Voters go to polls in large numbers

By Clara Osten
Of the Herald

Sixty-three percent of Wayne County voters showed up at the polls on Tuesday to cast ballots in some of the tightest races in recent history.

A total of 3,935 voters cast ballots out of the 6,240 registered. Sixty-eight percent of voters in Winside turned out while Wayne's Third Ward had the lowest turnout with 46 percent.

While the country still waits for the outcome of the presidential race, local and area county officials have released their totals.

In Wayne County George Bush received 2,706 votes; Al Gore, 968; Harry Browne, 6; John Hagelin, 4; Ralph Nader, 112; Pat Buchanan, 33 and Howard Phillips, 3 votes.

Among the local contested races, challenger Don Buryanek defeated incumbent Jane O'Leary for a seat on the Wayne City Council in Ward Four by a margin of 358 to 282.

In the Third Ward in Wayne, Dennis Linster defeated Mark Leeper by a 255 to 40 vote.

Both First Ward Councilman Douglas Sturm and Second Ward Councilman Darrel Fuelberth were unopposed in the election.

On the state ticket, Douglas Cunningham defeated Bob Dickey for the District 18 Legislature seat by a margin of 7,546 to 5,809. Locally, Cunningham received 726 votes to Dickey's 546.

In the state-wide senate race, Ben Nelson defeated Don Stenberg. However, in Wayne County, Stenberg received 1,996 votes to Nelson's 1,815 votes.

In the race for the District 3 Congressional seat, incumbent Doug Bereuter easily defeated his opponents. He received 2,899 votes to Alan Jacobsen's 765 and David Connie Meyer, Sharolyn Biermann and Joni Tietz watch as the counting machine counts ballots following the close of the polls on Tuesday. More than 60 percent of Wayne County's registered voters cast ballots.

Winter Wonderland is planned

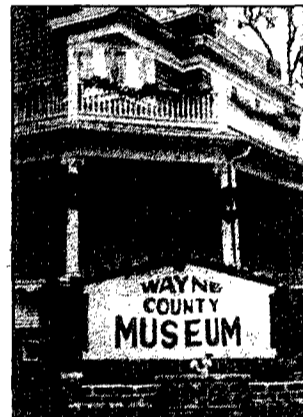

Planning has been underway for several months for "Winter Wonderland," a fund-raising event for the Wayne County Museum.

A group of individuals known as Friends of the Wayne County Museum will hold a Christmas Gala on Saturday, Nov. 25 from 6 to 9 p.m. at the museum at Seventh and Lincoln Streets in Wayne.

Members of the committee include Kaki Ley, Paula Schwarten, Jodie Jordan, Claudia Adams, Joann Proett, Lois Shelton, Marlene Broer and Loreta Tompkins.

"Winter Wonderland" will include rooms in the museum decorated by local talent.

They include the Wayne Greenhouse who will decorate the outside, entry, foyer and staircase, Jeannie Gaer and LeAnn Tremayne, the south Parlor, Tammy's Designs, the Music Room; Marla Austin, the Dining Room; Tracy Keating, the Nursery/Toy Room; Connie Endicott, the Wilma H. Johnson Room; Amy Schweers, Wayne County Room; Hollyberry Creek & Co., the Display Room and Women of Today, the West Bedroom and Bathroom.

The outside of the Wayne County Museum has already received some decorations in preparation for the Winter Wonderland Gala.

Members of the committee will be in charge of decorating the kitchen, butler's pantry and back staircase.

The formal affair will include wine and hors d'oeuvres. Invitations to the event may be purchased from any of the committee members. They're $15 each or $30 for couples.

In addition, those in attendance will be able to purchase a glass of champagne for $10. Each glass will have either a genuine diamond or cubic zirconium.

On Sunday, Nov. 26 an open house will be held at the museum. Free will donations will be accepted for the tour.

The museum, which was built in 1900 for Dr. W.C. Wightman and his family, is badly in need of a new roof and exterior paint. In addition, funding for heat, water and upkeep of the museum comes primarily from donations.

Each year the museum is open on Sundays from the end of May through September for visitors. In addition, tours may be conducted by appointment. This year, approximately 300 persons toured the house which was donated by the Rottley family to the city in 1976 for use as a museum.

For more information on "Winter Wonderland," contact Paula Schwarten at (402) 375-2525.

Main Street needs your help

"A Charlie Brown Christmas Park in downtown Wayne?" That's what the Main Street Wayne Promotion Committee is proposing for the Holiday Season—and they need your help!

The vacant lot between Edward Jones and Doeschers, the old Black Knight location, is being proposed as the site for the "Charlie Brown Christmas Park."

Individuals, families, school classes, church groups, organizations, businesses and most any group which has a creative flair and can design and build a Charlie Brown Christmas display or exhibit is invited to participate. Interest parties are encouraged to call the Main Street office at 402-375-5062 during normal office hours to share your Charlie Brown Christmas ideas and to reserve your space in the park. Electricity will be provided and each display or exhibit will remain the property of the designer/builder. The displays should be in place by Nov. 28 and can be dismantled on Jan. 4.

It is anticipated that the park will be open to the public for viewing from Nov. 28 through Jan. 2 and will be part of Main Street's "Christmas on the Main" celebration.

Date set for recall election

The Wayne City Council has set Tuesday, Dec. 12 as the date for a recall election for voters in Ward 1 of the City of Wayne.

The election will determine whether or not voters will remain in office. A petition drive to get enough signatures to call the vote.

Recall organizers need 158 signatures to seek the removal from office. The County Clerk's office has 123 signatures from registered voters, more than 105 needed to call an election.

The recall petition that Lutt has filed at the office, interfering with the parking ban contest, May 9 ballot and present the matter to the voters.

Only registered voters in the First Ward of Wayne will be eligible during the period which will include the election. The City Council of Wayne.

Support your local Red Cross chapter

The Wayne County Chapter of the American Red Cross is asking for the community's help in supporting their local Red Cross chapter.

"I have found through talking with various business people and others in the community that there is a misinterpretation that the Wayne Red Cross receives financial support from the National American Red Cross organization," said Lori Carollo, chapter manager at the

Wayne Red Cross. "We rely solely on donations and support from our local community to operate."

Although the Red Cross does receive support from the United Way ($2,000 for 2000-2001), it only represents about 6.5 percent of our annual budget of $32,000. The rest of that money needs to be raised by the chapter through the community.

Riley's Cafe will open by Thanksgiving

Serrae Braun has announced that she will open an Italian restaurant in the Riley's Cafe facility by Thanksgiving.

"I think northeast Nebraska folks will like having an Italian restaurant in Wayne, and of course, we will still have steaks and broasted chicken.

We have some renovating and decorating to do yet, get the contracts finalized and hire and train staff, but I expect that all to be done before Thanksgiving buffet," Jerrae said.

The buffet will be served from 11 a.m. to 2 p.m. and reservations are encouraged by calling 375-3795.

"I'm excited to have the Riley's facility — I know the community will be happy to see a new family restaurant open in Wayne. We will provide food and banquet services for Riley's Ballroom and Riley's Pub. Christina

She was preceded in death by her parents, husband Russell in 1990, three brothers and one sister.

Pallbearers were Larry "Butch" Carlson, Chuck Langenberg, Bill Carlson, Cal Dixon, Jim Atkins and Randy Bargholz.

Burial was in Greenwood Cemetery in Wayne. Schumacher-Hasemann Funeral Home in Wayne was in charge of arrangements.

Frances Ulrich

Frances (Langenberg) Ulrich, 84, of Norfolk died Monday, Oct. 30, 2000 at Faith Regional Health Services in Norfolk.

Services were held Thursday, Nov. 2 at the Community Bible Church in Norfolk. The Rev. George Heusinger and the Rev. Arlin Hess officiated.

Frances (Langenberg) Ulrich, daughter of William and Mary (Bauermeister) Langenberg, was born Dec. 7, 1915 at Hoskins. She attended public school at Hoskins and graduated from Norfolk High School. After graduating from Wayne State College she taught rural school in Wayne County, followed by appointments at Allen and Wisner. She concluded her long teaching career at Washington School in Sioux City, Iowa, retiring in 1977. On Dec. 29, 1959 she married Edwin F. Ulrich of Winside at Peace United Church of Christ near Norfolk. Her husband died suddenly in 1979. She was a member of the Northeast Nebraska Retired Teachers Association and a past member of Alpha Delta Kappa. She was an active church member in every community in which she lived. In Norfolk, she became an active member of Community Bible Church. She participated in the Ladies Bible Missionary Society, taught Sunday School and helped instruct students at Park Avenue Christian School.

Survivors include two step-sons, Dr. Richard and Angelica Ulrich of Bonaire, Ga. and Dr. Wesley and Beverly Ulrich of Mafraq, Jordan; one step-daughter, Mary and James Gustafson of Kiron, Iowa; one sister, Bernice Langenberg of Norfolk and one brother, Norris and Lolamaye Langenberg of Hoskins; nine grandchildren and seven great-grandchildren.

She was preceded in death by her husband, two adult sisters and a sister and brother in early childhood.

Burial was in Pleasantview Cemetery at Winside.

Anniversary of draft notice remembered

As the nation prepares to celebrate Veteran's Day, those who served this country are reminiscing about their military service.

On Oct. 27, 1950, a group of seven young men were among the first to be drafted from Wayne County. The Korean Conflict began in June of that year.

They included Harold Nelson, now living in Arvada, Col., Bob Roberts of Lincoln, Melvin Schroeder of Winslow, Ariz., Herb Brader of Oakland, Lowell Mann of Columbus, Dallas Cunningham, who is deceased and Bill Kugler of Wayne.

The men who were drafted ranged in age from 21 years to approximately 26 years of age.

The group left Wayne and went to Omaha for processing and then on to Ft. Riley, Kan. by train for nine days of testing.

From Ft. Riley, the men were then sent to Camp Polk, La. for basic training.

Following training the Wayne County soldiers were assigned to different branches of the 45th Infantry division with the Oklahoma National Guard. They were sent to an island in northern Japan for airborne and amphibious training. In December of 1951 they traded places with the 1st Calvary Division on the front lines in Korea.

Each of the men served the required time until rotation allowed them to return to the United States for leave or separation.

Distance has not allowed the Wayne County group to visit on a regular basis, although nearly all of the men still have ties to the Wayne area.

Scholarships available to Interlochen Art Camp

The top high school musicians around the country are invited to apply for an Emerson Electric Co. Scholars Award to the world-famous Interlochen Arts Camp in northern Michigan. One student from each state, the District of Columbia and Puerto Rico will receive a full scholarship for the 2001 Interlochen Arts Camp.

The scholarships are funded through a grant from St. Louis-based Emerson Electric Co.

The Emerson Electric Co. Scholars Award is a $4,665 scholarship, which provides full tuition, private lessons, and room and board for the eight-week summer program. Camp dates are June 17-Aug. 13, 2001.

Applicants must be in grades nine through 12 and be proficient on strings, winds, percussion instruments or harp. They must submit a taped solo performance with piano accompaniment with their application.

Applications must be postmarked by Feb. 15, 2001, and winners will be announced by April 15, 2001. Winners will be determined solely on merit.

Established in 1987, the Emerson Electric Co. Scholars Program recognizes exceptional high school musicians and gives them an opportunity to hone their talents in an environment that is recognized around the world as the premier training ground for young artists.

Interlochen Arts Camp was opened in 1928 by Dr. Joseph E. Maddy, a Kansas-born music educator who looked to Michigan's north woods for a permanent home for young musicians, actors, dancers, writers, and visual artists. The Camp is part of Interlochen Center for the Arts, which also operates Interlochen Arts Academy, the nation's premier fine arts high school; Interlochen Arts Festival, the annual presentation of more than 750 concerts, readings, plays and exhibits by students, faculty and guest artists; Interlochen Public Radio, and Interlochen Pathfinder School, a pre-K through eighth-grade school for students in the Grand Traverse region.

For more information, or to obtain an application, write the Emerson Electric Co. Scholars Program, Interlochen Center for the Arts, P.O. Box 199, Interlochen, MI, 49643. Call (231) 276-7472, or visit Interlochen online at www.interlochen.org.

Two public forums to be held in Wayne

The Common Ground Committee will sponsor two open public forums on the topic of "Town and Gown in Wayne: How Can We Make a Good Thing Better."

The first forum will be Monday, Nov. 13 at the Senior Citizen Center in the Public Library complex at 410 Pearl Street. The second will be held Monday, Nov. 20 in the northwest quadrant of the Frey Conference Room in the Student Center at Wayne State College.

Forums will be held from 7 to 9 p.m. on consecutive Monday evenings.

The Common Ground Committee is a group of concerned citizens and students who met twice in October to frame the above issue for deliberation. Four choices will be offered for consideration. They include:

- Choice #1 — better entertainment and recreation opportunities;
- Choice #2 — more cultural variety and awareness;
- Choice #3 — more economic growth and opportunity;
- Choice #4 — better bilateral communication.

After the pros and cons of the choices are considered, participants will look for common ground and positive tradeoffs among the choices.

All are welcome to attend both forums.

For more information, contact Chuck Parker at 375-7292.

Wayne's Red Cross chapter maintains the national agreement that 90 cents of every $1 donated goes directly to service the needs in the community.

"We send out three mailings a year - one in March during Red Cross month, one in August, and another one during the Holiday season," said Carollo. Our holiday mailing should be in people's homes the week of Nov. 20. The reason we do three mailings per year is to keep a regular flow of money coming into the chapter to help us continue to operate and serve. A large amount of our money is spent on disaster relief as well as health and safety training programs."

The American Red Cross is changing their entire Health and Safety programs beginning in January of 2001. This will mean that chapters will need to purchase all new manuals, books, videos, and other training materials. A major change is the AED (Automatic External Diffibulator) training. This training will be added to all CPR courses taught starting next year, including people who need to re-certify.

The people in Wayne are served by the Red Cross with the life-saving training they provide. If you or someone you love is injured or has a heart-attack, the more people trained to respond, the better chances for a successful outcome. Forty-one First Aid/CPR courses were offered to 281 people last year. They also train the lifeguards who watch over the community children at the pool during the summer and give Red Cross swimming lessons. Many parents in Wayne are assisted through the Red Cross "Learn to Swim" and other water-related programs. Last year the Wayne Red Cross offered 14 water safety instructor programs to 237 people.

A Babysitting class is also offered once a year and last year 10 girls were trained. A "BAT" (Basic Aid Training) course is available and is currently being taught to 4th graders in the Laurel school through the Wayne Red Cross chapter. The chapter would like to expand this program to other schools in the area.

The local Red Cross chapter also maintains a First Aid station at the Wayne County Fair every year. This is staffed by two registered nurses, along with many volunteers. Last August, 22 people were assisted with first aid at the fair.

This past fall, the chapter also maintained a first aid station at the Wayne State football games. Blood pressure screenings are done monthly at the Senior Citizen Center for no charge. And another registered nurse provides confidential HIV/AIDS consultations to individuals who inquire or need support.

The Wayne Community can also feel assured knowing that the Red Cross has a state-approved disaster plan in the case of a major disaster in Wayne County or the surrounding areas. They have shelters available at various areas in the community and have people trained to run those shelters if needed. The Disaster Chairman in Wayne is Loren Park and he has served many families who have been affected by fires over the last couple of years.

"The look of desperation, fear and loss that you see on people's faces is heartbreaking," said Park. "When you can put your arm around someone and reassure them that the Red Cross is here; that we will help and take care of them, you feel an unbelievable sense of pride."

Last year alone, the Red Cross responded to five single family fires which involved nine adults and seven children. They provide comfort kits that contain personal care items to every family member, as well as providing immediate shelter, clothing and food at absolutely no cost to the victims involved.

The Red Cross also has a program to offer free eyeglasses to victims who lose them in a disaster. However, that money comes from the donations the chapter receives. The money is usually filtered back into the community through the stores where the people buy their clothes and food, as well as the motels they stay in if needed.

The Wayne Red Cross chapter also offers disaster training courses at no cost. They do this to help train more individuals to be able to respond to a disaster as quickly as possible. The goal is to respond to an emergency within two hours after receiving a call.

The Wayne Red Cross relies solely on the financial support of local donations. The chapter manager, Lori Carollo, is available to speak to groups about the Red Cross and the important work that they do.

If there are any churches, public schools, college organizations or other groups who would like to contribute financially or plan a fund-raising event, the Red Cross would help in any way possible. You can call Mrs. Carollo during the morning hours at 375-5209 or stop by the Red Cross office located in the Mineshaft Mall on East 2nd Street in Wayne.

When you get your letter and envelope in the mail, please take the time to make a financial contribution to your local Red Cross chapter. Your donation stays right here in Wayne and does make a difference in the lives of many people.

The community of Wayne needs to recognize the importance of having a Red Cross chapter in Northeast Nebraska. Let's step up to the challenge and support it financially so that they can continue to "Be There When Help Can't Wait!"

Onbring's 77.

In the race for Public Service Commission, Lowell C. Johnson received 2,563 votes to Rich Hurley's 818 in Wayne County.

Chuck Hasebrook retained his position on the University of Nebraska Board of Regents, defeating Jeff Johnson by a margin of 2,199 to 1,146.

In Subdivision II of the Northeast Nebraska Public Power District, voters in Wayne County selected Donald R. Larsen and Thomas M. Gustafson for the position.

In Subdivision III of the district, Dan Loberg and Perry Backstrom received the largest number of votes in Wayne County. However, district-wide, voters chose Loberg and Dan Ganseboom over Backstrom and Larry Silhacek.

In Wakefield, Timothy J. Bebee,

(619) Mark Victor (583) and Stanly C. McAfee (579) were elected to the District #560 Board of Education. Others on the ballot included Lesa Jensen (356) and Terry L. Henschke (278).

In city council races in Wakefield, Gerald Muller defeated Terri Sampson by a vote of 158 to 134 to earn a spot on the council in Ward Two. In Ward One, Terry Baker defeated Debra Wert by a margin of 136 to 70 votes.

At Winside, Daniel L. Jaeger, (397) Jean Suehl (392) and Paul Roberts (377) were the top vote getters for the Board of Education in School District #95R. The other candidate in the election was Beverly A. Neel with 162 votes.

In the race for the Board of Education for the Allen Community Schools, Monte Roerber received 351 votes; Kent Sachau, 253; Aldon Klassen, 252; Debra Hrung, 234 and Gerald Stewart Jr., 203. There were three positions to fill.

Two initiatives were also on the ballot.

In Wayne County, Initiative 415 which implements term limits for state senators passed by a narrow margin, 1,744 to 1,677 against.

Initiative 416, also known as the Defense of Marriage Act was approved in Wayne County by an overwhelming majority. There were 2,826 votes (75.66 percent) cast for the initiative and 909 votes (24.33 percent) cast against it.

All vote numbers are unofficial at this time.

Prior to most adults casting ballots, students and staff members at Wayne Elementary School cast ballots for president of the U.S.

George Bush received 206 votes, Al Gore, 58 votes, Pat Buchanan, no votes and Ralph Nader, three votes.

The election was conducted and tabulated by members of the Wayne Elementary Boosters (W.E.B.).

Board of Trustees scholarships to state colleges are available to seniors

The Nebraska State Colleges (NSC) Board of Trustees are currently offering full-tuition scholarship to attend Chadron State, Peru State or Wayne State Colleges.

The renewable scholarships will be awarded for the 2001-2002 academic year and represent a financial award of more than $7,500 when renewed over four years.

To apply, high school seniors must:

- score at least a 25 on the ACT or 1100 on the SAT college entrance exams;
- graduate in 2001 from a Nebraska high school;
- enroll for the first time as a full-time college student;
- be a resident of Nebraska;
- provide at least one written recommendation letter from a high school teacher or administrator;
- meet the Jan. 15, 2001 deadline.

Chair of the NSC Board of Trustees Jeff Renner of Bellevue, encourages all students who meet the qualifications to apply.

"For more than 25 years, the Nebraska State Colleges Board of Trustees have provided academically gifted Nebraska high school students the opportunity to pursue an outstanding college education right here in Nebraska," Renner said. "With small classes, the state college faculty and staff have a true dedication to seeing every student succeed."

For nearly 100 years, the Nebraska State Colleges have offered high quality education in small residential settings. The state colleges strive to keep tuition and fees affordable to allow all high school graduates an equal opportunity for a college education. Bachelor and master's degrees are offered through courses held both on and off campus. The state colleges are also partners in the development of the intellectual, cultural and economic life of the communities and service regions.

Scholarship applications are available from area high school guidance counselors, the Nebraska State Colleges website at www.nscs.edu or by calling Sheri Irwin, NSC Director of Public Relations at (402) 471-2505. Applications must be sent to the NSC System Office, postmarked by Jan. 15, 2001.

Jones named to Who's Who

Laura Jones has recently been selected to have her name published in Who's Who Among American High School Students.

Nationally, only five percent of all high school students are honored by Who's Who annually.

Miss Jones is a sophomore at Wayne - Carroll High School. She is a member of the Wayne High Varsity and Pep bands and FBLA as well as being an honor roll student. She is in her 11th year as a Girl Scout in the Wayne and Carroll troops. In addition, she has served as a library aide for the Carroll Public Library where she was in charge of the Summer Reading Program for the past two years.

Laura is a member of St. Mary's Catholic Church in Wayne and St. Mary's WINGS youth group.

She is the daughter of Perry and Jean Jones of Carroll. Her grandparents include Merton and Charlene Jones of Carroll and Aveline and the late Louis Heisinger of Mitchell, S.D.

Mark Schreiner

Mark Schreiner becomes owner of South Dakota printing business

Mark Schreiner of Rapid City, S.D., formerly of Winside, has recently purchased Katelin Printing & Imaging in Rapid City.

Katelin, formerly a franchise business named American Speedy Printing, has been in business for more than a decade.

Schreiner is a veteran of the Rapid City Journal circulation and advertising departments. He started his newspaper career in 1982 at the Casper Star-Tribune in Casper, Wyo. before moving to the Rapid City Journal. He also worked 7 1/2 years at the Journal's sister paper in Winona, Minn. before returning to Rapid City in 1997.

He is currently dividing his time between the print shop and his duties as an advertising representative for the Journal. At the end of November he'll be at Katelin full-time. Currently, the shop has a full-time pressman, a full-time typesetter and a part-time bindery staff.

Being in business for himself has been a "long dream" Schreiner said. "Printing seemed like a natural venture. I'm a hands-on person," he said.

Mark is the son of Eldon and Evelyn Herbolsheimer of Pierce and the late Edgar Schreiner.

Antioxidant Vitamins May Lower Blood Pressure

Animal research suggests that foods containing the antioxidant vitamins C and E may help lower blood pressure and protect the body against the effects of high blood pressure. According to a Hypertension: Journal of the American Heart Association report, both nutrients may reduce blood pressure by protecting the body's supply of nitric oxide. Levels of nitric oxide were lower in animals fed disease-producing free radicals. Adding vitamins C and E to the animals' diets partially reversed the disease process.

Vitamin C is found in many fruits and vegetables; vitamin E in nuts and some food oils. The US Department of Agriculture recommends that we eat at least 2 fruit servings and 3 vegetable servings daily. Many Americans go day after day with few fruits and vegetables in their diets.

NEBRASKA HONORS ITS VETERANS

By Governor Mike Johanns

Dear Nebraska Neighbors:

On Saturday, November 11th, we will celebrate Veterans Day in Nebraska. Whatever we can do to honor those who served in our nation's armed forces over the years is a worthwhile endeavor, and I encourage all Nebraskans to use this Veterans Day as a reminder of the courage, the honor, and the dignity of our veterans.

It is difficult to express adequately the debt of gratitude we as Americans owe to our veterans, and in fact, no amount of recognition could ever possibly be enough repay them for their willingness to answer our nation's call to serve. We must, however, take advantage of opportunities like Veterans Day to reflect on what their sacrifices over the years mean to our country and to our quality of life today.

If nothing else, we have a responsibility as beneficiaries of these sacrifices and of their bravery to stop and say thank you for all they have given in defense of the very principles of freedom and democracy upon which our nation is built.

In this day and age, we talk a lot about finding role models for our young people to look to for inspiration. As our state and our nation transition into a new century, I don't think we'll find any better candidates than the veterans who served our country over the course of the last century.

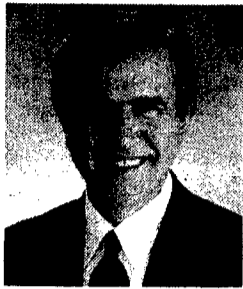

Regardless of the risk and despite whatever fear they may have felt at the time, America's veterans persevered. Despite the odds and in the face of great challenges, they found it within themselves to give all they could give to preserve a free and prosperous future for generations of Americans who would follow them.

The legacy of America's veterans goes far beyond the battles that took place on the seas, soils and sands of the world, however. The story of America's veterans is, in many respects, rewritten everyday with each peaceful and freedom filled moment we enjoy as Americans.

As citizens of the United States, it is very easy to take things for granted. Even the simplest things like spending time with our families to just going to work in the morning are tremendous privileges that we are afforded in this country. For the most part, we live in the most bountiful and prosperous country in the world, and we enjoy the many blessings of liberty.

But our American way of life has not come without a price. It is vital to the future of our society that we educate new generations of Americans about the history of our freedoms and democracy as well as the fundamental role veterans have played in our prosperity as a nation.

On behalf of our entire "Nebraska United", I extend to all of Nebraska's veterans our appreciation for their selfless and steadfast commitment to our nation.

Agriculture's future may be in the hands of large companies

By Ed Howard
Statehouse Correspondent
The Nebraska Press Association

A variety of recent headlines raise a good many interesting questions about the future of agriculture.

There is the obvious question about the future of genetic engineering and what it can and will do for crop production. This is accompanied by all the so-called "Frankenstein" issues - what are the chances of negative, long-term effects from tinkering with nature in this context?

Since the mid-1920s it has been my contention that, one day, a very few companies will control the American food factory from the field to the fork. Even a guy who moved to The Good Life from the mad life in New York City could see it coming - even a quarter of a century ago.

Corn growers, bless their ever-optimistic souls, are happier than saloon keepers when the fleet's in, because the USDA is putting up $300 million to encourage production of biofuels (previously called alternative fuels) such as ethanol. Former Sen. Loran Schmit of Bellwood must be smiling in whatever political pasture he has found to graze upon.

What I don't have a view of is whether there will be anything in all this future science that might do anything to save what has been traditionally known as rural America - the family farm and all the images that go with it. (Minus the little red schoolhouse and tax dodge, which is decidedly going the way of consolidation in all but a few cases.)

It has ever seemed to me that Congress never, ever had anything vaguely resembling a national agricultural policy, or a policy intended to secure a future for the rural America of small towns and family farms, small ranches and the like. A sure sign that those days are all but over: Politicians don't even bother to pay lip service to the family farm these days. Ronald Reagan was the last president to nod in that direction - and he did while (rightly or wrongly, take your pick) pushing an anti-inflation policy that knocked the bejebers out of the then-farm loan program. Farms started disappearing on the Great Plains as though being gobbled by some force from outer space.

Are we headed for a day when American food will be akin to American motor vehicles: The Big Three? Maybe a few more?

Will crops be grown with varying degrees of nutritional value? Really, really healthful food for those with the most money to spend? And something else for others?

The subsidies that kept the family farm thing going for so many years had nothing to do with agricultural policy. It was reflective of a cheap food policy.

Once the little people are gone from the land and the food supply is calculated like virtually everything else these days - by accountants - it seems unlikely that Congress could do much to maintain a supply of cheap food.

What's the difference between oil companies that can take consumers to the cleaners and huge food producing companies that could take consumers to the cleaners?

Time, perhaps.

Meanwhile, that Buffalo Commons talk doesn't always seem so far-fetched these days.

Thanking the community for its support of Home Care services during Home Care Month

Dear Editor:

Because November is Home Care Month, the home health care nurses and staff at Providence Medical Center would like to thank all the members of this community for their continued support and encouragement in helping us to meet your needs.

As part of the observance of Home Health Care Month, all of us at Providence Home Health Care Services would like to answer some questions you might have regarding home health care.

Q: Do I have the right to choose my home health care agency?

A: Yes, your choice will be honored by the hospital discharge planner, your doctor or your referring agency. However, if you are a member of an HMO, your choice of a home health care agency is limited to those agencies affiliated with the HMO.

Q: Is the agency approved for participation by the Medicare/Medicaid program?

A: Medicare inspects home care agencies to assure they meet these standards. Providence Home Health Care Services is an approved agency, and since affiliation with Providence Medical Center, has had deficiency-free surveys. Medicare will only pay for home health care services provided by a home health care agency that meets Medicare quality standards.

Q: How long has Providence Home Health Care Services been serving the area?

A: We were affiliated with Lutheran Community Hospital in Norfolk from 1980 through September of 1995. In 1995 we became a service provided by Providence Medical Center of Wayne. The average length of time that the same staff has been with this community is 11 years.

Q: Does Providence Home Health Care provide the services I need?

A: We provide skilled nursing, home health aide services, physical therapy, occupational therapy and speech therapy. All services are Medicare and Medicaid approved. PMC also has available a private pay service for people who have needs beyond that which Medicare/Medicaid will pay. Private pay services include personal care, laundry, meal preparation, minor house-keeping and transportation. Our staff also visits first time mothers and their babies.

Q: Will your agency be able to come into my community?

A: Providence Home Health Care services an area 45 miles around Wayne, which includes the towns of Wayne, Wakarusa, Laurel, Dixon, Concord, Allen, Emerson, Pender, Stanton, Wisner, Beemer, Martinsburg, Randolph, Coleridge, Winside, Carroll, Hoskins, Belden, Pilger, Waterbury, Osmond,

Hubbard and Pierce

Q: What arrangements are made for emergencies?

A: Providence Home Health Care nurses are on call 24 hours a day, seven days a week.

Q: Will I be charged for any services or supplies?

A: At the present time, Medicare/Medicaid pays 100 percent for services that meet their guidelines. Most supplies are paid at 100 percent as well, except medications. Insurance plans vary as to what they will pay, but most are 80-100 percent.

Q: What role will my family and I have in creating the plan of care?

A: Your home health care nurse, doctor, family and YOU will work together to create your plan of care.

Q: What exactly is a plan of care?

A: Your doctor authorizes a care plan, or in other words, what kind of services you need and how often you will need them. Your plan also includes such things as medical equipment needs and the results the doctor expects from therapy. Home health care staff provides care according to the authorized plan of care, which is reviewed at least every 62 days by your doctor, home health care nurses and your family.

Home health care staff are required to notify your doctor promptly of any changes that might suggest a need to modify your plan of care. Providence Home Health Care staff work closely with your personal physician.

With the support and guidance from Providence Home Health Care Services, patients are able to return home from a hospital stay sooner and receive continued monitoring and medical treatment while still under the direction of their personal physician.

With today's changing trends in the health care system, the home is becoming an ever-increasing choice and possibility for quality health care. At Providence Home Health Care Services, we continue to strive to do our best to meet the needs of YOUR community. We take pride in the care that we offer.

Thank you again for your support.

Family served their country

Located on a wall outside the Veterans of Foreign Wars (VFW) Club in Grand Island are the names of family members of Ariline (Gov) Ulrich of Wayne. The names engraved there are his nine brothers, brother-in-law, Winston D. Morse, and father, John Ulrich Sr. who all served in various branches of the United States military. The Ulrich family was born and raised in Wayne. The men shipped out of Wayne and came back to Wayne after serving their allotted times in the service. Stanley and Donald each served 20 years in the service. Several brothers were injured while serving their country; they were: Stanley, Murlen, John and Benny. After recuperating in Wayne, Ariline's brothers moved to different parts of the U.S. Ariline is the only one left in Wayne. Three of his brothers are now deceased, Murlen, Howard, and Walter. There were 10 boys and three girls in the Ulrich family. Anyone interested in having veterans' names added to the wall can call the VFW Club in Grand Island at 1-308-381-1555 for more information. The cost of adding a name to the wall is $50. Anyone wishing to see the wall can visit the VFW which is located on the corner of Capitol and Broadwell in Grand Island. The wall has only been up for around a year.

HUGH O'BRIAN

Kyle Cherry, son of Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Cherry of Winside, has won the Winside High School Hugh O'Brian Essay Contest. As a result, Kyle will go to the State Leadership Seminar this summer at Dana College in Blair. This is an expense paid seminar promoting leadership and business in America.

Hugh O'Brian, a TV and movie actor from the 50's and 60's, has created a Youth Leadership Foundation for sophomores. Seminars supported by the Foundation will be held in every state this summer. Two sophomores from each state will be selected to attend an expense paid World Seminar.

TURKEY DINNER

Members of St. Paul's Lutheran Church will be hosting a turkey dinner on Sunday, Nov. 12 in the Winside Auditorium from 11 a.m. to 1 p.m. This is open to the general public and there will be a charge.

ALL STATE BAND

Each year over 2000 of the best high school musicians in the state audition for the Nebraska All-state Band, Chorus, Jazz Band and Orchestra sponsored by the Nebraska Music Educators Association. Selection as a member of one of these groups is one of the highest musical honors attainable in Nebraska.

Mr. Lance Nielsen, Chair of Band Affairs for the Nebraska Music Educators Association, is pleased to announce that Winside High School students Katie Barg, flute and Lindy Flier, clarinet, will be among the 165 students selected to be a part of the 2000 All-State Band. Guest conductor for the group will be Joseph P. Missal, Director of Bands of Oklahoma State University in Stillwater, Okla.

The band will rehearse Thursday, Nov. 16 through Saturday, Nov. 18 on the University of Nebraska-Lincoln campus, the host site of the 2000 NMEA Conference/Clinic.

A final public concert will be held on Saturday, Nov. 18 at the Lied Center for the Performing Arts on the University of Nebraska-Lincoln campus. Information regarding concert times, ticket prices and availability will be included in a direct mailing to All-State members from NMEA executive director.

VETERANS DAY PROGRAM

A Veteran's Day program will be held Friday, Nov. 10 in the Winside Elementary School Multi-purpose Room at 8:45 a.m. for the students and general public. The program will include the Winside High School Band, Winside American Legion Post 252 and Auxillary, Winside Cub Scout Pack #179, the Winside High School Student Council.

Guest speakers will be Veteran Henry Langenberg of the Winside American Legion Roy Reed Post, Mrs. Marilyn Brockman, Winside American Legion Auxillary, Katie Barg, Girls State Speech, Laura Neel, Freedom Foundation Speech.

Operation Recognition of Clarence Pfeiffer will be presented by Ron Leapley, High School Principal and the Winside Legion Post will present Recognition of Korean War Veterans. The program will conclude with taps by Sara Schwartz and Kim Stenwall.

SENIORS

Seventeen Winside area Senior citizens met on Oct. 30 for a Halloween party. Several Halloween jokes were read and Halloween bingo and cards were played.

The next meeting will be Monday, Nov. 13 at 2 p.m. All seniors are invited to attend.

The Laurel-Concord football team blasted Pender by a 33-0 margin in the first round of the State playoffs last week. Quarterback Nathan Beckman connects with Adam Hartung for the second touchdown of the game. Above, is the end result of that same pass. Laurel-Concord will play at East Butler on Saturday afternoon in Dwight.

Laurel-Concord advances to C-2 semi's

By Kevin Peterson
For the Herald

Catholic, 20-6 in C-2 quarterfinal action, Monday night to advance to Saturday's semifinal round against Brainard-East Butler. It's the Bears first semifinal appearance since 1995 when they finished as the C-2 runners-up and Mike Halley's team is on a collision course for a rematch of that championship game with Cambridge as both teams earned semifinal berths on Monday.

The Bears limited West Point Central Catholic to just a single first down for nearly the entire game until giving up a couple of first downs in the closing minutes.

Laurel-Concord held the visitors to just 102 total yards while racking up 328—all on the ground.

In fact, Bears quarterback Nathan Beckman attempted just one pass in the game and it went incomplete.

Greg Kvoles was the lead workhorse with 163 yards rushing on 32 carries with Chris Lackas rushing for 112 yards on 21 attempts.

The Bears actually trailed WPC, 6-0 after one quarter of play but Adam Hartung scored on an eight-yard run in the second quarter and Beckman ran for the two-point conversion for an 8-6 lead which stood up at halftime.

The Bears added scores in each of the third and fourth quarters as Lackas sprinted 35 yards to paydirt in the third period and Kvoles rambled 44 yards for a score in the final stanza.

"Our kids played a super tough game in the conditions we had to play in with snow, rain and wind," Halley said. "Our offensive line played extremely well again."

Defensively, the Bears were led by Greg Kvoles with 10 tackles while Seppo Ewarye and Jon Erwin netting eight each. Chris Lackas and Blake Erwin each netted seven tackles.

Laurel-Concord improved to 11-0 and will play 10-0 and number-one ranked East Butler on Saturday afternoon at 3 p.m. in Dwight.

East Butler has won both its playoff games in overtime with wins over Elmwood Murdock in the first round and a 7-6 overtime win over Bloomfield on Monday night in Bloomfield.

THE BEARS OPENED the 2000 state playoffs last week with a 33-0 blanking of Pender.

Laurel-Concord scored 19 points in the second quarter and added 14 in the final stanza.

Nathan Beckman hooked up with Adam Hartung for a pair of first half touchdown passes of 10 and five yards. Greg Kvoles scored from two yards out and Beckman called his own number in the fourth quarter with a 19-yard scoring scamper. Bennie Surber closed out the scoring with a four-yard run.

"Our line play has been exceptional," Halley said. "We out-gained Pender in total offense, 353-193 and our defense rose to the occasion once again, preserving the shutout—the sixth of the year."

Greg Kvoles led the winners with 113 yards rushing on 28 carries while Nathan Beckman had 97 yards on 10 attempts and Chris Lackas, 83 yards on 19 carries. Bennie Surber rushed for 45 yards on eight attempts.

Beckman was 2-5 through the air for 15 yards and the two scores to Hartung.

Defensively, Laurel-Concord was led by Lackas and Kvoles with nine tackles each while Matt Schroeder had eight. Beckman and Blake Erwin had six each.

Bears first-year head coach Mike Halley talks strategy with Bennie Surber between plays of Laurel's win over Pender. The rest of the sidelines listens closely to their coach.

Fans who purchase season tickets, which are a $96 value, also have the opportunity to select their seat for the entire season. To order season tickets you may stop by the WSC Athletic Department, located in the upper level of the Rec Center or call 375-7520.

The first home women's game is slated for Tuesday, Nov. 21 against Sioux Falls with the men's first home game set for Tuesday, Nov. 28 against South Dakota State.

Walking Program returns to Wayne Rec

WAYNE—The City of Wayne Recreation-Leisure Department will again be sponsoring a Walking for Exercise Program beginning on Monday, Nov. 13th and continuing through Friday, March, 24 at the City Auditorium from 8:30 a.m. through 10 a.m. for all area residents.

For additional information contact the Rec Office at 375-4803.

Nelsen receives Nebraska Division II honors

WAYNE—Wayne State volleyball player Rayna Nelsen was named the Nebraska Division II Volleyball Player of the Week for her performance in three matches last week.

Nelsen, a sophomore from Homer, tallied a career-high 25 kills in helping WSC defeat Northern State. She followed with nine kills in a win over Minnesota-Crookston and she led the team with 16 kills in a loss to Minnesota State-Moorhead.

WSC women cagers tabbed fourth in NSIC

WAYNE—Ryun Williams Wayne State women's basketball team will enter the season tabbed fourth in the NSIC race in the pre-season poll.

Minnesota-Duluth claims the top spot, taking all 10 first place votes. Duluth won its eighth consecutive conference crown last season.

Southwest State is preseason second followed by Northern State and Wayne State. Winona State is projected fifth followed in order by Minnesota State-Moorhead, Bemidji State, Concordia-St. Paul, Minnesota-Crookston and Minnesota-Morris.

WSC tied for third in the conference last season and finished the season at 19-9, its best record since the 1992-93 season.

Wayne State harriers compete at Regionals

Andy Tucknott and Darr Nickerson were the top finisher for the Wayne State cross country teams at the North Central Regional Championships last Saturday in Hays, Kansas.

Tucknott turned in a time of 34:04 over 10,000 meters to finish 62nd overall. Nickerson meanwhile, was 46th in the women's race, covering the 6,000 meter course in 23:57.

down a pass with 3:25 left in the game.

Wayne State football head coach Scott Hoffman wanted his players to taste success before the end of the 2000 campaign.

He hoped they could snap a 16 game road losing streak. Hoffman's two wishes came to fruition last Saturday as WSC defeated Minnesota-Morris, 21-14 to end the season at 2-8.

Wayne State put up 405 yards of total offense en route to handing the Cougar's their 21st consecutive loss.

"People like to compare scores and say we should have won by more points, but we're just happy to get a win," Hoffman said.

Two defensive stances late in the game preserved the seven point margin for the Cats. On fourth-and-goal from the Wildcat seven yard line, Antonio Jackson batted

After a WSC drive stalled forcing them to punt, the defense performed well again. The Cougars took over at the WSC 45 yard line but were silenced after three incomplete passes and a sack by Justin Bratcher.

Tavaris Johnson, a junior from Lake Wales, Fla., again asserted himself as an impact player against the Cougars. With WSC's top two tailbacks suspended, red shirt freshman Bryce Trager was the starter for the second week in a row. Leg cramps sidelined him early, and Johnson became the emergency backup.

"Tavaris worked on a few plays during the week. We had to be ready to play someone if Bryce went down. I wondered what was going to go wrong next when he did," Hoffman said.

Laurel-Concord spikers are second seeded Bears head to State

Lani Recob skiles for a spike against Hartington Cedar Catholic. Recob led the winners with 13 kill spikes.

Patti Cunningham's Laurel-Concord Bears clawed their way to another appearance at the Nebraska State Volleyball Tournament to be played this Friday and Saturday in Waverly and Lincoln.

Laurel-Concord defeated Hartington Cedar Catholic, 15-10, 15-12 in the district championship last Thursday in Randolph.

At 22-2 the Bears drew the number two seed in this weekend's State Tournament and will play Hebron in the first round on Friday at 12:30 p.m. in Waverly.

A Bears victory in round one would pit them against the Grant-Wisner-Piager winner in the semifinals at 7 p.m. on Friday night in Waverly as well.

The finals for Class C-2 will be played at 10:30 a.m. on Saturday at Pershing Auditorium.

"I congratulate our players on their well-deserved success," Cunningham said. "As the game progressed they continued to play with determination and remained focused on the final outcome of the match. They came through a challenging district and earned the post-season reward of participating in the State Tournament."

Lani Recob was nearly unstoppable for the Bears with 13 kill spikes on 25-of-28 attempts. Emily Schroeder was equally dominating with nine kills on 17-of-18 attempts.

Brittany Burns netted five kills with Tori Cunningham, Katie Peters and Rebecca Johnson netting two kills each with Kari Stewart notching 29 set assists.

Peters was the top server at 11-12 with two aces with Stewart at 10-10 with one ace and Melanie Thompson, 9-9. Burns was 10-11 while Erin Troyer and Tori Cunningham each went 6-6.

Schroeder paced the defense at the net with five blocks with Recob notching three blocks including a pair of aces and Cunningham had four blocks.

Cunningham also led the team in digs with five.

Katie Peters serves up an ace during the Bears district championship over Cedar Catholic. Laurel-Concord will play Hebron in the first round of C-2 State on Friday in Waverly.

Eagles draw Taylor Loup County in Friday's first round Allen volleyball team State bound

The Allen Eagles volleyball team earned a repeat trip back to the State Volleyball Tournament by blasting Prague in a D-2 District Championship match last Friday night in West Point.

The Eagles trailed the Panthers by a 6-1 margin in the opening game before Denise Hingst watched her team rattle off 14 of the next 15 points in the game for a 15-7 victory.

In game two the Eagles trailed 2-0 before roaring to a 15-5 match clinging victory.

"We came out a little slow but once we got things going we played very well," Hingst said. "We really went after every ball and you could tell the desire to win was there."

Hingst said her squad played very good team ball with a balanced offensive attack.

"That's what has gotten us this far and hopefully we'll be able to continue it at State," Hingst added.

The 20-5 Eagles drew the number seven seed at Friday's opening round contest at State which will be played at Lincoln Christian High School for rounds one and two before the finals on Saturday are played at Pershing Auditorium.

Allen will play second seed Taylor-Loup County who comes in at 22-1 on the season and sport two players over 6-feet tall. Match time is slated for 2 p.m. If Allen wins against Taylor they would play in the semifinals at 8:30 p.m. on Friday as well.

Angela Prochaska paced Allen against Prague with five kill spikes, eight digs and a pair of blocks while serving at an 18-18 clip with two aces.

Alicia Liebsch was also a consistent leader with six kill spikes, three digs, two blocks and 7-8 in serving with an ace. She finished the match with a team-high 12 points.

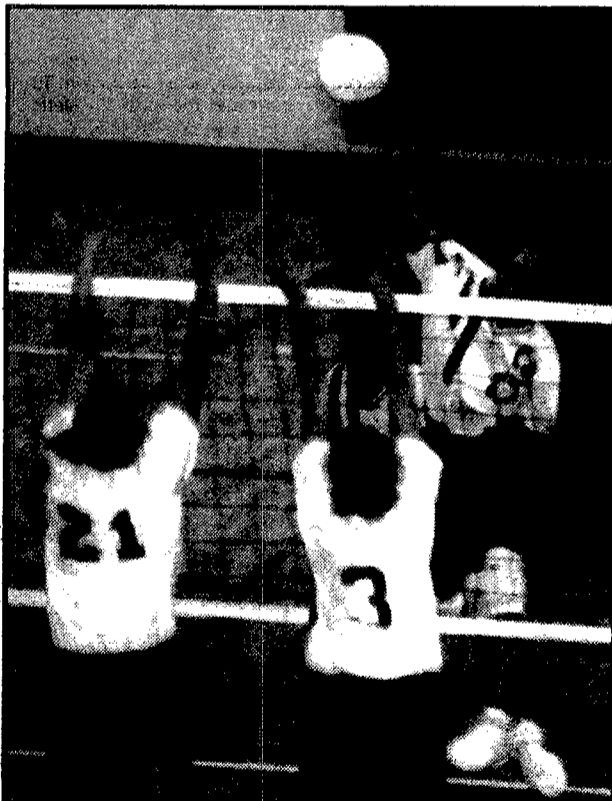

Melissa Wilmes was 9-9 in serving and had 12 set assists along with five digs while Elizabeth Bock had four kill spikes and three digs. Michelle Marks finished with four kill spikes.

Danielle Bertrand serves the ball during the Allen Eagles win over Prague in a D-2 District Title game last Friday. Allen will play Loup County at State on Friday.

Angela Prochaska blocks a Prague spike attempt for an ace during the Eagles straight games win over Prague.

Emily Schroeder out-jumps a pair of Cedar Catholic defenders for an ace spike. The Bears are second seeded in this weekend's State Volleyball Tournament. Laurel-Concord will take a 22-2 record to State.

WSC gals split two NSIC tilts at home

The Wayne State volleyball team closed out the home portion of the 2000 schedule last weekend with a split as Sharon Vanis' team downed Minnesota-Crookston in straight games before falling to league leading Minnesota State-Moorhead on Saturday.

WSC defeated Crookston, 15-4, 15-3, 15-7 and were never threatened in any of the three games.

"I think Crookston is a better team than what they showed against us," Vanis said. "We did a nice job of controlling the match. Sometimes against a slower team you have difficulty speeding things up but I thought we played well. We had our lapses but the for the most part we dominated."

Lindsey Koch and Rayna Nelsen each had nine kill spikes for the winners with Jessie Erwin netting six while Kasey Meyer finished with 23 set assists.

The 'Cats had 13 service aces with Erwin and Nelsen notching three aces each.

Koch was also the leader in digs with nine while Nelsen and Janel Moody had five each. Nelsen also had four block assists.

WSC led Minnesota State-Moorhead in all three games on Saturday before falling, 12-15, 10-15, 14-16.

The loss left the 'Cats with a 15-16 season record and a 10-6 conference mark heading to the final weekend of the season.

"We played well at times but we just couldn't sustain it," Vanis said. "Finishing off games is something we've struggled with all season."

Moorhead clinched at least a tie for the NSIC crown and will likely win it outright with a victory over winless Crookston this weekend. Despite the loss the 'Cats got an exceptional outing from Laurie

Schroeder with a career-high 16 kill spikes off the bench and a 36.4 kill percentage

"Laurie played very well," Vanis said. "She really stepped up."

Rayna Nelsen had 16 kills and 10 digs to go with five blocks while Lindsey Koch had 12 kills and 12 digs. Jessie Erwin had seven kills and a team-high 16 digs and Janel Moody finished with 15 digs. Kasey Meyer notched 52 set assists.

WSC will close out the season this weekend with matches against 15th ranked Minnesota-Duluth on Friday and at Bemidji State on Saturday.

Wayne State's Lindsey Koch spikes the ball past a Minnesota State-Moorhead defender during the Wildcats final home game last Saturday.

Johnson wasted little time as a tailback, taking a sweep 69 yards for a touchdown run midway through the second quarter. He finished with 114 yards on only six carries. He picked up 112 in the first half alone.

Besides taking handoffs, Johnson had four receptions for 105 yards. "Tavaris is an outstanding player. He is such a spark for our entire team," Hoffman said.

Teager, a redshirt freshman from South Sioux City, rushed 27 times for a career high 103 yards. With 5:57 left in the third quarter he scored from 13 yards out to put the Wildcats ahead for good, 21-14.

Quarterback Justin Burhoop was 12 of 27 passing for 169 yards and a touchdown. He hit Jeremy Hoelker with a nine yard pass with a minute to play in the first half to tie the game at 14 points.

Besides Johnson, Damon Ruffin led the rest of the WSC receiving corp with six catches for 45 yards.

Justin Burhoop had a catch for 23 yards and Brad Rippe and Jeremy Hoelker had one catch apiece for 10 and nine yards, respectively.

Nate Herbst led the Wildcat defense with nine tackles, seven of which were unassisted. Mike Baker continued his dominance at middle linebacker with eight tackles.

The Wildcats defense had 11 tackles for losses totaling nearly 50 yards. John Trujillo had two sacks for 17 yards in Cougar losses and Ashley Toussaint recovered a fumble.

With a few exceptions, the Wildcats were in a position to win every game this season.

"The conference is very competitive from top to bottom. Duluth went from being a 3-8 team last year and despite a double overtime loss came in second," Hoffman said.

"We could turn it around in a year. I'm very cautious when I say that I want to see continued improvement."

Wayne State will host the University of Nebraska-Kearney in the home opener next season, followed by Peru State. Hoffman said his players found the confidence they need during the last part of the season in order to compete with any team in the conference and win.

Runners

As a team, the Wildcat men placed 14th with a score of 394. On the women's side WSC's number two runner Shannon Short did not run due to a foot injury. As a result, the 'Cats did not field a complete team.

"Overall I thought our men ran a decent race," coach Marlon Brink said. "We placed about where I thought we would. We ran well as a pack with our top five runners all within about a minute of each other."

Brink said he felt bad for Nickerson who needed to finish three places higher in order to earn

"They've got to get smarter and play more physical. We've got the ingredients," Hoffman added.

WSC basketball year tips off this week for men at Disney World

By Kevin Peterson
For the Herald

Despite losing three starters from last year's 26-6 squad, the Wayne State men's basketball team will debut its 2000-2001 campaign as the second rated team in the NSIC preseason poll among the 10 head coaches.

Southwest State earned the top nod with eight first place votes with WSC earning one first place vote while finishing second in the tabulation. Minnesota-Duluth was third in the poll with one first place vote followed in order by Northern State, Winona State, Bemidji State, Minnesota State-Moorhead, Concordia-St. Paul, Minnesota-Crookston and Minnesota-Morris.

The old adage of "The More Things Change, The More They Stay The Same" might just be the theme of Wayne State's run this season.

The 'Cats will feature some new looks but don't expect the style of the game and the tenacity of past Wildcat squads to change.

Rico Burkett takes over the helm of a program that he helped build with Greg McDermott.

"Mac" took his show to Fargo where he takes the reins of head coach at North Dakota State after spending six successful campaigns at Wayne State.

Burkett was "Mac's" assistant for the past three seasons as well as the first year. He spent two years at Stetson University—a Division I school in Florida as an assistant coach prior to returning for Mac's final three seasons as WSC's number two man.

"There's no doubt that I'm extremely excited about getting the nod as Wayne State's head basketball coach," Burkett said. "I feel very fortunate to have spent a majority of the past several years under the coaching tutelage of Greg McDermott and that time has prepared me for this opportunity."

Rico has been a very instrumental factor in turning the 'Cats program around by doing all aspects of the coaching paradigm.

The 31-year-old Des Moines, Iowa native will be joined on the bench by newly named full-time assistant Dave Brown—a former Wildcat graduate assistant and current grad assistants Matt Woodley of Drake and Eric Henderson—a Coggan, Iowa native and Wayne State standout the past several seasons.

Burkett takes over a squad that has excelled to the level of four straight 20-plus win seasons, an NSIC championship, and two straight AA Tournament appearances.

There are six returning letterwinners from last season's school-record setting 26 win season which advanced to the Sweet 16, losing to Metro State, the eventual national champions.

Among the returnees this season the backcourt will open the season as the strength with Brad Joens and Brad Manley returning to their starting spots.

Joens, the team's leading scorer a year ago at 15.5 points per game was an all-region second team selection and MVP of the NSIC Tournament.

Joens will be a three-year starter and Burkett says he came to camp this season in as good of shape as ever.

"Brad dropped some weight and increased his strength," Burkett said. "He's a very unselfish player and knows the role he has to take for this team to be successful."

Manley led the team in assists a year ago with 114 while pacing the defense with his tenacious in-your-face style.

"Brad's been battling a little bit of an ankle problem early on here," Burkett said. "He's playing with a better understanding of the point guard position and he's looking to be more aggressive on the offensive side this season. He's a very capable scorer."

The front line of the 'Cats will be all here since Jon Dolliver, Eric Henderson and Matt VanVoorst were lost to graduation.

Nathan Mulder will get the starting nod at one forward position after playing as the sixth man the past two years.

"Nate is arguably our best perimeter shooter," Burkett said. "He can fill it up in a hurry. He's got a great understanding of how to play the game."

At the small forward position is Justin Sanny, back-up point guard from a year ago who is making the transition.

"Justin is just a natural athlete and his confidence has risen," Burkett added. "He's got a solid mid-range jump shot and is a good passer."

Kevin Lingenfelter will also man the small forward position as well as the off guard position. "Kevin provides instant offense for us," Burkett said. "He's a great lift guy."

The number five position will be manned by 6-9 senior Jason Herlitzke.

"Hertz" played multiple games as a starter for the 'Cats last season and shared duties with Matt VanVoorst.

"Jason has a really positive attitude and is ready to take on the role of starting center," Burkett said. "He had a great summer and is very confident. He knows he has to play a vital role in our success."

Other key players that will impact the 'Cats this season include redshirt freshman Kevin Cobbs at small forward, Tim Gesell at the off guard or small forward position, Ryan Dahl at the number two or three guard position and Wyatt Erwin at the same spots.

The list also includes a pair of true freshmen which are likely to have an immediate impact.

Todd Klosterman, a 6-6 forward from Manchester, Iowa looks to contribute right away.

"Todd came in and picked up our system quickly," Burkett said. "He's a no-nonsense kid that gives you 110 percent all the time."

Lee Sundahl is a 6-7 freshman from Neillsville, Wisconsin and although Burkett feels he will be a contributor as the season progresses, he's currently battling some injuries. He'll play strictly the number five position.

Derek Archer, a freshman from Bancroft is red-shirting this season.

"There's a lot of similarities on this team from year's past," Burkett said. "We've recruited people to fit that system so just because the head coach has changed doesn't mean the system has too."

The Wildcats face one of the most rigorous schedules in all of Division II with action getting under way this Friday in Florida at the Disney Tip Off Classic.

WSC will play Northern Kentucky in the first round at 3:30 p.m. in Orlando.

Depending on the outcome of that game they will play Armstrong Atlantic or Bentley at either 1 p.m. or 6 p.m. on Saturday.

The very next weekend the 'Cats play at the Quad States Classic in Morris, Minnesota against South Dakota and Morningside on back-to-back nights.

WSC's home-opener will be on Tuesday, Nov. 28 against North Central Conference powerhouse South Dakota State.

As far as the Northern Sun Conference goes, WSC will have its hands full with the likes of Southwest State who return all five starters and adds Jared Miller, an ALL-NSIC guard who transferred from Northern State.

Northern State, Winona State and Minnesota-Duluth all return veteran ball clubs as well.

"We have a very difficult schedule but we've always played a tough schedule," Burkett said. "It prepares us for the competitive play in the NSIC. We have a lot of pride and we've established ourselves as a solid team in the Region. The biggest difference in this year's team will be from the standpoint of not as many returning veterans."

TIME CAPSULE RECOVERED

Over the past year, the United Methodist Church members have been working hard to raise money to build a new church building. The members seemed to have good timing as the ceiling in the old church fell around the time construction began on the new building.

For a few weeks the members met at the Allen-Waterbury Fire and Rescue building until they were able to hold their first church service at the new United Methodist Church building on Sunday, Sept. 10. A closing ceremony was held at the old location at 10:30 a.m. followed by services at the new site. The old building was sold at a public auction held on Friday, July 28.

There were several other items for auction - stained glass windows, Oak church pews, antiques and miscellaneous, a propane tank, air conditioner and furnace. Many turned out for the event and went home with a piece of history. The 87 year old Church Building was for sale by sealed bids and the new owner of the building was Rob Bock. Rob was in the process of tearing down it down when he found a metal box in the corner stone of the building. He promptly turned it over to the members of the Methodist Church.

On Sunday, Nov. 5, there was a pot luck dinner held at noon with a special ceremony held at 1 p.m. to open the time capsule. It was decided that the capsule was found 83 years and 1 day after it was sealed in the building. Around 75 people came to see what had been preserved. Pastor Nancy Tomlinson lead the service with prayer followed by the reading and singing of "The Church's One Foundation". Dean Chase, of the Steering Committee and Kenneth Linafelter, Lay Leader were chosen to open the capsule.

To preserve each item gloves were worn. Inside they found a list of officers at the time of the capsule, an Allen Newspaper dated Oct. 11, 1917; a bible and a Methodist Discipline book. Items were put on the altar and everyone was invited to "look but not touch". Plans are in the making for preserving a new time capsule in the new building's

Goldenrod Hills Community Service receives grant award

Goldenrod Hills Community Service was one of three Nebraska organizations awarded public health grants from the Nebraska Health and Human Services System to expand the geographic reach of public health in the state. Each organization will receive $120,000 over a four-year period. The recipients are required to provide a match of $10,000 each year.

The grant received by Goldenrod Hills Community Service will enable the Northeast Nebraska Rural Health Care Partnership to build a community health coalition and establish a foundation for a successful public health system. The Partnership serves a nine-county region that includes Burt, Cedar, Cuming, Dakota, Dixon, Madison, Stanton, Thurston, and Wayne.

The awards are made possible by a four-year "Turning Point" grant of $800,000 from the Robert Wood Johnson Foundation and funding from the Public Health and Health Services Block Grant administered by the federal Centers for Disease Control and Prevention. Technical assistance will be provided by the Office of Public Health in the Health and Human Services System.

corner stone. Included in this capsule will be a video recording of the first service and of the opening of the time capsule.

MAKE RETURN TRIP

The Lady Eagles will be returning to the State Volleyball Tournament this Friday and Saturday. The team participated last year winning the first game versus Wheeler Central but then losing the 2nd round to McCool Junction, who went on to be the 1999 Class D2 Champions. This year the Eagles won their District Finals match on Friday where they traveled to West Point to take on Prague.

The Eagles won in 2 sets and are on their way to Lincoln. The Eagles will play Friday, Nov. 10 at 2 p.m. at Lincoln Christian versus Loup County. If they win this first game, the next game will be at 8:30 p.m. followed by the Championship game on Saturday at 12:00 p.m. at Pershing. Good Luck!!!!

FLU SHOTS

Flu Shots will be given at the Senior Center on Monday, Nov. 13 from 10 a.m. - 12 p.m. Providence Medical Center will be giving the shots and will also bill Medicaid and Medicare, or the charge will be $10.00.

LIBERTY BOWL UPDATE

Another successful fundraiser of the Allen Band was the Potato Bake sponsored by the Allen Post of the American Legion and Auxiliary with Aid Association for Lutherans matching funds from St. Paul Lutheran Church, rural Concord and First Lutheran Church of Allen. Nearly $2600 was raised and the band is now within $6000 of reaching its goal.

Winners of the groceries were Lucas Woodward, Ruth Mattes, and Alvin Rastede. Plans are now being made for the Christmas Carnival on Nov. 26 from 4 to 7:30 p.m. at the Fire and Rescue Building. The Choir has begun practicing for the Madrigal on Dec. 14. This formal dinner, which includes an evening of Christmas instrumental and vocal music from the Renaissance era, will be another major undertaking by the Allen Music Department, sure to entertain as much as productions in the past.

COMMUNITY CLUB

The Allen Community Club met for dinner and meeting on Oct. 16 at the Village Inn. The meeting was called to order and the secretary and treasurer's reports were read. Old business was discussion of the Allen entry in the Waldbaum's parade. A motion was made to pay all related bills.

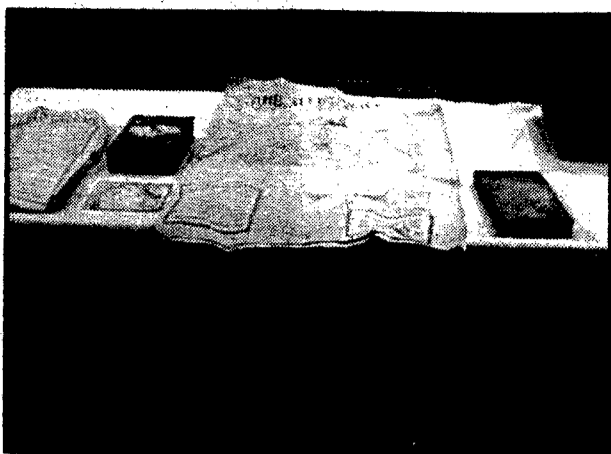

The Allen Community Club will co-sponsor with the Allen Music Department the Nov. 26 Christmas Carnival at the Fire and Rescue Building. This will be a family fun activity to start the holiday season. The students will have a variety of carnival booths, all relating to the Christmas theme, and serve pizza, pop. And ice cream cones.

The Community Club members will help where needed. From 7 to 7:30 pm Santa will visit, the Christmas lights in Heritage Park will be turned on, and the High School Choir will sing Christmas carols. Tickets will cost $25 but free tickets will be given at the Cash Store, Village Inn, and Allen Service, Inc. for each $5 purchase. Be sure to ask these merchants for your Carnival tickets.

The Allen Day Care will supervise the Oct. 28 Halloween party at 10 a.m. Allen Community Club members will help with the party. Everyone is invited to attend the Nov. 20 meeting which will be the Thanksgiving meal at the Village Inn. If you plan to attend, be sure to sign up on the list at the Village Inn.

SCHOOL CENTS

The Mid Term prize event for the School Cents Program is on Saturday, Nov. 11 at 2:00 p.m. The event will feature Vocal Ensembles by participating schools. The awarding of the prizes will follow the show.

Remember to drop off your mail receipts at the Yellow box at the mall or the orange box on the 2nd floor at the school. Currently Allen is ranked 7th out of 10 schools and the event runs until Dec. 31, 2000. Star 102.3 is also running a program where the winning school will win $1023. Each week a trivia question will be aired at different times during the day on 102.3 FM. The answer can be found on the web sites (www.star102.3.com and www.southernhillsmall.com).

When you call the station with the correct answer, you get 10 points for Allen if you identify yourself as an Allen student, parent, booster, etc. The school with the most points at the end of Dec. will receive the check for $1023. Thanks for your continued support and keep saving those receipts!!

IT'S SIMPLE TO UNLOCK THE INTERNET.

CALL NORTHEAST NEBRASKA COMNET NOW AND HAVE ACCESS TO ALL THE EXCITEMENT, INFORMATION AND KNOWLEDGE THAT SURFING THE INTERNET OFFERS!

What is DSL?

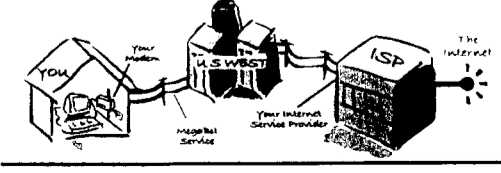

DSL stands for digital subscriber line. The technology uses regular copper telephone lines to connect homes and small businesses to the Internet at high speeds. Those speeds typically range from 256K to 1.544 mbps (nearly 30 times faster than a 56K modem) for downstream transfers, which are downloads or transfers to your PC.

What do these numbers mean? Simply put you can have an internet connection at speeds approaching those of a T1 line for a fraction of the price.

How does it work?

DSL uses digital technology to send oodles of compressed data over traditional telephone lines. The trick involves using special modems at both ends that encode the data and then transmit it over an unused frequency on the line.

Qwest will provide you a line back to the Central Office and then you choose Northeast Nebraska ComNet as your Internet Service Provider. It's easy and fast. You won't have to change your email address or the great service you currently receive.

How much does it cost?

There are two options available from Qwest for the Line. Northeast Nebraska ComNet's charges will not change. Currently Qwest has a promotion that was extended for a free modem and activation.

With DSL Services

from Northeast Nebraska ComNet you will continue to have access to quality Internet Services. Outstanding Technical Support and the knowledge of many years experience in the Internet industry. October of 1999 ComNet had a solution for DSL services that we wanted to bring to Wayne. US West would not let ComNet provide those DSL services to You. We will continue to fight to bring quality services and advanced technologies to Wayne and all of our other communities.

Two Drugs That Treat The Flu

If you come down with the Type A flu, there is help. Antibiotics don't cure the flu, they only work against bacteria, and the flu is caused by a virus. But two prescription antiviral drugs can treat Type A flu if taken within 48 hours after symptoms develop. They are rimantadine, sold as Flumadine, and amantadine, sold as Symmetrel. Check with your doctor if you come down with the flu and see if these could help you. Flu symptoms include high fever, chills, headache, muscle pain, and extreme fatigue.

Gross recognized by Library Association

The Trustees, Users & Friends Section (TUFS) of the Nebraska Library Association have announced that Patrick Gross was selected to receive the 2000 Trustee Citation Award.

The award is given annually to an individual who has exhibited outstanding leadership contributing to the advancement of library services in Nebraska.

According to Martha Drayton, chair of TUFS, "the accomplishments of Mr. Gross on behalf of the new Wayne Library stand as an example to all as to what can be accomplished with effective leadership and cooperation within the community."

She added, "our appreciation is extended to all in the community who wrote letters in support of Mr. Gross for this award. We are honored to have the opportunity to recognize such a deserving individual."

The award was presented during the annual TUFS luncheon held during the Nebraska Library Association Convention in Omaha

The Library Card

This column is written occasionally to inform the Wayne area as to what types of reading material and other items are available at the Wayne Public Library

"The greatest book in the world is still the pocket book. Its contents always command attention." — The Frugal Librarian

Though libraries are always interested in nurturing young readers, once a year all libraries across American honor their communities' children during Children's Book Week. The Wayne Public Library will participate in this venerable tradition Monday thru Friday, Nov. 13-16 with a number of special activities including, a book review contest for children in grades K-9 (applications are available at the Library); a Harry Potter & Marc Brown's Arthur trivia contest on Monday thru Thursday; Nebraska folklorist presentation with Winfield Delle on Tuesday, Nov. 14 (see description below); a storytime for children ages 3-7 at 7 p.m. on Thursday, Nov. 16 and an Arthur video party from 3:30 to 4:30 p.m. on Friday, Nov. 17. Children of all ages are invited to partake in the Children's Book Week festivities.

On Tuesday, Nov. 14 at 7 p.m. the Library will sponsor a special program entitled, "Nebraska Folklore, Folk-ies and Fakelore." Retired history teacher and renowned storyteller Winfield Delle of Scottsbluff will regale audience members with a range of popular Nebraska folklore (including stories, songs and rumors about weather, animals, people and stock market scandals) and will demonstrate how folklore has been utilized both for people's benefit and detriment. Don't miss this extraordinary evening of entertainment. This program is made possible through a grant from the Nebraska Humanities Council.

The Library will again be offering you a chance to support the local food pantry in Wayne. Beginning in November, the WPL is holding its second annual Food for Fines drive. For every item donated from the approved food list, patrons may have $1 in fines removed from their accounts. And if you have no fines and would simply like to make a donation to the food pantry, the Library will be a collecting point for canned goods and non-perishable foods throughout the holiday season. Stop by the circulation desk at the Library to get a list of recommended food pantry items you may donate.

WPL's table was busy during the recent Harvest Festival. Oprah sale books and popcorn balls were popular items as were those taking a chance on the "Guess the Candy" game. Congratulations to Lisa Farrants, Sheldon Onderstal and Noah Braun for coming closest to guessing the amount of candy in each of the jars.

Computer classes began anew at WPL in October! Now is the time for those of you who have expressed interest in attending our classes to give us a call and sign-up. WPL plans to offer classes once a month every month, alternating between daytime and evening sessions to accommodate the needs of our patrons. We will start with our beginning Internet class and hope to branch to more advanced classes in the future.

Do you need a space for a meeting in a hurry? Would your book club like to meet regularly at a neutral spot where no housecleaning is required? Think of the Conference Room located at Library/Senior Center. The policies for using this room have recently been re-vamped. Reservations should now be made through the Library (375-3135). Two day's notice would be nice but next day notice is accepted. The hours available are 9 a.m. to 8:30 p.m. or the opening hours of the Library/Senior. Non-profit groups will be required to make a $25 deposit for room use. This fee is completely refundable once the room has been inspected for damage. There is a non-refundable rental fee of $25 for for-profit groups. So whether you'd like to meet regularly or at the last minute, keep the Library/Senior Center Conference Room in mind.

The Library now has Year Round Hours: Noon to 8:30 p.m. on Monday, Tuesday and Thursday, 9 a.m. to 8:30 p.m. on Wednesday, noon to 6 p.m. on Friday and 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. on Saturday. From Labor Day to Memorial Day, the Library will offer Sunday hours from 2 to 5 p.m. No Sunday hours in the summer. Our phone number is (402) 375-3135; fax number is (402) 375-5772 (sending or receiving fax charge is $1 per page)

'Where in the World is Wayne' is program topic

As part of International Education Week, the Wayne State College Center for Economic Education will host, "Where in the World is Wayne?" on Wednesday, Nov. 15 from 6 - 8:30 p.m. in Gardner Hall on the WSC campus.

The public is invited to attend the event which will highlight the work of the WSC Center for Economic Education in educating northeast Nebraska students for participation in a global economy, according to Dr. Meena Dalal, co-director of the Center.

"Through this event, we hope to facilitate an understanding of globalization and foster networking of people interested in international social, cultural and economic connections," said Dalal. "In short, we will explore 'Where in the World is Wayne?' by understanding Wayne's local-global connections."

A sampling of international food will be provided, and those attending the event will be able to visit with members of the WSC International Club, language clubs to learn about various international connections of Wayne State College and service organizations in the Wayne area. A variety of exotic door prizes will be presented during the evening.

The WSC Center for Economic Education has been awarded a grant from the National Council on Economic Education (NCEE) to sponsor activities during International Education Week from Nov. 13-17.

By participating in the national "Campaign for Economic Literacy," launched in 1999, the WSC Center for Economic Education is committed to preparing students in northeast Nebraska to participate in and lead the global economy they will inherit, Dalal said.

There is no fee to participate, but pre-registration is requested by calling 402-375-7509 or 375-7292; fax: 375-7458; or e-mail, medal1@wsc.edu no later than Nov. 13.

Computer is not a toy Internet safety vital

An estimated 25 million U.S. children will be online this year. With parent and teacher help, the Internet provides a great chance to develop critical thinking skills of young people. When families cruise the net, they can read, analyze, evaluate, compare information, tell stories, and collaborate on ideas together. The computer shouldn't be used as a babysitter, but is an opportunity for parents and children to bond together.

Adults need to understand that the Internet is not like television where children can sit and watch. It is interactive like the telephone and the greatest danger is NOT what they see on the computer screen, but meeting and interacting with strangers. Children need to learn safety rules of the Internet, just like they need to learn how to safely cross the street.

Some common-sense tips follow to help teach children Internet safety:

- Limit the time children can be on line, just like they would be limited from watching television or eating snacks. Set times of days that they can surf. Be in the same room while they are on the computer. This allows you to know about the sites they visit and discourages them from wandering to sites you would disapprove.

- Tell children they should never share personal and/or private information while on the Internet. They should never give out their home address, phone number, school name, e-mail address, credit card number, computer password or other information without your permission. These rules should be applied when playing games online, entering a contest, registering for a free gift or chatting online. Children should never respond to a message that makes them feel uncomfortable.

- Get to know children's on-line friends. Never allow a child to meet someone in person they have met online without you visiting with them about it and accompanying them for the visit.

• Although the children should not be frightened, be sure they understand that some people online are untruthful, and that they shouldn't believe everything they read online. Thousands of chain letters, jokes and hoaxes (urban legends) are on the web. Find out more urban legends information at: <http://www.vanguard.edu/rharris/eval18it.htm> Vanguard University-Evaluating Web Sites.)

Other tips on teaching children about Internet safety may be found at Safe Kids.com (<http://www.safekids.com/kidsrules.htm>) and Cyberangels at <http://www.cyberangels.com/>

One of the newest ways to help children learn about safety is for them to play interactive games about Internet safety. The happy music and cute animation gives children safety tips in a non-threatening way. New this year are several sites, including Disney's Surf Swell Island at <http://disney.go.com/family/surfswell/intro.html> or Circle 1 at <http://www.kidscom.com/>. More sites are being developed by law enforcement and children's agencies.

Annual meeting held

Lutheran Brotherhood Wayne County Branch #8212 held its annual meeting on Nov. 5 at Geno's Steakhouse. There were 35 people in attendance.

President Dave Olson welcomed the members and guests with Sue Olson and Lynette Krie leading the group in singing "Grace" before the dinner.

President Olson presented the slate of officers with new treasurer Hilbert Johs voted in for the year 2001, replacing current treasurer Darrel Rahn.

Paul Jensen, area Resource Manager, showed a dynamic video, "Dr. Ben Carson — Gifted Hands" and reported that members may borrow the video. Mr. Jensen also reported that the new Lutheran Brotherhood Agency's named has been changed to "Mid America Partners Agency" of 52 branches in Nebraska, western Iowa and northern Kansas and northern Missouri.

Fraternal consultant Lynette Krie reminded members that some church Lutheran Brotherhood communicators need to mail in their matching funds report in November and LB communicators and LB Branch Officers need to mail in their Volunteer Hours cards.

Fraternal consultant Doug Krie reported on LB's Interest in Youth events.

Gaylen and Cindy Hingst reported on Service Projects as they are Service Officers.

Prizes were awarded to Nettie Kittle, Doreen Liedman, Clifford Fredrickson, Arlene Allemann, Leonard Peters, LaVerne Harder, Sue Olson and Doug Krie. All those attending received a LB note pad and note card and LB Advent book-mark.

Officers present included Dave Olson, president; Melia Hefti, secretary; Darrel Rahn, treasurer; Lanora Sorensen, publicity; Gaylen and Cindy Hingst, service; Suzanne Olson, RespecTeen; Kathleen John, scrapbook historian; Phyllis Rahn, additional officer; Doug Krie and Lynette Krie, both Fraternal consultants and Paul Jensen, Area Resource Manager.

The next LB Branch meeting will be March, 18, 2001 with church communicators and pastors. The location will be announced in the invitations.

Presbyterian women gather

The Carroll United Presbyterian Women met Nov. 1 for a noon potluck with eight members and 10 guests present.

Moderator Jacquelyn Owens conducted the business meeting. Roll call and minutes of the last meeting were read and the treasurer's report given.

The mission supplies for the year 2001 will be sent to the Nebraska Home for Children Society.

JoAnn Owens read "Little Children Open Our Hearts to the Future" for the Least Coin Fellowship.

JoAnn Owens gave the lesson on Thanksgiving, reading "Today's Blessings" and "The Landing of the Pilgrims." The hymn "We Thank You, All Our God," was sung.

A potluck Thanksgiving supper will be held at the church on Wednesday, Nov. 15 at 6:30 p.m. Guests are welcome.

Missionaries to be in Wayne

Tom and Kathy Love, missionaries with Food for the Hungry International (FHI), will be at the First Church of Christ, 1110 East Seventh Street (Highway 35) on Sunday, Nov. 19.

They will be updating the audience from 9:30 to 10:15 a.m. concerning their recently completed FHI assignment in Kosovo and their upcoming FHI assignment in Asia.

Tom will also preach during the worship service starting at 10:30 a.m. A noon fellowship dinner will follow. The public is invited to attend these events.

Tom and Kathy are both Nebraska natives — Tom from Wayne and Kathy from Bristow. They met in Taiwan in 1977, where both were serving as Christian missionaries.

Following their September 1977 marriage in Nebraska, they returned to Taiwan as a full-time missionary team.

During the past 23 years the Loves have served in Taiwan, Thailand, Laos and Kosovo. They have four children, Trevor, Kristen, Karyss and Theo. Currently, Trevor and Kristen are college students in the U.S. while Karyss and Theo are attending a Christian high school on the island of Penang, Malaysia, where Tom and Kathy will head-quarter following their December reassignment to Asia by FHI.

FHI is an international, nonprofit, nonsectarian Christian relief and development organization based in Scottsdale, Ariz. Founded in 1971, FHI is dedicated to the ministry of feeding two hungers — both the physical and the spiritual, in the poorest areas of the world. FHI is supported primarily by individual and church donations and FHI field staff. FHI field staff are 100 percent self-supporting.

NEW SCHOOL BOOKKEEPER

Barb Preston of rural Wakefield has been hired as the Wakefield Community School's administrative assistant/bookkeeper. Mrs. Preston has been business manager for the Pender-Thurston School District since November, 1996.

She will replace Molly Curnyn. The board of education accepted Mrs. Curnyn's resignation with regret at the October meeting. She will be joining her husband Charlie and son Nick at Theford, where Mrs. Curnyn is teaching.

2000 WHO'S WHO

Several area teachers have been nominated by former students to be included in the 2000 Who's Who Among America's Teachers.

Rae Johnson Brown of Wakefield, an elementary teacher in the Pender School System, was honored as was Richard Lacey of Allen School and Lorie Cook-Benjamin at Allen who is at Midland Lutheran College in Fremont.

Previously the Wakefield School announced that Jennifer Goos, Kathy Johnson and Kirby Mousel had also been named to Who's Who.

DAISY'S BIRTHDAY

Fifty-one Girl Scouts and 14 adults from Service Unit 16 gathered in Wakefield on Oct. 19 for a birthday skating party in honor of Daisy (Juliet Low). Scouting for girls came to Savannah, Ga. and the United States through the efforts of this special lady.

The local Girl Scouts celebrated by joining in skating games, conga lines and donating pennies to the Juliet Low World Friendship Fund. These monies are used to start new troops and assist Scouts and Guides world wide. The girls from Wayne, Winside, and Wakefield gathered $39.75 to assist sister Scouts.

Pheasant hunting tips are shared

The pheasant hunting season is well underway. Hunters in the Midwest are reporting fewer birds than last season.

In conversations with the Game, Fish and Parks, I've been given several reasons for the decrease in pheasant numbers.

First, is the fact that it was a dry year and moisture which the young chicks need was hard to come by. Secondly, was the fact that last seasons numbers were down due to an usually wet spring. And the last, but probably the most important reason is the fact that much of our CRP has disappeared.

Without the habitat, we just aren't going to see the bird numbers.

The argument for this is that South Dakota has more birds and they don't have that much more habitat than Nebraska.

They may not have a lot more habitat than Nebraska, but they farm for pheasants and take care of what they do have. They do a number of things to enhance the habitat, making it more attractive to wildlife.

In South Dakota, you'll see sloughs, some hold water while others are no more than muddy swamps. They plant trees specially suited for wildlife and they leave a few rows of corn or sorghum in the field each year. These habitat additions help to assure that the birds have cover from predators flying overhead and food and cover to make it through the long winter months.

This, along with the fact that birds are stocked heavily by game preserves, helps to ensure good numbers of pheasant.

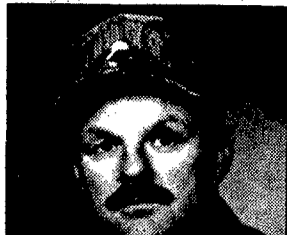

Many people have the misconception that pheasants can live in corn or bean fields. It doesn't work that way. Sure they will move into them to feed on waste grain, but row crops don't cut it for wildlife habitat.

Because of the dry weather, the successful hunters this season have been hunting areas adjacent to water. It doesn't have to be much, a small slough, creek, or pond.

Another tip that is worth listening to is to hunt the smallest patches of cover. The larger CRP fields and been pounded to death. As soon as one group comes out one end, another group is heading in the opposite end of the field.

Most hunters tend to overlook the small weed patches or little clumps of trees. These places can really hold good numbers of birds. It doesn't take a roads scholar to figure it out, all the other spots are getting hammered and the birds are looking for a place to rest and relax.

Don't overlook even the smallest patch of cover. As long as a bird can lie down in it, it's big enough to hunt.

Gary Howey
'Of the Outdoors'

Another thing that I've learned over the years when it comes to hunting pheasants is that hunters have a tendency to move through the field way too fast. You'll bag more birds by walking slowly, taking your time and stopping from time to time.

This is especially true in warm dry conditions when hunting with dogs. Dogs need a little moisture in order to pick up a birds scent and when it's dry, it takes a dog longer to locate the bird.

Take your time when you go through a field, let the dog work the area good.

I don't know how many times I've called my dog back, thinking I know where the birds are, only to see a bird bust out of the cover after I've pulled the dog back to where I wanted to hunt.

Follow your dog, no matter how silly it looks or what direction he's going. Let him lead you to the birds.

Another problem that early season hunters are running into is that the birds are flushing way ahead of the hunters. If you have an area where you can post blockers on the end, you'll solve part of the problem.

If you hunt in smaller groups, you might want to consider using a bit heavier shell.

Some hunters start the season with a 6 shot and when the birds start flushing wildly, switch to a 4 shot. I've found that by using 5 shot throughout the season, that my shooting improves. Not only am I shooting heavier shot, I'm shooting the same load all season. Some loads pattern different in shotguns and by shooting the same load all season, you learn the limitations of your shot gun and become a more consistent hunter.

To me, it really doesn't matter if I bag my limit, sure I like to eat pheasant, but to me it's just getting away from it all and enjoying the great outdoors.

Good luck on your next hunting trip.

This group of Wayne County 4-H'ers was recognized for their accomplishments in a number of categories during Sunday's Achievement Program.

These 4-H'ers earned Chris Clover awards during their first, second or third year of 4-H. The award is a participation incentive program for youth.

Wayne County 4-H'ers and leaders honored

A number of 4-H members, leaders and parents attended the annual Wayne County 4-H Achievement Program held Nov. 5 at the Methodist Church in Wayne. A buffet dinner was sponsored by Wayne County banks: State National Bank, First National Bank and Farmers & Merchants State Bank of Wayne, Winside State Bank of Winside; Farmer's State Bank of Carroll and Elkhorn Valley Bank of Hoskins. The dinner was served by the Wayne County 4-H Council, which also sponsored many of the awards.

Several Wayne County 4-H members and leaders received special recognition during the evening. Ann Temme, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Doug Temme of Wayne, received the Kiwanis Award. This award is based on project achievement, leadership development and service to others. Ann received a scholarship to ExpoVisions. It is held each summer on campus at UNL.

Lindy Fleer of Hoskins, daughter of Robyn and Jane Fleer received the outstanding 4-H'er Award. This award is given to a female who demonstrates project achievement and leadership development.

Greg Schardt, son of Lowell and Karen Schardt of Wayne also received the Outstanding 4-H'er award representing male members. Greg was also the recipient of the Ak-Sar-Ben Service Award. This award is for a 4-H'er who goes beyond the minimum requirement of leadership and helping others.

Tamara Schardt, daughter of Lowell and Karen Schardt of Wayne was recognized for her accomplishment on her district 4-H record book application. She competed in the areas of animal science and healthy lifestyles.

Selected Wayne County 4-H adult volunteers were honored for their service tenure at the achievement program. Two year service pins were presented to Kimberly Doffin, Chad Dorcey, Randy Dunklau, Roger Lutt and Karen Zach. Recognized for five years of leadership were Kevin Davis, Randy Gubbels, Mary Jarvi, Mitch Osten, Shelly Owens and Mary Temme. Ten year service pins were presented to Linda Dorcey and Daryl Huyck. Twenty-five year service pins were awarded to Connie Roberts and Karma Magnuson.

Several individual honors were announced and trophies or medals were awarded. Receiving county medals for project work in the junior division were Derek Schardt (achievement, leadership and public speaking), Elizabeth Baier (beef, poultry and rabbits), Dacia Gansbom (cat, clothing and food and nutrition), Kalie Sprouls (dairy) and Lucas Ruwe (swine).

Receiving county medals in the senior division were Kyle Cherry (forestry), Lindy Fleer (achievement), Adam Lutt (rocketry), Josh Ruwe (swine), Tamara Schardt (citizenship, photography and leadership), Brittini Sprouls (cat, child care and dairy) and Ann Temme (public speaking and clothing).

Special Home Economics awards were given to the top junior and senior home economics members

Wayne County 4-H Adult volunteers and leaders on hand to receive pins for their years of service at the annual 4-H Achievement program included, left to right, Karen Zach, Mary Temme, Mary Jarvi, Chad Dorcey, Shelly Owens and Randy Gubbels. These individuals serve the 4-H program in a number of ways throughout the year.

Owens, Jordyn Roberts, Lara Sok, Jaycie Woslager, Heather Wylie, Kaitlyn Centrone, Laura Christensen, Shannon Jarvi, Jessica Kranz, Lisa Temme, Beth Wurdeman, Corissa Arickx, Marcus Baier, Marisa Austin, Geoffrey Nelson, Zac Braun, Josh Dorcey, Matt Hennich, Jennifer Holm, Maddy Moser, BreAnn Leonard, Clayton Wamstad, Carly Anderson, Ashley Beaty, Kaitlyn Braithwait, Justin Buresh, Bradley Doffin, Mariah Meyer, Katherine Wittler, Keith Kleensang, Chloe Russell and Pricilla Russell.

Receiving five year pins were Melyssa Deck, Michelle Deck, Christina Jaeger, Andrew Lowe, Bryce Owens, Heather Zach, Jennifer Nolte, Josh Ruwe, John Temme, Aaron Klein, Aaron Daum, Scott Baier, Jonathan Eberhardt, Brandon Leonard, Abby Andersen, Justin Nathan and Jamie Sellin.

Members receiving 10 year pins were James Gubbels, Casey Daehnke, Danny Roeder, Chris Sebade, Renee Felt, Jeremy Dorcey, Alison Baier, Kelly Appel, Jessica Bowers, Aimee Buresh, Kim Nathan and Josh Sellin.

Eleven year 4-H pins were presented to Maureen Gubbels, Jeremy Jaeger and Layne Sievers.

Clubs were recognized for their participation in the Club Improvement Seal Program. Clubs may earn a gold, silver, bronze or green seal based upon their participation in a wide range of activities.

Gold seals were earned by the Blue Ribbon Winners, City Slickers and County Mixers, Combination Kids, Country Classics, Helping Hands and Spring Branch 4-H clubs.

The election for Wayne County 4-H Council was also held in conjunction with the annual 4-H Achievement Program, and, as a result, four new members were elected. Diane Roeder of Wayne and Kevin Davis of Carroll will be serving as the two new adult members of the council. Tamara Schardt of Wayne and James Felt of Wakefield are the new youth members.

The newly elected members join Pam Ekberg, Jack Sievers, Ann Temme and Tim Puntney who will be beginning their second year term. Outgoing members recognized included Jim Lutt, Deb Harmeier, Beth Loberg and Casey Daehnke. The Wayne County 4-H Council plays an important role in setting the direction of the 4-H program.

Trip to the Ozarks proves relaxing

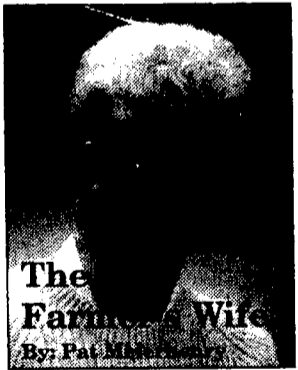

"What goes around, comes around." We used to leave our kids with my Mom while we went to the football game. Now, we have the honor. Only problem, we had three girls. We've had three boys deposited here today.

Boys play hard. They like Nintendo games. They like building with Legos. They like to throw things, yell and scuffle. The one little gal is quietly dressing Barbies and undressing the bigger dolls. (The other two girls are at the other grandma in Lincoln). Hopefully, the ones here will soon decide to take their energy outside. Thank goodness, the sun is shining.

It wasn't shining last Sunday, did you notice? The whole state was grieving.

It's been shining all week, though, and there has been wonderful rain. We spent a few days in the Ozarks, and had to actually run the air on Wednesday afternoon.

It was after the height of color, but still very pretty. Lots and lots of foliage and the beautiful lake all made it very relaxing

We spent one night at a bed and breakfast. A beautiful new home with a large family room for our use, a backyard full of flowers, tall oak trees and a wonderful view of the lake.

Our host belongs to a group called "Bald Headed Society of America," and once won a national contest for the "softest bald head."

think there must be an association out there for everyone, and now you can find it on the Net.

We pattered around in lots of antique and craft shops, there are tons of them. My best buys were at the Ozark Senior Craft store, a delightful coop on highway 50 near a village called Gravois Mills.

Since Missouri is considered a pivotal state, there were lots of presidential ads. We realized how much we were missing in Nebraska. It didn't really make us sad. Only a few more days, and it will all be over. And the republic will continue to rock along.

Someone at a flea market gave

Mike a treatise on the seven ages of man.

20 is when you want to wake up romantic.

30 is when you want to wake up married.

40 is when you want to wake up successful.

50 is when you want to wake up rich.

60 is when you want to wake up contented.

70 is when you want to wake up healthy.

80 is when you want to wake up! Amen

The little girl has been displaying a loud voice, shouting "No!" The Big Farmer is engrossed in the Miami-Virginia Tech game. I'd better investigate before there is actual mayhem. It's great to be home!
