FFA chapter is named winner

The Laurel-Concord FFA Chapter of Laurel was named the Model of Innovation in student development winner at the 75th National FFA Convention.

The nation's top 10 three-star gold chapters in the student division competed for the award. The Laurel-Concord FFA received a plaque during the convention's second general session recently. Top chapters also were selected from chapter and community development divisions.

Model of Innovation winners demonstrated outstanding individual and cooperative activities that enhance students' life skills. Members processed and collected data for more than 700 hybrid-corn samples as part of a research project with Syngenta.

Cargill and the Land O'Lakes Foundation sponsor the Models of Innovation awards as a special project of the National FFA Foundation.

The chapter also participated in a distance agricultural research experience with students from Mead. Students met via video conferencing, conducted hands-on research and developed presentations to share with the other school.

Laurel-Concord FFA members also organized a member and alumni bonfire to kick off the school year and increase member recruitment and retention. Upperclassmen were paired with freshmen and new members to develop mentoring relationships.

Commenting on the accomplishments of the Laurel-Concord FFA, Curt Friedel, instructor, said the largest factors in their success includes wonderful parents, an outstanding school, and supportive community.

As for membership in the Laurel-

Concord chapter, there are 58 FFA members, seven of whom are in college.

FFA is a national youth organization of 461,043 student members preparing for leadership and careers in the science, business and technology of agriculture with 7,308 local chapters in all 50 states, Puerto Rico and the Virgin Islands. FFA strives to make a positive difference in the lives of students by developing their potential for premier leadership, personal growth and career success through agricultural education. ## Police to provide holiday food

The Wayne Police Department and the Wayne Lodge of the Fraternal Order of Police are making an effort to help certain families in Wayne enjoy the holiday season a little more.

As the holidays draw closer, on-duty police officers will be offering specially selected families a holiday feast with all the fixings. They stress that residents should not be surprised to see one or two patrol cars stopping at their home or that of a neighbor and officers carrying grocery bags to front doors.

The families will be carefully selected in an effort to provide those who really need assistance the opportunity to enjoy a family size Christmas dinner. Through money raised from the recent shotgun raffle and other fundraisers, the Fraternal Order of Police will supply the Christmas dinners and the police officers will deliver them.

While the F.O.P. is excited to provide the groceries, the community's help is needed. Officer Brian Swanson, Vice President of the F.O.P. lodge, said it is the goal of the program to ensure that these families have enough leftovers to last them at least a month. "With that in mind, everyone in Wayne is invited to drop off any food items they can spare at the Wayne Police Department. Food will be accepted through Dec. 15 when the officers will begin the drop offs," he said.

The officers of the Wayne Police Department would like to thank everyone who participates and wish everyone in Wayne a warm and safe holiday.

Officially opened

Ribbon cutting ceremonies were held Sunday at the Community Activity Center. Several hundred people were on hand as Bob Keating, center, Mayor Sheryl Lindau and members of the Wayne Ambassadors performed the ribbon cutting. Following that, Keating gave a brief history of the project and thanked those who contributed to the facility.

Schulz hanging up the street sweeper

By Clara Osten
 Of the Herald

After 37 years of checking the weather at 2 a.m. to see if any snow had fall, Vern Schulz is planning to retire from his position of Superintendent of Public Works for the City of Wayne.

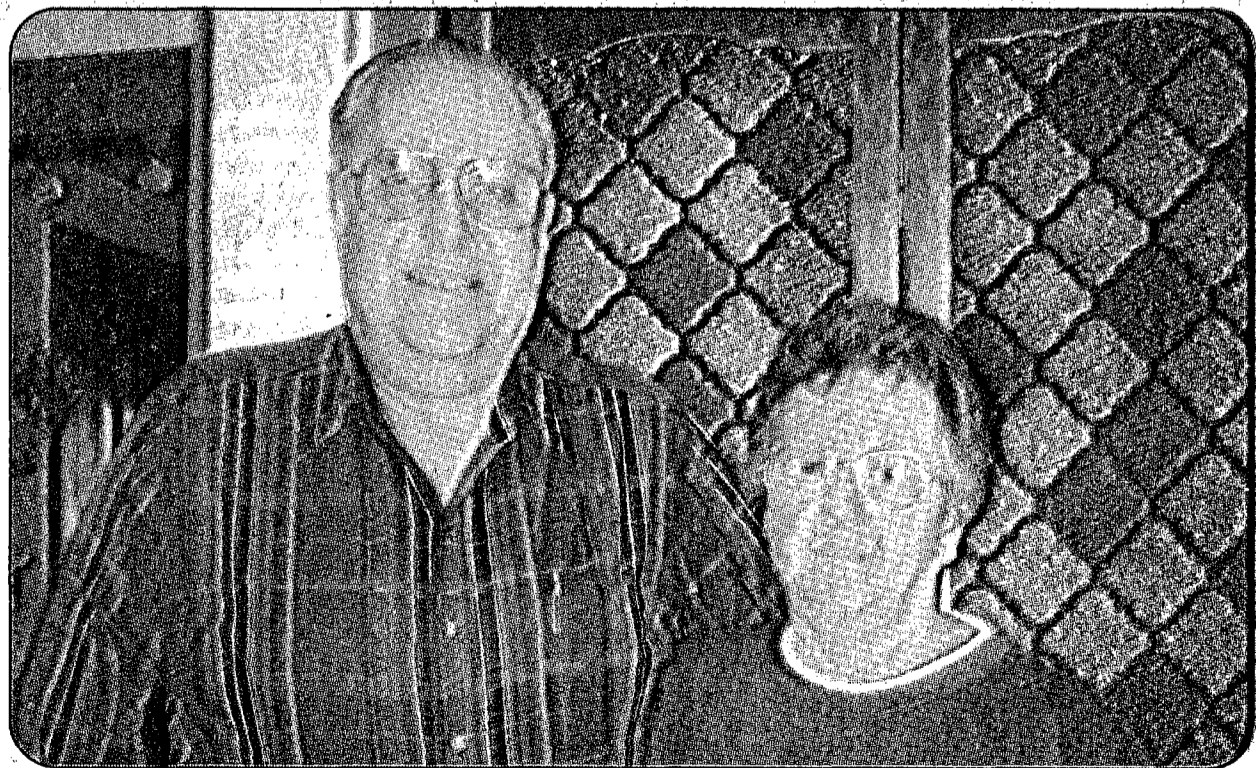

Health concerns combined with the demands of the job lead Schulz to retirement, effective Nov. 30.

Schulz, who started working for the city on Sept. 1, 1965, said that every day has been different, making planning a day-to-day job based on what's happening.

"When I started, the city had two old trucks to work with and one tractor and four employees. When we had a big snow storm, we had to dig Milo Meyer out so he could get equipment to clean the streets. At that time though, there was not the rush there is now. There was not as much traffic," he said.

At the present time the city has eight employees in the Public Works Department as well as more dependable, advanced equipment. In addition, Schulz says that the winters are milder.

Schulz said through the years, the average date

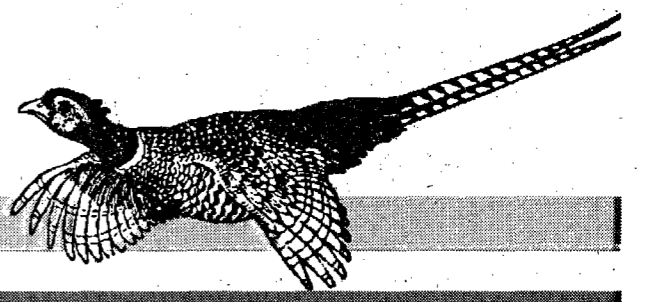

Vern and Dee Schulz plan to complete a number of projects and enjoy their grandchildren now that Vern has retired from his job as Superintendent of Public Works.

Thanks for giving the gift of life

Dear Editor,
We would like to thank the 38 people who volunteered to give blood at Grace Lutheran Church on Nov. 11. Twenty-six units of whole blood were collected and 10 units were collected through the double red cell procedure, equaling 36 life saving units. There were four new donors with the Siouxland Blood Bank and Mardelle Hallstrom reached the one gallon mark.

Main Street Focus

By Leo Ahmann

Much of the column this week is a reminder to any and all, about upcoming events sponsored by Main Street Wayne. The holiday season is fast approaching and we invite you to be a part of it.

The first activity is scheduled for this Saturday when the Main Street crew will be putting up the big Christmas tree on the corner of Seventh and Main Street. However, the weather doesn't sound too promising so we'll have to see how that goes. On Nov. 26 store owners and managers will be "Hanging the Greens" outside their stores. We'll also be decorating the parks. State National Bank Park next to the Wayne Herald and the Main Street Park between Doescher's Appliance and Edward Jones Investments. On Friday, Nov. 29 the downtown businesses that choose to do so will be opening at 7 a.m. and the Main Street Office will be serving cider and coffee and at that time. At 10 a.m. that morning, since there is no Chamber Coffee scheduled, Main Street will be hosting a Holiday Coffee with refreshments and goodies and we invite everyone to stop by. We also get into many holiday activities right away in December. Sunday store hours, for businesses who choose to do so, begin on Dec. 1 from noon until 4 p.m.

Thursday, Dec. 5 is Fantasy Forest, Rotary Soup and Pie Supper at the Elementary School (yes, there is a mistake on our calendar in Monday's Wayne Herald/ Morning Shopper... we stand corrected!). Fantasy Forest concludes on Friday, Dec. 6.

On that Friday, Antiques on Main is having an Open House, featuring crafts and singing provided by the Middle School students.

I'm actually going to stop here because there is chance of information overload and I don't want that to happen. Please clip out the calendar in Monday's Wayne Herald/ Morning Shopper and hang on to it until Christmas Day!!!

Please remember the wonderful Friends of the Wayne County Museum Gala on Saturday evening, Nov. 30. It's a magical night and we invite you to attend. THE BIGGIE!!! Thursday Night, Dec. 12... Christmas on the Main... Parade of Lights... Living windows... a visit and free picture with Santa... and the possibility of a live nativity scene with animals and all (still waiting on confirmation of this). We will still accept Parade of Lights and Living windows entries.

It's a fun evening and even more so, if you participate. Please call 375-5062. Until next time...

The politics of Ernie Chambers

By Ed Howard
Statehouse Correspondent
The Nebraska Press Association

There is something strange about the role Sen. Ernie Chambers has come to play in the life of this little society we call Nebraska.

It's too much. The guy is like the University of Nebraska football team: The criticism he generates is entirely out of proportion to his actions. Neither Chambers nor the football team are as important as they have been made out to be. Neither is as bad as some people say, either!

Actually, Chambers could more accurately be compared to NU's head football coach - any NU head football coach, in almost any year. The chances of his critics knowing as much as he does about the subject at hand are small. That doesn't mean Chambers is necessarily right or that his critics are automatically wrong about any given thing. It means the Omaha lawmaker assembles a great many facts and offers intelligent commentary on them.

Many of the thoughts Chambers offers - on matters ranging from social services to the death penalty - are worthy of consideration by his colleagues and the citizenry. The conclusions he reaches concerning what constitutes "good" public policy are often and obviously at variance with the majority - within and without the Legislature. That doesn't mean his views cannot be useful and constructive in the course of forming public policy.

It is somewhat unfortunate that newspapers simply cannot print lengthy excerpts of legislative debate. For completely understandable reasons, the terse and quotable quote is what makes the headlines and the airwaves. Legislative debates often reflect more than length; they can reflect depth, too.

Why is Chambers' approach to legislative business considered outrageous by a great many folk, including more than a few of his current and past colleagues? Two basic reasons:

First, a great deal of what he says annoys a substantial audience; and the way he says it is even more of an annoyance.

Second, Chambers is virtually a one-man version of "the loyal opposition." Through his determination and skills, he can delay legislation with effectiveness worthy of a half-dozen people working in harness. The fact that Chambers doesn't have a pocketful of people to back him up doesn't dilute his right or duty to fight what he considers the good fight.

And, think about this: Chambers' criticism of the Legislature is seldom worse than that to which it is subjected by the general public. Read what "we the people" say about the Legislature in on-line feedbacks to newspaper articles, or in letters to the editor printed in newspapers throughout the state. Or on talk radio.

A substantial element of the public - the vocal public, at least - thinks the Legislature is likely to botch everything from the death penalty to tax policy to state aid to schools. Well, Chambers generally agrees with that assessment, albeit for reasons that might be different than that of the vocal majority.

Perhaps Chambers is singularly at the center of a storm these days because there are no other legislative leaders who readily draw fire. There is no John DeCamp or Ron Withem or Terry Carpenter or even a Kate Witek. Those who inhabit the Unicameral these days tend toward the low-key.

Example: Speaker of the Legislature Curt Bromm, a man with a moderate approach to government and a civil approach to people, opposed the idea of calling a special legislative session to deal with the death penalty. He figured 2003 was soon enough. Bromm is not the type, however, to raise hell when raising an objection. Bromm didn't draw a firestorm of criticism for his view. He just offered it, and went about his business.

Chambers, however, took an approach that does, if you think about it, more closely reflect the public reaction when it doesn't like something in government: He

Lead-safe work training courses to be offered

Any housing contractors or workers who have not yet attended and successfully completed the training course for the safe removal of lead-based paint will have one more opportunity to participate in a free training course offered in Nebraska in 2002.

The training is scheduled for Dec. 2, 8 am - 5 pm (lunch on own) in North Platte at Mid Plains Community College, McDonald-Belton Campus, 602 W. State Farm Road.

"The earlier that people register the better, as training space is limited," said Jen Bolen, who coordinates the training program through the Nebraska Department of Economic Development (DED). "It also is unclear at this time whether the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) will offer these free training courses in the future."

The eight-hour "Lead-Based Paint Renovation and Remodeling" course is geared toward contractors and workers whose rehabilitation or remodeling work includes structural repairs, weatherization and unit upgrading. Participants will learn how to perform interim controls of lead hazards in federally-assisted housing under HUD's Lead-Safe Housing Rule. On successful completion of the course, participants will receive a certificate indicating that they have received this training and can provide lead-safe work practices services.

Contractors working with HUD-funded housing programs must be trained in Lead-Safe Work Practices, at a minimum, if their remodeling or rehabilitation work will disturb lead-based paint. Other federally funded housing programs also have this requirement.

In 2001, Nebraska received a $2 million Lead Hazard Control grant from HUD. DED's Community and Rural Development Division is a principal partner in an innovative initiative with the Nebraska health and Human Services System-Regulation and Licensure to implement a rural Lead Hazard Control program throughout the state. A portion of the funding is helping develop and build a list of reliable lead-based paint contractors through subsidized training, certification and assistance with liability insurance expenses for small businesses.

Register online at: www.leadlisting.org, and receive an automatic confirmation. Contractors who do not have Internet access may contact Leigh Alexander or Christi Boyer with the LHC Program Managers office at (402) 582-3580 to register, or to request a faxed registration form.

Flag presentation

Members of VFW Post #5291 and Commander Eddie Bauer presented a flag to Premier Estates in a recent Veterans' Day activity. In addition to Bauer, other VFW members on hand were Marlin Meier, Vern Hallstrom and Roy Summerfeld. A number of Premier Estates residents were able to be on hand for the flag raising.

Group planning Thanksgiving dinner

Thanksgiving is a time to give thanks, share in fellowship and friendship and enjoy the bounty of a fall harvest in the form of a turkey dinner and all its trimmings.

Holidays are more joyful when they are spent in the company of others and some people may be interested in a place to share a Thanksgiving Meal with others!

Representatives from five local churches and many volunteers are working together to plan, prepare and serve this meal.

Anyone wanting fellowship, good food, or both, is invited to share in a community-wide Thanksgiving

Feast. There will be no charge for this meal; it is a gift to those who come from those who participate in the preparation, serving and enjoying of this meal.

Now is the time to make plans to attend. Organizers will be delighted to share in the company of others at noon on Thanksgiving Day at Our Savior Lutheran Church Fellowship Hall at Fifth and Main Street in Wayne.

Reserve your place at the table by calling (402) 375-2899. Reservations are encouraged before the event. Transportation will be provided for those who need a ride.

Schulz

when the street crews first need to deal with snow is Nov. 11. He follows the "four by two or two by four" rule when making the decision to sweep the streets, four inches of snow by 2 a.m. or two inches of snow by 4 a.m.

Schulz took over as Street Commissioner from Henry Victor who had worked for the street department for many years. Job titles changed for Schulz several times, from Commissioner to Street Superintendent and later, with certification, Superintendent of Public Works.

Vern was born in Wayne and lived on a farm south of Wayne, attending country school. He attended both Wayne High School and Hahn High School on the Wayne State campus to attend FFA classes. He has also taken classes in mechanical drawing, industrial arts, welding, metals and miner electrical.

Following high school, Schulz volunteered for the draft in 1958 and served two years in the U.S. Army. Following his return to Wayne, he worked for one year on a bridge construction crew and then went to work for a local concrete plant as an equipment operator. He later served as a plant manager before beginning his employment with the city.

In 1963 he was married to Dolores Doescher. Among the activities the couple has been involved with together was owning Wayne Yellow Cab. Both Vern and Dee drove the cab, often driving all day and all night and making trips both within the city limits and throughout the state. Dee has also been an elementary school teacher and ran a day care for a number of years.

In addition to his wife, Vern's family includes two sons, Rocci and his wife Nanette of Olathe, Kan. and Terry and Leslie of Wayne. The Schulz's also have four grandchildren.

"When I first started, my responsibilities also included the water/waste water department also. The work associated with this meant that I missed a lot of school and family events. After a while, though, we got smart and used a lot of preventative maintenance to help prevent some of the emergencies," Schulz said.

While winters and snow have taken a large amount of Schulz's time, the park system has received an equal amount. Since Schulz began his employment, the city has added several parks, including Ashley, Victor and Sunnyview. During the winters, members of the Public Works Department also construct playground equipment for these parks.

Vern has been a certified Street Superintendent since 1972 and a member of the American Public Works Association since 1979. He served on the state board in 1982. He is on the Nebraska Arbor Day Foundation and involved with Tree City USA, as well as the Nebraska Mosquito and Vector Association and the Nebraska State Recycling Association. He is a Siouland Blood Donor, having donated 11 gallons of blood.

"Thirty some years have brought about many changes in the way maintenance and projects are dealt with. New equipment, a CADD computer system, metrics and of course, more regulations and red tape. Every day was a new challenge."

The Schulz's have several plans for retirement.

Vern will continue to work-part time and is presently driving the Wayne Shuttle when needed.

The couple plan to go camping and fishing and spend time with their grandchildren. Dee also has a number of projects she hopes to have her husband complete now that he does not have to get up at 3 a.m. to determine the plan for his day.

"The Chicken" visited Irene Fletcher at Legends Clothing on Monday to drop off cluck-tibles items which will be on sale until Christmas.

Cluck-tibles on sale

Scratching your head on what to buy that "special" person on your Christmas list? Don't get your feathers all ruffled, the Wayne Area Chamber of Commerce Chicken Show Task Force may have the answer.

A number of cluck-tible items from past Chicken Shows and t-shirts from the last two years are now on sale at several Wayne businesses and the Wayne Chamber of Commerce Office.

A number of 2001 "Higher Eggucation" shirts in medium, large and extra-large sizes are available for $5 each. The 2002 "22 Hen Salute" shirts in extra large are available for $10 each.

In addition, the following items, with the price in parenthesis are on sale: Lapel pins ($3); collector's spoons ($6); Frisbees ($2); Koozies ($3); Imprinted golf balls ($3.50 each or $10 for a sleeve of three).

These items can be purchased at Legends, Antiques on Main, Pac 'N' Save and the Chamber Office.

Funds from the sale of these items are used to put on each year's events.

For more information, and the possibility of other sizes of shirts, contact the Chamber Office at (402) 375-2440.

Northeast Housing Initiative receives check for $1,575

Northeast Housing Initiative, assisting Cedar, Dixon, Knox and Pierce counties with their affordable housing needs, recently received a check in the amount of $1,575 from the Nebraska REACH organization. These funds will be used for the delivery of Homebuyer Education in the four-county area.

REACH is the Readiness Education Awareness Collaborative for Homebuyers and Homeowners. The funds were made available to REACH affiliates through a NIFA (Nebraska Investment Finance Authority) Challenge grant.

Northeast Housing Initiative and Allen Development Group collaborate to provide a 12-hour Homebuyer Education Course covering 16 curriculum areas at least four times a year. Information on these courses is available through Northeast Housing Initiative at 402-635-2078.

State runner up

The Laurel-Concord volleyball team placed second at the Class C2 State Volleyball Tournament in Waverly and Lincoln last weekend. It was the fourth time in the last eight years the Bears have played in the championship game. See today's sport section for further details on the Bears at state.

Nominations being sought

The Wayne Area Chamber of Commerce is currently seeking nominations for their annual Citizen of the Year and Educator of the Year.

A Chamber sponsored event, the Citizen of the Year is designed to honor an individual in the community who has significantly contributed to the general betterment of the Wayne area.

The Educator of the Year is designed to recognize an educator of excellence in the classroom and outstanding involvement in the community.

The recipient of each award is honored at the Annual Chamber Banquet.

Nomination forms for both awards are available at the Chamber Office, 108 West Third Street, or by calling (402) 375-2240.

All community members are encouraged to consider nominating someone for one of the above awards.

Man arrested for arson

Between the hours of 7:30 and 9:30 a.m. on Nov. 19 between four and six field or grass fires were reported to the Carroll and Wayne Volunteer Fire Departments.

While at the scenes it was determined that the fires did not appear to have started by natural causes. A vehicle description was passed on to law enforcement authorities that was seen at some of the fires. A vehicle was stopped within a few miles of that area and the driver was questioned and arrested for being under the influence of alcoholic liquor.

Curtis Dean Brockman, age 37, of rural Carroll, Nebraska was later arrested by the Wayne County Sheriff's Office and the Nebraska Fire Marshall's Office for the alcohol driving violation and two counts of third degree arson. He was jailed following the incident and Wayne County Judge Riley set bond at $10,000.

The Wayne County Sheriff's Office was assisted by the Cedar and Dixon County Sheriff's Offices, the Nebraska Fire Marshall's Office and the Nebraska State Patrol in the initial investigation. The investigation continues into this matter as further information is being developed in this case.

Fantasy Forest dates set

The Wayne State College ASID Student Chapter and the Wayne Area Chamber of Commerce have extended an invitation to individuals, businesses and organizations to participate in the 18th Annual Fantasy Forest to be held at the West Elementary Grade School at 612 West Fourth Street.

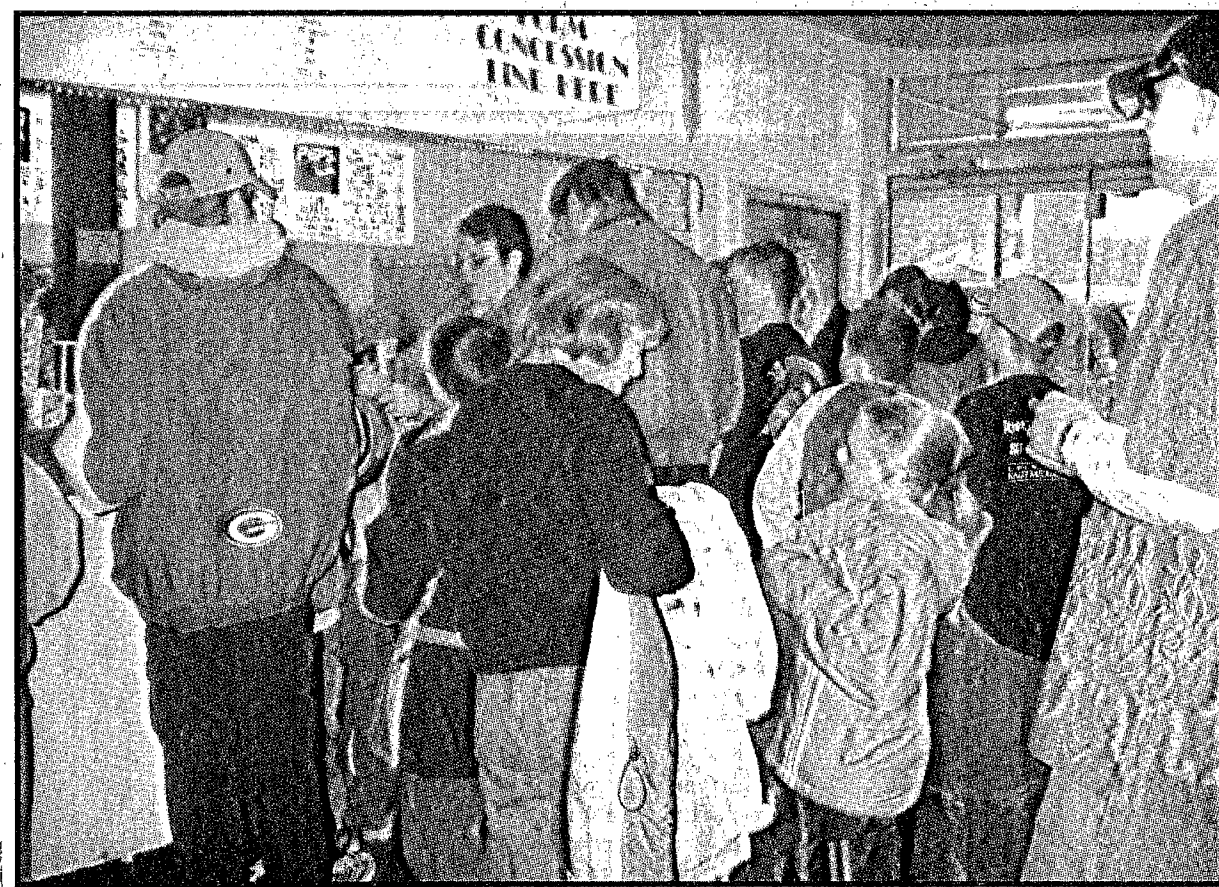

The dates scheduled are Wednesday, Dec. 4 for set up and Thursday and Friday, Dec. 5-6 for various activities. This is an opportunity for everyone to promote their business or organization through their tree's decor.

Fantasy Forest will begin with the lighting of trees, caroling, the arrival of Santa and the Rotary Soup Supper on Thursday evening and continue with the Chamber Coffee on Friday morning.

There are also plans for bake sales and Christmas music by various community groups.

Take down of trees will be at closing time on Friday evening.

For more information concerning Fantasy Forest, contact Sandra Metz at 375-7288 or the Chamber Office at 375-2240.

Special treat

Members of Cub Scout Troop #174 and Boy Scout Troop #174 and members of their families were treated to pizza and a special showing of "Harry Potter and the Chamber of Doom" last week. The pizza was provided by Godfathers' Pizza and the movie by J&J Theatres. The event was an effort to reward the boys for their efforts in the past year.

Ends season with school record 29 wins

Wayne makes C-1 semi-finals

by Mike Grosz
Of the Herald

A record-setting season for the Wayne volleyball team ended last Friday evening in the semi-finals of the Class C1 State Volleyball Tournament in Lincoln.

The Blue Devils, after posting a 15-13, 15-6 win over Lincoln Lutheran in the opening round Friday afternoon, lost to powerhouse Columbus Scotus in the semi-finals at Lincoln Northeast High School 15-2, 15-1.

The victory over Lincoln Lutheran was just the second-ever in school history at state. Wayne defeated Syracuse 15-9, 15-13 in the 1975 tournament for its only other win at state in six appearances.

The two teams battled through state tournament nerves early with several lead changes before Wayne took advantage of several Lincoln Lutheran hitting errors to take a 7-4 lead.

However, Lincoln Lutheran rallied to take leads of 12-8 and 13-

10 before Wayne countered.

The Blue Devils then scored five straight points to win the first game 15-13. Key points in the rally were an ace serve by Allison Hansen and a pair of kills by Kari Hochstein.

Wayne used its momentum from the end of the first game and went on to record a 15-6 win to eliminate the Warriors.

The closest Lincoln Lutheran would get to Wayne in the second game was 10-6, but the Blue Devils scored the final five points to record the win.

"That was a nerve-racking win," said head coach Joyce Hoskins. "The girls have come from behind all season and they did it again."

Hoskins felt her team's balance was a big factor.

"It's been that way all year. Teams have a hard time defending us because we have more than one player to go to."

Kari Hochstein led Wayne in hitting with 13 kills. Erin Jarvi followed with eight, Allison Hansen had seven while Alissa Dunklau and Ashley Loberg added three each.

Defensively, Jarvi had a team-high 16 digs. Hansen and Dunklau recorded 12 each and Loberg finished with 11. Micaela Weber and Hochstein had seven apiece.

Dunklau handed out 25 set assists in the win. Hochstein had five blocks with Stacie Hoeman adding three.

In the semi-finals, the Blue Devils ran into Columbus Scotus with the top-ranked team in Class

C1 recording a 15-2, 15-1 win.

"They picked us apart serving," said Hoskins. "They were just a better team than us. It's also easy to get frustrated against a team like Scotus and we did."

Hansen had six kills to lead Wayne. Loberg added two and led the team in digs with seven. Hansen, Jarvi and Jenny Raveling added three digs each.

Dunklau had nine set assists.

Wayne ends the season with a 29-5 record. The 29 wins is a school record.

"It was a great season," Hoskins added. "The girls worked hard to get to state and I'm proud of them."

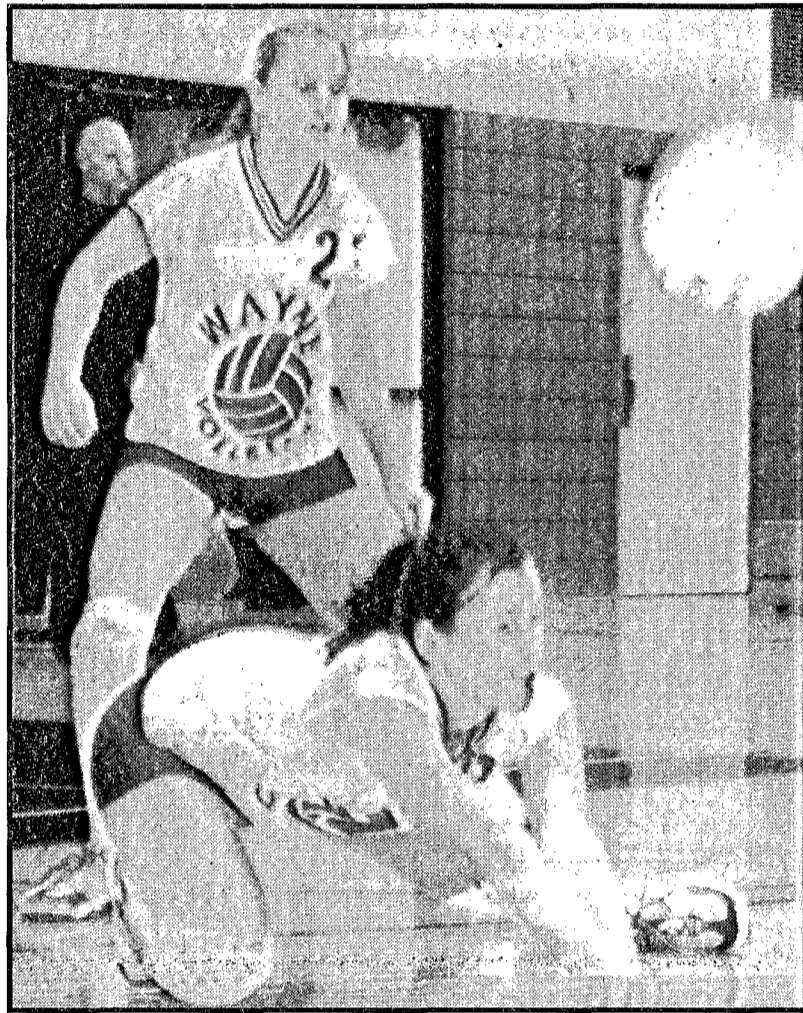

As a team, Wayne set four new schools records while adding four other individual marks.

New team records established were wins (29), kills in a season (821), ace serves in a match (19) and ace serves in a season with 225.

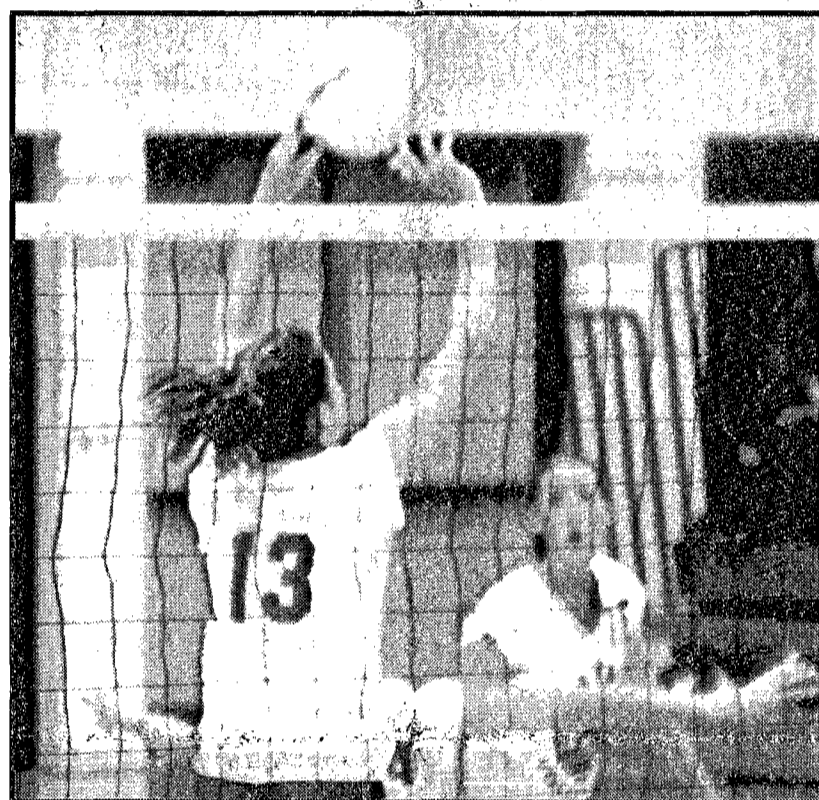

Individual marks set included Alissa Dunklau, assists in a season with 714 and in a career with 1425. She also tied the single game record for set assists with 40. Micaela Weber established a new school record for ace serves in a season with 54.

Wayne loses three seniors from this year's team and Coach Hoskins says they will be missed.

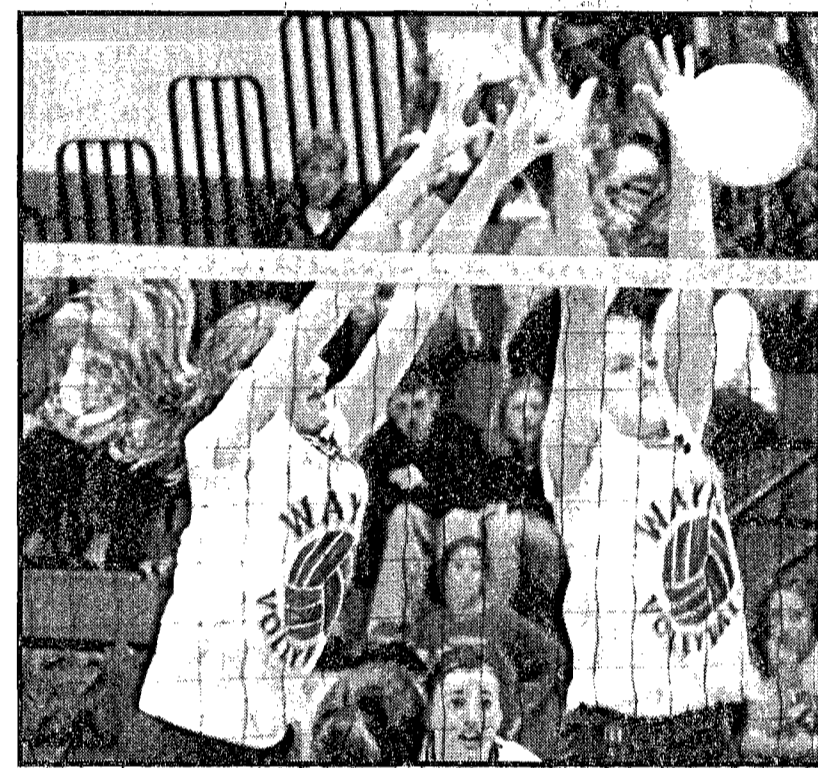

"Alissa Dunklau, Erin Jarvi and Ashley Loberg will be tremendously missed. Jarvi and Loberg were our best defensive players and Dunklau was a two-year starter at setter."

Wayne's Ashley Loberg dives to keep the ball in play against Lincoln Lutheran at the Class C1 State Volleyball Tournament in Lincoln.

Laurel-Concord ends C-2 runner up

by Mike Grosz
Of the Herald

Second-seed Laurel-Concord made the Class C2 State Volleyball Championship match before falling to reigning champion West Point Central Catholic last Saturday morning in Lincoln.

The 25-2 Bears posted wins over Thayer Central and Alma Friday at Waverly to reach the finals for the fourth time in school history.

Laurel-Concord opened the state tournament with a 15-6, 15-6 win over Thayer Central (Hebron) Friday afternoon.

Thayer Central held a 4-2 lead in the opening set before the Bears reeled off 11 straight points to take advantage and win 15-6.

The Bears started strong in the second game, opening a 6-0 lead. Thayer Central would close to within 7-5 before the Bears pulled away for the win 15-6.

Emily Schroeder, Susan Pritchard and Maggi Recob led a balanced hitting attack with five kills each. Katie Peters added three and Tiffany Erwin had two.

Tori Cunningham dished out 18 set assists in the win.

Defensively, Jodi Kuchta and Cunningham had eight digs apiece. Schroeder had three blocks.

As a team, Laurel-Concord missed on only two serve attempts.

Laurel-Concord had to rally to win their semi-final match with Alma Friday evening, 12-15, 15-8 and 15-13.

After losing a close first game to the Cardinals 15-12, the Bears battled back to win the second game easily 15-8.

In the third game, Laurel-Concord jumped out to a 4-0 lead, only to see Alma tie the score at 10-10. The Cardinals took the lead at 13-11 before the Bears rallied for the win. Key points in the rally were an ace serve by Jodi Kuchta and a kill by Emily Schroeder.

Schroeder had 25 kills in the win. Pritchard and Peters added nine each. Recob chipped in with six.

Cunningham contributed 45 set assists for the Bears.

Schroeder had three blocks in the game while Cunningham, Recob and Peters contributed one each.

Kuchta had three ace serves with Peters adding two.

Defensively, Peters had 13 digs. Pritchard added 12, Erwin had 11 and Schroeder finished with 10.

In the championship match,

West Point Central Catholic recorded a 15-4, 15-8 win over the Bears.

The Bears trailed 5-3 in the opening game, but the Bluejays went on to score 10 of the next 11 points to win 15-4.

In the second game, Laurel-Concord held a 4-2 lead, only to see the Bluejays score 11 straight points to take control and win 15-8.

Pritchard had six kills to lead the Bears in the title match. Schroeder added five, Peters had three with Recob adding two.

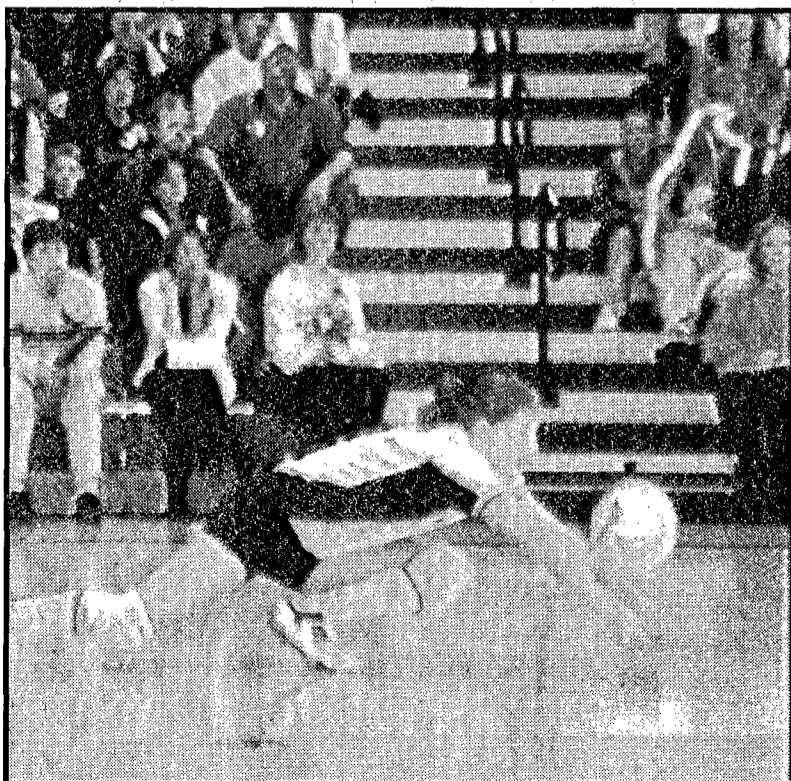

Cunningham had 17 set assists. Defensively, Peters and Pritchard had six digs apiece. Schroeder and Kuchta finished with four each.

"To be great at something involves commitment, hard work and character," said head coach Patti Cunningham. "These athletes represented this over and over throughout the season. Participation in the state tournament and earning the runner up trophy is a compliment to their skills and self-discipline as athletes, students and members of society."

Laurel-Concord finished the season with a 25-2 record.

Senior setter Tori Cunningham distributes the ball to one of her Laurel-Concord teammates during state tournament action.

Wildcats end season with big win

by Mike Grosz
Of the Herald

The Wayne State College football team closed out the season on a winning note Saturday afternoon at Cunningham Field, defeating Minnesota-Morris 35-14.

The win gave the Wildcats a 3-8 record overall and 3-6 in NSIC play.

Wayne State opened the scoring late in the first quarter when Kyle Lingenfelter scored on a six-yard run, capping an eight play, 70-yard drive to put the Wildcats up 7-0 with 3:27 left in the opening stanza.

Minn.-Morris took its only lead of the ball game early in the second quarter on a 34-yard touchdown pass from Ryan Martin to Chris Foster. A two-point run gave the Cougars an 8-7 lead.

The Wildcats regained the lead on the following drive when Nate Hale connected on a 36-yard field goal to put Wayne State ahead 10-8 with 11:09 left in the half.

With just :33 seconds left in the first half, Brett Edwards tossed a 12-yard strike to Eric Kjar, giving the Wildcats a 16-8 halftime lead.

Minnesota-Morris scored first in the second half when Martin found Jeremy Bagamary on a 19-yard pass play, pulling the Cougars within two at 16-14 with 5:26 left in the third quarter.

The rest of the game would be controlled by the Wildcats.

Edwards found Kjar wide open on a 61-yard pass play with :24 seconds left in the third quarter to put Wayne State ahead 22-14 after three quarters.

The Wildcats put the game away in the fourth quarter with a pair of scores.

Kyle Lingenfelter scored on a one-yard run and John Sanders found the end zone on a three-yard run to make the final tally 35-14.

"We played pretty good overall," said third-year head coach Scott Hoffman. "Defensively, I thought we shut them down. We could have made things a little easier for us if we didn't have four fumbles. It was nice to send the seniors out with a win."

Hoffman added this was a tough game to prepare for.

"It was difficult to get ready for this game because we went from playing a team who was 11-0 last week (Minn-Duluth) to a team that was 0-10 (Minn-Morris) and had the longest losing streak in NCAA Division II history."

The Wildcats finished 3-3 in their last six games, and that has Hoffman excited for the future.

"We improved dramatically in the second half of the season. The foundation is nearly set and we will start to win some of the close games that we have been losing."

Wayne State rolled up 477 yards in total offense in the win while holding Minn.-Morris to 198. The Wildcats had 191 yards rushing and 286 passing.

Sophomore quarterback Brett Edwards had one of his best games as a Wildcat, throwing for a career-high 286 yards and two touchdowns. He completed 15 of 24 passes.

Junior wide receiver Eric Kjar had a team-high eight receptions for 146 yards and two scores. Josh Hopwood added four catches for 66 yards.

Freshman Tyler Chambers had a career-high 102 yards rushing on just 17 carries to lead the Wildcats on the ground.

On defense, sophomore linebacker Adam Long had 12 tackles, including six for loss. Segun Adebayo and Kyle Lingenfelter added seven stops each.

Hoffman says he would like to see his team get bigger and stronger during winter conditioning and spring drills.

"We will continue to fill in positions while recruiting. We need to bring in some speed at wide receiver and in the secondary, but we should establish some depth with 30 players redshirting this year."

Eric Kjar is on the receiving end of a 61-yard touchdown pass from quarterback Brett Edwards.

WSC spikers finish season with NSIC road sweep

The Wayne State College volleyball team closed out the season last weekend with a pair of road wins.

The Wildcats secured second place in the NSIC with victories at Concordia-St. Paul Friday evening and at Winona State Saturday.

Wayne State battled back from a two set deficit to win at Concordia-St. Paul, 25-30, 23-30, 30-15, 30-28 and 15-12.

The Wildcats hit .314 in the match compared to .220 for the Golden Bears.

Senior middle hitter Rayna Nelsen had 20 kills in the win and broke the single season kill record with 517. The old mark was held by current assistant coach Shelly Lueders.

Laurie Schroeder added 14 kills and Julie Jacobsen had 10.

On defense, Nelsen recorded seven blocks with Chelsea Schultz adding five. Jacobsen had 19 digs and Jacey Kuck and Meyer contributed 16 digs apiece.

"This was a very good match," said head coach Sharon Vanis. "We played well early but still lost the first two games. The girls kept on battling and we found a way to win."

The win by the Wildcats also knocked the Golden Bears out of the regional tournament.

"Last year, they beat us at our place to knock us out of regionals, so we got revenge this year and beat them at their place," Vanis said.

Saturday, the Wildcats won at Winona State, 30-19, 30-23 and 30-21.

Nelsen closed out her career with 17 kills. Jacobsen added nine.

Libero Janel Moody led the Wildcats on defense with 12 digs. Kristin Linderman added 11 while Jacobsen finished with 10.

Kasey Meyer recorded 40 set assists. Wayne State ends the year with a 23-14 overall record and 14-4 in the NSIC, finishing second in conference play.

"Overall, it was a good year," said Vanis. "We struggled early due to some injuries and inexperience in some spots, but the young kids came around."

Junior defensive back/running back Kyle Lingenfelter gained 32 yards on eight carries and scored two touchdowns against Minnesota-Morris Saturday.

Three Wildcats named to All NSIC volleyball team

The 2002 NSIC All-Conference Volleyball Team was selected by league coaches Tuesday.

Wayne State College had three players named to the All-Conference Team.

Headlining the list is senior middle hitter Rayna Nelsen of Homer. She is the first WSC athlete to be named All-Conference all four years.

Nelsen set the single season record for kills with 534 this year, averaging a school-record 3.99 kills a game. Her .372 hitting percentage is also a school record. Nelsen also led the team in blocks with 121.

Wisner native Kasey Meyer received All-Conference honors for a second straight season.

The setter finished with a school record 1662 assists this year, breaking the old mark of 1605 set by Kari Pichler in 1997. She finishes atop the career assists list at Wayne State with 4,565. Meyer averaged 12.31 assists per game and added 114 kills. Defensively, she averaged 2.16 digs per game.

The third Wildcat receiving All-Conference honors was Laurie Schroeder of Laurel.

The 6'1 middle hitter was second on the team in kills (380), kills per game (2.92), total attacks (949) and blocks with 108. She finishes her career with 752 kills and 344 blocks. Schroeder ended tenth in blocks per game in the NSIC this year, averaging 0.87.

Wayne State finished the season with a 23-14 overall record. The Wildcats tied for second in the Northern Sun Conference with Northern State at 14-4.

Wayne State men sign four early

The Wayne State men's basketball program has signed four prep standouts.

Members of the recruiting class include Dallas Hodges of Cedar Rapids, Iowa, Matt Rathje of Watkins, Iowa, Bryce Caldwell of Davenport, Iowa and Adam Harris of Ankeny, Iowa.

Hodges is a 6'3 point guard from Washington High School in Cedar Rapids. As a junior last season, he averaged 14.4 points, 3.6 rebounds and 3.0 assists per game. Hodges also shot 90 percent from the free throw line.

Rathje, a 6'8 center from Benton Community High School, averaged 17 points and 11 rebounds per game a season ago. He was a 3A honorable mention all-state selection by the Des Moines Register.

Caldwell is a 6'0 guard from Davenport North High School and averaged 9 points, 4.3 assists and 3.0 rebounds per game as a junior. He shot 43 percent from the three-point line and 78 percent from the charity stripe.

Harris is a 6'8 forward that led Ankeny High to a 17-8 record and a fourth-place finish at the Class 4A State Tournament last season. He averaged 13 points, 6.3 rebounds and 2.1 assists per game to earn All-Conference honors.

"As a staff, we went out this summer to address a couple of needs and we feel like we accomplished our goals with this incoming class," said head coach Rico Burkett on the recruiting class. "We are excited about all four young men joining our program. They will be great additions to the Wildcat basketball program."

WSC to host region cross country meet

WAYNE-Wayne State College has been awarded the 2003 NCAA Division II North Central Region Cross Country Meet. The meet will be held Nov. 8, 2003.

The North Central Region is one of the strongest in the nation, producing national team champions in both men's and women's divisions for the last ten years in a row.

Head cross country coach Marion Brink said, "We are very excited about hosting a championship meet of this caliber. It will give us a chance to highlight not only our program, but the entire WSC campus and the city of Wayne."

This is the first time Wayne State has hosted a cross-country regional.

Three WSC players honored

WAYNE-Three Wayne State athletes have earned Nebraska Division II Player-of-the-Week honors.

Wildcat quarterback Brett Edwards shared offensive honors. The sophomore from Vinton, Iowa threw for a career-high 286 yards in Wayne State's 35-14 win over Minnesota-Morris. He completed 15 of 24 passes with two touchdowns.

WSC linebacker Adam Long won defensive honors for the second straight week. He recorded 12 tackles, including six for loss, in the Wildcats' win over Minnesota-Morris.

In volleyball, middle hitter Rayna Nelsen took honors for the fifth time this season. The senior from Homer averaged 4.62 kills, 1.62 digs and 1.25 blocks per game in two Wildcat wins last week.

Nelsen was also named the Co-Player of the Week in the Northern Sun Conference.

Cat Club luncheon Friday

WAYNE-The next Wayne State College Cat Club luncheon will be held (tomorrow) Friday, Nov. 22, beginning at noon in the backroom of the Max Lounge. The public is welcome to attend. Speakers scheduled to attend include WSC Head Football Coach Scott Hoffman, Wildcat Head Men's Basketball Coach Rico Burkett and WSC Head Women's Basketball Coach Ryun Williams.

Four WSC football players named All Northern Sun

Four Wayne State College football players were chosen to the Northern Sun Conference All-Conference Football Team announced Tuesday.

Sophomore Adam Long was the lone Wildcat named to the All-NSIC First Team.

The 6'0, 230-pound linebacker from Bennington led Wayne State in tackles with 113, placing third in the NSIC. He also led the team in tackles for loss with 16 for -42 yards. Long also recorded two quarterback sacks, two pass breakups and one forced fumble.

Junior safety Kyle Lingenfelter was named to the All-NSIC Second Team.

The Plainview native was third on the team in tackles with 81. He also had two interceptions, eight pass breakups, forced one fumble and blocked one field goal. Lingenfelter was an honorable mention selection last season.

Junior wide receiver Eric Kjar was one of two Wildcats named honorable mention.

The 6'5 220-pounder from Kemmerer, Wyo., led the Wildcats in receiving with 44 catches for 647 yards and a team-best seven touchdowns. He averaged 14.7 yards per catch and was tenth in the NSIC with 4.11 catches per game.

Junior defensive end Tim Rexius, 6'2, 230-pounder from Norfolk, was the other honorable mention selection.

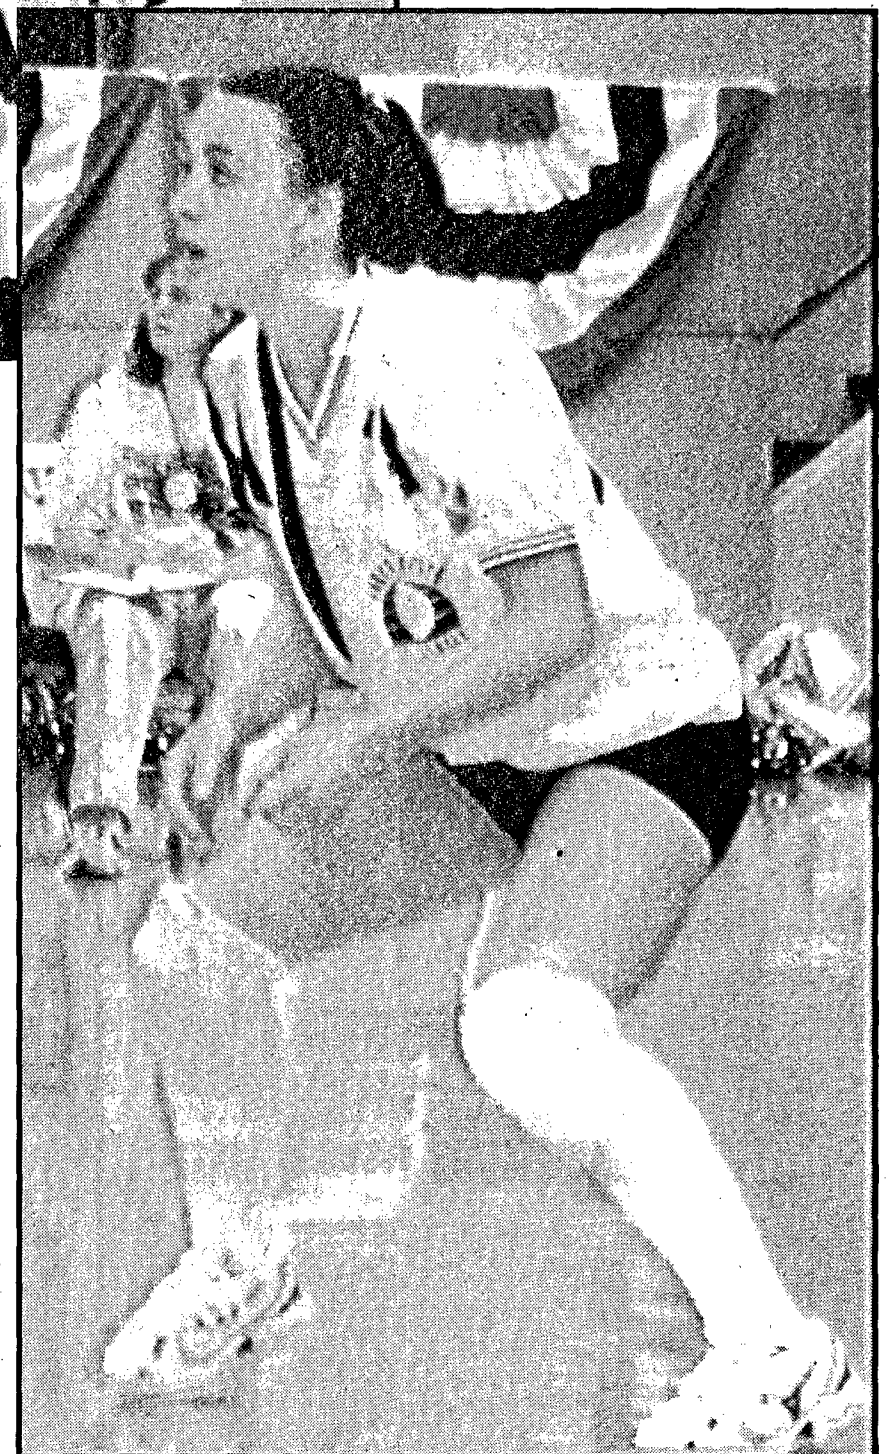

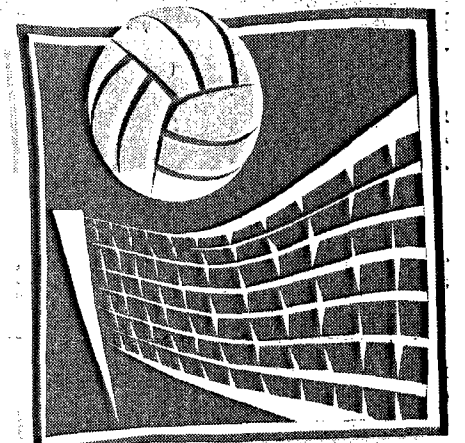

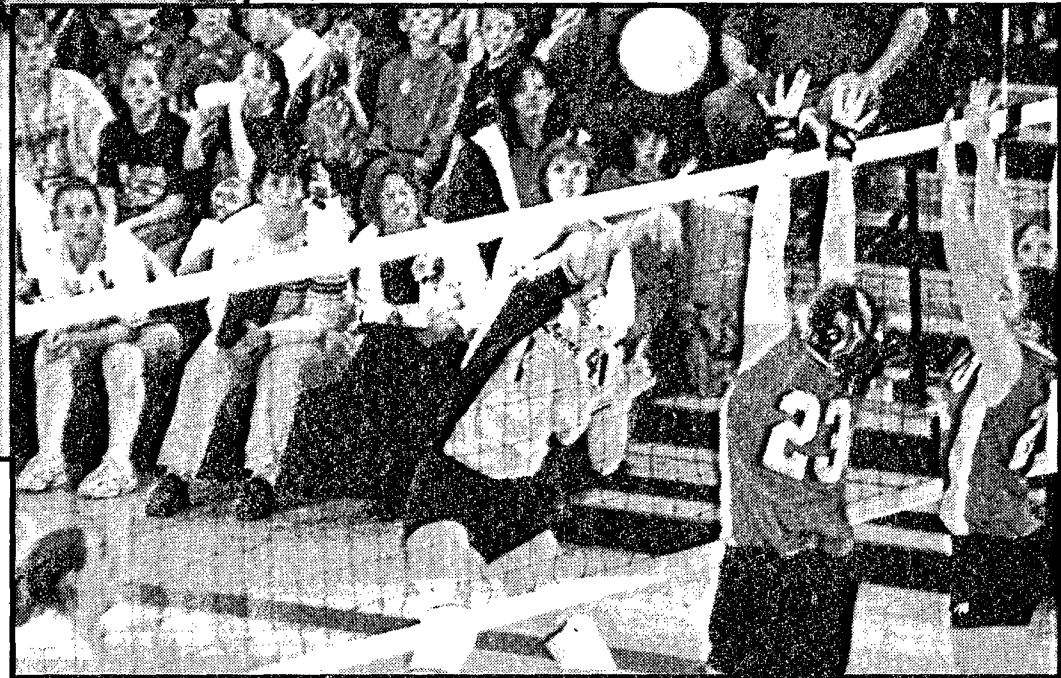

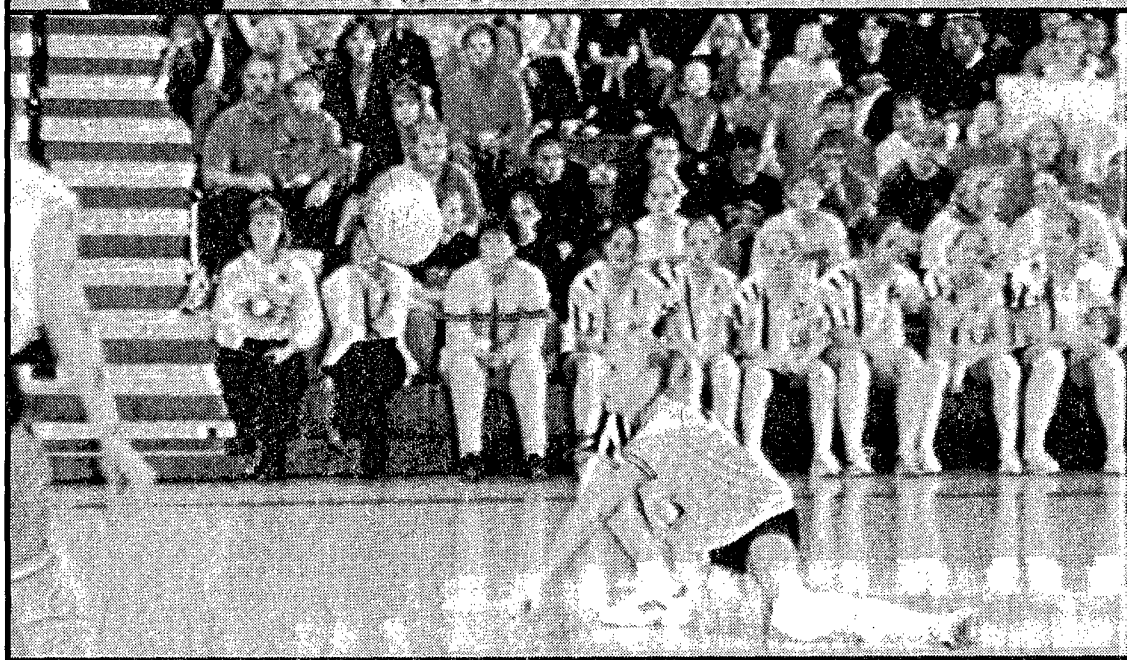

Rexius led the Wildcats with four sacks for minus 32 yards. He had 54 tackles, including 16 for loss. He also had one interception, two fumble recoveries, one pass breakup and one forced fumble. Rexius was also honorable mention last season.

The Wildcats finished their season 3-8 overall and 3-6 in the NSIC.

Banks merge and change names

Bank of Norfolk and Columbus and Columbus Federal Savings Bank have announced their plan to merge the two financial institutions into Bank of Norfolk.

The resulting bank has also changed its name, effective Nov. 18, to BankFirst.

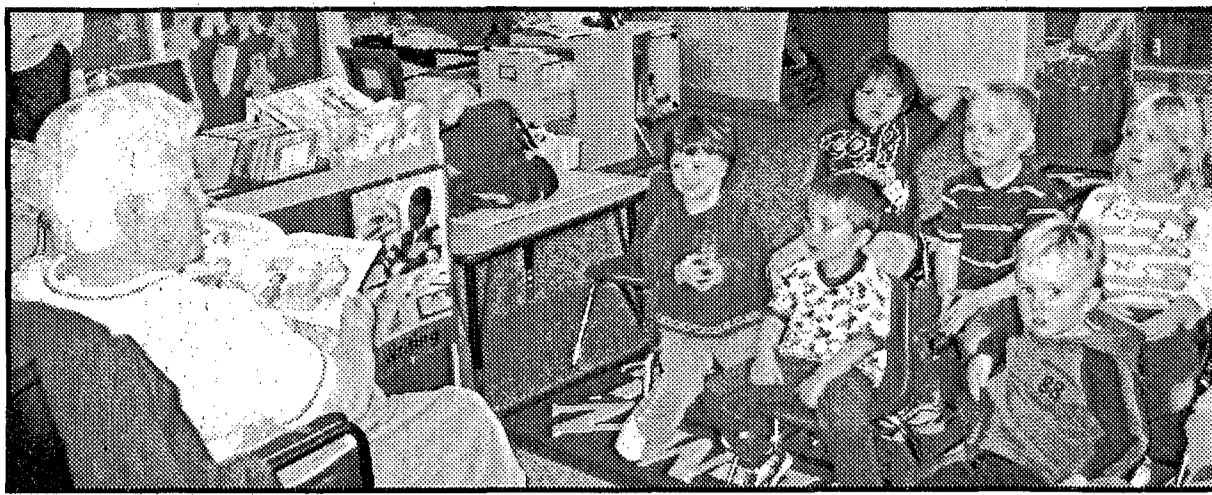

According to Bank of Norfolk President Mike Renken, "We are excited about the merger. It will enable us to offer our customers in Columbus, Norfolk, Wayne, Ord, Lincoln and the surrounding communities with more resources and even greater convenience for their banking needs."

Bank of Norfolk and Columbus Federal Savings Bank have been owned by the same holding company for nearly three years. There will be no change in ownership as a result of the merger and all staff will remain the same at each office.

"It simply represents our commitment to full service banking. We feel the merger will offer new opportunities for our employees and customers," said Anne Hall, President of Columbus Federal Savings Bank. "We are joining forces to give everyone the best service we can."

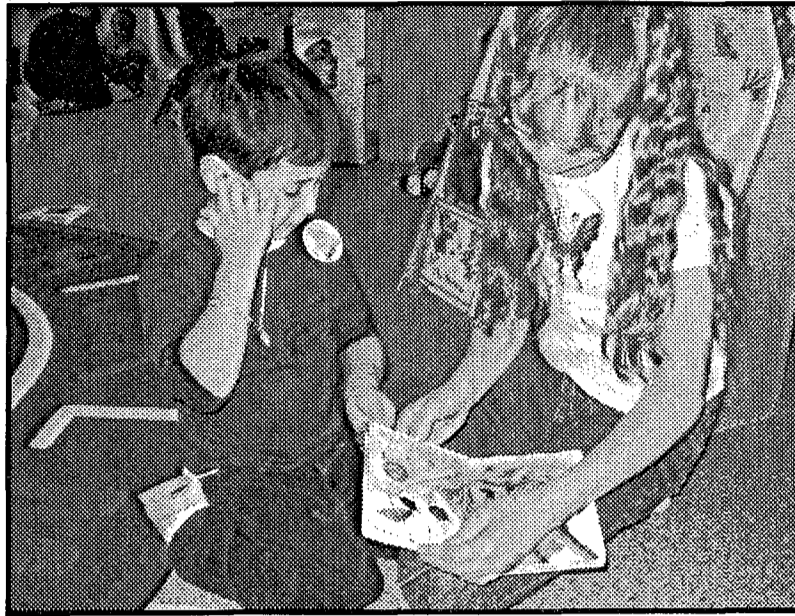

The merger and name change took effect Nov. 18. At this time, BankFirst has three offices in Norfolk, two offices in Columbus, a full-service office in Wayne, a Loan Production Office in Ord and a Loan Production Office in Lincoln.

Bank of Norfolk and Columbus Federal Savings Bank are members of the FDIC and are Equal Housing Lenders.

Book Week

Children's Book Week is being celebrated in Wayne. At Rainbow World, a reader from the community has been present to read each day. Above, Fran Steinsieck read to the children. At right, students from Wayne Middle School read to those at Goldenrod Hills Headstart through the Reading Is Fundamental (RIF) program, in which each child is given one book to keep. The program this year is being co-sponsored by the Wayne Kiwanis Club.

Nebraska Consumer Bulletin

From Nebraska's Attorney General

VISIT THE ATTORNEY GENERAL'S WEB SITE
You Can File Complaints Online
www.ago.state.ne.us

If you would like to file a complaint with the Consumer Protection Division of the Nebraska Attorney General's Office concerning a business or a possible scam, you may now fill out one of our consumer complaint forms right from your own computer.

More and more, consumers are accessing the Nebraska Attorney General's Web Site at www.ago.state.ne.us. Click on the "Consumer Protection" icon near the top of the page. When you enter the Consumer Protection area, click on "Click here to register a complaint". This will bring up the consumer complaint form. Complete the complaint form, providing all of the information requested. In the box at the bottom of the form, state the complaint and how you would like to have it settled. When the form has been completed, click on "Submit Complaint Form". It will appear on our computer shortly. If there is documentation to support the complaint, it may be submitted to the Attorney General's Office by U.S. Mail.

It is best to send copies of documenting information, and to keep the originals for your own records. Please provide your full name and the name of the business when mailing information pertaining to a complaint. That will enable us to match the information to the correct complaint file.

Besides the complaint form, our Consumer Bulletins are available on the Attorney General's Web Site. You may also access current press releases, consumer alerts, and our consumer education brochures online. We invite you to pay a visit to the Web Site.

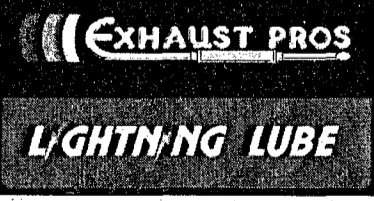

The consumer Protection Division may also be contacted through the Consumer Protection Line, 1-800-727-6432. This line is answered by our staff from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. on regular business days. Weekends, holidays, and after hours the Consumer Protection Line provides an answering machine and you are invited to leave a message. You may request complaint forms, consumer protection educational information, or simply discuss a consumer problem you are experiencing. The Consumer Protection Division is here to help.

Protect your credit, identity

Fraudulent use of credit cards is no longer limited to the loss or theft of the actual credit card. It also can happen when you give your credit card information out over the telephone or Internet, when someone gets numbers off papers they find in the trash, or over hear numbers given in a telephone conversation and by watching you key in account or PIN numbers in check-out lines or at ATMs.

A capable criminal only needs to know your credit numbers to fraudulently make numerous charges, including cash withdrawals, against your accounts. The following crime prevention tips will help you guard against the illegal use of credit cards.

Security Precautions
*Do not carry your Social Security card, birth certificate or passport in your purse or wallet except when needed. Store these items in a safe deposit box.

*Never print your Social Security or driver's license numbers on your checks.

*You do not have to give out your Social Security and/or driver's license numbers or personal information when asked. A business may refuse your business if you do not furnish the requested information. If this information is requested, ask these questions before determining whether to release the information.

Why is the number needed?
How will it be used? What law requires that I give you this number? What will happen if I refuse to give the number?

*If you live on a college campus, you are encouraged to carry your student identification and room key at all times. Failure to show your identification card to a staff member when requested may be a violation of the institution's policies. It is recommended not to carry your credit cards and driver's license in the same carrier in case you lose one's set, then you do not lose your total identification.

Protecting Your Credit Card/Debit Card

*Photocopy both the front and back of all your credit cards and keep the copies in a safe and secure location i.e., lock boxes, safety deposit box and with parents. This will enable you to cancel your credit card as soon as possible if stolen.

*Sign all credit cards as soon as they arrive.

*Do not leave credit card bills, credit card and ATM transaction receipts, store receipts, bank account statements lying out in the open where anyone can see the account numbers. Keep important papers out of sight. Remember to pay any bills before the due date.

Make sure you take all of the mail out of your mail box as soon as it arrives. When disposing of any papers that might have account numbers on them make sure that you tear them up in small pieces before you put them in the trash. This includes any

Sandy Preston
Cooperative Extension Director
Dixon County

mailings that come indicating you have been pre-approved or offering you credit.

*Do not carry credit cards in your wallet or purse. Carry them separately, if possible.

*Unless you are absolutely confident you are dealing with a reputable company, never give your credit card account number over the telephone or Internet.

*Don't be fooled by a scam where a con artist asks for your credit card number to "verify" a prize he or she says you have won.

*Never give information over the telephone to an unknown caller. If a caller tells you he represents your bank or financial institution, hang up and dial that institution to confirm that the caller is actually from your bank. Be sure you have a dial tone before making the call.

*Notify credit card companies in advance of a change in address.

*When you use a credit or debit card to make a purchase, maintain visual contact with the card and make sure no extra imprints of your card are made and the transaction receipt is deposited in the cash register.

*It is a good idea to keep your credit/debit card receipts and check them against the monthly billing statement.

*Smart cards such as pre-paid phone cards and bank cards provide protection against someone stealing your card and charging large amounts against your account. They are for a specific amount of money and when the amount is spent no more money/credit is available. Carefully study the costs of transactions with such cards so that you get the most value for your money. Once the money on the card is spent, destroy the card if it is not renewable.

Eagles hold meeting

The Wayne Eagles Auxiliary met Nov. 18 with President Jan Gamble presiding.

The time between Thanksgiving and Christmas is the Eagles Home and Family Month. The group will celebrate Thanksgiving on Friday, Nov. 22 with a family potluck.

On Thursday nights, Dec. 5, 12 and 19, Soup and Sandwich suppers will be held. Serving will be from 5 to 9 p.m. Eagle members can sign up to work or donate food at the club.

Members were reminded to tell new members of the new benefit of insurance if a member is killed during work. The member's children, will receive free medical, dental, eye care and college education.

Serving lunch was DeAnn Behlers.

The next meeting will be Monday, Dec. 2.

VFW Auxiliary gathers

The Llewellyn B. Whitmore Auxiliary to VFW Post #5291 met in the Neva Lorenzen home on Nov. 12.

President Glennadine Barker conducted the regular meeting, which was opened according to ritual with 11 members present.

Opening ceremonies were held and the minutes of the October meeting were approved. The treasurer's report was read and filed subject to audit.

General orders No. 2 were read and will be filed. Excerpts from Department President Linda McMullin's letter, "Fin and Flipper" were read concerning her activities representing the VFW Auxiliary Department of Nebraska.

Membership is stressed and new and re-instated members are welcome and needed. The organization is losing members due to illness, injury and death. Patriotism and Americanism continue to be present in our daily lives. We must continue to reach out in our com-

Engagements—Lincoln ceremony unites local pair

Adkins — Gangwish

Megan Adkins and John Gangwish are planning a January 4, 2003 wedding at Trinity United Methodist Church in Lincoln.

Parents of the couple are Rick and Joan Adkins of Laurel and Rod and Jane Gangwish of Shelton.

The bride-to-be is a graduate of Laurel-Concord High School. She will receive her bachelor of science degree with a double major in K-12 Physical Education and Community Health and a coaching endorsement from the University of Nebraska-Lincoln in December of 2002. She is currently student teaching in the Kearney Public Schools and serving as an assistant volleyball coach at Kearney High School.

Her fiancé is a graduate of Shelton High School and the University of Nebraska-Lincoln where he received his bachelor of science degree in Diversified Agriculture with minors in agronomy and agricultural economics. He is employed with the family farming and seed production operation located near Shelton.

Erica Lynn Stoltenberg of Carroll and Matthew Alan Peterson of Wayne were married in an Aug. 10, 2002 ceremony at Southern Heights Presbyterian Church in Lincoln.

The Rev. Ronald Bump officiated at the 5:30 p.m. ceremony.

Parents of the couple are Garry and Nancie Stoltenberg of Carroll and Carter and Nana Peterson of Wayne.

Music for the ceremony was provided by vocalists Katherine Ley and Roy Ley of Wayne and organist Linda Laessle of Lincoln. Selections included "Come and Journey With Me," "The Prayer" and "Unity Candle."

Given in marriage by her father, the bride chose a platinum satin, chapel-length gown. Designed by Ines de Santo, the strapless gown featured an embroidered Austrian crystal bodice and satin buttons down the back to the floor.

She wore an Austrian crystal tiara and carried a cascade bouquet of white orchids and lilies.

Maid of Honor was Lindsay Stoltenberg of Carroll, sister of the bride.

She wore a dark platinum satin, floor-length gown. Personal attendants were Tisha Rothfuss of Columbus, Ohio and Sarah Neuhaus of Lincoln, friends of the bride.

Handing out programs were Rachel Davis of Denver, Colo., friend of the bride and Brooke Gardner of Wayzata, Minn., cousin of the bride.

Grace Proett of Hutchinson, Kan., cousin of the bride, was flower girl.

Eric Holden of Sudbury, Mass.,

nephew of the groom, was ring bearer.

Sean Peterson of Wayne, brother of the groom, served as Best Man.

Ushers were Ryan Stoltenberg of Wayne, brother of the bride and Scott McCain of Denver, Colo., cousin of the groom.

The men wore black tuxedos with dark platinum vests and ties. Katie Vosburg of Phoenix, Ariz.,

Mr. and Mrs. Peterson friend of the bride, registered guests.

A reception was held at Windsor Stables in Lincoln following the ceremony.

Hosts were Ms. Jeannie Gardner and Adam Gardner of Wayzata, Minn. and Mr. and Mrs. Logan McClelland of Wayne.

The bride is a graduate of Wayne High School and received her degree from the University of Nebraska-Lincoln in December of 2000. She is currently a sixth grade teacher for the Lincoln Public Schools at Julius Humann Elementary School.

The groom is a graduate of Wayne High School and a 1997 graduate of Wayne State College. He is a sales representative for Bankers Life and Casualty.

The couple is at home in Lincoln.

United Methodist Women gather

Wayne United Methodist Women met Nov. 13. Lunch hostesses were Verna Mae Creamer and Dorothy Brandstetter. Pauline Merchant gave the missionary moment.

Marjorie Porter gave the program "Because We Care" on designated giving. Readers were Pauline Merchant, Maxine Robbins and Lila Brown. Pledge cards were distributed. The group sang "Kum Bi Ya" and "Truly, Truly."

President Mona Claybaugh called the meeting to order and welcomed Gretchen Lagler as a new member.

Mona Claybaugh read devotions from 2 John 1-5. The minutes of the October meeting were read and approved. The treasurer's report was read and approved. Tickets for the Christmas Fair were available.

Prayer concerns were for the Straight family, the family of Rose Sedivy, Helen Rose, Bill and Becky Wilson, Mary Wax, John Haye, Sharon Corbit and Keith Brasch.

It was reported that corsages for Missions were given by Ray Sedivy to each UMW member.

Marjorie Porter has accepted the position of coordinator of Membership and Outreach Nurture.

Mona Claybaugh gave a short review of the book "Once Upon a Canteen" by Bob Green. Norma Ehlers asked for any bits of church history from 1975 through the 1980's. Members were reminded that there is a need for winter coats at the Coat Closet. They should be taken to the K&G Cleaners if they are in need of cleaning.

Beverly Etter had the sign up sheets for help at the Christmas Fair to be held Saturday, Dec. 7.

Norma Ehlers will have an open house for all members at her home on Dec. 21.

Mona Claybaugh closed the meeting with the prayer "Finger Prints." The next regular meeting will be Wednesday, Dec. 11 at 1 p.m.

Postnasal Drip Management
Everyday your body produces over a pint of mucus. Sometimes irritants (i.e. tobacco, strong cleaning products) or weather change causes an increase in mucus. The excess mucus may drain into the throat making you cough. Using decongestants actually thickens the mucus. Instead, drink plenty of water (vs. caffeine), avoid the irritants and humidify the air (especially as the dry winter air starts). Ask your pharmacist about nasal saline sprays to rinse your nasal passages and sinuses. If your condition is severe, your doctor may recommend a steroid nasal spray available by prescription.

Our Savior women conduct meeting

Circles of Our Savior Lutheran Church in Wayne met Nov. 13 in the church's Social Room.

Faith Circles met at 9:15 with 13 members present. Hostesses were Eva Nelson and Arlene Ostendorf.

Vice Chairwoman Eva Nelson conducted a short business meeting after morning brunch. She reported that an Executive Board meeting was held Nov. 11. Copies of the secretary and treasurer's reports were handed out to all present at the circle meeting.

Secretary Dorothy Grone read thank you notes from Martin Luther Home, Bethphage and Tabitha.

The Sewing report for Oct. 24 stated that the ladies finished five LWR quilts, one Serving Arms quilt and three ladies quilted on the quilt for Camp Carol Joy Holling.

The Visitation report for Oct. 16 stated 11 members and Pastor Bill were present. Devotions were given by Pastor Bill, entitled "One Who Realizes He is Growing Old." There were 55 Thinking of You Cards and sympathy cards sent to the families of Lillian Surber and Meta Westerman were signed by all present and mailed. Seven people were hospitalized the past month.

The next Visitation meeting will be at 1 p.m. on Monday, Dec. 4. Members should take note as this is not the regular meeting date.

On Nov. 11 Gena Puls, Jeanine Anderson and Rodella Wacker packed seven boxes of clothing, 20 quilts, two blankets and 21 Health Kits that members brought for Lutheran World Relief. Phyllis and Darrel Rahn took them to Norfolk so they could be shipped.

Dorothy Grone presented the lesson entitled "Thanksgiving Hands" to the 13 members at Faith Circle. Thanksgiving offering boxes were turned in at the meeting.

Joy Circle met at 2 p.m. where Dorothy also presented the lesson for the 10 members present. Hostesses serving lunch were Irene Hansen and Donna Lutt. Elaine Draghu conducted a short business meeting.

The Christmas Pot Luck Dinner will be at noon on Wednesday, Dec. 11. Ladies are to bring their favorite dish of food and their own service. Rodella Wacker and Eva Nelson will present the program "Christmas Candles." The Executive Board will be hostesses. All meetings closed with the Lord's Prayer in unison.

Grace women plan Cookie Walk

Grace Lutheran Ladies Aid and LWML met Nov. 13 with President Mary Janke calling the meeting to order.

Delores Utecht and Rhonda Sebade presented opening devotions. Hymns of Praise and Thanksgiving were sung and related Bible verses were read.

Twenty-nine members and two guests, Norma Janke and Evelyn Hoeman, were present.

The minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved and the treasurer's report was given and filed for review.

The Care Center Committee visited on Oct. 24 and served lunch while Mr. Schmidt entertained.

The Sewing Committee completed 48 quilts and these will be given to various organizations.

The Mission Service Committee will deliver World Relief items gathered.

It was reported that in-home, hospital and Care Center visits were made and many cards were sent by the Visiting Committee.

Two funerals were served by this committee and recruited helpers.

Bonnadell Koch will write to Justin Panzer, the group's seminary student. He was a fellow classmate of Pastor Pasche.

The Cookie Walk will be held Saturday, Dec. 14 from 9 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. with Barb Greve as chairman, assisted by Ellen Heineman, Rhonda Sebade, Bev Hansen and Deb Allemann. Congregational ladies are asked to bring cookies to the Student Center on Friday, Dec. 13 between 4 and 6 p.m.

Millie Thomsen and Esther Brader presented their constitution revisions. Members voted to accept these changes and vote on such as the January meeting.

The mite box was gathered.

Hostesses for December will be Barb Greve, Bernita Sherbahn, Debi Morlok and Betty Wittig.

Pastor Pasche gave the Bible study, "Total Trust," were the group learned from many passages that God is our source for encouragement and reassurance.

The meeting closed with the Lord's Prayer and the common table prayer.

Bonnadell Koch was honored at the birthday table.

Grace Evening Circle holds November meeting

Grace Lutheran Evening Circle met Nov. 12 with 11 members and Pastor Pasche present.

President Lorraine Johnson called the meeting to order. Christian Growth Leader Lanora Sorensen focused on the opportunities for giving thanks in November. She mentioned All Saints' Day, Election Day, Veterans' Day, Thanksgiving Day and daily one's family members.

Pastor Pasche led the Bible lesson titled "Total Trust" from the Fall Quarterly.

The minutes were approved as read and the treasurers' report was filed for audit.

Plans were made for the December meeting to be held on Tuesday, Dec. 10 at 6 p.m.

A Christmas gift will be purchased for a resident of Premier Estates. Monetary Christmas gifts will be sent to Bethesda, Orphan Grain Train, Camp Luther and Lutheran Bible Translators.

A sign up sheet was sent around so that members could volunteer to bring food for the Sunday suppers on Nov. 17 or Dec. 15 at the Lutheran Student Center.

New officers elected for the 2003 year are Bea Kinslow, vice-president; Kathleen Johs and Valores Mordhorst, secretaries and Jan Casey, treasurer.

Mites were collected and the meeting closed with the Lord's Prayer.

Hostess was Marilyn Rethwisch.

Thanksgiving service planned

Everyone in the community is invited to the Community Thanksgiving Service at the Wayne First United Methodist Church.

The service will begin at 5 p.m. on Sunday, Nov. 24 and is sponsored by the Wayne Association of Church and Ministries.

The Rev. Kevin Ruffcorn from Our Savior Lutheran Church will preach on "Three Ingredients for a Thanks Filled Life."

The United Methodist Choir will sing "The Lord of the Ages" and Meghan Anderson and Erin Gaspers of the Catholic Newman Center will lead the singing of "Shine Jesus Shine."

Following the service there will be a soup and pie supper with everyone welcome.

Organizers encourage everyone to "come and thank God for all our blessings."

Ladies Night Out

Area women enjoyed a "Ladies Night Out" on Nov. 8 at Grace Lutheran Church with snacks and a speaker. Cyndy Salzmann of Family Haven Ministries in Omaha spoke on "A Simple Christmas." The women present were given many ideas about keeping Christmas focused on the true reason for the season, the gift of Jesus as our Savior. She also shared tips on gift giving, food preparation, decorations and entertaining.

Carroll women plan events

The Carroll Ladies Aid and LWML met Nov. 13. The Pastor opened the meeting with a prayer and Bible Study "Praying The Lord's Prayer with New Insights." The League Pledge was said in unison and mites were collected. A bill for a new banner was allowed. The banner committee is made up of Norma Peterson, Gerry Buresh and Mardell Wittler. Lucille Schnoor reported sending a get well card to Edith Cook and Ed Fork. A thank you note was received from the Norfolk Rescue Mission for a gift of money. Goodwill Industries of Sioux City will be remembered this month. Also, the ladies voted to send a gift of money to the American Red Cross for the tornado victims of the eastern U.S. The group will help Carl Peterson celebrate his Dec. 6 birthday. The date of this will be determined after consulting with Norma Peterson. The Circuit Pastors will gather at St. Paul of Carroll for a 9 a.m. breakfast and dinner on Tuesday, Dec. 3. A committee has been assigned for the meals. Nancy Junck was re-elected to serve as president and Viola Junck as re-elected to serve as treasurer for a two-year period. On Sunday, Dec. 15 the group will have a congregational pot luck at noon. The pot luck will take the place of the Aid meeting for December.

Briefly Speaking

Merry Mixers discuss Thanksgiving
 AREA - The Merry Mixers Club met Nov. 12 at the Bank of Norfolk with Janet Reeg as hostess. For the opening, a "Thanksgiving Poem" was read by Janet Reeg. Roll call was answered by nine members showing homemade Christmas ornaments. The business meeting followed. The next meeting will be held Tuesday, Dec. 10 at Tacos & More! at 11:30 a.m. Husbands and friends will be guests.

Minerva Club observes Veterans' Day
 AREA - Eight members of the Minerva Club met at the home of Arlene Ostendorf on Nov. 11, Veterans' Day. Hallie Sherry's program focused on the life of John Muir, a naturalist. In honor of Veterans' Day, the following songs were sung: "My Country 'Tis of Thee," "Oh Beautiful for Spacious Skies" and "God Bless America." Donna Hansen read of John McCain's experiences as a war prisoner during the war in Vietnam. Hallie Sherry ended the program, telling of her experiences as a WAC in World War II.

Rhonda Sebade hosts E.O.T. Club
 AREA - The E.O.T. Club met Nov. 7 at the Rhonda Sebade home. President Rhonda Sebade opened the meeting. Roll call was answered by eight members with "What are you thankful for?" The secretary and treasurer's reports were read and approved. A Care Center name will be gotten so the group can get that person a gift. The group's card party was to be held Nov. 17 at the Sebade home. The next meeting of the group will be held Thursday, Dec. 5 at 2 p.m. in the Donna Claussen home. There will be a $3 grab bag Christmas exchange. The club's family Christmas supper will be held Saturday, Dec. 14 at the Dale and Doris Claussen home at 6:15 p.m. The birthday song was sung for Mildred Gramlich. The first half of the members brought items for the silent auction. Cards were then played.

Roving Gardeners make Christmas plans
 AREA - The Roving Gardeners met with Esther Hansen on Nov. 14. Six members answered roll call with "What are your plans for Thanksgiving." Esther Hansen read "Spells of Gold", on the pumpkin and its many uses. Doris Lutt read an article about smut that grows on corn. In Mexico the smut is used for food, in the same way mushrooms are. There was no old business. In new business, the group will eat out at The Max during the next meeting on Thursday, Dec. 12 for the Christmas meeting. Frieda Jorgensen will be the hostess. A gift exchange will also be held during the meeting which begins at 11:30 a.m. It was decided to get a gift for an ill member. All officers will retain their office for the coming year. The afternoon ended by playing Blind Pitch.

Meal didn't turn out

I sort of wish I could do last week over. For a number of reasons; the first, I drove the Ford while it was hot. I didn't smell anything and did not notice if the temperature indicator was showing hot. I don't think it did. The mechanic said that maybe the sensor was defective. Anyway, it is still in the garage.

We just had gotten the van back. On the way to Valentine last month, I swerved to avoid a flock of wild turkeys on Highway 275, east of O'Neill. One flew right into our path, putting out a head light and bouncing onto the hood, cracking the windshield. I had turkey feathers on the antenna.

I could not believe the estimate of $1000. It's seven years old, for pete's sake; I did not expect it to look brand new. But, of course, the insurance was paying and they painted it and made it look as if it just rolled out of the showroom. I'm intrigued by the love affair Americans have with their cars. A friend at Waverly had hers in a hail storm earlier this year. The insurance company "totaled" it and paid them $5000. They turned around and bought it back for $1700. It's five years old and a few hail pits doesn't affect the way it drives. I think it's crazy. You can have a vehicle "detailed" for $100. I have better uses for my bucks. Just as long as it has four decent tires and starts, I'll get in the car. Which reminds me, the garage announced that the van could use four new tires, too. I told the Big Farmer that was what he was getting for Christmas.

I had invited friends from Roca over for dinner on Tuesday evening. Our German hostess, Olga, is visiting them and I wanted to repay her for her hospitality. I thought it would be a traditional Midwestern meal, and got two beef roasts out of the freezer. They were done early, so I carved them and put them back in the oven. They got a bit dry. I made mashed potatoes with cream cheese and onion flakes. They, too, got dry in the oven. The corn from the freezer didn't have the same good flavor the other packages had had. The mandarin oranges in the iceberg lettuce didn't work like they do in spinach.

Lastly, I had spied a turtle cheesecake when getting the meat out. I had ordered some stuff from the grandchildren's school and Max and Ann had put it in the freezer when they were here the week before. I decided that would be an easy, delicious dessert. I didn't remember what exactly I had ordered and I knew they had put stuff for Kay in there too. Turns out the cheesecake was for Kay!

The only thing that tasted the way I thought it should was the gravy. And as I laid in bed that night, mulling things over, I suddenly remembered that my guests used to run the Arby's stores in Lincoln. And I had just served them roast beef! I give up. I think I need to start cooking for a bigger group again. I'm out of practice.

It was also the week of choir concerts; two of them. The Lincoln Lutheran Choir was celebrating 25 years of singing sacred choral music. That meant extra practices, one on Monday evening and the other on Friday. Then there was a 3 p.m. rehearsal at the Omaha church on Saturday, with the concert at 7.

On Sunday, we sang at 3 p.m., followed by a dinner at the Knolls Country Club. There have only been three directors in the 25 years and they were all there. Plus, the organist, who lives in Omaha and has played for almost every concert. There are two concert weekends every year; spring and fall.

They are excellent, dedicated musicians. And everyone is a diehard Husker fan. The founder of the choir is now retired in Illinois, and still holds season tickets. Needless to say, the results of Saturday's game left a lot to be desired.

In fact, the minister friend who is the fanatical Cardinal baseball fan asked at the Lutheran Family Services meeting yesterday if they are having grief counseling for Nebraska fans. Of course, he has no sympathy. I think we will probably survive, but I certainly wish we didn't still have to face those Buffaloes. I'd like this season to be over as soon as possible. Just like last week.

Tree stand safety is important

Hunters have known for years that hunting from an elevated position is a big advantage when hunting deer.

There are several reasons for hunting from an elevated stand. When elevated, you're above the deer's normal field of vision. Deer don't look up very often, so you can almost eliminate the deer's keen sense of vision.

If you're hunting from a stand, your field of vision is improved, there is nothing to get in the way as you're above most obstructions that would hinder your vision if you were hunting on the ground.

Every thing and everyone has a scent, yes we all smell and a deer's sense of smell can pick you up at great distances. By getting above the deer, your scent is dispersed above the deer and you're more apt to get a shot at that big buck you've been waiting for.

Every year throughout the Midwest dozens of hunters are injured or killed because they fell from their tree stands.

Some fell asleep, while others lose their balance or are using stands that were improperly installed or just an old wooden homemade stand that is badly in need of maintenance.

No matter what type of stand you use, you need to spend a little time before season and make sure that your stand is good and solid.

It needs to be in a healthy tree as no matter how well your tree stand is put up, if the tree is half rotten and it goes down when you step into the stand you best stay in bed on opening day.

If you use a homemade wooden or steel tree stand, check it prior to the season and repair or reattach it if it seems loose, wobbly or unsafe.

The majority of accidents happen when the hunter is trying to get into the stand. The hunter may be trying to bring too much equipment up the stand with them and lose their grip.

It's best to tie your excess equipment to a rope before you climb up to the stand and then bring the equipment up to you once you're safely in the stand.

Another part of your tree stand that you should check before season is your steps or ladder.

Each year many hunters take a

Gary Howey
'Of the Outdoors'

tumble because their metal screws in steps bend or break when they put weight on them. Others try to use cut limbs as steps and over time, these limbs are effected by decay and rot and become dangerous.

The safest means that I've found to get into a stand is a strap on steel climbing stick with steps or ladder. They're easy to install, remove and can be carried into the woods with you when you head out to hunt.

I've also found that the climbing stick eliminates others from climbing into your stand when you're not around.

The biggest mistake that many hunters who fall from the tree make is to not use a safety strap.

All of the tree stand manufacturers now include a safety harness with their stands and instructions for their proper use.

I've heard every reason there is for not wearing a safety strap or harness. They don't fit properly, they hinder shooting, they're too bulky and so on and so forth.

Since these harnesses are a one size fits all deal, they can be a bit bulky or uncomfortable so you'll need to spend a little time to adjust the strap to fit you.

My answer for that if I have to use an uncomfortable safety harness and be able to survive a possible life threatening fall, then I'm going to be uncomfortable.

There are numerous safety harnesses available, some fit around the shoulders, through the crotch, around the waist or a combination of these.

I've gone to the Huntm High vest, (www.huntmhigh.com) type safety harness, which has a full body 2" nylon harness built into the inside of the vest. The vest snaps in the front and then you attach your safety strap to one side of the vest, take the strap around the tree and then buckle it to the other side of the vest.

The harness is rated for 600 pounds, so the vest will fit every size hunter; is available in camo for bow hunters and hunter's orange for the rifle and slug gun hunters.

The safety strap folds up and fits into the vest pockets. The pockets allow you to store and carry your hunting gear in and out of the woods.

Tree stand safety can mean the difference between a good hunt or a fall that won't only end your hunting season, it could change your life forever.

Spend a little time prior to season, making sure that your stand, steps, ladder etc. are in good shape.

Wear a safety harness and if you don't have one, get one as they are a life saver!

They're available at Dakota Archery or at your local sporting good dealers.

Magazine ranks UNL among top universities serving ag industries

Again this year, Meat and Poultry magazine ranks the University of Nebraska-Lincoln among the nation's leading universities serving the meat and poultry industry.

UNL moved up to fourth this year from sixth a year ago in the trade magazine's annual ranking of the top 10 universities serving the meat and poultry industry, which appears in the November issue.

"With its Food Processing Center as one of its assets, the University of Nebraska's animal science and food science and technology... programs continue to be on most industry authorities' short list of top schools," the article stated. The magazine also cited UNL's reputation for research in the areas of red meat quality, value-added innovations, pathogen identification and control, and farm-to-table food safety.

The heads of the two UNL departments mentioned in the article said that while all rankings are subjective, they appreciate the magazine's recognition of the quality of these Institute of Agriculture and Natural Resources programs.

"We are pleased that others recognize the quality of our efforts. We have endeavored to develop and maintain a very strong program in this area that is so important to Nebraska's economic well-being," said Steve Taylor, who heads food science and technology and the Food Processing Center.

"Our programs are well-suited to help Nebraska producers and processors with ideas related to value-added efforts in meat and poultry processing," Taylor added.

Beermann agreed, pointing out that Nebraska leads the nation in commercial livestock processing, beef processing and red meat production, and the poultry industry also is important to the state's economy.

Complementary faculty expertise in the two departments strengthens UNL's overall program in these key areas and stretches limited resources.

This expertise also benefits students, Beermann said.

"Training undergraduate and graduate students in these areas is a high priority because employment opportunities abound and technology is rapidly changing," he said. "Employers look for graduates from our programs because the real-world aspects of meat science and poultry are present in our teaching, research and extension efforts."

Other schools in the top 10: 1, Texas A&M; 2, Iowa State; 3, Kansas State; 5, University of Arkansas; 6, Oklahoma State; 7, Colorado State; 8, University of Illinois; 9, Texas Tech; and 10, Georgia Tech.

ALL STATE CHOIR
Two Wakefield musicians have been selected as members of the All-State choir and a third is a high alternate.

Named were Erin Bartels, who is an Alto II and Josiah Kaufman, whose voice is a Bass II.

The alternate is Nate Nicholson, who is a Bass I. Director Tracy Anderson said Nate is high on the alternate list and she thinks that there is a good possibility that he will also have the opportunity to participate.

Being named to the All State choir is one of the highest musical honors attainable in Nebraska. Each year the best school musicians in the state audition for the Nebraska All-State band, chorus, jazz band and orchestra, sponsored by the Nebraska Music Educators' Association.

As members of the All-State choir, the students will rehearse Thursday, Nov. 21 through Saturday, Nov. 23 on the University of Nebraska-Lincoln campus, the host site of the 2002 Nebraska Music Educators annual conference.

A concert will be presented on Saturday evening at the Lied Center for Performing Arts on the UNL campus.

LIGHTING CONTEST
Thanksgiving is rapidly approaching and this year there is less than four weeks between the fall holiday and Christmas. With the milder weather, residents will be thinking about placing their outdoor lighting displays.

With that in mind, the Wakefield Community Club is announcing some changes in the annual lighting contest.

Wakefield Dollars will be awarded to five displays, to be judged by friends and neighbors. One of the award winners will be from a rural area in Wakefield School District.

In December a ballot will be printed in the Republican and residents will be asked to vote for their favorite display, one in town and the second in the country. From these ballots, the winners will be selected.

The announcement will be made Dec. 21 during the Lions Club Soup Supper and the Christmas Dollar Drawings. Santa Claus is also expected to pay a visit to Wakefield on that date.

RUNS MARATHON
Johnny Swagerty of New York city participated in the New York Marathon.

Recently Swagerty completed the 26-mile course in three hours and 28 minutes. There were 32,000 people from all over the world who ran in the New York Marathon.

Johnny is the grandson of Cal and Bonnie Swagerty of Wakefield and the son of Terry and Ann Swagerty of Roseburg, Ore.

This is not the first time the Swagertys have had a relative run in the New York event. Dave Nixon, Sr. Mrs. Swagerty's nephew, who some people may remember from his Sioux City TV broadcast days, competed the course a few years ago in three hours and 32 minutes.

NEED TO UPDATE
Following a recent inspection at the Wakefield Family Resource Center, the Nebraska Department of Health and Human Services has given the facility a deadline to make major modifications or move out of the old school building at 403 Johnson Street.

"This came as no great shock to the board of directors. It just moved us into higher gear," said Erelene Stubbs, Center director.

"I said when I accepted my position five years ago that this is not an ideal place for children. Unfortunately, it has been the only building with enough space for the center's programs."

Currently 64 adults and 77 children receive some type of educational services through the Wakefield Family Resource Center with many others on a waiting list.

In addition, the Goldenrod Hills clinics serve between 40-60 clients each month and the Food Pantry provides needed items to four to six families each month.

Twenty-four people are employed either part-time or full time at the Resource Center. Some of these people are center employees; some are ESU#1 employees and others are employed by

The health department feels that mold and mildew growing in the gymnasium area are probably damaging the air quality in the building and has set a deadline of July 25, 2003 for changes to be made.

The Resource Center Board of Directors has determined that plans will be made and action taken prior to that date.

A task force has been formed to look at short-term, intermediate and long-term options. A planning grant application has been forwarded to the Nebraska Foundation for Children and Families. A team of about 40 people from Wakefield and the surrounding area will meet to address the family service needs of the community and the Resource Center.

Currently, the Resource Center offers 17 different programs to the community of Wakefield and its neighbors.

Adult clients are enrolled in General Education classes which can lead to a high school equivalent diploma (GED); English as a Second Language (ESL) is offered; computer classes; job shadowing; citizenship classes and parenting classes.

Children are enrolled in special needs, migrant, Even Start and traditional preschool classes; wrap around child care and before and after school care is also provided at the Resource Center.

The Community Food Pantry, which is sponsored by the Wakefield Ministerium, is housed at the Resource Center.

Goldenrod Hills Community Action Agency offers monthly Super Clinics at the Resource Center. In addition to immunizations, the clinic offers a number of other health services to families.

The Wakefield Family Resource Staff provides translating services to families and also provides referrals to other agencies to assist families.

Northeast Community College in Norfolk.

The Wakefield Family Resource Center partners with the Wakefield Community School to provide some services such as the Special Needs Program.

"It will be in the best interest of Wakefield to find answers to the facility needs at WFRC and maintain the services they provide," said Superintendent Mike Moody.

"The school district is required by law to provide services to preschool children with special needs, as well as other areas of education for residents of the district. The district is responsible for transportation to these services, so if we have to transport these children to another town, the cost will be considerably higher. Having the center here in our community not only provides us with needed services, but also brings children from other communities, like Allen, Pender and Wayne to Wakefield. This benefits us all," Moody added.

As the Resource Center goes through a facility needs planning process, community meetings will be held and the WFRC Board of Directors will welcome input from citizens. Anyone interested in becoming involved at the committee level is encouraged to contact Director Erelene Stubbs or Board President Linda Rischmueller.

LEARN TOGETHER
Children and their parents, 25 in all, joined the Wakefield Family Resource Center staff for an evening of crafts, games and learning activities Oct. 24.

They made paper bag masks, caramel apples, noodle skeletons, spider paintings, jack-o-lantern pictures, fall trail mix and mural painting.

Following the activities, everyone enjoyed a snack and some Halloween stories.

Once a month, Parents and Children Together (PACT) meet for a fun night of activities. These activities are provided through the Even Start Program at the Wakefield Family Resource Center.

This federal program, funded by the Nebraska Department of Education, supports families who wish to improve their literacy skills. In each family enrolled, at least one parent and one child participate.

Adults work on GED, ESL, citizenship or job training while at the same time children work on their education.

Parenting classes and home visits are also required, so a large amount of time is spent on all these classes.

"This is a big commitment for the families," said WFRC Director Erelene Stubbs.

CLIFFORD VISITS

Clifford the Big Red Dog was one of the many visitors to the Scholastic Book Fair held at the Wakefield School during parent-teacher conferences recently.

Many students and parents also stopped by. Emmanuel Vazquez wore the Clifford costume.

In addition to purchasing books, many people donated to the Classroom Wish Lists. These donations are greatly appreciated, stated Media Center Director Jolene Klein.

The school is also grateful for donations from the Little Red Hen Theatre, Tim and Leslie Bebee and Mrs. Klein.

"The library/media center has earned many new books to add to the collection, as well as cash to purchase additional titles," Mrs. Klein said.

She also expressed appreciation to the student volunteers who assisted with the set up and take down, unpacking and packing up of the books for the fair. Also assisting during the fair were Bonnie Hoffman, Julie Rose, Charlene Bodlak, Vickie Greve, Debbie Borg and Estelle Bierbowler.

ELECT OFFICERS

The Wakefield Health Care Center Auxiliary held its final general meeting for 2002 on Nov. 6.

During the meeting the group reorganized for the next year by electing officers and appointing committees. The 2003 membership booklet was distributed.

Carol Sharpnack was elected the new president of the Auxiliary. She will take the leadership from outgoing president Esther Oberg.

Carol Ulrich is the new vice president. Suzanne Nelson has been serving as vice president.

Corrine Carlson and Lois Berns were retained as secretary and treasurer, respectively.

Appointed to the executive committee were Vivian Olson, Becky Swanson, Bonnie Hoffman, Betty Brössler and Esther Oberg. The executive committee also includes the elected officers.

The Auxiliary has 40 members; seven honorary members and a dozen volunteers. It holds four general meetings during the year and the executive board meets three times.

The Auxiliary hosts the monthly birthday party at the Wakefield Health Care Center and helps with other activities as needed.

The group also organizes two fundraising projects during the year - the Fall Festival and Blue Memory Lights.

SETS WORLD RECORD

Annette Hanson of Kirkland, Wash. recently set her fourth world record and earned her fifth gold medal at the Eighth World Masters Bicycle Track Championships in Manchester, England.

She set the record for her age group covering eight laps (2,000 meters) in 2 minutes, 32.31 seconds. She beat the silver medalist from Great Britain by nine seconds.

She was awarded the best all around rider in her bracket and was presented the yellow jersey for the best woman at the competition. She is a 1980 graduate of Wakefield High School.

The bike races are held on a track known as a velodrome. The velodrome in Manchester is considered one of the fastest in the world. A velodrome is an indoor oval made of wood which is 250 meters in length, with banking on the ends of 45 degrees. Bicycles used are road bikes with a fixed gear and no brakes.

Hanson is the daughter of Lowell and Janice Newton of rural Wakefield. She has a 13-year old daughter, Katrina, and works full-time as a technical consultant for Lawson Software.

She has two grandmothers in northeast Nebraska, Louisa Newton of Wayne and Aletha Nelson of Maskell.

NEBRASKA HEALTH AND HUMAN SERVICES SYSTEM

You Can Stay in the Area for Cataract Surgery... So You Can Focus on the Little Things.

Cataracts affect over 80% of our senior citizens. In fact over one million cataract surgeries are performed annually in the U.S. alone.

New technological developments in implants, ultrasonic equipment, lasers, diagnostic testing, and surgical techniques have made cataract surgery one of the most effective procedures today. Currently, over 98% of cataract patients experience significant improvements in vision, without major complications.

Until now, the high cost of this new technology for cataract surgery was only available in the larger surgical facilities. This meant that you would have to travel for a complete eye examination and surgery. Not any longer.

Complete eye care and cataract surgery is now available at Providence Medical Center in Wayne. You don't have to travel outside of your community to have your vision tested for cataracts. With Dr. Willcockson, Dr. Koerber and Dr. Magnuson offering comprehensive diagnostic and surgical services, you now have the most advanced eye care available right here in town.

Call Dr. Koerber or Dr. Magnuson for a complete eye examination and cataract vision screening today. If you would like more information on cataracts for yourself or someone you know who may be experiencing loss of vision, call today for a free informational brochure.

ZION LADIES AID MEETS

Zion Lutheran Ladies Aid met on Nov. 7 with eight members and Pastor Riege present.

Christian Growth Chairman Ione Fahrenholz's devotions were entitled "Giving Thanks" and "Miracles Indeed."

Pastor Riege's devotion was on "Confession and Absolution."

President Inez Freeman called the meeting to order. Roll call was taken and everyone contributed 25 cents to the Penny Pot and told what they are thankful for. The card committee reported that four visitor's cards were sent.

President Inez read the minutes from the fall rally. The 20 quilts that they made and tied were packed at the meeting and sent to the Rescue Mission, Bright Horizons, World Relief, and Orphan Grain Train.

Christmas donations of $10 each were sent to nine organizations: Lutheran Work Relief, Lutheran Hour, Bethesda Lutheran Family Service, Lutheran Home Foundation, Camp Lutheran, Good Neighbors, Orphan Grain Train, and Norfolk Rescue Mission.

Results of election of officers was: President: Inez Freeman, Second Term; Vice President: Ione Fahrenholz, second year; Secretary: Donna Kruger, first year; and Treasurer: Joyce Saegbarth.

December 5 will be the Christmas party with a noon pot luck dinner with each Aid member to bring four bake sale items and two covered dishes. Anyone may bring craft items. Ione and Donna will take care of the bake sale.

November reminders: Altar Guild: Donna Kruger, Roxanne Marks, LaVerda Kruger, and Jill McElhose; Ione Fahrenholz is in charge of flowers.

They thanked Joyce for being the November hostess. The hostess for December will be Elaine and Diane. The birthday song was sung to Lorena Weich.

HOSKINS GARDEN CLUB MEETS
Hoskins Garden Club met on Nov. 14 at the home of Esther Rechtermann. A dessert luncheon was served.

President Shirley Mann opened the meeting with the poem "Tommy's Thanksgiving." The group sang the hymn "Come, Ye Thankful People, Come." Lorraine Wesely chose the poem "Bountiful Blessings" to read.

Six members answered roll call by telling something on their Thanksgiving menu.

Esther read the minutes of the October meeting and gave the treasurer's report. They were approved.

The birthday song was sung for Hildegarde Fenske.

Election of officers was held. The results were: Vice President: Marcia Prussa; Secretary-Treasurer: Hildegarde Fenske; Lorraine Wesely, this year's vice president will be the president in 2003. It was decided to let each member choose what they wanted for lessons in 2003. Esther conducted a Nebraska town quiz and read the article "A Lesson in Perspective."

Shirley Mann gave the lesson, including topics on plant nutrients in the soil, compost recipes, tips on growing asparagus, and how to stop bird feeder litter.

The Watchword for November was: "It's love, not money that makes you rich."

The next meeting will be on Dec. 12, meeting at the Fenske home at 11 a.m. to go to the Grainery in Norfolk for lunch. The group will then return to the Fenske home for the program and a cookie and candy exchange. Each member will bring a $2 non-perishable food gift for the food pantry.

SENIOR CITIZENS MEET
Hoskins Senior Citizens met at the community center on Nov. 12 to play pitch. Winners were Lucille Krause, Vera Brogie, and Ramona Puls. All brought refreshments to share. The next get-together will be on Nov. 26.

RELATIVES VISIT
Gene and June Acklie of Scottsbluff arrived at the home of June's mother, Mary Jochens, on Nov. 7. They came to first visit Gene's mother Grace Acklie of Norfolk and stayed to attend her funeral on Nov. 12. All of Gene and June's family and Jim Falk of Grand Island had noon lunch at the Mary Jochens home prior to the funeral on the 12th. Gene and June returned home on Nov. 14.

Iron: Why Boys May "Outsmart" Girls

According to a recent report in the medical journal Pediatrics, iron deficiency may be responsible for girls not keeping up with boys in solving math problems by the time they reach high school. Iron is required for red blood cell production. Having too few red cells is termed Anemia.

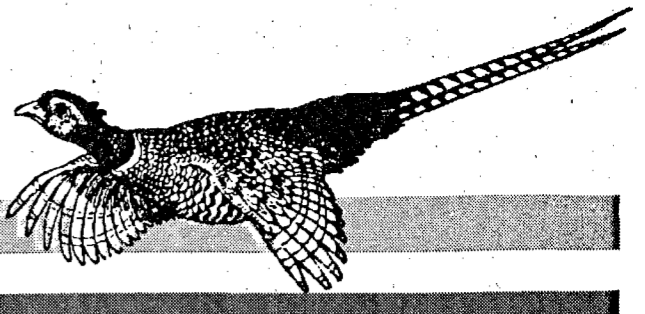

Researchers at the University of Rochester School of Medicine and Dentistry studied more than 5 thousand children aged 6 to 16 years. They found that iron deficient children were twice as likely to have below average standardized math test scores as compared to children who had adequate amounts of iron in their blood.

In this study 3% of children overall were found to be iron deficient. However, 9% of teenage girls were iron deficient. Test scores were lower even if iron deficiency was not so serious as to cause anemia.

PROCEEDINGS WAYNE BOARD OF EDUCATION REGULAR MEETING

November 11, 2002

The meeting for the Wayne Community Schools Board of Education was held at the Wayne High School, Wayne, NE on Monday, November 11, 2002 at 7:02 p.m. Notice of the meeting and place of agenda was published in the Wayne Herald.

The following board members answered roll call: Jean Blomenkamp, Bill Dickey, Sue Gilmore, Dennis Lipp, and Kaye Morris. John Dunning was absent.

Adoption of the Agenda: Motion to adopt the agenda. Motion carried.

Approval of Minutes from Previous Meeting: Motion to approve the minutes from the previous meeting. Motion carried.

Personnel: None.

Financial Claims and Reports: Motion to approve the financial claims and reports as presented with the exception of the $40.00 paid in check #1247. Motion carried.

Gifts: None.

Bids and Contracts: Amendment of the motion for the guarantee of the track loan. Motion to approve the board's guarantee of the $140,000 loan to be originated by the bank or banks to cover the track project. Motion carried.

Prescheduled Communications from the Public: Parent Ag Group - Lori Owens thanked Dr. Reinert for adding an Ag class to the curriculum this fall. She pointed out that there is interest in students to join an FFA program. In doing so, she stated that a wide range of students could benefit by adding to what they are learning in the classroom. The parents of the Ag group realize that adding the program would put constraints on an already tight budget. They propose that Wayne High School joins the Laurel chapter. This would eliminate the cost of adding a full time advisor. They also sent 78 letters to businesses and individuals in the community to see if there was an interest and to get pledges for at least the first year's expenses, which is estimated to be around $4,000 per year. They have received a lot of response and have $20,100 in pledges already. They have contacted schools that have contracts with other schools regarding FFA chapters and all the recipients said it is working well. Wayne would be fortunate to have the Laurel chapter being so close together. The Laurel chapter is in its fourth year. Although they compete against other larger chapters they managed to be named #1 Chapter in Model of Innovation and Student Development at Nationals. Lori handed out information the board could review and will be willing to answer further questions. The hope is that they will have Board approval in contracting with the Laurel FFA chapter.

Karen Schardt was present at the meeting to speak on behalf of the Laurel school system. She works closely with Curt Friedel, the FFA chapter advisor. She had positive things to say about him and his dedication to the students. In the Laurel school system, 33% of the students belong to the chapter. This is an indicator that Mr. Friedel is an excellent advisor and that the program reaches a wide variety of students. She encourages the board to call the Laurel school with any questions.

Doug Temme thanked the Board and Dr. Reinert for getting the Ag program going at the school this fall. He hopes to see it continue. He stated that the skills students learn from being in an FFA program carry through with them in life. He saw first hand in college the difference in his peers who had been involved in FFA. They had an extra advantage. There are also a lot of scholarship opportunities for these students.

Shari Dunklau summed up the presentation by stating that the Parent Ag group would like to see the Ag program continue at the Wayne High School and they would like the Board not only to approve the joining of the Laurel FFA chapter but also give their support. The interest is there and they have pledges to begin. They are available to ask any questions the Board may have.

Sue Gilmore responded for the Board by stating that no decision would be made at this time. This was only informational at this time. The Board would like to meet with the Laurel Board of Education and ask further questions. The decision will be made at a later date. She thanked them for their time and information.

Communications from the Public on Agenda Items: None.

Informational Items or Reports: Faculty: Mrs. Sudmann presented the Board with information on a new program being implemented this year at the Elementary school. Character education is part of the guidance program but they decided to make it into a building wide program. They formed a committee and came up with what they call the "Character Train". Each month they focus on a specific character trait. This trait is a car on the train. September was perseverance, October - curiosity, November - cooperation, and December will be respect. In their home rooms students may earn train tickets. So many train tickets allow them to receive a privilege, such as a longer recess. A student of the month is also selected. They receive a button to wear and a certificate and they are honored at an assembly. The program has been successful so far. They plan to make it ongoing.

Administration: Building Principals: Dr. Ziess - Dr. Ziess presented the board with a copy of the letter from Health and Human Services. The Wayne High School has received a grant of up to $2000 to be used to purchase a defibrillator. The plan is that the defibrillator will be located in a central location, probably the office, at the High school. The Middle school and Elementary school would be able to take the defibrillator to any large functions they are having. The next component will be training.

Mr. Lutt - Since the beginning of the year, the Elementary school has registered 49 new students. The Special Ed students have gone from 14 to 27. Some of these students are very high needs students. The concern is that the Aide has too great of a load. She is doing very well, however. Further increase in Special Ed numbers will mean more staff. The Elementary's total number of students is 310.

Mr. McClarnen - Middle school will be administering a Parent Booster Club. They will be joining Mr. Lutt's organization. The two groups working together will be beneficial. They have offered babysitting services for the nights of the meetings making it easier for parents to attend.

Mr. Lofquist-SPED Status Report - Kraig mentioned previously that the grant for the "No Child Left Behind" Act would require tracking children by testing. We now have received funding for this testing.

Mr. Rubt - The stripping was being put on the track last week. In lane 1 there was a little moisture, so they decided to come back at a later time. There are also a few other markings that need to be put on. This is the last step on the track itself. In the spring, we may need to look into planting grass on the inside of the track and there is dirt that needs to be moved off the field yet.

Superintendent Report: NSBA National Affiliate Update - Dr. Reinert gave the Board information regarding the update.

Board Committees Facility - None.

Foundation - None.

Legislative - None.

Negotiations - None.

Policy - None.

Planning - None.

Community Relations - None.

Finance - None.

Technology - None.

Americanism - None.

Old Business:

A. Action Plans for Board Objectives - The Board developed action plans for the 2002-2003 goals that were set. Part of developing the action plans was to develop strategies for accomplishing the goals. The Board also discussed ways in which they could see evidence of success. Individuals and committees were appointed to be responsible in overseeing the success of each action plan.

B. Policy 5300 - Students - Management Authority (2nd reading) - Motion to approve Policy 5300. Motion carried.

New Business: None.

Communications from the Public on Agenda Items: None.

Board Membership: Each month, the Board of Education will visit one of their goals. Goal three is as follows: We will insure community/parent involvement:

a. to maintain high academic achievement and excellence;

b. to combat the social concerns of alcohol and/or drug abuse;

c. in utilizing all facilities of higher education, including public schools, WSC, and city-wide programs;

d. to guide a multi-cultural community toward positive social/learning interactions enabling all to function within our value system.

Superintendent Evaluation: Sue reminded the Board members to fill out the information sent in their packets so she can compile the information for the December 9, 2002 meeting.

Correspondence:

Thank you from the Softball Girls Parents - Thanked the school board for their support throughout this season.

Thank you from the family of Larry Ruhl - Thanked the school board for their memorial and thoughtfulness.

Thank you from Elisabeth Diekneite and her students - Thanked the school for their support in the exchange and the enjoyable time.

Future Agenda Items: Further discussion on joining Laurel FFA chapter (arrange meeting with the Laurel Board members), Superintendent Evaluation, comparison of the energy bills from the last 3 months, and discussion on personal finance class.

Executive Session (if needed): None.

Adjournment: Motion Morris to adjourn the meeting at 5:40 p.m. Motion carried.

The next meeting of the Wayne Community Schools Board of Education will be held on Monday, December 9, 2002 at 7:00 p.m. in the Wayne High School in Wayne.

member of the German and International Clubs. He is also a BRIN Scholar (Biotechnology Research Initiative).

Tutors are selected from among numerous qualified applicants and must be upper class men and women with high overall grade-point averages. They also receive endorsements and recommendations from Wayne State faculty. Tutors may conduct large group review sessions before major tests and quizzes. They also work closely with students on an individual basis and consult regularly with faculty and administration members.

Ashley Walton indicted into honor society

Ashley Lynn Walton, Wayne, was one of 17 students inducted into Lambda Pi Eta, a communication honor society at Wayne State College.

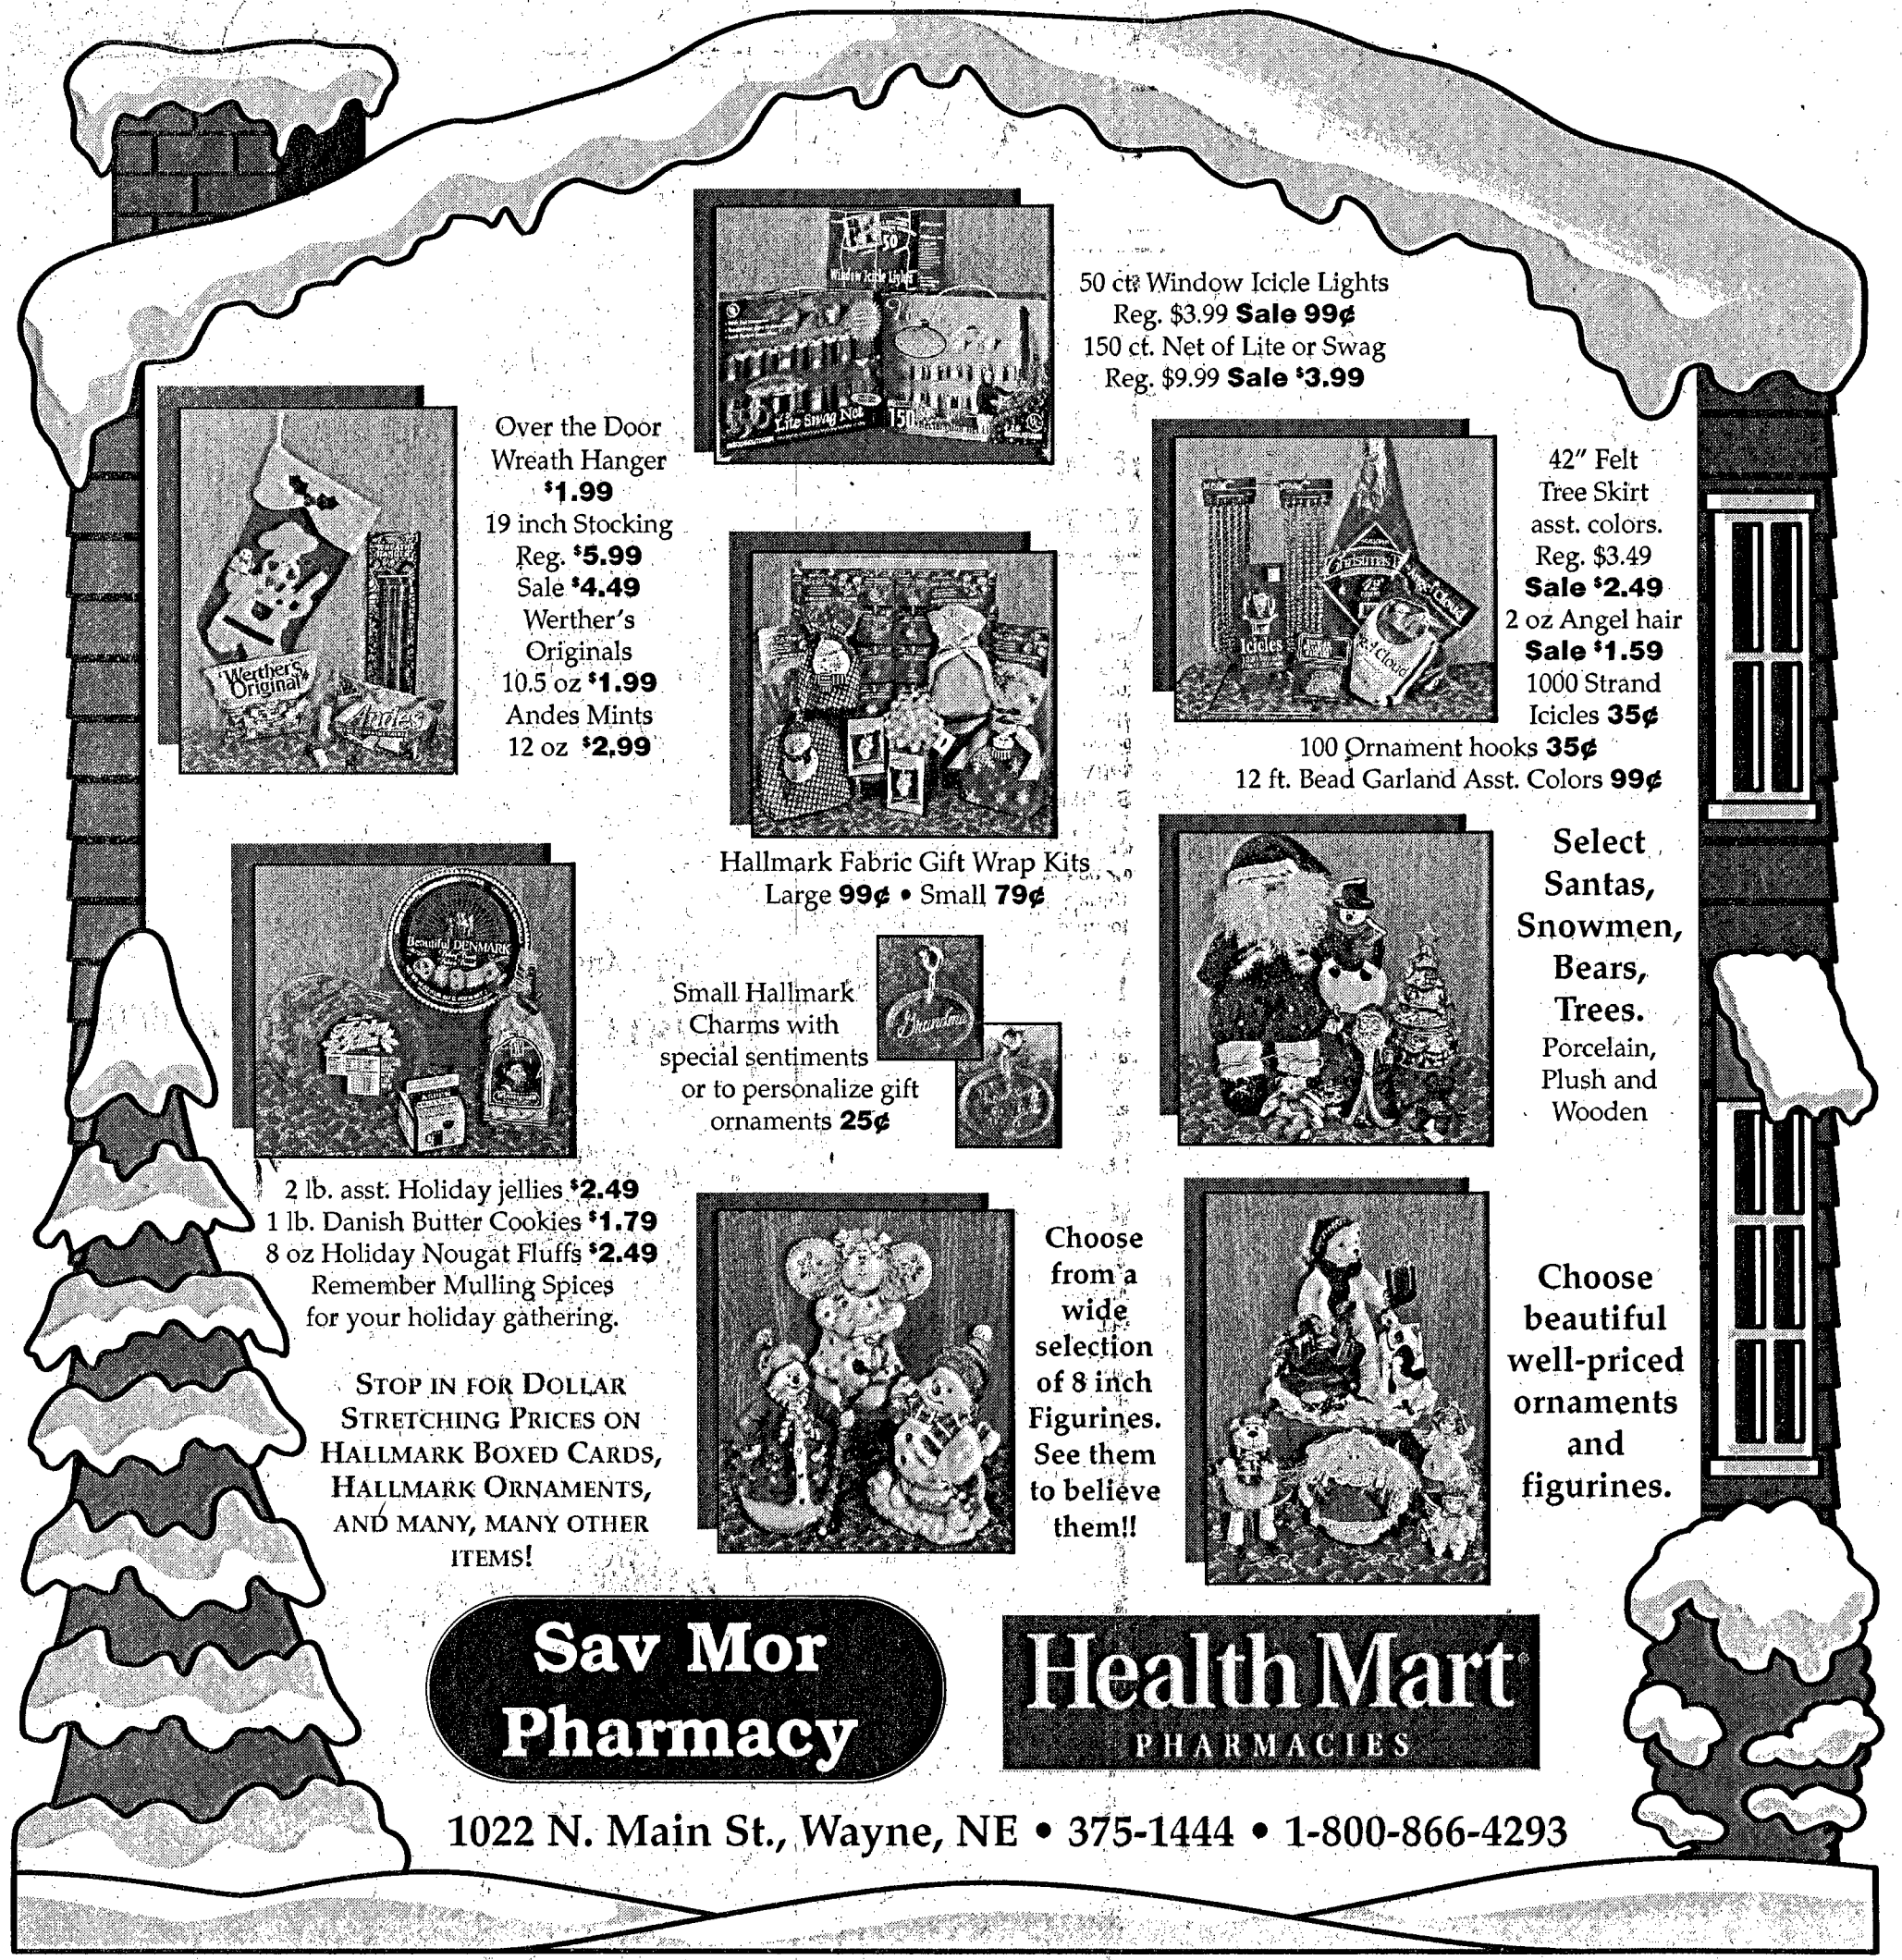

The purpose of Lambda Pi Eta is to recognize, foster and reward outstanding student scholastic achievement in the field of communication and explore options for graduate education in communication studies.

The students initiated were recognized for academic performance having obtained cumulative grade point averages of 3.25 in communication studies, completed at least 60 semester hours of college work, displayed a commitment to the field of communication and demonstrated leadership in class and on campus.

The WSC chapter was formed in 2000. Dr. Deborah Whitt is the faculty advisor.

Walton is a junior majoring in speech communication with a minor in public relations and corporate and community relations. She is the daughter of Darrel and Elizabeth Walton.
