on new Care Centre

CONSTRUCTION work is scheduled to begin immediately with an outside chance that the new 104-bed facility will be ready for occupancy before the end of this year.

Plans call the 47,000 square foot facility to be built on one level near the Wayne water tower on 14th Street. By comparison, the existing Care Centre is 29,000 square feet on three levels. It is licensed for 94 beds.

Besides larger individual rooms, the new Centre will offer many additional features plus room for expan-

Wayne State students inducted into honorary

Five students from the Wayne area are among 17 students recently initiated into Pi Gamma Mu, the International Social Sciences honorary at Wayne State College.

They are Heide Wriedt, Wayne; Shannon Dunning, Wayne; Cristin Cook, Wayne; Kenneth Loberg, Carroll; and Michelle Sterling, Winside.

Wriedt, a senior majoring in sociology and psychology, is the daughter of Ron and Sandra Wriedt.

Free trees offered by foundation

Ten-free trees will be given to each person who joins the National Arbor Day Foundation during January 1993.

The free trees are part of the nonprofit Foundation's Trees for America campaign.

The 10 trees are the Sugar Maple, White Flowering Dogwood, Pin Oak, White Pine, Red Maple, Birch, American Redbud, Silver Maple, Red Oak and Colorado Blue

"These trees were selected to provide benefits every season of the vear: lovely spring flowers, cool summer shade, spectacular autumn colors and winter berries and nesting sites for songbirds," John Rosenow, the Foundation's executive director, said.

The trees will be shipped postpaid at the right time for planting between Feb. 1 and May 31 with enclosed planting instructions. The 6 to 12 inch trees are guaranteed to grow or they will be replaced free of charge.

Members also receive a subscription to the Foundation's "Arbor Day" news magazine. The Tree Book with information about tree planting and care and a membership card.

To become a member of the Foundation and to receive the tree trees, send a $10 membership contribution to TEN TREES, National Arbor Day Foundation, 100 Arbor Avenue, Nebraska City, NE 68410, by Jan. 31.

Girl Scout cookies are here again!

The Prairie Hills Girl Scout Council launches its 1993 Girl Scout Cookie Sale today (Friday). The sale will continue through Jan. 25 and is the only time of the year these special cookies are available.

Girl Scouts have been selling cookies for nearly 60 years and the sale not only provides good experience in decision making, money management, business, con-sumerism and safety, but is a source of funds for Girl Scout

Part of the profit from the cookie sale goes directly to Girl

Scout troops to use for special events, while another part of the profit supports council sponsored events throughout the 19-county council area in Northeast Nebraska.

It also helps purchase camping equipment and maintain and develop the council's 150-acre campsite, Camp Crossed Arrows, near Fre-

RETURNING favorites this year include Thin Mint, an extra thin chocolate coated wafer made with natural peppermint; Samoas, a vanilla cookie covered with caramel, rolled in toasted coconut and topped with chocolate stripes; Do-Si-Dos, an oatmeal cookic with peanut butter filling; Trefoils, a shortbread cookie; Chalet Cremes, sandwich cookies with assorted lemon and vanilla fillings; Tagalongs, a cookie topped with peanut butter and covered with chocolate; and Golden Nut Clusters, caramel and pecans covered with maple

This year, customers will find the cookies wrapped in new boxes designed to communicate the values found in contemporary Girl Scout-

Through close-up portraits of girls engaged in a variety of Girl Scout activities, the boxes depict the supportive "girls only" envi-ronment in which girls practice new skills, establish lasting friendships, learn from positive female role models, and have fun.

Each box also features a message from a girl, sharing her views on a Girl Scout experience.

WAYNE AREA residents who are not contacted by a Girl Scout and would like to purchase cookies are asked to call Ilene Nichols at 375-5348.

Wayne will compete in the Wisner Invitational on Saturday

The Wayne girls basketball team captured a pair of games during the week to push their current win streak to six and an 8-2 season record. Wayne defeated Randolph, Tuesday in Randolph, 47-34 and then returned home on Thursday and blasted Laurel, 56-20.

Marlene Uhing's team never trailed in either game. In Randolph the Blue Devils grabbed a 15-4 lead after the first quarter and had a 23-

14 advantage at the intermission.
"We pretty well controlled the game the whole way," Uhing said. "We did a good job on the boards and playing defense. We seemed to let up a little bit in the second quarter but we came out in the third quarter and really did a nice job of executing our offense, scoring on our first five possessions.

Liz Reeg led the Blue Devils with 22 points while Erin Pick and Jenny Thomsen netted six apiece. Jenny Thompson scored five while Angie Thompson and Danielle Nelson finished with four points

Wayne had complete control of the boards, out-rebounding the host team, 29-13. Reeg led Wayne with eight rebounds. The Blue Devils had 21 turnovers compared to 13 for Randolph.

Wayne was very efficient from the foul line, converting 18 of 21 free throw attempts while Randolph

In Thursday's game with Laurel, Wayne raced to a 14-3 lead after the first quarter and never looked back

Basketball program begins at WHS

WAYNE-The youth basketball program will begin at Wayne High School this Saturday and run each Saturday through Feb. 20. Children in grades three through six are eligible to participate free of charge as long as they reside in the Wayne school district.

The schedule will be the same each Saturday with third and fourth grade girls taking part first from 8:30-9:30 a.m. followed by fifth and sixth grade girls from 9:30-10:45 a.m.

Third and fourth grade boys will take part from 10:45-noon and fifth and sixth grade boys will round out the day with practice from 12:30-1:45 p.m. The only exception to these times will be Jan. 9 when the fifth and sixth grade boys will compete from noon-1 p.m.

Winside girls, boys tose home contests

The Winside girls and boys basketball teams hosted Walthill in double-header action Monday night but it wasn't the type of beginning to the new year that the Wildcat coaches were hoping for as both suffered losses to the visitors.

Angie Schroeder's girls fell, 54-42 and Shannon Pospisil's boys were defeated, 7-47. In the girls game the Wildcats were even with Walthill at six apiece after the first quarter but Walthill went on a 17-9 scoring run in the second period for a 23-15 halftime advantage

Things continued to get worse for the Wildcats in the third quarter as Walthill out-scored Winside, 18-6 to lead by 20 at 41-21. "We started off good," Schroeder said, "but we weren't able to convert their turnovers into points, whereas out 24 turnovers turned into 28 points for them.

Christi Mundil led Winside with 17 points while Kari Pichler tallied eight and Holly Holdorf, seven. Wendy Miller netted six points while Becky Appel and Sara Painter finished with two points each.

Winside was out-rebounded, 37-33 despite 10 caroms from Mundil and eight from Chris Colwell. Winside was 8-17 from the free throw line and Walthill was 1-4. scoring them, 21-13," Schroeder said. "We have to quit forcing the ball into the middle when our players are double and triple teamed."

The Winside boys went into the locker room at halftime only trailing by four points to Walthill, 31-27 but Walthill used an 18-6 scoring run in the third quarter to put the game out of reach for the 'Cats." We played a good first half,"

Pospisil said. "In the second half we just looked tired, like a team that hadn't played in over two weeks." Cory Miller led Winside with 14 points and Matt Brogren netted 12 while Cam Shelton tallied nine. John Hancock finished with six while Colby Jensen and Marty Jorgensen scored three each.

Winside was out-rebounded for the first time this season, 45-44 Miller hauled down 11 caroms and Cam Shelton had nine. The Wildcats suffered 28 turnovers while Walthill had 14. Winside was 9-14 from the foul line and the visitors

"We're making a lot of junior highish mistakes right now, Pospisil said. The boys fell to 2-4 with the loss while the girls slipped below .500 at 3-4

Allen Eagles off to dismal start in 1993

The Allen girls and boys basketball teams started off the 1993 year in dismal fashion as both were defeated by Wausa, Tuesday in Allen. Lori Koester and Gary Erwin's girls were defeated, 50-36 and Jeff Schoning's boys lost a 70-58

In the girls game Wausa led 10-7 after the first period but Allen trailed by just one point at the half, 18-17. Wausa built the lead back to four after three quarters but the visitors out-scored Allen, 21-11 in the final eight minutes, leaving the Eagles with a 5-3 record

"Our defense was disappointing," Koester said. "We seemed a step slower than we were before Christmas. We just weren't prepared to play after coming off a long break.

Heather Sachau led Allen with 12 points while Christy Philbrick and Sonya Plueger scored eight apiece, Jaime Mitchell finished with six and Dawn Diediker netted

Allen won the battle of the boards, 26-23 with Plueger hauling down six caroms for team honors. The Eagles suffered 21 turnovers compared to just 10 for Wausa. "Most of our turnovers were unforced," Koester said, "Just bad decisions on passes."

Allen played the entire game vith out shooting a single free throw and Wausa was 4-7 from the charity stripe. "The only positive thing about the game was that no of our players got into foul trouble," Koester said. "We also played with out Steph Martinson who was out nursing a bad back."

The Allen boys fell to 1-5 on the season with its 12-point loss. The Eagles started slowly as Wausa built a 23-12 lead after the first quarter. Allen trimmed the lead to eight by half but scored just seven, third quarter points to trail, 54-40.

"Wausa's press kind of bothered us," Schoning said. "We had 25 turnovers and the majority were be-cause of that. We were also hurt by Wausa's Joe West who scored 38 against us," Schoning added.

Casey Schroeder led Allen with 15 points and Lane Anderson tossed in 14 while Tim Fertig tallied 13. Curtis Oswald finished with seven and Jay Jackson netted five while Davis Miner rounded out the attack with four.

Allen out-rebounded Wausa, 30-27 with Anderson and Oswald leading Allen with nine caroms each while Jackson recorded eight rebounds. The Eagles were 9-14 from the free throw line and Wausa was

Allen girls blasted by Ponca

ALLEN-The Allen girls lost their second straight game of the new year, Thursday with a 78-40 setback to Ponca. The Eagles had beaten Ponca earlier in the season at the Emerson Tournament, but the Lady Indians took their revenge in a big way.

Allen got off to a slow start, trailing 25-6 after the first period and 42-19 at the half. Both teams scored 13, third quarter points but Ponca out-scored the Eagles, 23-8 in the fourth period.

"We played with them for two quarters but they really took it to us in the other two," Allen coach Lori Koester said. "We started out slow and we're still playing with out Steph Martinson and that makes a dif-

Ponca's Nikki Keller scored 30 points against Allen with the Eagles leading scorer being Sonya Plueger with 15 points. Marcia Hanson finished with 10 and Steph Chase managed eight while Jaime Mitchell, Dawn Diediker and Heather Sachau scoring two each. Christy Philbrick netted one point.

Sonya Plueger had a terriffic game," Koester said. "She was 6-10 from the field, three for three from the foul line and had 11 rebounds. One primary difference between the two teams came in the area of turnovers as the Eagles suffered 33 while Ponca had 18.

The 5-4 Eagles will host undefeated and rated Bancroft-Rosalie on Tuesday. The Atlen reserves defeated Ponca, 36-26 as Abbie Schroeder and Debbie Plueger each scored nine points.

20th Anniversary of Nebraska's NRD system

1992 marked the 20th Anniversary of Nebraska's unparalleded NRD system. The original challenge set forth by the Unicameral urged natural resources districts to manage and improve natural resources while providing a quality lifestyle for the citizens of Nebraska. As a result, 24 NRDs were established as local, political subdivisions of the Boundaries for the NRDs were established along the state's twelve major river drainage basins. The Lower Elkhorn District covers a large portion of northeast Nebraska along the Elkhorn River. The district encompasses 2,526,700 acres in all portions of 15 counties.

The original board for the Lower Elkhorn NRD consisted of 76 members representing 12 Soil and Water Conserva-tion Districts, four Watershed Boards and 21 towns.

The NRD system is local government working to protect natural resources for all citizens — both rural and urban. District policies and programs are determined by each of Nebraska's 23 boards. Elected board members address local needs and establish policy.

Today, Lower Elkhorn district programs not only address soil and water issues, but all areas of natural resources management. A few of these LENRD programs include tree sales programs, wildlife habitat, flood protection, groundwater quality management, as well as youth and adult environmental education programs.

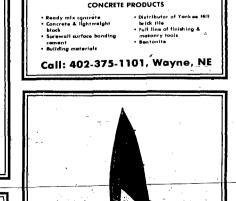

Each NRD in the state is funded by a local property tax of up to 4.5 cents per $100 valuation. The fiscal year 1993 budget required a 3.24 cents per $100 valuation.

The Lower Elkhorn NRD is governed by 17 elected board members representing citizens from 15 counties in northeast Nebraska. Voters cast ballots for representatives within their subdistrict. To date, a total of 112 directors have served on the Lower Elkhorn Natural Resources Dis-

The Farmer's Wife $_{ extsf{-}}$

By Pat Meierhenry

I mentioned I wanted to attend a Mannheim Steamrollers concert. They do several at the Orpheum every year between Christmas and New Year's. By the time I think of it, they are sold out.

Five years ago, I hadn't heard of them. I was vaguely aware of some cassettes called Fresh Aire. Then my Sis gave my brother one of the Christmas tapes. It was the most unusual arrangements of the traditional carols I had ever heard. Soon, I was hooked. I acquired some of the tapes. I learned that the creator of these unique sounds was Chip Davis, and he makes his home in

He has his own recording company, American Gramaphone, and his concerts feature slides, videos and lots of special effects. I can't remember where the name originated, but I know the group travels all over the world. On the Sunday after Christmas, I had a cold, naturally. One's body can only tolerate so much abuse The Farmer's Wife By Pat Meierhenry before it breaks down. I was feeling very sorry for myself, and had even stayed home from church. I had a very drippy nose. My head felt

At noon, the hospice social worker called. She had two tickets for the matinee at 2 p.m. that were not going to be used. I hollered at my family: No one could muster much enthusiasm. I had charting to do. Kay had planned to leave for home early.

The adrenatine kicked in and I said we'd be ready. We wolfed dinner, changed clothes and climbed into the back of the Blazer that came roaring on the yard.

Then we had to find friends in Millard! In a new housing development, on a cul de sac. Here. we transferred to a van and rolled on the Interstate to downtown Omaha, I didn't have enough kleenex. I had a headache.

It didn't matter. This was some concert. The musicians were in white tuxes, the one female in a long white gown; there was no warm-up, they just come on stage and made music.

After intermission came the Christmas part. And when they did O Holy Night and Silent Night, as añ encore, I had my second worship moment of the holiday season. One more event on my list of "must do's" can be crossed off. It's nice to have friends who remember you with things like extra tickets.

NRD celebrates 'Excellence Years'

The Lower Elkhorn Natural Resources District celebrated "20 Years of Excellence" at the district's annual awards banquet on Dec. 21

1992 marked the 20th anniverary of Nebraska's unparalleled NRD system Over the past two decades, the Lower Elkhorn NRD has been a strong force in preserv-ing northeast Nebraska's water and land resources

In recognition of this special anniversary, past Lower Elkhorn NRD directors were honored at the banquet. 112 individuals from throughout the district, covering all or portions of 15 counties, have served on the Lower Elkhorn board.

Outstanding conservationists from across northeast Nebraska were also recognized at the annual awards banquet. 1992 Conservation Honor Farm Award winners were the Don Hoffart family of Pierce County and LaVern and Chris Clausen of Colfax County. Honor Farm recipients are presented with a photo collage of their farm operation and a metal farm sign.

Soil conservation has been a family tradition for the Don Hoffart family. Don's father, Fred Hoffart, was one of the original Soil and Water Conservation District cooperators. By 1952, the Hoffart farm was completely terraced. Don signed up as a SWCD cooperator in 1960 and continued to implement conservation practices.

Today, his sons, Glen and Roger, have continued the family tradition of preserving the soil. They currently farm 480 acres near Osmond. The terraces, combined with contour farming, help control soil erosion.

According to the Pierce County Soil Conservation Service, the Hoffarts' farm consists of fields with seven to 11 percent slope with the potential to erode at a rate of 65 tons of soil per acre per year. Their conservation practices, the combination of terraces and contour farming, have reduced the erosion rate to about four tons per acre.

Chris Clausen of rural Clarkson and his father, LaVern, of Schuyler were nominated by the Colfax County SCS as Honor Farm Award recipients. Their family has operated a grain and livestock farm for more than 30 years. LaVern retired in 1991, turning over the operation to his son.

The Clausens were one of the first producers in the area to begin no-tilling into corn residue, along with terraces in the field. Currently, they are no-tilling most of their soybeans into standing corn residue and also no-tilling corn into soybean residue.

According to the Colfax County SCS, the Clausens have realized the benefits of no-till; including a tremendous amount of soil saved and proof that economically, conservation pays.

The District's Outstanding Tree Planter Award is presented each year to individuals who have shown a strong commitment to tree planting and care. The 1992 award winners were Dean, Tony and Tom Teply of Clarkson, nominated by the Colfax

In 1979, the Teplys established a 1.1-acre, multi-purpose farmsteadwildlife windbreak and an adjacent 4-acre area was developed for wildlife habitat. In 1988, family members entered 70.1 acres of cropland into the Conservation Re-serve Program. Their CRP planwas developed specifically to provide habitat diversity and to provide forestry products.

The Teplys have planted approximately 3,500 trees in the last four years. In 1990, the Teplys participated in the Neighbor-to-Neighbor program to demonstrate wildlife habitat development.

Donald Von Seggern of Scribner earned the first Đodge County Crop Residue Management Award spon-sored by the Scribner State Bank. He was selected as the recipient by the Dodge County SCS. In 1992, Von Seggern had 100-percent of his crops in no-till after making a gradual conversion over the past everal vears.

Recognized as outgoing NRD directors during the awards banquet were Barbara Greve, Wayne; Howard Hansen, Stanton; Marlyn Low, Battle Creek; Alvin Wagner, Hoskins; and Clinton Von Seggern, Scribner.

Three individuals received awards for 20 years of service to the Lower Elkhorn NRD. Recognized for 20 years of service were JoAnn Hattig, Wakefield SCS office secretary; Bonnie Lund, Wayne County SCS secretary and Letha Shimerka, Pierce County SCS secretary. George Benson Sr. of Stanton was honored for five years of service to the Lower Elkhorn NRD as super-intendent of Maskenthine Park.

Extension election results

Store Hours: Tues. - Fri. 8:00am - 8:00pm

Saturday 8:00am - 5:30pm Sunday 12 noon - 4:00pm

Wayne County residents of Commission District 2 have elected Ann Ruwe of Wayne and Dan Loberg of Carroll to a three year term on the Wayne County Extension Board.

The board gives direction to the cooperative extension service program and disburses county tax dollars which fund the local office.

Other members on the board include Joyce Sievers, Yleen Johnson and Marlyn Koch, Wayne; Merlin Topp, Pilger; Home Extension Council Representative Susie Siefken of Wayne and 4-H Council Representative Barb Junck, Carroll.

Board members will meet Jan. 12 at 7:30 p.m. in the Wayne County Courthouse to elect officers.

Student artist to hold show

Wayne State College art student Jan Miller of Ewing will present her senior exhibit Jan. 18-29 in the Peterson Fine Arts Building's Nordstrand Visual Arts Gallery on campus.

An opening reception will be held at 7 p.m., Monday, Jan. 18 in the Nordstrand Gallery. The public is invited. Regular gallery hours are 9 a.m. to 5 p.m., Monday-Friday.
Miller, an art education major, is a 1979 graduate of Elgin Public School. She is the wife of Dan Miller, and the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Don Cheatum of Elgin.

Life skills leadership to be taught

The class will meet for 12 sessions, 2 1/2 hours each. Building Blocks for Leadership Lifeskills is designed to train individuals in how to take an active role in your church, civic or community organization.

Revitalize your community and its leadership pool with the Building Blocks for Leadership Lifeskills workshop series. Over the period of 12 weeks your community can develop real economic growth, renewed commitment, better services and pride in their leadership.

Building Blocks will provide the opportunity learn effective Leader-ship Lifeskills. Learn to be assertive and recognize your own potential. Learn group process skills including managing time and people and learn how to make solid de-cisions. Be an effective hance your ideas to meet your community's and organizational

Upon completion of the Leadership Lifeskills segment, the class will focus on their community needs following a Community Needs Assessment. The class will then be divided into small groups and each group will develop a Community Action Plan especially designed to best utilize their own resources. The hands on approach used in this workshop series will help your achieve its goals.
