Council listens about insurance

By Clara Osten
Of the Herald

Insurance coverage for the city's property was among the topics of discussion at Tuesday's meeting of the Wayne City Council.

City Administrator Lowell Johnson told the council members that the current plan is up for renewal on Jan. 1, 2005. He listed several options available, including continuing with the current coverage provided by Employers Mutual Company or becoming part of the League Association of Risk Management (LARM).

During the meeting Cap Peterson of Northeast Nebraska Insurance spoke to the council about the differences between an insurance company and LARM. He noted that insurance is a big part of the city's budget and the fact that Northeast Nebraska Insurance has expertise in the insurance business and that the firm has had a long relationship with the city.

Also making a presentation at the meeting were Lynn Rex and Johnnie Miller.

Rex is the Executive Director of LARM and told the council the benefits of joining with other cities across Nebraska. She spoke on the benefits of being part of LARM and noted it provides rate stability.

Miller answered a number of questions from the council about LARM and its financial condition. He also noted that LARM is a partnership between cities and not an insurance company. He noted that to become a part of the organization, the city would need to fill out an application and then LARM would present a proposal for providing coverage.

After the presentations, the council took no action toward membership in the LARM.

Prior to the regular meeting, the council met as a committee-of-the-whole and voted to support a merger of the Chamber/ Wayne Industries/ Main Street Wayne if it occurs within a year. An additional financial contribution will also be part of the support.

Following a public hearing, the council approved Resolution 2004-55 which authorizes the signing of an application for Community Development Block Grant Funds.

The council approved action on a bad debt list. This is a routine procedure which occurs each year. The debts will now be sent to a collection agency in an attempt to collect the money.

Ordinance 2004-10 received second round approval. It deals with the annexation of Beckenhauer Estates into the city of Wayne.

Also receiving second reading approval was Ordinance 2004-12 which will amend the city's code in regard to designated streets for truck parking.

Rod Hefti spoke to the council, noting that there is no need for such an ordinance and asked the council if they had taken into consideration the cost of putting up signs indicating where parking is allowed and the fact that trucks need to be parked where they can be started in the winter. The ordinance will again be read at the council's next meeting.

The council voted to terminate an agreement with the Village of Carroll for Water/Wastewater services.

The council's next meeting will be Tuesday, Oct. 26 at 7:30 p.m.

New members to be inducted into WSC Hall of Fame

Six new members will be inducted into the Wayne State College Athletic Hall of Fame during Homecoming/Hall of Fame weekend at Wayne State College scheduled for this weekend.

Three athletes, one coach and two contributors will be honored at halftime of the Southwest State vs. Wayne State football game on Saturday, Oct. 16.

A banquet will be that evening from 6-8 p.m. in the Frey Conference suite at the WSC Student Center.

Advance tickets, which are $18 per person, are required for the banquet. For ticket information, contact the WSC alumni office at 375-7209 or 800-228-9972 ext. 7209.

This year's Hall of Fame Inductees include:

Joyce Kern Reeg and Bob (posthumous) Reeg (contributors):

Joyce and Bob Reeg have been generous contributors and supporters of the Wayne State College athletic program.

Mr. Reeg was a longtime trustee of the WSC Foundation, member and past president of the executive board and chaired and served on Wayne State's campaign committees.

The Reegs have both chaired and served on numerous college committees, along with support of the athletic program, campus ministry, endowments, construction and foundation's general

Dedication ceremonies

A large crowd was on hand at Friday's dedication of the Firefighters' Plaza at the Wayne Volunteer Fire Hall. The event was held in conjunction with the annual observance of Fire Prevention Week and was part of this week's Chamber Coffee. The plaza recognizes those firefighters who served the department a minimum of 10 years. At right, several members of the department raise the flags on the new flag pole. In the bottom photo, Senator Pat Engel of South Sioux City, center, led the group in the Pledge of Allegiance as the flags were raised.

Andersons part of teaching team

By Clara Osten
Of the Herald

The month of September found Sayre and Bonnie Anderson of Wayne engaged in conversation.

The conversations were with Chinese students at Huazhong University of Science and Technology in Wuhan, China.

The Andersons were part of the Teach for Friendship Foundation based in Tucson, Ariz.

"There were 50 Americans in our group, most of them retired and from diverse backgrounds and from throughout the United States," Sayre said.

The city of Wuhan has approximately 8.5 million people and the university has 50,000 students.

"The students we worked with were first year graduate students in environmental engineering. They were working with issues such as air pollution, solid waste and the water issue," Bonnie said.

The Andersons taught five days a week, from 8 a.m. to 6 p.m. in an intensive course in Spoken English.

"We taught in a very modern classroom with the latest technology, including computers and audiovisual equipment. Each day we taught four, 90-minute classes with different students in each class. We worked with a total of 140 students," Sayre said.

Thanks given for support

Dear Editor,
Thank you for your continued support of our annual "HEROES UNITE, IT'S ABOUT LIFE" campaign!
Siouxland Community Blood Bank wishes to thank all those involved with the recent blood drive. You play an important part of the success of the blood drives, we at Siouxland Community Blood Bank appreciate your dedication and personal effort.
At your drive we had 43 people register to donate with 54 units of whole blood collected. Double red cell technology allowed collections to exceed registrations. We would like to recognize everyone for his or her commitment to giving the gift of life.

Your efforts help combat seasonal shortages and support local fire, rescue and police squad! Siouxland Community Blood Bank exists to make a difference in people's lives by providing a safe and adequate supply of blood components and related services to 28 area hospitals. We could never accomplish our mission without the continued help and enthusiasm of communities like yours.
Thank you to donors and volunteers for your assistance and support in saving lives right here in our community.

Vote Yes on Amendment One. It will be one of the least controversial items on the November ballot . . . AND, it does not initiate or raise taxes. How good is that?
Amendment One simply allows and cost effective tools at their disposal to attract new patrons and welcome established customers back into their store. Every store has a billboard and it's not located on the highway. It can be seen by customers, 24 hours a day, seven days a week. The billboard is the storefront and window display.

In a survey, Miller noted that 53 percent of shoppers base their initial perception of a store and their decision to shop there upon the store's exterior. As retailers know, much of retailing is centered on the sense of sight.

the Nebraska Legislature to adopt laws that promote historic preservation for reasons of economic growth. Amendment One would delay or temporarily freeze tax increases on historical property improvements. The amendment would not remove property from the tax rolls. It would provide tax INCENTIVES for people to restore historic properties.

Last week, Tuesday through Thursday, I had the opportunity to attend a HTC (Hometown Competitiveness) comprehensive training program. HTC is a program established to encourage community development, which integrates four essential building blocks: Mobilizing Local Leaders, Capturing Wealth Transfer, Energizing Entrepreneurship and Attracting Young People. With the continued discussions being held on the collaboration/partnership/merger of the Main Street Program, the Chamber and the Wayne Industries, this program's benefits, working in Wayne, will probably not be seen in the immediate future.

T.E.A.M.: 15 (the Highway 15 community taskforce), continues to meet. Regarding the streetscape, the enhancements . . . lighting, sidewalks, plantings . . . are still being discussed by the Design Committee. After final enhancement plans are adopted, cost figures can then be gathered. The next step will then be the discussion on how the enhancements will be paid for.

The Wayne State College Homecoming is this weekend. It will be a great time for the community to show its best to returning alumni, parents and friends of Wayne State College.

Department can't be fixed

By Ed Howard
Statehouse Correspondent
The Nebraska Press Association

After 30 years of covering Nebraska government, at least one thing seems obvious in this corner.

The state's Department of Health and Human Services can't be fixed.

Not gonna' happen. As a practical matter, forget it.

It's like one of those faulty weapons systems that the military gets saddled with every so often. Comedians say such systems should be renamed "Civil Service."

You can't fire it and you can't make it work!

This is not the fault of Gov. Mike Johanns, or former Gov. Ben Nelson, or Kay Orr before him or Bob Kerrey before her, etc.

"Fixing" an agency of such ridiculous size (and making it bigger recently didn't help anything) compares with those helpless, hapless efforts to save the Titanic.

The problem with a government agency is that the thing won't sink. It can't sink. The feds won't let it go under and neither will state government.

There is too much money and too many important services involved.

The regulations and federal and state requirements of all kinds, and bookkeeping and file keeping and unfathomable reporting requirements in every area are preposterous. It's not that they aren't necessarily needed; it's that it would take more personnel and expert administrators than the state could possibly find, let alone employ.

Audits of Health and Human Services are nightmares.

Every so often a few people fall on their swords and resign, usually with an announcement that they will seek other opportunities. Whatever their next opportunity, it's not likely to gripe their guts as much as working in Health and Human Services, where the most dedicated of employees sometimes put little signs on their walls: "Bang Head Here!"

If anyone pooh-poohs this view, you shouldn't think they are lying. You should simply understand that they are whistling in the dark, praying for miracles and hoping that aspirin-like treatments will cure a problem that would be more merciful if it were terminal.

Two high school football players have sustained potentially life-threatening injuries this season. It isn't out of the range of possibility that the Legislature could look at the issue. Might there be state-imposed requirements for ambulance availability at games? Use of air-suspension helmets in every game?

Nebraskans urged to be aware of check fraud

I'm writing today to warn Nebraskans of yet another type of consumer fraud - counterfeit cashier check fraud.

Unfortunately, our Consumer Protection Division has seen a significant increase in the number of cases being reported.

In this scam, the targeted victim is offered a cashier's check for a product or service and is then asked to provide up-front or advance fees to cover handling costs, taxes, attorney fees and transaction fees. Some con artists have taken this old scam and applied it to the Internet, responding to on-line offers selling cars or auctioning high-dollar items.

The scam typically unfolds when the con artist or "buyer" e-mails the seller to express an interest in an item, offering to pay with a cashier's check. Once the offer is accepted, the "buyer" makes an excuse to send a cashier's check for car or goods and the "extra" cash to the "buyer." The bank notifies the seller that the cashier's check is counterfeit and removes the amount of the cashier's check from the seller's account. The seller is now out the goods and the money.

Use the following tips to avoid becoming a victim of this counterfeit cashier check fraud:

- Do NOT accept third party checks.
- Do NOT bid on auctions that do not show the other bidder's names.
- Do NOT take an out-of-state cashier's check.
- Request that the cashier's check be drawn on a local bank, preferably your own.
- Most banks have distinctive cashier's checks with logos and borders. If you receive a plain-looking check it could be a phony.
- All cashier's checks should be perforated on one edge. If you get a check that is not perforated on at least one side, the Federal Reserve Board says that indicates it is most likely a bad check.
- Have your bank flag your account so that no checks can ever be mailed in and deposited into your account on your behalf without your endorsement, knowledge or permission. Also have the bank verify the signature you have on file.

By: Attorney General Jon Bruning more than the cost of the item and asks the seller to send the excess money back to him in cash. Credibility is added to the ploy because the "buyer" insists that the money not be sent to them until after the cashier's check clears.

The cashier's check that the seller receives is actually an elaborate counterfeit that takes most banks a while to detect. In the meantime, the seller, thinking they have received a good check, sends the

Minnecanos to be presented at WSC

Minnecanos, an acclaimed Chicano touring production, will be presented at Wayne State College on Tuesday, Oct. 19 at 7:30 p.m. in Ley Theatre located on the second floor of the Brandenburg Education Building.

The performance is sponsored by the Wayne State Office of Multicultural Affairs, the School of Arts & Humanities, the Student Activities Board, and Latinos Uniting in celebration of Hispanic Heritage Month. Admission is free; donations will be accepted at the door.

Minnecanos, a production of Mixed Blood Theatre, spans four generations and the entire 20th century in its spirited illumination of Mexican-American history. It begins in the Minneapolis home that Diego Morales has owned for more than 40 years. Encouraged by the bemused ghost of his wife, the old man uses the contents of an ancient trunk to ignite his great-granddaughter's interest in their rich cultural heritage.
Such milestones as El

Rencanche (the train shuttle that brought laborers from the Southwest to Minnesota's sugar beet fields), the mass deportations of the Great Depression, and the Cesar Chavez-led farm workers' movement are highlighted in the 45-minute performance.

Including energetic corridos (story-songs), optimism and humor, Minnecanos is a celebration of the accomplishments, character and aspirations of Latinos in Minnesota and across the country.

Minnecanos was written for Mixed Blood by Thomas Benitez and Joe Minjares, a successful Twin Cities restaurateur before turning his talents to theatre. The cast features Raul Ramos as Diego, Allison True as his great-granddaughter Jamie, and Silvia Pontaza as both his wife's ghost and his granddaughter. The show is directed by Ramos.

Minnecanos is one of nine culturally-specific productions toured annually by Mixed Blood Theatre, a Minneapolis-based multicultural theatre company founded in 1976.

Possible phone scam is reported in Wayne

Wayne Police Chief Lance Webster said his office received a report of a possible telephone scam involving grant money for college. Webster said a Wayne woman was called by a telemarketer who said he was representing Your Choice Inc., A Guide to Government Grants. According to the report the telemarketer is alleged to have asked the woman for her checking account number and routing numbers for her bank so his company could deduct a $257 "processing fee". Giving a telemarketer these numbers would provide them access to all of the funds in your checking account.

Chief Webster said he has no proof, at this point, that Your Choice Inc. has committed a crime; and this may be a case of a hired telemarketer obtaining information on their own. This case does however point out the need to protect such privileged information. No one should give their bank account, credit card or PIN information to anyone who calls them, unsolicited, on the telephone. In this case the person who was called did not suffer any financial loss. The police department also received information that similar calls were received in the Yankton, SD area. Webster said that it's possible a telemarketing company is targeting college communities hoping to contact students at random. The chance to get "free" tuition grant money may sound like a great deal but it could be very costly if you give out your bank information.

Webster said his office has referred this complaint to the Nebraska Attorney General's Office Consumer Fraud Division. Any one who suspects they have been the victim of a fraud or scam can call the Attorney General's office at 1-800-727-6432.

Congressional candidate to speak at Wayne State

Nebraska First Congressional District Republican candidate Jeff Fortenberry will participate in a candidate forum at Wayne State College on Tuesday, Oct. 19, at noon. The event, co-sponsored by Wayne State College, the WSC American Democracy Project, and the Wayne Political Union, will be held in the lower food court of the Student Center.

The forum will be moderated by the Wayne Political Union, a non-partisan student political activist group. The public is invited and encouraged to attend the session. Fortenberry's opponent, State Senator Matt Connealy, was on campus on Oct. 7 for the first candidate forum.

Fortenberry served on the Lincoln City Council from 1997-2001. During his term in office, he worked on numerous economic development and urban revitalization projects. His background includes public policy analysis and urban planning. Fortenberry, his wife Celeste and their four children live in Lincoln.

"We are hoping to have a good turnout for this second forum," said Dr. James Knotwell, campus coordinator of the American Democracy Project.

"A number of people attended the earlier forum, and we hope to have a good crowd for this, as well. It will provide a great opportunity to meet the candidate and ask him questions about his views on issues affecting the district and the nation." Admission is free.

For more information, please contact Knotwell at 402-375-7299.

One month behind, a fun one
ahead

In the Press Box
by
David W. Carstens

I put off writing this column after I let some of the experiences of the weekend soak in.

It would be easy to comment on the Huskers' big loss to Texas Tech.

You know that one? It was broadcast on TBS, (short for Total Butt Spanking) on Saturday night.

The worst loss in Husker history.

I'm not going to second-guess or armchair quarterback, just asking to get it fixed.

It's not looking like UN-L's version of Extreme Makeover - The Husker Edition is off to a good start.

UN-L's athletic director said he's going to refuse to let the program sink to mediocrity.

I will be patient, as Coach Callahan has suggested we all should.

At least he didn't say Nebraska had to be the "dumbest team in America" like he did about the Raiders after a game last season.

Change is a tough thing, but progress is another.

Right now it looks like there's more of one than there is the other.

Two Wayne High teams will be at state tournaments this week.

It was a great reward for the Wayne High golf team to qualify for state.

First-year coach Eric Henderson has been a joy to work with this season and I'm sure his enthusiasm has translated to the consistency the golf team has played this season.

And then there's our Wayne High's girls softball team.

How can I even begin to write how magnificent the 30-0 Blue Devils are?

I have a good friend who's dying from a terminal disease and he's taught me the lesson about how to live in present and soak it up like a sponge.

That's exactly what I am doing with the great buzz that's surrounding the Blue Devils softball team this season.

I am looking forward to being in Omaha and watching the defense of last year's state Class C title.

Thanks so much Coach Rob Sweetland, team members and parents for the fun ride we are all about to embark on.

Last Friday was a day when everything mechanical I touched seemed to go on the blink.

The worst casualty of the day was my trusty camera zoom lens that died during the Wayne High football game.

A funeral for the lens that shot tens of thousands of images was conducted Monday.

Goodbye old Zoomer. You will be missed, my friend.

Blue Devils seek a second title

Wayne High sweeps District games to earn trip to state

By DAVID W. CARSTENS
Of the Herald

Three home shutouts equal one trip to the state tournament.

The undefeated Wayne Blue Devils (30-0) girls softball team proved why it's on track to be one of the most celebrated teams in state softball history with three big wins in District C-1 action here last Thursday and Friday.

Wayne disposed of North Bend Central (3-0) and Hooper Logan View (9-0) Thursday and dismantled Logan View in the finals game on Thursday to qualify for state for the third consecutive year.

The accomplishment was even sweeter considering Wayne's program is only three years old.

Wayne 3, North Bend 0

In the first District game, the Blue Devils battle through a steady rain to down North Bend Central.

Wayne's Kayla Hochstein managed to hit a single in the second inning and advanced to third set up a 1-0 lead.

Pitcher Molly Hill allowed only one walk and struck out 15 batters while working against the North Bend offense in less-than-perfect weather.

The Blue Devils added a pair of runs in the third starting with a single by Dawn Jensen. Jean Pieper had another single and stolen base to set up Wayne's next scoring threat. An RBI by Jenny Raveling along with a double by Ashley Carroll put Wayne up 3-0.

Wayne added another double by Sara Frerichs in the final inning of the game, but wasn't able to generate the advance into points.

Wayne 9, Logan View 0

The second game against Logan

View started about 90 minutes later due to the rain delay.

The Blue Devils exploded with nine scores off nine hits in the third inning to set up a comfortable lead to seal the win.

Hill pitched a no-hitter and struck out 15 more batters to bring her total on the day to 30.

A single by Brooke Anderson got the third inning scoring party started for the Blue Devils, while Pieper, Raveling, Carroll, Hochstein, Jensen and Hill's courtesy runner Leslie Backstrom lit up the scoreboard for the Blue Devils.

Jessica Jammer was able to generate two runs as the order rolled over to complete the 9-0 run for Wayne. Raveling and Carroll each had two RBIs, while Jensen finished with one for the Blue Devils.

Hill made one of the game's defensive highlights in the top of the fourth when she caught a mid-field hit just moments after she threw pitch.

"It was strange," Hill said. "I just reached out and there it was. It was really fast."

Wayne 12, Logan View 0

Wayne High scored five runs in the second inning and added seven more in the sixth to defeat Logan View 12-0 in a six-inning rematch played in the district final on Friday afternoon.

Hill threw 14 strikeouts to increase her career total to 482, but said the team's offensive efforts were the real stars of the show.

"We just scored at weird times," she said with an ice bag on her shoulder, and in between taking bites of a victory cookie. "We have played those guys so many times, so we knew when to score when it was convenient."

State tourney pairings announced

Wayne High is the top-seed team in Class C at the 2004 girls state softball tournament in Omaha on Thursday-Friday, Oct. 14-15.

Wayne (30-0) will open play at 10 a.m. Thursday (today) on Field 1 against Cozad (18-13).

Regardless of a win or loss in Game 1, the Blue Devils will face either fourth-seed Fillmore Central (28-3) or fifth-seed Yutan-Mead-Waterloo (23-5) in the winner or loser bracket game played at 12:30 p.m., Thursday.

Friday's semifinals will be played at noon, with finals planned for 5 p.m.

Games will be played at the Seymour Smith Softball Complex at 66th and Harrison Streets in Omaha.

Dawn Jensen takes a swing in the District C-1 girls softball tournament championship game last Friday. Jensen sustained an injury later in the contest.

Junior Jenny Nolte puts onto the green at state.

Wayne golfers in Top 10

The Wayne High golf team was hoping for a Top 10 finish at the state golf tournament when it started its season in late August.

Now just two months later, the team achieved its preseason goal when it took seventh place overall at the 2004 girls state golf tournament played at the Riverside Country Club in Grand Island on Monday and Tuesday.

Wayne finished with a two-day 808, with a 407 on Monday and an improved 401 on Tuesday.

"This was a good group of girls who really came out and played well at the end," Wayne High golf coach Eric Henderson said. "I was really proud of the Top 10 finish."

Junior Jenny Nolte carded a 91 and 90 for a 181 to lead the Blue Devils with a 17th-place finish.

Other Wayne scores included Amy Hypse, 203 (102-101); Keely Reinert, 207 (103-104); Kourtney Schmale, 217 (111-106) and Sheree Kathol 231 (119-112).

Wakefield's sole qualifier Jessica Wageman finished with a two-day 209 with her season best performance of 111 and 98.

WHS pounds O'Neill

Blue Devils still hopeful for playoffs

After two weeks of disappointing finishes, Wayne High played four quarters of tough football before a homecoming crowd last Friday.

WHS poured on 32 points in the first half and added 19 in the second as the Blue Devils demolished the O'Neill Eagles 51-12 in a critical district matchup.

The win improved the Blue Devils to 3-2 on the season and kept Wayne High alive for a possible playoff spot.

"We really needed to have a game where we started out right and carried that through to the final whistle," Wayne High coach Kevin Finkey said. "Offensively, we had a good night even though most of our starters saw less than three quarters of playing time."

Wayne High's defense wasn't too shabby, either.

An interception early in the game by senior Tyler Johnson set the tone for a night that saw Wayne hold the Eagles to under 100 yards of total defense.

Dana Schuett scored first for the Blue Devils on an 81-yard yard run down the east sideline.

Quarterback Nate Finkey added the second score of the quarter for Wayne with a seven-yard run.

Schuett added his second touchdown of the game with 3:57 left in the half on a three-yard run to give the Blue Devils an 18-0 lead.

A five-yard scamper by Todd Poehlman and a Brian Mohl kick at 2:56 in the half put Wayne up 25-0.

Wayne's offense continued to feed off the aggressive defense as Finkey connected with Tyler Johnson on a nine-yard pass play with 28 seconds in the half for a 31-0 Wayne advantage.

Wayne High senior Tyler Johnson runs back an interception during in first quarter action against O'Neill last Friday night.

O'Neill put its first points of the game on board with a short touchdown run to open the third period, but Wayne was able to respond when Finkey scored on a 21-yard run to pad the Wayne lead.

The Blue Devil defense forced four turnovers, including a pass interception by Brandon Ektenkamp.

Ektenkamp, a senior, got to savor his defensive play when he added another Wayne score for the offense on the next Wayne offensive play for the first points scored during his high school career.

Nate Summerfield added another score for Wayne on a short run to round out Wayne's scoring explosion.

Schuett rushed for 163 yards on 13 carries as the Blue Devils racked up 450 yards of offense.

The Wayne defense limited O'Neill to under 100 yards.

The Blue Devils travel to Atkinson West Holt (3-3) this Friday in a game that could determine Wayne's eligibility for post season play.

"This is an important game for power points for us," Finkey said. "It's a must-win for us if we hope to get into the playoffs."

Wakefield defeats E-H Pirates

Undeclared Wakefield turned the tide in the second half to take a 32-8 victory at Emerson-Hubbard on Friday night.

Aaron Klein ran for touchdowns from 65 and 17 yards and kicked a pair of point-after attempts to lead the Trojans.

Wakefield only was able to generate six points in the first half as Tim Hagland scored a 21-yard touchdown in the first quarter.

Klein's 65-yarder and a 14-yard run by Cory

Nicholson sparked Wakefield after halftime.

The Trojans added two more touchdowns in the fourth quarter when Klein ran in a 17-yard play and Joel Nixon ran back a long 81-yard kick return for Wakefield.

The Trojan defense was paced by Kyle Gardner who was in on 14 tackles.

Wakefield will seek to improve and add another win this Friday in a contest against Homer.

WSC Rugby Club plans weekend extravaganza

Wayne State College's Rugby Club has an afternoon of fun planned for the college's upcoming Homecoming/Hall of Fame celebration this Saturday. Free admission, complimentary hot dogs and soft drinks, plus a special flyover of a black and gold Russian MIG jet fighter are all on top for WSC's battle with South Dakota State at the Wayne Rugby Complex on the northeast portion of the Wayne Softball Complex.

The jet, stationed in Omaha, was a special feature added to make the celebration memorable, coach Darin Barner said.

Both the Wayne State men's and women's clubs will take on SDSU starting with the women's game at 3:30 p.m.

Barner said the women's team, now 34-2, will try to avenge one of those team's season losses in Saturday's Great Plains Rugby Conference championship series. The men's game starts at 4:45 p.m., with the flyover planned for 4 p.m. and the hotdog feast at 4:30.

"Both games will be a 15-round, knock-out-drag out and will be down to the wire on who wins the game," Barner said. "They want this just as bad as we do, and we need all the fans we can get, it might be what we need to squeak this out."

Barner said he's been impressed at the increased attendance at the local team's games considering it's only the team's second season of league play.

"More fans have been coming each and every game and this schedule of events will for sure top last week's crowd," Barner said.

In action last Saturday, the men's team downed Sioux City 35-7 for its seventh consecutive win of the season.

WSC men's golf squad competes

Norfolk native Jason Love carded a two-day 157 as he finished in a tie for ninth place at the Northern Sun conference championship played last weekend at the Pebble Creek Golf Club in Becker, Minn.

The Wayne State College men's golf team took a fourth-place finish at the tourney to conclude the 2004 season.

Love's finishes of 79 and 78 put him one stroke away from earning All-Conference honors.

WSC finished the two-day tourney with a team score of 678, while Winona State captured the team title with a 600.

Mike Varley, a senior from Wayne, came in at 169 with scores of 80 and 89.

Other Wildcat scores were: Derek Bartos, (93-85) 178; Colin Wilson, (88-90) 178 and Kyle Lindstrom (90-89) for a 179.

Fifth-grade football concludes fall season

The Wayne City Rec fifth-grade football team cruised to a big shutout win against Wakefield in a game played Oct. 5.

Scoring for Wayne was started in the second quarter when Frank Bernal ran for a touchdown from eight yards out and Tony Sinniger added a two-point conversion.

Luke Trenhaile added a touchdown in the third quarter and Tyler Tyrrell's two-pointer increased the Wayne lead to 16-0.

Sinniger connected with Tyrrell from 20 yards out and Trenhaile added two more points for Wayne in the fourth quarter. Sinniger tallied another score for Wayne when he ran back a 30-yard punt return. Jordan Backer completed a two-point conversion pass to Corey Doorlag to wrap up the 32-0 win.

The team competed in the League Tournament in Laurel on Saturday and finished third overall.

The team faced Wakefield in the tourney and once again took a shutout win.

Bernal scored on a five yard run, and Doorlag caught a pass from Sinniger to put Wayne up 6-0 in the first quarter.

Tyrrell added another TD for Wayne in the first quarter on a 31-yard run that was capped by a conversion run by Bernal.

Wayne scored again in the third period as Tyrrel hauled in a 32-yard reception from Sinniger and Bernal added another conversion for the 24-0 final score.

The team (4-2) was coached this season by volunteers John Sinniger, Kevin Modrell, Derek Anderson and Chad Metzler.

Penalty calls haunt Winside in football loss against Wausa

Penalties stopped the Winside football team as much as the team they were facing last Friday evening.

The Winside Wildcats dropped an 18-12 decision to the host Wausa Vikings bringing their season record to three wins and three losses.

Winside was penalized 18 times for 127 yards on an evening that everything that could go wrong did go wrong for the Wildcats.

The Wildcats struck first on a 64-yard punt return by Bo Brummels before the penalty bug took over and allowed the Vikings to score two quick touchdowns with less than two minutes remaining before the halftime break.

Winside tied the game on a 32-yard touchdown run by Sophomore Dewey Bowers with seven minutes left in the third quarter.

The Wildcats were unable to capitalize on a Viking fumble at mid-field after Wausa had scored the go ahead touchdown with six minutes remaining in the game.

Kass Holdorf led the Winside rushing effort with 38 yards on 13 carries and Dewey Bowers had 29 yards on the ground in seven attempts.

Andrew Sok accounted for 81 yards through the air while completing three-of-seven attempts.

Brummels had a pair of catches for 49 yards, while Jarad Thies and Mark Hawkins were each on the receiving end of a Sok pass.

The Wildcat defensive attack was led by Justin Nathan who returned a Viking fumble 32 yards and was in on five tackles.

Jarad Thies added a fumble recovery and seven tackles with Cody Lange and Bowers in on a dozen stops each.

Bryce Roberts with 10 tackles and Hawkins in on nine stops also contributed to a balanced Wildcat defensive effort.

Winside plays host to Omaha Nation (Macy) on Friday night.

Allen drops game at Newcastle

Missed tackles and missed opportunities proved costly for the Allen Eagles in a 66-19 loss at Newcastle last Friday.

"The score did not indicate the kind of game that took place, especially through the first half, Allen coach Dave Uldrich said. "We tackled poorly all evening, allowing Newcastle to run wherever they chose to. This can't happen if you want to win games."

The Eagles drove the initial drive deep into Raider territory only to miss a field goal.

The Eagles held the Raiders on downs and completed another drive capped by a 3-yard pass play from Brett Koester to Luke Sachau to put the Eagles up 6-0.

The Raiders responded with a pair of touchdowns, but the Eagles kept things close in the first quarter when Koester and Sachau connected on a 25-yard pass and a Toby Gowar kick to close the gap 13-12.

Newcastle was able to add another score before the end of the quarter after the Raiders returned the Allen kickoff for a touchdown.

The Eagles slowed offensively in the second period as Newcastle was able to mount two scoring drives.

The final breath for Allen came with less than a minute left in the first half when Koester found Derick Nice on a 21-yard pass to account for the last of Eagles scoring with a 32-19 score at halftime.

The Raiders took advantage of five Allen turnovers in the second half to put up 34 points against the Eagles, who were able to mount only two unsuccessful drives in the half.

Koester led the Eagle offense with 218 yards and three TDs, while Derick Nice had 142 yards receiving.

Newcastle limited the Eagles to 15 yards rushing for the game.

Andrew Gensler paced the defense with 18 tackles.

The Eagles (2-4) travel to Verdigré on Friday. A win this week could open the door for a possible playoff spot if the Eagles can generate a victory in the season finale against Coleridge at the DakotaDome in Vermillion, S.D. on Thursday, Oct. 21.

WSC posts win over Concordia

The Wayne State Wildcats volleyball team moved to 13-10 on the season with a 30-28, 30-18, 30-28 sweep at Concordia University in Seward last Friday.

Senior Chelse Schultz finished with 15 kills and Laurel's Lani Recob added 12 more to lead WSC.

Laura Dolezal and Jacey Kuck Schwarz had 12 digs each and Winside's Julie Jacobsen finished with 38 set assists.

Doane posts 14-5 record

The Doane Tigers volleyball team is now 14-5 as it heads into the final run of the Great Plains Athletic Conference schedule. The Tigers lost the first three games of the season, but have since improved to 14-5, including the current streak-game winning streak.

The Tigers have two local/area players on the roster this fall. Wayne High graduate Karissa Hochstein and former Allen Eagle Kelli Rastede are both listed as varsity members for Coach Cindy

WSC golfers take fourth

Wayne junior Monica Novak placed tenth overall and the Wayne State women's team finished fourth overall as the college golf team wrapped up its fall season last weekend.

The team competed in the Northern Sun conference championship meet in Willmar, Minn., last weekend to finish its competitive schedule for 2004.

The Wildcats carded a two-day, 54-hole total of 1120 after completing rounds of 382, 367 and 371.

Southwest Minnesota State won its fifth straight conference title with a three-round team score of 990.

Novak shot rounds of 88, 88 and 82 for her total of 258.

Johnna Olson placed 23rd with 272 with 91-89-92, while Jessi Jensen was 25th at 280 (92-91-97) and Keri Barel finished 30th overall with 310 after carding rounds of 111, 99 and 110.

Rotary Students of the Week are chosen in Wayne

Rotary Students of the Week for September were: Sept. 8, Kristin Liska, seventh grade, daughter of Bob and Stephanie Liska of Wayne.

Liska was nominated by Mrs. Lee Brogie because she is an outstanding student. Brogie added that she is incredibly enthusiastic and uses her creativity in finding ways to help herself and others to learn. Kristin has a delightful sense of humor, a wonderfully scientific way of thinking and a joy to have in class.

Sept. 15, Ryan Pieper, eighth grade, son of Mike and Diane Pieper of Wayne was nominated by Lonnie Ehrhardt. Ryan has taken on a role of positive leadership for this school year. Ehrhardt also noted that he is a good role model, displays a positive attitude, good work ethic and his performance in the classroom and on the field of athletic competition will be a positive for everyone in the Middle School.

Sept. 22, Logan Owens and Shelby Smith, both seventh graders, were chosen as Students of the Week. Logan's parents are Randy and Lori Owens of Carroll. Shelby Smith is the daughter of Leon and Stacy Brasch of Wayne.

Dave Hix nominated Owens and Smith because, in the Engineering Structures Unit, both Shelby and Ryan broke the current record for the amount of weight a balsa structure can hold. The previous record was 205 pounds. Shelby and Logan's structure held 217 pounds. The tower weighed 11.8 grams and held 217 pounds with an efficiency rating of 8,348.98 - which means the tower held over 8000 times its own weight.

Sept. 29, Beverly Bernhagen, eighth grade, daughter of Candace Bernhagen of Wayne was chosen as Student of the Week. She was nominated by Misty Bear because Beverly has a wonderful attitude about school. Her teacher added that she is a leader in her room, always pushing others to do better.

LIBRARY BOARD
 Six members of the Lied

Winside Public Library Board of Directors met Oct. 4 with President Helen Hancock presiding.

The secretary's and treasurer's reports were read and approved. The librarian report showed 591 items loaned, of which 231 were adult and 360 were children. There were three renewed readers and four new readers.

Donations were received from Bill Burris, Leon Koch, JoAnn Field, Bonnie Van Houten, Brenda Seeman and John Osborn.

Fifty-one individuals visited the Bus-eum POW exhibit in Winside on Sept. 30.

The following books were purchased for the library from this display: "Only The Least of Me is Hostage: Midwest POW's in Nazi Germany," "Behind Barbed Wire: Midwest POW's in Nazi Germany" and "Searching for Anne Frank: Letters from Amsterdam, Iowa."

The Lied Winside Public Library has received accreditation through September of 2007.

A Halloween Party is tentatively being planned for Sunday, Oct. 31. More information on this will be given later.

New winter library hours are in effect. They are Mondays and Wednesdays from 1 to 6 p.m.; Tuesdays from 4 to 8 p.m. and Saturdays from 9 a.m. to noon and 1 to 4 p.m.

An illuminated world globe on a stand has been donated to the library in memory of Gene Rohlf from her family.

A series of books titled "Discover America State by State" will be purchased starting with Nebraska and surrounding states.

The next board meeting will be Monday, Nov. 1 at 7 p.m.

HOSKINS SENIORS MEET

Hoskins Senior Citizens met on Oct. 5 at the community center. Pitch was played with prizes going to Betty Andersen, Ramona Puls and Vera Brogie. Ramona Puls and Shirley Mann brought treats for their birthdays.

The next get-together will be on Oct. 19.

ATTEND OKTOBERFEST

Bill and Hildegard Fenske attended the Oktoberfest in Amana, Iowa, on the weekend of Oct. 1-3. Before returning home, they visited their granddaughter Laura Grace and her daughter in Omaha.

DORCAS SOCIETY MEETS

Peace United Church of Christ Dorcas Society met at the church on Oct. 7.

President Lottie Klein presided and gave the opening prayer. She also read a poem entitled "October."

Eight members answered roll call. Christine Lueker was the hostess and they sang her favorite song "Blest Be the Tie." They also sang Happy Birthday to her.

A birthday card and two shut-in cards were sent. Money from the Craft and Bake sale will be sent to Camp Kaleo. The secretary and treasurer's reports were read and approved.

They were reminded to bring their thank offering to the November meeting.

Shirley Mann will be the Nov. 4 hostess.

Lottie closed with this thought: "America was a great land when Columbus discovered it. Americans made it a great nation."

Lottie had the lesson on Isaiah, chap. 42. They closed with the Lord's Prayer.

ZION LUTHERAN LADIES

Zion Lutheran Ladies Aid and LWML met on Oct. 7 with six members and one guest and Pastor Riege, present.

Joyce Saegbarth had the Christian Growth topic entitled "Marten Luther." The group sang "A Mighty Fortress is our God."

Pastor Riege's topic was on Christian stewardship.

President Diane Koepke opened the meeting. Roll call was taken and the group said the LWML Pledge and each contributed 10 cents. Secretary and treasurer's reports were given and approved. No visitor or cheer cards were sent.

The Fall Rally was on Oct. 9 at Christ Lutheran in Norfolk.

Fall church cleaning was on Oct. 10.

The Altar Guild for October consists of Diane Koepke, Liz Weich, LaVerda Kruger, and Koriena Eckstrom. Ione Fahrenholz will be in charge of flowers.

The hostess for November will be Elaine Ehlers.

The meeting closed with the Lord's Prayer and table prayer. October birthdays were Ione Fahrenholz and guest Delma Vyhldal.

Oct. 17-24 is Radon Awareness Week

The Nebraska Health and Human Services System, (HHSS), Radon Program and the Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) are encouraging homeowners to check their radon levels during Radon Awareness Week, Oct. 17-24.

According to the EPA, long-term exposure to radon is the second leading cause of lung cancer in the United States and is responsible for up to 30,000 lung-cancer cases each year.

"Testing is the only way to know if your home has an elevated radon level," said Sara Morgan with the HHSS Indoor Air Quality Program.

Blood donors are needed

As the rural community is deep into harvest season, the chances for unfortunate accidents with heavy equipment increase and so does the need for consistent volunteer blood donors.

It is vital that rescue teams have all the tools they need to respond to accidents quickly and offer patients the most opportunity for survival and recovery. One of the most valuable tools is an adequate supply of blood on the shelves when patients arrive at the hospital.

Blood only comes from humans and is only available through the kindness of volunteer blood donation.

The Siouxland Community Blood Bank needs to collect over 1000 units of blood each week to keep up with the needs of the 28 area hospitals they supply blood to in Iowa, Nebraska and South Dakota. Since only five percent of those eligible volunteer to donate blood, we ask you to consider giving this gift of life to help a friend, family member or neighbor. The cost is only a little of your time. Saving lives in your community; priceless.

Your next opportunity to donate is Wednesday, Oct. 20 from 2-6 at the Fire and Rescue Hall in Winside.

To be eligible to donate blood individuals must be at least 17 years of age; however there is no upper age limit as long as the donor is in good health. In addition donors need to weigh over 110 pounds and have not donated whole blood in the past 56 days. A photo I.D. is required at the time of registration.

For more information about "Heroes Unite, It's About Life", the Siouxland Community Blood Bank or blood drives in your area, call 712-252-4208, 1-800-798-4208 or visit their website at www.siouxlandbloodbank.org

"You can't guess your radon level based on a neighbor's results because concentrations can vary, even in houses next to each other."

Radon is an invisible, odorless, radioactive gas found in nature that exists in varying amounts in soil. It can enter homes through cracks or holes in concrete floors or walls, sump pits, and drinking water from private wells. Once trapped inside an enclosed space, radon can accumulate.

There are ways to successfully reduce high levels of radon in homes however; a trained professional should determine which method would work best in each situation.

While only a small percentage of Nebraska homes have been tested for radon, one out of two homes have elevated levels of radon, which puts people at risk.

Test kits are available at the radon program office while supplies last. "To get an accurate reading the device should be left in place for a minimum of 48 hours," Morgan says. This quick screening can indicate potential problems and the need for additional testing.

Test kits are available by calling Sara Morgan at (402) 471-8320, or call the Nebraska Radon Hotline at 1-800-334-9491.

For more information regarding radon, check the HHSS website at: <http://test.hhs.state.ne.us/enh/radon/radon.htm>.

Wacker to receive pin

Flordeliza Wacker, daughter of Bibiana Casinillo of Wayne, is one of 11 Morningside College nursing students who will receive pins at the 2004 Professional Beginnings Ceremony to be held Sunday, Oct. 24, at 2 p.m. at Grace United Methodist Church, 1735 Morningside Avenue.

Wacker is a senior majoring in nursing at Morningside.

The pinning ceremony signifies a milestone in the student's educational process. Each of the recipients is a third-year nursing student. They will receive a pin commemorating the work of Florence Nightingale.

The ceremony will include a welcome, by Dr. William Deeds, vice president for academic affairs and dean of the college, along with an address from nursing faculty members including Jacklyn Barber, Dr. Kathleen Buchheit, Sharlene Georgesen, and Mary Kovarna.

Display creates awareness

Haven House in Wayne recently set up a display at Main Street Wayne to help bring awareness to the growing problem of domestic violence in our nation. October is National Domestic Violence Awareness month. The t-shirts in the background were decorated by victims of domestic violence. The figure in the front is part of the Silent Witness exhibit that is on display at several businesses in Wayne.

Mayor remains on board as result of recent election

The election of the 2004-05 Executive Board of the League of Nebraska Municipalities was held at the League's annual business meeting in North Platte recently in conjunction with the League's 2004 annual conference. Mayor of Wayne Sheryl Lindau will remain a member of the board as a past president. Ralston Mayor Don Groesser was elected president, Kimball Mayor Greg Robinson was elected president-elect. Directors elected to the board are the following: Mike Fahey, mayor of Omaha, Jo Dee Adelung, mayor of Nebraska City; Dr. Gordon Adams, mayor of Norfolk; Marlene Johnson, mayor of West Point; Jim Whitaker, mayor of North Platte; Coleen Seng, mayor of Lincoln; Doug Hanson, city council president of Hickman; Rick Sheehy, mayor of Hastings; and Curt Friesen, mayor of Henderson. Representatives on the board are the following: Chris Anderson, city administrator of Central City; Pamela K. Richter, clerk of Gering; and Michael Lucas, utility superintendent of Broken Bow. The 15-member executive board is the governing body of the League of Nebraska Municipalities. The group formulates the policy and philosophy of the League. Each year the board approves a budget, which determines how much revenue is necessary and available and where it will be allocated. Board members also set policy by the decisions concerning League programs and legislation.

Some pumpkins!!!

Anna Kruger of Wayne had quite a surprise when she harvested her pumpkins this fall. The third grader found these three conjoined pumpkins among the 60 she harvested. Each started out as two separate pumpkins and grew together. Anna is the daughter of Judy and Jerry Kruger.

Rudin is national merit semi-finalist

Terry Munson, counselor at Wayne High School, has received notification from National Merit Scholarship Corporation that Adem Rudin is a semi-finalist in the 50th annual competition. Adem is a senior at Wayne High School and will graduate in May of 2005.

To earn semi-finalist status, Adem scored in the top one percent of over 7,600 students in Nebraska who took the PSAT qualifying test in October of 2003. To be considered for a Merit Scholarship award, semi-finalists must fulfill several requirements and advance to the Finalist level of the competition. About 90 percent of the semi-finalists are expected to become Finalists and approximately half of the Finalists will be selected as Merit Scholarship winners.

Founded in 1955 to conduct the annual Merit Scholarship competition, NMSC is a not-for-profit organization that operates without government assistance. Scholarships awarded through the National Merit Program are underwritten by approximately 500 business organizations and higher education institutions as well as by NMSC's own funds. Independent sponsors have provided scholarships through the National Merit Program beginning with the first awards offered in 1956, supporting NMSC's goals of honoring the nation's scholastic champions and encouraging the pursuit of academic excellence. Three types of Merit Scholarship awards will be offered in 2005. Every Finalist will compete for one of 2,500 National Merit $2,500 Scholarships that will be awarded on a state representational basis.

In addition, some 300 corporations and business organizations will underwrite about 1,100 corporate-sponsored scholarships for

Adem Rudin

Finalists who meet their specified criteria, such as children of the grantor's employees or residents of communities where sponsor plants or offices are located. Also, about 200 colleges and universities are expected to finance some 4,600 college-sponsored Merit Scholarship awards for Finalists who will attend the sponsoring institution. Merit Scholarship winners of 2005 will be announced in four nationwide news releases beginning in April and concluding in July. These scholarship recipients will join more than 226,000 other distinguished young people who have earned the Merit Scholar title.

Receives recognition

For Family Day at Wayne State College recently, a campus-wide competition determined the most creative, functional and uniquely-decorated student residence hall rooms. WSC director of residence life Jeff Carstens congratulates Eric Holmes of Pile Hall for his selection as the occupant with one of two of the top rooms on campus. Stacy Pelican and Leann Bolte had the other top room on campus during the competition.

An untitled painting by Bryan Holland. The artist's work will be featured at the Nordstrand Visual Arts Gallery, Wayne State College campus from Oct. 19 to Nov. 12.

WSC to exhibit Bryan Holland paintings

The Nordstrand Visual Arts Gallery at Wayne State College will exhibit work by painter Bryan Holland of Sioux Falls, S.D. from Oct. 19 to Nov. 12. A reception will be held from 4:30 to 6 p.m. in the gallery located in the Peterson Fine Arts Building on campus.

Earlier in the day, Holland will present a demonstration in the painting studio at 1:30 p.m. and a slide show at 3:30 p.m. in design room 118 on Oct. 19. Both presentations will be in the Studio Arts Building on campus.

The public is welcome to attend all these events. There is no admission charge.

Holland, an assistant professor of art at the University of Sioux Falls, teaches design courses. He has also been working as an artist and operating a gallery in Gregory, S.D. Holland completed his MFA in December 1997 in painting at the University of South Dakota in Vermillion. He also graduated with a BA in art from the University of Sioux Falls/ Augustana College joint art program in Sioux Falls in 1991.

Holland has shown work in solo exhibits at Washington Pavilion in Sioux Falls, S.D.; Sioux City Art Center in Sioux City, Iowa; and the Dahl Fine Arts Center, Rapid City, S.D. His work is featured in an Exhibits USA traveling exhibit and published in the national magazine New American Paintings (Western States division, issue #18 - October 1998).

The exhibit will be available for viewing at the Nordstrand Visual Arts Gallery, located in the Peterson Fine Arts Building, on campus from 9 a.m. - 4:30 p.m. on Monday through Friday when classes are in session.

Heart Truth: Women at risk event scheduled

The Heart Truth coalition of Northeast Nebraska is planning a time of fun and education at the Ponca State Park Education Center on Monday, Oct. 25, 11 a.m. - 1 p.m.

The event will include a "red dress" style show highlighting styles from various retail establishments including: Swan's Apparel, Diamond Center, Stadium Sports, Pamida, and Weekenders of Wayne and All-Native of Sioux City. Joan Burney, well-known columnist, author, and motivational humorist will emcee the event.

Dr. Barb Engebretsen, exercise physiologist at Wayne State College, will educate participants so they can estimate their own risk for developing heart disease and provide information for reducing these risk factors. A mini-health fair as well as blood pressure checks will also be available.

The public is invited to attend for a cost of $10. This includes a soup/salad luncheon, the style show, educational presentation and mini-health fair. Local sponsors for the event include Northeast Nebraska Public Health Dept., Wayne County American Red Cross, Every Woman Matters-Goldenrod Hills, Omaha Tribe Diabetes Program, Providence Medical Center, Avera Sacred Heart Hospital, Pender Community Hospital, Mercy Medical Center.

The National Heart Truth campaign targets area beauty salons and massage therapists as educational outreach sites. These sites were chosen because that is where many women go to take a few moments to relax and focus on themselves. They are an ideal setting to place valuable health information that will motivate women to act now to protect their hearts and convince other women to take positive action as well.

Displays of educational materials will be provided for them to take back to their salons. To that end, salon owners and stylists are invited to attend free of charge.

The idea of a heart attack for most people brings to mind images of a man clutching his chest or left arm. But women are by no means invulnerable to heart disease. In fact, heart disease is the #1 killer of women in the United States. Nearly twice as many women in the U.S. die of heart disease and stroke as from all forms of cancer, including breast cancer. However, many women do not realize they are at risk!

The Heart Truth, developed by the National Heart, Lung and Blood Institute, is a nationwide public education campaign aimed at women ages 35+. The goals of the campaign are to give women a wake up call about their risk of heart disease and to build awareness of the signs and symptoms of heart disease. A specially designed "Red Dress Pin" serves as the national symbol of women and heart disease awareness with the message that "heart disease doesn't care what you wear".

National partners in this campaign include the American Heart Association, the National Coalition for Women with Heart Disease, the Office of Women's Health and the National Women's Health Information Center. Partners in our state include the Nebraska Health and Human Service System's Cardiovascular Health Program and Office of Women's Health, the American Heart Association of Nebraska and many others.

Please contact Northeast Nebraska Public Health Dept., 375-2200, (402) 375-2260 for tickets. Deadline is Wednesday, Oct. 20.

Lifestyle

The Wayne Herald

Start walking to help maintain or lose weight

The percentage of overweight adults and youth is rising due to energy intakes and expenditures often being out of balance. While portion sizes may be larger than in the past, activity levels tend to be lower. For example, more than 60 percent of American adults do not get the recommended 30 minutes of physical activity a day and 25 percent of American adults aren't physically active at all.

Eating fewer calories works up to a point. However, it is difficult to consume adequate nutrients from a decreased amount of food and it is hard to maintain a diet when hunger is constant. The body becomes more efficient in using fewer calories and weight loss actually may be less than on a higher-calorie diet.

Adding more activity everyday can increase the amount of calories that can be consumed to maintain or lose weight. To pursue a more active lifestyle, start by walking. As a general guideline, a person will burn about 100 calories walking a mile. Expending an additional 100 calories per day will help a person lose about 10 pounds a year.

There are health benefits in addition to losing weight from walking. Walking can increase cardiovascular health. Walking is not only good for physical health, but also for mental health. Taking a short walk can help decrease stress, reduce tension and can increase energy levels. Walking can help you feel better.

Invest in a pedometer to help sustain motivation. Health experts recommend walking around 10,000 steps per day or about five miles on most days for cardiovascular health. More steps may be needed for weight loss. Some pedometers can be adjusted to calculate miles, speed and approximate calories burned, but simply monitoring the number of steps is enough and may be more accurate than some other measurements. Determine the current number of steps taken for a couple of days and gradually build up.

The University of Nebraska has a program to help you do that. STEPS for HEALTH is a 15-week program to help you work up to 10,000 steps per day. We are starting a new program, with registration until Oct. 15. You can select a registration that includes the pedometer or purchase your own. All registrations receive a refund at the completion of the program. Orientations will be held for those interested.

If it doesn't seem possible to set aside time for exercise, look for normal daytime activities where walking can be included. At work, use the bathroom farthest from the office or on a different floor.

Walk around the office while in a phone conference or walk to someone's office instead of sending an e-mail. Walk while conversing with coworkers or friends.

At home, create opportunities to use stairs. Store frequently used items up- or down- stairs. Rather than wasting time watching commercials or waiting for the microwave, take a quick walk up and down the stairs or to another area and back. Take short walks between work activities rather than wait until all tasks are finished. For example, put in a load of laundry and walk around the block. Repeat until laundry is done. Instead of using gas while running errands, walk to a nearby shopping center, pharmacy, post office, etc.

This time of year you may also want to look for locations to walk inside. Schools or recreation centers may provide opportunities. It doesn't hurt to find a friend to walk with as well. It can be motivating to have someone to walk with.

When traveling, use a combination of walking, public transportation and taxis instead of a rental car. This will save money and more scenery can be enjoyed when walking. Always check with someone about safe walking areas. A cell phone and the phone numbers of taxi companies might be convenient items to carry in case the weather changes or one tires of walking.

Remember that now is the time to sign up for the STEPS program.

For more information or to register contact the Dixon County Extension Office at 402-584-2234, or register on-line at WWW.DIXON.UNL.EDU.

Engagements

Lipp - Tasler

Dennis and Gerelda Lipp of Wayne and Mike and Kathy Tasler of Gretna have announced the engagement of their children, Natasha Ruth and Nathan Michael, both of Gretna.

The bride-to-be is a 1997 graduate of Wayne High School and a 2003 graduate of Wayne State College. She is currently employed by Bellevue Public Schools as a Special Education teacher.

Her fiancé is a 1998 graduate of Rockwell City-Lytton High School and a 2003 graduate of the University of Northern Iowa. He is employed by Tradewell Pallet, Inc. The couple is planning a Nov. 20, 2004 wedding at the First United Methodist Church in Wayne.

Bakers to celebrate golden anniversary

Alice and Jerry Baker, formerly of the Wakefield and Wayne area, and now of Chadron, will celebrate their 50th wedding anniversary with a card shower on Sunday, Oct. 17.

Cards may be sent to them at P.O.B. 648, Chadron, Neb. 69337-0648.

Their children are Steve and Ruth Baker of Hemingford, David and Cindy Baker of Chadron and Brett and Noelle Baker of Overland Park Kan. They also have six grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

A celebration will be held later in the year with Alice and Jerry taking a trip to California.

Briefly Speaking

Wayne Women's Club to learn about quilts

WAYNE - Twenty members of PEO, Chapter AZ, met in the home of Donna Liska on Oct. 5 for the annual Fall Luncheon. Assisting hostesses were Joan Lage, Marie Mohr and Margaret McClelland.

Following lunch Connie Glassmeyer led the group in the singing of several Halloween songs.

A memorial service was held for Beulah Atkins, PEO member who had recently passed away.

The next meeting of the Chapter will be Tuesday, Oct. 19 in the home of Betty Reeg.

Wayne-Dixon Chapter of Thrivent to hold elections

The Wayne-Dixon Chapter of Thrivent Financial for Lutherans will be holding Chapter Elections on Sunday, Oct. 17 at 6 p.m.

The fall meeting and pork loin supper will be served to policy holders with the event to held at Grace Lutheran Church in Wayne.

So far during 2004, the Wayne-Dixon Chapter has conducted benefits for Jess Gibson, Amy and Valarie Dowling, Dan Bruggeman and Marlys Rice families.

Community Care Service projects which have been completed include the Winside Library, Memorial Plaza for the Volunteer Fire Department in Wayne, the Carroll Auditorium kitchen remodeling project, and several others.

Last year, Thrivent Financial's nearly 33 million members contributed 14.4 million hours through Thrivent Financial's sponsored activities.

A program will follow the supper. Paul Jensen, LCS from Council Bluffs, Iowa will have a power point presentation on what it means to be fraternal, Thrivent's three care projects, member benefits and gift-matching.

Garrison Keillor, a Grammy winning performer, author and radio-show host will be performing a benefit concert in Omaha on Sunday, Oct. 24. Thrivent Financial for Lutherans is sponsoring the event, titled, "An Afternoon with Keillor" at the Civic Auditorium. Tickets will be available at this chapter meeting for 425 per ticket.

As a not-for-profit organization, Thrivent Financial sponsors national outreach programs and activities that support congregations, schools, charitable organizations and needy individuals.

Bible Institute is held in West Point

The second session of the West Point Circuit Bible Institute was held Oct. 10 at St. John in Beemer.

The choir from St. John in Pender opened the session with music selections. Pastor Brion Tolzman, of Trinity in Walthill/Decatur, gave the opening devotions.

The Rev. Glen Gutz of Mount Olive in Norfolk presented the topic for the evening, "The Christ-Centered Life."

Pastor Ricky Jacob of Jesus our Savior in Winnebago gave the closing devotion.

Lunch was served by the members of Faith in Stanton.

The next gathering will be held Sunday, Oct. 17 at St. John in Beemer. The Rev. David Weaver of Meadow Grove in Tilden will present the topic "Many gods, Many choices," at 7 p.m.

The public is invited to attend.

Riders in this year's "Wheels for Life" pose with co-coordinators Cec Vandersnick and Jan Gamble and Wayne Police Officer Matt Hoffman.

Eagles sponsor 'Wheels for Life'

The Wayne Eagles sponsored the St. Jude's "Wheels for Life" fundraiser on Sept. 24 at Henry Victor Park.

The 15 rides at the Bike-a-Thon raised over $600. The participants used bicycles, tricycles, a motorized car and a stroller to collect their pledges.

Wayne Police Officer Matt

Hoffman led the riders on the first round after talking about bicycle rules and safety.

Zachery Jorgensen raised the most money and will receive a DVD player.

The riders and families were treated to supper and prizes at the Eagles Club following the event. The meal committee was made up of Glendora Wieseler, Mary Wert and Cindy Milligan.

Wayne businesses helping with prizes and advertising were Pamida, Godfathers, Tacos & More, First National Bank and the Wayne Herald.

Co-coordinators were Jan Gamble and Cec Vandersnick.

Riders for the event were Ande Schulz, Ashley Gilliland, Danielle Gilliland, Lauren Gilliland, Devan Henschke, Hannah Gamble, Jamie Gamble, Kendall Gamble, Halie Chinn, Alyssa Chinn, Zach Jorgensen, Emily Claussen and Allison Claussen.

Higher moisture corn makes storage, drying critical for farmers

Nebraska farmers may be finding corn is wetter than usual at harvest this year. That higher moisture content means proper drying and storage will be especially important to preserve the grain, a University of Nebraska Cooperative Extension educator said.

Corn in parts of Nebraska matured slower than normal, thanks to this summer's cool, cloudy weather. That has left corn with higher harvest-time moisture content than in recent years, said Tom Dorn, extension educator in Lancaster County.

"With farmers anxious to get going this time of year and corn not being as dry as it usually is, farmers need to realize storage and drying is critical this year," Dorn said.

Successful grain storage and management is a long-term operation that has a major impact on the crop's income potential, he said. If wet grain isn't dried quickly and stored properly, it can spoil, which severely lowers its value.

"There are quite a few people starting with corn at 20 percent moisture in their bins," Dorn said, about five percent higher than ideal.

"This is slightly wetter than we'd like to see people start, but with the proper airflow and temperature it won't spoil."

Dorn said it's critical for farmers to know how much air needs to be moving through their bins to dry corn quickly. For example, corn with 20 percent moisture content needs 1 cubic foot of airflow per minute per bushel.

Grain temperature also is important. Corn needs to be cooled to 50 to 55 degrees as soon as possible after harvest.

"With rapidly rising energy costs, taking out four or five points of moisture in the bin can run into big bucks," Dorn said.

The time required to dry grain depends on the grain's initial moisture content, the grain dryer's airflow rate, the humidity and temperature of air coming into the bin, and how much the temperature inside is increasing if a heated drying system is used, he said.

Stored grain should be checked with a temperature probe at least once a month. Grain temperatures can be kept uniform throughout by periodically running the aeration fan, Dorn said.

For more information about drying and storing grain, visit Crop Watch, Nebraska Cooperative Extension's crop production newsletter, on the Web at <http://cropwatch.unl.edu/archives/2004/crop04-21.htm#storage>. For more information about measuring the amount of airflow needed in a bin, call Dorn at (402) 441-7180, e-mail tdorn1@unl.edu or contact a local Cooperative Extension office.

For more information on holding and drying wet corn, consult Nebraska Cooperative Extension NebGuides, G87-862-A, Holding Wet Corn With Aeration, available on the Web at <http://ianrpubs.unl.edu/farmbuildings/g862.htm>, or G85-760-A, Natural Air Corn Drying, available on the Web at <http://ianrpubs.unl.edu/farmbuildings/g760.htm>. Both are available at local Cooperative Extension offices.

Roadside cleanup

Several members of the Blue Ribbon Winners 4-H Club met Sept. 12 for roadside cleanup as part of their community service project. The club cleans the ditches along Highways 35 and 98 twice each year. Along with this, the club also made a donation to the military troops. They purchased various supplies and made a donation of $15 to help pay for the cost of shipping the supplies.

Scholarship program offers $1,000 awards to agricultural students

Students pursuing careers in agriculture are encouraged to apply for scholarships sponsored by Agriliance and CROPLAN GENETICS. High school seniors who will enroll in a two- or four-year agronomy or related crop production curriculum in the fall of 2005 are eligible to apply. Twenty $1,000 scholarships will be awarded.

"Students with leadership abilities and an interest in agriculture are needed to fill a variety of positions in our industry," said Annette Degan, scholarship committee chairperson. "The Careers in Agriculture scholarship program helps promising students gain the education they need to secure those positions."

Since its formation 15 years ago, the Careers in Agriculture scholarship program has awarded more than $420,000 in scholarships to rural youth.

To qualify for the program, students must meet the following criteria:

- Be a high school senior planning to enroll in a two- or four-year agronomy-related curriculum in the fall of 2005,
- Demonstrate both leadership abilities and academic performance, and
- Write an essay describing why he or she is interested in an agricultural career.

Applications are available from participating local cooperatives or on the Agriliance web site (www.agriliance.com) in the Careers section or at www.mbrs-services.com.

All applications must be post-marked by March 1, 2005. Winners will be notified in May.

For more information or to request an application, call 800-232-3639, ext. 4584.

Technology is great, when it works!

It's cool and cloudy here this morning, a good morning for sleeping late. Which is exactly what I did, and loved every minute of it. The only thing on my do list today is cleaning off my desk, and I'm not anxious to get started.

I finally got hold of my internet server last week, and he solved my problem in record time. But the inconvenience is such a bother. First, they get us used to technology; then, when it fails, we can't seem to operate without it. I couldn't print and fax the column because I have two new cartridges in my printer, and they won't print.

I'm told it's because I've switched from Windows ME to XP, and the printer needs to be informed of this. I don't know how to do that! And the guru who installed the new program lives in New Jersey. What a nuisance.

Anyway, today it looks as if I should be able to send this by e-mail, and for that I'm grateful. It's the same story with cell phones; we go along all or lives without one, now we think we always have to have one. We don't keep ours turned on, but sure rely on them in times of emergency.

Did you watch the game? I was baking cookies, as usual, but I noticed that the Big Farmer only yelled "Touchdown" one time. When the slaughter was over, he came into the office and announced, "We set two records:

The Farmer's Wife
By: Pat Meierhenry

Barrett Ruud has more tackles than anyone, and this is the worst defeat in our history."

I spoke to a church in Nebraska City on Sunday eve. They told me that when the minister requested names of the sick for whom to pray, someone in the congregation suggested, "the Huskers". Brother Jim e-mailed from Ohio that he was burning his red cap in a private ceremony. It certainly is a humbling experience. I spoke on Hospice to a paramedics class at Southeast Community College last night. What a dedicated group; all working other jobs, going to class one night a week for four years. They can intubate, start IVs, give meds, and read EKG strips and defibrilate.

We had a lot of discussion on DNR forms: Do Not Resuscitate forms. One sincere young man wondered what the expiration date for these would be. My thought would be when the signee expires! But he claims it isn't that simple. It really got me thinking. If a person signed one 10 years ago, he certainly would be more inclined to not want CPR now. However, all other orders in facilities need to be updated periodically.

Anyway, it leads me to remind all of you that next week is National Advance Directives Week. If you don't already have one, do one. Any health care agency can provide you with a form. Then discuss it with your loved ones, and let them know where you keep it. I can't imagine too many things worse than the situation Terri Schiavo is in Florida right now.

Meanwhile, enjoy the fall foliage. It's beautiful this year.

Livestock Market Report

The fat cattle sale was held Friday at the Norfolk Livestock Market. There was a run of 1,450 fat cattle. The market was $1 to $2 lower on fat cattle. Cows were $2 to $3 lower.

Freezing temperatures affect forages

Cold temperatures can affect how a plant metabolizes and produces new growth. Cold temperatures cause stress on plants and this sometimes can cause the plant to accumulate nitrates in the green tissue.

Alfalfa is one of those fall season crops that can accumulate nitrates but usually not to an excessive level. The main problem with alfalfa is bloating and this is increased for a few days after the frost. When the alfalfa begins to wilt or grow again, alfalfa becomes less likely to cause bloat and can be grazed again if one waits for several days after a frost.

Grass-like plants such as oats, millet, or sudangrass can accumulate nitrates that can be dangerous to animals if the plant material is harvested as green chop or hay. Again, wait for several days to allow the plant to recover from the cold temperatures before harvesting and this will reduce the risk.

Prussic acid is a more serious concern for the sorghum related plants like cane, sudangrass, shattercane and milo. Freezing temperatures break the plant cell membranes and that allows prussic acid to form inside the plant.

Livestock eating sorghum that has been frozen can get a sudden, high dose of prussic acid and potentially die. Wait three to five days after a freeze before grazing sorghums.

The safest procedure to protect animals from nitrate poisoning is to test the feed sample for nitrates if there is a chance that the feed is high in nitrates.

Almost all feedstuffs can be utilized for livestock feed if properly managed.

When it's more than a ding ...

it has to be fixed by the pros.

You Can Stay in the Area for Cataract Surgery... So You Can Focus on the Little Things.

Cataracts affect over 80% of our senior citizens. In fact over one million cataract surgeries are performed annually in the U.S. alone.

New technological developments in implants, ultrasonic equipment, lasers, diagnostic testing, and surgical techniques have made cataract surgery one of the most effective procedures today. Currently, over 98% of cataract patients experience significant improvements in vision, without major complications.

Until now, the high cost of this new technology for cataract surgery was only available in the larger surgical facilities. This meant that you would have to travel for a complete eye examination and surgery. Not any longer.

Complete eye care and cataract surgery is now available at Providence Medical Center in Wayne. You don't have to travel outside of your community to have your vision tested for cataracts. With Dr. Willcockson, Dr. Koerber and Dr. Magnuson offering comprehensive diagnostic and surgical services, you now have the most advanced eye care available right here in town.

Call Dr. Koerber or Dr. Magnuson for a complete eye examination and cataract vision screening today. If you would like more information on cataracts for yourself or someone you know who may be experiencing loss of vision, call today for a free informational brochure.

ELECTION PREVIEW

EDITOR'S NOTE
Nebraskans will be voting on eight issues when they go to the General Election polls on November 2. So that voters can better understand these important proposed changes to the state Constitution, the Nebraska Press Association in cooperation with this newspaper has prepared a series of reports on these issues. This report briefly defines the issues, explaining their purpose and finally stating the arguments for and against. This is the first report in the series.

ELECTION PREVIEW
It can be tough to raise money to protect historical properties. It can be even tougher, evidence shows, when improvements and repairs can in turn boost the taxes on the property. Voters would give the Legislature discretion to exempt the increased value of the property from taxation. The intent is to make it easier for communities and organizations to maintain historical properties without tax penalties.

PROPOSED AMENDMENT NO. 1
A vote FOR this proposal would authorize the Legislature to exempt from taxation, in whole or in part, the increased value of real property resulting from the renovation, rehabilitation, or preservation of historically significant real property. A vote AGAINST this proposal will not authorize a tax exemption for the increased value of real property resulting from the renovation, rehabilitation, or preservation of historically significant real property.

A constitutional amendment to authorize exemption of certain improvements to historically significant real property from property taxation.

SUPPORT: The State Historical Society, the State Historical Preservation Society, the Lied Main Street program, the City of North Platte, the Adams County Historical Society and the state's property tax administrator are on record in support of the plan.

OPPOSITION: There has been no organized opposition to the amendment.

ELECTION PREVIEW
Countless lawmakers have complained that the Legislature should not have a member of the executive branch of government as its presiding officer. Lt. Gov. Dave Heineman agrees. The constitution currently assigns the lieutenant to preside over the Unicameral's floor sessions. It's a situation that has prompted allegations of partisanship over the years. The lieutenant governor is elected on a partisan ballot. Lawmakers are elected on nonpartisan ballots, although party affiliations often figure in debate. The Legislature has put this proposal before the electorate several times, only to have it rejected.

PROPOSED AMENDMENT NO. 2
A vote FOR this proposal will eliminate provisions that make the Lieutenant Governor the presiding officer of the Legislature and eliminate a provision that enables the Lieutenant Governor to vote on issues before the Legislature when the vote is a tie. A vote AGAINST this proposal will retain the Lieutenant Governor as the presiding officer of the Legislature and continue the Lieutenant Governor's authority to vote on issues before the Legislature when the vote is a tie.

A constitutional amendment to remove the Lieutenant Governor and designate the Speaker as presiding officer of the Legislature.

SUPPORT: Heineman and the administration of Gov. Mike Johanns favor it. So does the Legislature.

OPPOSITION: No organized opposition surfaced.

Legion Auxiliary gathers

Irwin L. Sears Auxiliary #43 met Oct. 5 at the Eveline Thompson residence. President Fauneil Hoffman opened the meeting with colors in place. The POW/MIA flag was placed on the empty chair. Prayer was given by the president, followed by the Pledge of Allegiance to the flag and the singing of one verse of the "Star Spangled Banner." The Unit Citation preamble to the Constitution of the American Legion Auxiliary. The minutes were read and approved. The treasurer's report was given by Treasurer Eveline Thompson.

Mary Brogen to observe 96th birthday

Mary Brogen of Dakota City, formerly of Winside will observe her 96th birthday on Thursday, Oct. 21. In honor of this event, her family has requested a card shower. Her family includes Rod and Claire Brogen of Winside and Janet and Richard McCormick of Dakota City. She also has seven grandchildren and six great-grandchildren. Cards may be sent to her at 509 200th Street, Dakota, City, Neb. 68731.

A letter from Department President Mary Ann Otte was read. She indicated working together as a family in membership so the organization can achieve service to the veterans, children and to communities and make a presence known.

A letter was also read from District 3 President Jackie O'Neil reminding the auxiliary to mail in the Gift Shop assignment and for Veteran Dollar Day held in November.

The auxiliary received a thank you card from the Roy Sommerfeld family for a memorial donation. The American Legion Auxiliary held a bingo party at the Norfolk Veterans Home on Sept. 18. Members served pumpkin and lemon bars. Those attending were Fauneil Hoffman, Eveline Thompson and Harold E. Thompson, Jr.

American Legion Auxiliary, VFW Auxiliary and DAV Auxiliary served a chicken supper at the Norfolk Veterans Home on Sept. 27. There were 70 persons served that evening.

Guests were Ray and Mabel Peterson. Ray Peterson furnished the music. The veterans enjoyed their meal the the special music provided for them. Those helping were Fauneil Hoffman, Bonnie Otte, Glennadine Barker, Darlene Elaine Draghu, Eveline Thompson, Harold E. Thompson, Jr. and Eddie and Verna Mae Baier. There are 30 paid up members for the year 2005. The auxiliary ordered small poppies for Poppy Day which will be held in Wayne at a date which will be set later.

Donations were made to the following: a gift for "Yanks Who Gave," Gift Shop, Veteran Dollar Day, Home Theater System for the Norfolk Veteran's Day, Auxiliary Emergency Fund, Department President Project, Norfolk Veteran's Home Assessment fund and a project for Carol Van Kirk fund.

Veteran's Dollar Day will be held Thursday, Nov. 4 at 2 p.m. at the Norfolk Veteran's Home Home. Gifts for "Yanks Who Gave," will be held Wednesday, Dec. 10 at 2 p.m. at the Norfolk Veteran's Home.

Draping of the Charter was held for Beulah Atkins who died Oct. 5. President Fauneil Hoffman gave the prayer, followed by the singing of one stanza of "America." The meeting was closed, to reopen on Monday, Nov. 1 at the Eveline Thompson residence.

Following the meeting, a salad bar luncheon was served.

Lois Siefken

Lois Siefken to observe birthday

Lois Siefken of Wayne will observe her 80th birthday on Friday, Oct. 15. Her family includes her husband, Arnold and children, Richard and Susan Siefken of Wayne, Cheryl Siefken of Lincoln, Don and Cindy Siefken of Rogers, Ark. and Arnold Jr. and Sally Siefken of Jamestown, N.D. She has nine grandchildren and one great-great grandson.

Acme Club meets

Eight Acme club members met Oct. 4 in the Verdelle Reeg home. President Reeg called the meeting to order. Bonnadell Koch gave the thought for the day.

Roll call was answered by answering the question "What do you do when your'e bored?" The minutes were read and approved. The treasurer's report was read and filed for review. Joann Temme and Elinor Jensen volunteered to gather items and pictures for the Library Display board to celebrate the 120th anniversary of the club. The auditing committee found the books to be in order.

The group's Monday, Oct. 18 meeting will be a visit to the Wayne State College planetarium with lunch at the Senior Center prior to the tour. The meeting adjourned and Verdelle Reeg introduced Linda Monk from Flowers & Wine. She gave a program on flower arrangements, care and preserving of cut flowers.

The hostess served an apple dessert for lunch.

"I'm Doing Fine Now. All Because I went To The Eye Doctor."

"I came here for my glaucoma for a regular appointment. I said to the doctor that for a few moments I lost vision in the lower part of my eye. Dr. Feidler said it was not an eye problem, but a circulatory problem. He told me to see my regular doctor. I flunked all the tests. They tried an angioplasty but it didn't work. So I had a bypass operation. It was a surprise to me. But I'm doing fine now. All because I went to the eye doctor."
