Council votes to refinance bonds

By Clara Ooten
Of the Herald

A proposal to amend the city code in regard to hours of public entertainment was given approval at Tuesday's Wayne City Council meeting.

Wayne Police Chief Gary Webster presented a draft which would mean that dances and other forms of public entertainment would be required by law at 10 p.m. and could not start before 10 a.m.

Webster said there would be exemptions to the ordinance such as City Recreation Department events or Post Prom activities.

Phil Lawrence of Kirkpatrick Petty explained to the council a plan to refinance the $110,000 bonds from the Lincoln Street Project.

Following his presentation, the council passed Ordinance 98-3 which authorizes the issuance of $440,600 various purpose bonds for the project. The three readings were waived on the ordinance.

Lawrence also explained to the council the benefit of refinancing and reducing other expenses as the bonds have a low interest rate and because of lower interest rates the city would save about $100,000.

The council gave its approval to the formation of a Freedom Revolution Team for the city of Wayne. The group will consist of a number of people investigating issues from the police department, Planning Commission, the Board of Health, the city attorney and Health and Human Services.

Following discussions at the last council meeting, a date was set passed regarding deposit for electric water and sewer utilities.

The deposit will now be due at the end of the month of July, August and September from the business premises owner or at a similar business.

In other action, the council set a public hearing date of March 10 at 7:15 p.m. to allow for input on a request by Gary Webster.

The council approved a one-year extension from George Jansen, Director of the Wayne Senior Center, to extend the Medicare Wheels Program in the village of Wayne.

Meals will be picked up and delivered by one or more of the 15 volunteers from Winside. Mr. Jansen told the council that there are approximately 10 people interested in receiving the meals. The program will be on a six-month trial basis and meals will be delivered two days a week.

The council approved the issuance of bonds requested by the 94-1 Advisory Committee to purchase signs and bracket for road addressing.

Dog owners were reminded A proposal to amend the city code would change the off leash fee from $1 to $2 for animals not spayed or neutered. The fee for animals who have been spayed or neutered would remain at $1.

The fee for deposits will also be increased for their service as a training partner.

City Administrator Jim Gaffey said that the current deposit of $100 is effective May 1, 1998 and is not sufficient. The council voted to raise the deposit to $100 and allow for up to 10 pieces stored per permit.

School needs discussed

By Lynn Ooten
Of the Herald

The Wayne School Board outlined its special session Monday night at the Wayne High School.

Changes to the regular agenda included upcoming school board election and the subject of long-term contracts.

Incumbency for school board election bags until March 24 file to for 2000 Blomkamp and Brumpp have filed.

On the subject of long-term contracts, the board is looking for a number of community people who they could keep informed on the subject of long-term improvements and they could help answer questions.

The board has asked for a hearing on the subject of long-term improvements and to be kept up to date on any comments.

A representative from Barbour, a communications consultant, spoke to the group on the proposed K-4 renovation.

At the top of the list of needed improvements was window replacement, condensate leak repair and lack of insulation along pipes to logic and heat to occupied areas.

Cost of long-term replacement at the present time is toward and less than a year.

After temperature control and modification for better heat control and the old boiler needs change.

Cost figure for the project is approximately $600,000-$1 million with partial improvements possible other than a total package.

This summer as a possible date of starting improvements was suggested as the prop could be finished by fall. The board plans to have a referendum by March 9.

There was a comprehensive discussion led by Dennis Chester, Director of Curriculum and Instruction at Wayne State.

Justin Bowers became Winside's 24th State Champion with a 3-1 win over Adam Kastl of East Butler in overtime. Bowers may be the only wrestler in state history to ever wrestle in the finals against three, four-time state finalists. His high school career ended with 127 wins, one shy of the record set by Max Kant.

Campaign seeks to find marrow donor

Wayne State College

The best treatment option for John and many other leukemia victims is a bone marrow transplant.

"A bone marrow transplant offers the best hope for the future," said Buoy Beaman.

However, the search for a compatible donor for John has been unsuccessful to date.

Therefore, members of the Wayne community are asking volunteers to join the National Marrow Donor Program.

On March 10, the American Red Cross Midwest Regional Blood Services will be on the Wayne State College Campus (Student Center, Nebraska Room, AWest) between the hours of 10 a.m. and 4 p.m. to provide a convenient place for volunteers to be tested.

Please consider helping someone in need, someone's mother, someone's brother, someone's friend by giving them the gift of life.

Being a bone marrow donor involves the following:

- 1) Being between the ages of 18 and 40.
- 2) Completing a preliminary health screening form (if you are not eligible as a regular blood donor you will not be eligible as a marrow donor).

3) If eligible, providing a blood sample to the American Red Cross similar to that given in a standard blood test. The cost for the test and subsequent blood typing is $80, and is tax deductible.

4) Agreeing to be listed in the National Marrow Donor Program (NMDP) Registry as a potential marrow donor for John Beaman or any other patient searching the Registry.

"We are searching for funds to help offset this cost if possible," said Eddie Ellers, who with Wayne State colleagues Paul Campbell and Bonnie Tocantin is helping with the donor campaign.

If you are interested or a potential match for a patient needing a transplant there are no fees to you.

Additional steps in the process may include more blood tests.

Providence Medical Center to provide cholesterol screening

Providence Medical Center and the Wayne County Chapter of the American Heart Association will be conducting a cholesterol and blood pressure screening program on Wednesday, March 11.

Persons wanting to have their blood or blood pressure tested can come to the hospital between the hours of 7:30 and 11:30 a.m. Blood pressure testing is provided free of charge.

The test for cholesterol screen is $10 and includes total cholesterol, HDL (good) cholesterol, LDL (bad) cholesterol, triglycerides and a calculated risk factor for heart disease.

Those involved in the screening should not eat food for 12 hours prior to the testing and should abstain from any alcoholic beverages for 24 hours. Water intake is unlimited and regularly scheduled medications should be taken.

A short questionnaire will be filled out prior to the blood being drawn by venipuncture. Participants should plan on the whole procedure taking no more than 15 minutes and should obtain their results by mail within a week.

Educational material dealing with heart health, exercise and diet will be available.

Hospital officials said they regretted the fact that this year's event will be held on a one-day-only basis this year.

We encourage for any inconvenience it may cause in scheduling, please make arrangements within our laboratory to have your cholesterol checked at any time during the month of March.

Honored Educator

Judy Shafer was named the 1998 Educator of the Year at the Annual Chamber Banquet. In presenting the award, 1997 Educator of the Year Duane Blomenshamp said he knew Shafer as a colleague, parent and friend and was impressed with her teaching strategies. Accepting the award, Shafer said, "It's weird to be honored for something you enjoy. She has been teaching English at Wayne High School for 18 years. With her it's her daughter, Beth McGrath."

Citizen of the Year

Saying that he was surprised that Bill didn't win earlier, 1997 Citizen of the Year Dr. Donald Marsh presented Bill Dickey as the 1998 Citizen of the Year during Saturday's Annual Chamber Banquet. Marsh cited the number of activities Dickey has been involved with, "generally as president." Dickey, a native of Laurel expressed his appreciation to a number of people including his wife Deb; family; co-workers; and those he has worked with in various capacities.

Wayne State College and Providence Medical Center continue to be more than just neighbors by location. The two organizations have established a mentor program, allowing WSC students to shadow a Providence Medical Center staff member on their daily routines.

Wayne State College and Providence Medical Center officially started the mentor program in September of 1997. Wayne State College Career Services Director Jason Baeckman presented the possibility to Kris Giese, medical technician at Providence Medical Center.

Although the hospital isn't staffed as a teaching facility, hospital personnel have taken time to work with students in a mentoring role. They fit the program into the daily routine at the hospital.

"We have all felt like our students have been good to work with and interested. One concern was the confidentiality of patients. However, the students have conducted themselves professionally. All the mentors have a positive attitude and are trying hard to provide time and meaningful experience for students," Giese said. "I'm enthusiastic about the program and Jason Baeckman at WSC has been good to work with."

One WSC junior and pre-med student working in the mentor program, Melvyn Morris, is this time at the hospital in addition to WSC activities, including College Republicans®; Alpha and Delta Sigma Pi.

Melvyn is the first student to be here off campus as a mentor. Dawson's mother is a physician with a clinic in Toledo. Dawson's parents are Ben and Shirley Pollack. Melvyn Dawson said he feels seeing his mother as a physician did influence his choice in degrees and gave him a nice basis for what he wanted to do.

"It's nice to see how classes work out in the real world and put what you've learned to practical use," Dawson said. "It's great to see how hospital operates at a facility."

"For my student (Dawson), finding out health care is more than patient care was important," Giese said. "The actual amount of time spent is really up to the student. My philosophy is students are putting in their own time and will get out of the experience what they want to."

Giese said Dawson learned about some of the costs involved within a hospital. Medical care often must be worked around other things, like many regulations.

One of the most important lessons Dawson said he learned in the lab during the mentor program included how lab technicians try to consistently do the same thing because variation may change results. He said he also learned not to take the lab for granted.

"I would say the lab uses methods that are very practical," Dawson said. "There are other ways to do things but they may be more labor intensive and time consuming."

Dawson said he would sum up the experience as a way to education to draw together what you learn at college and use it in several areas of expertise in the mentor program at Wayne State College.

Another WSC pre-med student with emphasis in biology, Joseph Brand said he became involved in the mentor program when a friend advised him there was a slot open in radiology. Brand is a WSC junior and is involved in the Society of Radiologic Technologists.

Theresa Redwine, RT, has been involved in the program for three years.

Redwine has been a good teacher. She knows her field, Brand said. As this mentor, Theresa Redwine, RT, is more than just someone you become actively involved in the process of pulling things from the idea and other parts

I've always been interested in medicine and how the body works. I've always wanted to help people,"

Brand said. "Before this, I volunteered at the Fremont Hospital on weekends for fun, but now I'm more involved and during spring break."

Working here two hours a week makes the program a local valuable learning resource. Brand said he said he hopes to learn general knowledge of the radiology field and the intricacies behind the technology.

Record keeping vital in searching for roots

By Maureen McElroy

Genealogical record keeping is a vital component of successful genealogy. The volume of data and individual families is great that it's conceivable one thinks it can be conveniently overlooked.

Recording findings can be as simple as a paper and pencil or by using one of the more sophisticated computer programs of which there are many on the market.

Today's records will be helpful to the pencil and paper method of keeping records. You note that as people are traced, rather than an open chapter, are bound to be made up again the next time or even a third.

Genealogy forms are available locally at Copy White Publishing in Wayne.

The form most commonly used for genealogy record keeping are the Pedigree Chart and the Family Group Record. There are a wide variety of different blank forms available, but essentially they all ask for the same data.

The Pedigree Chart, which requires basic information about you and your direct ancestors (i.e., your parents, grandparents, great grandparents, etc.)

New forms include mention of a city assessment request to copy land where the high school is located, no lower and water improvements can be made north of Greenwood Cemetery. The Board approved the request.

Administrative contract approval was discussed in executive session.

The next meeting is scheduled for Monday night, March 9, at the Wayne High School.

Record-keeping and statistics are the Pedigree chart is rather straightforward. With the full name of the individual, including middle name(s) if known, and all letters of the surname. For female family members, "Marry" use the married name, not the maiden name.

When noting dates, the month, death and marriage are typically required.

History of the family must be included.

However, if there is a fear of "digging up skeletons," then genealogy is not for you. Genealogy is for those who want to learn about their ancestors. All families contain a genealogy, just think, pig, sheep, pigmy goat, minnows. The list is endless but I think you get the idea.

Three wrestlers earn medals

Wayne wrestlers place 20th

By Kevin Peterman
Of the Journal

The Wayne Blue Devils wrestling team had three state placers at the Nebraska State Wrestling Tournament last weekend in Omaha.

Josh Murtaugh placed eighth, with 16 points enroute to the season's fourth winning wrestler at the state's most exclusive meet of the year.

Sophomore Dan Nelson led the way with a fourth place finish at 113 pounds while Judy Campbell placed fifth at 145 and Jay Endicott, sixth at 119.

Josh Murtaugh, wrestling at 113, went 2-1 while Dan Nelson went 1-2 and Judy Campbell went 1-2. Wayne junior wrestling at 109 had both of his matches.

Wayne's 167 points were good enough for 20th place. District 10 Omaha Skutt was crowned team champion with 95.5 points, edging O'Neill by two points.

Council placed third with 82.5 points and second was fourth with 80.5 while Ogallala rounded out the top five teams with 78 points.

We were very pleased to get three medal winners for the second consecutive year," Murtaugh said. "I am proud of all our wrestlers. They competed hard and represented themselves and the program in a positive way."

Wayne won five of its seven first round matches last Thursday with two of them in overtime including Jay Endicott, a senior from west spreading his lead during Friday's portion of Wayne.

Then Jason won in overtime over York's Andy Butler.

In quarterfinal action, Jason Wayne won two of six matches as Jay Endicott defeated Central City's Adrian Morris in overtime by pin and Judy Campbell defeated Matt Edwards of Hastings City, 6-2.

Dan Nelson was edged, 5-7 by John Bartels of Council while Josh Murtaugh lost, 12-3, decision to Council's Steve Wagner and Sam Jensen fell by technical fall to eventual state champ Jason Ferguson of Ogallala.

In semifinal action on Friday night, Kyle Jefford lost, 10-0 with less than 30 seconds remaining in the match.

With Kyle Jefford of Ogallala and Hoffman got a reversal and three near fall points to win, 4-1.

Campbell wrestled eventual state champ Daniel Voth of 136 and wrestled him well before falling, 7-1.

Endicott and Campbell fell in the consolation semifinal as well but Nelson came back to win his next three matches after falling in the quadrangular to complete for third and fourth place.

Jefford fell to Justin Pardue of Council for the second time in the tournament, this time, 7-3 which left him in fourth place.

Campbell defeated David City's Ryan Thacker, 3-2 in his match for fifth place and Jay Endicott had to wrestle his own junior, Kyle Hayes of Edward, who had entered the tournament as the state's top-ranked grappler at 119, and an undefeated record.

Endicott fell to his country by a technical fall which left him with a fifth place medal.

Dan Nelson finished the season with the best record for the Blue Devils with 17 wins and seven losses.

Jay Endicott finished with a 29-11 record and Josh Murtaugh was 25-4. Judy Campbell edged out his senior campaign at 12-9 and Sam Jensen was 20-10. Jim Jefford was 10-14 and Sam Jensen, 23-12.

113 Dan Nelson (10th) Won 7-0 over Eric Lyle of Albion (1st), Brian Pietsch of Council (Win), 7-1 over Ryan Daniels of second Wayne in overtime, over Mike Allison of Columbus (Lakewood), Won 1-0 over Lance Kallberg of Nebraska City, lost 7-3 to Justice Portorosa, 10th, Consolation Final record, 17-7.

119 Jay Endicott (6th) Won in overtime over Danny Ferguson of Wessely, Who by pin, he beat over Adam Morris of Central City, lost 9-1 to Luke Hoffman of Ogallala, lost 12-10 to Josh Basson of Gering, lost by technical fall to Kyle Hayes of Edward, Final record, 29-13.

136 Judy Campbell (136) Won 5-3 over Keith Brummett of Aurora, lost 10-3 to Steve Wagner of Council, Won 13-10 in overtime over Matt Weiss of Imperial, lost 6-2 to Chris White of Grand, Final record, 27-4.

145 Judy Campbell (136) Won 4-2 over Mike Holteker of Ogallala, Won 6-2 over Matt Edwards of Nebraska City, lost 7-4 to Daniel Voth of 136, lost 4-1 to Kyle Hoffman of Chadron, Won 3-2 over Kyle Edwards of David City by third period record, 12-9.

152 Dan Nelson (10th) Won 9-7 in overtime over Andy Butler of York, lost by technical fall to Justin Eason of Ogallala, lost by pin to Richard Hickman of Imperial.

160 Jim Jefford (10th) Lost 10-2 to Jason Ohlson of Ogallala, Won 4-1 over Jake Stoeck of Alliance, lost by pin to Kyle Allison of Wahoo, Final record, 10-14.

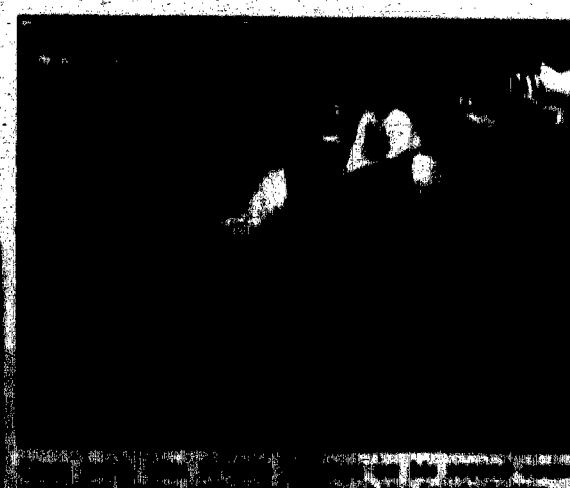

180 Sam Jensen (10th) Lost by pin to Chad Schell of Gering, lost 8-1 to Ryan Jefford of Council, Final record, 27-12.

Josh Murtaugh picks his opponent up and tries to earn a takedown during state tournament action.

Darin Jensen looks for the best opportunity to shoot in on his opponent.

Landon Grothe beaten in overtime of championship match Justin Bowers notches state title

By Kevin Peterion
of the Herald

Justin Bowers became the 24th wrestler in Windside school history to win a state championship and the senior had to put in a little overtime to accomplish the feat.

Bowers went into the state tournament with an impressive 14-1 record and the 130-pounder won his first two matches at state in a total of 7-0 of a pinfall 12 minutes with pins in 49 seconds and 1:17.

The unusual match went the distance but he was never threatened in a 7-3 decision over North Platte's Matt Ben Boyd.

The championship match paired the state's top two rated wrestlers in Bowers (2nd) and Adam Kast of Fort Butler.

Kast came into the final with a 14-0 record with some impressive wins along the way.

The match began with both wrestlers cautious as neither wanted to make a mistake which would hinder the outcome for themselves.

There was a lot of nervosity on the part of both wrestlers, Windside coach Paul Sok said. Neither one stuck to the plan but then again, both wrestlers knew what was at stake.

Bowers slipped a wrist tie in the second period which caused the 130 lead to last until the third period when Kast returned the favor with an escape of his own. Regulation ended with both creatures tied at one. The overtime tiring leg a minute before Bowers recovered a takedown to end the match the night at 1-1 for Kast.

Both grapplers left the mat as promising state players with Kast winning our state title and placing himself in the top 10. Bowers while Bowers had two more trips, one fall and one bit pinch himself.

Bowers may well be the only wrestler in State history to ever wrestle in the finale on three different occasions against opponents who were four-time state finalists.

At a freshen Bowers fell to John Paul Wood of Greeley in the finals of the 130 weight class. Wood went 7-0 in his trip which included state titles. He gained his credibility from state finalist Chris Knutson of Greeley who finished the high school career with three championships and one runner up.

This year it was Ading Knutson who pinned Kast, plus Kast and three more top.

Bowers' game with an over one-half dozen pins and with the most pins in school history but settled for just 10.

Bowers left Windside to go third consecutive fourth place finish at state in the team standings with 12 points.

Bowers was the 130 champion with 14-1 record while Matt Butler claimed runner-up honors with 13-2 followed by Landon Grothe with 9-0. West Point's central Catholic played 100% with 69%.

There were 36 teams that qualified in Class C.

As stated in Friday's Game for Bowers, the situation would turn out to be bittersweet for another senior, Landon Grothe.

The 132 pounder wrestled very well in round one but fell himself into the finale where he met Matt Butler of Greeley.

The match was nearly identical to Bowers' match with regulation ending in a one-all tie.

In overtime it was Landon who won but had the match ending in a deadheat because Grothe with a fall instead of a pin.

"It was evenly matched," Sok said of the finale match. "I think physically Landon was in better condition than his opponent and if you're very fortunate match."

Grothe ended his season at 24-6 with Lulustewa improved to 13-2.

Windside had three other medal winners as five of six earned hardware.

Ryan Krueger placed fourth at 145 pounds with Jeremy Jaeger placing fifth at 112 while Steve Rabe placed fifth at 140.

"I thought all our kids wrestled well," Sok said. "Ryan wanted to get third but he was a little overwhelmed in that match and Steve has all kinds of ability but he just got caught up in a very strong weight."

bracket. He was up 4-2 in the semi-final, got reversed, got his arm caught and got pinned. Jeremy had a tough draw as well with the returning state champ from the previous year in Louisville's Jake Barker who went on to win another state title," Sok added.

Levi Trautman at 171 bowed out of the state tournament after two matches but he as well was in position to win his second match by pin but didn't get the call.

The top 10 finish was the tenth consecutive for the Wildcats who graduate just two which competed at state this year of the six that made the trip.

Having three medal winners back next season will be a good starting point, Sok added with a smile.

119 Jeremy Jaeger (5th) Won 9 losses to 5. Won 9 of 10 bouts. Win 7 over Adam Wilson of Callaway last 1-0 by Jake Barker of Louisville last 4-0 by Jeremy Gallant of City Center. Won 7-2 over Clifford First of High Plains. Final record 12-4.

130 Justin Bowers (1st) Won 9 pinfall 49 seconds over Cody Miller of Goshen County. Won by pin in 1-1 over Bill Myers of SEMA. Won 7-2 over Matt Boyd of North Platte. Matt's Wm. 4-1 in OT over Adam Kast of Fort Butler. Final record 12-4.

140 Steve Rabe (5th) Won 10 pinfall 1-6 over Greg Matella of Black Hills. Won 5-2 over Jason Rydzik of Greeley. Lost by pin in 1-0 to Matt Boyd of Goshen. Lost by pin to Clifford First of Fort Butler as 1-0. Windside finished 13th. Final record 11-9.

145 Ryan Krueger (4th) Won 8 losses to 5. Won 8 of 10 bouts. Losses to Mattel of Black Hills. Won 7-0 over Jake Barker of Louisville. Won 7-0 over Matt Boyd of North Platte. Lost 1-0 to Jason Rydzik of Greeley. Final record 20-11.

152 Landon Grothe (2nd) Won 8 pinfall 1-1 over Jake Barker of Louisville. Won 7-0 over Matt Boyd of Louisville. Won 8-1 over Brian Phillips of Callaway. Lost 1-0 to Clifford First of Red Cloud. Final record 24-6.

171 Levi Trautman (DP) Lost 1-3 in final round of 10 bout. Lost 1-0 to Jake Barker of Louisville. Final record 25-12.

Landon Grothe uses his strength to take control of his foe during a championship match.

Justin Bowers tries to slide the grasp of Adam Kast during the championship match at 130 pounds.

Ryan Krueger gets his opponent into a pinning situation which the Wildcats grappler took advantage of.

Steve Rabe looks at the official as he counts his way toward giving the nod to Rabe via pin. Rabe went on to place fifth at the state meet.

Men's basketball move into eighth place

The Wayne State College men's basketball team, showing up two more wins this week, Division II North Central Regional rank was released by the NCAA.

Wayne State, ranked eighth in last week's ratings, jumped ahead of Regis and Southern Colorado after beating Midland Lutheran, 104-62, and Bemidji State, 73-67.

The top six teams in the region advance to next week's regional tournament.

South Dakota State (24-1), the North Central Conference champion, is ranked first this week, followed by Northern Sun champion Northern State (23-3), Metro State (24-3), Nebraska-Kearney (22-5) and Fort Hays State (22-5) follow in order with WSC, sixth at 19-7.

The last three teams along with Southern Colorado are still alive in the Rocky Mountain Athletic Conference tournament. The winner of that tournament receives an automatic berth in the playoffs for being the conference champion.

Regis is ranked seventh and Southern Colorado, eighth, with Western State and St. Cloud State following.

Wayne State back in playoff hunt

The Wayne State men's basketball team improved to 19-7 on the season with a pair of home victories last week against Midland Lutheran and Bemidji State.

Craig McDermott's squad blasted Midland, 104-62, last Thursday night.

The Wildcats scored the game's first 14 points and were never threatened as they raced to a 33-22 halftime lead.

"We played very well," McDermott said. "Midland is a team that plays very well at home but struggles on the road."

WSC shot 65 percent from the field in the first half, connecting on 27 of 41 attempts as the Cats built the 13 point halftime cushion.

Craig Philipp did most of the damage for WSC, scoring all of his game-high 17 points in the opening half. Philipp, a 6'5 senior, was 7-8 from the field.

Four other Wildcats joined Philipp in double figures with Brad Jones matching his career high with 16 points while Eric Henderson scored a career high 15 points. Matt VanVoorst came off the bench to score a season high 11 and Tyler Johnson picked up his fifth double-double of the year with 10 points and 14 assists.

WSC dominated the boards, 42-30 as Jason Erdkirk and VanVoorst had seven boards each. WSC forced 25 turnovers while suffering 16.

In the final home game of the season, Saturday the Wildcats built a big lead on Bemidji State before settling for an eight-point victory, 73-67.

Tyler Johnson scored 21 points and dished out 10 assists to lead the winners.

In the process Johnson broke the single-season assist record held by himself. His 6'2 junior guard from Holton has 174 on the year which is four more than the record he set last season.

The game also marked the last contest at home for Craig Philipp, the team's lone senior. He scored 14 points in his farewell tilt.

The Cats led 43-23 at the half and built the lead to 28 early in the second half at 51-23.

The third Wildcat to finish in double digits was Jason Diaz with 11 points.

WSC was edged in the rebounding category, 33-31 with both leading the Cats with five boards.

WSC will close out regular season action on Saturday at Rockhurst, a team they defeated by 15 to 12 in Audubon four weeks ago.

"It's going to be a tough game,"

McDermott said. "Rockhurst has only lost one time since we beat them. They are a very balanced team and we'll have to play very well to win."

The game is slated for a 4 p.m. start.

Wayne State baseballers notch season-opening victory at Metro State

The Wayne State baseball team opened the 1998 season on a winning tagline, defeating the University of Colorado-Boulder, 10-2, Saturday afternoon at Coors Field.

The Wildcats started Metro State's first loss of the season.

After the Rockies had started at 0-0, Aaron Beagle was behind the pitching action, springing a surprise in the fourth. Beagle was efficient, picking up the win, improving his record to 1-0, and helping the Rockies and Walkers get off to a strong start and their road.

WSC started strong in the first game, which is equal to the first frame and both quickly committed three errors. Metro State squandered a 1-0 lead after three innings of play but WSC took a 3-3 lead after five innings. The Cards could build a 9-3 lead after eight innings of play but the Wildcat squad tied the game. It was to end the game in extra innings where the Rockies scored the winning run in the 11th.

We played effectively, hard and with a great deal of coordination throughout the game. Both Beagle and Clark showed a lot of control with Clark doing a great job with his fastball and Beagle with his curve ball.

Both teams struck out seven and walked just one in earning the first win in a WSC 11-pitcher.

WSC was defeated by a 10-4 margin in game four at Eby Field, also topped with the first four batters.

The Cards had the lead for the first three games but WSC won the last three.

WSC played the same tempo then more bats as they won both each team's opening game.

WSC played the same tempo despite the fact the Wildcat team had the best record in the league.

We played very solidly throughout the odd.

We did not let the bats walk us down as they played a great defensive strategy throughout the game.

The WSC coaches assessed the first weekend of play by saying the young team did a lot of good things that the team can build on.

We really established good leadership and our understanding players and organization helped.

WSC, 10-2, in the first game, the bats had a 36-point advantage in the span of 12 after five and a half innings but WSC opened up four in the bottom half of the sixth.

Wayne dominates Pierce

Less than 100 hours after Pierce had upset the Blue Devils in the regular season finale, Wayne gained its revenge and in a big way.

The Blue Devils blasted the Bluejays in first round sub-district action, 63-36 Tuesday night in Laurel.

Rocky Kuhl's team will play Crofton who upset Hartington Cedar Catholic in the other contest on Thursday night at 7:30 p.m. in Laurel.

Wayne jumped out to a 6-3 lead and closed out the first quarter on a mini run to lead 15-8.

The second quarter was simply a thumping, as Wayne scored the quarter's first 20 points with Pierce netting just two points at the 16-second remaining mark of the half.

"We played very intense defense and really just took Pierce out of its game," Roth said.

Wayne's second quarter blitzkrieg was highlighted by a two-hand thundering dunk by Ryan Dahl who led the Blue Devils with 21 points.

Justin Thede poured in 16 and Adam Indelicato, also Matt Meyer tallied seven points and John Magnussen tossed in six while Klystyn Kelly and Nick Mai netted two each.

Wayne dominated the boards in the tune of 36-15 as Thede hauled down 14 rebounds while Indelicato grabbed eight rebounds.

Wayne hit 11 of 14 free throw attempts while Pierce was 7-16.

Matt Meyer sprints ahead of the pack and goes on to score a lay up during the Blue Devils thrashing of Pierce in first round action of C-1 Sub-District play. The Blue Devils will play Crofton on Thursday night in Laurel at 7:30 p.m.

Ryan Dahl drives in for two of his game high 21 points as Wayne avenged an earlier loss to Pierce.

Wakefield survives upset bid by Winside

By Wes Smith

For The Herald

Wakefield and Winside both tried to extend their seasons Tuesday night in Randolph during C-1 Sub-District action.

Jeff Witter led a fifteen-point charge at the buzzer to end the first quarter for the Wildcats, but the Trojans led after one 11-9.

Wakefield played superbly, hitting 12 of 17 shots which accounted for nine first half steals.

Wayne - just reorganized this morning, 9-12 with Gately on board - drove 17 of 29 possessions, including eight defensive boards.

Against a solidly back-to-back Winside defense, Jeff Witter (34.5% shooting) led Winside with nine points, while the Trojans' 10-of-17 shooting was good enough to hold Wakefield to a 14-11 lead at the break.

Winside played a tough box and one defensive and held Wakefield to 10-of-22 shooting. Jeff Witter (11 points) and Matt Gately (10 points) were the only ones to make more than one foul shot.

In the third period, the Wildcats led again at the break, holding the Trojans outside play of Aaron Hartman and Eric Rodriguez and the Trojans led 30-27 before three quarters ended.

Informational meeting planned for 4-H families

By Amy Malhow,
Extension Assistant 4-H and Youth

"Are you into it?" If you are a new 4-H family or a 4-H family with lots of questions about the 4-H program, you will want to mark your calendar for the upcoming 4-H informational meeting.

This meeting will be held at two different locations, one in Wayne County and one in Woodbury County.

The first informational meeting will be in Woodbury, March 9 at 7:30 p.m. in the Marshall Agricultural Extension Office in Concord, the former University of Nebraska Northeast Research and Education Center. The second opportunity to attend the same meeting will be in Woodbury, March 9 at 7:30 p.m. at the Wayne County courthouse in Milford.

The purpose of the informational meeting is to inform Wayne and Woodbury County 4-H families information on topics 4-H questions often come up during the 4-H calendar year. The information received will help broaden the understanding of the program and the role of 4-H clubs in their 4-H development.

Other "it's" that will be addressed include timber-thinning, various 4-H projects, filing and maintaining trees and lawns and addressing important deadlines during the 4-H year. Other topics include completing animal identification projects and also research for those 4-Hers who are enrolled in research projects.

Various 4-H speakers and experts will also be disappointed such as the 4-H camp fair, 4-H contests and many other 4-H opportunities. Also during concern will be basic information on completing 4-H record books, 4-H activities, a Family Office including support of all 4-H members in the learning process.

The extension staff also encourage you to bring 4-H project questions that you may have about the 4-H program.

Anyone with questions about the 4-H informational meeting, "Are you into it?" should contact Nancy Gold at the Wayne County Extension Office (402) 325-3310 or Amy Malhow at the Dixon County Extension Office (402) 384-7734.

BIRTHDAY PARTY

The Senior Center monthly birthday party has been changed to Thursday morning, March 5 due to a conflict with the World Day of Prayer program.

WORLD DAY OF PRAYER

World Day of Prayer is scheduled for March 6 at the Allen United Methodist Church at 9 a.m.

World Day of Prayer, sponsored by Church Women United, is celebrated by most Christian denominations. The Allen service is a joint effort of First Lutheran and United Methodist women and is open to everyone. This year's 111th annual World Day of Prayer service was written by Christian women from Madagascar on the theme, "Who is My Neighbor?"

Madagascar is the third largest island in the world. Madagascar's people are a mixture of Asians and Africans in a number of tribes united by a common language.

The transition to Christianity on the island was an easy one because the native culture recognized a belief in a deity who was a creator and provider.

In addition, their beliefs included the concept of Tilyavantana which is the bond between people a sharing of security and happiness. Their prayer and savings reflect this.

Who we are, how we act, the whole body testifies to our power. However little good we have done it is better to do this morally than to do nothing. We can learn much from these people. The lesson teaches us the universal theme of the meaning of good neighbors.

REF-VERS

Area residents using the recycling bins in Allen are reminded to break down bulky cardboard boxes so more will fit in the bin. Most glass, paper, cans and plastics can be recycled there, however, oil cans or plastic bags cannot.

Conservation Tree Planter's Workshops

The Lower Elk Horn Natural Resource District is coordinating with the Nebraska Dept. of Agriculture's Soil Conservation Service to host two Conservation Tree Planter Workshops this spring. These workshops are designed to answer some of the most common questions that landowners have about their tree planting projects.

According to Lower Elk Horn Natural Resource District Director, John Hultquist, "Our goal is to get each landowner to think about every aspect of their project and understand what is going to take for them to have a successful tree planting project."

The first workshop will be held in Norfolk at the Lifelong Learning Center on the Campus of Northeast Community College on Friday, March 13 from 10 a.m. to noon. The second workshop will be held in West Point at the Cuming County Courthouse on Monday, March 16 from 10 a.m. to noon.

The topics to be covered include:

- 1) Conservation for your Farm Family and Future
- 2) Site preparation - Chemical & Mechanical
- 3) Tree planting - Selecting, Shaping and Handling of Land planting • Machine planting
- 4) Tree planting care - Watering • Weed control options
- 5) Animal Damage - Identification & Prevention

These workshops are for anyone who has planted trees in the past or who will be planting trees this spring. The program is designed to provide landowners with the information that they need to get the best possible survival and growth from their conservation tree planting project. Come and learn how to make a successful tree planting project and maybe win some free trees or mulch mats.

Valentine story warms the heart

Some old farm Bureau friends, Lauren and Kathy Borchertauer, moved out of Wayne County many years ago. Since they now ranch at Wood Lake near Valentine, we hear from them on Valentine's Day instead of Christmas.

One annual letter arrived over yesteryear last Saturday and I have Lauren's permission to share it with you. It begins:

"Every now and then I receive a note to take stock and count my blessings. Considering the trouble we're doing with computers this year, Valentine greeting us this Valentine's winter is like a breath from the spirit that motivates me to take a few extra enjoyable minutes browsing this article and the byes of the year. There are moments that have meaning and don't have a place. A constant companion during those moments is Belle.

Belle has a story of her own. An Australian Shepherd Border Collie, she longs home as a puppy with the mother who raised her.

Belle

turned up empty. At first light the next day the search resumed along the creek and nearby pastures. Nothing. Early the next several days the switchback trail had no Belle.

Time passed. On a Friday night two weeks later, the rancher sat reading the local paper. Being interested in the local paper, the local sports and the surrounding community, it was well after 10 p.m. when he noticed a story about a dog.

"Morning through the night he read and reread the story, and heard his dog barking. He popped open his cell phone and found, through Wind Lake area Sheriff's Office phone number . . ."

The next morning the rancher's wife called the rancher. "A female puppy? Yes! Brown and white? Yes! Green eyes? Yes! And the coloring is the pup of her mom, white with brown backless? Yes! It's Belle!"

The story ends with Belle.

The rancher was a traveling sales man making a routine run down Highway 20. He used to ride his Sandhill sandhill, a motorcycle, and this particular day spent a lumpy, bumpy and little stop coming toward the highway.

"Several judges of a rodeo competition had been riding horses early in the morning when the high fog hit last night and took them to Cross City. These judges were familiar with the possibility and expectation of snow."

The judge continued. "It was a surprise. One felt it had been heavy snowing since the night prior to get a look. So friends of a few Valentine's weeks earlier, whatever it may be, a child's smile, had a puppy. A puppy or young child with a blemish that each of you will appreciate and cherish what it is."

It is travel gone beauty. They're hoping it will continue.

Study shows cows prefer plenty of Bt corn

When cattle grazing corn stalks ask, "What's for lunch?" the answer is as likely to be "Bt corn" as it is "non-Bt corn."

That's the word from University of Nebraska specialists responding to queries about potential grazing differences between the two types of corn hybrids.

Diane Anderson, UNL forage specialist, and Terry Major, UNL beef specialist, have received reports by producers who claim their cattle prefer non-Bt fields, they said.

There's nothing really out there that can prove beyond a shadow of a doubt there is a true preference, Anderson added.

The Bt (Bacillus thuringiensis) corn is genetically engineered to manage European corn borer, a major Midwestern pest that holes into stalks and causes crop damage.

It isn't clear what it's supposed to do, Major said, which is to provide greater grain yields because significantly less Bt corn is left in the field for stalk grazing.

Cattle
Cattle grazing on a field of corn stalks.

Initial findings speculate say cattle corn owners may believe their taste perceive a palatability non-dependably different, but there's no research to support those claims.

However, as Bt corn is the new kid on the block, just as with any new thing or different, it has to go through "trial-and-error" studies and . . .

This is the second year Bt corn has been planted in Nebraska, said Major, who is based at UNL's Chloroplast Biotechnology and Extension Center in Lincoln.

Questions about grazing Bt stalks surface again based on other corn belt states. But some of these were spurious reports, Anderson said, and much study on the subject is needed.

Thus far, one source has called out 100 percent of acre devoted to Bt corn.

Grazing stalks are an important resource for Nebraska cattlemen, Anderson said. Without corn stalks grazed to supplement winter feeding, cattle production could be lowered by at least one third, he said.

The Institute of Agriculture and Natural Resources speculate say from one fourth to one half of Nebraska's 4 million corn acres are grazed each winter by sick and lame stock, but that was planted to Bt corn未知.

Two only do the same thing, neither grazing stalks and those left in the field, but Mark Coulter, Nebraska extension specialist, says, "every year over them."
