High percentage of ballots cast

By Clara Osten
Of the Herald

Once again, Wayne County residents are above average.

A total of 52 percent of eligible voters in Wayne County cast ballots in Tuesday's General Election. The state average was predicted to be approximately 42 percent.

A total of 2,968 voters took time to cast ballots. A breakdown by precinct with percentage in parenthesis includes: Brenna/Plum Creek, 125 (49 percent); Chapin/Hancock 157 (55 percent); Deer Creek/Sherman, 168 (44 percent); First Ward, 274 (36 percent); Fourth Ward, 508 (53 percent); Hoskins/Garfield, 210 (42 percent); Hunter, 120 (47 percent); Logan/Leslie, 208 (57 percent); Second Ward, 308 (47 percent); Strahan/Wilbur, 185 (50 percent); Third Ward, 330 (53 percent); and Winside, 170 (58 percent).

Several new faces will fill city and county seats in the near future following Tuesday's vote.

In Wayne County, Debra K. Allemann will take the office of County Clerk of the District Court. She defeated Patricia L. Wheeler by a vote of 2,313 to 526.

Incumbent LeRoy W. Janssen defeated his opponent, Rick Reed by a margin of 1,904 to 974.

In city races, Mayor Sheryl Lindau retained her position, defeating Ken Jorgensen 909 to 584.

Both the First and Second Wards will have new council persons representing them. In the First Ward, James R. Shanks defeated Keith Adams 179 to 78. In the Second Ward, Betty Reeg defeated incumbent Melvin Utecht by a margin of 238 to 119.

Third Ward Council person Lois Shelton retained her seat, defeating Brian Frevert 198 to 137.

The race for Board of Education, School District #17 in Wayne may need a re-count to determine the three victors. Bill Dickey received 1,386 votes; Dean Carroll received 1,238 votes; Carolyn V. Linster received 1,007 votes and Jodi Pulfer received 1,000 votes.

Write-in candidate Richard Metteer received 672 votes. The top three vote getters will become part of the board.

In Winside, School District #95R, Steven G. Jorgensen received 258 votes; Scott D. Watters, 248 votes; Deano Janke, 240 votes; Dana Bargstadt, 199 votes; Paula Pfeiffer, 129 votes and Beverly A. Neel, 111 votes. The were three open positions on the board.

In the race for Trustee in the Village of Hoskins, James A. Miller received 76 votes; Debbie Stueckrath, 56 votes; Colby Gillespie, 51 votes and Richard L. Doffin, Jr. 31 votes. The top three vote-getters will take office.

In state and national races, voters in

Year-long celebration to honor library

By Clara Osten
Of the Herald

Beginning with a group of women organized in January of 1898, efforts have been made to serve the community of Wayne with a public library.

The first library was located in a room in the courthouse. The county commissioners furnished a library room and members of the Minerva Club, a women's group in town, raised funds by serving dinners during a teachers' meeting and giving a play.

During the next 12 months, the Wayne Public Library will be hosting a number of special events and activities to celebrate the 100th anniversary of its existence. In addition, the display case at the entrance to the facility will feature articles from each decade, beginning with 1890's during the month of November.

The display case will include headlines for events during each decade and will be changed on a daily basis.

On Friday, Nov. 8, the Library will host the weekly Chamber Coffee, which will be underwritten by Farmers & Merchants State Bank.

On Sunday, Nov. 24 an opening reception for the Wayne Public Library

Men recall military experiences

By Lynn Sievers
Of the Herald

As Veterans Day approaches, we thank our servicemen and women for the sacrifices they've made to help insure the freedoms we enjoy today. Among Wayne County men who served their country are five who were drafted into the Army and left together on Nov. 17, 1952 from Wayne. This year marks the 50th year of their induction.

Getting together recently, Henry Tarnow of rural Wakefield; Russell Bichel, now living in Louisville, Ky.; Earl Lundahl and Paul Henschke, both of Wayne; and Robert (Dean) Pippitt of Laurel reflected on their experiences in the service.

Looking back to Nov. 17, 1952, Tarnow, Bichel, Henschke and Lundahl, all of rural Wakefield and Pippitt of rural Laurel, left for Fort Omaha (now S.A.C.-Strategic Air Command).

Inducted at the same time but unable to go were Gordon Davis of Carroll and Herman Luschen of Wayne (Norfolk now). Both Davis and Luschen were deferred as Davis was injured in a haystack fall and Luschen was seriously ill.

Five veterans inducted into the Armed Forces 50 years ago include, left to right, Henry Tarnow, Russell Bichel, Paul Henschke, Robert (Dean) Pippitt, and Earl Lundahl.

Letters

Something needs to be done

Dear Editor,
I am writing about Riley's. I wanted people to know that the people I have talked to do not want them to close. Wayne needs a place for receptions, banquets, reunions and that sort of thing. What they do not want is the Thursday night LOUD bass of the music! It reminds one of the Chinese water torture treatment. The pounding can permeate the insulation on a dwelling as would the boom of thunder in a great storm, over the television sound. I can't imagine where their "noise" meter was positioned or what time or day it was used. Why is it only that music is loud and heard and not reunion music, etc. for example? They usually do not turn it up loud until 9:30 or 10 p.m. just when residents are thinking of retiring. I know the young people like it loud but consideration would be appreciated.

With the loan the corporation may be receiving, might not heavier insulation be applied or the bar and music stage be reversed?

I have also heard that some people renting Riley's have had to clean the room before using it! That is not a rumor!

ABCD Award

Wayne Main Street recognized Vern Schulz, right, on Nov. 5 with the ABCD (Above and Beyond the Call of Duty) Award 1999-2002. The award, presented by Leo Ahmann, was in appreciation for all of Schulz's contributions to the Main Street Wayne Program.

Main Street Focus

By Leo Ahmann

The Main Street Wayne Program had the pleasure of honoring Vern Schultz and his wife, Dee, at a coffee on Tuesday in the Main Street Office. Vern is retiring from his position as Superintendent of Public Works for the City of Wayne. Vern was presented the Main Street ABCD (Above and Beyond the Call of Duty) Award for his outstanding assistance to the Main Street Wayne Program. He was always ready to give us a hand and his work was greatly appreciated. We wish Vern the very best of health and happiness in his retirement and hopefully we'll continue to see him behind the wheel of "The Shuttle."

Thanks Vern from all of us! Congratulations to all the winners in the election on Tuesday. Thanks also to everyone who made the commitment to run for an office but were not elected. That commitment indicates your interest in the growth of Wayne.

We had a nice turnout downtown last Thursday night for young trick-or-treaters that braved the cold weather to stop in businesses. We had approximately 40 youngsters... ghosts, goblins, witches, cowgirls, Power Rangers, a young little chicken and characters from the Wizard of Oz stop by our office. Thanks to the participating merchants and all who stopped downtown.

As mentioned, the committee that selects the community Christmas tree has made their choice. A thank you to others who called about donating a tree. If everything goes according to plan, it should be up in about three weeks or so.

A reminder to folks... the Parade of Lights and Living Windows isn't that far away so don't forget to make plans now. We'll be looking for your entries for the Dec. 12 festivities. We've had some wonderful plans and Santa should be riding in an elegant sleigh.

The Friends of the Wayne County Museum will be holding its gala on Saturday, Nov. 30. Be sure to get your tickets and make plans to attend the wonderful evening. If you have never attended before, make this your first year.

If you have any suggestions, questions or concern about the Main Street Program, how we may assist you or your business, or how to get involved, please contact us. Call 375-5062.

Main Street will be hosting a Holiday Coffee on Friday, Nov. 29 at 10 a.m. (There is no Chamber Coffee that day). See you there. Until next time...

Death penalty law needs revision

by Ed Howard
Statehouse Correspondent
The Nebraska Press Association

The Legislature's latest effort to revise the state's death penalty needs to be approached, oddly enough, with some of the perspective provided in the Hippocratic oath.

The oath is the one taken by doctors. The first order of business, according to the pledge, is to do no harm.

For medicos, the notion is to avoid making things worse for the patient. For lawmakers, the notion needs to be the avoidance of further botching a law that is currently in bad shape.

It's understood that opponents of the death penalty believe that neither doctors nor the state should be doing harm to human beings, let alone sending them to their graves. That, however, is another issue. And the notion of the death penalty per se is not officially before the Unicameral.

At issue is the method used to put people to death; that, and a change demanded by the federal courts so that juries will decide whether the death penalty should be imposed. Currently, the latter job is done by judges.

Folks who think that effective change in the law can be easily had are greatly mistaken. It isn't simply a matter of waiting out any objections made by Sen. Ernie Chambers of Omaha, a staunch opponent of the death penalty.

The task is to come up with a revised law that won't run into even more constitutional problems than the current statute.

In Nebraska, a list of aggravating and mitigating circumstances are weighed by a judge (or judges) in death penalty cases. Would the jury use that same list? Would their decision in each circumstance have to be unanimous?

Regardless of what the Legislature writes into law, a host of challenges before various state and federal courts is a certainty.

A revision of the current law is a must. Nebraska is the only state that still relies solely on the electric chair to kill the convicted killers. And federal courts have said jurors must handle the task of saying who, among those convicted, should be killed.

Lawmakers negotiate a legal minefield when they rewrite the death penalty. The challenges involve not only problems currently presented by the federal courts, they include trying to foresee and avoid new ones.

The odds are very good that, regardless of what is accomplished in the latest special session, the issue of the death penalty will not be laid to rest.

Medical Center Chancellor visits Wayne

University of Nebraska Medical Center Chancellor Dr. Harold Maurer, M.D. and Robert Barte, executive assistant to the chancellor, met with Marcille Thomas, Administrator of Providence Medical Center and later with Dr. Sheila Stearns, Wayne State College president on campus on Nov. 4.

Chancellor Maurer first visited with representatives at PMC to listen to their concerns about the state of rural healthcare. He asked those present what UNMC can do more of to help health care in rural areas.

Dr. Maurer then went on to explain some of the work being done by the Med Center in the area of bioterrorism work in the state. He indicated that the facility is working toward becoming a national bioterrorism preparedness laboratory.

The Chancellor was on the WSC campus to meet with faculty and students in the Rural Health Opportunities Program, a cooperative program between the two schools. Students who are accepted into RHOP and who successfully complete their pre-professional studies in medicine, pharmacy, physical therapy or dentistry at Wayne State are automatically accepted to UNMC for their professional studies program.

Fundraising ongoing for new library in Wakefield

By Lynn Stevers
Of the Herald

Funds are being raised for a new library in Wakefield. Nov. 1 will mark the 87th anniversary of the opening of the Graves Public Library located at 206 West Third Street.

With age, the building is deteriorating. It does not meet ADA (Americans with Disabilities Act) requirements, and lacks space in the library for books and equipment and outside for parking. The library board and foundation members have been seeking funds to build a new facility.

Looking back, the building, its furnishings, and 300 books were a physical needs and changes the building would undergo through the years.

Not only has the number of books (about 13,500 now) and materials outgrown the available space in the library, but weather and the elements have taken their toll on the structure. Moisture, drawn through the masonry walls has caused mildew and deterioration of both external and internal surfaces.

Also, the walls and ceilings are sagging, so floor jack columns are used. And, the problem of not meeting ADA requirements is that the main entrance is at the top of a 13-step staircase and the restrooms as around $38,000 went for the lots for the new facility (which is in the next block to the east of the present library), $52,443 went to Peters & Associates. Architects PC Association, $980 was for a survey, and $1,150 was for a construction work survey.

While a new library has been needed for some time, there's been a push by the library board and foundation lately to get funds for the project. The foundation sent out an alumni mailing asking for donations and recent fundraisers included a pie stand during ball games this summer and a rummage/bake sale held a month ago. Future fundraisers are also being planned.

Some of the plans for the new 7,200 square foot library call for a large reading area, a children's reading room, a computer room, a room where 50 people can meet with a mini-kitchen accessible, an area to the east where the stained glass windows from the old library will hang, and a 20-car parking lot.

Philo Graves helped establish Wakefield and gave it the start it needed to become a viable community. Giving towards a new library will help assure that his foresight and legacy continues. Donations are needed as the library only receives city funds and less than $1,000 a year from state and no federal aid.

Anyone with questions can call Nancy Fredrickson, librarian at Graves Public Library, 287-2334; or foundation members Larry Clay president, Alice Johnson, treasurer, Janyce McQuistan, secretary, of Pender, Paul Eaton, Teri Sampson, Harry Mills, and Eugene Swanson or board members Harry Mills, Barbara Brazie, Donna Roeber, Karen Sherer and Eugene Swanson-president, all of Wakefield.

Those wishing to give towards building a new facility can send their donations to Graves Library Foundation, P.O. Box 150, Wakefield, NE. 68784.

Graves Public Library in Wakefield was built in 1915.

gift from Philo Graves in memory of his 7-year-old son, Jay Philo Graves, who died of diphtheria. Graves, a philanthropist, gave much to the town as he also helped establish the school, donated land for the park, provided money and land to establish the churches, and helped start some of the businesses.

While Graves put a lot of thought into the planning of the facility by visiting other libraries first, he could not have realized the are in the basement, so neither are handicap accessible.

Much of the furniture and shelving is original and in need of updating. There's very little room in the reading area or for installing very many computers.

Nearly $800,000 is needed for building a new facility with fixtures, furnishings and parking. Between $150,000-$160,000 has been raised through donations and fundraising so far. Of that amount, nearly $94,000 has been paid out

There's a shortage of space in Graves Public Library for books and equipment. Furniture and fixtures date back to when the library was built 87 years ago.

Veterans' Day observance scheduled

A Veterans' Day observance will be held in Wayne on Monday, Nov. 11 at the Wayne Senior Citizens Center.

The ceremony will start at 3 p.m. with the Presentation of Colors, patriotic music and patriotic messages.

Everyone in the area is invited to attend the program, which will honor all the veterans.

Lunch will be served following the program. The meal will be sponsored by Pac 'N' Save and the Wayne Senior Center. There is no charge for the meal but everyone is asked to sign up by Friday, Nov. 8 at the Senior Center (375-1460) to allow organizers to plan for the amount of food needed.

Chili cook off is scheduled

The Special Events Council of the Wayne of the Wayne Area Chamber of Commerce is sponsoring a Business After Hours on Friday, Nov. 8 from 5 to 7 p.m. at the Eagles Clubroom at 119 North Main Street.

This fundraising event features the second annual "Chili Cook Off," cash bar, hors d'oeuvres and door prizes.

Sponsors for this event include Arnie's Ford Mercury, Farmers & Merchants State Bank, Jammer Photography, Tom's Body, Heartland Recovery, Phelps, Rath & Associates, The Hair Studio, Exhaust Pros/Lighting Lube and Carhart Lumber.

A $5 donation will get those in attendance in the door the fun, networking event, which is open to all.

Five-year-old granted wish

On Oct. 26, CLAAS Omaha hosted five-year-old Zach Jorgensen of Wayne a tour of the LEXION combine facility and an opportunity to drive one of the big black and yellow Caterpillar combines. Zach is in Kindergarten at Wayne Elementary School.

Zach and his family—mother Shelly, father Joel, brother Gunnar, grandmother Doris Gilliland and grandfather Darrell Gilliland—were guests of CLAAS Omaha, makers of the Caterpillar LEXION combine.

At the facility, Zach was able to check out the combines in the showroom, see a video on how the combines work, tour the assembly building, and ride/drive the combines on the demonstration track. The visit concluded with Zach's favorite food—pizza.

The visit was arranged through volunteer wish grantors Steve and Pam Pitzer as an enhancement for Zach, facilitated with CLAAS Omaha.

Zach, his mom and dad, along with his cousin Danielle Gilliland, 4, will be visiting Disney World Nov. 23 - 29 through the assistance of the organization and the generosity of Steve and Pam Pitzer, Make a Wish Grantors.

Zach has Duchenne Muscular Dystrophy, a progressive muscle wasting disease. He was diagnosed with the disease last year. Preventative measures such as stretching exercises everyday, therapeutic massages, and wearing braces are used to slow down the course of the disease which varies case to case.

Wildcats prevail in Egg Bowl

by Mike Grosz
Of the Herald

The Wayne State College football team continued its success in the annual Egg Bowl Game Saturday at Cunningham Field, edging Southwest State 16-13 in Northern Sun Conference play.

The Wildcats improved to 10-4 all-time in the Incredible Edible Egg Bowl.

Defenses dominated the game despite both teams yielding over 30 points per contest heading into the game.

Southwest State had the ball for much of the opening quarter, but the Wildcat defense kept the Mustangs out of the end zone on the opening drive of the game, which covered over eight minutes and 30 seconds.

However, Wayne State failed to get a first down on its opening drive and deep in its territory had to punt. Brett Walker's kick was blocked and recovered by Southwest State for a touchdown to take a 6-0 lead with 4:14 left in the opening quarter.

The Wildcats took the lead in the second quarter on an acrobatic one-handed catch by Eric Kjar. The 42-yard pass from quarterback Brett Edwards put Wayne State up 7-6 with 11:01 left in the second quarter.

Defenses dominated the rest of the half, giving the Wildcats a 7-6 halftime cushion.

The Wildcats extended their lead in the third quarter when Edwards found Josh Hopwood on a 38-yard pass play, giving the Wildcats a 14-6 lead halfway through the third quarter.

Wayne State recorded a team safety with 1:40 left in the third quarter when a Southwest State punt snap sailed through the end zone, increasing the lead to 16-6 after three quarters.

The Mustangs cut into the Wildcat lead in the fourth quarter when Ray Denson caught a five-yard pass from quarterback Rob Fagnan, making the score 16-13 with 11:30 left to play.

Wayne State's defense then held Southwest State in check for the rest of the game.

"This was the best defensive effort since we've been here," said head coach Scott Hoffman. "Normally after each game we pick a defensive player of the game, but we picked the whole team this week."

Hoffman added that the team played with a lot of intensity.

"We were quicker than them and we were beating them off the ball."

The third-year coach added that his team made some big offensive plays when they had to.

"Eric Kjar's catch was a big time play. I thought Brett Edwards was efficient because they were blitzing us a lot."

Southwest State held a slight edge over Wayne State in total yards, 250-223. The Wildcats held the Mustangs to just 14 yards rushing.

Quarterback Brett Edwards led Wayne State offensively, completing 12 of 19 passes for 181 yards with two touchdowns and one interception.

Josh Hopwood led the Wildcats in receiving with seven catches for 78 yards and a touchdown. Eric Kjar added three catches for 70 yards and a touchdown. Travis Mattox contributed one catch for 36 yards.

On the ground, Bryce Teager topped Wayne State with 36 yards on 12 carries. Tyler Chambers followed with 13 yards on five attempts and Kyle Lingenfelter chipped in with nine yards on two carries.

Sophomore linebacker Adam Long, who was named the Egg Bowl MVP for the Wildcats, had 12 tackles in the game, including two sacks and four for a loss. Joe Scheppers added 11 stops.

The Wildcat defense made 14 tackles for loss and forced four turnovers in the game.

Wayne State improves to 2-7 overall and 2-5 in NSIC play.

The Wildcats travel to unbeaten Minnesota-Duluth Saturday with game time set for 1 pm.

Wildcat volleyball team on four-game win streak

by Mike Grosz
Of the Herald

The Wayne State volleyball team appears to be playing some of its best volleyball at the end of the season again.

The Wildcats are on a four-game win streak in the NSIC after sweeping Southwest State at Rice Auditorium Tuesday evening, 30-24, 35-33 and 30-20.

Seniors Rayna Nelsen and Laurie Schroeder led the Wildcats in hitting, recording 12 kills each. Schroeder also had a team-high five blocks.

Winside freshman Julie Jacobsen added 11 kills and 15 digs.

Senior setter Kasey Meyer of Wisner contributed 46 set assists in the win.

Defensively, senior libero Janel Moody led the Wildcats with 17 digs.

Wayne State outit Southwest State in the match, 224-187.

Wildcat head coach Sharon Vanis said it is nice to be back home again after the team recently completed a five-game road trip.

"We seem to be playing with more consistency lately. We have put together a nice win streak and we needed that to have a shot at second place in the conference."

Last Saturday, the Wildcats defeated Minnesota-Crookston in three games, 30-17, 30-22 and 30-27.

The Wildcats hit .371 in the match while holding the Golden Eagles to just .153.

Nelsen had 13 kills to pace the Wildcats while Jacobsen added 10. Jacobsen also had a team-high 10 digs.

Meyer recorded 36 set assists in the win.

Friday evening, Wayne State needed four games to hold off Minnesota State-Moorhead, 30-18, 32-34, 30-20 and 30-16.

Nelsen had 13 kills in the win. Chelse Schultz added 12 with Kristin Linderman finishing with 11.

Meyer had a team-high 15 digs to go with 50 set assists.

Laurie Schroeder had a big night at the net with eight blocks.

The Wildcats improved to 20-13 overall and 11-3 in the NSIC with the wins.

Wayne State will host Bemidji State Friday evening at 7 pm and top-ranked Minnesota-Duluth Saturday at 4 pm.

Vanis says it's a huge weekend at home for the Wildcats.

"This is a great opportunity for our team to play the #1 team in the country (Minn-Duluth) at home. I hope a lot of fans will come out, it should be a great match."

Wildcat senior setter Kasey Meyer was named the NSIC Volleyball Player-of-the-Week, helping Wayne State to three wins last week.

Winside freshman Julie Jacobsen leads Wayne State in digs this season, averaging 3.31 per contest.

Sports Briefs

Veterans to be recognized at WSC game

WAYNE-Wayne State College will be recognizing all veterans during the Saturday, Nov. 16 home football game against Minnesota-Morris.

Any veteran and spouse will be admitted FREE to the 12:30pm game and will be cognized during halftime.

WSC Athletic Director Todd Barry says this is a way to say thank you for what all veterans have done for our country.

Meyer named NSIC Athlete of the Week

WAYNE-Wayne State setter Kasey Meyer has been named the Northern Sun Intercollegiate Conference Volleyball Player-of-the-Week.

The senior from Wisner helped the Wildcats win three conference matches last week. She recorded 138 assists (12.6 per game), 28 digs (2.6/game), 15 kills (1.4/game), five blocks and four service aces.

WSC offers fan bus to Northern Iowa

WAYNE-The Wayne State athletic department is offering a fan bus on Nov. 25 for the Wildcat men's basketball game against Northern Iowa. The Panthers are coached by former Wildcat head coach Greg McDermott.

The cost of the bus is $35 per person, which includes price for the bus ride and a game ticket. Meals and concessions are not included in the price.

The bus will leave at noon on Nov. 25 and will return immediately following the game.

To reserve a spot, call the WSC Athletic Office at 375-7520.

Women's soccer team loses in opening round of NSIC Tournament

The Wayne State College women's soccer team ended their season Tuesday afternoon, falling at Southwest State 3-0 in the opening round of the Northern Sun Conference Tournament.

The Mustangs scored one goal in the first half and added two more in the second for the shutout win.

"For some reason, we came out flat," said head coach Rolie Bulock. "We should have been ready, but for some reason we were flat. But give Southwest State credit, they played a great game."

The Mustangs outshot the Wildcats 20-11 in the match.

Michaela Blaylock had four shots with Becky Woelfel taking three.

Wildcat goalie Erika Mather had nine saves in the game.

Wayne State ends the season with a 7-13 record, but loses only two seniors from this year's team.

"I feel good about what we have coming back for next season," said Bulock. "The team improved considerably from the start of the season. The effort was always there."

Bulock said the highlight of this season was beating upper-division conference rivals Northern State and Minnesota-Morris at home on the same weekend.

Wayne volleyball team wins sub-district

by Mike Grosz
Of the Herald

The Wayne High School volleyball team avenged a regular season loss to West Point in convincing style Monday evening to win the Class C1-4 Sub-District volleyball tournament at Wisner.

The Blue Devils posted an easy 15-6, 15-7 win over a West Point team that was 20-3 heading into the sub-district final with Wayne.

Earlier in the evening, Wayne posted a dominating 15-5, 15-5 win over Stanton in the semi-finals.

"They played awesome," said head coach Joyce Hoskins. "This is the best I have ever seen them play."

In the Stanton match, Kari Hochstein led Wayne in hitting with 11 kills. Allison Hansen added three kills with Erin Jarvi and Ashley Loberg added two each.

Alissa Dunklau dished out 18 set assists in the win while Micaela Weber led the team in serving with three aces.

Defensively, Loberg had a team-high seven digs, followed by Jarvi with six and Hansen and Dunklau with three each.

In the championship match, the Blue Devils set the tone early in both games, building leads of 14-2 each time.

Hansen had 11 kills to lead

Wayne in the West Point match. Hochstein added eight kills, Loberg finished with four and Jarvi added two.

Dunklau contributed 23 set assists while Hochstein and Weber led the team in serving with two aces each.

Jarvi had a team leading 14 digs in the win. Dunklau followed with eight while Loberg and Hochstein added six each.

Stacie Hoeman and Hochstein had three blocks each.

Hoskins said a vocal crowd from Stanton played a factor in the match.

"We had great fan support and at the same time, we took West Point's crowd out of the game. The first time we played them, their fans were a factor."

She added it was fun to watch the team play so well.

"As coaches, we just sat back and enjoyed. There was a lot at stake in this match and the girls proved that we were the better team."

Wayne is now 27-4 on the season, setting a new school record for wins in a season.

The previous school record for wins in a season was 22, set two different times. The Blue Devils went 22-5 in 1994 and 22-7 in 1996.

Wayne will face Logan View (19-5) in the C1-2 District Finals tonight (Thursday) at West Point

Central Catholic.

Hoskins says her team will have to key on 6'0 sophomore Jordan Larson, who had 10 ace serves in Monday's win over Arlington.

"She's a great player, maybe the best in the state in C-1, but I feel we are more balanced. Other coaches have told me that we have to score when she is in the back row. Serve receive will also play a factor."

The winner of the Wayne/Logan View match is guaranteed a spot in next week's State Tournament. Both teams are also in the hunt for a wild card berth to state in the case of a loss in the district finals.

Senior setter Alissa Dunklau tips the ball over the net against Stanton at the Sub-District Tournament.

Wayne falls to Wahoo Neumann in playoffs

Wayne played well early in its first round playoff contest at Wahoo Neumann last Thursday evening, but the Cavaliers had too many weapons and went on to post a 41-6 win on Halloween Night.

After a scoreless first quarter, Wayne scored early in the second quarter on a Justin Davis eight-yard run, putting the Blue Devils up 6-0 with 11:56 left in the first half.

But Wahoo Neumann would score four times in the second quarter to take a commanding 23-6 halftime lead.

Zach Miller scored on a 53-yard run, Alex Kotera found the endzone on runs of 37 and one yard while Miller hit Kyle Prochaska on a 51-yard pass play to make up the Cavaliers' scoring in the second quarter.

The Cavaliers added two more scores late in the third quarter-Andrew Opp's one yard run and a 40-yard interception return by Kyle Loos-to close out the scoring.

After starting the season with four straight wins, Wayne, a team decimated by injuries in the second half of the season, ended the year with a 4-5 record.

Head Coach John Murtaugh said, "I enjoyed coaching this team. They faced considerable adversity during the course of the season and handled it like men."

Wahoo Neumann outgained Wayne in the game 369-188. The Blue Devils had 108 yards rushing and 80 more passing.

Justin Davis led Wayne in rushing, gaining 45 yards on 12 carries. Josh Hartwell added 37 yards on nine attempts, Brady Heithold had 28 yards on ten carries while Dana Schuett was held to minus three yards on eight attempts.

Heithold completed 6 of 18 passes for 66 yards with two interceptions. Wade Jarvi completed his only pass attempt for 14 yards while Dana Schuett was 0 for 1.

Jon Ehrhardt was the Blue Devils top receiver with five receptions for 65 yards. Ben Mohl added one catch for 15 yards and Justin Davis had one catch for one yard.

On defense, Davis led the way with 10 tackles. Heithold added seven and Schuett finished with six.

Wayne ends the season with a 4-5 record.

Harder, Fink named All-State

WAYNE-Amy Harder and Bryan Fink of Wayne High School have received All-State honors from the Nebraska Coaches Association.

Harder, a senior, was named to the Class B All-State Girls Golf Team after placing second at last month's State Tournament in Grand Island.

Fink, a sophomore, received All-State accolades after placing second at the Class C State Cross Country meet in Kearney two weeks ago.

This is the seventh year the Nebraska Coaches Association has recognized athletes in cross country and girls golf for All-State honors.

Pender edges Wakefield in football playoffs

The Wakefield Trojans met Pender in the opening round of the Class C-2 football playoffs last Thursday evening in Wakefield.

It was the second meeting in less than one week for the two teams. The Pendragons won the first meeting 31-13 to hand Wakefield its first loss of the season.

In the rematch, Pender won a see-saw battle with the Trojans, prevailing late in the game 21-20.

Pender started the scoring in the second quarter with a 22-yard pass from Nick Nelson to Colby Smith, giving the Pendragons 7-0 lead at halftime.

Wakefield countered early in the third quarter when quarterback Luke Hoffman scored on a 24-yard run. The PAT kick was no good, leaving Pender up 7-6.

The Pendragons responded with a one-yard run from Nelson, increasing the lead to 14-6.

Wakefield then scored twice to take the lead for the first time in the game.

Hoffman found the endzone on a one-yard run, followed by a two-point pass to Kyle Gardner which tied the game at 14-14 heading into the fourth quarter.

The Trojans took a 20-14 lead with 11:40 left in the game when Hoffman scored on a three-yard jaunt, but Wakefield missed the PAT kick.

yard pass with 1:18 left in the game. Dusty Welsh followed with the PAT kick to put the Pendragons up again 21-20.

Senior fullback Nate Nicholson looks for running room against the Pendragons.

Later in the fourth quarter, the Pendragons would put together an 85-yard drive for the go-ahead score. Quarterback Nick Nelson found Justin Cadwallader on a 14-yard pass with 1:18 left in the game, but Cadwallader intercepted a pass with just over :30 seconds left in the game to preserve the win for Pender.

Wakefield coach Justin Smith said after the game, "I'm really proud of the kids. We did everything but put the game away. They believed in themselves and played about as well as they could."

Pender outgained Wakefield in the game 331-212. The Trojans had 107 yards on the ground and 105 through the air.

Luke Hoffman paced Wakefield offensively, rushing for 68 yards on 11 carries and scoring three touchdowns. Iban Nguyen added 22 yards on nine carries, Nate Nicholson had 14 yards on three attempts and Ryan Otte gained two yards on four carries.

Passing, Hoffman was 6 of 16 for 105 yards with two interceptions.

Zach Dolen had two catches for 33 yards to lead Wakefield receivers. Aaron Lueth made one catch for 39 yards, Nguyen had one reception for 23, Jeff Banholzer hauled in one pass for seven yards and Gardner made one reception for three yards.

Wakefield ends the season with a 7-2 record.

Wakefield quarterback Luke Hoffman looks for a teammate to throw to during the Trojans' playoff game with Pender last Thursday evening in Wakefield.

Bears win sub-district title

The Laurel-Concord volleyball team rolled through two opponents at Monday's C2-5 Sub-District Tournament at Wayne High School, advancing to a District final tonight (Thursday).

The Bears swept Hartington Cedar Catholic in the opening match, 15-1, 15-9.

Emily Schroeder pounded out 12 kills in the win. Katie Peters followed with six, Susan Pritchard added three and Tori Cunningham had two.

Cunningham, Pritchard and Tiffany Erwin were all perfect in serving with each recording one ace.

Jodi Kuchta paced the Bears on defense with eight digs. Cunningham, Pritchard and Peters each added four apiece.

Cunningham had 24 set assists in the win.

"The athletes played with a lot of determination," said head coach Patti Cunningham after the win. "We were aggressive and disrupted our opponent with strong serving and attacking."

In the championship game, Laurel-Concord handled Emerson-Hubbard 15-4 and 15-5.

Schroeder and Pritchard led a balanced hitting attack with seven kills each. Peters finished with six and Erwin had four.

Erwin had three ace serves to lead the Bears while Kuchta, Peters and Cunningham finished with two each.

Schroeder had three blocks and Cunningham dished out 22 assists in the win.

Defensively, Pritchard finished with five digs. Peters added four with Cunningham getting three.

Coach Cunningham said, "the Laurel-Concord senior Susan Pritchard makes a dig during Sub-District play at Wayne High School Monday.

team implemented a well-rounded game plan. This type of determination and aggressiveness can help us to continue to play at our potential."

Wakefield also competed in the tournament and faced Emerson-Hubbard in the semi-finals.

The Trojans beat the Pirates in the Lewis and Clark Conference Finals last week, but Emerson-Hubbard avenged the loss with a three-set win over Wakefield Monday evening by scores of 15-8, 7-15 and 15-13.

Diana Potter, Katie Jensen and Erin Bartels had seven kills each to lead Wakefield in hitting. Jensen also had seven blocks.

Gina Dutcher contributed 23 set assists and five blocks. Nicki Greve led the team in serving with four aces.

Wakefield ends the season with a 16-14 record.

Laurel-Concord, now 22-1, meets Tilden Elkhorn Valley tonight (Thursday) in a District Final with the winner earning a trip to next week's State Tournament in Lincoln and Waverly.

WSC rugby teams close season with big wins

The Wayne State men's and women's rugby teams closed out the season in big fashion Sunday, blasting Chadron State in a doubleheader played in Kearney.

The matches were played on the UNK campus to promote the game of rugby in hopes they will join the Great Plains Rugby Union in 2003.

Wayne State won the men's game 70-14.

Flyhalf Preston Parker scored five touchdowns to lead the Wildcat scoring barrage. Touchdown runs were also posted by Marshall Touchberry, Brian Gall, Phillip Barthett (2) and Brian Kaiser.

Defensively, the 'Cats scrum-pack were led by Shane O'Connor and Charles Nelson.

Head Coach Darrin Barner said, "the true key to success was the preparation the team had with practices in the Rec Center, with one practice going until 1 am."

The Wildcats trounced Chadron State in the women's game 86-5.

Wayne State scored 16 touchdowns in the contest.

Senior scrumhalf Linne Ourada of Prague scored five touchdowns for the Wildcats.

Mariah Murray and Sara Zimmer added three scores each. Deb Schenkel of Pender and Stacy Brenneman added two scores apiece with Tonya Schwanke of Wayne scoring once.

The Wayne State men ended their first full season with a 10-7 record while the women closed out at 14-4.

Wayne State will begin play March 1, 2003 in the Great Plains Rugby Conference.

Allen falls to Wynot in sub-district finals

The Allen Eagles volleyball team saw its season come to an end Tuesday evening, falling to Wynot in the Class D2-3 Tournament at South Sioux City.

The top-seeded Eagles battled Wynot in three games before losing 14-16, 15-12 and 15-7.

Allen advanced to the finals with a 15-12, 15-4 win over Coleridge in a semi-final match earlier in the evening.

Stats on the matches were not available at press time. The Eagles end the season with a 14-11 record.

Last week in the Lewis and Clark Conference Tournament, the Eagles rolled over Winnebago in the first round 15-8, 15-3.

In the second round, the Lady Eagles were out for revenge against Homer. The Knights had beaten Allen just one week earlier.

Allen got off to a quick start, winning the first game 15-5. The two teams battled back and forth in the second game with Homer prevailing 15-13.

The Eagles then lost momentum to the Knights and lost the third game 15-9. It was the third meeting this year between the two teams.

Northeast Nebraska won travel industry awards at the 2002 Nebraska Travel Conference in South Sioux City recently. Accepting the awards were Doris Rasmussen, Bloomfield; Shirely Kehne, Winnetoon; Lauri Larson, Bloomfield; Sally Gubbels, Bloomfield; Sally Snowe, Wynot; Joyce Kathol, Bow Valley; Linda Bair, Wynot; Duane Bair, Wynot; Phil Wendzillo, Crofton, Ponca Tribe.

Northeast Nebraska honored at the 2002 travel conference

By Janet Eckmann

Northeast Nebraska won big at this year's 2002 Nebraska Travel Conference.

The annual conference, sponsored by the Nebraska Division of Travel and Tourism was held October 22-23 at the Marina Inn Conference Center in South Sioux City, Nebraska.

Governor Mike Johanns presented travel industry awards on Wednesday night at the Awards Banquet held in the Grand Ballroom at the Marina Inn.

It could be said that this part of the state knows their trails and how to promote them to travelers. Outstanding Tourism Awareness Campaign Award went to the "Where is Private Shannon?" promotion.

Fifteen communities partnered together to make this award possible. The communities in Knox and Cedar County have life size wooden statues carved to represent Private George Shannon, Shannon, the youngest member of the Lewis and Clark expedition was lost in this area August of 1804.

Many different ideas were developed to urge the tourists to stop in each town, such as a passport that would be stamped as a tourist visits each town. When all 12 sites have been visited and the passport is completely punched the tourists will receive a specially designed print from local business people.

The Shannon Trail Promoters was formed in August of 2001 and have left a mark on tourism in Northeast Nebraska. Sally Snowe, Wynot Village Clerk and Shannon promoter brought home the coveted prize.

The Lewis & Clark Scenic Byway Highway 75 and Outlaw Trail Highway 12 shared the Outstanding Nebraska Byway Award.

Both byways promoted tourism with tours, Web sites, trade and sport shows and printed brochures of their area.

Jeanine Bargeman, president of the Outlaw Trail accepted the Outlaw Trail's award.

The Outstanding Tourism Community Award also went to a Northeast Nebraska Community. Verdigris won the award for their Kulch Days celebration, avenue of flags, Web site, and brochures along with their continued promotion of Lewis & Clark events.

This was the first time Iowa and Nebraska came together for a special Two State Conference. The two days of activities included a motor coach tour of nearby Ponca State Park and the new Missouri River Research and Education Center.

Dr. Hal Sterns from the NE Lewis and Clark Bicentennial Commission and Amy Mosses from the Circle of Tribal Advisors of the National Council of the Lewis and Clark Bicentennial shared their perspectives on the commemoration of the Lewis and Clark Journey.

Dr. Sterns' program mentioned the work of the Shannon Trail Promoters and how small communities are making the L&C Trail come alive to travelers from all over the world not just local folks. Dr. Sterns gave special recognition to the small community of Lynch and their efforts to promote "Old Baldy" as well as the work done by the "Outlaw Trail" in getting their corner of the state connected with the big picture of the Lewis & Clark Bicentennial.

Nebraska U.S. Representative Douglas K. Bereuter was Keynote Speaker for the noon lunch on Wednesday.

It seems everyone is interested in the history of Lewis & Clark - Representative Bereuter, a Lewis & Clark fan listened in on Dr. Sterns' workshop.

Futures Conference deadline is Nov. 12

Registration deadline is Tuesday, Nov. 12, for the 2002 Nebraska Futures Conference to be held at Wayne State College on Nov. 20. All Nebraskans are encouraged to attend this important day-long conference.

The keynote address, "Encounters with Nebraska's Future," will be presented by nationally-renowned futurist Marvin Cetron. Nebraska Lieutenant Governor Dave Heineman will present "Budget and Public Policy Forecast for Nebraska." Other sessions are "Cultural Diversity: Challenges and Opportunities in our Communities" and "The Future of Nebraska Health Care."

For more information, call Wayne State College at 800-228-9972 and ask for Judy Johnson. Registration materials are also available at the Wayne State Web site at wsc.edu.

Hunters are finding fewer pheasants to track this year

When hunters took to the field on opening day of the 2002 pheasant opener, they were expecting to find fewer birds!

The drought, which encompassed much of the Midwest was hard on everything, including the pheasants.

Along with fewer birds comes the realization that hunters are going to spend more time in the field and cover a lot more ground in order to find the birds. South Dakota

The S.D. Game and Parks estimates indicated that overall, the states pheasant population would be down 18% with the population being down 30% from the five year average.

In South Dakota, opening day weather was ideal and hunters hit the field at noon with high expectations.

In the areas of the state where corn crops were still in the field, birds were hard to locate unless you were hunting with a larger group. Large groups hunting corn fields did well and reported seeing good numbers of birds.

Statewide, hunters averaged about one bird per hunter. Hunters in the east central and south central areas fared a little better, averaging closer to two birds each.

The upland game bird season in South Dakota opened Oct. 19 and runs through Dec. 31 with a three bird daily limit.

Nebraska
Nebraska's season opened a couple of weeks after the South

Dakota season. Like most of the Midwest, the Cornhusker state was dry, which affected the numbers of birds.

Since the numbers were down the previous year because of the lack of habitat and a wet spring, numbers were expected to be very low in some parts of the state.

When hunters in Nebraska hit the field just before daybreak, they were met with damp wet conditions and as the weekend progressed it just got wetter.

Like their fellow hunters in South Dakota, the Nebraska hunters had to contend with unpicked corn as the wet weather had slowed and eventually stopped all field work.

Those who hunted in areas that held water such as sloughs, creek bottoms or around ponds located more birds than those that hunted the higher dryer areas.

Hunters in the southwestern part of the state reported the highest concentrations of birds.

The upland bird (pheasant, quail and partridge) season in Nebraska continues through Jan. 31: Like South Dakota, the daily bag limit is 3 birds.

Don't forget to leave some type of identification on the birds when transporting them. To be legal hunters must leave the head or one leg on the bird when transporting your birds back home.

Hunting should improve as the season progresses! Generally when bird numbers are low, the birds will be spread all over the place during the warmer weather and the early season hunting will be tough.

As the weather becomes colder, the pheasants bunch up, move into the heavier thicker cover and late season hunting will be better than it was during the early season.

Over the years, wet springs, droughts and harsh winters have taken their toll on wildlife.

Wildlife is going through tough times and as habitat decreases wildlife numbers will also decrease. Without good habitat weather has a tremendous influence on wildlife!

If they have heavy grass or thick undergrowth, they can burrow in underneath and escape the snow, ice and wind.

If the thicker undergrowth isn't available, wildlife is exposed to the elements and their survival will be questionable.

Students chosen for All-State choir

Eight Wayne High School students have been selected to participate in the 2002 All-State Choir. They include Josh Austin, Leigh Campbell, John Jensen, Amy Kemp, Elysia Mann, Kelly Mitchell, Ray Olson and Sean Peterson.

Each year over 2,000 of the best high school musicians in the state audition for the Nebraska All-State Band, Chorus, Jazz Band and Orchestra sponsored by the Nebraska Music Educators Association. Selection as a member of one of these groups is one of the highest musical honors attainable in Nebraska. Dan Hays, Chair of Choral Affairs announced the selection of the Wayne students.

They will be among the 450 students who will be a part of the 2002 All-State Choir. Guest conductor for this year's group will be Sigrid Johnson from St. Olaf College in Northfield, Minn. The choir will rehearse Thursday, Nov. 21 through Saturday, Nov. 23 on the University of Nebraska-Lincoln campus, the host site of the 2002 NMEA Conference/ Clinic. A final public concert will be held on Saturday, Nov. 23 at the Lied Center for the Performing Arts on the University of Nebraska-Lincoln campus.

Herbs for Health
St. John's Wort for Depression

St. John's wort (Hypericum perforatum) has been used to treat depression and has been popularized by the media - including coverage in Newsweek and 20/20. This herb has three main actions - antidepressant, antiviral and antibacterial. The mechanism of action has been shown to be through inhibition of the reuptake of serotonin - a chemical transmitter in the nervous system.

A review of 23 trials on 1,757 patients diagnosed with mild to moderate depression demonstrated that hypericum extracts were significantly superior to a placebo and just as effective as standard antidepressants. Side effects were reported by only 20% of patients on hypericum versus 53% of patients on standard antidepressant medications.

The recommended dose of St. John's wort for an adult is 300 mg of the standardized extract (0.3% hypericin extract) three times daily. Reported side effects include mild stomach disturbances, fatigue and itching. The herb should not be taken with prescribed antidepressants such as fluoxetine. Tryptamine-containing foods, alcoholic beverages, narcotics and amphetamines should be avoided. Safety in pregnancy and lactation has not been established.

Olympic champ to visit Wayne

Billy Mills, Olympic champion who serves as the national spokesperson for Running Strong, will be the featured presenter at a Native American Celebration at Wayne State College on Tuesday, Nov. 12. His appearance on campus is part of Native American Heritage Month activities.

Mills, an Oglala Lakota (Sioux) born and raised on the Pine Ridge Indian Reservation in South Dakota, became the first and only American to win a gold medal in the 10,000-meter race in the 1964 Tokyo Olympic Games, where he set an Olympic record of 28 minutes, 24.4 seconds.

"Billy Mills is first and foremost a spokesperson for native peoples," said Dr. Paul Theobald, dean of the WSC School of Education and Counseling. "Through his accomplishments and his approach to life, he is a tremendous example to all Americans."

Mills, who was orphaned at the age of 12, lives his life through the teachings of his father. "I was constantly told and challenged to live my life as a warrior," he said. "As a warrior, you assume responsibility for yourself. The warrior humbles himself and the warrior learns the power of giving." As a spokesperson for Running Strong, Mills encourages Native youth with his message based on character, dignity and pride.

Throughout his day on campus, Mills will meet with Wayne State students, faculty and staff. A special showing of the movie, "Running Brave," based on his life, will be held for students, faculty and staff in the afternoon.

The public is invited to attend the evening session beginning at 7 p.m. in the Frey Conference Suite in the Wayne State Student Center.

In addition to a presentation by Mills, a performance by "Many Moccasins," a Native American dance troop headed by Wayne State student Garan Coons, will be featured. The final event of the evening will be a raffle of authentic Native American items.

Donate to Haven House

Members of the Brownie Girl Scouts Troop 304 hold items they donated to Haven House in Wayne. The girls work towards earning badges throughout the year by completing projects. The donations to Haven House was their service project. Kelli Smith of Haven House accepted the items. Gretchen Legler and Nancy Wherley are co-leaders for troop 304.

ST. JOHN'S LADIES AID & LWML

The St. John's Ladies Aid and LWML of Wakefield met Nov. 1 with 16 members and Pastor John Pasche present. Hostesses were Imogene Samuelson and Mary Lou Krusemark.

Lois Victor had the opening devotions with a reading entitled "The First Thanksgiving," followed with group singing of the hymn "We Gather Together" with Imogene Samuelson as accompanist. Pastor Pasche led the Bible study entitled "What's In a Name" from the Lutheran Woman's Quarterly.

President Martha Prochaska presided at the business meeting with all joining in the LWML pledge. Secretary Carolyn Kraemer gave the minutes of the previous meeting and Margaret Turner gave the treasurer's report.

Final plans for the St. John's soup supper were made which is being held Sunday, Nov. 10 from 5 to 8 p.m. Election of officers was held with present officers retained.

World Relief quilters gave a final report for this year, delivering 83 quilts to Norfolk where they will be sent to needy families or group homes or where needed. The friendship committee sent two get well cards, one sympathy card and made three visits.

Correspondence was read which was received from Lutheran World Relief, Grace Lutheran Ladies Aid of Wayne, Wakefield Health Care Center, Northeast High of Norfolk and Harriet Stolle.

November birthdays honored are Lillian Fredrickson and Jolene Miller. Pastor Pasch gave the closing prayer.

The next meeting is Dec. 7 with a 12:30 p.m. cooperative luncheon with all members of the congregation invited to attend. Hostesses are Lois Schlines, Lois Victor, Alice Johnson, Gladys Brudigam, and Jolene Miller.

SERVE ALL CLUB HAS MEETING

The Serve All Club met Oct. 16 with noon luncheon at the Wakefield Senior Center. Gertrude Ohlquist was hostess. Six members were present.

A business meeting was held with Glee Gustafson presiding. Roll call was answered with naming a special friend and why they are special.

The club helped with bingo and served lunch at the Wakefield Care Center on Oct. 25. Committee was Alice Heimann, Glee Gustafson, Berniece Kaufmann and Virginia Leonard.

The Christmas luncheon and party was planned to be held Wednesday, Dec. 4 at the Wakefield Senior Center. Ardath Utecht and Ruth Boeckenhauer are on the entertainment committee and a grabbag gift exchange will be held.

Following the meeting Gertrude Ohlquist had the entertainment with a game named "quiddler." Prizes were won by Edna Hansen and Ardath Utecht.

EVEN DOZEN CLUB MEETS

Even Dozen Club met on Oct. 15 with Leoma Baker as hostess. Twelve members were present and Linda Paul was a guest.

Delores Siebrandt, president, conducted the business meeting. Leoma Hammer read the minutes of the last meeting and Donna Roeber gave the treasurer's report.

A committee was named to help with bingo and serve lunch at the Wakefield Care Center on Nov. 1. A Christmas gift will be given to a Wakefield Care Center resident by the club.

The birthday song honored the October birthday of Linda Paul.

The next meeting is Nov. 19 with Cindy Bargholz as hostess.

Middle School students honored

The Wayne Rotary Club recently honored several Wayne Middle School students through its "Student of the Week" program.

The program honors seventh and eighth grade students who have been nominated by teachers and staff members at the Middle School for a number of reasons.

The following students have received recognition this school year:

For week of Sept. 25: Heidi Garvin, grade 7, daughter of Tim and Sharon Garvin. Heidi was instrumental in starting the Middle School newspaper. She is very involved in English class and shows great promise as a writer. She was nominated by Mrs. Thomas, seventh grade English teacher.

For week of Oct. 2: Samantha Denklaue, grade 8, daughter of Bryan and Sue Denklaue. Samantha performs a leadership role in the creation, promotion and continuation of the Middle School News. She has a positive attitude, perseverance, and ability to work with others and has helped make the school's video news program a success. Samantha was nominated by Mrs. Kindschuh, Middle School Media Specialist.

For week of Oct. 9: Elizabeth Baier, grade 8, daughter of Mitch and Penny Baier. Elizabeth was nominated by Mr. Kopperud, band instructor, for her good work habits. She has a good attitude and cooperates well in class. She is a good example for younger students.

For week of Oct. 16: Megan Powell, grade 8, daughter of Tim and Marie Powell and Leslie Backstrom, grade 8, daughter of Perry and Lisa Backstrom. Megan and Leslie worked together on a homeroom project and were nominated by Mrs. Brogie, science teacher at the Middle School. They both displayed strong leadership skills and took on active roles to unite their classmates to complete this homeroom project.

For week of Oct. 23: Michael Schwarten, grade 8, son of Doug and Paula Schwarten. Michael is goal-oriented and has an excellent attitude. He works diligently in all of his classes and has established an excellent rapport with staff members and other students. Michael was nominated by Mr. Lofquist, Special Education Director.

For week of Oct. 30: Jesse Hill, grade 7, son of Kevin and Melody Hill. Jesse was nominated by Mr. McClarnen, Middle School Principal, because he has earned praise from his teachers as a kind, honest, and hard-working student. He is an excellent role model both at school AND outside of school.

FIND THE BEST CELL PHONE PLAN FOR YOU!

Ask yourself these questions so you don't overspend!

When will I use the phone?	Estimate how often and when you'll make calls. If you'll make most of your calls during the day, you'll need more "anytime minutes." If you'll be calling mostly at night and on weekends, you can choose a less expensive plan with fewer daytime minutes.
Where will I use the phone?	Choose between Local, Regional, or National plans. If you're on the go check out plans with national coverage. If you're a homebody choose a local or regional plan and benefit by having more minutes available at the same or less cost.
Who will use the phone?	If several members of your family use cell phones, check out family or shared minute plans. It's cheaper to share minutes from one bucket than to pay for separate plans.
What's in the fine print?	Ask about penalties for early contract cancellation, roaming charges and overtime charges. Be honest about your anticipated usage with a representative you work with and they will be very helpful in electing the most efficient plan for your needs.

- Customer Specialist are Experts at helping people select Cell Phone Plans for:

RC&D council earns award

The 2002 Outstanding Nebraska RC & D Council award was presented to the Northeast Nebraska Resource Conservation and Development (RC & D) Council at the state association awards luncheon in Ainsworth on Oct. 3.

The award recognized coordination of the program, project accomplishments and outreach efforts. After receiving this recognition in 2000 the Northeast Nebraska RC & D Council went on to win the Western RC & D Association award and the National RC & D award.

During the associations opening session in Johnstown on Oct. 1, Jan Jorgensen, RC&D coordinator received a Certificate of Appreciation and spot award for her leadership to the AmeriCorps program. She has served as program director for the past three years. Jan recognized the outstanding assistance Barb Hoffart, program support assistant and Clo Ann Shamblen have given toward the administration of the program too. A graduation ceremony for the current AmeriCorps team members, including Sandy Patton of Brunswick was held during the luncheon.

Erin is a sophomore at Kansas State University, majoring in Architecture. In addition to serving on the KSU Student Government board representing the College of Architecture, she is Erin Arneson is a National Collegiate Scholar and a member of Kappa Alpha Theta sorority. She is the daughter of Marion and Patricia Arneson of Wayne.

Festival of Trees to be held

Seasonal decorating ideas and plenty of holiday spirit will be on display at the 2nd Annual Festival of Trees Friday through Sunday, Nov. 22-24, at the Lifelong Learning Center at Northeast Community College in Norfolk.

Organizers promise dozens of decorated trees, holiday displays and table place settings. Most will be sponsored by area retailers, non-profit organizations, student organizations at NECC or individuals.

While no items will be for sale at the event, those attending will see the new holiday merchandise available from various vendors.

Hours for the Festival of Trees are Friday, Nov. 22, 5-9 p.m.; Saturday, Nov. 23, 9 a.m.-5 p.m.; and Sunday, Nov. 24, noon-4 p.m. Admission is $5.00 and includes seasonal refreshments in the festival's tea room.

The Festival of Trees is sponsored by the American Association for Women in Community Colleges (AAWCC) chapter at Northeast Community College. Proceeds from the event will go to scholarships and campus improvement projects.

Tickets are available at the door, from an AAWCC member or at the Northeast library, bookstore or Lifelong Learning Center.

Training planned in Wakefield

Area childcare providers in home and centers, Head Start volunteers and staff, foster parents, home visitors, parents and child advocates are encouraged to attend Special Care training to be held Saturday, Nov. 9 at the Tacos & More meeting room. The training will be from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. and is free.

Participants will receive seven hours of Early Childhood In-service and CEU's will be provided by the Northeast Early Childhood Training Partnership, Early Development Network and the Wayne county Child Care Association.

Special Care training focuses on including children with disabilities in childcare settings. Topics covered during the workshop include how to include children with disabilities in typical home, center and community activities and settings, building relationships with families, community services for children with disabilities and developing a sensitivity to individuals with disabilities.

To register, contact Jennifer Bartos at 375-4321 after 4:30 p.m.

This training is provided, free of charge, to area providers by the Northeast Early Childhood Training Partnership, Early Development Network and the Wayne county Child Care Association.

Avoid the ghost of holidays past

Once November arrives the stores are filled with signs of Christmas. Holiday time often gives Americans a temporary license to lose financial control and repent for months afterward. Our emotions, culture and habits all work against remembering and practicing good money management.

The holiday shopping season seems to be getting longer every year. That gives even more room for temptation. Following are some tips to avoid paying for the holidays well into the next year:

*Use only one credit card. Better yet, pay for everything with cash. That way if you don't have it, you don't spend it.

*Wrap that credit card in an index card. Every time you use it, write down the amount you spent on the index card, and add to what you've already charged. Use that "running total" to help you keep track of your debt.

*Or set a limit before you first use the plastic for holiday spending. Write your spending total on the index card. Then every time you use the card, subtract the amount spent so your "running total" reflects how much credit you have left to spend.

*Resist the urge to join the holiday spending frenzy. Sometimes we even buy ourselves gifts!

*Ask why you are buying each gift. How much guilt is reflected in your holiday spending? What can you change throughout the year to reduce your guilt-spending at next year's holiday?
*Maybe like many others, you tend to overdo in an effort to make others happy. People cook too much food for gatherings. They shop for a special gift for each person on their list and yet, Cousin Mark does not remember what he received from them two years ago. Or maybe they don't even remember what they gave him then. Sound familiar? Maybe it's time to change your holiday gifting habits.

*Think about ways you could save money during the year so you'll have holiday cash to spend for the next holiday season. One Nebraskan carried lunch to work each day and deposited what he saved into a special savings account. That holiday season he paid cash for his gifts, and he lost weight too! Will he go back to using the plastic and paying off Santa in May? "Not on your life!"

To make the holiday season truly happy, focus on family, friends and those in need rather than on spending or excessive work. Slow down and enjoy each other and the season.

When January rolls around, start planning for next year's holiday season. Set aside a few dollars each week to use for gifts or other holiday expenses. Take advantage of clearance sales on lights and other decorations now to avoid paying full price for the same items next year.

Weekend focuses on church vocations

Serving God as an ordained pastor, a diaconal minister, or an Associate in Ministry is a challenging, rewarding and fulfilling task.

These are vocations worth considering by youth and adults.

This is the message that will be proclaimed this weekend, Nov. 9-10 at Our Savior Lutheran Church in Wayne.

Sunni Richardson, from Nebraska Lutheran Outdoor Ministries, will share this message and the gospel at the 6 p.m. Saturday and 8 and 10:30 a.m. Sunday worship services. Between the Services on Sunday morning, she will spend time with the middle school and high school classes, answering questions about church vocations.

Sunni is Director of Nebraska Lutheran Outdoor Ministries Programs and has served in this position for the past 12 years. Her experiences include serving as a program consultant with the Northern Diocese in Tanzania and helping to develop the plans for the Ngarony Youth Camp, chairing the ELCA Outdoor Ministry annual conference in 2000 and leading retreats for people of all ages at Carol Joy Holling Camp and other facilities.

Sunni is a commissioned Associate in Ministry and reports she loves being at camp where she can see children of all ages grow in their faith and strengthen their skills as disciples and servants of the Lord.

This weekend's emphasis is part of "Operation IDEA," Operation IDEA is a grassroots movement aimed at introducing and inviting persons to experience the joy and honor of service in Christ's church. Operation IDEA is designed to identify and recruit leaders for the church by inviting candidates, helping them discern their call, filling them with excitement and helping them Act on their call within the church.

It seems that too many Nebraskans haven't recognized their own desire to serve in a professional role in the church. Perhaps no one invited them, or they couldn't identify what exactly they might be called to do. Maybe they needed a mentor to share the joy or help them figure out how to act on the call.

This new synod-wide partnership may help those people be found or find their call. Operation IDEA aims to do something in a BIG way about the severe shortage of pastors and professional church workers in the Nebraska Synod and church at large.

Initiated by the Nebraska Synod, ELCA, Nebraska Lutheran Outdoor Ministries and Immanuel Health Systems, the partnership now includes Nebraska Lutheran Family Services and a number of congregations.

The ELCA (and other denominations) is facing an acute pastoral shortage. At this time over 50 congregations (out of 264) in the Nebraska Synod are without pastors. Throughout the ELCA, there are 2000 pastoral vacancies in the 11,000 congregations that comprise the ELCA.

Our Savior Lutheran Church is located at the corner of Fifth and Main Streets in Wayne. For additional information concerning the ministries at the church, contact the office at (402) 375-2899.

CROP Walk is successful

The Wayne Community-wide CROP Walk was held recently.

The six mile walk began at the First Church of Christ with Our Savior Lutheran Church hosting the event. The walkers walk to change the world locally and globally.

The walkers were blessed with a beautiful day for the walk. There were two water stands, hosted by volunteers from the Newman Club and from Cross Point. Quality Foods provided drinks from the walkers at the end of the walk.

The walkers raised an estimated $900. A portion of the money will go to the food pantry in Wayne, as well as overseas to help purchase items to help the poverty stricken people recover from disasters as well as teaching them to raise food for themselves.

The Church World Service sponsors CROP Walks all over the United States and are very thankful to all the people involved.

Those overseeing the Wayne walk would like to thank all the walkers who signed up to walk and collect pledges to go to the cause.

"Thank you to the people of Wayne for supporting the walkers by giving a pledge or donation. To all of our volunteers, CROP Walkers, sponsors and everyone who opened their hearts and hands to share in the ever-growing rainbow of caring, thank you!" said Deb Hammer, one of the organizers.

Fall Rally held at Wakefield

The Fall Rally of the Wayne Zone Lutheran Women's Missionary League was held recently at St. John's Lutheran Church in Wakefield.

Fifty-nine members, guests and pastors attended the morning brunch. The Rev. Jeff Anderson led a hymn sing and the opening devotions following a welcome by host society president, Martha Prochaska. Zone President Nila Schuttler of Wayne opened the business meeting.

Vice President Rhonda Sebade presented the slate of officers for election. Elected were Dorothy Kihne of Altona, president and Patti Mattes of Allen was re-elected as treasurer.

Link-up packets were given out to the society presidents and the District Report was shared by Mrs. Schuttler. The delegate to the National LWML Convention in 2003 in Oklahoma City will be Patti Mattes with Eunice Johnson as alternate. A bus will be going for those wishing to attend. The Nebraska North District LWML Convention will be held June 18-19 at the New World Inn in Columbus.

The Rev. Keith Kihne presented the Bible Study on the Rally's theme, "God's Precious Moments."

Hosting the 2003 Spring Workshop will be St. Paul's Church in Winside and Grace Church in Wayne will be the host of the 2003 Fall Rally.

Jean Wacker of Norfolk spoke on "God's Gifts of Precious Moments" using songs, thoughts and Precious Moments figurines reflecting the meaning of Precious Moments in our lives. She stated, "Every breath you take, every sunset, every smile - all are precious moments."

After installing the new officers, the rally closed with the singing of the LWML song.

November... National Home Care Month

"As a social service worker I see a variety of families with different levels of need and support. Providence Medical Center's home health and hospice services play a key role in providing assistance to patients and their families. It is a concern of most patients that they be able to remain in their homes as long as possible. With Providence Home Health & Hospice, patients and families are able to attain this goal. I have seen the relief in many family members who are reassured with the knowledge that someone is checking on their loved one frequently, and offering assistance when the family is unavailable."

"PMC Home Health Care, Personal Care and Hospice Services have touched the lives of many people in the Wayne and surrounding communities. They stand ready to receive and competently care for any and all patients referred to them from local and specialty physicians. PMC Discharge Planners have an especially close working relationship with these three entities depending upon their follow-up care from the acute care and skilled care settings. I am and have been since the inception of hospice a member of the Providence Hospice Care Team. The Home Health Hospice nurses are very dedicated, compassionate and well trained in caring for the dying patient. members of this community in these days of shorter hospital stays can be assured of having their needs met with continued home care coordinated by discharge planners and social services."

Getting out of parking ramp is frustrating

I'm putting around the kitchen this morning, baking things like brownies and banana bread, and I suddenly remember that it's Tuesday and I have a column due.

The brownies are going to my cousin; her mother died Sunday of Alzheimer's, after many years in a non-verbal state. At last, two weeks ago, she had a stroke and the decision was made not to move her to the hospital. And, still, it was 10 days later before that strong German heart gave out. And my cousin, who is just six weeks younger than me, went to the nursing home at York every week and spent the day with her, seeing to any needs. When I stopped in Saturday, she was playing hymns on the tape player, which made the room seem almost sacred.

We had been to Bradshaw on Saturday at an uncle's farm sale.

He died of heart failure in May in a hospital in Lincoln. I would like to have seen him go home, with hospice, but he did not choose that, and I have to respect his wishes.

Apparently, he spent his entire life on the farm going to other sales and bringing home anything that was going too cheap. There were duplicates of everything! The Big Farmer brought home 11 cream cans and eight scale weights, plus a seat made of a tractor seat welded to a fly wheel. I knew we were in trouble when he announced that we would be going in the pickup. I have a hunch these items were "going too cheap," too. Now, all he has to do is talk a grandchild into helping him clean them up.

We are still reflecting on our trip, especially as the photos begin coming in. We did not have a camera in Germany and it was raining the whole time anyway. But Olga, the lady we visited, had taken pictures of the churches we were interested in.

One of the most frustrating experiences happened in the Hamburg airport, as we made a "dry run" the day before we were to leave. We had been lost so many times, we decided to drive out there, find the car rental place, confirm flights, all of that, the afternoon prior. I pulled into a parking ramp next to the terminal, took a ticket from the machine and found a spot on the first level.

As we started for the terminal, we noticed a building between the ramp and the terminal. We couldn't read what was on it, of course and we just walked around it. In retrospect, I believe it said, "Automarkt" or something like that.

We finished inside the terminal, walked back to our rental car, backed out and drove to the arm over the exit. I put my ticket in, the sign flashed, "Ticket not paid." I knew that, I wanted it to tell me how many Euros it would take. I had hoped that we had been in and out in 20 minutes, which the sign said would be "no charge." I backed up and tried the other exit. Same thing.

I parked again and headed for the terminal to find out how to pay for parking. This time, I walked through the little building. There was a machine in there that people were putting their tickets in. Then, it flashed the charge, they paid it and got a ticket that said they had paid. Duh! I stuck my hand in my pocket to retrieve the ticket I had been trying at the exits. It was not there. I tried the other pocket. I went back to the car and searched it. Now, I had lost the d----- ticket!

I walked into the terminal and saw two employees of the airport. I approached them and tried to tell them my sad story. The taller one pointed at the other guy and said, "He's Italian and I'm Hispanic." I asked, in English, how they could understand each other and he said something to the effect that both were Romantic languages. They pointed me to a desk with a small "i" over it.

Turns out the small "i" means Information. (Incidentally, my computer won't let me print a small "i" by itself. It automatically capitalizes it.) The lady at this desk told me to go down a level, walk across many lanes of traffic into another parking lot and look for someone who could be a security guard. I did that. Eventually, I found a Tony Danza look-alike in a red all-weather coat. I told him my sad story.

He marched to another machine like the one in the little building and hit a button with a small "i". A voice answered, in German, of course. My new friend answered something that sounded like "Amerikaner bist Dumbkoff" All the time, I was remembering Hogan's Heroes and thinking it all sounded like the German soldiers at the stalag. He got instructions, walked me back to my machine, speaking now in English and told me that he was from Tunisia. That's three languages he speaks.

He hit the small button on this machine and basically repeated what he said before. Eventually, a ticket came out. I stuck it in. I now owed four Euros, which I was happy to pay just to get out of there. I thanked my rescuer, walked into the parking ramp and could not see the car. Finally, I realized we were now on the lower level. I walked back to the terminal, went up a level and recognized the vehicle, which contained a perplexed, patient husband.

Feeling like a real Dumbkoff, I drove out, left the airport and promptly got lost again. But we did eventually find our hotel and the next morning went so smoothly, we had all kinds of wait time before our flight.

I told the local German teacher on Sunday that I needed to spend some time with her!

Amy Topp honored

Amy Topp, Extension Educator for Wayne County, recently attended the National Association of 4-H Agents Conference. Topp was among youth professionals from across the nation to participate in the conference Oct. 26-31 in Norfolk, Va.

Each year NAE4-HA recognizes a member for Extension work presenting awards for outstanding accomplishments in achievement, leadership and communication. This year Topp was honored with the Achievement in Service Award which was presented during the annual recognition banquet.

Topp was one of 1,200 professional youth workers from all 50 states and Puerto Rico attending the association conference. Hosted by the Virginia Association of Extension 4-H Agents, this 55th annual conference was Topp's second conference experience. Amy also represented the Nebraska Association as their president.

The conference theme was "Charting the Way: 100 Years & Beyond" as 4-H celebrates its 100th anniversary.

Participants attended seminars, workshops and research presentations during the conference.

Kirk Astroth, President of the National Association of Extension 4-H Agents, presented Amy Topp with the Achievement in Service Award during the 2002 conference of the National Association of Extension 4-H Agents.

The sheep sale was held at the Norfolk Livestock Market Monday with 200 head sold. Prices were $3 to $5 higher on fat lambs and feeder lambs and higher on ewes.

Deadline near for loan applications

Producers wanting to take advantage of special provisions in the 2002 Farm Bill extending eligibility for loan deficiency payments for 2001 grain crops must apply for those payments by Nov. 12.

According to Brian Wolford, executive director for the Nebraska Farm Service Agency, the 2002 Farm Bill included two important provisions for the producers regarding 2001 crops.

"The farm bill extended eligibility for loan deficiency payments, or LDPs, to commodities produced on farms that were not enrolled in 2001 crop-year Production Flexibility Contracts," Wolford said.

In addition, the farm bill also waived the requirement that producers retain beneficial interest in their 2001 crops prior to applying for an LDP.

"These provisions mean that more producers may be eligible for LDPs for 2001 crops than there would have been otherwise," Wolford said.

But the receive a payment, producers must apply before the November deadline. "Normally," Wolford said, "we would be well past the deadline for applying for LDPs for 2001 crops." However, because the 2002 Farm Bill was signed into law late in the marketing year for these crops and the agency was required to write new regulations, the application deadlines were extended.

Wolford explained that in cases where new regulations must be written, program deadlines are usually set for 30 days following the date the regulations are published in the Federal Register. The regulations regarding grains were published Oct. 11. As a result, the application deadline was set as Nov. 12.

Wolford noted that producers who think they might be eligible for 2001-crop LDP payments might have to meet other requirements and he encouraged them to contact their local Farm Service Agency county office as soon as possible.

Iron: Why Boys May "Outsmart" Girls

According to a recent report in the medical journal Pediatrics, iron deficiency may be responsible for girls not keeping up with boys in solving math problems by the time they reach high school. Iron is required for red blood cell production. Having too few red cells is termed Anemia.

Researchers at the University of Rochester School of Medicine and Dentistry studied more than 5 thousand children aged 6 to 16 years. They found that iron deficient children were twice as likely to have below average standardized math test scores as compared to children who had adequate amounts of iron in their blood.

In this study 3% of children overall were found to be iron deficient. However, 9% of teenage girls were iron deficient. Test scores were lower even if iron deficiency was not so serious as to cause anemia.

UNITED METHODIST WOMEN
Helen Hlotgrew presided at the Oct. 22 United Methodist Church Women group. Three members reported attending the annual State meeting in Lincoln. An officers training workshop was held Oct. 24 and the church conference was in Osmond Oct. 30.

A roast beef dinner will be held for the general public on Nov. 10 in the Winside Auditorium. There will be a Thanksgiving Worship Service at Trinity Lutheran on Nov. 27 at 7 p.m.

Crossfire will be at the Dec. 1 Winside United Methodist worship service at 11:15 a.m. A bake sale will be held at Porky's on Saturday, Dec. 14 from 8 a.m. to noon with free coffee.

Pastor Carol Jean Stapleton showed a video on the annual conference and Bonnie Wylie was hostess for this meeting.

The next meeting will be Tuesday, Nov. 19 at 2 p.m. Helen Hlotgrew will have a Thank Offering program.

ROAST BEEF DINNER

The fifth annual Winside United Methodist Roast Beef Dinner will be held in the Winside Auditorium on Sunday, Nov. 10 from 11 a.m. to 1:30 p.m. for the general public. The menu will include roast beef, mashed potatoes and gravy, dinner roll, corn, salads, dessert and drink for a suggested donation of $6 for adults and $3 for children 10 and under. Everyone is welcome and carryouts are available by calling Rose at 286-9010 or Audrey at 286-4230.

There will be a Saturday evening Nov. 9 worship service at 7 p.m. instead of a Sunday service.

SELECTED FOR ALL STATE

Each year over 2002 of the best high school musicians in the state audition for the Nebraska All-State Band, Chorus, Jazz Band and Orchestra sponsored by the Nebraska Music Educators Association. Selection as a member of one of these groups is one of the highest musical honors attainable in Nebraska.

Dan Hays, chair of choral affairs for the Nebraska Music Educators Association announced that Lacey Jaeger of Winside High School, an Alto II, will be among the 450 students selected to be a part of the 2002 All-State Choir. Guest Conductor for this year's group will be Sigrid Johnson from St. Olaf College in Northfield Minnesota. The choir will rehearse Thursday, Nov. 21 through Saturday, Nov. 23 on the University of Nebraska-Lincoln campus, the host site of the 2002 NMEA Conference/Clinic. A final public concert will be held on Saturday, Nov. 23 at the Lied Center for the Performing Arts on the University of Nebraska-Lincoln Campus.

AUXILIARY

The American Legion Auxiliary Unit 252 of Winside met on Oct. 4 at the Post Home. President Pat Miller presided with nine members present. Judy Jacobsen gave an opening prayer. The Pledge of Allegiance and Preamble to the Constitution were recited.

Judy Jacobsen reported on her flag presentation at the school. Membership chairman reported that only one member needs to pay dues and the unit needs one more new member.

The Veteran's Day program was discussed; it will be in the elementary school Nov. 11 at 8:30 a.m. Beverly Neel gave a report on the 82nd Annual Convention at Charlotte, N.C.

Correspondence was received from the District President Judy

Lots of goblins wait in line for the haunted house, a big attraction at the party. Door prizes were won by Nathan Janke, Harry Potter book; Garrett Watters, magic marker poster; Shannon Gray, Harry Potter banner. Approximately 100 children attended the party. Organizer of events was Lori Finn.

Shopke and from Lynn Wild, membership chair. With no further business, the meeting was closed and Judy Jacobson closed with prayer. Hostesses were Evelyn Jaeger and Pat Miller.

'Fridays at Wayne State College' set for area seniors

"Fridays at WSC," a program designed for high school seniors and their parents, will be held on Nov. 15 and Dec. 6. Registration begins at 8:45 a.m. and the day concludes in mid-afternoon.

During the day, families and students will be provided with information about admission, financial assistance, academic programs and extracurricular activities at Wayne State.

"Fridays at WSC" is a great opportunity to meet with current students, visit academic areas, tour campus and eat lunch in the campus cafeteria," said Laura Thayer-Mencke, admissions specialist. "These are just a few of the events planned to help students decide WSC is the place for them."

For more information or to pre-register for "Fridays at WSC," call or e-mail the admissions office at: 1-800-228-9972, ext. 7234 or 1-402-375-7234. E-mail: admit1@wsc.edu. Visit the WSC Web site at: wsc.edu for more information about WSC.

Deputies give out treats to area youngsters on Halloween

The Wayne County Sheriff's Office completed another successful Halloween. For the last 20 years, the Sheriff and Deputies have provided a means to meet with young "trick or treaters" on that late October evening in a positive manner.

Wayne County Sheriff's Officers park their patrol cars in the Villages that they provide law enforcement for Winside, Carroll and Hoskins. They find an area that is well lit, that has a high traffic area for children and hand out Halloween treats that are purchased by the individual officers. Sheriff LeRoy Janssen reports that, "this year we estimate that we have 'treated' around two hundred children in the villages that we serve."

Janssen further stated that he talked to a father with three small children that he told that, "we have to go to the patrol car because he received candy from the deputies when he was a child and he knew this year would be no different. It is a positive display of community relations that has apparently not gone unnoticed."

QUILT WINNER

Amanda Ekberg of Lincoln was the winner of the 2002 Wakefield Health Care Center auxiliary quilt. The drawing was held at the conclusion of the group's fall fundraiser held Oct. 24.

Other winners were Ruth Johnson and Caroline Gordon, quilts donated by Salem Lutheran Quilters; Donna Boeckenhauer, an afghan made and donated by Margaret Patterson and Carol Sharpnack, wall hanging made and donated by The Quilt Shop.

The Wakefield Health Care Center Auxiliary had a meeting Nov. 5.

Committee reports from the Potato bake were given at that time.

Also 2003 membership booklets will be available to those paying dues for the next year.

TEACHERS IN WHO'S WHO

Teachers from Wakefield, Emerson and Allen have been selected to be published in the 2002 edition of Who's Who Among America's Teachers.

Named from Wakefield were Iris Mestl Borg, Shannon Carrol and La Vonne Fick Carson.

Emerson instructors selected were Beth Ann Rohde, Jennifer Ann Trenhaile and Clifford D. Wiseman.

Allen instructors selected were Richard Lacy, Marcia Ann Rastede and Susan Curry Von Minden.

The teachers selected were nominated by former students who are currently listed in Who's Who Among American High School Students, or the National Dean's List Publications. The students were requested to nominate the one teacher from their entire academic career who made a difference in their lives.

COMPLETE TRAINING

Nic Dahl and his wife Heather recently completed training courses. Nic, who is the grandson of Marian Christiansen of Wakefield, graduated from 13 weeks of training at the Iowa Law Enforcement Academy as part of this training as a police officer with the Indianola, Iowa, police department.

Dahl's parents are Dr. Lee and Kayleen Dahl of Laurel. Dahl earned a bachelor of Science degree in Criminal Justice from Wayne State College in December 2000.

Heather Dahl graduated with high honors from St. Luke's College of Nursing in Sioux City, Iowa.

GRANDSON WEDS

Cindy Wedemeyer of Chugwater, Wyo. and Bryan Kahl of Seward were married in a July ceremony at Chugwater. Kahl is the grandson of Willis and Evelyn Kahl of Wakefield.

Bryan and Cindy are at home in Muller where he is employed as a Rangeland Management Specialist with the National Resource Conservation Service in Theford.

Maid of Honor was Kristy Wedemeyer of Canyon, Texas, twin sister of the bride, Bestman was Thomas Smith of Chadron friend of the couple.

Parents of the couple are Dennis and Nancy Kahl of Seward and Russ and Karen Wedemeyer of Shugwater, Wyo.

NEW BOOKS

The Graves Public Library has some new books to check out. They are as follows:

Adult Fiction: "Charleston" by John Jakes; "Honest Illusions" by Nora Roberts; "The Sunday Wife" by Cassandra King; "Stone Kiss" by Faye Kellerman; "Morgwar" by Terry Books; "Black Powder, White Smoke" by Loren D. Estleman; "Cold Day in July" by Stells Cameron.

Adult Non-Fiction: "And Words Can Hurt Forever" by James Garbarino, Ph.D.; "In Search of American" by Peter Jennings; "Let's Roll" by Lisa Beamer; "Horses, Cowsock, and Duckfeet" by Baxter Black.

Children's Easy Non-Fiction: "This is the House That Jack Built" by Simms Taback; "So You Want to Be an Inventor" by Judith St. George.

YEARBOOK FRUIT SALES

The yearbook staff is selling fruit through the Affiliated Foods School Sales Program. This sales program is offered annually through Affiliated Foods and the Wakefield Staff will selling fruit through the Fair Store.

This year the fruit sales will offer six different variety packs. The variety packs will be prepackaged and boxed for Christmas giving. The fruit sales will also feature the usual variety of boxed fruit.

Yearbook staff will be selling California Sunkist Navel Oranges, Florida and Texas Grapefruit, Florida Tangelos, Washington State Red or Golden Delicious and Granny Smith Apples, Washington State D'Angou Pears, Del Monte Gold Pineapples and Idaho Green Giant Baked Potatoes.

The fruit will arrive just in time for you to give or make up those special gift boxes of fruit for Christmas giving.

Sales are running now through Nov. 15. If you are not contacted and wish to purchase fruit, you can stop by The Fair Store to order, call one of the yearbook staff members or the yearbook staff advisor, Mrs. Goos at the school, 287-2012.

This is the only fundraiser the annual staff does to support the publishing cost of the Yearbook. The Fair Store contributes all earnings from the fruit sales to the annual staff.

RECEIVES CHEVY MOTOR

The Industrial Technology Class of the Wakefield Community School toured the campus of South Community College-Milford on Oct. 23. Staff for SECC chaperoned students through the Transportation facilities.

John Deere, Chrysler and Chevrolet affiliated programs were represented, along with Diesel, parts marketing and collision repair.

Following the program drawings were held. Matt Haglund won a jacket; Ryan Otte received a sweatshirt and class instructor Daryl Harrison also won a jacket.

The highlight of the trip, according to Harrison, was when the Wakefield School's name was drawn for a six cylinder, dual-overhead cam Chevrolet motor.

Purpose of the prize to a school is that it be used for education purposes.

TOURS HISTORICAL PLACES

The Wakefield School students WHO organization sponsored a Wakefield Historical Tour. The tour was held with the adult Wakefield Heritage Organization (WHO) for their monthly meeting in October.

The tour began at Lefty's Memorabilia. Tour Guide Sylvia Olson shared with the group many cultural and historical facts and information about memorabilia from Wakefield. Students really enjoyed viewing some of the "old" newspapers.

Next stop was the old high school, now the Wakefield Family Resource Center. Tour Guide Marcia Kratke showed members through the building. One of the interesting items mentioned was the old underground tunnel that ran from the high school to the former elementary building. The tunnel was used during inclement weather. Adult WHO members shared interesting stories from their high school days with the group.

The final stop on the tour was The Dugout. Here members enjoyed refreshments, discussed the tour and held a brief meeting. Student WHO members enjoyed the tour, and if there is enough interest might sponsor another tour. If you have any historical information or a site that you would like to share, contact any WHO member or sponsors Jennifer Goos and Kirby Mousel at the school.
