120TH YEAR — NO. 51

County Board sets levy, discusses the courthouse remodeling project

By Clara Osten
Of the Herald

The tax levy for the Wayne County budget will remain at 45.33 cents per $100 valuation, the same as it has been for the last three years.

The Wayne County Board of Commissioners finalized the budget during a hearing following its regular meeting on Tuesday.

The property tax request for the county is $1,685,314.21 for next year, up from $1,635,794.62 for this fiscal year.

"The reason that the levy is the same and the tax request is up is that there has been a $10 million increase in valuation in Wayne County," said Wayne County Clerk Debra Finn.

The total budget for the next year is $5,941,051.79, which includes the cash reserve and a four percent tax delinquency.

Among the highlights of the budget are an increase in the cash reserve in the County Road Fund to help relieve cash problems.

In the new budget Road Bridge funds are part of the General Fund and are then transferred into the County Road Fund. This change is necessary due to the implementation of Statute 39-1904.

There was an increase in the budget for court-appointed attorney fees. In the past year there was an increase of 81 percent in the amount spent from the previous year.

The budget also includes $10,500 which will be used toward the purchase of a Sheriff's cruiser.

In other action, the commissioners listened to and questioned Jerry Berggren of Berggren & Wall Architects concerning the courthouse remodeling project.

Berggren discussed the possibilities in regard to a fire exit for the third floor of the courthouse.

Berggren will draw up a set of plans and an agreement with his firm for review by the county attorney to be ready in October.

The commissioners also discussed the moving procedure for the offices that will be re-located because of the installation of the elevator.

Commissioners approved the sharing of a secretary between the County School Superintendent and the Highway Superintendent.

The two offices will share a part-time secretary who will work a total of 28 hours per week in the two offices.

In other action, the board approved two applications to bury telephone cable in the road right-of-way.

One of the requests is 10 miles south and one mile west of Wayne as a point of beginning and proceeding two miles west. The other request is at a location six miles west of Wayne.

Sidney Saunders, Highway Superintendent also requested that a project to replace a bridge with a culvert one mile west and 1 1/2 miles south of Sholes be added to the One Year Road Plan.

The request was approved.

The board heard a proposal of a representative of MCI Communications on the possibility of switching the county to MCI long distance service. No action was taken on the proposal.

Soccer's a real kick

Jason Oligmueller was one of 70 youth that participated in the soccer clinic at Wayne State College last Saturday. The clinic was hosted by the WSC Lady 'Cats Club team.

B. A. T. Mobile comes to Wayne

The Wayne Police Department used the Nebraska Department of Highway Safety's Breath Alcohol Testing Mobile Unit, nicknamed the BATMobile, in conjunction with the Selective Traffic Enforcement Program last Thursday night.

Officers of the Wayne Police Department, the Nebraska State Patrol and the Wayne County Sheriff's Department used the BATMobile to help them deter people from drinking and driving.

"After seeing the BATMobile parked downtown, the rumors have been flying about how many arrests were made," said Wayne Police Chief Lance Webster.

"I have heard that the Wayne Police Department arrested 150 M.I.P.s and 20-50 drunk drivers. The reality is not so startling.

"Between 11 p.m. and 3:30 a.m. the Selective Traffic Enforcement Program resulted in two DWI arrests, one Zero Tolerance (driver under 21 having more than .02 percent alcohol) arrest, four M.I.P. arrests, one drug arrest and a shoplifting arrest," Webster said.

The officers also issued 77 warning and violation cards and responded to three-four loud party complaints.

Last month the Wayne Police Department investigated a near-fatal car accident involving an allegedly alcohol impaired driver.

"This incident pointed out the need for the Police Department to deter drinking and driving through a proactive combination of education and enforcement," Webster said.

"The recent Selective Traffic Enforcement Program and use of the BATMobile clearly demonstrates the high level of cooperation between area law enforcement agencies that is needed to insure the safety of our citizens," he added.

The BATMobile, which is provided free of charge by the Nebraska Department of Highway Safety, was parked on Main Street so it was highly visible.

"The purpose of using the BATMobile was not to arrest more drunk drivers but to discourage people from driving drunk. If the presence of the BATMobile caused just one person not to drive after drinking then it was successful," Webster said.

Volunteers start program

More than 20 students at Wayne State College have volunteered for and participated in training to create a campus watch and escort service to enhance security on the Wayne State College campus.

Under the direction of the College's crime prevention and education officer, Jeff Ottens, the new campus watch volunteers have been trained in observation, reporting skills, campus information and crime prevention. The program has been dubbed "CATS" (Campus Awareness Towards Safety).

Working in teams of two, one male and one female, the CATS volunteers will actively patrol the campus to prevent crime through visibility and observation. They will also provide escort services to students who request it.

Students have been encouraged to call the CATS escort service at 375-7777 any time they would like a two-person escort team to walk with them to any location on campus, said Ottens. The escort teams are in radio contact with the Campus Security Office. Students can even call the escort service from off campus and the team will meet the callers at their vehicles when they arrive on campus.

Escorts will be available from 10 p.m. to 1 a.m. Sunday through Thursday. Those were the hours students indicated in a survey last spring, that they would like to have the escorts available.

Ottens said the implementation of the escort service and additional campus patrols will help provide students with a greater sense of security on campus. Wayne State does not have a particularly high crime rate compared with other campuses but the goal he said is to make the college a crime free environment.

"With the help of volunteers and the willing participation and education of all students on campus, we can achieve just that," said Ottens. "There is great potential for this program and the amount of awareness it can generate in helping avoid crime," he said. He said additional CATS volunteers are welcome to join the effort and take the training. Students may ask for an application and information packet at the Campus Security office.

Ottens said many CATS team volunteers are from campus student organizations such as the Criminal Justice Club. He said he is excited about the high degree of participation and support the effort is receiving from the student body.

"All AT & T shareholders will be receiving shares of this new company, Lucent Technologies," Yates said.

AT&T shareholders and anyone interested in hearing from a global telecommunications leader should come."

College not as costly as you think

The cost of attending college is not as high as most people think, according to Laura Hanzl, assistant director of admissions at Wayne State College. Hanzl will meet with students at Wayne High School on Sept. 20.

On that same day she will talk with WinSide students as well.

Citing a 1996 public survey conducted for the American Council on Education, Hanzl said most people perceive that college tuition prices are many times higher than they actually are.

For instance, she said, the national survey indicates that the public believes annual tuition at a state college is over $6,000. The public perceptions of college costs were identified in a survey of 1,000 adults conducted in a 1996 by Burskin/Golding Research.

"Wow, who could afford that?" she exclaimed. Actual cost for a year of tuition at Wayne State College for instance is only $1,650 she explained. Numerous scholarship and financial aid sources are available to help students with those costs, she added.

Over estimating the cost of higher education might mean that some families don't even consider college, said Hanzl. She said, according to the survey, most people overestimate the tuition costs by $3-6,000 per year for every sector of higher education.

"Shocking stories in the media about the rising cost of higher education often create the perception that a degree is financially out of reach for some families, when in fact nothing could be farther from the truth," said the higher education advisor.

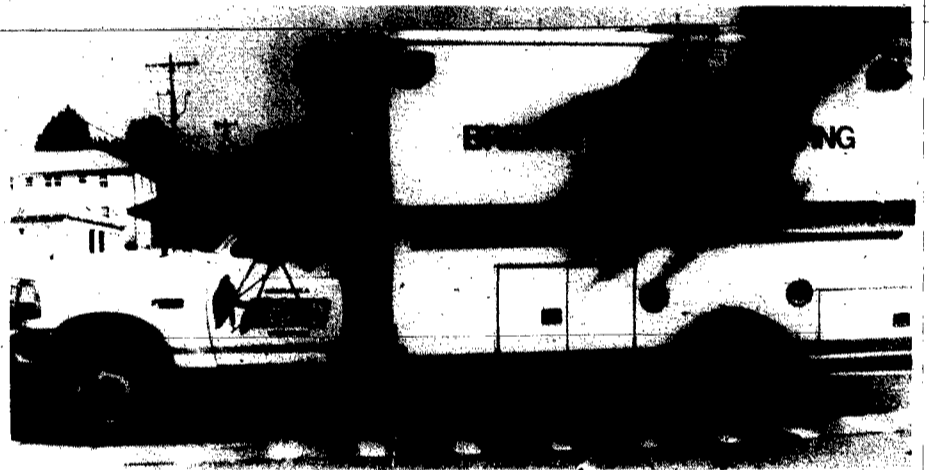

"Whether students consider Wayne State College or not, we want to get the word out that anyone who is interested in learning can obtain a college degree these days," said Hanzl. That is the message she will deliver to the students when she meets with them.

Hanzl said state colleges like WSC offer a tremendous bargain because their costs have not escalated like those of larger schools and private colleges. In addition, she said there are other positive benefits for students who choose Wayne State.

Smaller student to instructor ratios and class sizes, better retention and graduation rates, great campus and community life, lower room and board rates and a faculty and staff with caring, helpful attitude are all benefits of enrollment at Wayne State, said Hanzl.

Hanzl has been an admissions counselor at WSC since 1993.

Flu season approaching

Cough, cough, sniff, sniff, drip, drip. You well know how it feels to have the flu.

Flu or influenza is spread by airborne particles and is contagious for about 3 to 5 days after symptoms appear.

Typical symptoms include fever, headache, muscle pain, extreme fatigue and sometimes a running nose or sore throat. So who would want to give that away as a gift?

A cold is spread through contact with mucus or saliva. The virus is contagious a day before you start to show signs of a cold, and until your symptoms are gone. Would you still like to give it to your best friend or school mate?

The Nebraska Medical Association is advising you to keep your flu and cold to yourself by washing your hands: after using the bathroom, blowing your nose, and before and after every handshake! That is a lot of washing! Some churches have handshaking moments as a part of worship services. On second thought, maybe it is merely a grand exchange of cold and flu germs.

Even if the NMA wants you to keep your cold and flu germs to yourself, you have to work don't you, even though it means spreading the misery to co-workers and exposing them to the same distress. But remember, it isn't fair to give it to a particular co-worker you dislike, and not to the others.

The NMA emphasizes that if you don't feel well, stay home if possible so you won't expose everyone else by coughing just once. In just one cough, the cold and flu bugs, all superior aviators, fly by the million traveling up to 10 and 20 feet.

Though you are generous and glad to give things away, you are urged to keep your cold and flu bugs to yourself. If you have to cough, be polite and turn your head away from other people, or better yet: cough into a handkerchief.

So this flu season there is a new motto: KGTY! That means "Keep Germs To Yourself!"

In other words, be selfish: keep all those sniffles to yourself. You'll be amazed how much your co-workers, family and friends will appreciate it!

On the leading edge

Enjoy riding the leading edge of change? Wayne is the right place! Watching the new library-senior citizen building rise from the lumber pile is interesting. For all of you curious as to how that fancy roof is ever going to drain rain: though invisible to the eye, the north and south sections are slightly slanted for drainage. Those crafty architects!

The Wayne airport, with its new north-south 4,200 foot runway rambling across the open acres, outlined with taxi lights, looks like Christmas every night. Night fliers are able to see the city of Wayne and its airport beacon from 30 miles.

Have you checked out the construction on South Logan? Residents and businesses in the area, having wrestled through construction, are now ready to utilize the completed street. Just a few more weeks and the project will be finished. Normal traffic patterns will then resume, much to everyone's convenience and profit.

Another major project, that of widening and re-working Seventh Street, is slated for next year. Bids are expected to be let in January. As soon as detailed plans, start and stop dates, detour routes, and contract data are all available, we plan to have the information for you.

New housing continues. Growing communities need to make sure there's room for any new neighbors.

Our churches continue planning for new construction and additions. The historic old county courthouse will soon be feeling the touch of the remodelers.

But we do have to admit we're a little slow in meeting the needs of our school buildings. Give us time. We'll definitely rise to meet those obligations also.

Capitol News

We're back to warfare in the Capitol

By Melvin Paul
Statehouse Correspondent
The Nebraska Press Association

Whoa — is this our Attorney General Don Stenberg accusing the Nelson Administration of — gasp — politics in pursuing a lawsuit against tobacco companies?

Stenberg fired the salvo last week, saying that Ben Nelson's campaign for U.S. Senate was the reason behind the Department of Social Services' inquiry about filing a lawsuit to recover taxpayer costs for smoking-related illnesses. Fourteen other states have filed such lawsuits in the last two years.

The attorney general questioned whether it was mere coincidence that the request came the same week the Democrats highlighted tobacco issues at their national convention.

"This raises serious questions as to whether your letter is a good-faith request for my advice, or simply political posturing for the benefit of Ben Nelson's U.S. Senate campaign," Stenberg said in a letter to Social Services Director Don Leuenberger.

If anybody would recognize political motives behind a lawsuit, it would be Don Stenberg.

He's been described as Nebraska's most politicized attorney general in more than 40 years. He's certainly not been hesitant to use a court action to make an ideological point. State Sen. Ernie Chambers of Omaha recently filed a lengthy bar disciplinary complaint against Stenberg for allegedly undermining the state court system with his politically barbed comments and tactics.

Earlier this year, Stenberg rang up a $15,000 legal bill for the state when he fought a federal mandate that Medicaid pay for some abortions all the way to the Supreme Court. He pursued the case even though other states were losing similar battles.

In 1995, Stenberg volunteered Nebraska's support for a Colorado anti-gay rights amendment in a case before the U.S. Supreme Court — without first consulting Nelson or other state officials.

Nelson was plenty peeved.

"I'm not surprised that the attorney general would go off on his own again," Nelson said. "Maybe he thinks he's a policy maker rather than a lawyer for the state." The relationship between Nelson and Stenberg has been rocky since the two men moved into their state-house offices in 1991. They've constantly jockeyed for the prime position on such juicy political topics as crime and family values.

"I'm tougher on crime than you!" "Are not!" "Am too!"
Gone forever are the days when a governor might have dropped by the attorney general's office for a serious discussion of the actual business of the state — as was the practice of former Govs. J. James Exon and Charles Thone with former Attorney General Paul Douglas.

The casual observer might have thought Stenberg's political edge would have been dulled by his resounding defeat in May for the Republican nomination U.S. Senate.

The nomination would have given him an opportunity to openly clash swords with Nelson.

Instead, we're back to sniper — or is it sniping? — warfare in the Capitol halls.

The views expressed in Capitol News are those of the writer and not necessarily those of the Nebraska Press Association.

Award of appreciation

Wayne County AAL Branch #9609 hosted a supper for the Wayne Volunteer Firemen last week in appreciation for the work they do. The group also presented the fire department with a plaque. Bob Wriedt, President of AAL, made the presentation. Accepting it are, left to right, Mike Vovos, First Assistant, Dave Zach, President of the Association, Joel Carlson, Vice-President of the Association, Dutch Sitzman, Fire Chief and Brent Doring, Second Assistant.

Media and the ridiculous

When TV arrived on the scene, many set owners expected the machine to feature hours of entertainment. TV would reunite family members staying at home every night! Like other theories that did not pan out, television has instead turned from entertaining to educating viewers. Or should we say TV has now become the primary source of propaganda?

Nearly every current sitcom subtly indoctrinates viewers with social messages, and that's the way Hollywood likes it. Network "news" is so obviously biased toward liberal views, watching those productions generates the question: Who is on the other side of the camera trying to seduce me into surrendering to the New World Order? Some entertainment!

Anyone wanting "news" without a "spin" must get it by cruising the Internet. No, the Internet is not 90% pornography, as the competition would have you believe! On the Net one can read news sources from nearly any place in the world, thereby garnering a diversity of viewpoints.

Cable costs about $22 a month. From all the TV media hype about Hurricane Fran, I was expecting hundreds of deaths, tens of billions in damage, and mass catastrophe, in color. Come on now, aren't we being laugh, without our knowing it, to anticipate tragedy, tears, death, disaster and destruction for our money?

You folk remember when a scud missile, hit by a patriot missile in the Persian Gulf War, veered off course, killing more than 20 of America's finest military personnel in their barracks? One can almost visualize the TV program director saying: "Live! From Kuwait! Hysteria, death, havoc and destruction! Right after these messages!"

On the Internet news one doesn't get all that garbage and "show time" hypocrisy.

Will Clinton go to an all out get-Saddam-Hussein-war with or without Congress? If so, no doubt the TV media types will invite you to pull up a chair, with your load of beer and chips, start the VCR, and enjoy the mass killing, the rocket's red glare and the bombs bursting in air! Or maybe you'd prefer switching channels, and watch fornication and adultery?

These days I'm getting my "news", not from TV propaganda, which makes me suspect producers may have been playing in the pharmacy section again, but from more reliable sources on the Internet and it's artificial intelligence. That seems a notch above TV and it's artificial stupidity.

Any bridge to the future is no doubt a toll bridge.

The three C's add up to Wayne America

How do you describe the community of Wayne America? What words come to your mind when you think of your hometown? How about words like cooperation—collaboration—commitment?

Wayne State College will be hosting its annual high school band day this Saturday, Sept. 21. As a part of that event, the Wayne Area Chamber of Commerce sponsors the WSC Band Day Parade, which begins at 10 a.m.

The parade will follow a southerly route on Main Street from the college through downtown Wayne. Later in the day, the massed bands will perform during the half-time show at the WSC football game. Winner from the morning competition will be awarded trophies, also during the half-time show.

Here is where cooperation comes in! WSC officials cooperate with Chamber members and officials to develop this successful event. Various Chamber businesses are donors of the trophies. The Ambassadors, the Chamber's public relations council, will participate in the parade and at the tailgate party, welcoming visitors to Wayne for the day. Yes, cooperation!

What about collaboration? A major partner of the day will be Mark Ahmann, the voice of KTCH at the parade. Convertibles carrying the mayor, the Chamber president, Dr. Mash of WSC and the Grand Marshall of the parade will be driven by either their owners or other volunteers.

Commitment? Consider this: Bands are coming to Wayne for this event from all around the area and even outside the area. High schools as Allen, Ponca, Laurel-Concord, Emerson-Hubbard, Winside, Wakefield and Wayne are participating, as is Wayne Middle School. Coming from a bit farther are Mead, Petersburg, Neligh-Oakdale, Silver Creek, Spencer-Naper, O'Neill and Raymond Central High Schools. Some of these bands have been participating

Wildcats tamed by Chiefs

By Kevin Peterson
Of the Herald

The Wayne State football team struggled offensively against Morningside College last Saturday and the end result was a 17-14 setback, leaving Dennis Wagner's team with a 1-2 record heading into the home opener on Saturday against Moorhead State.

"We're very disappointed in the way things went at Morningside," Wagner said. "We feel we squandered away a great opportunity to win a football game. My hat is off to Morningside, however, because they did what they had to do to win."

The only scoring in the opening quarter came on a safety for Morningside to give the Chiefs a 2-0 lead. The Cats came on strong in the second stanza and took a 14-2 lead into the locker room at the intermission.

Anthony Collins scored on a one-yard run following a Morningside turnover and Kevin Swayne caught a 28-yard scoring pass from Jarrod DeGeorgia which culminated a seven-play, 70-yard drive.

Morningside scored 13 points in the third quarter to take a 15-14 lead as Chad Kramer scored on a 21-yard pass from Ken Ackmann and Rory Ryan broke loose on a 26-yard run for the lead.

Early in the fourth quarter Morningside scored its second safety of the game which was the final points of the contest.

"I thought our defense played an excellent game," Wagner said. "They were aggressive and played with a lot of emotion. The offense, however, did not play well. We had mental errors in the passing game and the offensive line was not consistent."

Wagner said his offense can not run for just 55 yards in a contest and expect to win. "After watching the film on Sunday of the game it wasn't a matter of not having the right people, it was just a matter of not executing," Wagner said. "We have to get back to fundamentals during this week of practice and make sure we play sound football this weekend in the home opener."

Josh Sikes and Anthony Collins each gained 34 yards to share team honors on the ground but Sikes will be lost this weekend after suffering a shoulder separation.

In fact, the list of those unable to play has grown to five for this weekend with Sikes, Dameron Porter (pneumonia), Jesse Wavrunek, Leo Gonzales and Josh Guenette out while Ery Strohbeen is questionable. Bishop and Kevin Swayzer will be back but it is unknown at what percent.

Jarrod DeGeorgia was 26-40 with two interceptions through the air for 237 yards for WSC with Dameron Porter the leading receiver with eight catches for 54 yards. Kevin Swayne had five catches for 103 yards including a 49-yard reception.

Defensively, WSC was led by Gabe Toft with 14 tackles while Brian Morrison had a dozen and Gary Murray, nine. Steve Luedtke finished with eight tackles while Leo Gonzales had an interception.

THIS WEEKEND'S contest will give WSC a chance to gain revenge on a 51-28 loss at Moorhead last season. "I am sure they will run the ball right at us," Wagner said. "They run very hard. Their quarterback Pat Elmes is the main guy we must concern ourselves with. He runs their offense very well."

Wagner said it will be great to be able to play at home on the Cat carpet. "It will allow us to dress more people and give us more depth, which is what we need," Wagner added. "We must get healthy. We have a lot of nagging injuries right now."

Players of the game for WSC last weekend included Kevin Swayne on offense and Gabe Toft on defense.

Wayne falls to 1-1

The Wayne football team had their hands full with a strong Logan View football team last Friday night as the Blue Devils lost for the first time in 1996, 42-14.

Despite the lopsided score the game was 28-14 with two minutes remaining in regulation before the host team scored on a 34-yard pass interception and a 21-yard fumble return.

"We struggled in the first half," coach John Murtaugh said. "We can't afford to do that against good teams. We just didn't play that well and then when we got down 21-0 it was tough to play catch up."

Murtaugh said his team did a nice job in the third quarter, scoring twice to cut the gap to 14 on Brian Fernau's one-yard scoring run and Adam Dangberg's defensive gem which consisted of knocking the ball out of the quarterbacks hands and then picking it up and rambling 24 yards for the score.

Despite the loss Murtaugh credited the play of Jeremy Lutt and Nick Vanhorn. "Jeremy did a great job on both sides of the line and Nick really ran the ball hard," Murtaugh said. "Those two really played outstanding."

Wayne was held to 146 total yards of offense while Logan View tallied 285. Nick Vanhorn had 89 yards rushing on 19 carries to pace the offense while Paul Blomenkamp was 3-13 through the air for 109 yards with two interceptions.

Defensively, Wayne was led by Lutt and Brian Fernau with 11 tackles each while Jeremiah Rethwisch and Kurtis Keller had eight tackles each. The Blue Devils will host Ponca on Friday in the home opener.

Allen girls go 1-4 at tournament

Scott Kneiff's Allen volleyball team competed in the Wisner-Pilger/Beemer Volleyball Classic last weekend and the Eagles went 1-4 to open the season.

Allen lost to preseason, second-ranked Wisner-Pilger, 8-15, 9-15 in the first match and they fell to Wakefield, 8-15, 7-15 in the second match before falling to Fremont Bergan, 14-16, 7-15. The Eagles took Scribner-Snyder to three games before falling, 9-15, 15-11, 9-15 but Allen broke into the win column with a straight games win over Bemer in the final match of the tournament, 15-11, 15-10.

"I didn't think we played too badly against Wisner-Pilger," Kneiff said. "We struggled, however, against Wakefield. We just didn't play good volleyball. We didn't take advantage of the free balls that Wakefield gave us."

Kneiff said his squad lacked consistency in the loss to Fremont Bergan but played better in the setback against Scribner-Snyder. "We just got down early in that third game against Scribner and we couldn't overcome that," he said. "I thought in our win over Beemer, though, we played very good team ball with good defense. Overall, we played well at times throughout the tournament and we feel we are a better team than a 1-4 record might indicate."

Steve McLagan bowls eighth perfect game

Wayne's Steve McLagan notched his eighth perfect bowling game of his career last week at the Wakefield bowling alley bowling in the Thursday Night Men's League.

It was McLagan's third 300 at the Wakefield establishment with two others being bowled in South Sioux City, two in Sioux City and one in Wayne.

"I really wasn't too worried about actually bowling a 300," McLagan said. "In fact, it wasn't until I threw the 11th ball that I actually thought I might be able to throw one. I don't know if it was because it's still so early in the season or what, but I just didn't think I would string all 12."

Of the eight perfect games rolled by McLagan this was by far the earliest in the season he's recorded one.

Reserve gridders down Pierce

WAYNE-The Wayne reserve football team slipped past Pierce, 14-12 this week with the difference in the game coming on a successful two-point conversion in the third quarter by Jay Endicott which put the Blue Devils on top, 14-6. Pierce scored in the fourth quarter but could not convert the two-point attempt.

Tim Zach scored on a one-yard run in the second quarter to put Wayne on the scoreboard first. Zach led Wayne with 73 yards on 16 carries while Wes Sievers had 39 yards on 10 carries. Josh Murtaugh rushed for 27 yards on seven attempts and Endicott finished with 27 yards on seven rushes. Robbie Sturm was 1-7 in passing for 15 yards with Josh Murtaugh on the receiving end of the pass.

Leading the defense was Sievers with nine tackles while Joel Munson and Murtaugh had six each. Munson also had an interception and returned it 30 yards. Wayne will host Cedar Catholic on Monday.

Wayne reserves place second

WAYNE-The Wayne reserve volleyball team placed second in the Wisner-Pilger JV Tournament last Saturday. The Blue Devils lost to Pierce in pool play, 5-11, 7-11 before defeating Wisner-Pilger, 12-10, 11-3 and Beemer, 11-1, 11-6.

The tournament was designed to give teams a lot of playing time, so the pool play was set up with two games to 11 to seed the teams into a single elimination regulation tournament according to coach Dale Hochstein.

Wayne defeated Madison in tournament play, 15-12, 15-2 and Wisner-Pilger's A Team in the semifinals, 15-5, 15-7 before falling to Howells in the championship, 1-15, 15-7, 11-15.

Hochstein said his team came out flat against Howells but responded well in the second and third games of the match. "This was a great tournament for us," Hochstein said. "After our first loss to Pierce we talked about what it takes to be a quality ball club and what it would take to step up to varsity level competition. The team recognized that and played very focused the rest of the day. Wayne's record stands at 4-3."

The Wayne boys scored 32 points, finishing behind Pierce who tallied 16. Wisner-Pilger was third with 45 followed by Norfolk Catholic with 62 and Madison with 102.

Medalist honors went to Mike Echterhaut of Pierce in 17:48 with Wayne's Brian Hochstein placing third in 18:10. David Enz placed 11th in 18:44 while Matt Meyer was 12th in 18:49 and Andy Bayless, 13th in 18:50.

AT LAST Saturday's Pius Invite in Lincoln there were no team scores kept but had there been, Wayne's girls would have placed fourth behind Class B Norris with 43, Class A Pius with 46 and Class A Lincoln East with 47. Wayne finished with 61 points.

The top 30 runners in the race won individual medals and for Wayne that included runner-up Sara Kinney in 15:22, Anne Wiseman in 14th in 16:27, Amy Close in 15th in 16:36 and Jessica Ford in 30th in 17:24. Tara Hart was timed in 17:59 and Ellie Jones in 18:03 while Lisa Walton finished in 18:37.

On the boys side, Wayne's Brian Hochstein was the lone medal winner with a 25th place effort of 18:15. Wayne would have finished in eighth place in the team standings had score been kept.

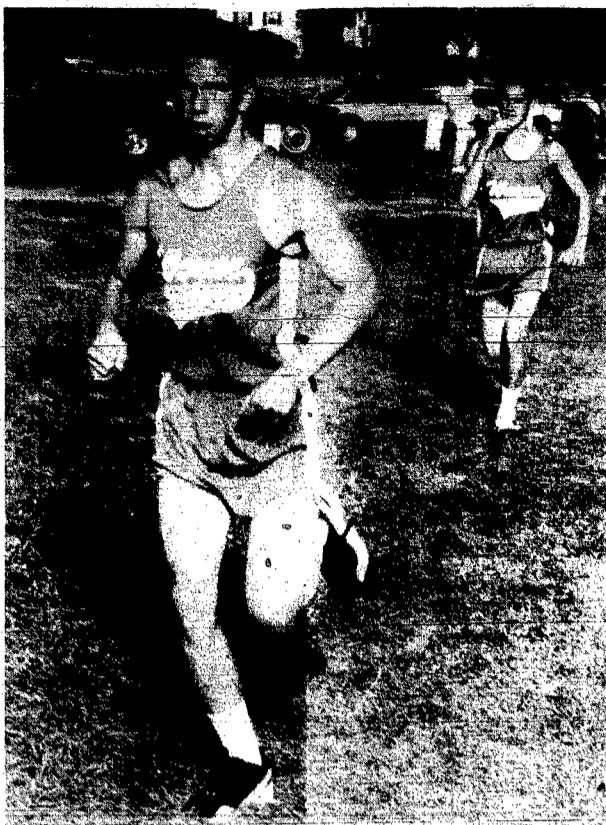

Wayne runners included David Enz, 38th in 18:47, Matt Meyer, 39th in 18:50, Brandon Gunn, 44th in 19:10, Andy Bayless, 54th in 19:31, John Slaybaugh in 19:50 and Nick Muir in 20:16.

Brent Tietz finished runner-up in 20:16 while Chris Dyer was third in 20:40 and Ryan Dahl, ninth in 22:00.

Wayne will compete in the Columbus Scout Invite on Friday.

Wayne High's Chris Dyer and Andy Bayless sprint toward the finish line of Tuesday's Wayne Invite Cross Country Meet at the golf course. The Wayne girls placed first while the boys placed runner-up.

Winside falls to Pendragons

By Lee Koch
For the Herald

Landon Grothe ripped through Pender's defense for 172 yards on 19 carries last Friday night but Winside finished on the short end of a 35-28 contest at Winside.

The visiting Pendragons, led by quarterback Nate Tomjes four touchdowns, proved to be more than Winside could handle as the Wildcats slipped to a surprising 0-2 on the season.

"Grothe is running tough," Winside coach Randy Geier said. "I wouldn't trade him for any back in the conference." Grothe's success on the ground is due largely in part to a successful offensive line which includes Scott Stenwall, John Holtgrew, Joe Schwedhelm, Brock Shelton, Shaun Magwire and Jay Radamacher.

Pender scored first but Winside retaliated with a 22-yard scoring run by Grothe after Jamey Holdorf returned a punt 38 yards down to the Pendragon 22-yard line. Grothe scored on the ensuing play.

Both teams scored touchdowns in the second quarter with Winside's Ryan Krueger hitting paydirt on a 20-yard run to end the first half with a 14-14 tie.

Pender scored twice in the third quarter before Winside could respond as Tomjes and Aaron Bessner shouldered most of the load. "Our defense needs to break down and tackle better," Geier said. "It's more mental mistakes than physical effort. Mental mistakes cost us again and the team has been challenged by the coaching staff to respond mentally," he added.

Robert Wittler connected with Chad O'Connor on a 67-yard scoring strike just 20 seconds after Pender had gone up by 14 points which cut the lead in half. Winside came all the way back to tie the game in the fourth quarter when Grothe returned a punt 24 yards and then on the next play, rambled 22 yards for the tying score.

Pender, however, went 76 yards in 10 plays and consumed most of the clock, scoring with just 1:20 left. Winside got down to the Pender 26-yard line before being forced to throw a couple balls to the end zone as time expired.

Wittler finished the contest hitting 11 of 25 pass attempts for 135 yards with O'Connor catching seven balls for 118 of those yards. Defensively, Winside was led by Joe Schwedhelm, with 12 tackles and Brock Shelton with 11 while O'Connor had eight and Corey Brummels, seven, along with Wittler, seven.

Things won't get a lot easier for the Wildcats as they travel to face a rugged and unbeaten Emerson-Hubbard team on Friday.

WSC cross country teams open season

WAYNE-The Wayne State Wildcat cross country teams opened their seasons last Saturday at the Dana College All-Comers Meet. While neither team was at full strength, coach Brian Kavanaugh was happy with what he saw.

On the women's side, senior Kathy Dalton (Waverly) placed fifth overall in 20:39 for 5,000 meters on a very difficult course. Right behind her was sophomore Stefanie Senn (Burwell), sixth in 20:56. "Those two were very impressive," Kavanaugh said. "Both should be well under 20 minutes on an easier course."

Third for the Wildcats was freshman Marsha Krienke (Pierce), 28th in 23:14. Next in line was junior Anne LaBrayer (Cozad) in 23:21 followed by Michelle Baatz (Lester, Iowa) in 24:03. As a team the Cats placed fourth.

For the men, senior Mark Beran (Fremont) placed 15th in 28:42 for 8,000 meters. "This was probably the best cross country race Beran has ever run, and was close to a personal best for him," noted Kavanaugh.

Next was sophomore Dustin Schroeder (Omaha), clocking 31:21 followed by freshman Dan Heiman (Chester), competing in his first ever cross country race, 32:02. Redshirt freshman Gabe Musselman (Peterson, Minn.) followed in 33:00.

The men did not score as a team. The Cats will be at the Woody Greeno/Nebraska Invite on Saturday in Pioneer Park in Lincoln.

WSC women place fifth, twice

WAYNE-The Wayne State women's golf team placed fifth at the College of St. Mary Fall Classic last Friday in Omaha and returned home to place fifth at their own Wildcat Fall Classic on Saturday.

In Omaha, Briar Cliff won team honors with a 348—10 strokes ahead of runner-up Northern Colorado. Chadron State was third, 362 and Nebraska Wesleyan edged both the Wildcats and Nebraska-Kearney by four strokes with a 373. Northwestern, College of St. Mary, Hastings and Doane rounded out the field of teams in order.

Tara Moore of Northern Colorado won medalist honors with a 76. WSC's Debbie Yahn fired a 92 followed by Kelli Limoges with a 93 and Aubrey Parsons with a 94. Jana Meyer finished with a 98.

Saturday in Wayne the Wildcats tallied a 369. Briar Cliff edged Chadron State in a playoff as both shot 356's. Nebraska Wesleyan placed third with a 366 and Northern Colorado was fourth with a 367. Northwestern, College of St. Mary, Hastings, Doane and Concordia rounded out the field of teams in order.

The Wayne Blue Devils volleyball team, sporting a 7-2 record found themselves ranked in the top 10 of the Omaha World-Herald Class C-1 standings this week with Joyce Hoskins' team falling twice to Class C-2's first and second ranked teams in Laurel and Wisner-Pilger.

Wayne placed runner-up at the Northeast Nebraska Volleyball Classic in Wakefield on Saturday. The Blue Devils pounded Stanton in the first round, 15-3, 15-3. Melissa Weber was 35-37 in setting with 16 assists while Katie Lutt led the attack with 10 kill spikes while Molly Linster had four and Gayle Olson, two. Olson was 13-14 with one service ace and Lutt was 7-7 with two aces. Linster was 6-6 with two aces. Lutt, Olson and Jenni Beiermann each had one ace block.

"I was very pleased with our performance," Hoskins said. "We played our game."

Wayne blasted Lyons-Decatur in the second round, 15-6, 15-10 with Weber successfully completing 57 of 58 sets with 18 assists. Olson led the team in attacks with nine kills and Lutt had eight. Katy Wilson paced the serving corp with a 14-15 performance that included a pair of aces while Lutt was 11-12 with two aces and Linster, 6-7 with two aces. Lutt and Beiermann each had one ace block.

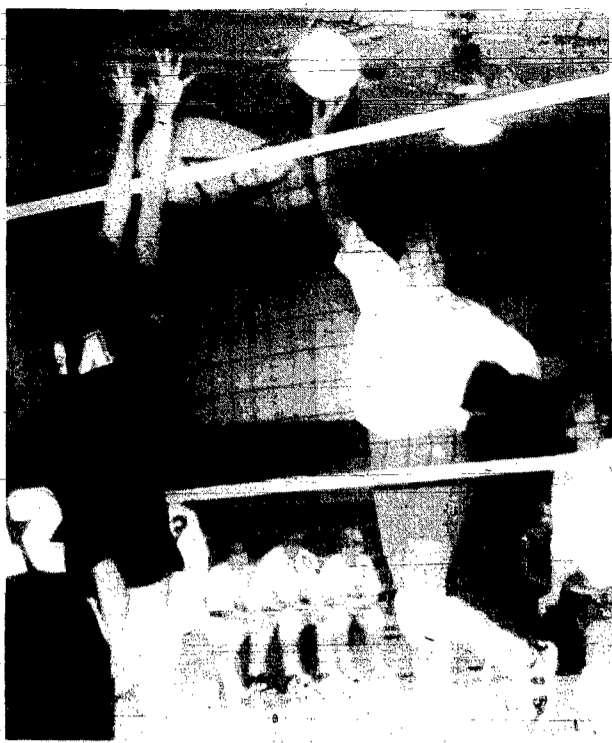

"We played pretty well once again," Hoskins said. "Lyons has a real good middle hitter and we shut her down."

Wayne pushed top ranked Laurel to the limits in the finals before falling in three games, 15-12, 10-15, 12-15. Melissa Weber was 126-129 in setting with 37 assists while Katie Lutt led the team in hitting with 15 kill spikes on a 34 of 38 performance. Gayle Olson was 65-74 with 14 kills and Jenni Beiermann finished with six kills.

The leading servers included Lutt at 18-18 with one ace and Brooke Parker at 16-16. Weber and Olson each had one service ace. Beiermann had five blocks, Lutt had four and Olson, two to pace the defensive effort at the net.

"We came out on fire in that first game," Hoskins said. "We got up 12-2 and just got very good team play from everyone. In the second game we got up 8-4 and Laurel started finding holes in our defense and they capitalized. Overall, it was a great match and I'm proud of the way our girls played."

The all-tournament team landed two Wayne players on it including Katie Lutt and Melissa Weber while Laurel had three including most valuable player in Tracy Ankeny, Becky Schroeder and Megan Adkins. The sixth player was Lyons Kristin Kamp.

Wayne's Katie Lutt dinks the volleyball past the outstretched arms of a Stanton defender during first round action of the Northeast Nebraska Volleyball Classic.

Wakefield defeats Ponca for 2-0 start

They gave up over 300 yards rushing to one back and they only had the ball for five snaps in the fourth quarter yet the Wakefield Trojans football team came up a winner against Ponca last Friday in Ponca, 20-18.

Dennis Wilbur's team is 2-0 heading into Friday's home opener with Osmond. "We just gave Ponca too many opportunities to run the ball," Wilbur said. "We didn't feel good about this game, with the amount of yardage we gave up but we came away with a win on the road."

Ponca scored first on a two-yard run by Brandon Voss but the Trojans came right back and scored on Justin Mackling's two-yard run and with Tyler Peters point after kick, Wakefield took the lead.

The Trojans added another score in the first quarter on Mackling's 34-yard scoring run but Ponca closed the gap to two at halftime when Adam McGill scored on a three-yard run.

The host team took an 18-14 lead in the third quarter when the man of the night, Dave Nelson scored on a one-yard plunge. Nelson had a career evening, rushing for 280 yards on 50 attempts.

"It really wasn't that we were playing bad defense," Wilbur said. "We would do a good job on two of the three downs but they'd break for a long run on the other."

Wakefield's line possession of the third quarter resulted in a touchdown and as mentioned, the Trojans snapped the ball on offense just five times in the final quarter.

Wakefield held Ponca on two, fourth down attempts in the final stanza which sealed the victory. "They drove the ball 57 yards in 14 plays before we held them and then they drove 61 yards on 12 plays before we held them on fourth down," Wilbur said.

Allen gridders stay undefeated

For the first time in several years the Allen football team is unbeaten after the second week of the season after last Friday's 54-22 thumping of Winnebago.

Doug Schnack's team led 18-6 after the first quarter of play and 24-6 at the intermission before Winnebago closed the gap to four after three quarters of play at 18-14. Allen scored 30 points in the final stanza to pull away from the host team.

"To be honest, this wasn't a pretty game at all," Schnack said. "It was ragged from the start but we came back and played pretty well throughout."

Michael Blohm scored four touchdowns on the night including three through air from distances of 10, four and 16 yards while plunging over with a one-yard run for the game's first score.

Cory Prochaska scored on runs of 39 and two yards and he scored a third touchdown via the defense with a 28-yard interception return for a score.

BJ Gotch also got into the scoring act with a 25-yard pass reception in the second quarter. Allen racked up 382 yards of offense led by Brett Sachau with 109 yards on 25 carries while Prochaska rushed for 88 yards on 14 attempts.

Jeremy Kumm was 11-17 through the air for 137 yards and four touchdowns. Blohm caught seven balls for 74 yards. The defense was led by Brad Smith with 15 tackles and Greg Rastede with 11. BJ Gotch and Cory Prochaska each had 10.

Unbeaten Allen may have its hands full on Friday when they host

Trojans place fourth

The Wakefield volleyball team placed fourth at the Northeast Nebraska Volleyball Classic in Wakefield, Saturday.

Marty Slaughter's team defeated West Point in the first round, 15-13, 15-6 as Susan Brudigam notched 14 set assists. Rachel Dutcher was a perfect 12-12 in serving and Kristin Preston was 8-8.

Rachel Dutcher did a good job of serving while Alison Benson and Kristin Preston were keys in the middle."

Wakefield was defeated by Laurel in straight games, 7-15, 9-15. Dutcher was 7-7 in serving to lead the Trojans with five aces while Kristin Preston was 5-5 and Amanda Wirth, 4-4. "We were really into this match emotionally," Slaughter said. "If we could have eliminated some key serving and blocking errors the outcome may have been a little different. Jennifer Simpson had a great match at outside hitter for us."

The Trojans fell to Lyons-Decatur in the final match, 7-15, 14-16. "We had an emotional let down after the Laurel match," Slaughter said. "If we can keep our intensity level high, our girls are competitive."

The balanced team attack was paced by Renee Fuhr with nine kill spikes while Jenifer Svitak, Jennifer Rowse and Jessie Pontow had even each while Erin Pick notched four.

Tracy Wessel had 29 set assists and she led the team in serving with two aces while Fuhr had a dozen digs to lead the 'Cats. Pontow finished with 11 digs and Jill Grant notched seven.

Sharon Vanis' team surpassed the 500 mark on the season in the first match of the Northern Sun Tournament in Marshall, Minnesota with a 15-11, 13-15, 15-1, 15-13 win over North Dakota.

Fuhr led WSC with nine kill spikes followed by Pontow with eight and Rowse with seven. Wessel had 35 set assists and three serving aces to pace the offense while Fuhr had two serve aces. Pontow and Wessel were the top diggers with three and 12 respectively while Fuhr had 11. Jenifer Svitak had four blocks to lead the defense at the net while Pontow, Wessel and Erin Pick had three each.

Things got tougher for WSC after that, however, falling in the next three matches to teams ranked in the top 20. The 'Cats fell to Morningside, 15-8, 2-15, 8-15, 3-

15 in the second match. "I'm not quite sure what happened in this match," Vanis said. "It was very frustrating. We need to increase our intensity and find the right combinations."

Renee Fuhr had seven kill spikes to lead WSC while Erin Pick had five. Tracy Wessel had 21 set assists for team tops while Fuhr notched two ace serves. Fuhr was also the leading passer with 14 digs.

WSC fell to St. Cloud State in the third match, 13-15, 15-9, 3-15, 8-15. Amy Gudmundson led the attack with 14 kills while Jessie Pontow had 12, Renee Fuhr, 11 and Erin Pick, 10. Wessel finished with 48 set assists and Pontow led the serving corp with two aces. Fuhr notched 20 digs for team honors while Jenifer Svitak and Pontow had 10 each.

"The match was tied at one game each and the third game was very long," Vanis said. "The score was tied at 1-1 when we ran out of our total of three rotations."

WSC came out flat in the final match of the tournament, losing to Mankato State in straight games, 8-15, 13-15, 12-15. Jessie Pontow had 13 ace spikes to lead the 'Cats and Renee Fuhr, 10. Laurel football team cruises to 48-8 victory

The Laurel football team sprinted to a 14-0 lead after one quarter of play against Creighton in the home opener last Friday night and never looked back en route to a 48-8 victory and a 2-0 record.

Tom Luxford's squad opened the scoring fest with a 24-yard run by Ryan Kvols and Vince Ward followed with a 50-yard scoring run. Ward did the honors again in the second quarter, this time from six yards out and Kvols hit Travis Stingley with a 43-yard scoring strike to give the hosts a 29-0 half-time cushion.

It was more Ward in the third quarter as he scored on a two-yard run before Mark Patefield got into the scoring action with a 15-yard run. Chad Jorgensen closed out the scoring in the fourth quarter on a 56-yard sprint to the endzone.

"I was pleased with our performance," Luxford said. "We got to use a lot of kids in this game which gains them valuable experience. Creighton gave us a short field to work with a few times and we just took advantage of it."

Ward nearly surpassed the 200-yard rushing mark on the night, settling for 198 yards on 17 carries while Jorgensen had 98 yards on six attempts. Kvols was 6-11 through the air for 79 yards with Stingley catching three balls for 77 yards.

The top-ranked Laurel Bears improved to 5-0 after winning the Northeast Nebraska Volleyball Classic in Wakefield, Saturday.

The tournament began on Thursday and the Bears defeated Hartington Cedar Catholic, 15-4, 15-9 in the first round. Megan Adkins connected on 41 of 42 set attempts with 19 assists while Tracy Ankeny paced the attack with eight kill spikes on 11 of 12 attempts while Becky Schroeder was a perfect 11-11 for six kills. Adkins was also the leading server for the winners with three aces on 12 of 13 attempts and Schroeder was 11-13. Ehlers had three ace blocks and Schroeder, one.

"We played pretty intense volleyball which is what we like to see but I wasn't overly pleased with our serving percentage," Cunningham said.

The Bears downed Wakefield in the second round, 15-6, 15-9 with Adkins again pacing the setting corp with 20 assists on 41 of 42 attempts while Ankeny hit 18 of 19 spike attempts for 13 kills.

Jessie Erwin led the team in serving at 8-8 with two aces while Ankeny was 8-8 and Adkins, 7-7. Becky Schroeder had two ace blocks and Ehlers, one. "We served much better in this match," Cunningham said. "We also did a good job of not letting down after an intense first game."

The Bears were pushed to the limits for the first time in the finals with Wayne but Laurel prevailed in three, 12-15, 15-10, 15-12. "This was definitely our toughest match to date," Cunningham said. "Wayne has a nice team. They really threw our defense off in the first game. I was pleased with the way we didn't get down after dropping the first game."

Adkins was an impressive 12-12 in setting with 22 assists while Ankeny 33-26 in hitting with 27 kill spikes. Becky Schroeder was 6 of 8 with 19 kills. Winside's Mandi Topp dives for the ball during the Wildcats contest with Lyons-Decatur Northeast.

Winside notches its first volleyball victory

Lisa Schroeder's Winside volleyball team lost three matches at the Northeast Nebraska Volleyball Classic in Wakefield and they fell in the first round of their own Winside Invite on Tuesday before notching the first victory of the season in the third place match with Coleridge.

In Wakefield the Wildcats fell to Lyons-Decatur in the first match, 5-15, 8-15. Amy Riley and Mandi Topp shared setting duties with each notching nine assists. Riley and Jessica Miller each were 8-8 in serving and Sara Marotz along with Topp were 4-4. Miller led the team in hitting with eight kill spikes followed by Jodi Miller with seven kills and Sara Marotz with two. Jessica Miller was also the leader at the net with three ace blocks.

"We led 5-2 in the second game but we just didn't execute on the defensive side of the net," Schroeder said.

Winside was defeated by Stanton on Saturday, 15-6, 14-16, 5-15 before falling to West Point, 15-7, 9-15, 10-15. Mandi Topp had nine set assists in both those matches to lead the way while Riley had eight and seven, respectively.

Topp was 15-16 in serving with three aces against Stanton and 7-7 with one ace against West Point while Riley was 8-8 with one ace against Stanton and 9-9 with two aces in the loss to West Point.

Jodi Miller had five kills to pace the team versus Stanton while Jess Miller had four ace spikes and she followed that up with five kills against West Point while Sara Marotz had three. Miller was also the team leader in blocks with three aces in each match.

"In both matches on Saturday we played an excellent first game and then we lost all intensity and communication," Schroeder said. "We are not playing very consistent volleyball. We are making a lot of mental errors and making quite a few unforced errors like net violations and dropped balls."

WINSIDE FELL in straight games to Osmond on Tuesday, 5-15, 12-15 but rebounded to place third with a 15-5, 15-4 win over Coleridge in the consolation match.

Mandi Topp had six set assists to lead Winside in the first match with Amy Riley notching three and Shannon Bowers, two. Jessica Miller was 12-13 in hitting with four aces and leading the hitters was Jodi Miller with five kills while Jessica Miller had four. Jessica had two ace blocks for team honors.

"We missed some crucial serves at very important times that cost us the match," Schroeder said. "We also shut down on defense and did not pursue the ball. The key to us turning things around is aggressiveness on defense."

Things fell into place quite nicely in the consolation match with Topp notching 10 ace sets while Riley had eight. Jessica Miller notched a career high 11 kill spikes on 13 of 14 attempts while Jodi Miller and Sara Marotz had four kills each and Mindy Janke, three.

The top server was Sara Marotz at 12-12 with a pair of aces while Amy Riley was 9-9 and Mindy Janke, 4-4 with one ace. Jess Miller had three ace blocks to lead the team while Jodi Miller had two.

"It was definitely nice to get that first win," Schroeder said. "We played consistent, aggressive volleyball in the first game. Jess had an excellent hitting game but credit also has to be given to our primary passers who started the offense and our setters who did a better job of getting the ball to our strong hitters."

How to communicate needs to spouse

Q: My husband is somewhat insensitive to my needs, but I believe he is willing to do better if I can teach him how I am different from him. Can you help me communicate my needs to him effectively?

A: First, let me tell you how not to handle this assignment. Do not resort to what I would call "bludgeoning technique," which includes an endless barrage of nagging, pleading, scolding, complaining and accusing.

Here's an example of how that approach sounds to an exhausted man who has come home from work moments before: "Won't you put down that newspaper, George, and given me five minutes of your time? Five minutes—is that too much to ask? You never seem to care about my feelings, anyway. How long has it been since we went out for dinner? Even if we did, you'd probably take the newspaper along with you."

"I'll tell you George. Sometimes, I think you don't care about me and the kids anymore. If once-just once—you would show a little love and understanding, I would drop dead from sheer shock."

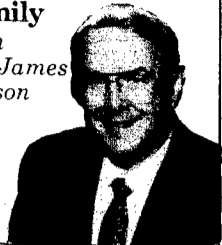

Obviously, that is not the way to get George's attention. Instead, you should look for opportunities to teach your husband during moments of closeness and understanding. That instruction requires the proper timing, setting and manner to be effective.

1. Timing: Select a moment when your husband is typically more responsive and pleasant. Perhaps that will occur immediately after an evening meal, or when the light goes out at night, or in the freshness of the morning.

The worst time of the day is during the first 60 minutes after he has arrived home from work—yet this is the usual combat hour. Don't lumber into such a heavy debate without giving it proper planning and forethought, taking advantage of every opportunity for the success of the effort.

2. Setting: The ideal situation is to ask your husband to take you on an overnight or weekend trip to a pleasant area. If it isn't possible to get away, the next best alternative is to obtain a baby-sitter and go out to breakfast or dinner alone. If that is out of the question, then select a time at home when the children are occupied and the phone can be taken off the hook.

Focus On The Family
With

Generally speaking, however, the farther you can get him from home, with its cares and problems and stresses, the better your chance will be to achieve genuine communication.

3. Manner: It is extremely important that your husband does not view your conversation as a personal attack. We are all equipped with emotional defenses which rise to our aid when we are being vilified. Don't trigger those defense mechanisms.

Instead, your manner should be warm, loving and supportive as possible under the circumstances. Let it be known that you are attempting to interpret your needs and desires, while taking his emotional state into consideration! Postpone the conversation if he is under unusual stress from his work, or if he isn't feeling well, or if he has recently been stung by circumstances and events.

Then when the timing, setting and manner converge to produce a moment of opportunity, express your deep feelings as effectively as possible. And like every good Boy Scout, be prepared.

Q: Do you think children between the ages of five and ten should be allowed to listen to rock music on the radio?

A: No. Rock music is an expression of an adolescent culture.

The words of teenagers' songs deal with dating, broken hearts, drug usage and love-love-love. This is just what you don't want your 7-year-old thinking about.

Instead, his world of excitement should consist of adventure books, Disney-type productions and family activities—camping, fishing, sporting events, games, etc.

On the other hand, it is unwise to appear dictatorial and oppressive in such matters. I would suggest that you keep your preteen so involved with wholesome activities that he does not need to dream of the days to come.

Canning tomatoes and salsas

This is the time of year to can tomatoes. Salsas have become increasingly popular to can. The following instructions should be used to ensure a safe and desirable product.

Tomato selection and preparation: select disease-free, preferably vine-ripened, firm tomatoes for canning. To prepare fruit, wash, remove stems and trim bruised or discolored portions. To remove the peel, dip tomatoes in boiling water for 30 to 60 seconds until skins split. Dip into cold water and slip off skins.

Canning method: Tomatoes are considered to be high enough in acidity to allow them to be canned by the water bath method. This method involves having at least one inch of water above canning jars and to boil the jars for the suggested amount of time. The other method of canning is by the use of a pressure canner. A pressure canner can bring the temperature above boiling level of 212°F at sea level. At 10.5 pounds pressure, the internal temperature is 240°F. When a food is a low-acid food such as meats and vegetables, a temperature higher than boiling is needed to ensure the food poison spores that cause botulism are destroyed. Botulism is more likely to grow in a low-acid environment. Boiling water bath for our area and for almost all tomatoes are 35 minutes for pints and 45 minutes for quarts. Whole or halved tomatoes should be water-bathed 85 minutes. Contact our Extension Office, 584-2234, for the length of time needed for pressure canning. Generally it is 20 minutes for pints at 5-6 pounds of pressure and 15 minutes for quarts at 10-11 pounds of pressure. Different tomato products require different lengths of time.

Cooperative Extension

Karen Werbmers
Dixon County

Acidification: Because tomato varieties today are less acidic than what they used to be, additional acidification is suggested. To insure proper acidity in tomatoes, add one of the following acids directly to each jar before filling with product:

Acid	Pint	Quart
Bottled lemon juice	1 T	2 T
Citric acid	1/4 t	1/2 t
Vinegar (5% acidity)	2 T	4 T

Add sugar to offset acid taste, if desired. Vinegar may cause an undesirable flavor. Note: Adding acid to overripe tomatoes will not increase the acid level enough to ensure a safe product. Properly acidified tomatoes are acid foods and can be safely processed in boiling-water canner. Use of pressure canner will result in higher quality canned tomato products.

Canning tomatoes with or without salt: tomatoes can be canned with or without salt. If salt is desired, add 1/2 teaspoon to pints or 1 teaspoon to quarts before you put on the lid. Add salt substitutes, if desired, when serving.

Canning Salsas
Most salsa recipes are a mixture of low-acid foods such as onions, and peppers with acid foods such as tomatoes.
