Special meeting Monday

Council debates garbage

By Clara Osten
Of the Herald

An item that was added to the original agenda of the Wayne City Council drew a large crowd and resulted in the council calling a special meeting for Monday.

The issue of solid waste was brought before the council by Councilman Mel Utecht. Utecht said he has gotten a number of calls from Wayne residents concerned about the situation.

"I think we need to work with the local haulers and haven't had time to work out all the details," Utecht said.

Council person Jane O'Leary said that issue of solid waste has been debated for over a year and recommendations on what "is best for the community were determined by a citizen's committee. It is unfortunate that this has dragged on but we have to satisfy the mandates."

A number of citizens spoke against the proposal including Jan Brown who told the council "the unknown is scary and there are too many unknowns with this contract and it contains excessive rules and regulations."

Mrs. Brown said that the contract would eliminate competition and that "recycling can be done better by encouraging not demanding."

Jack Middendorf asked the council about commercial accounts and was told the contract would only involve residential accounts.

"If the local haulers refuse to pick up our trash, what happens then?" Middendorf asked.

Middendorf was told that should this happen, Solid-Waste Management, the company which submitted the bid for residential pick up would pick up commercial garbage also.

Norma Jean Tietz told the council that as a widow who already recycles all that she can, she would be penalized by having to pay a monthly charge. Mrs. Tietz said she currently takes her garbage to the transfer station on a periodic basis.

Gordon Starks told the council that the issue should be put to a vote of the people and said he feels the city is headed for a lawsuit. He also said the local haulers are more accommodating and told the council "you should be ashamed that you had to go out of state to get this contract."

Councilman Darrel Fuetberth said he has talked to no one who is in support of the present contract and that there are presently too many unanswered questions and

Rainbow World begins capital campaign drive

By Clara Osten
Of the Herald

Rainbow World Day Care has been in existence for just over three years and is currently in the process of beginning a capital campaign to retire the debt incurred when the structure was built.

In 1993, when construction began, one-third of the construction costs were paid with a Community Block Grant. The remaining two-thirds was borrowed from a local bank.

"We are currently covering our operating expenses but are not able to repay our bank loans. Our goal is to raise $150,000-$200,000 to retire our debt," said Erelene Stubbs, Director of Rainbow World.

Monetary donations of any size will be accepted. Ninety-five percent of money raised will go toward debt reduction with the remaining five percent being used for upkeep of the facility.

Presently there are 83 children on the facility's roster. An average of 56 children are at the center each day. Maximum capacity is 65 children.

Rainbow World utilizes a number of volunteers from Wayne State College who complete practicums at the center. In addition, 14 WSC students have part-time jobs with the center.

At the present time, the board of Directors for Wayne Child Care consists of nine people. The board will be re-organized and will consist of five members who will be concerned with the operation of Rainbow World and four members who represent Wayne Child Care, which deals with all day care providers in the community.

In addition, an Advisory Board of

Concert is to be presented

The Wayne High concert band and choir will be giving its Christmas concert for the Elementary School on Friday, Dec. 20 from 8:30-9:30 a.m. in the high school lecture hall.

Because the original concert was cancelled on Dec. 3, due to weather, parents are invited to attend this performance and will be seated in the upper lecture hall.

New building is on schedule

By Kevin Peterson
Of the Herald

The completion of the Library/Senior Center in Wayne is on schedule for a May completion and the first half of a $125,000 grant from the Kiewit Foundation has arrived.

The grant is payable when the project reaches the midway point with the other half payable upon completion.

The library foundation is in the final phase of its fundraising efforts according to chairman Pat Gross.

"The Board is very appreciative to the generosity of the community in raising the necessary funds to complete the construction of this community project," Gross said.

The $1.6 million pricetag includes the site acquisition, architecture fees along with some fixtures and furniture.

Gross said those that have pledged money over a three-to-four year time span should note the final phase is underway for collection.

"We have received numerous memorials and that's another excellent way to remember a loved one/family member in the future," Gross said. "The library will have ongoing needs down the road so fundraising is needed throughout the year."

Those interested in finding ways to donate money to the library foundation can do so by calling Gross or librarian Jolene Klein.

The construction completion date is expected in mid-May with the building being fully operational by the end of June.

"We'll have an Open House and a dedication when the time comes," Gross said. "Those things are still in the planning stages."

The Library/Senior Center is the first community building to be built in Wayne in decades.

There will be a total of 13,000 square feet of floor space. In addition, a conference room will be added which will be made available to the public.

The new Senior Center will have a quilting room, a billiards room and a large gathering area for activities of all sorts.

"There will be a space for small receptions and the entire building will be handicapped accessible," Gross added.

WSC commencement set for Friday

Transfer students will be well represented near the top of their class when Wayne State College seniors participate in graduation ceremonies Friday at 2 p.m.

Commencement will be held in Rice Auditorium for nearly 200 students, 74 of whom are transfer students.

One example is Dawn Spickelmier, a criminal justice major from Lincoln. She transferred to Wayne State from the University of Northern Illinois and attributes her academic success at WSC to the one-on-one attention received from the faculty.

Ms. Spickelmier will graduate Summa cum Laude (with highest honors).

"The size of the school and the size of classes are what made the difference for me," she said. "You get a lot of one-on-one attention in class and you don't feel like you're just a number."

"You are a person here," she added.

Dr. Donald J. Mash, president of Wayne State College will present 172 bachelor's and 33 master's degrees during the ceremony.

Addressing the commencement audience will be honor students Brigid Howard and Richard M. Lamoureux.

Ms. Howard is the daughter of Kathryn Howard of Omaha. She will graduate with a Bachelor of Social Science degree in Sociology. Lamoureux, who is from Emerson, will graduate with a Pat Gross and Joe Salitros hold one half of the $125,000 grant from the Kiewit Foundation.

The concept behind a Library/Senior Center is to give seniors better access to their own facility and the opportunity to take part in a library setting with children on a voluntary basis if so desired.

"There's nothing but all sorts of positives that can come from this," Gross said.

R.L. Fauss Builders from Fremont are constructing the building.

ZBM Architects of Omaha designed the building—the same architects that constructed the Wayne State business building and student center.

Bachelor of Science degree and an endorsement in Natural Sciences Education.

Two WSC Alumni will also be honored during the ceremony.

Emerson man pleads guilty

Tarry Daum, 29, of Emerson, plead guilty in Wayne County Court to Impersonating a Police Officer.

The charge stemmed from an Oct. 20 complaint to the Wayne Police Department about harassing phone calls.

The complainant told Wayne Police Officer Shawn Jensen that he had received a call from someone identifying himself as Officer

Chinn of the Emerson Police Department, shortly after his girlfriend received some harassing phone calls.

Officers Jensen's investigation proved that Chief Chinn of the Emerson Police Department had not made the call. Further follow up identified Mr. Daum as the suspect.

Daum, a member of the Emerson Village Board, was fined $200 and court costs.

Elliott named chair-elect to AASCU board of directors

Former Wayne State College President Ed Elliott will head the nation's most prestigious organization of colleges and universities.

Elliott, who has served as president of Central Missouri State University since 1985, was named chair-elect of the American Association of State Colleges and Universities Board of Directors.

His one-year term begins in November of 1997. He was also named as the board's 1997 representative to the American Council on Education.

Elliott served as president of WSC from 1982 to 1985. He spent 14 years here, holding positions of director of graduate studies, dean of special studies and full professor, vice president for academic affairs and vice president.

ONE NEBRASKA JOURNAL

By Governor Ben Nelson

December 13, 1996

Dear Nebraska Neighbors,

A $6 hammer may not seem like a very important award. But for the Partnership for Rural Nebraska, it represents national recognition for a job well done.

This week, the Partnership was presented with the Hammer Award — an actual framed hammer — to recognize its efforts to improve and reinvent government. The hammer is used as a symbol that the days of our government paying $400 for a hammer are over!

Vice President Al Gore gives the award in support of the President's National Performance Review principles: "putting customers first, cutting red tape, empowering employees and getting back to basics."

The Partnership for Rural Nebraska is a group of hard working people who have put those principles into action. Since its creation in August of 1995, the Partnership has made significant contributions to keep our economy strong by focusing on the idea of unified rural development.

The Partnership involves the state of Nebraska, the University of Nebraska and the U.S. Department of Agriculture. It is funded with a $50,000 USDA grant for administration and $250,000 in federal funds for programs.

The Partnership allows for different rural development groups to pool their financial resources, combine their expertise and coordinate planning efforts. The result is reduced duplication of effort, simplified programs and lower expenses.

Instead of spending money on a formal office in Lincoln, the Partnership has saved at least $10,000 by using a contract manager who lives and works in a small rural community. Seven managers, representing the partner agencies, meet monthly to direct operations.

In its 16 months of operation, the Partnership has accomplished a great deal, including:

- The Institute for Rural Development, a training conference for rural development specialists.
- The Nebraska Rural Poll of rural residents to better understand their concerns and needs. Poll results are used to prioritize the Partnership's efforts.
- Rural News Bits, a joint newsletter mailed monthly to 5,000 rural Nebraska households.
- The Mandate Relief Strategy to help rural communities address the challenges of environmental regulations.
- A cross-agency strategic planning process. Twelve recommendations for proactive rural development are included in a report available December 31.

The Partnership was nominated for the Hammer Award by USDA Undersecretary Jill Long-Thompson. She praised the group for directing its energies to areas of greatest need and for relying on specialists in the communities to design projects that meet their specific needs.

Although the Hammer Award goes to a group, not an individual, Long-Thompson singled out Stan Foster, the state director of USDA Rural Development, for special recognition. His vision and hard work, she said, played a key role in making the Partnership possible.

Foster himself takes special pride in the fact that the Partnership does not add a layer of bureaucracy — resources are put into projects not the operation of the Partnership. That's the common sense approach that earned the Partnership this prestigious award. And it's the approach that will make the Partnership for Rural Nebraska a continuing supportive force for this One Nebraska.

The council voted 7-0 to call a special meeting for Monday, Dec. 23 at noon for the purpose of voting on a resolution to rescind the previous action. If the resolution is passed, the council could again open the issue at its next regularly scheduled meeting on Jan. 14, 1997.

In other action the council voted 6-1 to approve resolution 96-65 which establishes a policy regarding employee purchases of computer technology and reimbursement of training expenses.

The council accepted a bid from Employees Mutual Company for property and casualty insurance. The bid submitted by the company was for $78,613. It was the lowest of the three bids submitted.

Mayor Sheryl Lindau appointed councilman Galen Wiser to the Police Retirement committee.

tially making the internet accessible. If and when Mr. Youngmeyer moves back to Wayne and brings WayNET "to light" for the Nebraska Department of Education, he may be surprised to find out that their response will be, "yes, we know." In fact, Dr. Doug Christensen, the Commissioner of Education in Lincoln, is well aware of what Wayne has been trying to do and has been openly supportive of WayNET. The same is true about the state ESU board, Senator Kerrey's office and the new Telecommunications Bill of 1996. It's for this reason that several cities are following Wayne's example, and establishing their own interlocal internet services.

I don't really understand what Mr. Youngmeyer is upset about. WayNET offers affordable, educational use of the internet to those whose tax dollars brought the internet to the school. This extension to the community has cost this community nothing, as the grant covered that, and more importantly, this access has actually led to internet awareness that sparks interest in private internet providers' feasibility, which gives Mr. Youngmeyer the ability to accomplish what he wants to do on the internet.

The Wayne State women's basketball team lost a pair of home games, recently, falling to the University of South Dakota, 73-62, and losing to Morningside College, Saturday night in Rice Auditorium,

Jeff Goldstein's troops trailed the Coyotes of USD by seven points at the intermission, 29-22 but couldn't manage to overtake the visitors from Vermillion, S.D., being out-scored 44-40 in the second half.

Carla Schultz led WSC with 18 points while Megan Murphy added double figures with 10. Three others finished with nine points including Tonya Porter, Erin Hourigan and Jenny Thompson. WSC was with out the services of Amy Brodersen.

The 'Cats were out-rebounded, 54-45 with Renee Belz leading WSC with eight caroms while Schultz hauled down seven rebounds. The host team finished with 16 turnovers while forcing 23.

WSC was cold in the field goal shooting department, hitting just 20 of 69 attempts for 29 percent while USD made good on nearly 40 percent of its shots from the floor.

SATURDAY, THE 'Cats fell to 2-7 on the year as they were defeated by Morningside for the second time in eight days. It was a contest in which WSC never led as the visitors scored the first eight points of the contest.

WSC trailed the Coyotes by 14 points at the half, 42-28 and were out-scored by five in the second half, 53-48. The host team was out-rebounded, 53-45 with Megan Murphy leading WSC with eight caroms.

Brodersen dished out five assists for team tops with both teams having trouble taking care of the ball as the 'Cats turned it over 24 times while forcing 27.

Four Wildcats finished the game in double figures led by Amy Brodersen with 18 points while Carla Schultz tallied a dozen and Jenny Thompson, 11. Stefanie Sjuts scored 10.

WSC will not play again until Friday, Jan. 3 at Upper Iowa. The next home game will be Thursday, Jan. 9 against Concordia.

WSC, 62—USD, 73; (WSC scoring) Carla Schultz, 18; Megan Murphy, 10; Tonya Porter, 9; Erin Hourigan, 9; Jenny Thompson, 9; Stefanie Sjuts, 5; Jill Goddard, 2. WSC, 76—Morningside, 95; (WSC scoring) Amy Brodersen, 18; Carla Schultz, 12; Jenny Thompson, 11; Stefanie Sjuts, 10; Erin Hourigan, 6; Renee Belz, 5; Tonya Porter, 5; Megan Murphy, 4; Julie Heine, 3; Pam Drickey, 2. WSC RECORD: 2-7.

Carla Schultz pulls up for a jumper against Morningside last Saturday night. The Clarks native scored a dozen points in the contest, right after netting 18 in the Wednesday contest with South Dakota.

Wayne State's Erin Pick wrestles for a loose ball with a Morningside player during action in Rice Auditorium last Saturday night. The Wildcats fell to the Sioux City team, leaving them with a 2-7 record.

WAYNE WRESTLER OF THE WEEK

JOSH MURTAUGH

Josh's activities include football, wrestling, track, W-Club. Asked about wrestling, he says, "The team has come a long way since last year. Winning the first place trophy at West Point shows it." Coach Murtaugh's comments, "Josh had a great tournament at West Point. In the semi's, he defeated a two-time State Qualifier and in the finals he beat a returning State Runner-up."

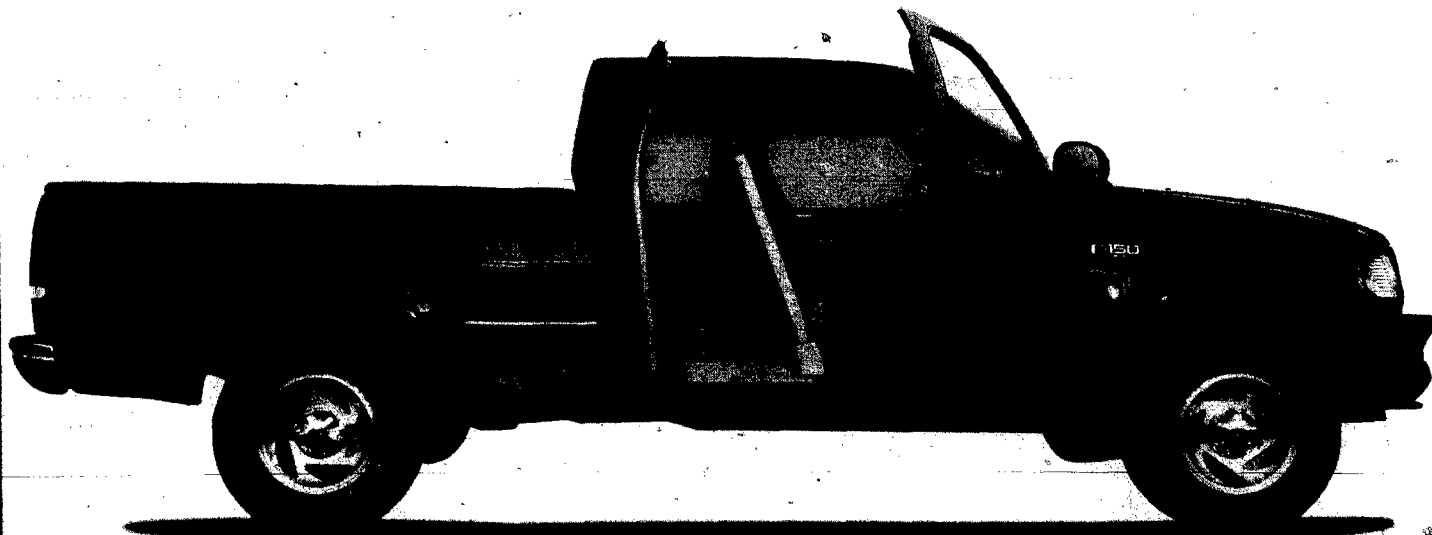

Amy Brodersen, the lone senior on the Wayne State women's basketball team was honored last Saturday for scoring her 1,000th career point. She was presented a ball signifying her accomplishment and is pictured with her WSC coaches throughout her career at Wayne State, Mike Barry, left and Jeff Goldstein.

Blue Devil matmen medal nine Wayne wins Invite

The Wayne wrestling team captured championship honors of the West Point Invitational, Saturday in West Point with 150 points—easily out-distancing runner-up Gretna who tallied 117.

Fort Calhoun placed third with 98.5 and David City Aquinas was fourth with 86.5. West Point Central Catholic rounded out the top five with 85.5 followed in order by Blair, Oakland-Craig, O'Neill, West Point and Pierce.

Wayne had three individual champions on the day including Josh Murtaugh, Jody Campbell and Jeremiah Rethwisch while runner-up honors went to Jeremy Meyer and Casey Junck. Tyler Endicott and Darin Jensen each placed third while Chris Junck and Eric Hefti each finished fourth to medal.

"It was great to see the kids bring home a first place trophy," head coach John Murtaugh said. "They did a great job of wrestling as a team." It was the first tournament championships for Josh Murtaugh and Jody Campbell with Murtaugh defeating a defending state runner-up in the finals and a two-time state qualifier in the semifinals.

Wakefield cagers split with Osmond

The Wakefield girls and boys basketball teams split with Osmond last Thursday with the Lady Trojans winning a 44-35 decision while Brad Hoskins' boys fell, 76-38.

In the girls outing, Alison Benson poured in 16 as Wakefield led 17-9 at the half and despite just a five point lead after three quarters of play the Trojans never trailed in the second half.

"Defensively we played a great first half," coach Gregg Cruickshank said. "Then we stopped boxing out on the boards and started fouling too much. Offensively, we struggled. Our free throw shooting let Osmond hang around and we didn't execute or get into any kind of rhythm. We're happy to be 3-0 at this point but there are areas for improvements," Cruickshank added.

Wakefield was just 8-32 from the free throw line but the Trojans defense forced 21 turnovers while committing 13. Jenny Haglund followed Benson's 16-point performance with nine while Kristin Preston tallied six.

Benson and Haglund shared team honors in rebounding with eight caroms each as Wakefield edged the host team, 31-24 on the boards.

The Wakefield boys found themselves staring at a 37-14 halftime deficit and they could not recover as they were out-scored in the second half by a 39-24 margin.

"We got off to another slow start," Hoskins said. "Defensively, we met our goal of keeping them under 15 points in the first quarter but we let up in the second quarter and they took advantage. We just ran out of gas in the fourth quarter."

Freshman Ross Gardner led

Wakefield with 11 points while Austin Lueth and BJ Hansen tallied eight each. Wakefield was out-rebounded, 34-16 with Lueth leading the Trojans with five caroms. The Trojans remained winless on the season.

Wakefield girls, 44—Osmond, 35; (Wakefield scoring) Alison Benson, 16; Jenny Haglund, 9; Kristin Preston, 6; Susan Brudigam, 5; Rachel Dutcher, 5; Megan Sandahl, 3.

Wakefield boys, 38—Osmond, 76; (Wakefield scoring) Ross Gardner, 11; Austin Lueth, 8;

BJ Hansen, 8; Eric Beacom, 6; Justin Mackling, 3; Josh Hohn, 2.

WSC men snap road streak

The Wayne State men's basketball team notched their first road victory of the season and snapped a seven-game road sting that dated back to February of last season when they won at Bemidji State by downing Northwest Missouri State University, 77-70 in Maryville, Missouri on Saturday.

Greg McDermott's squad trailed the Bearcats by five at the intermission, 40-35 but like many times already this season the defense picked up the pace in the second half and the offense clicked behind the three-point accuracy of senior Mike Fitzner who drained eight total shots from behind the bonus line en route to a 31-point performance.

WSC out-scored the Bearcats by 12 points in the second half, 42-30. Incidentally, Fitzner's eight, 3-pointers gave him 187 for his career which breaks a Wildcat record set by Steve Dunbar from 1987-92 with 183.

Two other 'Cats were in double figures including Craig Philipp with 13 and Jon Dolliver with 10.

The visitors were 23 of 58 from the floor for 40 percent but they still struggled some from the free throw line where they hit 21 of 37 attempts for 57 percent.

WSC out-rebounded the host team, 44-40 led by Philipp's 11 caroms. Tyler Johnson dished out four assists for team tops and WSC committed 15 turnovers compared to 13 for the host team.

WSC, 77—NWMSU, 70; (WSC scoring) Mike Fitzner, 31; Craig Philipp, 13; Jon Dolliver, 10; Jaime Jones, 7; Tyler Johnson, 6; Jason Diaz, 5; Eric Henderson, 3; Chad Nelson, 2. WSC RECORD: 5-2.

Board members elected at country club

WAYNE—Three new board members were elected to three-year terms at the Wayne Country Club, recently. Terry Luhr/Ted Baack and Greg McDermott will join current board members Pat Garvin, Marty Summerfield, Nancy Endicott and Marion Arneson.

Seventh grade girls win three

WAYNE—Scott Lepke's seventh grade girls basketball team won three consecutive games with a pair of victories at Pierce last Saturday and a win over West Point Guardian Angels on Monday in Wayne.

At Pierce in the opener Wayne edged the host team, 11-10 with April Thede leading the way with six while Elizabeth Sump netted three and Lindsay Stoltenberg, two. Faith Kroecker led the rebounding corp with five while Stoltenberg had three.

In the second game Wayne dominated Pierce, 42-15 with Kari Harder pouring in 13 to lead the way. Katie Nelson netted nine and Karla Keller, eight while Jamie Sharer netted four. Chantel Coulter, Kathy Nelson, Kelly Schlines and Kristin Echtenkamp each tallied two. Harder had six rebounds to lead Wayne with Echtenkamp hauling down four.

Monday against West Point, Wayne won by an 18-13 margin as Cassie Nelson led the way with five points with April Thede adding four. Sump, Sharer, Katie Nelson and Christina Gathje each scored two with Harder adding one.

Cassie Nelson also had six rebounds to lead the winners with Keller and Harder each netting five caroms and Rachael Rubendall, four.

WSC men beaten in Hawaii by 10

The Wayne State men's basketball team was defeated by Hawaii-Hilo in the first round of their tournament on the Islands, Tuesday night, 105-95.

The Wildcats got down by 13 at the break, 50-37 before out-scoring the host team, 58-55 in the second half.

"Our defensive execution was not where it needed to be for us to be successful," WSC coach Greg McDermott said. "Our inability to convert on some easy baskets and our lack of defensive intensity at the start of each half was the difference."

The Wildcats mentor was pleased that his team never gave up in the second half.

"It was good to see Chad Nelson have a game he is capable of having with a season high 20 points," McDermott added.

Tyler Johnson also poured in 20 points for the 'Cats with Mike Fitzner tossing in 17 and Craig Philipp, 16.

WSC was dominated on the boards, however, 48-36 with Philipp leading the way with 10 caroms for the 'Cats.

Johnson and Curt Woodin each dished out six assists. WSC did a good job of handling the ball with just 11 turnovers while forcing Hilo into 23.

WSC played the University of Rio Grande at 5:30 p.m. our time on Wednesday after they fell to Kentucky Wesleyan, 88-67 in first round action.

WSC, 95—Hawaii-Hilo, 105; (WSC scoring) Chad Nelson, 20; Tyler Johnson, 20; Mike Fitzner, 17; Craig Philipp, 16; Jason Diaz, 9; Jon Dolliver, 5; Jaime Jones, 4; Matt VanVoorst, 2; Eric Henderson, 2. WSC RECORD: 5-3.

Wayne girls beaten twice

The Wayne girls basketball team lost a pair of contests to Battle Creek and Schuyler last Thursday and Friday night in Wayne, leaving John McClamen's squad with a 1-2 record.

The visiting Bravettes sprinted to a 24-7 lead over Wayne after one quarter of play and never looked back en route to a 63-45 victory despite the fact the Blue Devils outscored the visitors, 22-21 in the second half.

Battle Creek hit 18 of 27 shot attempts in the first half for 67 percent with Tiffany Volk, BC's all-state guard hitting for 24 of her game high 31 in the opening 16 minutes.

McClamen said he was proud of the fact his team didn't give up in the second half despite a monumental deficit against a highly ranked team. "We had the lead cut to 14 midway through the third quarter but Volk drained a 3-pointer to counter the rally attempt and we could draw no closer," McClamen said.

Wayne was led by Katie Lutt with a dozen points while Molly Linster netted seven. The Blue Devils got four rebounds from Lutt and Lacy Bebee for team honors and Lutt dished out three assists and notched two steals.

The Blue Devil reserves defeated the Bravettes, 40-34 with Jessica Raveling leading the way with nine points while Jennifer Beiermann, Brooke Parker, Heidi Johnson and Lindsay Baack each netted five points. Sara Ellis and Jennifer Schaffer each scored four and Gayle Olson, three.

FRIDAY, WAYNE got off to another slow start against Schuyler, trailing 16-7 after one quarter of play before the Blue Devils outscored the visitors by one point the rest of the way but lost by eight, 42-34.

Wayne was led by Katie Lutt's double-double performance with 19 points and 10 rebounds while Katy Wilson followed with four. Lacy Bebee dished out three assists to lead Wayne and she shared team honors in steals with Melissa Weber with two each.

The Wayne reserves fell to Schuyler, 50-28. Heidi Johnson led the Blue Devils with eight points followed by Brooke Parker with five. Jennifer Schaffer and Kristin Hochstein each netted four while Gayle Olson, Jennifer Beiermann and Lindsay Baack tallied two each and Sara Ellis, one.

Wayne, 45—Battle Creek, 63; (Wayne scoring) Katie Lutt, 12; Molly Linster, 7; Lacy Bebee, 6; Brooke Parker, 6.

Wayne's Molly Linster breaks away from a Sioux City West defender during the Blue Devils season opening game. Linster led Wayne to its lone win of the year in three outings with 22 points including a stretch of eight straight in the third quarter.

Allen girls losing streak reaches four while boys come close to first win

The Allen girls basketball team lost a pair of games at the Homer Tournament last weekend before falling to Winnebago in regular season action, leaving Lori Koester and Gary Erwin's team with a 1-4 record and a four-game losing streak.

The Eagles fell to the host Homer team in the first round of the Home Tournament, 43-39.

Allen led by three points at the break, 22-19 but were out-scored by a 12-4 margin in the third quarter which marked the difference in the game.

"Homer has a very good 6-foot girl," Erwin said. "We played hard but need to cut down on our turnovers."

Mindy Plueger tallied 15 points to lead Allen while Shany Moran netted 13.

The twosome were also the leaders on the boards with nine and eight rebounds, respectively.

In the consolation round Allen fell to Ponca, 39-22. "Ponca has a young team with good talent," Erwin said. "We came out and turned the ball over and they gained confidence by turning them into points."

Moran led Allen with 10 points followed by Plueger with six and Jaime Kluyer with five.

Moran also hauled down 11 caroms for team tops while Plueger had five.

Allen rolled up 62 points against Winnebago but fell seven points short of its counterpart, falling 69-62 in overtime in a contest held prior to the Homer Tournament.

"This was an extremely physical game," Erwin said. "Our girls need to play with better composure. We shot 48 free throws in the game and would have won if we would have hit just 60 percent. We were 16-48."

Shany Moran poured in 21 points to lead Allen with Mindy Plueger adding 15. Moran also had a career-high 23 rebounds while Plueger had seven steals.

THE ALLEN boys came close to notching their first win of the season, falling to Ponca in the first round of the Homer Tournament, 38-33.

Allen led 7-2 after one quarter of play but trailed by one at the half, 15-14 and by two at the end of three quarters, 23-21.

"We played a great game defensively," coach Doug Schnack said. "They were a bigger team and we set a team goal to hold them under 50 points and we did that."

"Offensively, however, we couldn't get anything going," Schnack added. "We didn't run our offense effectively until the fourth quarter with Jeremy Kumm doing a great job of keeping us in the game."

Kumm finished with 13 points while Cory Prochaska netted nine and Brad Smith, five.

Erik Olsen led the Eagles on the boards with seven caroms with Philip Morgan and Mike Blohm netting five each.

The Eagles girls/boys twinbill at home against Hartington on Tuesday night was postponed to January, 23 due to bad weather.

Wayne runner places fifth in nation

WAYNE-Sara Kinney, Wayne's outstanding junior runner recently placed fifth in the Young Women's Division at the Junior Olympic National Cross Country Championships in Lexington, Kentucky.

Kinney ran the 3-mile course in 19 minutes and 50 seconds. She qualified to compete at the national tournament after placing high at the regional competition in Iowa.

There were 140 runners throughout the United States that earned the right to run at Nationals and Kinney's fifth place effort earned her All-American honors. "The top 25 were named All-American," Kinney said. "The Omaha Cornhusker Flyers team, a group of runners that are younger than me, won the national tournament. I was the only runner from Nebraska that ran in my division."

Laurel volleyball player inks with NCC

LAUREL-Sarah Ehlers of Laurel has signed a letter of intent to play volleyball at Northeast Community College next fall, according to Bob McCormick, head volleyball coach at NCC.

Ehlers, who helped guide Laurel to a 26-0 record and a Class C-2 state volleyball championship this season, is a middle blocker and hitter, and will graduate in May from Laurel-Concord High School.

Ehlers finished the past season with 127 blocks which resulted in 65 kills. She completed 215 of 245 attacks with 91 aces and was 148-164 in serving with 11 aces.

Ehlers is the daughter of Deb Lubberstedt of Laurel and Russ Ehlers of Stanton. She intends to pursue a degree in business at Northeast.

Great Northeast hoop shootout slated

WAYNE-The 1996 Great Northeast Nebraska Shootout will be held on Friday, Saturday and Monday, December 27-29 & 30 in Rice Auditorium on the campus of Wayne State College.

There will be eight games each day with the action beginning at 9 a.m. with the final games slated for 8:30 p.m. each night. Ticket costs include $5 for adults, $3 for students with pre-school children being admitted for free. Tickets are good for the entire day.

The Hartington Cedar Catholic girls and Stanton boys are the defending champions. All five of last year's girls all-tournament team selections are back this season including Karen Hochstein of Cedar, Sara Sunderman of Madison, Alison Benson of Wakefield, Katie Lutt of Wayne and Kristina Kamp of Lyons-Decatur Northeast.

Junior high girls split with Holy Trinity

WAYNE-The Wayne seventh and eighth grade girls basketball teams split with Hartington Holy Trinity, recently with the seventh grade falling by an 18-4 margin. April Thede and Katie Nelson each scored two points with Cassie Nelson hauling down a team high five rebounds with Thede notching three boards.

The eighth grade team defeated Holy Trinity, 38-18 with Leah Dunkelau leading the way with eight points with Beth Loberg and Kallie Krugman netting six each.

Katie Walton, Amanda Maryott and Julie Reynolds each scored four while Alysa Heithold, Stacy Kordell and Sarah Beaman added two each. Krugman led the team in rebounding with six while Loberg and Walton had five each.

Winside girls fall at Newcastle

WINSIDE-The Winside girls basketball team lost a 76-61 decision in Newcastle last Thursday night. The Wildcats fell victim to Tonya Kneiff's outstanding outing with 34 points.

"Obviously we did some very good things to score 61 points but defensively, Kneiff really dominated the game and we didn't make her work for her points," head coach Lisa Schroeder said. "We did a great job on the boards and handled their press very well."

Jodi Miller led Winside with 14 points with Jess Miller adding 11 and Sara Marotz, 10. Mandi Topp tallied nine and Amy Riley, eight while Nicole Mohr netted four and Kelly Nathan, three. Mindy Janke rounded out the attack with two.

Jess Miller and Riley each had six rebounds to lead the team and Riley dished out eight assists.

Winside wrestlers win at North Bend

The Winside wrestling team dominated the North Bend Invitational last Saturday, racking up 199 points while runner-up Wisner-Pilger settled for 120 to edge Wahoo by two points.

North Bend, David City, Arlington, Tecumseh, Fremont JV's, Columbus Lakeview and Valley JV's followed in order.

Winside scored 39 points in the first round while notching nine pins to take a lead they would never relinquish. Eleven Wildcats left the gymnasium with medals.

Six of the Wildcats were crowned champions on the day including Jeremy Jaeger, Justin Bowers, Robert Wittler, Cory Brummels, Shaun Magwire and Joe Schwedhelm.

Ryan Krueger added a runner-up finish while Steve Rabe and Landon Grothe placed third. Jeff Jacobsen and Levi Trautman placed fourth to round out the medal collectors.

"We had an outstanding tournament," Winside coach Paul Sok said. "It's hard to single out one individual considering the success we had but I would have to say Robert Wittler dominated his weight class as well as anyone I've seen in a number of years."

Three of Winside grapplers stayed unbeaten on the year in Bowers, Brummels and Schwedhelm with Jaeger, Wittler, Grothe and Magwire having single losses on their marks.

112—Jeremy Jaeger (1st) Won 5-4; Won by pin in 3:23 over Casey Trague of Wisner-Pilger.

119—Jeff Jacobsen (4th) Won by pin; Lost by pin; Won by pin; Lost 7-0 to Jake Akerson of Wahoo.

189—Jeff Barg (DNP) Lost by pin; Won by pin; Lost by pin.

215—Joe Schwedhelm (1st) Won by pin; Won 11-3; Won by pin in 3:47.

EARLIER LAST week the Wildcats won a pair of duals over Pender, 60-18 and West Point Central Catholic, 44-18 in a triangular in Pender.

Jeremy Jaeger set the tone for the night as the freshman avenged his only loss on the young season by winning a 7-4 decision over Jesse Eichelberger of Pender.

The Wildcats ran off a string of eight straight pins over Pender via Steve Rabe, Robert Wittler, Cory Winside's Justin Bowers works over his West Point Central Catholic opponent during dual action last week. The Wildcats won the dual with the Bluejays.

Shaun Magwire of Winside keeps his West Point Central Catholic opponent at a disadvantage during action last week. The Wildcats dominated the North Bend Invite and will compete in the Wayne Invite on Saturday.

Brummels, Ryan Krueger, Landon Grothe, Levi Trautman, Shaun Magwire and Jeff Barg.

Robert Wittler led Paul Sok's squad to a win over West Point Central Catholic by pinning Barry Kreikemeier, a third place state medalist in Class C last year, at the 4:52 mark in the nights feature match.

Bowers, Brummels, Magwire and Joe Schwedhelm also recorded pins for the winners. Jeremy Jaeger, Ryan Krueger and Landon Grothe each earned decision victories.

The Wildcats will compete in the Wayne Invite on Saturday where Winside is the defending champions.

Jan Berringer to sign books at State Bank

State National Bank and Trust Company announced that a special book signing by Brook Berringer's mother, Jan, will take place this Saturday in the bank's main office lobby at 116 west 1st Street.

The book, entitled One Final Pass, is a biography about the life of Brook Berringer, former quarterback of the Nebraska Cornhusker football team. Book signings will occur from 9-11 a.m. with the first 50 book customers receiving a Brook Berringer poster.

Berringer was a quarterback at the University of Nebraska from 1991-1995 and was instrumental in leading the Huskers football team to their 1994 national championship.

He died in a plane crash on April 18, 1996, just three days short of the NFL draft where he was expected to be one of the top quarterback picks.

The book was written by a friend of Berringer's, Art Lindsay of Lincoln. Brook's mother, Jan Berringer of Goodland, Kansas is also listed as a contributor to the book.

One Final Pass covers the struggles Brook faced growing up without a father, his athletic successes as well as the victories and defeats he faced during his time as a Nebraska Cornhusker. The book also contains 32 pages of full color photographs of Brook, his family and friends.

The price of the book is $20. Royalties from the sale of this book go to the Brook Berringer Memorial Fund.

Laurel sweeps past Randolph

The Laurel Bears girls and boys basketball teams swept visiting Randolph on Saturday night with Rick Petri's girls winning, 56-49 while Clayton Steele's boys won by a 58-41 margin leaving both teams with unbeaten records.

In the girls game the Bears sprinted to a 29-17 lead at the half behind a solid defensive effort and a well-balanced offense that saw all five starters score in each of the first two periods.

Laurel eventually stretched its lead to 17 in the third stanza before Randolph began to come back.

The Bears lead at the third quarter's end was a dozen thanks to a half-court buzzer-beater from Randolph.

The closest Randolph could get in the final quarter was six points. "It was an outstanding effort by our entire team," Petri said. "Once again we played great defense. We limited Randolph to only nine offensive rebounds and four points off those boards."

Becky Schroeder paced the winners with 17 points with Tracy Ankeny netting 13 and Alissa Krie, 12.

Schroeder and Krie were the boards leaders as well with 11 and eight caroms, respectively with Laurel enjoying a 31-23 advantage on the boards.

Jessie Erwin dished out a team high five four assists.

Monday night in Ponca, Petri's troops thrashed the host team, 70-32.

Laurel got behind 5-0 early before out-scoring the Indians by a 70-27 margin the rest of the way including a 24-6 scoring run in the first quarter to take command.

The Bears took a 45-17 lead at the half and 58-22 lead heading to the final stanza.

"We played very well in the first half both offensively and defensively," Petri said. "We hit 60 percent of our shots from the field in the first half and had great scoring balance. In the second half we forced Ponca into many mistakes."

Four Bears players finished in double figures led by Becky Schroeder's 17 and Tracy Ankeny's 16 while Alissa Krie netted 15 and Sarah Ehlers, 13.

Laurel dominated the boards, 44-25 led by Schroeder and Krie with 11 and 10 rebounds, respectively.

Ankeny and Schroeder each dished out a team high five assists and Schroeder notched four steals and five blocked shots.

THE LAUREL boys broke open a close game in the fourth quarter over Randolph by outscoring the visiting Cardinals, 23-11 en route to posting a 58-41 win.

The Bears led 35-30 after three periods. Andy Bosc poured in 21 points to lead the winners, hitting 10 of 12 shots from the field with Vince Ward adding 13, and Ryan Kvols, 11.

The key difference in the game came in rebounding where the Bears maintained a 30-22 advantage led by Ward's nine caroms and Andy Bosc with six.

Kvols and Ward each dished out six assists and Ward finished with five steals with Kvols and Wyatt Erwin notching three each.

Laurel girls, 56—Randolph, 49; (Laurel scoring) Becky Schroeder, 17; Tracy Ankeny, 13; Alissa Krie, 12; Sarah Ehlers, 7; Jessie Erwin, 7.

Laurel girls, 70—Ponca, 32; (Laurel scoring) Becky Schroeder, 17; Tracy Ankeny, 16; Alissa Krie, 15; Sarah Ehlers, 13; Mindy Eaton, 3; Heather, 2; Jessie Erwin, 2.

Laurel Record: 4-0.

Laurel boys, 58; Randolph, 41; (Laurel scoring) Andy Bosc, 21; Vince Ward, 13; Ryan Kvols, 11; Wyatt Erwin, 7; Jim Quist, 6; Laurel Record: 3-0.

Wakefield girls suffer first loss at Wausa while boys remain winless

The Wakefield girls basketball team suffered their first loss of the season with a 54-43 setback to highly ranked Wausa last Friday night in Wausa.

Gregg Cruickshank's squad trailed by just four points at the intermission, 23-19 but were outscored, 13-5 in the third quarter.

"I thought we played pretty well with the exception of the first couple minutes of the third quarter," Cruickshank said. "Wausa went on a 7-0 run to push the lead to double digits. They are a very talented team with a couple players that could start for any team in the state regardless of class size."

Cruickshank said playing a team like Wausa highlights some of the things the Trojans need to work on such as the defense.

Alison Benson led Wakefield with 17 points while Jenny Haglund was in double figures with 10.

Although Wakefield did a pretty good job of taking care of the basketball with 15 turnovers, Wausa had just eight.

THE TROJAN boys finished with just 33 points in Wausa, falling to 0-3 on the young season.

Wausa used a 26-7 scoring run in the second quarter to lead 35-12 at the break en route to a 61-33 final score.

"They (Wausa) hit 26 of 48 shots from the floor for the game," Wakefield coach Brad Hoskins said. "They had eight break away lay-ins in the second quarter."

Wausa's size advantage was key as each player was bigger than Wakefield's.

"Offensively, we are struggling," Hoskins said. "We had 28 turnovers and many of those were unforced. In the second half I thought we played better and for three of the four quarters we met our defensive goals."

BJ Hansen led Wakefield with 11 points while Austin Lueth netted 10. The Trojans were out rebounded 31-15 with Lueth leading Wakefield with five rebounds.

Wakefield's game with Emerson Hubbard started on Tuesday night was called off due to bad weather.

Wakefield girls, 43—Wausa, 54. (Wakefield scoring: Alison Benson 17, Jenny Haglund 10, Rachel Dutcher 8, Kristin Preston 5, Susan Bradgum 2. Wakefield Record 3-1.)

Wakefield boys, 33—Wausa, 61. (Wakefield scoring: BJ Hansen 11, Austin Lueth 10, Justin Mackling 8, Ross Gardner 7, Justin Paulsen 1. Wakefield Record 0-3.)

Boats need to be titled starting Jan. 1

Alvin Abramson, Director of the Department of Motor Vehicles announced that effective Jan. 1, 1997, all motorboats must be titled.

Under legislation adopted by the 1996 State Legislature, a motorboat is defined as any powered watercraft including watercraft temporarily equipped with detachable motors.

According to Abramson, "After Jan. 1, 1997, all motorboats will be required to have a title before they can be sold or transferred."

Nebraska joins approximately 20 other states in requiring titles for motorboats. "The aim of the motorboat title law," said Abramson, "is to provide a tracking system that will help prevent theft of boats since they are easily stolen."

Current state law requires that all motorboats be registered and have a Certificate of Number assigned by the Game and Parks Commission.

Persons who have properly registered their motorboats will be able to have a title issued easily, using the Certificate of Number Registrations.

Application for title must be made at the county clerk or designated county office when the Certificate of Number Registration comes up for renewal.

A person may apply for title for the motorboat any time after Jan. 1.

Wayne senior is recognized by UNK

Melanie Mitzel, senior at Wayne High School was recently honored during the University of Nebraska at Kearney's Scholars Recognition Day.

"Scholars Recognition Day is a day to recognize outstanding high school juniors and seniors for their academic achievements and to encourage them to stay in the state for school and work," said Dr. Richard Jussel, UNK Honors program director.

The annual event is sponsored by the Omaha World Herald and the Kearney Hub.

Students toured the campus, had individual academic appointments and attended a panel discussion before they and their parents attended a banquet in their honor at the Nebraska Student Union.

Speakers for the event were Nebraska Lieutenant Governor Kim Robak and Kyle Blomenkamp, a UNK freshman from Oakland Blomenkamp, who is majoring in journalism/mass communications, is an Omaha World Herald/Kearney Hub Scholarship recipient.

Two inducted into society

Rancee Hellbusch and Cristy McDonald of Wayne were recently inducted into the Tau Chi Chapter of Phi Theta Kappa honor society at Northeast Community College.

A total of 50 students were inducted into the honor society which began with six charter members under the name of Kappa Phi Omicron at Stephens College in Columbia, Mo. in 1910.

For more than 70 years, membership in Phi Theta Kappa has signified a singular honor and willingness to embrace the Society's shared commitment to academia excellence.

Updates given on school needs

By Kevin Peterson
Of the Herald

At the recent monthly School Board meeting, updates were given on the Curriculum Prioritization Committee and the Facility needs.

Looking internally at the facility needs—similar to the same study done in 1993, space was assigned to the services offered by the Wayne School District because anytime a service is offered, it has to be placed somewhere.

The study then used recommended classroom sizes of 960-1200 square feet to match the services to arrive at the desirable square footage needs of the Wayne School District.

The study showed the enrollment declining in the elementary grades K-4, the 47,523 square foot allotment for the 320 students would be sufficient space—the question is not in number of square footage but in the condition of the square footage such as the Carroll Elementary building, kitchen space and computer lab space.)

The middle school has a great need for increased space according to the results of the report. The recommended middle school space for the services offered is 69,250 square feet of which it was 30,160 square feet with shared high school space, leaving a need for 30,090 square feet. (Those numbers are worse now that the middle school students have squeezed into the modulars with just barely 20,000 square feet.)

The high school will be increasing in enrollment the next few years but should return to around 280 in about four years. On that note, the recommended space needed for the services offered is 67,802 square feet of which 45,940 is the current model with shared space with the middle school.

Based on the services (curricular and extra), the district has a need for 137,052 total square feet and is addressing that need with 76,100 square feet of facility which leaves the district with a need of 60,952 square feet.

In the past, the district had community-wide committees research how to address this need and two separate committees concluded that sharing space between the middle school and high school was one way to reduce the facility space needs.

The earlier project that was taken to the public for a vote was for 81,000 total square feet. However, 8,100 square feet of the proposed project was space given to walls, hallways, and maintenance/air conditioning needs. The balance of 72,900 was to be used for classrooms and etc.

The Curriculum Prioritization Committee, comprised of 47 people in the Wayne School District including three board members will be sharing this information to the public in different ways with an outside facilitator.

This committee was picked through a variety of criteria including geographic location, their role in the community, their business, their connection to the district among others.

Their tasks include to review and become familiar with the curriculum and extracurricular activities; be presented the opportunity to learn about LB 1114 and what it requires of school districts; to discuss what is required by NCA and by the Nebraska Department of Education to offer for districts the size of Wayne; to discuss what areas of the curriculum are imperative to the communities served by the district.

Additional tasks include to discuss what areas of the curriculum are viewed as less important in the development of the communities' children for the future; to begin to rebuild the curriculum through the district from the basic core level out to extracurricular offerings based on projections of income provided by the administration and to present the new K-12 district services to the Board of Education to review.

One of the goals of Rainbow World is to provide a separate area for school age children to go after school. They presently use the eating area of the facility for activities.

Drive

25-30 people from within the community will be asked to provide input on what is best for the facility.

"We would like to retire our debt and free up our cash flow. This debt is not allowing us to expand and offer programs we would like to make available to the community," Ms. Stubbs said.

One of those programs would be geared toward students in the fifth through eighth grades for activities during the summer months.

"Our board is serious about raising money to pay off our debts. Even small donations would help. We have a staff that works well together and feel that we are headed in the right direction. We need the financial support of the community to accomplish our goals," Mrs. Stubbs added.

Question: What can I do about clothes that bleed, even though I follow directions such as washing in cold water?

Answer: Frequently we have customers who have clothes that have bled. Often the customer has followed the instructions, but left the clothes lay wet in the washer too long allowing the dye to break down more than it should. In some cases we can fix the problem. But just as in dry cleaning, we sometimes find that the manufacturer has not set the dye properly and the problem cannot be corrected. In this case, the customer should take the garment back to the retailer. Feel free to stop by your local dry cleaners for our pamphlet "Who is Responsible?" and find out what else you can do.

Schmidt-Ryan wed in Australian ceremony

Rebecca Schmidt and Peter Ryan were married Sept. 14, 1996 in Bowraville, Australia where a reception was held for their Australian family and friends.

A reception for their American family was held on Nov. 30, 1996 at The White House, Moorhead.

Minn., while they were vacationing there.

The bride is the daughter of Howard and Carole Schmidt of Moorhead, formerly of Wayne.

She is a 1985 graduate of Wayne High School and received her bachelor's degree in chemistry from the University of Nebraska-Lincoln and her Ph.D. in chemistry from Cornell University. She is currently employed at the Australian National University as a post-doctorate researcher.

The groom is the son of Peter-Patton of Bowraville. He received both an undergraduate degree in marine biology and a Ph.D. in botany from Sydney University. He conducts research for the Australian Commonwealth Scientific and Industrial Research Organisation (CSIRO).

The couple's address is Rebecca Schmidt/Peter Ryan, 90 Phillip Avenue, Downer ACT 2620, AUSTRALIA.

How can I save my marriage?

Q: I'm certain that I'm losing my husband. He shows signs of boredom and total disinterest in me. He treats me rudely in public and is virtually silent at home. And of course, our sex life is nonexistent. I have begged and pleaded with him to love me, but I'm losing ground every day. What can I do to save my marriage?

A: These are symptoms of a condition I call "the trapped syndrome."

More often than not, the man is thinking these kind of thoughts: "I'm 35 years old (or whatever age), and I'm not getting any younger. Do I really want to spend the rest of my life with this woman? I'm bored with her, and there are others who interest me more, but there's no way out. I'm stuck."

These are the feelings that usually precede esoteric infidelity, and they can certainly be felt in the strain between a husband and wife.

How should a woman respond when she reads the cues and realizes her husband feels trapped? Obviously, the worst thing she could do is reinforce the cage around him, yet that is likely to be her initial reaction.

As she thinks about how important he is to her, and what on earth she would do without him, and whether he's involved with another woman, her anxiety may compel her to grab hold of him.

But her begging and pleading only continue to drive him to disrespect her more, and the relationship continues to splinter.

There is a better way that I have found productive in counseling experience. The most successful approach to bringing a partner back toward the center of a relationship is not to follow when he moves away from it.

Instead of saying, "Why do you treat me this way?" and "Why won't you talk to me?" a wife should pull back a few inches herself. When she passes her husband in the hall and would normally touch him or seek his attention, she should move by him without notice. Silence by him is greeted by silence in return. She should not be hostile or aggressive, ready to explode when he finally asks her to say what is on her mind. Rather, she responds in kind... being quietly confident, independent and mysterious.

Focus On The Family

With Dr. James Dobson

The effect of this behavior is to open the door on his trap. Instead of clamping herself to his neck like a bloodsucking leech, she releases her grip and introduces a certain challenge to his mind. He may begin to wonder if he has gone too far and may be losing something precious to him. If that will not turn him around, then the relationship is stone-cold dead.

What I am recommending is extremely difficult to express in written form, and I am certain to be misinterpreted by some of my readers on this issue. I haven't suggested that you rise up in anger—that you stamp your feet and demand your domestic rights, or that you sulk or pout in silence. Please do not associate me with those contemporary voices that are mobilizing feminine troops for all-out sexual combat.

Nothing is less attractive to me than an angry woman who is determined to grab her share, one way or another. No, the answer is not found in hostile aggression, but in quiet self-respect!

In short, personal dignity in a marriage is maintained the same way it was produced during the dating days. The attitude should be "I love you, and I am totally committed to you, but I only control my half of the relationship. I can't demand your love in return. You came to me of your own free will when we agreed to marry. No one forced us together. The same free will is necessary to keep our love alive. If you choose to walk away from me, I will be crushed and hurt beyond description because I have withheld nothing of myself. Nevertheless, I will let you go, and ultimately I will survive. I couldn't demand your affection in the beginning, and I can only request it now."

Somehow, that releasing of the door on the trap often results in revolutionary changes in a relationship.

Klick and Klatter Club has luncheon

Klick and Klatter Club met Dec. 10 at Riley's Cafe for a noon luncheon. Vice-president Irene Victor gave the table prayer.

The meeting began with a reading "Children of Christmas" from Erma Bombeck's "Christmas Treasury."

Seven answered roll call with what they wished Santa Claus would bring them. A verbal thank you was received from Marcella Larson for being remembered after her fall.

Program books for 1997 were distributed and new lessons were discussed. Marcella Larson gave a reading "The 12 Days of Christmas" which explained the Christian meaning of the song. Two other songs were sung, with short stories told about each.

Grab bag gifts were distributed by matching two halves of the title of a Christmas hymn, then singing the first few lines of the hymn before opening the gift.

Viola Meyer had perfect attendance in 1995 and Dorothy Aurich, Loreene Gildersleeve, Joyce Niemann and Irene Victor had perfect attendance in 1996.

The meeting closed with singing "We Wish You a Merry Christmas."

The next meeting will be Tuesday, Jan. 14, 1997 at 1:30 p.m. with Dorothy Aurich. Viola Meyer will be in charge of the program.

Storytime Santa

Santa Claus made a stop at the Wayne Public Library on Saturday morning and was the guest reader for Story Time. He entertained a number of children with several books about Christmas. He also listened to the children's Christmas requests and handed out treats to those on hand.

Christmas seems to be season to 'charge it'

It's true that Christmas is the time of year that Americans use their credit card mismanagement.

In some parts of the United States, 90 percent of the bankruptcies being filed can be traced to the end result of out-of-control credit card use.

This statistic isn't startling, considering that the typical American credit card user has a balance of more than $1,900 per card. That's up from $1,750 a year ago.

Additionally, the average user carries eight to 10 cards and a total debt of $15,000 to $17,000. With debt this large, most people pay only the monthly minimum payment, which can be a costly mistake.

Now don't look at those figures and decide that your credit use is not "so bad" compared to the national average. It takes a long time to eliminate credit card debt when only the minimum payment is made each month. For example, a balance of $5,000 will take 221 months or 18 years to pay off the entire bill with minimum payments!

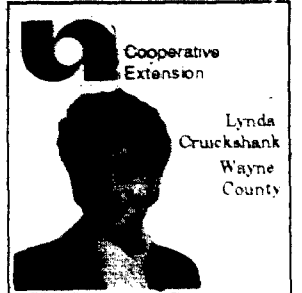

Part of the problem with credit card misuse stems from how people perceive credit in the first place. There is a tendency to:

1. Not think of plastic as real money;
2. Look only at the interest on the bill instead of the total balance due;
3. No consider the balance due on ALL owned credit cards; and
4. Think in terms of "If I can afford the minimum payment, I can afford things."

Credit cards companies often don't help the spending situation. They will raise the limits on a card and will lower the minimum payment to 2.5 to three percent. This just helps keep the user in debt longer and paying more in total interest.

The best solution to managing credit card woes is to eliminate their use and pay cash for items. It is essential, however, to have a credit line. It comes in handy for emergencies, making reservations (hotel, airline, etc.) and establishing a history of purchasing with credit and an ability to pay those debts.

The key is to limit the number of cards to one or two. One card should be bank-issued for emergencies or when cash flow is short. The card isn't necessarily paid off each month, but the carry over from month to month shouldn't be excessive.

Lynda Cruickshank
Wayne County

The second card is for when payments can be met each month. As each expense is accrued, it is paid off with each statement.

Limiting the number of credit cards now can be beneficial later when applying for a loan. Loan issuers take into account all available credit, even if it is unused and present bills are paid on time. If the potential exists to overextend on credit cards, they will consider the applicant a high risk borrower. Try to keep manageable indebtedness to 15-20 percent of the annual take home pay.

Finally, it may be helpful to track credit card spending daily. Wrap an index card around the credit card with a rubber band and write down purchases as they are made and how much was spent. This will keep the tally in view and may serve as a check before additional purchases are made.

The University of Nebraska Federal Credit Union describes these seven warning signs of a debt problem:

1. Using credit cards for routine purchases formerly made with cash or checks.
  2. More than 20 percent of the monthly net income is going to pay back credit cards or other loans (excluding a mortgage).
  3. Borrowing money to make payments on existing loans.
  4. The holder is frequently at near, or over the credit card limit.
  5. Paying only the minimum required on your credit card bills.
  6. Paying bills late or putting off visits to the doctor because they might not be enough monthly.
  7. Working overtime or a second job just to cover food, housing and other living expenses.

METHODIST WOMEN

The United Methodist Women held a Dessert Luncheon and Christmas Program Dec. 12 with 13 ladies attending. Tables were decorated for the Christmas season.

Hostesses were Janice Hartman, Donna Young and Irene Hanson. After the luncheon, a short business meeting was held. Results of the bazaar were given and correspondence from former Pastor Vivan Hand was read.

A Christmas program "Make Room in the Inn" was presented by Janice Hartman and Christmas carols were sung. The Christmas story from the Scriptures was read and the group discussed each of the characters in the Christmas story.

Plates of Christmas cookies were packed and distributed to Senior Citizens of the church, those who are ill and newcomers to the community.

SANTA VISITS

Santa arrived in town Saturday morning to visit with children and hand out treats. The firemen, EMTS and business people sponsored his trip.

Minerva Club meets at B&B

Santa and his helpers also took treats to the senior citizens in Dixon.

BEST EVER CLUB

The Best Ever Club Christmas Party was held Dec. 13.

The group had dinner at the Village Inn in Allen and then returned to the Don Peters home for playing cards. Coffee and cookies were served at the close of the evening.

Those attending were Mr. and Mrs. Earl Eckert, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Lubberstedt, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Hansen and Mrs. and Mrs. Kenneth Tuttle.

Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Stanley visited relatives in the Kansas City, Mo. area Dec. 6-11. They attended the 50th anniversary open house of Harold and Eileen Stanley in Kansas City.

Brad Prescott and Cole of Sioux City, Iowa and Duane Prescott of Salix, Iowa were Sunday dinner guests in the Addie Prescott home.

Friday and Saturday guests in the Marie George home were Clyde Rice of Freeman, Mo. and Martin Ritter of Los Alamos, N.M.

The Minerva Club met at Grandma Butch's on Dec. 9 for a Christmas luncheon with 13 members present.

President Bette Ream opened the meeting with a story about the legend behind the poinsettia plant.

A note from the Ellermeyer family was read. Each member told about a special Christmas they had experienced in the past.

The next meeting will be Jan. 13 at the home of Mary de Fresse.

Pauline Nuernberger will be the leader.

Christmas means sharing

Siouxland Blood Bank makes two stops in Wayne recently

The Siouxland Blood Bank was in Wayne twice recently and collected a total 98 pints of blood were collected.

On Nov. 26 the mobile coach was at the First National-Omaha Service Center. Sixty-two people volunteered to donate and 53 pints of blood were collected. Fifteen of these donors were first-time donors.

Michelle Keagle was recognized as a two gallon donor.

On Nov. 29 the Blood Bank was at Providence Medical Center. Fifty people volunteered to donate and 45 pints of blood were collected.

The following were recognized for their donations: Gene Casey, 10 gallons; David Curley, Larry Echtenkamp and Judy Martindale, four gallons; Monica Carroll and John Paxton, two gallon donors; Bob Brenner and Dorothy Wert, one gallon; and Tina Nelson and Phyllis Rahn, first time donors.

Pam Masching, director of Donor Resources said "the Siouxland Blood Bank gratefully thanks and acknowledges the generous donors for their support of the blood drive."

Four join WSC faculty this fall

Four new faculty members joined Wayne State College this fall and have settled into the campus routine.

Mark Hammer, Shawn Percy and David Shaffer are new assistant professors in the math/sciences division and Mark Leeper is a new assistant professor in social sciences. The four bring to 145, the number of full time faculty positions on campus.

"They are helping the College maintain its attractive student to teacher ratio in spite of enrollment growth," said Dr. Donald Mash, WSC president. "Our average class size is smaller now that it was before we began our dramatic growth." Wayne State's full time equivalent enrollment has increased 55 percent since 1988.

"Education at Wayne State is enhanced significantly by outstanding faculty members who are accessible and interact often with our students in and out of the classroom," said Dr. Mash.

Over 75 percent of the full time faculty members hold doctoral degrees. Each of the four new faculty members who have joined the campus this year holds a doctoral degree.

Hammer, who is teaching biology, earned his doctoral degree from the University of Arkansas in 1992. He comes to WSC from the University of Nebraska-Lincoln, where he worked as a post-doctoral research associate. He also holds a master's degree from Clemons University (1985) and earned his bachelor's from Iowa State in 1983.

Shawn Percy Mark Leeper David Shaffer Mark Hammer

He was a Belle Baruch Fellowship recipient at Clemons in 1989 and was honored by the American Society of Plant Physiologists for writing the outstanding graduate student paper in 1992. He also received the Aubrey Harvey Graduate Research award at the University of Arkansas.

A native of Des Moines, Dr. Hammer enjoys running and biking in his spare time. His wife, Jenny, is a historian and has worked in library science.

Leeper, who is teaching political science, holds a doctoral degree in that discipline from the University of North Carolina-Chapel Hill. He received that degree in 1995. He also earned his master's in 1989 from UNC and a bachelor's in political science from the University of Nebraska-Lincoln in 1986.

Dr. Leeper comes to WSC from Guilford College where he had been an assistant professor since 1992. He also has experience as a visiting instructor at UNC from 1992-1996.

He is a member of the Mortar Board Society, Phi Beta Kappa and is a recipient of the Tanner Award for excellence in undergraduate teaching at the University of North Carolina-Chapel Hill.

He and his wife, MaryBeth O'Malley, have one daughter, Emily Ann, 1. In his spare time he enjoys fly fishing.

Shawn Percy, who is teaching biology, earned his doctorate in zoophysiology from Washington State University in July. He received his bachelor's degree in biology from Indiana University in 1989.

A native of Indianapolis, Percy is single and enjoys mountain climbing, snow shoeing, scuba diving and backpacking.

David Shaffer, who teaches physics, earned his doctoral degree from the University of Pittsburgh in June. He also has experience as a physicist at the Lawrence Livermore National Lab.

He received a master's degree in physics from the University of Pittsburgh in 1994 and a bachelor's degree from Stevens Institute of Technology in Hoboken, N.J. in 1989.

A native of Springfield, Ohio, Dr. Shaffer enjoys wrestling, robotics and playing the piano. He and his wife Katherine, have two children, Alex, 1, and Rebecca, 6 mos. Katherine also holds a Ph.D. and is an adjunct faculty member teaching chemistry at the College.

WSC awarded grant for the campus Studio Arts Building

The Cooper Foundation of Lincoln has awarded Wayne State College a grant for $15,000 for the Studio Arts Building project on campus.

The latest funding amount brings the college very near to its goal of $1.3 million in private funding sources needed to complete the new teaching facility, according to Phyllis Conner, vice president for development at WSC.

She said the Wayne State Foundation, faculty and students are truly grateful to the Cooper Foundation for its generous gift which will be used to convert the former power plant building at the center of campus into a modern studio arts teaching and learning facility.

Currently, art students take classes in small and scattered studios in four separate buildings on campus and the situation limits their creativity, according to Dr. Jay O'Leary, head of the Fine Arts Division at WSC.

Once completed, the new arts building will include educational sculpture and painting studios, as well as a graphic arts studio and other classroom facilities.

The Cooper Foundation was established as a philanthropic endeavor to benefit young people with a priority on contributions to education, human services, arts and the humanities throughout Nebraska.

The late Joe Cooper, a Russian emigrant who developed a chain of movie theatres in Nebraska, Oklahoma and Colorado, established the Cooper Foundation in 1934 and left his multimillion dollar theatre business to it when he died in 1940.

Today the foundation's assets have grown to over $14 million and it has made grants of over $8.8 million to worthwhile projects throughout the state.

"The Cooper Foundation has made tremendous contributions to benefit young people through education and the arts in Nebraska," said Leslie Neuhaus director of planned giving for the Wayne State Foundation. "Wayne State is truly fortunate to have been selected as a recipient for this significant contribution from one of the nation's pioneering private foundations," she added.

The Library Card

This column is written occasionally to inform the Wayne area as to what types of reading material and other items are available at the Wayne Public Library.

Seasons Readings from our staff! We have just finished our last "Let's Talk About It" program and we have a few more things to talk about! We would like to know if any of you have particular ideas for a humanities program, a book discussion series or whether you know of presenter or local person who could share with our reading community. Although we have many ideas from the Nebraska Humanities Council and National Issues Forums, your thoughts and interests are important to us. Our thanks to Rod Langbehn at the Caffe Court who donated his special blend of coffee for one of the "Let's Talk About It" programs.

We recently received several new titles in the Library of America series. This series is a collection of American writers and their writings. Added to our collection are: Writings and Drawings by James Thurber; Grapes of Wrath and other Writings 1937-1941 by John Steinbeck (includes The Long Valley, The Log from the Sea of Cortez, The Harvest Gypsies); Complete stories 1892-1898 by Henry James; Complete stories 1898-1910 by Henry James; U.S.A. (a trilogy The 42nd Parallel, 1919, The Big Money); Collected poems, prose & plays by Robert Frost; Novels and Memoirs 1914-1951 by Vladimir Nabokov; Novels 1955-1962 by Vladimir Nabokov; and Novels 1969-1974 by Vladimir Nabokov.

Special Christmas reading includes Miracle on the 17th Green by James Patterson; This Year it Will be Different by Maive Linchy and The Special Guest by Lee and Donna Allen. Moms and Dad, don't forget our Santa Claus Story Hour on Saturday at 10:30 a.m. Bring you wee ones to see and hear Santa and to check out Christmas stories to read while you're waiting for Santa to arrive.

While we are on the subject of Christmas, we want to remind you of our holiday hours. On Dec. 24 and 31, library hours will be 12:30 p.m. to 4 p.m. We will be closed Christmas Day and January 1. Regular hours will resume on the days following the holidays.

Attention: the super-fabulous book sale will end Dec. 15. Hurry down to find bargains for you and your family. Hardbacks are now 10 cents and paperbacks are five cents. At those prices, you can't afford NOT to come in and browse.

Regular hours prevail until Dec. 24. Monday-Friday 12:30 to 8:30 p.m. Saturday 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. and Sunday 2-5 p.m. We look forward to seeing you soon.

Sights and sounds of the season

Third and fourth grade students from Wayne Elementary School, under the direction of Cheryl Kopperud entertained those viewing trees at this year's Fantasy Forest.

Students from Carroll Elementary School performed a number of Christmas carols on Dec. 9, during a program titled "Christmas Around the World."

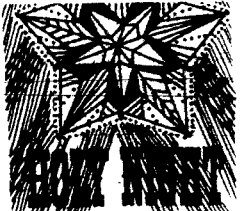

St. Mary's Elementary School's Christmas program was entitled "Christmas in the Shoe." Fifth and sixth graders sang of the true gift of Christmas.

Three WSC students present honors papers

Three area students were among those featured honored students who made presentations during the Fall Honors Colloquium last week at Wayne State College.

Dawn M. Spickelmier of Laurel, Sara L. Granberg of Wayne and Stephanie J. Kobza of Lincoln, seniors at WSC presented papers.

Ms. Spickelmier, a criminal justice major with an interdisciplinary minor in forensic science, discussed her study into investigators' attitudes toward crime lab assistance in homicide investigations.

Very little research as been conducted to explore the attitudes of law enforcement investigators toward the value or competence of crime labs, said Spickelmier. Most research has centered on technological aspects of crime lab work or on case outcome.

Ms. Spickelmier is scheduled to graduate Friday. She completed an internship with the Nebraska State Patrol Criminalistics Laboratory in the summer of 1995. She is a 1989 graduate of Lincoln High School.

Ms. Granberg and Ms. Kobza discussed their study into the reasons for high incidences of farm accidents involving children. They presented finding on the effectiveness of communication campaigns to promote farm safety for children.

The senior researchers interviewed 24 families with children under the age of 16 years. They observed participants' farms and operations and they attended Farm Safety programs as part of their study.

The WSC Honors Colloquium is an opportunity for seniors who have been conducting research through independent study to present their findings. Students selected to make honors Colloquium presentations have achieved an overall grade point average of 3.3 or above in both their major field and college classes in general.

Coping With Side Effects of Medicine

Researchers have found that certain individuals are more likely to experience adverse drug effects than are others. For example, the elderly as a group are more prone to adverse effects based on physiological changes that accompany aging. Other factors that predispose to adverse effects include multiple prescribers of medicines, multiple illnesses, and impaired pathways of drug elimination such as from kidney or liver disease.

If medicines are considered necessary and are taken routinely, side effects can be handled rather easily in some instances. For example, if the side effect is dry mouth, sucking ice chips or chewing gum may help. A low sodium diet may help alleviate fluid retention. Heart palpitations sometimes can be managed by avoiding caffeine, alcohol, and smoking. Changing medicines or adjusting doses often eliminates side effects.

Curator earns state honor

Northeast Nebraskans have access to a wealth of information about what trees and shrubs grow best in local climate and soil conditions because of the research work done by honored botanist and Nebraska Statewide Arboretum during its annual meeting in Omaha earlier this month. One of the two highest honors bestowed by the organization, it pays tribute to significant lifelong contributions to the organization and the state.

A professor of biology at Wayne State College, who entered semi-retirement this spring, Maier teaches one class each term and remains the curator of the Wayne State Arboretum on the WSC campus. His arboretum tasks include monitoring and maintaining the health and well-being of the scores of different tree and plant species in the arboretum's inventory on campus and conducting research on new species added each year.

The storehouse of knowledge he has generated on the best plant varieties and species for this area as well as his efforts to enhance the interest in and appearance of the college campus and to promote the Statewide Arboretum were all reasons cited for the award, which was presented by Jim Kluck, Schyuler, president of the Nebraska Statewide Arboretum. Only a handful of Nebraskans have been so honored.

Maier has spent hundreds of volunteer hours working for the Statewide Arboretum. He has also served on the organization's executive board, advisory council and on membership and site selection and development committees.

As a young professor of biology at Wayne State in 1977, Maier was one of the driving forces behind the designation of the campus as an Arboretum that year. It remains as one of the crown jewels of the 25 sites which are currently part of the officially designated statewide arboretum.

The idea of a statewide arboretum with a variety of sites was unique to Nebraska—originated by a group of horticulturists at UNL, says Maier. He explained the diversity of Nebraska's growing conditions was soon evident as seedlings were sent from the state to be planted in different sites within the arboretum system.

"There are more variations in the growing conditions between Peru and Chadron within Nebraska than there are between Peru and the east coast," he explained. An original goal of the Statewide Arboretum was to have a site in every county in the state, but the low population base of some of the counties in western Nebraska made that goal impractical.

Charles Maier has been involved in a number of activities involving educating students about growing conditions and plants in northeast Nebraska, including this trip to identify plant species. Maier was recently honored by the Nebraska Statewide Arboretum for the work he has done on climate and soil conditions.

Many people see arboretums as simply an aesthetic place with pretty trees. "I'd guess you'd say they can't see the forest for all the trees," said Maier. He explained that while arbors certainly provide pleasant settings, there is usually much more going on behind the scenery.

The Wayne State Main Campus and adjacent Nature Center, which together make up the Wayne State Arboretum, is a prime example of the multiple roles for arboretums, explains Maier. It is both a teaching and research facility in addition to providing a nature center for wildlife habitat and study, fitness trail, interpretive displays and nursery propagation of landscaping stock for replacement of aging trees on campus.

Maier is carefully nurturing new weeping willow trees in the arboretum propagation area which are being raised from cuttings off the original trees in the Willow Bowl on campus. The younger trees will ultimately be transplanted as replacements for the aging willows which are slowly dying in the college's picturesque landmark.

As an example of the research work done at the arboretum, Maier explains that each year the statewide arboretum distributes plant seedlings to the different sites around the state to determine their hardiness and horticultural characteristics.

"Over the years we have tried quite a few, where we have kind of stretched the limits of their range," said Maier of the planting tests in Northeast Nebraska. He cited a test planting of grand fir trees four years ago. He planted 96 of the young firs from the Pacific Northwest. Today only one of the trees, which grow up to 200 feet in their natural range, is still alive on the WSC campus. After 4 years its 1 and 1/2 foot stature is anything but grand, said Maier.

Dr. Maier has been on the faculty at WSC since 1968. He earned his bachelor's degree in 1953 and master's in 1955 both from Emporia State University. He also earned a doctorate in botany from Oregon State University in 1959.

He was on the faculty at New Mexico State University from 1958 to 1968 and has assisted in field research for the University of Nebraska-Lincoln. He also has worked as a private plant pathology consultant.

In 1994 he was honored as Wayne's Outstanding Citizen for the Lavitsef festival in Norfolk. Earlier this year he was named a Melvin Jones Fellow by Lions Clubs International for his participation toward club goals.

Movie and mice leave one feeling frustrated

The Big Farmer and I went to a movie last night. Neither of us could remember the last time we were in a movie theater.

But the movie they filmed near Murdock last year is finally out. The title is now "Citizen Ruth" and it open in Los Angeles, New York and Omaha this weekend.

It's a strange feeling to see a local farm house on the big screen and to see scenes that you watched being filmed over and over actually play out.

By Pat Meierhenry

Laura Dern does do justice to the role. But it has few redeeming qualities. I felt like calling Alexander Payne and asking, "So, what's your point?" He's such a nice man and apparently a fine director; I'd like to see what he could do with a real screenplay, like "Mr. Holland's Opus."

If you haven't seen this, get hold of the video soon. It a wonderful story, with all kinds of real-life dilemmas and a glorious ending. I think I'll just concentrate on the TV Christmas specials for the rest of the month.

Obviously, we have mice in the garage. And, I'm afraid they get into my car. You all know how I feel about mice.

I brought home a loaf of my Mom's great homemade bread and forgot it in the back seat. When I retrieved it, it was obvious the little creatures had been enjoying it. So, I've been worried they might be traveling around with me.

A local farmer was parked in a shopping center, waiting for his wife, when a mouse came out from under the hood and looked in through the windshield. Lyle popped the hood and went after him with his seed corn cap. Of course, he didn't get him and passers-by were staring, so he gave up.

Driving out of town, the pesky thing again appeared at the window. Thinking he could knock him off, Lyle turned on the wipers! And the darned thing just hung on, going back and forth across the window! That's perseverance.

He did eventually give up and dropped off onto the street, but that must have been the wildest ride of his life. I'd probably run into the curb if one showed up in my car.

I'm putting Decon in the garage and hoping they get out of the car before I drive it.

MEMBERS SOUGHT

Four new board members are being sought from the Wakefield area to serve on the Board of Directors of the Wakefield Family Resource Center.

The Resource Center is a non-profit organization that manages the former high school facility which houses the Wakefield Senior Center, Humpty Dumpty Day Care and Pre-School, Club Challenge school age program and the Fitness Center.

New members will be the place of Pastor Chris Reed, who is moving away from the community, Kathy Skinner, Randy Lanning and Coleen Bressler.

Volunteers are also needed for the sub-committees of Programming and Publicity, Safety, Building and Grounds, Parent Advisory Committee and Personnel Committee. Anyone interested in serving on the board or on a committee is asked to contact Kathy Loofe, Day Care Director at 287-2521 or one of the current board members.

A number of projects have completed in 1996 including the offering of a hot lunch at the day care center, graveling the playground area, a Clean-up Day and the repair of four furnaces and installation of an exhaust vented through the roof to reduce carbon monoxide in the ceiling.

VFW AUXILIARY

The Veterans of Foreign Wars Post and Auxiliary of Wakefield celebrated the 50th anniversary of its charter on Nov. 12 with 26 auxiliary and post members present.

Angie Blatter, secretary of the auxiliary, was in charge of the guest book and read communications from District III President Clarice Holm of Harrington, Esther Graffis and Eileen Cisney.

Auxiliary President Alice Johnson welcomed the guests and Commander Alvin Sundell expressed congratulations and best wishes for the post.

Elaine Hol, a charter member, presented a history of the auxiliary. Thirteen signed the original charter. Other continuous members are Mary Alice Utecht and Vivian Hugelman.

One of the auxiliary's annual events is the Appreciation Tea for the school faculty and staff which was started in 1957. Since 1953 the group has participated in the Flag Raising on the first day of school.

Over the years the auxiliary has furnished flags for the school and the Wakefield Health Care Center. They also presented ESU a flag for the dedication of its new facility.

ACTING AWARD

Jason Thiel received recognition for his outstanding performance in "Stark Drama," during the Conference One-Act Play contest held in Osmond on Nov. 25.

Wakefield placed second overall in the contest, scoring 57 out of a possible 60 points. Wynot received top honors in the competition.

LUTHERAN WOMEN

The women of the ELCA of Salem Lutheran Church held their annual Christmas luncheon on Dec. 7 at 12:30 p.m. in the church basement.

The candle light dinner was served by the seventh and eighth grade girls and catered by the Niemans. After the meal Barb and Bill Brazie were recognized for their job as custodians of the church.

An Advent service entitled "How Far to Bethlehem" was given by Circle III. The program showed how to prepare for the "journey to Bethlehem." Christmas carols were sung by the group, a duet "Star of the East" was sung by Mardell Holm and Gloria Oberg.

Officer for 1997 were installed by Pastor Mark Wilms. They are Ester Oberg, president; Marje Johnson, vice-president; Emily Gustafson, secretary; Marian Christensen, treasurer; Janice Newton, program chairman; Ruth Boeckenhauer, membership committee; and Ruth Johnson and Ardeth Utecht, Christian action.

Mae Greve, outgoing president and Shirley Woodward, outgoing secretary, were recognized for each having served eight years.

THIRD PLACE

The Wakefield High School drama group placed third in the District One Act Play contest hosted by Randolph on Dec. 7. Jason Thiel received an Outstanding Performance award.

First place went to host school, Randolph and Harrington was second. Other schools competing were Winside Homer, Ponca, Emerson and Osmond.

Cast and crew members included Chad Mackling, Kristin Preston, Jamie Hickson, Austin Lueth, Jenny Haglund, Jon Ulrich, B.J. Hansen, Jared Baker, Kristin Brudigam, Bree Oswald, Katie Hoffman, Barndon Kai and Eric Beacom. The play was directed by Jeanne Witwerding.

ARTIST OF THE MONTH

Kirby Mousel, art instructor at Wakefield School, honored several of his students with the designation of Artist of the Month for November.

Those recognized for their artistic efforts were Ben Henderson, Jamie Barge, Samantha Peterson, Wes Erickson, Katie Surface, Jenna Paulson, Kellie Larson, Jessica Schroeder, Titus Nelson, Thao Tran, Jesse Dierkson, Austin Lueth, Justin Mackling, Kevin Johnson, Lance Jacobsen, Regina Dutcher, Alex Anderson and Parker Dolen.

GARDEN CLUB

The Hoskins Garden Club met at the home of Lorraine Wesely on Dec. 12.

President Esther Rechtermann conducted a short business meeting and the hostess' favorite Christmas song, "Silent Night" was sung.

The officers will meet to compile new year books. Donations were made to the Warren, Tiedike and Harvey Faith funds.

All members contributed to a program of Christmas Trivia, poems and stories. A gift exchange was held and coffee and cookies were served at the close of the afternoon.

The watchword for the day was "The way you spend Christmas is far more important than how much you spend."

The next meeting will be with Esther Rechtermann on Jan. 23, 1997.

A-TEEN

Ten members of the A-Teen

Club met at the Country Inn in Norfolk for a Dutch Lunch and party on Dec. 11. Donna Kruger was in charge of arrangements.

President Arlene Fleer conducted a short business meeting during which members voted to retain the same officers for the 1997 year. They include Arlene Fleer, president; Delilah Gosch, vice-president; Jane Fleer, secretary-treasurer and news reporter; and Yvonne Wittler, music leader.

The program for each meeting in 1997 will be chosen by the hostess and she will make all arrangements. Yvonne Wittler led in singing several Christmas songs. The entertainment for the afternoon was 10-point pitch. Prizes were won by Elaine Ehlers, Delilah Gosch and Yvonne Wittler.

A gift exchange was held and hostess Donna Kruger served pie and coffee at the close of the meeting.

The next meeting will be March 12, 1997 with Iva Robinson as hostess.

SENIORS

The Hoskins Seniors met at the firehall Dec. 10.

The afternoon was spent playing 10-point pitch, with prizes going to Ann Nathan, Nona Wittler and Arnold Wittler.

Mary Jochens was coffee chairman. Lucille Krause served ice cream for her birthday and was honored with the birthday song.

The next meeting will be Tuesday, Jan. 7, 1997 with Lucille Krause in charge of arrangements.

20TH CENTURY CLUB

The 20th Century met at the home of Miriam Willers on Dec. 10 for a no-host Christmas dinner.

President Marguerite Wagner conducted a short meeting and members packed Cheer boxes to be delivered in the area.

A gift exchange was held and secret pals were revealed.

The club will not meet in January or February.

The next meeting will be at the Country Kitchen with a 9:30 brunch on Tuesday, March 11.

Outdoor cooking lesson

Club Challenge, a program for school-age youth, lets youth explore topics such as Outdoor Cooking taught by Rod Patent and Amy Malchow from the UN-L Extension Office. Club Challenge is one of the programs offered by the Wakefield Family Resource Center. With Rod Patent are Kara Cruickshank and Club Challenge coordinator Amy Swalve of Wakefield.

Carroll News

SENIOR CITIZENS

Senior citizens in Carroll spent the afternoon of Dec. 16 playing cards, following by a Christmas party.

Brownie Scouts, under the leadership of Anita and Pat Bethune, sang several Christmas carols and brought cookies.

Merlin Jenkins brought gifts for each person and candy sacks were passed out by the fire department.

The birthday song was sung for Mrs. Perry Johnson and a cooperative lunch was served.

CHRISTMAS PROGRAM

St. Paul's Lutheran Children's Christmas program will be Sunday at 7:30 p.m.

AAL will furnish refreshments following the program.

annual pot luck Christmas dinner. Trinity school children and teachers were guest.

Following the meal, the children presented a musical program of songs, piano selections and other instrumental selections.

Roll call was a Biblical Christmas verse. Cheer boxes will be distributed and the Visiting committee for December will be made up of Lucille Marten, and Robyn Nelson who will send cards to church visitors.

Monetary gifts were designated for the African Medical Mission; the NEHLS Auxiliary; Teachers, Teacher's Aids and custodians. The 1997 year books were distributed and reviewed.

There will be no meeting in January and the next meeting will be Feb. 6 in the school library.

DORCAS SOCIETY

The Peace Dorcas Society met Dec. 5 for its annual no-host Christmas dinner with 17 members, 12 guests and Pastor Belt present. Roll call was a scripture verse.

President Lorraine Wesely thanked all who helped with the congregational Thanksgiving dinner. Several members attended the Guest Day at the Winside Methodist Church.

The birthday song was sung for Laura Bauermeister and Adeline Anderson. Six Christmas cards were sent. Frances Walker and Evelyn Langenberg served on the decorating committee.

Adeline Anderson presented a program on "Angels" with everyone taking part. Several Christmas carols were sung. A gift exchange was held and coffee, cookies and candy served.

The next meeting will be Jan. 2, 1997.

Nov. 24 afternoon guests in the LaVerde and Kathy Miller home for Jessica's 16th and Brady's 5th birthday were Robert Thomas and Mitch and Brenda Hokamp, Kalynda, Blaire and Blake of Randolph; Ella Miller of Winside; Tammy Paustian, Joe, Jeff and Jacob and Paul and Brenda Roberts, Andy, Jared and Audrey of Carroll; Kyle Miller, Eric and Brooke of Laurel; Jean Fulton and Josh and Phyllis Cleveland and Cody of Norfolk; and Hilda Thomas, Vernon and Lois Miller, Hoodie and Cindy Krause and Becky and Brent Miller, all of Hoskins.

Thanksgiving dinner guests in the Harold and Pat Brudigan home were Larry and Barb Colhour, Jacquelyn and Shawn of Central City, Iowa; Jill Brudigan of Yankton, S.D.; John and Phyllis Kucera, John Brudigan and Jane Klausen, K.C., Susan and Shalae, all of Norfolk; and Joan Brudigan of Hoskins.

Use of college services is key to getting good job

Students who identify a career goal early on and utilize their school's career services centers are more likely to find a good job after graduation, according to recent studies of graduating seniors and graduates who have begun working.

The Wayne State College Career Services Office encourages students to begin their career planning efforts early, even as freshmen and sophomores, said Deryl Lawrence, director.

"Studies show that the earlier a student begins to prepare for the job market and the better use he or she makes of the career planning and career services centers on campus, the more likely one will find a good job after graduation," said Lawrence.

"Doing well academically is very important, but the sharp job-hunter will learn that other elements of preparation are also important in becoming successful at entering the world of work and prospering in it," he said.

Getting relevant work experience, becoming involved in campus activities and organizations, becoming computer literate, perfecting communication skills, learning the right way to write a resume and learning how to market oneself are all important aspects of landing that first good job, the career services director said.

Besides these factors, job searchers should practice, practice, practice for informational and job selection interviews, advised

Lawrence. WSC provides services to assist students and graduates in bridging the gap between higher education and the world of work. Lawrence said students, from the time they enroll as freshmen or transfer students until they graduate, should be utilizing the varied services offered by his office.

He cited a survey recently released by the National Association of Colleges and Employers that shows over 70 percent of the graduating seniors have a clear idea of the type of work they'd like after graduation and that 97 percent thought the career services provided through their schools should start during the freshman and sophomore years.

Personal goal setting, interest inventories, group sessions, and more are offered to help students focus on a career area. The Cooperative Education staff within the Career Services office, works hard to help upper level students gain work experience in their chosen field and to earn some spending money or tuition assistance funding at the same time.

Placement personnel help seniors and alumni make the connections necessary to embark on a full-time career at graduation or thereafter.

Workshops and personal assistance programs are offered, and an extensive "mini-library" of resources is available. These services may be accessed by any student regardless of class standing.

Currently the Career Services office is offering each non-education senior a copy of the 1997 edition of Planning Job Choices, published by the National Association of Colleges and Employers. More than 1.2 million copies of the publication are used each year by students and alumni looking for jobs.

Planning Job Choices is the "how-to" guide with articles explaining the job search process and development of strategies.

Education seniors are welcome to pick up a copy of the 1997 Job Search Guide for Educators, published by the American Association for Employment in Education, also available at the WSC Career Services Office.

PROCEEDINGS WAYNE BOARD OF EDUCATION

December 9, 1996
The regular monthly meeting of the board of education was held in room 209 at the high school on Monday, December 9, 1996 at 7:30 p.m. Notice of the meeting and place of agenda were published in the Wayne Herald on November 28, 1996.

Roll call was answered by: Marion Ameson, Jean Blomkamp, Sue Gilmore, Dennis Lipp and Phyllis Spethman. Will Davis arrived late. Approved minutes of the November 11 and 13, 1996 board meetings.

Approved general fund, sinking fund and depreciation account bills.
The board held an audience with the following individuals:

High school science teacher Dale Hochstein and middle school science teacher Cathy Sump demonstrated new science equipment and explained how this new technology is used in their classrooms. Connie Funk from Wayne State College explained the Partnership in Education program that involves Wayne State College and the Wayne Community Schools.

Superintendent Jensen gave updates on the following:
Facility needs
A committee to prioritize services offered by the district to develop a plan for meeting the levy limits suggested in LB1114 and make a recommendation to the board members. Sue Gilmore, Will Davis and Dennis Lipp volunteered to serve on the committee.

School finance coalition meeting. Dr. Jensen agreed to draft a letter to our parent organizations (NASB and NCSA) and the Department of Education to attempt to start a movement of uniting them together under one cause - which is not supporting legislation that will insufficiently fund public education as it is today. The board agreed that the public needs to be informed.

Highway 35 project which is to begin in February.
Innovative programs for Nebraska students.

The board gave second reading to Board Policies 1110, 1112 and 1200-1211. Moved by Ameson, seconded by Blomkamp to adopt Board Policies 1110, 1112 and 1201 through 1211. Motion carried. No nays.

Adjustments will be made to proposed Board Policy 1200 and reviewed for adoption in January.
The board gave first reading to Board Policies 1300 through 1306.

The board reviewed the Early Incentive Leave proposal and agreed to have school attorney Chris Connolly make suggested changes to the policy and have it available for approval at the January board meeting.

Went into executive session at 9:56 p.m. for the purpose of discussing personnel.
Came out of executive session at 11:38 p.m.

FFA CONTEST

Three students from Allen competed in the District FFA Leadership Contest at Wisner on Dec. 3. Mindy Plueger received a red ribbon in Extemporaneous Speaking, Kelly Fendrick received a blue in Employment Skills and Jessica Bock received a blue in FFA Creed speaking.

ADDRESSES NEEDED

Please send your alumni address corrections and news for the next Allen Update newsletter to Kathy Boswell, P.O. Box 8, Allen, Neb. 68710 as soon as possible. The newsletter is sent to alumni twice each year to keep them connected to Allen.

STREET DECORATIONS

New Christmas street decorations are in place on the business district light poles thanks in part to Rob Bock who happened to read in a League of Municipalities newsletter that Central City had their old decorations available for some other town. Allen was able to obtain green wreaths with bells and lanterns in the centers at no cost.

SANTA'S VISIT

Santa's visit to the village the annual Christmas drawing will be Saturday. Santa will be at the Mini Mall at 1:30 p.m. and the drawing will be at 2 p.m. St. Paul Lutheran Church will hold its annual bake sale from 9 a.m. to 2 p.m. at the Village Inn. Coffee, pie and rolls will also be served.

HISTORICAL SOCIETY

The Dixon County Historical Society is hosting an open house at the museum school house from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. on Saturday. The school house will be decorated by Allen's Preschool, Daycare and elementary students. Apple cider will be served. The public is invited to stop by and reminisce about country school days.

LIBRARY OPEN

Springbranch Township Library in Allen will be open Saturday afternoon for coffee and cookies. The Senior Center will be serving coffee and rolls.

CHRISTMAS VACATION

School Christmas vacation lasts

a full two weeks this school year. Classes dismiss at 3:35 on Dec. 20 and resume at 8:15 a.m. on Jan. 6, 1997.

CALENDARS AVAILABLE

Community 1997 Birthday calendars are available from the school band students for $6.

ADDRESS OFFERED

The Allen community has received the address of former Allen residents Eldon and Erma Duran. Both are in poor health and would appreciate correspondence from home. Cards and letters can be sent to 203 N. Second Street, Clearfield, Pa. 16830
