Subscription renewals are now due

AREA - Wayne Herald subscribers who receive their subscriptions by mail are reminded that renewal payments are due Jan. 25.

This is the last of two renewal reminders subscribers will see printed in The Wayne Herald during January.

Customers who receive their newspaper by mail can find out when their subscription runs out by locating the date next to their name on the white address label on the newspaper. For instance, if the renewal date appears: John Doe, Feb. 1, 1991. It means that your subscription runs out with the last newspaper date in January, which is Thursday, Jan. 30.

Subscription prices are as follows: in Wayne, Pierce, Cedar, Dixon, Thurston, Cuming, Stanton and Madison Counties, $25 per year; $20 for six months; in-state, $28 per year; $22.50 for six months; out-of-state, $34 per year; $27.50 for six months.

For more information about subscriptions, contact The Wayne Herald at 375-2600 or toll-free at 1-800-672-3418.

Board focuses on suit, legislation

With legislation pending and the sleeptime lawsuit against Region IV still in progress, the governing board has some work ahead in 1992.

The Region IV governing board met Thursday at the Black Knight restaurant for their annual meeting and legislation and the lawsuit were the focus of the items the board discussed.

According to Dr. Ron Green, director of the Region IV office in Wayne, there are two legislative bills which could directly affect the Region IV program.

One matter deals with legislation passed in the 1991 session. LB 830 makes changes in the developmental disability structure by placing social service/case coordinators under employment of the state government. This new law affects between 20-25 people employed by Region IV. Once the change is made, the funds for their payroll will be transferred from the Region IV budget into state coffers.

According to a survey of the 355 families which provide clients to Region IV (40 percent responding), 103 of 143 said they would like to see Region IV's service coordination remain the way it currently is.

ANOTHER MATTER dealing with legislation revolves around changes in Medicaid payments from the federal government.

According to Dr. Green, the federal government has notified the state that it is cutting $13 million in Medicaid support for the state effective Oct. 1, 1992. What this means to Region IV is an estimated loss of $80,000. Green said, however, that Nebraska Gov. Ben Nelson is proposing that the money be made up through a 10 cent cigarette tax and taxes on hospitals and nursing homes.

"The good share of this change would directly hit families which use Medicaid," rather than the families which utilize Region IV's services, he said. "The main thing it effects is the Medicaid waiver eligibility."

About half of the clients Region IV serves use Medicaid.

IN ADDRESSING the sleeptime lawsuit, the Region IV governing board learned that a second lawsuit has been filed against Region IV on Aug. 19, 1991.

In the second lawsuit, the same 117 employees or former employees are the plaintiffs, many of whom had been plaintiffs in the first lawsuit, which is currently under appeal.

The first sleeptime lawsuit, filed Sept. 28, 1990, was dismissed Aug. 14, 1991, due to the fact that it had not been properly served, according to information from the Region IV attorneys, Perry, Guthrie, Haase and Gessford of Lincoln.

The dismissal of the first suit against Region IV is currently on appeal to the Eighth Circuit Court of Appeals but the plaintiff's attorney, Mary Wickenkamp, has informed the Region IV attorneys that she plans to dismiss the pending appeal.

ACCORDING TO information provided by Region IV, the second sleeptime lawsuit is an entirely new suit. Attorneys said it appears that Region IV was properly served the summons and complaint so they do not believe that the suit will be dismissed by the courts the same way the original one was.

What the suits against Region IV and the counties served by Region IV claim is that employees who were on duty during sleeptime hours were not properly compensated for their time. It alleges that Region IV did not pay most of the employees.

Since the filing of the first lawsuit, however, Region IV has changed its wage structure.

IN ONE OTHER note, the Region IV governing board learned that Region IV is ahead of its budgeted revenue figures for the 1991-92 fiscal year, but they are also ahead of budget for expenditures.

According to information provided by Region IV, the amount budgeted for revenue at the six month point of the fiscal year was planned to be at $3.489 million, but is currently at $3.561 million, approximately $72,000 ahead of budget. The expenditures, however, are $24,629 ahead of budget. The budget for the six month point was $3.498 million and the actual expenditures are at $3.514 million.

Green said, however, that because the revenue is ahead of budget that Region IV shouldn't have any budgetary problems during the 1991-92 fiscal year.

Chicken Show committee plans for annual festivities

By Les Mann
Publisher

"Chickens in Song" will be the theme of the one doventh annual Chicken Days festival scheduled for Wayne, July 10-11.

The loose group of (er) deadly serious organizers of the zany event held an organizational meeting Wednesday night to set the theme and dates for this year's celebration.

New to the schedule this year will be the "Pickin' and Pluckin'" contest featuring bluegrass and country bands in competition for prize money. That event, which follows with 1992 musical theme, will be held on Friday night, according to Jane O'Leary, one of the key organizers of the annual event.

"It will be a lot of work," said O'Leary about the new musical event. But, she added, "I think chairperson Sandy Bartling will 'pullet' off."

NATIONAL publications and media contacts have already begun contacting organizers about the plans for this year's show, said O'Leary.

Most of the other events, including the parade, cluck-off, egg-drop, crowing contest and chicken flying meet will be held on Saturday on a schedule similar to previous years.

The Wayne chicken team has already begun designing the 1992 t-shirts, the sale of which annually finances the bulk of the celebration. Plans are also underway to order chicks to give away to young people in the county who will agree to raise them and show them at the Chicken Show and the Wayne County Fair.

The free chicks will be available in March and those interested in receiving five free chickens should contact Katherine Williams at 375-4311.

Program gears to people seeking up-to-date data

If you are one of those people who like to be up to date on the latest information of what to do with your leftover paints, batteries, cleaners, and where to take your recyclables, you should attend this training.

Lynda Cruickshank, home economist at the Wayne County Extension Office, urges the public to attend a program offered Tuesday, Jan. 23 at 1:30 p.m. in the meeting room of the courthouse.

A REPRESENTATIVE of the new business Northeast Recycling, Inc. of Wayne will share information about what items are being accepted and how they are processed. What happens to your milk jugs and chlorine bottles when they get a second life?

Hazardous waste proposes several challenges for use, storage and disposal. Carol Larvick, Dakota County Extension Agent — Home Economics, will explain what products are considered hazardous and how to handle them.

Persons interested in attending should call the Wayne County Extension office at 375-3310.

Conn Library unveils new system WSC library invites public

Wayne State College's Conn Library will be unveiling a new on-line public access catalog on Thursday, Jan. 23 at 2 p.m. The public is invited and refreshments will be served.

The new computerized catalog will enable library users to have easier access to materials in the Conn Library collection and it will enable them to have access to collections at Peru and Chadron State Colleges.

"This will replace the standard cards," says Jan Brumm, the automation coordinator. "The system will be very easy to learn, and users should be comfortable with it."

BRUMM SAYS tedious procedures used in the card system will become obsolete this semester at Wayne State. Instead of sorting through card drawers, users will be calling up information on computers located throughout the library.

"This is a tremendous asset for the college as well as northeast Nebraska," says Jack Middendorf, director of information systems at Wayne State. "It will change the way people do research, and it will provide a more efficient means for obtaining better information."

Besides on-line terminals placed throughout the library, computers will eventually be placed in residence halls and in other campus buildings, Middendorf says.

THE TERMINALS will offer traditional catalog-style searching, which includes author, title and subject. However, a new "key word" search will also assist users of the new system.

The state-funded project process began seven years ago, Middendorf says. The past 18 months were spent choosing a software vendor and establishing screen specifications, circulating parameters and training sessions, he says.

Library personnel have named Wayne State's new automated system "CONN-ction," Middendorf says.

Wayne Chamber plans secret 1992 promotion

By Mark Crist
Managing Editor

The Wayne Area Chamber of Commerce is preparing to unveil its theme for 1992 but officials are waiting to release any concrete information until the annual meeting Feb. 16.

According to Curt Wilwerding, executive director at the chamber, the 1992 campaign is geared to not only keep people shopping in Wayne but to increase the numbers of people who do.

The theme of this campaign is: "Shopping in Wayne ... It just makes cents."

"Each community has its own way of creating wealth," Wilwerding said. "We think this plan will maintain the wealth, import the wealth and circulate the wealth."

IF THE CHAMBER'S program goes according to plan, money will circulate more times within Wayne than it does currently. Wilwerding said money circulates within a community between three to seven times and he said he'd like to see money circulating more than what it currently is.

According to 1990 figures, which the Chamber is using, income available for spending is approximately $70 million. Of the $70 million, $12 million is spent on housing and food. The rest is considered disposable income, that which is at the discretion of the consumer to spend. Wilwerding said after all the intangible dollars are spent, it leaves about $56 million in disposable income.

In 1990, $36 million was spent in the community. That means about $20 million was leaving the community. If 10 percent of that $20 million could be captured, Wilwerding figures that $2.5 million could be re-circulated within the community.

"You will see an improved infrastructure," Wilwerding said. "If you see dollars stay in town; merchants bank accounts rise up and they're going to start investing more into the community. You'll see a gradual increase in the amount of services and the quality of services that are provided to you."

"If you spend your dollars over in Sioux City, you're only helping the services of Sioux City. If you spend your dollars here, you're gradually helping to build a base for increased services here."

Engagements

Keck-Busskohl

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Keck of Norfolk announce the engagement of their daughter, Jennifer Lynne Keck, to Chris Busskohl, son of Mr. and Mrs. Curt Busskohl of Valentine.

The bride-elect and her fiance are students at Wayne State College. Jennifer is employed by the Wayne Care Centre and Cat's Closet, and Chris is employed by the Wayne State College Library and Presto.

A Feb. 15 wedding is planned at the Norfolk Methodist Church, 4th and Philip, in Norfolk.

Wakefield pastor, wife guests of Woman's Club

The Rev. Tim and Terri Gilliland of the Wakefield Christian Church were guests of the Wayne Woman's Club on Jan. 10 and presented several Christian songs as duets and solos.

Gillilands presented the January program in place of Gwen Jensen, who was unable to attend.

The 19 members paid tribute to deceased member Hazel Lentz by recalling her work with the club. President Lillian Granquist read "The Rose."

A BUSINESS meeting followed and President Granquist read "Always Wear a Smile." Members answered roll call with their first paying job, with many recalling being paid $1 or $2 per week.

Marian Jordan reported on rentals of the Woman's Club room and Leona Kluge thanked churches, clubs and other organizations in the community for their response regarding the purchase of Christmas gifts for residents of Wayne Care Centre.

The thought for the day was "Sometimes the Poorest Man Leaves His Children the Richest Inheritance." All members, as well as other residents of the community, were encouraged to recycle.

Serving lunch following the meeting were Marian Jordan, Adeline Vakoc and Roberta Welte.

HOSTESSES for next month's meeting, scheduled Feb. 14, are Florence Wagner, chairman, Lillian Granquist and Orvella Blumenkamp.

Members are encouraged to bring old Valentines. Roll call will be answered with a cooking mistake.

Evening Circle meets at Grace

The Evening Circle of Grace Lutheran Church met Jan. 14 with 18 members and one guest, Renata Anderson.

Janet Casey, newly elected president, called the meeting to order and Faunei Bennett presented the devotion, entitled "A Witnessing Light." The Rev. Merle Mahnken led the Bible study, "In the World, Not of It."

Correspondence included thank you notes from the families of Pastor Mahnken and the Rev. Jeff Anderson, and from St. Paul's Lutheran High School in Concordia, Mo.

BONNIE Sandahl reported that the 1992 LWML District Convention will be held June 19-20 in Norfolk. The in-gathering recipient will be Faith Village of Shawnee Mission, Kan., a subsidiary of Bethesda. The zone executive board meeting is scheduled today (Monday) at 1:30 p.m. in Laurel.

Twila Wolters and Susan Beckman audited the 1991 treasury books. A unanimous ballot was cast to continue meeting at 7:30 p.m.

Discussion was held regarding how the Evening Circle can be of help so the pastors' wives can attend a retreat in Grand Island on Feb. 28-29.

The group voted to provide some financial support to the Tom Brinkley family, as well as Lee We-ander, Jeff Warner, Mike Erickson and Becky Bradford.

MEMBERS WILL again deliver Valentines to shut-ins and a sign-up sheet was passed around.

Serving as hostesses were Stella Schuitz and Berlene Kinslow.

Klick, Klatter demonstration is on silk flower sweatshirts

Angie Denesia gave a demonstration on making silk flower sweatshirts at the Jan. 14 meeting of Klick and Klatter Home Extension Club.

Thirteen members attended the meeting in the home of Stella Liska and responded to roll call by wearing a designed sweater or T-shirt.

President Lee Moller opened with the flag salute and extension creed. Joyce Niemann received the hostess gift.

COMMITTEE reports included a reading by citizenship leader Stella Liska, entitled "Flag Etiquette." Joyce Niemann read "Ann Landers' Essay of the New Year" and "A Different World but in Many Ways the Best of Times."

For health, Marvel Corbit told about aspirin benefits, and for family well-being, Dorothy Aurich read "The Empty Nest Syndrome."

College and classes scheduled through Northeast Community College.

LEE MOLLER reported on the Christmas gift for Mary Roberts at Wayne Care Centre and on the Home Extension Council meeting held Jan. 9.

Discussion included the thrust program, Wayne's recycling unit, and a "Children and TV" project monitoring programs on television. Pauline Lutt and Joyce Niemann volunteered for the project.

It was announced that nominations are needed for state officers and "The Great Nebraska Family" award. A grant is available for classes in homemakers education.

This year's poster contest for third, fourth and fifth graders will focus on the environment.

THE NEXT meeting of Klick and Klatter is scheduled Feb. 11 at 1:30 p.m. in the home of Barbara Sievers.

College brings 'Alice in Wonderland' to Wayne

The Black Light Theatre of Prague will perform its adaptation of Lewis Carroll's "Alice in Wonderland" Tuesday, Feb. 4 at Wayne State College.

Performance time is 8 p.m. in Ramsey Theatre, located in the Fine Arts Building at Wayne State. The performance is part of Wayne State's Black & Gold Series.

The Czech version delights audiences while rendering the director's impression of surrealism and irony of Czech life under communist rule.

The Black Light Theatre of Prague has been called "enchanting, stunning and masterful" by critics throughout the world. In honor of its 31st year, the Black Light Theatre of Prague is taking "Alice in Wonderland" on a national tour of the United States.

This two-hour musical production captures a fantasy world of larger-than-life characters, bizarre occurrences, and strange encounters through magical illusions with the art of black light.

Adults and children have been charmed with the whimsy and mystery of its black light sleight-of-hand. The troupe of black clad actors manipulate props, sets and creatures to create magical illusory effects. The world is turned topsy-turvy as objects dance, props talk and the impossible becomes possible.

Public library receives books to assist in drivers licensing

Wayne Public Library has received copies of the "Nebraska Drivers Manual" for non-commercial drivers, the "Nebraska Motor Cycle Manual" for persons taking the motorcycle test, and the "Nebraska Commercial Drivers Manual" for drivers of commercial vehicles.

These publications were developed by the Nebraska Department of Motor Vehicles and distributed to libraries in cooperation with the Nebraska Library Commission.

THE NEBRASKA Department of Motor Vehicles is rapidly approaching a federal deadline for licensing all commercial drivers.

The drivers license is called the "CDL" and all drivers of all commercial vehicles must have one by April 1, 1992.

The definition of a commercial vehicle is described in the commercial drivers manual. More

Northeast displays Losacker's artwork

The art work of Nancy Losacker of Vermillion is currently being shown at Northeast Community College's Resource Center.

Losacker is an instructor of art at Worthington Community College. She has been the restoration artist for the South Dakota Capitol Building at Pierre, for the Howe Building and Adams House in Deadwood, and for the Siouxland Heritage Museum in Sioux Falls.

She has previously shown her work at Northern State University at Aberdeen and at the University of South Dakota.

Her show of plank idols consists of archetypal images painted on raw, barked wood. They are her "search for images that are common to everyone of any place, in any age."

The show will remain until an indefinite date in February and may be viewed during library hours. The library is now open on weekends.

Scholarships available to high schoolers

High school students who are U.S. citizens and who are interested in applying for $1,000 college scholarships should request applications by March 15 from Educational Communications Scholarship Foundation, 721 N. McKinley Road, P.O. Box 5002, Lake Forest, IL 60045-5002.

To receive an application, students should send a note stating their name, address, city, state, zip code, approximate grade point average and year of graduation.

All requests for applications will be fulfilled on or about April 15. One hundred winners will be selected on the basis of academic performance, involvement in extracurricular activities and need for financial aid.

ONE OF THE points Wilwerding made is that if people who live in Wayne shop in Wayne, they're not only adding to the services the community will be able to provide, but the taxable income means that the quality of living in the town will improve. He said the same thing applies for the communities which surround Wayne.

He pointed out that there are a number of advantages to living in Wayne. For instance, when you live in larger communities like Sioux City or Norfolk, you have a higher crime rate and greater problems than if you live in Wayne.

He said one reason prices in Wayne are occasionally higher is because Wayne merchants don't have the mass buying power that some of the larger communities have. He said, however, if more people shop Wayne, the volume of goods purchased will lower or maintain the cost of goods over a period of time, thus giving merchants more buying clout.

"It's hard to develop the relationships with merchants in larger cities than it is in Wayne," he said. "If you shop locally, the merchant will know you and will be more likely to serve you. Merchants in larger communities probably won't do that."

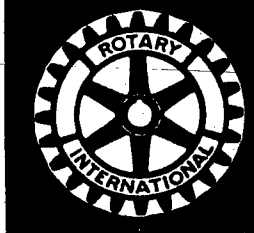

WILWERDING SAID he would like to see some attitudes about shopping locally change. He said if that happens, it will not only benefit the merchants but the community as well.

"There's got to be some give and take and some cooperation," he said. "If all you ask yourself is how am I as the consumer going to benefit, then you're not going to gain much from this promotion. We need to look at the long-term effects of shopping in Wayne, rather than the short-term gains. If we look at the long-term, then the community will continue to be going strong."

Wakefield Trojans rebound after tough loss with win over Winside

Wakefield boys coach Brad Hoskins was hoping his team would react in a positive manner Friday night in Winside after his squad blew a 13-point lead in Walthill during an upset loss just three days earlier.

Hoskins was not disappointed in what he saw as his Trojans jumped out to an 8-0 lead and never trailed in a 67-48 victory. The 8-3 Trojans led 19-10 after the first quarter and 31-16 at the intermission.

Wakefield came out blazing in the third quarter as they outscored the host team, 28-13 to take a 30-point lead into the fourth quarter at 59-29. "I was pleased with our first half performance with the exception that we gave up too many offensive rebounds," Hoskins said. "In the third quarter we changed defenses to a 1-3-1 zone which set up our fast break better and our kids really played that defense well despite not working on it that long."

Hoskins said he was most pleased that his squad regained its confidence. "I was proud of the way we responded after losing on Tuesday," Hoskins said. "The kids really came out and played hard."

Anthony Brown led a group of 10 players in the scoring column with 17 points while Steve Clark and Marcus Tappe finished with 11 each. Dalton Rhodes scored seven points while Jon Johnson added five. Ben Dutton, T.J. Preston and Ryan Ekberg each added four points while Larry Johnson and Cody Skinner scored two apiece.

Winside was led by Cory Jensen with 12 points while Cory Miller scored 10. Cam Shelton finished with eight points while Ryan Brogren added six. John Hancock scored five points and Colby Jensen scored three while Jeremy Jenkins rounded out the scoring with two.

"Wakefield may well be the best team we face all season, Winside coach Shannon Pospisil said. "They have a very stingy man-to-man defense which creates some of their offense."

Pospisil said his immediate goal was for his out-manned team to compete for four quarters. "We did not want to get blown out badly on our home court," Pospisil said. "I was proud of the way our guys hung in there and kept plugging away and not giving up."

Wakefield held a 34-31 advantage on the boards. Both teams took good care of the basketball with only 13 turnovers each. Wakefield hit all six of its free throw attempts while Winside was 7-10.

Miller led Winside in rebounding with nine caroms while Shelton hauled down eight boards and Jensen, six.

Winside will host Clarkson on Tuesday before traveling to play Wausa on Friday while Wakefield travels to Emerson Tuesday before hosting Wynot on Friday.

Wakefield gals improve record to 10-2 Friday

Gregg Cruickshank's Wakefield girls basketball team put their 9-2 record on the line Friday night in Winside against Paul Giesselmann's improved Wildcats.

When the smoke cleared, the visiting Trojans had escaped with a 43-38 victory and a 10-2 season mark while Winside was defeated for the first time in 1992, falling to 3-7. The loss snapped the Wildcats three-game win streak.

Wakefield got off to a quick start in the first quarter with a 16-5 advantage and the Trojans led by nine at the intermission at 24-15. Winside still trailed by eight after three quarters, 32-24 but the host Wildcats came on strong in the first half of the fourth quarter as they took a 37-36 lead with just over four minutes to go in regulation.

Wakefield then turned up its defensive intensity a notch and allowed Winside just one additional point the remainder of the contest while scoring seven points for the five point win.

"It was a good game between two good teams," Cruickshank said. "Winside is a much better team than their record indicates. I felt the difference in the game was our first quarter where we got off to a quick start."

Cruickshank said he was proud of his players for not letting up in the middle of the fourth quarter when the momentum shifted to

Winside's advantage. "You have to give a lot of credit to our four seniors Lisa Blecke, Sarah Salmon, Kristen Miller and Lisa Anderson," Cruickshank said. "They have really stepped it up the last couple games when the outcome of the game was on the line late in the fourth quarter."

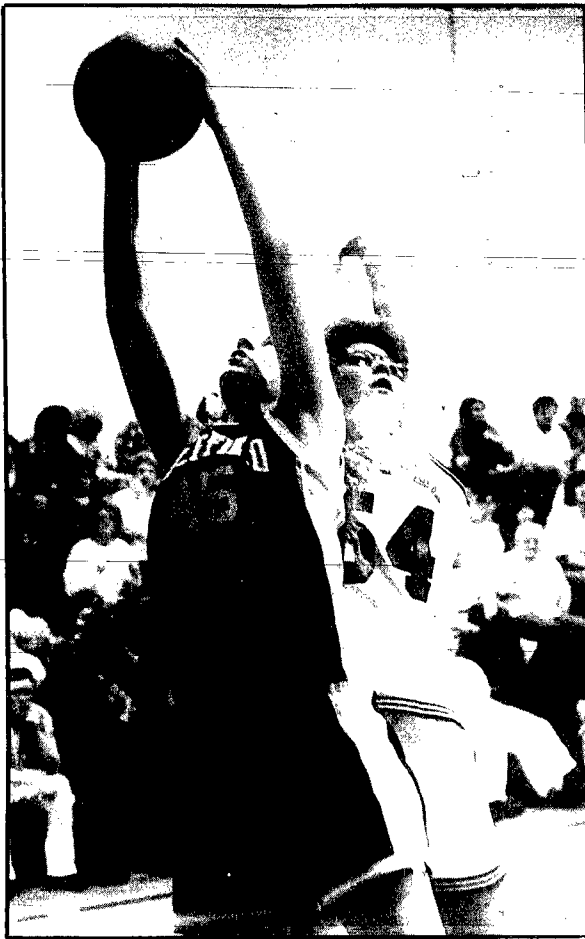

Blecke led a balanced Wakefield attack with 14 points while Miller poured in 12. Anderson scored eight points and Salmon added five. Angie Peterson rounded out the scoring with four points.

Jenny Jacobsen led Winside with 13 points while Wendy Rabe added 10. Christi Mundil scored eight points and Kari Pichler netted four while Holly Holdorf finished with three.

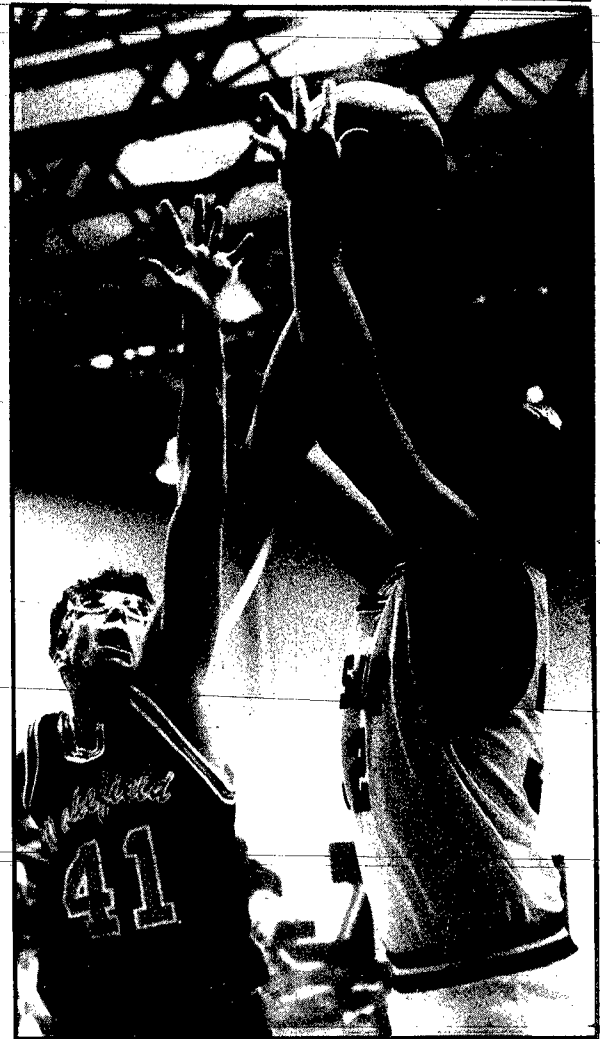

"I thought it was a well played game by both teams," Giesselmann said. "I'm pleased with our performance. We played one of the top three teams we'll see all season down to the wire."

Winside out-rebounded Wakefield, 31-27 with Rabe and Mundil leading the way with eight caroms each. Wakefield had 16 turnovers while Winside suffered 21. The Trojans were 3-6 from the charity stripe while Winside was 6-12.

Winside will host Clarkson on Tuesday night before traveling to play Wausa on Friday while Wakefield hosts Ponca on Monday before hosting Wynot on Friday.

WAKEFIELD'S SARAH SALMON skies for a rebound with Winside's Wendy Rabe right behind. Rabe was whistled for a foul and Wakefield went on to win by five.

WINSIDE'S CORY MILLER looks for two points against Wakefield Friday night in Winside while Trojan Larry Johnson looks to alter his shot attempt.

Pancake feed to be held in Wakefield

WAKEFIELD-The Wakefield Lions Club will hold a pancake supper on Friday, Jan. 24 at the school. The event is being held to raise funds for the youth summer baseball program sponsored by the club. Members of the youth teams will be selling advance tickets for the supper.

Tickets will cost $2.50 with pre-school children admitted free when accompanied by an adult. Tickets at the door the night of the supper will be 50 cents extra.

There will be boys and girls basketball games at the school that evening with Wynot. Basketball action will begin at 4:45 p.m. with reserves games. The pancake feed will take place in the multi-purpose room from 5-8 p.m.

WSC women harriers fare well in class

WAYNE-The Wayne State College women's cross country team completed the fall semester with a 3.40 team grade point average, according to second-year Track and Field and Cross Country coach John Johnson.

The harriers were paced in the classroom by Jackie Heese (So., Manilla, IA) with a perfect 4.0 grade point average. Freshman Angie Chvala (Stuart) and Leslie Iwai (Bellevue), and junior Lucy Peter (O'Neill) also earned dean's list honors with GPA's over 3.50.

Peter, a mathematics major, was the 1991 Wayne State College Female Scholar Athlete of the Year after earning National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics academic all-America honors for the Wildcat track and field team.

The Wildcats indoor track and field season begins Saturday with a meet at the Dakota Dome on the campus of USD in Vermillion, S.D.

Those on the WSC track teams that earned a 3.25 GPA or better include: Roni Jackson (So., S. Sioux City); Lonnie Lierman (Fr., Beemer); Angie Chvala (Fr., Stuart); Jackie Heese (So., Manilla, IA); Paul Kuchar (So., Battle Creek); Leslie Iwai (Fr., Bellevue); John Berney (Fr., Elkhorn); Lucy Peter (Fr., O'Neill); Jason Rief (So., Axtell); Steve Dinsmore (Fr., Wayne); Jennifer Kennedy (Fr., LaVista), and Carson Davis (Fr., Farnam.)

Walkers may use City Auditorium

WAYNE-The Wayne City Recreation and Leisure Services Department has announced the City Auditorium will be open to the public for those interested in walking for exercise.

The auditorium will be available from 8:30-11:30 a.m. on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays beginning Jan. 29. If there is enough interest a walking club will be formed. You may contact the Recreation and Leisure Services Coordinator at the recreation office located in the northwest corner of the auditorium or by calling 375-4803 between the hours of 8:30 a.m. to 6 p.m. (The new phone at the auditorium will be able to receive calls after Tuesday. It is still being installed and connected.)

Wayne boys dominate in 42 point victory over Stanton

The Wayne Blue Devils traveled to Stanton Friday night looking for their eighth victory in-a-row and their ninth overall win in 11 outings. Bob Uhing's squad wasted little time in getting down to business as they quickly took control of the game and pretty much had the outcome decided after the first quarter with a 27-3 lead.

Wayne totally dominated the second quarter as well as they outscored the host team 29-16 for a whopping 37-point halftime advantage of 56-19. The Blue Devils led 80-33 after three quarters.

"Our kids came out and played hard and really competed well," Uhing said. "We played very well together as a team and we got to empty the benches early and let everyone play."

Nine different players cracked the scoring column for Wayne, led by junior guard Bobby Barnes with 24 points. Regg Carnes followed with 21 while Brad Uhing pumped in 16. Matt Blomenkamp was also in double figures with 11 while Kyle Dahl scored seven.

Matt Ley finished with six points and Mike Fluent added four while Randy Kaup scored three and Robert Bell, two.

Wayne won the battle of the boards, 37-36 as Fluent led the way with eight caroms while Carnes hauled down six. Wayne finished with 15 turnovers while forcing the host team in 31. The Blue Devils were 12-20 from the foul line while Stanton was 18-34.

"There's really not a lot to say about this game," Uhing said. "Our bench play has really been a factor for us the past few games and they have to continue to be. Things will get a lot tougher this coming week for us as we travel to play Randolph on Tuesday before traveling to play Cedar Catholic on Friday."

The Wayne reserve basketball team also won in convincing fashion with a 73-49 victory with Mike Fluent leading the way with 30 points while Robert Bell added a dozen more.

Jeff Zeiss returns home to head position

City hires Rec-Coordinator

Former Wayne resident Jeff Zeiss has returned to his home town to take over a newly created position as the Recreation and Leisure Program Coordinator for the City of Wayne.

Zeiss is extremely excited about his new challenge and is looking forward to implementing several programs while expanding on the already existing ones. "I am very happy to move back into the Wayne community," Zeiss said. "I've always loved this area when I was growing up and it was not a hard decision to come back."

Zeiss graduated from Wayne High in 1980 and received his degree in business management and marketing from Wayne State in 1984. He spent three and a half years in the Palmida management program in Crete where he served as a manager.

In 1989, Zeiss completed his minor degree at WSC in physical education and recreation. He was hired by the City of Norton, Kansas as the Recreation and Leisure Director where he took a virtual infant program and turned it into a prosperous situation for Norton.

"When I left Norton there were 41 programs that were in the system and I'm very pleased to have been a part of establishing that for them," Zeiss said. "I'm also proud of the diversification that was developed there. We offered everything from sports to cake decorating, dance, photography, bread making and numerous other things."

One of the eventual things Zeiss would like to implement in the Wayne area is PEP, Personal Education Programs. "The bottom line is we are not out to make a buck," Zeiss said. "We are here to give the community and its citizens a chance or opportunity to get involved in different cultural activities. We want to diversify the Wayne program to a somewhat similar situation that was developed in Norton."

Zeiss spent a little over two years in the 3700-plus populated city of Norton. "I enjoyed my position in Norton but to be honest, it wasn't a tough decision to leave to come back to Wayne," Zeiss said. "Wayne's a great place to raise a family and my wife Jacki and I both feel it is a comfortable community."

Zeiss said a tradition of excellence has already been established in the Wayne rec program under the direction of Hank Overin and his goal is to develop a program based on that tradition.

"Hank was a very vital part of my growing up," Zeiss said. "I feel grateful to have the chance to give something back to this community after what they gave me."

Zeiss said he has no intention of replacing Hank because there is no way anyone can replace him, but he wants to carry on the tradition.

"One of the things that I would like to stress is community feedback," Zeiss said. "We want to provide as many different programs as we can but we need the communities help because they deserve that."

Zeiss encourages anyone who wants too, to drop by his office in the Northwest corner of the auditorium. A phone has been installed and the number is 375-4803—the only catch is you can not call until after Tuesday because that is when the hook up date is.

"I will be in the office on a daily basis from 8:30 a.m. to 6 p.m. with some additional evenings," Zeiss said. Jere Morris will continue to be the assistant to the program as he was under Overin and Steve Sorensen will continue to help the program as he is currently.

The Zeiss family is expecting their first child in May which will be welcomed home by fourth grade step-son Jason.

JEFF ZEISS SITS BEHIND his desk in his new position as Recreation and Leisure Program Coordinator for the City of Wayne. Zeiss returns to his home town after a two-year stint in Norton, Kansas.

Wayne grapplers lose dual Wayne's wrestling dual with South Sioux Thursday night at Wayne High came down to the final match before the outcome was decided. Wayne trailed the visitors 30-29 with only the heavyweight division left.

Leon Brasch and Tom Foxhoven of South Sioux battled for six minutes before Foxhoven won a 6-0 decision which gave the Cardinals a 33-29 victory, which left Wayne with its third consecutive dual defeat.

"We are not satisfied with the outcome of the dual," Wayne coach John Murtaugh said. "However, I feel we are making some progress as a team. We need to continue to improve so we can avoid losses like this one in the future.

In reserve action Jeff Geiger won an 11-9 decision at 125 while Jason Shulteis won by pin in two different matches at 145.

Ryan Brown was defeated 22-9 by Alex DeLao in the first varsity match of the night at 103 while Mike Williams won by pin in 3:27 over Jeremy Frederick at 112.

Randy Johnson lost his 119 pound match by a 12-0 decision to Jose DeAnda while Matt Rise won by technical fall over Dan Pickering at 125. Terry Rutenbeck lost an 11-3 decision to Gary Ogden at 130 and Steve Hansen won by pin over Cory Osborn in 3:35 of his 135 pound match.

Juan Mota lost a 16-10 decision to Bobby Cigard at 140 while Jason Fink won by pin in 5:24 over Kong Manuog. Brian Gamble lost his 152 pound match to Jim Olejniczak, 6-0 while Dusty Jensen lost by pin in 1:15 to Sithon Sysaeglath at 160.

Dwaine Junck won by pin in 71 seconds over Kevin Totman at 171 while at 189 the Blue Devils had to forfeit with no wrestler which cost the host team six points.

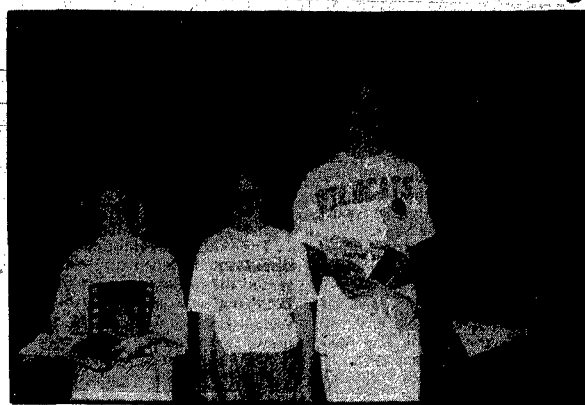

"For the most part our intensity is good but we are making some mistakes in the area of technique that is really costing us," Murtaugh said.

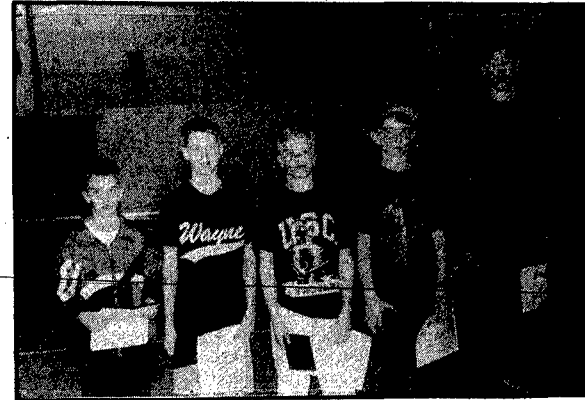

WAYNE WRESTLING COACHES Aaron Schuett and John Murtaugh discuss strategy with Mike Williams.

The Wayne girls basketball team traveled to play a strong South Sioux team Thursday night and Marlene Uhing's Blue Devils slipped to 3-7 following a 58-47 setback.

Wayne trailed the host Cardinals, 14-12 after the first quarter but South Sioux opened up a 27-20 lead at the intermission. The host team came out on fire in the third quarter and built their lead to 14 at 44-30 after three quarters.

"We played pretty good defense in the first half," Uhing said. "South Sioux was only 12 of 34 from the field but we ran into problems by allowing them second chance points." Wayne gave up 11 offensive rebounds in the first half which offset the poor shooting by the Cardinals. Uhing said South Sioux made some adjustments at half-time and they connected on 14 of 21 shots in the second half.

South Sioux's leading scorer Stacy McCarthur led all scorers with 21 points but Uhing was pleased with the defense she got from sophomore Tami Schluns. "Tami played very good defense on McCarthur," Uhing said. "In the first half she hit just 4-13 from the field. In the second half South Sioux made some adjustments and got her open a little more and she hit 4-5. Several of her shots were attempted with Tami right in her face but she hit them anyway."

Susie Ensz had a strong night for the Blue Devils as she scored 17 points while Liz Reeg poured in 13. Danielle Nelson finished with seven while Erin Pick netted six. Tami Schluns and Jenny Thompson rounded out the attack with two points each.

Wayne was out-rebounded, 32-26. Ensz and Nelson each had six caroms to lead Wayne. "Susie had a real good game," Uhing said. "She's really worked hard on rebounding and she's been our top rebounder the last couple games."

Wayne did a good job of handling the ball despite the pressure they got from the Class A Cardinals, with only 15 turnovers while the host team suffered just six. Wayne was 12-21 from the foul line while South Sioux was 1-3.

Overall, Uhing said her squad played hard but not everyone contributed like they could have. "We are battling the consistency battle," Uhing said. "We need to get all our girls to play four quarters of basketball to be successful."

The Wayne reserves played perhaps their best game of the season in defeating South Sioux, 32-28. Carrie Fink led the winners with 12 points and eight rebounds.

Knights of Columbus sponsors hoop contest

The Knights of Columbus sponsored a youth free throw shooting contest recently with the winners of each division advancing to district competition on Jan. 26, also to be held in Wayne.

In the girls division Amanda Hansen was crowned champion of the girls 10-year-old division while Abby Spahr was runner-up. Brooke Parker was the winner in the 11-year-old division while Molly Linster was runner-up.

Katie Lutt won the 12-year-old division with Anne Wisemann nailing down the runner-up spot. Christine Swinney was champion of the 13-year-old category. There were no entries in the 14-year-old division.

In the boys category Johnathan Slaybaugh was the winner of the 10-year-old division as he defeated Ryan Wetterberg in overtime. Ryan Dahl was the winner of the 11-year-old division while Brian Hochstein was runner-up. David Ensz was crowned champion of the 12-year-olds while Chris Dyer finished second.

Dustin Thompson won the 13-year-old division with Josh Starzl earning second place honors and Mike Imdleke was the winner in the 14-year-old division with Troy Jeffrey placing second.

CARDS OF THANKS

KINSHIP OF Wayne would like to thank Pizza Hut, Godfather's, Dairy Queen, the Masonic Lodge, Connie Webber and Tommy Huggatt for making our Christmas party such an enjoyable success. J20

THANK YOU to everyone who remembered me on my 90th birthday. The many cards and visits helped make this day a special one. Herman Koll. J20

HEARTFELT thanks to all who remembered our family during our sorrow. The outpouring of cards and letters and the prayers on our behalf have meant so much. Tarrah now rejoices with God in Heaven. Terry and Be Magdanz, Chad and Gretchen, Norma Magdanz, Mardella Olson. J20

THE FAMILY of Chloe Johnson, would like to thank all the employees of Hillcrest Care Center of the love and care shown to our Mother, especially during her last few months; to Pastor Marburger for his visits and prayers; to the Committee who furnished and prepared the dinner the day of the funeral; and to all of our dear relatives and friends for the cards, flowers and memorials. Your kindness will always be remembered. God bless you all Arline and Marvin Nitzschke and families, Ardyth and Lorence Anderson and families. J20

THANK YOU to everyone for making my 90th birthday one I'll always remember by sending cards, flowers, gifts and phone calls. Special thanks to my children, grandchildren and great grandchildren for visiting with me on Sunday afternoon. May God bless each of you. I appreciated it very much. Regina Korn. J20

THANKS TO all who remembered me with their prayers, visits, cards and phone calls while I was in the hospital and since returning home. Thanks to Pastor Lee and Pastor Fale for their prayers and visits. Thanks to the hospital staff for their excellent care. God's blessings. Werner Mann. J20

I WOULD like to thank everyone for cards, flowers and visits while I was in the hospital and since returning home, also for food brought to the house. Friends and family are wonderful. Harry Nelson. J20
