Organ designed to be enjoyed by community

By Clara Osten
Of the Herald

Although he never actually got to play it, the organ ordered by Antony Garlick before his untimely death is ready to be enjoyed by those he left behind.

Antony "Tony" Garlick, a professor of Music at Wayne State College for nearly 40 years, died unexpectedly on Feb. 14. For several months before his death he had been making arrangements for an addition to his house and the installation of an organ in that room.

The electronic organ was tailor-made by the Johannus Company in Ede, Netherlands and delivered to Wayne approximately three weeks after Tony's death. The vice-president of the company came to Wayne to help insure correct installation of the organ and its speaker system.

"The organ was custom built for Tony and includes the latest technology and different sounds," said his wife, Fiorella.

While no one in Tony's immediate family can play the organ, the family would like to have those in the community enjoy it.

On June 14, Fiorella's birthday, a special Mass was held in the room containing the organ. The room and the organ were blessed.

On Aug. 10 the organ was played for the first time when one of Tony's former students, R. Harrison (Harry) Kelton, Ph.D. presented an organ recital.

Kelton is the son of Ray and Barbara Kelton of Wayne. He is an Associate Professor of Humanities at Suffolk University in Boston, Mass.

Kelton performed a number of different musical pieces, including four composed by Tony.

Among Tony's works are 15 symphonies and works composed for all types of orchestra instruments as well as vocal pieces.

Creighton University will perform Garlick's Fifth Symphony next spring.

Prior to his death, Tony was working on a piece of music for a student. It was titled, "All that I Was."

Tony wrote music for everyone and his church music has been played throughout the world.

Although he enjoyed a number of types of music, Fiorella said music from the Baroque period was his favorite. He would often improvise on music he played, creating his own unique style.

"Music was Tony's life. He never stopped playing," Fiorella said. She added that he played the organ daily following his retirement in 1997, often using the organ at Grace Lutheran Church.

He spent his life playing and composing and played the organ at all types of occasions. He visited churches and played the organ wherever he went.

Antony was born in Sheffield, England and both his grandfather and great-grandfather were church organists. He followed in their footsteps, playing the organ in a number of churches throughout his life.

Antony attended the Royal College of Music in London as a young man and later traveled to Rome, Italy to continue his education.

There he was a student of Fernando Germani, organist of the Vatican and professor of organ. He was admitted to the Conservatorio di Santa Cecilia where he studied for five years. He received the degree of maestro di musica, the highest award offered in music.

Shortly after his marriage to Fiorella in June of 1954, the couple moved to Canada where Tony became the organist of one of Toronto's Episcopalian churches and completed the degree of master of music in musicology at Toronto University.

Wayne State Habitat for Humanity to host camp out

Wayne State College Habitat for Humanity members will host a cardboard city camp out across the street from Conn Library on campus, Sept. 13.

Students will begin to set up around 6 p.m. and will spend the night until 7 a.m. The group welcomes the public to join in the camp out, to watch or to build their own cardboard shelter to sleep in that evening.

Individuals are encouraged to bring blankets or cardboard to donate or to use that evening. Anyone participating should remember to dress for the weather.

"The camp out raises awareness for Habitat for Humanity and makes the community realize that substandard housing is an issue even in Nebraska. It also makes people realize that there is something they can do about it," said Christina Rutten of Norfolk, WSC Habitat for Humanity chapter president.

Dedicated to eliminating poverty housing, Habitat for Humanity International is an ecumenical Christian ministry founded by Millard Fuller and his wife, Linda.

The Habitat organization has 1,916 affiliates in 64 nations. The group has built and sold more than 80,000 homes to partner families at no profit with zero-interest mortgages.

In addition to the campout, WSC Habitat for Humanity members are planning a work day to move dirt and paint on location in Norfolk in connection with the Northeast Community College chapter. Other activities the WSC group coordinates with Northeast are Christmas and Easter activities for approximately 19 Norfolk children who are living in homes built through Habitat for Humanity.

Students also plan trips through Collegiate Challenge, a year-round program, coordinated through the Campus Chapters and Youth Programs department at Habitat for Humanity International in Americus, Ga.

Rutten was among four WSC students who spent their spring break in Austin, Texas building houses through Habitat for Humanity's Collegiate Challenge program.

The students worked with the Austin Habitat for Humanity organization from March 4 to 11.

WSC Habitat for Humanity advisor Mark Hammer said students are often able to meet future homeowners.

One of the future owners helped work on the home that Rutten worked on.

"It was a great experience of being able to be a part of something that makes a difference," Rutten said. "It makes you face reality to meet the people who are directly involved and help them work on their home. It was great to see her enthusiasm and work with her."

Rutten said her chapter is starting to plan another trip.

"The extra organizations like Habitat for Humanity that I have been involved in at Wayne State have helped make a difference in my education. I'm able to participate in more than academics," Rutten said.

Rutten has been involved in Habitat for Humanity for two years. She is a junior majoring in secondary education - math with an English endorsement. She also participates in Kappa Mu Epsilon national math honor society and campus band.

Rutten serves as a math peer tutor. She is the daughter of Jim and Jeanette Rutten of Norfolk.

Matt Wachter, Deb Harm and Marilyn Yates gather during the final stages of their woodworking projects at Wayne State College.

Community members to craft woodworking skills

An adult, non-credit woodworking class will be offered this fall at Wayne State College. The class will meet 10 times on Sundays from 2 to 4:30 p.m. beginning Sept. 17 and ending Dec. 3. Cost for the class is $100 (plus materials).

The course will be taught by WSC faculty members Dr. John Renzelman, Dr. Larry Claussen and Greg Vander Weil.

"This class is being offered because of the positive response to one taught last spring," said Renzelman.

In that class, more than a dozen community members spent their Sundays at Wayne State College creating custom projects. Some of the topics covered included safety, new techniques and tools. Individual instruction, including a variety of available finishing techniques were provided to help students successfully complete their projects. Among the Wayne individuals who were involved in the class were Deb Harm, Marilyn Yates and Matt Wachter.

Harm's project was a TV armoire. Her favorite aspect of gathering for class each Sunday was the social quality.

"I wanted to get to know other people on campus. I enjoyed it. It was fun and a good way to meet other people. The instructors were very encouraging. Dr. Larry Claussen took me under his wing," she said.

An applied science professor at WSC, Claussen said the reaction from people taking the class was very positive. He said people also enjoyed the flexible atmosphere of the class. "You know going into it (the class) that not everyone is going to be able to make every session," Claussen said.

Yates selected an end table as her project. "I loved it," she said. "It was the first time I had done something like this. I learned how to use all the equipment. I also learned how easy and how difficult wood-working can be. The most enjoyable part of the process was when the assembly began and I saw its potential."

Wachter, a 1998 WSC graduate with a degree in drafting communications, chose to build a cedar chest with a leaded stained glass inlay.

"The project was something that I had promised to my wife since before we were married," Wachter said. "I couldn't afford not to take the class. I enjoy woodworking. I couldn't pass up having access to all the college woodworking equipment. This is my first project since high school."

Dolata's woodcarving talent to be included in national magazine

A soon-to-be released specialty magazine, "Better Homes and Gardens Santa Claus 2000 Collector's Edition," will feature the wood carving talent of a former Wayne resident, Bob Dolata.

The magazine, which has a circulation of approximately 600,000, will be available only at newsstands in mid-September.

Bob and his wife Pat were residents of Wayne for 19 years before relocating to Iowa in 1992. His talent earned him several awards, most recently at the International Wood Carvers Congress competition in Bettendorf, Iowa where he earned one third place and two fifth place exhibitor awards. Two other entries were purchased.

Bob's hobby has developed into a career. He presently owns and operates The Linden Tree in Fort Dodge, Iowa. The business features custom wood carvings for all occasions and is an exclusive dealership for Flexcut™ Carving Tools. He also holds classes to instruct others in the art of wood carving.

Bob describes his artistic philosophy as he studies a selected piece of wood for carving as "it's in there!"

His specialty is realistic human figures and among his favorites are Old World Santas. However, his latest unique, bark-covered Santas and lighthouses are becoming very popular.

Most of Bob's work is commissioned. A few select carvings are in the process of being made available for reproduction. He does offer annually a limited edition Christmas ornament which he designs and creates from wood, has reproduced in resin, paints himself, then signs and dates them.

Dolata and his wife have two children, Mary Pat and Randy Schuster and Michael (age 18). They also have one grandson, Kaley May Schuster.

Bob Dolata

Dolata took up wood carving as a hobby in 1984 while living in Wayne. He served as President of the Northeast Nebraska Wood Carvers in Norfolk for several years.

Organ

"My father was a prolific composer and his works are primarily related to church music," said Tony's son, Marco.

Although a number of Tony's works have been published, Marco said that there are many more that are unpublished.

"My father will be remembered through the students he worked with. He taught thousands of students," Marco said.

Marco added that he hopes to get more of his father's works published and preserved for the future.

In addition, he hopes his 10-year old daughter, Bianca, who is currently playing the piano, will someday carry on the Garlick tradition by playing the organ her grandfather never got a chance to enjoy.

An addition to the Garlick home provides a place for the new organ, its speaker system and recordings of some of Antony's compositions.

Ear Infection? Don't Fly

Doctors generally recommend that if you have a middle ear infection you should not travel by air until two weeks after treatment has begun. If you have a middle ear infection, the tubes become blocked and the drums are stiffened by inflammation, changes that interfere with pressure adjustments in the middle ear. Air travel can cause ear damage to structures in the middle ear, and it can rupture the ear drum.

The Principal's Office

by Dr. Don Zeiss, Wayne High Principal

Year is off to a good start

The 2000-01 school year is upon us. The weather cooperated allowing full attendance.

Enrollment at the high school is 333 students. Average class size is 83 students, with the freshman and senior classes the largest with 88 and 89 students, respectively.

New computers in the new addition will be on line in the near future. Memory updates for classroom computers are also being completed. The building has been completely recabled for faster and additional computer usage.

Several new classes have been added to the high school art curriculum, including painting, sculpture and graphic arts.

Most notable increases in class enrollment occur in elective courses such as Spanish, Physics, Choir and Art.

The building has taken on a new look at the new addition, ceiling fans added to the commons and additional girls' locker room space.

Teaching staff returned Aug. 17 and students on Aug. 21.

Fall sports practice began Aug. 14 with girls' golf competition beginning on Aug. 26, cross country and volleyball on Aug. 31 and football on Sept. 1.

A salute to our custodial staff for their efforts this summer, particularly with the new addition.

We look for a great 2000-2001 school year!

Attendance Counts

Want a surefire way to help your teen get off to a super start this school year?

Encourage him to attend school. Kids who go to class regularly are more likely to graduate. Try these tips:

- Show how learning relates to real life. If your teen thinks a skill is useful, he's more likely to learn it. Example: Planning a vacation draws on research skills.

- Tell your child not to skip a class just because he's struggling. Tell him you'll arrange for tutoring or other help.

- Find out your school's attendance policy. Let the school office know you'd like to be alerted if your teen skips class.

Another project being undertaken by the group is providing a newsletter, "KindNews" to students in second and fourth grade at Wayne Elementary School. The publication is sponsored by Wayne Agri Service and the Wayne Veterinary Clinic and provides information and activities on proper pet care.

Donations are being accepted by the group to help with the cost of food for the animals and veterinary care.

The group also has plans for a number of fundraisers to help build a shelter for the dogs. A bake sale and Pampered Chef fund-raiser will be held later this fall.

The group meets the second Thursday of each month at 7:30 p.m. at Our Savior Lutheran Church.

Capitol News Campaigns are upon us and political life is a stage

By Ed Howard
Statehouse Correspondent
The Nebraska Press Association

It is upon us. 'Tis the season of the reaal campaigns. Now is the time when the combatants begin to do their thing in earnest.

And, sometimes, it's a hoot. Most consultant-driven political campaigns are designed to separate the wheat from the chaff - and then concentrate on the chaff.

A campaign like, say, the one for the U.S. Senate, is like a play in several acts. It is part drama and part comedy. Enjoy the comedy part. It usually borders on farce, or actually crosses the border, and it's central to enjoyment of the overall plot.

Campaigns, like most theatre, have elements that have become predictable over the years, but they are still enjoyable.

The first such business to come our way this season featured Democratic candidate Ben Nelson who, while trying to upstage GOP opponent Don Stenberg, nonetheless endeavored to put him on the spot. Nelson rolled out one of political theatre's tried and true, though time-worn, vehicles, last week. It was the old "Look at what he said, look at what he said!" routine. This involves digging up some public statements made by one's opponent months or years ago, and doing the old "Gotcha!" thing.

Stenberg will no doubt have time and opportunity to use the same audience-pleaser down the road, but Nelson got to it first this time, to wit:

You know that Stenberg is beating the Bush with U.S. Sen. Chuck Hagel, and sometimes with Gov. Mike Johanns, talking about the "Bush, Hagel, Stenberg team." It's the old "I'm with them, so I'm okay" thing - kind of like trying to slide past a doorman on the coattails of someone who is in the band.

The thing is, Stenberg ran against Hagel for a Republican nomination to the Senate a few years ago. Remember?

So, as Hagel and Stenberg travel about saying good things about one another and all they have in common now, Nelson is sending out news releases on what they said about one another then.

Some examples: In 1996 Stenberg called Hagel a "closet liberal" (Omaha World Herald 1/16/96) and said Hagel was the "candidate of the East Coast establishment and big Omaha money" (Lincoln Journal Star, 5/3/96). He accused Hagel of "trying to buy the election" and of being a carpetbagger, charging "You couldn't get elected governor of Virginia so you came back here and tried to buy a Senate seat" (Lincoln Journal Star, 5/9/96).

Nelson noted that "Hagel was quick to return fire. He called Stenberg a 'career politician'" (Nebraskans Ask, 4/11/96), observing "I'm the only one in this race who is not using one office to get another." (Lincoln Journal Star, 4/12/96).

Stenberg also had some choice words for Johanns back then, after Johanns endorsed Stenberg.

"Mike Johanns would be an excellent person to serve as chairman of 'Liberals for Hagel'" (Omaha World Herald, 4/11/96).

Of course, Team Stenberg did what any campaign with sense would do about this: Completely ignore it, unless it comes up in front of a camera. The SOP (standard operating politics) for such situations is to laugh it off - and remember not to hold the plane if that pain-in-the-neck reporter should be late next time.

Stenberg's campaign has researchers and other workers every bit as dedicated as the Nelson bunch, so we anticipate some of the "Look at What Ben Said!" business down the road. We will bring it to you with the same fullness with which we conveyed Nelson's effort.

In the meantime, relax. The show has just begun.

Fashions from the past to be featured at style show

"Baby, You've Got Style" is the theme for the fifth annual Wayne Hospital Auxiliary Style Show planned for Sunday, Sept. 10.

This year's style show will be held in the Frye Conference Room of the Student Center at Wayne State College. Activities begin at 2 p.m.

Yesterday's Lady, Susan McClain of York will bring her vintage collection of clothing from the 1930's, 40's and 50's. The clothing will be modeled by members of the hospital staff and other members of the community.

Master of ceremonies for the show will be Mark Ahmann.

Refreshments and dessert will be served.

Tickets are $15 each or $100 per table.

Proceeds from this year's style show will go toward the purchase of a Baby Fetal Monitor to be used at Providence Medical Center.

According to Karen Kwapiński, Assistant Director of Nursing at PMC, two of the monitors currently owned by the hospital are relatively old and new models can provide additional information about the baby to hospital staff. The monitors are used in the birthing room at the hospital prior to delivery of the baby.

In addition to the style show, a raffle will be held during the show.

Three items will be raffled, a queen size quilt, an afghan and a porcelain baby doll.

The quilt was pieced and quilted by members of the Piecemakers Quilt Guild.

The afghan was crocheted by Louise Jenness who has contributed an afghan each year for a number of years.

An anonymous donor contributed the doll, named "Danielle," made by J & J Dolls of Nixa, Mo.

The Wayne Hospital Auxiliary will not be holding its annual November Bazaar this fall.

Tickets for the style show may be purchased at various local businesses. They will also be available at the door.

Raffle tickets will also be available for purchase the day of the show. For more information, call (402) 375-4307.

Letters

Explanation of EMS care is given

Dear Editor,
This letter is in response to the recent letter to the editor of the Wayne Herald from Marcile Thomas, Administrator of Providence Medical Center.

Marcile's letter was written in response to current criticism and scrutiny of the hospital and its ambulance service. I feel Marcile's letter misinformed and was misleading to the communities that this paper serves.

As a current Firefighter/EMT and RN/Paramedic student, I feel that the misrepresentation Marcile projected of EMT's Paramedics and Flight Crews, in the pre-hospital setting around the Wayne area could cause a loss of confidence regarding the capabilities of local Volunteer Fire and Rescue Squads, Paramedics and Flight Crews.

The letter written by Marcile was done so without the full knowledge of what area First Responders, EMT's, Paramedics (ALS) and Flight Crews (ALS) have as their protocols, education and skills for pre-hospital care. It also should be known amongst staff at Providence Medical Center or any care center, that these volunteers are the "eyes, ears, nose and feelings" from a scene, for the on-line medical physicians who will be assuming the care of the patient when he/she arrives at the appropriate care facility. As we have been trained, the injuries of a patient at a scene help to determine what appropriate care is needed. Not all hospitals are equal in emergency support service capabilities.

Hospital categorization identifies the readiness and capability of a hospital and its staff to receive and effectively treat emergency patients. Patients are to be taken to the appropriate care facilities: this meaning Traumas go to Trauma Centers that staff surgeons and x-ray technicians on the floor 24 hours a day; Burns go directly to Burn Units; Pediatric cases go to Pediatric Hospitals; Heart problems go to Cardiology Centers. This leaves the less major injuries or medical needs to local non-trauma hospitals.

Emergency Medical Service (EMS) personnel are trained, even at the Firefighter/Law Enforcement level, that at a Mass Casualty Incident (MCI), Trauma Scene or any call, that ALS (Advanced Life Support) is to be on stand-by. This is one of the first steps EMS personnel assess either enroute or upon arrival at the scene.

The first steps taken at a scene are assessment for additional Body Substance Isolation (BSI), Scene Safety, Number of Patients, Mechanism of Injuries (MOI) and the need for Additional ALS standby. When the ALS Units and Flight Crews come to a scene, they stabilize the patient at the scene prior to leaving and have the patient to the appropriate medical center within minutes of leaving the scene. Keeping us inside the "Golden Hour" of treatment. This means getting the patient to the necessary life saving surgeries, burn cares head-back-spine trauma cares faster than the unnecessary time used in non-trauma facilities that decrease a patient's chance of survival.

The squads in the smaller communities may be "Volunteer Squads," but these squads are manned with dedicated people who spend hours upon hours away from their families caring and responding to the many emergency calls received each year. In addition to the time away from our families we spend large amounts of our own money for required continued education and training.

State Certifications, which everyone is required to have prior to going on EMS calls, are extensive in all these fields. Many volunteers are at different levels, those suffering sudden illness or injuries. We work together as Team Members regardless of what level of certification we are at. No one component, no one person, is more important than another. Pre-hospital EMS care is a Total Team effort.

Feeling older?

I was browsing the Internet the other day and came across this article. I thought it was appropriate. Hope you reminisce and enjoy it as much as I did.

Beloit College — in an effort to help its faculty members understand freshmen — releases an annual "mindset list" to help professors think about what about what their new students have experienced, and have never experienced. This year's list, released today, notes that most members of the Class of 2004 were born in 1982, the year the Equal Rights Amendment was effectively defeated and C-SPAN started 24-hour coverage.

The complete list follows:

- Most students entering college this fall in the Class of 2004 were born in 1982.
- Grace Kelly, Elvis Presley, Karen Carpenter and the E.R.A. have always been dead.
- Curt Cobain's death was the "day the music died."
- Somebody named George Bush has been on every national ticket, except one, since they were born.
- The Kennedy tragedy was a plane crash, not an assassination.
- Huckleberry Finn has always been a "banned book."
- A "45" is a gun, not a record with a large hole in the center.
- They have no clue what the Beach Boys were talking about when they sang about a 409 and the Little Deuce Coupe.
- They have probably never lost anything in shag carpeting.
- M*A*S*H and The Muppet Show have always been in reruns.
- Punk rock is an activist movement, not a musical form.
- They have always bought telephones, rather than renting them from AT&T.
- The year they were born, the death toll from AIDS was in the hundreds, finding a cure for the new disease was designated a "top priority" for government-sponsored research.
- We have always been able to reproduce DNA in the laboratory.
- Wars begin and end quickly; peacekeeping missions go on forever.
- There have always been automated teller machines.
- The president has always addressed the nation on the radio on Saturday.
- We have always been able to receive television signals by direct-broadcast satellite.
- Cities have always been trying to ban the possession and sale of handguns.
- Watergate is as relevant to their lives as the Teapot Dome scandal.
- They have no idea that a "presidential scandal" once meant nothing more than Ronald Reagan taking President Jimmy Carter's briefing book in "Debategate."
- They have never referred to Russia and China as "the Reds."
- Toyotas and Hondas have always been made in the United States.
- There has always been a national holiday honoring Martin Luther King Jr.
- Three Mile Island is ancient history and nuclear accidents happen in other countries.
- Around-the-clock coverage of Congress and public affairs, weather reports and rock videos have always been available on cable.
- Senator Phil Gramm has always been a Republican.
- Women sailors have always been stationed on U.S. Navy ships.
- The year they were born, The New York Times announced that the "boom in video games," a fad, had come to an end.
- Congress has been questioning computer intrusion into individuals' personal lives since they were born.
- Bear Bryant has never coached at Alabama.
- They have always been able to afford Calvin Klein.
- Coors beer has always been sold east of the Mississippi, eliminating the need for Burt Reynolds to outrun the authorities in the Smokey and the Bandit films.
- They were born the same year that Ebony and Ivory lived in perfect harmony.
- The year they were born Dustin Hoffman wore a dress and Julie Andrews wore a tuxedo.
- Elton John has only been heard on easy-listening stations.
- Woodstock is a bird or a reunion, not a cultural touchstone.
- They have never heard a phone "ring."
- They have never dressed up for a plane flight.
- Hurricanes have always had men's and women's names.
- Lawn darts have always been illegal.
- "Coming out" parties celebrate more than debutantes.
- They only know Madonna singing American Pie.
- They neither know who Billy Joe was, nor wondered what he was doing on the Tallahatchie Bridge.
- They never thought of Jane Fonda as "Hanoi Jane," nor associated her with any revolution other than the "Fitness Revolution" videotape they may have found in the attic.
- The Osmonds are talk-show hosts.
- They have never used a bottle of Wite Out.
- If they vaguely remember the night the Berlin Wall fell, they are probably not sure why it was up in the first place.
- "Spam" and "cookies" are not necessarily foods.
- They feel more danger from having sex and being in school, than from possible nuclear war.

SENIORS

Eighteen Winside area Senior Citizens met on Aug. 28 for an afternoon of cards and card bingo. All August birthdays were honored with cake and ice cream. There was no meeting on Labor Day so the next gathering will be Monday, Sept. 11 for a noon pot luck dinner. All area seniors are welcome to attend.

TICKET WINNER

The Winside Scholarship Foundation sold over 900 chances on a "pair" of 2000 University of Nebraska Football Season Passes as a fundraiser for the organization. The lucky winner of the tickets was Winside resident Scott Watters.

The Foundation was offered the tickets by University of Nebraska Board of Regent representative Chuck Hassebrook of Lyons. Hassebrook offers schools in this area each year at face value to purchase tickets to use as a fundraiser for programs that provide college scholarships to promising students who might otherwise not be able to afford a college education.

The Winside Scholarship Foundation is most grateful to Hassebrook for this opportunity and also thankful to all the individuals who purchased chances on the tickets.

The Foundation was started in 1990 under the direction of Mr. Ron Leapley and awarded its first scholarship in 1991. Because of the continuing support of the community, as well as past residents and those who graduated in the Winside School system, six scholarships were awarded to members of the 2000 graduating class as well as two scholarships to past alumni now attending college. The number and amounts of the scholarships awarded is based on the interest earned on the principal of funds in the

Grape Seed Extract:
Powerful Antioxidant

Several nutrients have antioxidant activity, including vitamin A, beta-carotene, vitamin C and E, and the mineral selenium. Other materials from nature also contain antioxidants - chemicals that neutralize free radicals. Free radicals are highly reactive molecules that bind with and destroy body components. Aging and development of cancer and other diseases may be due in part to free radical activity. Antioxidant nutrients render free radicals nonreactive.

Grape seeds contain flavonoids - a group of antioxidants compounds. The flavonoids in grape seeds are referred to as procyanidol oligomers. The abbreviations PCO or OPC after are used for these specific flavonoids. OPCs are 20 times more potent than vitamin C and 50 times more potent than vitamin E in regard to antioxidant activity.

Studies have shown that grape seed extract can benefit all in improving circulation, particularly in the eye. In one study, persons with no retinal problems received 200 mg/day of OPC. After 7 weeks their visual performance had improved over a control group that did not receive OPC.

Winside loses home opener to Cougars

The Winside football team struggled out of the gates in the home opener last Friday against Lyons Decatur Northeast, falling by a 22-7 margin.

The visitors scored 14, first quarter points including a long drive on the opening possession and a punt return.

Winside cut the lead in half in the third quarter on a short scoring run by Eric Vanosdall but Lyons put the game on ice late in the fourth quarter on a fourth down and goal play from the 11-yard line which turned into a touchdown.

"I thought we made a solid showing on defense," coach Terry Bear said. "We stopped Lyons inside our 20-yard line, six times. Mike Deck did a great job of having everyone in position to make the play."

Bear said his team's new offensive scheme took some hits early but after some halftime adjustments, the Wildcats moved the ball better in the second half.

"We made a few bad decisions and had some unfortunate fumbles," Bear said. "We have a lot of things to iron out this week but I see a lot of good things for the future."

Vanosdall led the Wildcats with 62 yards rushing on 14 carries while Dustin Wade had 46 yards on 12 attempts.

Adam Hoffman was 5-10 through the air for 60 yards with Mike Deck and Justin Koch each catching two balls and Ben Lienemann, one.

Nathan Suehl paced the defense with 11 tackles while Tom Schwedhelm, Adam Hoffman and Mike Deck had five each.

Wayne falls to Norfolk but win at Columbus

The Wayne girls golf team fell to Norfolk in dual action last Thursday at Eldorado Hills in Norfolk, 166-183.

Norfolk's Mary Johnson posted a 38 on the par 35 course for medalist honors.

Wayne's Amy Harder posted a 40 to lead the Blue Devils while Kari Harder notched a 44 for second on the team.

Monica Novak carded a 47 and Katie Nelson, 52 while Karla Keller finished with a 53.

Wayne's JV team also fell to the Panthers, 184-211. Lindsay Stoltenberg led Wayne with a 47 while Megan Summerfield and Kari Mitchell each carded 54's. Mary Boehle fired a 56 and Kelly Mitchell, 66.

Winside defenders force a fumble at the hands of Lyons Decatur Northeast last Friday night. At right, Aaron Hoffman tips this fourth down pass attempt away in the endzone, thus giving the Wildcats the ball back.

'Cats defeated 44-3 at UNK

WSC opens football season with loss

By Jason Sturek
For the Herald

The Wayne State football team opened its 2000 season in Kearney last Thursday night with a 44-3 loss to the 25th ranked Lopers.

The University of Nebraska-Kearney proved to be too much for the Wildcats in the second half, scoring 30 unanswered points.

In the first half, WSC was down just 7-3 with under two minutes remaining. With 53 seconds left, Justin Coleman of UNK connected on a 30 yard pass to Trevor Weston and the Lopers never looked back. UNK collected a safety as the second quarter expired.

Standout WSC running back Elroy Brown was held to just 21 yards of rushing, greatly diminishing the Wildcat attack in the process. The Lopers were prepared for his presence.

The game marked Scott Hoffman's official inauguration as the new Wayne State football coach. His team was performing against a squad that Coach Hoffman spent twelve years with, as a graduate assistant, an assistant coach, and for three seasons as the offensive coordinator.

According to Hoffman, mistakes at unfortunate moments led to a bulk of the UNK scoring and was the achilles heel of the team. Two special teams plays helped to unravel the Wildcats' chances.

Leading the WSC ground attack was Elroy Brown with 21 yards on 20 carries and Bryce Teager with 16 yards on eight carries.

Receiving leaders for the Wildcats were Tavaris Johnson with four receptions for 68 yards, including a 38 yarder. Damon Ruffin caught three passes for 38 yards.

Quarterback Brandon Lavaley was 10 of 19 passing for a total of 129 yards. He was sacked three times.

Sophomore Eric Kjar was 4 of 13 passing for the Wildcats with 40 yards and one interception.

Loper standout quarterback Justin Coleman completed 17 of 27 passes for 285 yards and was picked off twice. Coleman only gave up seven interceptions all of last season.

Trevor Weston of UNK led all receivers with 10 receptions for 193 yards and three touchdowns.

WSC scoring was limited to a 52 yard field goal by Nate Hale midway through the first quarter. His 48 yard attempt in the second quarter was blocked.

The Wildcats had 12 first downs compared with 23 for the Lopers. Time of possession went to WSC with 35:23 compared with UNK's 24:37. By balancing the offense the new coaching staff has managed to keep the ball in Wildcat hands throughout the contest.

Defensively, WSC was led by Nate Herbst with seven tackles. Four were unassisted. Ashley Toussaint had six tackles, all unassisted.

Antonio Jackson also managed six unassisted tackles, one for a two yard loss. Dennile Chambliss picked off two passes in the game.

Isaac Coleman of UNK led all tacklers with 12. Five of his were unassisted. The Lopers intercepted two passes.

Hoffman said the defense tried several different looks. He added that UNK veteran quarterback Justin Coleman was quick to pick up the various defensive sets and that was key to the Loper's success.

The Wildcat rush forced four sacks on the home team.

Wayne State will face South Dakota State on Saturday. SDSU is ranked in the top twenty in Division II and have a highly respected running back in their arsenal. Josh Ranek rushed for 231 yards and had 73 yards in receptions in a 59-31 victory over the Wildcats last season.

The Wildcats will be taking on the Jackrabbits in Brookings. Kick-off is scheduled for 1 p.m.

Wayne gridders beat Tekamah

The Wayne Blue Devils football team opened the 2000 season with a 28-7 thumping of Tekamah Herman last Friday night in Tekamah.

John Murtaugh watched his team rack up 270 yards on the ground while only throwing four passes.

Senior Trevor Wright rambled for 146 yards on 18 carries to highlight the Blue Devils ground attack.

It was the defense that hit paydirt first for Wayne as Brad Hochstein picked off a Tekamah pass and sprinted 30 yards to the endzone.

Wright gave Wayne a 14-0 lead after the first quarter with an 11-yard scamper.

Wayne scored twice more in the second quarter as Ethan Mann caught a six-yard pass from Hochstein and Wright darted in from four yards out to give the visitors a 28-0 halftime cushion.

The Blue Devils put it on cruise control in the second half for the 28-7 victory.

"I was pleased with our team effort," Murtaugh said. "Our offensive and defensive lines did a great job controlling the line of scrimmage."

Adam Jorgensen ran for 81 yards on 11 carries to offset Wright's 146-yard performance.

"Trevor and Adam did a nice job on both sides of the ball," Murtaugh added. "They made some big tackles and they both ran the ball very hard."

Wright led the defensive charge with 12 tackles with Adam Jorgensen and Tyler Jorgensen each netting nine tackles. Jason Beiermann finished with eight stops and he also recovered a fumble.

Hochstein was 2-3 in passing for 31 yards with Shane Baack going 0-1.

Wayne will debut at home on Friday night against West Point in a 7 p.m. kickoff.

WSC volleyball team wins two in Sioux City

By Kevin Peterson
Of the Herald

Sharon Vanis' Wayne State volleyball team improved to 3-5 on the season after a 2-1 showing at the Morningside Tournament last Saturday in Sioux City.

The 'Cats lone loss came at the hands of South Dakota in the opener in straight games, 10-15, 3-15, 11-15.

It was the second straight loss to the Coyotes in four days. "They (USD) are a hard team to play because of the slower pace of play they possess," Vanis said. "They are a much improved team from a year ago."

WSC didn't help themselves much however, hitting a dismal .085 kill percentage. The kill percentage is equivalent to a batting average in baseball.

Plus, the 'Cats suffered nine receiving errors. "It just wasn't a good match for us," Vanis added.

Lindsey Koch tallied eight kill spikes with Rayna Nelsen adding seven and Jessie Erwin six. Kasey Meyer netted 24 set assists.

Heather Schuller led the team in serving with three aces while Koch was the defensive specialist with seven digs while Schuller had six.

WSC snapped out of its dismal playing shell in match two with a 16-14, 15-7, 15-13 win over a solid Quincy squad.

The winners had three hitters in double figures in kills led by Rayna Nelsen with 13 and Lindsey Koch with 12 while Jessie Erwin netted 10. Nelsen was 19-22 in hitting with 13 aces for an impressive .455 percentage.

Kasey Meyer tallied 38 set assists and defensively, Erwin led the way with 12 digs while Kyla Batten and Lindsey Koch had nine each.

Nelsen led the defensive charge at the net with seven total blocks while Kasey Meyer had five.

"We were down 8-1 to Quincy in the first game and coming off the USD loss," Vanis said. "The girls just turned it around and did so many things right from there on out."

WSC defeated the host team in match three, 15-12, 15-7, 15-10. Once again it was a balanced attack with four 'Cats in double figures in kills with Nelsen leading the way with 14 while Koch and Linsey Boehm had a dozen each and Erwin, 11.

Nelsen was 24-26 in hitting with a .462 hitting percentage. Freshman Linsey Boehm was 16-20 with a .400 kill percentage.

Kasey Meyer quarterbacked the team to the tune of 38 set assists and freshman Heather Schuller notched five service aces to lead the 'Cats.

Defensively, WSC was led by Koch and Erwin with 14 digs each while Meyer had 11.

Lindsey Koch made the all-tournament team.

"We played very well in our last two matches," Vanis said.

Trojans lose to Pirates in home opener

The Wakefield football team was shut out in week one at home against Emerson-Hubbard by a 23-0 margin.

Justin Smith's team played solid defense, allowing just 140 yards of total offense, but costly turnovers and penalties hurt the Trojans.

Emerson-Hubbard scored points in each quarter, leading 10-0 at the half and 16-0 after three periods of play.

"We knew going into the game the team with the fewest turnovers and penalties would win and we had the most in both," Smith said. "We had 10 penalties for 90 yards and two fumbles. When ever we would get something going we seemed to shoot ourselves in the foot."

Wakefield managed just 98 total yards on offense. Luke Hoffman ran for 30 yards and Nate Nicholson, 26 yards while Toan Nguyen tallied 20 and Joel McAfee, eight.

Ross Hansen was 2-9 through the air for 32 yards with Ty Nixon and Nicholson each catching one pass.

Amber Nelson stays ahead of her competition to place fifth in the first cross country meet of the season.

117. Crofton won the team event with 26 points.

Kevin Boelter led Winside with a 13th place finish of 19:29 while Josh Sok was 33rd in 21:22. Nathan Staub was 41st in 22:13 and Brandon Suehl, 50th in 22:56.

In the girls race Winside did not field a full team but individually, Laurie Deck placed fourth in 16:50 while Kayla Bowers was 17th in 18:50. Cassie Anderson finished 38th in 21:15.

The Bears were led by Kate Harder with a ninth place finish in 17:57 while Amber Haahr was 12th in 18:30. Sarah Kneiff finished 23rd in 19:20. Bridgett Haahr, Mollie Stapleman and Sarah Stark also competed.

WSC 4-0 on soccer field

The Wayne State Women's soccer team is off to dominant start in the 2000 season.

Coach Justin Cole has stood by and watched his team clobber all four opponents this season, putting up 39 goals to opponents' zero.

His team has outshot opponents 200-9.

Last Thursday Augustana left the WSC Soccer Field with a 12-0 loss.

Leading the Wildcats offensively was Sarah Herrick, Bria Cunard, Mary McDaniel, and Sarah Lund. Each of the ladies scored two goals.

Also scoring for the Wildcats was Jackie Arnold, Abbey Kalblinger, Alana Pfeffer, and Brea Rath with one goal apiece.

Over half the team dished out assists in the contest. Herrick, Kalblinger, and Lund each had two.

As a team, WSC outshot Augustana 48-3. The Cats simply never let Augustana within scoring range.

Over 200 hundred fans flocked to the soccer field for the afternoon match.

Cole said, "Our crowd was awesome. They came out in full force and made their presence felt. They helped give us a true homefield advantage."

He added, "I hope we can continue to get that type of support all season. The ladies certainly played with an extra bounce - and I think that was a big part of it."

Grand View traveled to Wayne State on Saturday, dropping a 7-0 defeat to the Wildcats.

Mary McDaniel and Alana Pfeffer had two goals apiece in the victory. Sarah Herrick added a goal and three assists to her season stats.

Sarah Lund managed a goal and an assist. Bria Collins rounded out the scoring with one goal. Jackie Arnold, Becky Woelfel, Brenne Abshier, Alana Collins, and Nikki Field all had assists.

"We came out a little flat in the first half, but finished the half strongly," Cole said. "It took us a while to adjust to their defensive style, but the ladies continue to improve with each contest."

On Tuesday, WSC pounced on Sioux Falls 12-0.

Cunard, Woelfel, and Kalblinger each had two goals. Sarah Herrick assisted on three goals and added one.

Sara Zimmer, Mary McDaniel, Brinne Abshier, Nikki Field, and Sarah Lund scored a goal apiece.

The 12 goals against Sioux Falls and Augustana are a school record.

"I really like the unselfishness I've seen with this team," Cole said.

To go four games without giving up a goal is a strong tribute to the defensive players, according to Cole.

Wayne State takes its 4-0 record on the road against the University of Nebraska-Omaha on Saturday. The match will begin at 1 p.m.

Wildcats defeat Battle Creek

Winside's volleyball team went 1-1 at a very strong Battle Creek Triangular last week.

Terri Moser's Wildcats defeated the host team, 10-15, 15-6, 15-12 in the first match as Julie Jacobsen pounded out 16 kill spikes.

Jacobsen was 16-16 in serving with three aces and she was 51-52 in setting with 13 assists.

Ashley Hoffman was 43-43 in setting with 16 assists and netted six kill spikes while Jennie Cleveland had four kill spikes.

Cleveland was 10-10 in serving with three aces and Amy Rademacher was 4-5 with three aces while Heather Rabe was 16-17.

Defensively, Winside was led by Cleveland with 10 digs while Jessica Wade had nine and Heather Rabe, eight.

Winside got seven ace serves in the second set to propel them to the win but found themselves down by an 11-4 margin in the third set before battling back for the win.

"This was a good win for us," Moser said. "It's always good to start the season with a win."

Winside bowed out to a very good Elkhorn Valley team, 5-15, 15-4, 12-15.

"We came out flat against Elkhorn Valley," Moser said. "We just couldn't get our momentum in that first set."

Moser said the third set was very tight the entire way. "I was very pleased with our effort," Moser added. "The girls worked hard all summer and we feel we are well ahead of last year's pace at this time."

Moser complimented the back row play of Susan Wittler and Crystal Jaeger. "These two came off the bench and made some crucial defensive plays for us," Moser said.

Julie Jacobsen notched 11 kill spikes and was 11-12 in serving with one ace while recording six set assists.

Jessica Wade had five kills and Heather Rabe, four, while Jennie Cleveland netted three ace hits.

Ashley Hoffman was 46-48 in setting the ball with 11 assists and she was 8-8 in serving with one ace while Heather Rabe was 14-14 in serving and Jennie Cleveland, 8-8.

We plan many activities for our children throughout the school year. We have sponsored dances for the Junior High and High School, a Halloween party for the elementary kids, helped various teachers purchase items for their classroom, helped the music department raise money with a concession stand during the musical "The Wizard of Oz", and our big project is the Eagle Bucks store which is an incentive program that is currently for the elementary kids.

In the next year or so, we would like to have an incentive program for the junior high and high school students. To accomplish all of these projects it takes people and money. We have fund raisers throughout the year but we need more people to help and become involved with our students. A.C.E. meets the first Monday of every month at 7:00 p.m. at the school.

Our next meeting will be held Monday, Sept. 11 (due to Labor Day) at 7 p.m. Please attend and bring a friend. Potential Problems with Antibiotics

British physicians concerned about appropriate patient use of antibiotic medicines are participating in the National Health Service's antibiotics: Not a miracle cure! campaign. Noted concerns in England could be equally applicable in the US:

- Patients fail to take the full course of antibiotics prescribed for them. Drug-resistant forms of illnesses may result
- Patients forget to take antibiotics at the times prescribed.
- Some persons think they can share the antibiotics of others - or use an unfinished course of antibiotics for another illness.
- Patients experience adverse effects - ranging from unwrapped pregnancies due to decreased oral contraceptive effectiveness to overgrowth of yeast (thrush).

For advice on appropriate antibiotic use, talk with your pharmacist or physician.
