TEAM 15 meeting to be held in Wayne

A town hall meeting for the purpose of discussing the Main Street repaving project will be held at the Wayne City Auditorium on Monday, Sept. 13, beginning at 7 p.m.

The meeting is open to the public and all business/ property owners along Main Street are especially encouraged to attend, according to Jack Hausmann, a member of the Communications Committee for the project.

Representatives of the Nebraska Department of Roads, the city of Wayne administration and members of the T.E.A.M. 15 committee will be on hand to make presentations and answer questions.

Also at Monday's meeting, Mike Lutt of Country Nursery, who is heading the Streetscape portion of the project, will be available to visit with property owners.

"The cost of the landscaping portion of the project is the responsibility of the property owners, with the help of grant funding that is available," Hausmann said. "That is why it is important for them to be at the meeting to express their ideas and concerns."

The T.E.A.M. 15 (Together Everyone Achieves More) committee was formed in July of 2003 in anticipation of the construction project which is set to begin in the spring of 2006. The project will involve removal and replacement of both the street and sidewalk. It begins at Clark Street and continues north to Seventh Street.

T.E.A.M. 15 includes four subcommittees — Design, Promotion, Communication/ Advertising and Alley/Parking. A number of community individuals, including business owners, city employees and Wayne State College personnel make up the various committees.

The committees have been meeting bi-monthly for nearly a year and will meet more often as the construction date gets closer.

The majority of the funding for the project will come from the Nebraska Department of Roads. The NDOR will be responsible for the cost of the construction of the streets and sidewalks during the project.

The city of Wayne will be responsible for the cost of replacement of storm sewers which will take place at the same time as the street and sidewalks are replaced.

"We are still in the information stage of the project and encourage all interested persons to attend Monday's meeting to voice their opinions and concerns," Hausmann said.

Leo Ahmann, a member of the Promotions Committee, noted that his committee has been working on a number of activities to be held during the construction phase of the project. These are designed to help bring customers to the downtown area in spite of challenges caused by closed streets.

"T.E.A.M. 15 is about customers and Monday's meeting is an opportunity for all those business people affected to be involved and make the project work," said City Administrator Lowell Johnson.

City of Wayne to be part of statewide book

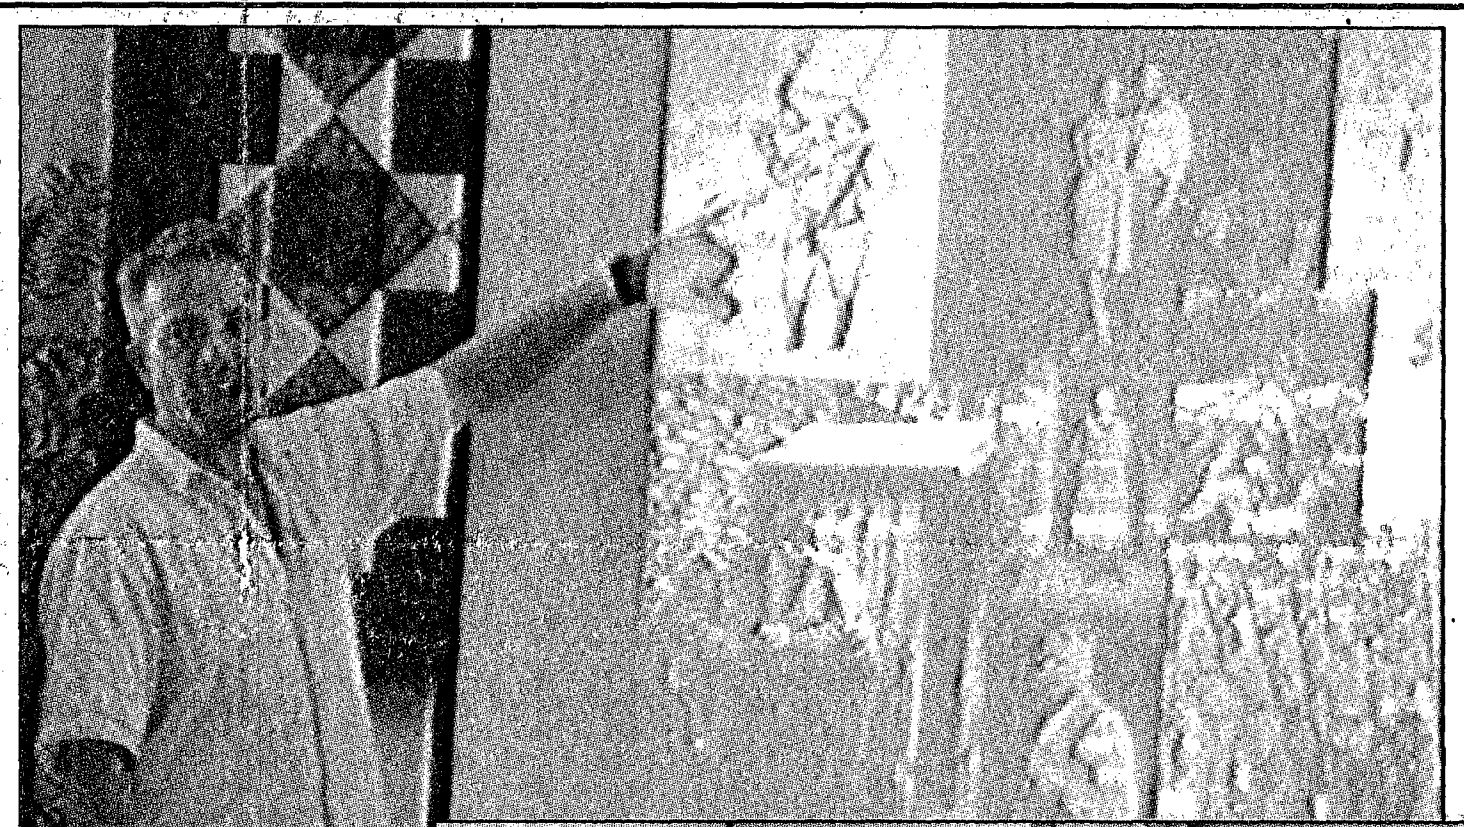

It was announced this week by Jim Shanks, publisher of the Wayne Herald, that the City of Wayne has been selected as one of the 20 plus Nebraska communities to be featured in a one-of-a-kind, limited-edition book that will be published later this year. The book, Portraits of Nebraska: Pride in Our Hometowns, will be a collaborative effort by newspapers across the state to tell the inside story of 22 of Nebraska's most unique and interesting communities.

With the theme — "Great places to live! Fun places to visit!" — the book will provide a behind-the-scenes historic review as well as a modern-day accounting of Wayne and each of the other communities chosen to be included in the book. A combination tourism and community history book, the grassroots profiles of the communities spotlighted will make the book a great resource for anyone interested in learning more about the state and enjoying many of its finest festivals, fairs, parks, lakes, recreational areas and historic attractions.

According to Tom Schmitt, a spokesperson for Nonpareil Publishing, the publishing firm producing the book, no such book currently exists.

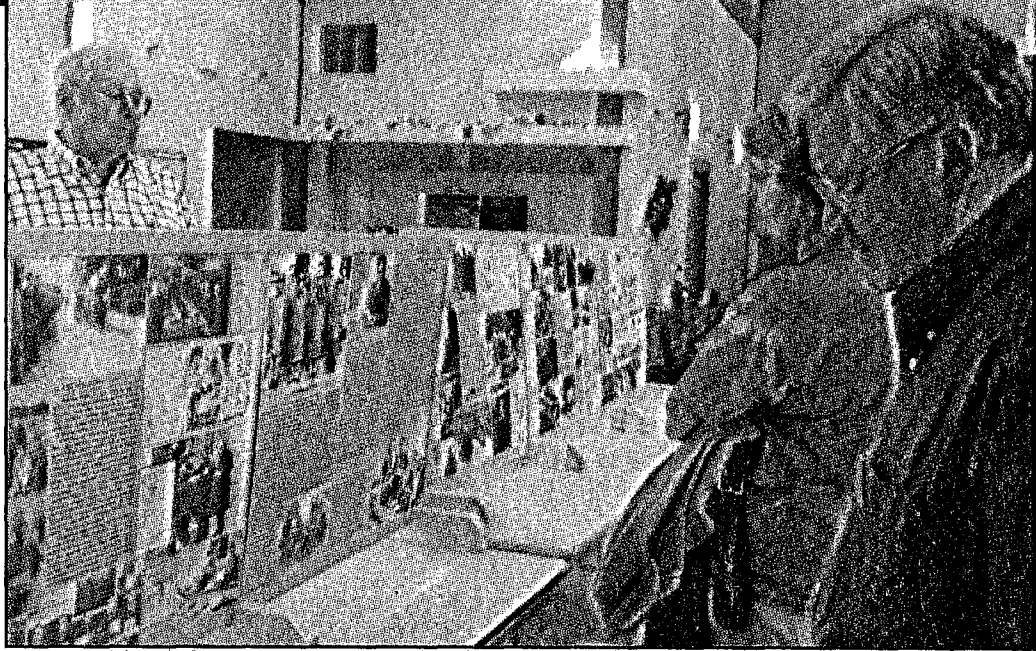

"Portraits of Nebraska will be filled with facts and unique stories that characterize the communities represented in the book and the people who estab-

Diediker shares Student Ambassador experience

By Lynn Sievers
Of the Herald

Taking a trip of a lifetime, Diana Diediker of Allen, returned from Australia on July 26. She was a student ambassador on a People to People trip.

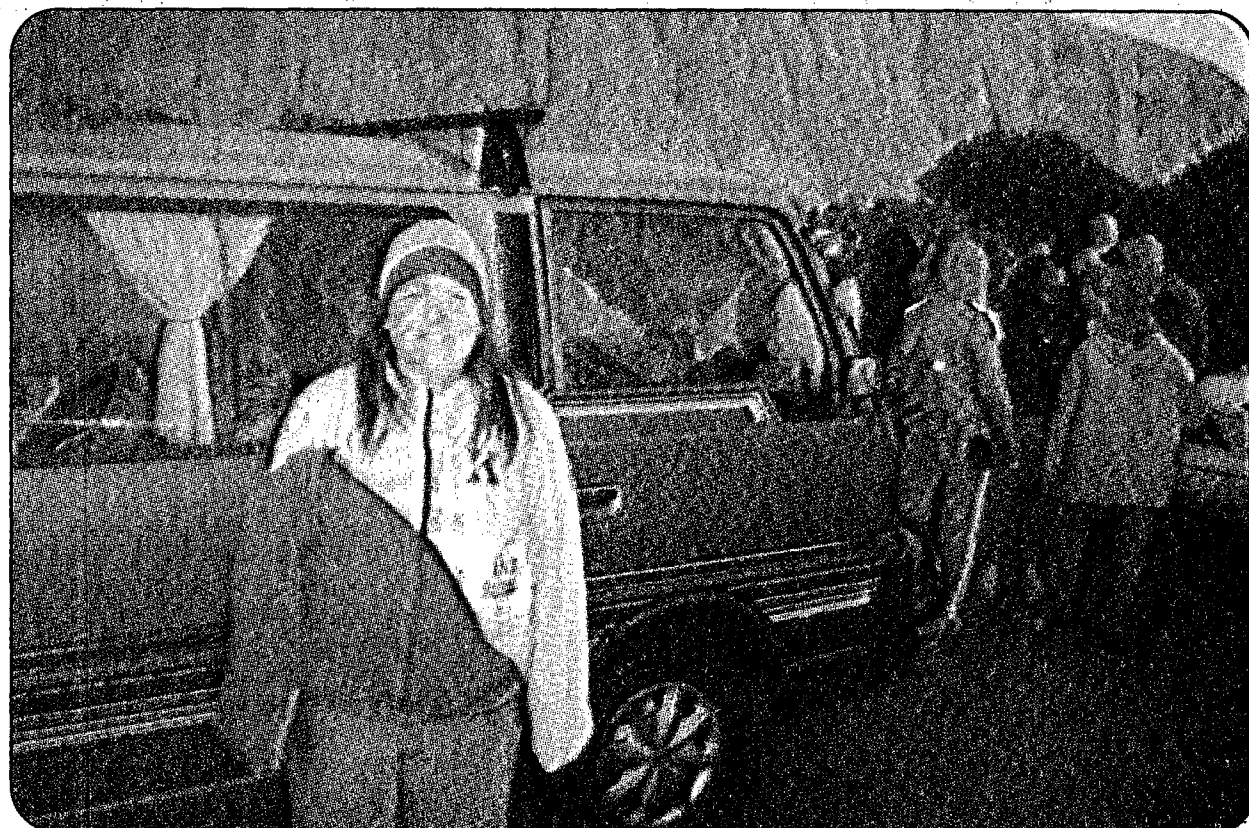

Diediker was nominated to attend. The group left July 9 and returned on July 26. People to People is an American program. Around 40 students were nominated, 28 were from Nebraska, Iowa and South Dakota. The students attending were chosen through interviews.

After a 14-hour airplane trip, the group arrived in Australia where they toured the country visiting the Outback, Queensland, the northern territory, and Sydney (New South Wales).

While in the Outback, they stayed at a bush camp, which is a farm and learned their ways of farming. There were 450,000 acres of land on the farm and 5,000 head of cattle. There are no fences on the farm, and they see their cattle only six times a year. The cattle do not stray far as they stay within two miles of their watering holes. While at the bush camp, members of the group learned to crack a whip. "I cracked it 56 times in a row," Diana said.

At the camp, they slept in canvas swags or sacks with sleeping bags in them. "You get in and you can't move," Diana said.

Humanities Council speaker to conduct program

Nebraska Humanities Speaker Renae Hunt will present a program on "Lewis & Clark: What was Their Value Worth—Seaman, York, Sacagawea and Pomp Stories" on Thursday, Sept. 23, 2004 from 7:30 to 8:30 p.m. at the Lifelong Learning Center in Norfolk on the campus of Northeast Community College.

This presentation is made possible by the Nebraska Humanities Council as part of NHC Speakers Bureau.

The Corps of Discovery was a fascinating group of individuals. But here were four members of the Corps that were "valuable" but not paid. Ms. Hunt discusses these four members and tells stories of their adventures. She will also dispel a few myths about these members. A Newfoundland dog, representing "Seaman," Lewis' companion, will accompany Hunt. This program is appropriate for any age group.

This program is one of more than 300 programs offered through the Nebraska Humanities Council Speakers Bureau.

For information detailing the available speakers, access their website at www.nebraskahumanities.org or contact Nebraska Humanities Council at 215 Centennial Mall South, Suite 500, Lincoln NE 68508 or phone 402-474-2131, fax 402-474-4852 or email: nhc@nebraskahumanities.org

For information on this program contact one of the local sponsors Northeast Nebraska RC&D office in Plainview at 402-582-4866 or Corps of Discovery Welcome at 402-667-6557.

Memorable trip

A number of Wayne High School students took part in this year's Close Up trip to Washington D.C. This group was the first to travel to the nation's capital in June rather than the school year, and because of this, were in Washington, D.C. the week of Ronald Reagan's funeral. They included, front row, left to right, Amber Surber, Amy Hypse, Jill Schramm, Marissa Roney, Congressman Doug Bereuter, Adam Munter, Keeley Reinert and Katie Osten. Back row, Ben Mohl, Brian Mohl and Brendan Dorsey, sponsor.

WEEKLY TIP
Carpal Tunnel Syndrome
Carpal tunnel syndrome is a condition in which the large nerve in the hand becomes compressed. It is characterized by wrist pain and tingling in the fingers and hands. To ease pain and prevent further injury, take frequent breaks to rest and stretch your hands. Avoid bending wrists all the way up or down. practice good posture to prevent compressing nerves in neck which affect your wrists. At the computer keyboard, make sure your fingers are lower than your wrists. If you're experiencing symptoms, see your doctor because early diagnosis and treatment can prevent permanent damage.

Our "Welcome to Our Neighborhood" promotion for the new Wayne State College students gets underway Saturday and will run for a couple of weeks.

Thanks to the over 30 merchants who chose to participate. The premise of the promotion is that as people move into a new neighborhood, they are given food or gifts. We hope the business people will see this as an opportunity to establish a long-lasting special friendship with your students (and their families).

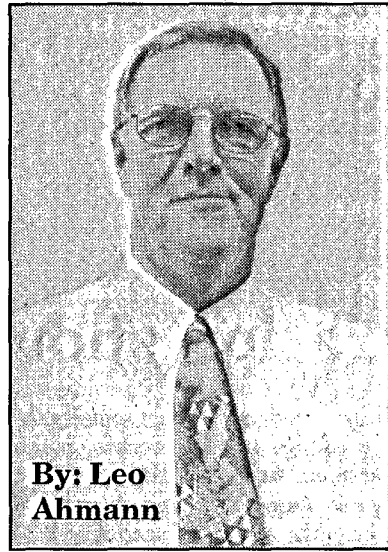

Wayne State College Band Day is Saturday, Sept. 11. If you still have a last minute desire to get in on our "Wake Up with Wayne" downtown promotion on Saturday morning or to join the parade, give me a jingle at 375-5062 . . . or show up downtown Saturday morning. There is still sidewalk room available. Also, the parade line-up starts at about 9 a.m. on the campus . . . we can still slip you in!!!

Mark your calendar . . . Monday, Sept. 13 . . . 7 p.m. . . . City Auditorium . . . Town Meeting on the Main Street Repaving Project. This meeting is open to the public. We also are giving special encouragement to business people on Main Street to attend and find out in detail about what the project will entail. This is the first effort of the T.E.A.M. 15 Community Taskforce to disseminate information about the work they've been doing in preparation for the repaving project. There will be time allotted for questions and answers following the brief presentation by each of the committees, Nebraska Department of Roads personnel, city officials and a display by Country Nursery regarding a look at the potential streetscape. It is for your benefit so we encourage business people and the public to attend.

It's hard to imagine, I guess, but we are also making plans for the winter holidays. This is our "off-year" for our Holidayz, but believe me, there will be plenty of events and activities going on.

I ask you to vote YES on Amendment One in November. It is an amendment that will help preserve Nebraska's future.

By: Leo Ahmann

Amendment One is a proposed constitutional amendment that will enable the Nebraska Legislature to adopt laws that promote historic preservation for reasons of economic growth. Amendment One requires NO new grants, loans or TAXES. Amendment One would allow laws that would delay or temporarily freeze tax increases on historical property improvements. The amendment would NOT remove property from the tax rolls. Rather, it would provide tax incentives for people to restore historic properties. Spread the word, vote yes and please encourage your friends to do so as well.

People are also encouraged to attend one of nine sites linked via videoconferencing on Thursday, Sept. 23 to learn about preliminary data analysis and recommend strategies for the state's 2005-09 Consolidated Plan for housing, community and economic development and homelessness. There is one scheduled for Wayne State College. Call me for details . . . soon.

Until next time . . .

Convention setting stage for future

By Ed Howard

Statehouse Correspondent
The Nebraska Press Association
Presidential nominating conventions don't have anything to do with nominating presidents these days.

Their most useful purpose is to facilitate what is called networking. That means the politically ambitious can do some groundwork in hopes of lining up support for future campaigns or appointments, or whatever.

Three of Nebraska's foremost elected Republican officials made the most of the GOP confab in New York City.

U.S. Sen. Chuck Hagel was doing some legwork in the interest of a possible bid for the presidency four years down the road.

Gov. Mike Johanns was aglow about the support he reported receiving for his undeclared but very much expected candidacy for the U.S. Senate in 2006.

Attorney General Jon Bruning talked about his desire to become governor one day. Bruning also proved, again, that he has a firm grasp on political realities.

Bruning told the Lincoln Journal-Star that he sure enough would like to be governor - but that he will wait his turn to have a try at it if Rep. Tom Osborne decides that he would like to be the state's next chief executive.

Bruning said he thinks Osborne will run. Bruning is almost certainly correct. He was also correct in his assessment of Osborne's ability to win the race and be effective.

"I believe he will run," Johanns said. "As governor, Tom can do what none of the rest of us could do. He'd have a popular mandate no governor before or after him would have. He could restructure state government in ways no one else could."

Johanns is virtually certain to take on U.S. Sen. Ben Nelson. Virtually everyone thinks so, and they are right. A Johanns bid for the Senate could be influenced by some things that he can't control. The November presidential race is one of them. The economy and the war in Iraq are among them. A Senate race involves more than provincial issues. If John Kerry should be in the White House, and war and terrorists are still divisive issues, Johanns will have a logical "Send me to D.C. to keep the GOP strong in the Senate" argument.

Another element of the Senate race will almost certainly be the state's perpetual hassling over that damnable dump for low-level nuclear waste. Republicans will surely try to pin the whole thing on Democrat Nelson. It's easy to package attacks in 30-second commercials. Explaining the complicated history of the nuke dump deal could be tough.

The next presidential race is four years off, so any speculation about Hagel's chances would be preposterously premature.

To make a run for the GOP nomination, Hagel would have to give up his post in the Senate. It's a job he likes; and, unless things were to change greatly, it's one that the electorate would probably let him keep.

A Hagel bid would reflect the strength of his personality and ideas. Nebraska is not a state with a lot of political clout, even if his ambition were to be vice president.

Expanded gambling bad news for Nebraska

Between now and November, you'll hear that gambling will provide worry-free income for local communities; that it will lower your taxes; and that it will keep money from leaving our state.

As you see and hear these claims, keep in mind that they are

Nebraska State Chamber legislative forums begin

The Nebraska Chamber of Commerce & Industry, in cooperation with 32 local chambers of commerce across Nebraska, will present 30 Legislative Forums during the weeks of Sept. 13-17, Sept. 20-22, Sept. 27-29 and Oct. 6.

A forum will be held in Wayne Tuesday, Sept. 21. The event will begin at 7:30 a.m. at Wayne State College with breakfast. The Wayne Area Chamber of Commerce is the host for the forum.

State Senators and legislative candidates are invited to each Forum within or near their legislative districts. Twenty-five legislative seats will be determined at the General Election this year.

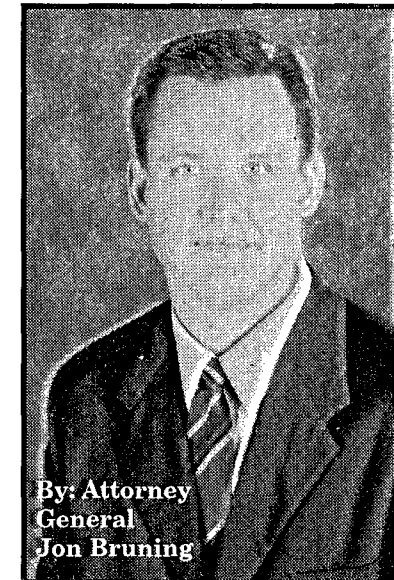

The economic climate for Nebraska continues to be the key issue facing state policymakers. While the economy appears to have gained some momentum, Nebraska's once-envied economic development climate has lost ground. In addition to low ranking in the Tax Foundation Report on Business Tax Climates, Nebraska does not fare very well in the results of the recent KPMG Consulting study, "A Comparative Analysis of Nebraska's Business Climate." This important research evaluates the overall tax and incentive impact on seven selected case study businesses for Nebraska and nine competing states.

This year, the Forums will present a program relating to the KPMG Study and ask members what needs to be done to give Nebraska a more competitive business climate.

"The key to both the Tax Foundation study and the KPMG study is that employers pay a great deal of attention to how they are taxed," said State Chamber President Barry Kennedy. "The reality is that business pays a great deal of taxes in this state and Nebraska is seen as a high tax state, according to the Tax Foundation study," he added.

Ranked at the bottom 10, Nebraska's business taxation system is shown to be less competitive than most of our surrounding states. The KPMG Study echoes that study, noting that in five of seven model businesses, Nebraska has the highest tax burden. Business incentives, while helping make some projects competitive, only puts Nebraska in the middle of the pack with competing states.

By: Attorney General Jon Bruning being made by outside interests looking to change our Constitution for their own financial gain.

Casino gambling is not economic development. It will set Nebraska back in the national competition for quality, high-paying jobs, and it will degrade the economic climate and cannibalize revenue from local businesses like restaurants, retail stores and car dealers. The bottom line is that increased access to gambling will actually cause more money to leave the state.

Casino gambling also brings enormous social costs. A recent Creighton University study found that in the 1990s, counties in the United States with casinos had more than 100 percent higher bankruptcy rates than counties without. Gambling also increases crime and creates problems of addiction and abuse for families, especially for women and children. The additional problems created by gambling will place an increased burden on our already overextended social service agencies and law enforcement, which will actually lead to increased taxes because the small amount of new tax revenue generated by casinos will not be enough to cover the additional costs the state will incur.

Finally, expanded gambling is bad government. There are no provisions for equitable distributions of revenue and no specifics about regulation or oversight. Reliance on gambling revenues violates all-sound theories of taxation. Gambling taxes are regressive, inequitable, variable and unpredictable. The people who lose the most are often those who can afford it the least. To make budgetary decisions based on gambling receipts is irresponsible public policy.

Nebraska is blessed to have hard-working, highly educated citizens with good values and a solid-work ethic. The very foundation of Nebraska's good life has always been based on those principles. We have a bright future ahead of us without expanded gambling.

Thinking about national debt

Dear Editor,

I'm getting tired of the Bush campaign ads chastising Kerry for voting for tax increase.

I decided to find the answer to this question: Since 1960, did the Democratic U.S. Presidents or the Republican Presidents seem to cause more of a rise in the national debt?

Keep in mind that at least a fourth of the federal budget each year goes to pay the interest on the national debt.

At least a fourth of each year's federal budget goes to pay the interest on the debt. Data on annual national debt figures are readily available on the website: ConcordCoalition.org.

This nonpartisan, nonprofit group was founded in the early 1990's by two prominent U.S. Senators, Rudman (Dem.) and Tsongas (Rep.) (deceased) to make the public aware of the growing national debt.

In taking figures from their "historical listing," I only added or subtracted trillions, billions, and millions to make it easier here. (Left off thousands, hundreds, and cents).

On 12-30-60, the national debt was "only" $290 billion, 216 million.

On 8-31-04, it was $7 trillion, 350 billion, 950 million.

Under Democratic Presidents since 1960 (20 years worth) the debt increased approximately $1 trillion, 964 billion, 224 million.

Under Republican Presidents since 1968, albeit 24 years worth, the debt has increased approximately $5 trillion, 96 billion, 501 million.

However, on 12-31-80, the debt was "only" $930 billion, 210 million.

On 9-30-88, after eight Reagan years, the debt was $2 trillion, 602 billion, 337 million.

On 9-30-92, at the end of Bush, Sr.'s term, it was $4 trillion, 64 billion, 620 million.

The eight years of Clinton and the four years of Bush saw similar amounts of increase (but Bush did it twice as fast!)

In fact, Clinton's years saw $57 billion, 214 million less of an increase than GW Bush's so far.

So who has raised the national debt the fastest and the most?

Check it out, along with info on federal budget, etc. at the above website.

P.S. I heard the other day that GW Bush is the only President (so far in his term) to never veto a spending bill, perhaps because he has a Republican Congress to work with.

I also heard the other day that this is the only overseas war we've ever fought that didn't incur a tax increase from Congress while the war was in progress. I do know we've only had tax cuts during this war that Pat Buchanan is now calling the worst U.S. government strategic blunder of the past 40 years. (That would seem to include VietNam).

Trail-riders will camp in Wayne

The Northeast Nebraska River City Roundup (RCR) trail-riders will be camping overnight in Wayne again this year, according to the Trail Boss, JoAnn Malchow of Laurel. Riders from several surrounding states are expected to take part in this promotional event which will stop at the Wayne County Fairgrounds in Wayne on Monday, Sept. 20.

This will mark the 12th year for the Northeast Nebraska ride, which begins this year by Pierce. The trail-riders will make their way to the AK-SAR-BEN River City Roundup Fair & Festival in Omaha traveling through scenic country roads and camping in friendly towns of the area, while promoting their unique western heritage. Malchow says, "Riders are encouraged to dress in classic cowboy attire, and are in the saddle for many hours, putting in up to 20-25 miles per day. There will be a variety of horse-drawn wagons, buggies and horseback riders."

Leaving Pierce Sunday morning, the riders begin their trip with a scenic trek through Willow Creek State Recreation area and a stop at the Cuthill Vineyards.

Traveling to Wayne, the riders will be treated to a real western feast as they plan a lunch stop at Merle Ring's "Barn." The riders are excited to see this barn that many have read or heard about this attraction.

The wagon train will continue on, camping Tuesday night in West Point, then Oakland, Arlington and finally Omaha on Friday night. The RCR riders will complete their week-long journey on Saturday, Sept. 25 when they participate in the special River City Roundup Parade in downtown Omaha.

"The 2004 RCR ride is expected to draw between 175-200 horseback enthusiasts from over a five state area. We invite the public to visit the camp and meet the riders. We are looking forward to riding in this area again this year," stated Malchow.

If you have any questions, please call JoAnn Malchow, trail boss, or Tammy Stolpe, assistant trail boss, before Sept. 18. You can reach them at: JoAnn Malchow, 57224 864 Rd., Laurel, NE. 68745 or Tammy Stolpe, 56659 867 Rd., Belden, NE. 68717.

The group also stopped at Alice Springs. There, they visited the School of the Air which is a school held over CBs. In the Outback, there are so few people and they are so far away that they have to hold school this way in order to reach all of the children.

Like school, medical emergencies are also handled long-distance in the Outback. Each family builds a runway and if there's an emergency, they call the Royal Flying Doctor Service who flies in and lands where needed.

Diana said a lot of slang is spoken in Australia but they are easy to understand, except for those from the Outback. Some of the words are the same as in the U.S.A. but they mean something different. For example, ketchup is called tomato sauce, and lemonade is called 7-Up or Sprite. For thank-you, they say cheers. And, some of their words are: dunnie, which means bathroom; blokes are men; sheilas are women; and possums are children.

As for their food, "They eat a lot of Aussie pies which are like our pot pies only bland," Diana said. "And everything is expensive!"

The last place they visited was Sydney where they saw the area where the 2000 Olympic games were held. The group went swimming in the Aquatic Center which is the fastest swimming pool. Around 100 swimming records were broken there.

According to the People to People website, President Dwight D. Eisenhower founded People to People during his administration, and eight U.S. presidents have since served as Honorary Chairman.

established those communities," Schmitt said in announcing the book. "While Nebraska has many outstanding attributes, at the core lies its people and the towns and cities they forged."

Many of the behind-the-scenes stories included in the various profiles will give readers a deeper sense of what day-to-day life was like across the state. Although a few stories may be well known throughout the state, most will provide readers with new bits of historic trivia. Readers will learn facts like: Which Nebraska community was once offered for sale for a measly $150, yet no takers could be found? Or, in what community did bank robbers take nine hostages in 1935 in order to make their getaway? And, what community saw a half-million cows parade through in just two years during the 1880s?

Nebraskans, some famous, some People to People Student Ambassadors travel overseas for two to three weeks during the summer to learn, share, and represent their communities and schools.

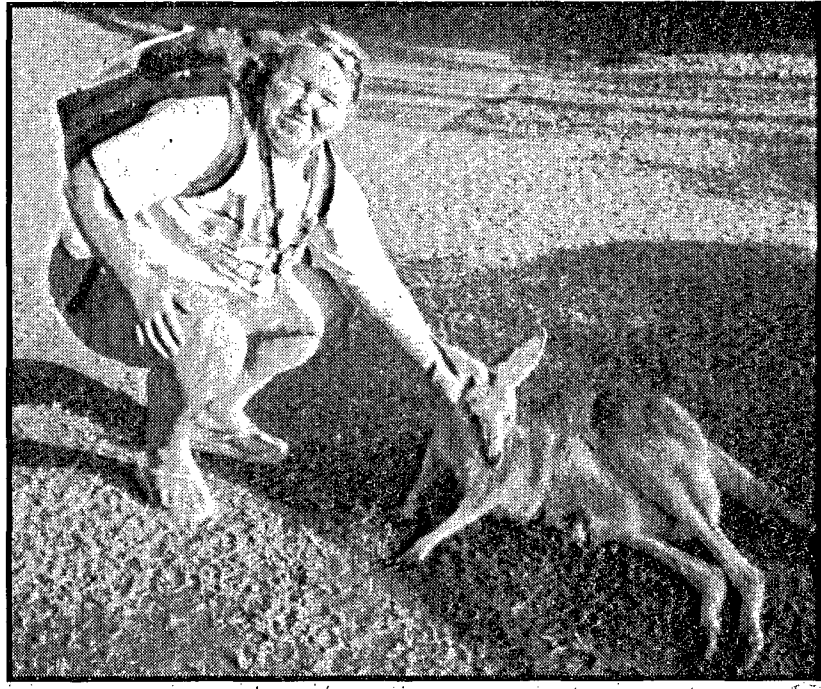

From the Great Barrier Reef to South Africa's Cape, Student Ambassadors experience unparalleled opportunities for personal growth through an enriching program of educational and cultural interaction. By becoming a Student Ambassador, participants gain an appreciation for the world in which they live, build their self-confidence through learning in the global classroom, and develop increased levels of maturity and independence.

Student Ambassador delegations of 30-40 students are led by experienced educators during the program. These delegation leaders guide students in preparing for the program during orientation meetings focusing on travel tips, the culture of the destination, bonding as a group, and much more.

The People to People Student Ambassador Program provides students a world of international opportunities. They offer educational journeys that are both fun and rewarding.

Diana summed up her experience by saying, "This trip to Australia would never have been possible without the help of my community. I am so thankful to have friends and family who help me pursue my dreams! Because of all of you, I have experienced a chance of a lifetime. Thanks again!"

Diana Diediker and other People to People student ambassadors visited the Rajnforest Station Nature Park while in Australia. Diediker was able to pet a kangaroo there.

not so famous, will also be highlighted in the book. Readers will learn about a famous major league baseball Hall of Fame member who now lives quietly in Nebraska and about a man who made his dream of a place for Irish immigrants to own land become a reality.

Communities featured in the book are: Alliance, Beatrice, Bellevue, Broken Bow, Columbus, Fremont, Gering, Kearney, Lexington, McCook, Nebraska City, North Platte, Ogallala, O'Neill, Pabillion, Plattsmouth, Scottsbluff, South Sioux City, Syracuse, Wahoo, Wayne and York.

"These cities line the endless roadways that crisscross the state. While each is unique in its own way, all have a common trait - all have played a key role in making Nebraska one of America's best places to live and raise a family," Schmitt said. "And that is the foundation upon which the book is based; to jointly present the story of why Nebraska is such a great place to live."

Schmitt commented that the key to successfully producing Portraits of Nebraska has been the joint effort put forth by the 22 community newspapers involved.

"It is the newspaper that knows the community the best. The newspaper records the community's history and tells the ongoing story of the development of the community and the people within it. We at Nonpareil Publishing are very proud to have been able to put this alliance together," Schmitt said.

"This is an exciting opportunity to tell the story of Wayne in a state wide format," Shanks said. "We are proud Mr. Schmitt asked us to be a part of this collaborative effort. I believe everyone who buys the book will look forward to visiting our town."

Every chapter in this limited-edition book will be a story of pride, providing readers with both a brief history of each spotlighted community and the present-day characteristics that make all of these cities what they are today - a wonderful place to raise a family, maintain a business or just have fun visiting.

Along with dozens of full-color photographs, every story highlights the attributes that make each community one of Nebraska's favorite hometowns.

Everyone who takes pride in the community they call home will enjoy owning this one-of-a-kind, 224-page, full color, hardbound book, Schmitt said. But availability of Portraits of Nebraska will be limited. Participating newspapers will be taking advance orders for the book at a discounted price of $29.95 plus tax through Oct. 8.

Readers should watch their community newspaper for details.

Books should arrive in the community around late November

College preparation should begin now

By Lincoln Morris,
Dean of Admissions, WSC

The end of summer signals the beginning of a new school year, and the beginning of an important process for high school seniors: The college search.

High school students are beginning their college searches earlier and earlier each year, but the senior year is when colleges and universities recruit in earnest, and when the students' final decisions are made. The search process can be daunting, but it can also be one of the most exciting times for families. What follows are some suggestions for making the process of finding a college home less intimidating, and more like the great adventure it should be.

Every year, students are drawn to "brand name" schools. We have all heard of Harvard, Yale, Boston College, UCLA, USC, and plenty of schools between the coasts. These institutions are household names, and admission to any one of them is seen as a feather in the cap. Unfortunately, many students enroll in these institutions each year, and then leave because the school was not right for them, either academically or socially. In the college search process, make personal fit a priority, not just brand name. Finding a campus where the student's academic program is offered, where there are clubs and organizations in their areas of interest, and where they feel valued as a person is much more important than the name of the institution. I tell students every year that the name on the top of your diploma is much less important than what you made of your time in college.

Start the process by figuring out how far away the student is comfortable traveling to school, and how far away the parents are comfortable sending the student. A good exercise to get the ball rolling is for both the student and the parents to each get a map. The maps will probably be different, with the student picking a map of the U.S., or a globe, and the parents choosing a map of Nebraska. Next, students should decide how many hours away from home they want to be, and figure out how many miles away that is. With that distance as a radius, draw a circle around your town. Parents should do the same thing. Once the circles are drawn, negotiate until a circle acceptable to both parties has been drawn, then figure out what schools lie within the circle. That is the initial pool of possibilities. Use the Internet, guidance counselor, college guides, college fairs, visits to the high school by college representatives, and any other sources available to narrow the list of possibilities to three or four institutions.

Endurance rally to be held in Wayne

An OPPD - NPPD - Iowa Electrathon-Power Drive Car 60 minute endurance rally will be held at the Wayne First National Bankcard Center Parking Lot on Saturday, Sept. 11. The rain date will be Saturday, Sept. 18.

The schedule of events is:
8 a.m. - Team check-in

10:30-10:50 a.m. - Practice time, second half of cars
11 a.m. - Time Trials, 2 laps
12:45 p.m. - Team introductions
1 p.m. - Race starts
2:30 p.m. - Second heat if needed

4 p.m. - Awards ceremony
Heat class will be grouped by time trial, if more than 15 cars.

Prizes consist of: first place: $75 gift certificate to Quality 1 Graphics; Second place: $50 gift certificate to Quality 1 Graphics; Third place: $25 gift certificate to Quality 1 Graphics; Best looking car - trophy; Fastest time trial - plaque; Hard luck award - gloves.

Generally speaking, students should apply to one school that is a "reach," or one to which they have a less than fifty percent chance of being admitted. These are generally highly selective schools such as the Ivies, Stanford, or Duke. Students should also apply to one school where they are "pretty sure" to be admitted, such as most state colleges and universities, and mid-level private institutions. Finally, there should be one "sure thing," or an institution where the student is assured admission. These depend upon the academic level of the student, but can range from proprietary or trade schools, to many public and private institutions, including community colleges.

Visit campuses as a family. Narrow down your choices to three or four campuses to visit, and arrange those visits for times when the whole family can go. Parents have a strong stake in the final decision, and students and parents who go through the same recruitment presentation and campus tour may come away with completely different views of the campus. If possible, talk to current students on each campus to get their views on student life there. The "must visit" offices on each campus are Admissions, Financial Aid, and Housing (or ask to see a typical residence hall room).

After the student has been admitted to the schools of their choice, and all of the visits have been made, it is time to sit down as a family and make the final decision. The National Association for College Admission Counseling has established a timeline for institutions to follow. The two critical dates in the timeline are April 1, and May 1 of the senior year. Colleges and universities are required to make prospective students aware of the amount of financial aid (scholarships, grants, and loans) they will be receiving by April 1. Students then have until May 1 to make their decisions, and to let institutions to which they have been admitted know whether or not they will attend. Institutions MAY NOT compel a student to announce their intention to enroll prior to May 1, except in very specific cases. Institutions MAY ask a student to accept a scholarship prior to May 1, but the student is not bound to enroll at that institution by virtue of that acceptance. Keep in touch with the admission offices at each institution, and know the deadlines for applications, scholarship materials, and final notification.

Students in northeast Nebraska will have opportunities to visit with college representatives from around the country at two upcoming college fairs. The Norfolk Area College fair is Sunday, Sept. 12, from 1 to 3 p.m., at Northeast Community College. The Tri-State College Fair is Sunday, Oct. 10 from 1 to 4 p.m., at the Marina Inn in South Sioux City. There is no charge to attend either fair, and each fair will have different institutions represented.

Students interested in Wayne State College should attend one of the "Fridays at WSC" events, held throughout the fall and spring semesters. Wayne High School juniors and seniors are invited to attend Wayne High School night at WSC, on Monday, Oct. 25, from 6 to 9 p.m. This is a special program just for WHS students, and will feature musical entertainment, speakers, snacks, and door prizes.

Information on all of these events, as well as on setting up a personalized campus visit, can be found at www.wsc.edu, or by calling the WSC Office of Admissions, at (402) 375-7234.

Public is welcome to attend Wayne State Band Day Parade

The Wayne State College Band Day Parade will include marching bands from area schools and the WSC marching band on Saturday, Sept. 11 at 10 a.m.

The parade route will begin on 13th and Main streets and progress down Main Street to First Street. Dr. Richard Collings, Wayne State College president, will serve as grand marshal for the parade.

At the close of the parade, the Wayne State College Band will present a small concert at the corner of Third and Main streets.

A lasting Wayne tradition, Band Day began under the direction of long time WSC director of bands, Dr. Ray Kelton.

Dr. David Bohnert, WSC director of bands, is coordinating the event. The Wayne Area Chamber of Commerce and Wayne Main Street will provide assistance for the event.

Bands from the following communities will be included: Allen, Bancroft-Rosalie, Emerson-Hubbard, Homer, Ponca, Wakefield, Winside, Wisner-Pilger, Wayne.

New way to play good call for fall

In the Press Box by David W. Carstens

I know the high school volleyball season is still young, but please make it a point to check out a game this season.

A change to a new type of scoring has made what I feel should be a nice addition to the sport.

The change I'm talking about is called rally scoring, and at first I thought it was going to force me to relearn how to enjoy a game that I've grown to understand over the years.

My fears were settled Thursday night when I traveled to Pender to watch several games in the Northeast Nebraska Volleyball Classic.

Actually, my road trip included catching sets from Wayne, Allen and Wakefield before watching my niece play for Lutheran High Northeast.

It was a whirlwind tour of three schools in two hours, but the pace of the new scoring allowed that to be possible.

Rally scoring replaced the traditional sideout scoring when high school matches started last Thursday.

Last year, the rally system was given test trial at more than 100 matches statewide to give players, coaches, officials and fans a taste of what will be on the plate this year.

The Nebraska School Activities Association decided to adopt rallying scoring because it's the system now employed at almost all levels of the game.

Scoring is different in that a point is scored on every serve. In the past, a point could only be scored if the serving team ball was successful in making things happen.

A few other things to note include in team dual matchups, squads now play the best three of five matches. Scoring goes to 25 points and the winning team must win by at least two points.

If a dual does have to go to five games, teams play only to 15 points and once again, the winner must beat the other team by at least two points.

In tourney action, matches are the best two of three to determine the winner.

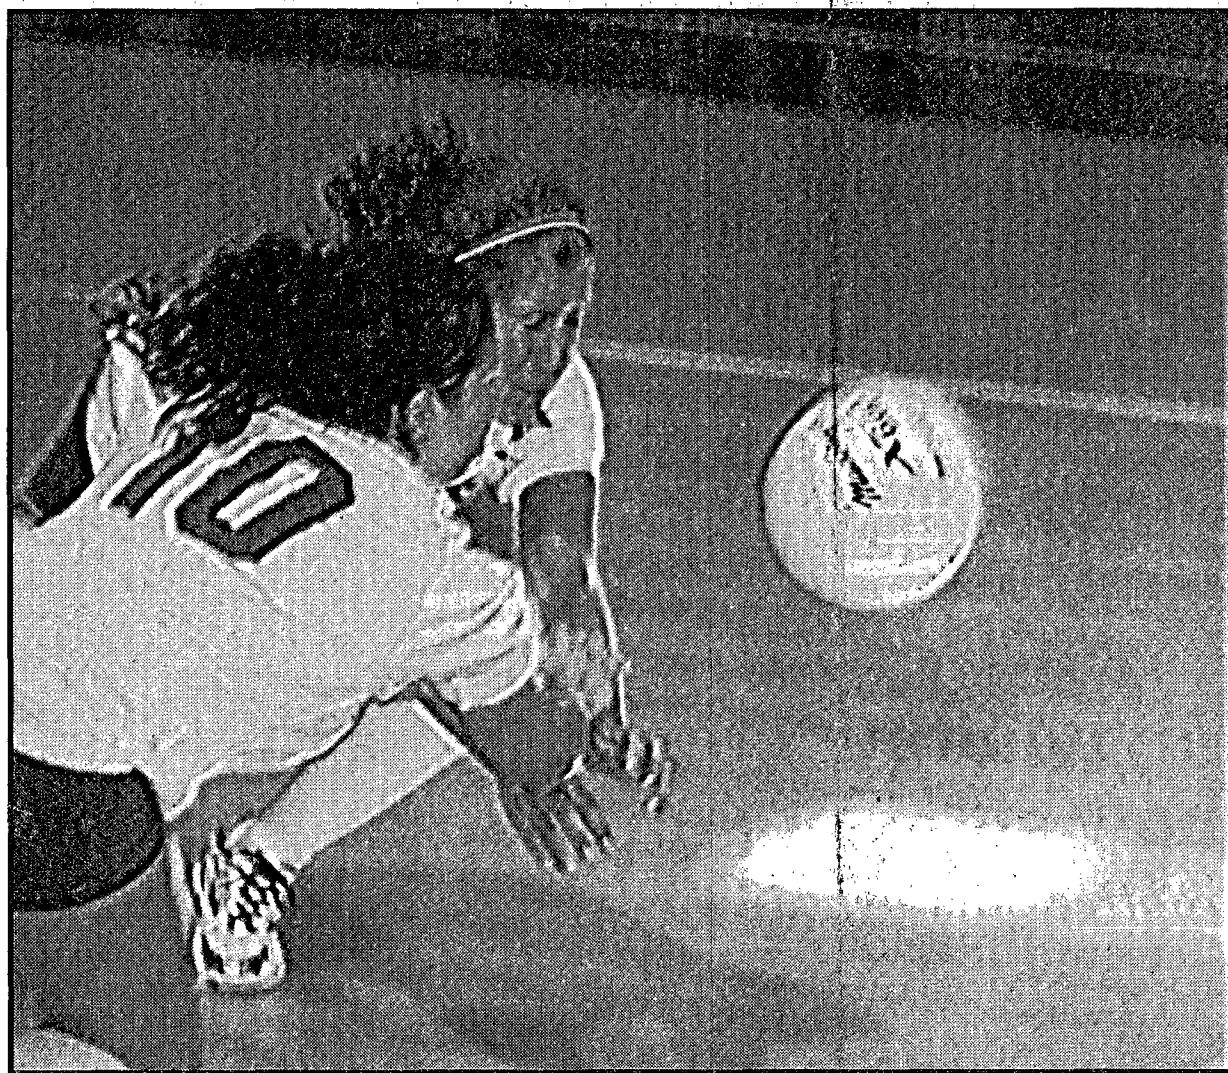

It makes for fast action, and I'm sure its going to take some getting used to for players, coaches and fans alike.

Look for another change in the serving department, as in the past a net-serve would give the service to the other team.

Now, the ball remains in play if it continues over the net.

This will allow officials to watch other parts of the game as they no longer have to place their hand on the net in order to make that call.

So there you have it, new changes down at the gym this fall. Enjoy.

A classic way to start

Wayne, area squads open 2004 seasons at Northeast Nebraska Volleyball Classic

Wayne, Allen and Wakefield all opened the 2004 volleyball season in the 12-team Northeast Nebraska Volleyball Classic played last Thursday and Saturday at three area host schools.

The Wayne High Blue Devils won the first game of the season in a straight-set victory against Scribner-Snyder, 25-9, 25-19 in Pender on Thursday.

Wayne coach Joyce Hoskins started her 12th season as coach with something new for the fall as the Nebraska School Activities Association implemented rally scoring in place of side-out scoring that has been played in previous years.

Wayne appeared to be comfortable with the new system as it breezed through its opening match with Scribner-Snyder in relatively quick fashion.

Micaela Weber finished with 19 set assists, while Sarah Jensen contributed 10 digs to lead Wayne in the opening round game. Rachel Jensen recorded five kills in the win that set up a meeting with Fremont Bergan.

Bergan swept Wayne in Thursday night's game 25-21, 25-20 as Weber again ranked among the team's statistical leaders with 20 set assists and 12 digs. Sarah Jensen nailed eight kills and 11 digs, while her sister, Rachel, had five kills and four digs. Emlyn Mann finished with seven digs for the Blue Devils.

Wayne moved to 4-1 on the season with three more wins in matches played in Pender on Saturday.

In the opening game with Bancroft-Rosalie, the Blue Devils overcame a second-set loss to take the best-of-three victory 25-12, 18-25, 25-23.

Weber's seven ace serves sparked the team, along with 26 set assists. Rachel Jensen led with nine kills, while Sarah Jensen recorded eight kills and seven digs. Angie Arenholtz finished with six kills in the match and Melissa Frahm was credited with six digs.

The win advanced Wayne to a second-round match against Lutheran High Northeast which the Blue Devils won 25-16, 25-13.

Weber continued to roll as Wayne's set assist leader with 25, and added four ace serves. Jessica Dickey also finished well from the service line with four aces. Kills were notched by Sarah Jensen, (9) Rachel Jensen, (8) Arenholtz (4) and Kara Hoeman and Keeley Niemann, each with two.

In Wayne's final game of the tournament, the Blue Devils swept Pender, 25-11, 25-18 to win the event's silver division title.

Hoeman hit six kills, while Rachel Jensen, Niemann and Arenholtz each had five to lead Wayne. Weber had 24 set assists and a pair of ace serves and Dickey also finished with two aces.

Wakefield overcame a pair of opening day losses on Thursday, to capture the bronze division of the tournament with three wins on Saturday.

The Trojans fell to state-ranked West Point Central Catholic 12-25 and 11-25 to open tourney action at Bancroft-Rosalie on Thursday.

Katie Jensen, Nicki Greve, Jaimy Albrecht and Shay Tullberg each had two kills in the season opening loss.

Alissa Bressler had 21 digs and Jensen and Greve each recorded 18 in the improved second, three-set game against Bancroft-Rosalie.

The team took the set 25-20, but lost 13-25 and 17-25 to pick up its second loss of the season.

Jensen also had 5 kills for Wakefield.

The Trojans regrouped and won its remaining division games on Saturday.

In the first contest, Jensen and Greve again combined to nail six kills each to down Scribner-Snyder 25-7 and 26-24.

Greve also contributed 11 digs, while Amanda Nelson was in on 14 set assists.

Allen fell to Wakefield in the second game, 25-20 and 25-19 as Jensen again was the team's kill leader with eight. Nelson chipped in with 16 set assists, while Greve was credited with 10 digs.

Wakefield disposed of Oakland-Craig in the divisional championship game 25-15 and 25-19.

The Trojans were paced by seven kills from Jensen and Nelson's 14 assists. Nelson also led the squad with 10 digs.

Allen was one of two Wayne area teams that also played in the tourney and moved to 1-4 on the season.

The Eagles faced North Bend Central in the opening game and played tough volleyball in the opening sets of the contest but dropped the game 25-27, 27-25 and 12-25 in matches on Thursday at Pender.

"The game went very well and we are so proud of the way the girls played," Allen coach Denise Hingst said.

Vanis records her 200th career win

This week's trip to New York will likely be a memorable one for Wayne State College volleyball coach Sharon Vanis.

Vanis notched her 200th career victory Saturday as WSC picked up two wins at the Long Island/C.W. Post Tournament in Brookville, NY.

The Wildcats (5-2) downed Queens (NY) College in four sets, (30-28, 20-28, 23-30 and 30-20) and downed Concordia College (NY) in a three-set sweep, 30-24, 30-9 and 30-19.

The Queens victory was especially sweet for the team as it finished 28-5 last year and appeared in the NCAA Division II Elite Eight tournament.

"It was a total team effort," Vanis said regarding the tourney wins. "We came out here to win three matches and we played well. The win over Queens was a huge, emotional victory. Our defense was excellent and it allowed us to do a lot of things."

In Friday's opening match, the squad posted a five-set win against New York Institute of Technology, 37-39, 30-18, 30-27, 25-30 and 15-8.

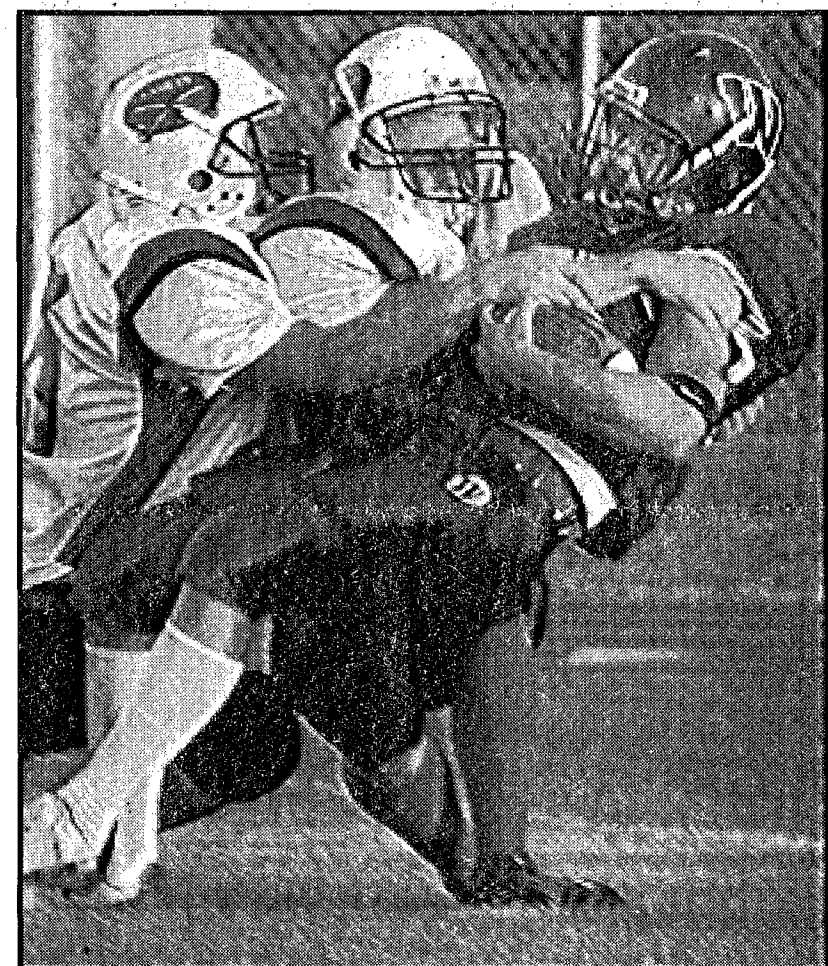

In the Queens matchup, junior Jacey Kuck Schwarz led Wayne State with 21 kills and 14 digs to lead the team in both categories.

Chelse Schultz was credited with 17 kills and 10 digs and freshman Laura Dolezal finished with 13 digs. Julie Jacobsen of Winside contributed 53 set assists and had four service aces.

Schultz slammed 10 kills in the Concordia game, while Michelle Eckhardt followed with eight. Dolezal paced the Wildcat defense with her 10 digs, while Jacobsen finished with 31 set assists and three service aces.

Against NYI on Friday, Schultz led the teams in hitting with 17 kills to go with her 14 digs. Laurel's Lani Recob finished with 16 kills and Kuck Schwarz had 13 kills. Dolezal led the squad with 26 digs and freshman Ashley Vogt had 15. Jacobsen handed out 56 set assists and accounted for 12 digs in the tourney's opening game.

Wayne State was scheduled to play its first home contest against Upper Iowa University on Wednesday, Sept. 8.

Todd Poehlman stretches for the goal line as two West Point defenders reach for the tackle in Wayne High 33-7 win against the Cadets.

Blue Devils win season opener

Wayne High second-year coach Kevin Finkey likes to think of the 2004 season as a work-in-progress.

With a solid defeat of one of Wayne's usually toughest rivals, it became quickly apparent that construction is well at hand.

"We were elated to win something at home," said Finkey, whose team won only a single game last season. "We needed this game, but we have a long way to go."

Distance can be a relative thing.

It only took senior Dana Schuett a few seconds to open up the Wayne scoring attack with a 40-yard run a few minutes into the opening quarter.

Schuett added his second of three TDs in the next period on a two-yard rush to the endzone.

His second score was preceded by a 19-yard jaunt to the goal line after an interception by Tyler Johnson.

A two-point conversion pass to Dan Heithold from Nate Finkey capped Wayne's first half scoring output.

West Point managed to get on the board in the second period on a 20-yard pass play from Matt Lueshen to Jared Lierman, but that would be almost all of the offense that the Cadets could muster against a solid Wayne defensive unit.

The Blue Devils kept the West Point offense in check with only 26 yards of rushing and 134 yards through the air.

The West Point defense shored up after intermission and Wayne could only reach the end zone once in the third quarter when Ranson Broders completed a 29-yard pass from Finkey.

Schuett added his third touchdown of the season in the fourth quarter from two yards out and was able to add to those points with his completed point-after attempt.

Schuett finished the game with 6.6 yards average per carry and had 16 carries for 105 yards. Finkey rushed for 66 yards on seven carries. Todd Poehlman raked up 54 yards in the win.

Wayne finished the night with 42 rushes for 255 yards.

Finkey was 9-of-17 passing for 122 yards and threw one interception.

West Point complete 11-of-28 passing against the Wayne defense.

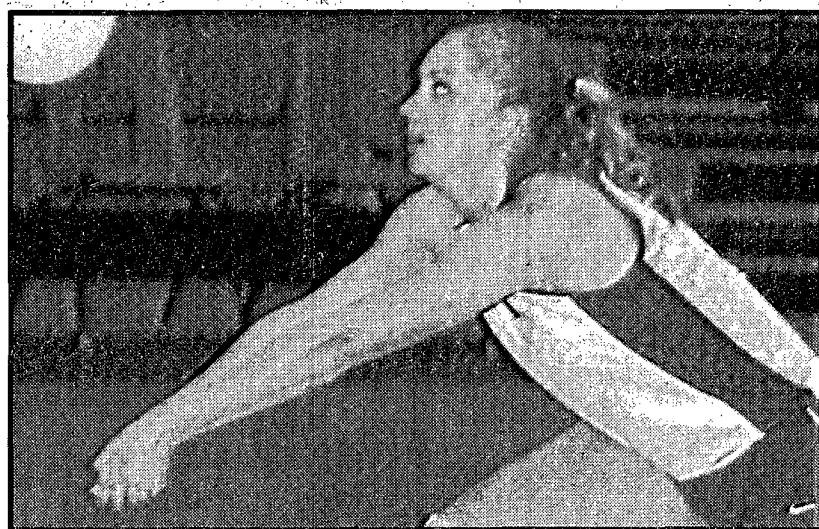

"I want to compliment the defense," coach Finkey said. "West Point was forced to throw the ball and we were able to have better tackles than we had in the past. There were so many good things we saw from the defense."

Leading the defensive squad were Tyler Johnson and Josh Ruwe who each had five solo stops. David Gangwish led with six assists.

The Blue Devils will play a second home game this Friday in a game against North Bend Central with a 7 p.m. kickoff at Cunningham Field at Wayne State College.

Katie Jensen of Wakefield gets some encouragement from a teammate following the Trojan's loss to West Point Central Catholic in the first round of the Northeast Nebraska Volleyball Classic in Bancroft on Thursday.

Wildcats drop road contest to UN-K

It was a close one until last quarter, but a pair of quick touchdowns prevented Wayne State from beating its in-state rivals.

The Nebraska-Kearney football team downed the Wildcats Saturday afternoon in a road game at Foster Field in Kearney 33-7.

The loss knocked WSC to 0-2 on the season.

The contest was within striking distance for WSC heading into the final stanza but the Lopers recovered for a touchback, and then drove down the field 80 yards on six plays to take a 26-7 lead following a 44-yard pass from UNK's Eric Perry to Richie Ross.

Kearney added another score with 4:53 left in the game when Steve Bremmer found the end zone on an eight-yard run to make the final score 33-7.

"We've played very hard for two football games now, and I don't think the scores in either game were indicative of how the game was played, but that's not what the alums see and that's not what the fans see," Wayne State coach Scott Hoffman said following the game. "Until our kids can step up and make some plays and start being their own best supporters instead of their own worst enemies, then we're going to struggle."

Wayne State played inspired defense to open the game as UNK's scoring was limited to when Jessup Pfeifer connected on a 35-yard field goal with 11:56 left in the first quarter for the quarter's only score to give the Lopers a 3-0 lead.

UNK added two scores in the second quarter to take a 16-0 lead as Ross caught a 14-yard scoring strike from Casey Samuelson early in the period and the second coming off a Samuelson one-yard run with 4:40 left in the first half.

Wayne State answered the score in the final 30 seconds of the half as Zach Molacek scored on a six-yard pass from Brett Edwards with just 23 seconds left in the half to make the halftime score 16-7.

Hoffman called Stanton-native Molacek his "go-to guy" in the game and even ran the junior in the fullback position in several of the Wildcat's offensive sets.

Molacek was the team's top rusher with 55 yards on 11 carries and was credited with five receptions for 50 more yards.

The Wayne State defense again rose to the occasion after halftime as the Lopers only score in the third quarter came on the final play as Pfeifer made a 40-yard field goal to put UNK up 19-7.

Hoffman said Wayne State's turning point happened in the fourth quarter as Wayne State was driving down the field when receiver Josh Hopwood fumbled the ball after a catch inside the UNK five-yard line.

The Lopers took advantage of the Wildcat miscues and added two more scores to stretch out the lead and move to 1-1 on the season.

UNK held a 383-243 advantage in total yards over Wayne State despite both teams recording 16 first downs. Wayne State's offense, however, had a seven-minute advantage in time of possession.

Wildcat quarterback Brett Edwards completed 13 of 32 passes for 159 yards with one touchdown and one interception. Hopwood added four receptions for 44 yards, while Jake Robinson caught three catches for 50 yards.

Defensively, Wildcat junior linebacker Aaron Rodgers recorded 10 tackles, while teammates Adam Peterson and Gerald Witherell had nine tackles apiece.

Wayne State will host Peru State on Saturday, Sept. 11, with kickoff set for 6 pm at Cunningham Field in a pivotal game for the Wildcats.

"In my opinion, it's a crossroads week for us. It's a must-win victory," Hoffman said. "We have got to step up and make some plays and we've got to get this thing rolling in our direction and come away with some wins instead of some disappointing losses."

Wayne State cross country teams show signs of good things to come

Crabtree, McCoy lead WSC finishers at USD meet

Wayne State's cross country teams opened the 2004 season at the University of South Dakota Invitational in Vermillion, S.D. last Saturday.

Ben Crabtree was the top finisher for the Wayne State men runners when he finished in 10th place with a time of 27:40 on the 8,000-meter course.

Freshman Matt Schneider of Nebraska City was 18th in 28:54, while Jeremiah Herron, a sophomore from McCook, placed 24th at 29:57.

Also competing for the Wildcats were: Sean Keisling (31st, 32:36), Troy Schaaf (33rd, 33:30) and Nate McIntire (34th, 35:52).

Wayne State coach Marlon Brink said Crabtree's finish shows positive signs for the season ahead.

"Ben had a very good race, just 13 seconds off of his best 8K time from last year," he said.

A trio of Wayne State runners competed unattached. Casey Ide, a redshirt freshman from Red Wing, Minn., placed eighth at 27:39, Nathaniel Bergen was 29th in 31:41 and Stephan Lamas took 33rd in 32:48.

Ashley Smith runs toward her 13th place finish in last weekend's opening meet for the WSC cross country teams.

"Casey is redshirting this year, but showed with his eighth place finish that he has outstanding talent," Brink said.

Nicole McCoy led the Wayne State women's team finishers as she placed 10th on the 5,000-meter course at 20:43. Ashley Smith finished 13th with a time of 21:35 and Angie Kraus placed 16th at 23:25.

Other Wayne State finishers included Haley Reeves (17th-23:25), Valerie Corkle (18th-23:49) and Lisa Froistad (19th-23:53).

"Nicole and Ashley both had good races for the women's team," Brink said. "Nicole was just 11 seconds off of her best time from last year, so she is picking up right where she left off. Ashley's time was 11 seconds better than her first meet from last year, which is a good sign."

Brink said the meet was a good way to start the 2004 season.

"The warm, windy weather slowed the times a bit and I know as the season progresses we will start to see some significant improvements in our times," he said.

No team scoring was recorded at the USD meet.

The next meet for the Wayne State runners will be Saturday, Sept. 18 when the Wildcats compete at the University of Nebraska-Lincoln/Woody Greeno Invite in Lincoln.

Sam Singleton selected for recognition

Sam Singleton, the first Wayne State College football player to rush for 1,000 yards, will be inducted into the Nebraska Football Hall of Fame on Friday, Sept. 10.

Singleton, a 5-foot-11, 195-pound I-back, rushed for 1,111 yards in 1970 during his senior season.

He helped Wayne State earn a berth in the Mineral Water Bowl, which is the Wildcats' only post-season appearance. He returned a punt 85 yards for a touchdown in that bowl.

The Elizabeth City, N.J., native earned four letters with Wayne State and finished his career with 3,024 yards, ranking him third on the school's all-time rushing list.

He was inducted into WSC's Hall of Fame in 1985.

"I was totally surprised by the call. I didn't know it existed," Singleton said of the award. "I think it's a great honor. It's big time when you look at all of the great players from Nebraska who are in the Hall of Fame, and I'm very honored to be a part of it."

Singleton is one of 15 former football greats to be inducted into the Hall of Fame. He currently is a high school football and track coach at Oakland Mills High School in Columbia, Md.

Men's golf league semifinals are set

The quarterfinal playoffs were featured last Wednesday in men's league play at the Wayne Country Club.

Final results saw Team 23 (Ben Martin, Lowell Heggemeyer and Pat Melena) defeat Team 41 (Randy Simonsen, Bob Jordan and Bill Kenny) 5.5-5 and Team 8 (Brad Hansen Gene Casey and Bob Foxhoven) downing Team 40 (Randy Gamble, Dan Bowers and Mike Bebee) 5-1 in the top half of the playoff bracket.

The bottom of the bracket saw

Team 28 (Dave Diediker, Dick Hitchcock and Bob Kenny) handle Team 43 (Jason Miller, Terry Lutt and Denny Lutt) 4-2, while Team 5 (Ken Dahl, Rusty Parker and Dennis Linster) disposed of Team 21 (Marion Arneson, Garry Poutre and Curt Jeffries) 4-2.

Low scores among the "A" league players were: Ken Dahl, (36) Brad Hansen, (38) Ben Martin, (40) Randy Gamble (41) and Terry Lutt (41).

Rusty Parker's 42 paced the "B" group, while other top scores were golfed by Lowell Heggemeyer and Phil Greiss, who both carded a 44 and Dick Hitchcock with 45.

Bob Kenney finished atop the "C" players with a 49, with four other golfers, Pat Melena, Bill Kenney, Bob Foxhoven and Denny Lutt each finishing with a 50.

Semifinal pairings were set to be played on Wednesday evening, with Team 23 taking on Team 8 and Team 28 facing Team 5.

Championship finals are planned for Wednesday, Sept. 15.

WHS golf takes second Classic

Wayne High lost a girls golf dual with Norfolk 181-221 at the Norfolk Country Club last Thursday.

Jenny Nolte carded a 53 to lead Wayne's golfers, while Rachael Mooberry of Norfolk High School took top individual honors with a 39.

Other individual scores for the Blue Devils were: Amy Hypse 58, Keely Reinert 56, Kourtney Schmale 55 and Sheree Kathol 58.

Elizabeth Bear finished with a 77 for the Wayne JV squad.

Next action for the team will be Saturday, Sept. 11, at the Pierce Invitational at the Pierce Country Club.

Classic

Alyssa Uldrich finished the game with 5 kills and 16 blocks and Samantha Bock recorded 22 set assists for the Eagles. Codi Hancock contributed 11 digs.

Allen also lost its second game on Thursday against Pender 20-25 and 18-25 and felt one of the drawbacks of rally scoring.

"We had a tough start, and in rally scoring, there's no room to get behind," Hingst said. "We passed well and came back late in the second set, but the tough game against North Bend took a lot of our energy."

Bock finished the game with 19 set assists, while Erin Keitges and Lindsay Swetnam both had eight digs.

On Saturday, Allen started slow against Oakland-Craig, but were able to get a few offensive attacks rolling in the second set to hang on for its first win of the season.

The Eagles finished the win, 5-25, 25-19 and 25-23.

Keitges led the team with six kills and seven digs.

The Eagles lost its next game with Wakefield in the bronze division, 20-25 and 19-25 and dropped its last contest with Scribner-Snyder 16-25 and 24-26.

Allen's individual statistics for the final two games were not available.

Fink leads Wayne High in first meet

Wayne senior Brian Fink emerged at the front of the pack in the season opening invite for the Blue Devils cross country team.

Fink clocked 18:06.10 to edge Norfolk Catholic's Britton Deuel (18:49.60) to take first place individual honors in the Class B and C division of the Wisner-Pilger Invite at Indian Hills Country Club near Beemer on Thursday.

Wayne coach Rocky Ruhl said despite less than ideal conditions, the runners were able to adapt and make the best of it.

"I told the teams on Wednesday that if the temperature was over 90-degrees, we wouldn't run," he said. "It was 87-degrees with 25 to 35 mph winds to go with it for the first two races. We ran and did a great job."

Fink's finish, combined with other top finishes by Joe Mrsny (19:39.00) in seventh place, and an eighth-place finish by Josh Rasmussen with 19:46.50 helped the Blue Devils take second in team standings with 28 points. Norfolk Catholic finished first with a 15.

Other Wayne boys team finishers were: 12th place-Derek Carroll, 20:07.50; 14th place-Max Stenitz, 20:34.60 and 19th place-Justin Modrell, 21:13.70.

Two Wayne High girls finished among the top 15 runners in the division including a ninth-place run by Jordyn Doescher with 18:43.70, and Regan Ruhl in tenth with 19:39.60. Pariss Bethune finished at 18 with 23:24.30

The girls' group didn't have a complete roster, so no team score was posted.

Wayne's JV squad took third with 50 team points, behind Norfolk Catholic's 13 and South Sioux City's 30 points.

Three runners — Reggie Ruhl, (11th place, 21:30.30), Taylor Nelson (12th place, 21:55.50) and Bill Smith (13th place, 22:02.20) — finished among the Top 15 medalists.

Other Wayne runners in the JV division were: Max Wyrick, 22:48.70; Eric Carstens, 23:46.2; Adam Munter, 25:45.1 and Shaun Kardell 26:22.1.

The teams participated in a home dual with South Sioux City on Tuesday and the boys won the meet 13-25.

It was the first time a dual was conducted on a new course at the Wayne Country Club, Ruhl said.

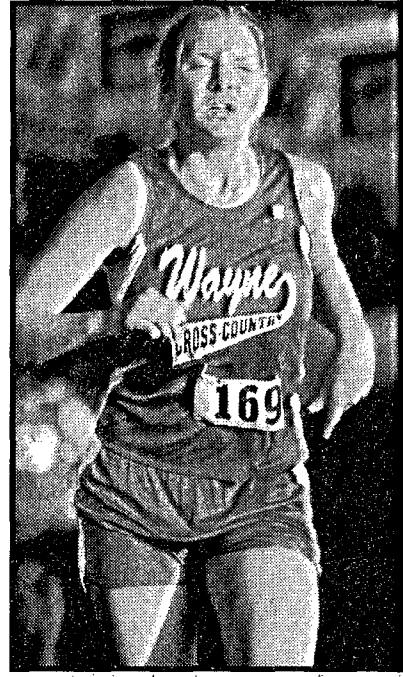

Fink took first overall with 18:20, while Mrsny placed second with 19:20.

Other Wayne times and finishes were: Rasmussen, 20:01; Carroll 20:20; Modrell, 20:36; Ruhl, 21:52; Nelson, 22:14; Wyrick, 24:54; Munter 26:25 and Kardell 28:18.

In the girls division, Doescher took second (18:43) and Ruhl finished third (19:53). Bethune was sixth with 22:42, followed by Keggemeyer with 23:21

The runners will compete at the Norfolk Catholic Invite on Friday and will travel to the Lincoln Pius X Invite in Lincoln on Saturday.

Junior Pariss Bethune looks into the sun during her run at last week's Wisner-Pilger Invite at Indian Hills Country Club near Beemer.

Winside defeats Wynot in close contest, top-ranked Howells next on schedule

Winside scored a pair of second quarter touchdowns on a Mark Hawkins fumble recovery in the end zone and a one-yard plunge by senior running back Bo Brummels to win a battle of defenses at Wynot Friday night.

A stalwart defense that stopped the Blue Devils from scoring on three separate occasions on first and goal gave the Wildcats a 12-6 victory over the host team.

Taylor Suehl carried the ball to the one-yard line on a 14 yard gain before fumbling into the end zone leading to Hawkins recovery and scoring the Wildcats first touchdown with 8:45 left to play in the second quarter. The point after attempt failed.

Forcing the host Blue Devils to punt after gaining seven yards on the ensuing possession, the Wildcats were forced to punt resulting in a Blue Devil fumble recovered by Justin Tullberg at the five-yard line. Brummels' one yard dive added enough points to the scoreboard to assure a Winside win.

A game that highlighted tenacious defenses by both teams saw Winside limiting the host team to 45 yards rushing on 24 carries and only allowing 89 yards passing on nine completions in 23 attempts. The lone Wynot score on the evening came in the fourth quarter after a shanked punt gave the host team the ball on the Wildcat 20 yard line.

Cody Lange's five solo tackles and six assists led the Wildcat defensive efforts with Dewey Bowers contributing 10 tackles to the Wildcat defensive effort. Jarad Thies contributed seven defensive stops with Hawkins and Kass Holdorf being in on five tackles each.

The Wildcat offensive running game struggled while accounting for 58 of the team's 187 yards of offense. Brummels led the Winside running attack with 41 yards on 19 carries.

Taylor Suehl passed for 129 yards completing 8-of-17 attempts. Hawkins with 51 yards and Thies with 48 yards had three receptions each while Brummels had a pair of receptions good for 30 yards.

The Wildcats face the difficult task of hosting Howells, the top-rated team in Class D-1 Friday night. The Bobcats have won the last four D-1 championship games and will bring a 39 game winning streak to Winside.

Allen Eagles hold on for opener win

The Allen Eagles football team opened the season with a 28-20 win against Lynch in its home opener last Friday.

"We played very well the first half, limiting them to one first down and we executed very well for having only one starter back from last year," Allen coach Dave Ulrich said. "Lynch never gave up and gave us trouble in the second half when we lost field possession time and time again with penalties. We will have to clean that area up or we will have real trouble on our hands at Wynot this week."

Allen fumbled on its first play of the season at its own five-yard line and Lynch converted the fumble into six points just three plays later for a 6-0 lead.

The lead was short-lived as Allen answered on the next offensive play as Luke Sachau bolted 62 yards for a touchdown. A conversion point by Toby Gowar gave the Eagles a 7-6 lead.

After holding Lynch on the next two possessions, Allen mounted a 60-yard drive that was capped off by a 21-yard TD strike from Brett Koester to Derick Nice. Another Gowar kick gave the Eagles a 14-6 advantage.

The Allen defense continued to be stingy in the second period and forced four consecutive three-and-outs for Lynch.

A five play drive highlighted with another Koester-Nice connection of 52 yards and a Gowar kick gave the Eagles a 21-6 lead at intermission.

The Allen return team ran back the second half kickoff to mid-field but a penalty moved the advance to deep in Allen territory. After holding Allen's offense, Lynch hit a third down pass off a tip by an Allen defender to score from 67 yards out to narrow the score to 21-12.

The Eagles went to work and put together a 55-yard drive that ended on a 15-yard touchdown run by Luke Sachau. Gowar's kick gave Allen a 28-12 lead.

Lynch gained new life on a third and 11 possession deep inside its own territory with a pair of face-mask calls against Allen that advanced the ball to midfield. Lynch's Matt Hadenfeldt connected with Nate Studey on a fourth-and-long play to close the score by a ten-point margin.

Allen had an impressive return on the subsequent kickoff, but another penalty squelched the effort.

Lynch turned up its offensive jets, but the Allen defensive unit was able to turn away the surge four times in the fourth quarter. Lynch did add a safety to make the score 28-20, but Allen choked out a Lynch attempt to score by ending a long drive that stopped at Allen's three-yard line.

Leading the Eagles offensively were Sachau with 142 yards on 18 carries and a pair of TDs. Koester was 6-of-10 passing, with two TDs and no interceptions. Nice had three passes for 73 yards and two touchdowns.

Defensively, Andrew Gensler led the way with 15 tackles, with John Malcom and Sachau added 13 and 12 stops, respectively.

The Eagles travel to Wynot on Friday.

Bears fall short in late rally

Better late than never, especially what appears on the scoreboard at the end of the game.

Laurel-Concord remained scoreless and down by 28 into the fourth quarter when it hosted Wisner-Pilger in its home opener last Friday.

The Bear offense managed to make things happen and put 20 points on the board in the final stanza to leave the field with a 35-20 loss.

"The kids showed a lot of heart," first-year coach Terry Bear said. "They never gave up and played to the end."

Bear said the combined determination of the team made the difference in the final quarter, especially in the final second of the game when a Heath Erwin pass was tipped and deflected into Jarrod Henderson's hands for the game's final TD.

The Bears travel to Randolph for Friday's game.

Laurel-Concord downs Randolph in five sets

Laurel-Concord got its first opportunity to explore the world of rally scoring in its 2004 volleyball season opener against Randolph last Thursday.

The Bears disposed of the Cardinals in five sets, 25-20, 25-20, 20-25, 22-25 and 16-14.

After taking wins in the first two matches, Laurel slipped in the third to moved the contest to five sets.

"The match featured scoring streaks by both teams as they put their opponent in pressure situations," Laurel-Concord coach Patty Cunningham said.

She said several athletes contributed to the win as the team experienced this season's new implementation of rally scoring to its fullest.

Angie Peters, 25 kills, combined with Makayla Hansen's 42 set assists led the team's effort. Brittany Thompson added four aces serves in the Bears victory.

Defensively, Amy Rath led the way with seven digs, while Peters, nine blocks thwarted the Randolph offensive charge.

Cunningham complimented the team's composure as it headed into pressure situations later in the match.

"The team showed character at the end of the final set as we got down 11-14," she said. "They then played error-free, holding off Randolph to win the match 16-14."

Laurel also won the JV match earlier in the evening 25-18, 25-10 and took the C-team game against the Cardinals 15-8, 15-11.

Next action for the Bears this week will be at the Wakefield Tournament on Thursday and Saturday.

WHS softball team rolls on with wins

Top-ranked Wayne continues to steamroll through the girls softball season, including a sweep at last weekend's Boone Central Tournament.

On Saturday, the team opened tourney play with a 13-0 thrashing of Cross County that saw the Blue Devils rack up 13 hits.

Molly Hill pitched a no-hitter and struck out 11 batters in the four-inning contest.

Ashley Carroll had a home run and a double to lead Wayne's scoring onslaught, while Jenny Raveling (1 RBI) and Dawn Jensen (2 RBIs) also were credited with doubles.

Carroll, Jean Pieper and Sara Frerichs each scored two runs for Wayne.

Wayne downed High Plains 5-0 in the second game as Pieper and Raveling both scored doubles.

Hill finished with 18 strikeouts and no hits.

Wayne took the tourney championship with a 4-0 win against host Boone Central.

Hill allowed her first hit since early in the season, but still had 19 strikeouts in her seven-innings on the mound.

Raveling, Hill, Ashley Carroll, Danica Carroll and Brook Anderson all recorded singles for Wayne.

"We had chances to break the game wide open, but couldn't come up with the big hit and left nine on base and loaded the bases twice," coach Rob Sweetland said.

The team improved to 9-0 with a 3-1 road win against Columbus Lakeview on Tuesday.

Kayla Hochstein hit a two-run single in the sixth inning to break a 1-1 tie, Jean Pieper had a run and a pair of singles in the win. Hill recorded 12 strikeouts from the mound.

Wayne returns home this Thursday and will host Tekamah-Herman at 5 p.m.

WSC soccer still in hunt for season's first victory

The Wayne State College women's soccer team fell to the University of South Dakota 3-2 in double overtime last Thursday.

Tanya Mitchell scored first for the Wildcats with her goal just two minutes into the match.

After trailing by two points later in the game, Michaela Blaylock tied the score at 2-all in the 67th minute of the contest.

Wayne State was out shot 25-3 in the game and the Coyotes maintained an 11-0 advantage for corner kicks.

Wildcat freshmen goalkeeper Marie Houdek was credited with nine saves for Wayne State.

Wayne State's women's soccer team still remains in the hunt for its first win of the season this week.

Augustana College downed the Wildcats 3-1 on Sunday afternoon in Sioux Falls, S.D. The loss dropped Wayne State to 0-4.

Erin Seidel opened Augustana's scoring with an unassisted goal early in the match that put the Vikings up 1-0.

Wayne State answered back when Tanya Mitchell scored her second goal of the season at the 10:50 mark, thanks to an assist from Melissa Benson.

Seidel added another goal at the 25:40 mark of the first half to give Augustana a 2-1 advantage at the half. Chelsey Shockman added one more goal for the Vikings in the 69th minute of the second half to wrap up the contest.

WSC goalkeeper Mishaline LeRoy recorded five saves in the loss that saw the Vikings outshoot Wayne State 18-7.

The Wildcats return home Sunday, Sept. 12, for the match against Midland Lutheran at 1 p.m.

Wayne High downs Schuyler

It took five sets, but Wayne got the win (25-15, 22-25, 25-20, 23-25, 15-9) in volleyball action against Schuyler on Tuesday.

Sarah Jensen's blistering 17 kills, combined with 49 set assists by Micaela Weber proved to be too much for Schuyler. Rachel Jensen added 13 kills in the Blue Devil win.

Wayne lost the "B" team match 22-25, 12-25 and lost the "C" contest, 18-25, 9-25.

Wayne now plays at Wakefield on Thursday and Saturday.

Winside earns first win in straight-set victory

The Winside volleyball team opened the new season with a trio of two set losses at the Battle Creek Quadrangular last Thursday.

The Wildcats lost to Battle Creek 25-5 and 25-16 before losing to Elkhorn Valley 25-8 and 25-11. The locals then dropped a two set game to Hartington Cedar Catholic by scores of 25-9 and 25-7.

The games against the host Bravettes saw senior Lindsay Harmer score on a pair of kills while Jessica Hansen recorded 13 set assists. Harmer contributed eight digs to the losing effort.

Jaimie Sellin recorded a team high five kills against Elkhorn Valley with Hansen gaining 14 set assists and Josie Longnecker credited with four set assists. Hansen had a team high seven digs.

Felicia Reed and Ashley Frevert along with Sellin had single kills in the Hartington CC game. Longnecker with 11 set assists and Hansen with eight set assists led the Wildcat offensive efforts.

Harmer with 13 digs on the evening and Reed with 10 digs led the locals defensive effort in the opening quad action.

Winside picked up its first win of the season Tuesday night in a triangular at Walthill.

The Wildcats (1-4) downed Walthill in straight sets 25-10, 25-23, but lost the second game to Bancroft-Rosalie 12-25, 12-25.

The team will be in action on Thursday and Saturday at the Wakefield Tournament.

The summer months see an increase in traffic activity with vacation road trips and weekend trips to the lake. While cruising the open road is one of summer's great pleasures, that pleasure can turn tragic.

SUMMER DRIVING SAFETY TIPS:

1. Wear safety belts. Safety belts reduce the risk of fatalities to front seat passengers by 45%.
2. Keep children safe. The back seat is the safest place for children to ride, and all children must be restrained with the correct safety equipment.
3. Summer means road construction. Be alert to road conditions and the added activity of workers and machines.
4. Increased activity in the summer, combine with later daylight hours, often means that we're cheating ourselves on sleep. If driving long distances, plan frequent breaks & share the driving.

WSC football players earn honors

WAYNE — Wayne State College punter Josh Armon was named the Nebraska NCAA Division II Special Teams Player of the Week following his performance in Saturday's 33-7 loss at Nebraska-Kearney.

Wayne State College linebacker Aaron Rodgers was named the Co-Defensive Player of the Week in the Northern Sun Conference on Monday. Rodgers, a 5-11, 220-pound junior from Aurora, Colo., had 10 tackles in the UNK game. He was credited with two solo stops and eight assisted tackles. Two of his tackles were for losses totaling two yards.

Dolezal named player of the week

WAYNE — Wayne State's volleyball team member Laura Dolezal was named the Northern Sun Conference Defensive Player of the Week for her play last week. The 5-8 freshman from Columbus Scotus helped lead the Wildcats to a 3-0 record at the Long Island/C.W. Post Tournament in New York by recording 49 digs (4.08 per game) in three matches. She notched 26 digs in a five-set win over New York Tech, contributed 13 more digs in a four-set win over Queens (NY) and had 10 digs in a three-set victory against Concordia (NY).

College golf team plans fundraiser

WAYNE — The Wayne State golf team has planned a three-person scramble golf tournament as a fundraiser at the Wayne County Club on Sunday, Sept. 26. A 10 a.m. shotgun start is planned in the event that will be flighted by team total, based on handicap. Mulligans will be available on the day of tournament. The entry fee is $35 per golfer. For information, contact Troy Harder, Wayne Country Club pro at 375-1152.

Wayne State golfers begin fall tourneys

Wayne State placed seventh in its first meet of the new men's golf season.

The Wildcats finished seventh in the team standings at the Dordt College Invite held Saturday in Sioux Center, Iowa.

WSC racked up a team score of 328 compared to Buena Vista's first-place finish of 312.

Wayne senior Mike Varley led the Wildcat individual golfers with an 81.

Other scores included Kyle Lindstrom and Colin Wilson, who both finished with an 82, Jason Love with an 83 and Derek Bartos, who carded an 86.

The first meet of the 2004 Wayne State women's golf season saw the Wildcats finish in 12th place at the Buena Vista Beaver Classic at Lake Creek Country Club in Storm Lake, Iowa last Saturday.

WSC finished with an overall team score of 392, while host Buena Vista won the 15-team tournament with a 325.

Monica Novak, a junior from Wayne, paced the Wildcats with a 92 to finish in a tie for 32nd overall.

Other Wayne State scorers included Johnna Olson with a 93, Kerj Barelis at 103 and Jess Jensen with a 104.

Wakefield wins thriller at WPCC to start new season

Wakefield scored 12 unanswered points in the final quarter, including a touchdown with 28 seconds left in the game to claim a 18-17 road win against West Point Central Catholic last Friday.

Cory Nicholson's six-yard run in the closing minute of the game came off an option pitch off the corner to seal the win.

"He had some very good blocking and just got his feet in the end-zone," Trojan coach Justin Smith said.

Earlier in the quarter, Cory Gustafson caught a 16-yard pass from Aaron Klein to bring Wakefield within five points of Central Catholic as the Crusaders held a 17-6 advantage over the Trojans through three quarters.

Klein scored Wakefield's only other points with a one-yard run in the second quarter. He finished 7-of-9 passing for 65 yards.

Nicholson finished with 21 carries for 131 yards, while Yancy Sherer had three catches for 32 yards for the Trojans.

Defensively, Wakefield was paced by Danny Rhoads with 15 tackles.

Wakefield plays Pender at home this Friday.

Help Clinic available for the community

The Help Clinic invites anyone with difficult personal issues to call and arrange an appointment with a counselor.

The counseling services are made available to all members of the community at no cost by Wayne State College.

Appointments may be scheduled in Wayne and in Norfolk. The counselors understand the stress involved in dealing with problems such as grief, worry, family and relationship conflicts, emotional pain, and alcohol and drug abuse. Talking to a professional about these issues can provide support, guidance, and may help to find new solutions.

The Help Clinic would be happy to answer any questions you have about the counseling. Call (402) 375-7210 to inquire. If you reach the answering machine, leave your name and phone number and your call will be returned.

The counselors are supervised by Dr. Keith Willis, the Chair of the Counseling & Special Education Department at Wayne State College, and Dr. Debi Bonds, Interim Instructor of the Counseling and Special Education Department at Wayne State College.

This term's counselors include: Karen Lechtenberg has her undergraduate degree in elementary education from the University of Nebraska at Lincoln. She is working towards completion of her Master's Degree in School Counseling at Wayne State College. She is currently employed as the guidance counselor at Pope John XXIII Central Catholic in Elgin.

Kristen Krupicka has completed coursework in the Nursing Program at NECC. A growing interest in her clients brought her to Wayne State College where she completed her bachelor's degree in Human Service Counseling with a minor in Psychology. She is now pursuing a Master's Degree in Counseling at WSC. She has two years of experience in family support work. She is also pursuing licensing as an alcohol/drug counselor and an Adlerian Family and Marriage Therapy certification.

Traci Taylor graduated from Wayne State College in 2000. She worked for three years as a youth service worker at Sunrise Place, a chemical dependency group home for adolescent males. She currently works as an Integrated Care

University of Nebraska-Kearney Deans' list students announced

Emily Brady, John Jensen, Amanda Maryott and Heather Stauffer, all of Wayne, Ross Gardner and Toan Nguyen of Wakefield and Shannon Bowers of Winside were among the students who earned a place on the Deans' List at the University of Nebraska at Kearney for the spring semester.

To earn a place on the Deans' List, UNK students must complete 12 hours or more (for which quality points—4.0 for an "A," 3.0 for a "B" and 2.0 for a "C"—are awarded) with a grade point average of 3.5 or better on a 4.0 scale. Courses taken on a credit/no credit basis do not earn quality points.

In recognition of their academic achievements, Deans' List students will receive a certificate from their respective deans.

Coordinator at the Norfolk ICCU. She is also pursuing her MSE in Counseling at Wayne State College.

Tami Diediker received her Bachelor of Arts in Education from Wayne State College in 1987. She has been an elementary school teacher for 17 years. She is currently working for Good Life Counseling and Support in Norfolk. She will graduate with her Master's degree in Community Counseling in May of 2005.

Stephanie Bourek graduated from Wayne State College in 1996 with a bachelor's degree in music education. She is currently an elementary music teacher with Columbus Public Schools and is working on her Master's degree in K-12 School Counseling.

Jill Holcomb graduated from Wayne State College with a bachelor's degree in special education. With nine years of teaching experience, she is currently teaching at Norfolk High School in the LIFE program, which addresses the needs of high school students with disabilities. Enrolled in the M.S.E. program at Wayne State College, she plans to complete her internship in 7-12 grade guidance counseling in the spring of 2006.

Jen Kroc attended Wayne State College, graduating in 1998 with a psychology major and a double minor in sociology and Spanish. She is continuing her education as a student in the Master's program with an emphasis on community counseling. Jen has worked for almost four years in day-rehabilitation programs at the Liberty Centre in Norfolk.

Val Uken, a graduate of Morningside College in Sioux City, Iowa, majored in Criminal Justice and education. She is currently working for the Iowa Department of Defense as an airport firefighter. She expects to complete her M.S.E. program in the spring of 2006.

Start of school year time to set goals

By now, students and their families are back into the routine that comes with the new school year. And with the start of a new year, many goals are set for successfully completing the year.

Schools typically do a great job of listing tips for success in school. I hope parents and youth are both reading and reviewing those suggestions which are found in their school newsletters. Suggestions usually include the following:

1) Get plenty of rest. Recent research again reinforces the need for seven to eight hours of sleep, even for teens and children who appear to have endless energy.

2) Eat a variety of foods from the food pyramid and be sure to eat breakfast. Breakfast is important for optimum thinking and learning as well as important for a healthy digestive system.

3) Keep up with assignments and homework. If you do assigned reading and written work daily, you retain more than if you try to do it all the night or morning before a test.

4) When you are doing that daily work, do it at a place where there is plenty of space to work, good lighting and few distractions.

5) Take time to summarize and review the main points when you have completed the reading or written work. Try to identify what was supposed to be learned from the assignment.

Those are all important activities to help reach your goal for a successful year. I have another one to add that is not always included in the list.

Think about how the topic will be helpful in the future, whether as a family member, community member and citizen, or on the job. Most of us have our favorite subject matter areas and our less favorite ones. But everything we study in school is included in the curriculum for a reason and the reason usually involves being an effective and well rounded adult who is able to carry out the roles expected in our society.

If you are a teen, you can identify those connections yourself and ask for input from friends or adults when you can't make the connection. For younger children it is very helpful for parents, older siblings, grandparents or other family members to point out possible connections. For example, math is important! It is essential not only for engineers, accountants, astronauts but also veterinarians, construction workers, carpenters, nurses, videogame designers and even paper carriers!

For any given unit in math, you can make a connection to almost any career. We can all identify the importance of math in our daily lives as well. We need to balance our checkbooks, figure our taxes and make a budget. We need to measure carefully and precisely when preparing a recipe, doing home repairs and preparing fertilizer for the lawn. The same process can be applied to all units in all subjects. Students are more successful when they understand how concepts and skills will be used in their lives.

I encourage you to talk with students about what they are learning and relate ways it can be used in their lives and in various career areas. I hope parents, grandparents, aunts and uncles, siblings, and teens who babysit for elementary students will ask these questions to young people they see on a regular basis. Ask students what they are learning in school. Ask how they think they can use it in their lives now and as an adult, whether it be in their home or at their workplace. Ask them to think of careers where that knowledge or skill would be especially important. If they can't think of some, help them brainstorm.

If these questions are asked throughout the school year, I believe it can make a difference. The students will know why each subject is important and they will also know that you care about them. When youth have that understanding and care, they are successful students.

Mader-Poyzer married in Omaha ceremony

Jillian Kay Mader and Michael Dale Poyzer were married August 14, 2004, in a 4 p.m. double ring ceremony at Kingsway Christian Church, Omaha, Nebraska.

Craig Holsted officiated the ceremony.

Parents of the couple are Terry and Kay Mader of Wayne and Mark and Marcia Poyzer of Sheldon, Iowa.

Music for the ceremony was provided by the brass ensemble, A Touch of Brass. Eric Smith, soloist, sang "This is the Day."

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a white, strapless, satin gown with beaded accents at the bodice and hem. The column skirt was overlaid with organza and beaded chiffon which flowed into a sweep train. The dress was crowned with a satin trimmed chapel veil. The bride carried a bouquet of white and red roses.

Maid of Honor was Carol Stangeland of Edmond, Okla.

Bridesmaids were Rachel Soper of Oklahoma City, Okla.; Sarah Holsted of Kansas City, Mo.; and Greta Smith of Wayne, all friends of the bride.

The women wore black and white floral satin tea-length sundresses. The dresses featured an empire waist and a v-shaped hemline and were made by the mother of the bride. Each carried a bouquet of three red, long-stemmed roses.

The flower girl was Emma Henry, niece of the groom, of Omaha. She wore a white lace dress accented with a black chiffon sash and red roses.

Guests were registered by Sarah Bills, cousin of the bride, of Tupelo, Okla. and Lisa Heath of Edmond, Okla.

KJ Tosaya, of Wayne, friend of the groom, served as Best Man.

Groomsmen were Matthew Poyzer, Sioux City, Iowa; John Barnes, Norfolk and Andy Gear, Norfolk.

The ushers were Jim Henry,

Mr. and Mrs. Poyzer brother-in-law of the groom, of Omaha, and Jason Mader, brother of the bride, of Wayne.

The groom wore a black tuxedo with a white shirt, white tie, and white vest. The groomsmen and ushers wore black tuxedos with white shirts, black ties, red and black vests, and black and white shoes.

A reception and buffet dinner for the guests were held at the Park Plaza Regency Lodge, Omaha.

Serving at the cake table were Cindy Crabtree, aunt of the bride, of Lawrence, Kan. and Mindee Henry, sister of the groom, of Omaha.

Following a honeymoon trip to the Boundary Waters in Minnesota, the couple is at home in Omaha.

Surprise party honors Flavia Sherry's 90th

Flavia Sherry of Wayne was honored with a surprise family celebration on Aug. 8.

The event was in honor of her 90th birthday, which is Thursday, Sept. 9.

There were approximately 45 family members in attendance at the party, which was hosted by her children and planned by her son, George.

A DVD of highlights of Flavia's life was shown, consisting of still photos and music. This was put together by her son Mike. A memory album of the event, put together by members of her family, was also on display.

Flavia's family includes five children, Robert and Alice Sherry of Wayne, Donald and Carolyn Sherry of Laurel, Patricia Sherry of Wayne, George and Maryanne Sherry of Wayne and Michael and Sue Sherry of South St. Paul, Minn. She also has 20 grandchildren, 21 great-grandchildren, three great-great grandchildren and three step-grandchildren. Other guests at the event included Fr. James McCluskey of Laurel and Fr. Mark Tomasiewicz of Wayne.

Eighteen members of Our Savior Lutheran Church took part in a mission trip recently to Lake Wapogasset Lutheran Bible Camp which is tucked away on two Seagull Lake Islands near Grand Marais, Minn.

The group renovated a cabin located on the main land into office space.

This is the seventh year members of Our Savior have taken part in a Mission Trip, but the first wilderness trip.

The group paddled to and from the Island to work and then back for meals. They also took a canoe trip to the boundary waters and Three Mile Island.

Wapogasset is a camping and retreat ministry serving youth, adults and families throughout the year. Every year WCB serves over 1,200 campers from a diverse range of social, educational and economic backgrounds through their summer tripping and in-base work programs.

Bonnie Coffey appearance is rescheduled

Bonnie Coffey of Lincoln will bring her "A Letter to Susan B. Anthony" program to Northeast Community College in Norfolk on Tuesday, Sept. 21, at 11 a.m. in the Cox Activities Center Theater.

In her Northeast program, Coffey will provide information about the political history of women's suffrage events. She will also remind everyone about the importance of being involved in the political process.

Susan B. Anthony traveled, lectured and canvassed across the nation for the vote. She also campaigned for the abolition of slavery, women's rights to their own property and earnings, and women's labor organizations.

Coffey is the director of the Lincoln-Lancaster Women's Commission in Lincoln, advises the mayor, city council and Lancaster County Board of Commissioners on issues that impact women. She is a frequent presenter on a wide variety of topics pertaining to women.

Active in many civic and community organizations in Lincoln, Coffey holds a bachelor of arts degree in business management.

Her appearance is free and open to the public.

Cataracts affect over 80% of our senior citizens. In fact over one million cataract surgeries are performed annually in the U.S. alone.

New technological developments in implants, ultrasonic equipment, lasers, diagnostic testing, and surgical techniques have made cataract surgery one of the most effective procedures today. Currently, over 98% of cataract patients experience significant improvements in vision, without major complications.

Until now, the high cost of this new technology for cataract surgery was only available in the larger surgical facilities. This meant that you would have to travel for a complete eye examination and surgery. Not any longer.

Complete eye care and cataract surgery is now available at Providence Medical Center in Wayne. You don't have to travel outside of your community to have your vision tested for cataracts. With Dr. Willcockson, Dr. Koerber and Dr. Magnuson offering comprehensive diagnostic and surgical services, you now have the most advanced eye care available right here in town.

Call Dr. Koerber or Dr. Magnuson for a complete eye examination and cataract vision screening today. If you would like more information on cataracts for yourself or someone you know who may be experiencing loss of vision, call today for a free informational brochure.

THANK YOU

The family of Emma Foote would like to thank everyone for their sympathy, prayers, cards, flowers, food and memorial gifts. Thanks to Pastor Koeber, the ladies of Our Savior Lutheran Church and Scott Hasemann. May God bless each of you.

We wish to thank all our family and dear friends who sent such beautiful cards, flowers, gifts and food for our 50th wedding anniversary. Your thoughtfulness made our anniversary so special that we will always remember all of you. We also want to thank our children, grandchildren and Pastor Koeber for the special surprise program. That meant so much to us. Family and friends made our day one we will never forget. Vic & Jan Kniesche

The family of Bessie Nettleton would like to thank all the friends, neighbors and relatives for the many cards, letters and telephone calls received at the time of her passing.

We would also like to thank everyone for the food, dinnerware, memorials & flowers given. Thank you to Pastor Sievers and Pastor Kihne for their kind words and prayers as well as the Lutheran Ladies Aid of Carroll for the lunch they served.

LADIES AID AND LWML MEET

Zion Lutheran Ladies Aid and LWML met on Sept. 2 with six members, one guest, and Pastor Riege present.

Christian Growth Chairman Joyce Saagebarth opened with a reading entitled "Reaching Out." Pastor Riege's topic was "Pastors." Roll call was taken and contributions were made to the penny pot: five cents for every cup of coffee you had that day and 10 cents if you didn't have any.

Secretary and treasurer's reports were given and approved. Visitor's and cheer cards were sent.

The District Retreat is on O'Neill on Sept. 25. The Fall Rally will be on Oct. 9 at Christ Lutheran Church in Norfolk.

September Altar Guild Reminders: Ione Fahrenholz, Susan Waterman, Inez Freeman, and Bonnie Weich. Elaine Ehlers is in charge of flowers.

The meeting closed with the Lord's Prayer and table prayer. Plate prizes went to Inez Freeman, and guest Delma Vyhldal. LaVerda Kruger will be the hostess in October.

International Dinner Part of 'Around the World in 180 Days' at Wayne State

Wayne State College is going "Around the World in 180 Days!" The WSC Counseling Center/International Student Services and other offices across campus are offering international education programming this fall and into early spring.

The "Around the World in 180 Days!" project is designed to enhance and increase the knowledge of WSC students and area residents about international concerns. A series of programs will explore cultural and cross-cultural communication, offer experiential learning about other cultures, and present opportunities for interactive learning.

The first of these offerings, "Art Beyond Borders," is an opportunity for the campus community and area residents to see Iraqi and Palestinian artists speak in their own voices, through their artistic talents, about the conditions in their countries. Through their art, these artists reflect the greater humanity of countries with a rich cultural heritage.

This traveling art exhibit will be on the WSC campus until September 23; it can be seen in the Nordstrand Art Gallery and the lower level of the Student Center. Check the Web site listed below for more information.

The second program is an international dinner to be held on Sept. 15 at 5:30 p.m. in the Frey Conference Suite in the Student Center. Those who arrive early can see the "Art Beyond Borders" exhibit and then enjoy international cuisine. Tickets for the dinner are $5.00. Seating is limited, so advance ticket purchase is encouraged.

Contact the WSC Counseling Center at 402-375-7321 for more information.

Other programs are still under development. For more information, or to become involved with this project, contact Ron Vick at 375-7321. Partial support for this project has been provided by the U.S. Department of State through a grant from the Cooperative Grants Program of NAFSA: Association of International Educators.

For more information on the "Around the World in 180 Days!" program, go to http://www.wsc.edu/international_education/around_the_world_in_180_days/ or call Vick at 375-7321.

Siouxland Community Blood Bank declares emergency for donations of all blood types

The Siouxland Community Blood Bank (SCBB) has declared an emergency need for all blood types. This morning SCBB received a call requesting help from one of our sister partners of America's Blood Centers (ABC) in Florida.

Community Blood Centers of South Florida has an emergency need for all blood types due to the effects of Hurricane Frances. This call is coming after a long holiday weekend where SCBB has experienced a major impact on the inventory levels of type O positive, O negative and B negative.

"Being prepared for additional emergencies that will occur in the upcoming days is the concern now for the Siouxland Community Blood Bank," said Janette Twait, CEO of the Siouxland Community Blood Bank. "We do have blood products available at all 28 area hospitals, but the emergency replacement supply has been hit hard over the weekend. SCBB's goal is to keep each hospital well prepared as well as build up the emergency supply. We plan to assist Community Blood Centers of South Florida's immediate request for approximately 1600 blood products from the ABC blood center network by making a shipment today of the blood types we can, while asking donors of all types to donate blood as soon as possible to continue to build our inventory levels.

Twait added, "SCBB will continue to evaluate our local hospital's needs and pledge to assist Community Blood Centers of South Florida when possible for as long as the immediate need continues to help the patients of South Florida. We ask volunteer blood donors of all types, especially O positive, O negative and B negative, to come in and donate blood today or as soon as possible."

Donations can be made in Sioux City, Iowa at 1019 Jones Street or at a community blood drive in this area. Schedules for community drives are listed on their website, siouxlandbloodbank.org.

The Siouxland Community Blood Bank asks that if you are at least 17 years of age, in general good health, weigh over 110 pounds and have not donated whole blood in the past 56 days, that you take the time to donate blood this week. A photo I.D. is required at the time of registration.

If you are in Sioux City, Iowa stop by 1019 Jones Street and give the gift of life. Blood bank donor hours are, Monday 9 am - 6 pm, 7 am - 6 pm.; Tuesday through Thursday, and 7 am - 5 pm on Friday. For schedules of other upcoming blood drives and more information please visit the blood bank web site at www.siouxland-bloodbank.org or contact the blood bank at (712) 252-4208 or 800-798-4208.

The Wayne Herald

Time flies too fast!

How can it be Tuesday morning again? I kept thinking I would do this on Monday, Labor Day, but it didn't happen. I guess it was too nice a day. And this one looks to be the same. When we have weather like this, I wonder why more people don't live in Nebraska; forgetting things like drought, tornadoes, and blizzards, and awful winds.

The first game is in the record books: a pass on the first play?

How can it be?

I have nine conservative friends for every liberal one, but I get a fair share of e-mails praising President Bush and a significant number knocking him. I've been wondering where we can find a candidate who is intelligent, has no skeletons, is good looking, erudite, an excellent speech maker, and seems to thrive on four hours of sleep a night.

Well, I think Bill Callahan fills that bill. Just to be sure, I looked up the word erudite. It means "displaying erudition." But erudition is "extensive knowledge, acquired chiefly from books." I read that Coach Callahan has 2,000 notebooks filled with his notes. Anyway, he may as well enjoy this honeymoon period. After a season in Nebraska, he may decide running for president would be easier. Then, again, he did work for Al Davis.

I didn't know who Al Davis was until this coach was hired. But I've learned a lot about him since. And most of it is pretty hard to take. Mr. Callahan is quoted as saying that Steve Pederson rescued him. Well, I think he rescued Pederson!

We had five women here Saturday night: a mom, her daughter, and three daughters in law. I told her I'd be happy to do the same, but I didn't think I could get all five of us together at the same time. She replied they had planned this for nine months.

They had lunch at Art Chicks, then shopped, and had dinner at Charlie's on the Lake. Here, they tested the hot tub and played dominoes until almost midnight. I hope they had a good time; they seemed to.

On Sunday and Monday, we had the nicest couple from Norfolk. It turned out they were Aldrich fans, so I took them on a private tour of the house and the museum Monday morning. After they left, I washed a couple of windows, the two that take the longest ladder. One screen was full of that cotton from the cottonwood tree, and it was bugging me.

Later in the afternoon, I delivered cantaloupe to the neighbors. We throw the seeds west of the garage; and this year, the Big Farmer has a crop! More volunteers than we can get rid of. It's an opportunity to pay back the gardeners on Church Road who share with us.

I ended the day with a quick walk; it was just too nice not to. Today, it will be more windows, and some "paper piles". I always seem to have those. Go Big Red!

Livestock Market Report

The fat cattle sale was held Friday at the Norfolk Livestock Market. There was a run of 256 fat cattle. The market was $1 lower on fat cattle. Cows were steady.

Strictly choice fed steers were $80 to $81.30. Good and choice steers were $78 to $80. Medium and good steers were $78 to $80. Strictly choice fed heifers were $79 to $80.20. Good and choice heifers were $79 to $80.20. Medium and good heifers were $78 to $79. Beef cows were $54 to $60. Utility cows were $54 to $60. Canners and cutters were $48 to $54. Bologna bulls were $65 to $72.

The Stocker and Feeder Sale was held Thursday at the Norfolk Livestock Market. The market was $2 to $5 lower on the 500 head sold.

Good and choice steer calves were $120 to $130. Choice and prime lightweight calves were $130 to $145. Good and choice yearling steers were $100 to $115. Choice and prime lightweight yearling steers were $115 to $125. Good and choice heifer calves were $110 to $120. Choice and prime lightweight heifer calves $120 to $135. Good and choice yearling heifers were $95 to $110.

Brown can be fine for grass

My lawn looks good today, the color of a cornfield ready to harvest or a pasture in November.

That's right my lawn is brown and I'm happy about it. This spring and early summer we received good moisture for our lawns and crops. Since the middle of July we have had little or no rain and as a result we see dryland fields suffer and pastures turn brown.

About the end of July my lawn turned from green to brown and as you can probably guess I didn't water it. The grass is not dead, just dormant and waiting for cooler and wetter weather.

Bluegrass lawns like mine have an amazing ability to slow and even stop growth without dying.

First lets talk a little about bluegrass. Kentucky bluegrass is the most widely used turfgrass species in Nebraska. It forms a dense, medium-textured high quality turf when grown in open sunlight. Cultivars of Kentucky bluegrass are quite variable in texture, color, shoot density, growth habit, disease resistance, adaptation, and cultural requirements. It is this variability that most likely has led to the widespread acceptance and use of Kentucky bluegrass as a turfgrass species.

Kentucky bluegrass is adapted to a wide climatic region which includes arid states like Nebraska.

Periods of drought and high temperature substantially reduce shoot density and growth. The period. Unless properly hardened, the stand will be seriously thinned.

Young lawns and lawns pushed hard with consistently low mowing heights and lots of nitrogen do not react as well to dormancy. Mowing height is a major consideration for bluegrass lawns. The preferred cutting height is 1.5 to 2 inches during periods of optimum growth (spring and fall). This height should be raised to 2.5 to 3 inches during periods of high temperature stress to help insulate crown tissues and minimize stress on the turfgrass growing point.

I would consider my lawn a medium maintenance lawn where I do not water unless it is needed to prevent grass death. After 2 to 3 weeks with little or no rain, a dormant bluegrass lawn may need to be irrigated with about 0.5 inch of water to keep the plants alive. The lawn may not green up after such applications but it will help.

Many lawns in the community are high maintenance and remain green during these hot periods. Next time you drive by a brown lawn, remember they may be more medium maintenance about their lawn care and that's OK.

above-ground tissues stop growth and turn brown during these stress periods. A properly hardened Kentucky bluegrass turf can survive drought by initiating new growth from crown tissues and nodes located on rhizomes when growing conditions become favorable.

Kentucky bluegrass turfs should not be allowed to become seriously droughted, unless properly prepared for the drought dormancy

Dixon County 4-H members do well at the Nebraska State Fair

Congratulations to all of the 4-H Exhibitors that have exhibits at the Nebraska State Fair. Special congratulation to Kelli Rastede and Sheila Sorenson, for receiving a special recognition ribbon as one of the top exhibitors in their class.

Kelli's picture frame exhibit, and Sheila's wallhanging of denim pockets were selected to receive the special recognition.

Results of the exhibits of local exhibitors include:

WE HAVE A MECHANIC ON DUTY

Agricultural event worth noting

One of the highlights of the month of September are the Husker Harvest Days being held near Grand Island on the Sept. 14-16. The show has developed through the years to become one of the premier agricultural shows for Nebraska farmers.

It is one of the key locations where producers can see and compare different brands of machines while they are operating in the fields. However, producers should do more than just watch the machines as they go through the fields.

If a grain farmer is looking at combines, for example, one of the key comparisons to make is grain loss. Grain loss occurs at the combine head before the grain even gets into the machine for transfer to the hopper bin. Another loss is at the back of the combine with the residue. Bushels of corn can be lost at both ends of the combine, and there are differences in the combines' ability to save that grain and get it into the hopper.

Additional grain loss occurs with the cracked and broken kernels of grain when the grain flows through the threshing cylinders. These damaged kernels end up being classified as dockage on your grain when it is sold to the elevator, yet, another loss to absorb.

Granted, that perhaps the color of the machine does make a difference in performance, the actual operation efficiency of the machine should carry a greater role in evaluating a harvesting machine and in making comparisons on operation. This also means that one needs to get down on your hands and knees to find the lost kernels or ears of corn. One might feel rather strange in crawling among the residue in a field of grain, but, if you want to evaluate the differences in combine performance, you need to get used to it.

Plan to attend this unique farm show and display for Nebraska farmers and get a first hand look at the differences in the performance in the combine operations.
