

It's nail biting time for area crop watchers

By Les Mann
Of the Herald

It's nail biting time for area farmers. The calendar says the local corn crop ought to be past the stage where a frost would be damaging, but the weather and crop conditions say otherwise.

An early frost on the area's late maturing crops this year could be devastating, say the agricultural observers.

"It's certainly time to get nervous," said Teri Post, Wayne County ASCS director as she reviewed the first frost dates recorded in recent years.

Wayne's official weather observer Pat Gross said the daily temperature readings are becoming a focal point these days.

"THE FARMERS" we talk to seem to feel if we can get through the month of September without frost, the crops have a pretty good chance of making it," said Gross. They have a little better than 50 percent chance of getting their wish based on recent annual figures.

The earliest frost date in the last eight years was Sept. 19 recorded in 1991. In 1989 and 1985 it frosted on Sept. 24 according to Gross' statistics. The latest frost date was Oct. 17, last year, which was similar to this year in that the crops were delayed in maturing by a cool, wet summer.

Oct. 6, 2, 4 and 10 were recorded in 1986, 1987, 1988 and 1990 respectively.

"I KNOW IT can blizzard for Halloween, but my hope is for the first frost sometime in February," said Gross.

A frost date of Oct. 10 would be terrific said Ms. Post, who said the cool evening last week was not a pleasant reminder that fall is bearing down.

She said the corn crop in Wayne County is currently reported at 95 percent dough stage, which is past the soft milking stage, but only 30 percent denting. Dented means it is just starting to dry. Some of the late plantings of corn caused by heavy spring rains, may have to be cut for silage, she said.

SOYBEANS ARE looking "pretty good" she said and indicated the frost timing on them would be less critical than on the corn crop.

Gross said the summer of 1993 will be in the books as one of the wettest on record. The 16.47 inches of rainfall in June, July and August, this year surpassed even last year's wet total of 16.38 inches.

"We can be thankful our rainfall, while ample, has certainly not been troublesome or destructive," he said. He recalled the dry year of 1989 when the rain gauges here only recorded 5.90 inches of summer rain. But this summer was still well below the record rainfall year of 1923 when 43.6 inches fell, more than half of it in the three summer months.

THE-HIGH temperature in August, on the 25th, tied the high of 92 for the year and the low was recorded at 46 degrees on the 31st.

The rainstorm on August 5th which dumped 2.52 inches on Wayne was the largest daily rainfall total recorded so far this year. August's total rainfall of 5.52 inches compares with 2.88 in a normal August. Wayne is almost 6 inches over normal precipitation for the year.

Retired housing approved

Wayne City Council approved a tax increment financing plan Tuesday to assist Excel Corporation in the development of a 44 unit retired housing and assisted living complex.

The Lincoln corporation is planning to build the $2.1 million project in the Vintage Hill addition and sought the tax financing approval from the city to assist with the financing of the development.

The city will provide $250,000 worth of bonds toward the total project, with the bonds to be paid back by the additional tax funds generated by the additional taxes that will be levied on the property because of the improvements.

"This is the city's first effort at tax increment financing," said City Manager Joe Salitros, but he said the idea has been in the city plans for some time. He predicted it will take 8-12 years for the bonds to be fully repaid.

Russell Peterson, a principal with Excel met with city council Tuesday to outline the anticipated impact his development will have on the community.

Besides the impact of the more than $2 million in construction costs,

Peterson said the project will create 15-20 new jobs in the community; would free up other housing as elderly citizens opt to move from private homes into the assisted living complex; would attract new residents since 30 percent of the occupants who will move into the new facility will be from out of town, and would impact the business climate of the community since the residents who will live in the facility will be middle and upper income retirees.

Council voted unanimously to approve the city's role in the financ-

Wayne leader succumbs

Former Wayne County Attorney and community leader Charles McDermott died suddenly at his home Tuesday, August 31. He was 73.

Funeral service will be Monday, Sept. 6 at 10:30 a.m. at St. Mary's Catholic Church in Wayne.

He was a past McDermott president of the Wayne Area Chamber of Commerce, Wayne Industries and the 9th Judicial Bar. He was an active member of St. Mary's Catholic Church.

Coming to Wayne in 1945 with his new wife, Evelyn Leamer, McDermott practiced law at the McDermott-McDermott law office for 45 years. The couple have two children, Fr. Tom McDermott, a missionary in Lagos, Nigeria, and Lesa McDermott of Lincoln.

September Unsung heroes announced

Heroes cited for aiding elderly

Kathy and Merlin Sievers were nominated at Wayne's unsung heroes of September.

By Les Mann
Of the Herald

September "Unsung Hero and Heroine" in Wayne think it is important to help their elderly neighbors and church members.

Whether it be visiting shut-in church members or helping a hospitalized neighbor keep her house and yard in good shape, Merlin and Kathy Sievers are the quintessential "good neighbors."

Just ask Helen James, who nominated the couple as the September heroes. They are an "outstanding couple," said Mrs. James. She said the Sievers took care of her house and yard when she was hospitalized in 1992 and have been doing it for over 12 months.

MRS. JAMES IS due to be released from the hospital today and the Sievers say they have made plans to help the octogenarian get reestablished in her home.

Merlin said he has known Mrs. James and her late husband, Ross, most of his life and they have felt a sense of small-town neighborliness in their efforts to help her in recent years since the death of her husband.

The concept of neighbors helping neighbors is still strong in towns like Wayne, explains Merlin, who is a carpenter and maintenance worker at Wayne State College. He said people in larger towns may not be that way as much anymore, but he adds that is one of the important things about living in small, close-knit communities that he appreciates.

BOTH MERLIN and Kathy are active in their church, Redeemer Lutheran. He has served on church council, and currently serves as usher and sound system operator when the services are broadcast. Kathy is a longtime church Altar Guild member, Sunday School teacher and she bakes all the communion bread. The couple routinely visit elderly shut-ins who are members of the church.

Kathy works as a custodian at Wayne State College and has for 25 years. She is known to many of the students on the two floors of Bowen Hall that she maintains as "their mom away from home." She said she likes the fact that the students often come to her with problems or to just talk.

The Sievers have four children, Marilyn, who lives in Omaha; Jerry, Norfolk; Ginny Hansen, Wayne and Jeremy, who is still at home and is a senior at Wayne High School.

Cable rates in Wayne to fluctuate

A new cable television management team that promised improved service in Wayne and some new rates under the new cable regulation plans was introduced at Wayne City Council Tuesday.

Russ Gifford, general manager of Jones Intercable of Sioux City, the owners of the Wayne cable system, told council members there were dramatic changes taking place in the cable industry and with it price changes for cable service in Wayne.

In most cases, he said customers will see the total charges they pay for cable services in Wayne go down, he said.

Under the new regulations, the FCC sets limits on what the cable companies can charge for their exclusive services.

He said one change would be the elimination of the $3 charge for each additional outlet in a home. Those who have a cable channel control box will see the charge for that go up $1.72 per month he said but remote control rentals will drop from $3.70 to $3.50.

Under the restructuring plan basic service in Wayne will decrease $1.50 per month while the tier of additional popular channels will increase 90 cents per month. This will result in a net 60-cent decrease to the customer who subscribes to both, he said, except that the city's cut will be added on to the customer's bill, rather than absorbed by the company as in the past. The franchise fee (city's share) will be $1.04 per month for those who get limited basic and the tier of popular channels.

He said as a show of "good faith," he has convinced his superiors at Jones to waive the pass through of the franchise fees for the rest of this year but it will be up to the city to decide what it will charge the customers of the cable company for

Study hall now different

Wayne High School has implemented several changes in the traditional study hall system at the school to give students an opportunity to improve academically, according to Doris Meyer, At Risk Coordinator at the school.

All of Wayne High School's study halls this year have become "study centers" according to Ms. Meyer. The study centers will be located in classrooms and the number of students assigned to each center will be small.

Teachers who supervise the study centers, tutorial staff and peer tutors will be available for students who desire additional assistance with homework. Students also will have the opportunity to receive study skills and time management training as part of the study center program.

"Study centers have the potential to make an impact on all students," said Ms. Meyer. She added, "Our ultimate goal will be to have each and every student achieving to their maximum potential. Team work between faculty, tutorial staff and students will result in students having the opportunity to improve academically."

The study center program is funded by a Carl Perkins Program Grant.

Obituaries

Charles McDermott

Charles McDermott, 73, of Wayne died Tuesday, Aug. 31, 1993 at his home.

Services will be held Monday, Sept. 6 at 10:30 a.m. at St. Mary's Catholic Church in Wayne. Father Don Cleary and Father Ambrose Windbacher O.P. will officiate.

Charles Everett McDermott, the son of Harold and Rega McNeil McDermott, was born June 20, 1920 at Holstein, Iowa. He graduated from Holstein High School in 1938 and Wayne State College in 1942. He taught and coached basketball at Pomeroy, Iowa. He entered the United States Army Air Corps in January of 1943, serving as a bombardier navigator in the China-Burma Theater until 1945. He was discharged in 1945 and returned to Guernsey, Iowa where he was principal and coach at Guernsey High School. He graduated from Creighton Law School in 1948. He married Evelyn Leamer on Feb. 7, 1948 at Sioux City, Iowa. The couple made their home in Wayne where he practiced law at McDermott-McDermott Law Office for 45 years. He served as Wayne County Attorney for 16 years. He was a member of St. Mary's Catholic Church, the Nebraska Bar Association, the Wayne State College Foundation and the American Legion. He was past president of the Wayne Chamber of Commerce, Wayne Development and the 9th Judicial Bar.

Wayne gets housing plan

By Les Mann
Of the Herald

Wayne City council approved a new set of incentives to improve the housing quality and availability in the community.

The result of several months of work by a blue ribbon mayor's committee, the housing development program was approved unanimously by council.

It calls for creation of a nonprofit housing development corporation which would be eligible for state and federal funds to assist developers or act as a developer itself in new construction and rehabilitation.

The recommendations of the task force also call for establishing a local housing code and an occupancy permit process for new homes and rental units whereby the city could regulate the quality of the house before it is occupied.

Goals of the programs call for development of 20 to 24 units of first-time homebuyers single family houses. Targeting of 50 to 60 owner occupied and rental homes for two-year rehabilitation programs is also a goal. The plan also calls for development of 70 new units of rental housing for very low to moderate income persons and families.

Mayor Bob Carhart spoke strongly in favor of the proposals when he asked council to approve the task force recommendations.

Many of the plans and goals call for implementation this fall.

In other business:

•Council approved addition of a 50 cent per month charge on phone lines in the city to help finance the upgrading of the 911 emergency phone service to E-911. It will take several years before the new high tech system is available in Wayne said Police Chief Vern Fairchild.

•Council killed a plan to install new sidewalks on certain blocks in the northeast section of the city after a "vast majority of the people in the proposed district" signed petitions against the sidewalk proposal.

•Council approved an annexation proposal for the new Vintage Hill Subdivision northeast of Wayne. A public hearing will be held Sept. 14 at 7:35 on the annexation proposal.

Tenor to be 'guest faculty'

Tenor Thomas King, assistant professor of voice at Austin Peay State University in Clarksville, Tenn., will be the first instructor featured in a series of guest faculty residencies being presented by Wayne State College's Center for Cultural Outreach and the Nebraska Arts Council.

King's four-day residency, Wednesday-Saturday, Sept. 8-11, will consist of two public recitals, open rehearsals, master classes and coaching sessions, and a visit to a German class at Wayne High School.

King's on-campus recital will be at 8 p.m., Thursday, Sept. 9 in Ley Theatre, located in the Brandenburg Building at Wayne State. The public is invited. His program will consist of American and German art songs, and Russian, German and English operatic arias. His second recital of the same program will be held at 8 p.m., Saturday, Sept. 11 at the Thorpe Opera House in David City. For information concerning the David City performance, call 367-3768.

Rehearsals with Dr. Beverly Soll, pianist and director of the Center for Cultural Outreach, will be open for students and interested community members to observe. Call 375-7492 for a rehearsal schedule.

On Friday, Sept. 10 from 1 to 3 p.m. in Ley Theatre, King will conduct a vocal master class for Wayne State students and high school students, during which he will critique performances by the students. This session is open to the public for a $1 admission fee. During a question and answer session which will follow, King will address questions about voice study, the art of performing, and the experience of singing professionally in Europe.

King has taught high school choral music for 11 years in Florida, Georgia and Mississippi, and was a professional opera singer in the German theatre system for five years, singing over 400 performances during that time. He has also performed with the Memphis Opera, the Atlanta Chamber Opera and the Municipal Opera of St. Louis as well as with smaller companies.

He has been a faculty member of the American Institute of Musical Studies in Graz, Austria, since 1983, and since 1988, an assistant professor of voice at Austin Peay State University.

King earned his bachelor of music education degree from the University of Kansas, his master of music degree in vocal pedagogy from Indiana University, a Performer's Certificate from the Mozarteum in Salzburg, Austria, a master of arts degree in German from the University of Mississippi, and a doctorate in vocal pedagogy from the University of Mississippi.

Theater gets new manager

A new manager has been named for the Twin Theaters in Wayne, according to Jack March, owner.

Randy Eichacker who recently moved to Wayne from Vermillion, S.D., has taken over management of the facility. A graduate of University of South Dakota-Vermillion, Eichacker has worked for the March theater in Vermillion for three years prior to moving to Wayne. He is a native of Salem, S.D.

He said several changes are being implemented at the theater, most notably general cleaning and repainting. More extensive remodeling plans are being discussed for the future, he said.

Viewers angered by rates

OMAHA, Neb. (AP) -- The phone lines at cable television companies have been busy with calls from customers confused about their rising monthly bills.

Others callers are happy with lower bills and interested in added new services under the changes that took effect Wednesday.

Whether cable customers pay lower prices -- as promised by the federal officials who designed the Cable Television Act of 1992 -- depends on the types of services they get and the equipment they rent.

In general, the cable firms said, people who spent the most on cable service and rental equipment -- such as remote control units and additional hookups -- will see their bills fall the most.

The Federal Communications Commission says 75 percent of cable customers should see lower bills.

However, those with relatively basic service are likely to see a rate hike. Under the new law, service must be priced at the same per-channel rate regardless of the customer's level of service.

Here's how it works for Cox Cable's 88,000 subscribers in the Omaha area:

Until Wednesday, Cox charged $21.21 a month for 46 channels of basic service. It also charged $3.45 a month to rent a remote control and $6.95 for service to a second TV set.

Under the new law, Cox may charge only slightly more than its costs for the remote and the second-set hookup. So remotes now rent for 30 cents, and there is no charge for additional hookups.

On the other hand, Cox's 2,000 customers who subscribed to the basic "antenna" service, consisting of local broadcast stations and a few cable networks, will see a significant-billing change. What once was free now costs $12.30 a month.

Overall, Cox customers should be about equally split between those who will pay less and those who will pay more, said Mike Kohler, a spokesman for Cox Cable Omaha.

"If the intent of the law was to lower cable rates, it didn't work," said D.K. Ross, general manager of Douglas County Cablevision. "The losers will be the guys with basic cable and a standard converter box on only one TV. We have 7,000 of those. The winners are those with six remotes and a house full of extra outlets."

The FCC regulated cable television from its advent in 1948 until Congress deregulated the industry in 1986. Responding to consumer complaints about rising rates, Congress last year passed the re-regulation act, empowering the FCC to write new regulations. Some of those regulations took effect Wednesday.

The lower charges overall are expected to cost cable companies -- and save consumers -- $1 billion nationwide, according to the FCC. The law gives consumers until Feb. 28, 1994, to file complaints about prices coming out now. In years to come, consumers will have only 45 days after any rate increase to complain.

Blood donors gain praise

The Siouxland Blood Bank wishes to congratulate the community of Wayne and the surrounding areas for their terrific support of the blood drive held on Thursday, Aug. 26, in the Providence Medical Center.

Fifty-one individuals volunteered to donate. A total of 50 pints of blood were collected.

The blood bank cited several individuals for special recognition. Five gallon donors are Doris Backstrom and Lorna Loberg. Four gallon donor is Jean Sturm. Two gallon donors are Rhonda Sebade and Carmen Tilgner. One gallon donors are Joanne Bock and Jim Shultheis. First time donors were Doug Jenkins and Debbie Mann.

ing of the new complex. Future expansion of the center is planned to eventually include a total of 36 residential care rooms and 53 apartments or townhomes.

The facility is projected for construction beginning later this year with occupancy anticipated in October of 1994.

Peterson said the city's approval of the tax increment financing package was "critically important to the success of the project." He indicated the corporation may have chosen to go elsewhere with the facility if Wayne would not have been receptive to the tax increment financing.

"It makes a difference between a project that can work and a project that will not," he said.

Excel is developing similar projects in other Nebraska towns as well.

Cable

(continued from page 1) franchise fees after the first of the year. If the charge stays the same, cable bills will go up $1.04 per month then.

Additionally, Gifford said a full time cable engineer, Mark Abramo, has moved to Wayne and will be working out of the Wayne office to handle customer service calls.

A complete rebuild of the Wayne Cable system is nearing completion he said and most of the customers in Wayne have already noticed a marked improvement in the signal quality.

Gifford also said he has been in negotiations with the three Sioux City TV stations to reach agreement on carrying their signals on the cable system. Under the new regulations, cable outlets are not allowed to retransmit television signals without the agreement of the originating stations. He said those local stations are asking cable firms to pay high costs for retransmission rights.

Thursday, Gifford told the Wayne Herald he had reached agreement with the ABC affiliate in Sioux City to retransmit that signal and was still working with the other two stations. October 5 is the last day the cable firms can carry the signals without the station's approval, he said.

Crops behind statewide

LINCOLN, Neb. (AP) -- Crop maturity remains 10 days to two weeks behind normal, the state Agricultural Statistics Service reported this week.

Corn condition ranged from 1 percent poor to 72 percent good, although the crop remains about 10 days behind normal development.

Soybean condition ranged from 15 percent fair to 70 percent good with pod set about two days behind normal, the reporting service said.

Sorghum ranged from 11 percent poor to 51 percent good with heading about three days behind normal. Dry bean condition ranged from 30 percent fair to 70 percent good with virtually all of the crop having set pods.

Alfalfa condition ranged from 2 percent poor to 77 percent good.

Topsoil moisture for the week ending Sunday rated 16 percent short, 78 percent adequate and 6 percent surplus.

Subsoil moisture rated 1 percent short, 89 percent adequate and 10 percent surplus.

Hey, Nebraskans! Eat your veggies

LINCOLN — Many Nebraskan's aren't heeding Mom's sage advice to eat those vegetables, University of Nebraska-Lincoln research shows. Fifteen percent of Nebraskans had not eaten a vegetable on the day they were surveyed, said Nancy Lewis, UNL nutritionist who studied Nebraskans' vegetable eating habits. Twenty-six percent of the 538 survey respondents said they had eaten one vegetable that day and one-fourth had eaten two vegetables.

"This means that two-thirds of Nebraskans aren't eating the three servings of vegetables a day recommended by national dietary guidelines," the College of Human Resources and Family Sciences researcher said.

Some Nebraskans remembered Mom's advice. Thirty-four percent of those surveyed had eaten three or more vegetables that day. That's slightly better than the 27 percent of Americans meeting the guidelines in a national survey.

Education may contribute to Nebraska's higher average, Lewis said. Research shows Americans with at least 12 years' education eat more vegetables than those with less education.

"In our study, 93 percent of those surveyed had at least 12 years of education," Lewis said. "This might explain the difference."

Eating vegetables is important because it does contribute to health, Lewis said. Each year brings more evidence of the link between vegetable nutrients and reduced risk for some chronic diseases such as colon cancer and breast cancer.

Potatoes, lettuce, carrots and tomatoes were the most popular vegetables, accounting for almost half of all vegetables eaten, Lewis found. Green beans, corn, onions, celery and peas made up one-third of vegetable choices.

"It would be great to get people to add another orange or dark green vegetable, like winter squash or broccoli, to the most frequently consumed list," Lewis said. This would be the best dietary change people could make, she said, because these vegetables have been most often associated with disease prevention.

People purchased their vegetables fresh 62 percent of the time, canned 20 percent of the time and frozen 14 percent of the time, Lewis said. One-third of the vegetables were eaten raw.

Lewis also asked consumers about vegetable preparation methods. Stove top cookery was used 23 per-

Stacy Wattier marries Jim Scott on August 14

Stacey Wattier and Jim Scott, both of Wayne, were married August 14 in a double ring ceremony at St. Mary's Catholic Church in Norfolk.

The bride is the daughter of Deb and Larry Wattier of Norfolk and the groom is the son of Connie and Lavern Scott of Randolph. The Rev. Fr. Rick Arkfeld, Ponca, officiated at the afternoon ceremony.

Mary Kay Uhing and Brian Borgmann of Norfolk were the singers with Sharice Teet serving as organist. They performed "The Rose", "Everything I Do", "Through the Eyes of Love" and "The Wedding Song."

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a mermaid gown of ivory satin and Schiffler lace. The gown featured an elegant portrait collar and long tapered sleeves. Both were decorated with delicate lace that was beaded with hand-sewn pearls and sequins. The long fitted bodice fell to just above the knees. It was also adorned with hand-sewn pearls and sequins. The full skirt and chapel train were decorated with Schiffler lace. Scalloped Schiffler lace encircled the entire skirt and train. A bow in the back finished the gown.

She carried a bouquet of ivory roses and gardenias softened by baby's breath.

Maid of honor was Angie Wattier, Norfolk. Bridesmaids were Terri Johnson, Stanton; Jodi Scott, Kansas City, and Linda Adams, Lincoln. They wore floor length gowns of black and gold satin.

Flowergirl was Heather Schulte, Norfolk. Candelighters and junior bridesmaids were Carrie Wattier, Norfolk, and Heather Scott, Randolph. Ringbearers were Austin

The groom was attended by best man Jason Speer, Lincoln. Groomsmen were Brent Berner, Crete; James Hilkemann, Wayne; and Mark Dawson, Wayne. Ushers were John Schnoor, Rio Ranch, N.M.; Jim Schnoor, Randolph; Clint Alderson, Crete, and Scott Biernbaum, Sterling, Colo.

The men wore black tuxedos with tails and metallic gold cummerbunds and ties.

A reception followed the ceremony at the Alley Rose in Norfolk with over 400 attending. Reception hosts were Linda and Paul Sanders, Norfolk.

Following a wedding trip to Colorado, the couple is making their home in Wayne where they are both seniors at Wayne State College. The bride is also working at Region IV Services and the groom is employed at Great Dane.

Afternoon ceremony unites Lincoln pair

St. Mary's Catholic Church in Wayne was the scene of the afternoon wedding on August 14, of Rebecca Pospishil and Russell Longe, both of Lincoln.

The bride is the daughter of Gerald and Shirley Pospishil of Wayne and the groom is the son of Richard and Vera Longe of Carroll.

The Rev. Fr. Don Cleary presided at the double ring ceremony.

Mary Murtaugh and Eric Smith sang "The Wedding Song," "Cherish the Treasure," "He Has Chosen You For Me," and "Friends." Organist was Vona Sharer.

The bride wore a white shantung ball-length gown with portrait neckline and fitted bodice lavishly embellished with pearls and sequins. The gown also featured a Basque waist and full length skirt.

The bride also wore a wreath of pearls, sequins and silk roses. She carried a cascade bouquet of white roses, mauve alstromeria, marshberry, pearls, black sparkle tulle and ivy.

Matron of Honor was Michelle Doeseher, Fremont. Bridesmaids were Trisha Johnson, Omaha; Karen Longe, Flagstaff, Ariz., and Carol Longe, Carroll. They wore tea-length dresses of polished cotton in a floral print.

Flowergirl was Jessica Lindsay, Beemer, and candelighters were Trisha Willers, Omaha, and Tanya Heikes, Wakefield.

Bestman was Scott Nichols, Wayne. Groomsmen were Doug Doeseher, Fremont; Mark Lyon and Steve Pospishil, both of Lincoln.

Ushers were Steve Lutt, Norfolk; Jeff Hergott, Lincoln, and Tobby Watts, Osceola, Neb. The men wore black tuxedos with mauve cummerbunds and ties.

Wayne Country Club was the site for the reception which followed the ceremony. Approximately 200 attended.

The couple is making their home in Lincoln where the bride is employed by Lincoln Counseling and Enrichment Associates. She is also attending Doane-Lincoln College. The groom, who is a graduate of Southeast Community College in Milford, is employed at Tim Knight, Inc.

Meyer and Dorothy, Wisner; Ray Murray and Mary, Wayne; Dorothy Nelson Peck and Marvin, Hemet, Calif.; Herb Niemann and Joyce, Carroll; Lucille Palmer Williams, Longview, Wash.; Opal Penn Nelson and Don, Wausa; Evelyn Rohlf Jaeger and Herb, Winside; Marilyn Ruwe Eliason and Paul, Lincoln; Marian Sandahl Biermann and Homer Biermann, Wisner; Eileen Schlines Cisney and Harry Tiffany, Denver, Colo.; Evelyn Sorenson Parke and Bob, Rush City, Minn.; Rolland Splitzger and Rosemary, Mesa, Ariz.; Robert Stull, Oxford, Mich.; Ralph Walton and Milly, Omaha; Dec Wieting Wright and Don, Minden; Fauneil Witter Weible, Winside and Robert Wright and Vianne, El Dorado, Kan.

The class of 1943 included 62 graduates. Of the remaining 52, there were 42 classmates present for the social hour and buffet dinner on Saturday evening. On Sunday morning, 46 people attended a continental breakfast at the Black Knight.

Unable to be present were Jack Beale, Central Point, Ore.; Patty Milliken Chicoine, Sioux City, Iowa; Ralph Germeroth, Denver, Colo.; Gordon Johnson, Fort Collins, Colo.; Tom Johnson, Hacienda Heights, Calif., who was hospitalized in Boulder, Colo., with pneumonia on his way to the reunion; Warren Helgren, Columbia, Tenn.; Hazel McPherran Bern, Sioux City, Iowa; Bettie Meister Tilton, Portland, Ore.; Leatrice Pflueger Bennett, Naper; and Dorothy Schultz Scott, Petaluma, Calif.

Willis Lessmann served as master of ceremonies for the evening program. After 50 years, Oliver (Bill) Kellogg was finally located and spoke to the group. Mr. Kellogg told how the class had found him and of his life since graduation. He graduated from the University of Minnesota, served with the Forestry Department, then owned newspapers, serving as publisher and editor at Baudette, Minn. and Guttenberg, Iowa. During service time in the 40s, Bill Kellogg coincidentally woke up in a Navy hospital with an old Wayne High schoolmate, Jim Strahan standing over him.

Mr. Kellogg told the class of accomplishments in this country during our lifetimes and of how history will look back at it. He said "We were children of the Great Depression; and perhaps most telling, we marched out of Wayne High School together into a world of flames. We shared the important things. We are the Depression - World War Two generation which comprises graduating classes from thousands of high schools over a span of many years. And I suggest to you that these classes, our generation, have effected greater change in the world than any American generation with the possible exception of that which brought about the American union."

Deceased classmates include R. Dean Allvin, Phillip Briggs, Lois Gamble Bronzyski, Robert Bergt, Frances French Roberts, Milford Barclan, Nan Nicholaisen Smith, Rodney Love, Wesley Pflueger and Doris Roekwell Peterson.

Attending the reunion were Dorothy Ahlvers Meyer and Melvin, Colorado Springs, Colo.; Leslie Allemann and Arlene, Winside; James Allen, Phoenix, Ariz.; Irma Back Madison and John, Greenville, S.C.; Doris Barnes, Jeffrey and Clarence, Allen; Dr. Elaine Benthack Yost, Wayne; Mrs. Robert Bergt, Wayne; Dorothy Casper Harrison and Bob, Blair; Jerry Daniels and Doris, Wayne; Marvin Draghu and Elaine, Wakefield; John Finn and Marge, Wichita, Kan.; Betty Franzen Bridwell and Stan, Omaha; Merlin Frevort and Kathteen, Wayne; Robert Greenwald and Erna, Wayne; Jackie Haas Schwartz and Paul, Morrow Bay, Calif.; Donna Harder Kramer and Norman, Gladstone, Mo.; Iona Heikes Stern and Lyle, Blair; Eugene Helgren and Delores, Wayne; Rosalie Hoeman Meyer and Willis, Wayne; Barbara Johnson Pedersen

It was decided that the class will have another reunion in 1998 with Herb Niemann and Les Allemann serving as co-chairmen. Those serving on the planning committee this year were program - Willis Lessmann, Herb Niemann and Les Allemann; treasurer - Robert Greenwald; photography - Jerry Daniels; registration and welcome - Doris Jeffrey, Iona Stern, Betty Bridwell and Lucille Williams; decorations - Fauneil Weible and Evelyn Jaeger.

Classmates Homer and Marian Biermann, co-chairpersons, were presented with a corsage and boutonniere from the class. A friendship booklet was distributed to each classmate and several mugs were given as remembrances of coming back to their old home town. Also, there was a display table of high school memorabilia.

Anniversary is celebrated

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hansen were honored on their 40th wedding anniversary Saturday night, Aug. 28. A surprise party, with a cooperative supper and social evening, was held in the Dale Hansen home, Wakefield. It was hosted by the couple's family.

One hundred guests attended the event, coming from Pierre, S.D.; Maple and Lawton, Iowa; St. Louis, Mo.; Omaha, Lincoln, Pender, Scribner, Emerson, Wayne and Wakefield.

Wedding reception was held

About 100 guests attended an open house in honor of Warren and Danita Hanson on Sunday, Aug. 29; it was held at the Laurel City Auditorium.

Warren Hanson and Danita Schafer of Alliance were married in Banff Alberta Canada on Aug. 24.

Wayne State coach Vanis wins debut convincingly

The Wayne State Wildcats volleyball team blanked visiting Briar Cliff in straight games, Wednesday in Rice Auditorium, 15-10, 15-13, 15-10. Head coach Sharon Vanis came out a winner in her debut as the Wildcats mentor.

Wayne State looked like a MASH unit before the match began as Lisa Skradski and Jaime Melton were sidelined with injuries suffered in practice. Both were on crutches but both are expected back soon.

Vanis said earlier that she wouldn't have been surprised if her team started off slow because of the coaching differences and the change in offense but the Wildcats did anything but start off slow against Briar-Cliff.

Former Wayne High volleyball standout Jennifer Hammer and Tanya Rotherham led the 'Cats with 12 and 11 kill spikes, respectively. Rotherham had no spiking errors and finished with a .611 kill percentage which is outstanding. Hammer netted a .474 kill percentage.

Incidentally, a kill percentage in volleyball is comparable to a batting average in baseball. Laura Pfister finished with eight kills and Lora Grant had six while Cassie Vescio finished with five.

Cindy LeCrone ran the offense well, netting 28 set assists while defensively, Rotherham led the way with 13 digs, Vescio had 12 digs and Grant had eight while Annette Fluckey had seven and Pfister, six.

Rotherham also shared team honors in blocking with five with Vescio. Hammer led the team in serving aces with a pair.

"Anytime you can get a win as a coach you are pleased," Vanis said. "We did a lot of good things in the match and we noted some areas that need improvement."

Vanis said both Skradski and Melton went down with injuries the night before the game which put the 'Cats in a little awkward situation but they overcame the adversity.

"Jennifer Hammer really stepped in and did a nice job," Vanis said. "As a team we had a .375 kill percentage which is real good. We like to have anything over .350 and anything over .400 is exceptional."

Vanis said one of the things that makes the 'Cats strong is they have a number of players who can hit the ball. "We could have went to any number of players and gotten a good output in the hitting area," Vanis said. "That's what we need because it means the blockers can't key on just one or two players."

The Wildcats travel to compete in the Bellevue College round robin tournament on Friday and Saturday. The 'Cats' play Bellevue at 3:30 p.m. Friday and Central College out of Pella, Iowa at 6:30 p.m. Friday before playing Midland at 10 a.m. Saturday and Nebraska Wesleyan at 2:30 p.m. Saturday.

CINDY LECRONE sets the volleyball for a teammate during Wayne State's season opening sweep of Briar Cliff.

Trojans edge Winside in marathon volleyball match

By Kevin Peterson
Sports editor

Two of northeast Nebraska's finest volleyball teams squared off in the first match of the season, Thursday in Winside but neither team played like it was the first game.

Winside and Wakefield battled for nearly 90 minutes with some of the best action packed volleyball that will be seen anywhere this season. When the dust had settled Wakefield came out on top of a 15-13, 5-15, 20-18 decision.

Most good volleyball games will see anywhere from 26-28 points scored but the rubber game, between the Wildcats and Trojans lasted 38 points: Winside actually trailed 14-4 and 14-9 in that last game before rallying to tie the game at 14.

"It was a very well played match on both sides of the net," Wakefield assistant coach Arnie Cerny said. "It's by far the most points I've ever seen in a volleyball game."

Both teams performed at peak levels as each served 92 percent as a team and Winside's serve receive was at 87 percent with Wakefield's right there as well.

Carly Salmón was Wakefield's most potent server as she came off the bench and went 8-8 with four aces while Suzann Ekberg was 11-11 and Mary Torczon was 10-10 with one ace.

Kathy Otte was 73-76 in setting with 20 aces, while Stacey Preston notched six ace sets. Torczon was 33-36 in spiking with 13 kills while Kali Bakér was 16-18 with seven aces. Torczon and Amy Harting led the way in blocks with four and three respectively.

Wakefield, incidentally, will be without the services of senior Maria Eaton until mid October. Eaton went down with a knee injury in softball and tore her anterior cruciate ligament. She had her surgery on July 9 and has been cleared to come back in October from Dr. Brown.

Wendy Miller led Winside in serving with 11 points while Christi Mundi and Catherine Bussey scored nine each. Stacey Bowers had eight points and was 21-21 in serving with six aces. Bussey was 17-19 with three aces and Miller was 8-9 with two aces.

Kari Pichler was 43-43 in setting with 15 aces and Bowers was 31-35 with 11 aces. Winside's top hitter was sophomore Wendy Miller who slammed 15 kills into the Wakefield side of the court on a 21-23 performance. Mundi, Chris Colwell and Bussey each had three kills.

"It was a very good overall volleyball match," Winside coach Angie Schroeder said. "We kept digging ourself a hole and then fighting our way back but I was pleased with the way the girls never gave up."

Winside came into the season with the number five ranking in C-2 while two-time defending Class D-1 champs, Callaway came in as the season's top pick in C-2 as they look to continue their 47-game win streak.

Last year's C-2 champions, Indianola-Republican Valley is the pre-season third ranked team.

Winside will travel to Battle Creek on Saturday for its four-team invitational. Winside plays Winnebago at noon and the winner plays the winner of Battle Creek-Hartington Cedar Catholic at 3 p.m.

In other action at Winside, Thursday it was the Wakefield "B" team downing the Wildcats in three games, 1-15, 15-1, 15-12 and the Trojans "C" team won in straight games over Winside, 11-3, 11-2.

CHRIS COLWELL dinks the ball over the net for Winside during the Wakefield match.

WAKEFIELD COACH Paul Eaton jumps off his seat during the third game of the Winside match, Thursday. The Trojans won a 20-18 decision in the third game.

WSC gridders set to embark on UNO

The Wayne State Wildcats football team will open the 1993 campaign in Omaha, Saturday afternoon at Al Caniglia against the UNO Mavericks. Game time is set for 4 p.m.

WSC's goal is to improve on last season's 5-4-1 mark which would be the first back-to-back winning seasons since 1969-70. It will not be an easy opener for the Cats as they play UNO on the astro turf.

The Mavericks are returning over 40 letterwinners including junior quarterback Josh Luedtke. Luedtke is a man that will be relied on heavily by the Mavs. Last season he threw for 659 yards and three touchdowns before falling prey to a shoulder injury that forced him into a redshirt season.

Along with Luedtke, several veteran receivers and a solid offensive line also return for head coach Gary Moeller.

The Wildcats, however, certainly open up the season with some choice weapons of their own. The aerial attack will once again be in full swing as senior quarterback Brett Salisbury and his squadron of receivers take to the sky.

Damon Thomas, Jerry Garrett, Ossie Santos and Byron Chamberlin will begin the season as the starters in the four wide-out spots.

On the defensive side of the ball seniors Brad Ottis, Bill Federson, Adonice Nunn, Bernie Muller, and Wilson Hookfin will be making plenty of noise as well. They are the leaders of a defense that was second in the nation against the run last season.

The Wildcats coaching staff, headed by Dennis Wagner announced the team captains for the coming season and they include quarterback Brett Salisbury, right tackle Gus Zambrano on offense and Brad Ottis and Bill Federson on defense.

Flight winners in the ladies division were as follows: first flight—Jolene Lueth, Lisa Salmon and Joyce Hoskins. In the senior division it was Maxine Twite winning with Betty Schwarden and Ardith Mayberry following.

Blue Devil spikers play North Bend, Saturday Wayne defeats Beemer

The Wayne Blue Devils volleyball team defeated Beemer, 15-2, 9-15, 15-7 Thursday night in Beemer in the first round of the Beemer Invitational. Wayne will now play North Bend on Saturday morning at approximately 9:45 a.m.

The winner of that match will earn a spot in the championship game slated for 12:30 p.m. The loser of the game will play immediately after in the consolation game set for 11:15 a.m.

Thursday's win over Beemer gave Joyce Hoskins a victory in her debut as head coach of the Blue Devils. "We came out and played very well in the first game," Hoskins said. "The girls really played well together and everything clicked."

Hoskins said the second game saw the Blue Devils suffer a let down which was quite possibly caused from such an easy win in game one. "We really let down in the second game," Hoskins said.

"You have to give Beemer a little credit for coming back strong but we just didn't play the same as we did in the first game."

In the third game, however, Wayne resumed to its winning ways of game one. "We came back and played to our level in that third game," Hoskins said. "That really made a difference."

Amy Post led Wayne with eight points while serving 10-11 with four aces while Katie Lutt and Kari Wetterberg were both 10-10 from the service line. Wetterberg and two aces and seven points and Lutt had six points.

Wendy Beiermann led the setters with a 36-36 outing that netted nine ace sets while Carrie Fink was 28-30 with seven aces. Jenny Thompson led the team in hitting with 10 kills on a 23-26 performance. Katie Lutt was 11-12 with three kills and Angie Hudson was 8-9 with two aces. Thompson had six ace blocks.

Allen spikers down Emerson in opener

Allen volleyball coach Tracy Kuester watched her team dismantle Emerson-Hubbard, 15-12, 15-6 in the first round of the Pender Tournament, Thursday.

Allen will play Bancroft-Rosalie at 11 a.m. Saturday and a win would put them in the championship game to be played later Saturday against the winner of the Homer-Ponca match.

Despite the apparent easy victory, Kuester said her team didn't look all that sharp. "We were very slow and hesitant," Kuester said. "We also missed a lot of serves which we can't afford to keep doing but it's the first game and I expected us to make some mistakes."

Kuester said her girls appeared a little nervous but toward the end of the second game they began to play much more relaxed. Steph Martinson led the Eagles with eight points while Shelly Smith scored six. Smith was 8-8 in serving and Holly Blair followed with a 6-7 outing.

Dawn Diediker led the setters with a 24-26 performance that included eight aces while Holly Blair was 16-18 with four aces. Martinson had six kill spikes to pace the Eagles power game while Steph Chase had four. Martinson also led the team on defense with two ace blocks.

"I thought Abbey Schroeder really did a great job of coming off the bench and serving," Kuester said. "She served five straight during one stretch."

Laurel volleyballers gain coach debut win

The Laurel Bears volleyball team started off the season in winning form, Thursday in Randolph with a straight games victory over the host Cardinals, 15-12, 15-12.

Head coach Patti Cunningham came out on top in her coaching debut and liked what she saw from her squad. "I thought we played very well," Cunningham said. "We went out and did what we had to do and things turned out great."

Kristy Stark and Heather Cunningham led the Bears in serving as Stark was 12-14 with one ace while Cunningham was 12-15 with two aces. Kari Kraemer was 35-37 in the setting department with 13 aces and Tracy Ankeny was the top hitter with a 13-14 outing that included six kill spikes. Samantha Felber was 13-15 in hitting with four aces.

Both Cunningham and Felber had one ace block each to lead the defense. Laurel will return home for a Tuesday contest with Bloomfield. The Bears "B" team was defeated by Randolph, 7-15, 15-5, 11-15 and the "C" team was beaten three games, 4-11, 11-8, 10-12.

Walk-a-thon set for next Saturday

The Fifth Annual Women Helping Women Walkathon will be held on Saturday, Sept. 11 from 9:30-10 a.m. on the Wayne State College Nature Trail or, in case of inclement weather, inside the Campus Recreation Center.

Immediately following from 10 a.m. to noon will be a program in the North Dining Room of the Student Center featuring an omelet brunch. Scheduled to appear along with Honorary Chairpersons, Senator Connie Day and the Honorable Kay Orr is special guest, KTVI Channel 4 Weatherperson, Cathy Egan.

Block to speak at Wakefield Mission Fest

Immanuel Lutheran Church, rural Wakefield, will be holding its annual Mission Festival Sept. 12 with worship at 10:30 a.m., followed by dinner. The feature speaker will be Rev. Kenneth B. Block, Professor of Biblical Languages at Concordia College, Seward.

Rev. Block was born at Venus, Neb. He attended St. Paul's Lutheran Church at Venus, now designated as Orchard. He grew up and attended high school in Creighton. Further education was attained at St. Paul's College, St. Paul, Minn.; Concordia Senior College at Ft. Wayne, Ind. and Concordia Seminary in St. Louis, Mo. Rev. Block was a parish pastor for seven years at St. Paul's Lutheran Church in Cheney, Kan. where he also taught in a one room country grade school. Before coming to Concordia College, Seward, he taught for Concordia College at Ann Arbor, Mich., St. John's College, Winfield, Kan. and Concordia Senior College, Ft. Wayne, Ind. Rev. Block is married to Marlene and they have four sons. He is Director of the Pre-Seminary program at Concordia College and teaches all the Greek course and several theology courses.

Church music workshop slated

A workshop designed to assist persons working in church music will be held Oct. 2 in Wayne at Wayne State College in the Peterson Fine Arts Building. The nondenominational workshop begins at 9 a.m. with an anthem reading session. All interested persons are invited to sing and need not register if they are attending only this session. Sessions for adult choir directors, organists and children and youth choir directors will follow. The final session of the day will be a forum during which time workshop leaders will discuss practical ideas on a variety of topics, and participants will have an opportunity to ask questions. The University of Nebraska-Lincoln School of Music is sponsoring the workshop in cooperation with the Interchurch Ministries of Nebraska and the Schmitt Music Centers. The workshop is supported in part by the Bostrom Memorial Fund. Workshop leaders are Dwaine Price, West Hills Presbyterian Church, Omaha; Margot Woolard, UNL; and Kim Patterson, Westminster Presbyterian Church, Lincoln. Orvid Owens is coordinator. Participants can look to the workshop for practical presentations of techniques and skills. Persons from small churches and churches with modest resources for music are especially invited to attend. The workshop fee is $25 per person, and pre-registration is encouraged. For more information or to register by phone, call either Michele Deaton, UNL School of Music, 472-6861, or Orvid Owens, 483-7237.

Saddle-up and Ride!

ROBIN ENGH

Get rid of the harmful in your life and surround yourself with what is good. That's a good remedy for poison, be it chemicals, people—or even your own self-indulgent thoughts and actions.

Spiritual life operates that way, too. Get on the right side of life this week in church.

Lay aside the works of darkness and put on the armor of light.

Webers will present gospel music concert

Bob and Gaylene Weber are coming to Wayne on Sept. 12 and will be appearing at the First Church of Christ, East Hwy. 35. Concert time is 10:30 a.m.

The Webers have developed a gospel music ministry presenting the message of God's love through their music outreach. It is their desire to honor the Lord and to lift up Jesus Christ through song.

The musical ministry of the Webers began when they met in a high school select singing group, sponsored by Nebraska Christian College, located in Norfolk. They both attended NCC after high school, where they were both involved in various singing groups that traveled throughout the mid-west. Upon completing their college education, they have been active participants in their local church music program.

Their music has one theme and objective: to glorify Jesus Christ. Included in their program are up-tempo gospel songs, geared to lift the heart, as well as the more traditional and devotional songs.

The public is invited to this concert, as there is something for every member of the family. There will be a free-will offering received to defray the expenses of the Webers.

Sam Dalton

Free Church to host crusade

The Northeast Nebraska Christian Fellowship's 1993 Fall Crusade featuring Sam Dalton, Denver, Colo., will be Sept. 12 to 19 at the Free Church in Concord.

The services will be nightly at 8 p.m. at the church with the exception of Wednesday, Sept. 15, when the service will be held in the Gospel Chapel in Newcastle.

A nursery will be provided with adult supervision.

Dalton is touted as one of the nation's most sought after speakers. He travels from coast to coast delivering "the simple, powerful message of Jesus Christ which Sam puts forth in his own unique, humorous, in-depth way."

A special youth night will be held Sept. 18 and will feature pizza and pop at 6:30 p.m. Special music will also be featured each evening and the crusade is open to people of all churches.

Sunday School begins

Sept. 12 is Rally Day at Redeemer Lutheran Church in Wayne to kick off the year of Sunday School classes.

Young people aged three to senior in high school, their parents and other adults are invited to get together in the Fellowship Hall at 9:45 a.m. for refreshments and to get name tags.

The group will then move upstairs to the worship area to kick off the year with music, drama, prayer and maybe even a laugh or two. Students will get to meet their new teachers and find their new rooms. Parents will have an opportunity to see where their son or daughter will be learning about Jesus in the coming year.

After the opening program, the students will be dismissed to go to their classrooms. Parents and other adults will then be invited to stay in the worship area for the congregation's first Adult Forum for the new year.

COMMUNITY CALENDAR

The Wakefield High School Band will begin their seventh year of publishing the community events calendar. Sales of the calendars will begin on Sept. 1. The community calendar makes Wakefield a friendlier place to live by informing people of the birthdays and anniversaries of friends and neighbors plus also lists a number of organizational meeting dates and school activities.

It's nice to surprise someone on their birthday or anniversary with a special greeting and the community calendar makes this possible.

Last year the birthdays and anniversaries of over 450 families in the Wakefield area were listed on the calendar. This year the band is seeking to list at least 500.

The calendar features a picture of the band and also a phone directory of businesses. They sell for $5 each and a family may list birthdays of family and anniversaries of immediate family members.

Profits from the calendar sales go to support the music program at Wakefield High School. In the past, equipment and instruments have been purchased and it also provides funds for a trip for the students.

SWIM FOR HEART

Thirteen swimmers in the Wakefield area raised $589.75 for cardiovascular research by participating in the American Heart Association's Swim for Heart.

The top three money raisers were Zach Dolen, Amanda Ekberg and Brian Schwarten, who earned an invitation to a swimming skills clinic at the University of Nebraska-Lincoln in addition to other prizes. Other swimmers who raised money for the American Heart Association and won prizes were Michelle Schwarten, Nicole Jensen, Frank Holm, Annie Bierbower, Nicole Peters, Lindsay Jensen, and Susan, Kristen, Mary and Lori Brudigam. The prizes included T-Shirts, tank tops, beach towels, sports bottles and earphone radios.

The local effort is part of a nationwide endeavor to raise funds for the American Heart Association's research, professional education and community service programs. Swimmers raised money by collecting pledges based on the number of laps they swam or pennies they dove for in one hour.

Swim for Heart not only raised research dollars, but also acquaints swimmers with the cardiovascular benefits of swimming. "With Swim for Heart we were able to demonstrate how regular exercise helps promote cardiovascular fitness, while at the same time contributing to the American Heart Association's mission to reduce early death and disability from heart disease and stroke," state organizers.

PIONEER CLUB

Pioneer Club activities will soon begin each Wednesday evening at the Evangelical Covenant Church for community youngsters. First session will be on Wednesday evening, Sept. 8 beginning at 6:30 pm and run until 8 pm.

As a member of Pioneer Club children from as young as two and three through sixth grade will have an opportunity to earn Bible and activity awards to be displayed on a shirt, sash or cap. There will be games, singing crafts and Bible exploration.

There is no cost for the special outfits or club books, however dues of 50 cents will be collected for the cost of the awards. To register your child or if you have any questions regarding Pioneer Club, please contact Janis Wahlton at 287-2803 or call the Covenant Church office at 287-2692.

Pioneer Club theme is "Christ in every phase of life" and will meet throughout the school year.

ATTENDS ORGANIZATION

Residents from Wakefield recently attended Northeast Community College's orientation/registration activities on campus.

Participants and the programs they enrolled in were Ben Gustafson, farm mechanics; Wendy Lubberstedt, physical therapy assistant; Jeanni Carson, Paralegal; Wendy Ulrich, Paralegal.

Incoming students met with faculty advisors, registered for classes, received financial aid information, and learned about the College's services and activities.

Located on the northeast edge of Norfolk, Nebraska, Northeast Community College offers more than fifty vocational, technical, liberal arts and business degree programs of study, leading to immediate employment opportunities, or transfer to a four-year college. Northeast serves residents in twenty counties in Northeast Nebraska and is the only community college in the state with one main campus.

RECEIVES AWARD

Susan Tyler, Business Education teacher at Wakefield High School was recognized as one of 37 Business Education's BEST in Nebraska at the Nebraska Department of Education's Vocational Conference on Aug. 10 at the Omaha Holiday Convention Centre.

The second annual BEST awards are presented to individual whose professional activities have had an impact and influence on business education in Nebraska during the past year by being actively involved in professional associations, community and school activities, professional/leadership development, and/or service to the business education profession. The acronym BEST represents the four areas of emphasis; belong, Excel, study and travel.

Mrs. Tyler has made a significant contribution to quality education and has received statewide recognition as BEST award recipient.

ON ADVISORY BOARD

Laura Plendl has been elected to serve on the Athletic Advisory Board at the University of Nebraska-Kearney. She will represent the Women's Cross Country and Track Division.

One student from each respective sport is elected by teammates and faculty to represent that division. The student athletes on the board assist in making decisions in regard to funding, disciplinary action and other related matters to sports.

Laura, the daughter of Julie and Brad Miner, is a senior at UNK and a 1990 graduate of Wakefield High School.

NEEDS SACKS

The Wakefield School has adopted a policy of recycling and will be taking what is acceptable to the trailer each week. In order to do this the school is seeking paper grocery sacks for the various items to be taken to the recycler. Residents are asked to save the paper sacks and send them to school with a student or give to a school staff member.

PEO MEETS

PEO met Aug. 16 at The Hotel. Hostesses were Eleanor Park and Margaret Patterson.

Sheri Eaton was in charge of the program which was presented by Mary Sauser on Scotopic Sensitivity Syndrome.

The next meeting will be Sept. 6. The telephone tree will be used.

NEED TRAYS

The Wakefield School needs used Styrofoam trays for a student project. Patrons are asked to save the trays and give them to a student, to Mrs. Jan Johnson or take them to the Elementary school office.

Musical group pleases small audience

By Les Mann
Of the Herald

A small but enthusiastic crowd heard the Marshall Tucker Band in Wayne Thursday night, the latest in a series of big-name performers who have been scheduled to play at Riley's Convention Center.

Perhaps the smallest turnout of the recent Riley's performances witnessed the 20-year-old group that was founded by Doug Gray and Jerry Eubanks. The two are still the mainstays of the band which has made a transition from Rock and Roll in the 1970s to a rising country band in the 90s.

"People just don't know us as country," said leader Gray. But, he added with the success of new album and video releases which are getting play on the music networks, the band is completing its transition.

"We know we can't get into rock anymore," said Gray who explained maybe the style of rock music has

Doug Gray

Members of the Marshall Tucker Band played before a less than capacity crowd at Riley's Convention Center Thursday night. The group was in route from Denver to Chicago when it stopped in Wayne.

changed more than his band has in its switch to country genre.

The plain-talking family man from Spartansburg, S.C. said he is pleased with the growing popularity of Country music and with the band's ability to play before quality audiences like those who listened and danced in Wayne Thursday.

The group made its one-night stop in Wayne after playing Wednesday in Denver. They were in route to Chicago on a road trip that has kept them hopping through the busy fair season. Another week on the road and they are scheduled to be home for a time with family.

"It's not an easy life," said Gray but he admitted he enjoys it and makes it a point to spend more time with his two children than "most other guys do who have 9-5 jobs. Those kids are important."

Gray said his band and the style of music appeals to the family. He said they try to make their performances wholesome, family, fun entertainment.

Rod Tompkins, owner of Riley's, said while he was disappointed with the turnout Thursday which would nowhere near cover the fees paid to the band for appearing in Wayne, he said other recent performances, including the Belamy Brothers and Toby Keith have been well-attended.

Murder suspect waives hearing

PIERCE, Neb. (AP) -- A Plainview man gave up his right to a preliminary hearing and will appear in court to face a first-degree murder charge in the death of a 10-year-old Pierce boy.

Pierce County Judge Philip Riley ordered that Richard Barnes, 23, continue to be held without bail in the Aug. 20 stabbing death of Mitch Ziemer. Ziemer's body was found in a restroom at a Pierce park.

Riley bound Barnes over to Pierce County District Court for a hearing Sept. 20.

Authorities have said many people in Gilman Park at the time of Ziemer's death -- including a boy who was fishing with him -- helped provide information about a suspect and his car.

That led to the Aug. 22 arrest of Barnes at his parents' mobile home in Plainview. During a search of Barnes' car, authorities said they found an object that may have been used in Ziemer's death. They declined to be more specific.

Barnes, who graduated from Plainview High School, served in the U.S. military after school and was stationed in the Persian Gulf during Operation Desert Storm. After leaving the military, he returned to Nebraska. He lived in Laurel and began working in Wayne.

It was during that time that he was arrested by Cedar County authorities and charged with sexually assaulting minors at a Laurel motel that had been converted into apartments.

Barnes later was released after his parents, Gary and Vayle Barnes of Plainview, pledged to meet his bond and guaranteed that he would appear for trial on the charges, which was set for this fall.

Since getting out of jail, Barnes had been unemployed. He had inquired about a janitorial position with the Pierce Public Schools and had been in Pierce Aug. 20 for a job interview prior to the time when Ziemer was killed.

New senator is sworn in LINCOLN, Neb. (AP) -- It's official: northeast Nebraska's Legislative District 17 received a new state senator Wednesday.

Secretary of State Allen Beermann swore in Leo Pat Engel of South

Sioux City in a brief ceremony at the state Capitol also attended by Gov. Ben Nelson, Speaker of the Legislature Dennis Baack of Kimball and eight senators.

Engel replaces Kurt Hohenstein of Dakota City, who resigned Aug. 10 as part of a plea bargain in a theft case.

Hohenstein awaits sentencing on a felony theft charge. He pleaded guilty in exchange for a promise that he would not be charged for other alleged thefts listed in the plea agreement.

Engel will sit in on a meeting Thursday of the Legislature's Appropriations Committee but won't necessarily replace Hohenstein on the budget panel, Sen. Scott Moore of Seward, committee chairman, said Wednesday.

The Legislature's Executive Board will choose a replacement for Hohenstein on the nine-member Appropriations Committee, Moore said. That may be done as early as Sept. 24 when the Executive Board meets in Lincoln, he said.

Engel, 61, repeated remarks he made last week when he called for a time of healing for the district. He said a lot of people are asking him why he decided to accept Nelson's nomination.

Looking at his children and grandchildren seated in the audience, Engel said "concerned people have to be committed and step forward when asked."

NOTICE OF AMENDMENT OF ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION

Notice is hereby given that the undersigned has amended the Articles of Incorporation in the following manner:

1. Article III has been amended to include the following language:

This organization is organized exclusively for charitable, educational, religious, scientific or literary purposes, or for testing for public safety, fostering national or international sports competition or the prevention of cruelty to children or animals within the meaning of § 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue law. Charitable purposes shall include the making of distributions to organizations qualifying as exempt organizations under § 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue law.

2. Article XIII has been added to the original Articles of Incorporation, which sets forth that:

Upon dissolution of the organization, the Board shall, after paying or making provisions for the payment of all liabilities of the organization, dispose of all the assets of the organization exclusively for the purposes of the organization in such manner, or to such organization or organizations organized and operated exclusively for charitable, educational, religious or scientific purposes as shall at the time qualify as exempt organization or organizations under § 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue law, as the Board shall determine.

Any such assets not so disposed of shall be disposed of by a court of competent jurisdiction of a county in which the principal office of the organization is located, exclusively for such purposes or to such organization or organizations as said court shall determine, which are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes.
 Dated this 30th day of August, 1993.
