Buyer meets artist

Logan McClelland of Wayne had the opportunity to meet Deb Gengler-Copple of Hubbard, the artist of the painting "October Flight" which McClelland bought at the ninth annual Logan Creek Chapter Pheasants Forever Banquet held at Riley's on Friday. There were 364 people attending the banquet this year. Many raffles such as the Early Bird Raffle, Chapter Sponsor Raffle, Envelope Raffle, Big Spender Raffle, Banquet Gun Raffle, and State Raffle, to name a few, were held throughout the evening where people had the chance to win many prints, carvings, TV, guns, and other prizes. Live and silent auctions were held following the banquet. The Logan Creek Chapter has raised and spent over $100,000 since their first project in 1992. A couple of the many activities they have been involved in include planting over 36,000 trees and shrubs and establishing 298 acres of nesting cover.

City of Wayne prepares for Y2K

By Nancy L. Braden

The Wayne City Council appointed me as the Y2K Coordinator. I became aware of the Year 2000 problem about six years ago when I was attending a software user's conference in Lexington, Ky. Since that time I have been asking Y2K questions, reading information on Y2K and listening to speakers regarding the issue.

Y2K is an issue because when computers were first introduced into the business world, memory was very expensive and programmers were encouraged to use as little space as possible for saving data. Hence they used a two-digit year and programmed into the software the assumption that the first two digits were 19.

This will become a problem when the date rolls over to the year 2000. Another thing that is important to keep in mind is the fact that 99's were used by programmers to have a special meaning within their programs. Two key dates that could have an impact on software are:

April 9, 1999; the 99th day of the year

Sept. 9, 1999, the first time all 9's are used in the date

So what is the city doing about the year 2000?

Since I was appointed as the City's Y2K Coordinator, we have accomplished many things. We continue to educate ourselves.

One way of education is reading and there are numerous books on the subject matter. Two that were recommended reading by presenters at one of the conferences that I have attended were "Electric Utilities and Y2K" by Rick Cowles and "Year 2000 Solutions for Dummies" by K.C. Bourne. The City purchased these two. I personally have purchased "The Millennium Bug How to Survive the Coming Chaos" by Michael S. Hyatt. Mr. Hyatt has a web site that is also very informative. It is www.michaelhyatt.com.

I receive e-mail that keeps me up on recent developments regarding Y2K issues. I have attended numerous sessions that The League of Nebraska Municipalities has had regarding Y2K preparedness.

Another seminar I attended was put on by The Nebraska Coalition for Millennium Compliance. This is a group of Nebraska businesses dedicated to educating businesses on technology issues and potential business risks associated with the year 2000.

I invited one of their members to do a presentation at the January Chamber of Commerce Membership Meeting. NPPD had a Y2K contingency planning seminar that I attended in February. They informed us how they are going to test the system communications. This test is not just NPPD, it is a nation wide test of the power grid.

And finally I am working on informing the public about our Y2K efforts. I have given presentations to two (2) service organizations to this date. I have also started writing articles for the Wayne Herald to publish regarding Y2K. The first article was basic. This is the second in this series. My intention is to keep the public updated on the city's progress regarding Y2K.

Internally our first step was to inventory all of the city's equipment, facilities, vehicles, and so forth to determine what could have a potential Y2K problem. The following types of questions were asked. Does the system rely on electronic equipment? Are there security devices or equipment in our buildings? What computers do we have? Are there embedded chips in any of the control systems? In connection with the computers, we looked at the software. Is the software Y2K compliant? If not, can it be upgraded? Is the software really used?

We identified five major areas we

Board of Education selects construction manager for renovation of schools

by Aubrey Parson
for the Herald

The Wayne Board of Education met Monday night in a special session to hear proposals from two potential construction managers for the Middle School and High School renovation projects.

Beckenhauer Construction Company of Norfolk was chosen by the Board to serve as the construction manager at risk. The company will also serve as general contractor as the projects develop.

The construction company has previously worked on Connell Hall at Wayne State College and recently completed a project in Ainsworth, Ne.

"Beckenhauer has worked on many school renovations, and that was really the selling point for the Board," said Dr. Joseph Reinert, district superintendent. "Another bonus is that they have already been through the existing Middle School and they know the building well."

RaDec Construction of Hartington also presented at the meeting.

"In other action, the Board accepted the Wayne Education Association as the bargaining agent for teachers.

The next regular school board meeting will be held on Monday, April 11 at 7 p.m.

Wayne Main Street Program will receive keys to the Peoples Natural Gas Building

The Wayne Main Street Program will be receiving "the keys" to the Peoples Natural Gas Building in a special ceremony to be held at 10:30 a.m. on Thursday, April 1, at the Peoples Natural Gas Building.

Officials from the Peoples Natural Gas Company will be in town to present to the Wayne Main Street group the keys to the Peoples Natural Gas Building at 208 Main Street. This special "Passing of the Keys" ceremony will signify the turning over of the building from Peoples Natural Gas to the Wayne Main Street Program.

Peoples Natural Gas has contributed the front end of the building to the Wayne Main Street Program to be used as the Main Street office at no cost to the Main Street program. The back end of the building will continue to be used by the maintenance and repair personnel of Peoples Natural Gas.

The public is invited to the ceremony. Refreshments will be served. People interested in participating in the Wayne Main Street Group can attend the next regular meeting of the group on Tuesday, April 6, at 7 a.m. in their new office.

Good Friday Service planned

A community Good Friday Service is again being planned by the Wayne Association of Congregations and Ministers.

The service begins at noon on Friday, April 2. The walk of the cross will process from First Presbyterian Church to First United Methodist Church.

Those who wish to participate in the walk should meet at First Presbyterian Church at noon.

Those who choose not to walk will meet at First United Methodist Church at noon where a service will take place simultaneously with the walk.

New business opens doors

By Lynn Sievers
Of the Herald

Offering a portable, instant means of communication, Duane Kosch has started a new business, DK Cellular, located at 117 Main Street in Wayne. Kosch opened for business on Feb. 15 and had his grand opening on March 8.

With lifestyles becoming increasingly hectic, cellular phones offer an affordable way to keep up with fast paced lives. Also, Nebraska is toll free now so calling anywhere within the state is free.

Kosch, a CELLULARONE® authorized dealer, carries six different styles of phones which are either hand held or bag. Special varieties can also be ordered. There are different features available to meet the needs of the customers such as call waiting, 3-way conference, caller ID, voice mail, mobile to mobile, as well as others. Phone prices vary with the different plans.

The hours for DK Cellular are daily from 9 to 5, Thursdays from 9 to 8, or by appointment. Tina Wagner of Columbus, a Wayne State College student, works part-time at the business.

On the advice of a friend, Kosch invested a sizeable amount toward the business and attended training in Lincoln.

"My friend said that Wayne would be a good place to start with the new tower here and no other business offering only cellular phones," Kosch said. "Business has been good so far. I picked a nice location and there is a lot of traffic here."

Kosch said the main office for CELLULARONE® is in Norfolk and Jerry Crosser is the district manager. "Having him nearby is helpful, especially if I have any questions."

During March 26 and 27, Kosch

Improper disposal

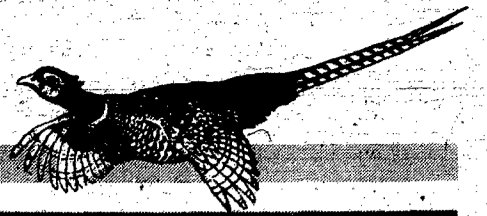

Several dead calves were found recently in a creek bed located southeast of Wayne. With rising costs of rendering charges, more and more dead animals are being disposed of in areas where they do not belong. If anyone sees animals which have been dumped in the area they should contact local authorities.

Burial was in St. Leo's Cemetery at Snyder. Moser Memorial Chapel of North Bend was in charge of arrangements.

'Optimism in My Life'

Contest offers scholarship

"Optimism in My Life" is the theme of the 1999 Optimist Oratorical Contest. This contest, open to all youth who are younger than 16 before or on Jan. 1, 1999 offers a $150 college scholarship to the national winner.

Students who participate in the local competition will receive medals and qualify to move on to further contests in the region and in the state.

The competition will be held on April 5 at 7 p.m. at the Our Savior Center, formerly the City Library. The local event is offered by the Wayne Optimist Club.

Since this club is in its initial year, this is the first time that this contest has been offered in the Wayne community. The Optimist Club is known as the "friend to youth" and looks to promote a variety of events that support and advance the lives of young people in the community.

The contest is based on participants preparing a speech from four to five minutes long that speaks to a certain theme. Each participant is judged on a set of standards. First, second and runner-up winners are established. The top winner will advance to higher regional levels.

"This is a good theme and a fun activity for youth in our community to participate," said Paul Judson, contest coordinator. Those interested in participating can pick up a form at school or call Pastor Judson at 375-2899.

Margaret Russell

Margaret Russell, 79, of Laurel, formerly of Ashland, died Thursday, April 18, 1999 at Hillcrest Care Center in Laurel.

Services were held Monday, April 22 at the Kahler-Dolce Mortuary, in Papillion. The Rev. Martin Russell officiated.

Margaret Lois Russell, the daughter of Charles and Margaret Updike, was born Aug. 4, 1919 at Scitdale, Pa. The family moved to Bordentown, N.J., where she graduated from high school. She married Theodore B. Russell at Maple Shade, N.J. on Nov. 29, 1940. The family lived in Riverton, N.J. many years, where her husband Ted managed a paper mill in Camden. They retired in Florida. For health reasons they moved to Nebraska in 1984 where her husband died. She lived in Papillion one year and then resided at Community Care of America in Ashland. In 1997 she moved to Hillcrest Care Center in Laurel.

Survivors include one daughter, Valerie and Bill Koeber of Wayne; one son, Theodore U. Russell of Blair; two grandsons, Charles and Jerry Koeber of Binghamton, N.Y. and Steve Koeber of Lincoln; nieces and nephews.

She was preceded in death by her husband, two brothers and two sisters. Burial was at Mt. Auburn Cemetery, Omaha.

Y2K

wanted to concentrate our efforts on. They are electricity, water, sewer, public safety and finance.

As a result of the inventory we found that the Power Plant has electronic controls in the monitoring equipment and control panels. We have received a letter from our electric contractor and switchgear assembler. This is the contractor who did the high voltage wiring for our power plant addition.

The letter indicated that we should not have a Y2K problem with our power plant. As a contingency plan, we have asked NPPD to fill the 300,000-gal fuel tank that serves our power plant and they have agreed to do so. With our power plant under full load it is estimated the fuel would last about nine days. One advantage we have in our favor is that Jan. 1, 2000 falls on a weekend and the majority of our industrial site will be shut down. It is also Christmas break at the college.

In the Water Department we have two wells north of town that will be operational as long as Northeast Nebraska Public Power District has power. However, in case they lose power, the four wells within the City of Wayne will be maintained during the year and can be started manually. We do keep the water towers full at all times and are planning to make sure they are full on December.

We are checking on the treatment plant controls and to this date have not received a vendor reply. All of our solid waste lift stations can all be operated manually.

Our Police Department is checking on our communication system. The Fire department did not feel that they had any equipment with embedded chips or would be impacted by Y2K.

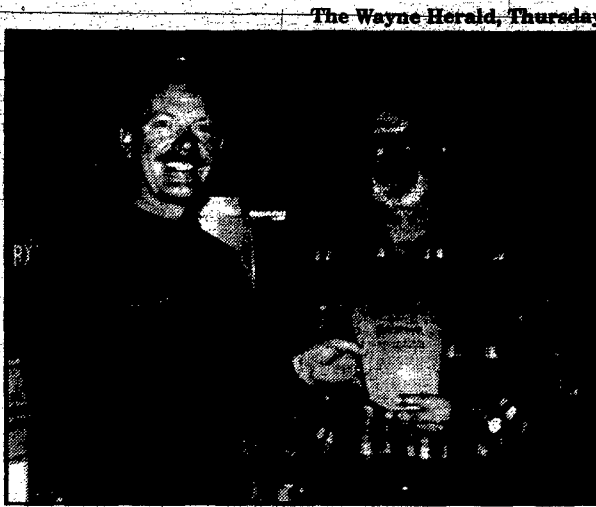

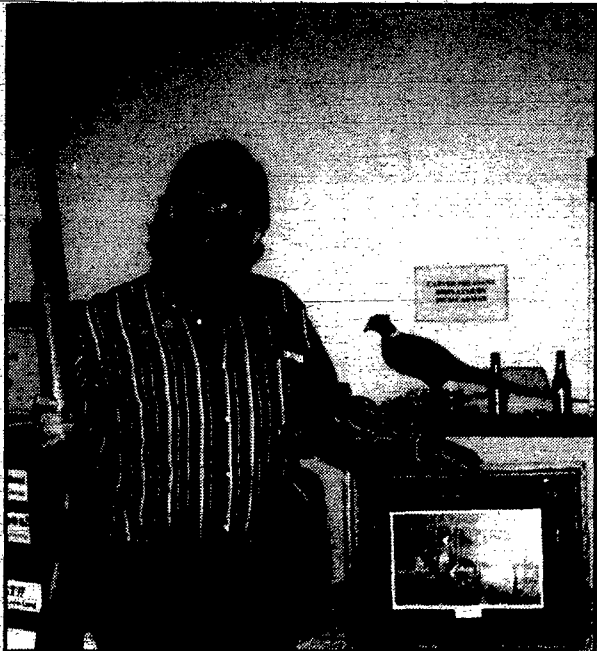

Our AS/400 operating system is Y2K compliant. Two years ago we were told that our software for payroll, budgetary accounting and utility billing would need to be upgraded. We have received the upgrades and will be implementing the software on April 1, 1999. We will run the current system and the new system parallel for about a month to make sure that it is operating correctly and we receive the same results with both systems.

To this date we have not found any major system that needs to be upgraded. We had included budget dollars to upgrade all of the PCs in the different city departments to Window 95, 98 or NT. These are 32-bit operating systems that with patches are Y2K compliant. We are also upgrading the software that is used by the departments that need to be upgraded.

Each department was provided with a list of city vendors and was asked to let me know which vendors they were concerned about. That list has just been compiled and letters will be sent to the vendors. Depending on the replies from the vendors, we may need to find new Y2K compliant vendors in some cases.

A final phase we are starting to work on is contingency planning. These plans will be used not only for Y2K but also for any disaster we may face. We are also starting to work with other agencies regarding Y2K preparations. Lance Webster and I attended an audio conference at the hospital last week that proved to be informative and allowed our two agencies to share information. I believe more agencies should be involved and working together to make us a stronger community.

I would suggest you not panic. We will survive and life will continue. I recently read in a computer magazine that said "if we all do our parts we can get through this without too much trouble." I believe in this statement.

Youth network receives recognition award

Eight area high school students that belong to the Nebraska Development Youth Network-Northeast Region attended the Nebraska Development Network Annual Conference on March 1 and 2 at the Holiday Inn in Lincoln.

The area youth presented a power point presentation to around 100 people including Governor Johanns and numerous state senators as well as members of the Nebraska Development Network.

The presentation, which highlighted the youth network was completely created by the students. The presentation opened with a description of what the Youth network was and the important role it has played in bringing together youth, schools, and communities. The presentation then preceded on with each of the six schools giving an overview of what was happening within their schools and communities.

Besides presenting to the conference, the Youth Network also received the Connecting Nebraskans Award. The award was given to "recognize the leadership and collaboration that has been exhibited to connect fellow Nebraskans. The partnerships that have been formed will ensure that Nebraska Communities can sustain themselves well into the next century by building the competence and capabilities of Nebraska's youth."

The Nebraska Development Youth Network-Northeast Region, working in partnership with the Nebraska Development Network-Northeast Region, focuses on building a formal system of communication between secondary and post-secondary schools, communities, economic development groups, and civic organizations.

The Youth Network gives students a chance to become involved in entrepreneurship, economic, community, and cultural activities throughout area schools and communities.

Michelle Sterling-Evans, Youth Network Coordinator stated that, "The Youth Network is always looking for new schools and communities that want to grow together to join the six pilot schools. We are looking for a combination of enthusiasm from not only students, but also school sponsors and administrators, and community and business leaders."

"Small towns have a tremendous amount of resource in their youth if they would just tap into it and not be afraid to use it. We are about building collaboration and coopera-is offering a promotion with Arnies Ford Mercury, a local car dealership, where if someone test drives a car, they can get a free phone with the activation of a CELLULARONE® plan. Kosch also offers customers a chance to receive free accessories if they refer two names to him and they buy phones.

Kosch came to Wayne to attend Wayne State College. His parents farm near Humphrey and he is the seventh of 10 children. He presently lives in Wayne with his brother Gene who is an insurance agent for Knights of Columbus but Kosch plans to be married in January. He also plans in May to return to WSC part-time taking business management classes.

Plans for WSTC's new auditorium-gymnasium were approved Saturday by the State Normal Board.

Wayne's city council purchased a quarter-block tract west of the swimming pool Tuesday night for development into a recreational area.

Dr. William A. Brandenburg of Maryville, Missouri, was named as WSTC president. Dr. Brandenburg will succeed the late Dr. John D. Rice. Dr. Brandenburg, his wife Gwen and children Ann and Billy will move to Wayne in time for Brandenburg to assume the presidency on July 1.

Image counts for a great deal

By Ed Howard

Statehouse Correspondent
The Nebraska Press Association

Do you remember that "Image is everything" commercial that featured one of the spoiled jerk tennis players?

Personally, I disliked it. A lot.

Telling young people that "image is everything" was about as offensive to me as that late and unlamented commercial sponsored by the State of Nebraska, proclaiming that it was "easy" to get to the "really, really good life," by striking it rich in the lottery.

However, a dislike of sloganeering (discussed in previous columns) can in no way dismiss the element of societal reality reflected in the slogans.

Let's face it. If image isn't everything, it sure as heck counts for a great deal. This is especially true when it comes to politics and political issues.

During a recent lunch among some political types it was observed that, when a campaign is concluded, the Secretary of State should do more than present a certificate of election to the winner.

It might be fitting, for example, if awards were given in a variety of categories. You know what I mean. Things like, "Best writing for a political commercial in which a candidate generalized on several issues, but said nothing."

Or: "Best commercial that made the ridiculous appear to be sublime."

The thing is, and I acknowledge it without hesitation, is that image, some kind of hook upon which a politician can hang his message, is tremendously important these days.

This brings us to Gov. Mike Johanns and his desire to implement a property tax relief system that would have the state send rebates directly to individual taxpayers. Of course, this would only happen if the state had enough money on hand to provide the rebates, but you get the idea, I'm sure.

Johanns is having more than a little trouble getting this idea through the Legislature. The Legislature has its own plan.

What Johanns clearly needs to sell his proposed policy is NOT a lot of tables and charts and policy wonk jargon. Everyone has that stuff, including the opponents of his plan (which are many). He needs to approach the policy campaign like a political.

Recent and on-going conversations which this correspondent has had with taxpayers in a variety of tax brackets have led to the conclusion that Johanns does NOT need solid logic, long-term projections, charts and graphs.

You know what he needs? He needs a darned good commercial!

And, he doesn't really have to find a way to finance a commercial, per se. All he has to do is keep saying the same thing over and over again at news conferences. It will work out about the same.

The text of the commercial, or news conference if you want to be particular, should be punchy and to the point. A question and answer type of thing might work. Like:

"Does the government take too much of your money? Do you want some of it back? Then support my bill!"

Of course, variety is the spice of advertising, so the governor could vary the message. Like:

"I want to send money to every Nebraskan who pays property taxes. If you want one of these checks, call your senators and tell 'em to support my bill!"

I've become convinced that this approach could succeed because, in the conversations to which I previously alluded, taxpayers have consistently told me a couple of things:

1. The government is going to keep taking more and more money from them. Regardless of what policy is enacted, the overall bill is going to get bigger.

2. Since No. 1 is perceived as true, then anytime there is even a REMOTE possibility of actually getting money FROM the government, it should be snatched up like a ticket to the next Nebraska-Notre Dame football game.

A possible key to success for those elected to the executive branch, who often stumble when they face the perceived need to convert political rhetoric into policy: stay with the political rhetoric. There's always a chance the public will turn it into policy for you.

Genealogy Corner

Genealogy 'spring cleaning' needed

With the calendar now proclaiming the spring season, it's once again that time of the year when many people attack their attics, garages, cupboards and drawers getting rid of all that unwanted, never used, never to be used again stuff.

But how often have genealogy files been included with this spring cleaning? What is going to happen to the family history that so much time, energy and money has been poured into? This month's column is going to address the need for genealogy "spring cleaning."

The first item on the agenda is to go through all those files and clean them out. I save a copy of all the correspondence I send until I receive a reply. Unfortunately, I don't purge my files as often as I should and before I know it, I have a decade's worth of letters I have absolutely no use for. I spent my Saturday cleaning files and have increased my storage space by 50 percent.

Second, maintain a complete and up-to-date inventory of your collection. The inventory should include antiques and artifacts, books, journals, newsletters and publication.

A photographic inventory is one step better. This inventory should be updated as you acquire additions and include date of acquisition, a detailed description and what you paid for it (if anything).

The next decision to be made is: what do you want to see happen with what you've acquired? If your children, grandchildren, or other family members are interested, great! you have a lot less to worry about.

If a family member is not interested, then the time is now to make some gut-wrenching decisions: deciding what is going to whom when you leave this earthly home for the ultimate genealogy trip—a face to face meeting with your ancestors!

If it is your wish to donate your collection to a library or historical society contact them immediately. Some institutions don't have the room for such collections. Those that are interested have acceptance conditions. By contacting them early to discuss the possibility you are ensuring a safe home for your collection or are then able to make other arrangements. And they won't be surprised when several boxes magically appear on their door step.

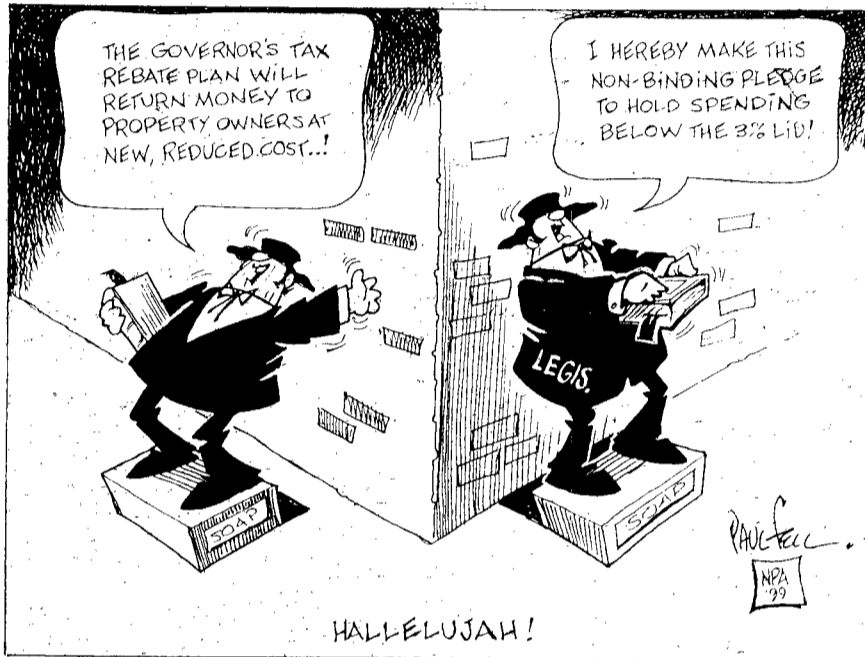

If you want the Family History Center, a division of the Church of Latter Day Saints, to have a copy of your research, send them a GEDCOM disc. They will not want all your research papers and notes.

The best way to ensure your possessions will be distributed as you wish is to have it stated in your last will and testament. You may tell your family whom is to get what, or even write a letter laying everything out, but your spoken words and letters are not enforceable by law. A will is.

If you don't think your family will have a house sale with all your work, think again. I've been to countless house sales and have seen a lot of old books, magazines, postcards and photographs. Many times these items don't make it to a box on a table at a house sale; they go straight to the landfill. To prevent this from happening you must state your wishes in your will.

I know that you are anxious to get started so I will close. Until next month, happy cleaning!

Genealogy Corner appears in the Wayne Herald the last Thursday of each month. Readers are encouraged to submit their genealogy-related questions to the writer in care of the Herald for appearance in a future column.

Midwinter conference interesting

Well, here we go again!

The Midwinter Conference of the Nebraska League of Municipalities was very interesting. They had general sessions for everyone and special sessions for newly elected officials of government.

There were 24 new legislative bills relating to city governments that were reviewed.

A very interesting session was presented by State Senator Dave Landis on Negotiations for Public Officials that was very good. Sen. Landis is a professional negotiator by education and he has a very good presentation.

Y2K Planning and contingency plans were discussed and City Treasurer Nancy Braden is on top of that locally and has attended workshops around the state to be sure we are in control of that situation.

A big plus locally is that we have our own power supply if the main grid goes down for a time. We are lucky in that regard. Every system (water, sewer, power, police, communication, city computers, phone systems) just to mention a few are being evaluated and updated if necessary to be sure that all systems and services will continue beyond Jan 1, 2000 without any major interruption.

The main message here to twofold. First, don't hoard. That shouldn't be necessary and that alone causes needless problems.

Second, if any problem should occur, it should be very temporary. Something like a bad snowstorm when everything is a mess for a day or two and we here in the midlands are usually very prepared for that.

How many times have you heard the expression regarding city council meetings "they already decided that before the meeting and it was a done deal by the time the public got there?"

Well if "THEY" did and "THEY" had a secret meeting to decide public business, then major laws were broken AND whatever "THEY" decided would not hold up in a court of law.

Public meeting law has been in place for several years and is referred to collectively as the "Sunshine Laws."

I will give you a few examples as they pertain to the city council. There are many others that deal with other public bodies in the state but I will spare you those.

Art 14 Sec 1408 States "Formation of public policy is public business and may not be conducted in secret."

Every meeting of a public body shall be open to the public except when in closed session.

Every closed session must be voted on by a majority of members and only if it is clearly necessary for the protection of public interest OR prevention of needless injury to the reputation of an individual AND if such individual has not requested a public meeting."

There are a number of reasons closed sessions may be held and these are spelled out in Art. 14, Sec. 84-1410.

Also spelled out are the reasons that a closed session may NOT be held.

Attendance at meetings, travel to conventions or workshops, etc, do not apply as long as no vote or actions are taken regarding public matters. Sec 84-1411 states "Every public body shall give reasonable advance publicized notice of the time and place of each meeting. Such notice shall be transmitted to ALL members of the public body AND to the public."

The agenda is to be included in the notice. The agenda is NOT to be altered later than 48 hours before scheduled city council meetings except in an emergency. In an emergency meeting, only items pertinent to the emergency may be acted upon AND must be recorded in the minutes.

Any news media requesting must be notified in the same advance manner if they chose to attend.

Anybody is free to come to the advertised meetings without identification. If anyone wishes to address the public body, they may be required to identify themselves.

If this has bored anybody to tears, I'm sorry. This is the law that I feel several voters do not know and should know.

Remember, it is YOUR government and YOUR responsibility to effect change if you don't like it. Come to your city council meetings. It is democracy in action. YOUR vote AND opinion DO count.

Watch for the next article April 15th.

Wayne has can-do attitude

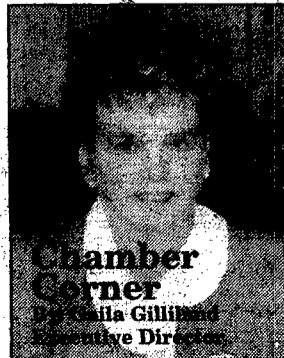

Delayed a week, the Chamber's Membership Blitz kicked off on March 16 at Grandma Butch's Bed & Breakfast. Larry Bartscher, Vice President of Advertising for the Norfolk Daily News, led the pep rally by saying that Wayne's can-do attitude is well known throughout the state.

He stressed that members of the business community need to be members of the local Chamber of Commerce. Ambassadors, Board members, and Council chairs picked up packets of information to leave when calling on prospects. My thanks and appreciation go out to each and everyone who played any part in the Membership Blitz!

Also on March 16, members of the Wayne Area Chambers Tourism Council made a presentation to the Wayne County Commissioners in support of initiating a county lodging tax. The tax on motel rooms is collected by motel owners, and is used strictly to promote county tourism efforts. There will be a public hearing on the lodging tax issue at the April 6 meeting of the Wayne County Commissioners at 10 a.m.

The following Nebraska tourism publications are now available at the Chamber/Industries office: Nebraska Catalog of Events, Nebraska Traveler, and Northeast Nebraska Visitor's Guide. According to state tourism officials, 321,000 copies of Nebraska Traveler were distributed in 1998.

Please contact the office for your supply!

The Chamber/Industries office maintains a supply of Nebraska state maps as well as maps of surrounding states and selected others. We participated in an annual brochure swap. This means that tourism information from around Nebraska is as close as the Chamber/Industries office. For those of you planning summer activities, we intend to have Chicken Show brochures available at the end of April.

The search continues for a full-time administrative assistant for the Chamber/Industries office. For more information, feel free to contact me at 375-2240; or interested parties may drop off a resume and three references at the office.

DIXON COUNTY SPELLING BEE

The Dixon County Spelling Bee, under the direction of County Superintendent of Schools, Lionel Froseth, was held on March 3 at the Haskell Agricultural Laboratory.

Twenty-five students, five from the Dixon County Schools of Allen, Sacred Heart, Newcastle, Ponca, and Wakefield, took a written spelling test.

Top spellers then advanced to the oral spell-down. Andrea Liebsch and Anthony Wilmes from Allen advanced to this part of the spelling bee. Anthony Wilmes was eliminated in the third round and Andrea won second place, making her an alternate for the Midwest Spelling Bee in Omaha.

ULDRICH QUALIFIES FOR STATE

In January, all Allen students in grade five through eight took a geography "bee" test created by National Geographic Society. Corey Uldrich was sent on to the next level.

He received work this week that he qualified for state competition in Omaha on April 9. Winners of the state competition will advance to the National Geography Bee held at the National Geographic Headquarters in Washington, D.C. on May 25-26.

SPEECH CONTEST

Four Allen students and Coach Connie Roberts traveled to Walthill on Feb. 27 for conference speech contest.

The Golden Years

Author Norman Mailer at age 75 published his latest book, "The Time of Our Time," 50 years after his first one catapulted him to fame. That was from Here to Eternity, based on his experiences in World War II. Unlike other postwar novels, it didn't glorify war. It shocked some readers with its strong language and portrayal of military thinking. "Since then Mailer has written 31 books and earned several Pulitzer Prizes. In some ways, he says, "writing is the most enjoyable life you can have...and if you can make enough to live off your writing, it's even better."

Herbs for Health

Saw Palmetto for an Enlarged Prostate

Problems related to an enlarged prostate (called BPH or benign prostatic hyperplasia) most often occur in men after age 45. However, symptoms typically do not appear until age 60 or later. Up to 40 percent of men aged 70 years and older have symptoms that include an urge to urinate and difficulty emptying the bladder completely. IF BPH is allowed to continue without treatment bladder infection and possible kidney damage can occur. Prescription medicines used to treat BPH symptoms include finasteride (Proscar) and terazosin (Hytrin).

According to a recent report in The Journal of the American Medical Association, an extract from the saw palmetto plant may provide a safe and effective alternative to treating BPH. Dr. Timothy Wilt and colleagues reviewed 18 carefully controlled, scientific trials involving the use of saw palmetto in 2,939 men with BPH. Side effects from the herb were mild as compared with prescription medicines. They concluded that saw palmetto was effective in improving BPH symptoms and the flow of urine.

McDermott named District Coach of the Year

Johnson is tabbed All-American

Wayne State College's Tyler Johnson was named to the National Association of Basketball Coaches Chevy Silverado Division II Men's Basketball All-America First Team, as voted by the Division II basketball coaches.

In addition, Wildcat head coach Greg McDermott was tabbed the NABC's North Central District Coach of the Year.

Johnson, a 6-2 senior point guard from Hebron, was one of five players named to the first team. Joining him were Antonio Garcia and Dana Williams of national champion Kentucky Wesleyan, Tim West of Morningside College and Eddie Robinson of the University of Central Oklahoma.

Johnson, who was chosen to the NABC North Central District First Team two weeks ago, becomes the first WSC men's basketball player to earn All-America honors since Wayne State became a Division II program over 10 years ago.

"Coming from a small high school, you never think something like this could ever happen," Johnson said. "This is one of the bigger honors. Not to put down any of the other All-America teams, but to be named to the coaches All-America team shows that you are well-respected by the coaching staffs."

"I felt he deserved to make one of the three All-America teams," McDermott said of Johnson. "But by the same token, I feel he was one of the best point guards in the country and is deserving of first-team status."

Johnson was a key figure for the Wildcats this season. He averaged 15.0 points and 6.1 assists per game as he directed WSC to a 23-5 record and the program's first appearance in the North Central Regional Championships.

Johnson led the 'Cats in scoring in 11 of 28 games this season including a season-high 31 points in an 82-75 win over Morningside. The four-year starting floor general also recorded three 'double-doubles,' bringing his career total to 13.

In leading Wayne State to its first appearance in the NCAA Division II tournament, Johnson became the school's all-time second-leading scorer, in addition to his career assist record. Johnson went over the 1,600-point and 600-assist plateau. He finished his career with 1,625 points and 610 career assists. In addition, Johnson broke the school record for career free throws attempted (719). He just missed the career free throws made record with 520, five short of Larry Coney's record of 525 set from 1958-62.

"There is no way I could have accomplished this without great players right beside me," Johnson said. "It takes a total team effort. This honor is a reflection of the team's success. We all did it together."

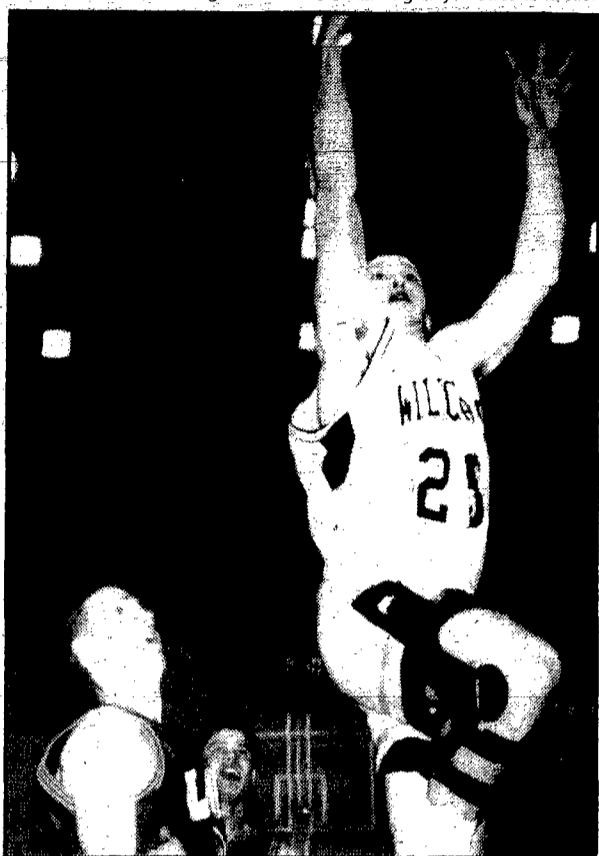

IN HIS FIVE seasons at Wayne State, McDermott has taken the Wildcats to new heights. This year, the 'Cats reeled off a school record 17 straight victories en route to a number three national ranking in the NABC/Division II Bulletin Top 25 poll.

The Wildcats spent six weeks in the top 10 before finishing the regular season ranked 11th.

McDermott, who improved his record at WSC to 90-47 (.657) is now fourth on the WSC career win list and second in winning percentage among individuals who coached at least three seasons at Wayne State.

McDermott has led the 'Cats to three straight 20-win seasons the past three years, something that had not been done since the 1967-68, 1968-69 and 1969-70 seasons.

With McDermott at the helm and Johnson running the show on the court, the Wildcat program posted a 64-19 record over the past three seasons.

Wayne State's Tyler Johnson was named first-team All-American by the NCAA Division II coaches of America. Johnson closed out his career as the second all-time leading scorer with 1625 points and the all-time leader in assists with 610.

'Cats to host UNO on Sunday

WSC sluggers go 3-3

The Wayne State baseball team went 3-3 at home the past week with a sweep of Briar Cliff and a split with South Dakota State while being swept by South Dakota.

Last Thursday WSC opened its home campaign with a pair of wins over Briar Cliff, 10-2 and 5-4.

In the first game WSC blasted 13 hits while holding the Chargers to just four with both teams committing three errors.

Tate Meier went 5 2/3 innings and earned the win, scattering three hits and allowing two runs (none earned) while striking out four. His toughest ordeal of the game came in the first inning when he pitched out of a one-out bases loaded jam. He retired 11 straight batters from the second through the fifth inning.

Jason Sloger pitched the final 1 1/3 innings and allowed just one hit.

Matt Luckett provided the offensive spark from his lead off position. The shortstop blasted his first home run of the season and added a double and two singles while notching three-rbi and scoring twice.

Clint Brown doubled twice and Eric Neumayer doubled and singled while Brian Zimmerman also netted a double. Joey Baldwin, Joe Rocz, Brandon Brockman and Joel Tremblay each had singles.

WSC scored seven times in the second inning and was never threatened. The first six guys to the plate reached base.

Clint Brown led off with a double while Brandon Brockman singled to score Brown, Eric Neumayer then doubled to score Brockman before Sergio Ruiz earned a walk. Joel Tremblay reached base on a fielding error before Matt Luckett singled to score two runs.

Following a double play, Joe Rocz singled to score another run and Rocz later scored on an error. Clint Brown then doubled to score another run before the 'Cats were retired.

Only four of those runs in the second inning were earned as Briar Cliff committed three errors.

In the second game WSC came from behind with three runs in the fifth to take a 5-4 lead and held on for the win.

Aaron Hyde earned the win in relief of starter Matt Foral. Foral when 4 2/3 innings, scattering three hits with four runs being scored. He struck out five. Hyde went the final 2 1/3 innings and didn't allow a hit while striking out four.

Joe Rocz blasted a two-run homerun in the fifth inning to tie the game at four and the next batter, Brian Zimmerman, hit a solo homerun to put the 'Cats ahead for good. WSC out-hit the Chargers, 7-3. Joey Baldwin was the only multiple hitter in the game with two singles while Matt Luckett belted his fifth double of the season.

Clint Brown and Joel Tremblay also had base hits for the winners.

South Dakota on Saturday, falling twice, 11-5 and 11-2.

In the opener WSC was out-hit by a 11-5 margin with Jason Sloger taking the loss in relief of starter Tom Gacke. Adam Walkenhorst and Billy Meyer also pitched for the 'Cats.

WSC took a 5-2 lead after the first inning but USD tied the game in the second and went ahead for good in the fourth inning.

Brian Zimmerman singled twice to pace WSC's offense with Eric Neumayer doubling. Matt Luckett and Clint Brown each singled.

The first inning saw 11 WSC batters go to the plate. With one out Joey Baldwin and Joe Rocz earned walks. Brian Zimmerman singled to knock in one run. Clint Brown singled to score another run before Brandon Brockman drew a walk.

Eric Neumayer then doubled to score two runs and Sergio Ruiz reached base on an error and Joey Tremblay was walked which scored a run. WSC ended the inning with bases loaded.

The 'Cats were blasted in the second game, 11-2 with Patrick Coghlan taking the loss from the mound. Billy Meyer and James Johannes also saw action from the hill.

WSC was out-hit, 10-4 and the 'Cats committed four costly errors. Matt Luckett had half of WSC's hits with two singles while Joe Rocz doubled and Joey Baldwin singled.

SUNDAY'S TWINBILL with South Dakota State ended with a split as SDSU took the first game, 5-4 before WSC won the second contest, 4-2.

In the opener SDSU grabbed a 5-0 lead after five-and-a-half innings before the 'Cats scored three in the sixth.

SDSU's runs in the sixth inning were the first earned runs given up by WSC pitcher Brady Borner in 19 1/3 innings pitched this season despite falling to 0-2 on the year.

Borner went 6 2/3 innings and gave up six hits while striking out seven. WSC was out-hit by a 6-5 margin.

Matt Luckett, Joe Rocz, Clint Brown, Sergio Ruiz and Joel Tremblay each had a base hit.

WSC scored its final run in the seventh inning in an attempt to erase a 5-3 deficit. The game ended with a runner at first base.

The 'Cats improved to 5-8 on the season in the second game with a 4-2 win as Aaron Hyde earned the win in relief of Matt Foral.

Hyde pitched the final four innings and scattered three hits and two runs while striking out three.

Joel Tremblay blasted a two-run single in the second inning and Josh Stolpe added a solo homerun in the fourth while Joey Baldwin laced an rbi single in the fifth.

The 'Cats out-hit the Jackrabbits, 8-4 as Stolpe homered and doubled while Baldwin singled twice. Joe Rocz doubled with Brian Zimmerman, Clint Brown and Joel Tremblay each netting a base hit.

WSC coach John Manganaro said at this point in the season his squad is making too many physical errors and mental mistakes.

"We're definitely a young team but that's no excuse for some of the errors we've had," Manganaro said. "We have the talent but it's a confidence thing."

Manganaro said the 'Cats played as well as they could play in sweeping Briar Cliff but did a jekyll and Hyde routine from Thursday to Saturday against USD where they played shaky at best.

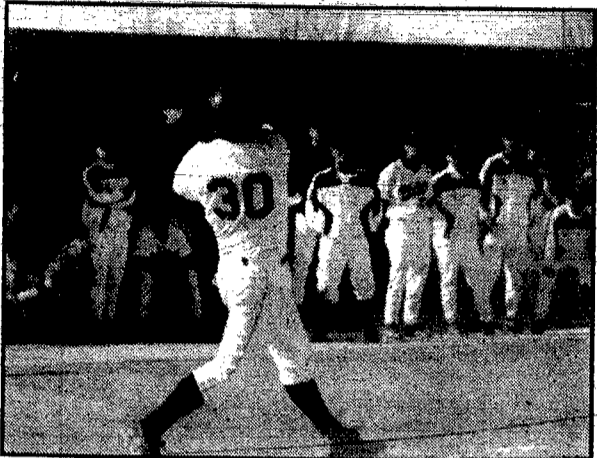

"We forgot to swing our bats and we made a lot of mental errors," Manganaro said. "We simply played terrible during that stretch."

The 'Cats are currently hitting .274 as a team which is far below the .320 team goal. The fielding percentage is at .918 below the .970 goal.

"The area we're really doing well in is pitching," Manganaro said. "Our goal was to be under 4.0 and we're currently at 3.49."

WSC will play a twinbill at UNO on Saturday before hosting that same UNO team on Sunday in double-header action at 1 p.m.

Conference play begins April, 2 against Southwest State.

Wayne State senior Clint Brown takes a cut at a USD offering during action last Saturday in Wayne.

Softball team struggling

The Wayne State softball team is amidst a mini-slump, dropping six consecutive games through Monday.

The 'Cats lost a twinbill at Bellevue in Omaha last Thursday, 7-0 and 6-4.

WSC was out-hit in the opener, 6-4 but the 'Cats committed five costly errors.

Kim Nielsen was the losing pitcher, pitching all six innings, giving up six hits and seven runs (two earned) while striking out five.

Tara Minnick, Heather Conley, Jennifer Berning and Sarah Mischeel each had a base hit for the 'Cats.

In the second game WSC led 2-0 after four innings and took a 4-2 lead in the first of extra innings before Bellevue tallied four in the bottom of the eighth to notch the win.

Katie New was tagged with the loss, scattering 11 hits and giving up six runs. WSC was out-hit, 11-7 with Tara Minnick leading the offense with a double and single while Sarah Herrick and Sarah Mischeel each singled twice.

Carrie Ausdemore belted a double to round out the hitting.

The game ended on a three-run homerun by Secord.

Sunday in Vermillion, S.D., the 'Cats dropped a pair of games to Buena Vista, 3-1 and Southwest State, 6-0.

Against Buena Vista the 'Cats were edged in hitting, 7-6 with Sarah Herrick doubling and singling to lead the 'Cats while Codi Drieling singled twice.

Michelle Lewis and Jennifer Berning each doubled as three of the 'Cats six hits went for doubles.

Lewis took the loss from the mound while pitching the first two innings of the game. Kim Nielsen relieved Lewis for the final four innings and scattered just two hits.

WSC was limited to just two hits against Southwest State in a 6-0 loss. Sarah Herrick laced a pair of singles to account for the 'Cats offense.

WSC was pounded for 13 hits by the Mustangs as three different pitchers tried their luck against Southwest State with Katie New taking the loss. Heather Conley and Codi Drieling also saw action on the mound.

WSC will host Southwest State on Thursday afternoon at 2 & 4 p.m. before playing at the UNK tourney this weekend.

Volleyball team inks Iowa native

Janeen Goedken, a volleyball standout at Xavier High School in Cedar Rapids, Iowa, has signed a national letter of intent to attend Wayne State College and play volleyball for the Wildcats, head coach Sharon Vanis announced.

Goedken, a 6-2 middle hitter, started four years at Xavier, a Class 4A school in Cedar Rapids which was formed from a merger between LaSalle and Regis High Schools.

An All-Mississippi Valley Conference second team selection, Goedken broke two LaSalle school records during her junior season. She broke the record for blocks in a season with 116 and blocks per game at 1.22. As a senior she ranked 26th in the state in hitting efficiency.

"She has a lot of natural athletic ability. She is a good blocker with good size and jumping ability," Vanis said. "Right now her blocking ability is her strong point."

Goedken brings this year's recruiting class to five members. Four other high school seniors signed with the Wildcats in February.

That group included: outside hitter Kayla Batten of Council Bluffs, Iowa; setter Kasey Meyer of Wisner; middle hitter Rayna Nelson of Homer and middle hitter Laurie Schroeder of Laurel-Concord.

With the addition of Goedken, the Wildcat roster now features 13 players for next season. The squad features three seniors, five sophomores and five freshman. Vanis said she hopes to sign one more player to complete the recruiting class.

Help Keep Your Memory Fresh With Mind Games

"We hear a lot about exercising our bodies but not much about flexing our mental muscles," said Ms. Knight, a consultant on older adult issues. Challenge your mind with daily crossword puzzles, Scrabble, or other work-or-card games. Take a class or read. To improve memory remember this: you must use your brain. It operates on a "use it or lose it" basis.

PRESENTS FLAG

The American Legion Auxiliary recently presented the Senior Citizen Center a flag and stand to be used at their new sight at the Haskell House.

Making the presentation was Americanism Committee Chair Sharon Salmon. Senior Center Director Mardell Holm accepted it on behalf of the Senior Center.

SPELLING CHAMPION

Marion Miner repeated as the top speller in Dixon County at the contest held at the Haskell Ag Lab on March 3. He represented Dixon County at the Midwest spelling bee held on March 13.

Marion also won the Dixon County Contest in 1998. He is the son of Lee and Theresa Miner of Wakefield. He attends Sacred Heart Elementary School at Emerson.

Marion correctly spelled ascension and then avalanche to become the 1999 winner.

Runner up was Andrea Liebsch of Allen and Drew Sherer of Wakefield finished third.

Four of the five contestants from Wakefield were among the 11 finalists, following the written portion of the contest. Those were Katie Davis, Ashley Schultz and Zach Dolen, the Wakefield champion. The other qualifier from Wakefield was Nate Henderson.

Parents of the Wakefield students are Dusty and Laurie Davis, William and Julie Schultz, Mike and Cathy Gifford, Julie Dolen and Tom and Marcia Henderson.

Top spellers from each school received a dictionary. Those included Drew, Andrea and Marion, along with Lukas Rohde from Newcastle and Breanne Jensen of Ponca.

WINS AWARD

Marvin and Lois Borg, Mark and Angie Borg, Karen and Lyle Borg and Jason and Denise Erb of Borg Supply of Concord recently attended the MFS/Work/Stormore 1999 National/International Sales Conference in San Diego, Calif. Conference participants received updated information on the MFS/Stormore Grain Storage Products and Work Grain Handling Products.

During the business training sessions at the conference, new products, product enhancements and technical support information were presented. All Attendees participated in group discussions on individual equipment lines to share ideas and further enhance customer knowledge of these products.

During the Awards Banquet, Borg Supply was presented with a "Gold" High Volume Sales Award. These prestigious awards are given annually to those dealers who have demonstrated their sales activities to reach award levels in sales volume in the various product lines. Borg Supply attained their Award for Grain Storage Equipment sales.

CELEBRATES DR. SUESS BIRTHDAY
The Wakefield Elementary students recently celebrated Dr. Suess' Birthday with cake and other special activities. Also on March 2, his birthday, the kids had green eggs and ham, the title of one of his books.

Another one of Dr. Suess' stories for children is "The Cat in the Hat" and the kindergarten students made cat in the Hat-hats and were in the library to enjoy decorated cake, storytime and a video on Dr. Suess.

Members of the afternoon class were Nancy Godin, Angie Gallardo, Shawn Suing, Peter Lundahl, Bentley Hingst, Audre Hoffman, Hugo Ortiz, Angel Tello, Alex O'Neill, Jesus Moreno, Brock Soderberg, Zuleiva De La Isla, David Marin, Victoria Nelson, Makenzie Servis, and Pedro Valadez.

Also attending were Mrs. Miller, a student teacher; Mrs. Linda Steinman, the kindergarten instructor; Mrs. Jamie Olsufka, an aide and Mrs. Jeaneen Kindschuh, K-12 librarian.

Each classroom visited the library during the day as it was also "Read Across America" day and were served birthday cake. The purpose of the celebration was to encourage the kids to read in a variety of ways.

OFFICER OF UNK HISTORY HONORARY
The University of Nebraska at Kearney Pi Nu chapter of Phi Alpha Theta, the international history honor society, has been awarded the best chapter award for 1998. Christ Mortenson of Wakefield is president of the chapter. He was chapter secretary for the 1998 spring semester.

The award was given by the International Phi Alpha Theta history honor society in division III which is comprised of chapter from colleges and universities with 6,000-10,000 students.

The annual award is based on the submission of the chapters annual report. The report includes a list of meetings, conferences attended, sponsored programs, guest speakers, fund-raising activities, campus involvement activities, honors and awards.

In conjunction with the award, $250 has been given to the UNK chapter. The dean of natural and social sciences and the director of the Calvin T. Ryan Library both matched the $250 award for a total of $750. This money will then be donated to the Calvin T. Ryan Library to buy books. The UNK Pi Nu chapter has now donated more than $1,750 worth of materials to the campus library.

The UNK chapter also received the 1998 UNK student Alumni Foundation Award in recognition for its commitment to student leadership.

EAGLE SCOUT REUNION

Eagle scouts and guests are invited to a special luncheon in honor of Eagle Scouts on Saturday, April 10. The event will be held at the Georgetown Club at 2440 South 141 Circle in Omaha.

The event is sponsored by the Mid-America Council of the Boy Scouts of America. Any Eagle interested may stop at the Republican Office for ticket reservation information.

VISITORS

Ethan and Cecelia Wheeler of Omaha spent March 12-14 with their Great Grandparents Bill and Hildegarde Fenske.

COMMUNITY CENTER

Work on the new Hoskins Community Center has been progressing nicely. Larry and Jody Kruse have donated their time and the primer to do all the painting inside and will be completed soon.

This weekend the "volunteers" are putting in the drop ceiling. The carpet and tile will be here the first part of April, and Gene Wagner has donated part of his time to lay this.

An open house is being planned, tentatively, for April 25. There will be more on this issue at a later date. Donations are still needed, so if anyone can help, please send donations to Hoskins Community Improvement, PO Box 44.

VILLAGE BOARD

Hoskins Village Board meeting will be held on March 29 at the Fire Hall at 7:30 p.m.

Students honored

Heather Jo Patefield, a senior at Laurel-Concord High school, has received a Canfield Scholarship, Leadership Award. She plans to major in advertising.

Katie Hoffmann and Brandon Kai, both seniors at Wakefield High School, are also Canfield Scholarship recipients.

Hoffman plans to major in speech-language pathology and audiology.

Kai plans an undeclared-agricultural sciences.

Brian Hochstein, a Wayne High School senior, has received a Canfield Scholarship. He plans to major in pre-architecture.

Katie Hoffman has also received a Pepsi Scholarship for outstanding volunteer service and leadership.

Hailey Daehnke, a senior at Wayne High School, is also a Pepsi Scholarship recipient. She is undeclared in her major.

Brian Hochstein has also received a Canfield Scholarship, Leadership Award, Chancellor's Leadership Class.

There were 304 Canfield Scholarships awarded, 111 students were admitted to the 1999-2000 Chancellor's Leadership Class and 40 Pepsi Scholarships for Outstanding Volunteer Service and Leadership were awarded.

Canfield Scholarships are one-year academic scholarships of $1,000 granted to Nebraska high school seniors. The primary criteria for the scholarships are academic performance in high school and admission test scores. The awards are named in honor of Chancellor James H. Canfield who led the University of Nebraska to a position of national prominence in the 1890s.

The Pepsi Scholarships are one-year, $1,000 grants. Recipients must be full-time students and must participate in weekly non-credit leadership development seminars that focus on volunteer service.

The scholarships are funded through an endowment created by the 12-year contract signed in 1997 by UNL and the Pepsi-Cola Co. granting Pepsi the exclusive right to sell soft drinks on campus. The scholarships reflect the desire of both the university and Pepsi to recognize students who understand the importance of volunteerism in America and have demonstrated leadership and dedication in working to improve their communities.

Membership in the Chancellor's Leadership class is open to high school seniors who have demonstrated strong leadership in their schools and their communities during their high school years. They receive one-year, $1,000 scholarships that may be used in addition to Distinguished Scholar, Regent, David or Canfield Scholarships.

PARTNER COMMENT on Real Estate
Alan Stoltenberg, Broker
STOLTENBERG PARTNERS
What's A Fair Price?
What is a "fair" price on real estate? The term used by mortgage lenders, appraisers, and real estate brokers to identify a "fair" price is "fair market value." "Fair market value" is "that price which a buyer is willing to pay, and at which price the seller is willing to sell, both parties being knowledgeable about the property, and neither party being under any time pressure to buy or sell."
The starting point for determining a fair price is an opinion of value, also known as a "comparative market analysis." Such an analysis uses information on similar properties which are: 1) "For Sale" currently, 2) recently "Sold," and 3) "Expired" (properties which did not sell). Properties "For Sale" indicate what the competition is asking. Properties already "Sold" show what buyers are willing to pay. Properties which have "Expired" indicate what buyers are not willing to pay.
By comparing similar properties in each of the three categories, it is possible to arrive at an educated opinion of "fair market value."

If you plan to sell your home, please give me a call for a free comparative market analysis.

Presented plaques

Plaques were presented to Ray Roberts, Erwin Morris, and Kevin Davis in appreciation of their dedicated years of service on the Carroll Rural Fire Protection District Board and Carroll Volunteer Fire Department. Years of service include: Roberts-20 years, Erwin-18 years, and Davis-15 years. Shown, left to right, Rick Davis, Fire Chief, Erwin Morris, Kevin Davis, and Ray Roberts.

Summer volunteers needed

The community of Carroll has a new concession stand and many new improvements have been made at the ballpark. The summer ball program needs volunteers for committee members, coaches, coaching assistants, and umpires. It is already getting late in the season and without volunteers, there will be no summer recreation this year. Please call Pat Bethune at 585-4507 if you can help out in any way or attend the organizational meeting set for Monday, March 29 at 7 pm at the Carroll Auditorium.

Hansen wins United States National Award

Mandy Hansen, a Wayne High School student, has been named a United States National Award winner in English.

Hansen was nominated for this national award by Mrs. Ruhl, a teacher at the school. Hansen's name will appear in the United States Achievement Academy Official Yearbook, which is published nationally.

Hansen is the daughter of Gene and Karen Hansen of Wayne. Grandparents are John and Pauline Dall of Wayne.

The Academy selects USAA winners upon the recommendation of teachers, coaches, counselors, and other sponsors and upon the Standards of Selection set forth by the Academy.

Criteria for selection includes student's academic performance, interest and aptitude, leadership qualities, responsibility, enthusiasm, motivation to learn and improve, citizenship, attitude and cooperative spirit, and dependability.

National Poison Prevention Week

March 21-27 is designated National Poison Prevention Week. This year's theme is Children Act Fast - So Do Poisons. According to the American Association of Poison Centers, children under age 6 years accounted for over half of all reported poison exposures in 1997, with over one million poison exposures reported. Twenty-five children died as a result of poison exposures. Substances most often associated with poisoning included personal care products, cleaning products, and pain medicines.

Most childhood exposures occur in the home (88% in 1997). Parents and other adults can help provide a safe environment for children by: • keeping cleaning supplies, cosmetics, and medicines out of the reach of children; • keeping the phone number of a poison control center posted near the telephone; and • being prepared to respond to a poisoning emergency.

Eaton-Ward exchange vows at Evangelical Covenant Church

Mindy Eaton of Wakefield and Vince Ward of Laurel were married on Dec. 19, 1998 in a 6 p.m. ceremony at the Evangelical Covenant Church at Wakefield. The double ring-rites were performed by Pastor Ross Erickson.

Parents of the couple are Paul and Janelle Eaton of Wakefield and Regg and Mary Ann Ward of Laurel. Grandparents are Harold and Mary Ward of Laurel.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride chose an ivory matte satin gown with a V-neckline, fitted bodice, and a Basque waistline. Beaded schiffli embroidered lace adorned the bodice. The detachable cathedral length train attached at the back waist under an elegant satin bow. The train was adorned with schiffli lace motifs. Renaissance sleeves finished with bridal points to complete the look.

The bride carried a bouquet of white sweetheart roses, stephanotis, and baby breath which was accented with burgundy ribbon loops and ivory streamers.

Maid of honor was Maria Eaton of Omaha.

Bridesmaids were Deb Ward of Lincoln, Kristin Eaton of Wakefield, and Michelle Wittse of Laurel.

Mr. and Mrs. Ward

They wore angel skin burgundy dresses and carried a single long stemmed white rose.

Best man was Greg Ward of Lincoln.

Groomsmen were Jim Quist, Ryan Kvols, and Travis Stingley.

The flowergirl was Kara Cruickshank of Homer and the ringbearer was Jared Kvols of Laurel.

Ushers were Luke Schmidt of Madison, Brad Zierott of Murdock, and Russell Zierott of Beatrice.

Personal attendants were Susan Brudigam and Andrea Lundahl of Wakefield. Cindy Eaton of Wakefield pinned flowers. Candlelighters were Alyssa Mieras of Orchard and Elly Harder of Laurel.

A reception in honor of the couple was hosted by Terry and Lynette Roth of Pender and Duane and Sue Stingley of Laurel. The reception was held in the Wakefield Legion Hall. Guests were registered by Katie Roth of Lincoln. The wedding cake was cut and served by Shirley Trampe of Norfolk and Kathie Wakefield of Underwood, Iowa. Punch servers were Andrea Lundahl and Susan Brudigam. Waitresses were Janna Erickson, Lori Brudigam, and Ashley Anderson of Wakefield. Reception attendant was Deb Lundahl of Wakefield and coffee servers were Sheri Eaton of Wakefield and Sharlene Coulter of Blair. A dance with "Complete Music" followed the reception.

The bride and groom are 1997 graduates of Laurel-Concord High School and are attending Wayne State College. They are residing in Wayne.

Celebrating builds family unity

Celebrating together as a family helps build unity and strengthens the bonds among members. Family unity and feeling part of the family are especially important in times of stress and trouble.

Celebrate together major accomplishments, successes and marker events in lives of all family members. Examples of events to celebrate include: good grades in school, the last cow finally calved, safely finishing planting or harvest, a new job, first driver's license, loss of the first tooth, birthdays, anniversaries, religious ceremonies or anything else that is important to a family member. It is important to celebrate with all members of the family, not just the children.

Celebrations don't have to cost a lot of money. They can be simple little remembrances that make someone feel special. Setting the table with canopies or different dishes will make even macaroni and cheese seem special. A red plastic plate can be designated the "You Are Special Today" plate. Put it at Johnny's place when he passes a spelling test in which he has struggled with several words. Or put it at Dad's place when he gets the fence replaced. A special note of encouragement can be added to the backpack or lunch box on days of a big test or when things seem bleak. Even a "high five" and smile when a teen shares with you a test grade or other school accomplishment is a celebration that is appreciated by the teen.

Make a family goal to celebrate something every week with simple, inexpensive recognitions. If your family is not accustomed to celebrating you will have to work at it first, but the more you celebrate, the more all family members get into it and will be enriched by the family recognizing their accomplishments. Remember to celebrate Mom and Dad's special accomplishments too.

Be generous with hugs and kisses and other signs of affection. All family members need love and understanding and even more during troubled and stressful times.

Anderson inducted into Dana Honors Program

Desiree Anderson of Hoskins was among 16 Dana College students who were inducted into the Dana Honors Program this spring.

Students may apply for admission to the Honors Program if their grade point average is 3.5 or above. They must also present a letter of recommendation from an academic advisor or other Dana College faculty member.

The Dana College Honors Program was adopted by the faculty during the 1996-97 academic year. It is designed to challenge academically gifted students to realize their full intellectual, social and spiritual potential. Participants in the program are called "Morton Scholars" in honor of the late Dr. Richard E. Morton, president of Dana from 1944-56.

In order to graduate as a Morton Scholar from Dana College, students must complete a minimum of 20 semester hours of honors credit, including a senior thesis project presented publicly, and maintain a grade point average of at least 3.5.

Anderson, a 1998 graduate of Winside High School, is majoring in Biology and Music at Dana. She is the daughter of Larry and Angie Anderson of Hoskins.

Wayne County #8212

Lutheran Brotherhood holds branch meeting

Lutheran Brotherhood Wayne County Branch #8212 held their Branch Meeting for members, communicators, and Pastors on March 21 at Geno's Steak House. Pastor Ted Youngermeyer gave the dinner prayer with 54 in attendance.

President Dave Olson welcomed everyone and reported that already in 1999 there was a need for all the 1999 Disaster and Challenge Funds allotted for the Branch.

Paul Jensen, L.B. Unit Advisor of Council Bluffs, Iowa, commented on 1998 as the Best Year ever for using Fraternal Funds for Lutheran Brotherhood in the nation.

He also reported on Fraternal Branch funds, Baptismal medallions, Resources for Sunday School, church libraries, Pastors, etc. Also, soon to arrive will be a new Lutheran Brotherhood Market Catalog, and a new 12 hour "Healthy Congregation" Retreat is coming soon.

Lynette Krie, area Fraternal Consultant gave each congregation represented at the meeting a pie server for Church kitchen. She reported on Seminars, Scholarship Programs and Products of Lutheran Brotherhood, and the new "Simply Giving" Program by Lutheran Brotherhood for a "No Charge" Bank Electronic Giving Program for Churches. Roy Sommerfeld announced on Clean-Up Day on April 25 of Lutheran Brotherhood which includes a two mile roadside south of Wayne. Volunteers are needed.

Writing pads and pens were given to members and guests. Phyllis Rahn gave out door prizes of flower plants to Lynette Krie, Dee Moeller, and Roger Lentz. The next Branch meeting will be on July 4, 1999 for a 6 p.m. supper in Bressler Park.

Awana in Quiz Bowl

Seventeen third through sixth graders from the Concord AWANA Club competed against nine other teams at a Bible Quiz on Feb. 20. The event was held at First Baptist Church in Norfolk.

The purpose of the Quiz is to promote Bible memory and to give the clubbers a greater love for and working knowledge of the Bible.

Placings were as follows:

Third place-5th grade boys (Explorers) Jim Eisenhauer, Dustin Lewis, Chad Oswald, and Breland Ridenour.

Second place-3rd grade boys (Braves) Nick Hansen, Shaun Kardell, and Chris Schoning; 3rd grade girls (Maidens) Kacie Gould, Allison Thompson; 4th grade boys (Warriors) Cody Hartman, and Michael Patefield; and 5th grade girls (Compass) Jessica Dickey, Katie Calhoun, and Amanda Nelson.

First place- 4th grade girls (Princess) Katlyn Dahlquist, Ashley Maxon; 6th grade boys (Voyagers) Cole Beckman, and Brady Hartman; and 6th grade girls (Anchors) Makayla Hansen and Marissa Roney.

Barb Oswald of Allen coached and organized the quizzers while other AWANA leaders helped them review and prepare.

Katlyn Dahlquist and Ashley Maxon (Laurel) both had perfect scores during the Quiz.

Pastor Handrich leads Bible Study at Immanuel

There were 12 members of Immanuel Lutheran Ladies Aid who attended the March 18 meeting. Janice Mau of Wayne, Ada Bartels of Wakefield and Edith Cook of Carroll were guests.

Pastor Brian Handrich presented the Bible Study about Abraham's wife, Sarah. Nila Schuttler conducted the business meeting.

A resignation note from Eleanora Rauss was received since they have moved to Norfolk. Bonnie Schrieber and Beverly Ruwe gave the visitation report. The committee had visited the Wayne Care Center on March 15.

A discussion on Spring Church Cleaning was held and also about having a guest day in May. The birthday of Mrs. Lloyd Roeber was honored. Hostesses were Bonnie Nelson and Alice Roeber. The next meeting will be April 15 at 2 p.m.

Our Savior Women have Lenten theme for March

The Program Circles of Our Savior Women of the ELCA met on March 10 with the Lenten theme "UP from the Grave He Arose."

Leader for Faith Circle was Marilyn Pierson and hostesses were Eva Nelson, and Norma Backstrom.

Joy Circle leader was Dorothy Grono and hostesses were Joy Magnuson and Lillian Granquist.

Leader for Love Circle was Phyllis Rahn and hostess was DeAnn Behlers.

Rachel Circle is in charge of nursery cleaning in March and Faith Circle is responsible for April. Visitation Committee had met on Feb. 17 with 14 visitors, Pastor Koerber and Pastor Kiwelu present. Fifty-eight Valentines, two "thinking of You," one sympathy and two baby cards were signed. Fifty-six members were visited or received a phone call.

May Fellowship will be May 7 at 9:30 a.m. at Our Savior.

Anyone interested in making or donating layette items for the Laotian people in the Dakota City area or attending the gardening day at Dakota City this spring should contact Arlene Ostendorf.

John C. Sievers will be the guest speaker for the July 14 Guest Day. His topic will be the "Healing Power of Humor."

Executive Board meetings will continue to be held on the Saturday morning preceding the regular program circles. Board meetings will be at 9:30 a.m. with the next meeting to be on April 10.

Songwriter, guitarist to perform

Gary Randall, a songwriter and guitarist from Madison, SD will present a pageant and concert "Watch The Lamb" at the United Methodist Church in Wayne on April 1 at 7:30 p.m.

Randall is a new Christian talent who has down to earth messages from his own life experiences that he conveys to the audience.

His music is simple with words from scripture that forms the framework for the basic message of each song.

In the past three years, Randall has shared his faith through word and song in South Dakota, Iowa, Nebraska, Minnesota, Colorado, Alaska, Washington, Oregon, Idaho, and Montana.

The public is invited for an evening of fellowship, worship and inspiration.

4-H'ers participate in public speaking contest

Ten 4-H'ers in Dixon County participated in the 4-H Public Speaking Contest which was held on March 15 at the Haskell Agricultural Laboratory near Concord.

The 4-H Public Speaking Contest gives 4-H'ers the ability to develop their speaking skills and also share their 4-H learning experiences with others.

Those participating in the event were awarded the following ribbons:

Novice Division—included 4-H'ers who are 8 and 9 years of age. Purple ribbon: Whitney Smith of Allen with her speech entitled "The Fair." Blue ribbon: Drew Beldin of Ponca with his speech entitled "The Star Spangled Banner."

Junior Division—included 4-H'ers ages 10 and 11. Purple ribbons: Brielle Koch with her speech entitled "Shorts & More Shorts," Becky Hoelsing with her speech entitled "Muffin Dilemma," Heather Bearnese with her speech entitled "Lamb Chops," all were from Laurel. Hillary Beldin of Ponca also received a purple ribbon with her speech entitled "Arthur the Great." Blue ribbon: Carla Rastede of Allen with her speech entitled "Hands."

Intermediate Division—included 4-H'ers 12 and 13 years of age. Purple ribbons: Kristen Koch of Laurel with her speech entitled "Try, Again," Makayla Hansen of Laurel with her speech entitled "The Summer I'll Never Forget," and Kelli Rastede of Allen with her speech entitled "Choose 4-H."

In the Public Service Announcement Division, Kelli Rastede of Allen did a 30 second PSA. She received a blue ribbon.

Each county is eligible to send two 4-H'ers from the Junior, Intermediate, and Senior age divisions in both the Public Speaking Category and the Public Service Announcement Category to the Northeast District Contest on Saturday, April 24 at the Lifelong Learning Center in Norfolk.

Representing the Junior Division Public Speaking Category are Brielle Koch, daughter of Mark and Sue Koch of Laurel and Becky Hoelsing, daughter of Dan and Jill Hoelsing of Laurel.

In the Intermediate Division, Kristen Koch, daughter of Mark and Sue Koch of Laurel and Makayla Hansen, daughter of Dan and Lori Hansen of Laurel. Kelli Rastede was also chosen in the intermediate PSA division. Kelli is the daughter of Allan and Marcia Rastede of Allen.

A special presentation was also given by Leslie Boeckenhauer and Kasci Scott of the Wakefield FCCCLA Chapter. They gave their presentation on Teenage Alcohol Use.

'Backyard Farmer' launches 46th season on Nebraska ETV

"Backyard Farmer" is going live this season. Once a month, program panelists will answer live calls about gardens, lawns, landscapes, trees and shrubs.

Now in its 46th year, the hour-long program will air 7 p.m. Tuesdays, April 6-Aug. 31 on Nebraska Educational Television Network. It also will be broadcast on Educable at 9 p.m. Thursdays, and 11 a.m. and 3 p.m. Fridays, said Brad Mills, program producer and media specialist for the University of Nebraska's Communications and Information Technology unit.

Live, on-air calls will be taken April 20, May 18, June 15, July 13 and Aug. 17.

"Backyard Farmer" is a gardening question-and-answer show hosted by NU Cooperative Extension—specialists Fred Baxendale, Roch Gaussoin, Don Stuenkel and John Watkins. NETV's Reggi Carlson moderates the panel. It also features two video segments demonstrating water conservation, pest management and other how-to-ideas. These segments come from Nebraska counties where local master gardeners can field questions from area gardeners.

Topics presented by Cooperative Extension educators include reducing gardening strain, rainwater conservation, garden and soil preparation, community trees, strawberry production and herb gardening.

NU specialists also will cover spring pruning, genetics, small trees, how to send in samples and renewing old landscapes. Mills said these topics will emphasize research being done at NU's Institute of Agriculture and Natural Resources.

Also new this year will be the video streaming of the entire show at the "Backyard Farmer" Web site at <http://byf.unl.edu/>.

Counties featured this year, by date, are:

*April 6, Keith; April 13, Seward; April 20, Dawes; April 27, Boone

*May 4, Dodge; May 11, Saunders; May 18, Knox; May 25, TBA

Pre-registrations are preferred by April 9 so that adequate materials can be planned. There is no cost. The series is being sponsored by the University of Nebraska Cooperative Extension Dixon County in cooperation with the agencies that are providing speakers.

Accomplishes task of cleaning piles on desk

I cleaned my desk off yesterday! Some of you don't appreciate what an accomplishment that is. But I work from the "pile" method: a pile here and a pile there; lots of piles "to be looked at later."

People who teach time-management and organization skills say we should sort paper as it comes into the house. I never get that done. Hence, these periodic cleaning binges.

One of the things I found is a page from The Arizona Republic's travel section. The editor did a one-paragraph synopsis of each of the "lower 48" states, explaining "out of the way" places that were his favorites.

For instance, he says if you want to get away from civilization, you can hardly do better than the middle of Kansas. You stand looking out over the grass and wonder, "If they dropped the Big One here, would anyone hear it?"

You'll never guess what he says about the Cornhusker state. "People look at me funny when I tell them that Nebraska is my favorite state to visit."

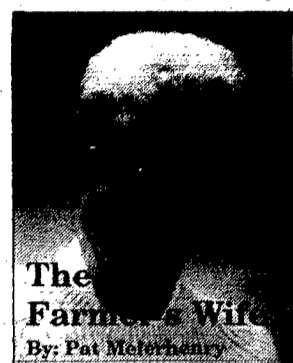

The sand hills, the national forest, the Platte River, and Scottsbluff—they all seem unbearably windblown and lonesome. I love them all, but in North Platte, you cannot feel alone, at the biggest railroad freight yard in the country. You can watch trains all day." He doesn't even mention eastern Nebraska.

Another item in my desk drawer was the book by my old friend, Keith Sehnert, "Selfcare/Welcare" in skimming its pages to help me remember his practical advice, I came across a list of the 50 states according to the amount of stress found, using factors like business failures, number of divorces, and high school dropouts.

Of course, the list is now 20 years old; but at that time, Nevada was ranked most stressful and Nebraska the least.

Wisconsin, North Dakota, South Dakota, and Iowa all rated right above us. All, of course, are farm states known for stability.

I was so moved by the stories of the volunteers fighting the grass fires between Mullen and Thedford. Today, they were setting up hay and pasture hot lines. A prairie fire must be very stressful, but the ranchers responded in typical fashion.

By: Pat McLaughlin

Another incident that gives me goose bumps concerns the father of a Plattsmouth resident who had just finished watching his daughter's basketball team win their district. In the hallway of the school, his heart stopped.

He was successfully resuscitated, and was interviewed on TV this week. His parents attend our church, and were with him when it happened.

Certainly makes us all appreciate the gift of life, with gratitude for living in a great state. Even if the wind does blow most of the time!

LIQUID CORN STARTER

Super 55
Lowers Your Cost/Bushel

When corn prices are down and costs are up — you need Super55 Liquid Starter Fertilizer. You get more corn with less fertilizer. Using Super55 Liquid Corn Starter lowers your cost per bushel and increases profit.

Starts Corn in Cold Soils
Planting early means placing seeds in cold, wet soils — conditions that tend to tie-up existing nutrients. Applying Super55 Liquid Starter provides an immediate supply of N-P-K plus sulfur and zinc

Reduces Nutrient Stratification
When broadcasting fertilizer, nutrients accumulate near the soil surface. Banding Super55 liquid starter puts nutrients deep

Reduces Weed Pressure
Starter fertilizes the crop, not the weeds. Starter promotes early growth, forming a canopy to shade weeds and slow their growth.

Produces Drier Corn
Super55 gets corn off to a faster start. This in turn speeds up other stages of growth — corn matures faster and is drier at harvest.

Increases Fertilizer Efficiency
Super55 Liquid Starter is the most efficient way to fertilize high-yield corn. Fertilizer tie-up is reduced, nitrogen loss is less and nutrients are more positionally available. The result — a little Super55 Liquid Corn Starter does a lot!

Don't forget Soybeans...they also respond to liquid starter!

Available at your local fertilizer dealer:

Since 1954

Injecting Super55 Liquid Corn Starter at planting time, 2 inches below and 2 inches to the side of the seed, provides an immediate source of N-P-K plus sulfur and zinc.

NOTICE OF CHANGE OF CONTROL

A notification has been submitted to the Federal Reserve System by the Sauvage Trust, Marquis Sauvage, and Alan Sauvage whose residences are 4270 S. Decatur, Suite B-1B, Las Vegas, NV 89103; 1101 S. Valencia Villa #6 Denver CO 80231; and 5094 Spanish Hills Dr. Las Vegas, NV 89103, respectively, to retain ownership or control of West Point Bancorp, Inc., West Point, Nebraska. West Point Bancorp, Inc. in turn owns all of the stock in Farmers & Merchants National Bank, West Point, Nebraska, Farmers & Merchants State Bank, Wayne, Nebraska, and Dakota County State Bank, South Sioux City, Nebraska. The Ward Sauvage family has owned a significant interest in West Point Bancorp since 1978. This transaction does not change the percentage of stock held by the Sauvage family, but does result in interest within the family via the Sauvage Trust. You are invited to submit written comments on this notification to the Federal Reserve Bank of Kansas City, 925 Grand Boulevard, Kansas City, Missouri 64198. The comment period will not end before April 15, 1999. If you need information about how to submit your comments, contact Mr. D. Michael Manies, Assistant Vice President of the Federal Reserve Bank of Kansas City, at (816) 881-2789. The Federal Reserve will consider your comments if they are received by the Federal Reserve Bank on or before the last date of the comment period.
