A festive glow

Downtown lighting displays in Wayne combine with the reflections off a light snowfall, the bustle of holiday traffic and the normal city street lights and business displays to give the city center a festive holiday glow two days before Christmas. The extended weather forecast for holiday travel conditions in the area calls for mostly dry pavement through the weekend.

County still chewing on raise issue

No sales tax issue sent to ballot ... yet

Of the Herald

A shorthanded Wayne City Council failed to reach a decision Tuesday in the debate over whether to ask voters to approve a one cent sales tax for Wayne

The council members present were nearly unified in support of asking voters for a limited-term sales tax (five years or less) but could not reach agreement on what the funds generated should be used for, how long the tax should be in effect and whether the vote should be at the primary in May or the general election in No-

A one cent sales tax in Wayne would generate $2 million over 5 years, according to estimates from the Nebraska Department of Revenue MOSTOFTHEsix councilmembers present voiced support for the pro-posal to build a new $1.3 million library and senior citizen center with approximately $900,000 of the anticipated sales tax funds. The remaining funds for the library would come from private funding and grant funds being sought by the library board.

The library board has been the main proponent of the sales tax issue, having asked council to seek a vote of the people as soon as possible. But council must first decide if other capital projects such as auditorium improvements and a storm sewer upgrade should also be funded via the same sales tax vote.

Councilmembers closed out their more than an hour-long discussion of the matter Tuesday night by agreeing to discuss the sales tax and capital improvement issues with constituents and return at a future meeting prepared to make a decision.

MAYOR BOB Carbart said he changed his mind during the discussion. At first he said he thought the city should ask for a sales tax for only two years and to fund only the library/senior center. But after listening to the discussion from the other councilmembers, he said he may be convinced that including other projects such as auditorium improvements might make the issue more desirable to voters.

Councilmember Doug Sturm, who said he wasn't much of a library user, wondered if there would even be a need for libraries 20 years down the road with the advent of electronic information systems, but he said people have told him the auditorium definitely should receive attention.

Councilmember Jane O'Leary said she didn't think the city should do a sales tax on the library alone and spoke forcefully for including provisions for upgrading the auditorium in Over $400,000 worth of needed improvements to the auditorium have already been identified through an architectural study commissioned by council last year. New roof, heating and electrical, accessibility issues, tuckpointing and new windows and doors were included in the architect's recommendations for immediate attention for the building.

Fuelberth said these were typically

Rash of burglaries plague Wayne area

By Kevin Peterson Of the Herald

The Wayne Police Department has joined forces with the Wayne County Sheriff's Department and other area law enforcement agencies in searching for those responsible for several burglaries which took place late Sunday night or early Monday morning in and around

Riley's Cafe and The Pit Stop were the two places burglarized in town while Logan Valley Implement and Midland Equipment were burglarized just outside the city limits according to Wayne Police Chief Vern Fairchild and Wayne County Sheriff LeRoy Janssen.

"Approximately $4200 in checks and cash was taken by the perpetrators," Fairchild said. "Entry was gained by using an iron bar in all of the break-ins.

On Tuesday, bank bags containing checks from one of the local establishments burglarized, was found northeast of town on a county road, "The checks from the establishment were recovered but the cash that was also in the bags vas gone," Janssen said.

The investigation into the burglaries is continuing and at the present time there have been a few leads and some suspects according to Fairchild.

IN ANOTHER incident, the Wayne Presbyterian Church was

Snow removal discussed

WAYNE — Concerns about quicker county action on snow removal and sanding of the North Centennial Road access to the Great Dane Plant in Wayne should be alleviated with future snow storms, county officials agreed at their meeting Tuesday.

The county was short-handed during the last snow storm and road crews were unable to get on North Centennial right away, prompting complaints.

Associates praise director's service

By Clara Osten for the Herald

"When Haven House started in 1982, we served one or two clients per month. Because of Sara Campebell's dedication and efforts today we serve approximately 8-10 new clients a month," said Gary West, one of the Board members of Haven House

Campbell recently resigned as the director of Haven House, Several members of the 14 member board praised the work she did to bring Haven House to where it is

When Haven House was initially started, it was operated through the minister of the United Methodist Church. At that time it served primarily as a shelter and was not advertised except in and through the churches.

ROBERT ENSZ, who was an original board member and served until he was appointed District Judge in 1991, said, "Sara began her work for Haven House as a volunteer and was a board member at the time. Her work as a secretary in the Social Science Department of Wayne State College led her to see the need for Haven House's services in many areas of the community.

"She made Haven House wellknown, especially on campus. She helped established support groups to visit and counsel the women who come to Haven House," said

'The problem with Sara's job is that she was always on call. Domestic abuse problems don't come at convenient times. She dealt with women during frantic situations when they felt especially alone,"

"SARA WAS ALSO instrumental in increasing the size and variety of members who serve on the Board of Directors. The board is now made up a diverse group of people from Wayne and e surrounding area," said Ensz.

The Board of Directors serves as a policy making and supervisory board who meet monthly to discuss both budget matters and the status of Haven House. Confidentially is essential for clients at Haven House so board members receive statistics but do not receive names of anyone who has been served by Haven House.

DENNIS LIPP, who has been on the Board of Directors since it started said, "Sara did a tremendous job of educating the public on Haven House. Through her various talks and lectures in schools, churches and civic organizations, people became aware of what was available to those women who were in abuse situations."

"Haven House serves Wayne, Cedar, Dixon, Dakota and Thurston counties. Sara also worked with police departments and physicians metropolitan Nebraska has improved significantly since 1986, according to a Nebraska Public Power District study of economic trends.

Employment, per capita income, farm real estate values, banking conditions and business expansions all increased since the mid-1980's. Unemployment in out-state Nebraska is only 2.6 percent, compared with the national rate of 6.8

The report, prepared by Dr. Donis N. Petersan, NPPD economic research analyst, said manufacturing employment growth since 1986 has offset declines in agricultural employment. Manufacturing employment in non-metropolitan Nebraska grew by 30.7 percent, compared to the overall state growth of manufacturing employment of 20.7

Farm real estate values improved significantly following a continuous decline between 1982 and 1987. The improvement was attributed to greater farm income stability and increased buyer interest in farmland.

100th birthday party held at Colonial Manor

A birthday party was held at the Colonial Manor Nursing Home in Randolph on Dec. 17 for Minnie Jones who was 100 years old that day.

The third of eight children, Minnie Graf was born Dec. 17, 1893 on a farm near Monticello,

When she was seven, her family moved to a farm south of Belden, where she attended school through the eighth grade and was a member of the German Reform Church.

On Dec. 4, 1929 she married Ray Jones. They farmed in the Belden area for several years before moving to California where Ray was employed as a custodian in a Āfter Ray's death in 1963, Minnie returned to Nebraska and made her home in Randolph. She remained in her home until July of 1985 when, at the age of 92, she became a resident of Colonial

The Jones' had no children but Minnie has many nieces and nephews and other relatives in the Randolph area.

Although she is confined to a wheelchair and has some difficulty hearing and seeing, she attends many of the Manor activities and according to the Activities Director, "she is still with it and knows what is going on around here.

A-Teen Club's 55th

Anniversary marks end of an era

Members of the A-Teen Home Extension Club, Hoskins, observed the Club's 55th anniversary in coniunction with the club's December meeting and Christmas party at Valentino's, Norfolk, on Dec. 8

Three members were honored for their long-term membership, Mrs. Earl Anderson and Mrs. Guy Anderson for 55 years and Mrs. Wm. Thoendel for 51 years. After a short business meeting, the honored guests were seated before a table on which pictures, newspaper articles and other club memorabilia were displayed. Mrs. Duane Kruger, president, congratulated the honorees and presented them with silk flowers, orchid ones to Mrs. Earl Anderson and Mrs. Guy Anderson and a golden one to Mrs. William Thoendel. Each club member received an orchid and green, the club's colors, anniversary booklet to remember the 1993 celebration.

Mrs. James Robinson read the club's history, which included many accomplishments and learning. experiences over the 55 year period. The A-Teen Club, originally called the 6-A Project Club, was organized in September, 1938, with 18 members who expressed an interest in educational programs in the home. They were Mrs. Earl Anderson, Mrs. Emmett Anderson, Mrs. Guy Anderson, Mrs. Henry Ander-Mrs. Iver Anderson, Mrs. Luther Anderson, Mrs. Fred Bargstadt, Mrs. Ed Bell, Mrs. E.H. Boelling, Mrs. Glen Frink, Mrs. Kennard Hall, Mrs. Lynn Isom, Mrs. Otto Koepke, Mrs. Gus Marten, Mrs. Walter Schellpeper, Mrs. John Schnoor, Mrs. Clarence Schroeder and Mrs. Oliver Stamm. After the loss of two Andersons from the club, the name "6-A Project Club" was no longer apropos and the name was changed to the "A-Teen Club." The "A" was retained in memory of Mrs. Luther Anderson and "Teen" added to signify the membership goal of 18.

Members took part in promoting extension work at the local, county, state and national levels, and several club members have had the honor of being selected as Wayne County's Outstanding Homemakers and were guests at recognition banquets in Norfolk, Sioux City and Omaha. The first one selected was Mrs. Earl Anderson in 1947, then Mrs. Clarence Schroeder in 1948 and Mrs. William Riggert in 1949. The next year, Mrs. Guy Anderson's name was submitted as a nominee for the honor, but before any county selections could be made, the procedure was changed and the person who was serving as Wayne County chairman was automatically selected.

Members cooperated with the County Extension Council at county-wide Spring Teas, Achievement Days and Friendship Dinners over the years. They wrote scripts and participated in programs; such as "Whirling Through Extension" to celebrate the 25th anniversary of the Wayne County Council; "I Want to Ask You About Nebraska" for the centennial program by the County Council at its 1967 Spring Tea and repeated at the community centennial celebration at Hoskins; and "The Family Well-Being and Music Connection" for presentation at the spring tea in Hoskins in 1984. Members also entertained with performances such as "Ladies of the Mop" and "Shed a Little Tear.

The A-Teen Club has observed many anniversaries at five-year intervals. Members of the anniversary planning committee were Mrs. Blanche Andersen, Mrs. Walter Fleer, Mrs. Vernon Hokamp, Mrs. Duane Kruger and Mrs. James Robinson, Present members of the club include the planning committee and Mrs. Earl Anderson, Mrs. Guy Anderson, Mrs. Irving Anderson, Mrs. Elaine Ehlers, Mrs. Robin Fleer, Mrs. Louis Gosch, Mrs. Leslie Kruger, Mrs. William Thoendel and Mrs. Harold Wittler. A Christmas party followed the anniversary portion of the day, with hostess Mrs. Louis Gosch in charge. Ten point pitch was the entertainment for the afternoon and prizes were won by Mrs. Walter leer, Mrs. Vernon Hokamp and Mrs. Duane Kruger. Secret sisters were revealed when Christmas gifts were distributed. The hostess served homemade Christmas sweets and coffee to close the day's activities.

WHOLE WHEAT BIBLE STUDY

How to abide in Christ After you read through this Bible study, go back and look up the Scriptures and highlight them in your

Many people, when they hear an expression in the Bible like, "Abide in Christ," don't readily understand what it means. If a person abides in his house, he stays there. If one abides by the decision of the judge he obeys the judge. In John 15:7. the phrase would mean to "remain stable" or "fixed in one's state,"

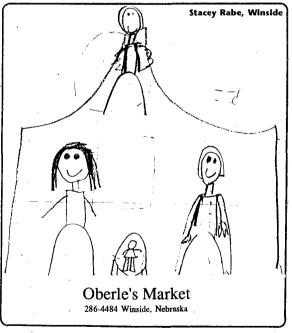

In John 15:7, Jesus is saying, if we live as He does by keeping His words, then our prayers will certainbe answered. If we say we abide in Him, we also ought to live in the same manner as Jesus lived or walked (1 John 2:6). Jesus was constantly doing things that were pleasing in the Father's sight (John 8:29). When we live this Way, we are assured of having our prayers answered (1 John 3:22).

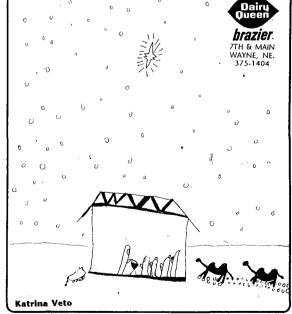

Living to please the Father daily is easy and pleasant (Matt. 11:30). It does not take a great deal of intelli-gence, but we must have the attitude of a child to live God's Way of life (Matt. 18:4; Mark 10:15; Luke 18:17; 1 Cor. 1:26-28).

God-fearing parents would train their children not to swear, lie, steat or cheat. Instead, they would train their children to get involved in doing good things and to continue to do good, overcoming evil by doing good. God wants the same (Rom. 12:21). Our heavenly Father wants us to do the same so He can wants us to do the same so rie can bless us instead of send curses on us daily (Heb. 12:5-11; Acts 3:26). We are, by nature, children of wrath (Eph. 2:3). But we come out from under the wrath of God when ve become obedient to Christ (John 3:36). Unless we are abiding in Christ daily by practicing righteousness for God, we are all being held captive to do Satan's will (2 Tim. :26). If we are not abiding in Christ, we are doing Satan's will. But if we are overcoming evil by doing God's Will daily on earth as it is constantly being done in heaven. we are abiding in Christ (Matt. 6:10). Doing God's Will is doing good works and this is how we abide in Christ (John 9:31; 1 John

Trojan boys lose on last second bomb; girls win

The Wakefield boys and girls basketball teams hosted Osmond, Tuesday and Gregg Cruickshank's girls won their second straight game, 41-34 to leave the Trojans with a 2-3 record while Brad Hoskins watched his boys team lose on a heart-breaking long threepointer at the buzzer by Osmond's Brian Hoffman for a 64-63 setback, leaving the Trojans with a 3-3

In the boys game the Trojans grabbed a 32-26 lead at the intermission and were clinging to a three point advantage after the third

In the fourth quarter the host team got things going and had built an eight point lead, 61-53 with just 1:47 remaining. That's when Hoff-man took over for the visiting undefeated and ranked Tigers

Hoffman drained two, threepointers to pull the Tigers to with in two points and on the ensuing three-pointer, Pat Gansebom stole the ball and made a lay-up to tie the score. Osmond had scored eight

Wakefield did not convert on its next possession and Omsond held the ball for the majority of the final minute. The Tigers shot the ball at 14 seconds and missed. Cory Brown got the rebound and dribbled up

Brown was double-teamed but he got the ball off to Justin Dutcher who drove baseline and made a layup off the glass with five seconds

The Tigers drove the length of the court with no time outs remaining and got the ball to Hoffman who turned and fired from very long distance and as the ball was going through the rim the buzzer to end the game sounded.

Despite the loss, this reallyshows how balanced our conference really is," Hoskins said. "Osmond we felt we should have won the Hoffman, a prolific scoring guard for Osmond, was held to four points through the first three quarters but poured in 16 of the last 20 points scored for the winners.

Dutcher had a brilliant game for Wakefield, scoring a career high 18 points including some critical, three-pointers. Cory Brown tossed in a dozen and Ryan Ekberg netted 11. Miah Johnson and Cody Skin-ner were also close to the double digit mark with nine and eight points respectively.

Wakefield dominated the boards, 48-23 and Brown led the way with 10 caroms while Ekberg and Wes Blecke had seven each. The Trojans drawback was in the turnover category where they suffered 27 while Osmond had 19. Wakefield was 15-26 from the free throw line and the

IN THE girls contest the Tro-jans jumped out to an 11-4 advantage after the first quarter and ended up winning by that same margin, 41-34. Maria Eaton led the winners with 14 points while Kali Baker poured in a dozen. Mary Torczon scored six points as the Trojans now look toward Tuesday's first round game of the Holiday Tournament at Wayne State where they will play Madison.

Wakefield connected on 7-13 from the free throw line while Os-team is quickly becoming known as the hard luck kids as they lost their second double overtime game in four days, this time at Walthill,

Angie Schroeder's team continues to struggle in the turnover category-a direct reason why the Wildcats have slipped to 1-6 to start the season. "We had 36 more against Walthill," Schroeder said. We've had 182 in the first seven games while our opponent's have only had 54 so that's a big difference in possessions and chances to Winside jumped out in front of the host team, 16-13 after the first quarter and the visitors maintained that advantage at the half, 27-24. Walthill close to with in two points heading to the fourth quarter and the Bluejays took the lead late in the game.

"We were down by two points with five seconds to play and we had the ball out of bounds under our basket," Schroeder said. "We got the ball to Tammy Thies and she overtime."

Both teams could score just two points in the first overtime but Walthill out-scored Winside by a 6-2 margin the second overtime to post the win. Wendy Miller led Winside with 17 points while Kari Pichler scored a career high 16 points. Christi Mundil and Catherine Bussey each tossed in 10.

Both teams finished with 44 rebounds with Chris Colwell leading Winside with 13 caroms while Melinda Mohr came off the bench to notch nine rebounds. The Wildstripe while Walthill was 9-26. We got a solid performance from the players on the bench," Schroeder said. "That was nice to see because it means we can use more players and take advantage of our depth.

THE BOYS game with Walthill didn't prove to be that close as Randy Geier's Wildcats were gunned down early. Walthill led 25-8 after the first quarter and out-scored Winside by a 39-38 margin in the second half to post the 90-57 victory.

"We just didn't do a good job of handling their press," Geier said. "Walthill is a very quick team and they created a lot of turnovers with their press and full court game."

Geier said his 1-5 squad gave up a lot of offensive rebounds which led to second chance points. Ryan Brogren led Winside with 13 points while Jeremy Jenkins tossed in 11.

Colby Jensen, Marty Jorgensen and Jaimey Holdorf each finished with six points. Winside was out-rebounded, 57-46 and the 'Cats committed 35 turnovers compared to 22 for Walthill. The Wildcats were 21-38 from the free throw line and Walthill was 6-17. Winside will travel to play Beemer in its next contest which will be Jan. 8.

Lady Eagles win

The Allen girls basketball team notched their fifth win of the season, Tuesday at home against Homer, 48-32. The Lady Eagles led 10-5 after the first quarter and 24-19 at the intermission.

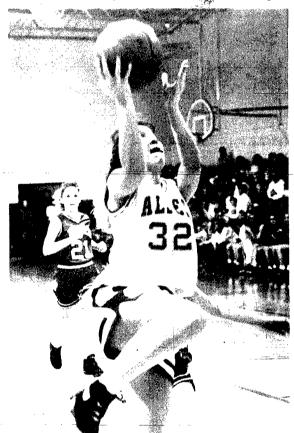

Allen's defense turned up their intensity in the second half, holding the visitors to just 13 points over the final two periods. "We accom-plished what we set out to do," Eagles coach Lori Koester said. "We wanted to cut down on the large number of turnovers we had been suffering and we did with only

The Allen mentor was also pleased with the guard play she got from Dawn Diediker, Holly Blair and Abbey Schroeder. "We just took better care of the basketball than we had been," Koester said. "Our inside game with Tanya Plueger and Steph Martinson was also very good.'

Plueger led the winners with 14 points while Martinson tossed in 10. Blair finished with seven points and Debbie Plueger came off the bench to net six.

Allen was edged on the boards, 31-28 despite double digits in rebounds by Tanya Plueger with 10. Allen went to the foul line just four times the entire game and made two while Homer was 4-13.

Diediker led a tenacious Allen defense with four steals. The Eagles will now be sidelined until after the Christmas break. They return to ALLEN'S DAWN Diediker eyes the basket for two points during the Eagles convincing win over Homer, Tuesday in Allen. Tanya Plueger led the winners with 14 points while Steph Martinson was in double figures with 10. The Lady Eagles improved to 5-2 and will not play again until Jan. 4 when they travel to meet highly tauted Wausa.

Campus Ministries receive AAL grants

Aid Association for Lutherans (AAL) has awarded two $2,500 grants to assist campus ministry programs at Wayne State College.

One grant, for leadership development, was awarded to the Christian Student Fellowship, a campus ministry of the Lutheran Church. Missouri Synod. That group meets at the Lutheran Student Center on

The second grant, also for leadership development and to develop a new program to enhance campus ministry, was presented to the Wayne Lutheran Campus Ministry, which administers the WelCoMe House.

The grant checks were presented to the respective ministers of the programs, Rev. Merle Mahnken at the Datheran Student Center and Rev. Michael Girlinghouse at the WeLCoMe House, by Curt Christensen, AAL representative.

Campus ministry programs are so important to our young people, såid Barbara Kuxhaus, AAL grants program manager. "They reach out to young adults who may be away from home for the first time, making decisions that will affect the rest of their lives. The programs also provide an opportunity to help develop and encourage college students to become leaders in the Lutheran

The new satellite, dubbed DBSwill begin delivering a 70-channel digital television service, called DirecTv (TM), to viewers across the country in the spring of 1994 using an 18-inch satellite receiving system, being manufactured by Thomson Consumer Electronics, makers of RCA-brand products.

The service will expand to approximately 150 channels when DBS-1 is joined by a sister satellite in the summer of 1994.

DirecTv is a joint venture between GM Hughes Electronics and the rural electric, rural telephone and affiliate members of the National Rural Telecommunications Cooperative (NRTC). Locally, in Pierce and Wayne County counties. the service will be distributed by Wayne County Public Power Dis

Schroeder said that he expects the service to be very popular with local residents. "Residents of this area will e among the first viewers in the nation to experience this new way of viewing television when it comes on line next year," Schroeder said. "We only hope that there will be sufficient receiving equipment available in the early months to meet the anticipated demand.'

Consumers will view the service using the Digital Satellite Systems (TM) equipment being manufactured by Thomson, The DSS system includes an 18-inch satellite dish, a digital receiver box and remote control and is scheduled to be priced starting at about $700, no including installation.

Among the features that this new service will pioneer is the use of an on-screen electronic programming guide which will allow viewers to choose programming by category and themes. For example one guide would list all of the drama movies available on the system and another would list all of the sports programming.

"Consumers are going to love this system, not just for viewing choices it offers," said Schroeder, but also for how easy it is to use.

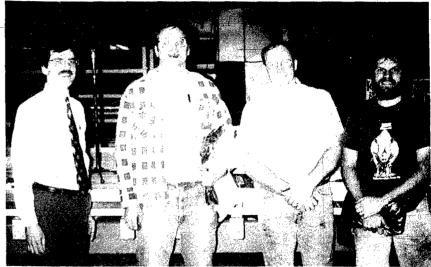

The programming signed to the system so far includes many of the most popular cable networks, in cluding CNN, The Disney Channel, The Discovery Channel, Country Music Television and many more. In addition, DirecTv will offer more than 50 channels of pay-per-view programming -- including hit movies, sporting events and specials from companies such as Sony Pictures, Paramount Pictures, Uni-Pictures and Turner/MGM Library - all at the touch fo a button.

"We are proud to be involved in this project and proud to be the loeal provider of the expanded video services it will deliver," said Schroeder. "Thanks to the forward thinking of the District's Board of Directors to become involved with this project, rural residents of Pierce and Wayne counties will be getting this service from a trusted member of the local community, a service provider in Pierce and Wayne counties since 1939."

Kay is currently seeking recipes for a community cookbook to be published early next year. She has already sought contributions from her fellow employees and from residents and their families for the book. Now she would like to add contributions from the Wakefield community and also former residents of the area.

Recipes should be addressed to Kay Kellogg, P.O. Box 398, Wakefield, NE 68784. They should include the name and address of the contributor. All types of recipes are being sough.

The estimated cost of the aviary with partial maintenance from the installing company is $4,000. She also said that cash donations for the project are also welcome and may either be sent to her or deposited in a special "Aviary Fund" at the Wakefield National Bank.

Merry Christmas

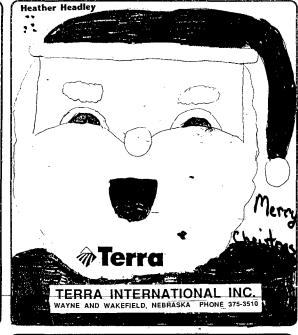

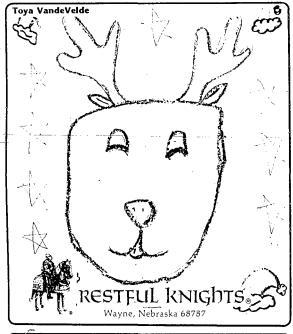

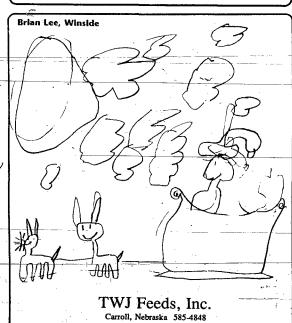

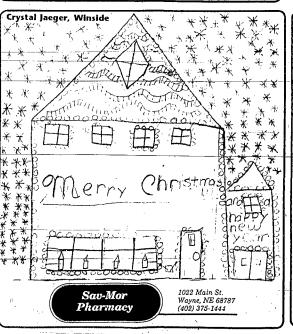

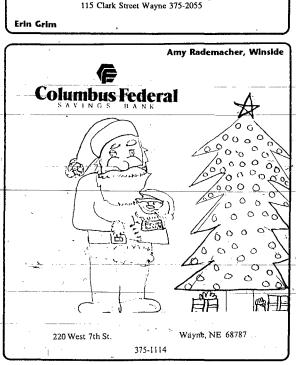

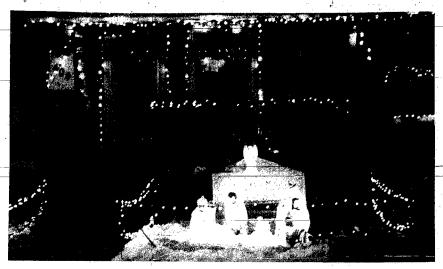

Letting their light shine

One of the most brightly decorated homes in Wayne is that of Michael Wurdeman at 404 Logan. Besides light strings around the home and yard, the family also displays a nativity scene, a Santa on the rooftop, a huge candy cane, a lighted train and a huge Christmas card. The days immediately before Christmas are traditional times for families to take their Christmas drives looking at the lights. Thursday night was the night that residents of the Knowles Addition lighted over 1,300 luminaries throughout their neighborhood as well.

CHRISTMAS PROGRAM

The United Methodist Sunday school held their Christmas program Dec. 19 at 7 p.m. The name of the program was "Music of Bethlehem." It was a play telling the story of Mandy, a spunky girl who uses a wheelchair and lives with her father, Eric. She loves music and each time she winds the music box her piano teacher gave her, she images what the first Christmas had been like.

Mandy was played by Kirby Roberts; Eric, Brandon Hall; Jenny, Nicole Fredrickson; Carl, Matt Claussen; Kathryn, Andrea Simpson; Laura, Erin Simpson; Kelly, Katie Roberts; two shepherds, Chris Shultheis and Dustin Hurlbert; Heather, Ashley Hall; and Becki, Kari Hochstein. Jenny, Carl, Kathryn, Heather and Becky represented the youth group who were building a wheel chair ramp.

Mary was played by Mashala

Davis; Joseph, John Harmer; three wisemen, Joshua Davis, Justin Davis and Kris Roberts; narrator, Alice Rohde; delivery person, June Koester; angels, Kelsly Woodword and Autumn MacIntyre; carolers, Becka Dowling, Emily Koester, Pilger, Elizabeth

Shultheis, Jacob Davis, Matthew Davis, Kalvin Hurlbert, Kelyn Roberts and Drew Simon, A real lamb was used in the nativity scene and Ken Hall was dressed as a shepherd.

Sunday school teachers are Deb Hall, who is also superintendent, Mandi Hall, Joni Davis, Kathy Hochstein, June Koester and Alice

A gift exchange was held after the program. Sacks of candy were handed out. The candy was donated by Frank and Sue Gilmore and Lynn and Pat Roberts. Lunch was served by the women of the church. The cookies were brought by everyone. Rev. Donald Nunnally led in prayer. WAY OUT HERE

The Way Out Here Club met Dec. 21 at Geno's in Wayne for their Christmas supper. Cards were played afterwards, with prizes going to Norma Hansen, Loretta Baier, Betty Rohlff, Melvin Magnuson, Lowell Rohlff and Martin Hansen. For roll call they had a Christmas ornament exchange. Betty Rohlff received her birthday gift from her secret sister. Next meeting will be Jan. 25 at 7:15 p.m. for a potluck supper in the home of Loretta Baier. Roll call will be what project you plan to do this winter.

SENIOR CITIZENS

Senior Citizens met Dec. 20 with 12 present. Cards were played for entertainment for the afternoon. Prizes went to Marie Bring and Etta Fisher. Guests for lunch were Mrs. Orpha Stutton, Mrs. Hazel Ayer, Mrs. Julie Fuchs and Mrs. Ruth Preston, all of Belden.

The next meeting will be a potluck on Dec. 27 at 1:30 p.m.

STAR CLUB

The Star Extension Club held their Christmas party Dec. 10 at Davis Steakhouse with 17 present. After supper, crazy bridge was played with prizes going to Keith Owens, Doug Koester, Doris Harmer and JoAnn Owens. A gift exchange was held and cookies and coffee was served for lunch.

Cynthia Puntney was the hostess. Next meeting will be Jan. 6.

Marshal urges fire safety

The Nebraska State-Fire Marshal's office would like to wish everyone a Merry Christmas and offer some tips for a fire safe holiday.

A Christmas tree consists of about 40 pounds of combustible material strategically placed in your living room. Most trees are cut months earlier. If ignited, a Christmas tree can become a flaming torch and engulf an entire room in less than two minutes.

*Test freshness by closing your thumb and forefinger around a branch and pulling toward the branch tip. The needles should feel soft and springy, and very few should drop to the ground.

•When you get the tree home, cut about an inch off the bottom of the trunk and place the tree in water. The cutting step is important because a cut tree tries to "heal" its cut by sealing it with its own sap which prevents the tree from drink-

•If the tree is not going into the house soon after purchase, it should be stored in a bucket of warm water on a cool porch or patio protected water so the tree will not dry out.

•An average tree may consume

SERVE ALL CLUB

Nine members of the Serve All Club met for their Christmas luncheon Dec. 15, held at the Hotel in Wakefield.

Berniece Kaufman and Virginia Leonard were on the social committee. Virginia presented a special version of the poem "The Night Before Christmas," assisted by all members. Berniece read a short story entitled "Let Nothing You Dismay." A pencil game on Christmas song titles was led by Virginia with Alice Heimann winning the prize.

The 1994 yearbooks were given to members. New officers are Dorothy Driskell, president; Ruth Boeckenhauer, vice president; Edna Hansen, secretary-treasurer; Virginia Leonard and Ruth Boeckenhauer, sunshine committee; and Glee Gustafson and Ardath Utecht, social committee.

On dean's list

Southeast Community College, Milford Campus, is pleased to announce the Dean's List for the Fall Quarter ending Dec. 15. A grade point average of 3.5 (B+) must be achieved on a 4.0 (A) scale to be so honored.

On the list is Mark A. Niemann. Wayne, who is enrolled in the building construction program.

with Peg Kinney as hostess.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Meyer and family of Quimby, Iowa, Mr. and Mrs. Glendon Meyer and family of Pender, Mr. and Mrs. DeLloyd Meyer Jr. and family of Omaha, Mr. and Mrs. Larry G. Echtenkamp and family and Catherine Echt-enkamp, all of Wayne, were pre-Christmas dinner guests Saturday in the Berniece Meyer home.

Wes Greve and Jim Zwiebel of Brush, Colo. were guests in the Bill Greve home Dec. 15 to 18. If water level-drops below-the cut end of the trunk, a seal will sorbed by the tree unless another fresh cut is made. So don't forget to add fresh water every day. ·Place the tree away from heat sources such as heating vents, wood stoves and fireplaces, television sets or sunny windows. •Be careful not to block doorways or hallways with your tree. Seconds count and every possible exit should be available.

·Check smoke detectors and practice home exit drills

•Miniature lights produce much less heat and reduce the drying effect upon a tree.

·Always check light sets for fraved or cracked wire insulation and broken sockets before placing them on a tree. Do not attempt to repair a worn light set. Throw it away and buy a new set

•Do not overload electrical circuits.

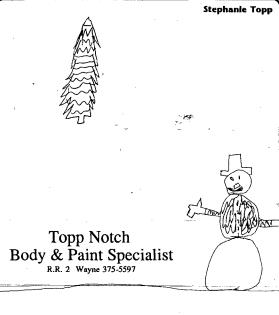

·Always turn off the lights of your tree when leaving the house or retiring for the night.

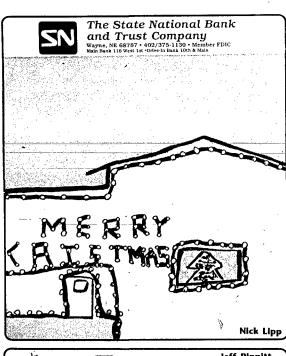

Never use lighted candles.

After Christmas, remove the tree before it dries. Never burn any part of a Christmas tree in a wood stove or fireplace.

Mrs. Hilda Thomas 565-4569 GARDEN CLUB

The Hoskins Garden Club met at the home of Frieda Meierhenry on Dec. 17 for their annual no-host Christmas dinner. All members were present.

LaVern Walker, president, opened the meeting with a poem, "Christmas Through the Year," followed by group singing of the hostoss'-favorite-carol, "O Little Town of Bethlehem." For roll call, each member brought something for entertainment, which consisted of "Charades," poems and quizzes. Secretary and treasurer reports were given. It was noted that two members, Nona Wittler and Lorraine Wesely had perfect attendance the past year. All other members had missed only one meeting during the year. The meeting closed with the Watch Word for the day, "You may give gifts without caring, but

Nebraska AIDS cases A food gift exchange was held at may top 500 this year

Nebraska may see its 500th case of AIDS by the end of the year, according to the Nebraska Department of Health.

Only 10 other states have not passed the 500 mark yet, said Virginia Wilkinson, director of the state HIV/AIDS program. They are North and South Dakota, Wyoming, Montana, Idaho, Ver-mont, Maine, New Hampshire, Alaska and West Virginia.

Since 1983, 475 cases of AIDS have been reported in Nebraska.

The number of AIDS cases reported this year has nearly tripled over the number last year, Wilkinson said, because the federal Centers for Disease Control and Prevention expanded the case definition to include HIV-infected people who have recurrent pneumonia, invasive cervical cancer, pulmonary tuberculosis and a CD4 cell count under 200. A CD4 cell count indicates the status of the body's immune system.

World AIDS Day, Dec. 1, is observed to strengthen the worldwide effort to stop the spread of AIDS by encouraging support for HIV prevention and control activities and programs, Wilkinson said.

"In the absence of a cure or a vaccine, prevention is the key to stopping the transmission of HIV," she said. "And education is the most effective form of prevention."

It's important for everyone to know that HIV infection is transmitted primarily through unprotected sexual activity. It can also be spread by sharing contaminated needles, through infected blood or blood products, and from an infected mother to her baby before or during birth, Wilkinson said.

"People can make a difference in their own communities by supporting HIV/AIDS prevention efforts and by promoting awareness of the disease," she said.
