Elevator project okayed

By Clara Osten
Of the Herald

The Wayne County Board of Commissioners voted 2-1 to proceed with the installation of an elevator in the Wayne County Courthouse.

The decision was made Tuesday during the commissioner's regular meeting and came after the issue had been debated for several months. The elevator is needed for the building to be in compliance with the Americans with Disabilities Act.

Jerry Berggren of Berggren & Woll Architects will be at the Sept. 17 board meeting to discuss options on remodeling the courthouse. Commissioner Bob Nissen said he was reluctant to do a lot of remodeling in the third floor court room and would like to see additional discussion before making a decision.

The elevator will be installed on the east side of the building, just south of the present entrance to the building.

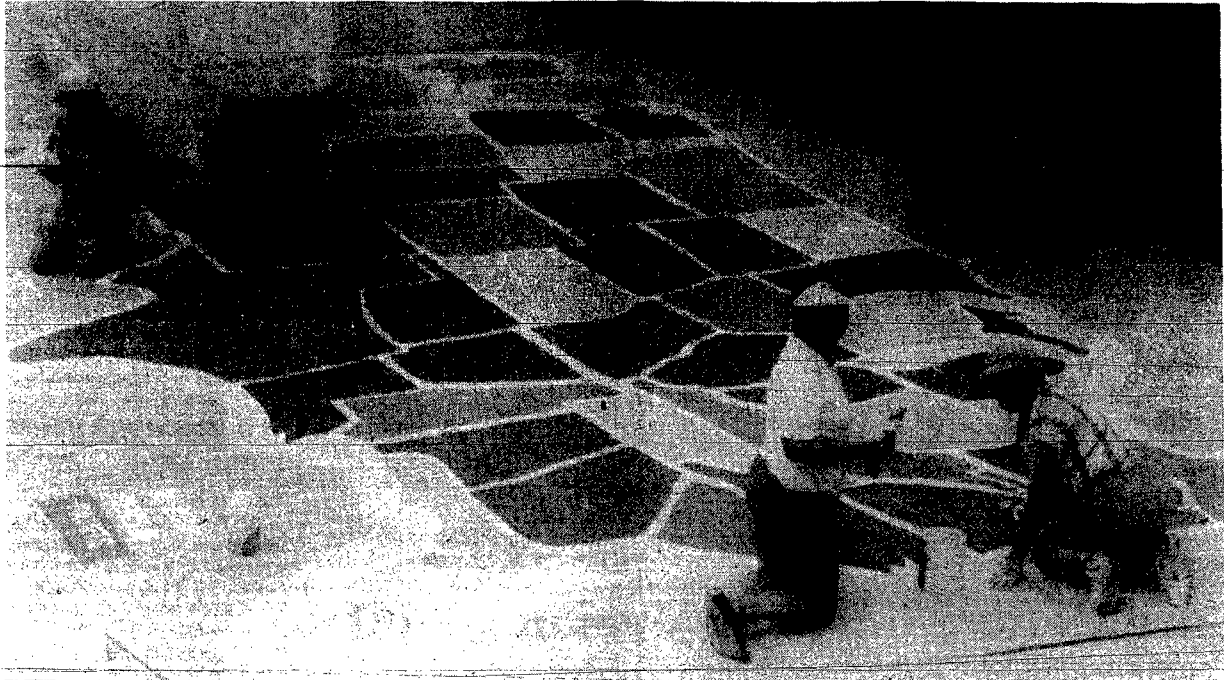

In conjunction with the elevator project, the commissions plan to install terrace parking on the south side of the courthouse.

Estimated cost of the project is $13,000 with the city of Wayne paying half of the cost.

Bid specifications will be drawn up before the next meeting and commissioners hope to have the project completed this fall.

The board reviewed an increase in the rate charged for housing prisoners at the Pierce County Jail. Adult prisoners from Wayne County are generally sent to Pierce. The fee charged to house the prisoners will be increased from $38 to $40 per day.

The commissioners also approved the appointment of Thomas Donner as a special prosecutor to review a criminal case. County Attorney Mike Pieper was unable to be involved in the case due to a conflict of interest.

Map makers

The Telephone Pioneers of America, with the help of members of the Wayne Elementary Booster Club, spent Thursday painting a large map of the United States on the play area of the school ground at the Wayne Elementary School. The map will help teachers teach geography through creative play. The Telephone Pioneer organization consists of working, retired or former employees of US West. Paint for the project was donated by the Martin Senour Paint Co. through the Town and Country Store in Emerson.

Lifeline provides security

By Clara Osten
Of the Herald

Several weeks ago Dora Claussen fell when she was getting out of bed at her home.

Thanks to a button she wears on her wrist, her son was alerted to the situation and was able to come to her assistance.

Mrs. Claussen is one of 60 persons in the Wayne area who are part of the Lifeline Program at Providence Medical Center.

The program, which has been in existence at PMC since 1982, involves a subscriber (the person wearing the button) who can receive needed help 24 hours a day at the touch of a button worn around his or her neck or on the wrist.

"The Lifeline works on a responder system. The hospital receives the call and then in turn calls one of three friends or relatives whose names have been given to the hospital by the subscriber," said Sr. Monica, Lifeline Coordinator at PMC.

"I am well satisfied with it (Lifeline). I have had it three years and this was the first time I have had to use it," said Mrs. Claussen.

Mrs. Claussen said she initially got the Lifeline because she is alone in her home and has osteoporosis which prohibits her from being able to walk well.

"My children also wanted me to have it so I could get help if I needed it," she said.

Sr. Monica said a number of subscribers have gotten Lifelines at the urging of their children.

"It provides security for the subscriber and for children of the subscriber, especially if they live out of town," she said.

"The Lifeline is probably used most frequently for falls, although subscribers may use it for any medical problem that leaves them unable to get to a phone to call for help," Sr. Monica added.

Several years ago a Lifeline subscriber was having severe leg pain and used her Lifeline to alert the hospital. She was transported to PMC and then to Sioux City where she had surgery.

"We have had 26 Lifeline calls thus far in 1996. Fortunately, most of the calls were able to be handled by the responder, with no serious injury to the subscriber," Sr. Monica said. "The Lifeline is one more way to keep people in their home."

There is an installation fee to cover the instruction given initially, plus a monthly fee. Most of PMC's units are in Wayne but residents of Wakefield, Carroll, Laurel and Dixon are also subscribers. A unit can be placed anywhere within a 25 mile radius of Wayne. A special modular phone jack is required prior to installation.

"Providence Medical Center is very grateful to the Hospital Auxiliary who has helped us financially to replace some of our outdated units," Sr. Monica said.

Anyone who is interested in obtaining a Lifeline may contact Sr. Monica at PMC.

To be able to purchase additional Lifelines for PMC, the Wayne Hospital Auxiliary will sponsor a style show on Sunday, Sept. 15.

The show will begin at 7 p.m. at the Grand Ballroom of the Student Center on the Wayne State Campus.

Eleven area clothiers will be participating. Medical staff from PMC and their families will be modeling clothing with this year's theme "Lifeline to the Future."

"The support from the area businesses is overwhelming. We are grateful for their support," said Sandy Bartling of Providence Medical Center Foundation.

Tickets for the style show are $10 for Auxiliary members, $15 for non-members and $100 for a table of eight. They may be purchased at State National Bank, First National Bank and the Foundation Office.

For more information on the style show, call (402) 375-5529.

Alcohol is involved in fiery crash

Officers Shawn Jensen and Timothy McCoy have completed their investigation into the Aug. 10 early morning one-vehicle accident near the Wayne Country Club.

The officers have determined that alcohol was a contributing factor in the accident.

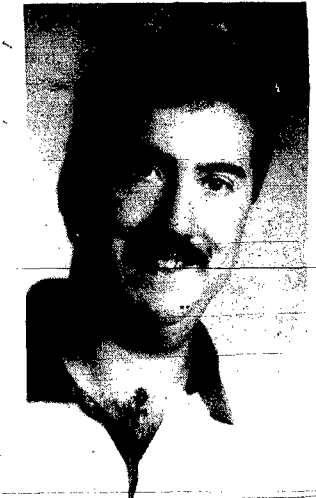

The driver of the car, Marcus Towle, 21, has been cited for Driving While Intoxicated.

"A blood test done after the accident indicates that Mr. Towle was allegedly operating his car while under the influence of alcohol at the time of the accident," said Lance Webster, Wayne Chief of Police.

Formal charges are pending. Chad Jones, the rear seat passenger, has been released from the hospital after being treated for a serious head injury. Chris White, the other passenger was released from the hospital but is scheduled to undergo surgery to his hand for injuries suffered in the accident.

The investigating officers have credited the quick action of Chris White in preventing any fatalities.

"After Mr. Towle's car left Highway 15, it went through a ditch, struck a tree and burst into flames near the number two techbox at the Wayne Country Club. In spite of his injuries, Mr. White pulled both of his friends from the burning wreckage, saving their lives," Chief Webster said.

Pac 'n' Save efforts honored

Pac 'n' Save has been awarded a plaque for their efforts and contributions in helping to improve the Checkmate system.

Checkmate offers 24 hour check verification services and is a division of Credit Bureau Service's "Profit Improvement Program."

With Checkmate's MICR check reader, accepting checks is now simpler and faster. Vital information is captured directly from the check and only the check amount is entered.

"Within seconds a response is received. Checkout time is greatly reduced and customer service is significantly improved," said Kay Reiman with Credit Bureau.

"Our MICR check reader also increases confidence in check acceptance by detecting low-level MICR signals found on bogus checks," Ms. Reiman added.

"Pac 'n' Save of Wayne was instrumental in identifying areas where speed, accuracy and reliability were improved in Checkmate's MICR check readers," Ms. Reiman said.

Pac 'n' Save is a family owned and operated chain of grocery stores owned by Ted and Kelly Baack, Don and Nancy Endicott and Rick and Connie Endicott.

Quilt show to be held in Winside on Sept. 14-15

By Dianne Jaeger
Winside correspondent

The small community of Winside will be hosting what could be one of the largest quilt shows to be held in Nebraska. "We have over 100 quilts scheduled," says Patti Burris, spokeswoman for the Winside Museum Committee, who is hosting the show. "Individuals are still volunteering to display their quilts."

The show will be held in the Winside auditorium, located on Main Street. It will be held for two days, Saturday, Sept. 14 and Sunday, Sept. 15 from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. both days. Theme for the event is "Family Treasures, Old and New."

Many of the quilts featured will be longtime Winside resident Marian Iversen, as well as a number of them by the late Margaret Peterson. Quilts displayed will be coming from Missouri, Florida, California, London, England, Egypt, as well as many other Nebraska quilters.

"Della Holtgrew Warner of Punta Gorda, Fla. and Elsie Weible Haffner of Vista, Calif. will be on hand to "white glove" (point out) many of the special details of the quilts. Family histories relating to the quilts will be noted on many of them. Della will also be demonstrating the sewing of miniature quilts with many samples belong to Greta Grubbs of Winside.

Mrs. Burris noted, "besides all the quilts on display, we will have a number of vendor tables. There will be a table of many hand crocheted, tated and embroidered works by three Winside sisters, Ida Fenske, Ella Miller and Leona Backstrom. Other vendors will include Mary Ann's Country Comforts and Prairie Spirit Soap Co., both from Pilger; The Golden Needle of Norfolk and Petals Plus from Randolph.

"We will be giving away lots of door prizes during the two days. They will include books, patterns, threads, batting, baskets and much more. At the end of the show on Sunday we will be drawing for the winner of a hand-quilted king size Lonestar quilt. This beautifully colored quilt was pieced by Della Holtgrew Warner of Florida and was quilted by the ladies of Winside's Trinity Lutheran Church.

Besides the quilt show, for those less enthusiastic viewers, horseshoe pitching will be available by the tennis court on the east end of main street. Don Orris will be in charge of this activity, so anyone wanting more information can contact him at 286-4972.

A $1 donation will be accepted at the door and all funds raised will be used for further expansion, painting and upkeep of the Winside Museum and Theophilus Church. The museum is open by appointment only at this time. Anyone interested in more information on the quilt show or the museum can contact one of the museum committee members: Ruby Ritze, 286-4445; Veryl Jackson, 286-4544; Lin Brummels, 286-4891; Irene Dittman, 286-4916; or Patti Burris, 286-4839.

The intent of the award is to recognize and honor those students who make an effort to excel academically and to improve their job skills while attending Milford Campus.

Heart Association warns citizens

Nebraskans should be cautious when responding to requests for donations from non-profit organizations, the American Heart Association warns.

Recently, American Heart Association offices in Nebraska have received dozens of calls questioning whether a fund-raising drive conducted by Heart Support of America is connected with the American Heart Association. The two organizations are not connected.

"We hope people will take the time to read all solicitation materials carefully to insure that donations go to the intended agency," said John Boomer, Chair of the American Heart Association, Nebraska Affiliate and President John Boomer Consulting Services, Inc., in Lincoln.

"In particular, people should check to see the percentage of contributions spent on charitable purposes."

The American Heart Association, in its latest annual audited financial report, shows the following breakdown for 1994-95 expenses: 14 percent on fund-raising, three percent on management and 83 percent on program services including research, public education and community service programs.

The American Heart Association will be conducting its annual "Heart Month Neighbor-to-Neighbor Drive" during February. These materials can easily be identified through the name 'American Heart Association' and the heart and torch logo.

The American Heart Association has provided over $1.3 billion to research since 1949. AHA-funded research has yielded many important discoveries. CPR, life-extending drugs, bypass surgery, pacemakers and other surgical techniques to repair heart defects have all resulted from research sponsored by the American Heart Association.

Three Nobel prizes (in 1971, 1985 and 1992) have been awarded to researchers funded by the AHA.

Emergency 911 calls

Personnel at the Wayne Police Department handle 911 emergency phone calls for Winside, Carroll, Wakefield and Wayne. Most citizens are aware the 911 number is dedicated only to emergency calls and is not to be used for non-emergency matters such as loose dogs.

Wayne Chief of Police Lance Webster notes "We want to keep the 911 lines open for true emergencies." Though it hasn't been a major problem in Wayne, according to Webster, other areas are seeing an increase in misuse of the system.

Any emergency call in need of police, fire or medical aid is making proper use of the 911 system. Someone misusing the system by calling about non-emergency situations could easily block a call of someone reporting a fire. Chief Webster says, regarding misuse of the system, "We do have the ability to trace 911 calls".

The level of probability for 911 usage increases as Wayne State, public and parochial schools resume schedules in that more people are on the streets, and involved in increased activities.

When an emergency 911 call comes from within the county, local police notify the Wayne County Sheriff's office in dispatching appropriate help.

Everyone needing help in a crisis benefits by having the 911 system available. Parents instructing their children in the proper use of 911 may save their youngster's lives. All children, particularly those spending any time alone at home, should be taught what to do in a crisis.

The system is of major importance to our social infrastructure. A salute to those in charge!

Caution is necessary

State Department of Roads crews are in the process of resurfacing portions of Highway 35 between the junction of Highways 35 and 16, eight miles east of Wayne, and west to the Winside corner, according to Dick Soden, highway maintenance superintendent.

Drivers will note several sites, covered by a cold mix, to be topped with armor coating in approximately a week, deserve extra caution. As the resurfacing is under way, precaution is urged especially encountering the gravel as there are no white stripes at the road's edge.

Without the white lines a potential danger arises, particularly for nighttime vehicular traffic. Meeting the glaring lights of oncoming nighttime traffic increases the difficulty in determining the road's center and edge, making those sections additionally hazardous.

Motorists are reminded to slow down in all construction zones, not only for the safety of everyone involved, but the new speed laws also carry hefty penalties for all violations.

More than 1,300 persons from the Winside, Carroll and Hoskins areas have added their names to a petition asking for the suspension of Dr. Donald Craig's sentence for income tax evasion. The Winside man has been sentenced to four months in jail. Those who signed the petition feel that residents would suffer a great hardship if their physician were to be away from the area for that long.

Taxpayers should perk up this month at the unveiling of the first-ever listing of preliminary tax rates.

These rates are so important that they deserve an acronym — PTRs, let's call them. The PTR could be as important to property taxes as APR is to short-term loan.

APR, of course, stands for annual percentage rate. The annual percentage rate cuts through all of the fine print and lets you know how much annual interest you will be paying on a loan. No matter how much other verbiage there is in a loan document, the APR is the bottom line.

The PTR does something similar for property owners. It cuts through the smoke screen that governing boards have used for years to make a tax increase sound like a reduction.

In his wisdom as the dean of the Nebraska Legislature, State Sen. Jerome Warner concocted the PTR idea to make local officials more accountable to the taxpayers.

The proposal was contained in Legislative Bill 1085, one of a number of bills approved by the Legislature in its last session. The package of bills was designed to relieve property taxes.

It's rare to find part of a solution that doesn't cost anything. But put the Preliminary Tax Rate in that category. It is a tax rate calculated by the county clerk for each political subdivision within the county.

What the PTR does is simply this: It lets taxpayers know what the property-tax rate would be if local governments kept spending at the same level as the previous year.

Then, if the local governing board wants to spend more money, it is required to take a special vote to raise the preliminary rate to a higher level.

The beauty of the PTR is already being seen.

Take, for example, the case of Lancaster County. Following its preliminary budget work, the Lancaster County board announced proudly that tax rates would be going down.

In past years, that would have sounded pretty good to the average homeowner. But in reality the board has approved nearly $1 million in increased spending. Only the fact that property is valued higher than a year ago allows the rate to drop.

But this year, the PTR comes along like a fresh breeze to blow away the smoke. Now we can see clearly. Yes, taxes are going up. That will be crystal clear when the board votes in September to raise the Preliminary Tax Rate to a higher level.

Like the APR, the PTR is there to keep people honest.

The views expressed in Capitol News are those of the writer and not necessarily those of the Nebraska Press Association.

Darn that English language!

Speaking English is routine for millions, however one cannot help but sympathize with someone trying to learn the complexities of the language.

For instance, we say "Wow! The rain is really coming down, a real downpour!" Does this infer it may at times go up? Isn't "down" also the soft plumage of birds as well as turf-covered tracts of upland? Traveling, we say we drove in a heavy rain. Does that mean we got out with a scale and weighed it? And does a house burn down or up? Why do things quiet down, but never quiet up? Prices go up and down, yet we pay $25 down, but never pay $25 up.

A court reporter takes down court dialogue, but never takes such words up! Notice that in football it may be a fourth down, but players never get four ups. Why is that?

Then, there are the downfallen and downtrodden. Ever meet anyone saying they belonged to the up-fallen or uprodden? A person is sometimes described as downright ornery. Are there any upright ornery?

English! How can one keep straight the downs and ups!

A tired mother may scream "Cut that out!" Is she asking her child to snip something from the newspaper? So many English words are used in different ways, confusing any student attempting to learn the lingo. For instance, a child is called a "cut up"...but never a cut down. Strange.

Imagine the frustration of discerning between object and object. Such as, I object to your flying, as the plane is an object subject to accidents. We speak of bright children. Are there dim ones? If there are hijackers, are their lowjackers? In the world of finance, fat cats abound. Does that mean you and I may be thin cats?

English students are certain to have difficulty in distinguishing between cents and sense, car races and races of people, a bass vocalist fishing for bass, a base person on third base, wanting to counter my ideas about building a counter, having the craft to build a craft, and eating jam while stuck in one.

A ring may be finger jewelry, or the sound of a phone. Then there is sent which sounds like scent, reel and real, peel and peal, steel and steal, vial and vile, wrap and rap, and mite and might.

And our newest little citizens, babies, have to learn it all! Wow!

ONE NEBRASKA JOURNAL

By Governor Ben Nelson

August 30, 1996

Dear Nebraska Neighbors,

The dictionary defines "partner" as "a person associated with another or others in some activity of common interest." It's a good first step in describing the effort underway in Nebraska called the Nebraska Partnership for Health and Human Services.

In this case, the partners cover a wide spectrum of interests. But our COMMON interest in this partnership is changing the way health and human services are delivered in Nebraska.

The project began nearly two years ago at the state agency level. The Legislature joined the partnership this year by passing legislation to implement the changes. Since then, hundreds of community members and state employees have joined the process of restructuring and redesigning the Departments of Aging, Health, Social Services and Public Institutions and the Office of Juvenile Services.

The process has revealed the real compassion of the citizens of this great state — the discussion has not been whether to continue to help people, but how we can work together to provide the services and programs most effectively and efficiently.

When Lt. Governor Kim Robak, at my direction, began a study of the state's health and human services, we found a bureaucracy full of duplication and, for many Nebraskans, frustration. As programs were established on both the state and federal levels, the bureaucracy grew to accommodate them. The result was that a real SYSTEM simply did not exist. Those seeking help often had to navigate their way through a maze of agencies and uncoordinated programs.

The proposed solution — reorganize the five health and human service agencies into a coordinated system of three new functionally-organized agencies beginning January 1, 1997. The idea of redesigning services, thousands of employees, offices and jobs is almost overwhelming. But we know Nebraskans are up to the task. As soon as the Legislature gave the go-ahead, we went directly to those most affected in our state — the people who use the services and the state employees who provide them.

More than 600 Nebraskans from outside of state government have participated in community forums since mid-June. Forums and video conferences have been held in Ainsworth, Beatrice, Chadron, Columbus, Grand Island, Hastings, Kearney, Lincoln, Norfolk, North Platte, Omaha and Scottsbluff.

These Nebraskans come from a variety of professions and locations, but all are committed to improving the system. And I can assure them that those of us in state government are listening.

Keeping Nebraskans as key partners with state government has been a guiding principle of this project. In a sense, these Nebraskans are voting on a better, more sensible health and human services system. They are helping state government create a true partnership between the state and our communities.

To help keep Nebraskans informed, a monthly Progress Report newsletter is sent to more than 7,000 community members, and the Partnership World Wide Web Page (<http://www.nol.org/home/NPP/>) has made information available anytime to anyone with web access.

The Nebraska Partnership for Health and Human Services has become a true statewide effort. We need the continuing involvement and commitment of Nebraskans from all walks of life to make this a success. We are asking the citizens of this state to help their government stake out a better future for all of us in this One Nebraska.

Adopt-A-Student program to be sponsored in Wayne

Gaila J. Gilliland
Executive Director
Wayne Area
Chamber of Commerce

For the past several years, the Wayne Area Chamber of Commerce has sponsored the Adopt-A-Student program. The school year of 1996 will be no exception!

Student application forms were mailed to all incoming Wayne State College freshmen a few weeks ago. Parent/family applications were distributed through the last monthly Chamber Newsletter which goes out to all Chamber and Wayne Industries, Inc. members.

A general information sheet is filled out by both student and parent applicants. Applicants are asked to indicate interests, skills, hobbies, pet peeves and religious preference (if important to you). When all applications have been returned to the Chamber office, students and parent/family are matched according to interest criteria.

At this point you might be wondering exactly what is required of a host parent/family.

Many freshmen students have left home often for the first time and could use a friend in Wayne. That is the role of the host parent to be a friend. As a friend, the host parent can be a listener, an encourager. The parent can invite the student for a meal or include the student in activities the family and student enjoy. You might assist you student in finding a local job or you might attend athletic events together.

A get-acquainted party for participating students and their new families will be held Sunday, Sept. 22 at 6 p.m. at Brössler Park. Prior to this event, both students and host families will be matched and notified of the match.

Host parents are still needed and I hope you will respond to the challenge to become a host parent, by calling the Chamber office and saying you would like to participate in this way.

Adopt-a-Student is a fantastic opportunity to serve in your community, impact a young person's life and develop a lifelong friendship.

Give me a call!

Gil Haase and his wife Marge were also at the meeting. Haase helped start the local Rotary Club in June 1987.

The local club is in the middle of a membership drive and Thone installed the two newest members, Gaila Gilliland and Donald Zeiss.

NPPD pays communities

Nebraska Public Power District (NPPD) is paying 204 communities more than $3.3 million as a result of agreements leasing their electric distribution systems to NPPD, according to Wayne E. Boyd of South Sioux City, chairman of the NPPD board of directors.

The money represents the amounts payable for the second quarter of 1996 under the terms of the lease agreements. The money may be used the community any way it desires, Boyd said.

The money turned over to the cities and towns by NPPD at this time does not include their portion of the annual five percent gross revenue tax (in-lieu-of-tax) payments required by state law.

In addition to the money realized, the agreements between NPPD and the communities provide for a one-third discount on the electricity consumed by governmental agencies.

Area towns receiving money and the amount include: Hoskins-$4,322.40; Allen-$5,932.22; Concord-$2,167.29 and Dixon-$1,448.79.

Cataracts affect over 80% of our senior citizens.

In fact over one million cataract surgeries are performed annually in the U.S. alone.

New technological developments in implants, ultrasonic equipment, lasers, diagnostic testing, and surgical techniques have made cataract surgery one of the most effective procedures today. Currently, over 98% of cataract patients experience significant improvements in vision, without major complications.

Until now, the high cost of this new technology for cataract surgery was only available in the larger surgical facilities. This meant that you would have to travel for a complete eye examination and surgery. Not any longer.

Complete eye care and cataract surgery is now available at Providence Medical Center in Wayne. You don't have to travel outside of your community to have your vision tested for cataracts. With Dr. Willcockson, Dr. Koeber and Dr. Magnuson offering comprehensive diagnostic and surgical services, you now have the most advanced eye care available right here in town.

Call Dr. Koeber or Dr. Magnuson for a complete eye examination and cataract vision screening today. If you would like more information on cataracts for yourself or someone you know who may be experiencing loss of vision, call today for a free informational brochure.

Wayne State wins season opener, 50-38

Wildcats put the sting to Emporia State

By Kevin Peterson
Of the Herald

An offensive explosion took place in Emporia, Kansas over the weekend and when the smoke cleared the Wayne State Wildcats had put the sting on the Hornets of Emporia State, 50-38 in the season opening football game for both teams.

The two teams combined for nearly 1200 yards of offense including a 400-plus yard passing outing by the Cats senior signal caller Jarrod DeGeorgia.

The host team got on the scoreboard first when Brian Shay broke loose on a 26-yard run but the Cats closed out the first quarter on a 20-yard scoring strike from DeGeorgia to Marshall Byrd and a successful two-point conversion pass gave WSC an 8-7 lead and it was a lead they would never relinquish.

On the Cats very next possession which began at the 20-yard line, DeGeorgia hooked up with Kevin Swayne on an 80-yard scoring strike. DeGeorgia got into the endzone on his own midway through the second period on a three-yard scamper and with Dirk Boe's point after the visitors had quieted the Hornets crowd with a 21-7 lead.

The Cats, however, were far from done in the scoring column for the first half as Josh Sikes broke loose on a 79-yard scoring run and Kevin Swayzer struck paydirt on the defensive side of the ball with a 45-yard interception return to give WSC a 34-10 halftime lead.

Adjustments made by Emporia State at halftime proved to be beneficial as they used the third quarter to out-score WSC by a 22-0 margin to close the margin of deficit to just two points at 34-32 but WSC readjusted in the fourth quarter and put the game out of reach with a 43-yard interception return for a score by Shamil Reader and a 76-yard scoring strike from DeGeorgia to Swayne. Boe also booted a 29-yard field goal in the fourth quarter.

Emporia State did have possession of the ball and was attempting to kick a field goal in the fourth quarter that would have put them ahead by a 35-34 margin but Ryschaun Mosley provided his senior leadership by blocking the field goal attempt and swinging momentum back to the Cats side of the field.

The Wildcat defense notched five interceptions against Emporia State with Swayzer beginning the season with a pair of thefts while others went to Reader, Brad Fitzke and Rick Kuiken.

"This was definitely a big win for us," Wagner said. "Anytime you can win on the road it is huge. Emporia State is rebuilding with a new coaching staff that's been in tact for just one complete season but they returned 10 offensive starters off a team that finished second in the nation last year in passing yardage and 10th in the country in total offense."

Wagner said he was pleased that his team was able to readjust in the fourth quarter after Emporia State drew with in two points. "There's no doubt they (Emporia State) made some great adjustments at the ball but we stepped up and did what we had to do in the fourth quarter."

Getting that first win of the season in the opener does a lot to a football team that is considered to be young. "We don't have a real veteran football team," Wagner added. "We have one senior starter on defense and six on offense."

The WSC mentor felt one of the keys to the victory was not turning the ball over at all and forcing five interceptions. "Our secondary played very well against a good offense," he said.

True freshman Josh Sikes of Papillion made the most of his collegiate debut with 107 yards rushing on just six carries and DeGeorgia completed 23 passes out of 37 attempts for 406 yards and three touchdowns. The leading receiver was Kevin Swayne with seven receptions for 204 yards and a pair of touchdowns.

The defense was paced by Brad Fitzke with 11 tackles while Jason Jansen and Gabe Toft each had 10. Jesse Wavrunek garnered nine tackles while Kevin Armstrong had eight and Ryschaun Mosley, seven.

"I was very pleased to see the large numbers of people from this area make the trip to Emporia to support us," Wagner said. "I hope they continue to back us this weekend in Vermillion when we play South Dakota."

Players of the game as selected by the coaching staff included the entire offensive line with Brian Van Hook, Evan Matautia, Erv Strohschen, Jason Sacks and Ben Green. The defensive players of the game included Kevin Swayzer with two interceptions and Shamil Reader.

SPEAKING OF USD, the Coyotes will enter Saturday's game with WSC as a top 20 team in the NCAA-II polls at 18th. They are ranked as high as fifth in some polls.

"This should be a good football game," Wagner said. "They have a very good offense with 10 returning starters on offense and six on defense. They are a run oriented team that likes to use a ball control offense with a Wing-T setup."

Wagner said the Cats defense will be put to another stiff test. "We can't allow 14-play drives that consume the clock," Wagner said. "We need to mix things up on defense to give our offense as many opportunities and once we get the ball we have to be productive."

Wagner added that freshman kicker Dirk Boe of Madison could play a key role in the outcome of the contest.

Game time is set for 1:30 p.m. at the dome in Vermillion on the campus of South Dakota University.

WSC spikers debut at UNO

By Kevin Peterson
Of the Herald

The Wayne State women's volleyball team began the 1996 season at the University of Nebraska-Omaha Tournament over the weekend and Sharon Vanis' team finished with a 1-3 record.

The Cats started play against nationally ranked UNO (9th) and lost, 16-18, 11-15, 8-15. "It was a tough match because we ended up losing Jennifer Svitak in the third game for the rest of the tournament," Vanis said. "She came down on her ankle wrong and sprained it."

Jessie Pontow and Renee Fuhr led the team in kill spikes with a dozen each while Svitak had nine before being injured. Tracy Wessel notched 49 ace sets and Fuhr led the defensive effort with 18 digs with Wessel notching 13 digs and Jill Grant, 12.

WSC lost the second match in five games to Truman State, 9-15, 12-15, 15-8, 16-14, 11-15. Jennifer Rowse led the attack for the Cats with 16 kill spikes while Renee Fuhr had 14 and Jessie Pontow, 13.

Tracy Wessel was the leading setter again with 44 aces and the defense was led by Rowse and Pontow with 19 digs each while Fuhr had 13. Amy Gudmundson was the leader at the net for WSC with nine ace blocks while Wessel had five.

The Wildcats breezed past Missouri Western in straight games, 15-4, 15-11, 17-15. "We lost to this team a couple times last year so it was a good win for us," Vanis said.

Rowse sparked the team with 15 kill spikes while Fuhr added a dozen. Wessel notched 41 ace sets and Gudmundson led the team with three ace serves. Wessel, Fuhr and Gudmundson each had 10 digs to pace the defense and Erin Pick had four ace blocks.

The fourth match of the UNO Tournament ended with a setback to Pittsburgh State despite the fact WSC won the first two games, 15-5, 15-12, 11-15, 11-15, 14-16.

Jessie Pontow blasted 16 ace spikes to lead the Cats and Amy Gudmundson recorded 15 while Jennifer Rowse finished with 11 and Renee Fuhr, 10.

Tracy Wessel notched 49 ace sets and Fuhr had three ace serves to lead the team. Defensively, Rowse had 18 digs and Fuhr 17 while Gudmundson notched 16 digs and Wessel, 15.

"I thought we played pretty well all weekend," Vanis said. "Having to replace four starters from a year ago is something we were forced to do and now we have to learn how to win."

TUESDAY IN Seward, WSC fell to unbeaten Concordia College in five games once again, 16-14, 14-16, 11-15, 16-14, 12-15.

Jennifer Svitak returned to Cats lineup but only to play some front row and with an air cast. Jessie Pontow led WSC with 19 kill spikes while Amy Gudmundson notched 16. Svitak finished with a dozen ace spikes and Renee Fuhr was also in double figures with 10.

Tracy Wessel had 66 ace sets while the defense was led by Gudmundson's 31 digs with Fuhr adding 24 more. Pontow had 17 digs and Wessel, 14.

WSC will travel to compete in the South Dakota State Tournament in Brookings, S.D. this weekend with matches against Chadron State, SDSU and Concordia/Moorhead.

Why are so many adolescents angry?

Q: Our 15-year-old son literally seethes with hostility at home—at his mother and me, at his sisters, and at the world. Believe me, we have done nothing to provoke this anger, and I don't understand what has caused it.

But other parents of teens report the same problem. Why are so many adolescents angry at their parents and families? Sometimes they seem to hate the people who love them the most!

A: At least part of the answer to that question can be explained by the "in-between" stages of teenagers. They live in an era when they enjoy neither the privileges of adulthood nor the advantages of childhood.

Consider the plight of the average 15-year-old. All of the highly advertised adult privileges and vices are forbidden to him because he is "too young." He can't drive or marry or enlist or drink or smoke or work or leave home. And his sexual desires are denied gratification at a time when they scream for release.

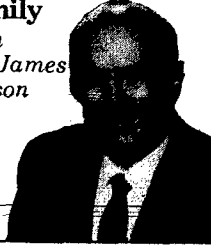

The only thing he is permitted to do, it seems, is stay in school and read his dreary textbooks. This is an overstatement, of course, but it is expressed from the viewpoint of the young man or woman who feels disenfranchised and insulted by society. Much of the anger of today's youth is generated by their perception of this injustice.

There is another side to this issue of adolescent volatility. I'm now convinced that the hormonal changes occurring in a developing body may be more important to feelings than we thought earlier. Just as a woman's emotions are set on edge by premenstrual tension, menopause and extreme fatigue, it is entirely possible that the adolescent experience is largely hormonal as well.

How else can we explain the universality of emotional instability during these years? Having watched thousands of children sail from childhood to early adolescence, it still amazes me to witness textbook characteristics suddenly appearing on schedule as though responding to a pre-programmed computer.

Focus On The

Family With Dr. James Dobson

Q: Alright, so my kid feels disrespected and hostile. I still have to impose some limits and discipline on him, don't I?

A: Yes, but it is possible to lead teenagers without insulting and antagonizing them unnecessarily.

I learned this lesson when I was a junior high school teacher. It became clear to me very early that I could impose all manner of discipline, and strict behavioral requirements, provided I treat each young person with genuine dignity and respect.

I earned their friendship before and after school, during lunch and through classroom encounters. I was tough, especially when challenged, but never discourteous, mean or insulting. I defended the underdog and tenaciously tried to build each child's confidence and self-respect.

However, I never compromised my standards of deportment. Students entered my classroom without talking each day. They did not chew gum, behave disrespectfully, curse or stab one another with ball point pens. I was clearly the captain of the ship, and I directed it with military zeal.

The result of this combination of kindness and firm discipline stands as one of the most pleasant memories of my professional life. I loved my students, and I had every reason to believe that I was loved in return. I actually missed them on weekends (a fact my wife never quite understood).

At the end of the final year when I was packing my books and saying goodbye, 25 or 30 teary-eyed kids hung around my gloomy room for several hours and finally stood sobbing in the parking lot as I drove away. And yes, I shed a few tears of my own that day.

(Please forgive this self-congratulatory paragraph. I haven't bothered to tell you about my failures, which are far less interesting.)

Missionary to speak in Wayne

Reverend John Fransisco, recently approved Assemblies of God Missionary to Peru, will be speaking to Praise Assembly of God Church, 901 Circle Drive on Sunday at 10 a.m. according to Rev. Mark Steinbach, pastor.

John and his wife Kerri first visited Peru on a short-term, Ambassadors in Mission (AIM) trip in 1989.

"Our passion for missions started with a small seed that was planted on our first trip to the city of Iquitos," John said.

"I've had the opportunity to lead a total of seven AIM teams in ministry around the world. Four of those trips have been to Peru."

The Fransiscos plan to be involved in church planting among business and professional people in the metropolitan environment of Lima, the capital city.

"This people group is almost completely unreached," John stresses.

"Our specific target is to plant a church in Mira Flores, a section of Lima with a population of about 500,000. We hope this church will serve as a model for many other churches."

The Assemblies of God in Peru is a growing fellowship of more than 2,300 preaching points attended by about 175,000 people. This growth has come about in spite of persecution by communist guerrillas in some parts of the country.

The public is invited to attend.

Harvard physician suggests calcium for Osteoporosis

In an article written for physicians in the medical journal Consultant, Douglas Kiel, M.D., recommends estrogen replacement therapy for women after menopause to prevent or delay osteoporosis. This bone disease, which strikes women more often than men, is characterized by bone deterioration and fractures.

Concerning calcium, Dr. Kiel suggests that the current recommended dietary allowance of 800 mg daily is too low for both postmenopausal women and older men. Women who do not obtain estrogen should get 1,500 mg daily. Women who obtain estrogen may get by on less. Dairy products are the best calcium source because the mineral is readily absorbed into the bloodstream (is bioavailable). He recommends calcium carbonate supplements for individuals who cannot consume dairy products or who do not care for dairy products.

Grace Lutheran Church, which has been in existence since 1925, will be celebrating the completion of a 6,400 square foot addition to the church. The new portion of the building is on the right.

Celebration to be held at Grace Lutheran

A special day of Praise and Thanksgiving will be held at Grace Lutheran Church on Sunday, Sept. 15 to celebrate the completion of a 6,400 square foot, two story addition on the north side of the church.

The celebration service will be led by Pastors Jeff Anderson and Merle Mahnken at 10 a.m. and will be followed by a pot luck dinner.

The community is invited to attend an open house from 2-4 p.m. Congregational members will be on hand to answer any questions about the building project or any of the other activities that are held at the church.

"It is with thankful hearts that we look back at the process that we, as a family of God, have taken to see this addition completed. We have received countless blessings and growth in our members," said Pastor Jeff Anderson, head pastor at the church.

The building project began in December 1991 with a congregational meeting to gather input from the members regarding the installation of a handicap access to the basement.

At this time other needs were also addressed and discussion followed. In January 1992 a motion was brought to the church council for form a building committee which conducted various surveys among members and organizations to determine what was needed in the new addition.

During this time the property at 909 Main Street was purchased and later remodeled. It is now the parsonage where Pastor and Mrs. Merle Mahnken and family live.

The building committee met with architects and brought information back to the congregation. Many decisions were made and plans continued to be formed.

In the fall of 1992 several drawings were presented to the congregation with estimates for consideration. On April 19, 1993 the voters assembly officially approved the building project as outlined by the architecture firm of Krhounek and Provondra.

The addition houses Sunday School classrooms, a fellowship area, office space for the two pastors and the secretary, makes the building handicap accessible and includes handicap accessible rest rooms. An elevator was also installed near the southwest entrance of the church.

In August 1993 "Grow in Grace-One Miracle at a Time," a spiritual and capital growth drive was started. It included several congregational Bible studies, two all-church banquets, several prayer vigils and each member of the congregation being visited.

At the voters meeting on Oct.

18, 1993 a motion was made to have $200,000 in the building fund before proceeding with the addition. This goal was met and ground breaking ceremonies were held April 2, 1995.

Otte Construction of Wayne was the general contractor for project. The corner stone was laid in place following the 10:30 a.m. worship service on Dec. 24, 1995. Dedication of the new facility was held March 24, 1996.

Grace Lutheran offers three worship services each week-Sunday at 8 and 10:30 a.m. and 6:45 p.m. on Mondays. Sunday School is held each Sunday at 9:15 a.m. for children ages three through eighth grad at the church. The high school group meets at the Lutheran Student Center at 10th and Logan Streets and the adult Bible class meets at the same time.

The family of Grace also offers several weekday opportunities for Bible study, including Tuesdays at 7:30 p.m. at the church, Wednesdays at 6:30 a.m. at PoPo's and 9 a.m. at the church and Saturdays at 7 a.m. at the Campus Center.

Grace Evangelical Lutheran Church was organized by five families in the fall of 1925. Rev. H.H. Hopman was installed as the first pastor on Jan. 10, 1926. In September 1927 a 40 by 28 foot chapel was dedicated at the corner of Ninth and Logan Streets.

In the summer of 1928 the congregation received its Synodical membership.

The Rev. Walter Brackensick became pastor in October 1936 and served until Aug. 4, 1948 when he was killed in an automobile accident. On March 15, 1942 a 40 by 80 foot brick building, seating 400 persons was dedicated.

On March 20, 1949 Rev. E.J. Bernthal was installed as pastor and he served until 1973. During this time the church building was enlarged and renovated to accommodate 600 worshippers and re-dedicated on Nov. 18, 1962.

Other pastors have included Rev. John Upton 1973-79; Rev. Jack Schneider 1974-1976; Rev. Thomas Mendenhall 1977-1983; Rev. Jonathan Vogel 1980-1988; Rev. James Pennington 1984-1990.

Presently serving at Grace Lutheran Church are Rev. Jeff Anderson who was installed as associate pastor and campus pastor in 1988. He became head pastor in February 1991 and continues to serve in that capacity.

The Rev. Merle Mahnken was installed as associate pastor and campus pastor in the summer of 1991 and continues in those capacities.

DEVELOPMENT GROUP

The Nebraska Department of Economic Development has issued a complimentary news release featuring Allen, Allen Development Group Inc. and its president Rob Bock. The release recounts the successful and ongoing efforts in housing development in the village. In 1991, the Development Group received a Community Development Block Grant for $80,000. With this money, the group helped 16 families purchase 12 existing and four new homes in the next three years. The money was used to create a down payment assistance program, sparking a building boom which is still going strong. To date, five more homes have been built, 25 lots developed and Allen Daycare established and expanded. As people repay their housing loans, it creates a revolving account for others.

Rob Bock and the Development Group have done a great deal to insure that people achieve the dream of owning their own homes and that Allen maintains the population to support the services we all count on.

Rob Bock was recently notified that he was selected as one of the top 100 of the nation's finest leaders who are guiding their towns to a bright future. Because of his work, the village will receive $5,000 in the form of a community development grant in Rob's name. The award is sponsored by the National Association of Towns and Townships (NATaT) is supported by Wal-Mart Stores. The prizes will be announced at a special ceremony in Washington D.C. this week and distributed sometime this month at ceremonies at the winners' local Wal-Mart stores.

Nebraska LEAD Fellows announced for 1996-98

Members of the 16th Nebraska Lead Group have been announced by Allen Blezek, director of the Nebraska Leadership Education/Action Development program at the University of Nebraska-Lincoln.

Farmers, ranchers or persons involved in agribusiness comprise the 1996-98 group of 30 participants, Blezek said.

Participants will attend 12, three-day in-state seminars, a national study/travel seminar and an extensive international study/travel seminar during their two years of participation. Seminars are designed to provide practical, hands-on learning experiences to broaden understanding of the interrelationship between agriculture and the economy, the environment, society, government and public policy.

LEAD's purpose is to provide Nebraska's most promising adult men and women agriculturalists an opportunity to enhance leadership development essential for the long-term future of farming/ranching, agribusiness and the state, Blezek said. The mission of LEAD is "to prepare and motivate men and women in agriculture for more effective leadership."

LEAD XVI fellows are Robert Bock, Allen; Stanley Heyen, Ceresco; Todd Ehler, Elkhorn; Timothy Rowe, Elwood; Daniel James, Firth; Joseph Orner, Gering; Ted Bish, Giltner; Cydney Janssen, Gordon; Mark Klute, Hampton; Mark Hastreiter, Hastings; John Williams, Holdrege; Thomas Bosshardt, Kearney; Wesley Andersen, Kennard; Robert Anderson, Lexington; Randy Klein, James Nygren, Ronald Ziggafos, Lincoln; Dale Miller, Lyons; Timothy Nollette, Nenzel; Arthur Duvall, Ord; Scot Darling, Pender; Todd Wojtalowicz, St. Paul; Jerry Arnold, Brad Gangwish, Greg Smyth, Shelton; Charles Starostka, Silver Creek; Greg Fleecs, Sutherland; Douglas Damme, Talmage; Mary Ann Coupland, Valentine; and Timothy Johnson, Wausa.

The new minister down the road is a runner, and I feel kind of slow when I meet him. He does not stop, either; just says "hi" and chugs right on. I admire his discipline.

That's the guy to the west. The one to the east bicycles. In fact, this is great area for bikes. They are all over. And they wear spandex shorts, gloves and helmets. It isn't like when we were kids. Every activity takes special equipment.

Kay moved into an apartment this weekend. Since most of her stuff was in storage, neatly packed in boxes, it didn't take long to accomplish. It's in one of those new areas, populated by yuppies, with tennis courts, a pool and a hot tub. Her criteria were: on first floor, laundry facilities, a garage and security. The room she was using here suddenly looks very empty.

We have always enjoyed live theatre. We've been to numerous Wayne and Norfolk community productions; and even drove to Omaha occasionally for the Firehouse.

But we only have to drive 15 minutes now, to either the one at Mahoney or one at Manley called The Loft. It's called the Loft because it is actually in an old barn. The actors call themselves the "Born in a Barn" players, and they are great.

For six bucks a ticket, we've seen "Steel Magnolias," "Nunsense II," "I Remember Mama" and "Meet Me In St. Louis." And, at Mahoney, we've caught "Seasons Greetings" and "Honeymoon Suite" and several others.

This summer's musical at the Loft was "Hello, Dolly," and I went twice, it was so good. A 15 year old from our neighborhood stole the show. But the costumes were perfect, the music enjoyable, and the acting quite professional.

This weekend, it was "Lost In Younkers," another success. We had an extra day to wash sheets and clean bathrooms; now it's back to our other jobs. I didn't anticipate "retirement" would be so busy!

Crickets not harmful, can damage fabrics in home

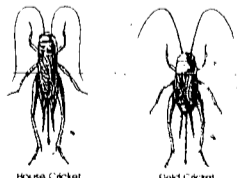

Some people think crickets provide pleasant background music; but others consider the "chirp" annoying.

"Once they get into the house, however, the charm of the cricket song gets lost and they can damage fabrics," said Dave Keith, entomologist at the University of Nebraska-Lincoln.

In recent years, Nebraska has recorded very high numbers of crickets, principally the striped ground cricket, which breeds in open fields and lawns, Keith said. These insects are reaching maturity now. A related species, the common black house cricket, becomes more apparent later in August and in September.

Crickets are related to grasshoppers, having hind legs enlarged for jumping and two pairs of wings. Male crickets produce noises by rubbing their wings together rapidly, which signals the opposite sex. The familiar chirp is a love message to a potential mate. Once mated, female crickets lay eggs in soil, then are eventually killed by frost, the Institute of Agriculture and Natural Resources entomologist said.

Eggs hatch in April or May and the tiny crickets gradually increase in size during early summer. By late summer, they develop wings and become sexually mature. There is only one generation per year. Most species are active only at night, hiding under leaves, mulch or beneath objects during the day.

While most crickets are plant feeders, some eat other insects. In late summer, when host plants set seed, wilt and die, crickets may leave and "move to town." The striped ground cricket is attracted to lights. Therefore, crickets are often abundant wherever lights are on all night, such as supermarket parking lots, manufacturing sites and restaurants, the entomologist said.

Crickets aren't especially harmful, but they can be a nuisance. Some can damage fabrics when they get into the homes. If crickets become a problem, Keith said there are several ways to discourage the insect.

- Keep outdoor lights off at night, if feasible.
- Replace traditional white lights outdoors with yellow bulbs, which are less attractive to insects.
- Remove harborage such as

Eagles goal: 100 percent effort

By Korey Berg

Doug Schnack, in his first year as Allen football coach, expects a lot out of his players. He expects the Eagles, who finished 1-7 a year ago, to give a 100 percent effort.

"We're not going to say we expect to win four games or we expect to win three games," said Schnack. "We want to win all the games. We want to be 8-0 going into the play-offs. Realistically, that's not going to happen, but I expect our players to go 100 percent the whole game. If we win, that's great and if we don't, we'll get our heads up and come back the next week. If we play every game and go 100 percent we can walk off the field with our heads up - win or lose."

The Eagles return five starters on both offense and defense and have seven seniors on the team, led by end Mike Blohm who caught 20 passes for 317 yards and six touchdowns last year.

"Mike Blohm is back," said Schnack. "He has great speed, good hands, good knowledge of where the ball is and he runs hard. He'll be playing a little in the backfield too."

At quarterback will be Jeremy Kumm.

"Jeremy has a couple years of starting experience and that's going to help," said Schnack.

In the backfield will be Brett Sachau and Corey Prochaska.

"Brett is going to play running back and fullback for us out of the 1," Schnack said. "He's not very big, but he runs hard and blocks well."

Another key to Allen's season is the offensive line.

"I've been working a lot with the offensive line," said Schnack. "They haven't had a whole lot of fundamentals. If those guys can come around, that's going to be the key to our season."

Quickness and team unity are what Schnack believes will be the strengths of the Eagles this season.

"We're not very big," said Schnack, "but we should be fairly quick. We're not going to be blazing fast, but we should be fairly quick. Our guards aren't very big, but they can move and we're going to use them that way. Hopefully, we'll be a close team and that's always a strength."

Allen opens the season on Friday as they host Wynot for a 7:30 p.m. game.

"I'm really looking forward to the season," said Schnack. "We're going to have a lot of fun and we're going to go hard for 32 minutes every Friday night."

Allen to rely on defensive volleyball

By Korey Berg

The Allen Eagles are like the little kid on the block that always gets beat up. This year, Head Volleyball Coach Scott Kneifl hopes to return that beating in the district tournament.

"We're a D-2 school and we play a lot of C-2, C-1 and D-1 competition," said Kneifl. "There isn't anybody our size around here. We get pounded pretty much all year long. Compared to our regular season schedule, our districts are a step down. Newcastle [who defeated Allen in districts last year] is a really nice team, but now they moved up to D-1, so in our district tournament we're looking at Beemer, Wynot and Dodge - teams that are very beatable."

Kneifl is planning on a much better season than last year's 7-12 mark.

"I expect a much better team than last year. We really want a winning season. Other than that we're just hoping to compete well all year long and improve."

Returning this year is Wayne Herald All-Area team member Jaime Kliver. The senior setter had a 96 percent setting percentage and had 292 assists last year. Also contributing will be middle hitters Shanyn Moran and Mindy Plueger.

"Shanyn has really improved over the last year and she's going to do a good job for us," said Kneifl.

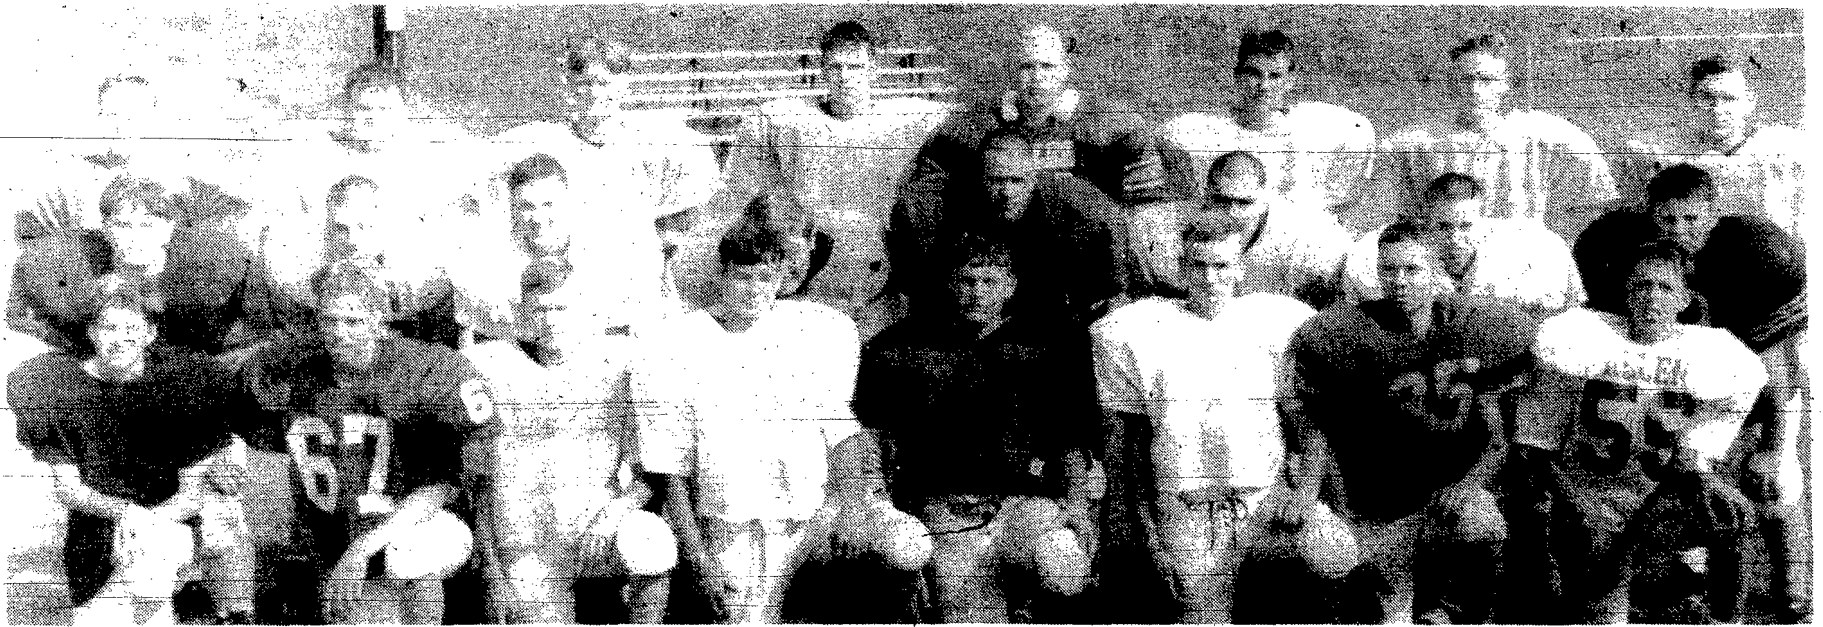

If the Eagles are going to reach their goals, they will have to rely heavily on their defense.

"It's going to have to be our defense," said Kneifl. "We don't really have anybody that can terminate the ball like an Ankeny from Laurel or somebody like that, so we really have to play good defense. We've been working on it all preseason and it's improved a lot. That's going to be the key if we're going to win any ball games."

Allen opens the season on Thursday in the Beemer tournament.

Ankeny leads experienced group

By Korey Berg

Coming off a 23-2 season and a trip to the state finals, the Laurel-Concord-Lady Bears return four key starters off last year's squad.

"We have a lot of players back," said Head Coach Patti Cunningham. "It's a fun thing to have that much experience returning and we hope that the people who started last year will provide some leadership. They have a chance to play pretty well together as a team."

Leading the charge is Wayne Herald Player of the Year Tracy Ankeny. The 5-10 senior recorded 252 kills last year to lead the team.

"Tracy is a talented player," said Cunningham. "She loves to play volleyball and she's always trying to get better."

Other key players include Becky Schroeder (who led the the Wayne Herald Area in blocks), Megan Adkins and Sarah Ehlers.

One player that Laurel did have to replace was Wayne Herald All-Area setter Gina Monson.

"We had to fill our setter role," said Cunningham. "We have Mindy Eaton, who has some experience in that role and Megan Adkins, who is moving from a hitter to a setter."

Cunningham also revealed some of Laurel's strategies and goals for the season.

"We hope to see a lot of quick hits, quick attacks and improved defense," said Cunningham. We have some of the same goals as last year. Anytime we play up to our potential and give it 100 percent, we're going to view it as a successful match, whether it's a win or loss."

After such a successful season last year, other teams will be trying to knock Laurel off their perch.

"I think our conference will be extremely competitive this year," said Cunningham, "so that means we're going to need to be prepared every game."

Laurel hosts Randolph on Thursday in the season opener.

Bears out to prove doubters wrong

By Korey Berg

After going deep into the Class C2 football play-offs the past two seasons, the Laurel-Concord Bears find themselves faced with the challenge of replacing all 11 offensive starters and seven defensive starters from last year's 11-1 squad. The Bears placed 10 players on the Wayne Herald All-Area team last year, but only Vince Ward returns for 1996.

The Bears must replace their leading passer in Tyler Erwin (1,674 yds, 23 TDs), leading rusher in Jeff Wattier (945 yds, 25 TDs), top two leading receivers in Nic Dahl (25 receptions, 450 yards, 11 TDs) and Kyle Macklin (30 receptions, 452 yards, 6 TDs) and their top tackler in Kody Urwiler (131 total tackles).

"We lost from end to end and our entire backfield on offense," said Head Coach Tom Luxford. "On the defensive side of the ball we have four returning starters and I think we have some good nucleus players back that can help us. We're going to be real green at first, but hopefully we'll mature as the season goes on a little bit."

Quarterback Ryan Kvols will be the offensive spark plug, while Ward will provide the defensive leadership.

"Our quarterback, Ryan Kvols, had some varsity experience," said Luxford. "I think he'll do a good job running our offense and I think Vince Ward will do a good job running our defense. Vince is not a bad runner on offense either."

Last year, Laurel rolled over opponents on their way to 11 straight wins before falling to Oakland-Craig in the State semifinals. The Bears outscored their opponents by an average of 35 points per game. Despite their impressive record over the past few years, the Bears know that they have to prove themselves once again.

"People think that we're not going to be very good," Luxford said, "and that's fine. This is the first time in a long time that we haven't been rated at the beginning of the season and it's kind of nice. There's no pressure. You don't win on reputation, but these kids have seen a lot of success the last four or five seasons. I think we'll surprise some people."

It would be an understatement to say that Laurel has a difficult schedule this year.

"Our schedule is brutal," said Luxford. "We have Neligh-Oakdale, who's ranked #7 in Class C-1. We play Plainview, who's ranked #4 in the state. We play Bloomfield, who's ranked #2 in the state, along with Randolph, Crofton, Tilden-Elkhorn Valley. We think six of the seven teams in our conference are going to be pretty tough. I also think our district is much improved from a year ago. Winside is a year older and I think Ponca, Wisner-Pilger and Wakefield all have good teams coming back and they're all well coached. It's going to be a dogfight every week we go out, but we'll be ready."

The Bears open the season on Friday at Randolph. Game time is 7:30 p.m.

Winside football coach Randy Geier starts his 10th year as head Wildcat, making him the longest serving head coach in the 'Cats 48-year football history. The Culbertsen, Nebraska native brings a career record 54 wins against 45 losses to start off the season.

The Wildcats will rely on speed and quickness to offset the loss of the majority of the interior line to graduation. Geier's teams, who have had good senior leadership in past years, should also benefit from excellent senior leadership on the field again this year according to Geier.

The 'Cats most important asset may be the offensive line if they can develop an attitude as a unit.

"One of the keys to our success will be the play of the offensive line," said Geier. "Shaun Magwire is the only returning starter from last year. We feel they will develop into a very good line as they gain experience."

Joe Schwedhelm, at guard, spent most of last season as a fullback while Brock Shelton and Scott Stenwall, at tackle, were tight ends. John Holtgrew appears to have the inside track on the other tackle position. Both Shelton and Schwedhelm have the physical ability and agility to make an impact on defense as well.

Cory Brummels will move from his backfield position a year ago to fill the tight end spot, while split end Chad O'Connor and wing back Jaimey Holdorf return as receivers who pose a definite threat to opposition defenses.

Holdorf, an All-State selection as an 8-man player, will probably be the go-to man for third year quarterback Robert Wittler, who holds both 8-man and 11-man passing records for the Wildcats. Wittler accounted for 1,239 air yards last year and was selected to the Academic All-State team. Holdorf (3rd) and Wittler (21st) were selected by Huskerland Prep Report as being among the top 30 gridsters in Class C-2 this year. Holdorf also named as being the top game-breaker in the C-2 class behind Nebraska recruit Matt Davison of Tecumseh.

Junior running back Landon Grothe will handle the major load of the ball carrying chores again this year after rushing for 652 yards a year ago. Ryan Krueger, a sophomore, will join Grothe in the backfield as the Wildcats fullback. Junior Justin Bowers will help Krueger in the defensive backfield as an outside linebacker.

Hartington and Emerson-Hubbard appear to be the conference favorites this year after fielding young teams a year ago according to Geier. Tom Luxford's Laurel Bears are still the team to beat in the area's district, however, as Geier points out that their past success and tradition make them the district favorite on paper.

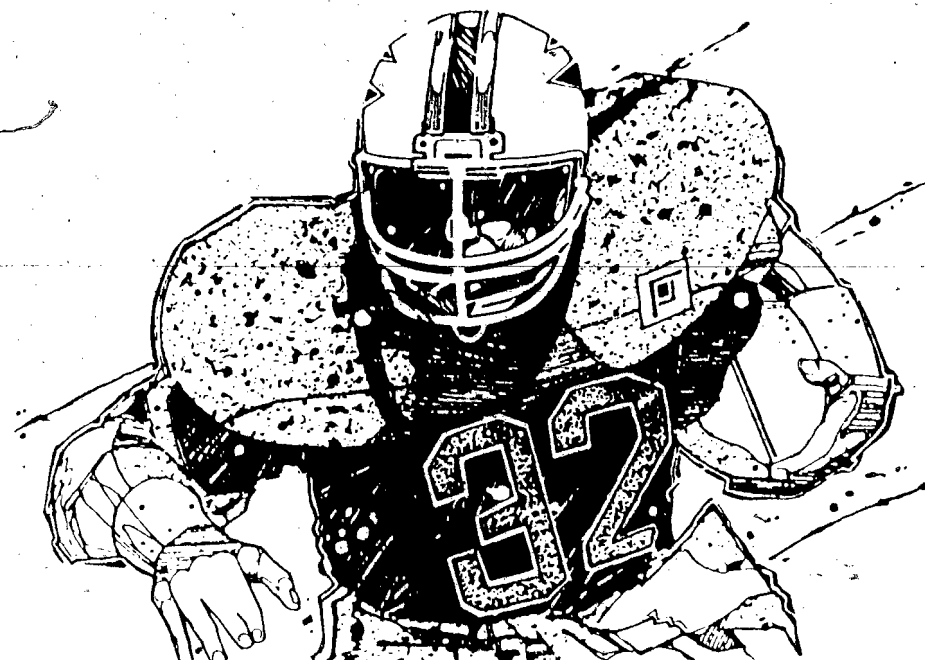

Their excellent attitude, good leadership and quickness are the 'Cats main assets. The key to Wildcat success will be the development of the offensive line, defensive play, which was very good in most of their games last year, and a lack of injuries to key personnel. A lack of depth may be Winside's biggest weakness.

Team attitude and conditioning will have a lot to do with Geier's squad being able to improve on last year's 5-4 record. The team will play one game at a time while working their way through a tough Lewis and Clark Conference schedule according to Geier.

The Wildcats open their season by hosting Wakefield Friday night. The Trojans will be better than a lot of people think according to Geier. He says Dennis Wilbur and his staff return several excellent players from last years squad despite graduation losses and will field a football team filled with excellent athletes.

'Cats determined to be successful

By Lee Koch

Winside mentor Lisa Schroeder enters her third year at the helm of the Wildcat volleyball squad sporting a career coaching record of 23 wins and 17 losses.

Schroeder is looking forward to Saturday's 12:00 noon opening contest when her team kicks off its season against Winnebago and follows with a 1:00 p.m. contest against host Battle Creek with mixed feelings of anxiety and anticipation.

Anxiety since her Wildcat squad will have no senior starters and anticipation because she feels her mixture of experienced youth may develop into a team capable of surprising some opponents before the season is over.

The upcoming season may be a building one for the young Wildcats, whose team motto is "Success is determined by how determined we are to succeed." In this case a successful season may also depend on developing team leadership among the underclass athletes.

"Despite our youth, we have some very experienced players returning," said Schroeder.

Junior middle hitter Jodi Miller, a two-year letter winner and starter will be joined by outside hitter Sara Marotz, a starter a year ago, and sophomore Jessica Miller, also a middle hitter who received All-Conference honorable mention honors for her play last year.

This trio will probably be joined by junior outside hitter Mindy Janke and a pair of setters in Mandi Topp, a junior, and sophomore Amy Riley. Senior Colleen Rhode is also expected to contribute to a strong hitting corp.

"We return some very strong hitters again this season," Schroeder said. "So far I've been pleased with our ball handling, so if that continues to be consistent, we will be able to run our quick offense and make use of our strong hitters."

The Wildcats, in order to improve on last year's 12-9 record will need to be more aggressive and need to improve their concentration on the defensive side of the net according to Schroeder. She feels the desire to aggressively pursue the ball on defense has not been developed at this time. This years mixture of Wildcats may be a little quicker and more agile than last years edition, a fact that allowed the ball to hit the floor between defensive players a year ago.

Winside is a member of the always competitive Lewis and Clark Conference. Schroeder said the Wausa and Wakefield teams are probably conference favorites. The sub-district may be one of the state's best, featuring always potent Wisner-Pilger and Stanton as well as defending C-2 champion Howells.

Among the 'Cats strong points will be the serve.

"I think we have some very aggressive servers," said Schroeder. "Hopefully we will capitalize on this in several matches."

Schroeder is also pleased with the team unity and communication that exists among her young squad during preseason drills.

Should summer camps and hard work translate into fall success, the Wildcats could definitely improve their performance of a year ago.

"I'd like to compliment the girls on the commitment they made this summer in the weight room and open gym," said Schroeder. "This will pay off for us this season."

The Wildcats travel to their season opener in Battle Creek Saturday and will host Osmond at home Tuesday in a 6:15 p.m. contest.

Trojans reload for another run

By Korey Berg

The Wakefield Trojans rolled through the 1995 football season with a 7-1 record until losing to Emerson-Hubbard 29-14 in the district semi-final. Dennis Wilbur's team had beaten the Pirates 20-14 just a few weeks earlier and the loss has left a bad taste in the mouths of many Trojans.

"These kids want to get after it," said Wilbur. "They thought we ended the season too soon last year. I'm not sure we could have beaten Laurel, but I think we were disappointed in not playing a better game against Emerson. We beat them one time and we probably should have played them closer in the play-offs, so we're a little disappointed."

Wakefield aims to avenge their loss this season, but they'll have to find a way to replace many of the components that made last year's team a success.

"We have an awful lot of people to replace," said Wilbur. "I'm looking for 6-3 or better. That's a possibility, but it could be 3-6. We're going to have a lot of close games. Everybody else in our conference is probably better than they were last year. We're the ones that lost the most player-wise. We only have four seniors, so there's going to be a lot of sophomores and juniors playing."

If your going to stop the Wakefield in 1996, you'll have to stop seniors Justin Mackling and Lance Jacobsen.

Mackling, the Wayne Herald Co-Player of the Year last season, gained 1,427 yards rushing a year ago and scored 20 touchdowns. Jacobsen led the squad with 159 total tackles (including 15 for lost yardage) and 3 1/4 sacks.

"Justin is an exceptional runner," said Wilbur. "He has great lateral movement and good speed."

Junior Jim Rusk will take over the signal calling for graduated senior Justin Dutcher.

"We don't have as much experience at the quarterback position," said Wilbur. "Jim Rusk looks like he's going to be the starter right now. He throws the ball fairly well, but he still has some mechanical problems that we're working on. If he gets the ball close to most of our receivers, they're going to catch it. We only return one receiver in Tyler Peters, but we have some kids that can catch the ball. If we can complete some balls, we'll open up our running game."

Defensively, the Trojans return linebackers, but not much else.

"We return three linebackers and they're as good as we've had since I've been here," said Wilbur, "but we've had to replace all the defensive lineman and all the defensive backfield."

One thing that may hold the Trojans is their dedication.

"They have a pretty dedicated work ethic," said Wilbur. "They're working real hard and good things are going to come from that. We're looking forward to the season."

Wakefield expectations high

By Korey Berg

Wakefield Head Volleyball Coach Marty Slaughter has the luxury of not having to replace any seniors this season. After recording a 7-13 record a year ago without a single senior on the team, hopes are high.

"This year I expect a lot," said Slaughter. "When it comes down to district time, our girls are looking at playing Wisner to go to state and anything less than having that opportunity to play them would be a disappointing season. I see us probably with six losses."

If they hope to make it to state, Wakefield must overcome a difficult schedule.

"It's going to be tough," said Slaughter, "but with the exception of Laurel, I think we can compete with the other teams talent-wise. Person-for-person, Laurel is just too far out there."

Another obstacle for Wakefield has been injuries.

"We have a lot of injuries right now," said Slaughter, "and they're probably injuries that have recurred from last year.

We were pretty laid up last year. It's probably going to affect us at the start of the year, but I think we'll be a much better team at the end of the year."

Helping to make Wakefield a much better team will be a trio of returning stars, including Wayne Herald All-Area team member Alison Benson.

"She was our middle hitter last year," Slaughter said. "She's a very good, real aggressive hitter. Bree Oswald is going to be another top player and Susan Brudigam is going to be out top setter. Susan has really good hands and if she develops into the player that I think she can be, she might be able to play some college ball."

Slaughter states that this year's squad is a much closer group and seems to be playing well as a team.

"Last year we had a lot of problems with the girls not wanting to play with each other as a team," said Slaughter, "and it took me and the other coaches the whole year just to get them to play together. This year I think one of our strengths is our team unity."

Wakefield opens the season on Thursday in the Beemer Invite.

Wayne expects successful season

By Korey Berg

The Wayne Blue Devils have a new, but familiar face leading their football team this season. John Murtaugh was promoted from defensive coordinator this past off-season replacing Lonnie Ehrhardt.

Wayne returns eight offensive and six defensive starters from a year ago after finishing the 1995 season with a mark of 2-6. The Blue Devils were not as bad as their record indicated however, as two losses were by a combined five points. Wayne could have easily finished with a winning record with a few more opportune bounces of the ball.

Returning for their senior seasons are two of Wayne's five representatives on last year's Wayne Herald All-Area Team.

After running back Josh Starzl was hurt in the season's second game, Brian Fernau hoisted the team on his shoulders and rushed for 674 yards at a clip of 5.2 yards per carry. Voted by his teammates as the squad's Most Outstanding Player, he accounted for 39 of the team's 101 points on the season, scoring five touchdowns (including three TDs in a 33-20 win over Raymond Central) and kicking a field goal and six extra-points.

"He's our leading rusher coming back," said Murtaugh. "We expect him to have a great season."

A linebacker on defense, Fernau registered 50 total tackles and also intercepted one pass. He also served as the Devils' kicker and punter and collected 541 yards on kickoff and punt returns.

Jeremy Lutt anchored the offensive line last season, playing center and tackle, while playing linebacker and occasionally tackle on defense. He earned both the Offensive Lineman Award and Defender of the Year Award in '95. Defensively, he recorded 76 total tackles and blocked a field goal during the season.

Paul Blomenkamp is the front-runner at quarterback.

"Paul is a big quarterback," said Murtaugh. "He's 6-5, close to 200 pounds and he has a strong arm, so we feel good about him and our other quarterbacks. The quarterback position is probably one of our deepest positions."

Another deep position for the Blue Devils will be the offensive line - so much so that Nick Van Horn was moved from tackle to fullback.

"We have the potential of having one of the best offensive lines that we've had here in many years."

Once again, Wayne should have a strong defense.

"Defensively, We feel that we have a tradition of excellence on defense," said Murtaugh, "and we expect that to continue."

Murtaugh states that the real strength on this team is the bond that has formed among the players.

"I think the strength of this team is the chemistry," Murtaugh said. "They get along with each other great. I'm impressed with the work ethic of the kids. It's evident to me that this team wants to do well."

Wayne's schedule will provide a good test for how far this team can go.

"I really like our schedule," said Murtaugh. "It's a competitive schedule. We play some quality teams. I feel our regular season will prepare us for post-season play."

The Blue Devils have high expectations and hope to go far in the play-offs.

"We expect to have a successful season," said Murtaugh. "We expect to win a lot of games. I've been very impressed with our seniors. Their leadership in practice has been great."

Wayne opens the season at Schuyler at 7:30 p.m. on Friday.

Blue Devils eye return to State

By Korey Berg

The Wayne volleyball team finished 12-13 a year ago, but with a lot of returning talent the Blue Devils have their sights on a return trip to the State Tournament.

"I have pretty high expectations this year," said Head Coach Joyce Hoskins. "We have 12 returning letter winners, so we have a lot of experience coming back. I really feel that we have a very good chance of qualifying for state and I really feel that if we're playing well at that time, that we have a shot at doing well down there. I know the girls have really set their goals high, so I'm hoping we do well."

Leading Wayne this season will be a pair of All-State honorable mention players in seniors Katie Lutt and Melissa Weber.

"Katie is only 210 kills away from the C-1 career kill record," said Hoskins, "and last year she had 308, so she has a very good shot at breaking that record. She's been starting since she was a freshman, so she has a lot of experience and she's a good team leader. The girls really look to her for leadership and she's very well respected."

Other top contributors for the Devils are senior Katy Wilson and juniors Gayle Olson and Molly Linster.

"I think the best part of our team right now is that we have so much depth," said Hoskins. "We have 13 girls on varsity and

Now matter how talented the team, Hoskins believes that hard work is the road to the State Tournament.

"We've talked in practice about how each thing that we do is a step toward qualifying for state," said Hoskins, "and that we really need to focus on what we're doing. That's our goal right now - to get to state and then once we're there to compete well."

Hoskins also feels that their schedule is a challenging one.

"I think we have a really tough schedule," Hoskins said. "We play Wisner three times and we play Laurel probably twice. Those are always two tough teams to play. I honestly don't think there's one game where we can say, if we just walk in, we're going to win. I think we have a pretty tough schedule, so we'll just have to wait and see."

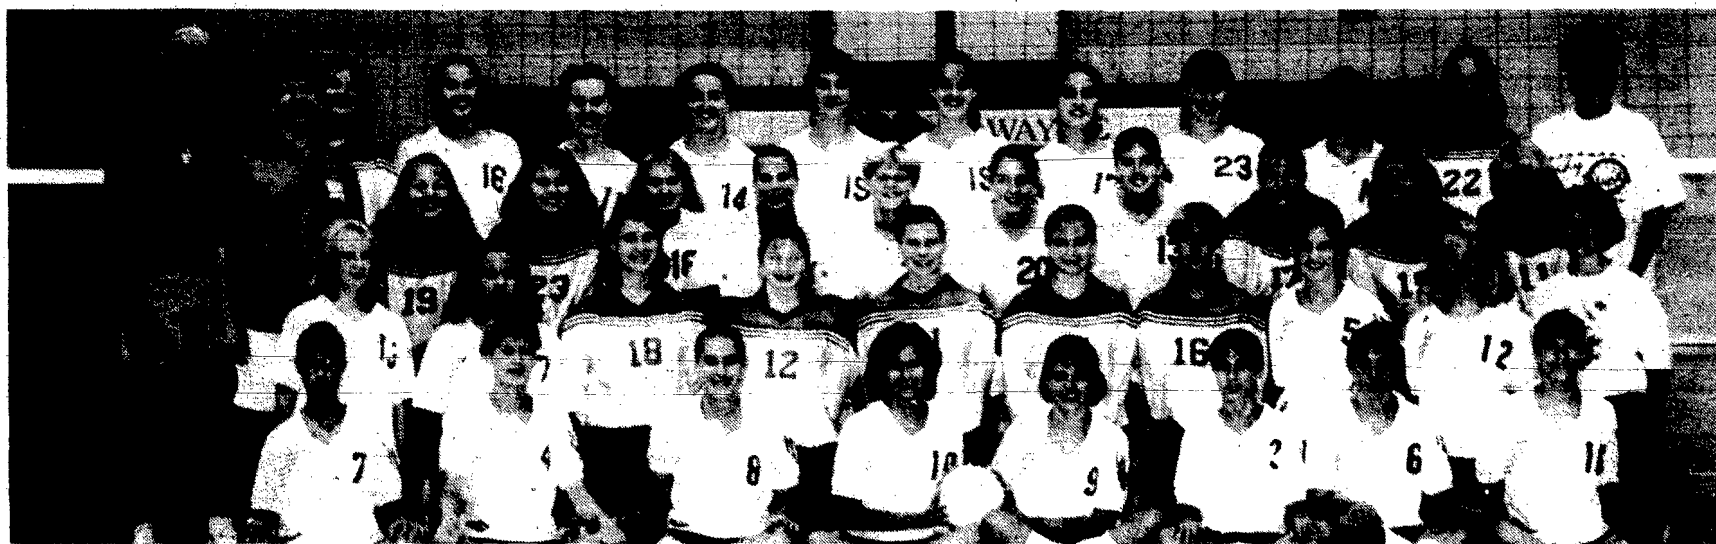

Wayne opens the season on Thursday at the Beemer Invite.

"I'm really excited," said Hoskins. "The girls have worked really hard. They came back in good shape, so that was really encouraging. We have some good leadership, so I hope that they can learn that all this hard work can pay off with a trip to state."

Wayne expects successful season

By Korey Berg

The Wayne Blue Devils have a new, but familiar face leading their football team this season. John Murtaugh was promoted from defensive coordinator to this past off-season replacing Lonnie Ehrhardt.

Wayne returns eight offensive and six defensive starters from a year ago after finishing the 1995 season with a mark of 2-6. The Blue Devils were not as bad as their record indicated however, as two losses were by a combined five points. Wayne could have easily finished with a winning record with a few more opportune bounces of the ball.

Returning for their senior seasons are two of Wayne's five representatives on last year's Wayne Herald All-Area Team.

After running back Josh Starzl was hurt in the season's second game, Brian Fernau hoisted the team on his shoulders and rushed for 674 yards at a clip of 5.2 yards per carry. Voted by his teammates as the squad's Most Outstanding Player, he accounted for 39 of the team's 101 points on the season, scoring five touchdowns (including three TDs in a 33-20 win over Raymond Central) and kicking a field goal and six extra-points.

A linebacker on defense, Fernau registered 50 total tackles and also intercepted one pass. He also served as the Devils' kicker and punter and collected 541 yards on kickoff and punt returns.

Jeremy Lutt anchored the offensive line last season, playing center and tackle, while playing linebacker and occasionally tackle on defense. He earned both the Offensive Lineman Award and Defender of the Year Award in '95. Defensively, he recorded 76 total tackles and blocked a field goal during the season.

Paul Blomenkamp is the front-runner at quarterback.

"Paul is a big quarterback," said Murtaugh. "He's 6-5, close to 200 pounds and he has a strong arm, so we feel good about him and our other quarterbacks. The quarterback position is probably one of our deepest positions."

Another deep position for the Blue Devils will be the offensive line - so much so that Nick Van Horn was moved from tackle to fullback.

"We have the potential of having one of the best offensive lines that we've had here in many years."

Once again, Wayne should have a strong defense.

"Defensively, We feel that we have a tradition of excellence on defense," said Murtaugh, "and we expect that to continue."

Murtaugh states that the real strength on this team is the bond that has formed among the players.

"I think the strength of this team is the chemistry," Murtaugh said. "They get along with each other great. I'm impressed with the work ethic of the kids. It's evident to me that this team wants to do well."

Wayne's schedule will provide a good test for how far this team can go.

"I really like our schedule," said Murtaugh. "It's a competitive schedule. We play some quality teams. I feel our regular season will prepare us for post-season play."

Blue Devils eye return to State

By Korey Berg

The Wayne volleyball team finished 12-13 a year ago, but with a lot of returning talent the Blue Devils have their sights on a return trip to the State Tournament.

"I have pretty high expectations this year," said Head Coach Joyce Hoskins. "We have 12 returning letter winners, so we have a lot of experience coming back. I really feel that we have a very good chance of qualifying for state and I really feel that if we're playing well at that time, that we have a shot at doing well down there. I know the girls have really set their goals high, so I'm hoping we do well."

Leading Wayne this season will be a pair of All-State honorable mention players in seniors Katie Lutt and Melissa Weber.

"Katie is only 210 kills away from the C-1 career kill record," said Hoskins, "and last year she had 308, so she has a very good shot at breaking that record. She's been starting since she was a freshman, so she has a lot of experience and she's a good team leader. The girls really look to her for leadership and she's very well respected."

Other top contributors for the Devils are senior Katy Wilson and juniors Gayle Olson and Molly Linster.

"I think the best part of our team right now is that we have so much depth," said Hoskins. "We have 13 girls on varsity and

The Blue Devils have high expectations and hope to go far in the play-offs.

"We expect to have a successful season," said Murtaugh. "We expect to win a lot of games. I've been very impressed with our seniors. Their leadership in practice has been great."

Wayne opens the season at Schuyler at 7:30 p.m. on Friday.

I wouldn't hesitate at all to put any of them in the game. They really push each other and that's what is going to make us a better team."

Now matter how talented the team, Hoskins believes that hard work is the road to the State Tournament.

"We've talked in practice about how each thing that we do is a step toward qualifying for state," said Hoskins, "and that we really need to focus on what we're doing. That's our goal right now - to get to state and then once we're there to compete well."

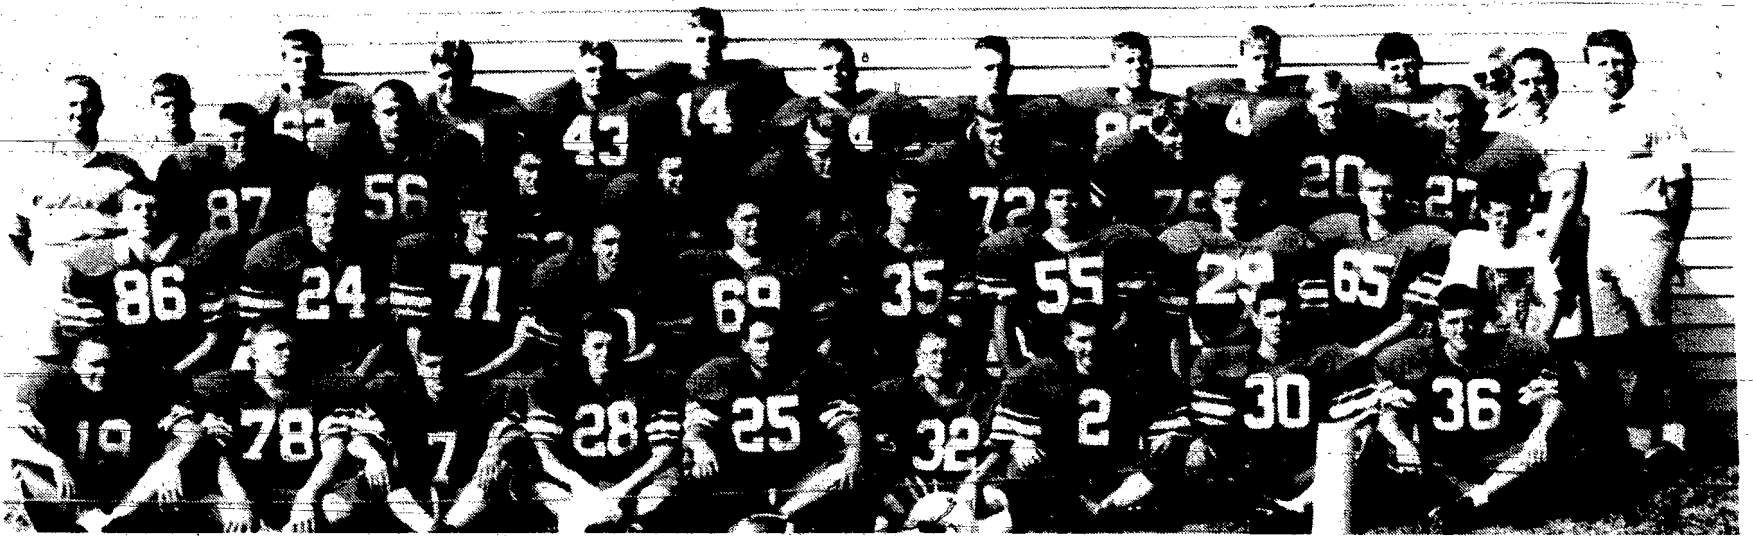

Hoskins also feels that their schedule is a challenging one.

"I think we have a really tough

schedule," Hoskins said. "We play Wisner three times and we play Laurel probably twice. Those are always two tough teams to play. I honestly don't think there's one game where we can say, if we just walk in, we're going to win. I think we have a pretty tough schedule, so we'll just have to wait and see."

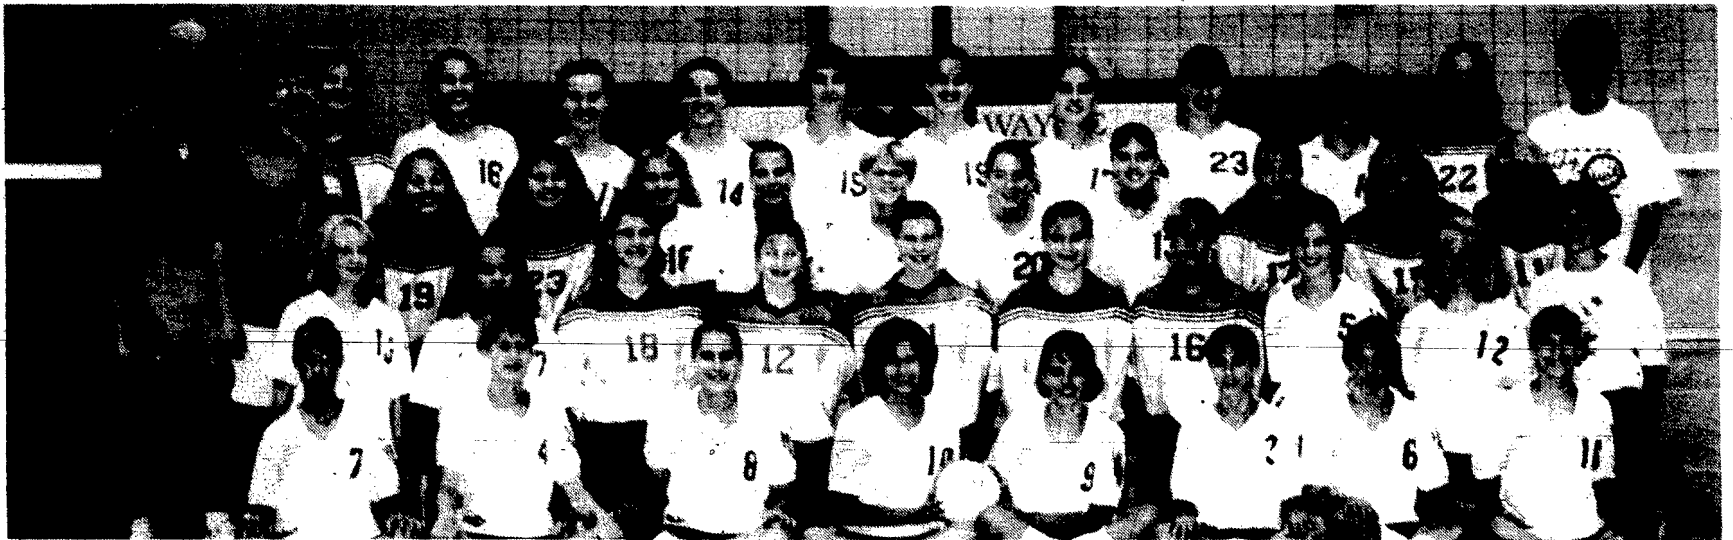

Wayne opens the season on Thursday at the Beemer Invite.

Devils run for a repeat of 1995

By Korey Berg

The Wayne cross country teams open their season with the Gator Invite at Beemer with the girls team hoping to the repeat as State Champions and with the boys team looking for a leader.

"For the girls team we have pretty high expectations coming off a state championship and having everyone return," said Ruhl. "We want to improve our efforts from last year and try to become a stronger team as the year goes on. We know the competition is looking at us and saying Wayne's the team to beat."

The girls squad will be led by defending State Champ junior Sara Kinney. Seniors Jessica Ford and Anne Wiseman along with junior Lisa Walton will also provide leadership. Sophomores Amy Close, Tara Hart and Ellie Jones and freshmen Kristen Hochstein and Sarah Holstedt round out the squad.

The boys top runner, Spencer Stednitz, was lost to graduation, but Ruhl believes that the squad can be successful if they run as a team.

"We want to try to be running together as a team," said Ruhl. "We want to imitate what Elkhorn Mt. Michael did last year. We lost Spencer, our number one runner, but we're hoping we can finish high enough as a group to be successful."

Golf squad features inexperience

By Korey Berg

The Wayne girls golf team aims to build a winning team in 1996 with limited experience.

"I'd call it somewhat of a rebuilding year," said Coach Dave Hix. "We only have two returning letter winners that have any varsity experience"

Those two are senior Ann Swerczek and sophomore Abbie Diediker. Others making up the team include juniors Melissa Ehrhardt and Brandy Frevert and sophomores Hailey Daehnke, Katie Langbehn, Lindsay Martin, Sarah Dorcey and Traci Nolte.

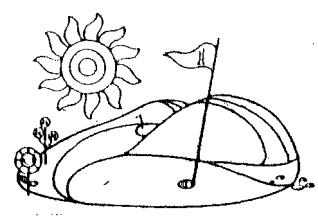

"Once we get the season started we're looking to improve and do well at districts," said Hix.

The Blue Devils open their season on Thursday at Norfolk at 4:30 p.m.
