Al Ehlers who lives at 1.20 West Ninth Street said that he was concerned with the noise that would be created with dormitory-style living in the neighborhood.

"I am also worried about what will happen to the resale value of my home. This is still a dorm with single people and single people have different interests than those of the home owners in the neighborhood," Ehlers said.

"The council needs to look at citizens of Wayne and protect the values of these people," he

Natural Gas prices drop despite cold weather

The colder than normal winter weather continues to the northeast Nebraska. However, the prices paid for natural gas supplies have peaked and February prices are declining.

The heating degree days for this winter season continue to be higher than last year and higher compared to normal, yet the national market place is returning to more normal natural gas prices for this time of year. February prices have dropped to more than 25 percent below January pricing.

"Many bills received in February will reflect the colder than normal waither and the higher than normal gas prices from January," said Scott Zaruba, customer service director for People's Natural Gas. "The good news for our customers is the February bills should be lower than the previous month."

Zaruba added, "The gas supply portion of the customers' bills is the actual cost of the natural gas commodity purchased on the national market. Peoples does not benefit from higher or lower gas prices and customers pay the actual cost of the natural gas."

Peoples assists customer who are experiencing difficulty paying the higher than usual heating bills," Zaruba said.

Among the topics of discussion were the Middle School playground and where it is to be located.

Since the Middle School students have been moved into the modules near the high school a cement slab is being considered to be put down with a basketball court and two teather ball poles.

The proposed play area would be long-term since Middle School students could use it for as long as the Middle School is-located near the high school and if it is ever moved, elementary students could also use the play ground facilities.

One such bill proposed in this year's legislature is to reduce the number of school districts in the state nearly in half.

. That doesn't mean this bill will pass but it does mean it is on the minds of many which puts the question of consolidation on the minds of many.

The Wayne Board in taking a proactive stance, decided to have board president Phyllis Spethman and one other member talk with school boards around the area in the next several weeks to get feedback on what they are thinking about the future and if such legislation is ever passed.

Nebraska currently has the fifth largest number of school districts in

"If we do nothing at all, we will be letting the legislature dictate to us what to do on issues such as consolidation efforts," board member Marion Arneson said. "We need to be proactive and I think this board recognizes that and is doing so."

Arneson said it's important for people to note that this is simply in the discussion phase at this time.

"We need to get some feedback from area schools on how they plan on dealing with restrictions in spending limits and other general cutbacks put on by the legislature," Arneson added.

What did you say, Senator?

According to the Omaha World Herald, Sen. Bob Kerrey and former Sen. J.J. Exon told their fellow Democrats at the Saturday Truman Dinner in Omaha that the Nebraska Republican Party was in the grip of the religious right. Exon is quoted as saying that if President Harry Truman were alive today he would tell the Christian Coalition to "go to hell." He reportedly expressed his belief that the religious groups are out of step with most Nebraskans, regardless of party.

C. David Kotok of the Omaha paper quotes Exon as saying "The Christian right, whether they admit it or not, are in fullscale assault through the instrumentality of the Republican Party to harm the public education system of the state of Nebraska. It's time we Democrats said `No way.'"

On Monday, Doug Patton, executive director of the Nebraska Christian Coalition, calling Exon's comments "demeaning and insulting", questioned "Who does he think the Christian Coalition is?" Then explained "It is hard-working, tax-paying, church-going Nebraskans who believe they have a right to a Exon reportedly said the mix of religion and politics "makes me uncomfortable.".

The retired Senator appears to take the stand that people of faith have become too involved in school board elections and certain school issues to the detriment of the schools.

Capitol News —

'Who are all these young guys?'

Statehouse Correspondent The Nebraska Press Association

Recently, a veteran statehouse porter — one who measures his Capitol experience in decades, not years —turned to the person sitting next to him in the Supreme Court Room and asked "Who are all these young guys?"

He was talking about the new judges of the Supreme Court. They all look alike to me," the

The confusion is understandable, even for a veteran reporter. After all, the traditionally slowchanging court has undergone almost a complete turnover since Gov. Nelson took office.

Only two of the seven judges serving today were on the court in 1991. And the other five —talk about new blood. Although all were respected private-practice attorneys, not one had any judicial experience before 1992. They are young, at least as far as Supreme Court judges go. They range in age from John Gerrard's 42 to William Connolly's 59. They ve brought the average age of the court down from 66 in 1991 to 57 today.

The latest two appointees, announced in late January, are Ken Stephan of Lincoln, 50, and Michael McCormack of Omaha,

What difference will a young, private practice-oriented court make to Nebraska's court system? Some might predict that the new court might be less deferential to lower court rulings and less forgiving of lower-court mistakes. It might be more sympathetic to the pressures faced by private-practice attorneys.

But not necessarily so — after degree murder retrials were former trial court judges. Lower court judges complained about the Supreme Court's decision, calling it legislating from the bench. The high court majority didn't seem particularly sympathetic to the trial judges' viewpoint.

As presidents and governors know, there are no guarantees about how judicial appointees will perform once they enter the secluded halls of the judiciary. You simply can't make assumptions based upon simple political ideol-

Nonetheless, lawyers and political observers predict signifi-cant change ahead from the Ne braska Supreme Court. They predict a coalition led by Gerrard (formerly from Norfolk), Connolly (formerly from Hastings) and Wright (formerly from Scottsbluff), will overturn at least two of the court's most controversial rulings of the past five years.

They include the second-degree murder series of rulings and another series of rulings that broadened the circumstances when lawyers must be disqualified from handling a case.

Was this Gov. Nelson's plan?

He's not talking. He says he doesn't have a litmus test on issues for judicial candidates. He just wants strong advocates who can work well with their colleagues on the bench, he says. But he also insists that he doesn't want judges who will legislate from the bench, and he points to the second-degree murder ruling and the property tax rulings of the early 1990s examples of judicial legislation. Nelson clearly will have more influence on the judiciary than any governor in the 20th Century. Today, 55 of Nebraska's 136 existing judges are Nelson appointees. That's 40 percent. He could conceivably appoint half of Nebraska's judges by the time he leaves office in 1998.

True, some of Nelson's influence comes through factors be-yond his control — the creation of the Nebraska Court of Appeals in 1992 and expansion of courts in Lancaster County, Douglas County and Sarpy County, gave him more judges to appoint, and can only choose from candidates who apply for the job and then pass through a screening by a judicial nominating commission

And he's had some bad luck with judges. Some of his ap-pointees have been criticized for being soft on crime Supreme Court Judge David Lan phier, was ousted from the bench by voters riled by several controversial rulings. It was a historical first for Nebraska.

Nelson calls his judicial appointments a legacy for the fu-ture. It is undeniable that his influênce on Nebraska's courts will reverberate for years to come.

The views expressed in Capitol News are those of the writer and not necessarily those of the Nebraska Press Association.

Heart disease is the number one killer in America today

Dear Editor, Heart disease is the Number 1 killer in America today. Last year 954,000 Americans lost their lives to cardiovascular disease, including lives right here in Wayne County.

Lack of physical activity has now been clearly shown to be a risk factor for heart disease. Scientists have also shown that regular exercise can help reduce blood pressure and body weight which may help reduce the risk of heart disease and stroke. Yet, alarm-ingly, only 22 percent of American adults get enough leisure time exercise to achieve cardiovascular

Jim and Kelly Wozny stand in front of Winside Lockers which they purchased from Ray and Judy Jacobsen.

Wozneys are new owners of Winside Lockers

After 21 years of ownership, Ray's Locker in Winside is under new management.

Former owners Ray and Judy Jacobsen turned over the keys to Jim and Kelly Wozny last November. The Wozny's are now calling the business Winside

"At this time we're not planning any major changes," Jim said, "except that we have ordered a new outside sign."

Although Jim has had over eight years of experience in the meat business, the Wozny's said they got broken in really fast.

"We purchased the business iust two days before deer season started. Ray's Locker has been well known by hunters for its deer processing so we did 130 deer between November and Christmas,

WSC men assume the role of the cardiac kids with pair of overtime road victories

The Wayne State men's basketball team went on the road for a pair of contests last Saturday and Tuesday and Greg McDermott's troops notched major wins over Denver University and Nebraska-Kearney with both games going to overtime before a winner was determined.

At Denver on Saturday, WSC found themselves trailing by 13 points at the half and down 14 in the second stanza before they ralfied for an 89-86 overtime win

"I thought the key to this game was rebounding," McDermott said. -"We out-rebounded a much bigger team by 10 which led to numerous second chance points.

McDermott said even when his team went into the locker room at the intermission with a 13-point deficit staring at them, they felt confident they could come from behind to get the win.

"We never gave up on ourselves," McDermott added. "Tyler Johnson got hot late in the game and we just rode on his back through the over-noints in lead WSC to the win. He drained six, 3-pointers in the second half and scored 11 of WSC's 17 points in overtime

Craig Philipp finished with 16 points and Jason Diaz tallied 14 while Jon Dolliver finished in double figures with 11

The 'Cats overcame a hot-shooting performance from Denver who connected 52 percent of its shots from the floor while WSC was 29-78

WSC's rebounding advantage was 49-39 with Dolliver hauling down a team-high nine caroms while Tyler Johnson and Fric Henderson had eight rebounds

Johnson dished out a team high six assists and WSC managed to play 45 minutes of basketball with just eight turnovers while forcing

TUESDAY IN KEARNEY, WSC handed the Lopers their second loss of the season in as many outings with the 'Cats, 95-92 in overtime

UNK led by as many as nine points in the second half but WSC went on a 9-2 scoring run to pull with in one point at 71-70 with 3:44 left in regulation.

Jason Diaz hit a three-pointer with 4 seconds left to give the 'Cats' their only lead in the second half at 82-81 but UNK's Greg Hain hit one of two free throws to tie the game and send it to overtime

WSC's win at the UNK Health and Sports Center snapped the Lopers 14-game home win streak.

"We executed very well the last three minutes of the game and in the overtime," McDermott said. "Again it was a situation that we felt that we could come from behind to win and the guys really stepped up and delivered. This was a great team effort with a lot of people providing big plays."

The 'Cats bench out-scored the host Lopers 30-6 in the contest led by Diaz who poured in 20.

The 14-7 'Cats were led by Craig Philipp with 25 while Tyler Johnson finished with 19 and Mike Fitzner, 17 as four players tallied double fig

WSC finished the game hitting 50

ercent of its shots from the floor (37-74) while hitting 12-of-16 from the foul line. UNK was 33-74 from the field for 44 percent and the Lopers connected on 21-of-28 free throw attempts.

Monday the 'Cats host Briar Cliff and Wednesday they play host to Northern State, Next Saturday WSC remains at home to play Minnesota-Morris and the final home game of the year will be on the 24th against Westmar

"This will be a big week for our program," McDermott said. "All five of these games are at home and we really need the fan support to help us get some big wins

WSC has currently won three straight road games and are on a four-game win streak as the month of February remains perfect. The last loss was Jan. 29th at Morris, Minnesota. The 'Cats will be seeking to close out the season with five more home victories to stretch the already 16-game home win_streak.

WSC's Tyler Johnson earns MVP status

WSC's victories over Southwest State and Denver University

WAYNE-Wayne State men's basketball standout Tyler Johnson has been tabbed the NCAA-II Player of the Week for his performances in Against Southwest State, Johnson scored 18 points and dished out four assists in the 'Cats 80-73 win. He also hit a three-point basket with 2.27 left in the game to give WSC the lead for good.

Last Saturday in Denver, Johnson recorded career highs with 33 poemts and eight rebounds to go along with six assists as the 'Cats rail hed from 14 points down in the second half to post the overtime win, 89-86. Johnson scored 24 points after halftme, including 11 of WSC's 17 points in overtime. His point total including six, 3-pointers in the second half and overtime period.

For the week Johnson averaged 25.5 points, 4.5 rebounds and five assists. He shot 56.7 percent from the field and was 7.8 from the Blue Devils lose to O'Neill and Schuyler but defeat Elkhorn Valley Wayne boys win one of three ball team went 1-2 in the last week to leave the Blue Devils with a 11-5 record with just three regular season games remaining on the schedule before districts get underway. Wayne lost to fifth-ranked O'Neill last Thursday night at home, 66-53 before downing Elkhorn Valley on Saturday in Tilden, 65-60.

Tuesday in a make-up contest in Schuyler the Blue Devils lost, 76-65 to the Class B Warriogs.

Beginning with last Thursday's contest, Wayne led O'Neill by one at the intermission, 28-27 but the Blue Devils had a stretch of nearly four minutes midway through the second quarter where they didn't score a point after Paul Blomenkamp went to the bench with his third foul

That allowed O'Neill to rally and gain confidence at the intermission. In the third quarter it took the host team nearly three-and-a-half minutes to score as O'Neill raced past them to garner a 41-36 lead after three quarters of play.

In the final stanza it was a combination of Wayne not making the shots and O'Neill not missing as the visitors went on a rampage led by Wade Brosz who tallied 24 of his game-high 28 points in the second

Wayne finished the contest hitting just 33 percent of its shots from the floor while O'Neill left the visitors gym having made 56 percent of its shots.

As if not making shots on your home court wasn't enough the Blue Devils were also very poor from the charity stripe, hitting just nine free throws in 21 attempts while O'Neill was 15,20.

Wayne was led in scoring by Paul Blomenkamp with 17 points while Justin Thede added 14 and Paul Zułkosky, nine.

Paul Zulkosky drives in for a lay-up after stealing the ball from an O'Neill during defender. Wayne lost to the fifth-29 despite a dozen caroms by Blomenkamp. He also blocked four shots.

At Tilden on Saturday against Elkhorn Valley the Blue Devils got a season-best offensive outing from Justin Thede who drained the nets for 29 points with an 11-15 performance from the field and 7-10 from the free throw line.

Wayne jumped out to a 13-5 lead after the first quarter but the host team scored 23, second quarter points to close the Blue Devil gap to just two points by intermission at 30-28. b

Wayne went on another scoring run in the third quarter to build the lead back to double digits at 46-35

Elkhorn Valley attempted to rally in the fourth quarter and had the lead down to four points before falling by five, 65-60.

Once again, average free throw shooting could have doomed Wayne but Elkhorn Valley didn't capitalize from the line either.

Wayne was 13-25 from the charity stripe for 52 percent with the hosts hitting 14-25 for 56 percent. Ryan Dahl also finished in double figures for Wayne with a dozen with Kurtis Keller scoring nine. Paul Blomenkamp was held far below his season average with seven.

Wayne edged Elkhorn Valley on the boards, 25-21 with Blomenkamp leading the winners with seven while Dahl had five.

The 6-6 senior Blomenkamp dished out a team-high four assists and notched six steals

TUESDAY IN SCHUYLER the Blue Devils fell behind 17-12 after the first quarter but closed that gap to three points by third quarter's end

The Blue Devils were out-rebounded 34-26 despite a 17performance Blomenkamp.

Wayne committed 14 turnovers while Schuyler had just eight and the Blue Devils connected on 12-of-16 free throw attempts while the host team was 18-25.

Wayne will travel to play Madison on Friday before hosting Logan View on Saturday in the season's final home contest.

The regular season will close out next weekend as Wayne travels to play Pierce before the sub-district tournament begins in Laurel on the 25th of February. At this time it appears the Blue Devils will be playing Crofton in the first round of subdistricts as the second seed while top seed and top-ranked Hartington Cedar Catholic plays fourth seed West Point.

Winside grapplers place runner-up at Clearwater Invite Despite competing in the Clearwater Invitational with a less than full-team, Winside came away with the runner-up trophy after scoring 134 points.

Winside sent 10 to the meet with just seven of those being regular varsity wrestlers while three reserves filled out the team's roster due to injuries and illness that affected the Wildcats.

Howells won the team title with 183 points and Newman Grove finished behind Winside in third with 120. Pope John followed with 95.5 and Osmond rounded out the top five teams with 84.5.

Plainview, Humphrey St. Francis, Elgin/Petersburg, Creighton JV's, Elkhorn Valley JV's and Clearwater rounded out the field of teams in order.

All seven of Winside's varsity grapplers brought home medals with Justin Bowers (125), Robert Wittler (135) and Shaun Magwire (171) placing first.

Runner-up medal winners included Jeremy Jaeger (112), Jeff Jacobsen (119) and Levi Trautman (160) with Steve Rabe (130) placing

"It was a rough week for us," coach Paul Sok said. "But I thought our kids responded well. All in all I felt we wrestled fairly well. Shaun Magwire rebounded from last week's losses to the number two ranked wrestler in Class C and pinned the first ranked wrestler at 171 in Class D in Eddie Schmitt of

Sok said he hopes the injuries and illnesses will be taken care of by the weekend as the 'Cats prepare for the district tournament which will be hosted by Winside on Friday and Saturday.

"Our district is the toughest in Class.D with at least one-third of the wrestlers being rated at one time or another," Sok said. "Creighton looks real strong right now but we should match up with them in a number of weights and with some luck the numbers game shouldn't hurt us too much.

"We were definitely ready to play," Petri added. "Capturing the Conference Journament was one of our goals for the year and the girls really dominated the contest. We were able to dominate inside. We didn't give up a single offen-sive rebound in the first half and we played with great intensity."

Becky Schroeder led a group of four in double figures for Laurel with 18 while Tracy Ankeny added 16 and Sarah Ehlers, 14. Alissa Krie tallied a dozen. Laurel owned the boards with a 43-to-27 advantage led by Schroeder's 12 caroms and Krie with nine boards. Ankeny dished out a team high eight assists and notched four steals for the winners. Schroeder blocked five shots and Ankeny blocked four In the semifinal contest the Bears took a 16-10 lead after the first quarter and still had that same six point lead at the half 34-28. The second half, however, was all Laurel as they out-scored the Warriors, 38-27

"It was a close game through-out the first half," Petri said. "We built a double digit lead in the third quarter and broke open the contest at the start of the final quarter as we scored the first 10 points to increase the lead to 21. Jessie Erwin keyed that stretch in the fourth quarter with a pair of three's and a regular hoop." Once again the Bears had four players in double figures led by Becky Schroeder with 20 points and Tracy Ankeny with 15. Jessie Erwin netted 13 and Alissa Krie, Ş.

The Bears owned the boards, 30-17 led by Schroeders 15-rebound performance. The 18-1 Bears will host a pair of games on Thursday and Friday against Wisner-Pilger and Neligh-Oakdale to round out the regular season. Laurel had 15 turnovers while Plainview had just nine. Kvols dished out a game-high 12 assists and he notched three steals while Bose also added five blocked shots to a very complete game.

In the consolation game against Crofton the Bears took a 33-29 halftime lead and used a 17-10 third quarter scoring burst to push the lead to double digits where it remained the rest of the way.

Five Laurel players finished in double figures led by Jim Quist with 12 (all on three-pointers). Travis Stingley, Andy Bose and Vince Ward each scored 11 and Ryan Kyols added 10 to a wellbalanced attack that netted the Bears their 10th win of the season against six losses.

Laurel doubled the rebound output of Crofton, 32-16 led by Kvols with eight while Bose had seven, Ward, five and Stingley, four. Kvols nearly finished the game with a triple-double as he dished out 11 assists to go along with 10 points and eight boards.

Wayne State inks 19 football players

A total of 19 players have committed to play football at Wayne State College for the 1997 season, WSC head football coach

Revin Haslam announced today.
This year's recruiting class includes 17 high school players, one junior college transfer and one four-year college transfer.

The area of emphasis this recruiting season was on linemen, including four along the offensive line and five for the defensive line. The remainder of the class consists of three wide receivers, three linebackers, one running back, one defensive back, one quarterback and a punter.

This was an outstanding recruiting season for us," said Haslam. "We placed an emphasis on both lines and we feel we signed some quality players at those positions. Our second concern was to build some depth at some areas and we feel we did that."

Headlining the recruiting class are the transfers. They include defensive fineman Jason Braun (Villa Park, Calif.), who comes to the Wildcats after an All-American career at Saddleback College. He will have two seasons of eligibility with the Wildcats. Meanwhile, wide receiver Shon King (San Diego, Calif.) transfers to Wayne State after playing at Missouri Western State College in 1995. Currently enrolled in classes at WSC, King has one season of WSC, King has one season or eligibility remaining. According to Haslam, who begins his first season as the Wildcat mentor this fall after serving as the team's offensive coordinator 1996 anticipates early dividends from his

"We are expecting our transfers "We are expecting on manager," to make an immediate impact," Haslam said. "We would like to redshirt all of the freshmen with the exception of the wide receivers. We want to get them some playing time because next year we take a serious hit there and we want them to have some éxperience.

Last year Wayne State posted a 3-7 record, but the Wildcats featured one of the top offenses in the NCAA Division II ranks. Wayne State finished the season second in the nation in passing offense, averaging 364.2 yards per game, and third in total offense with a 491.3 yards per game

The Wildcats' 65.4 completion percentage was the best among the top 30 teams ranked in total offense. In each of the past four seasons, Wayne State has ranked among the top five teams in the country in total offense.

WSC inks volleyball standout

WAYNE—Elkhorn High School volleyball standout Kristin Wegner signed a national letter of intent to play volleyball and attend school at Wayne State College according to WSC head coach Sharon Vanis.

Wegner, a 5-11 outside hitter/middle hitter, recorded 180 kills, 150 digs and 40 blocks this past season in helping Elkhorn to a 20-7 record and a berth in the Class B State Tournament. She earned first team All-Eastern Midlands Conference honors, as well as second team all-state recognition by the Lincoln Journal-Star.

"Kristin comes from a program that has experienced continued success throughout the years," Vanis said. "That success has developed Kristin into a very talented athlete with a competitive drive that should impact our program. I look for Kristin to see a great deal of action her

WSC track teams compete in Kearney

WAYNE —Despite having nearly half of the team sick, the Wayne State College track and field teams performed well at the Charlie Foster Invitational in Kearney last Saturday.

The women's 4x800 meter relay team of Kathy Dalton, Michelle Baatz, Stefanie Senn and Marsha Krienke lowered the school record by nearly 10 seconds, placing fifth in a time of 10:20.3.

"I had hoped for around 10:10," coach Brian Kavanaugh said. "But two of them have been sick and the other two weren't feeling all that great by the end of the meet."

Other placers for the women included Dalton, who lowered her indoor personal best for 800 meters to 2:24.8 for second overall. Krienke placed fifth in the 860 meter run in a personal best time of 2:28.9, while Senn was third in the mile run (5:27.3), and Naomi LeGrand was eighth in the 400 meter dash (64.91).

Wayne freshman boys split contests

WAYNE —Duane Blomenkamp's Wayne freshman boys basketball team split two contests in two days with a 46-37 setback to Norfolk-Catholic in Wayne on Monday and a come-from-behind 59-58 win over Schuyler, Tuesday on the road.

In Monday's game Dustin Schmeits led Wayne with 17 points while Joel Munson added nine and Daniel Johnson, 4. Ryan Hank, Jeremy Dorcey and Brandon Garvin added two each and Jason Parks scored a Tuesday in Schuyler it was the Joel Munson show as the freshman poured in 30 points including the game winner with 18 seconds to go in a 59-58 decision.

It was the first time Wayne had the lead for the entire game. Brandon Garvin scored eight for the winners and Dustin Schmeits along with John Slaybaugh and Daniel Johnson scored six each. Jason Parks added two and Adam Ellingson tallied one

The freshman will play at Madison on Thursday before playing at the Pierce Tournament, Saturday in which Wayne plays South Sioux at 10 a.m. The 6-2 Blue Devils will close out the season with a pair of games

Junior high boys fall to Laurel

WAYNE —The Wayne seventh and eighth grade boys recreation basketball teams lost to Laurel, recently with the seventh graders losing, 33-24. Brad Hochstein led Wayne with 13 points while Brad Hansen tallied eight and Jeff Pippitt, three.

The eighth grade boys lost a 35-33 overtime decision to Laurel. Jon Meyer paced Wayne with nine points and Shane Baack scored eight. Eric McLagan finished with seven while Anthony Sump and Trevor Wright added three each. Ethan Mann finished with two and Ben Meyer, one.

Winside girls fall to Wynot

WINSIDE—Lisa Schroeder's Winside girls basketball team lost to Wynot, Tuesday in Wynot, 60-50. Despite the setback Schroeder was pleased with her team's effort, especially in the fourth quarter. "We were down, by 17 in the fourth and fought back to cut the lead to four, Schroeder said. "Then we were forced to foul which resulted in a 10point difference in the outcome."

The wildcats gave up 20 offensive boards which was another major factor in the outcome. "Overall we played well," Schroeder said. "We had a season low 14 turnovers and season high 20 assists."

Amy Riley led Winside with 12 points while Sara Marotz scored nine. Stacy Wittler netted eight and Jess Miller, seven while Mindy Janke and Mandi Topp tallied five each. Nicole Mohr and Kelly Nathan each scored

Mohr and Miller each had eight rebounds to lead the team with Miller also blocking six shots while Riley and Wittler each dehed out five assists

WAYNE STATE COLLEGE

Oboist is guest faculty in residence at WSC

Oboist Oscar Petty will be on the Wayne State College campus from Feb. 20 to 25 performing in a chamber recital, playing with the Northeast Nebraska Sinfonia, and engaging in workshops and informal meetings with students.

On Friday, Feb. 21, at 4 p.m., the renown performer will meet with members of the WSC student Music Education National Conference chapter and a guest chapter from another Nebraska college. The topic of this session will compare the curriculum and focus of arts-related high schools to that of public schools. At 8 p.m., in Ley Theatre, after an informal dinner with the students, Petty will listen to and critique performances by several of the student musicians.

On Sunday, Feb. 23, at 3 p.m., Petty will present a recital of Mostly African-American Chamber Music" as the final Sunday

Series event of the season.

He will be joined by flutist John Bailey from UNL and pianist Beverly Soll from WSC. The program will begin with "Incantation and Dance for Oboe and Piano" by William Grant Still, followed by "Pieta for English Horn and Piano" Pieta for English Horn and Piano by Ulysses Kay. Dr. Bailey will then perform "Dream of Naksongdae" (for flute alone) by UNL composer Randall Snyder and "The Old Men Admiring Themselves in the Water," a little tone poem inspired by a poem of W. B. Yeats, following which Petty will return to the stage for "Concerto for Oboe and Piano" by New Jersey composer Mario Lombardo.

The final work of the concert, featuring all three performers, is the set of folksongs, "Minatures for Flute, Oboe, and Piano" by William Grant Still.

The next event in Retty's Guest Faculty Residency will be a performance of Mozart's "Oboe Concerto" with the Northeast Nebraska Sinfonia, conducted by Frederick Hanna, on Tuesday, Feb.

25, at 8 p.m. in Ramsey Theatre. Petty began his musical studies at the Newark School of the Arts in New Jersey and then studied at the Mannes College of Music in New York City and the Hartt School of Music at the University of Hartford in Connecticut

He earned his Bachelor of Music degree from Montclair State University and his Masters from Rutgers University. Hailed by the press as a brilliant and captivating player, Petty has served as principal oboist of the Rome Festival Orchestra.

He was awarded a fellowship to the American Conservatory of Music at Fontainbleau, France and has also performed in Germany Switzerland, Austria, and Canada

He has performed at the New Jersey Mozart Festival and in Alice Tully Hall at Lincoln Center, Merkin Hall, and Carnegie Hall in New Bach Aria Institute and the Muir and Essex String Quartets and has worked with several notable conductors including Leonard Slatkin, Christopher Hogwood, Herbert Blomstedt, and Leonard Bernstein, with whom he worked while on fellowship at the first Los Angeles Philharmonic Institute.

He resides in New Jersey with his wife, Phyllis and is a member of the faculty of the Newark School

Flutist John Bailey is associate professor of flute and a member of the Moran Wbodwind Quintet at the University of Nebraska-tincoln School of Music. He is also principal flutist with the Lincoln Orchestra Association.

He received his undergraduate degree from Indiana University. Both his masters and doctorate were earned at Northwestern University, and he also studied at the Hochschule for Musik und darstellende Kunst in Vienna, Austria. Since 1982, he has been program annotator for the American Institute of Musical Studies in Graz, Austria where he is also co-principal flutist with the festival's orchestra.

Baily has performed as soloist with the National Symphony and the Baltimore Symphony Orchestra, and has been principal flutist with the Illinois Philharmonic, Opera Illinois, the Illinois Chamber Symphony and the Civic Orchestra of Chicago.

He has performed at the Phillips Collection, Washington, D.C.; the Chicago Public Library; Oberlin Conservatory; and in recital in Leipzig, Dresden, Vienna, and in Sans-Souci Palace in Potsdam. Most recently he performed Randall Snyder's "Flute Concepts". (premiere performance) with the Lincoln Orchestra Association Chamber Orchestra and Snyder's "Sonata for Flute and Piano with pignist Shirley Irek at the National Flute Association annual national convention in Kansas City.

An associate professor of music and director of the Center for Chinal Outreach at Wayne State Cultural Outreach at Wayne State College, pianist Beverly Soll holds bachelor and masters degrees in piano performance from the University of Illinois and a doctorate from the University of Maryland. She has performed as a chamber musician and solo pianist throughout the continental United States and in Europe. Dr. Soll is the author of published articles on the vocal music of Aaron Copland and Max Reger and the editor of a collection of operatic arias by African American composer William Grant Still.

All residency events are open to the public and are free of charge. Petty's visit to Wayne State College is sponsored by the Center for Cultural Outreach. For more information, call 375-7492.

Professor honored by TV executives

Marueen Carrigg, associate professor of communications at Wayne State College and director of the college's television studios has been honored by the National Association of Television Program Executives. She also attended the NATPE Conference Seminar in New

Her attendance at the seminar was funded by the NATPE Educational Foundation. Carrigg was one of only 15 selected from an over-whelming number of faculty applications from all over the world.

She had the opportunity to rub shoulders with the world leaders in the television and etertainment industry, to view pilot programs, to learn about trends and ask questions.

Carrigg, who has been a WSC faculty member since 1988, earned her bachelor of arts degree from Queens College in 1987 and her master of fine arts degree in television production from City University of New York (1997).

Advisors' goal to battle 'sticker shock'

Wayne State College admissions officials are delivering a lesson in economics when they visit with high school and junior college students as they travel the region this month and next.

The economics lesson involves the cost/benefits ratios of a four year college degree and the best buys available at 4-year public colleges like Wayne State.

The three admissions coun-selors at the College log thousands of miles in the spring and fall visiting prospective college stu-dents and advising them on their

This year the three said they have noted an increasing fear about the perceived cost of a college education. They call it "sticker shock."

Many students, who have heard shocking reports about rising higher education costs, might even believe they cannot afford to attend college, explains Laura Hanzl, an assistant director of admissions at the College. She said it would be tragic if students decide not to go to college because they fear the costs.

There are still great buys in higher educations and are still great buys in higher education and great finan cial assistance packages available for students, she said.

Susan Salmon, also an assistant director of admissions, cited low tuition rates at regional 4-year public colleges like Wayne State.

She said these are colleges generally have held the line against dramatic cost increases which have occurred at larger institutions. In addition, competitive financial aid offerings and a faculty that is quality-conscious and student-oriented makes Wayne State College one the remaining great buys in igher education

Sherman Petite, the third nember of the assistant director of admissions team at WSC, also outlines the financial aid opporturities available to WSC students, including the opportunity to tap into more than $12 million in fi-nancial aid that is distributed to Wayne, State students each year. Besides the economics lesson the three counselors say they de-fiver to prospective students, they also stress the quality of undergraduate education students re-ceive at Wayne State.

Just last month, a nationally-recognized specialist in higher education, Dr. Barbara Walvoord, who is a leading faculty member at Notre Dame; praised the com-mitment Wayne State faculty members have made in ensuring quality undergraduate education. Dr. Walvoord and Wayne State counselors all cite the smaller class sizes and more one-on-one faculty contact with students as prime reasons why the College is truly an educational bargain and an

College employees ratify contract

Members of the Nebraska Association of public Employees (NAPE/AFSCME) from the Nebraska state college support staff at Chadron, Peru and Wayne have ratified their first ever negotiated contract by a unanimous vote.

*This is a tremendous show of work our solidarity for the hard work our negotiating team did during November and December," said. Don Cassiday, NAPE/AFSCME staff According to Cassiday, "This was the first ever negotiated con-tract for state college support tract for state college support staff. The contract will cover over 300 state college employees in Chadron, Peru and Wayne. Our state college bargaining team worked very hard and recommended this agreement to our members.

"Our team is very pleased with the tremendous support shown by

The bargaining team was com-prised of Nancy Galubius and Merle Roeber from Wayne, Gene Peters, Theresa Cortney, Gary Daigger, Heath Tuttle and Sally Katen from Chadron and Linda Staples and Eldon Kistner from

The ratified agreement provides for three percent salary increase in each of the next two fiscal years and preserves the current leave and insurance benefits

"We also feel we made some significant improvements for support staff employees in several areas: employees will be better protected from arbitrary terminations with new language that requires "proper cause" for such actions, new layoff language that spells out better protection for senior employees, as well as improvements in the areas of health and safety," Cassiday said.

Wayne State maintains humanities connection

Wayne State College has had a long-standing and strong connection to the Nebraska Humanities Council and that relationship will continue with the election of WSC president, Dr. Donald Mash, to the state-wide board, said Jane Renner-Hood, the Council's executive vice president.

"He has been so wonderful for Northeast Nebraska, especially in promoting culture and the arts, that we are really excited about having his leadership on the coun said Renner-Hood

Mash was elected to a threeyear term on the 23-member council and will serve on its development committee and founda-tion boards as well. Mash is in his 9th year as president of Wayne State College. He has established a campus-wide commitment to make the college a regional focal point and catalyst for service--not only in education but also for the arts, cultural activities and community and economic development, pointed out Renner-Hood

The Humanities Council has a 'special partnership" with Wayne State College, explained Renner-Hood. Sayre Anderson, WSC hu manities associate professor, is currently serving on the council and Jo Taylor, vice president for academic affairs at WSC just went off the Humanities Foundation. Taylor also served as chairman of Council in 1989 and 1990.

Through the years the Lincoln-based organization has participated in many partnership projects with WSC said Renner-Hood. In its effort to promote cultural awareness and understanding throughout Nebraska, the Council administers grants for humanities programs, sponsors Chautauquas and conducts over 500 programs each year, among other efforts.

She said prime examples of the Policy Institutes held at WSC each

Wives need emotional support

Q: I'm beginning to recognize a "blind spot" in my attitude to ward my wife. I have always felt that I had done my job as a hus band if I provided adequately for my family's financial needs, and If I was faithful to her. But am I also responsible to help meet he emotional needs?

A: That's right, especially today when homemakers are being sub jected to ridicule and scorn. Hardly a day passes when values of motherhood are not mocked and under-

* The notion that motherhood is a worthwhile investment of a wom an's time suffers unrelenting bombardment.

* The concept that a man and a woman should find their identity in each other, rather than as separate and competing individuals, is said to be intolerably insulting to women.
* The belief that divorce is an unacceptable alternative has been abandoned by practically everybody.

* The role of the female as helpmate, bread baker, wound patcher love giver, home builder and child-bearer is nothing short of disgusting

All of these deeply ingrained values, which many of today's home makers are trying desperately to sustain, are continually exposed to ridi cule. And the women who believe in those values are virtually hanging by their thumbs! They are made to feel stupid and old-fashioned and unfulfilled, and in many cases, their self-esteem is suffering irreparable damage. They are fighting a sweeping social movement with very little support from anyone.

Let me say it more directly. For the man who appreciates the willing ness of his wife to stand against the tide of public opinion--staying at home in her empty neighborhood in the exclusive company of jellyfaced toddlers and strong-willed adolescents--it is about time her hus hand gave her some help

I'm not merely suggesting that you wash the dishes or sweep the floor. I'm referring to the provision of emotional support .. of building her ego . . . of sation . . . of making her feel like a lady . giving her one day of recreation each week . . . of taking her out to dinner . . . of telling her that you love her. Without these armaments, she is left defenseless against the foes of the family-the foes of your fami-

Q: I have observed that elementary school and junior high school students, even high schoolers, tend to admire teachers who are more strict. Is this your experience as well?

A! Yes, teachers who maintain order are often the most respected members of the faculty, provided they aren't mean and grouchy. A teacher who can control a class without being oppressive is almost always loved by his or her students. One reason is that there is safety and order. When a class is out of control, particularly at the ele-mentary school level, the children are afraid of each other.

If the teacher can't make the class behave, how can he prevent a bully from doing his thing? How can he keep the students from ridiculing one of their less able members? Children are not very fair and understanding with each other, and they feel good about having a strong teacher who is Second, children love justice. When someone has violated a rule. they want immediate retribution. They admire the teacher who can enforce an equitable system, and they find great comfort in reasona ble social rules. By contrast, the teacher who does not control his class inevitably allows crime to pay, violating something basic in the value

Third, children admire strict teachers because chaos is nerve-racking. Screaming, hitting and wiggling are fun for about 10 minutes; then the confusion begins to get tiresome and irritating.

I have smiled in amusement many times as second- and third-grade children astutely evaluated the relative disciplinary skills of their teach ers. They know how a class should be conducted. I only wish all of their teachers were equally aware of this important attribute

Our Savior Lutheran Church announces Lenten schedule

What does it mean to be a Christian? How would you answer these basic question? Maybe you have not given it much thought lately. You attend church, give your offerings, believe in Jesus, try to live right. But you also feel that you don't always measure up. You could be more forgiving, less judgmental, more involved.

We all struggle with what it means to be a Christian. "What Does It Mean To Be A Christian, will be the theme for Our Savior Lutheran Church's midweek Lenten worship services. A member of Our Savior will be sharing a message each week in which this question will be addressed from their own faith experience.

The schedule is Chris Jager, Personal Stewardship, Feb. 19; Tim Keller, The Church, Feb. 26; Steve

ALUMNI ADDRESSES

Iris Larson continues to work on updating the address of early year Wakefield High School alumni. After the last list was printed, she received tips on all but one name, Clara Carpenter Little who graduated in 1915.

She would also like to learn current addresses for the following from the class of 1928: Frances Johnson Grady, Florence Miner Swanson and Harold Stewart.

Class of 1929: Clarence Jonson (not sure if the spelling is correct on Jonson).

Class of 1931: Kenneth Cornelliclass of 1932: Viola Lute Skoglund; class of 1934: Virginia Anderson Brown and from the class of 1938: Vinton Huffman.

Anyone knowing the addresses of these people or who may be contacted to get the addresses should contact Iris at (402) 287-2548 or write P.O. Box 87. Wakefield, Neb. 68784. PIONEER CLUB WEEK

Bed and Breakfast should be fun time

It's 9:15 a.m. on Saturday and our guests just came down for the coffee, which means it will be close to 10 when we eat. But what's the good of staying at a Bed and Breakfast it you can't

The menu this morning is pan kucheu, German oven pancakes with fired apples and bacon along the side. Not exactly a low cholesterol meal. Again, where's the fun if you have to stick with your usual low-fat fare?

The problem is, the hosts eat the same thing! Several times a month, instead of an occasional weekend and both hosts have high cholesterol levels. High, meaning 250+.

One host is a nurse who is ahsolutely convinced that our cholesterol numbers, or even the ratio of the good lipo proteins to the bad, is not the whole answer She's seen too many folks with low numbers have heart attacks. Award winning hogs
