Still golfing at age of 90

By Clara Osten
Of the Herald

Despite the fact that her 91st birthday is less than two weeks away, Blanche Collins of Wayne continues to do something she loves — golf at the Wayne Country Club.

Collins, who did not miss one of the Tuesday Morning League's golf dates this summer, has been golfing for a number of years but did not golf on a regular basis until her retirement from teaching in 1972.

Miss Collins is the youngest, and only living survivor of a family of eight children.

"My family included my brother Bill, sisters Mary, Irene and Winnie and brothers Leo, Charles and Lawrence. Because I was youngest, I spent a lot of time playing ball with my brothers. This is part of the reason I enjoy sports," Blanche said.

She said that she played basketball in high school and college.

She graduated from Carroll High School and Wayne State College.

Blanche then taught English and Latin in Battle Creek, West Point, O'Neill, Timber Lake, S.D. and Norfolk during her 42 years in the profession.

She earned her Masters' Degree from the University of Colorado at Boulder.

"While I was in Colorado, I took a golfing class. We would practice first and then play nine holes," she said.

Through the years, putting has become Blanche's specialty.

"I have a putting machine in my house and at one time I was a good putter," she said.

Although her scores have gone up in recent years, Blanche did have scores in the 50's when she first retired.

Blanche is on her second set of golf clubs and owns a Harley Davidson golf cart that her brother Bill gave her.

Blanche has received a number of first and second place awards for her golfing abilities through the years. She and her team-mates won the league championship in 1976.

During this year's season, the members of the Tuesday Morning League competed as individuals rather than teams.

"There were approximately 20 ladies of all ages who golfed on Tuesday morning. I have been the oldest lady golfing for a number of years," Blanche said.

In addition to golf, Miss Collins enjoys knitting and cooking.

"My mother taught me to knit during World War I when we knitted squares for soldiers. Since that time

'Wake up with Wayne' activities on Saturday

Main Street Wayne is having a fall festival built around the Wayne State College Band Day parade and football game on Saturday, Sept. 11.

The festival's theme is "WAKE UP with Wayne!"...then join us after the game!!

Donna Trampel, director of the Main Street project, said, "The Promotion Committee of Main Street felt it was important to have a fall festival and they felt it was natural to build the festival around the Wayne State College Band Day parade and football game."

"The advantages seemed many. Not only do we have an opportunity to get people to town, but it gives us an opportunity to work with the college to help enhance the parade and to work with farmers, churches and other segments of the community to display their wares and to show off their organizations with a float in the parade. We are hopeful that this can grow and become a tradition for Wayne," Ms. Trampel added.

The festival is designed to capitalize on the additional visitors to town for Band Day and to create entertainment and fun for these visitors as well as for people from the Wayne area. Activities have been designed for people of all ages. The fun starts at 7 a.m.

A pancake feed will kick off the festival and will be held at the Women's Club Room in the City Auditorium. In addition there will be a Farmers' Market on West Second Street; a Flea Market in the alleys of Main Street next to the Diamond Center and old Daylight Donut building. Artisans will be housed in the former Daylight Donut building and crafters are scheduled to be under the awnings of Main Street businesses between Second and Third Streets.

At 9 a.m. there will be a music and exhibition by the "Leather & Lace" Square Dancers Club in the Magic Wok parking lot. Throughout the morning there will be various youth demonstrations, games and contests. A skate board demonstration will take place in the parking lot next to the State National Bank Park on Second and Main Streets.

Blanche Collins, who will soon celebrate her 91st birthday, uses her favorite 3-wood to practice her golf swing. The women she golfed with during this season recently presented her with a golfing book following the completion of the season.

Style Show set for Sept. 19

"Yesterday's Lady" will be the theme for the fourth annual Wayne Hospital Auxiliary Style Show planned for Sunday, Sept. 19.

This year's event begins at 2 p.m. at Riley's Convention in Wayne.

Yesterday's Lady is Susan McClain of York. She and her husband Mike have been collecting vintage clothing for nearly 10 years.

The couple has a large collection of clothing ranging from 1840 to 1960. She will be sharing her collection of Victorian and Edwardian fashions at this year's style show.

Dessert and refreshments will be served.

Proceeds from the annual event, as well as those raised during the Auxiliary's bazaar in November, will be used toward the purchase of a mobile vital signs unit for Providence Medical Center.

The cost for the unit is approximately $5,000.

According to Karen Kwapnoiski, Assistant Director of Nursing, the unit is "quick and easy to operate and saves a lot of time. It can be used all over the hospital."

The self-contained unit provides temperatures, pulse and blood pressure as well as oxymetry readings. It is less disturbing to patients than traditional monitors. The unit is also capable of providing a printed read-out of the vital signs.

At the present time the hospital has two units but would ideally like to have one in each department of the hospital.

Tickets for the style show may be purchased at State National Bank & Trust Co., First National Bank and Farmers & Merchants State Bank, all in Wayne.

Since the Wayne Hospital Auxiliary came into existence in 1960, it has contributed over $100,000 to the hospital.

Local youth work toward skate park

By Clara Osten
Of the Herald

A group of young people in Wayne have a dream.

They would like to have a place where they can use their skates and skate boards, safely and away from where they could do harm to themselves and others.

In recent weeks the group has begun to work toward that goal.

Some time ago Kyle Wilson began a petition signing process to see if there was an interest for a skate park in Wayne. Charles Holm continued the process and more than 300 signatures were obtained.

The group of skaters, generally between 18 and 22 young men, gather each Thursday evening at 5:30 p.m. and spend two to three hours doing some type of community service activity.

"The first week we started with the basketball courts near the swimming pool. We took a lot of garbage from that area," said George Holm, one of the parents who has been working with the young people toward their goal.

Several concerned citizens provided the youth who cleaned up the basketball courts near the swimming pool with pop and pizza last week.

The group has also cleaned the sidewalks along Highway 35 after the construction process was finished and worked on the corners at Seventh and Main Streets.

This week's project includes cleaning downtown sidewalks and alleys before Wake Up With Wayne and Band Day activities.

They plan to continue to do community service activities for several more months.

Last week, before the work began, the youth were treated to pizza and pop by several local citizens who had seen them working and were impressed by what had been done.

In addition, those who have worked with the skaters said the youth have learned a lot during this process.

"It is amazing how much they have learned. Some have learned how to sweep, how to use power tools and laws of physics," George said.

As part of the attempt to get a skateboard park in Wayne, the group has tried to educate the public about the sport of skateboarding.

According to recent statistics there are 10 million skateboarders in the U.S., making it the sixth largest

Loetscher chosen for board

Jolene Loetscher of Wayne has been chosen to sit on the "Board of Directors," a consumer advisory board on the new online financial management site WingspanBank.com.

The "iBoard" is made up of six Internet users chosen from different walks of life who work with the bank's management, representing the wants and needs of the public.

Loetscher, who attends Northwestern University, was chosen from a nationwide Internet search, to be one of the six consumers who is helping to shape the look and feel of the new bank.

"She has been 'surfing the net' since she was 14 years old and feels 'online banking is crucial to college students because of their time and transportation limitations."

"Today one-third of American households are using the Internet," said Jim Stewart, chief executive officer, WingspanBank.com. "As people continue to advance on the Web -- from purchasing books and music -- to investing in the stock market -- we want to be on the forefront of offering them what they want, when they want it, in the most effortless way possible. The 'Board of Directors' input will help us achieve that goal."

Frank Cappiello, Wall Street Week panelist and financial expert, lends his expertise to both WingspanBank.com and consumers by acting as the chairman of the iBoard. The group will convene quarterly to discuss how WingspanBank.com can respond to customers' needs most effectively, review new sections and recommend additional ways to enhance the site.

PARTNER COMMENT on Real Estate

Alan Stoltenberg, Broker STOLTENBERG PARTNERS

BE APPROVED ON THE SPOT!

When buying a home, how can you enjoy a quick, hassle-free buying experience? Once you've identified the perfect home, "make an offer." This is done by writing a purchase agreement and, when accepted by the sellers, becomes the "contract of sale" which governs the closing of the transaction.

Many buyers make offers, which contain several contingencies. Their purchase agreement contains terms and conditions, which can be confusing, cause delays, and siphon dollars from the sale proceeds. Sellers often hesitate, procrastinate, and outright reject such offers.

The key to gaining the sellers' acceptance is to offer the sellers "easy terms" thus encouraging "instant approval" of your purchase agreement.

Choose your next home carefully, then make your offer simple and to the point. Avoid "special terms and conditions" like "carpet to be replaced in master bedroom." The easier your purchase agreement is to understand, the more likely it will be accepted on the spot. Enjoy your new home.

The sport began in the 1950's and 60's with surfers. It is now a year-round sport.

Injury statistics also indicate that it is a safe sport.

The U.S. Consumer Products Safety Commission reports that there have been only three deaths involving skateboards in the U.S. since 1980.

Skateboarding injuries rank considerably lower than those with baseball, basketball and soccer.

"Most of these accidents occurred to skateboarders who had been riding only a short time or who were riding in an unsafe area. With a skate park, many of these injuries could be prevented," George said.

A total of 12 sponsors have helped in the effort to promote a skate park.

The sponsors have helped pay for t-shirts which will be available as both a fund-raiser and to promote the sport.

A skating demonstration and video will be part of this week's Wake Up With Wayne activities.

Cooking is also something Blanche learned from her mother.

She enjoys cooking for her family who are scattered across the United States.

Blanche still drives where she needs to go in Wayne but she has given up out-of-town driving.

Blanche will turn 91 on Sept. 21. Her family will honor her with a birthday party for the occasion.

At 10 a.m. the Band Day Parade will take place. This will be followed at noon by the Band Day Pre-Game show and the Wayne State College football game at Cunningham Field and Memorial Stadium.

For young people who do not care to go to the game, there will be free children's movies at 1 and 3 p.m. at Twin Theater.

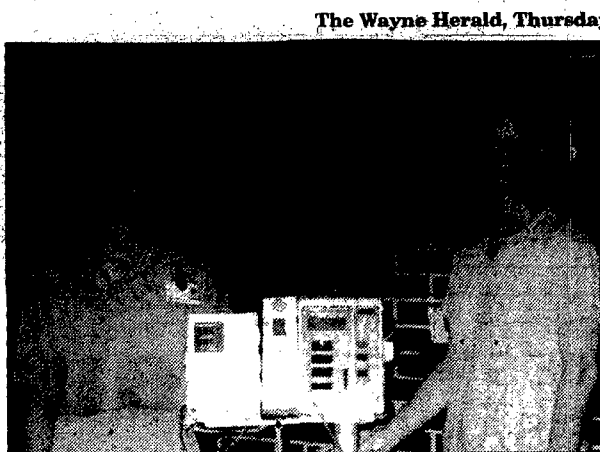

Following the football game, activities will move to Victor Park (South Main Street) where there will be live music, a pet show, skate board exhibitions and demonstrations and kiddie/youth games.

Area restaurants and food concessionaires will have food booths and this is being tabbed as the "Taste of Wayne."

All activities are open to the public. There is no admission or entrance fee, but people are encouraged to bring their own seating to Victor Park.

Interested farmers, artisans, flea marketeers, crafters and other organizations and vendors are invited to participate.

Organizations and people interested in having a float in the parade are also encouraged to call the Main Street Office at 375-5062.

Goal in mind

Karen Kwapnoski, Assistant Director of Nursing at Providence Medical Center, left, demonstrates the mobile vital signs unit the Wayne Hospital Auxiliary plans to purchase with funds raised from this year's Style Show and Bazaar. With her is Diane Pieper, President of the Auxiliary. The unit costs approximately $5,000 and can be used throughout the hospital.

UNMC student will train in Lincoln

Emily McBride of Laurel will be training in Lincoln at the Bryan LGH Medical Center from Sept. 27 to Oct. 22. She is a student at the University of Nebraska Medical Center in Omaha in the College of Pharmacy.

University of Nebraska Medical Center students are working with health professionals across Nebraska as part of their health care education requirements at UNMC. The student rotations are part of the UNMC Rural Health Education Network (RHEN), an innovative program developed to help address the shortage of health professionals in rural Nebraska. The students represent the colleges of medicine, pharmacy, and the School of Allied Health Professions.

The purpose of RHEN is to change how and where primary care students at UNMC are educated. RHEN was developed to expose students to a rural health setting with the idea that if students received their training in a rural area, the chances are much greater that they will return to a rural area once they complete their training.

UNMC is the only public academic health science center in the state. Through its commitment to research, education, outreach and patient care, UNMC has established itself as one of the country's leading centers for cancer research and treatment and solid organ transplantation. More than $34 million in research grants and contracts are awarded to UNMC scientists annually.

In addition, UNMC's educational programs are responsible for training more health professionals practicing in Nebraska than any other institution.

Soy: A Source of Natural Estrogen

Soy is derived from soybeans - a legume and member of the pea family. Soybeans represent an excellent source of plant protein - low in fat and cholesterol-free. Consuming soy protein has been shown to improve calcium balance in humans by decreasing excretion of calcium in the urine and promoting calcium absorption from the gastrointestinal tract.

Attention is now being focused on this plant food for another reason. Soybeans contain compounds called phytochemicals. One of these phytochemicals is estrogen. The estrogen in soybeans is referred to as phytoestrogen to distinguish it from a similar hormone produced by animals.

Phytoestrogen was a topic at a recent American Heart Association meeting. In the studies presented, it was shown that phytoestrogen in soy reduced the frequency as well as the intensity of hot flashes in women. One study showed that night sweats and hot flashes were more frequent in women from Canada who eat few soy-based products as compared to women from Japan where soy is a dietary staple.

KIDS CONNECTION CELEBRATES 1ST ANNIVERSARY

By Governor Mike Johanns

Dear Nebraska Neighbors:

On September 1, 1998, the Nebraska State Children's Health Insurance Program known as Kids Connection was established to provide health care coverage for uninsured children living in underprivileged families who may not have otherwise been able to afford adequate care. The creation of Kids Connection meant that Nebraska families with incomes at or below 185% of the federal poverty level would be eligible for health care coverage, and thereby access to quality health care services.

Kids Connection organizers set out to increase the number of Nebraska children receiving health care coverage under Medicaid and the Children's Health Insurance Program (CHIP) sponsored by the federal government. After just one year, Kids Connection has proven to be a resounding success for the health of our state's children and their families.

Before Kids Connection began, 87,770 Nebraska children were enrolled in Medicaid. Kids Connection organizers looked to increase that number by 15,170 in the first ten months of the program. In fact, 16,402 children were signed up in that time, and by August 30th, 18,400 children had been enrolled statewide, just 580 short of their two-year goal.

So impressive is this record, that at the National Governors' Association meeting on August 8th, Nebraska was cited by the Health Care Finance Administration (HCFA) as one of the top three states, along with Ohio and South Carolina, for effective enrollment practices and policies relating to the CHIP program.

While national recognition of this kind is always gratifying, the real victory for Kids Connection should be seen in the overall increased health of Nebraska's children.

Kids Connection makes it possible for the entire family to have access to health care, not just parents and adults who have a job with insurance benefits. It means that children whose families may not have been able to afford it in the past, can benefit from preventative and wellness care such as regular medical check-ups, immunizations, dental and vision exams, medications, eyeglasses, and specialty services such as physical therapy. It also means that in times of emergencies and hospitalization for major medical problems, parents can feel assured that they will be able to provide for their children the necessary care to bring them back to health without the fear of large medical bills.

In addition, access to health insurance means more than just quality care in times of illness or injury. Healthy children learn better in school, feel better about themselves, are more confident, and have a brighter outlook on life. With adequate health care on their side, there is one less strike against underprivileged children in their struggle to rise above the tough times and grow into successful, independent adults. Nebraska is fortunate to have a program like Kids Connection that makes it possible for children of low income families to enjoy these benefits.

The success enjoyed by the Kids Connection program is a product of many things, not the least of which is hard work. The efforts of Kids Connection organizers, the Nebraska Health and Human Services System (HHSS), organizations such as Voices for Children of Nebraska, schools, hospitals, doctors and nurses across the state have fostered an extensive statewide network of outreach programs, community and professional partnerships, and public information activities.

In a very direct way, Kids Connection demonstrates Nebraska's commitment to providing proactive health coverage to Nebraska's children and young people in families with low income and without health insurance, and the willingness of Nebraska families to support the program.

For more information about the Nebraska Kids Connection program, contact Deb Scherer, Kids Connection Program Manager at 402-471-0122 or call the toll-free number 1-877-NEB-KIDS (1-877-632-5437). Also, the HHSS Website can be accessed at www.hhs.state.ne.us, where a special page is dedicated to the Kids Connection program and the application can be downloaded and completed at home. Healthy children today will ensure a strong tomorrow in our "Nebraska United."

Capitol News —

Courts are at battle

By Ed Howard
Statehouse Correspondent
The Nebraska Press Association

Leave it to a respected district court judge whose name rings of the Green Isle to live up to a summer that has seen mostly routine and dullish opinions come from the direction of the Nebraska Court of Appeals.

Judge John P. Murphy of North Platte was taken to task at length, if not in depth, by a three-judge Appeals Court panel last week.

The Appeals Court was annoyed because Murphy had uttered the words, "I don't care what THEY say" in reference to the folk on the lower level of the state's appellate court system.

The Irishman got himself in dutch not so much for what he said, but for what he failed to say.

Murphy should have made clear on the record, as he later acknowledged, that he was lecturing an attorney who he viewed as something of a laggard.

He was telling the attorney that it is the Nebraska Supreme Court that should be referenced when the argument centers on an issue upon which the state's highest court has spoken.

The Appeals Court crew outranks Murphy, but the Supreme Court bunch outranks everyone. Get it?

Anyway, the Appeals Court opinion used a lot of words to accuse Murphy of being an egotist of the intellectual sort and wrong-headed in regards to the law. The Appeals Court thought Murphy was saying that he wouldn't abide by precedent setting Appeals Court decisions.

That's not what Murphy meant, he made clear.

However, the whole episode raises a question about the Appeals Court and the Supreme Court and the way business is done by the judicial hierarchy.

A few years ago, the state Supreme Court issued an OPINION which said that district court judges were NOT bound by decisions of the Appeals Court. The gist of the high court's message: Lower court judges don't have to act according to precedent setting Appeals Court decisions -- only those issued by the Supreme Court.

That annoyed the robes off some of the Appeals Court judges, whose worker bee efforts have reduced enormously the workload of the Supreme Court.

Now, then, here is the situation that raises a question:

Later, the state Supreme Court issued a RULE, not a decision or opinion, but a RULE. The new rule said that lower courts ARE bound by the precedent setting decisions of the Appeals Court.

The thing is, when an OPINION is issued, it becomes what is called case law. It is the record of what the state Supreme Court has said, ruled, determined and ordered (to employ a bit of the redundancy so often popular in appellate court decisions.)

Question: Can the Supreme Court wipe out case law, one of its own decisions which is still on the books, by issuing a rule?

Could the Supreme Court issue a rule and reverse other established areas of Nebraska case law?

One of the nice things about being the state Supreme Court is that there is no higher state court which can make you answer such questions.

It reminds one of a saying first relayed to me by a former Supreme Court judge:

"You have to realize that the Supreme Court doesn't have the LAST word because it is always right. It is RIGHT because it always has the last word."

Our thanks to Judge Murphy for living up the summer by proving the validity of "the law of unintended consequences," painful though it may have been for him.

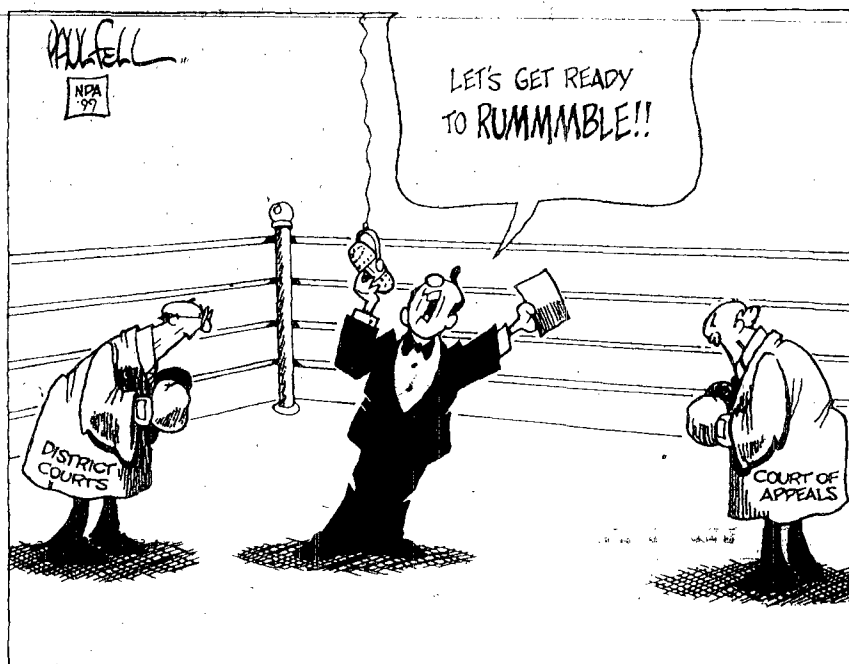

And, Murphy is to be credited for his handling of the situation.

He noted that he has often encouraged or demanded from the bench that attorneys be thorough in their work while appearing in his court.

"In this case, I failed to do what I demand of others. I wasn't thorough. I regret it," Murphy said.

Of course, with the luck of the Irish, Murphy might be the district judge who winds up with some hot potato question in front of him one day.

Like: CAN the Supreme Court vacate one of its own precedent setting decisions simply by issuing a rule?

Workshops on brain development to be hosted in the area

Providence Medical Center of Wayne will be the site of a "Starting Out Right" Early Brain Development Workshop on Sept. 28 from 6:30 to 9:30 p.m. in the Providence Medical Center Education Room. Those interested in registering can call Pam Henderson at 375-2950.

Dr. Katy Anderson, a Nebraska Pediatrician will be sharing with Nebraskans the newest research information on the early brain development of young children at the "Starting Out Right" workshops to be held at various sites around the area this fall.

"This information changes the way we think about our kids, their environments, and the importance of early experiences in shaping their future hopes, dreams, and possibilities," stated Dr. Anderson recently. "Anyone who knows about kids needs to hear what the research is telling us," she added.

All sites will be facilitated by "Nebraska Brain Team" trainers, using the expertise of Dr. Anderson's presentation as an important part of the three-hour workshop. The presentation and follow up activities will bring early childhood professionals, parents, educators, caregivers, medical and service providers, as well as business and community leaders together across disciplines as a way to share responsibility for healthy growth and development to "Maximize Nebraska's Brain Power."

Every second of a person's life, several billion bits of information pass through the brain. Most of the connections between brain cells are formed in the first few years of life. New technologies and new interest in brain development reflect a growing concern across the nation about young children's brains and the impact during the later years of adolescence and adulthood. This new research will be highlighted in easy to understand concepts and applied to parent, and caregiver/educator strategies to support the optimal development of children.

Continuing education credits and contact hours for social workers, health care providers and nurses, foster parents, family educators, early childhood educators, and child care providers are available for this workshop. The training is FREE, thanks to the "Healthy Child Nebraska Initiative" supported through the Northeast Early Childhood Training Partnership and the Early Childhood Training Center.

For more information about the "Starting Out Right" workshops, contact Susan Strahm at Northeast Early Childhood Training Partnership, Goldenrod Hills Community Services, Box 280, Wisner, NE 68791. The phone number is 402-529-3513 or email is nestrahm@midlands.net

Automatic Debit Scams

Dishonest telemarketers have found yet another way to defraud consumers and take their hard-earned money, this time from their checking account - and they are doing so without the consumer's knowledge.

Consumers across the country are complaining about unauthorized debits (withdrawals) from their checking accounts.

While automatic debiting of your checking account can be a legitimate and convenient payment method (many people pay mortgages or make car payments this way), some telemarketers are abusing the system.

If a caller asks for your checking account number or other information printed on your check for "verification" or "computer purposes", do not give it to them, especially if you are not familiar with the company.

Typically, the scam works when a consumer receives a postcard or a telephone call saying they have won a free prize or can qualify for a major credit card, despite past credit problems. The telemarketer often asks, "Do you have a checking account?" If the answer is "yes", the telemarketer then goes on to explain the offer, making it sound too good to pass up. Near the end of the sales pitch, the telemarketer may ask the consumer to get one of their checks and read off all of the numbers at the bottom. Once the telemarketer has the checking account information, it is put on a "demand draft," which is processed much like a check. Unlike a check, however, the draft does not require the consumer's signature. When the bank receives the draft, it takes the amount on the draft from the checking account and pays the telemarketer's bank. Most often the consumers will not even know that the draft has been paid until they receive their bank statement.

Automatic debit scams involve a fraud that is hard to detect and can expose consumers to large financial losses. Follow these guidelines to help avoid becoming a victim:

- Do not give your checking account number over the phone.
- Beware of offers that sound too good to be true.
- Ask to review the company's offer in writing before agreeing to any purchases.

If a telemarketer has issued a draft against your checking account without your knowledge or permission, or if a draft is more than you authorized, contact your bank immediately.

Depending on the timing and the circumstances, you may be able to get your money back. You may also contact the Consumer Protection Division to file a complaint.

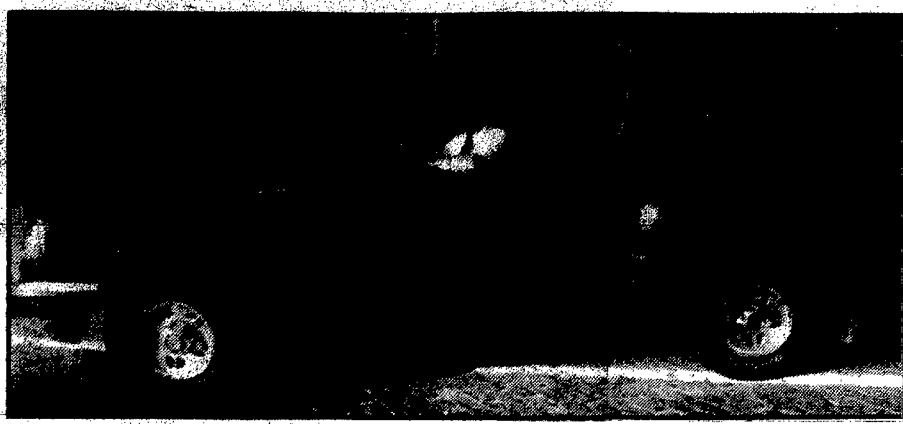

For more information about this or any other consumer issue contact: Office of Attorney General Don Stenberg, Consumer Protection Division, 2115 State Capitol, Lincoln, NE, 68509, (402) 471-2682, Consumer Protection Line - 1-800-727-8432.

Local students receive WSC scholarships

Amy Hall and David Ensz, both of Wayne, have recently received scholarships to attend Wayne State College this fall.

Hall has received a Rod Jorgensen Memorial Scholarship. She plans to major in computer information systems. While in high school, she was a member of the band. She is the daughter of Steve and Connie Hall.

Ensz has received a Hass Foundation Annual Scholarship. He is a 1998 graduate of Wayne High School and is the son of Bob and Debbie Ensz. He is a sophomore enrolled in the pre-med program. At Wayne State, he is a member of the Student Activities Board, Fellowship of Christian Athletes (FCA), Habitat for Humanity and German Club.

New sales rep...

Arnie's Ford Mercury welcomed a new sales representative to their staff as Rick Endicott began work last week. Endicott said he's looking forward to serving the needs of area vehicle buyers and welcomes everyone to stop by.

Ak-Sar-Ben is seeking Community College scholarship applicants

The Knights of Ak-Sar-Ben Foundation is now accepting applications for the Knights of Ak-Sar-Ben 2000 Community College Scholarship Program, made possible through funds raised by the Ak-Sar-Ben Friendship Circle.

Now in its eighth year, the Friendship Circle is a group of volunteers throughout Nebraska and western Iowa who help promote and support the goals and mission of the Knights of Ak-Sar-Ben Foundation.

To obtain applications for the $1,000 scholarship, non-traditional students and high school seniors are encouraged to contact the admissions office of the community college, a high school guidance office, or visit the Ak-Sar-Ben web site at www.aksarben.org. Twelve students from the Ak-Sar-Ben region of Nebraska and western Iowa will be selected from the submitted applications that are due no later than March 24, 2000.

This scholarship program is just one of those supported by the Knights of Ak-Sar-Ben Foundation which was founded in 1895 "to build a more prosperous Heartland, where communities can flourish and every child can succeed."

Munson, Devils run over Schuyler, 42-14

Wayne senior running back Joel Munson rambled for a school record 251 yards rushing to help lead Wayne to a season-opening victory over Schuyler, 42-14 last Friday night at home.

The Blue Devils never trailed as Munson opened the scoring barrage with a 58-yard scamper early in the first quarter.

Schuyler tied the game at seven on a 32-yard pass play but Wayne regained the lead at 13-7 by the quarters end as Munson caught a 17-yard pass from Klinton Keller.

Dustin Schmeits caught a 27-yard scoring strike from Keller in the second quarter with Trevor Wright catching the two-point conversion pass from Keller as Wayne led 21-7 at the break.

Munson scored his third touchdown of the night in the third quarter on a 21-yard run and he added a fourth in the final stanza on a 57-yard run.

Schmeits scored his second touchdown of the night—this time from the defensive side of the ball as he returned a 36-yard interception for a score.

Ric Volk did the place-kicking for the Blue Devils and hit four-of-five attempts.

"I was pleased with the effort and execution of the team," coach John Murtaugh said. "I thought our kids performed well for the first game of the season."

Murtaugh felt one of the keys was the play of the offensive line including Kevin Addison, Ryan Haase, Craig Hefti, Jason Beiermann, Tyler Jorgensen, Shane Baack and Chris Woehler.

Wayne finished with 398 total yards including 332 on the ground while holding Schuyler to a total of 138 yards (66 rushing, 72 passing).

Munson averaged 11.4 yards per carry in gaining his 251 yards on 22 carries while fullback Trevor Wright rushed for 67 yards on 15 carries.

Keller was 5-10 through the air for 66 yards with a pair of touchdowns. He hit five different receivers as well as Dustin Schmeits, Joel Munson, Gabe Hammer, Chris Woehler and Trevor Wright each caught one pass.

Defensively, Wayne was led by Trevor Wright with 12 tackles while Craig Hefti had eight and Shane Baack, six. Jason Beiermann netted five total tackles.

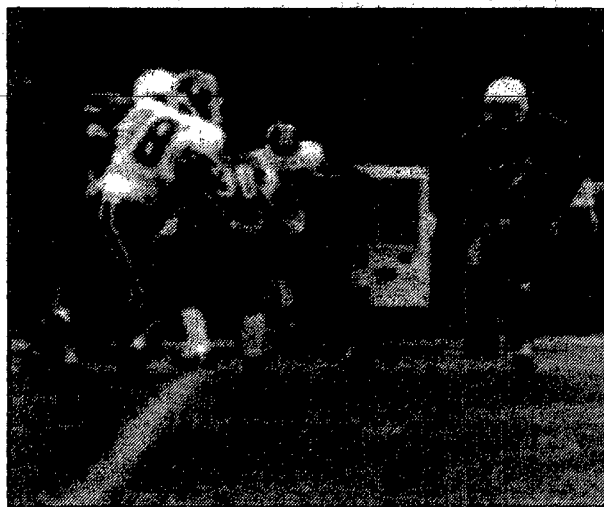

"Trevor Wright really had an impressive game," Murtaugh said.

Wayne will play one of its three, Thursday night games this week as they host Logan View at 7:30 p.m.

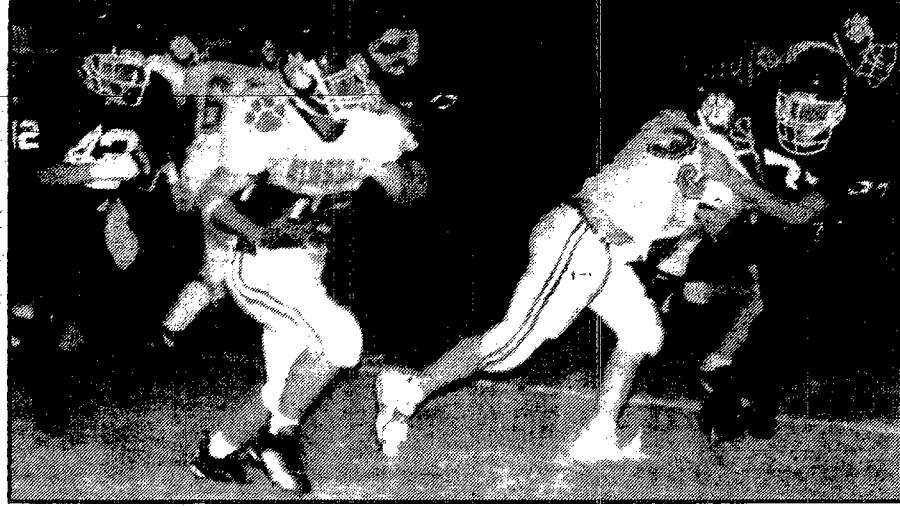

Logan View blasted Tekamah-Herman last Friday night, 48-6.

Wayne running back Joel Munson looks for running room behind some quality blocking from his offensive line during Wayne's season-opening thumping of Schuyler. Munson set a school record with 251 yards rushing.

Wayne's Klinton Keller runs down the line looking for a hole during the Blue Devils 42-14 win over the Warriors.

Winside quarterback Adam Hoffman breaks free from containment against the Wakefield Trojans last Friday night. Winside won the game, 27-6.

Allen beaten by Coleridge

The Allen Eagles football team fell to 0-1 on the season as they were blasted by Coleridge, 59-14 last Friday night in Coleridge.

The contest ended at halftime due to the 45-point rule in Class D football.

The Eagles managed just 82 yards of offense—all on the ground as Adam Gensler rushed for 84 yards to lead the way.

Gensler scored both of the Eagles touchdowns. Coleridge finished with 304 yards of offense including 238 on the ground.

Defensively, Allen was led by Micky Oldenkamp with nine tackles while BJ Gotch and Shannon Klemme had seven each.

Allen will travel to play Wynot on Friday.

Laurel-Concord shut out, 28-0

The Laurel-Concord Bears football team dropped their season opener at Randolph last Friday night, 28-0.

Tom Luxford's crew trailed by just a 6-0 margin at the half and had some scoring opportunities but just couldn't convert.

"We played a great first half," Luxford said. "We just need to regroup and get better. I feel the 28-0 score was a bit deceiving. We did a lot of good things and we are going to focus on that."

The Bears managed 17 yards on the ground and 30 yards passing while Randolph scampered for 214 yards on the ground.

Defensively, Laurel was led by Ross Gardner with 19 tackles while Tyler Kvols had 13 stops and a fumble recovery.

Bennie Surber had 12 tackles and Jon Erwin, 11 while Chris Lackas finished with 10.

The Bears were quarterbacked by Nathan Beckman with Evan Smith and Adam Hartung each catching one pass.

Ross Gardner led the Bears rushing attack with 49 yards on 12 carries.

Laurel will host Elkhorn Valley on Friday night.

Winside runs past Wakefield

The Winside Wildcats football team opened season play at Wakefield last Friday night and took advantage of big plays and mistakes by the host team en route to a 27-6 victory.

Dustin Wade scored the game's first touchdown late in the first quarter with a 15-yard scamper to paydirt on a fourth down and 13 play. Wade broke four tackles on the way to the endzone.

Adam Hoffman scored on a 23-yard touchdown run in the second period and Dustin Wade darted in from eight yards out to give the Wildcats a 20-0 halftime lead.

Jon Jaeger got into the scoring act in the third quarter with an eight-yard run and a 27-0 lead.

Wakefield's lone score came on the final play of the game as quarterback Todd McQuistan plunged over from a yard out. "Missed tackles hurt us badly," Wakefield coach Justin Smith said. "Winside scored on a fourth and long play and they set two other scores up with a pair of third and long plays."

Winside rushed for 251 yards rushing led by junior quarterback Adam Hoffman with 96 yards on just eight carries.

Dustin Wade rambled 91 yards on 11 carries and Jon Jaeger gained 29 yards on eight attempts.

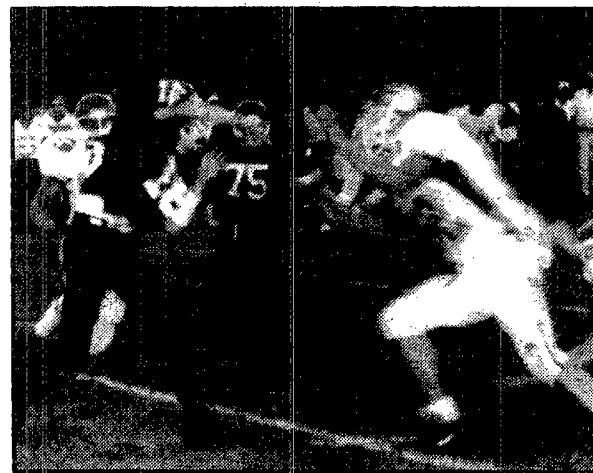

Hoffman was 8-18 through the air for 82 yards as the 'Cats finished with 333 total yards. Mike Deck was the leading receiver with four catches for 39 yards while Ben Lienemann had three receptions for 35 yards.

Joel McAfee led Wakefield with 61 yards rushing while Todd McQuistan was 14-33 for 129 yards. Wyatt Brown had five catches for 55 yards and Nick White had three receptions for 28 yards to lead the Trojans.

Defensively, Winside was led by Scott Marotz and Eric Vanosdall as each netted eight tackles while Aaron Lessman and Mike Deck had five each.

Wayne spikers place third at Wisner/Beemer Classic

The Wayne volleyball team went 3-2 at the Wisner/Beemer Classic last weekend and head coach Joyce Hoskins claimed her 100th win as a Blue Devil head coach in the process.

The Blue Devils opened the tournament with a convincing win over Wakefield, 15-2, 15-11.

Wayne followed with just as convincing a victory over Scribner-Snyder, 15-4, 15-3 in the second match, also held on Thursday night in Wisner.

"Our girls came out ready to play on Thursday," coach Joyce Hoskins said. "They played with a lot of confidence and the communication on the floor was great."

Sara Ellis had eight kills against Wakefield and five against Scribner while Lindsay Woehler had three kills against Wakefield. Liz Campbell had three ace hits against Scribner.

Leah Dunklau finished with 17 set assists against Wakefield and 12 against Scribner while Brittney Frevert was the top server against Wakefield at 13-13 while Leah Dunklau was 9-9 and Kristin Wilson along with Mandy Hansen were 8-8 each.

Sara Ellis was 8-8 in serving against Scribner with two aces while Brittney Frevert and Liz Campbell had one ace each.

Saturday, Wayne fell to Wisner-Pilger, 13-15, 15-13, 8-15. "We played well but errors at key times got us in trouble," Hoskins said.

Sara Ellis had 17 kill spikes to lead Wayne with Liz Campbell notching 10 kills. Kristin Wilson was 18-18 in serving with one ace while Mandy Hansen was 13-13 with one ace. Leah Dunklau had 38 set assists.

Wayne also fell to Fremont Bergan, 10-15, 6-15 with Ellis leading Wayne with 11 kill spikes while Campbell had seven. Dunklau was 10-10 to lead the servers and she had 19 set assists while Frevert was 8-8 in serving and Wilson, 7-7.

"Our communication was a key in this loss," Hoskins said. "It is such a key to our success and I felt our girls put too much pressure on themselves to do well and they let their mistakes bother them."

Wayne went on to place third in the tournament as they defeated Wisner-Pilger in the rematch, 15-9, 15-7.

Sara Ellis had nine kill spikes and Kallie Krugman, five while Leah Dunklau had three.

Dunklau had 19 set assists and Krugman notched three blocks. Mandy Hansen was 17-13 in serving with two aces while Liz Campbell was 7-7 with two aces and Kristin Wilson, 8-8.

Wayne will play in the Northeast Nebraska Classic on Thursday and Saturday. The Blue Devils will play

Lyons-Decatur Northeast at 5:15 p.m. on Thursday.

The other three first round matches have Laurel-Concord against Winside at 6:30 p.m. and Wakefield against Stanton at 7:45 p.m. followed by Hartington Cedar Catholic against West Point at 9 p.m.

Action continues on Saturday beginning at 9 a.m. and continuing through to the championship at 5:45 p.m.

Lindsay Woehler spikes the ball over the outstretched hands of Wakefield's Timarie Bebee during action at the Wisner/Beemer Classic.

Allen volleyball team runner-up at Classic

The Allen Eagles volleyball team soared to a runner-up finish in the Wisner/Beemer Classic last weekend in Wisner with Denise Hingst's team going 3-2 with both losses coming to Fremont Bergan who went undefeated in five matches in the tournament.

Allen defeated defending Class C-1 power North Bend in the first match, 15-10, 15-13.

Stacey Martinson paced the winners with nine kill spikes while Angela Prochaska had six kills as did Shannon Koester. Melissa Wilmes had 21 set assists with Koester leading the team in serving with three aces while Michelle Marks had two aces.

"Our passing and serving consistency throughout the match was key," Hingst said.

Allen also defeated host Beemer in round-robin play, 15-1, 15-12. "We continued to play well and had great serving to end the first game," Hingst said. "Our JV started the second game and did a good job until the end of the game. Our passing game struggled."

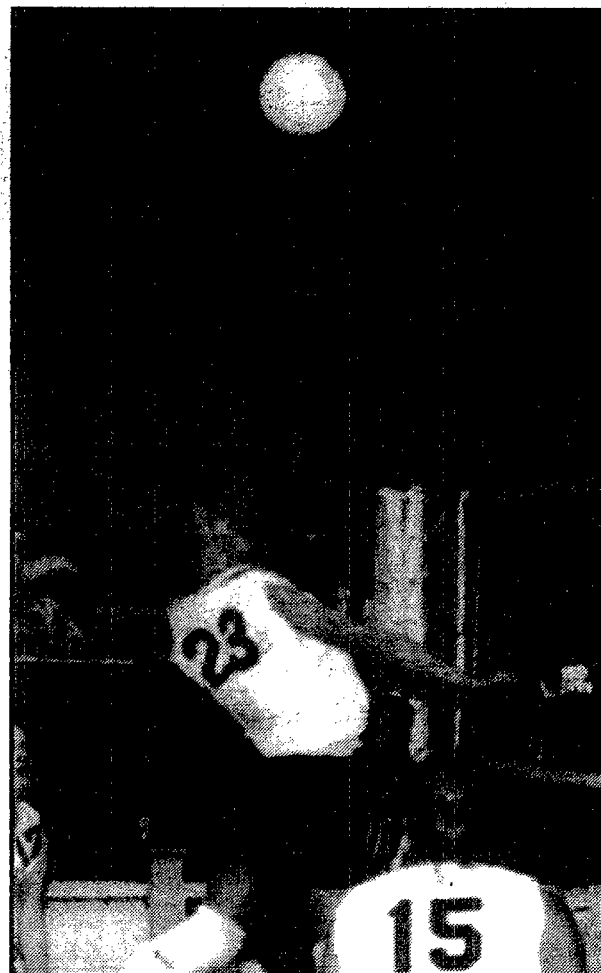

Martinson and Prochaska had three kill spikes each to lead the winners while Rachel Stallbaum led the team in serving with four aces. Melissa Wilmes had eight set assists and Alicia Liebsch had four assists.

Allen fell to Fremont Bergan in pool play, 9-15, 15-17. Melissa Wilmes had 20 set assists to lead the Eagles with Stacey Martinson netting 12 kill spikes and five blocks. Martinson was also the serving leader with four aces.

Allen was paired against Wisner in the tournament format and the Eagles won, 15-7, 13-15, 15-11. Jessica Bock was 18-19 in serving with six aces to lead the Eagles with Stacey Martinson netting 11 kill spikes on offense and 11 blocks on defense.

Allen senior left-hander Stacey Martinson pummels the volleyball during the Eagles win over North Bend in the season-opener. Allen finished runner-up in the tournament behind Fremont Bergan. The Eagles look to have a solid team in 1999 and are aiming for a state tournament berth come November.

Laurel volleyball team defeats Randolph

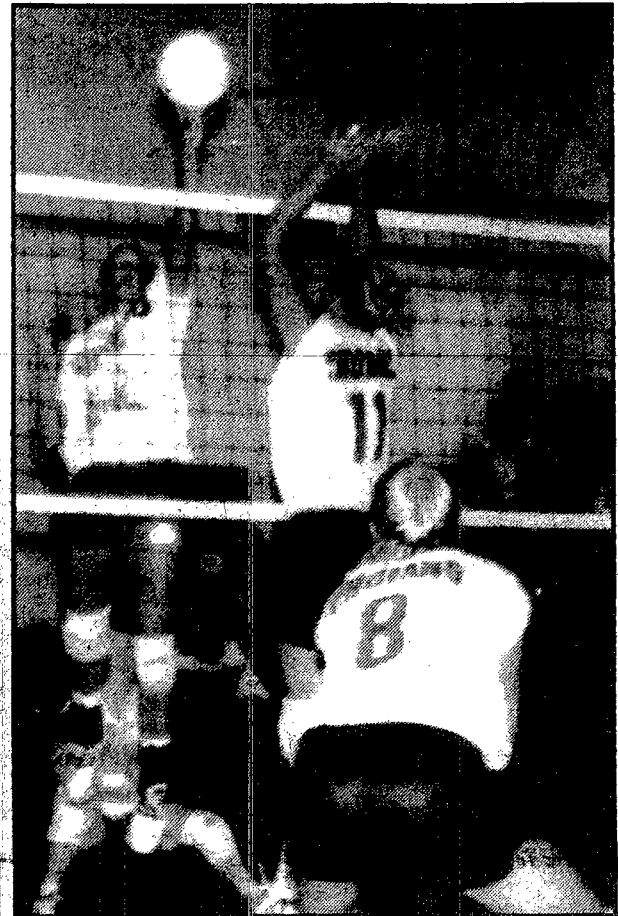

LAUREL—Patti Cunningham's Laurel-Concord volleyball team defeated Randolph in the season-opener, 15-8, 16-14 last Thursday in Randolph.

Julie Abts led the team in serving at 12-12 with two aces while Jenny Demuth was 10-10. Melanie Thompson was 8-8 with one ace and Kari Stewart was 6-6 with one ace.

Stewart was 60-62 in setting with 15 assists while Rebecca Johnson was the leading hitter with nine kill spikes. Brittany Burns had six kills, Lani Recob, five and Jenny Demuth, four.

Stewart was also the leading defender with eight digs with Burns netting five and Demuth, four. "The match gave us opportunities to see where we are at and to look with in to continue competing," Cunningham said. "During the second game we had to work through several rotations and maintain our composure as we had to rally from behind several times."

All three Laurel teams won as the JV team posted a 15-9, 15-3 score while the "C" team won, 15-3, 15-8.

Sara Ellis taps the volleyball over the net during Wayne's season-opening win over Wakefield.

Wayne State quarterback Jaime Jones waits until the final second to pitch the ball to Landon Grothe on an option play against Kearney in the first half. WSC fell to the Lopers by a 59-17 margin. The 'Cats will play at home again on Saturday when South Dakota State comes to town for a 12:30 p.m. tilt.

WSC falls victim to Coleman air assault

By Missy Pavlish
For the Herald

The Wayne State football team opened the 1999 campaign with a 59-17 setback against Nebraska-Kearney, Saturday in Wayne.

WSC couldn't stop the big play arsenal of UNK quarterback Justin Coleman who shredded the 'Cats defense for 483 yards passing on 22 completions in 30 attempts and an impressive six touchdowns.

The Lopers scored on the game's second play as Coleman hit Jebb Hatch with a short toss and Hatch rambled 68 yards.

On the ensuing kickoff redshirt freshman Landon Grothe (Winside) sprinted 81 yards to the Loper 14-yard line to set the 'Cats up in great shape.

An illegal block in the back put the ball at the 24-yard line. WSC moved to the eight yard line before settling for a Brian Johnson 25-yard field goal.

UNK's Trevor Weston caught a 30-yard Coleman pass to give the visitors a 14-3 lead after one quarter of play.

In the second quarter Herman Gordon caught a 32-yard scoring pass from senior Wildcat signal caller Jaime Jones to pull the 'Cats to within in four at 14-10.

Later in the quarter WSC had the ball but Jones was picked off by Brandon Lindau at the 'Cats 26-yard line and run back to the 10 where two plays later Zach Mader scored on a five-yard scamper.

Volker Obrich gave UNK a 24-10 lead with a 37-yard field goal before WSC's Chaka Smith returned the ensuing kickoff 87 yards for a touchdown and a 24-17 margin with 40 seconds left before the intermission.

The 'Cats hopes dimmed a little right before half as UNK drove the ball 65 yards in three plays and 19 seconds as Jace Pittman caught a 41-yard touchdown pass from Coleman to give the visitors a 31-17 halftime lead.

Coleman had touchdown passes of 68, 38 and 30 yards in the second half before UNK closed out the scoring on a five-yard pass from Mike Muma to Jay Dostal with just 21 seconds left in regulation for the 59-17 margin.

"The first half went okay," WSC coach Kevin Haslam said. "We wanted to stop the big plays from Coleman and we just didn't get the job done."

Haslam said his troops didn't play to their potential. "We had a lot of mental busts out on the field which made it very frustrating," Haslam added. "It's only one game as we have 10 more games that we can win."

Among the busiest Wildcats on the day was punter Brian Johnson who had 11 punts with a 43.8 yard per kick average.

UNK finished with 617 total yards of offense compared to WSC with 237. WSC had three intercepted passes and UNK had just one turnover.

Grothe led WSC with 27 yards rushing on 10 carries while Jones had 16 yards on eight attempts. Jones was 26-42 through the air with two interceptions for 182 yards while Brandon Lavaley was 2-6 for eight yards.

Herman Gordon caught 12 passes for 98 yards and Dan Pugsley had six catches for 20 yards while Damon Ruffin had four receptions for 21 yards and Ronnie Blair, three catches for 44 yards.

UNK was paced by Zach Mader on the ground with 61 yards with Coleman's aerial assault the key to the Lopers win.

Jebb Hatch had eight catches for UNK for 147 yards while Trevor Weston had five catches for 134 yards. Ryan Bedlan caught four balls for 112 yards.

Defensively, WSC was led by Mike Baker and Kirk Steffensen with 10 tackles each while Joe Schepers, Brian Gohr and Ashley Toussaint with nine each. Jason Jansen finished with seven tackles.

John Bohan recovered the lone UNK fumble.

Highlighting the 'Cats day was special teams as Chaka Smith and Landon Grothe combined for 255 yards on seven returns.

WSC will host South Dakota State on Saturday at 12:30 p.m.

"We were ahead of UNO by a 11-0 margin in the first game and lost.

In the match with Missouri western we led, 13-2 one game and lost 16-14."

Vanis said the play of Lindsey Koch and Melanie Kershaw was consistent. "We have a lot of things to work on," Vanis said. "We have a tough couple weeks ahead of us."

Weight Loss Puzzles Doctors

ATLANTA, GA -- Doctors were surprised when two separate studies found that a natural dietary supplement could help cause significant weight loss. Although not conclusive, both studies found that patients receiving the formula called Bio-Rex 3000™ lost more than twice as much weight as those in a control group on the same fat reduced diet. Neither group was instructed to decrease the amount of food they ate or to increase their exercise levels. An article published in the American Journal of Clinical Nutrition says that you don't have to decrease the amount of food you eat to lose weight, provided that you limit the fat.

According to a spokesperson for Phillips Gulf Corporation, the exclusive North American distributor of Bio-Rex 3000, the company is considering additional studies in order to get federal approval to make pharmaceutical claims. Currently, weight loss claims for the Bio-Rex 3000 supplement are limited. However, with the requisite approval, the company could say that Bio-Rex 3000 decreases sugar cravings, increases metabolism and interferes with the body's ability to produce excess fat.

Bio-Rex 3000 is currently available as a dietary supplement and plan in pharmacies and nutrition stores or by calling 1-800-729-8446 or visit our website at www.phillipsgulf.com overall effort and the intensity level," Cole said. "I saw some things we still need to work on before the conference season begins but we're a lot further along at this point in the season than we were at this time a year ago."

Seven of the Wildcats' 11 starters did not play for WSC a year ago. "Our trademark is our defense and we applied some pretty good pressure," Cole said. "Our offense however, also came to play. This was a great way for us to start the season."

WSC will host Midland Lutheran in a 5 p.m. match on Friday at the college field.

Driving simulators benefit teen drivers all across the state

Improved driving simulators and "Drunk Busters" goggles are giving teen drivers all across the state more realistic driver education experiences, according to the Emergency Medical Services (EMS) Program in the Nebraska Department of Health and Human Services Regulation and Licensure.

Students can test reaction times and stopping distances in a safe and controlled environment with new equipment installed on driving simulators at the Nebraska Safety Center Driving Range at the University of Nebraska at Kearney. Funding was provided by the Emergency Medical Services for Children in Regulation and Licensure.

"We're partnering with the Nebraska Safety Center to help ensure new drivers are skilled drivers," said Debbie Kuhn, Emergency Medical Services for Children (EMSC) program in Regulation and Licensure. Motor vehicle accidents are the leading cause of accidental deaths in Nebraska, she said.

The Nebraska Safety Center provides driver education to students across the western two-thirds of the state. Since the upgrade was installed in February, around 900 students have been trained on the 12 simulators.

"The simulators teach students to drive under a variety of conditions, such as in the rain or snow, on gravel roads or at night," said Sherry Morrow, Traffic Safety Coordinator at the Nebraska Safety Center. "Simulation also allows comparison of reaction time and stopping distance if a driver is impaired by drugs or alcohol."

The Nebraska Safety Center also received 24 sets of Drunk Busters impairment goggles that demonstrate what it is like to be impaired by alcohol and other drugs. Around 16 high schools and college groups have checked the goggles out for use with peer education, mentoring programs, and alcohol awareness activities. These would be especially useful during prom and homecoming events.

The Nebraska Safety Center will survey students who used the simulator both before and after installation of the new features to measure their effectiveness.

Hiking in Colorado

Members of Boy Scout Troop #174 of Wayne spent a week this summer hiking in the mountains of Colorado. Their support and guide were from the Elkhorn High Adventure Scout Ranch located near Redfeather Lake, Colo. The troop hiked 500 miles and reached elevations of 12,000 feet. The area the boys hiked was in the Medicine Bow Mountains and Rawah Wilderness area. Those participating included, left to Ryan Sheffield (guide), Ben Saltros, Noah Judson, Sam Kinnett, Bryan Schwarten (of Troop #172 of Wakefield), John Kinnett and Nick Saltros.

Students part of Cornhusker Marching Band

The Cornhusker Marching Band is one of the nation's oldest marching bands. It was founded in 1879 as an ROTC unit and began playing at football games in 1890, the year the sport was established at NU. In 1996, the band received the John Philip Sousa Foundation Sudler Trophy, which is awarded every year to the nation's top collegiate marching band.

April Beckenhauer of Wayne, a sophomore at the University of Nebraska-Lincoln majoring in art education, is part of the Cornhusker Marching Band; playing trumpet in the band. The band will make its official debut Sept. 11 when it delivers pre-game and halftime performances in Nebraska's football home-opener against California.

This year, the band is the largest it has been in history. There are 328 members in the band this year which is an increase of 46 members (up 16 percent) from last year's record of 282. Band members are from 19 states, but the majority are from interstate and represent 71 Nebraska communities. More than three-fourths are non-music majors. By class, there are 47 seniors, 71 juniors, 86 sophomores and 124 freshmen.

The band will travel in full to the Cornhuskers' Sept. 25 game at Missouri and will send pep bands to games at Texas (Oct. 23), Kansas (Oct. 30) and Colorado (Nov. 26). Nebraska will host full bands from Oklahoma State (Oct. 2) and Texas A & M (Nov. 6) and at least one pep band (California).

Purchasing homes through assistance program

First Source Title & Escrow was kept busy on Sept. 1 as the first two home purchases assisted by Wayne's newest down payment assistance program offered by Wayne Community Housing Development (WCHDC) closed the same day.

The First-time HomeBuyer program, co-sponsored by Wayne Community Housing Development Corporation and Farmers & Merchants State Bank of Wayne, is offering up to 10 percent down payment to income-qualified families buying homes in Wayne.

The First-time HomeBuyer program is 50 percent funded by the WCHDC through their allocation from the Department of Housing and Urban Development and 50 percent by Farmers & Merchants State Bank through their membership in the Federal Home Loan Bank of Topeka.

The down payments come in the form of a deferred-payment, no interest loan to the homebuying family that is forgiven over time as the family continues to reside in the home.

WCHDC and Farmers & Merchants Bank have secured funding for a total of 10 down payments to be offered on a first-come, first-served basis.

To qualify, total household income must not exceed 80 percent of the Wayne County median.

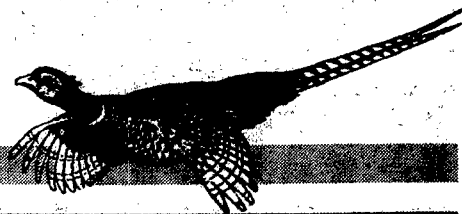

For more information or to make an application for the First-time HomeBuyer program, contact Linda Anderson at 375-5266.

Rally Day to be held

Our Savior Lutheran Church in Wayne will kick off the fall with their Rally Day Celebration on Sunday, Sept. 12.

Sunday School classes resume on Sunday with learning opportunities for people of all ages: Nursery age children through adults. Classes meet from 9:15 to 10:15 a.m. on Sunday mornings.

Two adult learning opportunities are offered during the Sunday School hour. Pastor Bill Koeber will offer a course titled "The Year 2000 and Millennium Madness." Pastor Martin Russell will lead a video series titled "The Jesus I Never Knew." It is based on Philip Yancey's best selling book by the same title. An all-church potluck will be served in Our Savior's social room immediately following the 10:30 a.m. worship service. Meat and beverages will be provided. Those attending are asked to bring their own table service and a dish to share.

Those with last names beginning with A-G should bring a vegetable; H-O should bring a salad and P-Z, a dessert.

"We invited you to Our Savior Lutheran Church, where our doors are wide open to all people," Pastor Russell said. "We invite the community to share in the celebration this weekend and to learn more about the dynamic ministries of Our Savior." For more information, contact the church office at (402) 375-2899.

Knights donate to Right to Life

The money was presented to the local council from the state Knights of Columbus Council during a recent meeting in Scottsbluff. It represents money raised by Knights of Columbus councils in Ponca, Hartington, Randolph and Wayne.

The group covers the counties of Cedar, Dixon and Wayne.

The money will be used to help fund Right to Life activities such as the Life Chain to be held Sunday, Oct. 3 from 2:30 to 3:30 p.m.

Other activities the group is involved in include a Prayer Breakfast held each year in January and a Mother's Day Appreciation ad in the Wayne Herald.

Reunion planned

A reunion of the confirmands and friends of the Theophilus Church is being planned for Sunday, Sept. 12. The Rev. Gail Axen will lead the worship service, which will be at 11 a.m. at the museum.

A potluck dinner will follow at the Winside Auditorium.

Those attending are asked to bring confirmation or other related photographs to share during the afternoon.

Memberships are also welcome for the Wayne County Historical Society, Winside Museum. They are $7.50 per year or $100 for a lifetime membership.

Planners for the new Sunday evening worship service at Our Savior Lutheran Church include, left to right, Pastor Martin Russell, Erika Fink, Rob Stuber and Randy Rasmussen.

New service planned

Our Savior Lutheran Church in Wayne will expand its ministry by launching a new Sunday evening worship service beginning Sunday, Sept. 12 at 7 p.m.

"We are pleased to announce this new worship service and invite the community to the special initial worship service," said Pastor Martin Russell.

"If you like to clap your hands, blow your voice out and sing your heart out, then this service is for you," said Rob Stuber, who is one of the planners of the new worship service.

He added, "If you like drums and keyboards and guitars, then this service is for you. If you like to worship in a casual atmosphere then this service is for you. If you have always wanted to bring that certain friend or family member to church, but felt they might prefer a more contemporary style of worship, then this service is for you. If you like dramas and weekly sermons in a combined series of connected topics, then this service is for you. If you like to dress 'come as you are' then this service is for you."

Messages at the new service will differ from the congregation's other worship services.

On Sunday evenings beginning Sept. 12, Pastor Russell will begin an eight-week sermon series on the "S" word: Sin. The series will specifically focus on the so-called Seven Deadly Sins and the first message will ask the question: "Whatever Happened to Sin?"

Our Savior Lutheran Church will continue to offer weekend worship services on Saturday evenings at 6 p.m. and Sunday mornings at 8 and 10:30 a.m.

Our Savior Lutheran Church is located at the corner of Fifth and Main Streets in Wayne.

For more information, contact the church office at (402) 375-2899.

ALLEN HISTORICAL GROVE

The wet summer has been an asset to the plantings in the Historic Grove, the Nature Grove, and Heritage Park.

In the Nature Grove, all of the 48 evergreens planted in 1996 are growing well, some are already three feet tall. All of the hardwood deciduous whips planted in 1998 survived and are branching out nicely.

Clayton Stalling, of the Nebraska Game and Parks Commission, has been periodically checking the wildflowers and native grasses planted in 1997 and reports that the stand of grasses and flowers will get thicker and advised that they not be replanted.

This summer, the Tree Board members planted Crab Apple, Black Cherry, Golden Current, and Hawthorn trees which were from the Project Wild program.

In the spring of 1998, several trees in the Historic Grove were replaced at the recommendation of State Forester Steve Rasmussen. Most of those have done well and many of the original plantings are tall and full.

Sumac bushes were planted this summer along the south side of the Historic Grove. The two trees planted by the 1997-98 fourth grades along with the bushes and flowers makes Heritage Park landscape an attractive addition to Main Street.

Thanks to the time, effort, and money expended by many organizations and individuals, these three

Time to continue my dissertation on resuscitation. In rereading last week's column, I see I wrote: "in order to protect yourself from CPR we have to have advanced directives." Why would we want to "protect" ourselves from CPR?

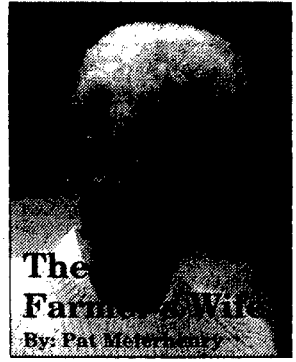

Because, folks, if too much time elapses, or we are older and fragile, or we have an underlying disease, like cancer, multiple sclerosis, emphysema, the results will be very poor. They may even be devastating, as in a permanent respirator.

It's one thing to be on a respirator with your brain intact, and with all kinds of resources available to you, as in the case of Christopher Reeve. One of the audio books I listened to this summer was his. It's called "Still Me," and his point, of course, is that he is still the same person, mentally and emotionally. It must be noted that he was in superb physical condition at the time of his accident.

Sometimes, visit the ventilator unit of a long-term care facility. It's an eye-opening experience.

This winter, the son of a neighbor had just recovered from open-heart surgery and had attended his daughter's basketball game. He arrested in the hallway of the school, CPR was initiated immediately, and the paramedics used an automatic defibrillator. Plus, the players on the two teams joined hands and prayed! I saw him in church with his parents this summer. This is why everyone should know CPR.

But the opposite scenario is the one that concerns me. Lately, when we've asked some of our elderly home health patients about resuscitation, the stock answer is "Try, but I don't want to be on any machines." Well, the sad fact is that if we try, they will be on a machine: a respirator. And, someday, a loved one will probably have to decide to discontinue it.

The Farm...

The Farm...
By: Pat M...

Which is why everyone needs the other form of advanced directive: the durable power of attorney for health care. This designates someone to make health care decisions for you if you are not able to. This is especially important for single adults.

Did you know that a huge portion of medicare dollars are spent on the last six months of life?

How do you want to spend your last days on earth? Think it over. Then talk to your doctor, your family, and your spiritual caregiver. Put it in writing!

The Nebraska Chapter of the National Walnut Council will hold its annual meeting on Saturday, Sept. 18.

The meeting begins at 9:30 a.m. with a morning gathering at the Bancroft city park (southwest corner of town).

The morning session will consist of a business meeting and topics related to the growing of black walnut trees.

At 11:30, participants will go for lunch at the Country Pub in Bancroft for a noon meal. After the meal an afternoon tour of the nine-year-old Black Walnut Acres forest plantation on the Brenda Barton property will start with 1 p.m. registration.

All interested persons are invited to come and enjoy a day of talking to black walnut growers and foresters.

The Nebraska Chapter of the National Walnut Council encourages anyone interested in growing black walnut trees to attend and participate in the annual meeting.

The public is invited to come learn more about growing black walnut trees.
