Johnson shares experiences of expedition

By Clara Osten
Of the Herald

Dan Johnson has had an interest in the Lewis and Clark expedition since he was a child. For the past five years he has shared his knowledge of the 1804 expedition with thousands of children and adults in 16 states. "In the past five years I have visited 361 schools and spoken to 144,000 students," Dan said. Johnson, who grew up in Vermillion, S.D., near Spirit Mound, one of the major camp sites of the Lewis and Clark expedition, retraced the route of the expedition approximately 10 years ago. "My son Randy and I traced the Lewis and Clark route in reverse. The first summer we went to Sioux City, Iowa and from there traveled to St. Louis and Hannibal, Mo.," Dan said. The pair stopped at all of the Lewis and Clark camp sites and took pictures of each. The following summer they began their exploration at Ft. Benton, Mont. and worked their way down the Missouri River. "We experience a lot of the same things that Lewis and Clark did. Because of a drought, there were a lot of sand bars in the river. One time we came around a bend and there was a sunken steamboat in the middle of the river," Dan said. The father-son pair got on to the steamboat, took a number of pictures and got a piece of timber from the boat. After their return to Wayne, Dan did research on steamboats and found that the boat was the Amelia Poe which sank in 1868. Johnson then put together a slide show of the pictures he had taken and a collection of artifacts from the time of Lewis and Clark's trip. He began giving presentations on a limited basis, due to his teaching schedule. After 25 years of teaching in the Wayne Public Schools, Johnson resigned five years ago and took his 45-minute program to schools throughout the area, scheduling performances on his own. He later signed a contract with

Gathje chosen as delegate to annual Youth Program

Senators J. Robert Kerrey and Chuck Hagel announced the appointment of Jon Gathje and Patrick Daugherty as the Nebraska delegates to the 38th Annual United States Senate Youth Program in Washington, D.C. The state's high school student delegates were named by Dr. Douglas D. Christensen, Commissioner of Education. Jon Gathje, a resident of Wayne, attends Wayne High School where he is National Honor Society and Band-President. Jon is active in the Marching Band, Choir, and Jazz Band. He is a member of the local National Honor Society and Future Leaders of America. He enjoys all sports, music and church. He hopes to become a performer and a conductor one day. Patrick Daugherty, a resident of Papillion, is Senior Class Treasurer and Student Council Secretary at Papillion-LaVista High School. Patrick is active in Mock Trial, the Academic Decathlon and Forensics. He works as a lifeguard and swimming instructor. Patrick aspires to work as a District Attorney and to eventually enter politics. Chosen as alternates to the 2000 program were Elizabeth Klein, a resident of Omaha, who attends V.J. and Angela Skutt Catholic High School and Michelle Nordstrom, who resides in Omaha and attends V.J. and Angela Skutt Catholic High School. In addition, 102 other elected high school student body officers, two from each state, the District of Columbia, and the Department of Defense Dependents Schools Overseas, will make the trip to Washington, D.C. from March 4 through 11, for a week of intensive study of the federal government and the United States Senate in particular. Each of the 104 delegates will also receive a $2,000 college scholarship, which, along with the program, is made possible by a grant from the William Randolph Hearst Foundation. All transportation, meals, and accommodations at the Mayflower Hotel are also provided. No government funds are used. The operations of the Senate will be particularly stressed during the week. As in past years, arrangements are underway for the delegates to meet with leading cabinet members, a Supreme Court Justice and several key Congressional policy makers. Arrangement for the program are being made by the Senate Advisory Committee under Chairs, Sen. Craig Thomas of Wyoming and Sen. Blanche Lambert Lincoln of Arkansas. The other committee members are Senators Spencer Abraham (MI), Lincoln Chafee (RI), Bill Frist (TN), Don Nickles (OK), Evan Bayh (IN), Dianne Feinstein (CA), Patrick J. Leahy (VT), and Robert G. Torricelli (NJ). Foundation President Randolph A. Hearst is the Program Committee Chairman.

Scholarships available

Full tuition academic-based scholarships for the 2000-2001 academic year are available for Chadron State, Peru State and Wayne State Colleges.

The Board of Trustees Scholarships are renewable and represent a financial award of more than $7,500 when renewed over four years.

- Applicants must:
- Score at least a 25 on the ACT or 1100 on the SAT college entrance exams;
  - Be a graduating senior for a Nebraska high school enrolling for the first time as a full-time college

- student;
- Provide at least one written recommendation from a high school teacher or administrator;
  - Meet the Jan. 14, 2000 deadline.

Dr. Al Gigstad of Nebraska, Chair of the Board of Trustees for the State College System, encourages all qualified students to apply.

"For more than 25 years, this program has allowed the State College Board to provide academically gifted Nebraska high school students the opportunity to pursue an outstanding college education right here in Nebraska," he said. "When you consider the advantages of a State College — small campuses, low teacher to student ratios, a dedication to seeing every student succeed, reasonable cost and ready access — you may find that this is the best decision for your educational plans."

Information and application forms are available from high school guidance counselors, or you may download an application form from our State College System web site at www.nscs.edu. Applications must be postmarked by Jan. 14, 2000.

Millennium celebration well attended in Wayne

A large crowd showed up at the City Auditorium for the Millennium Celebration on New Year's Eve sponsored by the Wayne Area Chamber of Commerce.

Residents of Wakefield, Carroll, Laurel, Winside and Iowa were present to celebrate.

Both young and old enjoyed the festive evening as games were played, food was devoured, prizes were won and several individuals were interviewed by KWPN Radio.

The winner of a three-disc changer, surround sound stereo system was Jeree Bloom of Fayette, Iowa.

"We were especially glad she received this prize when we learned she had asked for a stereo system for Christmas and did not receive one," said Karin Vaughn, Interim Director of the Chamber.

The second winner of the evening was Amy Anderson of Wayne who received a CD Walkman.

"An impressive display of fireworks was seen around Wayne as they were launched from the fairgrounds, the golf course and the baseball field," Vaughn said.

She also expressed thanks to all of the volunteers and sponsors who helped make the evening a success.

CHANGES IN HOMESTEAD EXEMPTION HELPS MORE NEBRASKANS

By Governor Mike Johanns

Dear Nebraska Neighbors:

Whether you own on a home in Bellevue, a ranch in the panhandle, a small business in Lincoln, or a farm near West Point, property taxes remain a dominant concern for most Nebraska taxpayers. Property taxes can be an especially harsh burden for seniors and disabled Nebraskans with relatively modest or fixed incomes.

One state program aimed at easing this burden is the homestead exemption. Nebraska's homestead exemption is a provision that offers a break on a qualifier's property tax bill by exempting all or a portion of the valuation of the homestead from taxation. The State then reimburses counties and other governmental subdivisions for the taxes lost due to this homestead exemption.

Recognizing the benefits of this program, I went to the Unicameral last year with a proposal to expand Nebraska's homestead exemption to benefit more Nebraskans.

Working with state lawmakers during the last legislative session, we secured approval of a measure which increased the homestead exemption's income eligibility limitations and broadened its definition of a disability. The result is a new homestead exemption that, beginning this year, reaches more of Nebraska's seniors and disabled citizens with property tax relief.

As we begin the new year, I want to encourage seniors ages 65 and over and the disabled who may have not qualified for the homestead exemption in the past to take a look at the possibility of qualifying in 2000. Many Nebraskans who may have been very close or just on the edge of qualifying in previous years may find themselves eligible today.

As a result of last year's efforts, the income eligibility limitation for single seniors increased from $21,701 to $24,201 and the limitation for married seniors increased from $25,601 to $28,501. Single seniors earning up to $19,201 and married seniors earning up to $22,501 are eligible for an exemption of 100% of their property taxes. Seniors earning less than the income limit but more than the eligibility amount for a 100% exemption are eligible for a partial exemption on a sliding scale.

The income eligibility limitation for disabled Nebraskans and certain veterans was increased from $23,801 to $26,601 for singles and $27,601 to $30,701 for married couples. At the same time, the definition of disabled individual has been expanded to include anyone who must use mechanical aids or prostheses to walk and those severely disabled in both arms.

It is important for our "Nebraska United" that every taxpayer who is eligible sign up and receive this exemption. ## Capitol News —

Speak up and tell the truth

By Ed Howard
Statehouse Correspondent
The Nebraska Press Association

The nice thing about on-going problems, or mysteries, is that they provide a refuge during comparatively quiet times.

The period between Christmas and New Year's Day, for example, is a notoriously quiet time for news. Of course, there are exceptions that serve a good purpose. A really big news event during what most reporters and editors expect to be a slack portion of the year tends to catch news types by surprise. The ensuing scurrying about and subsequent heavy breathing are fun to watch.

Such occasions once provided an opportunity to update one's view of whose newsroom profanity was the most colorful and creative. The latter days have gone by the boards with an era of political correctness that has left newsrooms about as exciting as insurance office lobbies.

Major news events and coincidental doings aside, the holiday period gives one time to regard old questions in new light, if any of the latter can be found.

Syndicated columnist George Will gave a little talk in Lincoln a few weeks back and offered, for what was probably a princely sum, a few of the thoughts he has been sharing with the public for some time.

Among the most interesting was his analysis of the difference in what people say they want from government, and what, in fact, they really do want from government. His approach put things in a clearer, if not necessarily new, light.

Will's assessment was correct and it raised, in my mind, one of my favorite old mysteries. Why is it that people so often cannot see what it is that they actually want?

Will noted that a few years back it was the "in" thing to knock big government, vote for conservative Republican candidates who had the approval of the likes of Rush Limbaugh, and demand that big government get small.

As Will pointed out, the American people did not really want the government to get small -- they apparently were just tired of paying the bill for the stuff that they do want and that government provides.

Entitlements serve as the best example. These are programs that function through the usual loop -- people give taxes to government, the government divides it into a bunch of pots (Medicare, Medicaid, Social Security) then sends it back to the people according to a formula. It also includes the equivalent of a hefty carrying charge.

It works the same way on the state level. People do want government to provide what they want, but they object to paying for what other people want from government.

The fact is that people burdened with local property taxes aren't really demanding tax relief across the board. They want relief from their least favorite tax. Why do you think that a couple of decades ago some rural legislators tried to palm off the idea of a "local income tax" on the Legislature? For a variety of reasons, ranging from the tax code to bad prices, farmers and ranchers weren't generally paying income taxes. The idea was to let the "townies" pay the taxes.

So, if you are among those good citizens prone to government involvement, if you are among those prone to gripe about taxes, or those prone to resolutions of the New Year variety, how about this idea:

Call your state senator or, better, write him or her a letter.

In the letter, just tell the truth.

As in: "Dear Senator: My name is John Doe and I work for a salary and rent an apartment. I don't want state sales and income tax rates to go up, just so you can send more money to local governments so that some people who own property don't have to pay so much tax on it. Screw 'em!"

Or this: "Dear Senator: I don't have children and I don't like children. Don't raise my state taxes so you can give more money to local governments to pay teachers in some town I probably couldn't find on a map. Let their parents or complete strangers pay more property taxes. Screw 'em!"

Or this: "Dear Senator: People who live in town are degenerates who get wages that are too high. They give their wages to kids who go to movies and then go get pregnant or shoot people. If you would take more income tax from these people it would help to keep their rotten kids, who probably never ran a tractor or fed a hog, out of trouble. Then you could send the money to farmers like me who pay too much property taxes."

In addition to a shift to candor, you would be undoing one of the great mysteries of our society. You would help to put an end to the great dilemma often faced by policymakers: Why do people say they want one thing, but really want another?

Speak up and tell the truth, fellow citizen. Just tell your representative that, for the most part, you don't care how big government actually gets, so long as the bill isn't sent to you.

Free eye exams will be available

Free eye exams will be available this March for low-income workers and their families during Save Your Vision Week.

More than 100 optometrists in the state who are members of the Nebraska Optometric Association will be donating their time and services through VISION USA, a nationwide eye exam program for low income families.

Local optometrists and Lions Club members are participating in the project. Last year, about 750 individuals received appointments.

To qualify for free eye care, a person must have a job or live in a household in which at least one member is working part-time, have no health insurance that covers eye exams, meet income criteria based on household size and not have had an eye exam with an optometrist in the last two years.

Applications can be made by calling 1-800-766-4466 from now until Jan. 21, 2000. This number is in operation only in January from 7 a.m. to 9 p.m.

Applications forms can be obtained from VISION USA, 243 N. Lindbergh Blvd., St. Louis, Mo. 63141. Area residents can call 375-4969. Qualified applicants will be notified by mail of the appointment in February.

The free eye exams will be given during Save Your Vision Week in March 2000.

Second half

New Legislative session begins

Year 2000 is upon us and with it a new Legislative Session. Jan. 5 marks the beginning of the second half of the 96th Legislative session.

This current session is a short session and will last 60 working days. Time will go quickly as we deal with Carryover Bills from last year; issues to my attention during the interim and will become a priority for me during the current session. LB 352 will provide extended services and greater representation for the blind community in Nebraska, while remaining at current funding levels.

Many old and new issues have surfaced during the interim. Among these issues are Teacher Pay Increases, Fetal Cell Research, and Poverty Tax Relief. These are just a few of the upcoming issues that will be before us this year. There are no easy solutions to these problems, but I look forward to seeking resolution of these and other much-heated debates.

With the continuing agricultural crisis that plaques are rural communities and family farm tradition in Nebraska, obviously something needs to be done. I will be working alongside with members of the Agriculture committee to ensure that Nebraska farmers will have a viable future. Among proposals that are being considered include a $30 million dollar property tax relief bill to alleviate the strain of property taxes on the farmers and ranchers of Northeast and Greater Nebraska. I want to assure you that I will take an active role in any legislation that may arise that affects the farm and ranch economy of Nebraska and it will be high on my priority list.

I want to thank everyone that has taken part in my legislative survey of District #18. If you were not able to take part, please contact my office for a copy of the survey. Your input, as always, is very important to me. If you have any comments or concerns on these or any other legislative matters, please contact my office at (402) 471-2801 or e-mail me at bdickey@unicam.state.ne.us dealt with during the interim and several issues that are of the utmost importance for many Nebraskans. An estimated 300 bills introduced in the previous session remain at various stages of legislative debate, awaiting our return.

The Agricultural Crisis, seat belts, lethal injection, cigarette taxes, concealed weapons, a pay raise for lawmakers, and fetal protection are all issues sure to raise the temperature in any legislative chamber. Is it any wonder that these bills were left form the last session of the Nebraska Legislature?

These bills and others that remain at various stages of debate from the previous session will likely come up early on our legislative agenda in 2000. Included in this group of carryover legislation is LB 352, which would establish the Nebraska Commission for the Blind. This important issue has been brought

Mission accomplished

Television series begins new season

The award winning Hartington-based television series "Outdoorsmen Adventures" is beginning its fourth season.

Hosted by Gary Howe, the series will highlight outdoor opportunities throughout the midwest.

Several northeast Nebraska residents will be featured on this season's segments.

On Jan. 15 Troy Bottolfsen and Ryan Kneif of Hartington will be guests on a catfishing show filmed near Niobrara. The second segment of the Jan. 15 show will feature an early season snow goose hunt in Iowa. Joining Gary on this segment will be Bill Christenson and Jerome Felmeier of Hartington.

Wayne girls and Laurel-Concord boys capture tournament crown

By Kevin Peterson
Of the Herald

The Great Northeast Nebraska Shootout was held on the campus of Wayne State College last week with the Wayne girls and Laurel-Concord boys teams winning championships.

John McClarnien's Blue Devils defeated four-time defending champions Hartington Cedar Catholic in come from behind fashion, 36-33 for the title while Clayton Steele upended two-time defending tournament champs, Norfolk Catholic for the boys crown, 41-38. Incidentally, it was Laurel-

Concord coach Clayton Steele's 400th career win.

The tournament featured many surprises and highlights as the Lady Blue Devils of Wayne ran their win streak to five games after garnering just two wins all season in 1998-99.

Wayne defeated Omaha Roncalli in first round action, 43-34 as April Thede tallied 16 points with Sara Ellis adding 10.

The Blue Devils downed Norfolk Catholic in the semifinals, 51-37 with Sara Ellis netting a career high with 19 points while Katie Walton poured in 14.

In the championship with Hartington Cedar Catholic it was junior Monica Novak that shined with 17 second half points as Wayne overcame a double digit deficit in the second half to post the 36-33 win.

Novak hit the game winning three-pointer with 11 seconds left in regulation.

THE LAUREL-CONCORD boys began their championship quest against Madison and the Bears used a 16-2 scoring run in the second quarter to put the game away, 65-50.

Laurel-Concord led by 20-plus points late in the game before Madison hit some late buckets.

All five Bears starters were in double figures with Matt Schroeder scoring 16 and Nathan Beckman, 15. Ross Gardner, Nick Mangano and Evan Smith added 10 each.

The Bears defeated Hartington Cedar Catholic in the semifinals, 52-45 as Ross Gardner led the way with 23 points while Beckman tossed in 11.

Laurel-Concord hit nine-of-12 free throw attempts in the final quarter including a 6-6 outting by Beckman to seal the win.

In the championship game with Norfolk Catholic the Bears led 26-18 at the half but trailed 29-28 after three periods before out-scoring the Knights, 13-9 in the final stanza.

Ross Gardner and Evan Smith scored 11 points each to lead the winners with Matt Schroeder adding 10.

THE WAYNE BOYS had the most exciting first round contest with Omaha Roncalli with the Crimson Pride winning a 78-71 overtime decision.

Trailing by seven in the waning minutes of regulation the Blue Devils went on a 7-0 run to send the game to overtime.

That 7-0 run was paced by sophomore Brad Hochstein who sank three free throws with just seconds remaining after being fouled on a long shot attempt.

Joel Munson led the Blue Devils with 21 points with Eric McLagan adding 15 and Hochstein, 14.

Wayne blasted Wakefield in day two action, 83-22. The Blue Devils went on a 23-0 scoring run during the first and second quarters and built a 40-12 halftime lead.

Klinton Keller led the way with 15 points while Brad Hansen poured in 14 and Jon Meyer, 12. Eleven Wayne players scored of the 12 that played.

The Blue Devils unofficially, became the first team in tournament history to play two overtime contests during the three-day format as they lost to Madison in the fifth place contest, 52-49.

Eric McLagan led Wayne with 16 points with Klinton Keller adding 14. Keller scored 14 of Wayne's 27 second half and overtime points.

Wakefield was led by Ty Nixon with 12 points.

THE LAUREL-CONCORD girls team went 2-1 in the tournament after a first round loss to Madison, 42-36.

It was the Bears first loss of the season. Brittany Burns led the Bears with 11 points with Lani Recob adding eight.

The Bears bounced back in day two with a 50-32 win over winless Emerson-Hubbard.

Laurel-Concord sprinted to a 32-13 halftime lead and was never threatened. Brittany Burns scored a game-high 13 points with Lani Recob adding nine.

The Bears defeated Wakefield in the fifth place contest in a low scoring affair, 36-29.

Laurel-Concord actually trailed, 12-9 at the half before out-scoring the Trojans, 27-17 in the second half.

Kari Stewart scored 15 points to lead the winners with Katie Peters tossing in six.

Maggie Brownell led Wakefield with 10 points with Megan Brown adding eight and Timarie Bebee, seven.

WAKEFIELD'S GIRLS lost a close first round contest to Norfolk Catholic, 57-54 despite a 22-point performance by Maggie Brownell.

Megan Brown tossed in 13 points and Timarie Bebee tallied 11. Brownell's three-pointer attempt in the final seconds rimmed out.

The Trojans bounced back to defeat Omaha Roncalli, 54-36 on day two.

Sara Ellis goes to the hoop against Norfolk-Catholic. Ellis scored a career-high 19 points against the Knights.

Brittany Burns gets to the rebound just ahead of a Madison player during first round action.

Evan Smith drives past a Madison defender for two of his 10 points during the Bears first round victory.

Wayne's Jon Meyer hangs in the air while gliding towards the basket during Wayne's first round game with Omaha Roncalli.

Sports Briefs

Allen boys defeated by Wausa

ALLEN—The Allen boys basketball team remained winless on the season with a 49-31 setback at Wausa, Tuesday night. Joe Sullivan led Allen with 13 points with Justin Werner scoring six and Micky Oldenkamp, four. Andrew Purnell netted three and Austen Stewart along with Garry Dowling each netted two with Adam Gensler scoring one.

Stewart was the leading rebounder for the Eagles with eight caroms. "We'd been averaging 53 percent from the field but at Wausa we were just 10-47," coach Brian Hoffman said. "We got the shots we wanted but we couldn't knock them down. Defensively, we held Wausa to 29 points through three quarters and then gave up 18 in the final period."

Krista Bernadt earns NCAA-II/NSIC honors

WAYNE—Wayne State women's basketball player Krista Bernadt was named the Nebraska Division II Player of the Week for the second time this season and was named the Northern Sun Conference Player of the Week.

The 5-9 junior forward from Hebron is the first woman to ever receive the Northern Sun award. In the three games last week Bernadt averaged 19.3 points, 4.7 rebounds, 3.0 assists and 1.7 steals per outing.

Against Winona State, Bernadt led WSC with 22 points, five rebounds and four assists. She went on to score 19 points against Concordia-St. Paul.

Bernadt is currently leading the 'Cats in scoring, averaging 17.1 points per game. She is also one of the 'Cats leading foul shooters, shooting 85.7 percent from the line.

WSC men tied for second in standings

WAYNE—The Wayne State men's basketball team is currently tied for second in the NSIC standings with a 3-1 conference mark. The 'Cats are tied with Southwest State (this weekend's opponent) with Winona State atop the conference standings at 3-0.

Northern State, Moorhead State and Minnesota-Crookston are all 2-2 while Minnesota-Duluth and Bemidji State are 1-2. Minnesota-Morris is 1-3 and Concordia is 0-3.

The 'Cats are the only team currently in the Regional Rankings at sixth.

In the women's standings Wayne State is 2-2 and tied for fifth. Northern State is ranked first in the North Central Region and is 4-0 in conference play while Minnesota-Duluth is 3-0. Southwest State sports a 3-1 conference mark with Winona State at 2-1. The 'Cats are tied with Moorhead State.

Bemidji State is 1-2 and Minnesota-Morris is 1-3 followed by Concordia at 0-3 and Minnesota-Crookston at 0-4.

Wakefield led 23-19 at the half and built a 40-31 lead after three quarters before a 14-5 run led to the 18 point advantage.

Timarie Bebee led the winners with 18 points with Megan Brown pouring in 15 and Maggie Brownell, 10.

THE WAKEFIELD BOYS went 0-3 with a first round setback to Norfolk Catholic, 69-30.

The Trojans only trailed by a 29-23 margin early in the third quarter with the Knights closing the game on a 40-7 run.

Ty Nixon led Wakefield with seven points while Tucker Greve scored six.

Mike Clay's team got close to tasting that first victory of the season in the seventh place contest against Emerson-Hubbard.

Wakefield fell in overtime, 68-67, less than two weeks after losing to the same team by more than 30 points in Wakefield.

The Trojans led by five points with less than a minute to go in regulation but could not seal the deal as missed free throws proved costly.

Nick White led the Trojans with 18 points while Wyatt Brown poured in 16.

The following is a recap of the tournament with scores only:

Wayne boys, girls beaten at home by Columbus Scotus

The Wayne boys and girls basketball teams dropped a home contest with Columbus Scotus, Tuesday night.

It was the fourth game in seven days for both Wayne teams.

Rocky Ruhl's boys dropped a 64-56 decision which left the Blue Devils with a 4-5 season record and a three-game skid.

Wayne ran out to a 17-13 lead after one quarter of play with Joel Munson scoring seven of his 12 total points in the opening stanza.

Wayne built a 10-point lead in the second quarter at 30-20 before Scotus cut the gap in half by intermission at 30-25.

The Blue Devils still led by three after three quarters of play at 41-38 but gave up 23, fourth quarter points while scoring just 12.

"We just simply ran out of gas," Ruhl said. "That's evident from the fact we hold them to 25 points the first half and give up 23 in just the fourth quarter."

The game was won by Scotus from the foul line where the Shamrocks connected on 18-of-21 free throw attempts.

Wayne was led by Eric McLagan with 23 points while Munson tallied 12 and Brad Hochstein, eight. Dustin Schmelts scored six and Ben Meyer added four while Brad Hansen netted three.

The Blue Devils were out-rebounded, 19-14 with McLagan hauling down five to lead Wayne with Munson grabbing four rebounds.

Hochstein dished out five assists and Wayne was 9-14 from the free throw line.

The Blue Devils will play at Norfolk Catholic on Thursday before hosting Laurel-Concord on Tuesday.

THE WAYNE GIRLS had their five-game win streak snapped by the Shamrocks, 33-18.

John McClarnen's Blue Devils struggled with getting the ball inside and didn't shoot well from the outside.

"Defensively, I thought we did a good job but an 8-2 run by Scotus in the third quarter put them ahead by 11 and we were not able to challenge after that."

Wayne trailed, 15-9 at the half and 29-14 after the third quarter.

Both teams managed just four, fourth quarter points.

Kallie Krugman led Wayne with five points with Monica Novak, Kristin Hochstein and April Thede each scoring four and Beth Loberg, one.

The 5-4 Blue Devils will play at Pierce on Friday before a two-week lay-off.

Katie Walton out-grapples a Norfolk Catholic defender for a loose ball during the Blue Devils 51-37 victory.

April Thede knocks the ball away from a Norfolk Catholic player.

Maggie Brownell of Wakefield is double-teamed by Norfolk Catholic during first round action.

Wayne's Joel Munson wrestles the loose ball away from a Roncalli defender, then calls timeout before he's tied up.

Monica Novak sets up the offense against Norfolk Catholic. Novak was named the tournament MVP.

Dustin Schmelts lays a shot off the glass against first round opponent Omaha Roncalli.

Wakefield junior Ty Nixon shoots over Norfolk Catholic's Dusty Kelsner.

Wakefield junior Wyatt Brown looks to shoot the ball between a pair of Norfolk Catholic defenders.

Laurel-Concord's Ross Gardner goes strong to the basket during the Bears win over Madison.

Wildcats split NSIC contests

The Wayne State men's basketball team was upset by Winona State, 70-69 on Sunday night in Winona, Minnesota.

The hardest part about the seven-game win streak being snapped was the 'Cats had a 20-point lead at 53-33 with 15:00 left in regulation.

Winona State opened the game on a 9-0 run but WSC fought back and led at the half, 31-29 as Brad Joens scored 15 of his 17 total points in the opening stanza.

The 'Cats went on a roll early in the second half to the tune of 22-4 to lead 53-33.

Nathan Mulder sparked that run as he scored 21 of his team-high 24 points in the second half.

Brad Manley's last second shot drew rim but did not fall.

The 'Cats connected on nearly 48 percent of their shots from the floor (28-59) but were just 4-8 from the free throw line.

Winona State, committed just seven fouls in the contest and the 'Cats were whistled for 12 in a pretty clean contest.

WSC had just 11 turnovers while forcing 19. Mulder's 24 and Joens with 17 led the 'Cats while Jon Dolliver was in double figures with 10.

WSC was edged on the boards, 33-27 with Eric Henderson garnering five caroms.

Dolliver dished out a team-high six assists.

On Monday night in St. Paul, Minnesota the 'Cats bounced back with an 86-62 thumping of Concordia University.

The 'Cats rolled to a 49-31 half-time lead and never looked back. Brad Joens led the way with 23 points with Jon Dolliver pouring in

Wayne State women cagers win one of two NSIC road games

The Wayne State women's basketball team went 2-1 during the last week and will take a 6-5 record into this Saturday's home contest with Southwest State.

WSC defeated Morningside, 77-59 early last week in Sioux City.

The 'Cats opened up a 36-26 halftime lead and the lead was never threatened in the second half.

WSC had four players in double figures and those four had all but one point for the winners as Sara Miller and Karen Hochstein scored 21 each while Tracy Williamson and Krista Bernadt tallied 17 each, Katie Sperling added a free throw.

WSC edged the host team on the boards, 47-43 as Hochstein notched a double-double with 17 points and 12 rebounds while Sperling hauled down seven rebounds.

On Sunday in Winona, Minnesota

the 'Cats were defeated by an 80-63 margin.

WSC trailed, 39-26 at the half and never got the lead below double digits in the second half.

Winona State used a 21-5 run midway through the first half to open up a comfortable lead.

Krista Bernadt paced the Wildcats with 22 points with Karen Hochstein pouring in 15 and Katie Sperling, nine.

WSC was out-rebounded, 38-30 with Hochstein leading the 'Cats with seven caroms while Sperling had six rebounds.

Beth Skogen had a team-high five assists but WSC committed 22 turnovers while Winona State had just 12.

Monday night in St. Paul, Minnesota the Wildcats held on for a 59-58 victory over Concordia University.

WSC led 25-22 at the half but trailed, 55-53 with 1:17 left in regulation before Ami Pendry tied the game at 55 with 51 seconds left.

Karen Hochstein hit one of two free throws to give WSC a 56-55 lead with 29 seconds left and Beth Skogen hit a pair of free throws with 23 seconds left to give the 'Cats a 58-55 lead.

Sara Miller hit one of two free throws with 10 seconds left for a 59-55 lead. Concordia's Suzi Miller hit a three-pointer with one second left for the final margin.

The 'Cats trailed 48-40 with 6:07 remaining.

Once again it was Krista Bernadt leading WSC with 19 points while Karen Hochstein tossed in 14.

The 'Cats won the contest despite being dominated on the boards, 40-27. Hochstein and Kristene Strait each had seven rebounds to lead WSC.

The 'Cats won the contest at the free throw line, connecting on 21-of-29 from the foul line while Concordia was 7-14.

Ami Pendry had a game-high four assists and Krista Bernadt notched a game-high four steals.

The Golden Years

Remember the Jolly Green Giant, Charlie the Tuna and Mr. Whipple? Well, their days of retirement are over after extended sabbaticals from the world of advertising. True to the ways of Madison Avenue, the characters have all undergone makeovers. The Jolly Green Giant, while still selling peas, is not quite as green. Mr. Whipple, whose character was born in 1964, is back selling toilet paper after sixteen-year break, and Charlie the Tuna, born in 1961 and temporarily retired in 1990, is looking a little more human and a little less fishy.

Pay off credit card debt and keep it off

The holidays have come and gone, but some of us still have to pay for gifts if they were purchased with credit.

There are three options to pay off debt: decrease spending, increase income or liquidation of assets.

If you continue to pay off debt slowly, it will take years. For each $1,000 borrowed at 18 percent interest with a two percent minimum monthly payment, your minimum payment is $20 per month.

If your credit card has a balance of $10,000, the monthly minimum at two percent is $200. It would take over 10 years and cost over $15,000 in interest to pay off $10,000 of luxuries.

That same amount of money would have grown by $15,000 if invested wisely.

There is no good reason to use credit other than for convenience or for financial emergencies.

Pay off credit cards as soon as possible. Work a second job if necessary for a short period of time to pay off debt.

Cut up credit cards and destroy them if you cannot control their use. Credit use is like any other addiction. A person needs to get rid of the source of the problem.

Credit Card Gimmicks:

1. Skip a month. This offer comes from your existing credit card company. It offers you to skip a monthly payment. Remember, you just accumulated more interest to pay and it will take longer to pay off if you use this option.

2. 90 days same as cash. These offers vary in time frame, but they all work about the same. You charge it today and you have a certain amount of time to pay the balance before any interest is charged. The catch is if you do not pay the balance in full, interest from DAY ONE is added to your account. This also encourages you to charge more than you can afford.

3. Deferred billing. Deferred billing is when a merchant does not bill your account until a certain date. Check to make sure they do not charge, or add interest during this time. If you will not be able to pay off the balance during the deferred time, use deferred billing. The problem with deferred billing is that it encourages you to spend more. That is where the total elimination of credit card use is most helpful. If you do not have the money now, you probably will not have it later.

To avoid the problem of using credit next year for the holiday, figure what you spent this year for the holiday and divide it by 12. Deposit this amount into your savings account monthly so it is there when needed this next holiday season.

For example, if you spent $600 this year for Christmas, this amount divided by 12 equals $50 per month. Deposit into savings $50 per month for the coming year. It pays to plan and save.

To learn more about reducing debt and growing money, we have a Money 2000+ Financial Planning Conference set for Saturday, Feb. 5 at the Student Center at Wayne State College brought to you by the University of Nebraska Cooperative Extension and Wayne State College.

Call (402) 584-2234 to get a program brochure. There are 12 financial sessions to pick topics of interest to you. The conference also features well-known speaker and writer Roger Welsch, who will humor us over the lunch hour. Hope to see you there.

Is It The Flu Or A Cold?

Each flu season we get many calls asking how to tell if a person has the flu. It's easy to get a cold confused with flu. Since treatments are different, it's important to know which one you have.

If you have a sore throat, a runny nose and a fever of not more than 100 degrees, you have a cold. Washing your hands is the best way to avoid a cold.

If you have a high fever, chills, your body aches, and symptoms come on you suddenly, you have the flu. Flu is spread through airborne germs. So, to avoid contact with those who you know have the flu.

WHAT ABOUT TITLE INSURANCE?

The sale of real property usually involves title insurance. Title insurance protects the holder of the policy from loss sustained by defects in the title. Prior to the closing, a title company performs a title search of the public records, then issues a commitment to insure, stating the conditions under which it will insure the title. The buyer and seller and the mortgage lender can proceed with the closing after clearing up any defects in the title which may have been uncovered by the search and examination.

The title insurance premium is based on the amount of the sale and is normally split between the buyer and seller. On an $80,000 sale, the premium would be $347.50.

If you have questions about title insurance in a real estate transaction, give me a call, or talk to Sharon Luebbert, owner of First Source Title & Escrow Co., here in Wayne.

More than finances: transforming lives

If you were not able to work, how long would you be able to stay in the home you now live? This is a tough, but meaningful question to ask ourselves. Each year thousands of people are faced with financial hardships arising from extenuating circumstances including job layoffs, lack of money management skills, and/or overuse of credit.

What would you do if such hardships came (or are already) knocking at your door?

Mission Sunday will be held Sunday, Jan. 9 from 6:30 to 8 p.m. at Calvary Bible Evangelical Church at Fifth and Lincoln Streets in Wayne.

In the first Mission Sunday of the year, Bob and Carolyn Zetocha will share the dynamics of their financial counseling ministry. Located in Norfolk, and serving Northeast Nebraska, the Zetochas offer free financial counseling to couples and individuals.

Mr. Zetocha is a field representative for Christian Financial Concepts, a ministry founded by Larry Burkett. Through this ministry individuals and families are instructed on how to become and stay debt free. By creating a financial picture, developing strategies on cutting costs, establishing priorities and creating a workable budget, people can eliminate and/or prevent debt.

In addition, the Zetochas work with engaged couples individually and then assist them with their financial transition into marriage.

"With the average American family having over $10,000 in consumer credit debt (credit cards), our ministry gives people an opportunity to obtain long term gains from short term sacrifices," Bob said. Using credit cards and saying "charge-it" will lead most American families to 50 years of minimum payments.

Consider this example: If a person carries $10,000 in credit card debt at 19 percent interest and consistently pays the 2.2 percent minimum monthly payment, it would take until February 2048 to pay it off. This includes $24,863.69 in interest and assumes that there are no new charges on the card during this time!

Regardless of the cause, financial worries can impact your work, family, and spiritual life. Many times we don't see the signs of a financial crisis until it's too late. Financial crises don't occur overnight. There are several warning signs that indicate things may be getting out of control. Take this test:

Do you...

- Pay only monthly minimums or miss payments on charge accounts?
- Consolidate debts by borrowing from a high-interest lender?
- Depend on overtime or moonlighting to cover monthly bills?
- Find it impossible to save money?

- Immediately withdraw money from your savings to cover bills?
- Panic when faced with an unexpected expense, such as car repairs?
- Hope that checks you've written don't clear the bank before payday?
- Borrow from friends and relatives to cover basic expenses?

"If you've answered 'yes' to any of these questions or if you're interested in never having to answer 'yes' join us Sunday, January 9th, for Mission Sunday," Bob said.

Refreshments will be served following the presentation.

For additional information about the Zetochas ministry contact Bob Zetocha at the Oasis Counseling Center, Norfolk, Nebraska, (402) 379-2030.

Kids need to know to give to charitable organizations

In 1998, Gallup pollsters found that family finances is the number one topic that teens wished their parents would discuss more frequently (Parents magazine, January 1998).

Not only can such conversations offer parents the opportunity to explain to kids how to effectively save and spend money for their own personal needs, but time can also be devoted to discussing the importance of sharing money with others.

In addition to showing your kids how and why you make contributions to the individuals and organizations that you support, help your children develop their own habits of giving.

To get them started, consider enclosing in their birthday and holiday presents some extra money earmarked for them to give to charitable causes of their choosing. In time, it's likely they'll be inspired to give from their own pockets.

This information is presented as a public service of Lutheran Brotherhood district representatives Doug and Lynette Krie. For more information call 375-5532.

Holiday celebration

Students at St. Mary's Elementary School held a Sock Hop as the final activity of 1999. Several students served as disc jockeys and played Christmas music to which the students and teachers danced. Various special dances were also held as the students celebrated both Christmas and New Year's.

Nobbe graduates from basic training

Air Force Airman Dustin A. Nobbe has graduated from basic military training at Lackland Air Force Base, San Antonio, Texas.

During the six weeks of training, the airman studied the Air Force mission, organization, customs and received special training in human relations.

In addition, airmen who complete basic training earn credits toward an associate degree through the Community College of the Air Force.

Nobbe is the son of Debra K. Nobbe of Dixon, and Alan D. Nobbe of South Sioux City.

He is a 1999 graduate of Laurel Concord High School in Laurel.

Dustin Nobbe

Cousins gather for celebration

A cooperative dinner was held Dec. 26 at the Lawrence Backstrom home for a number of family members.

Those present included Marie Shatuck of Sioux City, Iowa; Jarro Rentekoko of Uppsala, Sweden; Josephine Klausson of Uppsala, Sweden; Carol Johnson of St. Paul, Minn.; Lillian Haisch of Laurel; Mr. and Mrs. Verdel Backstrom of Wayne; Duane Backstrom of Auburn; Mr. and Mrs. Mike Bentjen, Bailey and Adam, of Wayne; Mr. and Mrs. Lee Johnson and Laurie of Dixon; Mr. and Mrs. Chad Miller of Sioux City, Iowa; Mrs. Ardel Johnson and David of Madison and Danny Johnson and sons Andy and Jeff of Omaha.

Perry Backstrom joined the group later in the afternoon.

Feeling lonely or like something is missing in your life???

Life sure can be empty without Jesus.

Life sure can be lonely without a church family.

There's no need to feel lonely or that life is empty. Come and worship with us everyone is always welcome here

Hanging on to the neat poems

In our office we hang on to the neat poems that our families give us.
 I thought this was especially good.

The Dash
 by Linda Ellis

I read of a reverend who stood to speak at the funeral of his friend. He referred to the dates on his tombstone from the beginning to the end.

He noted that first came the date of his birth and spoke of the following date with tears, but he said what mattered most of all was the dash between those years.

For that dash represents all the time that he spent alive on earth... and now only those who lived him know what that little line is worth.

For it matters not how much we own: the cares, the house, the cash
 What matters is how we live and love and how we spend our dash.

So think about this long and hard... are there things you'd like to change?
 For you never know how much time is left.

(You could be at "dash mid-range.")

If we could just slow down enough to consider what's true and real and always try to understand the way other people feel:

And be less quick to anger and show appreciation more and love the people in our lives like we've never loved before.

If we treat each other with respect and more often wear a smile remembering that this special dash might only last a little while.

 So, when your eulogy's being read with your life's sections to rehash... would you be proud of the things they say about how you spent your dash?

Program to focus on 'family farm'

Many family farms are facing difficult economic times and feel they are not large enough to remain competitive in agriculture. University of Nebraska Cooperative Extension is offering a one-day program on Jan. 22, 2000 at 8:30 a.m. at the Wayne State College Student Union. The purpose is to help family farms explore options to remain competitive.

The keynote speaker is Dr. Mike Duffy from Iowa State University. His talk is entitled "Successful Small Farms." Dr. Duffy has analyzed the records of many farms to help them find ways to keep more of the gross income for themselves. He will discuss the economics of non-traditional enterprises such as low-capital livestock operations and high-revenue cropping systems. He also discusses the philosophies of families that continued traditional production but made creative management decisions that improved their bottom line.

Other speakers include Terry Prokop of the Nebraska Farm Business Association and Eugene and Phyllis Friesen of Henderson. Prokop will talk about "Do I Need to Be Big to Make This Work?" He will review trends in Nebraska farm income, farm expenses and family living. He also has examples of very successful small farms in the NFBA. The Friesens are pork producers who are developing a branded product that will be processed and sold directly to the consumer. They will discuss "The Challenges and Rewards of a Specialty Market."

The cost of the program is $10 per person if you preregister by Jan. 20, or $15 at the door. Lunch is included. Daycare services can be made available to families that preregister.
 For a copy of the program or for more information, contact the Wayne County Extension office at 375-3310 or the Dixon County Extension office at 584-2234.

Free trees are available for joining foundation

Ten free river birch trees will be given to each person joining the Arbor Day Foundation during January 2000.

The free trees are part of the non-profit Foundation's efforts to support tree planting to commemorate the new millennium.

The trees will be shipped postpaid at the right time for planting between Feb. 1 and May 31 with enclosed planting instructions. The six to 12 inch trees are guaranteed to grow, or they will be replaced free of charge.

Members also receive a subscription to the Foundation's bimonthly publication, "Arbor Day," and the "The Tree Book" with information about tree planting and care.

To become a member of the Foundation and to receive the free trees, send a $10 contribution to Ten Free River Birch Trees, National Arbor Day Foundation, 100 Arbor Avenue, Nebraska City, NE 68410, by Jan. 31, 2000.

Feverfew for Migraine Headache

Feverfew (Tanacetum parthenium) was used as a fever reliever as far back as 78 AD. Now, this herb is used to prevent migraines by reducing the severity and frequency of the headaches. Other uses include relief of menstrual pain, asthma, dermatitis, and arthritis. The active ingredient is parthenolide which inhibits the release of serotonin from the blood platelets. Parthenolide relieves inflammation by inhibiting prostaglandin synthesis and the release of arachidonic acid.

Few studies have been conducted on the use of feverfew for migraine headache prevention. A randomized, double-blind, placebo-controlled, crossover study of 76 patients showed a 24% reduction in the number of attacks, but no change in the duration of attacks. There was a significant reduction of nausea and vomiting.

In another study, migraine sufferers received either a freeze-dried, powdered feverfew extract of a placebo. Fewer headaches were reported each month by the individuals who received feverfew. However, headache frequency increased significantly in the group receiving the placebo.

Workshops to be held at Concord

Decisions Now, a series of three one-day workshops, will focus on farm financial management. The sessions will be held at the Haskell Agricultural Laboratory near Concord on Jan. 20, Jan. 27, and Feb. 10, 2000. They will last from around 9 a.m. to 3 p.m.

The sessions will be taught by Neal Shaner, an attorney and farm financial consultant, and University of Nebraska Cooperative Extension staff.

The workshops will focus on measures of farm financial performance and how to utilize that information in day to day decisions. Participants will leave with a financial package to take to their lender. A previous participant stated "I know balance sheets and cash flows. I did not know how to integrate this information into a useful management tool. I learned how to link my information together." Another valuable part of the workshops is the focus on family goals and communication.

The cost of the program is 75 per farm operation. As many people from the farm management team may participate as possible. The cost includes all handouts and a personalized farm visit with the financial consultant to tie everything together.

For more information, contact the Dixon County Extension office at 584-2234.

Checking out what's new

Hundreds of area producers and others were on hand at Logan Valley Equipment on Tuesday for John Deere Days 2000. The event featured new equipment, sales representatives, a petting zoo, food and several other activities. The event is held annually to introduce new products and give farmers a chance to discuss farming options.

Sign up period begins

The USDA's 20th Conservation Reserve Program (CRP) sign-up period will be Jan. 18, 2000 to Feb. 11, 2000.

This will be an opportunity for local landowners and producers to enroll environmentally sensitive ground into the program. If accepted, producers can receive an annual rental payment for 10 years for retiring the land and planting it back to grass, forbs or shrubs.

The Lower Elkhorn Natural Resources District (LENRD) is promoting CRP by providing an additional one-time financial incentive. If a producer is willing to install grassed field borders (turn rows) or grassed waterways for erosion control, the one-time financial incentive is $100 per acre.

If the producer is willing to install both the field border and grass waterways for erosion control, the one-time financial incentive is $150 per acre.

If the producer is willing to install both the field borders and grass waterways for erosion control and uses these in combination with either terraces, contour grass strips or continuous no-till farming practices, the one-time financial incentive payment is $200 per acre.

The field borders and grassed waterway width will be a minimum of 66 feet wide. The field borders would be bid into the general CRP sign-up, or enrolled in the Conservation Reserve Enhancement Program (CREP) where available. CRP contract length will be 10 years.

The producer is eligible for 50 percent cost share through CRP for cover crop, grass seed, drilling of the grass and one maintenance practice to control weeds during the grass establishment.

Grassed waterways can be enrolled at any time into the 21st CRP continuous sign-up. Continuous CRP is not competitive and contracts are approved locally by the county committees. Cost share for the construction, shaping, cover crop, grass seed, drilling or the grass seed and one maintenance operation for weed control would be cost-shared at 50 percent by CRP and an additional 25 percent by Lower Elkhorn NRD.

According to LENRD Assistant General Manager, Ken Berney, "We want producers to be able to use the Conservation Reserve Program to protect their erodible or environmentally sensitive land without causing them financial hardships."

Producers interested in taking advantage of the LENRD one-time incentives payment on these practices and enrolling in CRP should contact the local NRCS field office.

Private pesticide applicator training being scheduled

Private pesticide applicators whose licenses expire in 2000 will have the opportunity to recertify at several training sessions.

People wishing to certify for the first time can also attend these sessions. The cost of the training is $10 and the certification is good for three years. An applicator may also certify by self-study which costs $20.

The locations of the sessions are as follows:

Jan. 25, 6-9 p.m., Wayne County

Courthouse basement

Jan. 27, 1-4 p.m., Randolph Senior Center

Jan. 27, 6-9 p.m., Randolph Senior Center

Feb. 29, 1-4 p.m., Haskell Ag Lab, Concord

If you are unable to attend any of these sessions, please call the Wayne County Extension office at 375-3310 for dates and locations of other training sessions in northeast Nebraska.

Cattle producers conference planned

The University of Nebraska and Consolidated Nutrition of Omaha will conduct an educational meeting for cattle producers on Friday, Jan. 14, 2000 at the Holiday Inn Express in Norfolk.

Semen." Dr. Deutscher is an Extension Beef Cattle Specialist for the University of Nebraska.

Dr. Dillon Feuz, also from the University of Nebraska, will discuss "What Should Beef Checkoff Funds be Spent On."

Featured speaker will be Dr. Robert Bellows, Research Scientist at the Fort Keogh Range Livestock Station located at Miles City, Mont.

The final speaker will be a representative from NCBA, who will discuss the new approach to product development and promotion.

Dr. Bellows is known for his research on improving reproductive performance in beef cattle. His latest area of research has been feeding high fat diets to improve pregnancy rates, especially in first-calf heifers.

Lunch will feature one of the new products developed as part of this program. The meeting will start at 10 a.m. and conclude at 2 p.m.

Other speakers will include Dr. Gene Deutscher, who will speak on "New Research on Estrus Synchronization and Sexed

To allow for adequate meal preparation, attendees should make a reservation by calling Brenda Boeck at 1-800-292-3333, ext. 5035 by Jan. 7, 2000. Registration and lunch are free.

Wayne County Extension Board meeting planned

The regular meeting of the Wayne County Extension Board will be held on Tuesday, Jan. 11 at 7:30 p.m. at Geno's in Wayne.

The meeting is open to the public. An agenda is available at the Extension Office at 510 Pearl Street in Wayne.

Homeowners with money worries may qualify for low-interest loans

LOANS: Direct lender loosens its requirements for homeowners who need money now.

Have you been turned down for a loan? Do you need more than $10,000 for any reason? Are you paying more than 10% interest on any other loans or credit cards? If you are a homeowner and answered 'yes' to any of these questions, they can tell you over the phone and without obligation if you qualify.

credit? Self-employed? Late house payments? Financial problems? Medical bills? IRS liens? It doesn't matter!

If you are a homeowner with sufficient equity, there's an excellent chance you will qualify for a loan—usually within 24 hours.

You can find out over the phone—and free of charge—if you qualify. Stone Castle Home Loans is licensed by the Nebraska Department of Banking and Finance. Open 7 days.

Call 1-800-700-1242, ext. 327

Then on Jan. 15, the games will again begin at 8 a.m. with the Championship games scheduled for 3:30 p.m.

GRADUATES

Fred Barge of Wakefield has completed the 12 week basic training course at the Nebraska Law Enforcement Training Center in Grand Island and graduated Dec. 10.

Barge has been a Deputy Sheriff in Thurston County since July. He also is a part time officer for the Pender Police Department.

FIFTH GRADER

The fifth grade classes of Mrs. Terri Samuelson and Mrs. Deb Garwood recently visited the Republican.

That fifth graders publish their own newspaper at school called the Trojan Times and they had many questions to compare how the Republican does things and how they prepare their publication.

Although methods of production are similar now, the students were fascinated by the Linotype which used to be used to produce the type and advertising for the Republican.

According to the report of the visit in the Trojan times, the students also learned that in addition to producing the newspaper, The Republican also makes note pads, prints sale bills and does other types of printing jobs for businesses.

Members of the fifth grade class are Jamie Barge, Jennifer Barge, Evan Bartels, Garek Bebee, Erin Bird, April Bodlak, Eric Bodlak, Alissa Bressler, Audrey Combs, Dexter Driskell, Max Greve, Tim Haglund, Ben Henderson, Emily Henderson, Zachary Jaeger, Rene Jimenez, Jeremiah Kaufman, Stephen Kay, Alexander Knezevic, Clint Luhr, Brandon Mahaney, Jared Miller, Paul Moody, Kristi Odens, Amber Oswald, Karla Perez, Samantha Peterson, Kiana Ramirez, Drew Rose, Mark Schroeder, Yancey Sherer, Justin Suing, Stephanie Thomsen, Hilda Valadez, Bererince Vallejo, Paulina Vallejo, Elizabeth Vega and Brindj Weir.

The fifth grade students worked with Wayne State College students during the week of Nov. 29. Together they studied about Natives of North America. Under the supervision of the college students the fifth graders researched the natives, read stories, constructed homes and created blank designs relating to the culture of various natives.

In news stories in the Trojan Times, the students explained that their study also related to math. "At math time they (WSC) students taught about polygons. A polygon is a closed figure with straight sides. We made blankets on graph paper," stated Alissa Bressler and Paulina Vallejo in their news story.

Hilda Valdez and Erin Bird explained in the newspaper report, "That week we had to research, chart and present to the group about how different Native Americans lived, what form of transportation they used, what religious customs they practiced, what food they ate, what language they spoke and how they dressed. It was fun working with WSC students because they took their time to work with us."

People can contribute through financial products or services

People often resort to the traditional means of giving, like putting cash into the collection plate or writing a check out to the local United Way. But what many don't realize is that they can also call upon the financial products and other assets they plan to purchase or already own to address the financial needs of the charitable organizations they hold near and dear.

real estate are other the resources through which people can make significant contributions. People can also designate charitable causes as beneficiaries of their life insurance contracts, pension plans, 401 K plans, IRAs, annuities, and other financial products.

THANKS FOR the memories friendship and fellowship of beautiful flowers, gifts and gorgeous and warm cards; Thanks for several long distance phone calls; Thanks to the helpers and food providers at the reception - Salem's courtesy committee, friends and relatives. Thanks to our daughters, Suellen and Sanlyn and their families for all their special music, special ideas and a special program. God blessed us by granting our 50th Wedding Anniversary and you blessed us by sharing it with us. Thanks to each of you for making our anniversary golden. Alvin & Mary Eiken Sundell.

Thanks to all our friends and relatives who attended our 50th Anniversary Open House. Also for the unique gifts, and cards. Special "Thanks" to our loving kids and grandkids who made this a memorable, beautiful day. God bless all! Glen & Bonnie Frevrt

Thanks for very much to everyone for all the kindness extended to me following my accident. The doctors and staff at Faith Regional were wonderful! Special thanks to Pastor Fale and Baglien. All the calls, visits, gifts, cards, and prayers were accepted with the deepest of gratitude. Bless you all! Judi Topp

Thank you to all the folks who visited me in my recent stay in the hospital, those who sent cards, telephoned, brought food to our home, and the Christmas Carolers of Our Savior Lutheran Church. Special thanks also to the kind nurses, Doctors, Pastors Russell, Koerber, Judson, Sister Gertrude, and the home health nurses. We are thankful for our beautiful hospital and all who work there. Dean Pierson.
