Softball Association gets grant from the Gardner Foundation

The Gardner Foundation of Wakefield has awarded the Wayne Softball programs a grant of $50,000 toward planned improvements for the softball complex at the end of East Fourth Street, just south of Villa Wayne.

The combined boards from the Men's League and the Girls Softball Association cooperated in writing a grant asking for slightly over $70,000 to help pay for improvements which according to estimates would cost almost $80,000.

According to Keith Jarvi, President of the Girls Softball Association, and Jeff Sherer, Field Supervisor for the Men's League, the grant money will go toward adding a special surface compound to the infields, equipment to maintain the playing fields, replacing the fencing and back stops, and safety bases for the fields.

The boards of the Men's League and the Girls softball association, representing the more than 400 players in the Men's, Women's and girls softball teams and the and the kids baseball, have been working since September of last year to plan significant improvements to the softball complex, originally built by the Jaycees in 1982. Since then, the facilities have seen increased usage every year as more and more teams to take to the four playing fields. The fields were badly in need of improvements for the safety of the players and spectators and to withstand the heavy use of the fields throughout the summer.

With improved playing facilities, Wayne softball hopes to attract district, regional and state tournaments to the complex, bringing hundreds of players, fans and families to the community.

The Chicken Days Softball Tournament, alone, brings over 100 players to the softball complex from other towns, plus their fans, for a three day tournament.

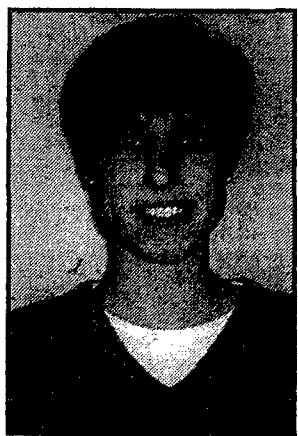

Since the Gardner grant provides only some of the money needed to complete the planned improvements to the softball complex, the Softball Boards will be approaching the City Council for additional funding.

Still needed are funds for sprinklers and for resurfacing the north-east and southeast fields, used by boys' baseball and the younger girls' teams for practices.

The Softball Boards are also cooperating in designing several fundraising activities for later this spring and into the summer, to pay for improvements to the concession stand and bathrooms, coaching clinics, team equipment and new scoreboards.

The fundraising drive will have a

Karen Vaughn

Vaughn new executive director of Wayne Area Chamber of commerce

Karen Vaughn of Wayne has accepted the position as executive director of the Wayne Area Chamber of Commerce and Wayne Industries. The appointment is effective immediately.

She fills the post vacated by Gaila Gilliland who resigned last August to accept a position in South Sioux City.

Vaughn has been the interim director since Gilliland's departure. "I'm excited about having a chance to serve the public in the Wayne area," Vaughn said "I believe great things will be happening in the Wayne area and I am looking forward to being a part of it!"

Vaughn's husband Jamie is sports and recreation facilities manager at Wayne State College. They have a daughter Kayla, three-years-old.

Vaughn is a graduate of Wayne State College. The couple came to Wayne from California in 1993.

PMC Foundation receives gift

The Providence Medical Center Foundation has announced that Providence Medical Center has been named as the beneficiary in a Second To Die Life Insurance Policy recently purchased by friends of the hospital whose names are being withheld at this time upon their request.

The current estimated value of this gift is $50,000. "The Board of Directors of the Providence Medical Center Foundation activated the foundation in 1995 and brought me on board in November of that same year as their President. This is the first gift of this nature that we have received to date," said Sandra Bartling.

"In this particular instance, the donors have the $50,000 invested. The Fund will hopefully grow in the years ahead and at the time of the death of both donors, will be gifted to Providence Medical Center as specified in the life insurance policy. This is yet another means by which individuals may make a gift to the Foundation and remember the hospital while they are still alive," Mrs. Bartling added.

The Providence Medical Center Foundation's Honor Society is a special family of donors who have remembered the hospital with their generous contributions of $50,000 or more. Upon entering the Society, these friends of the hospital foundation receive special recognition and listing on the Donor Tree. Requests of anonymity are respected.

Clifford the Big Red Dog was at St. Mary's Elementary School on Sunday in conjunction with the Scholastic Book Fair being held at the school this week. Clifford encouraged the students to keep reading throughout their lives.

Sharon Vanis, Wayne State College assistant athletic director and volleyball coach, helps one of 200 children find his way to his group during Play Day, Jan. 22. The event was sponsored by the Student Athlete Advisory Committee (SAAC).

Student athletes spend day with 200 children

An activity that began as an idea at a WSC student meeting has grown into a popular gathering event for children.

Approximately 70 student athletes volunteered to become involved in activities to entertain children at the WSC Rec Center under the direction of Sharon Vanis, assistant athletic director and volleyball coach on Saturday, Jan. 22.

"Play Day is an opportunity to get our student athletes involved with the community. So many times you read all the bad associated with athletics at every level, we feel this is a good thing for both the child and the athlete.

"I think some college students may determine if their future includes working with children, organizational and motivational skills. I think all of us take elementary teachers for granted, they are the foundation and have a great deal of influence on the young child's life, I think it's good for the student athletes to understand the patience, effort and organization it does take to work with children," Vanis said.

One of the WSC student athletes, who all gave the event a tremendous effort, was Brandon Lavaley. Lavaley put his organizational skills through their paces and completed the laps of his Saturday morning workout by pulling kids behind him on a train of scooter carts.

"The Student Athlete Advisory Committee (SAAC) tries to do some type of activity each month. This month we hosted our third annual Play Day. The first year we had 50-60 kids, the second around 100 and this year 200 students from the Wayne community," said

'True Love Waits' coming to Wayne

Approximately 750 youth from northeast Nebraska are expected to attend a "True Love Waits" rally on Sunday, Feb. 13 from 1:30 to 8 p.m. at the Rice Auditorium on the Wayne State College campus.

The event is being sponsored by Crosspoint Campus Ministries and area churches.

True Love Waits encourages and equips students to make a commitment to sexual abstinence until marriage and challenge their peers to do the same.

The pledge states: "Believing that true love waits, I make a commitment to God, myself, my family, my friends, my future mate and my future children to be sexually abstinent from this day until the day I enter a biblical marriage relationship."

In addition to the speakers, the rally will include worship, a meal and good news that if a person has already been sexually active, God's grace is available 'to start again' and commit from now on to remain abstinent until marriage," said Cal Kroeker, one of the organizers of the event.

Tara Dawn Holland Christensen, 1997 Miss America, and Ron Brown, University of Nebraska Receivers Coach, will be the featured speakers.

During the afternoon teens will participate in breakout groups with these speakers: Dr. Mark McCorkindale (Medical Reasons for Remaining Abstinent Till Marriage); Karen Lichlyter-Klein and Dave Friedli (Dating Guidelines & Alternatives); and Mark and Colleen Stortvedt (Emotional Differences Between Guys and Gals).

Migraines May Continue After Menopause

Migraine headaches may be associated with severe throbbing pain - often on one side of the head. Migraine sufferers may become nauseated and vomit and often claim sensitivity to light and sound. Some women report that headaches get worse during their menstrual periods and at other times of hormonal change, such as childbirth. Although some people believe that migraine headaches cease at menopause, this is a myth. According to the specialists at Diamond Headache Clinic in Chicago, women who suffer from migraine headaches often continue to have them after menopause.

The most popular prescription medicines for migraines are the "triptans" - sumatriptan (Imitrex), zolmitriptan (Zomig), naratriptan (Amerge), and rizatriptan (Maxalt). Beta blockers such as propranolol may be prescribed to prevent migraines.

Lavaley, a WSC senior with a major in natural science education and a coaching endorsement minor.

"The event is a stepping stone," Lavaley said of his third year assisting with the event. "He sees the event as a way for athletes, children and parents to strengthen their community."

"This event gave us the chance to get to know the community and for the kids to get to know us because they look up to athletes," Lavaley said.

Lavaley said completing this type of project also helps provide a positive view of athletes to parents.

He is the son of Randy and Deb Lavaley of Sutherland. His WSC activities have included football, SAAC, Blue Key, Lambda Delta Lambda, Alpha Lambda Delta and serving as a resident assistant.

"The experience of Play Day was enjoyable because we had the opportunity to work with young kids. This gives athletes a chance to give back to the community and appreciate the excitement and enthusiasm that kids have," Lavaley said.

One WSC junior said he would like to set up a program like Play Day when he returns home to San Francisco, Calif. Sergio Ruiz is a exercise science-wellness major with a minor in coaching. In addition to SAAC at WSC, he participates in baseball. He is the son of Pilar Ruiz and Bertha Ruiz.

"I would like to go back and work with inner city kids when I go home, probably middle school age children. I would like to set up a program for them which would provide role models," Ruiz said.

Sergio Ruiz said he has had the opportunity to see both urban and rural areas while growing up.

"The kids involved with WSC Play Day were easy to get along with. I would like to do this same type of program and allow middle-school age kids to go and hang out with athletes to see people like themselves who are older and have achieved a certain level of success. I feel that it is important to provide children with someone other than their parents as role models because it's easy to get off track. I would like to be a person to help kids get on the right track," Ruiz said.

He said the WSC Play Day was a perfect example of how to combat the lack of role models for children.

"As college athletes, we can just talk to them (children) like we are one of their friends," Ruiz said. "I see enjoyment on both sides here from kids and athletes. It was definitely a win-win situation."

Several parents with children attending Play Day for the first time said they felt the valuable experience would be one that they would encourage their children to be involved with again next year.

"I think it looked like a lot of activities were going on. They had a lot of help from students," said Jill Woodward of Wayne, mother of second grader Ellen. "It's really fun for the kids. I'm sure she will want to come back next year."

A mother of two boys attending

Play Day, Jodi Pulfer of rural Wayne said she feels her children would like to come back next year.

Jacob Pulfer, 7, said he liked playing kick ball the best. His brother, Andrew Pulfer, 5, said his favorite was bowling.

"It was nice to have something like this for kids to do. They (SAAC) did a nice job organizing everything," Jodi Pulfer said.

Many organizing details before the event were taken care of by a core group of athletes, according to Vanis, WSC faculty organizer for the event.

"Our athletes do a great job of staying involved," Vanis said. "A special thanks for help with the event this year goes to Tara Minnick of the softball team. She did a lot of the legwork, as well as Sara Zimmer of the soccer team; Tate Meier of the baseball team; Jeremy Hoelker of the football team; Matt Ruehling of the golf team. These WSC students were responsible for getting other athletes to help."

Minnick of Alliance is a senior with a physical education (K-12) sports management and a coaching endorsement minor. "She is the daughter of Tracy Minnick and David Minnick. She said of her involvement in SAAC and planning Play Day that the turnout of the event was the most rewarding after watching the event grow over three years of involvement.

"I've learned so much working with Sharon Vanis. Being in charge of things, getting flyers out and organizing events like this has really shown me what you can do while working together. Everyone showed up on time and did a great job of interacting with the kids," Minnick said.

The day was also an important step for the kids to be away from their parents and become more independent by making new friends and cooperating in groups, according to Minnick.

Another WSC senior, Dan Peterson of Omaha also said he recognized the importance of an event like this for parents.

"WSC Play Day provides a chance for parents to get their kids out of the house in the wintertime, to have fun, to meet new people and to interact with college athletes," Peterson said.

A social sciences education major with a minor in coaching, Peterson is involved in football, Alpha Lambda Delta, Pi Gamma Mu and Phi Alpha Theta and SAAC at WSC. He is the son of John and Linda Peterson.

Another WSC football player and senior, Jeff Shabram helped organize the activity through SAAC. Shabram is a math/natural science education major and the son of Monte and Rita Shabram of Orchard.

In addition to WSC Play Day providing an environment for education majors to interact and supervise children, students majoring in other areas said they also found benefits.

A WSC business management senior with a minor in speech communication, Tate Meier said he recognized that his experience as a group leader could help with his future career by strengthening his skills in organizing people into groups and helping them work together.

"The kids were enthusiastic and I had a good time doing it," Meier said of his first time helping with Play Day. "Everything seemed to go well. Working with the kick ball segment, I had all kinds of kids and tried to make sure they were having fun together."

Meier plays baseball at WSC. He is the son of Jim and Cindy Meier of Waterloo.

As an organizer of the event, Vanis summarized the advantages that leaders and participants at Play Day learned about working together.

"I think everyone may be confronted with a disagreement, or an upsetting situation, they need to handle it so both sides are happy. I really believe just being organized and prepared plays a huge part regardless of the type of job you have. Learning to motivate and be positive all the time whether you feel like it or not and being able to handle 100 hugs a day," Vanis said.

New members are inducted at WSC

Valerie Koeber and Tammy Foote, both of Wayne, and Jennifer Isom of Carroll were among students recently inducted into Wayne State's Theta Sigma chapter of Alpha Sigma Lambda, a national honor society for non-traditional students continuing their higher education.

Koeber is a junior majoring in music composition with a minor in English.

Foote is a sophomore majoring in accounting/finance.

Isom is a senior majoring in elementary education with an endorsement in English as a Second Language (ESL). She is also a member of Wayne Student Education Association of Nebraska (WSEAN).

The ceremony was the fourth to be held at WSC. The students initiated were recognized for superior academic performance, and had obtained grade point averages of 3.2 or higher on a 4.0 scale to qualify for membership.

The purpose of Alpha Sigma Lambda is to provide an association for and recognition of academically outstanding non-traditional students who are continuing their goals of higher education. The Theta Sigma Chapter, organized on campus in May, has a membership of nearly 30 students.

6 a.m. Saturday, June 10.

Relay for Life is a unique fund raising event that allows participants from all walks of life-including patients, medical support staff, corporations, civic organizations, churches and community volunteers-to join together to fight cancer, and that everyone who participates is making a difference.

Relay for Life will open with a brief ceremony. This will be followed by the opening lap, as cancer survivors walk, run or wheelchair to symbolize their victory over cancer.

Highlighting the evening is the Luminaria service, to honor cancer survivors and to remember those who have lost the battle against cancer. Those luminaries line the track and are left burning throughout the night to remind participants of the incredible importance of their contribution.

For more information, attend the kick-off celebration, "Leap into the Relay for Life," Feb. 25 at 5:30 p.m. at Riley's. The kick-off will last around an hour. Snacks will be served and door prizes will be given out during this event.

supply of food.

Food Check-Out Day is a celebration of the bounty from America's farms and ranches and how that bounty is shared with American consumers through affordable food prices.

Compared to other expenses facing America's families, food is a bargain. While Americans must only work until Feb. 9 to pay for their yearly food supply, last year they had to work until May 11 just to pay for their taxes.

Mayor Lindau has proclaimed the 40th day of the year as Food Check-Out Day in the City of Wayne, and urges all citizens to support the efforts of the Wayne Area Chamber of Commerce Agribusiness Council in the promotion of it's significance. Kanni Vautour stated on behalf of the council. "We hope that consumers take note of Food Check-Out Day and join us in this celebration of American agriculture's success."

Daffodil Days will be held on March 1

Dear Editor,
As Chair of this year's American Cancer Society Daffodil Days, I would like to thank people for their generosity and support in past campaigns.

Around $1,200 was raised during last year's event, providing needed funds for American Cancer Society's research, education, and patient service programs. The outstanding support received proves that the people of the surrounding area are truly committed to the fight against cancer.

This year, Daffodil Days will be Sunday, March 5. Daffodils will be on Wednesday, March 1. A bundle of 10 daffodils is $5. Anyone interested in purchasing flowers can call me at 402-375-3406.

Again, thank you for supporting the American Cancer Society, and remember, it is not too early to place your daffodil orders.

Special thanks given for Reading 2000

Dear Editor,
Special THANKS to all of the parents, relatives, friends and teachers who helped the Wayne-Carroll elementary students with the Reading 2000 challenge during the last three weeks of January.

The students read over 1450 books. The first graders alone read or had read to them over 475 titles. Great job of reading everyone! Thanks for all of your cooperation and effort.

Osborne wants to help

By Ed Howard
Statehouse Correspondent
The Nebraska Press Association

Tom Osborne's campaign for Congress is apparently going to rely on a straight-up-the-middle kind of strategy. No trick plays.

The former Nebraska football coach, with three national championships to his credit, jumped into the 3rd District Republican primary by saying he wanted to serve in national office to confront several challenges.

Agriculture needs help, the rural economy in general needs help, and something needs to be done to keep young people in the western part of the state if it is to prosper, Osborne said.

Interestingly, T.O. made a couple of things clear from the get-go. One is that he is a Republican with a small "r" when it comes to partisanship. He won't accept money from political action committees (and he deserves a bi-partisan "God bless you" for that one) and he has it up his nose that, of all things, he's going to go back to Washington and - are you ready? - vote his conscience. M'gawd, the man's a radical and he doesn't know it!

Among the most refreshing moments of his recent news conference in Hastings: Osborne suggested that the notion of polling was, in some instances, dumb. He said someone had offered to do some polling for him and give him the results, so that he would know what to say.

By nature or design, he seemed the "gosh and golly innocent" when it came to partisanship and political baloney. Osborne opined that he'd just go around, saying what was on his mind and doing what he thinks a fella' should, and let the votes fall where they may. One hopes that he finds sticking to such a game plan to be feasible.

After all, if everyone does what they're supposed to, the old up-the-middle play might not be exciting, but it works.

And, bless his heart, Osborne said he would naturally enough stay in contact with the district and do the required visitations. But, he said, he is not going to be perpetually running for office, looking for money to finance the next campaign, as soon as the first is over.

Maybe the guy is onto something, at least for him.

When a Republican wins in the 3rd District, and no one else ever has, the job security is pretty much total. Osborne apparently figures he can just go about doing the job of a congressman and, heck, if the people like what you do, they'll vote for you again.

That approach decidedly would not work for everyone. But for T.O., it's definitely a possibility.

Legislature completes fourth week

We have completed the fourth week of the 2000 legislative session. At this point we have begun to see prolonged debate and filibustering on issues that are beginning to take up valuable time during this short legislative session. I would not be against such delays if they were important, but there have been a few bills that have been bogged down with amendments and filibusters.

Two such bills, LB 120 and LB 175, were hampered by State Senator Chambers during the week.

LB 120, as introduced, would give first consideration to joint custody of children in divorce proceedings. Some fear that it mandates joint custody, contrarily, it merely brings the matter up for consideration. After much debate including physical custody, what manner of consideration and issues dealing with work schedules, the bill was bracketed (held back) until mid February.

LB 175 would allow landlords to assess two months rent security deposit instead of one. Along with 120, it too was bogged down with amendments that delayed a vote or movement to other issues. Discussion on LB 175 will continue next week.

An issue that I am concerned with is the consumption of alcohol by minors along with those who illegally procure for them and those retailers who sell to them as well. LB 1171, I believe, will make one of those propositions less likely.

I have introduced LB 1171 to stiffen the penalties against retailers who sell alcohol to minors. LB 1171 proposes changes to the penalties that a retail licensee may receive for violations of the Liquor Control Act. Although studies suggest that only about 20 percent of the underage individuals obtain alcohol from a retail liquor license holder, it is important to do what we can to prevent this from happening. Currently the Liquor Control Commission may suspend a retail liquor license for a period of time for violations. However, retailers have the right to pay a fine in lieu of suspension of $50 a day for the first

Capital Happenings

By: State Senator Bob Dickey, District #18

offense or $100 a day for the second and subsequent offenses. Most retailers choose this cash penalty option.

LB 1171 would allow the Liquor Control Commission to require a retailer to suspend alcohol sales for seven days for the first offense and 15 days on the second offense without the option of paying a cash penalty for the offenses. This change is intended to make retailers be more vigilant about training their clerks to check for identification and keep young people from trying to purchase alcohol.

Your input, as always, is very important to me. If you have any comments or concerns on these or any other legislative matters, please contact my office at (402) 471-2801 or e-mail me at bdickey@unicam.state.ne.us

Teach is on Honors List

Tammy Teach of Wayne has been named to the Academic Honors List at Nebraska Wesleyan University for the first semester of 1999-2000.

A student must have a minimum grade point average of 3.75 (on a 4.00 scale) for 12 or more hours of coursework to qualify for the list.

Elementary school celebrates the millennium with many activities

Wayne-Carroll Elementary has been celebrating the new millennium with a variety of activities. Several dress-up days were held that coincided with different decades of the twentieth century. Members from the class of 2000 and 2001 read stories to each class room and each grade researched people and events in order to make a school timeline for the 1900s.

In conjunction with the school's monthly Read and Feed, the Wayne Elementary Boosters provided snacks. Many classroom activities have centered upon the number and year 2000.

The students are trying to read 2,000 books and each classroom is trying to collect 2,000 pennies. All pennies collected will be donated to local charities.

The Diamond Center staff attends the St. Louis Industry Show

This January, the hot spot for jewelry was St. Louis, Mo., as hundreds of jewelers from across the country converged under that city's famous arch for a buying show of gigantic proportions. Of the attendees were area jeweler Randy Pedersen and staff of The Diamond Center in Wayne.

"The selection was just incredible," states Pedersen. "Every size and color of diamond you could imagine was there, along with every other gemstone, plus all of the latest jewelry styles."

The buying show was conducted by RJO, the national Retail Jewelers Organization, for more than 700 member jewelers, including The Diamond Center. Only the nation's top jewelers, as rated by the Jeweler's Board of Trade, are eligible for membership in RJO. While in St. Louis, Pedersen participated in roundtable discussions on the state of independently owned business and the jewelry industry.

From among the 140 jewelry manufacturers and suppliers at the show, Pedersen had the opportunity to look for mountings to use with diamonds he plans to purchase during a diamond buying trip to South Africa in March.

"Every supplier had its new merchandise on display, so I could see all of the new trends and styles, and stock my store with what customers want-or will soon want," says Pedersen.

At the buying show, Pedersen and his fellow RJO members were allowed exclusive discounts unavailable anywhere else. Pedersen explains, "The discounts I received at this buying show let me offer my customers exceptional savings. Many prices even the national chain stores can't match."

Wayne State women knock off top rated regional team

By Kevin Peterson
Of the Herald

Wayne State's defense resumed to its dominant stage as the Wildcats men's basketball team posted a pair of NSIC victories over the weekend at Minnesota-Morris and Northern State before returning home to defeat Briar Cliff on Tuesday night in Wayne.

Greg McDermott's 'Cats improved to 14-5 on the season following Tuesday's 89-74 win over the Chargers and WSC sits at 8-3 in the NSIC standings, tied for second place with Minnesota-Duluth.

Winona State remains perfect at 11-0 and will invade Rice Auditorium on Saturday night. WSC opened up a 12 point lead on Briar Cliff at 36-24 with just under five minutes to go in the first half but the Chargers went on a 13-4 scoring run to cut the gap to three by intermission at 40-37.

The 'Cats opened the second half with a scoring run of their own to the tune of 21-4 to put the game out of reach at 61-41 with 12:04 remaining.

The lead grew to 22 at 80-58 with just under four minutes to go before the Chargers hit some late three's to close the gap.

"It was a real physical ball game," McDermott said. "I thought fatigue set in on our team late in the first half, playing a couple conference teams on the road over the weekend and then playing on Tuesday night."

"Mac" was pleased with his team's win over a quality Briar Cliff team that had entered the game with a 20-5 record.

"We're right in the middle of a conference race and we step out of the conference to play a good team like Briar Cliff," McDermott added. "We started the game well and we started the second half well and I was pleased with that. We do need to do a better job against the press. We can't afford to have 18 turnovers against good competition."

Jon Dolliver shared scoring honors with Eric Henderson as each tallied 17 points and Dolliver became the 21st Wildcat player in history to surpass the 1,000-point barrier for a career.

Dolliver needed six points coming into the contest and sits at 1,011 after scoring 13 of his 17 points in the second half.

Brad Joens poured in 15 points and Matt VanVoorst scored 14 with Brad Manley and Nathan Mulder netting eight apiece.

Henderson and VanVoorst finished with nine rebounds each as WSC dominated the boards, 39-27.

Manley dished out a game-high seven assists and Henderson had five with Manley also notching three steals. Henderson blocked a pair of shots.

WSC, 89—Briar Cliff, 74
LAST SATURDAY in Aberdeen, S.D., coach Greg McDermott notched his first win against the Wolves in Aberdeen in convincing fashion, 86-63.

WSC used a 24-5 run early in the game to find itself up by 16 at 24-8. The Wolves went on a 9-0 run to cut the gap to six at 28-22 and the 'Cats led 40-33 at the intermission.

In the first three minutes of the second half the host team managed to tie the game at 42—but the Wolves would never lead.

WSC went on a 9-0 run for a 51-42 lead and the 'Cats were never threatened en route to the 23-point victory.

WSC led 66-57 at the 9:13 mark and then the 'Cats went on an 18-point run to lead 84-57 with 1:45 left.

"We probably played our best basketball of the season during the game's first 10 minutes and the game's last 10 minutes," McDermott said. "We made the extra pass all night long to find the open man. To beat the five-time defending conference champs on their home floor is an accomplishment."

The 'Cats had five players in double figures led by Brad Joens with 18 points. Jon Dolliver and Eric Henderson poured in 15 each and Nathan Mulder tossed in 11.

WSC edged the Wolves on the boards, 29-27 led by Henderson with nine rebounds.

Brad Manley dished out six assists and Rory Williams had five assists.

THE 'CATS pounded Minnesota-Morris last Friday night in Morris, 86-60 after opening a 20-point half-time lead at 42-22.

"Our goal going into the contest was to dominate the backboards and to play intense defense," McDermott said. "We played an average offensive game and got a good lift from Kevin Lingenfelter and Jason Herlitzke."

Brad Joens led the winners with 15 points with Kevin Lingenfelter adding 12 and Rory Williams, 11. Matt VanVoorst tossed in 10 points.

Eric Henderson notched a career-high on the boards with 20 rebounds as WSC doubled the rebounding efforts of Morris, 50-25. VanVoorst netted nine caroms.

WSC will now shift focus to this weekend's NSIC homestand with Concordia-St. Paul and Winona State on Friday and Saturday, respectively.

"We need to focus on Friday's game before we turn attention to Saturday," McDermott said. "We need to protect our home floor."

Winona State will enter Wayne as the league's top team at 11-0 prior to the weekend twinbill at Southwest State and at Wayne State.

They feature three all-conference players that hurt the 'Cats last month. WSC led the Warriors by 20 points in the second half of that contest before falling on a last second shot by one point.

"We need to do a better job of playing defense," McDermott said. "Winona used a trapping zone press which hurt us so we need to be ready."

The 'Cats are 10-0 at home this season and have won 27 consecutive regular season games in Rice Auditorium.

'Cats thump Morris, Northern, B.C. WSC back on track

By Kevin Peterson
Of the Herald

The Wayne State women's basketball team's post-season fate took a giant step in the right direction last weekend as Ryun Williams' team posted a 69-66 win over the top team in the North Central Region, Northern State in Aberdeen, S.D.

The top four teams in the NSIC get to host first round tournament games and a loss to the Wolves would have left WSC in fifth place but the win left the 'Cats in a tie for second.

In what could be considered Williams biggest win of his young career at WSC, the final seconds of the game and its outcome would be determined by a pair of true freshman.

The game was tied at 66 with 11 seconds to go and during a timeout Williams said he figured they would be looking at a two-two-one press up the floor as the 'Cats had to go the length of the court for the final shot attempt.

"We weren't surprised at all to see the press and we got the ball to Karen Hochstein who dribbled uncontested up the floor," Williams said. "She appeared to be headed for a lay-up but was doubled up. She dished the ball to an open Tracy Williamson who launched a very high three-point shot which hit nothing but net."

"I am so proud of this team for the way they fought back after being down by 15 points early in the second half," Williams added.

WSC trailed, 31-24 at the half and gave up an 8-0 run to start the second half before they regrouped.

"We felt if we could generate a small run of our own we could get right back in the game and that's exactly what we did," Williams said. "We tied the game at 60 and took the lead at 63-62 on a Sara Miller three-pointer with three minutes left."

Miller gave WSC a two point lead at 66-64 with another three-pointer as she went on a nine point scoring run of her own with back-to-back-to-back three-pointers for the 'Cats.

WSC's final 12 points came from behind the arc with Williamson's game-winner added to Miller's arsenal of treys

"This was a great win," Williams said. "Playing in front of a lot of people in a hostile environment is something you dream of and to win the game like that."

Williams said he knew his team would compete well with the favored Wolves and his squad has now quietly won eight of their last 10 ballgames for a 12-6 record to go along with an 8-3 conference mark.

Williamson and Miller scored 17 apiece to lead WSC with Krista Bernadt netting 12.

WSC was dominated on the boards, 38-22 with Karen Hochstein hauling down a team-high eight caroms with Miller netting six rebounds from her guard position.

Bernadt dished out five assists and Hochstein had three steals to lead the winners.

WSC hit 13-of-26 shots from three-point range while the host team connected on just three from long range on 11 attempts.

FRIDAY NIGHT in Morris, Minnesota the 'Cats had little trouble in posting a 76-50 win.

WSC raced to a 43-15 halftime lead and never looked back. The 'Cats opened the game with a 10-0 scoring run as Karen Hochstein scored five and Sara Miller, three while Maranda Radke netted the other two before the host team even broke into the scoring column.

"We played a very good first half," Williams said. "Both offensively and defensively was solid and intense and we scored numerous easy baskets."

The Wayne State mentor was able to use his bench at will during the game as eight of the nine players that took part saw at least 16 minutes of playing time.

"It was a great opportunity for our bench to get a lot of minutes," Williams said. "It's an urgent time for some of them as they try to earn more playing time by playing hard in a game that we have well in control."

Maranda Radke led WSC with 18 points after hitting eight-of-nine shots from the floor. In fact, Radke hit 12-of-13 from the floor on the weekend.

Sara Miller had 17 points and Tracy Williamson, 15 while Karen Hochstein added 11.

WSC won the boards battle, 36-22 as Radke notched a double-double with 11 rebounds to go with her 18 points.

Radke also blocked three shots and Krista Bernadt dished out five assists while Ami Pendry notched three steals.

WSC will host Concordia-St. Paul and Winona State on Friday and Saturday, respectively.

"It's another urgent weekend as we have to find a way to protect our home floor," Williams said. "One of our three conference losses was to Winona State."

Wayne cagers fall to Cadets

By Kevin Peterson
Of the Herald

The Wayne boys basketball team suffered a 54-50 setback at West Point last Friday night, leaving Rocky Ruhl's Blue Devils with a disappointing 6-8 record heading into Thursday's contest at O'Neill.

Wayne came out strong and built a 13-8 lead after one quarter of play and even stretched the lead to double digits at 26-16 before the host Cadets came back to make it a four point game at halftime at 29-25.

The Blue Devils shooting woes hit home in the third quarter as Wayne went 0-12 from two point range while scoring eight points.

West Point led 39-37 after three quarters of play and the game was tight throughout the final stanza.

With the score tied at 48 Wayne had the ball but suffered a turnover. To worsen matters, West Point converted a shot on the other end of the floor and was fouled so Wayne found itself down by three at 51-50. It was the Cadets that made the next grave error as they fouled Joel Munson as he attempted a three-point basket.

Munson hit two of the three free throws to tighten the gap to just one point with under a minute to go in regulation.

Wayne regained possession of the ball only to suffer another turnover. The Blue Devils were whistled for a foul on a loose ball and the Cadets converted foul shots to seal the deal at 54-50.

"We had turnovers on two of our last three possessions and we just can't do that in tight games," Ruhl said. "I thought our kids played hard but we're just not shooting the ball real well right now. The loss really hurt us and the kids felt very bad which is an emotion I've been waiting to see."

Joel Munson scored 15 points to lead Wayne on four, three-pointers and three free throws while Eric McLagan tossed in a dozen points. Brad Hochstein and Klinton Keller each scored seven points with Keller's all coming in the final period. Trevor Wright tallied four points and Jon Meyer, three while Brad Hansen finished with two.

Wayne won the boards battle, 24-17 as McLagan and Munson had five rebounds each with Dustin Schmeits hauling down four.

Keller did notch a team-high three steals and Wayne committed 11 turnovers with West Point suffering 14.

The Wayne JV's improved to 9-1 on the season with a 43-36 win over West Point.

Duane Blomenkamp's crew was led by Ben Meyer with 13 points while Shane Baack netted nine and Brad Hansen, five. Jeff Pippitt and Luke Christensen scored four each and Ethan Mann tallied three while Craig Olson and Brett Parker each scored two. Joe Holstedt rounded out the scoring with a free throw.

Wayne's freshman-sophomore team competed at Homer last Thursday and won a 34-20 decision as Brett Parker led the way with 10 points while Jon Ehrhardt scored seven and Brady Heithold, six. Luke Christensen finished with five points and Jeremy Foote, three while Leo Buechter tallied two and Ric Volk, one.

Allen girls advance to Clark semifinals

The Allen girls basketball team won their first round game of the Lewis & Clark Conference Tournament with a 49-46 decision over Emerson-Hubbard last Saturday night in Allen.

The win came just two days after the Eagles fell to the same Emerson-Hubbard team in Emerson, 49-45.

Allen fought back from being down 12 points in the final 4:38. "Our girls played very hard," coach Lori Koester said. "We had to find a way to win the game and I'm so proud of the way we battled back with strong defense."

Rebounding and converting on missed free throws by Emerson-Hubbard led to the Eagles win.

Allen entered the fourth quarter trailing by eight points at 40-32 but used a 17-6 scoring run to notch the three point win.

Allen had closed the gap to five points at 46-41 when they lost their leading scorer of the game, Rachel Stallbaum to fouls. Stallbaum had tallied 17 points for the Eagles but the final stage of the come-back would be done with out her.

Alicia Liebsch hit a bucket with 1:44 left to make it a 46-43 contest and Stacey Martinson narrowed the gap to one point with a bucket at 46-45 with 58 seconds left.

Angela Prochaska came down with a big offensive rebound and putback with 25 seconds left in regulation to give Allen a 47-46 lead. Stacey Martinson hit both ends of a one-and-one with seven seconds left for the final margin.

Emerson-Hubbard played the final 4:38 with out scoring a single point.

Liebsch finished with 13 points and Martinson, 12 with Shannon Koester netting four and Prochaska, two. Melissa Wilmes rounded out the scoring with a free throw.

Stallbaum and Liebsch shared team honors on the boards with eight rebounds each.

Allen was eliminated from tournament play by Ponca in the semifinals, 81-49.

The Eagles trailed 44-24 at the half and 63-36 after three quarters of play.

Rachel Stallbaum led Allen with 10 points with Melissa Wilmes adding nine and Stacey Martinson, eight. Shannon Koester and Alicia Liebsch each scored six with Angela Prochaska and Jessica Bock adding five each.

"The tough schedule we play, competing with so many C-2 schools is good experience for us and will make us tougher as we focus now on playing only D-2 schools," Koester said.

Allen will play Beemer on Friday night before heading into sub-district play.

Laurel-Concord boys earn rematch in NENAC finals

The Laurel-Concord boys basketball team advanced to the finals of the NENAC Conference Tournament after defeating Bloomfield in semifinal action on Tuesday night in Creighton, 72-63.

Clayton Steele watched as his team fought off a stubborn Bees squad as the Bears improved to 14-2 on the season.

Laurel will face a rematch with Randolph who handed the Bears a 65-60 setback in December, on Friday night in Creighton.

"The game with Bloomfield was close throughout," Steele said. "They did a nice job of hustling and stayed tough during the entire game."

Evan Smith led four players in double figures for the winners with 19 points with Matt Schroeder adding 18 and Nathan Beckman, 15. Ross Gardner finished with 11 with Blake Erwin netting five and Nick Manganaro, four.

The Bears had just eight turnovers while forcing 19.

Semi-pro baseball team forming in Wayne?

WAYNE—An organizational meeting will be held on Wednesday, Feb. 16th at the City Auditorium at 6:30 p.m. for all those interested players who wish to participate on a semi-pro baseball team in Wayne.

You must be at least 19 years of age or completed your American Legion eligibility. A minimum of 12 players are needed and a maximum of 20 to field a team.

League games are generally played on Wednesdays and Sundays in the Cedar County Baseball League, which beings in late spring. A cost to cover the uniforms would be required.

If interested in playing but can not attend the meeting, contact Doug Sturm at 375-2975 or Jeff Zeiss at 375-1698.

Tracy Williamson earns Player of the Week

WAYNE—Wayne State College freshman Tracy Williamson has been named the Nebraska Division II Player of the Week in basketball along with being named the Northern Sun Intercollegiate Conference Co-Player of the Week for her efforts in WSC's wins over Minnesota-Morris and Northern State.

Williamson, a 5-11 forward from Harvard, averaged 16 points and five steals in the two wins. In a 69-66 upset victory over Northern State, the number one ranked team in the North Central Region, Williamson sank a three-pointer with three seconds left to win the game for the 'Cats. Williamson made four of her season-high five three-pointers in the second half to lead WSC back from a 15 point deficit.

Williamson connected on six of eight shots from the field and scored 15 points in a 76-50 win over Morris.

Junior high rec teams post victories

WAYNE—Wayne's Junior High Rec cage teams earned a sweep of Bancroft as the seventh grade girls posted a 29-12 win to begin the four-game sweep. Jenny Raveling led the way with eight points while Milly Hill scored five. Micaela Weber, Sara Jensen and Casey Farmer added four each with Ashley Carroll and Jessica Jammer scoring two apiece.

Wayne's eighth grade gals posted a 24-22 win as Briann Theobald led the way with eight points while Lacey Wurdeman scored six and Allison Hansen, four. Stacie Hoeman tallied three points with Rachel Robins adding two and Leah Pickinpaugh, one.

The seventh grade boys won, 54-13 as Jared Jehle led the way with 11 points while Adam Munter scored 10 and Bryan Fink, nine. Blake Lyon netted six points with Todd Poehlman, Tyler Johnson, Josh Rasmussen and Dan Heithold adding four apiece and Wade Jarvi, two.

The eighth grade boys posted a 44-32 win led by Caleb Garvin with nine points while Chris Nissen, Heath Dickes and Cale Anderson added seven apiece. Josh Sharer scored five and Brad Frevert, four while Aaron Jorgensen tallied three and Jeff Paustian, two.

The eighth grade girls team also downed the Sanford Center, 40-35 led by Lacey Wurdeman with 12 points and Allison Hansen with six with Rachel Robins adding five. Leah Pickinpaugh, Karissa Hochstein and Brianna Theobald each scored four with Jessica Thomsen along with Carrie Walton adding two each and Stacie Hoeman, one.

WSC indoor track teams compete at USD invite

With 19 schools represented at the University of South Dakota last Saturday, the high level of competition pulled several members of the Wildcat track and field squads to season or personal bests.

Having a career day for the men was sophomore James Bruhn. He started the day with a personal-best 800-meter time of 1:59.06, followed by a personal best in the mile of 4:31.75. Both were good for eighth place overall.

He ended the day with a 53.7-second 400-meter split in the 1600-meter relay, also a personal best.

"James really ran well today," said head coach Brian Kavanaugh. "He's much stronger this year. Hopefully he can get close to 4:20 in the mile by the end of the year."

Also clocking a personal best was junior Matt Kneifl. He ran the 55-meter high hurdles in 7.80 seconds, which was a 0.03-second improvement over his best last year. That placed him sixth overall.

In the 55-meter dash, freshman Kellin Bretschneider clocked 6.79 seconds to win his heat and improve his personal best.

Freshman Dustin Lippman improved his personal best by over a second in the mile to 4:37.73 and sophomore Michael Wells improved his season best in the triple jump to 41'2".

For the women, senior Marsha Krienke ran her second-fastest ever 800 meters indoors, clocking 2:22.69 for second place. Junior Darr Nickerson improved her personal best in the mile by 15 seconds to 5:29.13. That placed her fourth overall and is third all time on the WSC charts.

Freshman Traci Bernecker clocked 7.49 seconds for the 55-meter dash, a tenth-of-a-second improvement on her best and fourth all time for WSC.

Next up for the Wildcats is the Graphic Edge Open at the University of South Dakota this Saturday.

Trojans beaten

Iris Borg's Wakefield girls basketball team dropped a pair of games last week to Laurel-Concord and Coleridge which left the Trojans with an 8-7 season record.

In Laurel the Trojans led 17-16 after the first quarter and only trailed 31-29 at the break. In fact the game was still a two-point difference after three quarters of play at 43-41 but Laurel out-scored the visitors, 21-8 over the final eight minutes.

Megan Brown led Wakefield with 21 points with Maggie Brownell adding 13 and Timarie Bebee, eight. Amber Johnson tallied five points and Annie Greve, two.

Bebee led Wakefield on the boards with 12 rebounds.

The Trojans fell to Coleridge in the first round of the Lewis & Clark Conference Tournament on Saturday night, 53-49.

Wakefield sprinted to a 16-6 lead in the first quarter, only to be outscored, 20-6 in the second stanza for a 26-22 halftime deficit.

Both teams scored 27, second half points. Megan Brown led Wakefield with 18 points while Maggie Brownell added 10 and Erin Salmon, nine. Timarie Bebee tallied six points and Annie Bierbower, Lacey Brown and Traci Lueth each netted two.

Bebee led the team on the boards once again with 10 caroms. Mike Clay's Wakefield boys team lost to Osmond in the first round of the conference tournament, 61-41.

"We played a pretty good first half, only trailing by five points but cold shooting and turnovers in the second half sealed our fate," Clay said.

Ty Nixon led the Trojans with 17 points with Todd McQuistan adding six as did Ryan Carson. Joel McAfee netted five points and Nick White, three while Brett Brownell and Wyatt Brown scored two each.

Wayne is sixth

The Wayne wrestling team placed sixth at the Albion invite last Saturday with 85 points.

Kearney won the team event with 196 points followed by David City Aquinas with 170.5 and O'Neill with 154. Lexington placed fourth with 150 and Albion was fifth at 125.

Following Wayne was Madison, David City, South Sioux City, York, Neligh-Oakdale and Pierce.

Lucas Munter (125) and Danny Roeber (135) led Wayne's efforts with third place finishes while Gabe Hammer (145), Chris Woehler (152) and Adam Jorgensen (160) each placed fourth.

Ryan Haase (189) placed fifth and Ryan Teach (130) finished sixth in a strong field.

"Our kids competed very hard against some tough competition," coach John Murtaugh said. "We were able to accomplish our goal of finishing ahead of six teams. Our wrestlers have improved a great deal and I am proud of them."

Casey Campbell (119), Josh Pieper (140) and Craig Hefti (171)

took part in the tournament but did not place.

Munter lost by pin in his first match but came back to win his next three matches (two by pin) and took care of Kearney's Nate Shada, 14-5 in the match for third place.

Roeber won three of four matches including an 11-1 decision over Heath Smith of O'Neill in the third place match.

Hammer went 3-2, falling to Marty Stortz of O'Neill in the third-fourth place match by a 6-4 margin.

Woehler went 3-2, losing to John Kaiser of David City, 11-9 in the third-fourth place match and Jorgensen went 2-2, losing a 10-3 decision to Isaiah Skrdla of Aquinas in the third-fourth place match.

Haase went 3-2, winning by default over Andrew Spanjers of York in the fifth-sixth place match. Teach went 1-3 in placing sixth.

There was also a JV Tournament with Matt Webb (152) and Lynn Junck (189) each placing first while Jason Fuoss (119) was runner-up, and Joe Brumm (125) placed third.

Laurel cagers post wins over Wakefield; NENAC

Laurel-Concord's girls and boys basketball teams swept Wakefield last week with Susie Koranda's Lady Bears posting a 64-49 victory while Clayton Steele's boys cruised to an 83-41 win.

The Laurel-Concord girls led 31-28 at the half and 43-36 after three quarters of play before posting the double-digit victory.

"We had a stretch in the fourth quarter where we just took control," Koranda said. "Our aggressive defense took over in the end as we were able to take Wakefield out of the game."

Melanie Thompson paced the winners with 18 points with Kari Stewart adding 13 and Brittany Burns, nine. Jennifer Demuth scored eight points as did Emily Schroeder while Katie Peters and Shelby Tyrell tallied three each. Lani Recob rounded out the scoring with two points.

Peters led the winners on the boards with seven caroms while Burns had six rebounds and Recob, five.

Laurel-Concord's boys raced to a 42-23 halftime lead and never looked back en route to an 83-41 victory.

"We used a straight man-to-man press early in the first half and we executed it pretty well," Steele said.

Evan Smith led the winners with 17 points with Blake Erwin scoring 15 and Matt Schroeder, 11. Jon Erwin finished with 10 points and Nick Manganaro added eight while Ross Gardner scored seven and Tyler Stingley, four. Adam Hartung tallied three points with Johan Berner and Bennie Surber netting two each.

The NENAC Tournament got underway on Saturday with the Laurel-Concord girls downing Crofton, 45-41 while the Bears boys team thumped Elkhorn Valley, 72-46.

In the girls tilt, Laurel-Concord overcame a two-point deficit in the fourth quarter to post the 45-41 win.

"As coaches we were proud of the effort and determination shown by the girls in the fourth quarter," Koranda said. "They were able to find a way to win the ball game on a night when we were not converting steals into points."

Brittany Burns led the winners with 13 points and Melanie Thompson added 11 while Lani Recob scored seven. Katie Peters and Emily Schroeder scored five each and Kari Stewart along with Jennifer Demuth finished with two each.

Burns posted a double-double with 13 points and 10 rebounds with Schroeder also hauling down seven boards. Stewart dished out a game-high seven assists.

Laurel-Concord's luck ran out in the semifinals as they fell to Plainview, 60-46, leaving the Bears with a 14-3 season mark.

Laurel trailed 32-22 at the half and 46-31 after three quarters of play.

"We have to give a good Plainview team credit for taking us out of our game," Koranda said. "We committed a season high in turnovers which didn't allow us to execute our offense the way we'd like."

Brittany Burns led Laurel with 11 points with Kari Stewart adding seven and Melanie Thompson netting seven. Katie Peters netted six points with Lani Recob and Jennifer Demuth scoring five each. Emily Schroeder finished with three points and Kate Harder along with Shelby Tyrell added one each.

Burns led the Bears on the boards with eight caroms with Recob and Schroeder hauling down six rebounds each.

The Laurel boys actually trailed Elkhorn Valley, 13-11 after the first quarter but the Bears train began to roll in the second quarter and by the fourth quarter they were in overdrive, winning by 26 points.

"We had some nice scoring runs despite starting a little sluggish," Steele said. "We picked up momentum as the game progressed. Scoring 23 points in each of the third and fourth quarters showed good conditioning and intensity."

The 13-2 Bears forced 25 turnovers and were paced by Blake Erwin with 14 points and Nathan Beckman with 12 while Evan Smith tallied 11 and Adam Hartung, eight. Ross Gardner netted six points as did Matt Schroeder while Nick Manganaro added four. Bennie Surber and Tyler Stingley tallied three each and Brandon Viterna, one.

Wayne senior Gabe Hammer wraps up his match with a Columbus Lakeview wrestler during the Blue Devils final home match of the season, Tuesday night.

Wayne grapplers win at home

The Wayne wrestling team defeated Columbus Lakeview in duel action, Tuesday night in Wayne, 45-24.

On the mat the Blue Devils won five of the eight matches led by Gabe Hammer (145) and Chris Woehler (152) as each recorded pins.

Casey Campell (119) won a 6-4 decision and Adam Jorgensen was an 11-5 winner while Craig Hefti decided his Lakeview opponent, 10-6.

Adam Blumhagen (112) lost by pin with Danny Roeber falling by an 8-4 margin at 135 while Ryan Haase

(189) was decided by a 7-3 count.

"I thought our kids put on a good show in our final meet at home," coach John Murtaugh said. "Craig Hefti picked up a big win against a quality opponent. In these next two weeks we need to gear up for districts."

Winside splits pair

The Winside boys and girls basketball teams split a pair of games last week with the boys falling to Hartington, 61-56 before bouncing back to down Wausa in the first round of the Lewis & Clark Conference Tournament, 53-51.

The difference in the Hartington contest was the third quarter where Winside was out-scored, 13-8 after trailing by just one point at the half, 26-25.

Ben Lienemann led Winside with a career high of 20 points while Adam Hoffman poured in 13 and Scott Marotz, 12. Aaron Lessmann tallied six points and Michael Deck, three while Nick Brogren added two.

In the first round of the conference tournament at Wausa the Wildcats came from a four point deficit to start the final quarter to win, 53-51.

Winside trailed 26-13 at the intermission. "We never gave up," coach Tom Meyer said. "We were down seven with less than two minutes to go in regulation but we stepped it up on defense and made the shots down the stretch."

Aaron Lessmann led the winners by scoring 14 of his 17 points in the second half. In fact, Lessmann drained a pair of three-pointers in the final 1:15 to push the Wildcats into the lead and Adam Hoffman hit two free throws with four seconds left to seal the deal.

Scott Marotz was in double figures with 13 points and Ben Lienemann tallied a dozen while Hoffman scored eight and Michael Deck, three.

Winside will play Hartington on Thursday with the winner advancing to the Clark finals on Friday night. The championship will be held in Laurel on Monday night.

THE WINSIDE girls defeated Hartington, 57-52 in overtime after losing a 10-point fourth quarter lead which forced the overtime.

Marland Erbst said his team probably played their best overall game of the season. "We're starting to cut our turnovers down and are hitting more of our free throw attempts," Erbst said. "We also had four girls in double figures in the scoring column which is a season best."

Jessica Wade led the way with 13 points while Julie Jacobsen, Shannon Bowers and Sara Mohr added 11 each. Mohr led the team on the boards with seven caroms while Jacobsen had six rebounds.

The Wildcats were pounded by Osmond in the first round of the Lewis & Clark Conference Tournament on Saturday night in Osmond.

Winside trailed 39-21 at the half and never recovered. Shannon Bowers led Winside with 10 points and Sara Mohr added eight while Julie Jacobsen scored seven. Amy Rademacher netted six points with Claire Boelter and Shannon Jaeger each scoring two.

"We just didn't play well," Erbst said. "Osmond had the better team tonight but we play them again next week and I'm sure we'll give them a better game."

Allen falls

The Allen boys basketball team remained winless on the season with a pair of losses last week including a 95-34 setback at Emerson-Hubbard and an 88-32 loss to Ponca in the first round of the Lewis & Clark Conference Tournament.

At Emerson the Eagles found themselves trailing by a 34-6 margin after one quarter of play.

"We just didn't come ready to play," coach Brian Hoffman said. "Emerson's press completely took us out of our game. We had 40 turnovers in the game and you just can't win with that many turnovers."

Micky Oldenkamp led Allen with 12 points while Austen Stewart added eight and Adam Gensler, four. Joe Sullivan, Brett Keitges and Justin Werner each scored two points.

At Ponca the Eagles trailed 41-20 at the half and were out-scored, 47-12 in the second half.

"Ponca scored on 19 of its 23 second half possessions," Hoffman said. "We did not control any of the tempo like we had hoped."

Austen Stewart scored 13 for the Eagles with Andrew Purnell adding eight and Micky Oldenkamp, six. Adam Gensler and Justin Werner scored two each and Joe Sullivan tallied a free throw.

Winside grapplers sixth

Paul Sok's Winside wrestling team placed fifth at a very competitive Ainsworth Invite last Saturday with 97.5 points.

Valentine won the team title with 182.5 points while Gregory, S.D. netted 138 followed by Rushville with 134 and Sandhills, 101.

Following Winside was Burwell, Gordon, Ainsworth, Burke S.D., Gothenburg and Rock County.

Winside finished with five medal winners including two champs with Jeremy Jaeger (135) and Jared Jaeger (103). Nate Suehl (171) placed third with Brandon Suehl (112) and Eric Vanosdall (152) each placing fourth.

"It was kind of a tough tournament for us," Sok said. "Jared Jaeger wrestled extremely well and Jeremy continued his winning ways. Nate Suehl was in command of his semifinal match until he got caught on his back but he came back to get third."

Traveling bear

Students in first and second grades at St. Mary's Elementary School pose with Geo Bear. The bear arrived in Wayne from Louisville, Ky. after starting its educational travels in a school near Detroit, Mich. The students in Wayne wrote to the students in Michigan before sending the bear on to Arizona.

Winside

Sok said Eric Vanosdall had a very tough bracket. "Eric came in ranked third with Adam Clark of Burwell ranked second and Tug Coffman of Sandhills, fourth plus you had Josh Dean of Valentine ranked first in Class B," Sok added. "Dean defeated Eric for third place, 4-3."

Sok said there was a lot of close matches it will simply come down to who is on at districts and state for that final run.

Travis Koll suffered a concussion and was unable to continue at 119 during the wrestle-backs.

Jared Jaeger won his first two matches by pin as well in 55 seconds in 32 seconds and 28 seconds, respectively. He won his finals match, 9-1 over Kent Schwarting of Gordon.

Jeremy Jaeger won his first two matches by pin as well in 55 seconds and 1:22 before winning a 5-4 decision in the finals over Devin Osburn of Valentine.

Nate Suehl fell in the semifinals to eventual champ Michael Veskrna of Gregory, S.D. but bounced back to and pinned Burke's Jeremy Martin in 3:58 for third place.

Brandon Suehl advanced to the semifinals before falling to Zach Clarke of Rushville who went on to win the tournament. Suehl fell to Travis Kezar of Gordon, 7-0 in the third-fourth place match.

Sam Stroman wrestled at 125 and went 1-2 at 125 but did not place and Tom Witter (140) went 1-2 but did not place. Dustin Nelson competed at 215 and went 0-2.

Winside will travel to compete in the Clearwater Invite on Friday in the final regular season invitational before the district tournament next weekend, Feb. 11-12.

Wayne State gals fall to rated Briar Cliff by three

The Wayne State women's basketball team suffered a 50-47 setback to Briar Cliff, Tuesday night in Wayne, leaving the 'Cats with a 12-7 season record.

The 'Cats struggled from the floor, hitting just 20 percent from the field in the first half, 5-25.

WSC managed just 17, first half points but trailed only by seven at the intermission at 24-17.

The 'Cats found themselves down by 15 points midway through the second half before an 18-7 scoring run put WSC in a position to win the game.

The host team trailed by a 48-47 margin with just nine seconds remaining and WSC was at the free throw line for a one-and-one opportunity.

"We missed the front end of that one-and-one but we hurt ourselves all game so we really can pinpoint that free throw to us losing the game," coach Ryan Williams said. "We were slow out of the gate and it remained that way throughout the game."

Williams said he was pleased that his team found a way to put themselves in a position to win the game after trailing by 15 in the second half.

"That was all good and fine but the bottom line is, we didn't get the job done," Williams added. "We had way too many turnovers in situations where it seemed like we panicked."

Briar Cliff's Pam Shaw sank a pair of free throws with seven seconds left to give the Chargers a three point lead and Ami Pendry's last-second three-point attempt drew iron.

"We need to bounce back this weekend," Williams said. "We have two big games at home and we have to get the job done against Concordia-St. Paul and Winona State."

Sara Miller was the only WSC player in double figures with 17 points with Krista Bernadt adding eight.

WSC did win the boards battle, 44-39 with Karen Hochstein leading the way with 12 rebounds.

WSC: Sara Miller, 17; Krista Bernadt, 8; Ami Pendry, 7; Karen Hochstein, 7; Tracy Williamson, 7; Kristene Strait, 1 FG's: 15-53-28%; FT's: 10-15-67%. TEAM RECORD: 12-7.

Professionals are featured speakers at WSC on Feb. 7

Regional teachers, students and community members are invited to the Elkhorn Room of the Wayne State College Student Center to attend an evening presentation by Dan O'Kane and Joseph Giranjola on Monday, Feb. 7.

The presentation will be hosted by the Student Chapter of the National Art Education Association, Art Club and the Wayne State College Art Division.

A social hour will begin at 5:30 p.m., followed by a 6 p.m., dinner and 7:15 p.m. presentation. In advance-only tickets to the meal must be obtained by Monday, Jan. 31 at 5 p.m. Calling (402) 375-7359 or e-mail at: phansen@wscgate.wsc.edu or to attend the presentation without the meal, please also notify the fine arts division in advance to reserve a seat.

Topics of the presentation are: "I'm a Sculptural Artist," "Residencies" and "Bemis Center for Contemporary Arts -- Residency Program." Slides will be shown. The Bemis Center for Contemporary Arts is located in Omaha.

Giranjola is an adjunct professor of sculpture at the University of Nebraska - Omaha. He completed a four-month residency with the Bemis Center for Contemporary Arts in 1998. He earned a bachelor of arts degree with special emphasis in sculpture from Pepperdine University in Malibu, Calif. and a master of fine arts degree from the University of Georgia in Athens. He has also studied in Italy, where he completed an international honors program.

O'Kane has experience in all facets of World Wide Web development and computer-related print-media production. He has worked closely with ad sales and marketing departments. He is an Omaha Reader arts writer and previously wrote a weekly column on New York fine art and gallery scene information.

O'Kane's experience includes working as a project manager for America Online productions in which he supervised daily production of 15 Hachette Filipacchi magazines for AOL Newsstand, including Car and Driver, Road and Track, Metropolitan Home and Woman's Day. He also managed a staff of artists and AOL programmers. As producer of ELLE magazine on the Web (www.ellemag.com), O'Kane is credited with design and production of the award winning Web site.

Works are on display

The 17th Annual Nebraska Art Teachers Association (NATA) Undergraduate Juried Exhibition will be on display from Feb. 6 through 25 in the Wayne State College Nordstrand Visual Arts Gallery, located in Peterson Fine Arts Building. An opening reception is open to the public on Sunday, Feb. 6 from 2 to 4 p.m.

Ronald Bernier, director of the Sioux Art Center, served as juror for the show and will be at the opening.

Four Wayne State students were selected to have work included in the show.

Approximately 77 artists from Nebraska colleges and universities submitted 210 works for Bernier to review. He selected the work of 25 student artists to be included in the show.

Wayne State College artists involved are Kris Crane of Thurston, Garan Coons of Winnebago, James Beery of Winside and Aaron Nussbaum of LeMars, Iowa.

The 1999 NATA show was held at Concordia College. WSC hosted a previous NATA show in 1993.

The Nordstrand Visual Arts Gallery is open Monday through Friday, from 9 a.m. until 4:30 p.m. when classes are in session. There is no admission charge to attend the opening reception or to view the show.

Lifestyle

The Wayne Herald

Changes needed to alter weight

Tackling weight often makes people nervous. Visions of tasteless meals minus favorite foods fill our heads.

Still, the topic is everywhere; countless "new" ways to a slimmer you are featured in popular magazines. Unfortunately, some of these "new" methods are actually the same unsound, unworkable techniques that are recycled time after time. The plain truth is that losing weight and learning to maintain a healthy weight require lifetime changes you can live with.

Ask yourself: How do I see myself? What is important in my life at this time? Am I ready to make some positive changes in my approach to healthy living? These questions have a great deal to do with weight control.

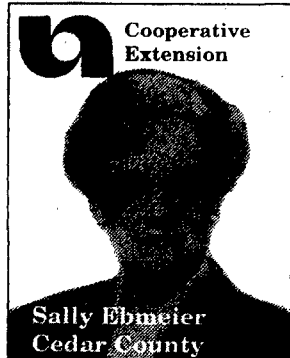

Professionals who work with weight control indicate that success in weight control is connected with an individual's ability to make it a priority in his or her life. If other life situations such as establishing a career, working out a family problem or completing some other task is more important to you, perhaps it is better to tackle your weight at another time when it can receive top priority.

Managing your weight should never be someone else's plan for you. It must be your own idea. It's okay to give yourself time. In fact, you will feel better about managing your weight if you know you are ready for the commitment.

What are your needs and how will you handle it? Those questions need to be asked up front. One way is to closely look at your current food and physical activity habits by keeping a record. Record keeping can be painful but it is an accurate way of really knowing what you eat, how you eat, how much you eat, what might trigger your eating habits, and whether physical activity is a regular part of your life.

You may discover that the foods you eat are really OK but that you're relatively inactive throughout your days or that you eat very large servings of foods. Certain goods could be missing that might make your diet more attractive or healthful.

Cooperative Extension
Sally Ebmeier
Cedar County

You may learn that you always eat on the run and that it would help if you took time to sit down to enjoy your meal. Furthermore, you might realize that you eat in response to the stress in your life.

These are examples of just a few of the types of discoveries that you need to make in your life. Once made, design a plan to deal with each factor that needs a change. Select carefully and work slowly. Each change should become a part of your lifestyle forever.

Annual Right to Life prayer breakfast held

Approximately 100 people attended the annual Tri-County Right to Life Prayer Breakfast at St. Mary's Holy Family Hall on Jan. 28.

This year's featured speaker was Greg Schleppebach who is in charge of the Pastoral Plan for Pro-Life Activities in Lincoln.

Schleppebach spoke on several issues he has been involved in recently, including the fetal tissue research issue and the partial birth abortion ban legislation.

He went on to say that in the 27 years that abortion has been legal, 140,000 babies in Nebraska have been killed.

"There is a moral blindness in our culture. We need to know what the roots of the problem are and develop a plan for transforming our culture," Schleppebach said.

Schleppebach offered a number of solutions for the problems facing society. Among them are a spiritual renewal within congregations, prayer and fasting and celebrating life.

He told those present that killing was not new, but has been documented in Scripture. He said that today's society, as was true in Biblical times, has failed to take responsibility for its neighbors.

Schleppebach listed four issues at the root of the problem. These include individualism, a distorted idea of freedom, relativism and an alienation from God.

"We cannot become discouraged. We are called to be faithful and must see that life is not a burden, but something to be celebrated."

Also on this year's program was an update on the activities that the Tri-County Right to Life organization has been involved in, musical selections by Lacey and Kelly Brown of Wakefield and a time of prayer, led by Pastor Troy Reynolds of the First Church of Christ of Wayne. State Senator Bob Dickey of Laurel also spoke to the group.

Bible translators to speak in Wayne

Phil and Jan Foster are the featured speakers at the next Mission Sunday, February 6th at 6:30 p.m. The event will be held at Calvary Bible Evangelical Church at Fifth and Lincoln Streets in Wayne.

The public is invited to attend. Dessert will be served.

This month's topic is bible translation.

When needing to purchase a Bible for yourself or for a friend, what do you do? More than likely you go to a bookstore knowing that you will find what you are looking for. In fact, the bookstore you go to will probably have dozens of Bibles to choose from, in a variety of sizes, colors, and versions. And most of them will be in the language you use regularly and understand well - English.

Unfortunately, many people around the world don't enjoy this same access to a Bible. At least 2,000 languages don't have a single verse of Scripture. That's more than 440 million people who have never yet had a chance to hear God speak to them through His Word.

"Isn't there someone who can learn my language and give us the Message in words we can understand easily?" is a plea heard around the world. To make the task even more difficult, this plea comes from people who have no formal written language.

Fortunately there is an organization that is working to make the Bible available to all people. Since its founding in 1934, Wycliffe Bible Translators has helped to complete nearly 500 Scripture translations, making God's Word available to more than 35 million people. Currently, Wycliffe Translators are working in 1,095 languages.

One of those languages is that of the Lakota Sioux Indians. Phil and Jan Foster of Ponca are currently working to help translate the Bible into the Lakota Sioux language. Bible translation is at the core of the Foster's ministry. There is substantial evidence that it is difficult for a group of believers to grow as individuals or as a church without God's Word in their language. But as people read and understand God's Phil and Jan Foster will speak in Wayne on Sunday.

Word in their own language, He works in their hearts and lives. Through His Word, He builds the body of believers. Bible translation, therefore, is long-term evangelism that takes root.

Goodwill truck in town

Goodwill's Ambassador trailer has been coming to Wayne as a regular visitor for the past few years in order to receive donations.

The trailer will be in Wayne through Monday, Feb. 7.

Serviceable, but no-longer used items to be donated to Goodwill should be placed in the Ambassador trailer at the Pac 'N' Save parking lot.

The trailer generally arrives by 4 p.m. on the arrival date and is removed by 10 a.m. on the departure date. It is open from 8 a.m. until 8 p.m. on other days.

Those bringing items are asked to deposit all items as far forward in the trailer as possible.

Furniture and large appliances cannot be accepted, due to limited trailer space.

Please do not leave donations on the ground before, during or after the trailer's arrival.

Donated goods from Wayne will be processed and received into one of the Goodwill retail outlets.

Goodwill is a non-profit organization that provides rehabilitation services to over 400 persons with disabling conditions annually by providing work opportunities and training, which enables them to become wage earners and tax-paying citizens. This service is funded by the sale of donated goods.

The Knights of Ak-Sar-Ben Foundation and the Nebraska Association of Fair Managers has announced that nominations for the 45th annual Nebraska Pioneer Farm Awards are being accepted.

The program honors farm families in Nebraska whose land has been owned by members of the same family for 100 years or more.

To date, nearly 6,000 families in 91 of the 93 Nebraska counties have been honored at various county fairs. Each honoree receives an engraved plaque and gatepost marker as permanent recognition of this milestone.

Nomination forms can be obtained from the local County Fair Board Office or by writing the Ak-Sar-Ben Pioneer Farm Awards, 6800 Mercy Road, Suite 206, Omaha, Neb. 68106. All nominations must be received by the county fair board office in which the land is located no later than May 1, 2000.

This program is just one of those supported by the Knights of Ak-Sar-Ben Foundation which was founded in 1895 "to build a more prosperous Heartland, where communities can flourish and every child can succeed."

After 30 years, it's off to Hawaii

About 30 years ago, the Big Farmer announced that as soon as cattle hit $30, we were going to Hawaii.

It really wasn't a priority for me, so when the market got there, we jacked up the house and put a full basement under it instead. (Neither expenditure would make any money, a true farmer's measure of a good investment).

The years went by all too quickly. Cattle markets kept getting higher and so did expenses. There never seemed to be time, or money, for the trip to Polynesia.

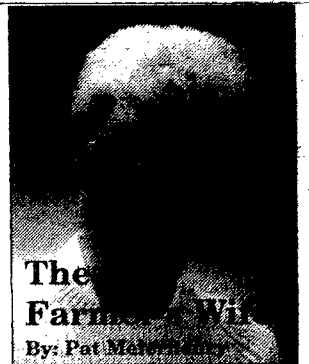

One of the things we had regretted about our trip to Germany 10 years ago was that we never actually met any farmers.

Late last summer, I noticed an ad in Successful Farming magazine for an agricultural tour of Hawaii. I called the 800 number and got an itinerary. It included all the typical things one needs to see, four islands, 15 days and a price that was almost too good to be true.

I sent a deposit, with the understanding I could cancel and presented it to Mike on our 39th anniversary in September. He didn't faint and we paid for the rest with B & B profit.

How when we got the final information, we could see why it was so inexpensive. There were no meals included and a lot of the "optional" stuff had extra fees. The kids gave us cash for Christmas so we could eat!

Which is how it happens that we are at the Kona Seaside Motel on the "big island" instead of in church today. We've been at a band concert right on the ocean and have reservations for seafood at a seaside place with stock cow owners from Redfield, S.D. and Ida Grove, Iowa.

The Farmer Will... By: Pat Maloney

There is a peanut farmer from Georgia, a truck farmer from New York, retired farmers, folks from all over the mainland: Florida, Tennessee, Ohio, Pennsylvania; all ages, all sizes.

We had a "Nebraska" breakfast at the Oahu Denny's on Saturday and there were 15 of us. They had booked the tour through Farm Journal, Farm Bureau and all over.

We've been to the Arizona and Don Ho and the Punchbowl. We've learned that the favorite expression here is "hang loose," that tourism is the number one industry and that we are all part of the "ohano," which is family.

We experienced the Polynesian Cultural Center yesterday; a small "Epcot" of the South Sea Island and their dress, dance and music. So far, it's been the highlight for me.

Right now, outside my window, the sun is setting over the Pacific and the palm trees are swaying. It's certainly the right time to get away from winter. It's also a strong sense of unreality.

Aloha until we head back to the mainland! It's the Parker cattle ranch tomorrow.

Wayne County Extension Board meeting planned

The regular meeting of the Wayne County Extension Board will be held on Tuesday, Feb. 8 at 7:30 p.m. at the Wayne County Courthouse meeting room.

The meeting is open to the public. An agenda is available at the Extension Office at 510 Pearl Street in Wayne.

Elliott is named Natural Resource Science Director

A National Science Foundation ecosystem scientist has been named professor and director of the University of Nebraska - Lincoln's School of Natural Resource Sciences.

Edward T. Elliott, a program officer for ecosystems studies with the National Science Foundation in suburban Washington, D.C., will join UNL on June 1.

"We are extremely pleased to attract an individual with Elliott's professional expertise and national reputation to assume this key administrative position for the school," said Irv Omtvedt, vice chancellor of the university's Institute of Agriculture and Natural Resources.

Elliott succeeds Blaine Blad, who has been director of SNRS since its creation in 1997. Blad, who was a professor of agricultural meteorology and head of the agricultural meteorology department before formation of the school, plans to return to a research and teaching position in the school.

Elliott's primary emphasis has been in agricultural ecosystems with a focus on soils and aquatic systems. He holds a bachelor's degree in soil science and a master's degree in soil chemistry/microbiology, both from Colorado State University. He earned a doctorate in freshwater ecology from the University of Georgia.

Elliott has held various research and administrative positions and will join IANR from NSF, a federal agency that promotes and advances scientific progress in the United States. He is associate director of the Natural Resource Ecology Laboratory at CSU and is detailed to NSF. He has held other research and administration positions at CSU.

Elliott will be paid $120,000 a year.

The School of Natural Resource Sciences combined several IANR departments and programs and included faculty from UNL's College of Arts and Sciences and College of Engineering and Technology in addition to those with IANR. The primary program areas include soils and water sciences. Some faculty from the Departments of Agronomy, Geosciences, Conservation and Survey Division and the Water Center/Environmental Programs hold joint appointments in the school.

About 35 faculty members have their academic home in the school and about 60 other faculty are directly affiliated with the school.

Although faculty who comprise the school are located on both UNL's East and City Campuses, the headquarters and most programs are on the East Campus. Funds have been secured for Phase I of the Natural Resources Complex and Phase II is one of the UNL's top priority capital construction requests currently under consideration.

Dairy Assistance is available

Dairy producers can sign up for $125 million in payments to compensate for low prices last year.

This is in addition to the $200 million paid out last summer. Eligible dairy producers who signed up for the initial dairy program will automatically receive payment and will not have to re-apply.

For those who did not previously file an application, the sign up will continue through Feb. 28, 2000 at the local Farm Service Agency.

Dairy producers who produced milk during the last quarter of calendar year 1998 are eligible for the program.

Payments will be based on the dairy operation's calendar year milk marketings in either the 1997 or 1998 calendar year not to exceed 26,000 cwt.

Dairy producers who are new in calendar year 1999 and not affiliated with other eligible producers may receive payments under the second program using their 1999 production and are not required to have marketed milk commercially in the last quarter of 1998.

Signup under way for crop disaster program

"Nebraska farmers and landowners currently have the opportunity to apply for 1999 Crop Disaster Program (CDP) payments at their local Farm Service Agency office," said FSA State Director Mark Bowen.

"The signup period for this program will end on Friday, Feb. 25, 2000 so farmers should be completing their applications as soon as possible."

The Fiscal Year 2000 Agriculture Appropriations Act provided $1.2 billion for the CDP. Eligible farmers include those who suffered severe crop losses due to natural disasters during the 1999 crop year.

Farmers must have lost at least 35 percent of their 1999 crop to be eligible under the program. Eligible producers include those with crop insurance, those that do not carry crop insurance, and those with crops that are not covered under the federal crop insurance program.

Congress provided $1.2 billion for the disaster program. The Farm Service Agency is taking applications and at the close of signup, will determine if the payments have to be factored due to the limited funding. Eligible farmers who have completed applications will receive a 35 percent disaster advance payment. The program includes an $80,000 per person limit on the amount of crop disaster payments that may be received.

"Nebraska farmers are feeling the continued pressure of low crop prices. In some areas in Nebraska, storms and other disaster conditions limited crop production. This disaster assistance will help farmers get by until conditions improve," Bowen added.

For more information or to complete an application, farmers should contact their local Farm Service Agency office.

In Allen Ag symposium to be held

All area farmers are invited to attend the second annual Northeast Nebraska Ag Symposium to be held Tuesday, Feb. 15 at the Fire Hall in Allen.

The free event begins at 9:30 a.m.

Special guest speakers include Merlyn Carlson, Director of the Nebraska Department of Agriculture, John Nelson from Producers Livestock Marketing Association in Sioux City, Iowa, Rob Robertson and Larry Zimmerman from the Nebraska Farm Bureau.

Topics are designed to be timely and informative. Robertson will also provide an update on introduced legislation and its ramifications on Nebraska farmers and ranchers.

"We are delighted that Mr. Carlson can participate, given his very busy schedule," said Paul Stewart, Dixon County Farm Bureau President.

A free lunch will be provided by the sponsoring organizations.

Conclusion of the day's activities is slated for 3:30 p.m.

Beef weigh-in planned

All 4-H'ers enrolled in the market beef project for 2000, be sure to mark Saturday, Feb. 12 on your calendars. The Dixon County beef weigh-in is scheduled from 9 to 11 a.m. at the Laurel Sale Barn in Laurel.

At the weigh-in, each market animal will be weighed, tagged and noseprinted. FFA market beef animal exhibitors that will be exhibiting at the Dixon County Fair should bring their animals to be noseprinted and weighed too (their ID tags are available from their FFA instructors). Please contact the Dixon County Extension Office at (402) 584-2234 if you have any questions. In case of inclement weather listen to KTCH 104.0 FM/1590 AM.

COMBINATION KIDS 4-H CLUB

The Combination Kids 4-H club met Jan. 16 at the Red Cross office in the Mineshaft Mall of Wayne.

The club members came with their project suggestions and filled out project reports and added their new one for this coming fair.

Also discussed was to have a pizza/bowling party for the 4-H'ers and their families in March.

Demonstrations and refreshments were provided by the Temmes and Andersons.

The next meeting will be Sunday, Feb. 20 at 1 p.m. in the Red Cross office. Ekbergs and Gansboms will serve.
