Distribution procedure for HELP funding approved by board

By Chuck Hackenmiller
Managing editor

The Wayne Education Association's proposal for distribution of H.E.L.P. (Help Education Lead to Prosperity) funds was approved Tuesday evening by the Wayne-Carroll Board of Education.

H.E.L.P. is considered a teacher bonus plan under LB 89, approved by the 1989 state legislature. At their September meeting, the board of education suggested that the teachers come up with the distribution plan of the bonus funds and then the board of education would ratify the plan.

LB 89 will provide $20 million this year to raise salaries for public school teachers across Nebraska.

The Wayne Education Association's proposal, presented by Duane Blomenkamp, would be an addendum to the negotiated salary agreements for the 1989-90 contract year.

Blomenkamp said the proposal was ratified by the entire professional staff of the Wayne community schools. Ballots were cast and teachers voted upon basically two proposals for the distribution of the H.E.L.P. funds.

The association voted, 49-18, to have the monies distributed to qualifying individuals on the basis of their placement on the index salary schedule for 1989-90. Other alternatives were to distribute the incoming funds equally among all

FTE eligible staff or through adjusted FTE.

THE DISTRIBUTION agreement stipulates that qualifying individuals for the bonus funds are those employees in the Wayne Education Association bargaining unit and those who are employed at the time of distribution.

Superintendent Francis Haun said the funds from LB 89 should be distributed to the Wayne Education Association "as soon as we get it" to avoid the paperwork that comes with the dividing up of the interest accrued on the monies.

Blomenkamp said there has been no indication how much

Trustees comment on reorganization

By Chuck Hackenmiller
Managing editor

A Phase I study report concerning public higher education in Nebraska, released last week by a Chicago consulting firm, was positive according to members of the Board of Trustees of the Nebraska State Colleges.

In that report the Chicago firm of Widmayer and Associates recommended that there be individual governing boards for each of the state colleges and university campuses with coordination being handled by a newly constructed statewide board. The State College Board of Trustees and the University Board of Regents would be eliminated.

The consultant's report stated that Nebraska would be served far better if its colleges and university campuses were governed locally and coordinated centrally.

depends greatly upon a process that allows institutions enough flexibility to respond to regional needs in a timely and effective manner," said the board of trustees.

"THE REPORT repeatedly emphasizes the virtue of allowing campus opportunity to be creative and enterprising. It is important that a new Board of Regents, with considerable power over both role and missions and budgets, be charged with a truly statewide perspective," the statement mentioned.

Focusing needs to be on the goal of delivery of quality education to meet changing needs. "Restructuring is not the goal. It is the means to the goal," the board of trustees stated.

Observations to the LB 247 Student Committee, mentioned in

Mash: Next step a concern

Dr. Donald Mash of Wayne says the first phase of Widmayer and Associates recommendations for structural changes in Nebraska's public higher education system are worthy of serious consideration.

However, he is more concerned about the firm's next steps. "Phase II of the study will be critical because it will deal with role and mission questions," says Mash, chairman of the State Colleges' Council of Presidents, and president of Wayne State College.

"The State Colleges believe that much more must be done to meet the higher education needs in Greater Nebraska. It is our intention to raise questions during Phase II which will get at the real issue: How well will our students and our service regions be served by changes in governance, coordination and role and mission assignments."

AT ITS Dec. 8 meeting the State College Board of Trustees generally agreed with the LB 247 consultants' recommendations for governance changes in Nebraska public higher education.

"Our Board's position on the restructuring of public higher education is open-minded, forward-looking and absent of turf protection," Mash said. "It should help to facilitate an objective and necessary review process which the LB 247 report has initiated."

"While there are many specifics and details yet to be resolved, we find ourselves in general agreement that if the basic philosophies and principles espoused in the Phase I report are maintained through [the forthcoming] Phase II and in the Legislative and Executive steps necessary for implementation, that we would be supportive of the restructuring as recommended," the state board of trustees announced in a statement made Friday at their meeting at Kearney State College.

"One observation is that structure by itself doesn't mean very much until we know how role and mission and budget processes will work. Whether this structure will result in improved service to student needs throughout the state the board of trustee statement concerning the study were:

— It will be important to define more clearly the respective roles of the new Board of regents and the newly-created institutional governing boards.

— It will be important to consider the study recommendations as a whole. "Refinement and definition are still needed, but if the proposals come unbundled, some moving through the legislative process and some being rejected, the package is likely to become less acceptable and less workable."

The board of trustees said structure changes has been a matter for public debate and discussion for years.

Extended contract sought

By Chuck Hackenmiller
Managing editor

Nebraska Public Power District approached the Wayne City Council Tuesday to ask for consideration of extending the present city contract.

John Hoebing, customer service manager with NPPD, said the energy producing firm presently serves up to 250 wholesale or retail communities in Nebraska. Few of those communities are considered as having long term contracts, the company learned earlier this year.

"When we build generating stations, high voltage lines or substations, we have got to have some guarantee there will be customers for the power that we provide," said Hoebing.

In June NPPD went to work in signing 200 of the 201 retail customers of NPPD to 25 year agreements. "That is a good endorsement of how that works," Hoebing said.

All but Norfolk has signed on, according to Hoebing.

HE SAID IT is also imperative that the wholesale customers also have a long term contract with NPPD. "If we go to the bond market and we have no guarantees or signatures on that dotted line, we've got problems," he said.

About two months ago the NPPD board of directors approved a resolution for Hoebing and others to contact the wholesale community customers and see if the community would be interested in extending their contract.

Wayne, a wholesale customer, currently has 12 years remaining on its contract with NPPD.

If Wayne decides by the end of 1989 to renew the contract for

Board 'choice' policy under consideration

By Chuck Hackenmiller
Managing editor

A proposal for board policy concerning parental choice was introduced Tuesday evening to the Wayne-Carroll Board of Education.

Wayne-Carroll School District will be participating in the acceptance of students, under the choice bill, for the 1990-91 school year on a voluntary basis.

According to portions of the proposal, the district will allow students to enter the district in 1990-91 on the following conditions:

— Written application will be submitted properly and filed on or before Jan. 1 for enrollment in the following subsequent school years.

— Students transferring to the Wayne School District shall be ineligible in athletics for the first year when transferred to grades 9-12, except as may be modified by policies adopted by the school from time to time.

— The option district shall not be responsible for providing transportation to the student transferring to the Wayne School District, except where there has been a mutual agreement with the district and the parent or legal guardian to pay the cost of such transportation. The parent or legal guardian of the option student shall be responsible for transportation.

— THE district will accept students transferring to the Wayne School District if it has capacity for said student. Such acceptance is subject to the district having available personnel, physical space, equipment, materials available and adequate facilities to meet the needs of the student.

— No employee of the district shall initiate any contact or make any effort to recruit students.

Guidelines for choice enrollment at Wayne Elementary, Carroll Elementary, Wayne Middle School and Wayne High School are also listed in the school choice proposal.

Wayne Elementary guidelines ask that K-4 classes each have no more than three sections. Kindergarten sections would number no more than 22 students per class while the remaining grades would not exceed 24 students per class.

At Carroll, the enrollment would not exceed 10 students per class in each of grades K-4.

WAYNE Middle School enrollment capacity would be fifth- and sixth grade sections, three each with no more than 24 students per class; no classroom with more than 25 students in the departmentalized seventh and eighth grade classes.

The high school could absorb additional students. However, an increase of 25 or more students in the areas of music, science, resource education, typing and Spanish would cause room availability and staffing problems, according to Principal Don Zeiss.

No action was taken by the board on the policy proposal.

Methodist Church performing Handel's 'Messiah'

The chancel choir of Wayne's First United Methodist Church will perform portions of the Christmas section of Handel's "Messiah" during the morning worship service on Sunday, Dec. 17 at 9:30 a.m. Guests are welcome to attend this special service.

Handel's "Messiah" is a musical setting of the story of Christ and is presented in three parts. The first part deals with the prophecy and birthday of Jesus. Part two deals with the Passion of Christ, ending with the "Hallelujah Chorus" (the resurrection). The third part speaks of the redemption of man through the resurrection.

The choir will perform most of the Christmas section of Handel's well-known and well-loved work.

Soloists will be Connie Webber, soprano; Rhonda Fuelberth, contralto; and Jan Kliever, baritone. The performance is under the direction of Connie Webber. Organ accompaniment is provided by Coleen Jeffries.

Cantata rescheduled at Wakefield church

Due to the snow and severe cold last Sunday, the Wakefield Christian Church postponed its Christmas cantata, entitled "An Old Fashioned Christmas."

The cantata has been rescheduled for Sunday, Dec. 17. The program will begin at 6 p.m. and will feature the church choir, solos from various members of the community and a children's choir. Following the cantata, the Bible school classes will present a children's Christmas program at 7 p.m.

The public is invited to attend either or both of the programs and the fellowship time to be held following the children's Christmas program.

"There needs to be a collective vision to guide the important work of public higher education in Nebraska. A coordinated meshing of our institutions [including the universities and community colleges] is imperative. The LB 247 recommendations may provide the impetus to bring this about."

MASH SAID LB 247 recommendations represent a significant change for Nebraska. However, the changes being recommended are not radical another 25 years with NPPD, the power company will allow the city of Wayne to receive a 2 percent discount on the demand portion of the bill for the first 15 years of the contract; and then a 15 cent discount off the rate for the remaining 10 years. Initially that would be a savings of about $6,000 a year.

CITY ADMINISTRATOR Phil Kloster told the city council that there has been some concern about the consideration the Wayne community gets for its high quality power plant in comparison to other communities with lesser quality power plants. "We want a clause in that contract that allows us an option to add an agreed base load [to meet the growing municipal power needs of the community]," Kloster mentioned.

"Our load is growing. Our demand peaks are getting close to what we've been accredited for plus reserve," he said.

The city council took no action Tuesday on the contract extension request by NPPD. More informa-and they are not without a track record. A number of states have a similar structure in place.

"Our [state college] perspective is clear. Our institutions are not the end products in this process. We're simply vehicles, a means to an end," Mash said.

"The ends are our students, our service regions and the revitalization of Greater Nebraska. We're public agencies carrying out critical regional agendas for state-wide development. We want what is best for Nebraska."

tion on the request for contract extension will be presented at future council meetings.

In other action Tuesday, the city council:

— Approved a special designated liquor permit request from the 4th Jug (Ken Jorgensen) for a dance at the National Guard Armory on Sunday, Dec. 31 (New Year's Eve).

— Agreed to provide the $10,000 annual payment to Providence Medical Center for assistance in providing ambulance service to the Wayne community.

— Passed a resolution authorizing the city clerk to execute a certificate of waiver on sale of Lot 9, Western Heights Second Subdivision of Wayne.

— Designated State National Bank and Trust of Wayne, First National Bank of Wayne and First Tier Bank as depositories.

— AND WERE informed of mayoral appointments to several city boards. They include: Bob Merchant to the Civil Service Commission; Jim Keating and Dean Bruggeman to the Recreation Board; Cap Peterson, Sam Schroeder and Sheryl Jordan to the Board of Adjustment; and Charlie Kudrna to the Board of Appeals.

funding will come to the school district from H.E.L.P. He said there is $20 million available and there are about 20,000 teachers in Nebraska.

IN OTHER action Tuesday, the board of education presented Marilyn DeTurk, kitchen server and baker who is retiring after 8 1/2 years of service to the school district, with a Distinguished Service Award.

Also Superintendent Haun was authorized to take bids on a 12-passenger school van to be used for athletic or academic event transportation and for other school district functions.

"We are now in a period of uncertainty that impairs the ability of all institutions to move ahead with plans and actions essential to serving our students and our state. To prolong that uncertainty about structure through inaction delays us in getting about the business of improving education for the needs of the next decade and next century," the board of trustees stated.

CHANGING THE structure does not guarantee improvement in the ability to educate. However, education will be harmed if endless debate about structure, confusion about who will be in charge, or frustration over inability to reach a decision occurs.

"The report emphasizes the importance Nebraskans place on education. If change is needed, let's get it done," said the board of trustees.

"The potential for abolishment of our board does not unnerve us if it will be replaced by a structure that by its makeup and constitutional charge must be responsive to the needs of the entire state," the trustees stated.

Letters

Stealing lights

I must write and tell you my disappointment with what has been going on in your fine city. I have seen individuals taking, borrowing or stealing Christmas lights that people have decorated their homes with. It is very disturbing to me that people would sneak around in the middle of the night and take the lights which guide my reindeers on Christmas Eve.

The adults in the community are very upset and the children are not able to understand why somebody keeps stealing lights from Mom and Dad. Santa Claus can't condone such actions out of grown-ups. You know the old saying, Santa knows whether you've been good or bad, well it's true.

Let me tell you a little story that one of my helpers heard this summer when he was in Wayne. He overheard two grown men talking about how sick and tired they are with people ripping off their lights. These guys were talking about booby-trapping their yard and even went so far as they were going to put an electric wire in their bushes. I can understand their frustration and my helper calmed these two men down.

Let me remind everyone that Christmas is a time when we celebrate the birth of Christ. Christmas is also a time when family members get together to worship and to renew family relationships. I know I'm addressing a very small minority of people and I hope this letter makes you think twice before you take that next strand of lights or the decorations which guide my sleigh at night. Merry Christmas to all and have a good night, may you wake up tomorrow and everything be bright.

EVELINA JOHNSON CONCORD CORRESPONDENT

Keeping in touch and becoming acquainted with area folks is what Evelina Johnson says makes her job interesting as The Wayne Herald correspondent for the Concord area. Evelina has been employed as the Concord correspondent since May 1969. She says she began writing for the newspaper because she needed something to do, besides housework, after moving into Concord from the farm in November 1963. Although she enjoys crafts and crocheting, Evelina said she doesn't need many hobbies because she keeps quite busy by attending church and organizational activities. She is a lifelong member of Concordia Lutheran Church, Concord, and attends Lutheran Churchwomen and Circle meetings. She also spends time cutting and sewing blocks for Lutheran World Relief quilts. She is a member of the Concord Women's Welfare Club, 3 C's Home Extension Club and Women's Christian Temperance Union, and has held offices in all of the organizations. She said she also spends a lot of time at the Concord Senior Citizens Center. In addition, Evelina enjoys spending time with her family, including seven children, 20 grandchildren and 31 great grandchildren. Her husband, Arthur, passed away in April 1985.

Blue Devils come from behind to win

The Wayne Blue Devils had to come from behind to defeat Schuyler Tuesday night as they posted a 66-61 victory over the highly touted Warriors. The Blue Devils were down by eight at intermission but went on a 17-0 run in the third quarter to take a 51-44 lead over Schuyler for a lead they would never relinquish.

Wayne only had five scorers in the contest but all five were in double figures led by Willy Gross with 18 points. Gross has been the leading scorer for all three of Wayne's games. Craig Dyer had a magnificent game against Schuyler and was the second leading scorer with 16 points.

Neil Carnes poured in 12 points and Craig Sharpe and Chad Metzler had 10 each to aid in the victory. Metzler sank two 3-pointers during Wayne's 17-0 run.

Schuyler has a really nice team," Wayne coach Bob Uhing said. "But our kids played with a lot of poise and never let down when they were down by 12."

The Warriors came into the contest sporting one of the finest guards in all of Class B in Scott Peterson. Peterson managed 14 points in the contest but he didn't score in the second half until the final minute of play. He had 11 first half points.

Uhing was pleased with the performances he got from several of his players. "I thought Craig Dyer had an outstanding game," Uhing said. "He's one of our keys because he is a good athlete. He's very quick on his first step which often times allows him to drive to the baseline."

Once again Willy Gross had a fine game. "Willy played fantastic," Uhing said. "He not only led us in scoring but he had to guard Scott Peterson and he did a fine job of that. He also led us in rebounding and assists. He contributed in all facets of the game."

Uhing also noted the quality play of Neil Carnes, Craig Sharpe and Chad Metzler. "I'm really proud of Craig Sharpe because he is really playing aggressive basketball," Uhing said. "Neil had another good game and we got some big baskets out of Chad Metzler."

Willy Gross led the rebounding corp with 10 caroms to his credit while Neil Carnes managed six. Craig Dyer and Craig Sharpe hauled down five apiece. Gross and Carnes led the team in assists with four and three.

Wayne had just 11 turnovers in the game compared to 18 for Schuyler. The Blue Devils connected on 11 of 21 free throws while Schuyler hit on 15 of 23.

The 2-1 Blue Devils will host fourth rated Wisner-Pilger on Friday before traveling to O'Neill on Saturday.

WAYNE'S CRAIG DYER gets a quick step on a Schuyler defender during basketball action Tuesday night in Wayne. The Blue Devils defeated Schuyler 66-61 after coming from behind by eight points at halftime. Dyer finished with 16 points.

Poor free throw shooting haunts Wayne in loss

Wayne boys basketball coach Bob Uhing has a four point plan before every game and he feels that if his Blue Devils can win three of the four areas each outing, they should have a more than equal chance of coming out on top.

That was not the case however on Saturday night as Wayne fell to Columbus Lakeview, 57-53 in Columbus. "We dominated the areas we wanted to," Uhing said. "But we still came up on the short end." Wayne's down fall came in the areas of free throw shooting and turnovers.

"We gave the game away," Uhing said. "We were 9-32 from the free throw line and we had 25 turnovers." Yet the Blue Devils only lost by four. The four areas Uhing looks to gain advantage in during each game includes out rebounding the opponent which Wayne did to the tune of 40-26. They also look to shoot a better percentage than their opponents which they did by shooting 48 percent compared to 41 by Lakeview.

Uhing also looks for Wayne to shoot more free throws than their counterparts and again they did, 32-31 and the fourth category is to have less turnovers, the only category in which the Blue Devils failed to win as they suffered 25 compared to 18 by the host team.

"We shot 58 percent from the field in our first game and only 48 percent from the field in the second game," Uhing said. "I don't know if it was just a lack of concentration or what."

Uhing said that Lakeview pressed them but it wasn't the press that caused Wayne to turn the ball over so much. "We turned the ball over several times with out anyone on us," Uhing said. "We had five or six palming calls and we had about five, five-second calls go against us."

Wayne didn't get the ball to the post as much as they did in the first contest with Battle Creek which proved to be successful in that outing. Neil Carnes, Craig Sharpe and Kyle Dahl combined in the first game for 37 total points but the big three only managed a total of 16 points combined in the Lakeview game.

Willy Gross led the Blue Devils with 28 points while Neil Carnes managed nine and Craig Dyer six. Craig Sharpe had five and Jeff Griesch netted three. Kyle Dahl rounded out the attack with two.

Wayne had 13 offensive rebounds and 40 overall to totally dominate the rebounding category. Sharpe had 11 caroms while Willy Gross and Craig Dyer followed with nine and eight respectively. Neil Carnes had seven rebounds and he again led the team in assists with four.

WSC loses in Alaska

The Wayne State mens basketball team has been in Alaska for four games during the past week with two games against the University of Alaska at Anchorage and two games against Alaska-Fairbanks.

Against the Anchorage Seawolves Wayne State was defeated soundly, 96-59 in the opening contest. Wayne State trailed 55-31 at intermission and could never challenge the Seawolves in the second half. Mike Rombout and Melvin Nunn were the only Wildcats in double figures as they scored 14 and 13 points respectively.

Nunn hauled down six rebounds to lead Wayne State in that category. The Wildcats were out rebounded 42-22 by Anchorage. Wayne State shot just 38 percent from the field while the host team connected on 60 percent of their shots. The Wildcats connected on 65 percent of their free throws in hitting 13 of 20.

Last Saturday then, the Wildcats played the same squad again and this time they were defeated 101-62. The Wildcats trailed at intermission by a 49-31 margin. Steve Dunbar was 5-10 from three point range and led the Wildcats in scoring with 19 points.

Eric Priebe was also in double figures with 11 points and led the Cats in rebounding with 11 caroms. Mike Rombout, a usual consistent scorer for Wayne State suffered through an 0-11 night from the field.

Wayne State was out rebounded 54-30. The Wildcats connected on 33 percent of their shots from the field and 69 percent from the foul line, hitting 11-16.

WSC scores 102

On Monday night Wayne State played the first of two games against Alaska-Fairbanks and the Wildcats scored 102 points. Unfortunately, the host team scored 112 and Wayne State fell to 0-3 on the Alaska trip and 4-7 overall.

The Wildcats trailed 57-45 at intermission but out scored the Chanooks 57-55 in the second half. Five Wildcat players were in double figures led by Melvin Nunn with 18. Nunn also led the team in rebounding with eight as Wayne State was out rebounded for the game by a 53-42 margin.

Mike Rombout netted 16 points for Wayne State while Tony Hill poured in 14. Steve Dunbar and Doug Kuszak each scored 13 in a losing effort. Kuszak also had eight rebounds for the Wildcats.

Wayne State hit 46 percent of their shots from the field while connecting on 19-23 from the foul line for 83 percent. Fairbanks upped its season record to 9-1 with the win.

Wayne wrestlers notch third place

The Wayne Blue Devils wrestling team managed a third place finish at the West Point Invitational on Saturday as they racked up 143 points, just seven shy of runner-up O'Neill. David City Aquinas ran away from the field with 173 points.

West Point Central Catholic finished fourth with 103 and West Point finished fifth with 84. Neligh, Fort Calhoun, Oakland-Craig and Plainview rounded out the rest of the field in order of finish.

The Blue Devils came away with three individual champions and two runner-up finishes enroute to their third place finish. Mike DeNaeyer owned the 119 lb. weight class as he won by pin in the finals over state rated Brent Ertz of O'Neill in just 63 seconds. Ertz is currently the fifth rated wrestler at 119 lbs. and DeNaeyer is unranked after finishing in second place in last year's 103 lb. category in Class B. With the win DeNaeyer's record improved to 8-1.

"Mike DeNaeyer was dominating in his 119 lb. weight class," Murtaugh said. "He was able to pin his way through a very competitive weight class."

Jason Ehrhardt at 189 and Matt Bruggeman in the heavy weight categories kept their undefeated records in tact with championships as well. Ehrhardt is currently 8-0 on the year and Bruggeman is 7-0.

Chris Janke and Greg DeNaeyer finished in second place for Wayne while Eric Cole was the lone third place finisher. Trevor Wehrer and Jason Fink each managed a fourth place finish for John Murtaugh's Blue Devils.

There were several highlights according to Murtaugh and they included winning five of seven semi final matches, something Murtaugh mentioned earlier they need to work on. "I think one of the main highlights was Trevor Wehrer's eight second pin of Mark Ohrlich of Plainview which is a school record," Murtaugh said. "Also I think Mike DeNaeyer did a nice job of pinning his way through the tournament and especially pinning the fifth rated kid in the state in the finals in 63 seconds."

One of the biggest matches of the day came in the 135 lb. finals between Chris Janke of Wayne and Jim Lauridsen of O'Neill. Janke was rated third and Lauridsen fourth before the show down. Lauridsen defeated Janke 4-2 in overtime.

"I felt our team performed well," Murtaugh said. "I'm satisfied with the progress of our team at this stage of the season. It's a long season and I'm sure we will continue to make improvements. I was also pleased with Jason Fink who placed for the first time in a varsity tournament," Murtaugh said. "I'm sure there will be many more for him in the future."

Murtaugh said that David City Aquinas was the surprise of the tournament. "They have a good team," Murtaugh said. "They seemed to get a lot of breaks along the way which helped. It was just their day. The following is a composite of how each of the Wayne wrestlers fared at West Point.

WSC to host tourney

The second annual "Great Northeast Nebraska Shoot Out" will be held Dec. 27-29 in Rice Auditorium at Wayne State College.

Boys and girls teams from eight schools will be competing in the holiday basketball tournament. Schools competing in the tournament are Winnebago, Stanton, Macy, Wakefield, South Sioux City, Pierce, Wisner-Pilger and Wayne.

The South Sioux City boys and the Stanton girls are the defending champions of the tournament. Play will begin at 9:30 a.m. on Wednesday, December 27, with all 16 teams competing in the first round.

On Thursday, the loser's bracket play begins at 9:30 a.m. while the winner's bracket begins at 4:30 p.m. All teams will play three contests.

For more information on the tournament, contact the Wayne State Athletic Department at 375-2200 ext. 520. The Wakefield girls will play Macy at 12:30 p.m. on Wednesday and the Wakefield boys will play Macy immediately following at 2 p.m.

Wayne's girls will play Wisner-Pilger at 7:30 p.m. on Wednesday and the boys game with the same two teams featured will follow immediately at approximately 9 p.m.

Todd Fredrickson lost by pin twice at 103 lbs., and failed to place but Brent Gamble escaped the Stanton Invitational with a first place finish at 119 lbs. Gamble won by pin, won 7-2 and won 10-7 over Henry Blair of Pender.

Brian Gamble took fourth place in the invite in the 140 lb. weight class after losing his first match by pin. He then received a bye and then he won by pin. In the consolation finals he lost by pin to Roger Pojar of Stanton.

At 160 lbs., Dwaine Junck placed fourth. He lost his first match by pin then won by pin twice and then lost by pin to Jerry Wiedeman of Battle Creek in the consolation finals.

Ryan Harris wrestled at 171 lbs., and lost by pin twice. "I was very pleased with the junior varsity wrestlers that went to Stanton," Murtaugh said. "Three of the five wrestlers that went came home with medals. Brent Gamble obviously had a good day."

Wayne will now concentrate its efforts for this weekend's Wayne Invitational which will be held on Saturday at the Wayne Recreation Center beginning at 9:30 a.m. and lasting until approximately 6:00 p.m.

Among the eight teams which will be competing include Wayne, Winside, Omaha Father Flanagan, North Bend, Wisner, Waverly, Arlington and Sioux City East's junior varsity team.

Winside girls escape victorious

The Winside girls improved to 3-1 on the season with a narrow 32-31 victory over Bancroft-Rosalie Tuesday night in Winside. In the night cap of the girl-boy double header Winside's boys dropped a 67-48 decision to the Panthers.

Girls coach Paul Giesselmann said the win wasn't pretty for his Wildcats but he'll take the "W". "We'll take victories any way we can get them," Giesselmann said. Winside trailed by three points with 1:14 remaining in regulation and with Bancroft on the free throw line.

Giesselmann called a time out to set up some strategy. Bancroft missed the free throw and Winside came down and scored on a Tina Hartmann basket which narrowed the margin to one with less than a minute remaining.

Winside forced a turnover and then held the ball for the last shot. April Thies took the shot with less than 10 seconds remaining but it fell short and Winside's Jenni Topp was at the right place at the right time. She got the offensive rebound and put the ball up and in for the victory with one second remaining.

"Bancroft has really improved," Giesselmann said. "They played a very strong 1-3-1 zone and didn't allow Wendy Rabe to get the ball. They also had good size which matched up to ours."

According to Giesselmann however, the Wildcats played their best defensive game of the year holding Bancroft to 18 points below their season average.

Jenny Jacobsen led Winside with 14 points while Hartmann finished with 10. Wendy Rabe, Jenni Topp, Shawn Janke and April Thies had two each. Winside out rebounded Bancroft 29-27 led by Jenni Topp's seven and Wendy Rabe's six caroms.

Winside suffered 31 turnovers in the game while Bancroft had 22.

Boys lose
Randy Geier's boys team dropped their fourth consecutive game of the year to Bancroft, 67-48. "The difference in the game was we simply got out hustled," Geier said. "Bancroft seemed to get all the loose balls and they got a lot of offensive rebounds in the first half."

Randy Prince led the way with 24 points while Cory Jensen managed six. James Painter and John Hancock had five each and Tad Behmer and Jason Paulsen had three each. Matt Brogren had two.

Prince had 13 rebounds to lead Winside and was 10-12 from the charity stripe. Winside was out rebounded by a 57-28 margin and they suffered 26 turnovers compared to nine for Bancroft.

Winside earns runner-up trophy

The Winside wrestling squad is out to solidify their coach Paul Sok's comment about the Wildcats chances of being in the top 10 in class D this year and if they keep competing like they did in the North Bend Invitational on Saturday, they will get little argument from anyone.

Winside and Weeping Water were the only class D schools at the North Bend Invitational, but the Wildcats didn't let school classifications get in the way as they wrestled to a runner-up finish behind tournament champion David City.

"I'm pleased with the way we wrestled," Sok said. "This is the first time we've brought a trophy home from the North Bend Invitational in 10 years." As mentioned already, David City won the meet with 159 points followed by the Wildcats with 122 1/2. Ashland-Greenwood finished third with 116 and Wisner Pilger finished fourth with 110. Weeping Water was the fifth best team on the day with 100 points while the host team in North Bend finished sixth with 75. Rounding out the field in order of finish was Murray-Conestoga, Columbus Lakeview, Milford and Fremont's junior varsity.

Out of the 13 possible weight classes Winside finished with nine medalists including two champions and one runner-up. Chad Carlson at 112 lbs., made it through the tournament unscathed as he improved his record to 7-1 on the year with a pin over Weeping Water's Gary Sorensen in 2:59 in the finals.

At 135 lbs., that familiar name of Max Kant echoed through the North Bend gymnasium as the man to be at 135. Kant didn't let anyone down, except maybe himself as his string of consecutive pins was snapped at seven in the semi-finals with a 14-0 decision. Kant went on to pin Justin Aerni of Columbus Lakeview in 3:59 of the finals. Kant raised his record to 8-0 with the championship.

In the heavy weight category, Winside's Brian Thompson was defeated in the finals by the defending state runner-up in class C in Scott Stara of David City. Stara pinned Thompson in 1:02.

Winside had two wrestlers that finished third in the meet including Doug Heinemann at 125 lbs., and Jason Krueger at 189 lbs. Heinemann decided Doug Roberts of Columbus Lakeview 9-6 in the consolation finals. Krueger decided Tom Mullaly of North Bend Central, 6-2 for his third place finish.

Four Wildcat grapplers finished in fourth place including freshman Chris Mann at 103 lbs. Mann was decided by Ryan Theewohn of David City, 4-0 in the consolation finals.

Shane Frahm at 145 lbs., notched a fourth place finish but was decided by Dan House of Ashland-Greenwood, 16-4 in the consolation finals. Jeff Gallop at 152 was also a fourth place finisher. Gallop was decided by Troy Tweeton of David City, 14-7 in the match for third place.

Kerry Jaeger brought home a fourth place medal at 171 lbs. Jaeger was pinned by Bill Chapman in the consolation finals. "I thought our kids did well in the consolation semi-finals and of course Chad, Max and Brian did a nice job," Sok said.

Winside will travel to Wayne this Saturday to take part in the Wayne Invitational.

Laurel girls split OT games

The Laurel Lady Bears have gotten a fair share of basketball during their last two outings. Last week Laurel lost an overtime game to Randolph in Randolph, 61-58. Then on Monday night in Laurel the Bears had to go to double overtime before defeating Ponca, 62-58.

The Randolph contest with Laurel was close through out with Laurel trailing by one after the first quarter but at intermission the score was tied at 27. Laurel trailed by two after the third quarter but came back to tie the game before heading to overtime.

Amy Adkins connected on a free throw with 10 seconds left in regulation and Randolph missed an eight foot shot at the buzzer to force the extra period. "It was a dynamite game," Laurel coach Mike Zimmerman said. "It had a little bit of everything." Laurel actually led by five points with just over a minute remaining in regulation.

Zimmerman said he was impressed with Randolph guard Lyn Lackas who scored 31 points against his Bears and connected on 13 of her 15 free throw attempts.

Heather Thomas led the scoring attack for Laurel with 18 points while Amy Adkins added 17. Sherri Hangman was also in double figures with 10 while Sherri McCorkindale added nine and Tina Granquist, six. Bree Bebee rounded out the scoring with one point.

In the Ponca contest with Laurel the game came down to the final gun in regulation as Laurel had the ball out of bounds at half court with eight seconds remaining and trailing by three.

"We had Bree Bebee take the ball out of bounds and throw it in to Amy Adkins," Zimmerman said. "Adkins then penetrated a little and threw it back out to Bree just like we had drawn up. Bree Bebee then connected on the 3-pointer to tie the score and send it into overtime.

In the first overtime both teams scored four points but in the second overtime Laurel out scored Ponca 6-2 for the win. Laurel had to overcome a five point deficit in the fourth quarter to tie the game.

Heather Thomas scored 18 points for the second consecutive game to lead the Bears while Sherri McCorkindale netted 13. Sherri Hangman had 12 and Amy Adkins, 11 to aid in the win. Tina Granquist had five and Bree Bebee had just three but it was perhaps the most important three of the game.

The Laurel junior varsity team evened its record at 2-2 on the season with a pair of wins over Ponca, 21-12 and Randolph, 28-18. Rynae Reifenrath led the charge against Ponca with six points while Betsy Adkins and Amy Peters had four each. Betsy Adkins and Amy Peters led Laurel against Randolph with nine and eight points respectively.

Laurel will host Plainview in action this Friday. The Laurel varsity is 2-3 on the young season.

Allen teams split with Hartington

The Allen boys recorded their third win in four outings Tuesday night with an 83-77 victory over Hartington in Hartington. Allen had just two victories in all of last year.

The Eagles jumped out to a 25-16 lead at the end of the first quarter virtually never trailed from then on even though the score got close toward the end. "We played good basketball for about the first

Wakefield loses to Emerson

Wakefield's girls basketball team ran head on into the Emerson-Hubbard Lady Pirates who won their 27th consecutive game Monday night with a 63-35 thumping of the Lady Trojans.

"We were just a little cold from the field," Wakefield coach Ellie Studer said. "They full court pressed us all game and with our young team it took its toll." Studer said they tried to slow the ball down in the second half with her Trojans already trailing 38-22 at intermission. "We slowed down their pace a little bit," Studer said.

"But we just couldn't find the bucket and they really capitalized with their two big scorers in Leah Fuscher and Marcy Schwarten as they scored 24 and 20 points respectively."

The 1-3 Trojans were led in scoring by Lisa Blecke's 18 points. Cathi Larson followed with six while Lisa Anderson netted five. Wendy Kratke, Julie Greve and Sarah Salmon scored two points each.

Cathi Larson led the Trojans in rebounding with nine while Lisa Blecke had eight and Wendy Kratke, seven. Wakefield out rebounded Emerson by a 41-32 margin. The Trojans suffered 18 turnovers in the contest.

Wakefield will travel to play Hartington on Friday night.

five minutes," Allen coach Gary Troth said. "We got up 22-12 but then we got stuck with foul trouble as both Todd Hohenstein and Matt Hingst picked up two fouls in the first quarter."

Neither Hingst nor Hohenstein played in the second quarter yet the Eagles still managed to score 22 points and allow Hartington to trim just one point off the nine point first quarter advantage.

"We got some good play out of Joedy Martinson in the second quarter," Troth said. "He came off the bench and scored all 12 of his points in that eight minute stanza." Shane Dahl scored six of his 22 points in the second quarter and Rusty Dickens added four in that period alone.

Hohenstein still managed to lead all Allen scorers with 23 points while Dahl was close behind at 22. Martinson finished with his 12 and Matt Hingst added eight. Ben Jackson netted seven and Rusty Dickens and Todd Sullivan scored four each. Kent Chase and Paul Brentlinger rounded out the attack with two and one points respectively.

Allen out rebounded Hartington convincingly with a 48-32 advantage led by Shane Dahl with 12 and Todd Hohenstein with eight. Hartington was forced into 25 turnovers while Allen suffered 19.

Laurel downs Osmond by 19

Laurel improved its record to 4-0 Tuesday night with a convincing 65-46 victory over Osmond in Osmond. The Bears were with out the services of big man John Schutte who was nursing a sprained ankle.

The news didn't get better in the second quarter as Troy Twohig went down with a bad back. Twohig's prognosis was not known at press time. At any rate things progressively got worse for Mark Hrabik's Bears in that Todd Erwin got into early foul trouble and didn't play much in the second and third quarters.

Still the Bears went to their deep bench and came out with a big victory to keep their number six rating in the Omaha World Herald in tact. "I thought our kids did a nice job of coming off the bench when our three best players were not in action," Hrabik said. "Shawn Arens started for John Schutte and did a nice job and Bruce Haisch came in for Troy Twohig when he went down and non starter Matt Felber spelled Todd Erwin when we was out with foul trouble."

The Bears jumped out to a 20-13 lead after one quarter and led by nine at intermission. Laurel was never threatened in the second half. Matt Jonas led the way with 17 points while Todd Erwin managed 12. Matt Felber had nine while Shawn Arens and Chad VanCleave had eight apiece. Troy Twohig scored six before being injured and Bruce Haisch had five.

Laurel out rebounded Osmond 38-26 led by Chad VanCleave with 12. Shawn Arens hauled down seven cars. The Bears forced Osmond into 18 turnovers while committing 16 themselves. Chad VanCleave led the way with six steals while Matt Jonas and Todd Erwin recorded five steals each. Erwin dished out six assists to lead the team while Jonas recorded five. Laurel connected on 15 of their 29 free throw attempts while Osmond made good on 13 of 18.

Sounds of Christmas

LISTEN...HEAR THE SOUNDS OF CHRISTMAS!

A parent telling a child to be good...or else! Carolers ringing out a Christmas song. Cash registers announcing a holiday sale. Choirs rehearsing so that nothing goes wrong.

Christmas trees rustling when brought in the house. Spatulas sliding cookies off of the cookie sheet. Dingling of ornaments as they swing in the breeze. Greetings to everyone that passes on the street.

A Christmas prayer before the big meal. Wrapping paper that crinkles on Christmas morn. Ripping open the envelopes containing Christmas cards. And sermons stressing the significance of the Christ Child being born.

Noises at parties and holiday festivities. School alarms proclaiming time for a brief vacation. Someone reading "The Night Before Christmas." Screams of children filled with complete elation.

Audiences applauding at the annual Christmas show. Toys that work when batteries inserted. Bells inviting all to attend church services. Children whispering in their beds so to not have Santa Claus alerted.

IT IS WHAT WE HEAR AT CHRISTMAS THAT SETS THE SEASON APART. CHRISTMAS IS SO ENJOYABLE ONCE WE LISTEN WITH OUR HEARTS.

Wayne Guard Unit places in competition

About 200 Nebraska National Guard members fired the M16 rifle, M60 machine gun and .45 caliber pistol recently to compete in the Guard's largest marksmanship competition in the state.

Fifty-five Nebraska Air National Guard and Army National Guard members won awards for placing in individual and team competitions during the Adjutant General's Combat Shoot in Hastings.

Plaques were awarded to individual winners in the seasoned and novice shooters categories. Trophies were awarded to the winning teams.

The marksmanship program promotes combat readiness in the Guard by encouraging soldiers and airmen to develop their shooting skills. Top shooters won a place on a team that will represent Nebraska in the national marksmanship match next year.

For the seventh year in a row, the Company A, 1-134th Infantry of Wayne won first place in the team competition of the machine gun division. Team members include Robert A. Bromwich, a Wayne State College student; Brian T. Loberg of Wayne; David E. Longe of Wayne; and John J. Wagner of Cedar Bluffs.

Individually, David Longe finished second overall in the machine gun division of the combat shoot.

Bereuter introduces grain quality bill

Representative Doug Bereuter has introduced a grain quality bill designed to reward quality and cleanliness through grain price support loans which include a schedule of premiums which would supplement the loans. Bereuter told a York audience recently that at the end of the first session of the 101st Congress he introduced the House version of a bill introduced in the Senate by Senators Thomas Daschle of South Dakota and Senator Christopher Bond of Missouri.

Bereuter's version of the bill differs slightly from the Senate bill in that it includes a loan program to assist producers and handlers in acquiring and installing the technology necessary to deal with a new grading system.

Bereuter has been active in efforts to improve grain quality and increase exports throughout his service in Congress. The Federal Grain Inspection Service Authorization passed by the 100th Congress included provisions from a proposal that Bereuter introduced to establish a one-year pilot project to offer incentives for the delivery, storage and exportation of clean, quality grain. The legislation expanded the Federal Grain Inspection Service Advisory Committee, which is developing economic incentives to improve the quality of grain.

"FOREIGN delegations visiting the United States repeatedly point out that U.S. grain is often lower quality than the grain they purchase from our major grain export competitors. At present, U.S. grain standards provide incentives to add foreign matter and moisture to grain," Bereuter said. "A report issued by the Office of Technology Assessment early this year confirms that once grain has left the farm and enters the marketing pipeline, its quality and cleanliness deteriorate. We must provide incentives to encourage the shipment of high quality grain."

Bereuter's bill would establish a minimum of three quality grades to reflect the needs of end users. Only certain minimum grain quality levels would be allowed into the Farmer-owned Reserve, and the CCC would require that the quality initially pledged by present at delivery. Disaster payments would be expanded to cover loss of grain quality.

"The international marketplace is becoming increasingly competitive and sophisticated," Bereuter said. "By establishing these standards, we will give ourselves a competitive edge."

SPECIALIST 4 TROY ARMSTRONG of Wayne was honored by Ak-Sar-Ben as outstanding citizen-soldier.

JOINING ARMSTRONG as outstanding citizen-soldier was Staff Sgt. Jerome Donner of Laurel. Both are members of Company A, Task Force 1-134 Infantry of Wayne.

In keeping records and analysis

Swine program offered

The Swine Enterprise Records and Analysis program is being offered to swine producers in Wayne, Dixon, Dakota and Thurston Counties for 1990.

Rod Patent, extension agent, says the program is designed to help swine producers measure their production costs, profits, and efficiency. This program was offered in 1989 throughout the five county area. Twenty-three producers are participating in the program. The six month summaries for these producers were completed in August and the annual summaries will be completed in February.

Most participants found that their six-month summary was an eye-opener, especially when comparing it to the group average for similar operations. For many participants, this is their first step toward increasing their competitiveness in a rapidly changing pork industry.

GOOD RECORDS are essential for making sound management decisions. They are useful in identifying specific areas where improvements in production efficiency or reductions in costs can be made. Participants are able to evaluate decisions regarding investments in hog facilities or expansion of the hog enterprise.

Each program participant receives a swine enterprise record-book for recording production and financial data. At the end of six months and at the end of the year each participant receives a computerized analysis of their swine enterprise based upon their records. Group averages of the data for all participants are prepared for comparison with individual analyses. All individual producer data is kept confidential.

The Swine Records program is comprehensive in providing the producer, the information necessary to identify strong or weak production areas.

IT PROVIDES comparisons to other producers in: Number of pigs weaned, number born dead, number born alive, pigs weaned and marketed sow/year or crate pork produced/cwt. feed fed, feed cost/cwt. feed fed, and feed cost and 20 other indicators. Once a producer knows their own costs then it is easy to focus on the weak spots and improve overall efficiency. The goal is to keep the hog operation returning the highest profit possible.

Swine Enterprise records is a proven program with 1990 being the fourth year. Now is the time to get started. A January 1 hog inventory record is the first step to evaluating the production efficiency of the swine herd.

The cost of the program for 1990 will be $60 per swine operation. For registration or more information call the Wayne County Extension office at 375-3310. Sign up early to be ready to start January 1.

FIRST NATIONAL BANK'S SENIOR CITIZEN CORNER

A SPOUSE AROUND THE HOUSE: Three readers have sent me a piece from the New York Times Magazine in which a woman writes about the problems of having her retired husband at home with her all day long. Each of my correspondents said she should feel fortunate in having her mate still alive and well, and just as obviously, still caring enough about her to want to be with her now that he no longer has to run off to an office every day.

I admit, that's the way I felt when I first read the article. However, when I mentioned this to a friend whose husband retired last year, she said she understood the writer; loving your mate is not the question. The point is that wives tend to have regular routines they follow around the house — even if they have jobs outside — and have also established their own social links, often with civic or charity groups in their areas. The husbands, however, come in cold, as it were, when they retire and they either have no schedules and seem to "float" in time, or they want in on the wives' activities. What should have been the realization of a happy anticipation instead becomes a teeth-grashing experience with one partner overly eager to practice togetherness and the other partner unprepared (and unwilling) for the experience. The basic problem is that neither of them realized they would have to make some dramatic accommodations. Often the wife seems to have held on to the belief that even if he stops working, nothing changes for her. And he seems to feel that there should be no problems now that he's there to share everything with her.

The fact is, retirement changes things for everyone concerned, and it's important to plan how to take advantage of this new situation rather than let it take advantage of you.

Perhaps the burden here should be on the husband who needs to set up activities for himself. He and his wife need not become joined at the hip at this stage of their lives. They can share many things, but not everything. Any suggestions? Write me c/o King Features Weekly Service, 235 East 45th Street, New York, N.Y. 10017.

WHAT'S IN A NAME: I received a form letter from an insurance company connected with a major credit card issuer. The salutation was, Dear Matilda. I called the credit card company and they agreed the letter writer was way out of line in using my first name. Why did I take the trouble to complain? I'm not a stuffy, unfriendly soul. But I think it's important that we encourage certain niceties of social behavior — one of them, being addressed with respect. What do you think?

NOTE: If you're getting sales material touting the benefits of vitamin E as a youth restorer, ignore it. There is no specific evidence that vitamin E can reverse or prevent the aging process.

Testing devices available

Radon testing at home encouraged

Radon is something people cannot see or smell, yet it may affect their future health, according to a University of Nebraska housing and interior design specialist.

A colorless, odorless radioactive gas resulting from the decay of uranium, radon is a "natural" product found outdoors. But when it concentrates in the air in homes it can cause lung cancer, said Ann Dellenbarger.

Radon occurs in a wide variety of soils and rocks containing uranium, shale, granite and phosphate, Dellenbarger said. The presence of radon is only the first factor in a developing radon problem. Other factors include soil permeability, design and construction of the home, air pressure differences between the home and the outside and ventilation and air circulation within the home.

Radon is pulled out of the soil and into buildings when there is a lower indoor pressure. It enters the home through exposed soil, cracks in concrete or hollow block walls and penetrations in the foundations such as floor drains and sumps, she said. Neighboring homes can have different concentrations, depending on the interaction of relevant factors.

TWO TYPES of devices can be used to detect radon in the home: activated charcoal canisters and alpha track detectors.

Canisters require three days to seven days to obtain measurements and are best for preliminary screenings, Dellenbarger said. Alpha track detectors are used for measuring long-term exposure from one month to a year. Both types vary widely in price but can cost as much as $50. With either device, the monitor is purchased and exposed according to the manufacturer's directions. The device is then returned to the company for analysis and the results are mailed back.

The Bureau of Radiological Health of the State Department of Health maintains a list of certified companies that market radon testing devices. The Bureau's phone number is (402) 471-2168.

Radon testing should be done during months when doors and windows are closed and the heating system is running, Dellenbarger said.

A canister testing device should be used in the lowest livable area of the home, she said. This will not give a true picture of the average radon exposure to radon over a period of time since the short test period does not allow for the effects of ventilation and seasonal fluctuations, but it can indicate a possible concern about radon.

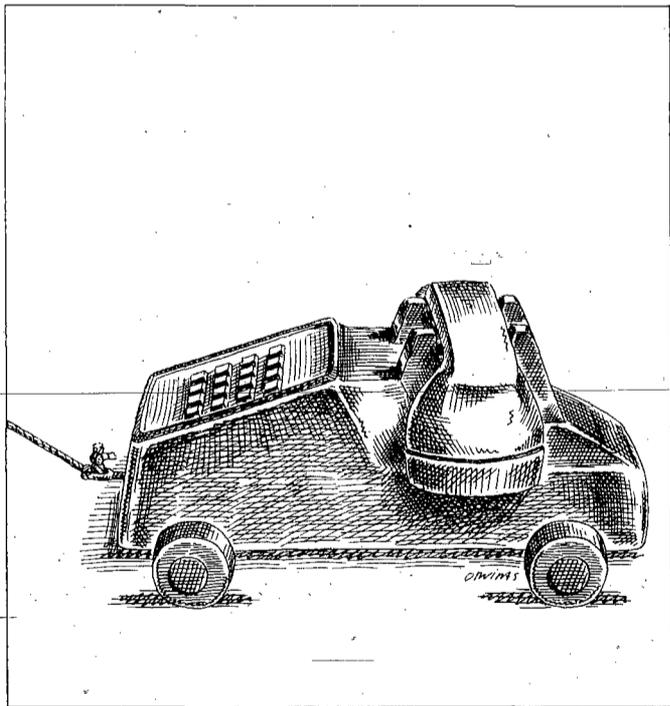

If the preliminary test indicates a radon problem, a long-term test is recommended, Dellenbarger said. The alpha track detectors can be placed on different levels of the home to measure average exposure or located near suspected points of radon gas entry to measure specific exposure.

DELLENBARGER said the results of radon testing must be evaluated carefully. A decision to take remedial action should not be made on the basis of one test. Results should be viewed in the context of each situation. The presence of smokers in the house, time spent at home and time spent in the lowest level of the home can increase the health risk of radon.

Children and people in poor health appear to be at greatest risk, Dellenbarger said. Except for extremely high concentrations of radon, there is time to test carefully and plan a course of action.

The Environmental Protection Agency has set recommendations concerning the amounts of radon and action required. The concentration of radon is measured in picocuries per liter. A radon level that is found to be less than 4 picocuries per liter is considered safe. Four picocuries per liter to 20 picocuries per liter requires action being taken to lower the amount within a few years. Twenty picocuries to 200 picocuries per liter requires action within several months and a level greater than 200 picocuries per liter requires immediate action.

The GOLDEN YEARS

by Joe Schane

There are more than 32,000 Americans who are over 100 years old, according to census figures. This is three times the number counted in 1960. There are about three women to every man over 100. The increase in centenarians reflects the overall lengthening of life expectancy. The average life expectancy of men and women born in 1900 was 47 years. For their grandchildren or great-grandchildren born in the 1980s, it's 75 years.

Wilbert Bonvillian, of Houman, Louisiana, is working harder these days than before he retired in 1966 as a railroad employee. He puts in eight-to-10-hour days, seven days a week, building wooden toys — miniature cars, planes, boats, ducks, turtles and other figures. And he gives them all away. Since 1980 Bonvillian has donated more than 22,000 of his wooden toys to charitable organizations.

Remember When? March 24, 1939 — A Pacific cruise ship picked up a radio message from adventurer Richard Halliburton who was sailing a Chinese junk from Hong Kong to San Francisco: "Southernly gales... lee rail under water... having wonderful time." It was the last heard from the writer who had won international fame for his daring "firsts."

By Pat Meierhenry

I have to talk about volleyball. Specifically, Nebraska volleyball. I know, we're into basketball; and if the truth were told, I'd rather watch basketball. But the Lady Huskers are Big Eight Champs, again; and won the NCAA regional championship on Saturday that puts them into the Final Four.

In a year when the football team failed to place one player on the first place All American team, the volleyball team has several repeaters. They are ranked No. 4, and are headed for Hawaii this week.

A senior leader, and outstanding, on this team is a tall gal named Virginia Stahr, and she's from Waco. That's pronounced stair. I know, because that's my maiden name. Her Dad is a distant cousin of mine.

THE NAME Stahr is like Meierhenry. German, and if you know someone by that name, they're probably related. Unlike Kruse, another German name of another member of the volleyball team and my mother's maiden name.

When Janet Kruse does well, the announcer calls Janet Cruise, with the emphasis on the ooo, and the crowd says it that way, too.

I don't even know Virginia Stahr, but I know her mom and dad. And our family has been following her athletic activities for nine years. When she was in junior high, she and Kay were at the same basketball camp.

By her senior year in high school, she was a four gold-medal winner at the state track meet. We've been watching Gerry Gdowski the same length of time. He also brought home four golds at a state meet.

LATELY, Virginia has been getting more press than Gerry—incidentally, both these young folks are carrying good grades, too. Virginia's G.P.A. is 3.9.

We got to see her play a couple of times last year, but didn't make it this year until last Friday night. There were lots of home-town fans in the coliseum, and when they announce the starting line-up and end with "Virginia Stahr from Waco," they all get excited.

Her high school coach, Phyllis Rice of Centennial, was in a front row. Phyllis has taken numerous teams to the state tournament. And it has to be especially gratifying to see Virginia do so well. Especially since she didn't plan to even go out for volleyball, and her Dad talked her into it.

Her Mom teaches at Centennial, and they live on a farm. I talked to them at the Cornhusker Games this summer, just after her mother finished the two-mile run. They said they'd be putting that medal right up with Virginia's All-American.

I KNOW there are some cousins of Kevin McHale's in Wayne, but this is as close as we come to an All Star. So we are going to enjoy it for one more week. Only wish we could go to Hawaii to see the games. It's an honor to get that far, and we'll be waiting to hear the scores. Go Big Red!

Nebraska farmers favor fine-tuning of farm bill

Based on a statewide survey of farmers and ranchers, Nebraska's agricultural producers appear to be calling for some fine-tuning — but not a major overhaul — of the 1990 farm bill.

That's the conclusion drawn by Lynn Lutgen, University of Nebraska agricultural economist, who conducted the survey of 1,000 agriculturists. UNL was one of 21 land-grant universities which surveyed farmers and ranchers about a number of agriculture and food policy issues, with special emphasis on issues expected to arise during discussion of the farm bill by Congress.

Lutgen said the 11.2 percent response rate (112 usable survey forms) may make it risky to generalize from the final figures compiled on six areas which were also included in the overall national survey. However, he said, the survey should give producers and other interested persons an opportunity to compare their individual views with those of a larger group, such as the North Central Region, which includes Nebraska.

AFTER COMPARING Nebraska farmers' response with the results of the entire study that included 12,717 farmers in 21 states, Nebraska's results compared quite closely to those of other states, especially to responses on major issues of the major crop-producing states in the North Central Region, Lutgen said. "These issues include target prices, or more flexibility in crops planted, which gives us more statistical confidence in the interpretation of results," Lutgen said.

The economist said he infers from the results of the survey that "the collective attitude of those (Nebraska producers) interested in the farm bill seems to be 'business as usual.'"

This response perhaps is the result of an improved price and income situation in the late 1980s, Lutgen speculated. "When the previous farm bill was implemented in 1985, the agriculture sector was experiencing considerable financial stress."

A plurality of Nebraska farmers — 39 percent — want to keep the present price support/production control system beyond 1990, according to the survey. This far exceeded two alternative plans under discussion — mandatory supply control programs favored by 23 percent of producers responding; and decoupling, supported by 11 percent.

One of the problems in interpreting results of the survey both in Nebraska and nationwide is the apparent inconsistency of some responses, Lutgen said. "This is because of the multiple goals of farm bills," he explained.

FOR INSTANCE, many producers indicate a willingness to consider the government phasing out farm programs, while another response indicated a preference for increasing target prices. "It may be difficult to do both," Lutgen pointed out.

"Similarly, general support (by Nebraska producers) for reducing international trade barriers was somewhat inconsistent with a preference for joining with other countries to establish production and marketing controls," Lutgen reported.

In the commodity programs section of the proposed 1990 farm program legislation, one of the areas of strongest agreement among producers was that more flexibility is needed for making planting decisions, the Institute of Agriculture and Natural Resources staff member said.

Over 60 percent of those returning survey forms want to be allowed to plant any crop on acres permitted under the farm program.

Farmers supported continuation of three provisions of the current farm bill — paid land diversions, payments in generic certificates and a farmer-owned reserve. However, support for the generic certificate program was not as strong as the other two.

"Interestingly," Lutgen said, "respondents want the U.S. Secretary of Agriculture to be given less authority than at present to make discretionary decisions on loan rates, acreage set-asides and other matters." In recent farm bills, he said, the Secretary has been given more discretionary authority, not less.

"Political trade-offs exist that will make this one of the more fascinating areas to watch in the mark-up and passage of the 1990 farm bill," commented Roy Frederick, NU ag economist specializing in public policy, who joined Lutgen in interpreting results of the Nebraska survey.

REGARDING CONSERVATION

programs expected to be a part of the 1990 farm bill, Nebraska producers favored, by almost a 2 to 1 margin, extension of the soil conservation requirements of the 1985 farm bill to water quality protection in 1990. An expected feature of the new bill is that a wide variety of benefits could be withheld in the event on noncompliance by farmers participating in the program, the economist said.

A plurality of Nebraska respondents favored extending the long-term Conservation Reserve program from its current national total of about 30 million acres to 45 million acres. However, Lutgen cautioned that "because of many other opinions expressed, there may be no clear consensus on this program at present."

Regarding alternative measures that might be taken to enhance soil conservation and to protect groundwater from contamination, the greatest preference by Nebraskans was for government cost-sharing for conservation and water structures. However, Lutgen said 22 percent of the respondents supported a tax on high levels of chemical and fertilizer applications to crops.

OTHER RESULTS of the statewide survey in key areas:

— Thirty-seven percent of respondents supported the present voluntary crop insurance program, compared to 21 percent who preferred a disaster assistance grant from the federal government instead of crop insurance. Another 21 percent said all farmers should be required to buy crop insurance to be eligible for government program benefits.

— Over half of those responding wanted to keep the present payment limitation of $50,000 per person for those enrolled in commodity aspects of the farm program. Thirty percent favored decreasing the limit — Respondents gave strong support to three widely discussed farm policy issues: targeting price and income supports to those with gross farm sales under $250,000; government regulation to reduce pollution of available water supplies; and rural development programs.

— Nebraskans indicated fairly strong support for the export enhancement program; on the other hand, they opposed continuation of U.S. support for agricultural development in other nations.

— Farmers and ranchers strongly supported reducing federal spending in total, specifically in defense and social programs. However, they strongly opposed reductions in social security payments. Respondents were equally split on the question of whether farm program expenditures should be a part of an overall budget reduction.

WE WOULD like to thank our family, friends and neighbors for all the prayers, cards, calls, flowers and gifts I received during my stay at University hospital. Words cannot express our gratefulness to all those who made it possible for Shane to be here for the surgery. A special thanks from Shane to Dennis and Paddy Spangler and Dr. Felber. To my very special husband, who stayed day and night - I love you. And from all of us a super big thanks to my sister, Sunny, who has done so much from the first day to make things bearable. God bless each and every one of you. Gary, Dixie and Shane Cadwallader. D14

GOD SAW he was getting tired and a cure was not to be. So he put his arms around him and whispered, "Come with me." With tearful eyes we watched him suffer, and saw him fade away. Although we loved him dearly, we could not make him stay. A golden heart stopped beating. Hard working hands were put to rest. We would like to thank our relatives and friends for their kind words of sympathy, cards, flowers, food, memorials and prayers at the time of the death of our husband, father and grandfather, Edwin Heithold. A special thank you to Pastor Fale for his prayers and visits. Also to Pastor Schut for his beautiful service, prayers and visits. We would also like to thank the Home Health nurses for their help. Many thanks to the Ladies Aid for serving the lunch after the service. May God bless you all. Louise Heithold, Dennis and Gloria Evans, Craig and Chad Evans. D14

I WANT to thank everyone for the flowers, telephone calls, cards, visits and gifts which I received in the hospital and since returning home. Alcohol Intake and Calcium Benefits

I have heard that drinking one or two alcoholic beverages each day can prevent heart disease. Will alcohol affect my need for vitamins or minerals?
Some studies indicate that small amounts of alcohol might help prevent certain types of heart disease. But more than two drinks daily could result in serious health problems. Michael Criqui, M.D., observed 7,000 men in a study funded by the U.S. government. Writing in the medical journal, Circulation, he says that an increase in blood pressure and loss of the benefits of calcium in the diet can occur when more than two drinks are consumed daily. According to Criqui, other studies have shown that alcohol decreases the absorption of calcium from the stomach and intestines. The consequences could include loss of calcium from the bone, leading to osteoporosis.
Based on his research team's findings, Criqui recommends that no more than one and at the most two alcoholic beverages be consumed daily. He also recommends a diet rich in fruits and vegetables - potassium sources to help reduce blood pressure. He recommends low-fat dairy products as a source of calcium.
