Meeting planned

Input sought for Middle School

The Board of Education and administration of Wayne Public Schools is currently seeking community input on long-term solutions for Wayne Middle School students.

Two public meetings are being planned to receive appropriate community input.

The meetings will include information from the Board of Education and administration, teaching staff, design professionals and representatives from the financial community.

The meetings will be held Tuesday, April 21 and Thursday, April 30. Both meetings begin at 7:30 p.m. and both will be held in the Gardner Hall Auditorium at Wayne State College.

The meetings are designed to allow community members to give input and receive information in an informal atmosphere. Those wishing to participate but unable to attend may direct written input to the Middle School Input Committee, Wayne Public Schools, 611 West Seventh Street, Wayne, Neb. 68787-1715.

The Wayne Public Schools recently hired an Independent Educational Consultant who specializes in renovating and building school facilities using a managed cost program. This program has been successful in districts in

Rambo Associates Project Management (RAPM) of Omaha is a nationally recognized firm specializing in leading edge school designs and cost effective construction.

According to RAPM officials, the 1908 Middle School building is an integral part of the considerations. Anyone interested in purchasing or developing that building or property, in the event it is not remodeled, should contact the district in writing.

Anyone interested in assisting with the communications effort should contact the school at (402) 375-3150.

Wayne State hosts Legislative Forum

By Lynn Sievers
Of the Herald

In a question and answer format, three Nebraska Senators were faced with discussion on issues heavy on Northeast Nebraskans' minds.

Dr. Mash, Wayne State President, greeted Senators Stan Stan Schellpeper of Stanton, Pat Engel of South Sioux City, Gene Tyson of Norfolk and a large audience including area high school students at a forum held on the WSC campus on April 3.

Mark Ahmann of Wayne served as commentator.

Engel spoke on LB 320, the graduated licensing bill. He assured the group there would be no effect on those already having drivers' licenses.

The bill would affect teenagers getting their licenses by enforcing rules on them. Learners' permits would still go to 15 year olds and 16 year olds could still get licenses but they would be expected to complete driver education courses, be expected to have good driving habits and have a clean record in order to get a regular drivers' license at age 17.

Schellpeper discussed his top priority bill of livestock management and protecting the environment. All three legislators agreed that businesses who support the state need to be taken care of.

Another issue discussed was drug problems in Nebraska. Engel felt the DARE (Drug Abuse Resistance Education) program is a good way to help keep drugs out of the state. Engel said that while he feels that the program is effective, funding for it is still a problem.

In response to the Jonesboro, Ark. shooting tragedy, the senators were asked how they felt about 12 to 13 year olds receiving the same punishment as adults. Tyson and Engel answered with their feelings that kids watch too much violence on TV and become desensitized and that is a lot of the problem.

Schellpeper discussed concealed weapons laws but feels legislation can't prevent events such as the Jonesboro case from happening. Legislation on this issue varies from state to state.

Other issues discussed were assisted dying which all three senators said they did not believe in. Lobbying was also discussed with the group agreeing that lobbyists are useful for gathering information. "Many bills introduced come from lobbyists," Tyson said.

On a humorous note, Ahmann asked the group if they felt they were paid enough for doing their jobs. Tyson said he felt they were paid what they deserve. The other two laughed and disagreed.

The forum was co-sponsored by Wayne State College and Wayne Area Chamber of Commerce.

Walk-through held in conjunction with city auditorium renovation

By Clara Osten
Of the Herald

Approximately 20 people were on hand at the Wayne City Auditorium on Thursday for the second of a series of meetings to discuss possible options for renovation for the building.

City Administrator Joe Salitros highlighted some of the comments made at the first meeting held earlier this year. He also explained that current projections indicate that approximately $585,000 will be available for the renovation by the time the current one-cent city sales tax is set to expire in October 1999.

This tax could be extended at any time through a vote of the people in a general, primary or special election.

Salitros said that it is estimated that the facility is used, 1,300 hours per year by 1,700 participants in city recreation activities.

He also estimated that 125-250 people are in the building when auctions are held. Other activities held there include Boy Scout functions, Women of Today Craft Show, Hospital Auxiliary Bazaar, Band Boosters Soup Supper and Kiwanis Pancake Feed.

In addition to activities that take place in the main part of the auditorium, meetings, showers, graduation receptions, reunions and garage sales are held in the Women's Club Room of the building.

Salitros said the city would need to hire a professional to work on plans for renovation because the project will cost in excess of $40,000. Renovation could begin in the spring of 2000.

Following Salitros' remarks, those on hand took a tour of the building and noted some of the areas in need of attention, including the heating system, bathroom facilities, electrical system and lack of insulation in the roof.

Salitros said the city's bill for heat and electricity in the building is more than $15,000 per year.

Following the tour, those in attendance broke into groups for discussion.

Comments included the need for another facility for recreation activities and what to do with activities normally held in the auditorium during the renovation.

Another meeting on the subject will be held within a month with Council person Jane O'Leary facilitating the project.

Easter surprise

Rachel Duncan looks over her Easter surprise after turning in an egg that eventually hatched this stuffed animal. Duncan was one of hundreds of Wayne area youth that participated in the Jaycees Annual Easter Egg Hunt at Bressler Park.

Wayne chosen as 'Blue Ribbon School'

Wayne Industries, Inc. announced that the Wayne Community Schools have been ranked as a Blue Ribbon school district, by Expansion Management Magazine in its annual Education Quotient issue.

Each year, Expansion ranks over 1,000 school districts across the country on how well the district is preparing its students to be part of the work force after graduation. The special report is mailed to over 45,000 CEOs, Vice presidents, Directors and other officers of companies who have indicated they are considering expanding into new areas.

"We are extremely pleased and proud, although not totally surprised, that our local district performed well," said Gaila Gilliland, Executive Director of Wayne Industries.

To be ranked as a Blue Ribbon

School, a district must score well above average in the "graduate outcome" category and at the same time be at or below the national average in spending. Blue Ribbon Schools represent a "best-buy" situation. Blue Ribbon school should be regarded as equal in academic achievement to the Gold Medal category and as having achieved this level of excellence on a moderate budget.

Expansion Management Editor Bill King said the Education Quotient issue is the magazine's most popular issue of the year with readers.

preparing tomorrow's work force," King said. "How well students learn, as well as the habits they develop, will carry forward into the work place."

As well as awarding Gold Medals and Blue Ribbons, the magazine also issues other ratings such as "Green Light," "Yellow Flag" and "Red Zone."

The Education Quotient is now in its seventh year and is a well respected national study. Other magazines, such as Money and American Health, use the Education Quotient data to make their judgments as to most "livable" cities and "healthiest" cities.

Mash withdraws name at Rowan

Wayne State College President Dr. Donald Mash has officially withdrawn as a finalist for president at Rowan University.

Mash earlier last month was selected as one of five finalists at Rowan University, in New Jersey. Mash spent two days at Rowan, where he was interviewed by the university.

According to Mash, he has now been selected by a search committee for the president position at Fort Lewis College in the southwest part of Colorado.

Mash has accepted the interview and will be at the college the later part of this month for interviewing.

Fort Lewis College is located in Durango, Colo. It is a public state institution with approximately 4,000 students.

The college offers a wide range of programs leading to a bachelor's degree. It has been classified by the Carnegie Foundation for Education as a Baccalaureate College II.

Early morning mishap

A semi-trailer overturned early Wednesday morning five miles east of Wayne on Highway 35. The driver of the semi, Michael Morey of Sioux City, Iowa took evasive action to avoid hitting a vehicle which had crossed into the eastbound lane. Soft shoulders caused the semi to tip over onto a cable guard rail. No injuries were reported in the accident which was investigated by the Wayne County Sheriff's Office. They were assisted by the Nebraska Department of Roads.

'Because we Care' luncheon planned

Providence Medical Center and Dr. Mark McCorkindale are working together to implement a monthly luncheon and discussion of various topics of interest to women.

Entitled "Because We Care," the luncheons will be held once a month in the Education Room at Providence Medical Center, beginning Wednesday, April 15.

This month's topic is osteoporosis and the May topic is hormone replacement therapy.

Each month's program will begin at noon and last approximately 45 minutes. There is no charge to attend, but those wishing to eat lunch will be asked to pay $2 to cover the cost of the food.

Dr. McCorkindale got the idea for this program after working with a doctor in Sydney. He said that while it is geared toward women's issues, the luncheon is open to both men and women of all ages.

"I am hoping to get input from those attending for future programs and hope to get other local people to present information on their areas of expertise," Dr. McCorkindale said.

To make reservations for the luncheon, contact the hospital at 375-3800 or the Providence Medical Center Foundation at 375-3520.

Have a glorious Easter holiday!

Burial was in the Wakefield Cemetery in Wakefield. Bressler-Humlicks was in charge of arrangements.

New committee formed

Dr. Steve Becker, board member and treasurer for the Wayne Area Chamber of Commerce, announced today a new Chamber committee. Committee members are Jan Magnuson, Sheryl Lindau, Reggie Yates, Gary Van Meter, Tony Kochenash, Gaila Gilliland and Steve Becker, chair.

The Chamber's Main Street Committee will examine the Nebraska Lied Main Street Program throughout 1998. As a member of the Associate Program, a community receives training and information relating to the four areas of the Nebraska Main Street Program: Fundraising, Design, Historic Preservation and Promotions. The Main Street Program is really an economic development tool.

Scott Sewall, Director of the Nebraska Lied Main Street Program, spoke to the committee members at the first local meeting on April 1. According to Sewall, a Design Workshop is planned for June 4 and 5 in Scottsbluff and on July 27 and 28, a Promotion Workshop will be held in Bassett.

Sewall presented a slide program of "before" and "after" photos of Main Street improvements. He explained that the Associates Program, of which the Chamber is a member, is the first step to becoming a designated Main Street community. Through the Main Street Program, a community is entitled to one on-site visit to focus on the one area of the community's choice, such as retail promotions or fundraising.

Reggie Yates, Bob Carhart, Gary and Carla Van Meter and Gaila Gilliland will attend the Application Workshop in Lincoln on April 10.

Hagel scheduled to speak

Senator Chuck Hagel will be in Wakefield on Wednesday, April 15, from 1-2 p.m. to speak to students of Wakefield Junior-Senior High School.

The senator's address is open to public free of charge.

Hagel's visit is being sponsored by the Wakefield Close-Up Club.

The Close-Up Club's purpose is to involve more citizens in civic issues and to provide a vehicle for the public to express their opinions as well as to fight political apathy in all ages.

Senator Hagel has expressed a desire to answer questions from the public.

Mrs. Rogers (Lorna Luben) is unhappy with what Phillip Lombard (Mick Kemp) is trying to tell her during rehearsal of the Wayne Community Theatre's production of "Ten Little Indians."

'Ten Little Indians' to be presented

The Wayne Community Theatre's production of Agatha Christie's mystery "Ten Little Indians" will be presented Friday, Saturday and Sunday, April 17-19.

Performances will be at 7:30 p.m. on Friday and Saturday and 2:30 p.m. on Sunday at the Carriage House Theatre in the Minershaft Mall.

"Ten Little Indians" refers to a cluster of statuettes on the mantelpiece of a strange, isolated country house on an island off the coast of Devon, England and to the nursery rhyme displayed prominently by them, which tells how each "Little Indian" met his death until there were none.

To this strange setting, eight guests have been invited for a weekend by a mysterious host. The guests have never met their host and neither have the housekeeper, butler and boatman.

While the guests are assembled for cocktails, a voice comes out of the air, accusing everyone present of murder.

As the play progresses, people start to die in various mysterious and often gruesome ways. The audience is caught up in trying to figure out, along with the characters, what's going on and who the murderer is.

The cast for this production includes Dan Rose as Rogers, a manservant; Lorna Luben as Mrs. Rogers, the housekeeper; Laura Straight as Vera Claythorne, a newly hired secretary for the host; Mick Kemp as Phillip Lombard, an adventurer; Chris Headley as Anthony Marston, a rich playboy; Rick Cathie as William Bloxer, a detective; Dave Headley as General Mackenzie, a retired military man; Maribeth Stoodley as Emily Brent, a spinster; Keith Jarvi as Sir Lawrence Wargrave, a former judge; Dan Baddock as Dr. Armstrong, a nerve specialist; and Dave Lebsock as Fred Narracott, the boatman and delivery man.

The play is directed by Ted

Blenderman with Dave Lebsock assisting.

Tickets for "Ten Little Indians" are $7.50 for those over 18 years of age and $5 for those 18 and under. They are available at First National Bank, State National Bank, Farmers & Merchants State Bank and Save-More Pharmacy in Wayne. Tickets should also be available at the door, however, seating is limited.

Refreshments will be served during intermission.

Sandlin receives literature award

Lisa Sandlin, assistant professor of Humanities at Wayne State College, has been honored with the prestigious Jose H. Jones Award for Best Book of Fiction 1997. The award is presented by the Texas Institute of Letters and funded by the Houston Endowment.

Sandlin, a native of Beaumont, Texas, received the award for her book "Message to the Nurse of Dreams at the annual meeting of the literature group this weekend in Houston, Texas. To be eligible for the award the author must be a native Texan, or maintained residency in this state for two years.

"I am honored to receive this award," Sandlin said. "There were many terrific authors considered and I am pleased to have been selected." She noted the association's awards were given in the areas of Best Short Story; Best Non-fiction Book; Best Children's Book and Best Poetry, among others.

"Message to the Nurse of Dreams" also recently received very favorable reviews in the New York Times.

Sandlin noted the award carries with it a cash prize as well as a certificate recognizing the accomplishment.

Highway meeting planned

There will be a public information meeting regarding the 1999 construction schedule for Highway 35. The meeting will be held Thursday, April 16 at 6:30 p.m. at the High School Lecture Hall.

Topics will include traffic routes during construction as well as a question and answer session with Brad Dobson, primary contractor for the project, and Scott Brummond of the Nebraska Department of Roads.

March at Head Start

Our first week of March was spent learning about things in space. We went on a field trip to the Wayne State College Planetarium to learn about stars and planets.

We made "Moon Mud" in the water table using cornstarch and water. We also ate Rocket Ship Salad for breakfast one morning. Each child created his or her own sun blob using yellow paint and Q-tips.

The second week of March was Water/Ocean/Sea and Bubbles week. We looked at pictures of all kinds of animals that live in water and made seashell collages. We discussed how plants need water to grow and grew our own sprouts.

We also tasted different kinds of seafood. The big excitement for the week was our Beach Party. The children wore swimsuits or shorts and played waters games in the wading pool.

The third week of March was Green Week. We wore green everyday and ate Green Eggs and Ham for breakfast on St. Patrick's Day.

The children traced, cut out and decorated big lucky charm shapes for a Leprechaun bulletin board. We also went on a field trip to Four Paws Grooming this week to learn about grooming and taking care of our pets.

To welcome spring, the fourth week of March was Spring/Nature week. We went on a nature walk on the nature trail at WSC to look for signs of spring.

To decorate our room for spring, each child made a picture of something they liked about spring to decorate our windows. Our nutrition lesson for the week was making "Pretzel Letters" using a letter from our first names.

The final week of March was Silly Week. We had backward day and hat day. We also learned how frogs and butterflies grow. For the nutrition lesson, we had a cheese taste test and tasted four different kinds of cheese.

Visitors are always welcome in our classroom. Please volunteer anytime.

NOTE: The Wayne Head Start Preschool is currently taking applications for the 1998-99 school year. Children must be three years of age by Oct. 15, 1998.

This is a free-of-charge program to income eligible families. For more information call (402) 375-2913, Monday-Friday, 8 a.m.-4 p.m.

Wayne State College features children's play

Wayne State College Theatre will present the 40th annual children's play, "King Midas and the Palace of Gold," April 16-17 and 19-23, in Ramsey Theatre, on the Wayne State College campus.

Reserved seating performances will be: April 16, at 10 a.m. and 1 p.m.; April 17, at 1 p.m.; April 20, at 10 a.m.; April 21, at 10 a.m. and 1 p.m.; April 22, at 1 p.m. and April 23, at 10 a.m.

Public performances without reserved seating will be: April 19, at 2 p.m. and April 22, at 8 p.m.

Wayne State College music students are involved within the cast of "King Midas and the Palace of Gold," director Andee Sedrakis said.

Cast members are John Gallop, of Norfolk, as King Midas; Darby Flook, of Coon Rapids, Iowa, as Court Advisor; Kerry McCue, of Wayne, as Queen Helena; Jessica Gulliza, of Lincoln, as Olympia; Kristina Ruzicka, of Crete, as Gardner; Karin Dankenbring, of Lincoln, as Queen Alexandra; Ryan Keiter, of Norfolk, as Prince Ajax; Tiffany Lichty, of Plainview, as Cook; Rachel Barton, of Waterford, Mich., as Delphine; Katie McCue, of Wayne, as Princess Penelope; Molly Peters, of Lemars, Iowa, as Athena; Amanda Coleman, of Bellevue, as Shepherdess; Jodie Meyer, of Norfolk, as Citizen One; Dutch Snyder, of Friend, as Citizen Three; Marissa Roney, of Wayne, as Citizen Two; Sabrina Leon, of Flint, Mich., as Sabrina; Megan Wade, of Battle Creek, as Fisherman; and Carmen Beckman, of Pendet, as the Unicorn.

In addition to her role as Cook, Lichty will serve as assistant director for the production. Assisting as stage manager is Andy Niess of Wayne.

King Midas is a powerful ruler who can turn only gold. His lovely daughter, Princess Penelope, is having a birthday, and noble guests come from far and wide, including the handsome Prince Ajax, who loves Penelope. One of the guests from the island of Naxos presents the princess with the gift of one wish, which Penelope lovingly gives to her father. He uses his wish to receive "The Golden Touch."

At first he's ecstatic but slowly it dawns on him that even a king cannot eat gold food or drink gold water. When he mistakenly touches Penelope, she, too, turns to gold. How Midas learns his lesson but is punished for his greed makes this popular tale a musical delight.

The book is by Vera Morris, music by Gerald Castle and lyrics by Michael Vigilant. The public is encouraged to attend to the performances on April 19 and 22. Admission prices are adults $3 and children $1.75. For more information, call (402) 375-7422.

Poster selected as state winner

A poster designed by Sarah Jensen of Wayne, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Dennis Jensen, was chosen as the Nebraska State Winner for the 1998 National Arbor Day Foundation Poster Contest.

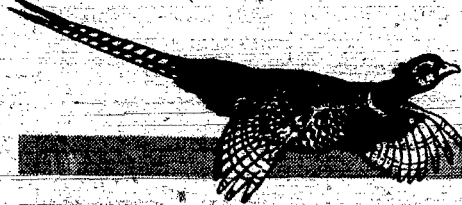

Jensen's poster with "Cities and Towns" theme will now compete at the national level. David Mooter, Community Forester, said that the time, effort and attention to detail she took in creating her work were deciding factors in choosing the winning poster.

A certificate and award will be presented to Jensen and a tree will be planted in the Wayne Middle School in recognition of the winning poster.

Jensen is a fifth grader at the Wayne Middle School and Mrs. Ellen Imdieke is her teacher.

Golfers dominate early

Nick Muir putts on the number six green of the Wayne Country Club during Wayne's home opener on Monday. The Blue Devils breezed to a 24-stroke win.

The Wayne golf team began season play last week with a 21-stroke victory over Oakland at the Oakland Triangular.

The Blue Devils fired a 162 in the season opener with the host team notching a 183 and West Point, 218.

Terry Munson's team was sparked by sophomore Klinton Keller with a 37 while Jason Parks carded a 40 and Nick Muir, 42. Ryan Dahl finished with a 43 with Ryan Sturm's 44 not being included in the team total.

"This was an excellent start to the season," Munson said. "This was a particularly good score considering we didn't use our number one player's score with Ryan Sturm."

"I was really pleased with the play of Jason Parks. As a freshman he played well in practice but struggled at times in competition."

Wayne's junior varsity team was even more dominant with a 49-stroke victory over runner-up Oakland, 176-225. West Point finished with a 246.

Joel Munson was medalist for the reserves with a 40 while Dustin Sutton carded a 43 and Adam Ellingson, 46. Ryan Stoltenberg finished with a 47 and Michael Varley, 50.

"I was pleased with sophomore Joel Munson's play," Terry Munson added. "As a new member to the golf team he will add good intra-squad competition for the varsity team."

Munson's team followed a very good 162 score at the first outing with an even better 154 score at Monday's triangular in Wayne with Oakland-Craig and Wisner-Pilger-Beemer.

W-P-B finished second with a 176 and Oakland was third at 177. Ryan Sturm and Joel Munson shared medalist honors with 38's while Klinton Keller and Jason Parks each carded 39's. Nick Muir finished with a 45.

"This is a great team score for this early in the season," Munson said. "Again our overall balance was outstanding. We hope to use this match as momentum for the toughest invitational of the season—Lincoln Pius, played at Pioneer Country Club in Lincoln on Thursday."

Wayne's reserve team cruised to their second consecutive blowout win, 170-212 over Oakland-Craig while Wisner-Pilger-Beemer finished with a 252.

Adam Ellingson was medalist for the reserves with a 41 while Michael Varley carded a 42 and Robbie Sturm, 43. Ryan Stoltenberg finished with a 45 and Dustin Sutton, 47.

Jason Parks putts for birdie during triangular action on Monday at the Wayne Country Club. Parks has fired rounds of 40 and 39 in competition to start the season.

"It was a good reserve score with great balance on the team," Munson added. "Adam Ellingson is pushing for a varsity spot and Robbie Sturm and Mike Varley continue to improve."

Wayne girls track team ties for championship at Laurel Relays

Dale Hochstein's girls team didn't score a single point in the field events but the Lady Blue Devils battled back to earn a tie with Bancroft-

Rosalie with 68 points for team honors.

Coleridge placed third with 49 points and Laurel-Concord was fourth with 48 followed by Wakefield with 39 and Hartington with 38.

Hartington-Cedar Catholic placed seventh with 36 points and Ponca was eighth with 30 followed by Beemer with 16 and Emerson-Hubbard, 10.

Sara Kinney won the 1500-meter run in 5:17.24 and the Blue Devils added four first place finishes in relay events.

The 3200-meter relay was timed in 10:44.78 for an easy win with Sara Ellis, Billy Broders, Jessica Raveling and Molly Linster.

The 800-medley relay team won in 2:01.78 with Monica Novak, Mandy Hansen, Amanda Maryott and Molly Linster with the 1600-medley relay team winning in 4:40.24 with Maryott, Novak, Raveling and Kinney.

The 800-meter relay team won in 2:01.91 with Sara Kinney, Leah Dunklau, Cayle Olson and Mandy Hansen.

The 1600-meter relay team placed runner-up in 4:36.32 with Ellis, Kristin Hochstein, Raveling and Linster.

Katie Walton placed fourth in the 400-meter dash in 73.8 and Kristin Wilson was fifth in 77.7 while Sarah Holsted placed fourth in the 1500-meter run in 5:49.3.

"We had a good day on the track," Hochstein said. "We had some good throws by our young field event people which I think helped the confidence factor."

"Leah Dunklau missed placing in the triple jump by half-an-inch and Amanda Maryott having two scratches and a poor jump which kept her from the finals of the triple jump so we headed to the track with no points in the field."

Hochstein said the difference in the meet came down to who got the fourth's, fifth's and sixth places.

"Having Sarah Holsted place in the 1500 and Katie Walton along with Brandon Garvin, Dustin Schmeits and Gabe Hammer and the 1600-meter relay team won in 3:43.88 with Hammer, Schmeits, Garvin and Matt Meyer.

Pritam Dalal placed second in the 400-meter dash in 57.5 and the 800-meter relay team was third in 4:42.83 with Ben Meyer, Jon Meyer, Josh Murtaugh and Dalal.

Josh Murtaugh added a fourth in the 400-meter dash in 60.4 and the 800-meter medley relay team was

My Plan For Nebraska

Four years as a county commissioner, two years as a member of the Lincoln City Council, almost seven years as Lincoln's Mayor and Chief Executive (Lincoln has no City Manager), and, having traveled 70,000 miles in this campaign so far and having been in all 93 Nebraska counties have led me to the conclusion that this state can be the best in many areas. A warning needs to be sounded that the structure of our government and our tax policy are leading us down the wrong path. Those states that will truly succeed in the next century will be those which are efficient, goal oriented and focused. Our focus for the next eight years must be to fundamentally restructure our government and to lower our tax burden. It is in this vein that I propose a plan for Nebraska which I will lead as Governor. The elements of the plan will be:

- 1. Taxation: Enact a permanent personal income tax cut for the state of Nebraska and continue to enact annual income tax cuts as spending is reduced.
- 2. Property tax: Each year I will propose a legislative package to help reduce property tax levied at the local level. My legislative package will:
 - Terminate or modify state mandates that are funded at the local level by local tax payers.
 - Allocate excess state revenues to provide local property tax relief through a direct rebate check to property tax payers.
 - Provide incentives for local option government consolidation.
 - Propose Levy and spending limits in conjunction with relief from unfunded state mandates.
 - Simplify the Nebraska homestead exemption to provide that all Nebraskans over age 65, qualified citizens who are disabled, qualified disabled veterans and their surviving spouse receive an exemption for their personal residence of $50,000 per year indexed to revaluation increases, up to a value of $175,000.
- 3. Inheritance tax: A comparative review with other states in our region on our inheritance tax will be undertaken to propose elimination of the death tax on the transfer of assets to immediate family members.

'Cats open track season

The Wayne State College track and field teams opened the outdoor season Saturday, April 4 with some outstanding performances at the Morningside Open.

Senior James McGown provisionally qualified for the NCAA Division II Outdoor Track and Field Championships in the 5,000-meter run in his first attempt outdoors this season. McGown won by over 300 meters, and set a new meet and school record with a time of 14:51.45.

McGown is the first Wildcat to qualify nationally outdoors since Lee Harper provisionally qualified in the Long Jump in 1992. Based on last week's qualifying list McGown would be ranked third in the nation.

"James had to run this by himself from the beginning, which is very tough to do," said head coach Brian Kavanaugh. "He probably went out a little too fast, going through 1600 meters in 4:35."

Other outstanding performances for the men included sophomore Dan Heiman's sixth-place finish in the 3,000-meter steeplechase clocking 10:33.7 in his first-ever steeplechase. Sophomore Jeremie Lippman followed Heiman with a time of 10:41.7 to finish seventh and junior Jeremy Covey placed eighth with a time of 10:49.7. On WSC's all-time lists, they rank sixth, seventh, and eighth respectively.

Brad Hrouda finished in seventh place in the 800-meter run with a time of 1:58.11. Not far behind was Lippman posting a time of 2:00.02 for 10th place.

In the 400-meter hurdles, freshman Matt Kneiff had a strong debut, clocking 57.1 seconds for third place and sixth all-time at WSC. Kneiff also placed seventh in the 110-meter hurdles, earlier in the day, with a time of 16.14 seconds.

Freshman Jeremy Murphy placed fifth in the long jump with a mark of 21-feet 7.5-inches.

The top performances of the day for the women were turned in by redshirt freshman Deanna Collobit, with her double wins in the long and triple jumps. In the long jump, she and teammate Laura Martin placed first and second with jumps of 17-4.5 and 17-2.25, respectively.

That was a personal best for Collobit and ranks her fourth all-time at WSC. In the triple jump, she posted a jump of 36-5 to break the meet record by over two feet and also put her at third all-time on the WSC lists.

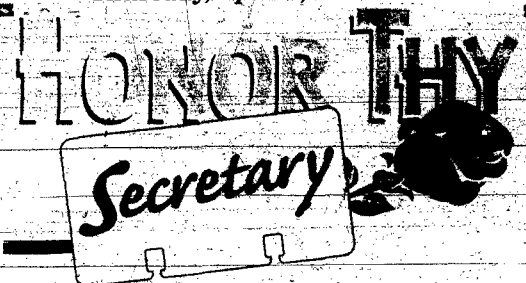

Jump coach Andrew Owusu said, "Deanna has really been progressing nicely, especially considering she had been away from competition for nearly two years."

Other outstanding performances for the women included sophomore Marsha Krienke's third-place finish in the 800-meter run. Her time of 2:21.51 is third best all-time at WSC. Right behind her in fourth place was freshman Darr Nickerson, whose time of 2:23.46 was fifth all-time.

In the throwing events, junior Angie Kment threw the shot put 41-6 for fourth place. The toss earned her fifth place on the all-time WSC chart. Kment also placed sixth in the discus (122-9) and third in the javelin (84-4).

The Wildcats will compete in the Dordt College Invitational Saturday, April 11, followed by the Sioux City Relays April 17-18.

Insurance can be complicated Engagements

(Note: Information for this column is from the October 1997 Consumer Reports, with permission from author Trudy Lieberman.)

Medicaid will likely continue paying for much of the nation's long-term care until a national health plan takes effect, which doesn't seem on the horizon any time soon. Medicaid is a federal and state health insurance program for the poor. However, because nursing home care typically runs more than $3,000 per month, many people will need Medicaid to pay for nursing home stays. Indeed, two-thirds of all nursing home residents now are covered by Medicaid.

Cooperative Extension
Linda Grunick-Hank
Wayne County

To qualify for Medicaid, a person must make him- or herself poor by depleting assets. This is called a spenddown. Any Social Security, pensions, interest, dividends, etc., must go toward nursing home care before Medicaid will step in. Be sure to seek professional help to stay within Medicaid's legal limits and to determine how best to handle financial affairs for you and your family. Medicaid coverage doesn't require a spouse be impoverished, but the spouse may not be able to live in the style in which he or she is accustomed if Medicaid ends up paying. The house in which a spouse or dependent or disabled children lives may be retained, as may its furniture, car, a burial plot, funds and a small amount of cash. In Nebraska, the asset allowance, or the amount you are allowed to keep, is $4,000 (the highest of all 50 states); the minimum asset allowance for the spouse at home is $15,804 and monthly income is $1,975. The personal monthly allowance for the spouse in a nursing home is $40.

A few things to consider before you seek professional assistance related to Medicaid financing: there must be a waiting period of three years between giving away assets and applying for Medicaid, and a five-year waiting period after setting up a trust and applying for Medicaid.

If you apply for Medicaid long-term care services within these two time periods, there will be a period of ineligibility. The period of ineligibility is based on a formula covering the amount given away and the monthly cost of the nursing home. Family members must pay the bill for the person's long-term care during this period of ineligibility.

Long-term care insurance may help alleviate a Medicaid spenddown. That is, long-term care insurance will protect assets that Medicaid would otherwise take. Buying long-term insurance can be very complicated, however, and may not be needed, especially if a person has $160,000 to cover four years of nursing home care or has few assets to protect.

Long-term insurance may serve a purpose for people who can't afford it. For example, at age 65, annual premiums may be about $1,700. The older the person purchasing long-term insurance, the higher the premiums.

A 75-year-old may pay $3,000 or more. The decision to buy long-term care insurance depends on your assets and the amount of income you and your spouse may keep if you were to go on Medicaid. Only about 10 percent to 20 percent of Americans can afford this insurance.

Long-term care insurance is a very complicated product, and many agents may not tell you all you need to know before buying.

In addition to seeking professional help related to Medicaid and long-term insurance, check an unbiased source such as Consumer Reports. The October 1997 issue presents a full package of information related to these topics.

WAKEFIELD REUNION

Several former Wakefield resi-

(Mardelle Lehman) in Fountain Hills, Ariz. Visiting in the Phoenix area from Wakefield were Dr. Mark Wilms and wife Lynn, Charlene Schroeder and Doris Backstrom.

Former Wakefield residents who attended included the Rev. Glen Lundahl and his wife, the former Connie Utecht of Truckee, Calif., Mr. and Mrs. Tom Lundahl and daughter Kathryn of Papillion, Mr. and Mrs. Weldon Jensen (Trudy Jelinek) of Goodyear, Ariz. and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Smith (Janese Henrickson) of Sun City, Ariz.

Invitations have gone to the 32 remaining members of the class of 1943 for its 55 year reunion. The one-day event is planned for June 16 at Jeanne's at the Haskell House in Wakefield. The day's activities will begin with social hour at 11 a.m. followed by a 12-15 p.m. luncheon.

Four Lincolmites who are members of the Class of 1943 are in charge of arrangements. They are Leilan Wendel Easley, Dr. LaVern Grosc, Bob Johnson and Sue Bjorklund-Smith.

The committee which has entitled this a "Time of remembrance and reacquaintance" is hoping for 100 percent participation by members whether by sending a letter about themselves or attending in person.

Reservations are due to Dr. LaVern Grosc, 3400 Nemaha Circle, Lincoln, Neb. 68506 by June 9.

ON HONOR LIST

Brian Bartels of Wakefield is among the 320 students who were named to the academic dean's list at Briar Cliff College in Sioux City for the second term of the 1997-98 academic year.

Wayne receives Tree City award

Wayne has been named a Tree City USA by the National Arbor Day Foundation. It is the seventh year Wayne has received this national recognition. Wayne also received the Growth Award for progress in its forestry program for the fifth consecutive year.

The Tree City USA program is sponsored by the National Arbor Day Foundation in cooperation with the National Association of State Foresters and the USDA Forest Service.

According to John Rosenow, President of The National Arbor Day Foundation, "An effective community forestry program is an ongoing process of renewal and improvement—a program of tree planting and care that continues through the years. The Tree City USA award is an excellent indication that there is a solid foundation for the process of improvement."

Extension Board meeting planned

The regular meeting of the Wayne County Extension Board will be held on Monday, April 13 at 7:30 p.m. in the courthouse meeting room in Wayne. The meeting is open to the public. An agenda is available at the Wayne Extension Office.

KN REACHED OUT TO ME.
I'M GOING TO REACH OUT TO THEM.

WITH MY VOTE.

"I just moved here from Michigan, and it's the first time I've truly been away from home. Shortly after we arrived we bought a stove and a gas grill from the Simple Choice store at KN. A couple of days later, a young lady from KN called just to make sure things were going well. I was a little upset that particular day because I was missing my daughter who was still back in Michigan. Then, the nicest thing happened. The lady over at KN sent me a beautiful potted plant to cheer me up. It just overwhelmed me. So when you ask me if I like having a choice of natural gas providers, the answer is yes. I think it helps to keep things competitive. And it also gives me the opportunity to say 'thank you' to a company that made me feel very special."

"Remember, now that you have a choice, make it a Simple Choice. Choose KN."

Cause and Cures for Constipation

Constipation is a common complaint of many person who visit their physician or pharmacist. One recent estimate indicates that approximately 2.5 million physician visits annually in the U.S. result from complications attributed to constipation. According to one news publication Americans spend more than $500 million each year on over-the-counter laxative products.

Some of the more common causes of constipation include lack of exercise, low dietary fiber and fluid intake, emotional stress, eating stool-hardening foods such as processed cheese, and failure to heed the urge to defecate.

Recognized methods of preventing constipation include increasing exercise and drinking more water. The use of bulk laxatives which contain psyllium, polycarbophil, and methylcellulose are preferred in many situations due to their overall effectiveness and low incidence of side effects.

Heather Buryanek of Wayne was one of those who assisted with the renovation of a church in Omaha during the CrossPoint Ministries Mission Trip.

Campus group helps others

Six people involved with Crosspoint Campus Ministry spent March 28 in Omaha helping the less fortunate. Darin Corder, Scott and Sarah Lepke, Heather Buryanek, Amy Whitfield and Neil Munson traveled to Pearl Methodist Church in Omaha where they spent time renovating an old kitchen in the basement of the church. The space will be used as a place for after school activities programs for area youth to keep them off the streets.

The group spent time painting, hauling garbage, cleaning, ripping up old tile floors and ripping out an old ceiling and replacing it with a new one.

Carroll Presbyterian Women meet

There were six members present when the Carroll Presbyterian Women met at the church fellowship hall on April 1. President Jacquelyn Owens conducted the business meeting.

When we left, there was a 100 percent difference in the area, Sarah said. The group also spent three hours in the afternoon on a bus tour of Omaha to visit various mission sites including food pantries, clothing sites, after school programs for youth involved with the judicial system and a mission for the homeless. "It was one of the best experiences I've ever had. It feels so good to know that you are helping people less fortunate. It really makes you realize how fortunate you are," Sarah added. The trip was co-sponsored by CrossPoint Campus Ministry and United Ministries in High Education.

Lutheran women planning convention

The Executive Committee and Board of Directors of Lutheran Women's Missionary League (LWML) Nebraska District North met at Grace Lutheran Church for their biannual meeting on March 27-28. At the meeting, the LWMLers discussed and finalized details for their biennial convention to be held at Wayne State College on Friday and Saturday, June 26-27, 1998. Area members of the LWML Board of Directors that attended the meeting are: Gloria Lesson of Winside, Bonnadell Koch, Carol Rethwisch, Nola Schuttler, Rhonda Sobade of Wayne, Ellen Heinemann of Wakefield and Pat Janke of Carroll. The theme for the convention is "Living God's Vision, Our Mission." The keynote speaker on Friday will be Ruth Koch, Koch is co-author and presenter of the Prepare to Serve, a leadership training series. Rev. Nathaniel Taylor will be the guest proclaimer at the worship service on Friday night at Grace Lutheran. Rev. Taylor will also be a mission speaker on Saturday. Rev. Taylor and his family fled Liberia their homeland, due to persecution of their faith and life threatening situations. Inservice sessions will be held on Saturday. At these sessions, the LWMLers are encouraged to use their God given talents to be missionaries locally, nationally and internationally. As a start of this missionary work, the convention participants will be asked to bring eyeglasses to the convention to be given to the Wayne Lions Club. The participants will also help "build" Jesus-Our Savior Lutheran Preschool at the Winnebago reservation at Macy. During the convention, representative items needed for the preschool will be available for purchase. The LWMLers will build a representation of the preschool by putting together a giant puzzle; the preschool items are the puzzle pieces. The Lutheran Women's Missionary League (LWML), with a membership of nearly 200,000, is the official women's auxiliary of The Lutheran Church-Missouri Synod.

EASTER CANTATA

The Northern Heights Baptist Church Choir of Norfolk will present an Easter Cantata entitled "Cradle to Cross" on Good Friday, April 10, at 7 p.m. at the church located at 708 Georgia Avenue. The public is invited to attend. Vocal soloists will be John Grimes and Lisa Kerber who will also sing a duet. Julie Daniel and John Grimes will also present a duet. Narrators will be Pastor Steven Harris and Howard Meier. Doris Kingsbury is pianist and Eileen Damme, director. A cast will portray various and Eileen Damme, director. A cast will portray various scenes. A coffee fellowship will follow the cantata.

AAL branch receives high rating

Members of the Aid Association for Lutherans (AAL) Branch #1470 of Wayne, have been awarded a Gold Star rating by the Fraternal Benefit Society in recognition of exemplary voluntary service to the community. AAL's 9838 branches are ranked in several performance categories. To achieve a Gold Star rating, branches annually must sponsor at least one AAL benevolent activity (Fund-raises, work project, etc.), conduct at least 12 meetings, sponsor at least one educational activity and one member awareness event and comply with AAL's attendance, voting and reporting require-

AAL Branch #1470 is led by Clara Heinemann, president; Jennifer Rethwisch, vice president; Mary Lou Erleben, secretary and Leon Meyer, treasurer. AAL, based in Appleton, Wis., is a fraternal benefit society of 1.7 million Lutherans joined together for insurance, investment, educational and volunteer opportunities.

Duo Club holds meeting

Grace Lutheran Duo Club met March 30 with 19 members present. Fredrick and Joann Temmie and Charles Maier were in charge of the devotions and program. President Neil Sandahl led the business meeting. A monetary donation will be given to the Lutheran Hour Ministries. There were 16 members who attended the LLL Zone II Spring Rally at Grace Lutheran Church in Norfolk on March 15. Wayne will have the Fall Zone Rally in September. The annual ice cream social is planned for July 2. Charles Maier showed slides with a taped narration about the National Capitol and other government buildings in Washington, D.C. He and his wife Barbara toured the area recently. Hilbert and Kathleen Jobs and Frederick and Faye Mann were in charge of lunch.

Hoskins churches plan special services

Area churches have planned special services for Holy Week. Peach United Church of Christ will have a Sunrise Service on Easter Sunday at 7 a.m. Services will also be held at 10:30 a.m. on Easter. Zion Lutheran Church is planning a Good Friday Communion Service to be held at 8 p.m. and an Easter Sunday Communion Service at 7:55 a.m. Trinity Lutheran Church will have a service on Good Friday at 7:30 p.m. with the theme "Walk with Jesus in his Suffering and Death." The Easter Sunrise service will be at 6:30 a.m. with the theme "Walk with the Easter Witnesses." The Youth Group will serve breakfast at 7:30 a.m. There will also be a service at 10 a.m. with the theme "Walk with Jesus in his Resurrection."

Zimmer receives award

Jerry Zimmer of Wayne, a company real estate agent was recently recognized for his efforts in real estate sales by Farmers National Company.

Zimmer received the company's top award for selling more than $1 million worth of real estate in 1997. He was recognized at a recent Farmers National Company area meeting attended by company officers, farm managers and sales agents from around the Midwest. Zimmer is part of the Farmers National Company sales team that has marketed, for each of the last two years, more than $130 million in property for landowners and investors.

Farm and ranch funds available

About $3.8 million is available to Nebraska farmers and ranchers this year through the Environmental Quality Incentives Program according to a USDA official.

Steve Chick, State conservationist for the Natural Resources Conservation Service (NRCS), said these funds are available to help pay some of the cost for installing soil and water conservation practices.

"Landowners need to apply now for these funds," said Chick. "March 13 is the date we will begin ranking the applications and start to develop contracts."

"About $2.5 million will go specifically into 12 priority project areas around the state. The remaining $1.3 million is available statewide," said Chick.

"To make an application, the landowner needs to have a pretty detailed plan of the actions to be taken so the costs can be calculated. This plan may take some time to develop," said Chick.

NRCS staff will help develop the plan. The NRCS has been taking applications for these funds since Oct. 1 and will continue to do so all year.

Now in its second year, the Environmental Quality Incentives Program provides technical, financial, and educational assistance to natural resource needs.

Half of the dollars are targeted to livestock related problems like grazing distribution or manure management and the other half to more general conservation practices like terraces, grassed waterways or pest management.

The program allows five to 10 year contracts that provide incentive payments and cost share dollars up to 75 percent for these practices, said Chick. The advantage to the farmer or rancher in applying for one of these contracts is that it reserves the money for several years so they can spread the work out.

The priority areas were reviewed by an NRCS advisory group of farm and ranch groups, ag businesses, some state and other federal agencies and other organizations. The purpose of the priority areas is to put the dollars where the needs are the greatest.

The 12 priority areas were selected from a list of 29 applications. Most of the applications were submitted by the local natural resources districts. One was sponsored by the Bureau of Indian Affairs. Another area was jointly sponsored by the NE Grazing Lands Coalition and the local NRDC.

In fiscal year '97 which ended last September 30, more than 740 contracts were funded from the 1,100 applications nationwide. Over $5.2 million was awarded in contracts last year.

Funding for EQIP comes from USDA's Commodity Credit Corporation, which funds several other USDA conservation programs. Nationally, EQIP's budget was authorized at $200 million per year, through 2002.

More information on EQIP is available at the local NRCS Farm Service Agency or natural resources district office.

Free trees offered

Ten free shade trees will be given to each person who joins The National Arbor Day Foundation during April 1998 as part of the nonprofit Foundation's Trees for America campaign.

The ten shade trees are Red Oak, Sugar Maple, Weeping Willow, Green Ash, Thornless Honeylocust, Pin Oak, River Birch, Tuliptree, Silver Maple and Red Maple.

"These trees were selected to provide shade and beauty, and a variety of forms, leaf shapes and beautiful fall colors," John Rosenow, the Foundation's president, said.

The trees will be shipped postpaid at the right time for planting in April or May with enclosed planting instructions. The six to twelve inch trees are guaranteed to grow or they will be replaced free of charge.

To become a member of the Foundation and receive the free trees, send a $10 contribution to TEN FREE SHADE TREES, National Arbor Day Foundation, 100 Arbor Avenue, Nebraska City, Neb. 68410, by April 30.

Gubbels attends Youth Seminar

Maureen Gubbels of Carroll was Wayne County Farm Bureau's representative at the 1998 Nebraska Farm Bureau Youth Citizenship and Safety Seminar, held March 22-24 at the Youth Leadership Development Center in Aurora. One hundred students from across Nebraska attended the seminar.

Miss Gubbels, 16, is the daughter of Randy and Jenny Gubbels and is a junior at Winside High School.

The citizenship portion of the seminar featured presentations on leadership, motivation, how government works, citizenship responsibilities, the value of freedom, history and the etiquette of the American flag.

The participants traveled to Lincoln to tour the State Capitol, the State Museum in Morrill Hall and Madonna Rehabilitation Hospital.

Workshop sessions focused on safety topics, including safety around firearms. Sgt. Stan Williams of the Nebraska State Patrol conducted a drunk driving program emphasizing the consequences of driving while intoxicated. The students also heard from Russell J. Simon Jr. of Roseville, Minn. about the dangers and consequences of drugs and gangs.

The Youth Citizenship and Safety Seminar is an annual program of the Nebraska Farm Bureau and its Promotion and Education Committee. County Farm Bureaus across Nebraska select local students to attend and make arrangements for their participation. This year's program marked the 25th anniversary of the Farm Bureau youth seminar.

"I really enjoyed the seminar and hope that next year more people from Wayne County will go," Maureen said.

THANK YOU for your prayers and concerns for Marcus when he was hospitalized and since he has returned home. Balloons, cards and gifts were deeply appreciated. A special thanks to Rev. Main and Rev. Tomkinson for their prayers and visits. Mike and Nancy Berns.

THANK YOU to family and friends for all the kindnesses shown us during my hospitalization and since my return home. Special thanks to Pastors Koeber and Russell for their prayers and visits and to the physical therapy department at PMC. Twila Wittse.

THANK YOU to my family and friends for their visits, phone calls and prayers. Also to Pastor Gary Main, Sister Gertrude, Dr. Wiseman, and nurses at PMC for their wonderful care. It was appreciated! Ed Watkins.

THE FAMILY of Daniel Dolph would like to thank everyone who sent cards to him for his 90th birthday. He really appreciated getting them!

Thanks to everyone who has helped us during the past nine months, for the prayers, cards, gifts, & words of concern. You are all a blessing. A very special thanks to our parents for all they have done.

Terry, Misty, Brandon & Jacob Bear

A Big thanks to Immanuel Lutheran congregation, AAL Branch 2849. To all the people who donated food and worked in the kitchen. Also to all my friends who came to the benefit soup supper and for their generous donations.
