Three selected to interview for head coach

Three candidates have been selected to participate in on-campus interviews for the Wayne State College head football coaching position, WSC interim director of athletics Greg McDermott announced today.

The candidates, selected from a pool of 50 applicants, are Tim Albin, head football coach at Northwestern Oklahoma State University, Scott Hoffman, head football coach at Dakota State University, and Kyle Schweigert, defensive coordinator at the University of North Dakota.

McDermott said interviews will begin Nov. 29th and continue into early December. He added that he hopes to name a coach by mid-December, but indicated that applications will continue to be accepted and reviewed until the position is filled.

"We are very pleased with the quality of the application pool," McDermott said. "The three applicants we have selected to interview have tremendous experience with successful programs. Each one of them has the experience and ability to take our football program to the top of the Northern Sun Intercollegiate Conference."

Albin is in his third season as head coach at Northwestern Oklahoma State. After inheriting a program which had a 5-24-1 record the previous three seasons, Albin has turned the Rangers into a national power, posting a 21-8 record following a 5-5 record in 1997, NWOSU went 7-3 last season. This year, the Rangers posted a 9-0 record in the regular season, the first undefeated season in school history.

Currently ranked No. 2 in the NAIA national poll, the Rangers play host to No. 17 Southwestern College (Kan.) tomorrow in the first round of the NAIA playoffs.

Before being named head coach at Northwestern Oklahoma State, Albin was the offensive coordinator for the

The new outlet will occupy a 3,400-square-foot facility, sharing dining room space with a Taco John's franchise. The to-go restaurant will offer express lunch, in-house seating, and carryout and delivery of all Valentino's traditional pizzas, pastas and salads.

Mike Scott, who owns the Taco John's franchise in Wayne, has purchased the new Valentino's restaurant. Scott also owns Taco John's outlets in Norfolk and Yankton, South Dakota, and a Wendy's franchise in Yankton.

"Mike Scott has been in the restaurant business for over 20 years," Thomas said. "He is excited about the ability to give Wayne the best in Italian and Mexican food in a dining room setting as well as expedient take out and delivery."

Celebrating the season

The kindergarten students were Indians and supplied deer jerky for the meal. The first grade students played the part of Pilgrims and provided corn bread, butter, cranberry jello and cranberry sauce.

Area receives needed precipitation

Although the Wayne area did receive four inches of snow on Tuesday morning, warm temperatures caused much of it to melt by early afternoon.

Few traffic problems resulted from the first snowfall of the season.

The Nebraska Department of Roads (NDOR) as made a number of changes in the way it performs snow and ice removal operations.

District 3, which is responsible for the 15 counties in northeast Nebraska, including Wayne, is one of the districts leading the transition to these improved operations.

District 3 road crews plan to expand their use of liquid de-icing. They will use salt brine, Ice Ban M50 and Ice Ban M80 for anti-icing and deicing on selected roadways and bridges.

The Department of Roads has issued a list of things motorists can do to make winter travel safer.

Youngermans create scholarship

Ted and Lois Youngermans of Wayne have donated $5,000 to start a fund to help Goldenrod Hills Head Start ensure quality.

The Head Start Act is a national mandate that has a requirement to have 50 percent of all Head Start teachers with a minimum of an Associates Degree in "Early Childhood by 2003."

Ted is the current chairman of the Head Start's Policy Council. His wife Lois is a past Policy Council Community Representative.

The Youngermans' hope is that this is just the beginning of other donations that will go to help increase the quality of staff working with young children.

Nationally, it is proven that quality is linked to well-educated professionals. When asking Ted about the donation he said, "we did it because we have it and we know how important it is to the kids."

A committee of the Policy Council has been formed to continue efforts to increase the fund.

If interested in donating to the scholarship fund, you can contact the Youngermans at 1026 1st Avenue in Wayne or any other Policy Council Representatives. All donations are tax deductible and the contributors will be given receipts.

Kendall to assist WSC faculty

Dr. Jon Kendall began as interim director of instructional development this fall at Wayne State College.

Kendall said he assists faculty on a variety of needs related to teaching and learning.

"My emphasis will be on assisting faculty with information technology utilization - from using Power Point to developing distance-learning courses that make use of collaborative, web-based technologies. My duties actually cover not only the director of instructional development, but also the director of the multimedia center. I will teach at least one course a year. Outside of teaching, I am also involved in the College's diversity program," Kendall said.

His WSC position will allow him to work with everyone, Kendall said because harnessing the potential of information technology in teaching and learning requires everyone's input and interaction.

"I will be working very closely with Network Services as well as with Regional Education and Distance Learning to provide a full range of assistance in these areas," Kendall said.

Since he arrived on campus, Kendall said he has really enjoyed the friendly rural college atmosphere where faculty and administration take a genuine interest in students' overall education.

"I have created numerous web-based materials for my courses and have, over the years, assisted faculty and staff with software needs," Kendall said.

He said he hopes to become an important resource that faculty and staff can rely on.

Before he came to Wayne, Kendall lived and worked in Chile, Australia (Tasmania), New Zealand and Singapore.

Fluent in Spanish, Kendall graduated from Nido de Aguilas, an international high school in Santiago, Chile.

Kendall was part of a team which led a 16-day MBA business study mission to Argentina, Chile and Peru in December 1998, a project supervisor for a 10-day MBA business study mission to Saruwak, Sabah and Labuan, Malaysia in February 1998 and a project supervisor for a 10-day MBA business study mission to Vietnam in March 1996.

Herbs for Health

Ginger Can Prevent Motion Sickness

Dimenhydrinate is a popular nonprescription medicine that many individuals take when they want to prevent motion sickness in themselves or their children. Ginger may be an effective alternative - the same ginger root that is used as a spice.

The way in which ginger prevents motion sickness is not clear. The herb seems to work in the gastrointestinal tract than the central nervous system. In one study, ginger was found to be more effective than dimenhydrinate. Individuals who were prone to motion sickness were given 940 mg of ginger powder, 100 mg of dimenhydrinate, or a placebo. About one-half of the participants who took ginger were able to remain in the chair for 6 minutes. None of the other participants were able to do so.

In another study, the herb was found to be more effective than a placebo. Eighty navy cadets who were unaccustomed to sailing were given capsules that contained either one gram of ginger or the placebo (sugar). Cadets who took ginger reported less nausea and cold sweats.

The Golden Years

Back in 1983, at the ages of 62 and 57, Jack and Elaine Wyman sold their advertising agency in San Francisco and headed out to retire in Scottsdale, Arizona. Just over a year later, the Wymans were back in San Francisco, building a new ad agency from scratch. Today the Wymans are back in Scottsdale. Retiring again? "No, never. We learned our lesson," says Jack Wyman. Instead, both their ad agency and careers in writing books are prospering.

WSC cagers defeated twice in season opening tourney

By Kevin Peterson
Of the Herald

The Wayne State men's basketball team lost a pair of season-opening contests at the annual Quad States Classic at Morningside College over the weekend.

Greg McDermott's team lost a 66-64 decision to nationally-ranked South Dakota on Friday night before falling to the host team, Morningside by an 82-75 margin on Saturday night.

Against USD the 'Cats opened up a 15-5 lead at the 12:40 mark of the first half before the Coyotes closed out the half on a 31-10 run for a 36-25 halftime advantage.

"I was pleased with our start and pleased with how we finished the game but we had a 10-plus minute stretch in the first half where we struggled and you can't do that against teams like USD," McDermott said.

"We were actually fortunate to be in the game with our shooting percentages from the field and foul line."

The 11-point halftime lead of USD was the largest of the game as the 'Cats made the game interesting in the second stanza.

At the 2:59 mark of the second half WSC trailed by 10 at 64-54. Eric Henderson's dunk however, fueled a 10-2 scoring run to close the game.

In fact, USD missed a pair of free throws with 10 seconds left in regulation and WSC had two shots at tying the game or winning the game but Brad Joens shot drew iron and Rory Williams put back just missed.

The 10-2 run was paced by Jon Dolliver with seven points. "I'm proud of the fact our kids never quit and actually put ourselves in position to win," McDermott said.

Mulder led the 'Cats with 16 points while Brad Joens and Dolliver netting 11 each. Rory Williams and Eric Henderson each added seven.

USD was led by Nathan Blessen with 20 points and Ben Ries with 19.

Poor free throw shooting hampered WSC's attempt to win the opener as the 'Cats were just 7-16 from the stripe.

WSC was edged on the boards, 33-32 with Henderson leading the way with eight caroms.

It was a well-played game from the turnovers standpoint as WSC had just nine while USD had 13.

The 'Cats number one shooting force, Brad Joens struggled from the field, hitting four-of-eighteen attempts from the field.

"Brad got some good looks but the shots just didn't fall," McDermott said. "He's going to be a marked man all year."

On the other hand, Nathan Mulder stepped into the power forward position and did a nice job for the 'Cats.

"Having Nathan at the power forward position is a great fit," McDermott said. "He can hit the three-pointer and he can beat you off the dribble. He and Eric Henderson I felt had great week-ends for us."

SATURDAY THE 'Cats battled the Mustangs of Morningside closely the entire game.

WSC led 30-24 late in the first half but the Mustangs closed out the final five minutes with a 14-7 run to lead 38-37 at the intermission.

In the second half the Mustangs pulled away to a 12-point lead at 68-56 with just under six minutes remaining.

The 'Cats managed to cut the gap to four at 76-72 with 27 seconds left but Morningside hit six straight free throws in the final seconds to account for the 82-75 difference.

"Morningside has a lot of young people," McDermott said. "When you're freshman get off to a good start they get confidence and that's what happened and we had ourselves a ballgame. However, we can't expect to go on the road and hit just 36 percent from the field and expect to win."

Nathan Mulder and Eric Henderson shared team scoring honors for WSC with 14 points each while Jon Dolliver added nine. Brad Manley and Jason Herlitzke each tallied eight points as did Brad Joens.

WSC did win the battle of the boards, 42-37 as Henderson hauled down 12 boards to lead the 'Cats.

Manley dished out a team-high four assists and WSC suffered 17 turnovers while Morningside had 15.

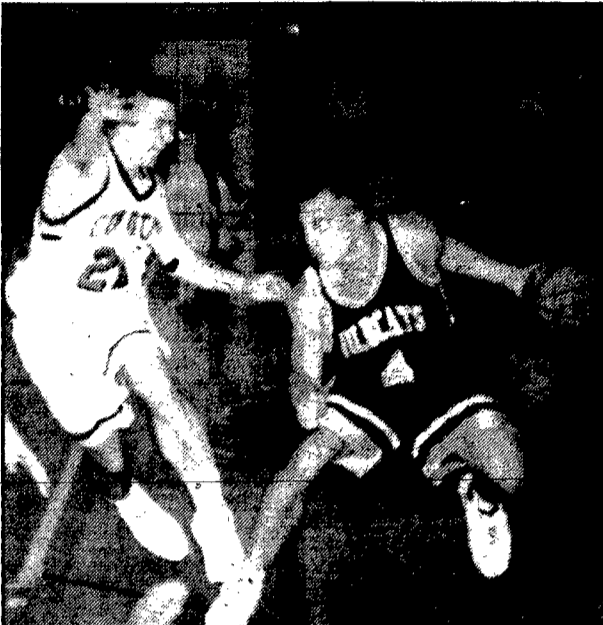

WSC will travel to play Augustana next Wednesday before hosting five straight games including Minnesota State-Mankato (Dec. 4), Northern State (Dec. 10), Minnesota-Morris (Dec. 11), UNO (Dec. 17) and Grand View (Dec. 18).

WSC baseball team signs pitching recruit

WAYNE—Courie Weber of Sioux Falls, S.D. has signed a national letter of intent to attend Wayne State College and play baseball, WSC head coach John Manganaro announced recently.

Weber, a 6-foot, 175-pound pitcher, attends Sioux Falls Christian High School. Last summer Weber posted a 12-4 record with a 2.98 earned run average for the Sioux Falls Post 15 East Legion Program. He also registered 91 strikeouts in 97 innings pitched.

"We are extremely excited about Courie's decision to attend Wayne State College," Manganaro said. "Courie is a great kid who will be a good fit in our program. He is a great competitor who knows how to pitch. Courie throws in the mid-80's with good movement on his fastball. We look for Courie to have an immediate impact on our pitching staff."

Weber is the last player Manganaro signed during the early signing period, which ended last Wednesday. Earlier, Justin Carey, a pitcher from Elkhorn, signed with the 'Cats.

Wayne State women win exhibition contest

The Wayne State women's basketball team defeated the Nebraska All-Stars in exhibition action last Thursday night, 77-73.

The Wildcats led the visitors, 43-36 at the half and held off a late rally by the All-Stars.

Ryun Williams' squad was led by Krista Bernadt with 16 points. Four Wildcat players finished in double figures as Ami Pendry and Sara Miller tossed in 14 points each while Katie Sperling tallied 13.

Karen Hochstein was near the double-digit mark in scoring with nine points.

Former Nebraska standout Anna DeForge led all scorers with 22 points.

WSC was 27-70 from the field for 38 percent while hitting 13-of-15 foul shots for 87 percent. The 'Cats were 10-30 from three-point range.

Erin Aakre dished out five assists to lead the winners with Bernadt dishing out four. WSC did have 20 turnovers compared to 18 for the All-Stars.

The host team was out-rebounded by a 48-41 margin with Hochstein and Sperling sharing team honors with eight caroms each while Bernadt had seven rebounds.

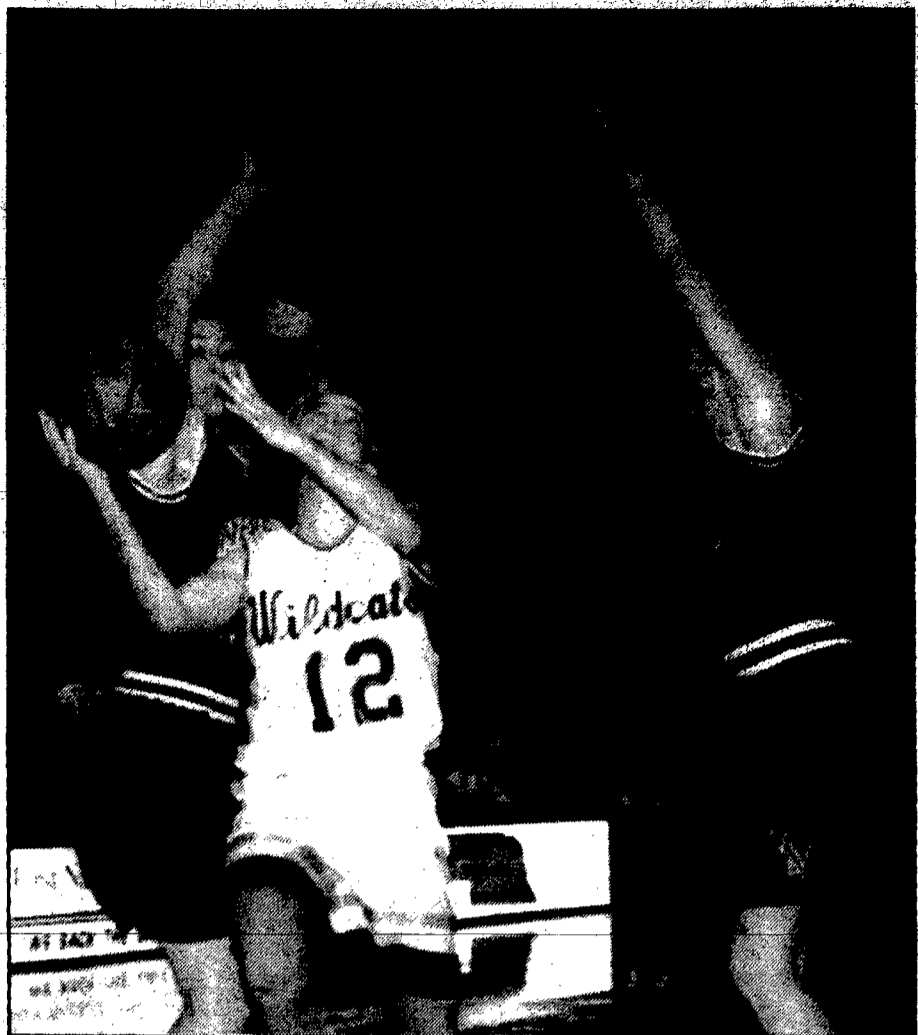

WSC will host Mt. Marty on Sunday at 3 p.m. before playing host to Doane on Tuesday at 7 p.m.

Riesberg bowls second 300

Wayne's Pat Riesberg rolled a perfect game in bowling at Melodee Lanes in Wayne last month.

Riesberg notched his second 300 of his career while bowling in the Tuesday Night City League.

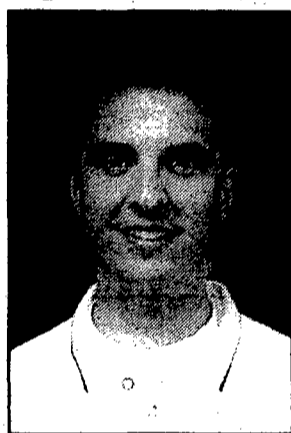

The Crofton native bowls for Pac-N-Vision and teammates that night included Don Koeber, Jack Hausmann, Cap Peterson and Max Kathol.

Not only did he throw 12 consecutive strikes in the second game of the three-game set, he had finished the first game with four straight.

"I found the mark and felt comfortable with it," Riesberg said. "I didn't change the mark the entire game."

Riesberg said it wasn't until the sixth or seventh frame that he even began thinking of what could be.

"I remember Shane Guill, saying something to the effect of running the table for a beverage at his expense," Riesberg added.

Pressure kept mounting and Riesberg had reached the 10th frame. "This was the fourth time I had gotten to the 10th frame with a perfect game in tact," Riesberg said. "I was one of three in finishing the 10th frame trifecta before."

Added pressure came from other bowlers who had stopped bowling to witness Riesberg's final frame.

"All I remember is it got awfully quiet," Riesberg said. "If I hadn't felt the pressure before, I did then."

Riesberg's 11th ball was a perfect pocket hit like the 10 before that. The final ball however, wasn't that perfect.

"I didn't even think I would hit the head pin," Riesberg said. "I dropped the ball and it had no rotation. I watched anyway and saw a mixer and they all fell down."

Riesberg finished with a 703 series with games of 216-300-187.

"There just wasn't a lot of concentration in that last game," he chuckled.

Riesberg's first perfect game was bowled in Crofton several years ago. He's lived in Wayne for 10 years.

His bowling background doesn't stem from a family tradition. "I remember bowling in junior league in Omaha and I really enjoyed the game," Riesberg said. "I've been bowling ever since."

His 300 game in Crofton is still the only perfect game ever rolled in those alleys.

Ironically, Riesberg was subbing in Crofton on the night he bowled a perfect game and he was subbing last month in Wayne when he rolled his second 300. "That was only the second time I've bowled this season," Riesberg said.

By the way, Shane Guill did hold up to his end of the bargain after Riesberg closed out his 12 strikes.

WSC head football coaching position Interviews are slated

The dates for on-campus interviews for the Wayne State College head football coaching position have been finalized, WSC interim director of athletics Greg McDermott announced Tuesday.

Kyle Schweigert, defensive coordinator at the University of North Dakota will be on campus, Monday Nov. 29 while Scott Hoffman, head football coach at Dakota State University, will interview for the position on Thursday, Dec. 2.

Both Schweigert and Hoffman will have luncheons in the back room of the Max Restaurant at noon. The luncheons are open to the public to meet the candidates. A third candidate selected for an interview, Tim Albin, head football coach at Northwestern Oklahoma State University, notified WSC officials over the weekend that he has withdrawn his name from consideration.

McDermott said the search committee has decided not to interview a third candidate at the present time. He indicated that more interviews are a possibility as applications will continue to be accepted and reviewed until the position is filled.

Hoffman recently completed his fourth season at Dakota State, where he has rebuilt the program. The Trojans were 1-9 in 1995 before Hoffman's arrival.

After a 2-7 record in 1996 and a 2-8 mark in 1997, Hoffman guided DSU to a 7-3 mark in 1998, earning South Dakota Intercollegiate Conference Coach of the Year.

The Trojans were 5-5 this past season, giving Hoffman a 16-23 record. Prior to Dakota State, Hoffman spent 12 seasons as an assistant coach at the University of Nebraska-Kearney.

Schweigert recently finished his third season as defensive coordinator, and 10th season overall, at North Dakota.

Under Schweigert, the Fighting

Sioux defense has led the North Central Conference in scoring defense the past two seasons.

North Dakota finished the season with a 9-2 overall record and won a share of the NCC title with an 8-1 league record.

The Sioux lost 20-13 in overtime to defending national champion

Northwest Missouri State in the first round of the Division II playoffs last Saturday. Schweigert began his coaching career at Jamestown College. He was an assistant coach there for four years.

The A.C.E. Halloween Party was a HUGE success. Thank you to all the kids who came and participated. Thanks to the Cash Store for donations, the Dixon County Sheriff's office for the safety information and treat bags, and thanks to the contest judges: Nancy Ellis, Sandy Chase, and Mary Johnson.

And last but not least, thanks to the parents who joined in the fun. Prizes were given for costumes and the Lip Sync Contest. Watch for more A.C.E. upcoming activities at the next meeting Dec. 6. COMMUNITY CLUB

The Allen Community Club met for dinner and meeting on November 15 at the Village Inn with nineteen members and guests present. Pres. John Werner called the meeting to order. Work on fixing the Allen sign on highway 20 continues.

Christmas activities were discussed. Everyone is encouraged to get a wooden star from the bank and decorate with their family theme. It must be returned to the bank by Nov. 20.

The Christmas tree will be put in the main square and decorated on Nov. 28. Everyone is encouraged to turn on their lights for the first time on Nov. 28 and then come to main square at 7 pm for an evening of family fun activities. Following the official lighting of the "family star" Christmas tree, everyone will go to the Fire and Rescue Building for fun and food.

The drinks will be provided by the Allen Community Club and everyone is asked to bring a finger food item. This has been an excellent family activity in the past with Santa's first visit of the season, songs, games, and food, and promises to be just as much fun this year.

The Christmas drawing will be Dec. 18 with Santa coming at 1 pm and the drawing at 2. The Dixon County Museum school house will be open from 10 am to 1 pm with refreshments. The decorations this year will be provided by the Newcastle school children.

WHAT ABOUT MORTGAGE INSURANCE?

You now know what to expect when estimating a house payment (principal and interest, and property tax and homeowner's insurance escrows).

There is one more monthly cost to consider...Mortgage Insurance.

If you are borrowing more than 80% of the purchase price of the home, the lender may require mortgage insurance. This insurance eliminates the lender's risk of losing money from making lower down payment loans. The program is funded by the monthly mortgage insurance premium attached to your house payment.

Check with your lender about this potential monthly cost.

WSC Madrigal Singers' performances upcoming

The Wayne State College Madrigal Singers will be performing their 28th annual season of Elizabethan Christmas Feasts in Lincoln, Sioux City, Iowa and Norfolk.

Old English Christmas traditions such as hanging of the greens, decking the halls, placing the Yule log on the fire and the boar's head processional are featured parts of each Elizabethan Christmas Feast.

Clad in 16th century attire, the WSC performers take audiences back to the Renaissance Era, specifically England under the rule of Queen Elizabeth I.

During the singing, poetry and comedy (complete with court jesters), the audience is treated to a dinner, which in the 16th century usually consisted of beef, Yorkshire pudding, the wassail drink and a flaming dessert.

"Our performance will follow much the same format as last year, however we have added more bells this year and another jester. The dinners involve pageantry, a festive atmosphere and colorful costumes. This year the audience will be involved in the wassail toast. The performance features both sides of a sacred and secular traditional English Christmas compete with a strolling caroller segment which passes by each table," said David Lawrence, director.

Lawrence is in his third year as director of choral activities and assistant professor of music at WSC. He received a BME degree in voice from Abilene Christian University, a MM degree in choral conducting from the University of Washington and is completing a Doctor of Music Arts degree in choral conducting from Louisiana State University.

Lawrence said he inherited the Madrigal program from previous directors. The originator of the program was Dr. Cornell Runestad, professor emeritus of music at WSC. A Rebusdorff Excellence in Teaching award winner, Dr. Runestad retired in 1995 after 25 years as director of choral music.

The Lincoln Country Club will host the elite singing group for a dinner performance on Sunday, Nov. 28, at 6:30 p.m. Please contact Roger Bacon at (402) 423-8502 for more information on this special performance.

The Sioux City Country Club at 4001 Jackson Street will serve as the stage for a Madrigal dinner performance for WSC alumni on Thursday, Dec. 2 at 6:30 p.m. Please contact Lea Clausen at (402) 375-7559 for ticket information.

The Norfolk Area Arts Council will host the Madrigals at the Lifelong Learning Center on Saturday, Dec. 11 at 7 p.m. Connie Conner is in charge of the dinner in Norfolk. Please call (402) 371-7199 for more information on the Norfolk performance, which is open to the public.

The WSC Madrigals will be touring Russia on the official state invitation of Deputy Minister of Culture, Alexander Demchenko. They will be performing in the great concert halls and churches of Moscow and St. Petersburg. The tour begins May 8 and will also through May 18. Donations are graciously accepted. Peoples outlines strategy

Peoples Natural Gas, which provides natural gas service in Wayne and surrounding communities, said it is using a gas purchasing strategy designed to lessen the potential for price spikes this winter.

Warmer-than-normal winters the past two years helped hold down natural gas prices in the U.S., which resulted in generally lower bills for customers, said Dan Warnock, senior vice president, energy supply services for UtiliCorp United. UtiliCorp is the parent company of Peoples Natural Gas.

"Due to lower U.S. natural gas production and storage levels this year, there is a greater potential for higher prices if we have a normal, cold winter," Warnock said. "Most of our residential and business customers want stability in their gas bills, and want to avoid the potential of winter price spikes."

To lessen the potential for winter gas price spikes, a three-part gas purchasing strategy is being used.

*First, the company purchases gas at a fixed price which will be used to minimize the impact of any sharp increases in winter gas prices. The fixed price gas was purchased at times when pricing was favorable for customers based on historical gas pricing trends.

*Secondly, the company owns or leases space in several storage facilities which allows the company to inject gas in the summer when gas prices are generally lower than winter prices. This lower-priced gas is then supplied to customers during the winter.

*Thirdly, the company continues to buy a portion of its gas supply on the spot market so that customers can receive the benefit of lower winter gas prices in the event of a warmer-than-normal winter.

Warnock cautions that the company's plan is not as beneficial to customers if the region experiences a warm winter such as occurred the last two years. That's because a decrease in consumer demand for natural gas brought on by a warm winter typically lowers gas prices on the spot market.

"By locking in part of our supply, we've locked in on price as well. Our customers won't see a sharp decrease in natural gas prices if we have a warm winter because a part of our supply was purchased at a fixed price," Warnock states. "However, our customers are telling us their main concern is to avoid sharp price increases in their energy bills, and we're doing our best to see those don't happen."

Warnock explained that gas service bills are composed of three main components - transportation, distribution and gas costs.

"The first cost is the transportation of gas from the well head where it is produced," Warnock explained. "The second cost is the distribution of gas into local communities, and includes such services as meter reading and system maintenance."

He added that transportation and distribution of natural gas comprise around 40 percent of the cost consumers pay. These costs are regulated by state and federal regulatory agencies.

"The third factor is gas cost, comprising around 60 percent of the customer's utility bill," said Warnock. "And this is where our strategy is focused because we have the ability to purchase natural gas supplies for our customers in a number of ways."

Warnock stated that "gas prices have become more volatile in recent years, and UtiliCorp believes its current purchasing strategy is the best approach in protecting customers from potential spikes in winter gas prices."

Scott Zaruba, customer operations director, added that gas customers can better manage winter heating bills by having their furnaces inspected by a reliable service technician and by weatherizing doors and windows to reduce cold air leaks into the house.

"Peoples customers should also consider enrolling in StreamLINE which bills customers the same amount each month based on the average of their preceding year's bills," Zaruba said.

Peoples provides natural gas service to more than 180,000 customers in 115 Nebraska communities. UtiliCorp, based in Kansas City, provides energy service to around 4.5 million customers across the U.S. and in Canada, Great Britain, New Zealand, and Australia.

Cataracts affect over 80% of our senior citizens. In fact over one million cataract surgeries are performed annually in the U.S. alone.

New technological developments in implants, ultrasonic equipment, lasers, diagnostic testing, and surgical techniques have made cataract surgery one of the most effective procedures today. Currently, over 98% of cataract patients experience significant improvements in vision, without major complications.

Until now, the high cost of this new technology for cataract surgery was only available in the larger surgical facilities. This meant that you would have to travel for a complete eye examination and surgery. Not any longer.

Complete eye care and cataract surgery is now available at Providence Medical Center in Wayne. You don't have to travel outside of your community to have your vision tested for cataracts. With Dr. Willockson, Dr. Koerber and Dr. Magnuson offering comprehensive diagnostic and surgical services, you now have the most advanced eye care available right here in town.

Call Dr. Koerber or Dr. Magnuson for a complete eye examination and cataract vision screening today. If you would like more information on cataracts for yourself or someone you know who may be experiencing loss of vision, call today for a free informational brochure.

Locking horns

Jeff Mrsny of Wayne recently came across two fighting bucks just south of KTCB. The deer had their horns locked. He watched one buck throw the other buck over its head which resulted in a broken neck. The live buck then tried to carry the other one into the brush. Mrsny knew Darin Wherley of Wayne had a bow and arrow deer license so he had him shoot the live buck to put it out of its misery.

Program presented on housing

The Wayne Community hosted the Northeast Nebraska Community Builders on Nov. 11. Tours of three housing facilities-model homes at Heritage Homes of Nebraska, Inc., a condo owned by Virgil Kardeli; and the independent living apartments at The Oaks-were admired by participants from seven communities. Following the tours the group met at Geno's Steak House for dinner and a program.

Sheryl Lindau, mayor of Wayne, welcomed the group and spoke on some of the current issues she is working on in Wayne. Connie Keck, director of the Bureau for Community and Economic Development, provided assistance in planning the program and led the self introductions.

Speaker for the program was Rob Bock, Vice President of Security National Bank of Allen, a member on the Governor's Commission on Housing and Homelessness, and Chairman of the Allen Development Group, Inc. He told how the housing demands in Northeast Nebraska have increased in recent years and what some communities are doing to address people's needs.

Bock then moderated a panel discussion to address housing questions. Panelists were Darrell Miller, general manager of Heritage Homes of Nebraska, Inc., Linda Anderson, executive director of the Wayne Community Housing Development, Inc., Darrell Fielberth, real estate agent with ERA Property Exchange, and Donna Liska, executive director of the Oaks.

Some of the questions covered were on loans for first-time owners, rental apartments, average listing time for sales, shortage of adequate housing and the need for moderate to upscale apartment rentals for business and professional people. Panelists told how each of their businesses is working to fill the needs of the consumer.

Lois Lage, coordinator of Community Builders, reported that the next meeting will be in Wisner Feb. 10, 2000, for a program on telecommunications.

Services for Advent are being planned
Our Savior Lutheran Church in Wayne will be holding special Advent worship services on Wednesday evenings, Dec. 1, 8, and 15 at 7:30 p.m.
The youth of the congregation will serve a soup supper prior to each Wednesday evening worship service from 6 to 7:15 p.m. with all proceeds benefiting the youth attending next summer's National Lutheran Youth Gathering in St. Louis.
"Of all the seasons of the church's liturgical year, Advent is probably the one least acknowledged by the world," said Pastor Martin Russell of Our Savior.
"Indeed, secular culture does not simply ignore Advent; it actively contradicts it. While the church tries to cling to a season of preparation and expectation, the world rushes on — prematurely, it seems, to Christmas — to a time of arrival and fulfillment. This determined avoidance of Advent is at least partly because the theme of the season is one with which our world is profoundly uncomfortable: waiting," Pastor Russell added.
"As we wait with hopeful anticipation for the celebration of the birth of Jesus, I hope that all people feel welcome to worship with us on Wednesday evenings at 7:30 p.m. during Advent and share in the soup supper and fellowship prior to each service." Pastor Russell said.

Thanksgiving celebration

Christmas fair plans are made

From homemade pies, cakes and rolls, to stitchery, crafts and other gift-giving ideas, this year's United Methodist Church Christmas Fair again plans to offer area residents a wide assortment of items to complete their holiday gift giving.

Doors to the Christmas fair will open at 10 a.m. Saturday, Dec. 4, and will remain open until 2 p.m. Shoppers are asked to use the north door of the church.

In addition to various booths, the fair will once again feature a hot turkey dinner served at the church from 11 a.m. to 1:30 p.m. The dinner can also be delivered personally to your home or office or be purchased at the church and taken home.

This year's menu includes turkey, mashed potatoes and gravy for $4; half portions for $2.50; cold turkey sandwiches for $2; pie for $1.50 and coffee or milk for 50 cents. People wishing to have their food delivered may place orders as early as 9 a.m. with delivery beginning at 11. Call the Methodist Church at 375-2231 to place a meal order.

A "Christmas Cake Walk" is the newest event at the "Candy Cane Lane" Christmas Fair. Children will be able to buy a chance for a decorated cake or Christmas goodies for a quarter. Monica Carroll is the chairperson.

Live music will again be preformed by various performers of all ages for your listening pleasure.

This year's fair will also include the following booths:

The Taste of Christmas--Shoppers can purchase homemade pies, cakes, breads and rolls, cookies, candies, eggs, canned goods, jellies and jams. Chairpersons are Marian Clark and Mary Cherry.

Homespun Crafts--Sewn, crocheted and knitted items, embroidery, cross-stitch and other needlework will be featured, along with wood and decorator items. Chairpersons are Lynn Sievers and Bev Etter.

Silent Auction--Items can once again be bid on during the fair. This year's chairperson is Shirlene Boeckenhauer.

The Attic--Good, used items of every kind, except clothing may be purchased at the Attic. Chairperson is Connie Webber.

Sugar & Spice--For a small price, sugar cookies can be decorated by individuals of all ages. This booth will also have a limited number of plates of decorated cookies for sale. Chairpersons are Chris Costa and Sue Schroeder.

There will be a Corstage for Missions table where a $1 donation to missions will entitle shoppers to a bright, colorful ribbon corsage. This is a very special way to say "thanks," "I love you," or "I'm glad we're friends."

As another gift idea, there will be available a wide assortment of knives offered for sale. Chairpersons are Mary Wax and Kay Kemp.

Seasonal napkins and a variety of boxed cards will also be available. Maxine Robins is the chairperson for this booth.

Overall chairperson for the 1999 Christmas Fair is Kathy Gardner.

Deb Reinhardt and Danni Glassmeyer are in charge of holly and wreath orders.

Other chairpersons are Marge Porter, kitchen; Norma Ehlers, pies; Nancy Fuelberth, luncheon; Nancy Sorensen, table decorations; Diane Long, publicity; and Pearla Benjamin and Joanne McNatt, cashiers.

Our Savior will host a food drive

Our Savior Lutheran Church in Wayne is hosting a food drive through Sunday, Dec. 5, in support of the Wayne Food Pantry.

Canned food and non-perishable food items should be brought to Our Savior Lutheran Church by that time.

"Families and individuals in need benefit from your generosity and faithfulness in providing much needed food items," said Pastor Martin Russell.

"During this Thanksgiving season, express your gratitude for what God has provided you by helping to provide for others in our community."

Our Savior is located at the corner of Fifth and Main Streets in Wayne.

Grace Ladies Aid gathers

Members of the Grace Ladies Aid met on Nov. 10 at the Grace Lutheran Church with Beverly Hansen giving an opening devotion, "Pieces of God's Quilt."

The group sang "Jesus Loves Me," and "Come Ye Faithful People Come." Also, Hansen read various Bible verses.

The business meeting was opened by Delores Utecht and roll call was taken with 30 members and Pastor Anderson in attendance.

The group visited the Care Center in October. Also in October, seven women made seven quilts. The group will sew again in January.

Melvy Meter gave a report for the visiting committee. The group made trips to the Oaks, to the Care Center, visited the sick, and sent cards.

from James Ernst, the Vicar, that the Grace Ladies Aid sponsors each month. Louis Larsen will write to Vicar Ernst this month.

Discussion was held on the Cookie Walk, which is set for Saturday, Dec. 11.

Christmas cards are in and will be sold after church services. The Christmas Collection will be given to Camp Luther and the yearly birthday collection will be given to Vicar James Ernst and family. Money will be divided between the Orphan Grain Train, Bethesda, Alaskan Mission, and the Norfolk Rescue Mission.

Melvin and Delores Utecht and Cyril and Beverly Hansen packed and delivered clothing on Nov. 11 to be collected for Lutheran World Relief. A sign-up sheet for pies for the Campus Center Thanksgiving dinner was passed out by Pastor Bohn.

Cookies for shut-ins are to be brought to the Dec. 8 Christmas Luncheon. On the committee for the Christmas luncheon are Barbara Greve, Joann Temme, La Von Biermann, Rhonda Sebade, and Cynthia Rethwisch.

The community of Winside honored this Nation's Veterans on Nov. 11 with a Veteran's Day Program held in the elementary school multipurpose room.

The program began with members of the Roy Reed American Legion Post 252 color guard and Winside Cub Scout Pack #179 presenting the flags while the National Anthem was being played by the Winside High School band under the direction of Mrs. Kathy Hansen.

Two Winside High School Student Council members, Shannon Jaeger and Keesha Rees, received the "Pledge of Allegiance" while the high school band played "America."

High School Principal Ron Leapley welcomed everyone and introduced speaker Virgil Rohlff, a member of the American Legion Post 252. Rohlff gave a speech remembering those who have died for this country and used visual aids of three Winside high school graduates who made the ultimate sacrifice during the Vietnam war. They were Mark Witt, 19, who was killed May 19,

Members of the Roy Reed American Legion Post 252 color guard and Winside Cub Scout Pack #179 presented the flags at the recent Veteran's Day program held in Winside.

1968; Robert A. Wagner, 20, who died May 16, 1968; and Robert Dangberg, 21, who died April 18, 1970. He also relayed the history of Veteran's Day.

Following Rohlff was Post 252 Auxiliary member Marilyn Brockman who gave a Veteran's Day reading.

A special musical production "Children of the 21st Century" was sung by the High School choir and the elementary children under the direction of Mr. LeNell Quinn.

High O'Brian Foundation Speech recipient Katie Barg described her four day experience at Blair College and discussed activities she participated in during the time.

Shannon Jaeger, Winside American Legion Auxiliary 1999 Girls Stater, read a Veteran's Day poem followed by an overview of her weeks activities in Lincoln.

Kristi Gonzales read the Voice of Democracy speech that she wrote on the theme "America's Roll in the Next Century."

A special feature of this year's program was "Operation Recognition," a program between the Nebraska Department of Education and the Nebraska Department of Veteran's Affairs to present an honorary high school diploma to honorable discharged WWII veteran's who left school during the 1940's to serve their country and, for whatever personal reason, did not return to school and complete their education after the war.

Honored during the program was Malvin Nydahl, 82, of rural Winside, who served in the U.S. Army during WWII. Present with Nydahl for the presentation was his daughter, Connie Ambrose, of Grand Island.

The program closed with the retiring of the colors and taps played by Sara Schwartz and Kim Stenwall.

Mike Brumm receives the 1999 Distinguished Specialist Award from Elizabeth Birnstihl, associate Dean of the University of Nebraska Cooperative Extension.

Columbus convention Staff recognized

Outstanding Cooperative Extension staff were recognized at the Nebraska Cooperative Extension's annual conference Nov. 16-18 at Columbus.

This year's conference theme was "Moving Extension Into 2000."

Beth Birnstihl, associate dean of University of Nebraska Cooperative Extension, announced award recipients.

Honorees included Michael Brumm, swine specialist at the UN Haskell Agricultural Laboratory in Concord; Larry Howard, extension educator in Cuming County; Susan Williams, extension educator in Saunders County; Kayla Hinrichs, extension assistant based in Valley

County; Karna Dam, 4-H assistant in Washington County and Brent Plugge, extension educator for the Central Sandhills unit in Thedford.

Brumm received the Distinguished Extension Specialist. A swine specialist for 20 years, Brumm is a recognized authority on post-weaning management and housing and computer production records systems. He is in constant demand as a consultant for operations of all sizes and spent part of 1996 in China in that role. Brumm sits on several boards and industry panels, has presented legislative testimony and has received several awards.

Shapiro speaks at symposium

Dr. Charles Shapiro, Soil Scientist at the Haskell Ag Lab in Concord spoke at the 1999 Research Symposium on Nov. 8 in Lincoln.

The Symposium is jointly sponsored by the University of Nebraska, Institute of Agriculture and Natural Resources and the Nebraska Fertilizer & Ag-Chemical Institute.

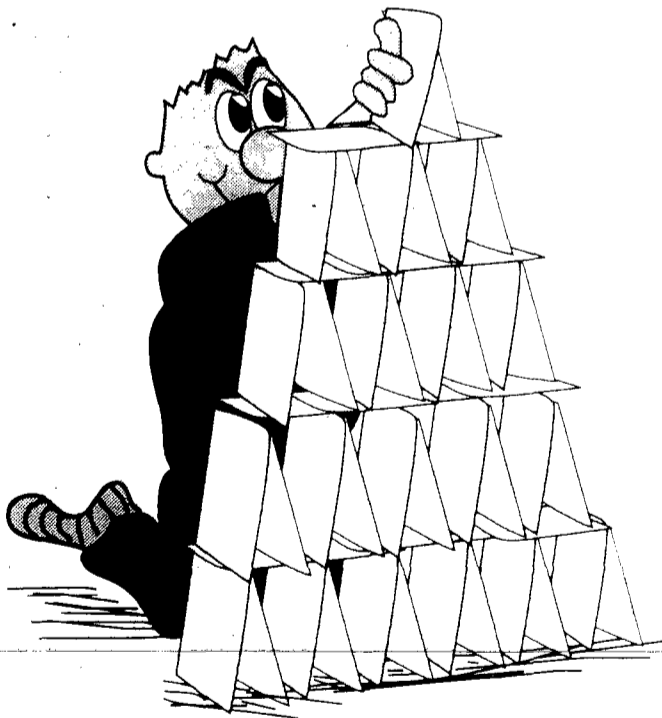

Dr. Shapiro spoke on the Comprehensive Nutrient Management Plan that will be required to acquire a permit to operate an animal feeding operation.

The program also met the criteria necessary to qualify for continuing education credits for those individuals designated as Certified Crop Advisors.

Certified Crop Advisors pass two comprehensive tests demonstrating extensive knowledge in plant nutrient management and plant protection practices and are required to have 40 hours of continuing education every two years.

Nebraska has over 675 Certified Crop Advisors.

Lots to be thankful for

B & B business has been brisk for this time of year. I suppose it has something to do with the weather. Last weekend, two K State students were here to take a class in Weeping Water that enables them to teach sky diving.

The Lincoln Parachute Club uses that airport; these two were both seniors in engineering who dive as a hobby. In fact, they plan to be jumping in Arizona at midnight this New Year's eve.

I've always wanted to do this. One had jumped tandem with his 72-year-old housemother last spring. Maybe I'll make it yet.

The Farm Wife
By: Pat Montgomery

When I told Jon that was a goal of mine, I said, "After all, George Bush did it." He responded, "Yes, but he's led his life!" We'll see. Each of these fellows had $4000 invested in gear alone, and had recently become part owners of a Cessna. College students definitely are better off these days!

We've also hosted a mom and daughter from Iowa who were checking out UNL, one of the ministers from a large church in Lincoln who received a gift certificate from his congregation, and another gal from Iowa who was teaching the local village clerk to use new software.

Last night's guests were from Lincoln, but used to live in Norfolk, so it was old home day at the breakfast table. In fact, we were at the table almost two hours. We aren't making much per hour, obviously.

On Tuesday this past week, the Big Farmer was blessed with the task of putting the food on because I left for Falls City at 7:15. I was on a mission for our church, meeting with circuit pastors there and in Odell. I get to Falls City with my job periodically, but I'd never been to Odell. The map showed highway 8 going straight across, with only a few jogs.

As I left Pawnee City, my fuel light came on and it was only a short way to Burchard, so I turned north to go there and fill up. I pulled up at the Co-op at 12:30, and the sign said it was closed from noon to 1 o'clock. The pumps were locked, so I walked across the street to the tavern. It was fried chicken day, and it was busy. I ended up at a table for six and had a great hamburger and fun conversation. Only in a small town...

Something surfaced in our office this week that should be shared. Words to Live by: I'm thankful for the mess to clean after a party because it means I have been surrounded by friends, for taxes I pay because it means I'm employed, the clothes that fit a little too snug because it means I have enough to eat, a lawn that needs mowing, windows that need cleaning, and gutters that need fixing because it means I have a home.

For my shadow while at work because it means I'm out in the sunshine, the spot I find at the far end of the parking lot because it means I am capable of walking, my huge heating bill because it means I am warm, all the complaining I hear about our government because it means we have freedom of speech, the lady behind me in church who sings off key because it means I can hear, the piles of laundry because it means my loved ones are nearby, the alarm that goes off in the early morning hours because it means I'm alive, and the weariness and aching muscles at the end of the day because it means I have been productive. Happy Thanksgiving!

Fats were $3 to $4 lower. Lambs were steady.

Fat lambs: 100 to 150 lbs., $70 to $73 cwt
Feeder lambs: 40 to 60 lbs., $80 to $100 cwt, 60 to 100 lbs., $70 to $80 cwt

Ewes: Good, $55 to $80; Medium, $35 to $55; slaughter, $25 to $35.

There were 400 feeder pigs sold at the Norfolk Livestock market on Monday. Prices were $2 to $3 higher.

20 to 30 lbs., $12 to $20; $2 to $3 higher; 30 to 40 lbs., $18 to $30; $2 to $3 higher; 40 to 50 lbs., $24 to $36; $2 to $3 higher; 50 to 60 lbs., $27 to $38; $2 to $3 higher; 60 to 70 lbs., $28 to $40; $2 to $3 higher; 70 to 80 lbs., $29 to $42; $2 to $3 higher; 80 lbs. and up, $30 to $45, $2 to $3 higher.

Butcher hog head count at the Norfolk Livestock Market on Tuesday totaled 619. Butchers were $1.50 to $1.75 higher and sows were $2 lower.

U.S. 1's + 2's, 220 to 260 lbs., $34 to $34.75; 2's + 3's, 220 to 260 lbs., $33.50 to $34; 2's + 3's, 260 to 280 lbs., $32.50 to $33.50; 2's + 3's, 280 to 300 lbs., $30 to $32.50; 3's + 4's, 300 + lbs., $25 to $30.

Sows: 350 to 500 lbs., $23 to $25; 500 to 650 lbs., $25 to $29. Boars: $9.50 to $19.

Environmental issues discussed around state

Nebraska livestock regulations will be the central theme of a series of Environmental Assurance programs to be held throughout the state.

The Dixon County Cooperative Extension will host one site on Tuesday, Dec. 7 from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. at the Haskell Agricultural Laboratory at Concord.

Lunch will be provided and there is no fee to attend. Producers are asked to preregister for an accurate meal count.

These meetings are aimed toward pork producers although the information will benefit other livestock operations as well. The program will include discussions on the following topics: update on livestock regulations, nutrient management planning to meet Nebraska DEQ rules, inspecting and maintaining your lagoon/ manure storage, new advances in odor control technology and neighbor relations.

To register or for more information, contact the Wayne County Cooperative Extension office at (402) 375-3310. A complete list of other locations and dates is also available.
