Important announcement

An announcement was made at Friday's Chamber of Commerce Coffee in regard to an Interim Executive Director for the Chamber. Leo Ahmann, second from left, will assume those duties on Monday, Nov. 1. He replaces Bill Trick, who left the Chamber in August to assume a position in Ohio.

Hal Stearns to make Lewis & Clark presentation

The libraries of Wayne will host Dr. Hal Stearns in the final program of "A Meeting of Two Cultures: The Lewis and Clark Expedition" series on Monday, Nov. 8.

Dr. Stearns will present the program "Technology, the Corps to the Northwest and the Indians" at 12:30 p.m. and at 7 p.m. Both events will be held in Ramsey Theatre on the Wayne State College campus. Following the evening program will be a reception sponsored by the Wayne State Foundation. All are invited to stay and visit with Dr. Stearns.

Lewis and Clark and the expedition members brought many "new-fangled" materials from their culture and Native Americans introduced much to the expedition members. Each group would learn much as they were schooled by the other.

Technology, however simple or complex, is not only a tool, but a mirror into a culture. There were vast differences between the materials that Lewis and Clark brought along on their travels and the tools, clothing and weapons which the tribes had in the early 1800s. A clash and confluence of the cultures

Plans are underway to form business improvement district

By Clara Osten
Of the Herald

Move forward with the steps necessary to form a business improvement district.

That that was the general consensus of those attending the TEAM 15 meeting on Monday.

Randy Pedersen served as spokesperson for the meeting.

The purpose of the meeting was to discuss what, if any, enhancements will be done when work is done on Main Street in 2006.

He told those in attendance that if a Business Improvement District (BID) is formed, the cost of the enhancements would be shared between all the owners of record with Main Street frontage.

"We need to decide what we want Main Street to look like for the next 20 or 30 years. We need upgrades to make Main Street look better to help attract businesses and students," Pedersen said.

He also explained that state statute determines the guidelines for establishing a BID and that the district is not "pushed on us by the city." He also said that forming a BID is important, because without it, the group cannot ask the city for money to help finance the improvements.

At the present time, the boundaries of the district are proposed to run from Clark Street to Fourth Street.

Without any upgrades, the state will pay for 100 percent of the work done to the street and sidewalks.

Among the proposed upgrades are bricks, sidewalk subgrades, trees, plantings, benches, trash receptacles and possibly restrooms.

The estimated total cost of the project (without the restrooms) is $400,000.

With funding from T-21 and Surface Transportation Program (STP) funds, the city could pay up to 80 percent. This would mean that business owners would pay $28 per running foot or $700

Sheckler visits plane in new home

By Clara Osten
Of the Herald

A plane once owned by Bob Sheckler of Wayne now has a place in history in a museum in Hudson, Colo. Sheckler was recently able to travel to the Platte Valley Airport, just north of Hudson, to tour the museum and see 'his' plane.

The plane is now in a museum which was started by John Parks, a doctor in the Denver area. His son, Andy, is now in charge of the museum.

Sheckler flew from Omaha to Denver and was picked up at the airport by Andy Parks. Parks had arranged for the trip and served as Sheckler's host while in Colorado.

"My plane is in the museum. It now has a computer simulator and the kids visiting the museum like to 'fly' it. It doesn't have wings because there isn't enough room in the hangar where it is kept," Bob said.

He said that the hangar is filled with World War I planes including four from the 1916-1917 time period.

"These are exact replicas of dog-fight planes of that time period. One of the planes, a Fokker DR I, was built in 1917 and has three wings," he said.

Another of the planes, a Fokker D VIII, was built

Main Street Focus

This is my last column as the Executive Director of the Main Street Wayne Program.

At the present time, board members/representatives of the Chamber, Main Street and Wayne Industries are meeting and will continue to meet to consolidate the programs.

Please, if you would, take just a minute and give that some thought... consolidating three excellent programs, all working for Wayne, in a united front...

If I started to thank everyone who assisted me personally, or who has made a commitment to the Main Street Program during my tenure, I would run out of space.

A special thank you from me has to go to the Main Street Board members who originally hired me to work for them.

Another thank you would go to all past and present board members who have served or are serving their term in a committed or energetic manner.

Thank you to J.L. Schmidt, Director of the Nebraska Lied Main Street Program and Deputy Director Elizabeth Chase for their expertise, their support of Main Street Wayne, their faith in me and for their friendship.

Thank you to everyone who ever volunteered to assist in any way to the Main Street Program.

And finally, a thank you to my wife, Nancy, for her assistance, support and unwavering faith in me, in the job I was doing.

time, some bone-jarring... but the one thing I can guarantee to the Wayne Area Chamber of Commerce and to the community of Wayne...

I'm sure there is one question that might come to mind for some people... what happens to the Main Street Wayne Program?

A Main Street Program is not about its Director, it's about the volunteers who work the program.

The next time you read a column from me, it will have a different heading. The focus, however, will be the same... WAYNE!!!

Capitol View Thoughts shared on political antics

By Ed Howard Statehouse Correspondent The Nebraska Press Association

Bob Kerrey, the former governor and U.S. Senator from Nebraska, deserves a footnote in the nation's modern political history.

Politicians routinely accuse one another of philosophical flip-flopping during election years.

It's a mainstay of this year's presidential campaign.

When Kerrey ran for governor, he was accused of flip-flopping, most especially on the abortion issue.

He came up with a response that voters seemed to like. Kerrey's rejoinder?

"I didn't flip-flop. I changed my mind!"

Kerrey made sport of the silliness so often evident in politics, and the audience appreciated it.

Too many are the timorous souls in politics - all around the nation - who couldn't muster the courage to consider even such a modest spontaneous outburst.

Well, not unless they took a poll, first.

If there are big league dirty doings in Nebraska politics it is obvious that the perpetrators successfully cover their tracks.

Expectable allegations and complaints about campaign financing - and the occasional screwup when it comes to reporting or using campaign money - pretty much cover the public view of the "dark side" of Nebraska politics.

This year, however, there is an exception. Shades of Chicago! Images of Hudson County, New Jersey. (In either place, someone burglarizing a courthouse safe in June might well find the November election results.)

So, what's the "scandal" in Nebraska?

Authorities in Lincoln came across an instance where someone tried to obtain an absentee ballot for a dead person!

In some places, having a dead guy vote isn't all that big a deal... so long as you don't let him vote more than once.

Nebraska election years also bring some complaints of yard signs being stolen or damaged.

There was a similar fuss in Chicago not all that many years ago. It had to do with someone tearing a handbill off a telephone poll, or something.

A representative of the loyal opposition protested - by shooting the other guy dead.

Attorney General Jon Bruning wants to be governor. Bruning said he will wait his turn behind Tom Osborne if the football coach turned congressman decides to take up residence in the governor's mansion.

Bruning, like most Nebraskans, figures that Osborne can have the governorship for the asking. That means T.O. could hold the job for eight years. A lot of would-be governor's could lose interest and their name recognition over such a long period.

Not Bruning.

The former state senator has always been active in any job assigned to him by the voters. As attorney general, Bruning has labored to make sure that his statewide constituency knows what he is up to on their behalf.

Bruning recently announced that a national lawsuit against record companies would result in a ton of CDs being sent to Nebraska troops serving overseas, the state's schools and a bunch of libraries.

information and then changed his mind.

From this corner, elected officials who allow a little politics to reflect off their duties aren't necessarily to be condemned. On the one hand, it's "just playing politics."

After all, how many of us believe that politicians deserve all the credit they claim?

It is less odiferous than the nation's continuing trend toward campaigns based on finagling enormous sums from powerful interest groups - by promising just about anything.

Compared with the reality of money-on-the-barrelhead politics, watching a politico take a bow after a bit of strut and bluster seems like "G" rated entertainment.

Letters to the Editor

Asking for votes

Dear Editor,

On Nov. 2, we ask you to vote for Matt Connealy to represent rural Nebraska, our family farmers and communities in the United States Congress.

We have very capable congressmen from the other two districts but neither they nor Matt's opponent knows what it's like being from a small rural town in Nebraska or working and raising your family on the family farm.

In the 30 years we have known Matt and Judy Connealy we have never seen them waiver in their faith-based values, commitment to the people of the state, and the belief all voices need to be heard to nurture a fair and democratic government.

Elect Matt and he will represent us and carry our message to congress.

Martin & Linda Kleinschmit Family Farmers Hartington

The forgotten one

Dear Editor,

I would like to take this time to give an unsung hero a pat on the back, someone who didn't get much attention this softball season.

Much like the passers and setters in volleyball, and the front line in football, this person didn't get much credit for the hard work she did.

She continually got thanked by our pitcher and got apologies when the ball was coming just as hard from behind her as it did facing her. All the ones she dug out of the dirt and all the pop flies she hustled to get. Not many people would be able to take her place, not to mention be able to keep their eyes open when a 65 mph ball is coming at your tiny hand.

She caught those 543 strike-outs and God knows all the strikes and balls that aren't accounted for.

So, the next time you see Dawn Jensen, who is having shoulder surgery, give her a pat on the back (not too hard) for the tough job she endured for these last three years.

Softball Mom, Monica Carroll, Wayne

Endorsing the candidates

Dear Editor,

As the time to vote approaches in an election so vital to the political health of our land, I endorse three candidates, local and national.

I choose those who favor Life, who believe in, who support - who, I believe understand Life. With the founding fathers of our land, I find that there cannot be an understanding of Life if one does not believe in a "giver" of Life.

Therefore, I endorse George W. Bush, who - obviously - learned about Life the hard way. He made mistakes along the way, but he learned from them. On Life matters, George Bush announced that if Congress would give him a bill ending partial-birth-abortion, he would sign it.

I wonder about those who 'look down' on the president's efforts as speaker and debater, for I am old enough to remember two past favorites of mine: Harry S. Truman and Dwight David Eisenhower.

Also, I endorse Jeff Fortenberry for the first congressional district seat in Congress to succeed Doug Bereuter.

Why? Because he is without nuance, without doubt, without squabble or question, pro-life. I was disappointed to find that Matt Connealy, a good man, did not respond to the pro-life questionnaire given to legislative candidates for office in Nebraska.

And that is why I support Pat Engel for State Senate. I know him - he has always stood strong on pro-life matters. He often attended our pro-life breakfast and gave us updates on how life issues fare in the Unicameral.

So I ask all folks of Wayne and northeast Nebraska who are deeply concerned, as I am, about these 'unholy' times that greatly challenge our republic, to join in support of President George W. Bush, Jeff Fortenberry and Pat Engel on Nov. 2, 2004.

Blessing, Allen O'Donnell, Wayne

Disappointing experience

Dear Editor,

First and foremost, I would like to say "congratulations" to both Wayne High Cross Country teams and Coach Ruhl for an outstanding season. What an accomplishment for Bryan Fink to win state and the boys' team to finish State Runner-up.

After districts, the parents were so proud of the kids that they worked for hours to put together yard signs for the state qualifiers and signs to wish them luck at State. What a rush the kids would have as they traveled west of town on their journey to the State Cross Country meet in Kearney and see the signs that the proud parents haphazardly put together.

Only problem is that the State Department of Roads in Wayne felt that they should not be along the state highway. Not only did the Department of Roads take these signs down, they did so after a supervisor passed by the parents putting the signs up.

Better yet, why can these signs be put up along the road in some parts of the state, but not around Wayne?

I understand that there are rules that everyone must adhere to concerning the right-of-way of our state highways, but couldn't you stop and tell us to move the signs or call the school and ask that they be moved?

Fortunately, one of the parents who helped put up the signs drove by and saw the signs begin taken down. He was able to salvage a couple of the signs and move them to another location.

Both of these planes were used during World War I.

The museum in which Sheckler's plane is housed is also home to a number of other types of World

While in Colorado, Sheckler was able to attend an air show and went flying with Andy Parks to see the area from the air. He was also able to spend some time visiting with Dr. Francis Hahn, former superintendent of the Wayne Public Schools.

"I was able to see and do lots of nice things while I was there. The Parks family treated me very well."

Band completes yet another perfect season

The Wayne High School "Pride of the Blue Devils" Marching Band traveled to Lincoln on Oct. 23 to participate in the NSBA State Marching Band Championships held at Beechner Field on the Lincoln High School campus.

This was the last competition for the season for the Blue Devil Marching Band and there they received a Superior rating and trophy.

This is the 16th year in a row that the Wayne High Marching Band has posted a perfect season, receiving Superior ratings at all the marching competitions they attended.

"Thank you to all the wonderful people who volunteered to ride on the buses and help out as sponsors," said Brad Weber, Director of the band.

"The marching band would not be able to attend these events without these people volunteering their time and effort and helping out as sponsors," Weber added.

He extended thanks to Dr. Dennis Jensen, Ann Ruwe (Wayne-Carroll Music Boosters President), Melissa Temme, Megan Kardell and the Cadet Band members for all their outstanding help.

"Thank you to all the parents, relatives, friends and Wayne High Alumni Band members who attended the competition last Saturday and cheered us on. Your support is greatly appreciated," Weber said.

Curves comes to Wayne

By Lynn Sievers Of the Herald

Curves is now open in Wayne at 1020 Main Street, behind the Sav Mor building. Diane and Darold Jamtgaard of Emmetsberg, Iowa, are owners of the new fitness center. Judy Woehler is manager and Esther Paredes is the fitness technician. Both are of Wayne. There are 10 employees.

Curves is open Monday through Friday, 6-9 a.m., 11 a.m. to 2 p.m., and 3:30 to 7:30 p.m. On Saturday, they are open 7:30 to 10:30 a.m.

At Curves, women can get a one and a half hour workout in 30 minutes. Aerobic exercise and strength training can be achieved at the same time. Through Curves, women find that exercise is fun.

Members of Curves include all age groups and all fitness levels. So far, the youngest person attending in Wayne is 12-years-old and the oldest is 72. An 83-year-old woman is considering with doctor approval.

Participants receive hydraulic resistance training, each working with machines to work their muscles against the machines' resistance. Weight management classes will start after the first of the year.

Looking back on the history of Curves, Gary Heavin, health and nutrition counselor and founder and CEO of Curves International Inc. (the world's largest fitness center franchise) was a pre-med major in college nearly 30 years ago when he took over a fitness center in Houston, Texas. He found women will not take longer than 30 minutes for themselves as they are care "givers", even though there is a great need for them to improve their health. So, he developed an exercise and diet program to fit the busy schedules of women.

Today there are thousands of Curves locations worldwide. Women have found that even though they have had weight problems all of their lives, they can change the shape and form of their bodies through participation in Curves. Seeing it only takes 30 minutes to do so, women can have healthier lifestyles by learning how to exercise and eat healthy long term.

Locally, Diane belonged to a Curves in Emmetsberg and was so impressed with the results she achieved, she applied for a franchise. She and her sister, Judy Woehler, decided to start a Curves in Wayne.

"I've been a member of Curves for 18 months and I have lost 40 pounds and 36 inches," Diane said. "I feel great. I've never had so much energy and I want this for all the women of the Wayne area."

Woehler adds, "I've been in health care for 37 years. We're not doing something right as we're seeing more women with bad hearts, etc. Women need overall improvement. Women don't take enough time for themselves."

Council has light agenda

By Clara Osten Of the Herald

A light agenda greeted council members at Tuesday's meeting of the Wayne City Council.

In one of the shortest meetings in recent months, the council approved two ordinances and three resolutions and listened to two presentations.

Ordinance 2004-10 and 2004-12 received third reading approval. The first will annex the Boeckenhauer Estates into the city of Wayne and the second amends the city code in regard to designated streets for truck parking.

Resolution 2004-57 approved Western Consulting, Inc. for the Retail Electric Cost of Service Study.

Resolution 2004-59 will waive the accruing interest on the equivalent residential unit charges for Gary Donner for Phase II, Fairway Estates and Vintage Hills III Subdivisions.

Resolution 2004-60 approved the consulting agreement between Wayne County, the City of Wayne and Williamson Consulting for a jail feasibility study for Wayne County. The city's share of the cost of the study is $10,000.

Normal Small, the Student Representative for Wayne State College on the Board of Trustees, spoke to the council about "Tie One on for the Holidays", a program to reduce drinking and driving during the upcoming holidays. Small handed out pledge cards to council members and others in attendance, asking them to not drink and drive any motorized vehicle during the Thanksgiving, Christmas and New Year holiday season. In addition, those supporting the program are asked to tie a red ribbon on the antenna of their vehicle.

A kick-off for this program is being planned for Tuesday, Nov. 16 at Wayne State College.

Small said he was asking for the council's support of the project, but not asking for any type of financial contribution.

Ken Mowery, representing HunTel Cable Vision, presented the annual report to the council.

He noted that a number of improvements have been made during the past year and said that program changes have been made, including bringing the Food Channel to Wayne.

He said that his firm is looking at options for improving reception of Omaha channels in Wayne and promised better service within the next year.

In other action, Mayor Lindau made three appointments to the Recreation/Leisure Services Commission. Laura Gamble and Lesa Backstrom are new members and Bob Keating was re-appointed to the position.

The next council meeting will be held Tuesday, Nov. 9 at 7:30 p.m.

Beth Sievers, left, and Teresa Marks, owners/managers of The Coffee Shoppe in Wayne stand behind their display case where they feature homemade goodies such as muffins, cakes, brownies, pies and more. The ladies took over the business in June and offer a wide variety of homemade entrees to satisfy hungry customers.

The Coffee Shoppe is the perfect place to stop when shopping in Wayne

By Lynn Sievers Of the Herald

With the holiday season approaching, The Coffee Shoppe at 211 Main Street in Wayne is a great break during busy schedules. Offering breakfasts, lunches and more, customers can re-charge while shopping. Beth Sievers and Teresa Marks are owners/managers since June.

The Coffee Shoppe is open Monday - Friday, 7 a.m. to 5:30 p.m., Saturday, 8 a.m. to 4 p.m., and closed on Sundays. Breakfast is served from 8 - 10 a.m. and lunch is from 11 a.m. to 2 p.m. In November, they will be open on Thursday nights for shoppers.

Sievers and Marks note they also do catering. The ladies welcome get-togethers such as bridal or baby showers. You can purchase gift certificates and whole or ground coffee beans are also sold at the Coffee Shoppe.

Both Sievers and Marks emphasize that their meals are homemade.

"Everything we serve, except for the bagels in the display case, is from scratch," Sievers said. "We take pride in that."

Some of the entrees offered include casseroles, soups, and sandwiches.

There are daily, as well as weekly specials, such as: Mondays, quiche and chicken waldorf; Tuesdays, chicken tortilla; Wednesdays, turkey bacon wrap; Thursdays, chicken salad on croissants; and Fridays, it is soups: chili and chicken noodle. They also serve many different kinds of sandwiches; College Club is a favorite.

For the winter, they serve casseroles, some of which are reuben, turkey and dressing, and cheesy hashbrown and ham.

And, to quench your thirst, specialty drinks or plain coffee can be ordered. Some of the drinks include cappuccinos, mochas, lattes, iced drinks, smoothies, and four different flavors of coffees which vary every day. For their drinks, they offer a punch card. After buying nine drinks, the tenth is free and your name is put into a drawing each month.

To finish the meal, they have homemade desserts. You can buy cheesecakes, pies, or cake by the slice or whole.

The Coffee Shoppe is attached to Antiques on Main so shoppers can stroll through there, or groups can be seated in the antique store as there are large tables to accommodate them.

Looking back, Sievers managed The Coffee Shoppe when Nana Peterson (owner of Antiques on Main) ran it. Marks worked there with Sievers. Peterson asked them to consider running it as she was tied down too much with two businesses. The ladies decided they would either run it together or not at all. They have 11 employees: Mary Jensen, Carol Jorgensen, Rhonda Sebade, Staci Hecker, Jamie Backstrom, Michaela Blaylock, Katie Straight, Jill Zimmerman, Liz Albrecht, Matt Fjelland, Stacie Baumgart, Cassi Johnson, and Ashley O'Keefe.

Sievers is originally from upper state New York and moved to Nebraska when she was 15. She is married to Scott Sievers. They have a daughter, Madysen and live in the country where Scott farms and owns a business, Sievers Manufacturing.

Marks is from Martinsburg and is single. She also has a part-time business in Wayne, Teresa's Glass Design, where she does custom etching.

Both Sievers and Marks thank their loyal customers and those who have given them good wishes on their business endeavor. Anyone with questions is welcome to stop in and visit or call them at 402-375-3416.

Veterans Day program planned

A Veteran's Day observance will be held in Wayne on Thursday, Nov. 11 at the Wayne Senior Center.

The ceremony will begin at 3 p.m. with the Presentation of colors, patriotic music and patriotic messages.

Everyone in the area is invited to attend the program which will honor all veterans.

Lunch will be served following the program.

BankFirst will provide decorations and door prizes. The meal will also be sponsored by BankFirst, Pac 'N' Save, Quality Food Center and the Wayne Senior Center.

There is no charge for the meal, but those planning to attend are asked to sign up by Friday, Nov. 5 at the Senior Center (375-1460) to allow organizers to plan for the amount of food needed.

formed, 51 percent of the businesses affected by it would have to approve of its creation to allow for assessment to be made to the property owners.

A BID board would be formed to make decisions regarding what improvements are made.

A number of questions regarding the district, the proposed lighting and other parts of the project were discussed during the meeting. Also discussed was what would be done with the alley between Second and Third Streets during the project.

"Forming the district is key at this time," Pedersen said. "We need to get a petition together to see if there is enough interest and put together a plan so we can move forward."

Wayne, Fink dominate at state

Wayne High captures Class C runner-up team title at State Cross Country meet in Kearney, while Bryan Fink achieves goal of bringing home a first-place finish

By David W. Carstens
Of the Herald
The Wayne High boys cross country team has liked its underdog role this past season. The team proved to the entire state that the power of positive thinking is alive and well as the Blue Devils earned the Class C runner-up title and two Top 10 individual medals at last week's state cross country championships in Kearney.
WHS Senior Bryan Fink captured a gold medal with his time of 17:01.87 after finishing second at the meet his sophomore and junior seasons.
Joe Mrsny, a sophomore, placed tenth (17:46.41) to bolster Wayne's point standings.
Sealing up the runner-up title for Wayne were seniors Josh Rasmussen, who placed 24th with 18:26.98, and Justin Modrell at 81st place with a time of 20:01.02; junior Derek Carroll, who finished at 41st place with 18:52.60 and freshman Max Stednitz who took 61st with 19:18.77.

Fink's race was a trade-off between Centennial runner Ethan Luebbe who finished 16 seconds behind Fink for second place.
Fink led the race during the first stretch, but was edged by Luebbe until about the 800-meter mark when Fink made his move to the front of the 90-runner race.
"I always got passed at the the 500-meter mark and just stayed there the rest of the race," Fink said. "This year I made it a big point to make my move at the same place they used to make their move, so it worked out perfect."

Mrsny needed a few minutes to catch his breath following the race and said it definitely was the hardest course he's experienced.
"It was exciting and nervous at the same time," Mrsny said.
Wayne's team finish had special meaning for Coach Rocky Ruhl who said it's rare that an inexperienced team can finish so well on the tough, rolling hills at the Kearney Country Club.
"Very seldom does any team finish like we finished," Ruhl said. "Because of the adrenaline and running on a sidehill for half the

WHS earns berth in football playoffs

The regular season ended with a loss, but the Blue Devils still have life heading into post-season play.
Wayne High dropped a 26-13 road contest at Creighton on Thursday, but found out on Saturday that the team (5-3) qualified for football playoffs set to begin tonight (Thursday).
"That was some great news for us," coach Kevin Finkey said on Monday. "We've seen them before."
WHS was scheduled to meet Crofton at Crofton for its first round game.
Considering the Blue Devils played at Crofton against the Warriors earlier this season, there's plenty of optimism heading into the rematch.
WHS is hoping to avoid the same second half slump that haunted the team during the first meeting of the two teams.
The Blue Devils are also hoping to avoid a disappointing finish similar to the one that was experienced in the 13-point loss at Creighton.
"It seemed like every time we would rally and get the troops together, we would give up a big play, Finkey said regarding the Creighton game. "It definitely didn't turn out the way we would have liked it to."
Creighton was only able to get a touchdown on the board in the first half off a short run by Aaron Williamson to give the Bulldogs a 6-0 advantage.

Wayne wasn't able to punch through a stingy Creighton defense until 9:43 in the third quarter when Dana Schuett scored on a 10-yard run off an option pitch from quarterback Nate Finkey. An extra point kick by Ben Mohl gave WHS a 7-6 lead.
The Bulldogs responded with a 35-yard run by Anthony Eggerling who added another score to put Creighton up 12-7.
Wayne managed to execute a sustained drive on its next series and Todd Poehlman blasted through a pile of Bulldog defenders with 2:35 left in the third on a 13-yard touchdown run to put the Blue Devils up 13-12.
Creighton returned the subsequent kickoff to head into the fourth quarter with favorable field possession.
Eggerling picked up his second score of the night on a six-yard run at 11:24 in the fourth quarter to pull the Bulldogs ahead 18-13.
The game's turning point happened when an interception and three penalties all worked against the Blue Devils on the next Wayne series.
Eggerling ran for his third TD with 8:12 to go and a two-point conversion closed out the game's scoring at 26-13.
Wayne had an opportunity to score with about two minutes left in the contest and

Wildcats preserve home win

By David W. Carstens

It was a win that WSC football coach Scott Hoffman dubbed to be the most memorable in his five years at the the Wildcat helm.
Saturday's 28-25 upset of Concordia-St. Paul in the 16th annual Incredible Edible Egg Bowl at Wayne State College contained all of the elements of a major college football bowl game including a postgame "victory" shower given to Hoffman with the team's water cooler.
"It was a great game for the fans," Hoffman said following the game. "It was so emotional for me and this has got to be the most special win we've had in the five years up to this point."
The outcome of the game wasn't exactly carved in stone until the final minute.
Wayne State refused to crumble after the Golden Bears drew first blood in the second quarter when Montez Bridgeforth ran in a 40-yard score against the Wildcat defense.
The Wildcats responded about a minute later when quarterback Brett Edwards connected on a short pass to Nathan Meyer who ran in 70-yards to tie the game.
Veasna Huot blocked a Concordia punt deep in Golden Bear territory to set up WSC's next score on a 12-yard pass from Edwards to Josh Hopwood to put the Wildcats up 14-7 at the 9:29 mark in the second period.
Concordia closed in on the Wildcats in the next series when quarterback James McNear III found Wesley Hill on a 15-yard pass play. The extra point kick was missed, so Wayne State maintained a 14-13 lead.

The Wildcats added another score before halftime when Edwards returned to the air to find tight end Jake Robinson on a 13-yard strike to extend the lead to 21-13.
Running back Zach Molacek added the only score of the third quarter on a 30-yard run at 7:30 in the third to extend the lead to 28-13.

Concordia, who entered the game as the second-ranked team in the conference, managed to put together a comeback effort about halfway through the fourth quarter when Brian Holmes capped an extended drive on a four-yard

Allen falls short in final game of season

The Allen Eagles closed out the 2004 season with a 19-12 loss to Coleridge at the Dakota Dome in Vermillion, S.D., last Thursday. Allen took the lead in the first quarter when Brett Koester ran 28 yards to put the Eagles ahead 6-0. Koester was injured on the two-point conversion attempt when he dislocated his knee. Coleridge and Allen exchanged two possessions before the Bulldogs responded with a touchdown after recovering an Allen fumble. The Bulldogs added another score to go up 12-6 at the 9-minute mark in the second period. The Eagles tied the ballgame at 2:45 left in the first half, when Luke Sachau bolted 60-yards for a touchdown to make the score 12-12. The Eagle's next kickoff was returned 70 yards to put more points on the board for Coleridge to close out the scoring at 19-12. Allen had a chance to win the contest in the second half with under three minutes left in the game when Derek Nice intercepted a pass deep in Bulldog territory and returned the ball to the Coleridge three-yard line. The Bulldogs held the Eagles on downs and then proceeded to run out the remaining time to end the game. The loss ended the Eagle's hopes for a second consecutive state playoff appearance. Sachau led all rushers with 12 carries for 82 yards. Chris Blohm passed for 70 yards, while Nice added six catches for 70 yards. The Eagles allowed only one offensive touchdown and Josh Malcom and Nathan Sturges each recorded 18 tackles for Allen. "I really believe that we played our best football of the season tonight, even though we didn't win," coach Dave Uldrich said. "Many thought we might not win a game this year, these kids proved those people wrong." Seven seniors played their final game for the Eagles in the contest: Andrew Gensler, Ryan Book, Derik Nice, David Rastade, Cory Gotch, Brett Koester and Toby Gawor.

Allen adds win in final home game

The Allen Eagles hosted Homer on Oct. 19, for Parent's Night for the final home game of the regular season. Five senior players — Diana Diediker, Codi Hancock, Lindsay Swetnam, Alyssa Uldrich and Shannon Woodward — each were given special recognition prior to the three set win that saw the Eagles win 25-20, 30-28 and 25-21. Alyssa Ulrich paced the team with nine kills and seven ace blocks. Erin Keitges added seven kills at the net and led the team with 14 digs and had one ace from the service line. Samantha Bock recorded four ace serves and was credited with 13 set assists. Diana Diediker was the game's set assist leader as she dished out 14 set assists for the Eagles. Codi Hancock finished the game with 10 Allen digs. In other action, the "B" team won its match, while the Allen "C" squad dropped its contest. The Eagles competed in the Lewis and Clark conference tournament on Monday at Bancroft-Rosalie where the girls defeated Walthill 25-6, 25-10 in the opening round. Allen lost its second round match to eventual Lewis and Clark conference champion Bancroft-Rosalie 25-21 and 25-22. Statistics for this week's games were unavailable at press time.

Winside football set for playoffs

16-point win provides ticket to first playoff since 1997

Winside clinched a postseason game in the the Class D-1 eight-man football ranks as the Wildcats downed Hartington 36-20 last Friday night. Bo Brummels led the Wildcat attack by scoring six touchdowns and tying the school 8 man record held by John Hawkins (1983) and Max Kant in 1989. Brummels five rushing TDs and a 52-yard interception return accounted for all of Winside scoring on the evening. The Winside offense could not get on track in the first quarter until Hartington got the first score with three minutes left in the quarter. Brummels then scored on runs of 52 and 15 yards to give Winside a 12-6 halftime lead. Brummels added a 42-yard scoring run and the fourth quarter interception return with three minutes left in the game to put the game on ice for the visiting Wildcats. Dewey Bowers carried the ball 19 times for 77 yards, Kass Holdorf had 57 yards on 11 carries and Brummels finished with 193 yards on 20 carries. Brummels added pass completions to Bowers and Mark Hawkins to add to his 295 total yards on the night. Holdorf had three punts for 83 yards in the contest, while Justin Tullberg returned a kick off 21 yards. Leading the Wildcat defense with 17 tackles was Cody Lange. Dan Morris added 10 tackles, Bryce Roberts had seven stops and Holdorf contributed six tackles to the Winside defensive effort. Mark Hawkins chipped in five tackles and a fumble recovery. Winside will travel to Cedar Bluffs (near Fremont) tonight (Thursday) to meet another Wildcat squad whose 7-1 record earned them the 3rd place seed in the northeast area D-1 playoff bracket. Winside's last post season appearance was in 1997 when the Wildcats earned their only playoff win over Pender, but lost in the second round to Laurel-Concord.

Freshman Laura Dolezal recorded a team-leading 24 digs in the four-set loss to Minnesota-Crookston last week.

Two WSC players earn recognition

Two Wayne State College football players received Player of the Week honors earlier this fall for their efforts in last Saturday's 28-25 home win over Concordia-St. Paul. Gerald Witherell was named the Nebraska NCAA Division II Defensive Player of the Week along with earning Co-Defensive Player of the Week honors in the Northern Sun Conference. Witherell, a 6-0, 205 junior linebacker from Windsor, Calif., had a career-high 12 tackles, including three tackles for a loss, one sack and a fumble recovery in Saturday's win. Veasna Huot, a 5-9, 190 pound junior cornerback from Los Angeles, Calif. was named the Northern Sun conference's Special Teams Player of the Week. He blocked a punt to set up one of Wayne State's four touchdowns in the Wildcats' home win last Saturday.

Wayne State loses at Minn.-Crookston

The Wayne State women's volleyball squad dropped a conference road game with Minnesota-Crookston Saturday as the Golden Eagles dropped the Wildcats to 15-11 on the season in four sets 31-19, 30-26, 28-30, 31-29. Hitting proved to be the difference in the match as Crookston outhit Wayne State, 185-078. Leading hitter for WSC was Jacey Kuck Schwarz with 13 kills while Lani Recob and Chelse Schultz each recorded 12 kills. Laura Dolezal and Ashley Vogt led the team with digs with 24 and 23, respectively. Julie Jacobsen provided 48 set assists at the net to lead the Wildcats, who are now 6-4 against Northern Sun conference opponents. Next up for the Wildcats was a nonconference contest against South Dakota in a game that was scheduled for this Wednesday.

Laurel-Concord Bears shut out in final game

Laurel-Concord wrapped up its fall campaign with a 20-0 home loss to Homer last Friday. Turnovers plagued Laurel-Concord with three fumbles coughed up by the Bears during the game. Homer scored two touchdowns in the opening quarter for a 12-0 lead and added another TD in the second to extend the lead to 18-0 at halftime. Homer tacked on a safety in the third period for the lone score of the second half. Laurel's offense generated 94 yards of offense, compared to Homer's 299-yard output. Offensively for the Bears, Heath Erwin was two-of-five passing for 27 yards, while Skyler Curry also went two-of-five for six yards. Tim Schroeder ran for 25 yards for the Bears and Scott Surber added 15 more. Brian Saunders grabbed a pair of passes for 27 yards. Three seniors played their final games for Laurel-Concord during the past season: Jeff Knudsen, Josh Hart and Brandon Koch.

WSC rugby team picks up road win

WSC Rugby Men traveled over to the Wisconsin border to take on Luther College and held on for a 28-25 win. After falling behind 12-0 early in the first half, Wayne State came rolling back with two quick scores by a 28-yard run Preston Parker and 53-yard run by Chris Smith to tie the game 12-12 at the halftime break. Wayne State's Pat Pierce rumbled 15 yards to break open a three-touchdown explosion when Parker and Smith again added long runs with the ball spun wide into the open backline after Matt Parsons and Kyle Ellensohn took the ball up the middle of the field and committing defensive backline players to commit to the tackle. After building a 28-12 lead, Luther College came storming back with two quick scores to cut the WSC lead down to only three points, 28-25. WSC played a conservative final minute to run out the clock and come away with their eighth straight victory. Next action for the team in planned for this Sunday when Creighton University, who just started a rugby program last month, will be coming to Wayne for a situational scrimmage/game. Action will get started at 2:30 p.m. at the Wayne Rugby Park, located on the northeast side of the Wayne Softball Complex on East Fourth St.

Laurel-Concord volleyball downs Ponca

The Laurel-Concord volleyball team posted a win over Ponca going four sets in the final match of the regular season on Oct. 19 by scores of 24-26, 25-18, 25-22 and 25-20. LCHS struggled in the first match by allowing Ponca to win the match. "Costly hitting and serve receive was hindered the team," said coach Patti Cunningham. In the next three sets, the two clubs battled back and forth before LCHS finished the night with winning in four sets. The team built up leads against their opponent and then allowed them to work their way back into the game," Cunningham said. "After coming back to win the second set fairly decisively, self-induced pressure was added when inconsistent play continued to disrupt the team during the third. In order for our strengths to emerge during the upcoming tournaments, each athlete must increase their determination to play well at all times." Angie Peters produced 25 kills and three blocks in the win. Lori Pritchard and Kayla Neuhalfen contributed eight kills each. Makayla Hansen handed out 50 set assists, while Brittany Thompson powered seven ace serves for the night. In the final JV game of the season, Laurel-Concord downed Ponca 21-16, 21-17, while the "C" team easily took care of the Indians in two sets with the scores of 15-8 and 15-5.

Presented award

Dr. Ron Holt II was presented the Wayne State College Alumni Service Award at the Homecoming and Hall of Fame Banquet on Oct. 16 by Dr. Richard Collings, WSC president (right) on campus. The award recognizes alumni who have enhanced the college through dedicated service, promotion and financial support. Holt, an attending psychiatrist and sub-chief in the Dept. of Psychiatry at Kaiser Permanente Medical Center in San Francisco, is a 1989 Wayne State graduate. Active on campus as a student and a track athlete, Holt has continued his involvement with the college through volunteer and financial support. He is a trustee of the Wayne State Foundation, and has returned to campus to lecture for the past five years.

Author Gregory Rodriguez to speak at Wayne State College

Gregory Rodriguez, author and contributing editor for the Los Angeles Times, will be on the Wayne State College campus on Friday, Nov. 5. He will present a public lecture at noon in the Humanities Building lounge, and will visit classes throughout the day. There is no admission charge for the public lecture. Rodriguez has written widely on issues of race, immigration, ethnicity, politics and America's changing demographics. The author of two ground-breaking studies, "The Emerging Latino Middle Class" and "From Newcomers to New Americans: The Successful Integration of Immigrants into American Society," Rodriguez is currently working on a book about how contemporary Mexican immigration will change the way Americans view race.

He has been published in the New York Times, The Wall Street Journal, The Economist, The Atlantic Monthly, and The Washington Post. He was recently listed in Esquire Magazine as being among the "Best and Brightest" Americans under 40. His appearance at Wayne State is sponsored by the Department of Language and Literature, the School of Arts and Humanities, and the WSC Spanish Club.

Campus Showcase to look at sports and recreation during the Depression

Sports and recreation during the Depression will be the topic at the next Wayne State College Campus Showcase on Friday, Nov. 5. It will be held in the Elkhorn Room of the Student Center, and will begin at 9 a.m.

The program will be presented by Jeff Meyer, instructor in the Health, Human Performance and Sports department, and Dr. Kevin Hill, interim dean of the WSC School of Natural and Social Sciences. It will include responses to questions on a survey conducted by the HHPS department of area residents, focusing on individuals who participated in sport and recreation during the Depression and/or those children who remember their parents' participation or stories told to them.

"Nothing is quite as amazing as to recall that special and fond memory of yesteryear," said Meyer. "The weather on that day of the town team baseball game, caravanned fans following their beloved team to the town that was their rival for the baseball game, or the picnic outings Sunday between town baseball games are just some of the stories that were related to us as a result of the survey."

During the hour-long program, refreshments will be served. Although designed for senior citizen appeal, all ages are welcome to attend. There is no admission charge. During each Campus Showcase, birthdays are acknowledged and special guests are recognized.

Because parking on campus is limited, free transportation from the Wayne Senior Citizens Center/Public Library at 410 Pearl Street will be provided by the college before and after the Campus Showcase event.

The shuttle will depart from the Senior Citizens Center/Public Library at approximately 8:45 a.m. and will return immediately following the program. Those wishing to ride are asked to park near the south end of the Senior Citizens Center.

Campus Showcase is sponsored by Wayne State College as part of the school's mission of community and regional outreach.

It is co-hosted by Dr. James O'Donnell, dean of the WSC School of Arts and Humanities, and Judy Johnson, director of college relations.

For more information, please call Johnson at 402-375-7325.

I encourage your support of Dr. Jodi Pulfer, candidate for the Wayne Board of Education. She has shown strong capabilities in both church and professional groups and would serve the board well.

NCCA director addresses Northeast Board of Governors

When Dennis Baack, executive director of the Nebraska Community College Association, addressed the Board of Governors at Northeast Community College in Norfolk recently, his message was simple.

Although directed mainly to legislators preparing to gather again in Lincoln in January, all members of the Northeast Board of Governors and administrators nodded in agreement to his simple and brief message. "Please, Nebraska, fully fund us," is what Baack said in the agenda for the NCCA this year.

Baack even encouraged the Legislature to overfund the formula. According to Baack, that would lead to property tax relief as a dollar of property tax relief is provided for every extra dollar of state aid over the formula amount. "That property tax relief provision is one of the great features of the funding formula," he said.

The state of Nebraska is currently $22,000,000 short of meeting its 40 percent share of the community college funding formula. That formula reads that community college funding is 40 percent state aid, 40 percent local property taxes, and 20 percent student tuition and fees. Because the formula is underfunded, Northeast students currently pay approximately 26 percent of the total operating budget.

"Even though state receipts are up $147,000,000 from the February projection, we probably won't get all $22,000,000 back this year," Baack said. The legislators must also figure out a payment plan on the $141,000,000 nuclear waste site settlement, he said. "I doubt if they'll pay it all at once, but if they decide to, that wipes out the $147,000,000 rather quickly."

Ideally, Baack also said, it is important to get the levy override a permanent part of the funding formula. "We've got to get it done for at least the next two years, perhaps four years," he said. "It will take us at least four years to get back to full funding."

"Our community college boards will not abuse this override. The boards are responsive and responsible to using their levy override power."

Baack also said it is important to increase the community colleges' one-cent capital improvement levy to two cents. "Our one-cent levy is being consumed by maintenance and repair on many older buildings on our campuses," he said.

He also said that the Northeast Community College bill to allow Northeast to temporarily exceed the six-cent property tax levy for general operations has a very good chance of passing this year. "It will be introduced and prioritized early," Baack said.

This bill would allow Northeast's Board of Governors to authorize an increase in property tax levy by one cent for a four-year period. And, after four years, it would go back to Northeast's six-cent levy.

"Dennis is right on in his assessment of our financial difficulties," Northeast president Dr. Bill Path said. "As we thoroughly analyze and re-analyze every expenditure, we must look to the Legislature for relief. As operating costs go up, we must have additional dollars to continue as an effective institution of higher learning."

Directors host residents of Wayne Housing Authority

Residents of the Wayne Housing Authority were guests of the Board of Directors for an evening dinner on Oct. 21 in the Community Room at Villa Wayne.

Lowell and Kathy Johnson and Raymond Peterson were special guests at the meal.

Board Chairman Gene Fredrickson acted as Master of Ceremonies, introducing Board Members Co-Chairman Bonnell Stanley, Commissioners Shirley Bergt and John Melena; Resident Commissioner Anna Swinney.

Lowell Johnson extended greetings from Mayor Sheryl Lindau and expressed the Johnsons' pleasure in sharing the meal.

Dan Sukup invited residents to a soup dinner with a date to be announced later. He also reminded everyone of the community Thanksgiving held at Our Savior Lutheran Church and rides will be provided.

The meal was prepared by Vel's Bakery with board members serving and cleaning up. Raymond Peterson entertained the group with music on the accordion from the times everyone remembered.

The first board/resident dinner was Oct. 17, 1985 when Shirley Bergt was the Executive Director.

Other guests who attended are Leona Kluge, Jeannine Anderson, Robert and Mona Meyer and Dan and Connie Sukup. There were 18 residents present.

Meals were delivered to the shut-ins by the board and those receiving them expressed their appreciation for the effort put forth by the board.

Award winners

Dennis Linster and John Dunning of Wayne State College are members of the Network Nebraska team that won the Nebraska "Team of the Year" award presented at the National State Government Chapter, National Management Association EXPO ceremony on Oct. 7 at the State Capitol in Lincoln. The Network Nebraska team developed the Nebraska Backbone Project for a statewide higher education intranet. Linster and Dunning (second row, third and fourth from left) are pictured along with other Network Nebraska team members receiving the award from Gov. Mike Johanns and Lt. Gov. Dave Heineman. More than 20 teams were nominated for this award.

Blood Bank thankful for donors

With the Thanksgiving holiday quickly approaching, we can be thankful for many things such as friends, family and neighbors.

Without the continuing support of blood donors, patients would not have a chance for another tomorrow.

People live such busy lives and yet taking time to give one unit of blood can make the difference between life and death to a patient in the hospital. It is vital that blood and blood products are available when they are needed. Not only for treatment of accident cases, hemophiliacs and cancer patients, but for the use of routine surgeries. These occurrences do not stop or slow down during the holidays they continue to occur.

Your friends, family, neighbors and community, are depending on you to help maintain your community blood supply.

The Siouxland Community Blood Bank needs to collect over 1000 units of blood each week to keep up with the needs of the 32 area hospitals they supply blood to in Iowa, Nebraska and South Dakota. The need for blood affects all of us. Nine out of ten of us will need blood some time in our lives, and one out of every ten hospital patients requires a transfusion. Help make a difference in the lives of others by donating today.

The next opportunity to donate in Wayne is Thursday, Oct. 28 from 8:30 a.m. - 3 p.m. at the Fire Station.

The next opportunity to donate in Wakefield is Friday, Nov. 5 from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. at the American Legion Hall.

In Allen, it is Monday, Nov. 8 from 2 p.m. to 7 p.m. at the Fire Hall.

Donations will be accepted in Wayne again on Tuesday, Nov. 9 from 1 p.m. to 6 p.m. at the Grace Lutheran Church.

To be eligible to donate blood individuals must be at least 17 years of age; however there is no upper age limit as long as the donor is in good health. In addition donors need to weigh over 110 pounds and have not donated whole blood in the past 56 days. A photo I.D. is required at the time of registration.

For more information contact the Siouxland Community Blood Bank or blood drives in your area, call 712-252-4208, 1-800-798-4208 or visit their website at www.siouxlandbloodbank.org

Face Lift

Due to limited space, this photo was left out of last week's story on the Twin Theatre. Earlier this year, members of the Wayne Boy Scouts and Cub Scouts troops assisted with the renovation of the building. New ceilings were installed in the theatre portion of the facility. The Scouts were responsible for knocking down the old plaster ceiling and clean up during the project.

WEEKLY HEALTH TIP

Moderate Exercise Reduces Breast Cancer Risk

Over 74,000 women between 50 and 80 were asked about their levels of exercise at ages 18, 35, 50 and currently. They study found that those who said they walked briskly for 75 to 150 minutes each week (that's only 10-20 minutes per day) had 18% lower risk of breast cancer. If they reported regular strenuous exercise earlier in life their risk went down even further. The lightest women had the best results from exercise, but benefits were also noted among even moderately overweight participants.

Remembering Nebraska's troops through music

Nebraskans recognize that we would not have the freedoms and quality of life we enjoy today without the dedication and sacrifice of our soldiers and their families. It's the courage and valor of all our soldiers and veterans that have made the United States the world's beacon of freedom and hope.

As the global war on terror continues, it's important that we remember the men and women fighting for the American way of life, for freedom. More than 500 Nebraska National Guard soldiers and airmen are currently deployed overseas putting their lives on the line every day so that we can rest easy at night.

I hope the CDs bring some measure of comfort to our troops while they're so far from home and enjoyment to children and adults across Nebraska.

By Attorney General Jon Bruning

Words cannot adequately express our gratitude for their service.

Earlier this week, I was honored to present Major General Roger Lempke, adjutant general of the Nebraska National Guard, with a small token of our appreciation - 5,000 rock, country and blues compact discs that will be sent overseas to soldiers and airmen serving in Iraq, Kuwait and Qatar. I cannot think of anyone more deserving.

The CDs presented were part of a $143 million national antitrust settlement reached between 56 states and U.S. territories and several major U.S. record distributors accused of price gouging. Nebraska was awarded at total of 33,500 CDs valued at $453,000 in the settlement.

The remaining 28,500 CDs from the settlement are being shipped to Nebraska's 520 public school districts and 291 public libraries. Distribution to the schools is population-based with a minimum of 25 CDs going to each school dis-

Halloween ghouls

A large group of ghosts, goblins and other 'spooks' took part in the annual Circle K Halloween Party at the City Auditorium on Sunday. During the event, those attending were able to decorate cookies (above), play a variety of games and parade around the auditorium. Assisting the Circle K members with the event were several members of the Wayne Kiwanis Club.

HHSS responds to vaccine shortage

The state's Chief Medical Officer said a flu vaccine shortage will pose a challenge this flu season because a major vaccine producer has had its license suspended by British health authorities. This action effectively blocks Chiron, the manufacturer, from delivering its planned shipment of more than 46 million doses of flu vaccine to the U.S.

"Because we expect a shortage, we are asking healthy people to forego getting a flu shot at this time," Dr. Richard Raymond of the Nebraska Health and Human Service System said. "We need to get vaccine into the arms of those who need it the most. Otherwise someone who is most at risk will die."

"We are relying on the public and on the vaccine providers to make certain that only those at highest risk receive the vaccine. Plans for mass clinics for the healthy shouldn't take place," he said.

The eight high-risk categories of people identified by the federal Center for Disease Control and Prevention who should be vaccinated are:

- All children aged 6-23 months;
- Adults age 65 and older;
- Individuals age 2 to 64 with underlying chronic medical conditions;
- Women who will be pregnant during influenza season;
- Residents of nursing homes and long-term care facilities;
- Children six months to 18 years of age on chronic aspirin therapy;
- Health care workers with direct patient care responsibilities; and

• Out-of-home caregivers and household contacts of children less than six months of age.

At this time, officials believe there are 54 million flu shot doses (compared to 87 million doses last year) and 1.1 million doses of live vaccine, such as FluMist, available in the U.S. With the loss of Chiron's vaccine, the country has lost 50 percent of its anticipated supply, resulting in a serious shortage.

Vaccine administered as a nasal spray is an alternative to getting a shot for those aged 5-to-49. Dr. Raymond said. It is not recommended for those in the high-risk categories.

Anti-viral medications are available for those who have been exposed to influenza or who are ill. It must be given within 48 hours of the beginning of symptoms.

Public health officials are looking into all of their options, including stockpiled vaccine at the CDC, potential European outlets, or a possible increase of production at another manufacturer. The CDC is pursuing discussions with Chiron and UK officials about releasing safe vaccine.

The true story of Nebraska's 134th National Guard Infantry Regiment and its role in one of the bloodiest battles of World War II is told in "All Hell Can't Stop Us!," airing Saturday, Nov. 13, at 10 p.m. CT (9 MT), repeating Sunday, Nov. 28, at 11:30 p.m. CT (10:30 MT).

Nebraska U.S. Senator Chuck Hagel and his brother Tom - a law professor at the University of Dayton, Ohio - return to Vietnam and visit the battlefields where they fought and bled together in the documentary "Echoes of War," airing Saturday, Nov. 13, at 10:30 p.m. CT (9:30 MT), repeating Sunday, Nov. 21, at 11:30 p.m. CT (10:30 MT). As the Hagels walk the battlefields of 1968 and describe powerful, emotion-laden memories, they also reveal their conflicting views about their experience.

The Vietnam War changed a generation and colored American thinking on military and foreign policy issues. "Not on the Frontline" focuses on five women who served in Vietnam as they relate their disquieting memories of that period and their desire for national recognition of women's roles in Vietnam. The program airs Saturday, Nov. 13, at 11 p.m. CT (10 MT).

Pheasant population is high

Nebraska's pheasant hunting season opens on Saturday, Nov. 6 and Nebraska's pheasant population is at a 10-year high.

In fact, the Nebraska Game and Parks Commission reported a 28 percent jump in pheasant numbers based on their August roadside survey. That outlook is good news to the thousands of people expected to attend Pheasant Forever's National Pheasant Fest being held at Omaha's Qwest Center this January 14-16.

Omaha Mayor Mike Fahey has projected that 25,000 people will attend the event, leading to an estimated $3 million economic influx for the city. Those figures don't even take into account the Fest attendees that are already making plans to hunt Nebraska's roosters before and after Pheasant Fest.

Haunted House sponsored by WSC clubs

The annual haunted house and hayride sponsored by Wayne State College student organizations will offer fun and frightful entertainment from Oct. 28-31. The haunted house is located at 2212 N. Centennial Road, just north of Wayne.

"The haunted house was started back in 1997, and it has been going strong ever since," said Stan Gardner, WSC Science Fiction and Fantasy Club advisor. "This year, we also have a hayride through our haunted forest. In addition to the haunted house, there will also be a bonfire, roasted marshmallows, cookies, hot cider, and hot chocolate."

The haunted house will be open on Oct. 28 and 29 from 5:30-11 p.m.; Oct. 30, 5 p.m.-midnight; and Oct. 31, 5-11 p.m. Times are subject to weather conditions. The first hour is designated as children's hour.

To get to the haunted house from Hwy. #35 (7th Street) in Wayne, turn north on Centennial Road (the Wayne East intersection), and go north one-and-one-fourth miles. The barn is on the left side of the road.

Admission is $5 for adults, and $3 for students. Children ages seven or younger are admitted free when accompanied by an adult. The admission fee covers both the hayride and the haunted forest. Everyone is welcome.

A special night for youth organizations in the region will be held on Oct. 25. "We would be willing to work with other organizations to set up special times as well," said Gardner.

For more information, please contact Gardner at 402-375-7257 or e-mail: ScFanta1@wsc.edu.

The project's proceeds will support different club activities for the Music Educators National Conference (MENC), the Science Fiction Club, and the Drama Club.

In addition, each year a charity is selected to receive a certain percentage of the profits from the event. Last year, the Rainbow Riders program was selected.

Handling Ghost and goblin fears

Halloween can cause everyone fear. Fear is especially common for children.

Some children have more fears than others. Fears may seem silly to adults, but they are very real to children. Children will outgrow many fears, but adults can help children overcome fears in a positive way.

To help children cope with their fears, parents can follow a few simple guidelines.

1. Accept and respect children's fears. Do not tease or laugh at chilexpress why they are afraid and you can better help them understand the cause of the fear. It is also good to talk about your fears. It is good for children to realize that everyone can have fears or experienced fears when they were young, too.

5. Help children learn about things that scare them. When children know and understand how things are put together, they become less scary. If a child can see a Halloween mask or costume before someone puts it on and then can observe it being put on, it is much less frightening. Show them that there is nothing to be afraid of under the bed or in the closet.

6. Make suggestions for coping with fears. Have your children talk about what would make them be less afraid. Asking them what will help them teaches them problem-solving skills. If a child is afraid of the dark, suggest they use a night light or leave the door part way open. Provide options to avoid television shows or movies that might children's fears. Recognize that everyone experiences fears. Fears are very real feelings. Take time to teach them coping skills. Do not force them to do things that produce fear such as touch an animal. Never use fear as a means of discipline.

2. Spend time with children when they are afraid. Fear of the dark or the monster under the bed can be eased by having a parent nearby. Involving the child in an activity or story can help reassure the child.

3. Establish a routine for the children. When children know what to expect or the sequence of events, they feel more secure and less threatened.

4. Talk about feelings and fears. By talking about fears, children express their feelings. When talking about feelings, you help a child

A Prayer for Our National Elections
O God, we acknowledge You today as Lord,
Not only of individuals, but of nations and governments.
We thank You for the privilege
Of being able to organize ourselves politically
And of knowing that political loyalty
Does not mean disloyalty to You.
We thank You for Your law,
Which our Founding Fathers acknowledged
And recognized as higher than any human law.
We thank You for the opportunity that this election year puts before us,
To exercise our solemn duty not only to vote,
But to influence countless others to vote,
And to vote correctly.
Lord, we pray that Your people will be awakened.
Let them realize that while politics is not their salvation,
Their response to You requires that they be politically active.
Awaken Your people to know that they are not called to be a sect fleeing the world.
But rather a community of faith renewing the world.
Awaken Your people to a commitment to justice,
To the sanctity of marriage and the family,
To the dignity of each individual human life,
And to the truth that human rights begin when Human Lives Begin,
And not one moment later.
Lord, we rejoice today
That we are citizens of Your Kingdom.
May that make us all the more committed
To being faithful citizens on earth.
We ask this through Jesus Christ, our Lord, Amen

AREA — The Minerva Club met Oct. 25 at the home of Connie Glassmeyer. President Lois Youngerman began the meeting with a pumpkin quiz. Roll call was answered with a Halloween escapade. After the business and correspondence were taken care of, discussion centered on future projects. Connie Glassmeyer's "historical highlight" involved a road trip to St. James Wiseman Memorial. Another stop included the Flower and Shrub Landscape at the adjoining Beste Farm. The drive included the colorful foliage near the river. She also informed members of the Outlaw Trail. The next meeting will be Monday, Nov. 8 at the Senior Center at noon with Lila Brown hosting.

The agency has an established car safety seat program in place, offered to families through the Family Services division. Parents of any income level can come into the Goldenrod Hills Community Action office in Wisner and learn to properly install child safety seats. Family Service Coordinators are trained by the Nebraska Highway Traffic Safety Administration (NHTSA). Child safety seats are available for a donation or free of charge for those who are income eligible living at 125 percent of federal poverty. In this way families are afforded a cost effective method of keeping children safe on the roads. Parents will be encouraged to read safety information to inform them on importance of child safety seat use. Participating parents are required to sign the Child Passenger Checklist designated by NHTSA which states they have read and understand the safety information. In 2004, Nebraska Office of Highway Safety identified five counties in the 14 county service area as priority counties that exceed the state rate in fatal and serious injury crashes. If you would like to learn more about Goldenrod Hills Community Action's child safety seat program, please asks for Krista, 402-529-3513 or 1-800-445-2505.

Cooperative Extension announces annual awards

University of Nebraska Cooperative Extension assistants, educators and specialists were recognized this month for their achievements and contributions with 2004 Cooperative Extension awards.

Deanna Karmazin, extension associate in Lancaster County, received the Outstanding Extension Assistant award. Karmazin is a strong advocate of the total extension program, especially 4-H in which her main responsibilities are agriculture and livestock. Karmazin is well known in the community for her involvement and creatively includes student recruitment in many activities and presentations.

Zainab Rida, nutrition education assistant in Lancaster County, and Mark Simmons, who was hired in 2003 as Nebraska's first urban programs extension educator in Omaha, received the Extension New Employee awards. Rida joined the nutrition education program in September 2002 and works with new immigrants, refugees and low income people in Lancaster County. She has taught 873 nutrition lessons to adults and has conducted 40 classes for 761 students in the past year.

Simmons is a leader in determining the role extension should play in urban Nebraska and shaping the direction for these programs in Omaha and its suburbs. He established and built upon relationships with other organizations and his programming efforts impacted and increased the visibility, outreach and understanding of extension for Omaha residents.

Amy Topp, extension educator in youth development in Wayne County, received the Chester I. Walters Extra Mile award. Topp works with youth and families as a representative of Nebraska Cooperative Extension and is a student recruitment representative.

The Distinguished Educator award was presented to Alice Henneman, Lancaster County extension educator. For 24 years, Henneman has been recognized locally and nationally for the quality of her work and visionary leadership in food safety education. The award-winning Lancaster County Food Web site receives 80,000 hits per month. In addition, Henneman packages her community programs for other professionals and is routinely asked to serve as a reviewer for national projects and as a speaker for community programming.

The Distinguished Specialist

award went to Rosemarie Nold, animal science youth specialist in the university's Institute of Agriculture and Natural Resources. A major emphasis of Nold's program since her 1998 hire is livestock quality assurance programming targeted at youth. She has impacted other quality assurance programs nationally and has garnered more than $33,000 in grants to support programs. Nold also developed the Premier Animal Science Events program and updates and improves other programs. In addition to these extension programs, she serves as recruitment coordinator, advises six undergraduate student ambassadors and chairs the selection committee for newly created freshman scholarship.

The Diverse Agriculture Action Team was honored with the Excellence in Team Programming award. The team was formed three years ago to address sustainable alternative agricultural enterprises and continues to make a difference in the economic base of these enterprises in the eastern half of Nebraska.

As participation in alternative enterprises for acreage owners and traditional agriculture producers continues to grow, the action team has addressed several issues through programming efforts, including adapting a beginning farm program, hosting conferences, conducting surveys and hosting educational events.

The team includes Chairman Jim Petersen, Washington County extension educator; Carol

Planetarium show scheduled

A planetarium show, "Atmospheres," is scheduled to be shown at Wayne State College on Sunday afternoons from Oct. 31 through Nov. 21.

"From a planet with an oxygen-rich atmosphere supporting abundant life to planets with atmospheres poisonous to life as we know it, this show surveys the varied members of our solar system," said Carl Rump, planetarium director. Especially intriguing are the dynamic motions associated with these atmospheres, from the hurricane-type storms of Jupiter to the dust devils of Mars.

The show uses the latest imagery from interplanetary spacecraft and previews next January's descent of the Huygens probe into the atmosphere of Saturn's moon, Titan.

All shows will be held on Sunday afternoons at 3:30 p.m. in the Fred

G. Dale Planetarium located at the south entrance of the Carhart Science Building on the Wayne State campus. There is no admission charge.

Special showings for school groups and other organizations may be arranged by contacting the planetarium at 402-375-7343.

Magnuson is accepted

Deer and vehicles - a dangerous mix

This time of year creates another danger for cars and trucks on the highways because of the deer movement from one area to another.

Avoiding and surviving deer collisions is a mixture of luck, anticipation and preparation. Follow these tips to minimize possible collisions and damage:

1. Stay aware and alert - Deer are more active in the fall as they move from resting to feeding areas at dawn and dusk. It is harder for humans to see at that time of day but the deer prefer to move while under the less light conditions.
2. Slow down, heed road signs and drive defensively - Roads that go through tree areas, along

Enjoying the fall foliage

After a wonderful weekend of sunshine and fall colors, it's gloomy and overcast today, Tuesday, with a 50 percent chance for rain in our forecast. The corn in the fields around the Farm House has been harvested; we are hearing reports of 200 bushels to the acre all over eastern Nebraska, dry land! The elevator at Murdock has a huge pile of corn beside it.

Last Tuesday evening, I drove to Eagle to hear JS Bach and friends. A retired Concordia prof has been doing an impersonation of Herr Bach now for several years, white curly wig and lace cuffs and pantaloons and all. He also has a bunch of antique instruments, including a harpsichord and a clavichord. Lately, the Nebraska Arts Council has sponsored him and his entourage of string players, percussionist, and French horn player in performances around the state.

He did a presentation for the school kids in the afternoon and for the community in the evening. I even joined a small choir that sang along on three numbers: the best was "Jesu, Joy of Man's Desiring," one of my favorites. It was a wonderful evening, and after two hours, we hated to see it end.

The Farmer's Wife By: Pat Meierhenry

On Saturday, we picked up my Mom and drove up Highway 81 to De Smet, South Dakota, for the wedding of our nephew, David Beattie. Dave is my Mom's youngest grandchild, at 26, and he's been bringing Michele to family gatherings for some time now. She's a new LPN who graduated from Northeast Community College, which is where Dave went to become a lineman. He works for OPPD.

Michele loves fall and wanted her wedding in the fall. I guess it rained in Lake Preston on Saturday morning, but by the time we got there, the sun was shining. All the way up and back, we marveled at the fall foliage. We guessed that the last time we were in Yankton was on the way to Marion for another nephew's wedding, and he has a daughter who is a senior in high school. So it was about time.

Unfortunately, we could hear the game on KFAB all the way up. Although we did have to avoid power lines after getting into De Smet where our motel was. My mother kept saying she hoped Steve Pederson was happy!

We did drive out to the Ingalls homestead, but the gate was locked. So we drove to the gift shop and scoped out the surveyor's house and the home Pa built in town in later years.

The wedding really carried out the Autumn theme. Bridesmaid dresses were in a cinnamon color that matched the groomsmen's vests. All the flowers were bright fall colors. At the reception, there were fall leaves everywhere, and pumpkins and candles and white lights.

We are all having a hard time realizing that "little David" is all grown up, gainfully employed, and a married man. We all remember his coming to the farm in the summer, following the Big Farmer around, and asking many questions! He spent a lot of holidays there, too, and probably should have had the opportunity to farm.

But his occupation keeps him outdoors, which is what he wanted. Of course, it also means being called out in blizzards and tornadoes, and lots of overtime, but he seems to like it and the customers all appreciate it. We try not to think about the dangers of tall poles and electricity. We all know that most outdoor jobs have potential hazards.

We drove back on Sunday, again enjoying the scenery. But my Mom, ever opinionated, commented that she could tell she was back in good old Nebraska when we crossed the bridge over the Missouri!

Important Information for 'Self Read - Self Bill' Customers of the Northeast Nebraska PPD

The NePPD has some of the lowest electric rates in Northeast Nebraska.* One reason costs can be lower is that rural customers read their own meter and figure their own bill. This system works well, except when customers send their bills in late. When the Power District gets a late payment or doesn't get a reading, then the bill must be estimated and our records won't be accurate. Late payments are also subject to a penalty, which customers could avoid. A late payment will result in the customer receiving a notice of disconnection based on an estimated usage. Full payment must be received each month before the disconnect date listed below to avoid a disconnected service.*

As a reminder, here is the billing schedule for the remainder of 2004:

Nov 11 - Late payment penalty date and disconnect notices out on estimated bills
Nov 17 - Disconnection date for non-payment
Dec 13 - Late payment penalty date and disconnect notices out on estimated bills
Dec 20 - Disconnection date for non-payment

*Based on the results of the 2004 rate survey performed by the Nebraska Municipal Power Pool
Some services are paid annually and do not require a monthly payment

MASKENTHINE LAKE ~ 25 YEARS OLD

In 1979, the Lower Elkhorn Natural Resources District (LENRD) Board of Directors opened the Maskenthine Lake Recreation Area to the public. The multi-purpose project is located 10 miles east of Norfolk in the rolling hills of north-central Stanton County. Constructed in 1976, the dam provides flood control for the town of Stanton, one and one-half miles south of the lake. The area is approximately 740 acres in size, including the 100 acre lake, providing many recreational activities which attract people from across the state. The lake is a popular fishery in the district, and is stocked by the Nebraska Game & Parks Commission. Other recreational activities include: hunting, boating, hiking, camping, swimming, horse-back riding, winter sports, and much more. An arboretum is located on the east side of the lake with other tree plantings and wind-breaks throughout the area.

Not 25 years later, the staff and board have continued to make large improvements to the recreational area. The LENRD was awarded a grant through the Land and Water Conservation Fund in 2002, sponsored by the Nebraska Games & Parks Commission. The 50/50 grant covered the cost of the winter sports arena. In 2003, the remaining grant money was used to upgrade the tent camping area, put in a playground near the northwest shelter house, construct 8 new camper pads on the west side of the lake, and put in a dump station.

If you haven't driven past Maskenthine for awhile, or if you have never visited the area, you should make time to check it out! For more information about the lake, contact the LENRD office in Norfolk or contact Recreation Area Superintendent, Leonard Boryca. No park permit or fee is required for entrance.

Learning the procedure

Northeast Community College student Kayla Erwin of Wakefield inserts a nasal gastric tube on a mannequin during a video-taped check-off test for nursing students. Some 60 students were required to perform five different procedures to see if they are ready to advance to clinical work in area hospitals and nursing homes. The tests were video taped by students enrolled in Northeast's broadcasting, radio and TV, department and then reviewed by NECC nursing faculty.

Campus visitation programs scheduled for Wayne State College

High school juniors and seniors, along with their parents, are invited to participate in one of two special campus visitation programs at Wayne State College this semester.

Just Juniors. Area high school juniors and their parents are invited to attend the "Just Juniors" Day at Wayne State College on Saturday, Nov. 13. Activities include an optional, free A.C.T. preparation workshop (pre-registration is required) for students, as well as informational sessions for both parents and students.

During the day, campus tours, sessions on academic programs, student services, financial aid and scholarships will be offered. The day will begin with check-in at the WSC Student Center at 9 a.m., and will conclude in early afternoon. Because space is limited in the A.C.T. workshop, pre-registration is encouraged at the student's earliest convenience.

"Fridays at WSC," a program designed for high school seniors and their parents, will be held on Nov. 5, 19 and Dec. 3. Registration begins at 8:45 a.m. in the WSC Student Center. Activities conclude by mid-afternoon.

During the day, families and students will be given information about admission, financial assistance, academic programs and extracurricular activities at Wayne State. Students and their parents will meet with current students, visit academic areas of choice and tour campus.

To register for either "Just Juniors" or "Fridays at WSC," call the Wayne State admissions office at 800-228-9972, ext. 7234, or 402-375-7234, or e-mail admit1@wsc.edu.

More information can be found on the Wayne State Web site at www.wsc.edu.

Game 14Sept. 18, 2004*Wayne 10, Yutan 0

The Wayne High softball team improved to 17-0 after three games played at the David City Invite on Sept. 18.

In the opening game against Yutan, Ashley Carroll hit a two-run homer to highlight a 10-0 win.

Kayla Hochstein finished with two doubles and three RBIs, while Jenny Raveling's triple and three runs all added to Wayne's offensive fireworks.

Molly Hill pitched six innings in a no-hitter where she retired 13 Yutan batters.

Game 15Sept. 18, 2004*Wayne 17, Cross County 5

In the tourney's second game, Brooke Anderson's home run opened the floodgates for a 17-5 thrashing of Cross County. Anderson finished with a double, five RBIs and a pair of runs.

Marisa Carroll won the game from the mound for Wayne High.

The Blue Devils finished the game with seven hits.

Game 16Sept. 18, 2004*Wayne 10, Bennington 0

Hill returned to the mound in the third game to pitch five innings in a 10-0 shutout of Bennington.

Hill recorded nine strikeouts off no hits and went 2-of-4 with a pair of RBIs.

Raveling had two doubles and a run for Wayne, while Hochstein scored two runs and a RBI and went two-of-two at the plate.

Game 17Sept. 18, 2004*Wayne 1, David City 0

Hill's third no-hitter of the tourney came in a close 1-0 game against host David City.

Dawn Jensen scored Wayne's sole run in the sixth inning off a David City error.

"It was a long day," Wayne coach Rob Sweetland said. "We scratched out a run against a good team at home."

He said that a good week of practice last week helped the team make it through the weekend's four games.

Game 18Sept. 21, 2004*Wayne 4, Boone Central 0

The Blue Devils traveled to Albion Boone Central on Sept. 21 and came away with a 4-0 win against the Cardinals.

Jean Pieper led the offense with a pair of hits, an RBI and a run.

Another no-hitter by Hill saw 15 more strikeouts to add to her record-setting season.

"The girls are playing well and are improving with every game," Sweetland said.

Marisa Carroll had five hits and pitched seven strikeouts to pace the JV team in a 15-4 win in the early game.

Sam Denklau had three runs and an RBI, while Kiley Luhr had a pair of RBIs.

Game 19
Sept. 25, 2004
Wayne 7,
Tekamah-Herman 0

Wayne posted three shutout games in home tournament action played on Sept. 25.

The Blue Devils were sparked by three no-hitters by pitcher Molly Hill, who finished the tourney with 51 strikeouts.

Hill pitched a perfect game with no strikeouts, while Ashley Carroll went 2-for-4 and had a single, triple and an RBI in the tourney's 7-0 opening victory against Tekamah-Herman.

It was Hill's fourth perfect game of the season and extended her own all-class career state record for perfect games to eight during her Blue Devil pitching career.

Hill accomplished the feat while battling a sinus infection and quickly retreated to a warm blanket between her trips to the mound.

"Molly had a great day," Coach Rob Sweetland said. "She was not feeling the best, but it didn't show today."

Wayne scored a pair of runs in the third and five more in the fourth inning, while taking advantage of several Tekamah miscues.

Carroll, Jenny Raveling, Dawn Jensen, Brooke Anderson, Danica Carroll, Sarah Frerichs and Kayla Hochstein all scored runs for the Blue Devils.

Game 20
Sept. 25, 2004
Wayne 2, West Point CC 0

Hill had 19 strikeouts and Ashley Carroll went two-for-three with an RBI double and scored a run for the Blue Devils as Wayne stopped West Point CC 2-0 in the tourney's second game.

Raveling added Wayne's second run, with Hill, Frerichs, Anderson and Danica Carroll adding singles in the winning effort.

Game 21
Sept. 25, 2004
Wayne 4, North Bend 0

Hill matched her season high state record with 21 strikeouts and Frerichs went two-for-three with two runs as Wayne disposed of North Bend Central 4-0 in the championship game.

"I thought everyone contributed today," Sweetland said after the game. "It was nice to see Ashley Carroll have a good day hitting the ball hard and getting some extra base hits."

Other runs for Wayne were recorded by Hochstein and Jean Pieper, who also was credited with a stolen base for the Blue Devils.

Game 22
Sept. 28, 2004
Wayne 1, Logan View 0

Wayne improved to 22-0 with a 1-0 win at Hooper Logan View on Sept. 28.

The game saw little offensive output by both teams.

The Blue Devils came to life after a solo home run by Hochstein in the top of the seventh inning put Wayne on the scoreboard for the winning run.

Hochstein finished 2-of-3 at the plate, while Hill added another hit and struck out 19 Logan View batters.

"Logan View has been up and down this year," Sweetland said. "I knew they would be up for us. Kayla came up with another clutch hit and it seems like she has done it all year in close games."

Game 23Sept. 30, 2004*Wayne 6, West Point CC 0

Six hits and six runs.

That's all it took for the undefeated Wayne High softball team to shutout West Point Central Catholic 6-0 in home action on Sept. 30.

The Blue Devils opened with four runs in the first inning and a run in the second and sixth to dispose of the Crusaders.

Wayne pitcher Molly Hill added to her string of strikeouts as she struck out 16 WPCC batters and allowed no hits.

The win provided some valuable hands-on exposure to a team the Blue Devils may face in district action this week.

It was nice to get a big win at home against a district team," coach Rob Sweetland said.

Jenny Raveling finished 2-of-3 with a double and a pair of RBIs for Wayne, while Kayla Hochstein's two RBI singles in the first got the offense rolling.

She also added another run later in the game.

Jean Pieper added a pair of runs and stole two bases for WHS.

Other scores for Wayne included runs by Leslie Buckstrom, Ashley Carroll and Dawn Jensen.

Hill, Carroll and Jensen each hit singles for the Blue Devils.

WPCC won the early JV game 11-0. Mirisa Carroll took the loss on the mound for Wayne, while she joined Sara Frerichs and Dacia Ganseborn with singles.

Game 24Oct. 2, 2004*Wayne 10, Auburn 0

Wayne traveled to the Yutan Invitational in Auburn on Oct. 2 and swept the tourney with three shutout games.

In the first game, Wayne destroyed Auburn 10-0 as Pieper, Raveling and Brooke Anderson had doubles to lead the scoring explosion.

Runs were recorded by Pieper, (2) Raveling, Anderson Frerichs, (2) Jensen, Jessica Jammer, Hochstein and Hill.

Hill struck out 14 batters and allowed one hit in the win.

Game 25Oct. 2, 2004*Wayne 1,*Ashland-Greenwood 0

Jessica Jammer's run in the bottom of the sixth inning gave Wayne all it needed to defeat Ashland-Greenwood in the second game of the tourney.

Hill allowed a hit, but had 20 strikeouts from the mound.

Raveling added the RBI single for the Blue Devils.

Game 26Oct. 2, 2004*Wayne 2, Yutan 0

Wayne downed Yutan 2-0 in the championship game in a win that tied Papillion LaVista's state record for consecutive wins at 33 games.

Hill pitched a two-hitter with 15 strikeouts to finish the tourney with 49 strikeouts from the mound.

Pieper and Raveling each scored for Wayne with runs in the first and fifth inning.

Raveling also had a pair of stolen bases for the Blue Devils.

Game 27Oct. 2, 2004*Wayne 2, Boone Central 0

The Blue Devils set two state records on Tuesday with a 2-0 home shutout of Albion Boone Central.

The team broke the record for consecutive wins (34), while Molly Hill pitched 22 strikeouts from the mound to break her own state record of 21 in one game.

Contributing runs for Wayne were Leslie Backstrom (running for Hill) and Dawn Jensen.

Game 28C-1 District*Game One*Oct. 7, 2004*Wayne 2, North Bend 0

Three home shutouts equal one trip to the state tournament.

The undefeated Wayne Blue Devils (30-0) girls softball team proved why it's on track to be one of the most celebrated teams in state softball history with three big wins in District C-1 action in Wayne on Oct. 7-8.

Wayne disposed of North Bend Central (3-0) and Hooper Logan View (9-0) Thursday and dismantled Logan View in the finals game on Thursday to qualify for state for the third consecutive year.

The accomplishment was even sweeter considering Wayne's program is only three years old.

In the first District game, the Blue Devils battle through a steady rain to down North Bend Central.

Wayne's Kayla Hochstein managed to hit a single in the second inning and advanced to third set up a 1-0 lead.

Pitcher Molly Hill allowed only 1 walk and struck out 15 batters while working against the North Bend offense in less-than-perfect weather.

The Blue Devils added a pair of runs in the third starting with a single by Dawn Jensen. Jean Pieper had another single and stolen base to set up Wayne's next scoring threat. An RBI by Jenny Raveling along with a double by Ashley Carroll put Wayne up 3-0.

Wayne added another double, by Sara Frerichs in the final inning of the game, but wasn't able to generate the advance into points so the rainy game ended 3-0.

Game 29C-1 District Game Two*Oct. 7, 2004*Wayne 9, Logan View 0

The second District game against Logan View started about 90 minutes later than it's scheduled time on Oct. 7 due to the rain delay.

The Blue Devils exploded with nine scores off nine hit in the third inning to set up a comfortable lead to seal the win.

Hill pitched a no-hitter and struck out 15 more batters to bring her total on the day to 30.

A single by Brooke Anderson got the third inning scoring party started for the Blue Devils, while Pieper, Raveling, Carroll, Hochstein, Jensen and Hill's courtesy runner Leslie Backstrom lighting up the scoreboard for the Blue Devils.

Jessica Jammer was able to generate two runs as the order rolled over to complete the 9-0 run for Wayne. Raveling and Carroll each had 2 RBIs, while Jensen finished with one for the Blue Devils.

Hill made one of the game's defense highlights in the top of the fourth when she caught a midfield hit just moments after she through the pitch.

"It was strange," Hill said. "I just reached out and there it was. It was really fast."

Game 30
C-1 District Championship
Oct. 8, 2004

Wayne 12, Logan View 0

Wayne High scored five runs in the second inning and added seven more in the sixth to defeat Logan View 12-0 in a six-inning rematch played in the district final on Friday afternoon.

Hill threw 14 strikeouts to increase her career total to 482, but said the team's offensive efforts were the real stars of the show.

"We just scored at weird times," she said with an ice bag on her shoulder, and in between taking bites of a victory cookie. "We have played those guys so many times, so we knew when to score when it was convenient."

Part of knowing about the other team is knowing the tendencies of its pitcher and the Blue Devils turned back-to-back walks by Logan View freshman pitcher Dani Mowinkel into a golden opportunity. Hochstein and Frerichs advanced on walks for the Blue Devils and a single by Brooke Anderson loaded up the bases for Wayne.

A pair of two-run singles by Jensen and Carroll set up runs in the second inning by Hochstein, Frerichs, Anderson, Jessica Jammer and Jensen to put Wayne up 5-0 heading into the third inning.

Seven more Blue Devil runs came in the sixth inning starting with singles by Danica Carroll and Samantha Denklau.

Jensen hit an infield drive her next time at the plate to bring Carroll and Denklau home, but her arrival at second base came with a price as she sustained a game-ending injury after she rounded the curve and clipped the corner of the base.

Jensen, who went 2-for-3 with a double and four RBIs for the game, said she will be back behind the plate in time for next week's run at the Class C title.

"I will be ready to play," she said. "That's the only option."

Substitute Leslie Backstrom was able to keep Jensen's inspired play alive with Wayne's next score to put the Blue Devils up 8-0.

Wayne extended the lead as it headed to the top of the batting order with a single and stolen base by Jean Pieper, followed up with a bloop single by Jenny Raveling.

Pieper, Raveling, Ashley Carroll and Hill's courtesy runner Andrea Pieper added more runs in the sixth for Wayne.

Blue Devil coach Rob Sweetland said the one-sided win was a special treat for the senior class, a group that's never lost a game at home since the program was started at Wayne High just three seasons ago.

"It was a great finish for the seniors to be undefeated at home," he said.

Sweetland said the approach to state will be as simple as doing the things that got the team this far in a season filled with record-setting performances by Hill and the team as a whole.

"We're not going to change much," he said. "We are going to stay aggressive and prepare to execute."

Game 31
Class C First Round
Oct. 14, 2004
Wayne 2, Cozad 0

Wayne disposed of eighth-seed Cozad 2-0 in the opening game of the tourney.

Dawn Jensen was tapped for a special honor to catch the ceremonial opening pitch thrown by none other than former University of Nebraska All-American and Papillion-LaVista record-setter Peaches James.

James' name has been mentioned a number of times this season, as Molly Hill has eclipsed several of James' all-state pitching records.

"That was incredible," Jensen commented after being the only catcher to have caught for two of the state's most decorated pitchers within minutes of each other.

Hill extended her string to 500 career strikeouts with 18 alone during the Cozad game and the rest of the Blue Devil defense only allowed one hit.

The game had special significance to Wayne as Cozad upset the Blue Devils in the opening round of the tournament last year.

"Winning it right away was just awesome," outfielder Jessica Jammer said. "They were all good teams here, but we were confident in her (Molly) and the rest of the team to do what they needed to do."

Jammer and Kayla Hochstein each scored runs in the fourth inning in the Cozad win, while Jensen was credited with an RBI.

Game 32
Class C Quartfinal Game
Oct. Oct. 14, 2004
Wayne 1,

Fillmore Central 0

The Blue Devils advanced to Thursday's second game to face fourth-seed Fillmore Central.

To say the game, a 1-0 Wayne victory was a close one would be a bit of an understatement.

The game featured a pitching duel between Hill and Fillmore's Kelly Sadek, who has been one of Class C's leaders from the mound this season.

Hill was challenged in the fourth inning when Fillmore was able to advance two runners to second and third base after a pair of steals. Hill responded with a quick strikeout to prevent a Panther score.

After going scoreless through seven innings, Wayne's designated flex player, Danica Carroll popped a ground ball past second base for the winning RBI.

Fillmore put a courtesy runner on second as designated by softball rules to start the eighth inning and Jenny Raveling was first to answer for Wayne with the first out at first base.

"We know Molly will get the strikeouts and I just go out there and do the best I can and hopefully get a hit," Raveling said. "We knew what was on the line here and we knew what we had to do, this had been our goal all season."

Hill wrapped up the inning with strikeouts of the next two Panther batters.

WHS put its courtesy runner, Leslie Backstrom on second as Sladek took the mound.

The Panthers kept pressure on Backstrom and was almost tagged out when a Wayne hit by Kayla Hochstein was caught by Fillmore's first basemen and the ball was thrown to second for the double play attempt.

The play fell short as the second baseman dropped the ball and Backstrom was able to steal third after a hit by Sara Frerichs was caught in center field.

Rob Sweetland then called Carroll to her first trip to the plate in the past three weeks.

"I knew I had to get it on the ground and get her in," Carroll said. "I was very focused, but very nervous at the same time."

Carroll used her nervous energy and faced the 1-2 count with her winning RBI grounder to centerfield for the 1-0 victory.

"She's had some experience down here and fortunately she got a good pitch to hit and she hit it," Sweetland said. "That's the way we wanted it."

Game 33
Class C Semifinal Game
Oct. 15, 2004
Wayne 1,

Columbus Lakeview 0

The Fillmore Central win set up a semifinal matchup with Columbus Lakeview at noon on Friday.

Second-seed Lakeview also had one of the Class C pitching stars as Jaime Moore only allowed six Blue Devils to reach base.

Sara Frerichs opened the fifth inning with a single for WHS and was able to advance to second after a sacrifice bunt by Danica Carroll.

Frerichs kept running and first appeared to be out on her advance to third, which would have been the second out for the Blue Devils.

Frerichs' pursuit was rewarded as the umpire ruled an interference call against the Viqueens to keep her at third.

Jammer came up with a key RBI on a grounder to bring Frerichs home to seal the 1-0 Blue Devil win to send the Wayne to the finals game late Friday afternoon.

Game 34Class C Championship Game

Oct. 15, 2004

Wayne 1,

Ashland-Greenwood 0

Wayne took an early 1-0 lead against Ashland-Greenwood in Friday night's championship finals game and then played its defensive style of game management until the bottom of the seventh inning.

That's when the plot managed to thicken a bit.

Wayne pitcher Molly Hill faced a bases-loaded, full count with two outs scenario in a cold, windy game at Seymour Smith Park in Omaha.

A pair of consecutive Blue Devil errors allowed two Bluejay runners to reach base at the top of the inning.

Hill went to work and retired the next batter for the initial out, but a subsequent bunt by Ashland-Greenwood's Savannah Laughlin loaded up the bases for the Bluejays. The bunt was the only hit allowed by the Blue Devils in the game.

The next Ashland-Greenwood batter, Jenifer Sloboth, plopped a bunt in front of home plate and Hill led the Wayne defense to force the second out.

As the chilling winds whipped the dust around on Field No. 3, Wayne still found itself with bases loaded and the tension to get the third out grew with every pitch.

Hill said she knew her role in getting out of the pinch and proceeded to toss a pair of quick strikes against McKenzie Cowsky, however, those were followed by three balls to fill the count.

Just as the ball left Hill's hand and the third base runner advancing, catcher Dawn Jensen caught a pitch for the third and final strike that sealed the championship and set Hill's all-class state record with 543 career strikeouts.

"I threw it so hard," Hill told reporters following the game. "A lot of times I ease up to get a strikeout, but that wasn't going to cut it. If she would have hit it, we probably would have lost."

Hill said she thought it would be much easier to throw one strike than to lose and play another seven-inning game in the double-elimination tournament.

The strike gave Hill the state's only perfect earned run average for the season and more than two dozen other individual Class C and all-class Nebraska records, with 32 shutouts posted this fall.

Wayne's sole run in the championship game came when Jean Pieper fired off a single past third base and proceeded to steal second.

Hill got an RBI single that allowed a determined Pieper to keep rolling until she snuck in to home to score the sole run for the Blue Devils.
