Projects receive state funding

The Nebraska Department of Roads has announced that a total of $5,035,404 has been awarded to 20 community projects across the state through the Transportation Enhancement (TE) program.

Among projects receiving funding was the Wayne Trail system. A total of $499,313 was awarded for preliminary engineering and construction of the first phase of the Wayne Trail system.

The concrete trail is 2.6 miles long and begins at a campground/ park just west of Highway 15 at the southern limits of Wayne.

The trail heads east and utilizes an existing bridge to go below Highway 15. The trail follows Logan Creek towards the City's softball complex, arboretum and tree farm. The trail then heads northeast towards Highway 35 along an abandoned railroad right-of-way.

The trail will cross Highway 35 at grade and extend northwest through a residential area; connecting to Sunny View Park, Providence Medical facility and ultimately end by connecting to a trail system within Wayne State College's campus.

The government owner is the City of Wayne, which has committed to providing a non-federal cash match of $124,828 or 20 percent of the total costs of the project.

At the present time, the city is applying for additional assistance with the project from the Lower Elkhorn Natural Resources District.

In addition to the Wayne Trail, projects in Wakefield and Laurel also received funding.

The Wakefield Logan Creek Trail was awarded $81,584 for preliminary engineering and construction of trail which will be located on top of a newly constructed flood control levee along Logan Creek. The City of Wakefield has committed to providing a non-federal cash match of $20,396 or 20 percent of the total costs of the project.

The City of Laurel was awarded $280,364 for preliminary engineering and construction of a 90-foot long, 10-foot wide under crossing of U.S. Highway 20. The undercrossing will connect the Laurel school to an existing trail which accesses the school's recreation fields on the west side of the high-

Community of Wayne receives challenge grant

The community of Wayne received notice this week from the Peter Kiewit Foundation in Omaha that it is the recipient of a $250,000 challenge grant to help build and furnish the Community Activity Center.

The letter was sent by Lyn Wallin Ziegenbein, Executive Director.

The Foundation awards challenge grants to projects they want to assist and to help create the incentive for the communities to successfully raise the remaining funds needed for the projects.

In the spring of 2000, Wayne voters approved a $3 million, one time, sales tax to help build the proposed activity center with the remainder of the funds to be raised by contributions.

The total cost of the project is $4 million. About $350,000 in funds have been raised and the challenge grant requires the community to raise the remaining $376,000 by next September in order to receive this $250,000 challenge.

Bob Keating and Sheryl Lindau are chairing the kick-off effort for this project.

House provides independence

By Clara Osten
Of the Herald

When four-year old Ande Schulz invites her friends over to "my house," she means it, literally.

The daughter of Terry and Leslie Schulz recently became the owner of a large playhouse through the Make A Wish Foundation. The house measures seven feet tall, 15 feet wide and 16 feet long.

Ande was diagnosed with spina bifida at birth. "Spina bifida is caused by an open lesion in the spine that does not close, which then leads to paralysis," Leslie said.

Ande has had more than 10 surgeries since her birth, four of those before her first birthday. She and her parents have made frequent trips to hospitals in Wayne, Omaha and Milwaukee, Wis. to help prolong her life and offset the side effects of the birth defect.

Early this fall, Ande's occupational therapist gave her name to the Make A Wish Foundation. Foundation volunteers Bev Turner and Gerry Melis then began work on granting her wish of having her own playhouse.

"Bev has been involved with Make A Wish for a number of years. She was the one who adorned the playhouse with all its features, including a back entry. I just got the donations from the community," said Melis, who lives in Wayne.

The Make A Wish Foundation grants wishes to children between the ages of 2 1/2 and 18 with life-threatening illness. Melis, who has been with the Foundation for approximately four years, said this was the first wish that has been granted in Wayne.

Melis has spent a great deal of time in the last three months gathering materials and organizing the volunteers, which included more than 40

Wayne residents.

"An average wish costs the Foundation $7,000. However, Ande's did not cost them, because the Burial will be in Greenwood Cemetery in Wayne. Schumacher-Hasemann Funeral Home in Wayne is in charge of arrangements.

Elementary students are runners-up for 'Book It!'

Throughout September and October, Wayne second grade students recorded children's stories on to audio cassettes and then donated these books and tapes to local businesses and organizations as a part of national "Make a Difference Day," on Oct. 27.

It was the objective of this project to impact not only the students, but all young children in the community and the adults who raise them. It was hoped that this good deed would instill in the students the desire to do for others, and create a feeling of satisfaction in creating books on tape for a charitable cause.

The project, which was required to be related to reading and literacy, was entered into a nation-wide contest sponsored by BOOK IT!, in partnership with Pizza Hut, USA WEEKEND Magazine, The Points of Light Foundation and Between the Lions, the award-winning PBS show that helps young children learn to read.

A panel of BOOK IT! staff members and teachers, based on creativity, impact and originality, judged the entries. The panel chose Wayne's good deed to be second out of 620 classrooms across the nation. Wayne's was also the only classroom chosen from Nebraska. The winning entry was from Indianapolis, Ind.

For their efforts, the second graders will receive $3,000 to purchase books for the classroom and / or to purchase books for students' personal use, a visit from Leona and Lionel, costumed characters from "Between the Lions," a set of five videos from the "Between the Lions" series for the school library and a pizza party from Pizza Hut.

BOOK IT! will make the official presentation at the elementary school sometime in mid-February.

Funeral director placed on a year of probation

Harlan Thompson, director of Thompson Chapel Funeral Home in Wakefield, has been sanctioned and fined by the State Department of Health and Human Services for "unprofessional conduct."

The action calls for Thompson to work for one year with a probationary license and pay a $500 fine. In addition, Thompson agreed to notify current or future employers and other states' licensing authorities of the action within 30 days of Nov. 29 and he must re-take the jurisprudence test for Funeral Directing and Embalming licensure within 90 days of that date.

The investigation by the state agency was reportedly initiated following complaints by an individual about the way Thompson handled the disposition of the body of his relative following his death.

The particulars are outlined in a petition for disciplinary action brought by the State Attorney General's office. The petition says on or about July 29, 2000, Thompson informed the Thurston County Sheriff's Department of a death at home, but said there was no need to send a deputy or coroner to verify the death, a standard practice for a death outside a hospital setting.

On Nov. 16, 2001, Thompson signed the settlement, a section of which states "the defendant admits the allegations." It received final approval and became binding on Nov. 29 when it was signed by Dr. Richard Raymond, chief medical officer of DHHS.

'All I want for Christmas'

"All I want for Christmas is a degree from Wayne State College...." Jill Eschliman of Ericson will be asking for other gifts for Christmas since she was awarded her degree at Wayne State commencement, Dec. 14. Eschliman earned a bachelor's degree in speech communication-corporate and community relations, public relations with a minor in management information systems. In addition to the Christmas wrapping and bow on her cap, Eschliman also earned distinction as an honorable mention graduate with a GPA between 3.50 and 3.69, based on seven semesters of course work.

Women of Excellence awards nominations to be accepted

The 18th annual "Women of Excellence" awards banquet will be held on Tuesday, March 19, 2002 at the Sioux City Convention Center. The event will start with a social hour at 6 p.m. and dinner at 7 p.m.

Sponsored by Women Aware, the awards recognize women whose strength of character, tenacity, and personal growth has enabled them to affect, change, and progress in the Siouxland community.

Women Aware offers the "Women of Excellence" awards in six categories. Women Pursuing Truth honors leadership, knowledge, and perseverance; Women Striving to Improve the Quality of Life honors women who display inner peace, as well as promote respect and understanding; Women Taking Risks recognizes courage and strength of character; Women Working Creatively pays tribute to creativity in the arts; and Women Helping Women recognizes the accomplishments of those who work to assist other women.

The final category, Young Women of Excellence, honors young women, aged 22-40, who have exhibited excellence in their contributions to society.

Nominations will be accepted in all six categories through Tuesday, Feb. 26, 2002. The application fee per nomination is $30. To obtain forms and/or additional information, contact Women Award at 712-258-4174 or via e-mail at unaware@willinet.net.

Recipients of the awards will be announced at the 18th annual Women of Excellence Awards Banquet, to be held Tuesday, March 19, 2002 at the Sioux City Convention Center.

Coat closet needs coats

The Coat Closet at the First Presbyterian Church of Wayne has been busy in recent months.

Since the beginning of September, it has given out more than 300 coats. Of these, over 150 have been distributed in the last three weeks as the weather has turned colder.

Anyone with a good winter coat that is no longer being used, is encouraged to donate it to the Coat Closet. At the present time, the closet needs all sizes, large, small, women's, men's, boys, girls, toddlers and infants.

Coats may be brought to the First Presbyterian Church at the corner of Third and Lincoln Streets or they may be dropped off at K & G Cleaners.

Anyone in need of a coat, or knowing someone who is, is asked to call 375-2669 to set up a time to come in and get one.

Student inducted into honorary

Adam Casey Junck of Wayne, was one of three students recently inducted into Wayne State's Xi Xi Xi chapter of Alpha Phi Sigma, an international criminal justice honorary.

Junck is a junior majoring in criminal justice. He is the son of Ray and Jo Junck of Carroll. He is a member of the Criminal Justice Association.

The purpose of Alpha Phi Sigma is to encourage academic excellence in criminal justice, social service, student support of the Wayne State College social sciences division, and the development of leadership skills among its members.

The students initiated were recognized for superior academic performance having obtained grade point averages of 3.2 or higher in the criminal justice major and ranked in the top 35 percent of their class to qualify for membership.

The Xi Xi Xi chapter was founded in 1997. Dr. Paul Campbell is the 2001-02 faculty advisor.

City to be awarded money for projects

City Council
The City Council will meet Tuesday, Jan. 8 at 7 p.m. in City Hall at Third and Pearl Streets.

Activity Center
The Peter Kiewit Foundation of in Omaha has approved a $250,000 matching grant to help complete the funding for the Community Activity Center. The requirements of the challenge are that we raise the last $376,000 needed to build the project by next September. We will also be seeking funds for an endowment to help operate and upgrade the facility as needed.

Future Electric rates
At this week's meeting, the council, approved a six percent electric rate increase for all customers, beginning with the February billing statement.

This would be for all users and is calculated to cover the 11.5 percent increase last January in our cost to purchase power from NPPD and the 9.5 percent increase in NPPD wholesale rates beginning in January.

If the electricity portion of your monthly bill has been averaging $60 per month, it will increase to an average of $63.60 with the same level of usage. If it has been averaging $100 per month, it will increase to about $106.

City Auditorium
We have received the final renovation design drawings to review before sending out for bids. The committee and city council will be looking at these and plan final approval at the Jan. 8 council meeting.

The renovation committee is planning to meet at the auditorium to review the plans and how they would affect the building and its future uses at 4 p.m. on

Was it divine intervention?

By Ed Howard
Statehouse Correspondent
The Nebraska Press Association

Okay. Okay. O-kay. Never again, and I mean never, will this column suggest that the Almighty has said "No" to Husker fans prior to the last poll having been taken, and the last computer having been burped and rebooted.

Who'd a thought it? The list of teams that lost, to other teams that they should have defeated, was staggering, at least in terms of odds. It was obvious, a few weeks ago, that NU could not possibly wind up in the Rose Bowl.

Divine intervention? Well, I've always regarded that Touchdown Jesus stuff at Notre Dame, and other references to deity in regards to sporting events, as being in poor taste. Stupid, actually. However, if challenged to explain the Huskers' good fortune without reference to the supernatural, I admit that I would have no choice. I'd hem and haw and attempt one of those old Bob Kerrey type speeches. "The future is in the hands of tomorrow, and as he who shall, so shall he who." Something that sounds assertive, but doesn't suggest in the least that I have a clue as to what happened.

As for the response to our previously published suggestion that Nebraskans were mercifully relieved from anxiety since the Huskers obviously wouldn't be playing for the national title - well,

Land O'Goshen, Sandy! You'd a thought someone invited Osama to dinner. (At this juncture, let me note that mail of almost any sort is appreciated, but some of the phone calls to my home were altogether unnecessary.)

So, Nebraska will play for a national title.

Fine. The Husker faithful will have something to celebrate between now and early January; and, hopefully, thereafter as well.

The fact is, NU fans and Nebraskans in general have already been blessed with a holiday gift that should keep them grinning until the Fourth of July.

Think of it. Nebraska got a Rose Bowl berth. It got it through a historic cumbobulation of computer and people factors. And, glory of glories, the whole thing hit Colorado in its collective, arrogant, whining, unsporsmanlike mug like a brick going through a plate-glass window. Or, if you prefer, like a cow pie landing on an egg-sucking skunk.

Hmmmmmm ...
Let me rethink this divine intervention possibility. I'll get back to you in January.

Start a gift that lasts for your children

By State Treasurer
Lorelee Byrd

As the old song reminds us, "this is the most wonderful time of the year..." I hope you find time to enjoy family, friends and reflect. For my family, it is also a time of planning for the New Year. We are list makers and too many times "list breakers."

As a parent, I carefully consider the gifts that I give my children. I look for quality. I want my gift to last. I try to find gifts that provide some benefit to my children.

There is a gift that you can give your children, grandchildren, and other loved ones that will truly last a lifetime. Open a College Savings Plan of Nebraska account and begin preparing for their future. Individuals with a college degree earn about twice as much during their lifetime. On average, a person with a college degree will earn approximately one million dollars more during their income earning years than a person without a college degree.

By opening an account and giving a gift that truly lasts—the gift of education—you can provide for generations to come. But you must hurry if you want to take advantage of the Nebraska Income Tax Deduction for 2001. You need to open an account before December 31, 2001 in order to claim a deduction on this year's tax return.

Call 888-993-3746 for free information on how you can begin. In a hurry? Then visit our website at www.PlanForCollegeNow.com. Please feel free to call me at my office. I will be glad to assist you and answer your questions. My number is 402-471-2455.

As your State Treasurer, I serve as the Trustee of these funds and I believe this is a very good way for families to save for college. Why? The earnings on your account grow totally tax free—that's right—tax free at the state level and after January 1, 2002 the earnings are tax free at the federal level also.

What else? This plan provides for multiple investment options. The funds can be used for tuition, fees, books, room and board, supplies and equipment required for class. You can use the funds at public or private colleges, universities, community colleges, vocational schools and trade schools nationwide.

And that's not all. You can contribute a maximum of $10,000 per year per beneficiary without incurring federal gift taxes. Some families begin with $20 per month—there is no minimum contribution required.

For grandparents, contributions have no impact on financial aid and for parents, the impact is minimal because the contributions are considered a part of the parents' assets, not the child's assets.

So for a gift that will last a lifetime, please consider opening a College Savings Plan of Nebraska account for your children or grandchildren.

Drivers should be extra careful during December

The holiday season is a time for joy and celebration. It's also a time when drunk and drugged drivers are most likely to hit the road, according to the Nebraska Health and Human Services System (HHSS).

"Impaired driving is a leading cause of death for people under age 30," said Dr. Richard Raymond, Chief Medical Officer for HHSS. "When people drink and drive, we all lose."

Nationally, someone dies because of a drunk or drugged driver every 33 minutes, and someone is injured every two minutes, according to the National Highway Transportation Safety Administration. In Nebraska, motor vehicle crashes were the leading cause of accidental deaths, accounting for 302 fatalities in 1999, according to the HHSS Crash Outcome Data Evaluation System (CODES).

According to the Health and Human Services System, during 1999 in Nebraska:

- A total of 42,020 motor vehicle crashes occurred; 2,944 were alcohol-related;
- 302 people were killed in crashes; 91 deaths were the result of alcohol-related crashes; and
- Hospital charges for motor vehicle crashes totaled at least $24 million; $4.8 million of which was the result of alcohol-related crashes.

If a friend of yours has been drinking, there are three steps you can take to help keep them alive:

- Designate a sober driver.
- Call a cab.
- Have your friend sleep over.

Impaired drivers can be reported by calling the Nebraska State Patrol at *55 or #55 on your cell phone, a 1-800-525-5555, or by calling your local law enforcement agency.

way. The City of Laurel is responsible for providing a non-federal cash match of $70,091 or 20 percent of total costs to the project.

"In 2001, communities in every corner of the state applied for $11 million in funding from Nebraska TE. This is the greatest response we've ever had in terms of dollars. It proves that this program is extremely popular and is adding to the quality of life across Nebraska," said John Craig, director of the Nebraska Department of Roads.

The Transportation Enhancement program, part of the federal highway bill, provides funding to local, regional and state government entities for projects that encourage alternative transportation. The funds, administered through the Nebraska Department of Roads, are used for highway beautification, pedestrian and bicycle trails and historic preservation.

Since 1991 the Nebraska Transportation Enhancement program has allocated more than $55 million to 150 communities across the state.

Those assisting with the project included Keith Maje of Otte Construction as general contractor; Carhart Lumber, all the materials; The Wayne Area Jaycees, labor; Gerhold Concrete, concrete; Klein Electric, electrical work; Tau Kappa Epsilon (TKE) fraternity, labor; Pac 'N' Save, food for the workers on two weekends; Clements in Norfolk, a battery operated vehicle for Ande to ride in; Zach Propane, air conditioning; Frank Mrsny, Jr., laying carpet; Holly Holdorf, cakes; Pamida, a TV/VCR; Mrs. Lucille Baker, curtains and Ken Jorgensen, owner of The Max for allowing the use of his facility for the dinner following the dedication.

"The response I got when asking for donations was unbelievable. I was really impressed with the willingness of the community to provide what we needed," Melis said.

Ande has already been able to enjoy her new house. Her mother said she has watched movies on her TV and has told everyone about her own little house.

"The play house will be somewhere she can go to have freedom. It will allow her to be more independent," Leslie said.

The Make A Wish Foundation has granted more than 900 wishes since its beginning in 1980. There are 30 wish grantors like Melis in Nebraska. Approximately 88-90 cents of each dollar donated to the Make A Wish Foundation goes toward fulfilling the wish of the children.

Remembering Christmas' past

Students and staff at Carroll Elementary took a trip down memory lane recently during the school's annual Christmas Program. Carolyn Harder, the school's nurse, served as narrator as the students sang songs from previous programs. Included were videos from 1989, 1992, 1994, 1996, 1997, 1998, 1999 and 2000. The program was preceded by instrumental music from former students of the Carroll School. Cheryl Kopperud directed this year's program, which will be the last, as the school will close at the end of this school year. Since 1975 enrollment at the school has varied from 26 students at that time to a high of 48 students in 1995. At the present time there are 25 students enrolled at Carroll Elementary School.

Council holds final meeting of the year

Clara Osten
Of the Herald

In the last meeting of the year, the Wayne City Council passed three ordinances and five resolutions.

The first of the ordinances will amend the Wayne Municipal Code and allow members of the Recreation Leisure Services Commission to be from outside the city limits.

Ordinance 2001-22 will amend the city code relating to parking in the Donner Pass Addition. This will involve those streets not already within city ordinance to be regulated equally.

Ordinance 2001-23 was passed and the three readings waived, authorizing General Obligation Refunding Bonds. The refinancing of these bonds will allow for a savings to the city of approximately $15,000.

Prior to the passing of that ordinance, three resolutions were passed, a procedure necessary for the current bonds to be called.

Resolution 2001-51 was also passed, establishing a schedule of electric rates in the city. Following an eight percent increase in wholesale rates from Nebraska Public Power, the council voted to increase rates by six percent to all customer classes. It was also noted that costs should be reviewed annually and increases passed on to customers.

Resolution 2001-51 was passed relating to the City of Wayne's relations with Wayne State College, and the community. The resolution comes about after the council's last retreat. It strives for more communication between other institutions in the community, including the college, the county and schools.

Several people spoke in regard to the resolution. Rusty Robinson asked whether the resolution was valid for all entities, and stated that as a business owner, he felt there was a problem between the community and college. Julia Shear asked council members whether there was a specific issue which led to the passage of the resolution. Council members stated that they have been talking about the issue for nearly a year and there was no one issue which prompted the resolution.

In other action, the council set Jan. 18-19 as the dates for the annual retreat. Discussion was held on the location of the retreat and the advantages of having more than one retreat during the year.

A public hearing date of Tuesday, Jan. 8 was set to act on the Planning Commission's recommendation to amend the Wayne City Code regarding the minimum area requirements in A-2 District from five acres to 2.5 acres.

Resolution 2001-50 was table until the Jan. 8 meeting. The resolution deals with approving an application for a Class B Liquor License for HCI-Heritage Express Co. doing business as Heritage Express. The company recently purchased the former Westside Convenience Store on North Main Street.

Councilman Verdel Lutt said he was opposed to the issuing of the liquor license because the corporation has been selling non-taxable gasoline at their stations on the reservations to anyone, saying it would be discrimination not to sell it to non-Native Americans.

A representative of HCI-Heritage Express, was at the meeting to state his position on the issue.

He stated that "nothing we do off-reservation is different than anyone else does. We have businesses in several non-reservation locations and have had no problems. One issue has nothing to do with the other."

Ken Kwapioski, chairman of the Auditorium Renovation Committee, spoke to the council on the final design and bidding for auditorium renovation. The committee would like to have more time to look at the plans before making its recommendation to the council.

Councilman Dennis Linster told the council he would like to know "what are we going to do with the building?" before he approves spending the money.

Kwapioski explained the proposed changes and work that would be done on the building. He also stated that a meeting will be held Tuesday, Jan. 2 to review the plans. The meeting is open to the public.

Matt Nelson claims first and Josh Pieper, second Wayne places two at own meet

By Kevin Peterson
Of the Herald

The annual Wayne Blue Devil Wrestling Tournament was held last Saturday at the high school with Norfolk Catholic coming out on top of perhaps one of the strongest fields in recent history.

The Knights racked up 167 points to out-distance Madison by 27 points. Valley was third with 131 followed by Winside with 108 and Schuyler, 86.

Waverly was sixth with 84.5 points with Wisner-Pilger placing seventh with 49.5 and Pender, eighth at 47. Randolph was ninth with 46 points and Wayne managed 41.5 points for 10th place.

Laurel-Concord netted 11 points and the Wayne JV's, three.

Wayne had two medal winners on the day including Matt Nelson at 125 pounds who won his division.

Nelson defeated Winside's Brandon Suehl in the championship by an 8-1 margin.

Josh Pieper placed runner-up at 152 pounds. Pieper fell to J.P. Malcom of Waverly in the finals.

The Blue Devils wrestled in 10 of the 14 available weight classes.

"Matt Nelson and Josh Pieper had good tournaments," coach John Murtaugh said. "It was a competitive meet in which we learned a lot about what we need to do to get better."

Wayne will host Creighton in dual action on Thursday, Jan. 3 at 1:30 p.m.

On the JV side, Andrew Lowe won his first match by a 9-7 margin before losing by pin. He then won by pin before losing by pin in his fourth match at 135 pounds.

Brandon Pilger wrestled at 140 pounds and lost by pin in his only match.

In wrestling action on Tuesday night in Wayne the Blue Devils dropped a 32-31 decision to Wisner-Pilger.

There were a total of eight matches with each team winning four.

Casey Campbell (140) and Josh Pieper (152) each recorded pins with Matt Nelson (130) winning by major decision and Daniel Reinhardt (135) winning by a 6-0 margin.

Justin Modrell (112) and Dustin Lutt (119) each suffered pins while Josh Hartwell fell by technical fall at 145. Dana Schuett (160) lost a 5-3 decision to Brendan Ruskamp.

"We had our chances to win but just couldn't come through," coach John Murtaugh said. "The quality of our practices over Christmas break will be critical to the success of our team in the second half of the season."

Wayne junior varsity wrestler Andrew Lowe won two matches in the varsity invitational last Saturday including this one where he ended up pinning his opponent. Lowe is also this week's Wrestler of the Week pick by the coaches.

Wildcat women defeated twice

The Wayne State women's basketball team dropped a 65-45 decision to Saginaw Valley State in the opening game of the Disney Classic in Orlando, Florida, on Tuesday morning.

Ryan Williams' Cats were tied with the Cardinal at 25 at the half but WSC shot a dismal percentage in the second half of under 25% while Saginaw Valley State lit up the nets for a 51 percent success rate in out-scoring WSC by a 40-20 margin over the final 20 minutes.

The 45 points was the lowest point total in three years by the Cats.

Karen Hochstein led WSC with 14 points and seven rebounds with Dodie Martin adding eight points while netting a team-high nine caroms.

Christi Williams came off the bench to score nine points.

For the game WSC was just 15-58 from the field for 26% as they fell to 4-5 on the season.

Last Friday night in Rice Auditorium WSC lost to UNO by a 73-59 margin after trailing, 33-25 at the intermission.

UNO used red-hot shooting to knock off the host team, connecting on 56% percent of its shots while WSC was successful on just 37% from the floor.

Karen Hochstein poured in 22 points to lead the Cats with Christi Williams tossing in 14 and Dodie Martin, nine.

WSC did win the boards battle, 35-34 with Hochstein notching nine rebounds with Martin hauling down eight.

Winside nets fourth place at Wayne meet

By Kevin Peterson
Of the Herald

The Winside wrestling team placed fourth at the Wayne Invitational last Saturday with Paul Sok's team netting 108 points.

Norfolk Catholic won the team event with 167 points while Madison placed second with 140 and Valley, third at 131.

The Wildcats had seven medal winners including Tom Schwedhelm at 189 who captured first place honors.

Schwedhelm defeated Josh Ruppert of Madison, 6-4 in the championship after pinning his first two foes.

Jared Jaeger (119) and Brandon Suehl (125) each placed second while Travis Koll (140), Josh Sok (152) and Mike Tomasek (275) each placed third. Bo Brummels added a fourth at 112 pounds.

"We pretty much wrestled up to our seeded spots for the tournament," Sok said. "I thought we could have finished a spot higher in a few of the weights. Excluding districts/state, I thought this was one of the tougher tournaments we've been too in a while."

Sok said there were a lot of returning state qualifiers/placers and current rated individuals which made the tournament extremely competitive.

"I thought the weight classes of 112, 130, 140 and 160 were power packed weights with five or more outstanding wrestlers in each," Sok said. "That's kind of uncommon for an early season tournament."

Sok said his troops need to improve more on their feet.

"We'll continue to work on our improvement and we should see that after the Christmas break," Sok added.

Winside will host its own invite on Saturday, Jan. 5.

Laurel girls still unbeaten

The Laurel-Concord girls and boys cage teams enjoyed a successful week as Susie Koranda's girls won a pair of games and Clayton Steele's boys went 1-0.

The Lady Bears kicked off the week at home with a 54-41 win over Ponca.

The host Bears fell behind early, but picked up the pressure late to get the 54-41 victory.

Emily Schroeder led all scorers for Laurel with 21 points while Katie Peters added 14. Lani Recob scored 12 points and Tori Cunningham, four while Susan Pritchard added two and Maggie Recob, one.

Schroeder led the Bears on the boards with nine caroms while Cunningham added six.

The Bears continued their unbeaten season last Friday night with a 69-26 win over Plainview.

The Lady Bears, (6-0) grabbed the lead early and played aggressively until the end.

"From start to finish we came out and played aggressively both defensively and offensively throughout the game. We were able to shut down Plainview's offense and create opportunities for ourselves with our defensive pressure," Susie Koranda said.

Lani Recob led all scorers for the Bears with 16 points while Tori Cunningham added 15. Other Laurel scorers were Shelby Tyrrell with 10, Katie Peters, nine and Susan Pritchard, eight. Ashley Patefield and Tiffany Erwin scored four each while Maggie Recob added three.

Cunningham gathered 12 boards for the Bears while Recob added seven.

Clayton Steele's boys squad improved to 3-1 with a 71-38 win over Plainview Friday night.

The Bears used pressure defense all night causing 28 turnovers to post the easy win.

"It was an up-tempo game as LCHS got several fastbreak opportunities," said Steele.

Blake Erwin led all scorers for the Bears with 26 while Marc Manganaro added 14. Eric Nelson scored eight as did Tyler Stingley and Bonnie Surber, six while Jared Hartman added

Blue Devils edge Wisner-Pilger

Wayne gals post first victory

The Wayne girls basketball team slipped to 0-4 with a 49-41 setback to West Point last Thursday before first-year head coach James Gagner notched that first win on Friday with a 41-39 victory over Wisner-Pilger.

Both contests were played in the friendly confines of Wayne High with the Blue Devils leading West Point by a 31-24 margin after three quarters of play.

The visiting Cadets however, scored 25, fourth quarter points to notch the win.

Fifteen of those points came from the free throw line.

Karla Keller led Wayne with 12 points while Mary Boehle added 11. Amy Harder and Kari Hochstein added four each while Lindsay Stoltenberg and Allison Hansen tallied three each. Alissa Dunklau and Erin Jarvi each scored two.

Boehle had a team-high nine rebounds. Wayne was 19-34 from the foul line while West Point was 27-41.

Friday against Wisner-Pilger the Blue Devils were tied with the Gators at 21 at the intermission before Wayne took a 29-25 lead after three quarters of play.

With under 30 seconds left in regulation Wayne trailed by two points before tying it. Then with nine seconds left, Kari Hochstein hit a pair of free throws.

"Our girls showed a lot of character and heart when we lost Amy Harder who left the game with a dislocated shoulder," Gagner said.

Karla Keller scored 12 points to lead the winners with Kari Hochstein and Mary Boehle adding nine each and Allison Hansen, six. Alissa Dunklau and Amy Harder each scored two and Christina Gathje, one.

Hochstein led the team on the boards with nine caroms while Boehle and Hansen had five each.

Mary Boehle grimaces at Wisner-Pilger's defense.

Alissa Dunklau stops and pops for two points.

Kari Hochstein shoots over a Wisner-Pilger defender.

Allen boys amidst three-game win streak; Gals beat Raiders

The Allen girls and boys basketball teams played Newcastle last Saturday with Lori Koester's girls and Dave Uldrich's boys coming out winners.

The Allen girls started things off right with a 36-31 victory over the Red-Raiders.

The Eagles gained a 16-8 lead in the first quarter and used their momentum throughout the game to get the win.

"We just came into this game with a lot of confidence and jumped to a 16-8 lead after the first quarter," coach Lori Koeste said.

"We've got to keep our intensity the entire game. We have a tendency to let up when we have a lead and Newcastle really made a run at us in the final quarter."

Angie Sullivan led the Eagles with 12 points while Alycia Stewart added nine. Angela Prochaska scored seven points and Elizabeth Bock, five while Alyssa Uldrich added two and Katie Koester, one.

Stewart led the Eagles with nine boards while Sullivan added eight.

The Allen boys made their presence felt early en rout to a 77-61 win over Newcastle.

"We executed offensively very well the first half. Bryan Gotch played very well offensively and defensively. Corey Uldrich and Brett Keitges did a nice job rebounding, and Bart Sachau was very good offensively handling the ball for us," coach Dave Uldrich said.

"The defense did a very good job in the opening half also. We are starting to come together more and more each game, knowing who will be where, and if we can maintain this, the rest of the season will be very enjoyable."

Bryan Gotch led all scorers for the Eagles with 22 points while Bart Sachau added 20. Corey Uldrich scored 19 with Brett Keitges and David Rahn each scored six. Other scorers for Allen were Andrew Sachau and Aaron Smith each with two.

Uldrich and Keitges led Allen under the boards with each getting nine caroms.

Allen boys/girls will resume competition Thursday night in Wausa.

Tuesday in Allen, Uldrich's Eagles posted their third straight win with a 59-53 victory over Homer—the first win over the Knights in over two decades.

Allen improved to 4-3 on the season. The game was tied at 33 at the break but Allen opened up a 46-39 lead after three quarters of play.

Homer managed to knot the game at 51 but the Eagles got a short jumper from Andrew Sachau to re-gain the lead and

Allen never relinquished it. "Our kids played with great intensity in that second half," Uldrich said. "It's our hope the kids recognize that defense wins games like this one did."

Corey Uldrich poured in 18 points to lead the winners with Brett Keitges netting 16 and Bryant Gotch, 12. Bart Sachau added seven and Duane Rahn, four while Andrew Sachau tallied two.

Keitges posted a double-double with 13 rebounds to go with his 16, points. Uldrich nearly duplicated that feat with nine rebounds.

Uldrich also had five assists and posted three steals.

Blue Devils to host Scotus on Friday Wayne edges Gators

The Wayne boys basketball team improved to 4-1 on the season after a 55-49 win over Wisner-Pilger last Friday at home.

The Blue Devils trailed, 18-12 after one quarter of play but cut that deficit to one by halftime at 28-27.

In the third quarter Wayne pulled ahead with a 12-5 scoring run to take a 39-33 lead to the fourth quarter where both teams managed 16 points.

"It wasn't pretty but we got a win," Wayne coach Rocky Ruhl said. "Wisner played a good game. I think we had a little more depth which helped us win the game. We started out slow and I thought we showed signs of playing four games in seven days. Giving up 18 points in the first six minutes of the game will attest to that."

Ruhl said his team's defense picked up the intensity and with adjustments the Blue Devils came from behind.

Brad Hansen led the winners with 20 points with Brad Hochstein pouring in 18 while Ric Volk added eight.

Luke Christensen finished with five points and Jon Ehrhardt scored three while Ryan Schmeits added a free throw.

Wayne was out-rebounded by the Gators, 21-18 with Jeff Pippitt and Brad Hansen hauling down four caroms each.

Volk dished out seven assists. Wayne had just seven turnovers in the game while Wisner-Pilger finished with 14.

"We need to get back in to the gym and work on a few things," Ruhl added. "Columbus Scotus will provide us with a challenge. They have a tough schedule so their record isn't that great but they play great defense."

Wayne and Scotus will square off following the girls contest on Friday night in Wayne.

In JV action last Friday, Wayne downed the Gators, 49-16. Bryan Fink scored 12 points with Chris Nissen tossing in nine.

Travis Luhr and Heath Dicks each scored seven with Brady Heithold and Mike Sturm scoring six apiece. Austin Leightly tallied two points for the 4-1 Blue Devils.

Other recent Wayne JV scores included a 55-32 win over Logan View, a 42-39 setback to Columbus Lakeview and a 42-26 win over Schuyler.

Scoring went as follows:

Winside girls drop pair of games while Wildcat boys defeat B-R; Fall to Bulldogs

Winside's girls and boys basketball teams each played a pair of games the past week-and-a-half.

Winside dropped a 65-32 decision to Bancroft-Rosalie early last week.

The Wildcats fell behind early 23-11 after the first quarter and never were able to get back in the game.

Julie Jacobsen lead all scorers for Winside with 12 points while Becky Krause added nine. Kalynda Hokamp scored five with Julie Longnecker and Stacey Rabe each adding two. Other scorers for the Wildcats were Susan Wittler and Kayla Bowers each with one.

Jacobson led Winside under the boards with nine caroms while Amy Rademacher added five.

"We need to take care of the ball better. We still have too many turnovers to compete with some teams. The effort is there we just need to keep improving every game," said coach Marlon Erbst.

The (1-5) Wildcats suffered their second loss of the week last Friday night with a 44-34 loss to Coleridge.

Leading 10-8 at the end of one quarter, Coleridge began to pull away outscoring Winside 36-24 in the final three periods to get the win.

Julie Jacobsen led all scorers for Winside with 14 points while Susan Wittler netted nine. Other Wildcat scorers were Amy Rademacher with six, Kayla Bowers, four and Makayla Marotz with one.

Jacobson led Winside under the boards with 14 caroms while Kalynda Hokamp added eight.

Winside's boys fell to Coleridge, 51-48 last Friday night in Coleridge.

Coleridge led 23-21 at the half but the Bulldogs used a 16-7 scoring burst in the third quarter to lead, 39-28.

Winside however, bounced back to tie the game at 46 and had possession of the ball with under a minute left in regulation but could not manage to post the win.

Ben Lienemann led all scorers for Winside with 23 points while Adam Hoffman added 19. Other Wildcat scorers were Denton Cushing, Michael Hawkins, and Nate Willis all with two.

Hoffman led Winside in rebounds with nine while Cushing posted seven.

Winside did defeat Bancroft-Rosalie early last week, 63-55.

Trailing 17-13 through the first quarter, Winside picked up the intensity and came away with the

Hunters safety course is not just for hunters

It won't be long before hunters will be sending in their application for big game permits for mule deer, antelope and elk.

Before you go through all of the work to fill out the application, you should make sure that you have your Hunter's Safety Course out of the way. In most states, both firearm and archery hunters past a certain age are required to have completed the course.

In most states, including Nebraska and South Dakota, hunters over the age of 12 are required to have completed their Hunter's Safety Course before they can legally hunt.

In many states including Nebraska, any person born after 1-1-1977 who hunts with a firearm any species of game, game birds or big game must have completed the Hunter's Safety Course.

Other states have similar laws, in Colorado for instance, if you were born after 1949 and plan to hunt in the state, you're required to have completed the course in order to apply for a big game permit. Hunter's Safety Course regulations can vary from state to state, so check with the state Game, Fish & Parks of the state that you plan on hunting to see what their requirements are.

Don't think that because it's a Hunter's Safety Course that you need to be a hunter to benefit from it! The course would benefit anyone, because it familiarizes the students with guns, how they work and how to safely handle them.

Another misconception is that you have to be a kid to take the course. Not true! The course is open to everyone.

In the classes that I've helped teach, we've had young, old, male and females. We're seeing more and more females taking the course. As a matter of fact, some of the best shots when we go to the field with our classes are the girls.

Funding for the program comes from taxes collected on the sale of firearms, ammunition and archery equipment. The Pittman-Robertson Act or the Federal Aid in Wildlife Restoration Act which funds the Hunter's Safety Program is another good example of hunters helping to not only promote their own sport, but to promote a better understanding and the safe handling of guns.

Gary Howey
Of the Outdoors

Seventy-five percent of the funding for the program comes from the Pittman-Robertson Act with the remaining twenty-five percent is matched by the state.

In most states, the twenty-five percent matching funds is taken care of by converting the hours that the volunteer instructors donate to a dollar figure that is used for the matching funds.

In the class students will not only learn about gun safety, they'll also learn many other things including: hunter's responsibilities, wildlife management, wildlife identification, hunting skills, survival and first aid.

It's a ten hour course that will not only teach you gun safety; it's one that will teach you about the outdoors and the animals that live in it.

For information on the Hunter's

Safety Course, a list of dates, locations and where the classes will be held, go to the Nebraska or South Dakota Game site.

Check presented

The Friends of the Wayne County Museum presented the Wayne County Museum with a check for $3,200 for painting the exterior of the museum. This represents the funds raised during their "Christmas Tour of Homes" held on Dec. 1. The Friends of the Wayne County Museum is a group of eight women whose goal is to raise money for the many needs of the museum. Members of the Friends of the Wayne County Museum are: center clockwise, Claudia Adams, Lois Shelton (member and president of the Wayne County Historical Society), Kaki Ley, Marlene Broer, Joann Proett, Lorita Tompkins, and Paula Schwarten, Jodie Jordan (not present).

Goodwill trailer to be in Wayne

Goodwill's Ambassador trailer has been coming to Wayne as a regular visitor for the past several years in order to receive donations.

The trailer will be in Wayne from Tuesday, Dec. 25 through Monday, Dec. 31.

Serviceable, but no-longer used items to be donated to Goodwill should be placed in the Ambassador trailer at the Pac 'N' Save parking lot. Please do not deposit trash in the trailer.

The trailer generally arrives by 4 p.m. on the arrival date and is removed by 10 a.m. on the departure date. It is open from 8 a.m. until 8 p.m. on other days. Those bringing items are asked to deposit all items as far forward in the trailer as possible.

Furniture and large appliances cannot be accepted, due to limited trailer space.

Please do not leave donations on the ground before, during or after the trailer's arrival.

Donated goods from Wayne will be processed and received into one of the Goodwill retail outlets.

Goodwill is a non-profit organization that provides rehabilitation services to over 400 persons with disabling conditions annually by providing work opportunities and training, which enables them to become wage earners and tax-paying citizens. This service is funded by the sale of donated goods.

Caffeine May Boost Mental Awareness in Some Persons

A study conducted at Hofstra University in New York suggests that heavy caffeine users may not get the same boost from the stimulant as do conservative users. Volunteers were divided into groups - frequent and infrequent users. Persons in each group were given either a moderately high dose of caffeine or an inactive placebo. All participants were then instructed to type a page of randomly selected words and phrases. Of those who received caffeine, typing speed increased among both the frequent and infrequent caffeine users. Interestingly, the infrequent caffeine users produced fewer errors, indicating that they may have been more mentally aware than were the heavy caffeine users.

The results of this study may support the occasional use of caffeine as a supplement for mental awareness. Yet, use of caffeine is not without its drawbacks. Caffeine can increase blood pressure and may not be appropriate for persons with high blood pressure, heart disease, and anxiety.

Wayne High band members travel to South Dakota

Members of the Wayne High School Marching Band were invited to Brookings, S.D. on Nov. 3 by the South Dakota State University's "Pride of the Dakotas" Marching Band to attend the annual Marching Band Day.

The Wayne Band students arrived at 9 a.m. and observed the morning rehearsal of the SDSU Marching Band and then ate lunch with the SDSU band students. The lunch was provided by SDSU.

Following lunch, the Wayne band students marched with the SDSU band to the 'tail-gate' performance in the parking lot and then into the stadium for the football game.

Kari Mitchell, daughter of Dennis and Kathy Mitchell of Wayne is a freshman at SDSU and is a member of the "Pride of the Dakotas" Marching Band. The band is 260 members strong, with 46 members in the Drum Line of which Kari is a member, playing mallets in the pit.

Eddie Baier stands by the cake provided for his retirement party Dec. 5 after driving the Handi-Bus in Wayne for 30 years.

Retires from driving Handi-Van

Eddie Baier recently retired from driving the Handi-Van for the City of Wayne for the past 10 years. Baier noted he drove over 50,000 miles in town transporting around 60,000 people during that time.

Wanting a part-time job, Baier took the position after retiring from working at Waldbaums in Wakefield. He said he first started with Georgia Janssen as a supervisor, next was Tracy McDermott, and now his supervisor was Tracy Keating. During his 10 years, he trained three other drivers.

When asked his plans are now, "We want to do some vacation traveling," Baier said.

A reception was held for Baier at the Wayne Senior Center on Dec. 5.

Wiseman takes oath at UNMC

Eric Wiseman of Wayne has taken Oath of Professionalism in the University of Nebraska Medical Center College of Dentistry Blue Coat ceremony.

Forty-five second-year dental students and 20 third-year dental hygiene students recently signed pledges committing themselves to a higher level of professional responsibility as they began their clinical experiences at the University of Nebraska Medical Center College of Dentistry in Lincoln.

The college's first Clinic Transition Ceremony took place at the UNMC College of Dentistry. According to John Reinhardt, D.D.S., dean of the college, the ceremony was a celebration of the students' transition into patient care as well as an opportunity to stress the importance of professionalism—including appearance, ethical behavior, honesty and compassion—in caring for the needs of patients.

The students, who were given new blue lab coats and the commemorative pens used to sign their pledges, will start seeing patients soon in the college's clinics.

In signing the pledge, students committed themselves to treating patients "with concern for their comfort, safety and confidentiality." They also agreed "to uphold the dignity of the dental profession by serving all patients with integrity and respect" and to advance their knowledge and strengthen their skills throughout their educational experience and their professional careers.

Girl Scout cookie sales are Jan. 4 -21

The Girl Scouts of Prairie Hills Council will begin taking cookie orders on Jan. 4, 2002.

Expect a Girl Scout to appear on your doorstep or to ask for your order at church, school or the grocery store. For just $3 per box you can enjoy Thin Mints, Caramel deLites, Peanut Butter Patties, Peanut Butter Sandwich, ketting and entrepreneurial skills as well as some important communication skills.

Proceeds from the cookie sale help sponsor troop programs and activities, council facilities, training and council-sponsored programs throughout the council's 19-county jurisdiction in northeast Nebraska. It also helps purchase needed troop supplies and camping equipment, as well as maintain and develop the council's 150-acre campsite, Camp Crossed Arrows. When you buy Girl Scout cookies, you really are helping Girls Grow Strong.

To order your Girl Scout cookies, please call Terri Headley at 375-3160.

Shortbread or Animal Treasures. If you prefer a reduced fat variety, ask for Lemon Pastry Cremes. And, be sure to try the newest Girl Scout Cookie, Friendship Circles.

In 2002, Girl Scouting celebrates its 90th birthday. A new cookie named for an old Girl Scout tradition, Friendship Circles, honors the occasion. They are made by sandwiching a creamy chocolate filling between two crisp vanilla cookies. But the thing that makes them "Friendship Circles" is that each of the cookie sides has the word "friend" embossed in one of 18 different languages.

Prairie Hills Girl Scouts have been selling cookies for over 50 years and the sale is an important part of the Girl Scout program in many ways. Girls learn sales, mar-

"I just couldn't see too good anymore, everything was kind of scummy. I didn't even know I had cataracts until I came to Feidler Eye Clinic.

I'd recommend it to everybody, the whole process, hospital, surgery, recovery. The worst part was having to be there so early! There was no lay-up at all. I could do housework and work in my upholstery shop the next day!

I now have 20/20 vision, all the fuzziness is gone. The staff here at Feidler Eye Clinic is great. They are caring and concerned about you. They even called me at home to see if I was doing ok."

Getting the message through

The most important message that a person-child or adult can receive is that they are important to others—that they belong and they are needed. In other words, that they are loved.

Many things are done in the name of love, and each of us have a slightly different definition of it.

Throughout the year, and at the holiday season especially, we do many things out of love for others. But sometimes the message of love we are trying to send doesn't get through. What we do is interpreted differently than we intended, and our spouse, child or friend doesn't feel loved. It doesn't matter that love was behind what we did, or what our intentions were. If the message doesn't get through, the relationship is affected.

During the holiday season, in our frenzy to make this the peak time of year for giving love, the message gets lost in tiredness, stress and preoccupation with preparations. Rather than receiving our message of love, others may get the message that we are more about all these things than we do about them.

Is the message you are sending getting through? No matter WHAT we do won't get the message across if HOW we do it conveys an attitude or feeling counter to that message. What we do is never as important as how we do it in getting the message through.

There are three (at least) to the message we need to send. These are acceptance, affection and appreciation.

Acceptance or unconditional love, sends the message that "I love you no matter what you do." Until a person feels safe enough to be less than perfect around you, this message isn't getting through. Instead, others (child-dren, spouse, co-workers) are defensive and guarded around you rather than receptive. It is impossible for them to learn or grow in ways your love for them would lead you to hope. Listening and being accepting of mistakes in yourself and others, sends a message that it is safe to be open and get the message across, and keep it coming, affection needs to be expressed often and consistently. It may take time for the message to get through if it has not been making it, but it is never too late to start.

We also need to send the message that "I need you" to those we love. This is the message of appreciation, and it is the one that motivates all of us to keep trying and giving and forgiving with those we care about. Like other types of communication, it is learned, not inborn. If we have a difficult time expressing appreciation, we can learn to do it more easily. If it is warranted, set to goal to say something specific and sincere to each person you care about each day. They may be surprised or even suspicious at first, but be persistent. It can send a powerful message.

Find out if others are receiving the message you are trying to send. In addition to making sure you are sending the message of love you intend to, check out how your message is coming across. Ask questions and be prepared to listen. You know you love them. Make sure the message gets through.

honest with you. Affection sends the message "I love to be with you." Through hugs, words, tangible acts or gifts, we try to express our affection. To

Barbara Pederson, the time has come when you're going to have to confront some really difficult decisions.

Whether to wake up early or sleep in.
Whether to go work in your garden or read a good book.
Whether to shovel the walk or just watch it snow.
Whether to watch a movie or a sunset.

You've got some tough choices ahead, Barb. We hope you thoroughly enjoy every one of them, you deserve it.

Congratulations on your retirement and thank you for 17 years of service for Mike Lutt at Country Nursery.

Help Barbara celebrate her retirement Saturday, December 22, 3 p.m. to 6 p.m. at Tacos & More, Wayne

We will miss you. Country Nursery

Jesus, on the other hand, loves you regardless of whether you're naughty or nice.

Unconditional love and forgiveness are the Christmas gifts of Jesus Christ. Join us as we celebrate the miracle of his birth.

VFW auxiliary holds meeting

Veterans of Foreign Wars Auxiliary to Post #5291 met in the Neva Lorenzen home Dec. 10. This was a regular meeting. President Glennadine Barked presided at the meeting which was opened according to ritual. Seven members answered roll call.

Minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved and the treasurer's report indicated all obligations and current bills were paid.

In Communications, General Orders No. 3 were read and will be filed.

Excerpts from Department President Barbara Huettmann's letter, "The Clipper," were read. Volunteers are needed for Veterans hospitals and clinics. "With Christmas just around the corner, a great gift idea would be to give flag kits or a book on the flag." Instructions on disposing of worn U.S. flags was included.

Holiday greeting were received from District 3 President Joyce Munson.

Committee reports were given. They included the Hospital Committee report that Eveline Thompson is hospitalized in Faith Regional Hospital in Norfolk. Members will sign a get well card and mail it to her.

The Community Activities report was a letter from the Wayne Area Chamber of Commerce regarding the purchase of flags to fly east and west of Seventh Street and replacing worn Main Street flags. Members of the group voted to purchase a flag for this project.

The Draping of the Charter and Memorial Services were held for Amy Lindsay who died Oct. 17, 2001.

Closing ceremonies were then held.

There will be no meetings in January or February. A trustee's meeting will be held in January.

The meeting will re-open on March 11, 2002.

A cooperative salad luncheon and gift exchange followed the meeting.

Briefly Speaking

Antibiotic - Resistant Pneumonia Increase

At one time bacterial infections responsible for pneumonia were relatively easy to treat with "old-time" antibiotics such as penicillin. According to a report in The Journal of the American Medical Association, this is now longer the case. Studies in 1995 showed that 11% of samples of invasion bacterium Streptococcus pneumoniae were resistant to macrolide antibiotics such as erythromycin, clarithromycin, and azithromycin. By 1999 resistance had increased over 20%. During this same time period the use of these antibiotics had increased 13% overall and 320% in children under age 5.

Everyone can do something about antibiotic resistance, a worldwide problem. First, we should not use antibiotics unless they are needed. Viral infections, for example, do not respond to antibiotics. Second, we should finish any course of a prescribed antibiotic, rather than taking only a portion of a prescription, which occurs frequently.

Holidays are stressful

Livestock Market Report

As usual, the week before Christmas, I'm waking up earlier and earlier, no better organized than I was last year! The annual letter just got mailed yesterday, I haven't finished shopping, and I need to clean out the refrigerator to get ready for the weekend of cooking.

To add to the stress level, I'm doing a luncheon for 16 ladies today. They are March of Dimes volunteers who are being rewarded with a holiday meal at the Farm House. I thought it was only right that we should entertain folks from an organization that helped the Big Farmer 50-years-ago.

Sanding the new dry wall in the basement has created quite a layer of dust all over the house. So, the Pledge cloths have been busy.

Then, I made four pie crusts and cooked two packages of bacon for quiche. I froze fruit slush and baked brownies. My Mom contributed her cinnamon rolls.

Last night, I put in all the table leaves and covered it with white sheets. Then, I dragged out every chair in the place; including two that were in the basement, covered with dust.

This morning, I've got out pitch-

The Farmer's Wife
By: Pat Meierhenry

ers and coffee makers, lined up the kitchen table for the final assembly, and mixed cranberry juice and cider. Why do I say I'll do these things?!

Last Saturday, I served punch and cookies at the Aldrich House. It is totally decked out with a tree in every room and two on the sun porch, and it is beautiful.

On Sunday afternoon, we drove to Norfolk to attend the Christmas program in which Myles and Jacey were participating. Somehow, the age old acting out of the nativity always seems special, no matter how many times I've seen it.

As Jacey says, we "slept over," and did some overdue visiting on Monday. A friend at Bel-Air, an aunt at the Meadows, and another aunt in her home. In between, we had lunch and ran into old friends from Winside. All in all, it was a wonderful day. And still warm, and sun shined!

All the kids will be at the Farm House on Sunday, so it will be noisy here. Then, on Christmas Eve, we will see another program; this one at Seward, with Thomas and Alex.

We are just so grateful that our family is intact, that we can worship in freedom and that the weather is mild. We'll keep on praying for our leaders, our military personnel, and all those folks who will be working the holidays. I remember, and I appreciate them. Merry Christmas!

The Norfolk Livestock Market fat cattle sale was held on Friday with 1,100 head sold. Prices were $2 to $2.50 lower on fat cattle. Cows were steady.

Farm Bureau leaders attend convention

Dale Jackson, Verlan Hingst, Gregg Carr and Courtland Roberts of Allen were Dixon County Farm Bureau's voting delegates to the 2001 Nebraska Farm Bureau Convention, held Dec. 2-5 in North Platte.

The Farm Bureau House of Delegates, representing the 86 county Farm Bureaus, reiterated its support for determining agricultural land valuations using an income approach; approved of more incentives for ethanol production in the state and for encouraging drivers to purchase ethanol; said commodity checkoff boards need to have substantial producer support before seeking to increase checkoffs; and urged broad-based funding for water quality programs.

They expressed concern about the future of animal agriculture in Nebraska and encouraged county zoning boards to re-evaluate zoning regulations that hinder livestock development.

Featured speakers at the meeting included Gov. Mike Johanns and Bob Stallman, president of the American Farm Bureau Federation. Johanns announced a new state grant program designed to promote innovative specialty crop projects that will help diversify Nebraska's agricultural production. The competitive program will give priority to cooperative projects, he said.

Stallman emphasized the importance of the President having Trade Promotion Authority, to enter into trade agreements with foreign governments that are subject to approval, but not modification, by the Senate. Such authority is necessary for any administration's negotiators to be taken seriously by potential trading partners, he said.

In his 20th annual address, Nebraska Farm Bureau President Bryce Neidig repeated his call for an objective, in-depth study of Nebraska's entire tax system. "We need to identify who pays and who benefits and then develop a system that deals with the results," he emphasized. Farm Bureau remains committed to developing a tax system that is less dependent on property and a school system that is less dependent on local property for financing, he said.

Roberts recognized

Paul Roberts of rural Carroll was recently rewarded for his achievement as a sales associate with Patriot Seed, Inc., earning the status of Field Commander.

At Patriot's annual Kick-Off Meeting, held this year in Quincy, Ill., the 2001 Field Commanders were announced. Roberts was presented with a plaque honoring his achievement with Patriot Seed at his field day held on his farm in September. He has been an Associate with Patriot Seed since 1995.

The Field Commanders are a select group of individuals who function as an advisory council for Patriot Seed. At the annual Field Commander meeting held each winter, the group reviews policies, helps to create new programs and discuss product selection. Sales Associates qualify for Field Commander status through their sales volume.

Patriot Seed, Inc., was founded in 1992 and maintains its headquarters in Bowen, Ill. Patriot Seed is a full-line, farmer-owned seed company that handles corn, soybeans, alfalfa, grain sorghum and wheat. As a Patriot Associate, Roberts receives training to help his customers best utilize the products and services Patriot Seed offers so they can maximize their profitability in their farming operations.

Don't Make This A Familiar Sight in Wayne

Ed's MERCHANDISE

GOING OUT OF BUSINESS!

Sale!

Sale!

Don't make this a familiar sight!

Most stores close because local people did too much shopping out of town. In fact, there are many cases where most of the retail businesses in a community have closed.

If that were to happen in Wayne, who would be left to pay this community's taxes? The empty store fronts wouldn't be able to pay their share.

Who would be contributing work and money toward local groups and projects that we all are interested in?

Keeping Wayne healthy is everyone's responsibility & the results benefit us all.

ITS SIMPLE TO UNLOCK THE INTERNET.

CALL NORTHEAST NEBRASKA COMNET NOW AND HAVE ACCESS TO ALL THE EXCITEMENT, INFORMATION AND KNOWLEDGE THAT SURFING THE INTERNET OFFERS!

What is DSL?
DSL stands for digital subscriber line. The technology uses regular copper telephone lines to connect homes and small businesses to the Internet at high speeds. Those speeds typically range from 256K to 1.544 mbps (nearly 30 times faster than a 56K modem) for downstream transfers, which are downloads or file transfers to your PC.

What do these numbers mean? Simply put you can have an Internet connection at speeds approaching those of a T1 line for a fraction of the price.

How does it Work?
DSL uses digital technology to send oodles of compressed data over traditional telephone lines. The trick involves using special modems at both ends that encode the data and then transmit it over an unused frequency on the line.

Qwest will provide you a line back to the Central Office and then you choose Northeast Nebraska ComNet as your Internet Service Provider. It's easy and fast. You won't have to change your email address or the great service you currently receive.

How much does it Cost?
There are two options available from Qwest for the Line. Northeast Nebraska ComNet's charges will not change. Currently Qwest has a promotion that was extended for a free modem and activation.

Northeast Nebraska ComNet has no control over busy signals with DSL as Qwest Communication sets all this. If you have troubles with connecting and with busy signals please contact Qwest Communications. Please contact Qwest on the current promotion for more information.

With DSL Services

from Northeast Nebraska ComNet you will continue to have access to quality Internet Services, Outstanding Technical Support and the knowledge of many years experience in the Internet Industry. October of 1999 ComNet had a solution for DSL services that we wanted to bring to Wayne. US West would not let ComNet provide those DSL services to You, We will continue to fight to bring quality services and advanced technologies to Wayne and all of our other communities.

GARDEN CLUB MEETS
Members of the Hoskins Garden Club met at the Community Center, went to a Norfolk restaurant for dinner, then returned to the Community Center for their meeting.

President Hildegarde Fenske opened the meeting with the reading entitled "Take Time." Roll call was answered by telling what your plans are for Christmas. Christine Lueker read the minutes of the November meeting.

For the program, Lorraine Wesely brought tapes of Christmas music. Accompanied by the tape, the group sang "O Come, All Ye Faithful," "O Tannenbaum," "O Little Town of Bethlehem," "Esther Rechtermann read the article; "Handel's Christmas Masterpiece." Shirley Mann shared "The Glory of Highway 69." Hildegarde brought the White House Historical Association 2001 Christmas ornament and read the story connected with it. Christine read "An Old-Fashioned Christmas" and "Christmas City of the High Plains." The program concluded with the singing of "Silent Night."

Refreshments of coffee, cookies and candy were shared.

The members brought non-perishable food gifts for the Food Pantry.

The next meeting will be a planning meeting at the Shirley Mann home on April 25, 2002.

ZION LUTHERAN LADIES MEET
Zion Lutheran Ladies Aid and LWML met for their annual Christmas potluck dinner and meeting at noon on Dec. 6 with nine members and 14 guests and Pastor Riege present.

President Inez Freeman extended the welcome and Pastor Riege led in prayer. Following the noon meal, a bake sale and afghan auction was held. Pastor Riege was the auctioneer for the afghan that was made by Elaine Ehlers and which was purchased by Sophie Eldhart. The proceeds of the sale will go into the Zion Centennial fund.

A short meeting was held. Members answered roll call by paying 5 cents if you had your Christmas decorations up and 10 cents if you didn't. Secretary and treasurer's reports were given. The card committee reported sending two visitor's cards. Thank yous were received for Christmas donations which had been given.

Altar Guild for December includes: Donna Kruger, Julie Luebe, Kerenia Eckstom, and Kristy Luebe. Donna and LaVerda Kruger are on the Flower Committee. The hostess for January 2002 will be Elaine Ehlers. The meeting closed with the Lord's Prayer.

A Christmas skit was presented by the officers with Christmas carols sung by all. A gift exchange was held with secret friends being revealed. A grab bag gift exchange by the guests was also held, after which coffee and bars were served by the hostesses Joyce Saegebarth and Donna Kruger. Door prizes were won by Susan Talbot and Hilda Hamm. The birthday song was sung for LaVerda Kruger.

The next meeting will be held on Jan. 3, 2002 at 1 p.m.

ATTEND GRANDSON'S WEDDING
On Dec. 7, Julius and Ester Rechtermann went to visit John and Cathy Rechtermann in Richmond, Mo. Another son, Joe Rechtermann of Alexandria, VA, was also there. They attended the wedding of their grandson, Justin Rechtermann, and Sarah Leamer on Dec. 8 at the First Christian Church in Polo, Mo.

The following day, the Rechtermanns enjoyed a family Christmas celebration with Jeff, Kris, and Austin Rechtermann in attendance also.

While the Rechtermanns were in Richmond, Rev. Barbara Burr, a family friend from Lowden, Iowa, came for a visit. Julius, Esther, and Joe Rechtermann returned to Hoskins on Dec. 10. Joe flew back to Alexandria, VA, on Dec. 13.

Bill and Hildegard Fenske were also among the guests at the wedding of Justin Rechtermann and Sarah Leamer on Dec. 8. They returned home on Dec. 9.

Wakefield News

Mrs. Walter Hale

HONOR GRADUATE

Kimberly White of Wakefield is one of two Wayne State College honor graduates who spoke during commencement ceremonies on Dec. 14. She graduated Summa cum Laude (3.90-4.00 GPA) with a bachelor of science degree in business-accounting.

Dr. Sheila Stearns, president of the college presented 256 bachelor's degrees and 56 master's and education specialist degrees.

Debra K. Nicholson of Wakefield graduated Cum Laude (3.70 to 3.79 GPA). She received her BS degree in vocal and instrumental music education K-12.

Rachel Dutcher received her BS degree in computer information systems.

Jennifer Haglund Greve earned her BS degree in computer information systems, business-human resource management.

Dutcher and Greve are Wakefield graduates.

PROGRESS REPORTED

Progress reports were given out to students on Dec 5. If any parent did not receive a report, please call Mrs. Remer at school and she will get you another copy of grades.

ASSISTS EDITING

"Black Elk Lives" by Esther Black Elk DeSera, Olivia Black Elk Pouries, Aaron DeSera, Jr. and Clinton DeSera and edited by Hilda Neihardt and Lori Utecht, was selected as an Honor Book in the 2001 Nebraska BookAward Competition's non-fiction category. The competition was sponsored by the Nebraska Center for the Book and was published by University of Nebraska Press.

Mrs. Utecht is the daughter of Merlyn and Mardell Holm of Wakefield. At the time when she helped edit the work, she was curator at the Neihardt Center at Bancroft. Lori and her husband, Sam, now live at Rio Preto, Brazil, which is located in the south-eastern part of the country in the state of Sao Paulo.

OFFERS QUICKEN CLASS

The Wakefield Future Business of American Chapter (FBLA) will hold a class to teach small business owner and community members how to use Quicken. Quicken is a computer program that manages financial transactions. It can also be used to balance checkbooks, budget expenses, and make income tax time less hectic. This class will be held Monday, Jan. 14 from 6:30-9:30 p.m. in the Business Technology room (former library).

FBLA's goals for the project are to promote economic education and create a partnership between FBLA and the community. The class will be free of charge and open to the public and refreshments will be provided.

If you are interested, please contact FBLA supervisor Mrs. Jennifer Goos at Wakefield Community School, 287-2012. Class size is limited, so register as soon as possible.

COMMUNITY CALENDAR

Put food safety first for the holidays

A few simple tips can keep foodborne illness from spoiling holiday gatherings, a University of Nebraska food specialist said.

"As you prepare your festive holiday spreads, remember to keep foods fresh and safe to eat," Food Specialist Julie Albrecht said. "If food containing harmful bacteria is consumed, it could cause foodborne illness. Improper preparation, undercooking and allowing food to sit for long periods increase the chance for illness."

For holiday buffets, it's smart to put out small portions that will be eaten quickly and refresh the buffet table often, the Institute of Agriculture and Natural Resources specialist said.

"Foods should never sit at room temperature for more than two hours," she said. "If a dish is meant to be served cold, be sure it is thoroughly chilled beforehand and use serving dishes with heating elements to keep hot foods hot. Keep covers on the dishes to help maintain the proper temperature."

Though the holidays may seem rushed, slowing down to ensure safety is a good idea, Albrecht said.

"The holidays often find people preparing food for large groups of friends or family. There is lots of hustle and bustle," she said. "But when you're serving family and friends, you want to keep the holidays happy and avoid foodborne illness. Take the time to plan and do things right."

The following tips can help prevent foodborne illness.

- Wash your hands with soap and water for 20 seconds before and after handling raw food.
- Use plastic or nonporous cutting boards. Wash cutting boards in the dishwasher or with hot, soapy water after each use. Use one cutting board for meats and another for salads or ready-to-eat foods.
- Never defrost or marinate food at room temperature. Use the refrigerator. Foods also can be defrosted in the microwave if they will be used immediately.
- Store raw meat or seafood on a plate or tray to keep juices from dripping onto other foods.
- Never place cooked food on a plate that previously held raw meat or seafood unless the plate has been washed.
- Don't spread bacteria with dirty sponges, dishcloths or towels. Use paper towels or freshly cleaned sponges or cloths, soap and hot water to clean food preparation areas.
- Use a food thermometer to make sure foods are cooked to a safe internal temperature.
- When microwaving, cover, stir and rotate foods to avoid cold spots.
- Divide large portions of leftovers into shallow containers for quick cooling in the refrigerator.
- Don't overstuff the refrigerator. Cold air must circulate to keep food safe. Make sure the refrigerator temperature is below 40 degrees and the freezer temperature is below 0 degrees.

Leftovers should be reheated to 165 degrees. To reheat sauces, soups and gravies, bring them to a boil.

Commercially made egg-nogs are pasteurized. To make a homemade batch of this favorite holiday drink, be sure to purchase eggs that have been pasteurized in the shell or use an egg substitute.

Margaret Korn stands by the Christmas lap quilt or wall hanging given as a door prize during the recent Quilt Show hosted by Wayne Housing Authority.

Quilt Show is held at Wayne Housing Authority

A quilt show was hosted by Wayne Housing Authority in celebration of the kitchen remodeling recently made.

Residents came forth with various designed quilts and afghans. The oldest quilt, the double wedding ring pattern, belonged to Jeanine Anderson and was made in 1937. The second oldest was pieced and quilted by resident Ina Rieth's mother, Julia Karnes in the 1940s.

Margaret Korn's name was drawn by resident, Mary Dorsey, for the door prize, a Christmas lap quilt or wall hanging.

Other patterns were embroidered, a Santa quilt, 9 block, trip around the world, log cabin, shooting stars, strawberry patch and numerous baby or crib quilts.

After viewing the quilts in the apartments, visitors enjoyed a visit over coffee and cookies in the community building where a dozen afghans were also displayed.

Among these afghans was a white christening blanket crocheted by Hilda Benjamin for an expected great grandchild in February.

Special programs to be aired on public radio and television

Sustain the holiday spirit at home, the office or your car by tuning in to special seasonal programming on the Nebraska ETV Network, NETV2 or the Nebraska Public Radio Network (NPRN).

On Friday, Dec. 21, at 8:30 p.m. CT (7:30 MT), NPRN's "Nebraska Concerts a la Carte" will feature Dulces Voces' holiday concert, a performance of early and Renaissance pieces by the Lincoln-based vocal ensemble. At 10:30 p.m. CT (9:30 MT), "Joy to the World," a melodious mixture of holiday jazz hosted by jazz pianist Bob Thompson, will air. Ending the week on a festive note, NPRN host Dave Hughes has selected a unique mix of holiday-inspired jazz, blues, Cajun and world music to air Saturday, Dec. 22, at 11 p.m. CT (10 MT) during "Late in the Evening Holiday Party."

Some of the holiday programs Nebraska ETV will present the week include on Saturday, Dec. 22, at 10 p.m. CT (9 MT), viewers can join Red Green and the Possum Lodge gang for a unique and humorous perspective on the holidays during "It's a Merry Red Green Christmas."

"It's a Merry Red Green Christmas" is closed captioned for hearing-impaired viewers.

NPRN broadcasts on the following frequencies: Alliance/91.1 FM; Bassett/90.3 FM; Chadron/91.9 FM; Columbus/90.3 FM; Culbertson/92.7 FM; Falls City/91.7 FM; Harrison/89.5 FM; Hastings/Grand Island/89.1 FM; Lexington/88.7 FM; Lincoln/91.1 FM (new frequency as of Nov. 1); Max/93.3 FM; McCook/92.7 FM; Merriman/91.5 FM; Norfolk/89.3 FM; and North Platte/91.7 FM.

NPRN programming is webcast live on NPRN's Web site (nprn.org) or through a link on NET Online (net.unl.edu). All that is needed is access to the Internet and a free Real Player program. Webcasting of NPRN is a free service provided by NET.

Nebraska ETV, NPRN and NET Online are services of NET. The complete program schedule for NPRN is available on NET Online (net.unl.edu).

Family dinner

Health, Human Performance and Sport faculty at Wayne State College recently provided "Stone Soup" for majors and minors in these areas. Approximately 100 students took part. A free-will donation collected will be given to Rainbow Riders. The event was designed to be a morale booster and create a family atmosphere in the department.

Showing them the value of reading

More than one million teachers and students around the world participated in "Read for 2002's United We Read!," Scholastic Book Clubs' third annual reading campaign encouraging children all over the world to stop and read for 2002 seconds (about 33 1/3 minutes) on Friday, Dec. 14, at noon. St. Mary's School joined the world in its participation and this year involved area businesses in showing children that no matter what they do in life, reading will always be important. Area businesses participating included St. Mary's Parish Office (Mollie Speaker), the Wayne Area Chamber of Commerce (Karin Vaughn), Wayne State College (Dan Miller), Wayne Public Library & Little Lambs Preschool (Peggy Nelson), K & G Cleaners (George Holm), Sav Mor Pharmacy (Cody Carstensen), KTCH (Julie Hansen), Midwest Convenient Clinic (Kevin Harm), and State Farm Insurance (Rusty Parker). Shown reading to the children, top photo, Cody Carstensen of Sav Mor Pharmacy and bottom photo is Rusty Parker of State Farm Insurance.

Fitness challenge held

The November Fitness Challenge was a month long project to encourage all faculty/staff in the School of Natural & Social Sciences to increase their levels of physical activity. Graduate students (Gunnar Spethman, Sara Zimmer, Kristi Sandman, Kris Hinnerichs) from the Advanced Exercise Physiology Class in The Department of Health, Human Performance, and Sport (HHPS) sponsored the project.

Willing participants from the school were required to keep a daily log of their physical activity and points were awarded dependent upon the amount of time spent performing each specific activity. Prizes will be awarded at a Christmas party, hosted by HHPS on Dec. 10.

The following are the prize winners for the November Fitness Challenge Physical Science and Mathematics, as well as Life Science were the departments that won in the categories for entire departments. The individual prize category winners (for age, rank, etc...) are as follows: Ali Eminov; Kent Blaser; Mark Hammer; Shawn Peary; Jeanine Wreidt; Stephanie Wetmore; Jeff Meyer; Sally Harms; Marian Borgmann-Ingwersen; Donovan Conley; Deb Daehnke; Jay Todd; Linda Taber; and Doug Taber.

We're here to keep it healthy.

If you live in this part of Nebraska, you're more likely to suffer a heart attack. In fact, this region has the highest rate of heart disease in the state. That's why Faith Regional has expanded its services to create the CardioVascular Institute - a complete cardiovascular care center right in the heart of Nebraska.

This is the heart of Nebraska

Using the most advanced technology and procedures possible, the Faith Regional CardioVascular Institute is dedicated to the prevention, detection, intervention and rehabilitation of heart related diseases. This means patients and their families no longer have to travel across the state to receive quality, comprehensive cardiovascular care.

By working closely with patients, their physicians and the entire Faith Regional health care system, we hope to forever reduce the number of heart attacks and coronary related diseases in our region. After all, rural Nebraska has always been a great place to live. Now it's a great place to live longer.
