The

New senator wants to look to future

Friday

Putting the political past and working together to address the concerns of the entire district are the. goals of the man appointed to re-place resigned State Sen. Kurt-

Leo Pat Engel, a South Sioux City insurance agent, was introduced by Gov. Ben Nelson at his weekly press conference Wetnesday and Engel told the Herald in a phone call Thursday he will work hard to learn what the interests of the western end of his new district are and achieve them

"Pat is a lifelong resident of South Sioux City and brings a wealth of experience to his new post," Nelson said. "He is a businessman and has served his community both as a school board member and a county commissioner." Engel said it's "very regrettable that Kurt Hohenstein got into the position he's in.

"I FEEL SORRY for him, his family and friends, but let's put that behind us and look to the future," he said.

Engel will represent northeast Nebraska's District 17 in the 1994 session. He said he plans to run in the 1994 elections for the remaining two years of the term.

Engel said he hopes to begin meet-ing the people of the district he doesn't know while studying the issues that he'll face in Lincoln in January

Citing the motto "You have to be a student in order to be a teacher," he said, "I am definitely a student now.

No snub of Wayne Nebraska Gov. Ben Nelson took pains. Wednesday try to convince people in Wayne that his choice of Pat Engel of South Sioux City as the new state senator for the 17th Legislative District should not be seen as a snub of Wayne "Sheryl is obviously a rising yar in Democratic politics," he said of Sheryl is obviously a rising yar in Democratic politics," he said of Sheryl Lindau of Wayne, who many here had supported for the governor's appointment, "It was a tough choice," the governor told the Wayne Herald in a phone call. He said he didn't want to change the geography of senator because he thought to have appointed a candidate from Wayne might have given the people of Dakota County the wrong impression.

He cited the political difficulties in the county which included the theft charges against Kurt Hohenstein, former state senator and Dakota County attorney. "Now let's move that healing process on," said the governor. He added that Wayne will not suffer with Pat Engel as senator. "I'm really high on your community," added the governor. He said he sees great things going on in the Wayne area.

The 61-year-old is a 1954 gradu-ate of the University of Nebraska-Lincoln and has been a State Farm Insurance agent for '34 years. He was chairman of the Dakota County Board in 1985-86.

"I AM HONORED by the governor's confidence in me and look forward to working for the people of the 17th District and all Nebraskans as a state senator," Engel said.

His daughter, Julia Engel Holmquist, works in the Rural Development division of the state Department of Economic Development. She introduced her_father to several state officials during a tour of the Capitol. Engel characterized himself as a pro-life conservative Democrat. He replaces a Republican, mean ing that there will be 24 Democrats, 24 Republicans and one independent in the 49-member, nonpartisan Legislature.

He said he entered his name into serious consideration for the governor's appointment after his friend Jackie Hartnett withdrew. He said he is sorry that Wayne's Sheryl Lindau did not receive the appointment, but that he hopes to work with her and her supporters

Lottery party

Wayne will be one of the sites Nebraska Lottery officials have picked to stage 10 parties to help kick off the state's first lottery ticket sales Sept. 11.

Lottery officials announced Tuesday that the parties will begin Sept. 10, shortly before the first scratchoff tickets go on sale at 12:01 a.m. Sept. 11. The parties will include music, refreshments and promotional items provided by area merchants and the lottery. In Wayne the party will be held at 7-Eleven, Seventh and Main Streets, at 10:30 p.m.

Two counselors were available Wednesday for the 375 students at the high school in the northeast Nebraska community of 1,600, said Don Jones, superintendent of Pierce Public Schools, Two counselors and a psychologist were available for the 350 students at the elementary school, officials said. First grader Nathan Milander wasn't sure if it was the hot weather, the thought of summer vacation coming to an end or just school itself, but he said he didn't see much to smile about on the first day of school for students in Wayne. Nathan is a student in Lauri Brandenburger's first grade class at West Elementary School. School got off to a hot start Thursday with classes dismissing early on the first day due to the heat.

Joyce Reed, principal at the el-ementary school, said that all but a few students with excused absences were in school Wednesday. She said she hadn't spoken with students about the tragedy?

"It's always a little bit quicter on the first day," she said. Meanwhile, a Plainview man charged in Ziemer's death with first degree murder and use of a weapon to commit a felony, Richard C Barnes, 23, has been given a courtappointed attorney.

Norfolk attorney Doug Stratton will represent Barnes, Pierce County Judge Philip Riley said. Barnes was being held without bond in the county jail.

Ziemer was stabbed to death in a restroom in a city park. He was buried Tuesday at Zion Lutheran Church

Barnes also faces a November trial on charges of sexually assaulting a 12-year-old Laurel girl in June. His bond had been set at $45,000, but he was freed from jail July 12 when he signed a promise to show up for the trial or pay the bail, said Cedar County Attorney Mark Behm. The promise was backed by Barnes' parents, Gary and Vayle Barnes of Plainview. A preliminary hearing to deter-nine if there is sufficient evidence to take Barnes to trial is anticipated next week, said his attorney said of the surprise party. Part of the party included remi-niscences of his customers over the years and a skit depicting-a-day at the barber shop.

SHORTY HALLEEN looks over some of the memorabilia he's collected over the past 62 years as the barber in Carroll. Pictured at left is Shorty's wife Alice and Marlene Dahlkoetter. The village of Carroll honored Shorty with a retirement party and dinner which was attended by over 200 people last Friday at the Carroll Auditorium. The party was sponsored by the Carroll Women's Club.

Born in Wausa in 1910, his father offered to set him up in farming or send him to barber college after he completed the eighth grade. He said he picked barbering because an uncle was one and he always thought that was what he would like to do

He graduated from Moler College in Omaha and after serving an apprenticeship in Belden, he and his wife, Alice, moved to Carroll in 1931

We came to Carroll with a fivedollar bill and thought of ourselves as wealthy," he once said.

Open house scheduled

An open house will be held honoring Nina Carlson for her 80th birthday. It will be held Sunday afternoon from to 2 to 4 p.m. at the fellowship hall of Concordia Lutheran Church in Concord.

The public is welcome to attend. No gifts please.

Connie Keck, director of the Bureau for Community and Eco-nomic Development at Wayne State College, recently graduated from the Economic Development Institute (EDI).

A three-year program of the University of Oklahoma, the Institute provides an advanced spectrum of education for the economic development professional. The three themes concentrated on during the program-are-"Creating Your Product: Influencing Change in Your Community or Area," "Influencing Investor Decisions" and "Current and Future Challenges

Keck researched a thesis on the subject "Nebraska's Work Force: Tomorrow and Beyond — A Stody of Business and Education Linkages for Eastern Nebraska," which is now available through the EDI Library in Norman, Okla.

Keck also served as chair for the Call for Presenters workshop portion of the 25th annual Interna-tional Community Development Society held recently in Milwaukee, Wis.

She is a member of the National Community Development Society (CDS), as well as the Nebraska chapter of CDS.

Reception for Becker set for 30th

The public is invited to attend an opening reception for photographer Tom Becker from 4:30 to 6 p.m., on Monday, Aug. 30 in the Nord -strand-Visual-Arts Gallery located on the upper level of the Val Peterson Fine Arts Building at Wayne State College.

Becker, who is from Orange City, Iowa, will have his work on display through Sept. 17.

Young career women eligible for competition

The Young Careerist Program is the Business and Professional Women's way of recognizing the accomplishments of successful young careerists while introducing them to the ideals and standards of Business and Professional Women/USA.

The topic for this year is "Personal Foundations in Building Woman Power.'

Criteria that applies to local district and state levels of competi-tion is the following:

To be eligible, a young person must:

•Be between the ages of 21 and 35, inclusive, by the July 31st following the first competition in which they participate;

•Be or have been employed in business or the professions with at least one year of full-time work experience in her career area;

•Be living, working, training or continuing her education in the area served by the BPW conducting the · program.

Please contact Janell Scardino, chairperson, at 375-4205, for materials and more information.

The Young Careerist Speak-off will be held on Tuesday, Sept. 21 at the Black Knight restaurant in Wayne.

Johnson/Slama exchange wedding vows in Wayne

The Rev. Merle Mahnken officiated at the evening double-ring ceremony. The church was decorated with white pew bows with hot pink flowers, candelabras with greenery and a mixed bouquet of summer flowers for altar flowers.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a white satin gown with Schiffli embroidery. The design-included, v-neckline, fitted prin cess bodice trimmed with handbeaded Schiffli embroidered medal-lions; dropped Basque waistline, Renaissance sleeves of satin with pearl clusters and beaded embroidery and full shirred satin skirt. A chapel train featuring shirred godet trimmed like the gown completed the ensemble.

Her waist-length ven detached from a silk headpiece. It was made by Jennifer Cole of Wayne. Lilies, carnations, daisies and baby's breath comprised the brides bouquet. — Matron of honor was Diane Hefti, Carroll, sister of the bride. Amy Johnson, Crofton, sister-in-law of the bride-served as bridesmaid.

The brides attendants wore rayon and acetate hot pink street-length dresses with beaded lace collars.

The 1993 men's city softball league came to a close, Wednesday with the finals of the league tournament. In the "A" Division Sher-man's defeated 4th Jug-Nutrena Feeds, 9-2 to claim the championship and finish the tournament undefeated

In the "B" Division Black Knight came from behind to defeat Great Dane, 15-14 and they too, went through the tournament with out a loss.

Sherman's appeared to be in control of the championship game all the way as they built a 5-1 lead after the first inning and never looked back. Bob Sherman led off the game with a single and Mike-Slagle drew a walk before Bob Rager smacked a home run to give

Mike Kramer hit a one-out single Jeff Sherer hit into a fielder's choice before Raul Rodriguez carned an rbi with a fly ball to left field. The final run of the inning came on an error as Mark Penlerick reached base which allowed Sherer to score

Sherman's -notched -two--moreruns in the second inning off the bat of Rager who drilled his second straight home run which also scored Slagle who had singled. The final two runs came in the fourth inning while 4th Jug's final run came in the seventh.

Rager led the winners with a pair of homers and a single while Mike Kramer, Kevin Maly and Mike Slagle had two singles each. Don Sherman doubled while Bob Sher-man, Raul Rodriguez, Mark Penlerick and Dennis Nelson each had one base hit.

Jeff Zeiss led 4th Jug-Nutrena Feeds with two singles while Mike Sharer, Terry Luhr and Doug Carroll had one base hit each.

The win for Sherman's marked the end of another successful season with a 26-1 record in Wayne and a 49-15 overall mark. Don Sherman has fielded a team for the past 19 seasons but this one may be among his best as they acquired seven trophies throughout the season.

In fact, their-run of success has spanned 15 consecutive years as they've won at least one trophy every year dating back to 1979. Sherman's has one more tournament-this season as they travel to Hutchinson, Kansas over Labor Day weekend to compete in the Regional Tournament.

Members of the winning team not already mentioned include Brian Sherman and Rick Lutt.

BLACK KNIGHT took a quick 5-0 lead after the first inning and led 5 1 after two, before Great Danc mounted a come back which consisted of seven runs in the third and two in the fourth and fifth innings for a 12-7 advantage.

Great Dane added another run in the sixth inning and Black Knight scored twice to make it a 13-9 game heading to the seventh inning. Great Dane scored once more in the seventh inning as daylight began to fade away

When Black Knight took to the bats in the bottom of the seventh, they were staring at a 14-9 deficit but they scored six runs to win the game with out having a single out. Great Dane battled the element of darkness which proved costly be-cause they had trouble judging fly balls in the final inning.

Members of the winning team include Bob Lowe, Rocky Ruhl, Adam Valencia, Brad Qually, Marty Slaughter, Dennis Murray, Doug Manz, Rick Straight, Jeff Martin, Brian Keck, Alan Hart, Jim Dock-erty and Thad Trosper.

AN OVERALL recap of the "A" Division had Godfather's defeating KTCH, 12-11 and Diers-Lutt Trucking downing Stadium Sports, 12-2 in the bunny brackets. Sherman's defeated Godfather's by a 15-1 margin and 4th Jug-Nutrena Feeds beat Diers-Lutt Trucking, 12-6 in the winners bracket before Sherman's edged 4th Jug-Nutrena Feeds, 5-3 in the winners bracket finals.

In the loser's bracket Diers-Lutt rucking-edged-KTCH: 6-5-while Stadium Sports defeated Godfa-ther's, 12-3. Diers then defeated Stadium Sports, 12-3 before losing to 4th Jug-Nutrena Feeds in the loser's bracket final, 7-4. Sherman's then defeated 4th Jug-Nutrena Feeds, 9-2 in the championship

In the "B" Division recap it was Lindner's Construction edging Captain Video, 12-10 while Great Dane beat Riley's, 10-6 in the bunny bracket games. Farm Bureau-Dave's Glass then beat Lindner's, 10-4 while Black Knight defeated Great Dane, 10-9. Black Knight then defeated Farm Bureau, 11-1 in the winner's bracket finals

In the loser's bracket Lindner's win by forfeit over Riley's who failed to show up while Great Dane won a 12-2 decision over Captain Vidco. Great Dane then edged Lindner's. 12-8 before downing Farm Bureau, 17-8 in the loser's bracket finals. Black Knight then defeated Great Dane, 15-14 in the champi-

Well, another softball season has come and gone in Wayne and now I will make my pitch for putting up lights at the City Softball Complex

MARK PENLERICK swings at a pitch from Aaron Schuett of 4th Jug-Nutrena Feeds in the championship game of the "A" Division League Tournament, Wednesday. Sherman's won the game and finished the year at 26-1 in Wayne.

Last Wednesday, Black Knight and Great Dane were playing in the championship game of the "B" Division League Tournament. It was a good ball game for the most part because Black Knight came in undefeated in tournament play and Great Dane would have to beat them twice to claim the crown.

After six innings of play it looked as though Great Dane was going to earn a second game with Black Knight to be played on Thursday with the winner taking all.

Towards the end of the sixth inning, however, it began getting rather dark. Great Dane batted in the seventh and scored one run and by the time Black Knight came to bat in the bottom of the seventh it was not rather dark, it was dark.

Still, trailing by five runs Black Knight went to work. It was apparuu ere not going to catch any fly balls because you virtually could not see them. Black Knight scored six consecutive runs with out even an out. It was a great come back by Black Knight to win the game but regardless of the come back, the game should have been called because of darkness and continued later-not because of disadvantages on either side but because of safety The game should have been called after the fifth inning but who's call is it?

If the outfielders' could not see the ball then how in the world could the infielders see the ball coming in from the outfield after it was retrieved. Lights need to be put up at the City Softball Complex at least on one field and this would never be a problem again. At any rate, now that the season is over it is time to take a look back and point out a few names on each team that played outstanding softball throughout the year as a whole.

Sherman's was by far the creme of the crop and with a 26-1 record in the city, you'll get very little arguements from anyone. Don Sher-man, the mentor of the team has been playing softball longer than a lot of players in the league have even been alive-23, but he still contributes to Sherman's success in a big way.

He earns this writer's pick as the Iron Man Award winner. One of the things that has made Sherman's so successful over the past several years is the fact they always have about the same team and players. Whenever, a new player joins the team, they are top quality

That was the case this year with the acquisition of Bob Rager at third base. Rager carns my Most Valuable Player of the Year Award

Zeiss, Terry Luhr and Jeff Pasold. Diers-Lutt Trucking always posed a threat for opposition with the likes of Robbie Gamble, Brad Jones, Dan Frevert, Paul Dean and Dan Gross along with quality pitcher Randy Gamble.

Stadium Sports was captained by Brian Denklau and fielded solid players in Randy Holdorf, Brian Park, Mike Belt and Loren Hammer. KTCH rejoined the city soft-ball league after spending' three years in the Pilger league.

The team was captained by Mike Grosz and was led by outfielder Doug Rose. Barry Dahlkoetter proved he was among the best hit-ting shortstops in the league and the speed and fielding of Brian. Mike and P.J. Penne proved evident in each game which brings me to Doug Reynoldson, Colby Meyer and Rich Clements were a few of their consistent weapons.

Lindner's Construction has fielded a team for quite a few seasons led by captain Paul Lindner. Tim Schaefer, Keith Jarvi and Cory Clements were a few of their quality players. The last team in the league not already mentioned is Captain Video, captained by Vicki Archer-the league's only woman mentor.

Jim and John Murphy, along with Mike Wieneke, Chad Gorgen and Jim Simeon were among the leaders on that squad. I'm sure that many worthy names were not mentioned but in an attempt to honor . each team with a few lines, name dropping was limited.

and was probably the most feared batter that any pitcher faced.

And as if Rager wasn't enough worry about along comes Kevin Maly batting right behind him. Maly has consistently been one of the top batters and fielders in Wayne for several years and this year was no exception. Looking at Sherman's team you could say they are stacked. But then again, you could put Rager and Maly on any team and you could say they are stacked.

Sherman's also fields one of the best first baseman in the area in Raul Rodriguez. The consistency Rodriguez displayed at first base was nothing short of spectacular. Jeff Sherer played an outstanding shortstop all season and Mike Slagle_rounded out a solid infield at second base

4th Jug-Nutrena Feeds also enjoyed another fine season and some of their quality players carning mention include Doug Carroll, Jeff my favorite quote of the year, "Who says having three Penne's doesn't make sense.

Godfather's was led by captain Don Mueller and competed quite well with the likes of Steve Lutt, Scott Dickey and Roger Bentz. Black Knight of course, won the "B" Division championship and deserves mention with players such as Bob Lowe, Adam Valencia, Jeff (Doc) Martin, Rick Straight, Dennis Murray and captain Alan Hart along with Doug Manz and Marty Slaughter.

Great Dane put together a quality team this season captained by Pat McDonald and Bob Schmoldt along with fine players in Brent Gamble, Shane Quill and Kent Stallbaum.

Farm Bureau was led by captain and president of the men's league, Steve Jorgensen along with Charlie Roland and Pastor Jack Williams. Riley's was a new team this year with Doug Brodersen as the spokesman: Eldon Hutchinson,

Obviously, picking an all-star team out of all these players would be quite difficult, that's why I'm going to pick my own team as if I vas building it. At first base would Raul Rodriguez with back up help from Brian Lentz.

At second I would put Jeff Pasold with relief help from Robbie Gamble. At third base would be Bob Rager with back up from Brian Penne. At shortstop would be Brad Jones with aid from Jeff Sherer and Barry Dahlkoetter.

The outfield would be very solid with folks like Kevin Maly, Doug Rose, Jeff Zeiss, Terry Luhr and aid from relievers like Bob Lowe Doug Manz, Dan Frevert, Randy Holdorf and a number of others.

At pitcher of course would be Don Sherman with back help from Randy Gamble and at catcher would be Clancy Wingett. There you have it, a 20-man roster that could beat anybody in Northeast Nebraska.

At the last meeting of the Library Board, a decision was made which affects the operating hours of the library. The new hours, be-ginning our fall/winter schedule, have been changed from 1 to 9 p.m. to 12:30 to 8:30 p.m. Monday through Friday. Saturday and Sunday hours remain the same for our September/May schedule — Saturday 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. and Sunday, 2 to 5 p.m.

The current hours — Monday-Friday, noon to 8 p.m. and Saturday, 10 a.m. 10 6 p.m., continue until Tuesday, Sept. 7 when the new hours will begin. A note to parents: if your child participated in our Summer Reading Program but has not received his certificate, please ask at the desk for it. We want to be sure each child receives his awards and/or certifi-

New books on the shelves include:

"Forward the Foundation" by Isaac Asimov. This is the seventh and final book in the Foundation Series. Asimov fans will appreciate this. "Mischief" by Ed McBain is another in his series of the 87th Precinct in New York City. McBain's police procedurals are excellent reading. "After All These Years" by Susan Isaacs. This is Isaacs sixth novel about life and love and a bit of mystery in YC. "Foxfire" by Joyce Carol Oates is a confession of a girl gang, following their successes until they are overwhelmed by disaster. Good vintage Oates! "Songs in the Whirlwind" and "Where Lies Our Hope," both by June Masters Bacher are books written in the same vein s Janette Okes books which are very popular. These promise to be satisfying reading. And one more by John Saul, entitled "Guardian." This is another vintage Saul exploring psychological suspense and the forces of evil. Great, if you are a Saul fan.

Children's books that just came in (but are not yet on the shelf) in-clude: "oh, the Places You'll Go!" by Dr. Seuss; "See How They Grow: Mouse"; "View From the Air: Charles Lindbergh's Earth and " Reeve Lindbergh; "A Picture Book of Harriet Tubman," David A. Adler, Look for them soon on the shelf.

We remind our readers that the responsibility to return books to the library on time is the borrower's. The librarians place a date due card in the pocket of the book for the reader's information. The library charges a five cent fine on each book for each day the book is overdue. We, at the library, urge you to make every effort to return your books on time. It is time consuming and expensive to remind readers with late books and in some cases, we have learned, it is embarrassing and irritating to some patrons when we do so. Please help us with this problem.

Library hours remain the same during August, up until Sept. 7. Monday through Friday, noon to 8 p.m.; Saturday, 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. Come in and browse. We are here to serve.
