

Teachers get top training

The Wayne State College Division of Education has been re-accredited for five years by the National Council for Accreditation of Teacher Education, the top accrediting society for teacher education in the United States.

Fewer than 500 of the 1,800 colleges involved in teacher education in the United States have gained approval of NCATE.

"Our accreditation is great news for our northeast Nebraska region, students, education graduates and our faculty," said Dr. Larry Harris, division head of education. "By meeting and following NCATE standards, our program will continue attracting good students and graduate fine teachers.

"Our faculty and students have worked hard for the past three years to prepare for this evaluation — so we're elated that NCATE recognizes the strength of our teacher education program."

The re-accreditation, which covers both undergraduate and graduate teacher education programs, is the result of an extensive review by NCATE last spring when a team of examiners conducted a thorough study of Wayne State's teacher education program.

Final performance 'superior'

THE 92-MEMBER WAYNE HIGH SCHOOL Marching Band made its final appearance at the Nebraska Marching Band Festival on Nov. 7 and captured the only superior rating given out to Class B schools participating in the event at Pershing Auditorium in Lincoln. This year marked the band's final appearance. After 35 years, the contest has been discontinued because of budget constraints and the committee's desire to provide a top quality event for students and schools.

Young motorists cause concern

Youthful Wayne motorists have several Main Street businesses concerned about safety and city council members considering toughening city laws to curb the "cruising" practice of making quick U-turns in private business parking lots.

"It's a dangerous situation for employees, customers and everyone involved," said Vicki Donner, the co-owner of Presto convenience store in Wayne.

She presented a petition asking for council to take action to help halt the teen practice of turning their cars around in the parking lot between her business and the Sav-Mor Pharmacy.

There have been several close calls where people have been nearly run over as groups of teen-piloted cars rush through her parking lot, she said. Will Davis, owner of Sav-Mor, though he was busy at a school board meeting and could not attend the council meeting, agreed that the situation is dangerous and requires action.

Council voted 7-0 to authorize the city attorney to draft an ordinance similar to one passed in recent years in Norfolk. Authorities said that law has been effective in reducing the dangers from cruisers in that community.

Wayne Police Chief Vern Fairchild said the new ordinance would give the city police "more ammunition" than they now have in enforcement of traffic laws in private business parking lots.

Busing contract okayed

By Les Mann
Herald Publisher

Wayne's Board of Education is planning to get out of the school busing business. Board members voted unanimously Tuesday to negotiate an agreement with Spec Tran bus company of Minnesota to provide private bus services to the district.

The new busing contract will save the district taxpayers over $133,000 over the five year term of the proposed agreement, compared to what the district is spending now on its fleet of eight buses.

The new bus company operations could begin in Wayne as early as January.

But the cost savings is not the only reason Supt. Dennis Jensen strongly recommended the board accept his proposal to get out of the busing business.

"I JUST DON'T see a down side at all," said Jensen, who explained that school personnel will give up the time-consuming management tasks related to bus scheduling, maintenance and purchasing.

He said the proposal from the private company will be to replace the school district's fleet with brand new 77 passenger buses. The new company will operate better equipment and will set up a new business in the community. He said the firm "has already entered into negotiations with other school districts in Northeast Nebraska, and it looks promising for the firm's expanding Nebraska operations to be headquartered out of Wayne.

Jensen said he worked with Spectran for eight years while he was a superintendent in South Dakota. He said the firm was reliable and extremely cooperative with the district. He said the management style and efficiency along with the ability to purchase bus fleets at a tremendous savings, were some of the reasons the private company could provide lease services to the district cheaper than the district could operate its own buses.

Another advantage of the leased-bus program would be the newer larger buses would allow for the additional pickup of students in town in areas far from school without any additional cost, he said. The new bus company would have greater capacity on its buses for additional in-town pickups on the way to school from the rural routes, he said.

HOWEVER, the board was not immediately convinced.

"I've never been convinced I could lease something cheaper than I can own it," said board member Neil Sandahl who declared himself skeptic.

Leaf pickup set

WAYNE — Just as leaves fall from the trees each fall, the Wayne County Jaycees also have a tradition — pick-up up the leaves for residents in the Wayne community.

This year is no exception, as the Wayne Jaycees will be out picking up the bagged leaves on Sunday, Nov. 15. They will begin the process at 1 p.m. All they ask is that the leaves are bagged, by the curb and there be no grass clippings included.

The leaves are taken to Garden Perennials south of Wayne where Gail Korn uses them to mulch for potting soil.

School District 57 meeting

WAYNE COUNTY — All registered voters of School District #57 are urged to attend a special meeting on Friday, Nov. 20 at 8 p.m. at the schoolhouse. The purpose of the meeting will be to sign the land affiliation petition and vote on the sale of School Dist. #5 real estate.

The regularly scheduled school board meeting has been moved to Tuesday, Dec. 8 at 8 p.m.

Santa Cash promotion continues

Wayne banks are reporting a good number of inquiries into the special Santa Cash promotion being offered in Wayne during the holiday shopping season but few applications for the interest free loans have come in yet.

Holiday shoppers can get interest free loans for 120 days from any of the three banks in Wayne for "Santa Cash" which they can spend at participating Wayne businesses for Christmas shopping.

The unique effort is being coordinated through the Wayne Area Chamber of Commerce.

It has generated a good deal of interest," said Chamber Executive Curt Wilwerding. He added he hopes people don't wait until the last minute to make application for the zero-interest loans as the banks could be swamped later on.

Now is the time to make your plans and talk to your banker," he said. Wilwerding said using Santa Cash makes more sense than charging for Christmas items on credit cards. He said bankers have indicated that just about anybody with a credit card will be eligible for the loans of up to $1,500 worth of Santa Cash.

Nearly 50 businesses in Wayne accept the Santa Cash like real money, said Wilwerding.

took possession of the former ESU 1 Learning Center building located on the east edge of Wayne.

The building is being remodeled and will house the Department of Social Services, with the Wayne County Sheriff moving into the area presently occupied by the Social Services office in the basement of the Wayne County Courthouse.

County Clerk Deb Finn pointed out that although Social Services is a state office, the county is required to provide office space.

FINN SAID Beiermann, along with David Lynn of David M. Griffith and Associates, were instrumental in working out a lease agreement for the new Social Services building with NACO (Nebraska Association of County Officials), which will enable the county to recover 50 percent of the cost to lease the building each year.

Finn said the new 2,000 square foot brick building was purchased from Educational Service Unit One at a cost of $42,000, with the county entering into a lease/purchase agreement with NACO's leasing corporation for $61,225 to cover the purchase price, maintenance work, and modifications necessary to meet requirements set forth by the Americans With Disabilities Act (ADA).

Finn pointed out that the money is being borrowed at a 4.15 percent interest rate on a five-year term.

"WHAT has happened," explained Finn, "is that Wayne County purchased the building and is leasing it to NACO, and then NACO is leasing the building back to us." By doing this, Finn said Wayne County is able to recover indirect costs for operating the Department of Social Services from the State of Nebraska. "When you own the site, you can only recover two percent of the cost," said Finn, "but by leasing the site, we can recover 50 percent."

Finn pointed out that by recovering 50 percent of the cost to lease the building every year, along with rent being received from the juvenile detention building, Wayne County is expected to have the new building paid for in five years without any county outlay of funds.

Finn explained that NACO leasing is a tax-exempt financing program available to all Nebraska Counties whereby they can obtain low-cost financing for equipment purchases, land acquisitions or other county projects.

BEIERMANN said work continues at the new Social Services site and he expects the office to move into its new location sometime after Thanksgiving.

"The reason we moved the Social Services office is because the federal government will pay half of the utilities and half of the rent," said Beiermann, adding that Wayne County is also receiving $6,000 a year to relocate the sheriff's office from the 18 counties involved in the Juvenile Detention Center.

"Between that and NACO," said Beiermann, "the new building to house Social Services should be paid for and owned by Wayne County in five years or less."

Receiving one A, no D's or four B's from the seventh grade class were Jennifer Beiermann, Erin Ford, Jason Mader, Jeremy Nelson, Michelle Saul and Andrew Wright.

Parents question recreation spending

A group of parents of youngsters involved in the city recreation program attended the city council meeting Tuesday to raise questions about the city's use of funds raised by students for the Middle Center.

Students raised $211 through a bake sale in 1991 and turned the funds over to the city to use to install a phone and possible other recreation improvements at the Middle Center, the pre-teen meeting place above the old City Hall.

Nancy Sorensen, who is vice chairman of the city recreation commission, complained to council saying the cost of installing the phone wiring should not have been charged to the youngsters. She said she thought the city was charging the kids $168 for phone wiring that city employees themselves did.

Jeff Zeiss, coordinator of the recreation department, said wiring costs were only $67.50 of the total $177.50 it took to get the phone installed. Other costs were to USWest for hookup and the cost of the phone itself. He said an additional $30 from the bake sale funds was spent on new basketball hoops, as requested by the youngsters when they donated the funds to the city.

Council took no action on the complaint since it had not been entered as an agenda item prior to the meeting, but Mayor Bob Carhart said he was surprised the issue could not have been settled in the recreation commission meetings.

"We have no idea where any of this money is going to," said Mrs. Sorensen.

Classes to be out

Wayne State College will cancel classes on Wednesday, Nov. 18 from noon to 2 p.m. to enable the entire campus community to participate in a teleconference entitled "Enhancing Race Relations on Campus: New Challenges and Opportunities."

"Individuals of diverse race and culture enhance campus life and provide members of the campus community with new insights, knowledge and understanding," said Donald J. Mash, president of Wayne State College. "We are committed to efforts to attract more faculty, staff and students of diverse race and ethnicity and to sustaining an environment that recognizes and values all individuals."

Mash says Wayne State's participation in this teleconference will contribute to the institution's goals of serving all Nebraskans and preparing students for the 21st century.

There will be 10 teleconference sites on campus where college personnel will moderate discussions following the teleconference.

Don't light up at school

Beginning in January, all school buildings in the Wayne-Carroll district will be smoke-free.

The school board raised no objection to Dr. Dennis Jensen's new proposed policy change that would send teachers and visitors alike, to the great outdoors to indulge their tobacco habit.

Currently smoking teachers have been banished to the boiler room as the only designated smoking area during school hours. However, beginning in January even the boiler room will be smoke-free.

Jensen said the public may have to be educated about the new policy as it relates to attendance at sporting events. He said there will be no designated smoking area in the buildings even at sporting events

"We're trying to set an example for our young people," said Jensen.

He added the two-month lead time before the smoking ban is enforced, should give teachers and visitors to the school the opportunity to prepare, perhaps by giving up the smoking habit.

School board member Cap Peterson pointed out the irony of the school district banning smoking at the same time the state relies heavily on cigarette taxes for capital improvement projects. He cites a couple of projects at Wayne State College that were funded from the tobacco tax revenues.

national standards of excellence, and accredited colleges agree to support these standards, according to Harris.

NCATE representatives were very impressed with Wayne State's strong relationship with the northeast Nebraska educational community, and they complimented faculty for taking a strong personal interest in their students and programs, Harris says.

"For years, Wayne State College has had a reputation for preparing excellent teachers, but it is gratifying to have a nationally recognized agency approve our programs," says Dr. Jo Taylor, vice president for academic affairs.

Wayne State College has been accredited by NCATE since 1954. Currently, about one-third of the college's 4,000 students are enrolled in education.

Approximately 2,700 Wayne State graduates are currently employed in teaching, counseling and administrative positions in the state of Nebraska.

Winside parents and grandparents invited to go back to school

Remember the old saying, "Not until you've walked in my shoes?"

Winside parents and grandparents of junior high and high school students may find themselves filling some pretty big shoes when they take their children's place in school on Tuesday, Nov. 17.

Ron Leapley, Winside High School principal, said Nov. 17 has been designated Student/Parent/Grandparent Exchange Day in Winside.

The exchange, which only involves parents and/or grandparents of Winside junior high and high school students, will be held from 8:30 a.m. to noon. During those hours, Leapley said the adults will replace their child or grandchild in school and will be expected to attend classes, take notes, turn in assignments, get assignments, and function just as the students do.

Leapley added that junior high and high school students will not be attending classes during the morning hours, however they are required to report to school at noon to complete the remainder of the day.

Leapley said the exchange is designed to increase the public's knowledge and awareness of school operations, and to increase the school's rapport with the public.

He added that information regarding the exchange will be sent home with students, and persons with questions are asked to call him at 286-4465.

Wayne may add school breakfasts

By Les Mann
Herald Publisher

Wayne Schools will be joining a growing number of schools across the country who will be offering students breakfast before classes begin if grant funding for the program is approved.

In a rare 4-2 split vote, members of the Wayne School Board agreed to seek grant funding to provide breakfast at school. It is anticipated the program would cost approximately $7,000 per year and would be funded entirely by grant monies and charges to students who eat the breakfasts said Supt. Dr. Dennis Jensen.

BOARD MEMBERS Neil Sandahl and Dr. Ken Liska voted against the idea, citing fears that the program, once established voluntarily, might be made mandatory and without government funding.

School Breakfast Program growing

The Agriculture Department's School Breakfast Program reached a record 4.16 million low-income children during fiscal 1992.

breakfast is the most important meal of the day. He added he sees kids heading to school in the mornings with a big drink from the convenience store. "That's nothing but sugar," he complained.

THOUGH breakfast would be voluntary for students and would be priced moderately like the school lunch program, Jensen said schools which have implemented the program generally have seen it grow in popularity.

With the number of students with parents in college and students with both parents working, board members agreed that breakfast is often a low priority in many Wayne homes.

Pending decision on the district's grant application, Jensen said the breakfast program could be implemented as soon as January.

"I have a little bit of a problem with adding more to what we are being asked to do," said Liska. Sandahl said he thinks schools are being asked to replace parents.

ESU board hears about school future

By LaVon Anderson
News Editor

Dr. Larry Harris, head of the education division at Wayne State College, spoke at length with members of the Educational Service Unit One (ESU 1) board of directors Tuesday night and presented an overview of restructuring of schools.

Harris talked about what schools need to do to keep up with changing times and to help students learn and become more active.

He also discussed what teachers need to do, their involvement, desire to see goals accomplished, and ability to do it.

MEETING AT ESU 1 headquarters in Wakefield, board members discussed dedication and open house at the new ESU 1 Tower School, located in Wayne.

Although no date was set, the board is tentatively planning an open house for a Sunday afternoon before the end of the year.

They approved a list of additional building expenses for the school, as presented by ESU 1 Administrator Rodney Garwood.

Administrator Garwood also reported on LB 3 which was passed in the last special session of the legislature. The purpose of the bill is to shift the cost of ward of court students from the Department of Social Services to local school districts.

Garwood said the bill, which is retroactive to the current year, will affect two school districts in the ESU 1 service area.

DUANE Tappe, special education director at ESU 1, reported on transporting students to and from the new ESU 1 Tower School.

Tappe also discussed the future of the Bryan School program in South Sioux City and said that because of an increased case load, ESU 1 may hire an additional teacher assistant and half-time teacher at the Bryan School.

Elizabethan Feastes set Dec. 11-13

The Wayne State College Madrigal Singers will perform their Elizabethan Christmas Feastes Friday-Sunday, Dec. 11-13 at Wayne State College.

Performance time is 7 p.m. nightly in the Student Center's North Dining Room.

Clad in 16th century attire, the Madrigals' Christmas Feastes take audiences back to the Renaissance era, specifically England, under the rule of Queen Elizabeth I.

During the singing, poetry and comedy (complete with a court jester), the audience is treated to a dinner, which in the 16th century usually consisted of beef, Yorkshire pudding, the wassail drink and a flaming dessert.

Over 200 performances have been given by the Madrigal Singers during its 20-year history of performing in the United States and abroad.

They've performed at the Westminster Cathedral in London, the Notre Dame Cathedral in Paris and the Pantheon and St. Peter's Cathedral in Rome.

Tickets for the Wayne State dinners Dec. 11-13 are $13.75 per person. They may be purchased by sending payment to Christmas Dinners, Val Peterson Fine Arts Building, Wayne State College, Wayne, NE 68787.

tical. He said he was also concerned about the bus company's operation of larger units on the county's often treacherous rural roads in the winter.

"If they can do it cheaper why can't we?" asked Dr. Ken Liska.

In the end the board agreed to try the leasing company for the last half of the current school year, but retain ownership of the current school buses in case the lease program would prove unacceptable in that time.

Spectran's bid to provide the service to the district's predominantly rural students included a proposal to give the school district $65,000 for its existing buses, some of which wouldn't bring a $500 bid at auction, board members admitted.

THE SPECTRAN proposal was the most cost effective of the two bids received by the district, said Jensen. He said Mayflower Bus Co. which provides service in Omaha and many other locations from throughout the country, was $300,000 more than the Spectran bid over a 5 year period.

Jensen said he sent out requests for proposals to 20 different private busing companies and received only two responses. He said he believed this was due in large measure to the stringent requirements he placed in the request for proposal.

The school board has scheduled a special meeting on Monday to discuss further the bus leasing proposal.

Lottery waits for senators

OMAHA, Neb. (AP) -- Nebraska voters approved a state lottery last week and Gov. Ben Nelson wants the game to start next year, but much must be done before the first lottery ticket is sold. The Legislature passed a lottery bill in 1991, but voters did not change the state Constitution to permit a lottery until last Tuesday.

Nelson and others have suggested that the bill be passed again so a state lottery would not be subject to challenge in court. There will be 14 new state senators in January, the next regular session. The lottery received 62 percent of the vote statewide and it passed in 84 of 93 counties, but its passage through the Legislature may not be smooth.

"We've not rolled over. We're not dead," said Jim Bowman, who coordinated Citizens Against More Gambling, which formed to fight the lottery issue on the ballot and no longer officially exists. "We're not convinced the 60 or so percent who voted in favor of it ever heard our arguments. I hope we can still appeal to wise and thoughtful people as they consider this," Bowman said.

The switch is on to electric heat.

In Nebraska, more people installed electric heat than any other form of home heating from 1980 to 1990! According to U.S. Census Bureau figures, electric heat installations increased 32% compared to only a 3% increase for natural gas, and declines in propane and fuel oil heating.

Briefly Speaking

Luncheon, bazaar in Laurel

LAUREL - Laurel United Methodist Women will hold their annual luncheon, bake sale and bazaar on Saturday, Nov. 14. The event is scheduled in the Laurel city auditorium from 10 a.m. until 1:30 p.m. Lunch will be served beginning at 11 a.m., and the menu includes chili and vegetable beef soup, taverns, chicken sandwiches, salads, pie and cake.

Library program canceled

WAYNE - A storytelling program which was scheduled to take place on Nov. 21 at Wayne Public Library has been canceled. Librarian Jolene Klein said Jym Kruse, who was to present the program for children, will be unable to attend because of other commitments.

Jazz concert slated in Laurel

LAUREL - Laurel-Concord students will present a jazz concert on Tuesday, Nov. 17 at 7 p.m. in the school's old gymnasium. Directors Claudia Dvorak and Dan Wiese will conduct the junior and senior high swing choirs and jazz band. Selections to be performed include "Another Op'n Another Show," "Side By Side," "Dreams to Dream," "Fascinating Rhythm," "Gershwin in Love," "Groovin' Hard," "Full Court Press" and "Moondance." Accompanying the groups will be Marian Mallatt and Karla Pipitt.

At retired teachers meeting

Former superintendent speaks on Project 2000

Dr. Francis Haun, retired Wayne Public Schools superintendent, presented a program on Project 2000 at the Nov. 5 meeting of the Wayne Area Retired Teachers and School Personnel Association. Haun told the group that Project 2000 is a comprehensive educational project with several goals set for the year 2000, including having all children start school ready to learn, increasing the high school graduation rate to at least 90 percent, and having all children leaving grades four, eight and 12 having completed challenging subject matters in English, math, history, science and geography. Other goals include seeing U.S. students be first in science and math, having every adult literate in a competing local economy, and ridding schools of drugs and violence.

Serving on the committee for the program were Marian Jordan and Fern Kelley.

THE GROUP'S November meeting was held at the Black Knight in Wayne.

Attending were 25 members and five guests, including Dr. Haun, Helen Bean and Margaret Schram, all of Wayne, and Mary Lou George and Ruth Grono of Winside. They all became new members.

President Vera Diediker presided at the meeting, and reports of the state convention were given.

The group's next meeting is scheduled Jan. 5 at 10 a.m. at the Wagon Wheel Steakhouse in Laurel. Serving on the program committee will be Joyce Asmussen and Shirley Benson.

November BPW program will focus on child abuse

The Wayne Business and Professional Women's Club (BPW) will meet for a 6:30 p.m. dinner on Tuesday, Nov. 17 at the Black Knight. A program and business meeting will follow at 7:30.

Margaret Jensen of Pierce will present the program, entitled "Child Abuse — What to Look For and What is Your Responsibility for Reporting?"

Guests are welcome to attend. THE WAYNE BPW met Oct. 20 at the Black Knight with four members and guest Sharon Thomas of Wayne State College. President Mary Tiegs called the meeting to order and led in the flag salute and club collect.

Thomas presented the program,

Rhonda Stapelman October bride of Chad Sebade in Randolph rites

An ivy entwined candelabra with a peach bow, along with peach and navy pew bows, decorated St. Frances de Chantel Catholic Church in Randolph on Oct. 17 for the marriage of Rhonda Stapelman and Chad Sebade.

The bride is the daughter of Ronald and Sharlene Stapelman of Belden and is a 1989 graduate of Randolph High School. She is a senior at Wayne State College, majoring in accounting/finance, and plans to graduate in August 1993. She is employed at Pamida Discount Center in Wayne.

The bridegroom, son of Ronald and Rhonda Sebade of Wayne, graduated from Wayne-Carroll High School in 1991 and is self-employed. He is studying building construction at Northeast Community College, Norfolk, and plans to graduate in May 1993.

The newlyweds traveled to Minneapolis/St. Paul, and are making their home at 313 Lincoln St., #5, Wayne, Neb., 68787.

FATHER Rodney Kneiff of Laurel officiated at the 2 o'clock, double ring ceremony.

Sara Eddie of McLean and Stephanie Brunsson of Belden registered the guests, who were ushered into the church by Jim Johnson of Bloomfield, Jason Stapelman of Laurel, Chad Loseke of Badger, Iowa, and Bill Smutzler of Sioux City.

Lighting candles were Jessica Sebade of Wayne and Dena Stapelman of Laurel.

Wedding music included "Author of Love," "Wind Beneath My Wings" and "Wedding Song." Vocalists were Heidi and Scott Bonsall of Carroll and Robin Sebade of Wayne, and organist was Bonnie Hansen of Carroll.

Maid of honor was Sheri Zeman of Manilla, Iowa, and bridesmaids were Angie Stapelman and Heather Stapelman, both of Belden, and Holly Sebade of Wayne. Junior bridesmaid was Mollie Stapelman of Laurel.

Shane Guill of Wayne served as best man. Groomsmen were Bowdie Otte of Wayne, Todd Sebade of Fremont and Chad Hank of Wayne, and junior groomsmen was Christopher Sebade of Wayne.

Flower girl was Sara Jueden of Wagonia, Minn., and ring bearer was Nicholas Sebade of Emerson.

ON HER wedding day, the bride was given in marriage by her father and appeared in a white satin gown decorated with pearls and sequins over Alencon lace appliques on the deep V neckline, fitted bodice and full skirt.

Delicate bows with cascading pearls decorated the bottom of the pouf of her leg-of-mutton sleeves, and matching Alencon lace motifs embroidered with pearls and sequins were repeated on the cathedral-length train.

Her veil was attached to a headpiece of double strand pearls and featured a ruffled cap of tulle which extended into a fingertip veil. Strands of lily of the valley and pearls extended down the length of the veil.

The bride carried a cascade of navy and white with touches of peach and strands of pearls.

THE BRIDE'S attendants wore off-the-shoulder navy teal-length dresses of brocade rayon, accented with white lace, and the junior bridesmaid wore a peach dress. Each carried a peach and white nosegay with navy accents.

The bridegroom was attired in a black tailcoat with a white vest and bow tie, and his attendants wore black tailcoats with navy ties and cummerbunds. The junior groomsmen wore a peach tie and cummerbund.

The bride's mother chose a purple two-piece jacket dress of rayon, and the bridegroom's mother selected a white rayon suit.

Mr. and Mrs. Chad Sebade

A RECEPTION for 350 guests followed in the Carroll auditorium, with Kelly and Ginny Hansen of Carroll, and Gary and Debbie Stapelman of Laurel serving as hosts. Arranging gifts were Tina, Tracy and Troy Graf of Belden.

The wedding cake was cut and served by Marveen Fredrickson of Carroll and Sharon Johnson of Winterset, Iowa. Pouring were Eileen Johnson of Bloomfield and Caroline Johnson of O'Neill, and serving punch were LuAnn Durant of South Sioux City and Amy Losecke of Badger, Iowa.

Waitresses and waiters were Tara Eckmann and Travis Eckmann, both of Bloomfield, Jill Johnson of Winterset, Iowa, Jeff Losecke of Badger, Iowa, and Scott Fredrickson of Carroll.

At Wayne High School National Honor Society inducts 13 new members

Thirteen students from Wayne-Carroll High School were inducted into membership of the National Honor Society during an evening ceremony held Oct. 25 at The Uptown restaurant in Norfolk.

Members were selected by a faculty council for meeting high standards of scholarship, service, leadership and character.

Students inducted were Elizabeth Claussen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Claussen; Scott Day, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Day; Kris DeNaeyer, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Richard DeNaeyer; Sara Granberg, daughter of the Rev. and Mrs. Gordon Granberg; Chris Hammer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ron Hammer; Kim Imdieke, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Imdieke; Tasha Luther, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gary Luther; Scott Otte, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Otte; Krista Remer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Remer; Jennifer Schmitz, daughter of Mrs. Janet Schmitz; Kristine Swanson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David Swanson; Samantha Thompson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Larry Thompson; and Emily Wiser, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Galen Wiser.

THE WAYNE High chapter of National Honor Society has been active since 1976, and membership since then totals 237.

Dr. Donald Zeiss, Wayne High School principal, and Brad Weber, Wayne High School band director, are the only two honorary members of the chapter. They were selected by vote of the members.

Lee Moller hosts November meeting of Klick and Klatter

Lee Moller was hostess for the Nov. 10 meeting of Klick and Klatter Home Extension Club. Sixteen members attended and answered roll call with their Thanksgiving plans.

President Moller led the flag salute and extension collect, and Stella Liska received the hostess gift. Marian Jordan led group singing of "God Bless America."

For citizenship, Stella Liska read "Correct Way to Salute the Flag," and for safety, Emelia Larsen read "The Corn Picking Stress for Families." Marvel Corbit, health leader, reported on the importance of humidity in the home.

Lorene Gildersleeve reported for family well-being and encouraged members to spend the Thanksgiving holiday with their families. She also talked about the name change of Home Extension to National Association of Family, Community and Education.

RUTH FLEER reported sending a sympathy card and memorial to Orvella Blomenkamp on behalf of the club.

Viola Meyer announced several upcoming events, including "A Christmas Carol" at Wayne State College on Nov. 18, the Wayne State College Planetarium schedule, and the soup and pie social held at Wayne Care Centre on Nov. 10.

Dorothy Aurich, thrust chairman, announced that the club had earned recognition in the waste management program. She also reviewed Achievement Day which was held Nov. 9.

The club is planning to participate in the Fantasy Forest display in December, and will purchase a Christmas gift for a resident of Wayne Care Centre.

The club is planning a noon luncheon and gift exchange on Dec. 8 in the home of Joyce Niemann.

Students are chosen for All-State Band, Chorus

Four students from Wayne-Carroll High School have been chosen to participate in the Nebraska All-State Band, with another four selected for the Nebraska All-State Chorus.

Eric Fahrlander, chairman of Band Affairs for the Nebraska Music Educators Association (NMEA), said Nebraska All-State Band selections from Wayne High include Megan McLean (11th grade), flute; Jill O'Leary (11th grade), clarinet; Terri Test (11th grade) clarinet; and Lizz Claussen (12th grade) trumpet, first part.

Each year, over 2,000 of the best high school musicians in the state audition for the Nebraska All-State Band, Chorus, Jazz Band and Orchestra, sponsored by the Nebraska Music Educators Association.

Fahrlander said selection as a member of one of the groups is one of the highest musical honors attainable in Nebraska.

CHOSEN to participate in the Nebraska All-State Chorus from Wayne High were Dan Burget (12th grade), bass; Kathy Guillian (11th grade), alto; Kim Imdieke (12th grade), alto; and Krista Remer (12th grade), soprano.

Cheri Helmer, chairman of Choral Affairs for the NMEA, said the Nebraska All-State Chorus is composed of the 450 top singers in the state.

THE BAND and choir will rehearse Nov. 19, 20 and 21 at East High School in Lincoln, the host site of the 1992 NMEA Convention/Clinic.

A final concert will be held for all performing groups on Saturday, Nov. 21 at 6 p.m. in Pershing Municipal Auditorium. The public is invited to attend.

Weather related Farmers can alleviate stress

Recent snow and wet weather can contribute to stress as farmers try to finish their fall harvest. An individual can't control the weather, but can control the ability to deal with stress in productive, not destructive ways, said David Morgan, safety engineer at the University of Nebraska-Lincoln.

Stress-related conditions have the highest rates of death among farmers and laborers, according to a study by the National Institute for Occupational Safety and Health. Heart and coronary artery disease, hypertension, ulcers and nervous disorders top the list of killers, Morgan said.

The Institute of Agriculture and Natural Resources specialist said droughts, floods, pests, long hours, money problems, and other complications can lead to feelings of frustration for farmers and their families.

These tips from the National Safety Council should reduce stress and improve mental and physical conditions:

--Acknowledge that stress exists in your life for the first line of defense.

--Don't minimize your reactions to stress. To keep stress buried inside is likely to compound any existing mental and physical problems.

--Talk out your problems with family, friends, clergy, or seek professional counseling. This will help clear your head and focus on eliminating or reducing anxiety and stress-related ailments.

--Eat a well-balanced diet and try to limit the amount of caffeine and alcohol intake. If you smoke, try to quit.

--Get enough sleep. If you have trouble sleeping, try a little light reading or listen to relaxing music.

--Keep all machinery in good condition. Eliminating possible breakdowns will help reduce stressful "bad days."

REPRESENTATIVES of the Wayne-Carroll High School marching band are pictured with the superior trophy and special recognition plaque the band received at the 35th annual Nebraska Marching Band Festival.

Band ranks superior

The Wayne-High School Blue Devil Marching Band received the only superior rating given out in Class B during the 35th annual Nebraska Marching Band Festival held Nov. 7 at Pershing Auditorium in Lincoln.

The 92-member band, under the direction of Brad Weber, also received special recognition by the Pershing Marching Band Committee and was presented a plaque for their 30 years of participating in the marching competition.

The Nebraska Marching Band Festival is the nation's oldest indoor marching band contest.

However, due to budget constraints and the desire to provide a top quality event for students and schools, the festival committee recently announced that the 1992 event was the final year for the Nebraska Marching Band Festival.

Capture the final three

USD downs Wildcats

Nancy Clark's Wayne State women's volleyball team literally blew a chance to improve to 22-20 on the season, Tuesday night in Rice Auditorium against South Dakota.

WSC breezed to a 15-9, 15-8 advantage and appeared to have the match in total control, but USD took advantage of some Wildcat mistakes and regained some momentum and went on to defeat the 'Cats in five games, taking the final three with scores of 15-9, 15-13, 15-13.

WSC played all 14 players that suited up within the first three games of the match. Tracy Atkins led WSC with 10 ace spikes while Lisa Skradski and Lora Grant finished with nine each.

Jenna Belz, Jennifer Hammer and Cassie Vescio each managed seven kill spikes and Laura Pfister finished with six while Betty Boldt had four. Shannon Dunning led the 'Cats in setting with 36 assists while Jaime Melton had 18.

WSC managed five serve aces during the match with Skradski, Tanya Rotherham, Boldt, Vescio and Annette Fluckey notching one each. Skradski and Dunning led WSC's defense with 10 digs each while Cori Weinfurter had nine.

Rotherham and Grant each had seven digs while Hammer and Belz each managed six. Fluckey, Pfister and Vescio had five digs each while Melton and Lisa Kresha had four apiece.

Vescio was the leading blocker with 10 while Belz, Atkins and Dunning had eight each. Melton had five blocks, Skradski and Boldt had four Fluckey and Pfister had four each.

The Wildcats will close out the home portion of their 1992 schedule by hosting Morningside on Tuesday. The final game of the year is at Nebraska-Kearney on Nov. 20.

The Wayne State football team complete the 1992 campaign on the road at Iowa Wesleyan in Mount Pleasant, Iowa, on Saturday in a 1:30 p.m. kickoff.

WSC was defeated by the Tigers, 56-32 last season in the same place. Iowa Wesleyan lost a heart-breaker at the Unidome to Dakota Wesleyan last Saturday, 31-29 on a field goal with just seven seconds left in regulation.

Quarterback Ronnie Ashton threw for 404 yards and a pair of TD's despite the loss. Chris Oepping caught five passes for 146 yards while Nathan Tutor added four receptions for 99 yards.

The Wildcats, meanwhile, outgained Peru State, 376-170 but settled for a 17-17 tie. A dozen penalties, five turnovers, and shoddy special teams play hampered the WSC attack.

In last year's meeting between WSC and Iowa Wesleyan, the Tigers quarterback scorched the Wildcats secondary for 507 yards and seven TD's. Iowa Wesleyan comes into Saturday's contest with a 2-8 record but WSC coach Dennis Wagner feels that's a little misleading.

"Iowa Wesleyan will be one of your better 2-8 teams," Wagner said. "They've had a very tough schedule and have lost a lot of close games in the final minutes."

Wagner said if you look at Iowa Wesleyan's stats they have put up some big numbers against everyone, but have come out on the short end of the scores.

"They are a hard-luck bunch," Wagner said. "I think they are a lot better than 2-8. They could easily be 5-3. This game concerns us very much as a coaching staff because we need a winning season for recruiting purposes, and to build a positive attitude for the following season. We need to build some tradition at WSC."

WSC has six individuals ranked nationally among this week's NCAA-II statistical leaders: Damon Thomas ranks fifth with 7.1 receptions per game and he ranks 25th in yards receiving per game at 82.2.

Troy Mott ranks 14th in total offense at 244.4 yards per game and Sean Francisco ranks 12th in punt returns at 13.0. Rick Starling is eighth in kickoff returns at 28.6 per return and Wilson Hookfin is tied for 23rd in interceptions with 0.6 per game.

Andy Parr is tied for 15th with eight field goals. WSC ranks 17th in total offense with 413.7 yards per game and they rank 19th in passing offense with 246 yards per game through the air. The 'Cats 29th in scoring offense with 28 ppg while defensively, they rank ninth against the rush (82.6 ypg), and 26th in total defense, (277.8 ypg).

Mott currently owns WSC records for single-game completions at 35, season completions with 233, career completions with 419 and counting, and season completion percentage, .574. He also ranks first in offense average yards per game at 282.2.

He is currently on pace to break Steve Gunther's career completion percentage at .465. Damon Thomas needs 12 catches to break Marlon Goolsby's record of 75 catches in a season. Thomas is also just 109 yards shy of breaking Lee Harper's single-season yardage total of 848.

Andy Parr needs three extra points to break the season-record of 30 held by Dan Ernst and Herve Roussel. Parr has made 22 straight PAT's, 14 shy of Dan Ernst's consecutive PAT record.

Sean Francisco needs just 15 yards in punt returns to break Matt Hoffman's season-record of 287. As a team the 'Cats need 198 yards to break the 1984 record of 3920 yards in total offense.

This year's squad's 413.7 yards per game average is well-above last year's 375.4 record. WSC also needs 51 points to break the 1984 record of 302 points in a single-season.

Jerry Kleidosty

Damon Thomas

Following last week's performance against Peru State, receiver Damon Thomas and linebacker Jerry Kleidosty were named Nebraska NCAA-II offensive and defensive players of the week.

Thomas caught nine passes for 116 yards while Kleidosty keyed a stingy Wildcat defense with a dozen tackles, including two sacks, a tackle for a loss and a forced fumble.

Slam, dunk act will perform at Rice Auditorium

The Bud Light Daredevils—the most unique slam dunk act in the country, will perform at Rice Auditorium on Saturday, Nov. 21, during halftime of the Wayne State/St. Francis basketball game. Tip off time is 7:30 p.m.

The Bud Light Daredevils pack high-velocity trampoline dunks, breath-taking flips, amazing acrobatics and comedy antics into their exhilarating eight-minute halftime show.

Dick Vitale of ABC Sports call the troupe "Tremendous ... Spectacular ... A real group of P.T.P.'s (Prime Time Performers)." This year's act will consist of several new slam-dunks, along with all-time crowd favorites in their brand new routine.

Entering their 12th season, the Bud Light Daredevils have made more than 950 appearances, entertaining audiences at over 250 colleges and collegiate tournaments across the United States, nearly every NBA team, 15 Continental Basketball Association teams and traveling to 15 countries world wide.

Due to popular demand, there are two teams touring the nation full-time this year. During the 1992-93 season, the Bud Light Daredevils will perform at approximately 150 national and international events for more than one million fans.

Video highlights of their act have been seen on "NBC Nightly News," CNN, late night shows with Johnny Carson and David Letterman, "Good Morning America" and George Michael's "Sports Machine." They have also been featured in their own half-hour special on ESPN.

The Bud Light Daredevils include returning members Keith Cousino, Adam Hardy, Scott Wonenberg, Guy Cobb and Dave Mansky. The team's act consists of an eight-minute slam dunk and acrobatic halftime show, highlighted by several daring feats of agility, including all-time crowd favorites—"Twist and Shout."

In this act, two team members approach the mini-trampolines simultaneously. They each pass a basketball off the backboard and catch them while doing from somersaults with one-half twists. The duo then passes to two other team members for a climatic double slam dunk.

Additional dunk acts include "Dial 9-1-1" and "Shake Down the Rafters 'till the Morning-After."

The Daredevils were formed in 1980 when the athletes combined their precision gymnastic and ball-handling skills while cheerleading at the University of Mississippi.

High School to hold Awards Night

WAYNE—The annual fall Awards Night for Wayne High athletics will be held on Monday the 16th at 8 p.m. at the gym. All athletes who participated in any fall sport is urged to attend along with their parents.

Sports Briefs

WSC receiver earns award

WAYNE-Wayne State College senior Tom Kleespies recently had a research paper accepted by the Nebraska Economics and Business Association.

Kleespies presented his paper, entitled "Decision Support Systems: An Economic and Marketing Advantage," at the NEBA annual meetings in Hastings on Thursday.

His article focused on the benefits of decision support systems and how these affect Nebraska decision makers. Others papers being presented include such subjects as anti-trust, interstate banking, and welfare reform.

The purposes of the NEBA proceedings are to provide a forum for creative and scholarly work on economic and business problems relevant to state and regional economies. Presenters earn a $100 award, and are selected from undergraduate and graduate students in Nebraska's colleges and universities.

"Tom's written a very fine article about decision support systems," Wayne State College Associate Business Professor Kenn Hallgren said. "He breaks several barriers competing against much larger institutions, and graduate as well as undergraduate students.

"He showed tremendous initiative in the project, which he started last summer with me. He stayed in touch, developed his ideas and did a great job with the paper," Hallgren added.

Kleespies, a business management/data processing major, boasts a 3.7 grade point average. He is also a two-time College Football Preview Academic All-American, and has started every game for the 1992 Wildcats football team. He is a Rolfe, Iowa native.

WSC women's hoop squad in good shape

WAYNE-The Wayne State College women's basketball team had a number of players earning all-time conditioning awards in their preseason conditioning.

The Wildcats program consisted of aerobics, strength training, and running. The squad was divided into perimeter and post players for evaluation purposes.

Junior Lisa Chamberlin of Norfolk and sophomore Brenda Te Grotenhuis of Orange City, Iowa, dominated the vertical leap, agility and speed tests.

Chamberlin set all-time WSC records in the vertical jump (25") and agility (11.51 seconds) events, and was runner-up to Te Grotenhuis in the speed contest (20.93 seconds).

Te Grotenhuis set an all-time mark in the speed event (21.79 seconds), and was second in the vertical jump (24") and agility contests, (11.94 seconds).

Junior power forward Jodi Otjen of Battle Creek, set an all-time mark in the bench press at 130 pounds. Sophomore Kristi Twait of Emmetsburg, Iowa, set a record for perimeter players with a 115-pound bench press.

Senior guard Mary Schnitzler of Battle Creek, won the mile in a record time of 6:31. Freshman Robyn Wiese of Odebolt, Iowa, had the best time in the mile for post players at 7:45.

The 'Cats first game will be Nov. 20 against the NCAA-II National Runner-up team at North Dakota State. The first home contest will be Dec. 8 against Concordia.

WSC's David Allen earns honors

WAYNE-Wayne State College senior David Allen—"The Chairman of the Boards", has been featured in a number of preseason basketball publications.

Allen earned honorable mention all-America honors in the NCAA-II Bulletin, which lists the senior center as one of the top 43 players in all NCAA-II. The NCAA Basketball Preview lists Allen as one of five players to watch in the North Central Region.

Allen, a 6-6, 300-pound center from Omaha, led the NCAA Division II in rebounding last season with a 12.9 boards per game average. He set the WSC single-season rebound record with 362, and led the coach Mike Brewen's Wildcats in scoring at 14.0 points per game.

He led WSC in assists at 3.3 per game and steals with 48. He notched 17 blocks and recorded 877 playing minutes—also team tops.

Allen grabbed a career-high 24 rebounds in a 77-69 win against Quincy and scored a season-high 22 points against highly touted South Dakota. Allen scored in double-figures in 24 of 28 games last season and reached double-figures in rebounding in 22 contests in his first season since transferring from NCAA Division I Texas-Arlington.

Allen will begin defense of his rebounding crown at home on Nov. 21 at 7:30 p.m. against St. Francis of Joliet, Ill.

Tickets for hoop games on sale

WAYNE-Wayne State College Athletic Director Pete Chapman announced tickets for the November 21 men's basketball home-opener will go on sale on Monday at noon at the athletic office.

The Wayne State Wildcats open the season against the College of St. Francis, based in Joliet, Ill. Tipoff is set for 7:30 p.m. at WSC's Rice Auditorium.

The Bud Light Daredevils—the most unique slam dunk act in the country, are the featured halftime performers.

The Bud Light Daredevils are entering their 12th season having made more than 950 appearances. The team's act consists of an eight-minute slam dunk and acrobatic halftime show. Their appearance is sponsored by Norfolk Beverage Company.

The Wildcats return four starters and seven letterwinners from last season's 11-17 squad, including the nation's leading rebounder in David Allen. St. Francis returns three starters from last year's 20-10 squad.

All tickets are five dollars for this special event, and are available at the WSC athletic department in the Rec Center, or by calling 375-7520.

WSC men and women

Basketball teams begin season

The Wayne State women's and men's basketball teams will officially begin the season on Friday and Saturday, Nov. 21-22.

Mike Barry's women will be looking to improve on the fourth best season in school history after a 17-10 season a year ago. The return of nine letterwinners, including four starters, has the fourth-year coach expecting "even better things" in 1992-93.

WSC competes as independent members of the NCAA Division II, and battles such foes as North Dakota State, South Dakota, Augustana, Nebraska-Kearney and Fort Hays State this season.

At the guard spot this year for the women, three-year letterwinner Mary Schnitzler (Sr., 5-8, Battle Creek, 12.8 ppg) returns to lead the WSC outside threat.

The Battle Creek senior needs one three-point field goal to break the Wayne State career record of 129 set by Michelle Blomberg. Sophomore Kristi Twait (5-9, Emmetsburg, IA, 3.4 ppg) adds depth at the shooting guard position.

Sophomore Lynn Nohr (5-4, Crofton, 2.8 ppg) and freshman Marla Stewart (5-4, Blair) will battle for the starting point guard spot.

Lisa Chamberlin (Jr., 6-0, Norfolk, 13.8 ppg, 4.8 rpg, 30 blocks) led the Wildcats in scoring last season from her forward spot. Junior Linda Heller (5-10, Milford, IA, 6.2 ppg, 3.0 rpg) and sophomore Brenda Te Grotenhuis (5-8, Orange City, IA, 3.1 ppg, 1.5 rpg) will also see action.

Senior Tawnya Bakke (6-0, Sheridan, WY, 2.8 ppg, 2.7 rpg), sophomore Ann Kramer (5-11, Pierce) and freshman Robyn Wiese (5-11, Merced, CA) will battle for the starting power forward spot.

Juniors Jodi Otjen (6-0, Battle Creek, 9.4 ppg, 6.5 rpg, 34 blocks) and Cheri VanAuker (6-0, Norfolk, 5.4 ppg, 6.6 rpg) give the 'Cats strength in the post position.

VanAuker has started 48 games at center over the past two seasons, while Otjen adjust to the post after starting her career as a power forward.

The women open the season on Friday the 20th at North Dakota State—the nation's runner-up team at the national tournament last season. The first home game is slated for Dec. 8 against Concordia.

Turning to the men's squad, David Allen, the nation's leading rebounder in 1991-92, and seven returning letterwinners have third-year coach Mike Brewen seeking loftier goals for the coming season.

Allen set a WSC record with 362 rebounds (12.9 rpg) for the 11-17 Wildcats last season. He also led the team in scoring (14.0 ppg), assists (91), steals (48), and blocks (17) in his first season since transferring from Texas-Arlington.

The Wildcats open the season at home on Nov. 21 against the College of St. Francis out of Joliet, Ill. At the guard position this year the 'Cats have a wealth of talent with starters Billy Patterson (So., 6-1, Chicago, Ill.) and Davy Summers (Jr., 5-11, Oakland) returning.

Patterson averaged 10.8 points and 2.5 rebounds in his freshman season while Summers led the 'Cats in free throw percentage at 94.6.

Sophomore Omar Clark (6-1, Joliet, Ill.) appeared in 26 games last season averaging 3.4 points, while senior Keith Whitfield (6-0, Rosebud, TX) averaged 3.6 points and 2.1 rebounds in 14 starts.

Freshman Kyle White (5-9, Chicago, Ill.) will battle Summers and Clark for the starting point guard position. Freshman Wally Johnson (6-1, Elgin) and junior-college transfer Paul Stella (6-3, Omaha/Carl Sandberg J.C.) add depth to the guard spot.

Michael Parks (So., 6-4, Omaha) returns after sitting out last year with a knee injury. Parks led WSC in scoring (13.7 ppg) as a freshman, and will move to the small forward spot this season.

Senior Keith Whitfield will also see time at the 3-spot after becoming eligible in January. Freshman Steve Skradsky (6-3, Omaha) will also vie for playing time.

Freshman Dan Anderson (6-4, Chicago, Ill.) and junior Jason Bangs (6-5, Glenwood, IA) will battle for time at the power forward spot. Bangs appeared in 13 games for WSC last season at the center position.

The 'Cats are anchored in the post by NCAA-II rebound leader David Allen (6-6, 300, Omaha). Allen led WSC in virtually every offensive category in his first season with the 'Cats.

Freshman Greg Ryan (6-7, Omaha) and Terry Mailloux (6-8, Glenwood, Ill.) will also see plenty of action.

Lots of entertainment at the Black & Gold Tip Off Classic

The Third Annual Black & Gold Tip-Off Classic will take place on Saturday in Rice Auditorium at 7:30 p.m.

The Wayne State men's basketball team will perform in an intrasquad scrimmage which will highlight a night of activities which is being sponsored by the Wayne State S.P.O.R.T.S. Club.

The only admission charge to the game will be a donation of a canned food item which will benefit the Wayne Food Pantry as a Thanksgiving gesture from the Club.

Doors will open at 7 p.m. with the Wildcats taking the court a half hour later. Besides the game, the night will also be filled with entertainment from the WSC dance squad, the Aristocats, which will perform prior to the game during warm-ups and also during the half-time.

The WSC cheerleaders will also be performing throughout the evening. There will be a drawing for a half-court shootout during halftime with prizes going to the participants and also additional prizes if any are successful from the mid-court line.

Wildcats head coach Mike Brewen said, "It's the final dress rehearsal of the preseason and the players have fun because they actually get to play," Brewen said.

Brewen also said even though the players scrimmage in practice, it gets them "thinking about the opening of the season and a feel for the crowd."

The game will be officiated as if the Wildcats are playing a regular season contest. There will be an introduction of the 1992-93 Wildcats along with the coaches prior to the game.

S.P.O.R.T.S. Club president, Marty Millard said, "we hope a lot of people, not only students but also the rest of the community, show up and support both the Wildcats and the food pantry."

The Club is a new organization formed this fall at WSC which includes members of the Sport Management field. Sport Management is a major in which students are looking for careers in a wide variety of aspects in the sports industry.

Ministerium sponsoring program

WAKEFIELD - The Wakefield Ministerium will sponsor a 90-minute program, entitled "Now You're Talking," on Sunday, Nov. 15 at 7 p.m. in the Wakefield Senior Center.

The program, which was created by Aid Association for Lutherans, focuses on communication between parents and children regarding such subjects as drugs and alcohol.

All parents and their children (grades four through nine) are encouraged to attend the free program as a family.

Video series continues

WAYNE - The third in a series of videos, entitled "Parenting: An Attitude of the Heart," will be shown on Sunday, Nov. 15 at 7 p.m. at Grace Lutheran Church in Wayne.

The series is based on ideas from Dr. Ross Campbell's book, "How to Really Love Your Child," and is intended for parents of preschool through pre-adolescent age children.

The series will continue on Nov. 22 and 29 at 7 p.m. Each session lasts approximately one hour, and child care is provided.

LADIES AID AND LWML

St. John's Lutheran Ladies Aid and LWML of Wakefield met last Friday afternoon with 20 members present, and Marilyn Spah was a guest. Viola Baker and Lucille Bartels were hostesses.

Devotions opened the meeting with the reading of Psalm 20 by Edna Hansen. Imogene Samuelson gave the History of Thanksgiving Day, and read a poem entitled "With Each Thanksgiving Dinner", followed with a Thanksgiving prayer.

The hymn entitled "Come, Ye Thankful People, Come" was sung by the group accompanied by Imogene Samuelson. Pastor Bruce Schut led the topic study entitled "What's In the Wrapper?" from the LWML Quarterly.

Harriet Stolle, president, called the meeting to order. The minutes of the last meeting were read and approved and the treasurer's report was filed for audit. Committee reports were given. The card committee reported receiving Christmas cards and napkins to be for sale.

The sick call committee sent get well cards to Connie Witt, DeLoey Benne, and Don Puls, and sympathy cards to Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Meyer and family and Mr. and Mrs. Mike Meyer and family. They visited Don Puls, Irene Walter and Clara Mahoney.

Lutheran World Relief sewing met Oct. 16 with six member present. They tied five quilts and hemmed four. A total of seventy-six quilts are completed and will be sent to LWR, along with 80 pounds of clothing. This is to be taken to Norfolk or South Sioux City by Nov. 13.

A letter was read from the Wakefield Care Center asking the Aid to participate in the resident Christmas party Dec. 16, and the Aid will provide gifts for two residents.

Thirteen members attended the fall LWML zone rally held at St. Paul's Lutheran Church Oct. 13. Edna Hansen gave a report on the rally.

DOG CREEK

Dog Creek 4-H Club met Oct. 30 in the Carroll auditorium and presented Achievement Awards to Jeremiah and Jesse Rethwisch, Ryan Dunklau and John Magnuson for over three years of membership in the club.

Vice President Jeremiah Rethwisch opened the meeting with the pledges.

New members were recognized and include Greg Kathol, Ethan and Erin Mann, Tamara Schardt, Rachael Rubendall, Becky Fletcher, James Felt and Alissa Dunklau.

Roll call was answered by members telling who they would vote for as president.

Newly elected officers are Hailey Daehnke, president; Jeanne Allemann, vice president; Leah Dunklau, secretary; Emily Lutt, treasurer; Jenny Edwards, news reporter; and Brandon Williams, flag keeper.

Pender church celebrates 100th

The Pender Evangelical Covenant Church, along with former members and guests from the community and neighboring Covenant Churches, celebrated its 100th birthday on Oct. 31 and Nov. 1.

The weekend's theme was "Great is Thy Faithfulness."

Activities began Saturday night with a catered banquet in the Pender fire hall with 82 attending. A program followed with Gale Lander, who grew up in the church, serving as emcee, and special music by the church choir and Rob and Barb Stewart, former members now residing in St. Paul, Neb.

The TLC (Teens Living for Christ) group also sang, accompanied by Carol Baker, and presented a short drama under the direction of the Rev. Philip Rohler. Deb Bonnell sang a solo for the benediction to the program.

The Rev. Lowell Nordling, who pastored the church in the early 1960's, and his wife Trudy, attended from Madison, Wisc. and shared memories of their time in Pender.

Greetings were extended by the Rev. Wes Olson, superintendent of the Midwest Covenant Conference.

CENTENNIAL activities continued during the Sunday morning worship service with 137 attending.

Pastor Philip Rohler led the service, Gerry Kent was organist, and Carol Baker was pianist. Special music was provided by the choir and soloist Deb Bonnell.

The Rev. Wes Olson presented church chairman Wayne Meyer with a plaque commemorating the centennial, and assisted Pastor Rohler in serving The Lord's Supper.

Brian Weborg read the scripture lessons, and the Rev. John Weborg, professor of theology at North Park Theological Seminary in Chicago, preached the sermon, entitled "Others Worked: We Enter Into Their Work." Dr. Weborg grew up in the church.

A noon meal followed at the Pender fire hall.

A SUNDAY afternoon centennial worship service was attended by 174 and was led by Pastor Rohler, with Gerry Kent as organist and Carol Baker as pianist.

Special music was provided by the choir, TLC and Deb Bonnell, and greetings were presented by John Weborg, Wayne Meyer and Wes Olson.

A plaque commemorating the centennial was given to Wayne Meyer by the Rev. Tim Ek, vice president of the Covenant Denomination.

Brian Weborg read the scripture lessons, and Tim Ek preached the sermon, entitled "Extending the Vision."

Centennial activities concluded with refreshments in the fellowship hall, provided by Covenant Women.

PREPARATIONS for the centennial began in late 1990 and were carried out by the church's centennial committee, including Wayne and Bernice Meyer, co-chairmen, Ann Anderson, Gale Lander, Pastor Rohler, and Curtis and Janice Weborg.

Centennial memorabilia included a 44-page history book, plate, bell and cup.

The Principal's Office

By Donald V. Zeiss

As a parent you can -
•Encourage your children to ask questions about the world around them.

•When reading to or with young children, ask them to imagine what will happen next in the story.

•Actively listen to your children's conversation, responding seriously and non-judgmentally to the questions they raise.

•When your children express feelings, ask why they feel that way.

•Suggest that your children find facts to support their opinions, and they encourage them to locate information relevant to their opinions.

•Use entertainment - a T.V. program or a movie - as the basis of family discussions.

•Use daily activities as occasions for learning. For example, instead of sending a child to the store with a simple list of items to purchase, talk with the child first about how much each item might add up to, and estimate how much change they should receive.

•Reward your children for inquisitive and/or creative activity that is productive.

•Ask your children what questions their teachers are raising in class. For example, a history class might be "asking" how American westward expansion began.

Remember, if our children are active participants in a home where there is talk about the why and the how of things, they are more likely to be active thinkers both in and out of school.

HAPPY HOMEMAKER

The Wakefield Happy Homemaker extension club met Nov. 2 with Evelyn Kahl. "We Prepare for Tomorrow" was read in unison. Seven members answered roll call.

"What Could You Do to Help Reach Your Potential?" Wellness and you pamphlets were handed out. A thank you was read from the Dixon County Extension Council. They thanked Janice Newton and Pauline Fischer for their help and assistance at the Dixon County Fair for registering people who desired to go through the Health Van.

Thrust leader, Sondra Mattes, gave a report on recycling. She had attended a meeting on recycling. She told about ways to get started in recycling, in which Wakefield is interested, but more details have to be worked out.

Evelyn Kahl reported it was not feasible to make bids for the Wakefield Health Care Center. They had discussed this project to do as volunteer work for the center.

Sondra Mattes picked up the secretary and year books when she attended the council meeting at the Northeast Station. They were asked if they had any suggestions for the "Spring Event Tea"?

They discussed being a member of the Arberatrium as a group membership. They held a mock voting for the United States President. They will obtain a name from the Wakefield Health Care Center to buy a gift for their Christmas party. Pauline Fischer volunteered to take care of the gift.

The Christmas Party meeting will be Friday, Dec. 11 at 1:30 p.m. with Sondra Mattes as hostess. They will reveal their Secret Sisters with a Christmas gift. Those who want will have a cookie exchange.

FIRE SAFETY COURSE

Wakefield Volunteer Firefighters completed an extensive fire safety education program with fourth grade students. The Junior Fire Patrol youth were rated for their participation in five sessions and on this rating were recognized with officers titles.

FOLLOW YOUR COMPASS
Amazed that some things that used to be "good" aren't the same these days. Like 5¢ candy bars and reasonable rent?
Real goodness is inflation-proof. It never changes: like mother love it can't be counterfeited.
Get a real bargain—some real goodness for yourself—this Sunday at church. And this goodness doesn't melt in your pocket.
"Ever follow that which is good, both among yourselves, and to all men." 1 Thessalonians 5:15
Malachi 4:1-6 2 Thessalonians 3:6-13 Luke 21:5-19 Psalm 82

COUNTY OF WAYNE)

I, the undersigned, County Clerk for the County of Wayne Nebraska, hereby certify that all of the subjects included in the attached proceedings were contained in the agenda for the meeting of November 2, 1992, kept continually current and available for the public inspection at the office of the County Clerk; that such subjects were contained in said agenda for at least twenty-four hours prior to said meeting; that the said minutes of the meeting of the County Commissioners of the County of Wayne were in written form and available for public inspection within ten working days and prior to the next convened meeting of said body.

In Witness Whereof I have hereunto set my hand this 6th day of November, 1992.

Debra Finn, Wayne County Clerk (Publ. Nov. 13)

ORDINANCE NO. 371

AN ORDINANCE AMENDING CHAPTER 3, ARTICLE 1, SECTION 3-103 OF THE VILLAGE CODE TO PROVIDE A LANDLORD GUARANTEE FOR ALL APPLICANTS FOR UTILITY SERVICE TO RENTAL PROPERTY OR MOBILE HOMES AS AN ADDITIONAL SERVICE DEPOSIT AND TO REPEAL ALL PRIOR ORDINANCES IN CONFLICT THEREWITH.

BE IT OBTAINED BY THE CHAIRMAN AND BOARD OF TRUSTEES OF THE VILLAGE OF WINSIDE, WAYNE COUNTY, NEBRASKA:

Section 1. Chapter 3, Article 1, Section 3-103 shall be amended to read as follows:

Section 3-103. MUNICIPAL WATER DEPARTMENT-CONSUMER'S APPLICATION-SERVICE DEPOSIT. Every person or persons desiring a supply of water must make application therefor to the Municipal Clerk. The Clerk shall collect any tap fees required by this Article and shall then forward the application to the Utilities Superintendent. The water may not be supplied to any house or private service pipe, except upon order of the Superintendent.

The Clerk shall, also, require any applicant requesting any utility service provided by the Municipality, including but not limited to, water, sewer, electricity and garbage collection, to make a service deposit in the total amount of $150.00. Said deposit shall be applied toward any utility fees not subsequently paid by the applicant. For each applicant, other than those applicants for utility services to rental properties or mobile homes, the Clerk shall return the $150.00 service deposit, after one year continuous utility service, provided, however, that said applicant has promptly paid for all utility services at all times during such one (1) year period. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Municipality reserves the right to retain the service deposit provided herein for any applicant for a period longer than one year, when the Municipal Board, in its discretion, deems it necessary to the effective and proper administration of the utility services.

In addition to the aforementioned service deposit, for all applicants for utility services to rental properties or mobile homes, the owner of the rental properties or mobile homes shall be required to execute and deliver to the Village Clerk a guarantee of payment for the applicant's utility services on the forms provided by the Village prior to the furnishing of the utility services for said applicant.

A service deposit shall not be required for the temporary connection of utility services to rental properties requested by a landlord after termination thereof by his/her tenant for the purpose of cleaning or showing the property. Nevertheless, said landlord shall promptly pay for all utility services used.

If, in the event of making his/her application for utility services, the applicant forwards to the Municipal Clerk a written letter of credit or recommendation from his/her prior utility supplier, indicating that said applicant is a good credit risk and has paid all of his/her utility services when due, the Clerk shall only require said applicant to make a service deposit in the amount of $100.00, instead of the $150.00 service deposit aforementioned.

The service deposit shall be returned to the applicant upon termination of the utility services provided by the Municipality, provided, however, that all fees for said utility services has been paid in full.

Section 2. That any other Ordinance or Resolution passed or approved prior to the passage, approval, and publication or posting of this Ordinance is hereby repealed.

Section 3. This Ordinance shall take effect and be in full force and effective from and after its passage, approval, and publication, posting or publication by pamphlet form as prescribed by law.

PASSED AND APPROVED THIS 2nd day of November, 1992.

At that time, the bids will be publicly opened and read for GRADING, ONE BRIDGE, GUARD-RAIL and incidental work on the WINSIDE SOUTH-EAST Federal Aid Project No. BRO-7090(5) in Wayne County, Nebraska.

This project is located on a county road approximately 1 mile east and 1/2 mile south of Winside crossing South Logan Creek.

The length of the proposed work is 0.2 mile.

PROPOSAL FORMS FOR THIS WORK WILL BE ISSUED ONLY TO CONTRACTORS WHO ARE QUALIFIED FOR BRIDGES.

The price range of this project is between $100,000 and $500,000 with 50 working days beginning May 3, 1993.

Plans and specifications may be seen at the Lincoln Central Office beginning November 17, 1992, or at the Norfolk-District Engineer's Office beginning November 23, 1992.

Prequalification for bidding is required by Nebraska Revised Statute 39-1351-R.R.S. 1943.

A Department of Roads' Bid Bond form for 5% of the bid must be submitted with the proposal.

The successful bidder must furnish bond for 100% of the contract.

Minority-owned businesses will not be discriminated against.

Contractors must meet the provisions of the Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938 (52 Stat. 1060) as amended.

The Secretary of Labor has determined minimum wage rates for this project.

This contract is subject to the Working Hours Act of 1962, P.L. 87-581 and implementing regulations.

This project is subject to the provisions of the utilization of Minority Business Enterprises.

THE RIGHT IS RESERVED TO WAIVE ALL TECHNICALITIES AND REJECT ANY OR ALL BIDS.

NEBRASKA DEPARTMENT OF ROADS AVAILABILITY OF HIGHWAY PROJECT PLANS

Preliminary plans covering the improvement of a segment of Nebraska Highway 35 and all of State Spur S90A (Hoskins Spur) in Wayne County, Nebraska are available for public inspection.

The project, designed as STP-35-4(110), begins on N-35 at the junction of State Spur S90A and extends east and north for about 10 3/4 miles to the junction of State Spur S90B (Winside Spur). Work proposed on most of N-35 included grading of the roadway and highway shoulders and foreslopes; replacement or extension of drainage structures; bridge widening or replacement; new roadway surfacing and surfaced highway shoulders. For the first quarter mile on N-35 and on the entire Hoskins spur, grinding and removal of a portion of the existing roadway surfacing is planned with new surfacing then being placed. Construction on N-35 will require a detour for through traffic. Additional right of way and access control will be acquired for the N-35 improvement.

Preliminary plans may be inspected by any interested person at the Nebraska Department of Roads District Office located at 408 North 13th Street, Norfolk, Nebraska, telephone 370-3470.
