by a single by Brian Lentz for another rbi. After yet another single by Jeff Griesch to load the bases with one out, Matt Bruggeman hit a sacrifice fly ball to send in Wayne's third run of the inning.

Jason Ehrhardt then walked followed by Eric Coles' single to load the bases, but Wayne too, had to strand the bases full as Jim Hoffman hit a line drive to the left fielder to end the inning.

South Sioux rallied in the fourth inning for three runs to take a 5-2 lead but back came Wayne in the bottom half of the fourth to score twice to tie the score. Jeff Griesch and Matt Bruggeman keyed the rally with rbi singles each.

The fifth inning was nothing short of eventful. South Sioux scored three runs in the top half of the inning to take what seemed to be a commanding 8-5 lead. What made matters worse was Wayne catcher Cory Wieseler was ejected from the game following a confrontation with a South Sioux player, who was also ejected.

With their backs to the wall Wayne showed great resiliency. In the bottom of the fifth inning with bases loaded Rusty Hamer cleaned them with a 3-run triple to tie the score. Brian Lentz then stepped up and hit a single to put Wayne ahead and Lentz later scored for the 10-8 count.

In the sixth inning Brian Lentz came in to finish the game at pitcher. Lentz was tested as runners were on second and third with two out, but he struck out the final batter to give Wayne's Midgets the unofficial championship of the league.

Legion loses

In the nightcap it was anything but a well played game as both the Wayne coach and South Sioux coach would agree, but it was South Sioux prevailing by a 20-9 count in five innings of play.

The sloppy play was prolonged by a total of 29 walks given up by the two teams, 17 by Wayne and 12 by South Sioux pitchers. Wayne had seven hits in the contest led by Greg Schmidt's two singles and Jess Zeiss's single and a double. Kevin Hausmann ripped a double as did Rob Sweetland who cleaned the bases for three runs with his. Jeff Lutt rounded out the abbreviated hitting attack with a single.

Wayne used a total of five pitchers in the game but it was Matt Peterson taking the loss. Peterson was followed on the mound by Rob Sweetland, Chad Metzler, Greg Schmidt and Jarrod Wood.

Wood incidentally, debuted in his pitching performance and he did record a strike out.

Legion downs Wisner

On Wednesday night Wayne's Legion traveled to Wisner to make up the game that was rained out on Monday. Wayne defeated the host team 8-2 led by the heroics of Jeff Lutt. Lutt pitched a no-hitter through five innings of play but lost it in the sixth inning. At any rate, offensively, he took care of matters himself with two doubles and a 3-run home run in the fifth inning.

He struck out a total of eight Wisner batters. Kevin Hausmann also enjoyed a multi-hit outing with two singles. Rob Sweetland, Greg Schmidt, Jess Zeiss, Matt Peterson, Chad Metzler and Jarrod Wood also singled to aid in the victory.

Wayne finishes the regular season with a 14-9 record.

Midgets down Bancroft

While Wayne's Legion was at Wisner, the Midgets stayed in Wayne to entertain Bancroft. It was anything but a casual affair though as Wayne breezed to yet another victory with an 11-0 blanking of the visitors.

Jeff Griesch picked up the victory as he combined with Brian Lentz to toss a 1-hit shutout. Griesch pitched the first three innings and Lentz pitched the last three. Wayne grounded out 12 hits led by Griesch's 3-3 outing with three singles. Cory Wieseler rapped a triple and a single and Chris Fredrickson laced two singles.

Matt Bruggeman smacked a double and Rusty Hamer, Brian Lentz, Jason Ehrhardt and Eric Cole all singled.

In the game preceding the Midgets contest, Wayne's B-team Midget team faced off against South Sioux's B-team Midget team and Wayne came out on top of the 11-8 score.

Jeff Griesch pitched the final three innings of the contest but it was enough to record the win. Reggie Carnes and Derek Jensen each rapped two singles while Jim Hoffman doubled to lead the team. Jeff Griesch, Ryan Rohde and Brian Gamble, also singled to lead Wayne.

Wayne girls get first round win

The Wayne 19 and under girls softball team picked up a first round win in the state tournament being played this weekend in Grand Island.

They defeated Peru by a 19-10 score, with Dana Nelson relieving Robin Lutt and picking up the win.

Wayne, the visiting team, was down 5-1 after the first inning and trailed 7-5 after two.

But the Wayne offense came alive, outscoring Peru 14-3 in remaining innings.

Wayne rapped 13 hits in the contest. Leading the way was Kristy Hansen with three singles and three runs batted in.

Robin Lutt had two singles and 3 rbi's; Tonya Erleben, a single and triple knocking in three runs; Leslie Keating, two singles and two rbi's; Tracy Gamble, a triple and two rbi's; and Suzy Lutt, Marnie Bruggeman and Dana Nelson each with singles.

The team advances to go against Anderson Ford of Grand Island in a Friday, 5 p.m. contest.

LET'S ALL SUPPORT AN INDUSTRY THAT HARVESTS $8 BILLION ANNUALLY.

Enthusiasm for agriculture is growing again in Nebraska. After all, the success of our state's economy is strongly tied to the strength of our ag industry. Almost one-third of our economic activity is related to the production of ag commodities or ag services.

Nebraska has always been a leading crop production state and now ranks among the top five in cash receipts for ag commodities nationally—third in corn production, third in sorghum, ninth in wheat, eighth in soybeans, and fifth in rye and beans.

Recently, Nebraska produced a record 954 million bushels of corn (11 percent of the U.S. total) with total cash crop marketing of $3.3 billion and $4.6 billion in livestock marketing. In fact, cattle and calf production in Nebraska amounts to 12 percent of the U.S. total, placing Nebraska second only to Texas.

So, if you think Nebraska ranks nationally only in football, maybe it's time to remember why we're called the Cornhuskers.

LET'S GET INTO A POSITIVE STATE.

Little League wins at Pender

The Wayne Little League eased past Pender by a 5-4 count Thursday in Pender to up its record to 12-1 on the season. Ryan Pick was credited as the winning pitcher as he struck out six of the Pender batters he faced.

Offensively, Joe Lutt was the catalyst facing two singles and hitting a double. Ryan Pick aided his own pitching cause with a pair of doubles while Jaimie Holdorf, Jeremy Sturm, Craig Wetterberg and Jason Carr all notched singles.

In the second game of the afternoon Wayne's Pony League was blanked by an 18-0 count to Pender as only two Wayne batters reached base. Pender's pitcher was credited with the no-hitter and Tim Reinhardt of Wayne reached second base and that was the farthest any Wayne runner got.

Fax machines aid in fighting crime

Nebraska Governor Kay Orr officially unveiled the latest addition in the state's crime fighting effort, by faxing this press release to 68 County Sheriff's offices across the state.

The Nebraska Sheriff's Association, working with the Nebraska Crime Commission, obtained a $117,000 federal grant to obtain and install the facsimile machines in 68 counties (including Wayne and Dixon Counties) and four state agencies.

A document can be sent to every location through a central hub system located at the Lancaster County Sheriff's office. Efforts are underway to obtain funding later this year so machines can be installed in the remaining Nebraska County Sheriff's offices.

"In fighting crime, it is essential that our law enforcement officers have the very latest information. These fax machines will allow County Sheriffs to receive photographs, fingerprints, court orders, warrants and other sensitive information within minutes" said the Governor. "The Nebraska Sheriff's Association, working with Jim Joneson and the Nebraska Crime Commission, will help make life more difficult for those breaking Nebraska laws."

Bereuter urges colleagues to support 1990 Agriculture Appropriations Bill

Representative Doug Bereuter urged his House colleagues to support the fiscal year 1990 Agriculture Appropriations Bill on July 18 saying that agriculture programs are vitally important to family farmers and rural communities, domestic employment and foreign trade and the nation's hunger programs.

Bereuter endorsed a $2 million recommendation for the planning and construction of the University of Nebraska's Center for Advanced Technology. "While this facility will help the State of Nebraska diversify its economy through fundamental research in product development, the technology center will also be essential in technology transfer from the laboratory to the factory in fostering established industries involved in food processing and industrial use crops."

Bereuter pointed out the importance of innovative crop research projects being conducted in Nebraska, involving milkweed, biodegradable corn plastics and crambe production. The bill ear-

The Ag-in-Transition program, which began in Nebraska, enables farmers facing a crisis to keep their families intact and maintain their self-esteem."

Bereuter expressed his support also for an $8 million increase in the Agricultural Conservation Program, bringing that appropriation to $183.9 million fiscal year 1989, and for a $209.3 million appropriation for FmHA rural water and waste grants.

"New and serious threats are facing many rural communities and the quality of the water they drink," Bereuter said. "These threats range from water degradation caused by the persistent drought gripping areas in the upper Great Plains to carbon tetrachloride contamination just beginning to show up in municipal water supplies, which can in numerous instances be traced to past USDA storage of CCC grain."

"We would not be subsidizing this by property taxes. Rates would pay the way," he said.

As for the rehabilitation of the transfer station, that money would come from MIRE (Municipal Infrastructure Redevelopment Fund). This fund was approved by the 1989 Legislature (LB 683) which allows cigarette taxes to be used for infrastructure improvements to local municipalities.

So the rates will not be paying for the infrastructure improvements. However, the rates would be applied to the operation of the transfer station for disposal, recycling and depreciation, according to Kloster.

Kloster said there is no rate increase proposed for utilities. What could hurt, he said, is if the demand for electricity "gets away from us." Managing peak loads will help keep costs down.

PROJECTS PLANNED for the utility department are reconstruction of the utility system in the Westwood Subdivision and cooling tower improvements.

Kloster said the sewer rates are not providing the revenue that is really needed to run the wastewater sewage treatment plant in order to comply with federal regulations. He said the city council will likely address sewage and water rates sometime this winter.

"Our water usage has gone beyond our projections," Kloster said. He said the city council will be reviewing a proposal this winter to reduce the water rates.

Capital improvements being considered for the 1989-90 fiscal year include the construction of well number 10, joining well number nine at the new well field site outside of Wayne. The city of Wayne also must pay a share of the cost for the construction of the erosion control structure near a bridge just north of the city on Highway 15.

The city's reserve will also be reduced from $307,015 to a projected $281,004.

The budget hearing is scheduled for Tuesday, July 25 at 7:35 p.m.

For Your Information

Question A. How long ago was Wayne High's last Baccalaureate and why do they not have one any more?

Answer:

A. The ministerial association decided not to sponsor it some 10 years ago, so each denomination could hold their own service.

Baseball on Sunday was illegal

The Sunday afternoon baseball game seems as American as mom and apple pie. But in the early 1900s, playing baseball on Sunday was not only regarded by some as immoral — in Nebraska it was illegal. The Criminal Code of Nebraska stated, "If any person shall be found on the first day of the week, commonly called Sunday, sporting, rioting, quarreling, hunting, fishing, or shooting, he or she shall be fined ... or be confined in the county jail." A Supreme Court decision rendered in the 1890s construed baseball to be within the definition of "sporting."

Like other minor and obscure laws, the baseball prohibition was ignored in many communities. Baseball was generally regarded as an "innocent, healthful amusement" — not like boxing, cock fighting, card playing or other "games" that have demoralizing tendencies.

In Nebraska City, however, baseball was not viewed as benign. Church leaders campaigned actively for enforcement of the Sunday baseball ban. In the summer of 1902 the whole town became embroiled in the Sunday ball controversy.

The furor began when local ministers swore out complaints against members of the Argos, the Nebraska City team. Several ball players were arrested in the middle of a Sunday game. Ball fans were incensed. They organized, pooled their money for the players' attorney fees, and held a city-wide referendum on Sunday ball.

The election tallies were 825 in favor, 16 against. But on July 19, the day after the election, the reverends again swore out warrants, which the sheriff was compelled to serve.

There were over a thousand people on the ball grounds, and the score stood Argos 3, Nib's Nine 1, when "Sheriff Shrader and his deputy walked onto the grounds and started to take some of the players off." A near riot ensued. "During the intense excitement that prevailed, (Deputy Farley) drew his revolver, but seeing the mood of the crowd, put it back in his pocket." Eventually the lawmen and players departed, but "there was a large crowd followed (them) up town."

The next day, after the players had appeared in court, a "monster crowd" surrounded the home of the Methodist minister, one of those who had sworn out the complaint. "The police was unable to do anything with the crowd, being swept aside like a straw." Fire Chief Bauer finally calmed the mob, which dispersed.

Tensions ran so high in the town that on July 29 the mayor, who had tried to remain neutral, decided to call a halt to ball games on the Sabbath.

Times change, of course, and ultimately the Sunday ball proponents triumphed.
