Troop numbers may decline in 1993

The Nebraska Army National Guard stands to lose 1,353 troop spaces in fiscal year 1993, according to a recent press release by the Nebraska National Guard.
According to Lieuteant

Lieutenant According to Lieutenant Colonel Leonard Krenk, Lincoln and Omaha are most likely to ex-perience the most dramatic troop cutbacks, however, cutbacks may take place at locations in northeast raska or southeast Nebraska as

"At this point, there is no effect on the Wayne armory nor on anyone else in the state," Krenk said. "At this point, it is just a proposal." Krenk said Maj. Gen. Stanley M. Heng, adjutant general for Nebraska, and Gov. Kay Orr are opposed to the cutbacks should they take effect. Krenk, however, could neither offer any insight to cutbacks in troop numbers nor in changes in the college GI bill, which is used by some college stu-

Krenk added, however, if cut-backs occur there may be different troops moved in to replace the ones transferred. According to the press release, there is a possibility that some undesignated armories may close. Again, however, Krenk could offer no insight to that pos-sibility that the feet cos-

Krenk noted, however, that even if the troop reductions occur, it is not likely that guard members it is not likely that guard members in the Wayne armory who are also college students will be relocated.

"We can only speculate on how the changes will affect the college students," Krenk said. "They won't be fired from the national guard per se, but they may end up being restructured. I doubt very much we're going to see that, however."

Farmers gather

Evans speaks at ag seminar

LAUREL - Kelli Evans has a dream of what the American farm can be and Saturday, March 3 she had a chance to share it with about 200 farmers and ranchers who attended an all-day ag con-ference at the Laurel High School gym.

Evans, 23, a senior at Oklahoma
State University and past-president of the national Future Farmers of America said during a 45-minute speech that the problem U.S. farmers are facing is multifold but there is hope for the future if participants of the ag industry challenge the problems the industry is facing.

Much of her speech revolved around her travels when she was the national FFA president in 1988. Her speech varied from her trips to Japan and throughout the United States. The most common problem she found in the U.S. is that people in urban areas don't understand in urban areas don't understand the processes of ag production. She said education needs to take place for these individuals.

"Statistics show fewer farmers and because of that, the generations of American public is more and more removed from the production base," Evans said in a post-speech interview. "If people making decisions in government don't understand what's happening on the farm, it will hurt the industry. We need to determine whose hands we're going to put our livelihoods in."

EVANS SAID ONE OF the stops on her tour in 1988 was in New York city. She said going from New York to the small citrus farm or the small vegetable farm is like moving from one world to another because of the education. She said was because the property of the said was becaused the property of the said was because was said the property of the said was because the said was rural people understand the pro-duction process while urban people said she thinks The Good Doctor is a production everyone will enjoy. "The play is a comedy," she said "It is a series of short sketches which revolve around story ideas of Anton Chekhov. Each sketch is a visualization of his stories themes and they're put together on stage. The person who plays Chekhov narrates the beginning of some of the sketches and appears in some of them but he doesn't narrate them all."

She said she thinks The Good Doctor is a production everyone will enjoy.

SEVERAL AMUSING anecdotes occur at times throughout the play, according to Jensen. She said the play really doesn't contain anything heavy — something with a message — but rather it's intended to be amusing to the audience.

"Audiences like to be enter-tained," she said. "They don't want something with a message but they want something fun but well performed. I think this show will provide them with that entertain-

Ehlers enjoys playing cards with her friends

By Mark Crist Managing Editor

Elsie Ehlers has many fond memories of her card playing with several of her friends, not only when she lived outside the Wayne

Care Centre, but as well as when she became a resident there. Ehlers, 90, enjoys playing cards with friends who come to visit her, sometimes as often as three times a week. An avid card player, the variety of games she knows is something which is carried on throughout her family.

"It gives you a good feeling to know your friends still think of you," Ehlers said. "We always have a good lunch and I think they enjoy coming to visit.

Did anyone know this is National Procrastinator's Week? If you didn't,

Did anyone know this is National Procrastinator's weeks in you didn't, then this is the only week of the year that you can tell your boss that you can wait until next week before you have to do your work.

On Monday morning, Gary had placed a roll of film on my desk and left a note that it needed to be done by noon that day. I almost didn't develop the roll in honor of national procrastinator's week, but Judi was waiting on it, so I went ahead and developed it.

Then, Monday afternoon I was scheduled to speak to the Wayne State College Society of Professional Journalists and Wayne Stater staff, but I knew I couldn't cancel that since they had already made plans and scheduled me to speak.

So on Tuesday, I thought what the hey, I'll do something which will earn me honors toward procrastination today. But unfortunately, the time wasn't ripe.

I guess I'll just have to put procrastination week off for another year.

LAST WEEK I GOT a request from Mrs. C.V. Agler, a lifetime resident of the Wayne area, to print an article she had found in her clippings from The Wayne Herachd of 1969. The article was written by a Wayne resident and she thought it was pretty good, so she would like to see it printed again. Since that's not normal practice, I decided I would be glad to put it in my column.

"If you grew up on a farm and are old enough to remember the time when every farm home had a genuine 'slop bucket' not too far from the when every farm frome had a genuine stop business for the state with the kitchen, you should sit down and explain it to your children in colorful terms. They'll find it hard to believel Pigs got lat on it too, didn't they? Another item common to the kitchen area was a box containing wood to be burned in the cook stove. Most usually the cobs were kept in baskets.

Time changes things!
"While a town about 30 miles southwest of us continues the attempt "While a town about 30 miles southwest of us continues the attempt of having the atmosphere of a big city, why don't we Wayne-ites try using a little reverse psychology (remember how it worked in advertising Volkswagens?) and tell folk that having a big city atmosphere is the last thing we'd want! Let's brag about our town being so doggone small that folk "are still-speaking to each other, smiling at each other on the street, concerned about each other's-welfare and you can hardly go downtown without finding someone who wants to-chact over a cup of coffee!

"Let's tell the world that Wayne is so 'un-city-fied' that you can actually walk down the street at night without being afraid of being way-laid or robbed. attacked or beaten by bullies."

robbed, attacked or beaten by bullies.

"Come live in Wayne, friend, way out here on the wide shore of the western plains! And while other population centers eagerly strain to become a highbrow metropolitan area, let we Wayne-ites invite others to come live out here in the west, midst America's rustic charm! Why, we are so small that the only 'hoods' that we have are neighbor-'hoods' and you can't beat them and they won't beat you."

THANK YOU Mrs. C.V. Agler for submitting that. It carries an important message. It reminds me a little of my first week (or so) in my wife's any my new home. Two neighbors — Mrs. Walters and Mrs. Weible — each welcomed us to the neighborhood with gifts of delicious pieces of apple pie and cookies. That greeting meant more to my wife and myself than anyone could ever guess. It's a standing tradition which seems to be fading with time in most cities and towns but it's such a small gesture, it really means a lot. I never formally extended my thanks for those two ladies for their graciousness, but it was much appreciated.

Mr. John C. Veburg stated in a letter to the editor, normally utili-ties in the northeast U.S.A. burn a heavy grade of oil but recent po-litical climate has changed that, so now power plants are using gas turbine powered generators to produce electricity. These plants require natural gas or heating oil for fuel, putting the utilities in di-rect competition with home own-ers.

My question is "What is going on out there? Dollar bills dangling in the air for grabbing! Why are the utilities even using oil, natural gas, coal or nuclear elements to power the turbines." Those are by-gone ways: to generate electricity. Besides being costly (costs are passed on to electric consumers). Alternative methods are bere in Alternative methods are here in the U.S.A. now and very successful. An example is California. California has established an Alternative Generation Section in the State (PUC) Public Utilities Com-mission. According to the public report in June 1987 the number of QF's (Qualifying Facilities for Alternative Generation of Electricity) in California has grown from a handful in 1980 to supplying a significant part of the electricity today. LINCOLN - Heated debate re cently has centered on LB 642. LB 642 is a bill, introduced by Senator Ashford, that creates a 7-day waiting period for the transfer of ownership for handguns. The bill provides that, within seven days, the chief law enforcement officer of the purchaser's place of residence, shall be notified by the seller that a transfer of ownership is pending. Upon receipt of the no-tice, the officer reviews; the request and determines if the trans-fer would be in violation of any federal, state of local law.

Twenty-four' states currently have "waiting periods" or "permit-to-purchase" systems. The proponents typically cite two reasons for having a waiting period. First, for-having a waiting period. First, for-warded by Nebraska law enforce-ment officials, is to provide a "cooling-off" period. Many hand-guns are purchased "in the heat of passion", following an argument and are used on another person within a short period of time. The other is to allow the necessary time to have a criminal history in-vestigation performed on the pur-vestigation performed on the pur-chaser. If that check reyeals a be prevented. They admit that criminals will often obtain a handgun through illegal channels, but society should not make the weapons so readily available over

The opponents cite the Second-Amendment to the Constitution as prohibiting any infringement on the right to bear arms. Gun dealers and supporters of the National Rifle Association, maintain that gun control will not reduce crime, will

These are some of the out front alternatives. What are the states doing about (PURPA) Public Regulator Policies Act of 1978. This law was passed at federal level in 1978. According to Purpa Law, all utilities in the U.S.A. are to negotiate power purchase agreements with

Where is Nebraska? I talked where is Nedraska? I talked with a federal Purpa lawyer recently. Nebraska is way behind, seems nothing has been negotiated between (NPPD) Nebraska Public Power District or (OPPD) Omaha Public Power District. These two districts buy many mega watts of electricity. The past years they have bought from coal and nuclear powered generators. Nebraska do not need nuclear generators, who generate many curries of LLRW, to produce electricity because:

A.) Nebraska's fertile soil could become a waste land if we had a "melt down" at the generator sites.

B.) Their waste dollars (creating higher electric bills) to move and their toxic wastes in repositories.

C.) Waste elements lying above or beneath Nebraska soil, posing a hazard and possible contamination of the aquifers and sur-face water in streams, rivers and

The cost taminated ground the scope of the clean up is beyond the scope of the company, was stated on Oct. 5, 1989. The EPA must consider cost or the firm would be forced to close and make it a taxpayer's responsibility. Also, another "blow" to the environment and taxpayers.

This $46 billion subsidy was accounting for close to a quarter of the projected federal budget deficit the service of the service a quarter of the projected federal budget deficit. Most of the balance was given to oil, natural gas, coal, etc. polluters of our environment. Not only that but the subsi-

The taxpayer then pays twice — once for the subsidies and again (much more and longer) for the higher energy price which was caused by hiding real costs, promoting over investment and over consumption, thwarting fair competition, creating market failure. When will this taxpayer nightmare end?

If we encourage reduction of the generation of LLRW through Nebraska laws and have very little, the LLRW dumps that are operat-ing now and places that are already contaminated will take a look at accepting LLRW. Then we can rest at ease that LLRW were not placed in an environmentally unsafe Nebraska dump but were placed in arid or environmentally safe areas. Lavon Schrant Winside

Hefner addresses bills he's introduced on flag burning

by Elroy M. Hefner
I have introduced two measures this session which deal with flag desecration. LB 1227 would add new language to the definition of flag desecration in Nebraska law and stiffen the penalty for it. LR 245 would ask Congress to propose a constitutional amendment pose a constructional amendment to ban desecration. The bill defines desecration as intentionally burning, defacing, or otherwise mistreating the flag in a manner a person knows will disturb the peace and outrage the sensi-bilities of others.

Proponents argued that the flag protection amendment would not infringe on the First Amendment freedom of speech. Flag burning isn't speech. It is an act of protest by certain individuals and intended to outrage the observer. Supporters stressed the importance of the flag as a symbol of freedom recognized around the world. I believe that no one should be allowed to desecrate our flag!

The resolution calls on Congress to pass a constitutional amendment. Congress passed a law last year in an effort to override the U.S. Supreme Court's decision last summer allowing flag burning. But the law has been declared unconstitutional in the U.S. District Court stitutional in the U.S. District Court in Seattle, Washington.

If Congress passes a constitutional amendment, it would then be sent to the state legislatures for approval before becoming effec-tive. It requires the approval of 38 state legislatures.

My priority bill, LB 571, which will regulate the use of steroids got first-round approval by the Legislature. The illegal use of steroids would be a criminal offense. It would make such use a misdemeanor for the first offense for people 18 and older and a felony for second and subsequent offenses. The misdemeanor is punishable by up to a year in prison and a $1,000 fine. The felony is punishable by a maximum five years in prison and $10,000 fine.

Persons younger than 18 would be subject to a misdemeanor punishable by three months in jail and $500 for the first offense and one year and a $1,000 fine for the second and subsequent offenses. Administrative discipline could also be imposed upon the younger offenders by the school they attend.

Steroids are a type of drug pre-scribed to persons for problems with growth or injuries. They en-hance muscle development and faster recovery from injuries. The serious side effects of unauthorized use include risk of heart disease, cancer, immune system problems, sterility and depression. Steroid abuse is popular among some young athletes eager to get in shape and unconcerned about serious long-term health effects.

The bill was also amended to correct the misspelling in current statutes of a controlled substance. If you want to try a tongue twister here is one: methylene-dioxymethamphetamine.

The GOLDEN YEARS By Soldano

The United States Shoe Corporation in Cincinnati has a senior board of directors. Seven of the 10 directors are 65 or more. One is 90 and two are in their 80s. Board chairman Philip Barach is only 58. Queried about the age level of the board, he commented: "With age comes seasoning, and we look on the older people on our board as that source of seasoning."

Despite cosmetic changes associated with aging, the skin continues to do its bodylife, the National Institute on Aging (NIA) points out. One problem that becomes more problem that becomes more common with age is itching, caused by dryness from loss of oils in the skin. To prevent itch-ing, NIA suggests cool baths and use of moisurizers, less use/of antiperspirants, soaps, perfumes and long hot baths, and avoiding overexposure to air without adequate humidity. Generalized itching can be as sign of illness, and should be discussed with a physician.

Lola Bressler

Lola Bressler, 83, of Coleridge died Wednesday, Feb. 28, 1990 at the Park View Haven.

Services were held Saturday, March-3 at Pilgrim Congregational United Church of Christ. The Rev. John Gradwohl officiated.

Church of Christ. The Rev. John Gradwohl officiated.

Lola Faye Bressler, the daughter of George and Bertha Whitney Peck, was born Feb. 3, 1907 at Coleridge. She graduated from Coleridge High School in 1924 and Wayne State College in 1927, later receiving a master's degree from Wayne State. She had taught school at Carroll, Laurel, Wakefield, Coleridge, Belden, Hartington and Chino, Calif. She married Harry M. Bressler on May 29, 1930 at Wayne and had resided in the Coleridge area until moving to Wayne in 1959. She was a member of the First Presbyterian Church in Wayne and sang in the choir. She also was a member of the Order of Eastern Star, Delta Kappa Gamma, Daughters of the American Revolution, Nebraska Retired Teachers Association and Wayne State Alumni Association.

Survivors include one daughter, Mrs. LaVonne Wilkison of Lawtey, Fla.; one son, Patrick Bressler of Santa Cruz, Calif.; and one sister, Mrs. Gerald (Cleone) Litel of Fort Collins, Colo.

She was preceded in death by her parents, husband on Sept. 1, 1976, one sister and one brother.

Burial was in the Coleridge Cemetery with Wintz Funeral Home of Coleridge in charge of arrangements.

Missionary to speak at Concord Free Church

Steve Gregory, pilot with the Mission Aviation Fellowship (MAF), will speak at the Concord Evan-gelical Free Church on Sunday, March 11 at 7:30 p.m.

Gregory, with his wife Patti and their five-month-old daughter, have accepted an overseas as-signment as a pilot/mechanic fam-ily with MAF in the country of In-

The MAF has 113 pilots flying people and supplies in nations from The Netherlands to Zim-babwe and from Mexico to New

The mission has 87 planes including such older models as a Cessna 150 (used as a trainer) and a DC-3. Their more modern mod-els feature a Hughes 500C Turbine powered helicopter and a Twin Cessna T210 (for high altitude and high performance).

The international ministry is especially known for ferrying other missionaries and families, and for carrying medical personnel and supplies to remote areas.

Gregory will share the work of MAF, his upcoming plans for in-donesia, and will answer questions.

The meeting is open to the general public.

WSC Campus Ministry sponsors presentation

"Real Town: A Parable of Hope for the Nuclear Age" will be pre-sented on the Wayne State Col-lege campus on Thursday, March 22.

Sponsored by the Wayne Ecumenical Campus Ministry, the one-woman show features Rosa Burke Perez, a writer/performer commit-ted to promoting world peace through world justice.

Beverley Nitschke, campus pastor, said the public is invited to attend the performance at 8 p.m. in

PEREZ COMPOSED "Real Town" to communicate her con-cerns and to promote the concept of "village politics" in daily life as a vehicle for achieving world peace. Nitschke said "Real Town," as any good parable should, engages the audience and involves each individual in the action of the story being presented.

"There are no passive listeners at the presentation," stresses Nitschke, adding that "Real Town" entertains, inspires and instructs by focusing on solutions and delivering a refreshing point of view in which

'Patrol' to perform

WAYNE - The drama group Soul Patrol of Trinity Bible College in Ellendale, N.D., will make a special appearance at the World Outreach Center at 901 Circle St. in Wayne, Neb. on Saturday, March 10 at 6 p.m.
Soul Patrol will be presenting a drama and skit performance, which is based on the Bible. The presentations are designed to bring the message of God's word to life.
Some of the skits draw out inconsistencies that exist in people's lives and encourage them to change. People seem to feel challenged to walk the life that Christ did after they experience what has been called a powerful presentation of Soul Patrol.

Social Security

Debate continues over funds

According to Glenn Lane, social security manager in Norfolk, as the balance in the Social Security trust funds continues to grow, so does the public debate about the proper use of this money. Intended for benefit payments in the next century, the increase has century, the increase has stimulated interest in more shortterm uses.

At stake is the combined re-tirement, survivors and disability trust funds which increased by $38.8 billion in the last fiscal year. Lane states that those funds are Lane states that those tunds are projected to reach a trillion dollars by the turn of the century and peak at about 2.8 trillion in today's dollars by the year 2020.

Some of the current debate centers on consideration which is being given to possible other uses, such as higher benefits, or the

such as higher benefits, or the lowering of social security taxes to return social security to a pay-as-you-go system. Both of these sug-gested alternatives ignore the is-sues which led to social security's current good health.

In 1983, remedies were devised by the bipartisan Commission on Social Security for a then financially troubled social security system. Congress adopted the Commission's recommendations — higher social security taxes, benefit cuts and coverage extensions — in an effort to resolve not only the immediate problems, but also insure the ability of the trust funds to pay benefits in the next century. Lane also says that projections show that, as the overall popula-tion ages, fewer workers will be paying into the system and more retirees will be receiving benefits. During the 1990's the "baby boom" generation in the workforce assures a ratio of three workers for each person receiving benefits However, when the baby boomers reach retirement age, around the year 2010, the ratio will drop to only two workers for each beneficlary. The gradual increase in trust fund reserves now is needed to al-low payment of benefits to these future retirees.

While the debate will, no doubt, While the debate will, no doubt, continue, the new Commissioner of Social Security, Gwendolyn S. King, has vowed to protect the trust funds against diversion for other uses. "Our job is to make sure the money is there for the benefits," she has said.

Letting the funds accumulate as provided under current law will insurance financial stability for wellsurance financial stability for well into the next century.

AREA - Effective Employee Per-AREA - Effective Employee Performance Evaluation, one of a series in UN-L's Management Development Certificate Program, will be offered at Northeast Community College March 23 from 9 a.m. to noon and 1 to 4 p.m.

The program provides an opportunity for managers, supervisors, and persons wishing to prepare for management positions to develop skills that are crucial to management effectiveness.

Presenter Cary Thorp, an associate professor- of management in the College of Business the College of Business Administration, will explore per-formance evaluation systems and develop practical techniques that can be used to make appraisals more effective. He will discuss permore effective. He will discuss per-formance standards and objectives, action plans, work performance documentation, and legal aspects of evaluation. Dr. Cary is co-author of a book on personnel manage-ment and has written numerous articles on the subject. he received the distinguished teaching award from UNL in 1981.

Interested persons should contact UN-L, 472-2175, to register.

Small businesses may be eligible

may be eligible

AREA - U.S. Senators Jim Exon and Bob Kerrey, announced recently that the U.S. Small Business Administration is accepting loan applications for small businesses affected by last year's drought.

Only agriculture-dependent businesses and cooperatives in the 73 counties in Nebraska that were declared a disaster area during last year's drought are eligible to apply for the four percent interest, Economic Injury Disaster Loans. According to the Small Business Administration, farmers and ranchers are not eligible for these loans.

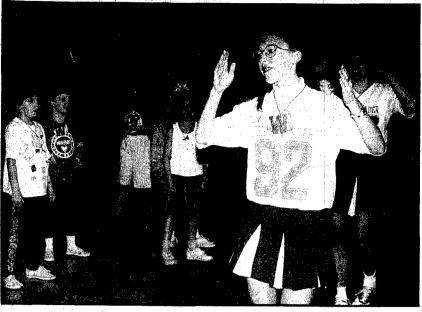

Counties in northeast Nebraska in the area which are listed include: Cedar, Dixon and Wayne.

Applicants must not have credit elsewhere and must have a substantial decrease in sales or other forms of economic injury due to the losses incurred by farmers and forms of economic injury due to the losses incurred by farmers and ranchers to whom the business usually sells. The loans are not meant for businesses that were physically damaged. Eligible businesses have until Aug. 14, 1990 to file an applica-tion. Loan information and applications may be requested by calling the Small Business Administration at 1-800-527-7735.

for conservation teachers

AREA - Nominations are being accepted for the National "Conservation Teacher of the Year" awards program through the Lower Elkhorn Natural Resources District. The competition is open to all full-time teachers working at the kindergarten through high school level who have developed an out-standing program of conservation education.

education.
The national Conservation
Teacher of the Year will receive $1,000 in cash and an expensepaid trip to Atlanta, Ga., for the 1991 annual convention of the National Association of Conservation Districts (NACD). The national second place winner will receive a $500 cash award and the first place regional winner in each of seven areas will receive $200. A state winner will also be selected and will be recognized at the 1991 Nebraska Association of Resources Districts Legislative Conference. The Lower Elkhorn NRD will submit the district winner to the state se-lection committee.

Sponsored by NACD, the purpose of the awards program is to encourage the development of creative learning experiences in conservation for young people. Any teacher in a public or private school in the Lower Elkhorn Natural Resources District who puts emphasis on natural resources conservation as a regular part of the instruction is eligible for nomination.

Interested teachers can obtain additional information and nomination forms from the Lower Elkhorn NRD in Norfolk at 371-7313. All nominations should be forwarded to the Lower Elkhorn NRD by March 23.

Water issues addressed at meeting March 15

AREA - Approximately 20-25 percent of the domestic wells in northeast Nebraska contain nitrates at concentrations greater than the 1 ppm drinking water limit set by the U.S. Department of Health, according to Bill-Kranz, irrigation, specialist at the Northeast Research and Extension Center.

Kranz said samples taken from rivate drinking water supplies by various state agencies during the past five years verify the findings. Although most of the wells in ortheast Nebraska do not pose a problem, some wells produce waproblem, some-wells produce water considerably above the 10 ppm limit, he said.

The only way to identify whether a water supply contains nitrates is to collect a sample and have it analyzed. Local agencies can provide a good estimate of the concentration using portable kits, but reputable laboratories still provide the most accurate results, Kranž said. There are normally not obvious indications of a nitrate problem. Often wells within one mile of each other can have drastically different nitrate_concentrations,_according to Kranz. Since nitrates move with the groundwater, and groundwater moves only a few hundred feet per year, the source of nitrates is nearly always quite close to the wells with the high concentration.

Kranz will discuss area water quality concerns at the "Guarding Water Quality Seminar" scheduled water Quality Seminar' scheduled for Thursday, March 15 at 1:30 p.m. at Wayne State College. Kranz's presentation will be one of eight seminars presented by local specialists during the affernoon program sponsored by the Wayne Agribusiness Council. By Pat Meierhenry

Today we can overdose on girls

Today we can overdose on girls basketball, as the state tournament finals are on ETV. We saw a thrilling-D1-game—Potter-Dixon and Greeley went into OT.

I'd like to meet a Mr. and Mrs. Woods from Greeley. They have sent a number of wrestlers to the state tourney, and they have three girls on that championship basketball team. They must be a super couple.

Super couple.

Kind of what I expect Mr. and Mrs. Gerry Gdowski to be. She set a new meet record in the 5,000 last weekend for UN-L. I hope they have lots of kids.

Also caught an interview tonight with Angela Beck, the Nebraska women's coach. She has lost weight and has a new hairdo. Much According than Danny Nee.

According to the Creighton-alumni newsletter, they had a Tony Barone look-alike contest on campus, which sounds like a lot of fun.

The Bluejays also helped serve Thanksgiving dinner to the home-less again this year, and that tells me their coach is quite a guy.
Enough talk of basketball. This is not a sports column.

I'VE GIVEN UP caffeine for Lent, and I have a dull headache today. I just felt I may as well get rid of another vice. Heck, soon I won't have any!

Besides, I've had a rotten cold week and the headache may be all week an from that.

We escaped the flu this winter, and we're thankful for that. In January, people were succumbing right and left. The hospital was full and the staff was getting it too. It

One friend said it even hurt to comb her hair! When we were in Florida, they were having it, and someone told me the other day it was even abroad.

IT LOOKS AS though headed into spring. The gal behind me at the grocery store on Thursday was buying charcoal.

Our first calf arrived yesterday. Surely that will bring rain, if nothing else does.

e does. A disturbing thing I saw in the Lincoln Star today says that the editor of the Pro Farmer Newslet-editor of the Pro Farmer Newslet-ter feels we could be facing the convergence of three long-term weather cycles that will produce a series of dry years in the 1990's. He points to a 100-year climate cycle, a 170-year cycle and a 510-year cycle identified by a climatol-ogist 40 years ago. He studied ogist 40 years ago. He studied weather records and tree rings from redwoods, olive trees and others alive in the pre-record area.

There have been three other 25-year long periods in history of a similar convergence. Those periods began in 450, 950 and 1450. A fourth began in 1975.

That means, he says, "in the fi-nal 10 years of the window, the odds are even greater that grow-ing seasons will be dry."

I do know we can talk about it every day, and the rain will come when it's supposed to. We cannot produce one drop.

WELL, IT'S BACK to basketball. Connie Chung is interviewing Magic Johnson. I watch so little television, I did not realize that Magic was now doing Pepsi commercials. It seems he's challenging Michael

And it turns out his secret ambition is to be a singer!

It's the nature of all of us to desire what we do not have — the ability to make a basket, sing a song, make it rain?

Tonight I just want to get rid of a headache and a cold.

OTC Drugs and Pregnancy One in 14 babies is born with birth defects - about one quarter of a million annually. It is estimated that only 2 to 3 percent of this total occurs because of drugs or chemicals. In most instances, however, the cause of birth defects is unknown. Almost 2,500 years ago the Greek physician Hippocrates wrote that for the safety of the fetus, drugs should be administered to pregnant women only from the fourth to the seventh months. Most over-thecounter (OTC) drug product labels warn: As with any drug, if you are pregnant or nursing a baby, seek the advice of a health professional before using this product. It is worth paying attention to these words during every month of pregnancy. Even common aspirin can prolong labor and alter bleeding and clotting time if taken in the last three months of pregnancy.

Make homemade pretzels to go

Americans love to snack. With today's lifestyles, many people don't take time for three square sit-down meals. Jana Lamplot, Homemakers Schools home economist, states that people often rely on foods that can be easily picked up and eaten on the go.

One snack that's ideal for a portable feast is Party-Pretzels from Fleischmann's Yeast. They are perfect to include in a picnic for two, for a tailgate party at a favorite sporting event or when watching TV with the family. It's a treat everyone is sure to enjoy.

Jana Lamplot suggests accompanying the pretzels with hot spicy mustard, a cheese spread or other favorite spread or dip. Whether served plain or paired with a spread, Party Pretzels are a favorite munchie to curb appetites.

Making the pretzels can be a fun family event too. The yeast bread "ropes" are first-twisted into loose knots — a fun activity for young people — then boiled for 20 seconds. Before baking the pretzels, have young helpers sprinkle them with their favorite topping. When the pretzels emerge from the oven, they should be crispy on the outside and chewy inside. For a crunchler snack, omit the boiling step and make Baked Cocktail Pretzels.

Fleischmann's Yeast has a toll-free number to answer consumer questions about yeast baking, Baking specialists are available to answer questions by calling 1-800-227-6202 between 10 a.m. and 8 p.m. EST, Monday through Friday.

PARTY PRETZELS

Makes 48 small or 1 large pretzel 4 to 4-1/2 cups all-purpose flour

- 1 package Fleischmann's Regular Dry Yeast
- 2 tablespoons sugar
- 2-1/2 tablespoons salt 1 cup milk
- 1/2 cup water
- 2 tablespoons vegetable oil
- 2 eggs, lightly beaten with 1 tablespoon water

Coarse salt, Parmesan cheese, poppy, sesame or dill seeds

In large bowl thoroughly mix 1-1/2 cups flour, undissolved yeast, sugar and 1-1/2 teaspoons salt. Heat milk, water and oil to 120 degrees to 130 degrees. Add to dry ingredients and beat 2 minutes at low speed of electric mixer. Increase speed to high; beat additional 2 minutes. With spoon, stir in enough additional flour to make soft dough. Knead dough on floured surface until smooth and elastic, about 5 minutes. Place in greased bowl, turning to coat top. Cover; let rise in warm, draft-free place until doubled in size, about 30 to 40 minutes. Punch dough down. For small pretzels, divide dough into 48 pieces. Roll each piece into 12-inch rope. To make pretzels, curve ends of each rope to make circle; cross ends at top. Twist ends once and lay down over bottom of circle. Cover shaped pretzels; let rest in warm, draftfree place for 5 to 10 minutes, until risen slightly. In large pot, bring 2 quarts water and remaining 2 tablespoons salt to boil; reduce heat to simmer. Place 4 or 5 pretzels in water; cook 20 seconds, turning once to cook both sides. Remove and drain on wire rack. Repeat with remaining pretzels. Place pretzels on baking sheets coated with vegetable cooking spray.

Brush with beaten egg mixture and sprinkle with coarse salt, Parmesan cheese, poppy, sesame or dill seeds. Bake at 350 degrees for 35 minutes or until done. Cool pretzels on wire rack. Serve with a spread, mustard or other dips, if desired.

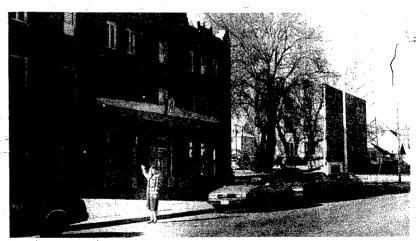

Variation:

Prepare and shape pretzels as directed.
Omit boiling step. Place shaped pretzels directly on baking sheets sprayed with vegetable cooking spray. Cover; let rest and hake as directed

Latest scoop is light and luscious

Anytime is perfect for ice cream ... Americans never need a special time to celebrate their love for ice cream. The younger generation probably thinks every day is the ideal time for a cone. But members of the older crowd may just take time to stare longingly at chocolate chip ice cream or a hot fudge sundae. At roughly 135 calories a serving, ice cream may be off limits for anyone watching the scales according to Jana Lamplot, Homemakers Schools home economist.

But wait! Jana Lamplot urges using Knox Unflavored Gelatine with a little ingenuity to whip up a frozen dessert that tastes great and weighs in at about 80 calories a serving. She adds that Frozen Raspberry Yogurt is made with yogurt instead of whole milk or cream, cutting calories almost in half. The sweet, tangy flavor of raspberries blended with cranberry juice cocktail gives Frozen Raspberry Yogurt its piquant accent. She reveals that the secret to the smooth, light texture is in Knox Unflavored Gelatine. And because Knox has no flavor or color of its own, the true taste of the other ingredients shines through even when frozen.

Keep the cool enjoyment all to yourself, or serve this creamy frozen dessert to guests. Jana Lamplot says that Frozen Raspberry Yogurt looks so luscious friends will never guess how light it really is.

FROZEN RASPBERRY YOGURT
1 envelope Knox Unflavored Gelatine

1/4 cup cold water

1/4 cup sugar

3/4 cup frozen cranberry juice cocktail concentrate, completely thawed

1 cup frozen unsweetened raspberries, completely thawed

2 cups (1 pt.) plain low fat yogurt

In small Magnalite saucepan, sprinkle unflavored gelatine over cold water; let stand 1 minute. Stir over low heat until gelatine is completely dissolved, about 3 minutes. Stir in sugar. In blender or food processor, process cranberry juice cocktail concentrate with raspberries until smooth. While processing, through feed cap, gradually add gelatine mixture and process until blended. In medium bowl, blend yogurt with gelatine mixture. Pour into 9-inch square baking pan; freeze 3 hours or until firm. With electric mixture or food processor, beat until smooth. Return to pay; freeze 3 hours or until firm. Makes about 3-1/2 cups.

The Wayne Greenhouse, Inc.

and The Plant Market Welcome you to the 1990 Cooking School

The Wayne Greenhouse was established in 1921 by D. Hall, thus making it one of the oldest businesses under the same family management, (4 generations) in the Wayne area. # Get an advance on dinner

More than half of the female's population is working full-time in the United States today. That doesn't leave much time or energy for preparation of the family meal after arriving home.

Jana Lamplot, Homemakers Schools home economist, recommends using advance planning to ease the weekday meal hump when schedules are tight. Kraft Kitchens has developed these three recipes that can be made ahead when the luxury of time is available.

Ingredient verbs that most clock-constrained cooks depend on include marinating, freezing and refrigerating according to Jana Lamplot. She knows that the sweet tooth never assumes a backseat in a hectic schedule. Bake the Banana Nut Snack Cake that takes full advantage of a yellow cake mix combined with bananas, cinnamon and chopped nuts. Miracle Whip Salad Dressing adds rich moisture to the batter and keeps the cake fresh as the day it was baked for up to one week in the refrigerator.

While the cake is in the oven, Jana Lamplot suggests preparing and freezing scrumptious Nutty Wild Rice Casserole, a very special wild rice dish. She points out that this version divinely combines ground pork sausage, celery, onion, apple, sage, pecans and Miracle Whip Salad Dressing with wild fire. The the exercise is the with wild rice. Tuck the casserole in the freezer until baking it prior to serving. Miracle Whip Salad Dressing imparts richness while bringing forth all the flavors. Jana Lamplot feels this dish is absolutely superb, suitable for the finest

On the evening before this do-ahead dinner, blend Italian dressing, garlic pow-der, red pepper and Miracle Whip Salad Dressing to make a terrific marinade for chicken breasts. Simply stir together and pour over the chicken; cover and pop into the refrigerator. Twenty minutes prior to serving, broil 10 minutes on each side. Presto! Dinner is served! Almost easier than making dinner reservations at a restaurant and certainly easier than paying the bill, this dinner will delight everyone including the cook claims Jana

BANANA NUT SNACK CAKE

Warm hospitality and special care show

Foods, warm from the oven or stovetop rather than cold or even room temperature, are often a welcome change. To many, these menu Items symbolize warm hospitality and show the care taken in preparation of these special dishes according to Jana, Lamplot, Homemakers Schools home economist. She likes to present a variety of foods at different temperatures in the same menu.

Jana Lamplot suggests serving a warm appetizer and recommends preparing the cheese mixture for a batch of Cheesy French Bread Appetizers. This fast-to-fix favorite requires but five ingredients, all of which are easy to keep on hand. Simply combine Velveeta Shredded Pasteurized Process Cheese Food, Miracle Whip Salad Dressing, green onion and crisply cooked bacon; spread on French bread and heat. Bake a bunch or just a few. The spreadable mixture can be stored in the refrigerator to be used as needed. It's an easy late evening treat, warm and special or pairs with main dishes for a tasty duo.

Salads are often ice cold but Jana Lamplot explains how to assemble Warm Chicken Salad with Lemon-Dill Dressing. This main dish idea from the Kraft Kitchens calls for the arrangement of vegetables and slices of poached chicken on individual plates lined with salad greens. The warm dressing owes its extra smooth texture and great cheese flavor to Velveeta Pasteurized Process Cheese Spread — it cooks better than cheddar.

CHEESY FRENCH BREAD APPETIZERS
1 cup (4 oz.) Velveeta Shredded

Pasteurized Process Cheese Food 1/2 cup Miracle Whip Salad Dressing 1/4:cup chopped green onion

4 slices bacon, crisply cooked, crumbled 1 small loaf French bread (approx. 14-inch) Preheat oven to 350 degrees. Mix together all ingredients except French bread until well blended. Cut bread into 1/4-inch slices with Chicago Cutlery 10inch bread slicer; spread on cheese mixture. Bake 5 to 7 minutes, or until process cheese food is melted. 8 to 10 servings.

WARM CHICKEN SALAD WITH LEMON-DILL DRESSING

4 boneless, skinless, chicken breast halves (1 lbs.)

1 avocado, peeled, sliced 1 tomato, cut into wedges Pitted California ripe olives Lettuce

1/4 lb. Velveeta Pasteurized Process

Cheese Spread, cubed 1/3 cup sour cream

1/2 teaspoon grated lemon peel

Simmer chicken, covered, in water 15. to 20 minutes or until tender. Cut into 1/4-inches slices with Chicago Cutlery Knife. Arrange chicken, avocado, tomato and olives on individual lettuce-lined plates. Stir remaining ingredients in Magnalite 1-qt. Saucepan over low heat until process cheese spread is melted; pour over chicken. 4 servings.

Variation: Substitute one or more of the following for avocado, tomato and/or olives: artichoke hearts; asparagus spears, blanched; cucumber slices; green beans, blanched; hard cooked egg wedges; heart of palm; mushroom slices; pea pods, blanched; small whole potatoes, cooked.

Sticky buns for leisurely weekend brunch

Whether it is a late breakfast or an early lunch, brunch and the foods associated with it conjure up all kinds of pleasant memories. When delicious sticky buns are on the home menu, a leisurely brunch is certainly the best way to ease into the day.

day.

The classic sticky bun, one of the latest "comfort foods" to come out of the culinary closet, is a perfect brunch item for the whole family to make. Pecan Date Sticky Buns, developed in the test kitchens of Fleischmann's Yeast, is an updated version of the soul-soothing bun featuring a wheat germ enriched dough and filling of wholesome dates and pecans.

Youngsters and older children especially will enjoy kneading and punching down the dough. Have other young helpers make the delicious date-nut filling while the dough is rising.

The baking specialists at Fleischmann's Yeast are available to answer questions about yeast baking. Simply call them on the toll-free hotline 1-800-227-6202 Monday through Friday, 10 a.m. to 8 p.m. EST.

For more old favorite recipes adapted to the cooking trends of the 90's attend The Wayne Herald's Homemakers School. Show will be held on Thursday, March 15 at 7 p.m. in the auditorium. Doors open at 5 p.m.

PECAN DATE STICKY BUNS (Makes 8 buns)

5 to 5-1/2 cups all purpose flour 1/2 cup wheat germ 1/3 cup sugar 1-1/2 teaspoons salt 2 packages Fleischmann's Regular

Dry Yeast*

1 cup water 1/2 cup milk 1/3 cup butter OR margarine 2 eggs, at room temperature

Topping and Filling: 1/2 cup butter OR margarine, divided 1-1/2 cups firmly packed light brown sugar, divided 1/2 cup light corn syrup

1/2 cup light corn syrup
2 cups pecan pieces
1 package (8 ounces) chopped dates
OR pitted dates, snipped

1 tablespoon cinnamon In large bowl, combine 2 cups flour, wheat germ, sugar, salt and undissolved yeast. Heat water, milk and butter until very warm (120 degrees to 130 degrees). Gradually add to dry ingredients; beat 2 minutes at low speed of electric mixer, scraping bowl occasionally. With spoon, stir in enough remaining flour to make soft dough. On lightly floured surface, knead until smooth and elastic, about 8 to 10 minutes. Place in greased bowl, turning to grease top. Cover; let rise in warm, draft-free place until doubled in size, 45 minutes. For topping and filling, heat 1/4 cup butter, 1/2 cup brown sugar and corn syrup until sugar dissolves. Pour into greased 13x9x2-inch baking pan. Arrange pecan pieces evenly in bottom of pan. Punch dough down. Roll to 18x24 inches. Melt remaining butter; brush on dough. Combine remaining brown sugar with dates and cinnamon; sprinkle evenly on dough. Roll up from short side as for jelly roll. Pinch seam to seal; cut roll into 8 pieces. Place in prepared pan, cut-side up. Cover; let rise in warm, draft-free place until doubled in size, about 45 minutes. Bake at 375 degrees for 35 minutes or until done. Cover with Reynold's Wrap aluminum foil after 20 minutes to prevent excessive browning. Cool 5 minutes in pan. Invert onto serving tray.

*To save up to 50 percent rising time, use Fleischmann's RapidRise Yeast. Follow above directions, except reduce first rising. Instead of 45-minute rise, cover kneaded dough and let rest on floured surface 10 minutes. Proceed with recipe.

For a great make-ahead party snack, try Mexican Cheese Roll. It owes its peppy flavor to Velveeta Mexican Pasteurized Process Cheese Spread with Jalapeno Pepper, the Mexican food afficinado's choice for out-of-hand snacking. The second layer of this roll combines cream cheese, chopped California ripe olives and fresh cilantro. Garnish each colorful slice with additional ripe olives and cilantro and serve with crackers or tortilla chips.

This rich and creamy Southwesternstyle cheese sauce is a snap to prepare by starting with Velveeta Mexican Pasteurized Process Cheese Spread with Jalapeno Pepper. Just cube and heat in a Magnalite Saucepan with sour cream, stirring occasionally, until melted. The bits of chili pepper add the right amount of heat, while Velveeta Pasteurized Process Cheese Spread with Jalapeno Pepper makes this sauce goof-proof. This sauce tops easy Salsa Marinated Chicken Breasts, or can be poured over enchiladas, soft tacos, nachos, hot pasta or a favorite cooked vegetable.

More Tastes of the 90's recipes including ideas from the Kraft Kitchens will be included in the Homemakers School cookbook provided to each person attending the event.

Look who's in the kitchen

As the 90's begin, kids are spending a lot more time in the kitchen. No, this doesn't mean they are standing in front of an open refrigerator! On the contrary, kids are taking an active role in food preparation

Jana Lamplot, Homemakers Schools home economist, emphasizes that with the increasing popularity of microwave ovens and convenience meals, young cooks are finding it much easier to prepare foods. She points out that the makers of SURE.IELL Light Fruit Pectin have made it possible to add jam and jelly making to the list of culinary talents of Gone are the days when making jam and jelly required a lot of time and special equipment according to Jana Lamplot. Today, young cooks can prepare jelly without even having to turn on a stove by simply following the no-cook directions that are inside every box of SURE.JELL Light Fruit Pectin. She adds that moms will like something else about SURE.IELL Light Fruit Pectin - iam and jelly can be prepared with 1/3 less sugar than other pectins require.

Whether sharing the fun with an adult or working by themselves, kids can make easy no-cook jelly by following one of these easy juice jelly recipes. All that is needed is bottled fruit juice such as apple or grape, some sugar, SURE JELL Light Fruit Pectin and freezer-save containers as specified by Jana Lamplot.

The end result is something that will make everyone proud. Remember to freeze or store in refrigerator for a few weeks. Whether enjoyed on morning toast, lunchtime sandwiches or as an after school snack, these easy, no-cook juice jellies will be the taste sensation for the 90's generation.

GRAPE IELLY 4 cups bottled grape juice 3-1/4 cups (1 lb. 7 oz.) sugar 1 box SURE IELL Light Fruit Pectin Measure juice into large bowl. Measure sugar. Combine pectin with 1/4 cup of the sugar. Gradually add pectin mixture to juice, stirring vigorously. Set aside for 30 minutes, stirring frequently. Gradually stir in sugar until dissolved. Ladle quickly into scalded containers, filling to within 1/2 inch of tops. Cover at once with tight lids. Let stand at room temperature overnight; then store in freezer. Small amounts may be covered and stored in refrigerator up to 3 weeks. Makes about

Easy freezer method jams

There is no need for special equipment, glass jars with seals or a degree in home economics to make jam and jelly according to Jana Lamplot, Homemakers Schools home economist. She feels that making homemade jams and jellies gets easier every year.

The makes of SURE JELL Fruit Pectin have developed special recipes using the "freezer method" that does not require any special equipment. Simply use clean, plastic containers with tight fitting lids to store homemade jam or jelly. Easy-to-follow directions are included in every box of the SURE.IELL Fruit Pectin along with many delicious recipes.

The whole family will enjoy the fresh, homemade taste of easy freezer treats such as Raspberry Jam, Blueberry Jam and Strawberry-Orange Conserve. This conserve is a combination of crushed strawberries, the pulp of three oranges and finely chopped walnuts.

Be certain to attend the special presentation from Homemakers Schools and watch as Jana Lamplot demonstrates from stage the ease of making jams and jellies with the "freezer method." Handy tips such as what containers to use and how to make jam and jellies without fresh fruits will be shared. So don't miss the fun-Come and find out how easy it really is to make homemade jam and jelly.

STRAWBERRY-ORANGE CONSERVE

- 3 cups prepared fruit (about 2 pt. fully ripe strawberries and 3 medium oranges)
- 1 tablespoon lemon juice 2-1/4 cups (1 lb.) sugar 1 box SURE.JELL Light Fruit Pectin

1/3 cup finely chopped walnuts*
*Toast nuts lightly to avoid softening in jam, if desired

First prepare the fruit. Stem and thoroughly crush, one layer at a time, about 2 pints strawberries. Measure 2 cups into large bowl. Peel and section 3-oranges; mash or finely chop the sections and measure 1 cup. Add to strawberries; add lemon juice. Then make the conserve. Measure sugar. Combine pectin with 1/4 cup of the sugar. Gradually add pectin-mixture to fruit, stirring vigorously. Set aside for 30 minutes, stirring frequently. Gradually stir in sugar until dissolved. Add nuts. Ladle quickly into scalded containers, filling to within 1/2 inch of tops. Cover at once with tight lids. Let stand at room temperature overnight; then store in freezer. Small amounts may be covered and stored in refrigerator up to 3 weeks. Makes 4-1/3 cups or about 5 (8 fl. oz.)

RASPBERRY JAM

3-1/2 cups fruit (three 10foz. packages frozen quick thaw red raspberries in I ight syrup) 5 cups (2-1/4 lb.) sugar

cup water

1 box SURE.JELL Fruit Pectin

First prepare the fruit. Thaw and thoroughly crush, one layer at a time, frozen raspberries. Measure 3-1/2 cups into large bowl. Then make the jam. Thoroughly mix sugar into fruit; let stand 10 minutes. Mix water and fruit pectin in small saucepan. Bring to a full boil and boil 1 minute, stirring constantly. Stir into fruit, Continue stirring 3 minutes. (A few sugar crystals will remain.) Ladle quickly into scaled containers, filling to within 1/2 inch of tops. Cover at once with tight lids. Let stand at room temperature 24 hours; then store in freezer., Small amounts may be covered and stored in refrigerator up to 3 weeks. Makes about 7 cups or 8 (8 fl. oz.) containe

BLUEBERRY JAM

3 cups prepared fruit (about 2-1/2 pt. fully ripe blueberries) 1 tablespoon fresh lemon juice

1/2 teaspoon nutmeg OR cinnamon (optional)

5-1/4 cups (2 lb. 5 oz.) sugar 3/4 cup water

1 box SURE IELL Fruit Pectin

First prepare the fruit. Remove stems from berries. Thoroughly crush, one layer at a time, about 2-1/2 pints blueberries. Measure 3 cups into large bowl. Stir in lemon juice and spice. Then make the jam. Thoroughly mix sugar into fruit; let stand 10 minutes. Mix water and fruit pectin in small saucepan. Bring to full boil and boil 1 minute, stirring constantly. Stir into fruit. Continue stirring 3 minutes. (A few sugar crystals will remain.) Ladle quickly into scalded containers, filling to within 1/2 inch of tops. Cover at once with tight lids. Let stand at room temperature 24 hours; then store in freezer. Small amounts may be covered and stored in refrigerator up to 3 weeks. Makes about 6-1/2 cups or about 8 (8 fl. oz.) containers.

Gifts to 'spread'

Whatever the occasion, a homemade gift is always special. Jana Lamplot, Homemakers Schools home economist, likes to give gifts from the kitchen as personalized expressions of how much she cares. What better way to share a special occasion than with a gift basket filled with homemade jams and jellies! The makers of SURE.JELL Fruit Pectin and CERTO Fruit Pectin have developed recipes that are perfect for gift-giving.

Champagne Jelly makes an excellent gift, whether given as a housewarming gift or at any special occasion. Jana Lamplot likes to fill an attractive basket with jars of jelly and a variety of meats and cheeses. Or she creates a "baked goods" basket with fresh bred and several jars of homemade jams or jellies such as Pear Raspberry Jams or Jellies such as Pear Raspberry Jam. She points out that gift baskets including homemade Jams and jellies are not only special to receive, but are fun to make.

Be sure to attend the special demonstration from Homemakers School and watch as Jana Lamplot shares tips on the ease of jam and jelly making. Show starts at 7 p.m. in the city auditorium on Thursday, March 15.

PINK CHAMPAGNE JELLY

4 cups (1-3/4 lb.) sugar 1 box SURE JELL Fruit Pectin 3/4 cup water

3 cups pink champagne

To make jelly, measure sugar and set aside. Mix fruit pectin and water in 6 or 8quart saucepot. Bring to a full rolling boil over high heat and boil 1 minute stirring constantly. Reduce heat to medium, and immediately add champagne and all the sugar. Cook and stir until all sugar is dissolved, about 4 to 6 minutes. Remote from heat and skim off foam with metal spoon. Ladle quickly into hot sterilized ars, filling to within 1/8 inch of tops. Wipe jar rims and threads. Cover with two-piece lids.* Screw bands tightly. Invert jars for 5 minutes, then turn upright. After 1 hour, check seals. Makes about 5 cups or about 6 (8 fl. oz.) jars.
*Or process in boiling water bath for 5 minutes.

PEAR-RASPBERRY JAM

4-1/2 cups prepared fruit (one 10-oz. package frozen quick thaw red raspberries in light syrup and about

2-1/2 lb. fully ripe pears) 5-1/2 cups (2 lb. 6 oz.) sugar 1 box SURE.JELL Fruit Pectin First prepare the fruit. Thaw 1 package (10 oz.) raspberries as directed on the package. Peel, core and finely chop about 2-1/2 pounds pears. Measure thawed raspberries; add enough chopped pears to make 4-1/2 cups. Place in 6 or 8-quart saucepot. Then make the jam. Measure sugar and set aside. Mix fruit pectin into fruit in saucepot. Place over high heat and stir until mixture comes to a full boil. Immediately add all sugar and stir. Bring to a full rolling boil and boil 1 minute, stirring constantly. Remove from heat and skim off foam with metal spoon. Ladle quickly into hot sterilized jars, filling to within 1/8 inch of tops. Wipe jar rims and threads. Cover with two-piece lids.* Screw bands tightly. Invert for 5 minutes, then turn upright. After 1 hour, check seals. Makes about 6-3/4 cups or 7 (8 fl. oz.) jars.

*Or process in boiling water bath for 5 minutes.

south-of-the-border supper icrowave

It is fascinating to watch the collective microwave cooking knowledge grow from a level of intimidation to one of confidence. Almost three-quarters of all households in America have a microwave oven, thanks to strides in technology that make cooking with microwaves possible. No matter how sophisticated the kitchen gadgetry, however, nothing can help answer the question "What Do I Serve for Supper?" Nothing, of course, except for the creativity of the cook. Any cook looking for interesting and speedy answers to the question posed above, will want to read on.

Mexican fare is rapidly becoming a favorite "ethnic" cuisine to make at home because of the current love affair with spicy foods. Prepared with ingredients likely to be found in most refrigerators, it is also easy (especially in the microwave) and inexpensive. These three quick south-of-the-border classics from the Kraft Kitchens work wonderfully well in the microwave.

Take the edge off hungry appetites with Cheesy Hot Mexican Spread, made by combining light Neufchatel cheese, Miracle Whip Light Reduced Calorie Salad Dressing with no cholesterol and Velveeta Mexican Shredded Pasteurized Process Cheese Food in a microwave-safe pie plate or quiche dish. Since cheese can overcook in the microwave quite easily. use 50 percent power when melting it. All the Velveeta Pasteurized Process Cheese Products melt to a marvelously smooth and creamy consistency in the microwave oven. Adorn the spread with toasted almonds and green onions to make a hot and succulent appetizer ready for tortilla Microwaves produce moist heat, perfect for cooking tender chicken. Chicken breasts are the basis for Chicken Tortilla Casserole, which blends shredded cheddar cheese, green onions, canned cream of chicken soup, California ripe olives, cilantro or parsley, chopped green chilies and Miracle Whip Salad Dressing. The in-gredients are rolled up in flour tortillas, available in any supermarket, and heated in the microwave oven.

Seafood has long played a part in Mexican cookery, particularly along the East and West coasts of the country. The combination of lime juice, cumin and red pepper originated along the Yucatan Peninsula, where freshly netted fish is suitably spiced with readily available ingredients. Mexican Fish Fillets combine tomato, cilantro and onion with lime juice, cumin and red pepper. Miracle Whip Light Reduced Calorie Salad Dressing is the secret ingredient that ties all the recipe components together, bringing forth a marvelous new flavor. This quick specialty takes just 10 minutes to pull together and 6 minutes in the microwave

With this Kraft Kitchens-inspired "creativity," it is easy to determine what to put into the microwave oven mananal More recipes from the Kraft Kitchens, microwave as well as conventional, will be included in the Exciting, New TASTES OF

THE 90's cookbook available free to those attending The Wayne Herald's Homemakers School on Thursday, March

CHEESY HOT MEXICAN SPREAD (8 oz.) pkg. light Neufchatel cheese, softened

- 1/3 cup Miracle Whip Light Reduced Calorie Salad Dressing with no cholesterol
- 1-1/2 cups (6 oz.) Velveeta Mexican Shredded Pasteurized Process Cheese Food with Jalapeno Pepper
- 1/3 cup toasted sliced almonds 1/4 cup chopped green onion

Mix together all ingredients until well blended. Spread into 9-inch pie plate or quiche dish. Microwave on medium (50%) 6 to 8 minutes or until cheese is melted and spread is warm (do not overcook). Stir before serving. Garnish with additional toasted almonds, if desired.

CHICKEN TORTILLA CASSEROLE

- 4 chicken breast halves, boned and skinned, cut into thin strips 1/3 cup thinly sliced green onion
- 1 (10-3/4 oz.) can condensed cream of chicken soup-
- 1-1/2 cups (6 oz.) shredded mild cheddar cheese, divided
- 1/2 cup Miracle Whip Salad Dressing 1/2 cup sour cream
- 1 (4 oz.) can chopped green chilies, drained
- 8 (7-inch) flour tortillas
- 1/4 cup chopped cilantro OR parsley 2 tablespoons sliced California ripe olives
- Microwave chicken in a 1-1/2 quart casserole on high for 4 to 6 minutes or until no longer pink, stirring every 2 minutes. Drain. Mix together soup, 1 cup of the cheese, salad dressing, sour cream and chilles. Stir 1 cup of salad dressing mixture into chicken. Spoon approximately 1/3 cup chicken mixture onto each tortilla; roll to enclose., Place tortilla seam side down in a 12x8-inch baking dish. Spoon remaining sauce over tortillas. Microwave, uncovered, on high 10 to 14 minutes or until heated through, turning the dish every 5 minutes. Top with remaining 1/2 cup cheese, cilantro and olives. Microwave on high 20 to 30 seconds or until cheese is melted. 4 servings.

MEXICAN FISH FILLETS

1/2 cup chopped tomato 2 tablespoons chopped cilantro 2 tablespoons chopped onion

1/3 cup Miracle Whip Light Reduced Calorie Salad Dressing with no cholesterol

- to 2 tablespoons lime juice 1/2 teaspoon ground cumin
- 1/8 teaspoon ground red pepper 1 lb. firm white fish fillets
- Stir together tomato, onion and cilantro; mix well. Chill. Mix together salad dressing, lime juice and seasonings. Brush onto fish. Arrange fish in 12x8-inch baking dish, placing thickest portions toward outside of dish. Cover with Revnolds Plastic Wrap; vent. Microwave on high 5 to 6 minutes, turning dish after 3 minutes. Let stand, covered, 2 to 3 minutes or until fish begins to flake when tested with a fork. Top with tomato mixture. 4 servings.

love the taste of cheese lmericans

Sliced, cubed or shredded, Americans love the taste of cheese ... so much so that we're eating 20 times more cheese products than 20 years ago. Jana Lamplot indicated that cheese may be part of an appetizer, salad, main dish or vegetable - even dessert. She adds that many of these recipes may reflect an origin in another area, even another continent. Updated versions-use-modern products with better results even while utilizing today's marvel, the microwave oven.

Consider this take-off on the Italian classic, Cheesy Chicken Vesuvio, from the Kraft Kitchens, Jana Lamplot points out that this main dish is well suited for weeknight fare as it is quick to prepare. The herbed cheese sauce atop the garlicky chicken breasts is made in the same skillet or microwave dish for fast cleanup, too. Another bonus is that unlike cheddar, Velveeta Pasteurized Process Cheese Spread consistently melts creamy

Dips made with Velveeta Pasteurized Process Cheese Spread stay smooth and creamy until the last dip! This versatile Classic Nacho Dip originating in another part of the world can double as main dish fondue, Jana Lamplot suggests adding 1990's style dippers such as soft flour tortillas, cut into triangles, and fresh veggies; then accompanying it with a tossed salad and fruit. Some quick cook tips from Jana Lamplot: purchase pre-cut vegetables from the supermarket salad bar, then user a microwave oven to prepare the "fondue."

Whenever a recipe calls for cheese, Jana Lamplot advises reaching for Velveeta products. Choose the loaf for general cooking needs. Select Velveeta Shredded Pasteurized Process Cheese Food for sprinkling over pizzas, burgers, nachos, potatoes, salads and sandwiches.

With homemade bread

Monkey around in the kitchen

Monkeying around in the kitchen with bread dough is an extremely satisfying activity for young people. Jana Lamplot, Homemakers Schools home economist, points out that this low-tech, high-touch activity allows young people to learn by doing — kneading and shaping the dough and helping to make a contribution to the family meal.

Bread baking is truly a hands-on experience says Iana Lamplot. When the bread emerges from the oven, even the youngest baker has a true sense of accomplishment.

Monkey Date Bread from Fleis-chmann's Yeast is a wonderful bread baking project that will encourage the whole family to wrap their hands around bread dough. It's a fun, whimsical pullapart bread featuring balls of dough filled with a date and walnut filling, which are dipped in butter, then layered in a tube pan with drizzles of maple syrup. The finished bread can be served warm and everyone can pull off a piece.

Although the origin of the name "Monkey Bread" remains somewhat of a mystery, Jana Lamplot emphasizes a number of food history books report that the name refers to the bread's bumpy appearance which resembles a pack of monkeys.

The baking specialists at Fleischmann's Yeast are available to answer any questions about yeast baking. Simply call them on the toll-free hotline, 1-800-227-6202, Monday through Friday, 10 a.m. to 8 p.m. EST.

MONKEY DATE BREAD

Dough:

1/4 cup warm water (105 degrees to 115 degrees)

- pkg, Fleischmann's Regular Dry Yeast* 3/4 cup warm milk (105 degrees to
- 115 degrees) 3 tablespoons sugar
- 1 teaspoon salt
- egg, at room temperature
- 2 tablespoons butter OR margarine, at room temperature
- 4 to 4-1/2 cups all-purpose flour

To Fill and Shape:

- 3/4 cup chopped dates
- 1/4 cup chopped walnuts OR pecans
- 1/2 teaspoon cinnamon
- 1/2 cup butter-OR margarine, melted, divided
- 3/4 cup maple syrup, divided

Place warm water in large warm bowl. Sprinkle in yeast; stir until dissolved. Stir in warm milk, sugar, salt, egg and butter.

Add 3 cups flour, beat until smooth. Stir in enough remaining flour to make a soft dough. Knead on lightly floured surface until smooth and elastic, about 8 to 10 minutes. Place dough in greased bowl, turning to grease top. Cover; let rise in warm, draft-free place until doubled in size, about 45 minutes. Meanwhile, make filling. In small bowl, combine dates, walnuts, cinnamon and 1/4 cup melted butter in bowl; blend well. Reserve. Punch dough down; divide into 24 pieces. With palms of hands, flatten to 3-inch circles. Place about 1 teaspoon filling in center of each circle. Pull up edges and punch to enclose filling. To shape bread: pour 1/4 cup maple syrup into bottom of greased 10-inch tube pan. Dip 12 balls in remaining melted butter and arrange in pan. Top with 1/4 cup syrup. Repeat process with remaining balls and place in pan. Top with remaining syrup. Cover, let rise in warm, draft-free place until doubled in size, about 30 minutes. Bake at 375 degrees for 40 minutes or until done. Let cool in pan on rack for 20 minutes, Turn out onto serving plate. Serve warm.

*To use Fleischmann's RapidRise Yeast: Combine 3-1/2 cups flour, undissolved yeast, sugar and salt. Heat water, milk and butter to 125 degrees to 130 degrees; stir into dry ingredients; blend well. Mix in egg and enough remaining flour to make soft dough. Knead until smooth and elastic; cover dough; let rest 10 minutes. Follow above directions for making filling, shaping dough and baking.

The Milton G. Waldbaum Company, one of the world's largest egg producers and processors, was founded in 1950 by Dr. Milton G. Waldbaum. The company started with twenty-five employees and currently employs almost nine-hundred persons.

Our Farm operations include Big Red Farms and Husker Pride Farms which are layer and grading operations and Gardner Growers #1 and Gardner Growers #2 which are pullet operations. All of these are located in Wakefield.

We also have grading operations in Hudson, CO and Westbrook, MN and a breaking operation in Yankton, SD. With completion of our current expansion, we'll have over seven million birds in the field.

We are a fully integrated company with our own feed mills, manure drying operation, and distribution systems. Distribution centers include Kansas City, MO and Chicago, IL.

Now, forty years after our start, we're proud of the quality of products, service, and employees at The Milton G. Waldbaum Company.

Salad dressings distinguish cook

One of the hallmarks of a knowledge-able cook is an excellent and distinctive home produced salad dressing according to Jana Lamplot, Homemakers Schools home economist. She feels a good dressing can make even the simplest salad a success. It coats the greens smoothly and supplies piquancy and a bit of a flavor surprise not found in most bottled dressings.

Jana Lamplot points out that five or ten minutes is all it takes to accomplish a great custom-made dressing when the base is Miracle Whip Salad Dressing, in-troduced over 50 years ago and still the favorite nationwide.

Buttermilk Pepper Dressing marries minced garlic with buttermilk, Miracle Whip, Parmesan cheese and freshly ground black pepper for a robust dressing that stands up well to a heartier salad or romaine or red leaf lettuce, endive, watercress, onion rings, strips of bell pepper — green, red or yellow — with a few croutons thrown in for good measure.

Lemon Ginger Dressing is a superb light mixture with a wonderful tangy flavor supplied by the lemon juice and finely chopped fresh ginger added to Miracle Whip Light Reduced Calorie Salad Dressing, blended with just a little milk. It goes beautifully on a variety of greens, with strips of warm chicken and snippets of Creamy Warm Bacon Dressing is exactly what its name implies with the addition of a minced clove of garlic. A tablespoon of the drippings from crisping the bacon adds depth of flavor and body. This dressing is superb with a perky spinach salad, or try it on thinly sliced raw mushrooms nestled in a bed of watercress and finished with a sprinkle of black pepper.

Jana Lamplot suggests using Miracle Whip Salad Dressing as a base to create inventive dressing combinations to give new variety to salads - horseradish and chutney; honey and poppyseed; lemon, parsley and dill; mustard and soy sauce; nutmeg and orange; red pepper sauce, Worchestershire and lemon — the list is endless.

Tip: Package your creations in mason jars—and give them to-friends — they make wonderful presents.

Taking shape with Knox blox

For fabulously fun shapes that kids willlove to make as well as eat, collect cookie cutters, stencils or other uniquely shaped objects. A child's natural curiosity and imagination will run wild when allowed to create some favorite designs, from Fruit Juice Knox Blox according to Jana Lamplot, Homemakers Schools home economist.

Animals and dinosaurs are always a hit with the younger set but Jana Lamplot cautions about limiting creativity. Children love to exercise their imagination so she "suggests letting them play with Knox" "building" blox and see the brightly colored designs come to life.

She points out that other toolsneeded include ordinary household utensils — a saucepan, a bowl, an 8-inch or 9inch square baking pan. Prepare the fruit julcy Knox Blox ahead of time according to the recipe directions (even easier using a microwave oven). The ingredients are simply 100% natural fruit juice and knox Unflavored Celatine.

With a little help from mom, kids can press out the shapes in the same way cookies are cut from dough. Stand back and let the fun begin. (It's a great idea for a kids-party, too.)

The best part is moms can feel good about serving Knox Blox made with 100% natural fruit juice because the wholesome ingredients can be part of a healthy diet. Recommended by Jana Lamplot, they are naturally low in calories, low in sugar and contain no fat.

Knox Blox are a delicious snack that kids will enjoy making and eating, too. So join the party and create fun shapes with Knox Blox. Watch them disappear!

FRUIT JUICE KNOX BLOX

4 envelopes Knox Unflavored Gelatine 4 cups cold fruit juice

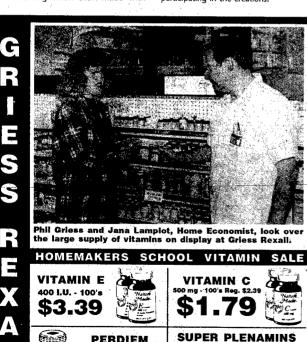

Microwave directions: In 2-cup glass measure, sprinkle unflavored gelatine over 1 cup cold juice; let stand 3 minutes. Microwave at high (full power) 1- minute. 20 seconds; stir thoroughly. Let stand 2 minutes or until gelatine is completely dissolved. Pour into 8 or 9-inch baking dish; stir in remaining 3 cups juice. Chill until firm, about 3 hours. Cut into 1-inch squares. Makes about 6 dozen blox.

Conventional directions: In mediumsaucepan, heat 3 cups juice to boiling. Meanwhile, in large bowl, sprinkle unflavored gelatine over remaining 1 cup cold juice; let stand 1 minute. Add hot juice and stir until gelatine is completely dissolved, about 5 minutes. Pour into baking dish and chill as above.

Variation: Try using assorted cookie cutters to create fun shapes. Kids will enjoy participating in the creations!

Strawberries 'n' Cream

A fool to enjoy

Long ago the world "fool" was used as a term of endearment. Early Europeans of rank formerly kept a professional jester or "court fool" for amusement.

Jana Lamplot, Homemakers Schools home economist, explains that now enjoyment can be found in a food named "fool." Old English and early American cookbooks offered recipes for various types of fools consisting of stewed fruits mixed with whipped cream. She points out that these originally were called trifles in England, unlike the now familiar custard and cake versions. By analogy, the fruit and cream desserts named "trifles" translated into "silly person" or "fool" and that's how the recipe got its name!

The following recipe for Strawberries 'n Cream Fool is sure to bring smiles to family and friends claims Jana Lamplot. The creamy texture stays firm and luscious from first to last serving due to the addition of Knox Unflavored Gelatine to the strawberry mixture. Gently folded into whipped cream, the fruit portion forms an attractive marbleized pattern.

Jana Lamplot suggests enjoying Strawberries 'n Cream Fool with angel food or pound cake for a rich and elegant dessert with a history. Since Know Unflavored Gelatine is colorless and has no flavor of its own, Jana Lamplot emphasizes that the true strawberry character comes through ... and that's no Foo!!

STRAWBERRIES 'N' CREAM FOOL

1 envelope Knox Unflavored Gelatine

1/4 cup cold water

1 package (10 oz.) frozen strawberries n light syrup, thawed

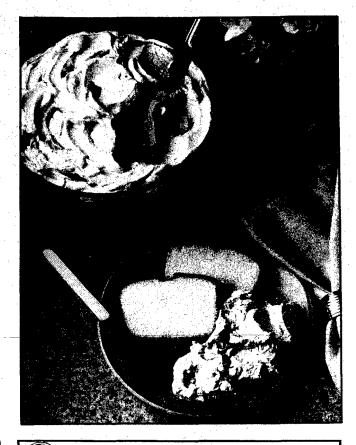

1/4 cup frozen orange juice concentrate, partially thawed and undiluted 1/4 cup sugar

1 container (8 oz.) frozen whipped topping, thawed*

In medium Magnalite saucepan, sprinkle unflavored gelatine over cold water; let stand 1 minute. Stir over low heat until gelatine is completely dissolved, about 3 minutes. In blender or food processor, process strawberries, orange juice concentrate, sugar and ginger. While processing, through feed cap, gradually add gelatine mixture and process until blended. In large bowl, blend 1 cup strawberry mixture with whipped topping. Turn-into serving bowl—Gently fold in remaining strawberry mixture, just until marbled; chill until set, about 2 hours.

Serve, if desired, with angle food or pound cake. Makes 8 servings. 165 calories per serving.

*Substitution: Use 1 cup (1/2 pt.) whipping or heavy cream, whipped. 163 calories per serving.
