

Fire danger is no passing fancy

Fire crews from Wayne, Winside, Hoskins and Carroll spent much of the day and night Thursday battling persistent grass fires which were whipped by strong winds and tinder dry conditions. Last season's heavy grass growth is this season's fire danger condition, and residents are encouraged to be very careful during this period of extreme fire danger. This scene was taken a mile and a half west of Wayne Thursday afternoon when fire crews were battling a blaze which jumped Highway 35 and caused traffic to be diverted for several hours.

International study team visits, shares from Japan

Five Japanese professionals presented greetings from Osaka, Japan to Wayne, America during a Rotary International Group Study Exchange swing through Wayne Wednesday. The Japanese study team was hosted by the Wayne Rotary Club which presented the young citizen diplomats with Wayne Chicken Show and Wayne State College t-shirts and souvenir banners from Wayne.

"It is great to see and relate to the real Americans and not live with the image we get through the movies," said Minoru Okuda, a certified public accountant, who was the team leader and the only Rotarian of the group.

He said the Midwest area and the people the team has met during its four-week stay in eastern Nebraska and western Iowa have been much different than the image most people in Japan have of Americans.

HE SAID IT was not difficult to find applicants for the fully funded study tour from among young Japanese professionals because they knew they would be coming to the friendly Midwest "where there is low crime and good people." Designed to build international understanding and good will, the Rotary-funded exchange trips of professionals were patterned after the popular student exchange programs pioneered by Rotary International.

The young Japanese members of the team are also using the information gained on their Nebraska tour to improve themselves professionally, said Okuda. He said he has been surprised at the similarities in his profession practiced in the United States and in Japan. "Everything it computerized to keep up with the increased government regulations," he said of CPA work on both sides of the Pacific Rim.

TAKASHI KAWAIKE, a 27-year-old meat import trader with the leading beef importing company in Japan, said he is developing important business contacts in this area. He said he has purchased thousands of metric tons of beef from right here in Nebraska and he was enjoying the opportunity to see the production processes.

Besides Kawaike and Okuda, other team members are, Naomi Harada, a 28 year old personnel administrator in Yao City Hall in Osaka; Hiroe Nakanishi, a 30-year-old professional secretary for the director of a private international high school, and Hikaru Oda, a 30-year-old surgical nurse from Unilife-Kitano Hospital in Osaka.

WHILE HERE, the team toured the schools, Heritage Industries and local agricultural operations.

During the visit, Miss Nakanishi

Risky fire danger keeps crews busy

By Kevin Peterson
Of the Herald

The Wayne Volunteer Fire Department was kept quite busy, Thursday as they were called to the scene of three different fires. In fact, the whole state of Nebraska, battling very dry conditions along with strong winds, saw a number of fires which caused an undetermined amount of damage.

The first call came in around 1:30 p.m. a mile-and-a-half West of Wayne for a grass fire. Assistant fire chief Jeff Triggs said the blaze was probably caused by a spark from a tractor that was loading hay.

"We were assisted by the Winside Fire Department and we were on the scene for approximately two hours," Triggs said. One spokesman said the fire jumped the road and if there had been an East wind, KTCH radio station's building would have been in jeopardy of burning.

The local fire department was called to another fire around 7:15 p.m. five miles West and three-fourths of a mile North. Triggs said Wayne's firefighters were assisted by Carroll's Fire Department and

You can help!

Local and state fire officials are encouraging all residents to be extra careful with fire because of the extreme danger of range fires across Nebraska.

The excellent growing season from a year ago, combined with recent dry weather and high winds have created dangerous conditions in the tall grass fields across the state.

Northeast Nebraska fire fighters have battled several field fires in recent days and have asked for the public's help in minimizing the danger by controlling combustion activities.

Thursday's windswept flames burned over 130 acres in three separate fires in Wayne County alone.

the apparent cause of the blaze was tree stumps that had rekindled after being burned on Wednesday.

The last call came a little past

10 p.m. as firefighters were called to a blaze three miles West, two miles South and another three-fourths of a mile West.

This was the worst of the three fires as fire departments from Wayne, Carroll, Winside and a truck from Hoskins were on the scene for nearly three hours.

"The cause of the fire is still under investigation," Triggs said. "When the fire was put out, nearly 125 acres had been burned."

The Wayne firefighters expressed their gratitude for assistance from Winside, Carroll and Hoskins firefighters and to the farmers that assisted with tractors and disks.

Terra Chemical of Wayne was thanked for their assistance hauling water as was the Red Cross with Miron Jenness in particular for supplying sandwiches and drinks for those fighting the blazes.

A fire near Beemer caused extensive damage; Thursday as close to 70 firefighters from several departments remained on the scene until the blaze was extinguished.

The fire took its toll, however as a house and some farm buildings were destroyed along with 150 acres of land.

Entrepreneurs work harder

By Les Mann
Of the Herald

Don't plan to start your own business unless to expect to work harder, longer and smarter than you ever have before.

That was the graduation address delivered by retired entrepreneur Dan Gardner to the members of the first Fast Trac class in Wayne Thursday night.

Fast Trac is a business development and training program offered through Wayne State College and the USWest Corporation to entrepreneurs to help them develop their ideas into a business plan.

Twelve members of the first class in Wayne received their certificates of graduation during a special dinner and ceremony at the Wayne Country Club Thursday. Certificates were presented by Wayne State College President Dr. Donald Mash.

BUT BEFORE the graduates received their certificates they got some valuable advice from one of Nebraska's most successful entrepreneurs, the retired chief executive officer of the M.G. Waldbaum Co. of Wakefield—Dan Gardner.

"I caution you as entrepreneurs, don't plan to work less or plan for your work to be easier," he said. He told the graduates who wanted to start their own businesses to expect to work 80-hour weeks and enter the effort only with the full support of spouse and family.

"If it isn't a family thing it is not going to work," he said.

OTHER RECOMMENDATIONS for the would-be entrepreneurs, said Gardner would be, read and continue education by attending professional and industry conferences ("You can't read enough"), concentrate on customer service, ("do everything you can to make business easier for that customer"), develop a great relationship with your local banker ("he is the most important business associate you will have"), recognize your own weaknesses ("surround yourself with people who can help you overcome

Campaign fund is growing

Several sizeable gifts have been received this week which have increased the pledge total to the Wayne Library and Senior Center Capital Campaign to nearly $200,000.

Carhart Lumber Company has pledged $10,000 to the private fund raising portion of the campaign whose goal is $575,000 in private funds to be used to match an anticipated $625,000 in funds from a city one cent sales tax which will be on the ballot May 10. Scott Carhart presented the pledge to campaign chairman Pat Gross.

The plans call for a single structure to house both the public library and senior center in separate wings with shared rest room, mechanical,

Thousands to see WSC theater production

Approximately 5,000 elementary children from throughout Northeast Nebraska will attend the Wayne State College Children's Theatre production of "Treasure Island" April 14-21 on campus.

Performance times are Thursday, April 14, 10 a.m. and 1 p.m.; Friday, April 15, 1 p.m.; Saturday, April 16, no performances; Sunday, April 17, 2 p.m.; Monday, April 18, 10 a.m.; Tuesday, April 19, 10 a.m. and 1 p.m.; Wednesday, April 20, 1 and 8 p.m.; and Thursday, April 21, 10 a.m. Admission is $3 per person.

This year marks the 36th anniversary of the Children's Theatre at Wayne State College.

When this rousing adventure story premiered off-Broadway, it received unanimous critical acclaim. The New York Times called it an "inventive classic." Parents Magazine considered it "first rate all the way, a delightful experience."

"Treasure Island" is one of the most durable adventure stories of all time, with the villainous Long John Silver following young Jim across the ocean to search out a buried fortune, according to Dr. Andre Sedriks, professor of theatre at Wayne State.

The following is a cast list for the production. Character is followed by name and hometown.

Language students excel

Ten Wayne High students of German and their teacher, Edith Zahniser, traveled to Lincoln to participate in the 18th annual Foreign Language Fair recently. This year's Language Fair had the theme "Languages: A Network for Understanding," and attracted 1,457 students of French, German, Latin, Russian and Spanish.
 Students could take part in competition, sample mini-lessons in different languages, strike up a conversation in French, German or Spanish with professors from the Modern Languages Department who were in charge of Conference Booths or find out about international study/travel programs coordinated by UNL's International Affairs Office. The Wayne students entered a variety of competitive events.

 Rachel Blaser, Rochelle Carman, Piyali Dalal, Peter Taber, Rachel Walton and Kelly Soden earned very good in the poetry recitation event. Krista Magnuson, Sarah Blaser and Claire Rasmussen earned superior. The poems had to be recited from memory. The students were judged on pronunciation, delivery of the memorized text and interpretation.
 The rendition of the song "Mein kleiner grüner Kaktus" earned a very good for a group of singers including Rachel Blaser, Rochelle Carman, Piyali Dalal, Krista Magnuson and Peter Taber. They were accompanied on the piano by Liz Lindau. Performers in the music competition were judged on prounciation, presentation and interpretation.

 Rachel Walton had entered the poster competition and received a very good for her poster showing classes in Wayne and Germany linked in friendship by a regular exchange of letters. Rachel's official nametag entry, a floppy disk displaying the American and German flags, was judged superior and won first place.
 Sarah Blaser and Claire Rasmussen earned a superior for their performance of an adaptation of Vicco von Buelow's "Das Ei" in the drama competition. Dramatic scenes were rated on the correct use of language, pronunciation, acting ability, costumes, props, presentation and observation of time limit.

Georgia Janssen, director of the Wayne Senior Citizen Center said the senior citizens who use the current crowded center in the basement of City Hall are extremely excited about the prospect of a new facility with adequate space which will be designed without steps.

Wayne teen wins; to study in Germany

Sarah Blaser of Wayne, the 1994 Nebraska winner of the National Standardized German Test, has been named one of the regional winners of a four-week stay in Nuernberg, Germany.

The Prizewinner Study Trip is scheduled from June 24 to July 22. Sarah will join the other students in New York City for their flight to Nuernberg. The students will live with German families and attend classes at a Nuernberg high school. The group will visit different cities in Bavaria, and is scheduled to spend several days in Berlin, the capital of unified Germany.

A total of 45 trips were awarded by the German Pedagogical Exchange Service to the top German students across the country. The test was sponsored by the American Association of Teachers of German and is in its 23rd year.

This year, 410 Nebraska students in their second, third or fourth year of German study, participated in the test. Over 23,000 students nationwide took the exam. Students had to score on or above the 90 percentile to apply for the Prizewinner Trip. Sarah scored in the 99th percentile and, together with Krista Magnuson, another finalist from Wayne, completed a written application and an oral interview, conducted in German by three Nebraska German teachers. Krista will have another chance at the test next January.

The daughter of Dr. Kent and Catherine Blaser of Wayne, Sarah is a junior at Wayne-Carroll High School and is a student of Edith Zahniser. Rebecca Schmidt, a 1985 Wayne graduate, and a doctoral candidate in chemistry at Cornell University, was a Prizewinner in 1984.

Wayne music students win at Bloomfield contest

Bloomfield Junior High Honor Band Clinic will be held on Saturday, April 16 at the high school in Bloomfield.

Dr. Craig Hancock of Wayne State College will be the guest conductor for this year's clinic band. An added event during the final concert this year will be a 15-20 minute performance by the Touch of Brass Quintet.

Over 300 seventh, eighth and ninth graders auditioned for this 100 member band. Eleven Wayne High ninth grade band students were accepted to participate in the honor band. They include: Melissa Weber, clarinet, first chair; Jenny Johnson, bass clarinet, second chair; April Beckenhauer, trumpet, second chair; Katie Lutt, trumpet; Liz Lindau, French Horn, first chair; Jeremy

Wayne musicians score high

On Tuesday, March 29 the Wayne High Jazz Band I and Jazz Band II participated in the Northeast Jazz Festival held at Northeast Community College in Norfolk.

Nine schools competed in Level II competition and the Wayne Jazz Band I received a Superior rating and the third place trophy. Tammy Teach, alto sax and Matt Chapman, bass guitar received Outstanding Soloist Awards. Denison, Iowa placed first and Vermillion, South Dakota placed second in this competition.

Fifteen schools competed in Level III. Randolph High School placed first, Wayne Jazz Band II placed second and Elkhorn Valley placed third. Krista Magnuson, alto sax and Ryan Nichols, drums received Outstanding Soloist Awards.

The next competition for both Jazz Band I and Jazz Band II is the District Music Contest on Friday, April 22 at Northeast Community College in Norfolk.

Former resident killed

A former Wayne resident, Shane Goeken, was killed in a one-vehicle accident on a rural Cuming County road three miles northwest of West Point early Sunday morning.

Three other teens, also residents of West Point, were injured in the accident which prompted Cuming County Attorney Tom Donner to order blood tests on the driver, Michael Peatrowsky, 17, because of indications that alcohol may have been involved.

Peatrowsky and another passenger, Heather Peterson, 16, were released from the hospital earlier in the week and a fourth passenger, Jared Bunn, 18, remained hospitalized in Omaha following surgery to repair an ankle.

Goeken, 19, was a senior at West Point High School. Before he moved to West Point with his mother, Sharon Goeken, who had been manager of Casey's General Store in Wayne, he had attended St. Mary's School here.

He is also survived by his maternal grandmother, Mrs. Charles (Lillian) Wiltler of Wayne.

The police report indicated that Goeken was thrown from the vehicle when it swerved into a ditch and rolled twice before landing on its top. None of the four occupants was wearing a seatbelt authorities said. The accident occurred at approximately 1:45 a.m. Sunday.

Goeken's funeral was held Tuesday, at St. Mary's Catholic Church in West Point.

and Wayne Superintendent Dr. Dennis Jensen discussed the procedures for setting up direct telecommunications between high schools in Japan and American for intercultural and language education.

Okuda said his team's four week trip had gone by extremely quickly. They return next week to Japan.

Wayne Rotary Club President Marion Arneson said the team's visit was rewarding for the Wayne Club members who have the opportunity to share views on a person-to-person level with those from a foreign land.

He said even in times of political conflict, it is rewarding to learn that we can relate to peoples of other nations on a personal level that supersedes the difficulties often involved between governments and political ideologies.

Teen Supremes to meet

The Wayne County Teen Supremes met Sunday, March 20 at the courthouse. Sixteen members, four sponsors and two parents were in attendance. Gary Hansen from Wakefield presented the program on parliamentary procedure. The group was broken into three teams and a contest was held to determine which group best used parliamentary procedure.

Following the presentation, the business meeting was held. A dunking booth will be set up on Friday night at the Chicken Show. A car wash will be held May 14 at the Dairy Queen. The group discussed working June 9 at the fairgrounds for Ag Day, serving taverns and hot dogs.

The group is selling Mother's Day raffle tickets for a dinner for two at the Black Knight, a trio of roses and candy. Contact a Teen Supreme member or the Extension Office if you are interested in purchasing tickets.

The next meeting will be Sunday, April 10 at 2:30 p.m. at the Redeemer Lutheran Church. State Patrolman Robert Neel will present the program on self-defense.

your weaknesses"), and keep everything in perspective.

Gardner told the group that corporate attitude is a lot different today than it was when he started in a business. He said his firm was built on customer service and dedicated employees. He said the Nebraska work ethic and the reputation the company developed as one which lived up to its promises helped the firm grow.

HE SAID EVEN today, the workers in Northeast Nebraska are "better than anything else anybody else has. We just don't have enough of them."

Gardner encouraged the graduates to proceed with their entrepreneurial plans and praised the effort of Fast Trac in helping them prepare for business ownership. He said they had to be willing to take risks and work hard to achieve success.

Minority lecturer challenges

Michael Cheers, who is completing his Visiting Minority Scholars Program next week, will present a lecture entitled "A Challenge to Wayne" at noon, Monday, April 11 in the North Dining Room of Wayne State's Student Center. The public is invited.

Cheers, recognized internationally for his photojournalism accomplishments, is the inaugural Wayne State Minority Scholars Program participant.

He co-authored "Songs of My People," a book of photographs showing the African-American experience through the eyes of 50 photographers. More than 100,000 copies have sold.

The program is being presented by Wayne State's Minority Task Force.

March ceremony unites Mr. and Mrs. Janda Jr.

Kelly Lynn Hamm Martinson and James Joseph Janda Jr., both of Wayne, were united in marriage on March 5 at St. Mary's Catholic Church in Wayne. Father Don Cleary was the officiant. They had a reception and dance at the Legion Hall in Wakefield.

Kelly is the daughter of Duane and Sharon Hamm of Wausa and the granddaughter of Muriel Hamm of Bloomfield. She will be graduating from Wayne State College in May with a degree in psychology. James is the son of Jim and Elaine Janda of Omaha and the grandson of Mary Janda of Omaha. He is employed at KTCH Radio in Wayne.

Michelle Bloomquist, sister of the bride, was the matron of honor. Teresa Rotherham and Jeana Hamm, both sisters of the bride, were the bridesmaids. John Janda, brother of the groom, was the best man. Darin Lovretcheck and Dennis Benz, both friends of the couple, were the groomsmen. Johnathon Martinson, son of the bride, was the ringbearer.

Mr. and Mrs. James Janda Jr.

Maria Janda, sister of the groom, was the guest book attendant.

Brenda Shepherd, friend of the bride, was the bride's personal attendant. The couple now resides in Wayne.

Rev. Baxter to speak at Concord church

Rev. Terry Baxter from Sioux City, Iowa will hold special meetings at the Concord Evangelical Free Church beginning Sunday evening, April 10 at 7 p.m. He will present a series of challenging messages from the book of Ephesians.

Baxter has been in the pastoral ministry since 1977 and has spoken widely in Evangelistic meetings and on church revitalization, and has been a church planting pastor.

Rev. Baxter is a graduate of Moody Bible Institute, Chicago, Ill. and has attended Cambridge Community College in Minnesota, Whitewater State College in Wisconsin and St. Cloud State College in Minnesota. He is currently working on a master's degree with Trinity College and Seminary in Newburgh, Ind.

Sunday, April 10 services are at 7 p.m. with music by the Freeman Quartet. Other services are at 7:30 p.m. on Monday, Tuesday and Thursday evenings, April 11, 12 and 14.

The public is invited. For more information contact Pastor Bob Brenner at 584-2396 or Box 90, Concord, Neb. 68728.

Whole Wheat Bible Study

How to do God's will with your mind

After you read through this Bible study, go back and look up the Scriptures and highlight them in your Bible.

The word of God says, "This is the day the Lord has made, let us rejoice" and enjoy it. Now, if you're going to have a good day and enjoy it, you must stop complaining about the weather. The weather is God's business and none of yours.

Some other ingredients for having a good day include: Go to work to cheer up people. Help people. Console people. Be friendly and understand people. That's serving your brother and sister and that's being like Jesus Christ.

Practice being positive. Unrestrained human nature practices being negative. It's counterproductive and degenerative. When your life is lived positively, then positive things begin to happen to you. If you are living negatively—which is normal, but evil—sometimes you won't even recognize good things happening to you. Negativism, inwardness, selfishness, indifference, hate and murder are all brothers of destruction. This is why Christ said if you hate your brother, you are the same as a murderer (1 John 3:15).

By practicing attitudes that are destructive, you cannot expect to live a constructive life. But when you're practicing attitudes that are constructive—such as love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness and self control—you are, in fact, practicing godliness, or imitating God (Gal. 5:22-25; Col. 3:10; Eph. 5:1).

If we practice things that are not good in our daily lives, we will become increasingly evil, by nature. By continually practicing evil behavior, we become more like Satan, our earthly father (John 8:41, 44). But if we practice daily what is right, good, honorable, uplifting and pleasing in the sight of our heavenly Father, we will become more like our Father in heaven (1 John 3:7-10). We will be living holy lives instead of unholy lives. We become what we are practicing to become—perfect (Matt. 5:48; 1 Peter 5:10).

We are, by nature, sinners. God wants us to allow Him to change our nature to one of a saint. In order to do that, we must practice living saintly lives by changing our thoughts to godly thoughts.

How many of us would want to see violence done to our children? Yet, we watch violence being done to other people's children on television and vicariously enjoy it. If we didn't enjoy it, we wouldn't continue to watch it day after day. Don't be fooled. What you see with your eyes and hear with your ears affects how you think with your mind (Prov. 24:12, 29; 12:14). We are not to look at what is evil—violence, murder, rape, etc. (Psalm 34:13-14; 1 Peter 3:10-11). That includes any sport that is violent or anticipates violence. Anyone who loves violence is hated by God (Psalm 11:5).

So let's clean up what goes into our minds and guard those doors carefully, for what is in our minds has a lot to do with the condition of our hearts and what comes out of our mouths. "Whatever is true, whatever is honorable, whatever is right, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is of good repute, think on these things" (Phil. 4:8).

Wayne boys place third at own invite; girls fourth

The Wayne girls and boys track teams hosted the Wayne Invitational amidst extreme windy conditions, Tuesday at both Wayne State and the high school track.

Since the high school track is unusable to run on this season, the Blue Devils shot put, discus and high jump events are the lone events held at the high school track. All other events will be and were run at Wayne State's track.

The Blue Devil boys placed third and scored 101 points while the girls team scored 77 points and placed fourth. Senior Nate Stednitz paced the Wayne boys with three gold medals on the day by winning the 400 and 800 meter runs and as an anchor on the 3200 meter relay team.

Stednitz was clocked in 53.5 in winning the 400 while teammate Clint Dyer was third in 55.8. His time in the 800 was 2:09 and the 3200 relay was timed in 9:01.3 with Matt Blomenkamp, Chris Headley, Robert Bell and Stednitz.

Spencer Stednitz and Chris Headley sprinted the final 100 yards of their 3200 meter run dual and Stednitz edged Headley by a half-second with a 10:42.5 clocking. The closest competitor was 12 seconds back. Stednitz also added a runner-up finish in the 1600 in 5:11.7.

The 1600 relay team placed second in 3:52.3 and Clint Dyer notched a third place time of 24.7 in the 200 meter dash. Andy Witkowski placed third in the discus after a toss of 123-1 and he added a sixth in the shot put with a throw of 41-10.

Jeff Hamer was fourth in the shot put with a 44-8 effort and the 400 meter relay team placed fourth in 50.7. The freshman relay team placed fifth in 4:28.3 and Matt Blomenkamp placed seventh in the 800 in 2:20.8. Tyler Endicott was seventh in the 300 hurdles in 48.1 and Andrew Bayless rounded out the team scoring with an eighth place effort of 12:32.1 in the 3200.

The boys championship was won by Pierce with 174 points while Norfolk Catholic netted 120. Columbus Lakeview followed Wayne with 89 and Madison was fifth with 82. Schuyler placed sixth with 77 and Hartington Cedar Catholic rounded out the field with 22.

THE GIRLS were led by the hurdling of Jenny Thompson as she placed first in the 300 hurdles in 51.5 and runner-up in the 100 hurdles in 17.5. Tami Schluns paced the distance crew with runner-up finishes in both distance races.

Schluns was timed in 12:35 in the 3200 and 5:55.7 in the 1600. The Blue Devils sprint relay team placed third in 56.5 while Anne Wiseman placed fourth in the 3200 in 13:34.8. The 3200 relay team placed fourth in 11:24.1 and the 1600 relay squad placed fourth in 4:40. An additional relay, the freshman relay also placed fourth in 5:21.2.

Audra Sievers placed seventh for Wayne in the shot put with a 29-8 effort and Angie Hudson placed seventh in the 100 meter dash in 13.7. Hudson added an eighth in the 200 in 29.9 and Mel Lage placed eighth in the 3200 in 14:19.9.

Schuyler edged Pierce by nine points to claim the girls team title with 174 points while Columbus Lakeview netted third place honors with 122. Madison followed Wayne with 42 points and Norfolk Catholic was sixth with 27. Hartington Cedar Catholic closed out the team scoring with 19.

The varsity Blue Devil track teams will compete in the Wisner Lions Club Invitational on Saturday, April 16.

JEFF HAMER launches the shot put during action at the Wayne Invite, Thursday. Hamer placed fourth.

WAYNE'S JENNY THOMPSON battles with Schuyler's Katie Robertson in the 100 hurdles during Thursday's Wayne Invitational at Wayne State College. Thompson was edged at the tape to claim runner-up honors. At right, Clint Dyer grimaces to reach the finish line of the 400 meter dash where he placed third.

SPENCER STEDNITZ breaks the tape ahead of teammate Chris Headley in the 3200 meter run. The Waynians traded leads all eight laps before Stednitz took control late.

ROBERT BELL hands the baton off to Nate Stednitz for the final leg of the 3200 meter relay. Wayne won the relay with other runners Matt Blomenkamp and Chris Headley.

Baseball Umpire Clinic approaching

WAYNE-There will be an umpire baseball clinic on Sunday, April 17 at the Wayne State Recreation Center. Registration will be from 9:30-10 a.m. with the clinic to follow. The cost which includes lunch is $15 and the crew conducting the clinic will be Bob Jacobsen, John Hughes and Tim Hamer. Mail registration to John Melena, 613 Oak Drive, Wayne-68787.

Griesch wins scholarship

WAYNE-Winners of the Freedom Forum NCAA Foundation Sports Journalism Scholarships for 1994-95 include former Wayne graduate Jeff Griesch. There were eight winners of the $3,000 awards chosen from a field of 108 applicants.

This is the second year of a three-year program, for which the Freedom Forum has provided $150,000. Griesch was the only winner from Nebraska. He currently attends the University of Nebraska in Lincoln.

His name and recent accomplishment is also mentioned in this year's NCAA Final Four Program.

Softball Clinic to be held Sunday

WAYNE-There will be a Softball Clinic, Sunday at the Wayne State Rec Center. Wayne State softball coach Joan Scherbring will conduct the clinic which is open to any interested softball player, regardless of age.

There will be a hitting and fielding clinic from 2-5 p.m. and a pitching clinic from 6-8 p.m. For further information contact Scherbring at 375-2530.

Blue Devil golfers compete in Lincoln

The Wayne boys golf team played in their first meet of the season, Thursday in Lincoln in the Lincoln Pius X Invitational at Mahoney Park.

Wayne coach Terry Munson said the weather forecast wasn't even close as his squad battled 30 mile an hour winds, 50 degree temperatures and extremely hard and fast greens.

"They (forecasters) said it was supposed to be in the mid 60's so they were way off," Munson said. "The conditions were absolutely horrible." Munson said the scores were poor overall, and that it was a little disappointing to start the season on a down note.

The Blue Devils placed sixth with a 348 but they were just seven strokes from second place. Class A Lincoln Pius won the team title with a 316 followed by York with a 341. Fairbury and Norris tied for third with a 342 and Seward edged Wayne by one stroke.

Columbus Scotus was seventh with a 352 and Beatrice claimed eighth with a 353. Nebraska City, Waverly, Crete, Pius "B", Elkhorn Mount Michael, Falls City and Columbus Lakeview rounded out the field of teams in order.

Nate Salmon was Wayne's lone medalist with a third place score of 81. Salmon fired rounds of 40-41 on the par 70 course. Kelly Hammer carded an 87 while Jason Carr and Ryan Martin each fired 90's. Ryan Pick's 92 was not included in the team scoring system of playing five, scoring four.

Wayne will travel to compete in the Plainview Invitational on Saturday.

Laurel golf team wins at Beemer while Wakefield linksters compete for first time

The Wakefield golf team placed seventh of 10 teams at the Beemer Invitational, Thursday. Although Brad Hoskins' team fired a 431 he told his kids afterwards that it was the best score by a Wakefield team in 15 years.

That's because this is the first Trojans golf team since the late 70's. Todd Gilliland etched his name into the medal column with an eighth place effort of 93 and the other four scorers were all freshman. Austin Lueth carded a 109 and Tyler Peters finished with a 113. Justin Thiele scored a 116 and Travis Rouse finished with a 122.

"Beemer's a tough course and playing with four freshman on a tough course with the wind conditions the way they were, I didn't think we fared all that bad in our first outing."

Eighty percent of the Wakefield golf team wasn't even born the last time the Trojans fielded a golf squad. Wakefield will travel to compete in the Laurel Invitational next Friday.

Speaking of Laurel, the Bears won the Beemer Invitational with a 359. Ben Dahl placed runner-up with an 83 while Shane Schuster was third with an 85. Nic Dahl also medaled with a 10th place effort of 94. Jeff Erwin's 97 was also added to the varsity while Mark Johnson's 104 was not.

Laurel also won the reserve portion of the meet with a 212 with Travis Stingley earning top honors with a 48 while Jared Anderson placed fourth with a 52.

WSC baseball team sweeps visting USD

The Wayne State baseball team swept a double-header with visiting South Dakota, Wednesday at Hank Overin Field and in doing so, pushed themselves past the .500 mark on the season at 17-16.

The Wildcats won the opener, 4-1 as they broke a 1-1 tie in the bottom of the sixth inning with three runs. Brian Bellinghausen pitched the distance and earned the win. He struck out five and walked just two while scattering four hits.

WSC had four runs on five hits and no errors and the visitors tallied one run on four hits and one error. Raul Urias led off the sixth inning with a walk and Jeff Schneider singled with one out to advance Urias to second.

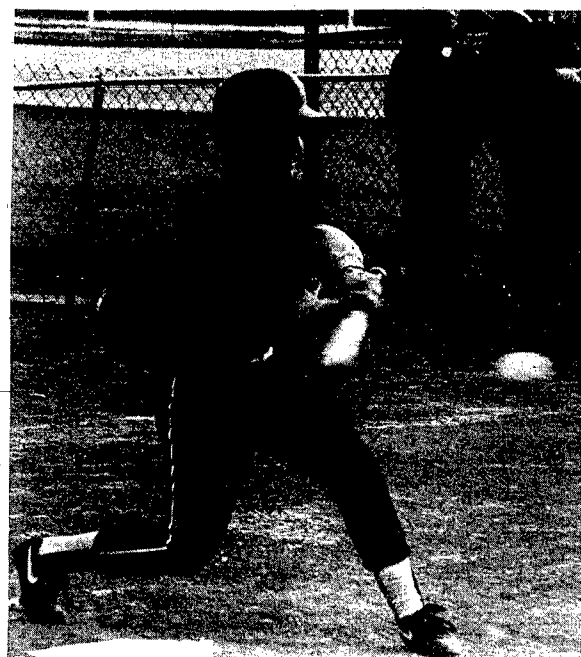

Cory Reeder belted a two-run double with two outs and Jon Small followed suit with an rbi single. Reeder also hit a solo home run in the game and Darin Gregory closed out the hitting with a base hit.

WSC swept the twinbill with a 3-1 decision in the second game as Chris Goodsell earned the victory to improve his season record to 3-1. Goodsell went 4 2/3 innings before Tim Fancher came in to earn the save by pitching the final 2 1/3 innings.

The 'Cats finished with three runs on three hits and two errors while South Dakota had one run on seven hits and no errors. Tim McDermott and Jeff Schneider each recorded doubles while Mike Vandervilt singled.

WSC will host Augustana in a make-up double-header on Monday at Hank Overin Field with a 1:30 p.m. start and they will play Briar Cliff on Tuesday at Eaton Field in Wakefield. Game time for Tuesday is also 1:30 p.m.

'Cats lose two

The Wayne State women's softball team lost a double-header to Morningside College, Thursday afternoon at the City Softball Complex. WSC lost the opener by a 13-7 margin and fell in the nightcap, 8-6. Pictured above is a WSC batter making contact with a Morningside pitch while at right is Maryellen Livingston firing the ball to home plate. WSC slipped to 5-16 on the season and will travel to play Nebraska Wesleyan, Tuesday.

Baseball Association needs assistance Spring sports underway

It looks as though we survived another winter here in Northeast Nebraska and spring sports are underway. There are several quality tracksters in the area this season while Wayne and Laurel's golf teams appear to be very strong with both hosting district tournaments in May.

First off, we wish to welcome a new sports team to the Wayne Herald area which is the Wakefield boys golf team, coached by Brad Hoskins. The Trojans, like any other infant program will need some time to develop into a consistent winning program but it looks as though Todd Gilliland could be among the elite in his first year as a high school golfer—good luck Trojans!

Wayne's golf team has the makings to be an outstanding squad with Nate Salmon, Kelly Hammer, Ryan Pick, Jason Carr and Ryan Martin likely to take the reigns on varsity as this elite fivesome look to continue the highly successful tradition the Blue Devil linksters have enjoyed for many years. Terry Munson will once again tutor the Wayne teams.

Laurel's program hasn't been around all that long but coach Don Helgren looks to have a solid group of kids including Shane Schuster, Chad Anderson, Mark Johnson, Mark Lute and Nic Dahl along with some newcomers who could give the starting five a push later in the season.

For Pete's Sake

By Kevin Peterson

Turning to track, it looks as though Winside distance runner Melinda Mohr is off on the right foot to another gold medal winning season. The junior sensation was recently named the most valuable female athlete at South Dakota's Dan Lennon Invitational after winning the 800, 1600 and 3200 meter runs.

Wayne has their own distance specialist in senior Tami Schluns and she looks to be on track after setting two meet records in Wayne's first meet of the season at Wayne State in the 1600 and 3200 meter runs.

Junior hurdler Jenny Thompson will be seeking her third straight state tournament appearance this year and if she can stay healthy, a high medal placing in Omaha next month isn't out of the question.

The boys will have a strong corp of distance runners and if Chris Headley's debut at the WSC indoor meet is any indication of the kind of year it will be for him, Wayne is in for a treat. He and Spencer Stednitz will lead the distance runners while Nate Stednitz looks to be strong in both the 490 and 800 meter runs.

The Allen boys may just have the kind of team that carries them to the elite in Class D this season led by hurdle phenom Curtis Oswald. Last season Oswald finished second at state to a hurdler who is now competing for Iowa State.

The Eagles appear to be strong in nearly every event with Aaron Thompson manning the weight events while Oswald owns the hurdle races. The sprint foursome of Oswald, Steve Sullivan, Casey Schroeder and Mike Blohm are already in stride and Sam Malone looks solid in the long jump.

The Allen girls will be led by the weight events as the Plugger sisters look to take control with Tanya, Debbie and Mindy along with Bobbie Stingley. The Lady Eagles also have a solid nucleus of 400 meter runners with Steph Martinson, Jill Sullivan and Jamie Mitchell which also leads to a possible quality 1600 meter relay team.

Not quite sure how to gauge Wakefield and Laurel's track team because we haven't received any information from those respective schools as of yet.

OBVIOUSLY WHEN track season winds down the start of the summer baseball season will be here and for the Wayne Midget and Legion programs some help is needed in the area of support.

The Wayne Baseball Association will be going throughout the community seeking donations to upgrade some equipment that is long over due. President Paul Otte and the board, consisting of John Melena, Galen Wisner, Jeff Zeiss, Pat Garvin, Verdel Lutt, Jere Morris, Joel Ankeny and Mike Meyer will be looking to purchase a tarp for the field and a pitching machine this year.

The tarp is needed for Wayne to be eligible to host a state tournament in the future and the pitching machine currently being used is nearly 20 years old. The two improvements are costly, so the non-profit local baseball association needs everyone's help.

All donations are tax deductible and may be sent to Galen Wisner, secretary-treasurer, Wayne Baseball Association, Box 130, 68787.

Distance specialist

Tami Schluns maintains her pace during the 3200 meter run in which she placed runner-up, Thursday. The Wayne distance specialist also placed second in the 1600.

Fifth graders study water

Over the past six weeks, the fifth graders at the Wayne Middle School have become more familiar with one of the earth's most precious resources: water.

They have been involved in the "What's in Our Water" unit developed by the National Geographic Kids Network. The unit has not only been educational and fun but has given the students opportunities to be "scientists" using the many hands on activities and the built in telecommunications program.

The unit began with activities which allowed the students to realize an appreciation for water and how much they use it throughout each day. Students built upon this awareness with hands-on activities which included a watershed demonstration followed by an experiment which explored the definition of "pollutant." They set up an experiment which allowed them to explore the trade-offs between beneficial effects of a substance and the potentially harmful effects of that substance on water quality.

This particular experiment concluded later in the unit when the student scientists used nitrate test paper to measure the level of nitrates in runoff from containers holding previously planted grass seed. They then tested the school's tap water and water from private wells. They were happy to find the water they were drinking is free of any nitrate contamination!

Throughout the unit, the Wayne fifth grade scientists communicated with other student scientists from across the nation and Canada. The program allowed them to send and pick up letters and data from students who were part of the team called Brazos 3. They sent their global location, testing data and letters concerning their water situation and usage. Other teammates in turn sent the same information about them. The Wayne students also communicated with the network to receive information about the entire network. All of these was accomplished through the use of the computer and modem.

The study was supplemented with speakers, the "Water Riches" unit from the Nebraska Cooperative Extension Service, and a culmination activity where they visited the Wayne water treatment facility.

Jeff Brady, an employee of the City of Wayne, answered questions during a class period to help students learn more about Wayne's water situation. Dan Zulkosky, a hydrologist for Northeast Nebraska, gave a presentation on some of specifics of water testing and treatment. The "Water Riches" unit gave students a great deal of information through the use of individual teaching newspapers and video programs which related specifically to Nebraska. Mindy Lutt brought the unit to the school's attention.

The "What's in Our Water" unit concluded with a letter from the school's unit scientist relaying data on the entire network. Students made comparisons of these results with our team's data. Finally, students wrote individual letters to teammates and hope to develop some lasting pen pals.

Teachers issued a "thank you" to the parents for their help and interest throughout the unit and to Fauneil Bennett for sharing her computer expertise and time teaching how to effectively use the program. They also thanked Principal Dick Meteer for bringing this unit to their attention initially and for running after materials needed for experiments.

START MEETS

Start Educational Opportunities Committee met March 21. The group was updated on suggested goals which included the addition of structured activities for Wakefield youth age 12-16; additional educational opportunities for the Latino community and involvement of members of the Latino community in the leadership for community projects.

Laura Barelman made a presentation on the progress of the Wakefield Community Foundation. She stated that foundation funds will be available for projects for the Educational Opportunities Task Force in the future.

The group also visited with Jan Dyer of the Humpty Dumpty Day Care on its operation. The task force discussed a plan to take over the operation of the center from Waldbaum/Michael Foods should the need arise. A proposal was developed for a local non-profit group to purchase the center from the company.

If anyone is interested in discussing the day care operation and the proposal they are encouraged to contact Lynda Cruickshank.

STATE CITIZEN BEE

Mike McQuistan, Jason Fendrick and Andy Muller will represent Wakefield High School in the State Citizen Bee Competition Saturday, May 7 at Lincoln.

McQuistan won the regional event which was held March 26 at Northeast Community College in Norfolk. Fendrick finished in fourth place and Muller in fifth.

The top seven finishers in the regional event are eligible to advance. Other qualifiers were Claire Rasmussen of Wayne, 2; Drew Thropilus of Norfolk High, 3; Robert Bell of Wayne, 6 and Claire Vech of North Bend, 7.

The seven Northeast Nebraska schools participating were each allowed three entries. The Citizen Bee competition, sponsored by the Close Up Foundation, was divided into two parts, written exam and a four-round oral examination.

As the winner of the regional contest McQuistan will receive a $300 Savings Bond. The state champion and runner up qualify for an expense paid trip to Washington, D.C. for the national competition.

REGISTER FOR SOFTBALL

Registration for softball is continuing for interested girls from ages 8 - 18. Pre-registration is very important this year because the softball committee is in the process of purchasing new uniforms for all ages. Pre-registration is helpful to the committee members for correct sizing of the girls.

They encourage any interested girls to contact any committee member.

Committee members are Gary Hansen, Diane Johnson, Kathy Salmon and Merle and LaVonne Carson.

The girls softball program is a self supporting organization which operates the concession stand for ball games played in Wakefield. The stand is managed by the committee members and work is performed by parents on a volunteer work basis.

The Wakefield Community Club gives a donation every year for general operating expenses which committee members say is greatly appreciated.

CELEBRATE THE ARTS

The Wakefield School speech, art and music departments are coming efforts to "Celebrate the Arts" on Saturday, April 9. The evening which will begin at 6:30-pm will include an art gallery exhibiting a number of the students' works from throughout the years.

Staged in the school auditorium, the program is scheduled to begin at 7 pm. It will feature speeches and performances by the drama team and various musical selections.

Following the program the FHA chapter will provide a special dessert.

The community is urged to mark the date on their calendars and plan to attend. There will be no admission charge and everyone is cordially invited to attend.

SPEECH CONTEST

Alysa Utecht, a Wakefield Junior, placed sixth in the State Speech Contest in Lincoln recently. Alyssa qualified in Persuasive Speaking, made the finals in the competition and was ranked sixth in the competition.

All the other Wakefield students who qualified for the State Contest received Superior I rating. Competing were Andy Muller and Adam Goos in Duet Acting plus Muller competed in Extemporaneous Speaking and Goos in Poetry; Mike McQuistan in Extemporaneous and Humorous Prose and Becky Simpson in informative Speaking.

The students are coached by Jeanne Eskra and Jule Boeshart. The coaches offered their congratulations to the talented orators for a job well done.

They also stated that the Speech Department is looking forward to the "Celebrate the Arts" event on April 8.

HONOR ROLL

Two grandchildren, a niece and a nephew of Iris Larson were all named to the Dean's List at various schools for the fall term.

Cathi Larson and Brion Larson, her grandchildren and the son and daughter of Randy and Diane Larson, achieved that honor at the University of Nebraska - Lincoln.

Kelley Frederickson and Jon Frederickson, whose parents are Keith and Adair Frederickson of Omaha, were named to the Dean's List at Annapolis, MS and the University of Nebraska - Omaha respectively.

Kelley had a 4.0 average; Cathi and Brion a 3.75 or better and Jon a 3.5 or better Grade Point Average.

HONOR ROLL

Brad Nuernberger and Keith Wenstrand have both been named to the Dean's List for the winter quarter at Southeast Community College - Milford Campus. The quarter ended March 17. A grade point average of 3.5 must be achieved to be honored.

Nuernberger is studying welding at the school and Wenstrand's major area is John Deere Ag Tech.

ARTIST OF THE MONTH

March artists of the month were Charlie Kucera, Nate Henderson, Toan Nyugen, Jenna Paulson, Andrea Salmon, Matt Haglund, Molly Evers, Kassi Anderson, Annie Bierbower, Nicole Kay, Sara White, Traci Lueth, Memo Zavalete, Dave Jensen, Cody Skinner, Troy Roddy, Tyler Peters, Kent Thompson, Austin Lueth, Jesse Kai, Kobey Mortenson, Taylor Peters, Krista Siebrandt and Todd Gilliland.

The selections were made by art instructor Kirby Musel. The students' work is currently on display at the post office, The Fair Store and True Value Home Center.

FIREFIGHTERS AUXILIARY

The regular monthly meeting of the Firefighters Auxiliary was held on March 8 and conducted by President Carol Ulrich. The 11 members present opened the meeting with the auxiliary prayer.

It was voted to make a contribution to the Wakefield Health Care Center Activities fund. A thank you was read from the center for assisting with bingo. It was decided to order a roster from True Value. The officers for the upcoming year will remain the same. Books will be audited before the next regular meeting.

LADIES AID AND LWML

Twenty-three members were present for the meeting of the St. John's Ladies Aid and LWML April 1. Guests were Barb Greve, Gertrude Ohlquist, Marge Portwood, Roberta Puls, Leoma Baker, Linda Paul, Ruth Lempke and Rachel Wehmeier of Danbury, Conn. Lila Barner and Arlene Benson were hostesses.

Imogene Samuelson opened with devotions. She read Scripture from John 19, verses 16-19, and a poem entitled "Good Friday", followed with the singing of "The Old Rugged Cross" by the group. She also shared a poem entitled "Spring" and "Easter Blessings" and closed with group singing of "I Know That my Redeemer Lives".

The Christian Growth feature was a vocal solo by Rachel Wehmeier entitled "Jesus Lord To Me", accompanied on the piano by Martha Prochaska.

The featured speaker for the afternoon was Barb Greve of Wayne who was the Wayne Zone delegate to the International LWML convention in Edmonton, Alberta, Canada June 17-20, 1993. She showed the convention video and told of interesting speakers and activities she especially enjoyed. She brought momentos of the convention that all those present received. Pastor Bruce Schut gave the closing prayer.

President Harriet Stolle called the business meeting to order and welcomed the guests. She read "Colored Jelly Beans" with each color representing the Passion of Christ. The minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved and the treasurer's report was filed for audit. The Wakefield Care Center activities included a group of members helping with bingo and serving lunch. Wakefield Care Center activities included a group of members helping with bingo and serving lunch March 25. The St. John's ladies are invited to be guests of the Grace Evening Aid in Wayne April 12 at 7 pm. The spring meeting of the Lutheran Family Services will be held at Pierce April 19.

The Wayne zone Christian Growth workshop is scheduled for April 19 at Immanuel Lutheran Church, Wakefield, with registration beginning at 9 am. A workshop will be held at Our Savior Lutheran Church in Norfolk on April 30 beginning at 8:45 am and everyone is invited.

Kits for the homeless will continue to be made until the Nebraska North District LWML convention which will be held in Omaha July 9 and 10. Barb Greve announced the fall LWML retreat will be held in Wayne Sept. 30 and Oct. 1. Easter donations were made to Lutheran Family Services and to Bethesda Lutheran Home in Watertown, Wisconsin.

Lutheran World Relief Sewing met March 18 with seven ladies present. Six quilts were tied and seven hemmed and several pinned ready for tying. The friendship report included sympathy cards sent to Mr. and Mrs. Dale Kay, Mr. and Mrs. Larry Jacobson, Mr. and Mrs. Willie Nixon and family, LeRoy Weiershauser, and Meta Bartling; get well cards to Roberta Puls, Larry Jacobson, Clarence Schlines, and Cora Kay; and visited Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Guy, Irene Walter, Lillian Sanders, Clara Mahoney, Wilbur Baker, Cora Kay and Roberta Puls.

Thankyou were received from the Melvin Lovelace and Polly Hank families, and from the Wakefield Care Center.

The birthday song honored the April birthdays of Meta Bartling, Irene Walter, Mary Lou Krusemark, Roberta Puls and Leoma Baker and the anniversary of Marilyn Spath. The meeting adjourned with the LWML pledge and the Lord's Prayer and table Prayer.

The next meeting is May 6 with Jolene Miller and Edna Hansen as hostesses.

Farmers & Merchants Bank hosts seminars

Nearly 225 attended the free seminars on "Dealing With Angry Customers" held Thursday at Riley's Convention Center. Local business owners and their employees were treated to the informative and valuable seminars by Farmers and Merchants State Bank. Audiences laughed as John Allen, the speaker for the programs, used himself as a bad example in dealing with angry customers. By Allen's humorous method of showing inept treatment of an angry customer, he made all aware of the proper customer relations skills to use in this situation.

During his presentation, Allen frequently mentioned that most errors are unconscious, unintentional mistakes when trying to calm an angry customer. Nonetheless, customers are offended by these errors. Sometimes business personnel in their efforts to serve an angry customer, end up making matters worse. Allen cautioned that customer contact personnel should avoid trying to solve the customer's problem until he or she has fully stated the cause of his or her irritation. According to Allen, interrupting angry customers while they are trying to explain their problem is a big mistake. Allen stated that the first and hardest step to take in dealing with and calming an angry customer is to listen.

Allen noted that if business personnel were skilled in dealing with angry customers, a business could save tremendous amounts of money each year in lost business. More and more businesses are beginning to see that their competitive edge and profitability is based on their treatment of customers. Study after study has confirmed that repeat business is profitable business. People go back repeatedly where they are treated well.

Tim Keller, President of Farmers and Merchants State Bank, which fully underwrote Allen's appearance in Wayne said that the bank was pleased by the turnout for the programs and the response they have received from area businesses. Because of the response, we hope to sponsor more such programs in the future for the business community, said Keller.
