Council holds public hearings

By Clara Osten
 Of the Herald

Several public hearings highlighted Tuesday's meeting of the Wayne City Council.

A large crowd was on hand to listen to, and voice opinions on several issues, including zoning changes and amending the city code.

Three separate public hearings were held in connection with Northeast Nebraska Public Power District's (NNPPD) plan to build a pole yard on the west edge of Wayne, along Highway 35.

The first of these hearings was in regard to re-zoning the property involved from R-4 (residential) to B-1 (Highway Business).

Chris Connolly, attorney for NNPPD, talked about the plans for the three lots involved and plans for the NNPPD property and indicated that construction could start this spring.

Rod Tompkins spoke to the council and said he was opposed to changing the zoning in this area because "this is the best pieces of residential property, it is close to the school." He noted that there are all kinds of industrial properties available in the northeast part of Wayne.

Mark Schulz of NNPPD spoke to the council and noted that he had looked at other locations in Wayne and felt this area was ideal for the project because it allows for easy access to the highway when materials need to be brought in and out of the yard.

Following the hearings, the council gave first reading approval to Ordinance 2005-1, which will amend the zoning map; approved Resolution 2005-1, which will allow for Use by Exception for the property and approved Resolution 2005-2 which gives approval to the preliminary plat for Westside Heights Subdivision.

After considerable discussion and comments from the public, the council gave first reading approval to Ordinance 2005-2.

This ordinance will amend the city code in dealing with residential dwellings.

A portion of the proposed ordinance dealing with parking regulations was removed from the ordinance. A separate ordinance dealing with this issue will be presented to the council in the near future.

The ordinance would provide rental regulations for single family-type units in Wayne and would establish an inspection program, provide a checklist of safety issues that must be in place and provide an opportunity to determine if the occupancy rate of four unrelated persons or less is being followed.

Among those speaking on the issue was Lee Brogie.

She talked about the work that has been done in the past year and noted that landlords "want safe dwellings." She said that what started as a 20-page document on the issue has been reduced to nine pages.

She also indicated that the present ordinance makes no regard to differences between different zoning areas. She also listed some concerns in the present draft of the ordinance.

Jan Magnuson agreed with what Brogie said about progress being made, and said she would like to see the council and Planning Commission continue

Not a good week

Water problems are not pleasant anytime, but January is an especially bad time for them to occur. Wayne city crews have had to deal with not one, but two water main breaks this week. On Sunday, a water main broke in the 100 Block of Main Street, causing water to be shut off from First to Fourth Street along Main Street. It took until 11 p.m. to get the problem fixed. On Tuesday, another water main broke on South Main Street. City crews were again called in to make repairs. Water was off to that area until approximately 9 p.m. Fortunately, both breaks occurred before sub-zero temperatures hit the area. It is predicted that some of the coldest temperatures of the season could hit Wayne by the end of this week.

Works of Marlene Mueller to be exhibited at WSC

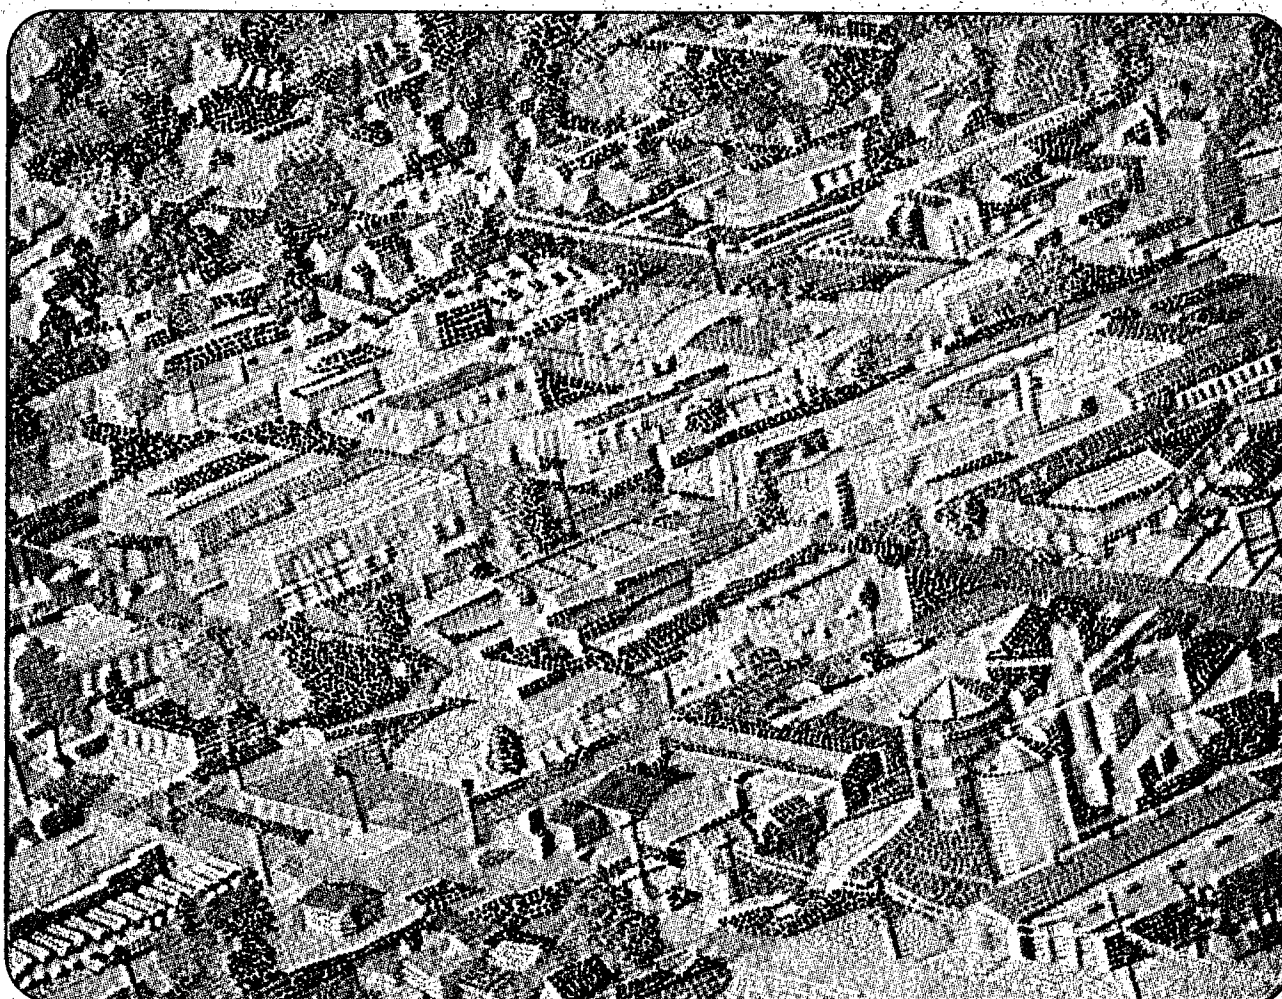

Marlene Mueller, professor of art at Wayne State College, will exhibit paintings and drawings at the Nordstrand Gallery in the Val Peterson Fine Arts Center on the Wayne State campus from Jan. 19-Feb. 12. The work was created in fulfillment of a sabbatical she was granted during the spring semester 2004.

The nine acrylic paintings reflect aerial views of the college campus, downtown Wayne and rural farmsteads. Several scenes were based on photographs the artist took from an airplane and other views were photographed from the roof of Bowen Hall on the WSC campus.

The eight charcoal drawings are a continuation of the ideas depicted in drawings currently on display at the Wayne Volunteer Fire Station. Mueller, a volunteer firefighter for nine years, has been documenting the various types of training exercises fire personnel receive in preparing themselves for an incident, be it fire or rescue. The new drawings also target various operations and maneuvers in fire suppression and rescue work.

The exhibit opening and reception in her honor will be on Jan. 19 from 4:30-6 p.m. in the gallery. The public is invited and welcome to attend at no charge.

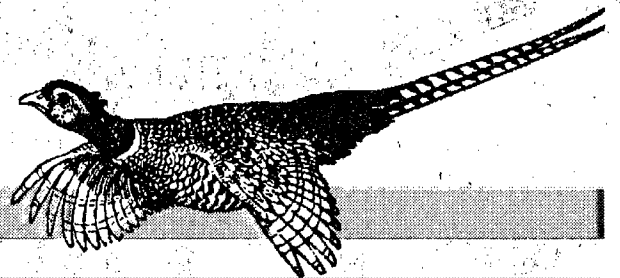

Mueller teaches painting and drawing in the Department of Art and Design and exhibits locally and regionally. She is represented by Gallery 72 in Omaha, is a member of the Haydon Art Center in Lincoln and is on the exhibition committee at the Norfolk Art Center.

The acrylic painting above is an aerial perspective of downtown Wayne. The painting is one of nine that reflect aerial views of the area.

Dean Jacobs shares tales of his travels through Europe

Whether it is for three weeks or for two years my roving style remains consistent. My budget is kept to a minimum for daily needs.

During my entire trip to Europe, I do not plan to stay in a hotel or even a hostel. While in Paris I'm staying in the tiny apartment with my girlfriend, Rose. When we go to southern France, we will stay with friends we made while traveling through Central America last spring. And in Denmark I will reunite with a friend and his family, continuing a friendship that began when he was an exchange student at Fremont High in 1980. Of course I come bearing gifts, but it is a good trade for all - especially for you in your tracks. This is either good or bad depending on your view of strong smelling cheese. With nearly 500 varieties of cheese to choose from, you are guaranteed to find something that tastes good.

Food itself is a great adventure when you leave familiar surroundings. My first meal in Paris was a plate full of snails, otherwise known as escargot. Rose prepared these tasty little morsels in her cosy little kitchen. They came ready to cook, and were served in an aluminium tray that reminded me of the TV dinners my mom used to pass off as lunch. I took a wooden toothpick to explore the hidden surprise buried deep inside the light brown shell. The snails were smothered in a mix of green herbs, butter and garlic. After I pushed aside the image in my mind of these little guys crawling up the sides of the fish-aquarium, I concluded they tasted pretty good!

Of course the meal included French bread. It wouldn't be French if it didn't. I have always loved good bread, even clear back to the days when, as a young lad I would watch my grandmother making the dough from scratch with white flour. She always used to tell me, "If you ever find a woman, all she will ever need is the ability to make bread, then you will be happy Dean". Well, I might add now - "or live close to a French bakery", as it is bought daily, fresh from the small bakeries found in every neighborhood.

After only a few days in Paris, Rose and I, (me wearing my large backpack), were riding the Metro (subway) heading to the airport. Our destination was the airport, to catch a flight to southern France. In Montpellier friends were waiting to show us the sights and delights of their world. Until next time, Au revoir!

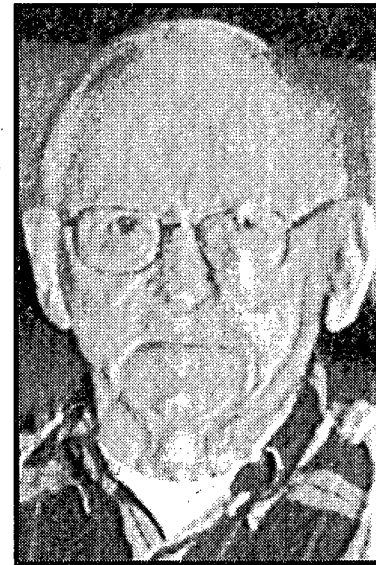

me, considering the weakness of the dollar.

The other night a portly fellow of Asian Indian descent jokingly made a comment using a tone of voice more appropriate if his team had just won a sporting championship. "Soon we will be using the American dollar as toilet paper if George Bush gets his way." I'm afraid he may be right, currently three US dollars buys me two Euros with no indication of the end of the dive in sight.

It does not keep me from traveling. It does increase the challenge and stimulate creativity for finding novel ways to keep costs low. You may end up having a lunch that consists of just cheese and bread, but in France, that's a pretty good meal when you throw in a little wine. Walking down the sidewalk in front of a cheese shop, the smell is strong enough to stop

Goodwill truck to be in Wayne for donations

Goodwill's Ambassador trailer has been coming to Wayne as a regular visitor for the past several years in order to receive donations.

The trailer will be in Wayne Wednesday, Jan. 19 until Tuesday, Jan. 25.

Donations are to be placed in the Ambassador trailer located in the northwest corner of the Pac 'N' Save parking lot.

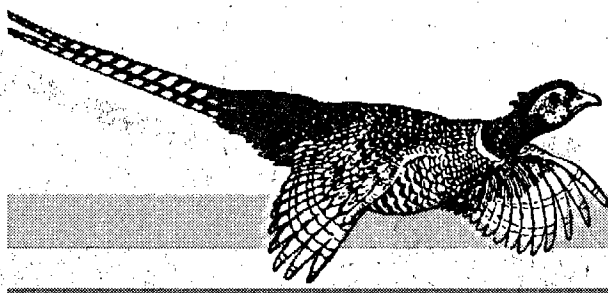

Donations are to be placed as far to the front of the trailer as possible. Furniture and large appliances cannot be accepted. Goodwill will accept donations of sellable clothing, usable working small appliances and household goods, sporting goods and toys.

Donations are processed and sold in the Goodwill stores to support the programs and services provided for people with disabilities and disadvantaged conditions.

Goodwill is a non-profit organization and through its many programs, provides services to hundreds of people with employment barriers.

With the help of Goodwill, they are able to receive training, which will enable them to become productive wage earners and tax-paying members of our communities.

Parking problems discussed Capitol View

Do you ever think it is unsightly for people to park on the grass in front of their house? Do you know anybody that is unhappy having six to eight cars parked on the lawn around some house being rented to six to eight or more people? Have you ever encountered problems from having too many people live in a house that was built for single family use converted to rental housing and far too many people living there?

Problems in these instances include such things as excessive we at the council feel we have the entire city and especially the residential part of the community to protect from the abuses mentioned in the first paragraph.

We are in the process of drafting an ordinance dealing with parking in residential areas of the city. Because (when we tried to make this part of the ordinance apply only to rental housing) of concerns by the Rental Association of the possibility of discrimination, we decided to make the parking ordinance city wide. That ordinance is currently being written.

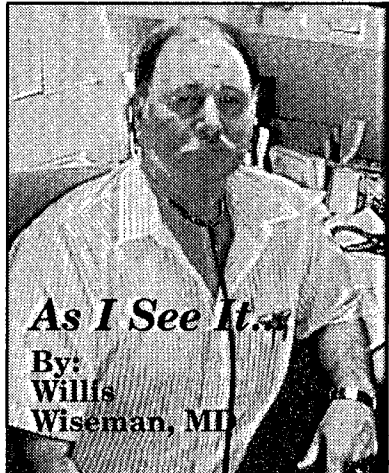

This is the reason for this article. Currently, the ordinance planned would not allow parking in front of a house on anything other than hard surface. This could be asphalt or concrete. Also no more than 50 percent of the width of the front of the lot could be hard surfaced. Another part of the ordinance is that on side yards or back yards, parking would not be allowed on grass or dirt. In this situation, gravel, rock or pavement would be required. This would eliminate most of the parking complaints we have received so far.

If you feel strongly that this is good (or bad) then it would be helpful for you to contact your council person and express yourself. Even better would be to attend the public hearing that would precede the introduction of this ordinance and express your views.

If you have other solutions for the problems, we would welcome your suggestions in that regard also.

So that you understand the process, an ordinance is introduced and voted on. If passed then there must be two more votes (usually at separate following meetings) before the ordinance becomes law so there is ample time to make changes to arrive at the best law we can have that serves the majority of citizens.

trash, noise at all hours, parking where parking was never intended.

The City of Wayne has received many complaints over the years dealing with all those issues and more. The last two years, we at the city council, have been trying to construct a solution to the above problems.

The planning commission has worked for over a year to help with the solution. We now finally have an ordinance to deal with some of these problems and that has passed the first of three readings at the city council meeting of Jan. 12.

We did take one third of the ordinance out for further study due to the number of objections of a group called the Wayne Rental Association.

This group has objected to most of the provisions (although not all) of the entire process of trying to solve the problems. However,

Ninety-ninth legislative session begins

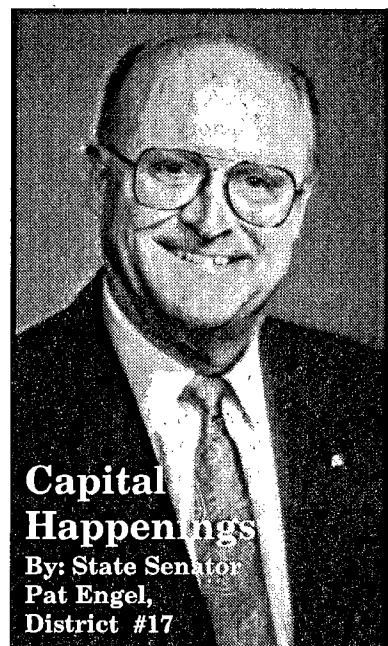

The legislature convened on Jan. 5 for the final two years with veteran law makers at the helm. Term limits will dismiss 20 of the 49 present Senators after the 2006 election. My term will be up in four years, having just been re-elected.

The Legislature meets for 90 working days this year, adjourning approximately June 3.

Committee chair elections on the first day of the Session found me unopposed for my second two year term as chair of the Legislative Executive Board. An internal affairs committee, the Executive Board carries out the routine administration of legislative services and personnel. The Board consists of a Chairman, Vice Chairman, the Speaker of the Legislature, and six members of the body at large. As Chair of this Committee, I am the second ranking member of the Unicameral, after the Speaker.

As a committee, the Executive Board can introduce and prioritize legislation. This year the Board will promote a proposal to protect employees in offices run by state-wide elected officials. The goal of the bill is to protect employees from elected supervisors who treat them badly or unfairly. Present law gives those workers no protection such as that afforded employees of agencies with appointed heads.

However, the bill will require a constitutional amendment. Thirty of the 49 Senators will have to vote to put the issue on a statewide ballot probably in 2006. Nebraska voters will have to approve the measure to give the Legislature clear authority to set personnel policy for elected offi-any number of topics. Digression is standard. This is not good for efficiency. This is not good for reporters who have things to do and have to outwait the drivel.

If Brashear is interested in saving time, enforcement of the rules of debate might be a good thing to consider.

After heading the Appropriations Committee for years, Sen. Roger Wehrbein of Plattsmouth is without a leadership post. He pulled out of a race for the Speaker's job. His late bid for re-election to the budget panel's top spot was rejected by his colleagues.

Wehrbein deserves more than a tip of the hat for his work in leading the Appropriations Committee. He had the job during the years when Nebraska faced horrendous financial problems.

It fell to Wehrbein, a fellow generally regarded as a commonsense conservative, to be the messenger of bad economic tidings. That job can be as dangerous as it is thankless.

He fought for tax policies that a majority of lawmakers believed were in the best overall interest of the state. That meant raising some taxes in order to keep other taxes - like the local property taxes that support schools - from going up. Wehrbein also endorsed policies intended to help school districts that had been hard-hit by previous reductions in state aide.

Get the facts before giving to tsunami relief

The humanitarian disaster following the tsunami in the Indian Ocean is staggering. With the current death toll at more than 147,000 and thousands of people injured and homeless, there is a critical need for aid.

If there is a silver lining to this terrible tragedy, it's that people around the world have come together to feed, clothe and shelter those displaced by the disaster. Nebraskans have joined the effort by opening their hearts and wallets to aid victims.

Unfortunately, after any disaster, there are con artists waiting to take advantage of those who want to help.

It's important to get the facts before making a contribution. The following tips can help ensure that your donation reaches victims in Southeast Asia.

• Ask how your donation will be used. What percentage will go to actual relief for victims? What percentage will go for administrative costs or to professional fundraisers? What percentage will be used to fund other programs sponsored by the charity?

• Do not make an immediate decision on giving, especially if you are not familiar with the charity. Only give money to reputable organizations, such as the American Red Cross, UNICEF or your local church.

• Make sure the charity you select has experienced in international relief efforts.

• Do not be pressured by emotional appeals.

• Do not give cash. Legitimate charities will accept checks or credit cards. A con artist does not want a paper trail.

• Be sure to obtain a receipt from the organization, collecting the money showing the amount of the donation. It should also have the name, address and phone number of the organization and information regarding whether your donation is tax deductible.

• Research the organization asking for a donation by calling the Attorney General's Office, the Better Business Bureau or visit www.guidestar.com which is a database of nonprofit organizations.

Looking Ahead in Wayne...
By: Lowell Johnson, City Administrator

"What Can You Do About My Neighbors Parking Several Cars on Their Front Lawn and Turning Areas into Dirt or Gravel with Weeds?"

This is one of those questions we get phone calls about because this is considered to have a negative impact on the neighborhood property values and neighborhood appearance.

The council is considering a draft ordinance used by other cities that restricts frequent front yard residential parking to paved driveways or paved parking and limits that amount of paved area in front of a home to one half of the lot frontage. The simplest description of paved frontage would be to split the front yard in half by drawing a line from the middle of the front side of the house to the curb. The owner could pave any or all of one side of the divided front yard.

As proposed, this ordinance would cover all residential properties, whether rented or owner-occupied. At the present time there are no regulations in place to respond to a complaint about the number of cars parking on the grass on an abutting property. The intent of the council is to provide some ability to require orderly parking in front of homes. Except for corner lots, it does not restrict the amount of parking to the side of the home and does limit the amount of parking in the rear yard.

Like most complaints we receive, 90 percent are resolved by a simple phone call or contact with the property owner. This proposal, like most of the rest, is proposed to provide the ability to deal with the other 10 percent that aren't getting resolved and create a problem for a neighborhood. The mayor and council are requesting citizen input on this proposal so if you have a comment or suggestion, let them know.

to discuss the issue to get a "plan workable for everyone."

Jeff Morlok said the current ordinance does not work and will not solve problems.

"It will create negative relationships with the Rental Association. We need to keep working with and refining the ordinance," he said.

Cap Peterson of Northeast Nebraska Insurance Agency presented information to the council on the city's property and casualty insurance package.

He noted that the city has had coverage with Employers Mutual Insurance Agency for a number of years and talked about the changes in premiums. He said the total change is approximately $5,000 less than last year, mainly due to lower costs of workman's compensation insurance.

Following his presentation, the council voted unanimously to approve the insurance package for the coming year.

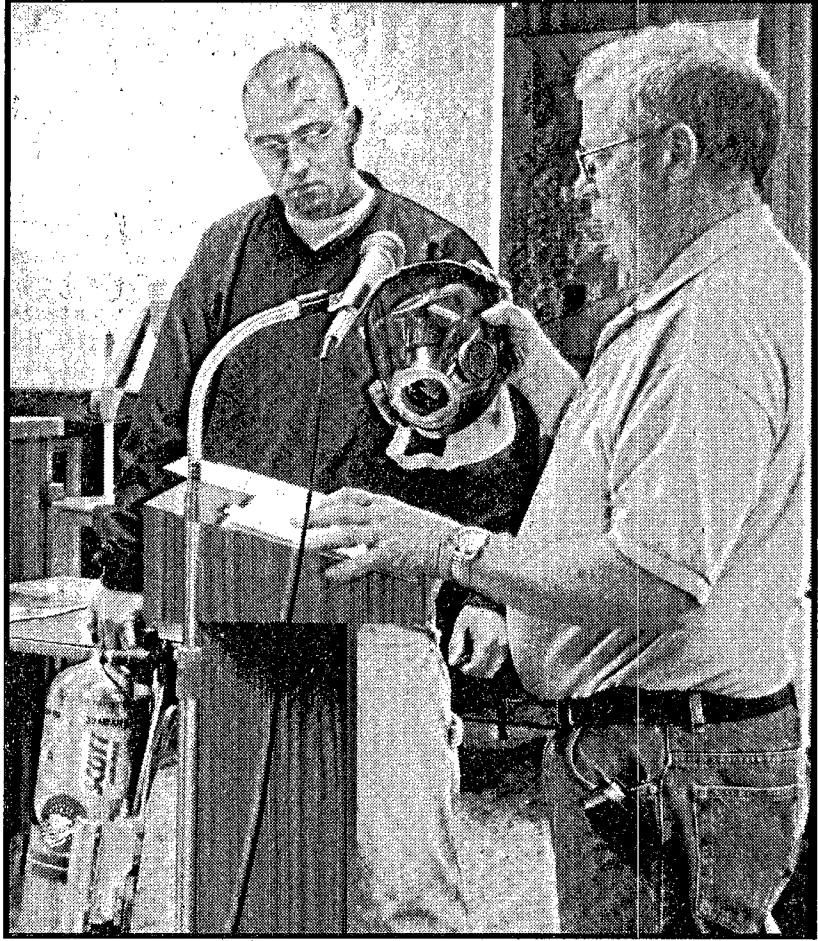

The council approved the application of Dustin Swisher for membership to the Wayne Volunteer Fire Department.

Fire Chief Tom Mitzel spoke to the council on the issue of a Homeland Security Grant Application. He noted that the law enforcement agencies and fire and rescue departments are proposing that an interlocal grant application be submitted to allow for new radio equipment. This will also allow for the departments to communicate with each other on the same radio frequency.

Mitzel also showed the council the new Self Contained Breathing Apparatus (SCBA) air packs that were purchased with grant funding received by the department. He explained the added safety features of the devices and the fact that several radios have also been purchased which allow the firefighters the ability to communicate with the fire chief without having to remove the air packs. This is an additional safety feature.

In other action, the council approved two ordinances on third reading. These were Ordinance 2004-19 and 2004-20. The first involves a change in location of a handicapped parking stall and the second amends the city code to allow for parking along Grainland Road from 5 a.m. to midnight.

The council's next meeting will be Tuesday, Jan. 25 at 7:30 p.m. in council chambers.

Election of officers held at school board meeting

The Wayne Community Schools Board of Education held their regular meeting Monday night at the high school. Election of officers was held with Bill Dickey voted as president and Kaye Morris as vice president of the board for 2005. President Dickey appointed Ann Ruwe as secretary-treasurer.

Approved was the hiring of personnel, Larry Pierce, full-time paraprofessional and Anthony Cantrell, full-time teaching staff. Also approved was the payment of the membership dues for the National School Boards Association for 2005.

Cap Peterson of Northeast Nebraska Insurance Agency, Inc. gave updates on the insurance policy the school has. Some of the items he discussed included Workers Comp., Liability coverage, the rates set up by the State of Nebraska, and other changes to the policy.

Informational reports were given by high school, Middle School and elementary school principals: Mark Hanson congratulated the Speech team members for their achievements. He noted there are two student teachers at the high school and there is a state-wide writing exam coming in February.

John McClarnen said the recent Lion's Club sponsored Geography Bee winner was Lindsey Costa. He praised office staff, Suzanne Burbach and Shari Dunklau, for getting the Altona grade system running smoothly and for getting report cards out. He said there is one student teacher at the Middle School.

David Lutt noted there are three student teachers in their building. He added that Elementary Conferences will be held on Jan. 14, W.E.B. meets on Jan. 27, and he also discussed the scoring of the State-wide Writing Assessment.

Reports were also given by SPED Director Kelly Ballinger as well as Dr. Joe Reinert, superintendent. Ballinger said her staff did a good job of getting their curriculum on paper. Dr. Reinert said the AGS testing for grades 3-12 is continuing, that Standards and Assessments were met, and March 24 is APL Training Day.

Board committee updates were given. Public relation/facilities committee reported that the foundation received $30,000 from Dennis Kern for the track project. He will be visiting Wayne in May. It was also noted there is a silent auction fundraiser planned for Feb. 12 during the last boys home basketball game.

The board approved policies #2103 and #5600.

No executive session was held. The next regular school board meeting will be on Monday, Feb. 14 at 7 p.m. at the high school in Wayne.

Haven House seeks volunteers

Haven House, our local domestic violence and sexual assault agency, is searching for more volunteers to help provide the services that are needed.

Within the past few months the agency has gone through a major expansion, but is still in need of the valued service that volunteers have to offer. Haven House provides a 24-hour crisis line for individuals who are struggling in domestic violence relationships and for victims of sexual assault. In order to provide this service volunteers are very important.

There are also many other different ways that volunteers can get involved and give back to the community. These opportunities include but are not limited to enhanced advocacy, child advocacy, outreach, court watch, office support, and presentations.

Haven House is striving to educate the community about domestic violence. Kathy Fink, the Prevention Specialist, has many different presentations available to offer. Topics such as Domestic Violence, Affects of Domestic Violence on Children, Healthy

Relationships, Dating Violence, Sexual Harassment, Sexual Assault, Affects of Domestic Violence in the Workplace, Bullying Safety for Kids, Domestic Violence in Rural America, and Love-All

That and More are all ready to be delivered.

If you are interested in either becoming a volunteer or having a presentation delivered contact Haven House at 402-375-5433.

American Red Cross releases comprehensive Tsunami Relief Plan

To provide the most effective aid possible in the wake of the tsunami, the American Red Cross, at this time, estimates that it will require approximately $400 million providing emergency relief and also responding to long-term needs that will emerge over months and even years to come.

The immediate American Red Cross focus is on getting lifesaving help to millions affected by the tsunamis. This includes distributing culturally appropriate food like rice, canned fish and lentils to millions of people. Safe water and sanitation is a priority, and the American Red Cross will be rehabilitating water and sanitation systems to ensure that people have clean water and waste disposal systems.

The American Red Cross two-phased assistance plan calls for specialized relief immediately and over the long term in these five areas:

- Food and safe water
- Healthcare and disease prevention
- Immediate family supplies
- Mental health counseling
- Disaster preparedness and prevention measures

The American Red Cross is working in coordination with the International Federation of Red Cross and Red Crescent Societies and other important partners.

The American Red Cross will also work in the crucial area of disease prevention, vaccinating and protecting millions against measles, polio and malaria, while also helping provide mental health support for those suffering emotional trauma. Crucial relief supplies like tents, hygiene kits and cooking utensils will also be distributed as part of the American Red Cross response. The American Red Cross will also help affected countries with prevention measures to reduce the loss of life and property from future natural disasters.

Marty Evans, president and CEO of the American Red Cross, said the American Red Cross recognizes the real logistical challenges in providing relief half a world away. During times of international disasters, the American Red Cross has significant traditional expertise in bringing highly specialized relief to victims across the world, and this response will be enhanced through coordinated partnerships with other responding agencies.

"We will continue to provide the most effective aid we can, and we will be absolutely transparent with how the donated dollars are spent," Evans said. "America expects the American Red Cross to let them know when we've raised enough funds and trusts us to use their donations for longer-term needs of tsunami victims - and we are fully committed to upholding their trust. Should we need additional resources to help the tsunami victims, we have no doubt the generous American public will step up and provide us with those funds."

The American public, along with corporations and foundations, have already pledged $150 million to the American Red Cross relief efforts in Asia. When American Red Cross contributions reach $400 million, the American public will be notified.

Governed by volunteers and supported by community donations, the American Red Cross is a nationwide network of nearly 900 field units dedicated to saving lives and helping people prevent, prepare for and respond to emergencies.

Led by 1 million volunteers and 36,000 employees, the Red Cross annually mobilizes relief to families affected by more than 70,000 disasters, trains almost 12 million people in lifesaving skills and keeps U.S. military families connected worldwide. The Red Cross is the largest supplier of blood and blood products to more than 3,000 hospitals across the nation and also assists victims of international disasters and conflicts at locations worldwide.

The American Red Cross responds to a disaster every eight minutes in the United States. Currently, Red Cross chapters are helping those left homeless by flash flooding in California and Arizona. For the most current information on the Red Cross South Asia Disaster Relief, visit www.redcross.org.

Anyone wanting to make a donation to the Red Cross can contact www.redcross.org, 1-800-HELP NOW, or 1-800-257-7575 (Spanish).

Or, contributions can be sent to your local American Red Cross chapter at 112 E. 2nd Street, Wayne, NE. 68787; or you can call 402-375-5209, if you have questions.

Holly (Franzen) Thorson

Thorson to provide aid in Thailand

Holly (Franzen) Thorson, daughter of Delbert and Lynal Krueger of Pierce and the late Darrell Franzen, was flown to Thailand on Jan. 8 with a group of 200 doctors and nurses from the United States to assist the International Medical Corporation.

The group will provide care for the injured victims of the Indian Ocean Tsunami.

Holly is a Surgeon Assistant Nurse at the Rapid City, S.D. Hospital.

As part of her send off, Holly was given approximately $10,000 worth of medical supplies which were donated by Rapid City pharmacists and doctors.

The group plans to be gone approximately four weeks.

N-Lighten team comes to Wayne

A press conference to promote N-Lighten Nebraska was held at the Northeast Nebraska Health Department on Monday.

Officials touted N-Lighten Nebraska as perfect for those with a New Year's resolution to get more physically active or lose a few pounds in a sustainable way. In 2004, 5,799 Nebraska participants logged 1.77 million activity miles and lost 16,500 pounds.

Statistics indicate that at the present time, 64 percent of Americans are considered overweight or obese; one in three children (K-12) in Nebraska is overweight or at risk for becoming overweight; three in five Nebraska adults (59.2 percent) are overweight or obese; Nebraska ranks 46th worst out of 54 states and territories for leisure time physical activity; Nebraska ranks 42nd worst for "5 A Day" fruit and/or vegetable consumption.

During the press conference, Nebraska Sports Council Executive Director Dave Mlnarik made introductory remarks and said he expects 10,000 adult participants for the 2005 edition of N-Lighten Nebraska, which begins Feb. 1. He urged area participants to register by Jan. 14 to receive materials prior to the start date.

Mlnarik was joined by Jon Bohaty, who gave a presentation on how N-Lighten Nebraska works. He said participants sign up in groups of two to 10 people and follow the weekly tips. Team captains log physical activity or weight loss on a monthly basis and team totals are posted on a leader board. The top three teams in the state in each division earn medals.

In addition to the weekly tips, each participant receives a shirt and free entry in the 2005 Cornhusker State Games Volkswalk. The cost is $15 per person or $13 for online registrants.

Team captains will receive a free multi-function pedometer. Pedometers may be purchased at a discount by team members upon registration.

Locally, the Northeast Nebraska Public Health Department (NNPHD) is also offering a free pedometer to the first 75 people in Wayne, Cedar, Dixon or Thurston Counties who enter. For more information, contact the Wayne office at (402) 375-2200.

The all-new N-Lighten Kids program, a free program designed to increase physical activity among school age children, was also a topic of discussion.

Mlnarik explained that N-Lighten Kids teams that meet minimum standards will be entered into a drawing for one of ten $500 awards for its school or organization.

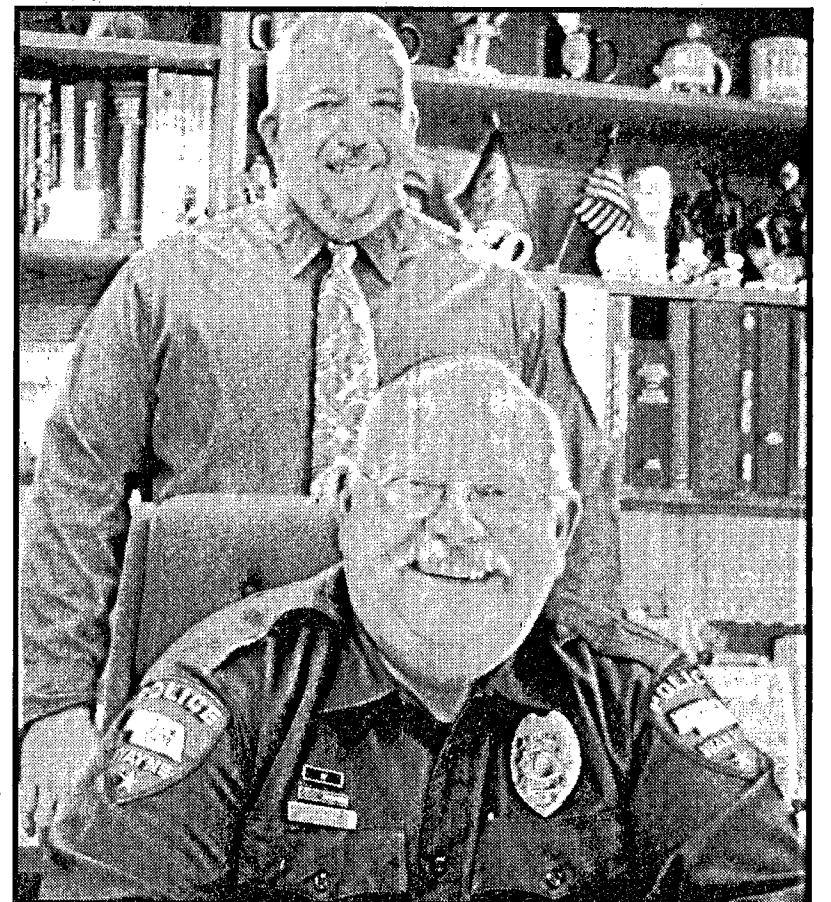

A similar program, called "Go The Distance," conducted in conjunction with Lighten Up Iowa, drew more than 20,000 Iowa kids in 2004, its first year of operation. Mlnarik also said N-Lighten Kids has been endorsed and will be promoted by the Nebraska State Education Department.

Entry forms and information are available at www.n-lighten-nebraska.com, by calling the Nebraska Sports Council at 1-800-30-GAMES or by calling NNPHD at (402) 375-2200.

Lance Webster, front, was all smiles as he prepared to turn the department over temporarily to Lt. Phil Shear. Webster is currently in Virginia attending training.

Police Chief attending training

Wayne Police Chief Lance Webster is currently attending the FBI National Academy in Quantico, Va.

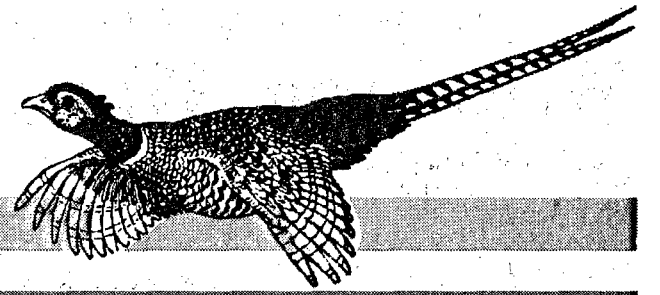

Less than one-half of one percent of all law enforcement officers nationwide are selected to attend this training.

During Webster's 10-week training session, Lt. Phil Shear will be managing the Wayne Police Department.

Chief Webster will be reporting back to the Wayne area on the training during the course of the next several weeks.

Whatever happened to halftime shows?

In the Press Box by David W. Carstens

In my opinion, the Orange Bowl halftime show has always been in a class by itself. It's a class where it couldn't be much worse.

Last Tuesday's national championship, err. championship, game was proof that marching bands still offer the best form of halftime entertainment.

For those who didn't see it let me give you a quick box score, pop singers Kelly Clarkson and Ashlee Simpson, along with country singer Trace Adkins were slated to sing, plus a premiere of a video from the band, U2.

Simpson's halftime laffer ended with the screeching line, "You make me want to scream." She may have wanted to scream, but all the crowd wanted to do was boo.

Orange Bowl representatives said they were happy as punch with Simpson's debacle said even went so far to say that the booing was just backlash from her Saturday Night Live lip-synching incident from last year.

After that train wreck, Simpson first blamed her band, then acid reflux before admitting that she lip-synched the performance to the music.

Ashlee Simpson is the epitome of everything that is wrong with the music industry right now and the Orange Bowl was the right venue for her.

What about a season recap or a feature piece or two for viewers would have been nice. I got a kick out of the announcer, also.

"We will be back with the second half kickoff in a moment, but first a video debut from U2," the announcer said. We are here to watch football, not see MTV, folks.

I like U2, but there's a time and place for them and the national championship game wasn't one of them.

Did the Orange Bowl officials forget that two of the nation's most storied marching band programs in USC and Oklahoma were also in attendance at the game? Marching bands at halftime, wow, what a concept.

WHS girls go 2-of-3 in contests

Wayne High (6-5) picked up wins against Pierce and Laurel-Concord, but lost to Mid State foe Boone Central in recent girls' basketball action.

Wayne 44, Pierce 43

Jenny Raveling nailed a pair of free throws at the end of the game to secure a 44-43 conference home win against Pierce on Jan. 6.

Sarah Jensen led the Blue Devils with 10 points, while Kayla Hochstein contributed eight points.

Wayne trailed the Bluejays by a point in the opening quarter, but managed to build a lead at the half thanks to a 12-7 advantage in the second.

"It was a real good defensive game," Wayne coach Matt Schaub said. "We responded well playing a man-to-man defense."

Wayne 7 12 10 15 - 44
Pierce 8 7 16 12 - 43

Wayne scoring: Micaela Weber 4, Jenny Raveling 7, Sarah Jensen 10, Rachel Jensen 4, Kayla Hochstein 8, Jean Pieper 5, Sara Frerichs 6.

Boone Central 44, Wayne 38

Jenny Raveling scored 10 of her team-leading 17 points in the first quarter, but Wayne wasn't able to make up for a second quarter shooting slump in a 44-38 home loss to Boone Central on Saturday.

The Blue Devils only trailed by three, but a 15-6 scoring advantage by Boone Central put the game just out of reach for WHS.

"We did a good job in the second half taking care of the ball and being patient, that's what got us some shots," Schaub said.

Boone Central 13 15 5 11 - 44
Wayne 10 6 11 11 - 38

Wayne scoring: Weber 3, Raveling 17, S. Jensen 6, R. Jensen 2, Hochstein 4, Frerichs 6.

Wayne 38, Laurel-Concord 32

Wayne continued its defensive attack in a 38-31 road win against Laurel-Concord (4-8) on Tuesday night.

Jenny Raveling led seven Blue Devil scorers with 14 points, while Renee Theobald and Jean Pieper added eight and six points, respectively.

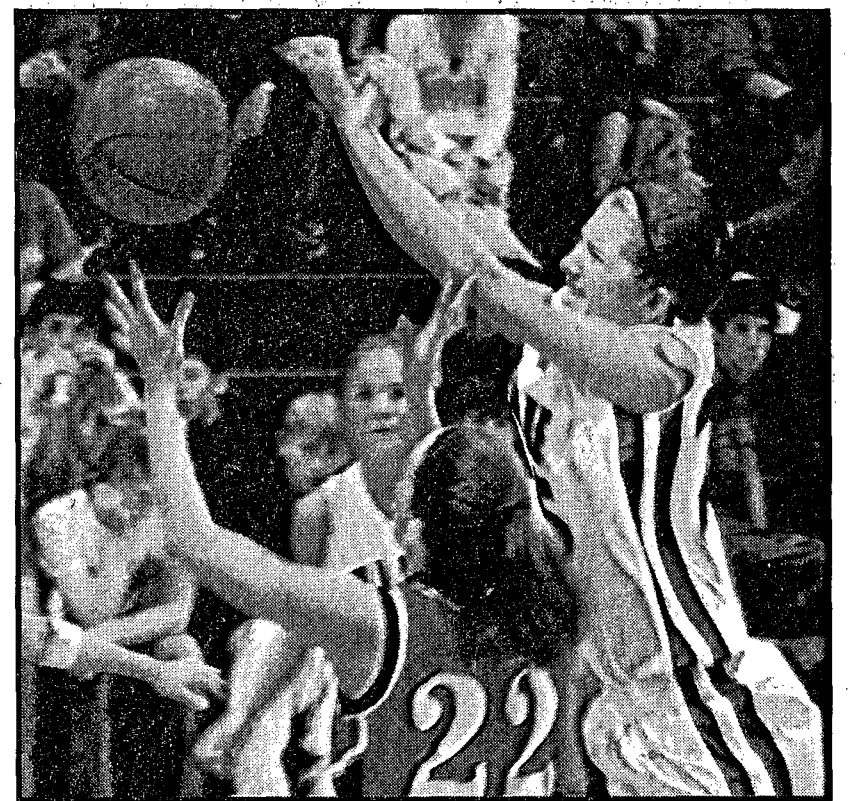

Kayla Hochstein finished with 10 rebounds for WHS.

Angie Peters was Laurel-Concord's leading scorer with 13 points, followed by Kim Lubberstedt with eight.

Wayne 9 7 7 15 - 38
Laurel-Concord 10 0 6 16 - 32

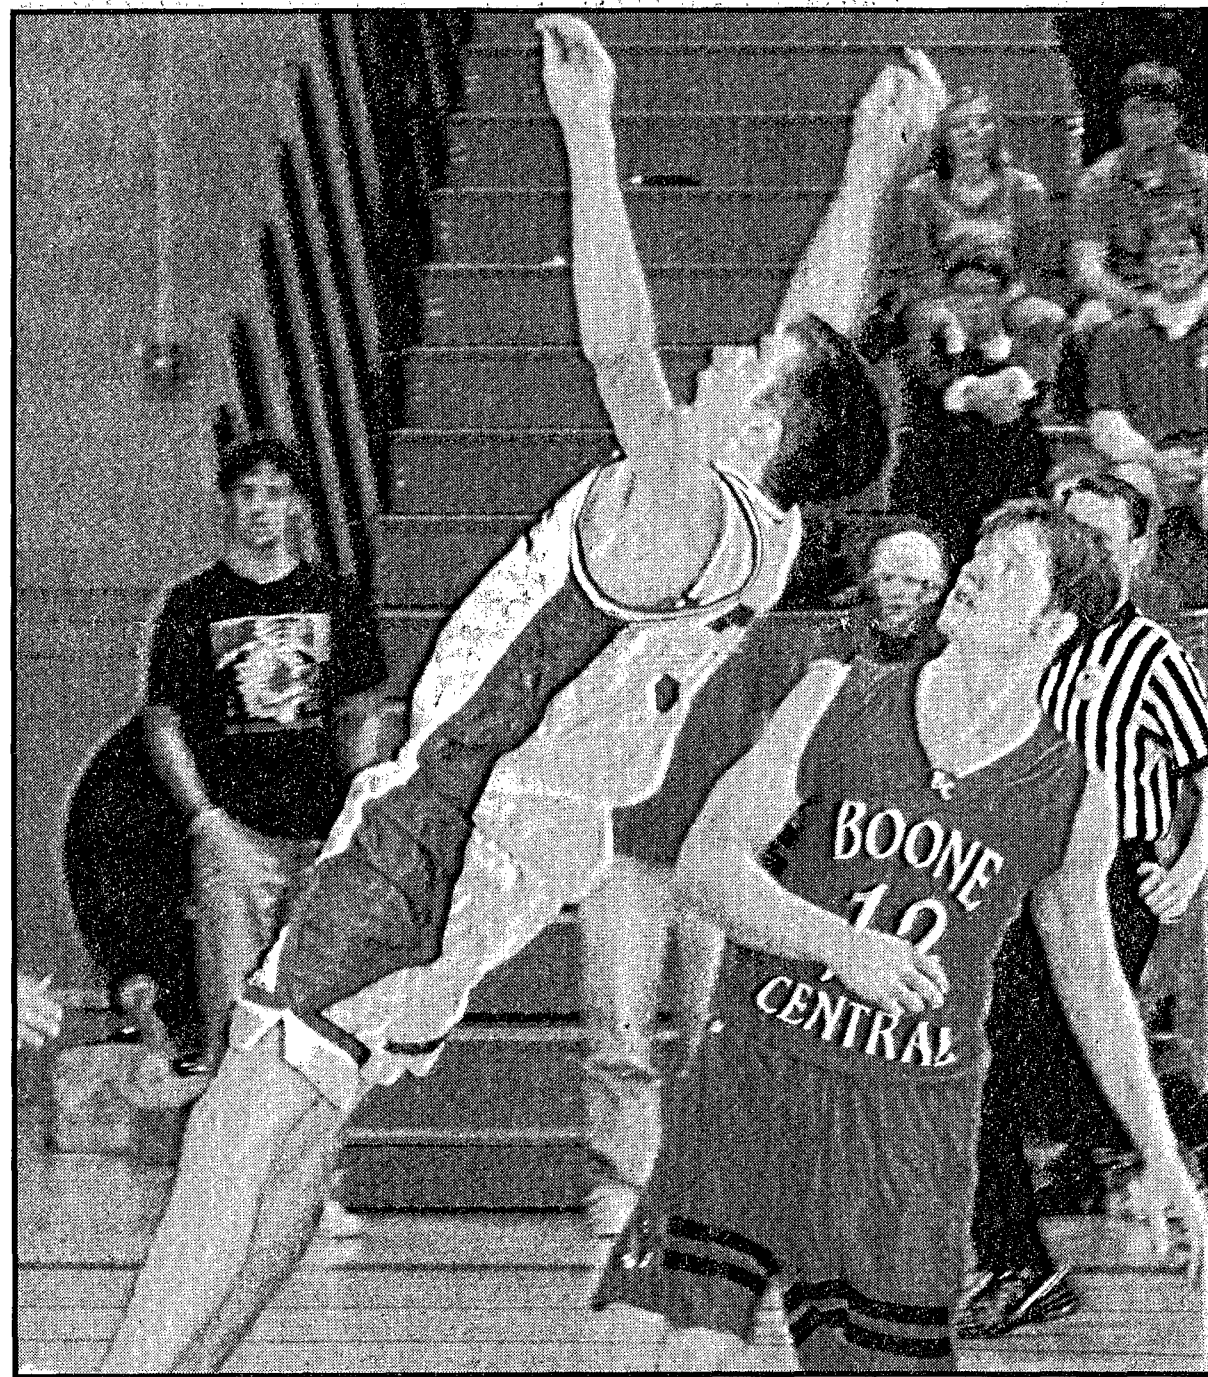

Wayne scoring: Weber 4, Raveling 14, Hochstein 1, Frerichs 3, Pieper 6, Michelle Jarvi 2, Renee Theobald 8.

Laurel-Concord scoring: Angie Peters 13, Lori Pritchard 5, Brittany Thompson 4, Kim Lubberstedt 8, Jenny Schroeder 2.

A shot attempt by senior Rachel Jensen is blocked during Saturday's game with Boone Central.

The Fall Guys

Nate Summerfield falls backward after a collision with a Boone Central player while attempting a layup in Saturday's home court win. Luckily, Summerfield wasn't injured after the play.

Blue Devils add huge wins against area hoops powers

By David W. Carstens
Of the Herald

The Wayne High Blue Devil boys basketball team has gone 4-0 since the semifinal loss to East Butler in the Wayne Holiday Tourney and picked up wins during the past week against perennial area heavyweights, Norfolk Catholic, Boone Central and Laurel-Concord.

The wins improved the squad to 8-4 on the season. Wayne 51, Norfolk Catholic 40

Wayne picked up its first two consecutive Mid State conference wins with a 51-40 victory against Norfolk Catholic on Thursday, Jan. 6.

Bryan Fink scored 28 points and was 5-of-6 from the line as Wayne's defense limited the Knights to only four points in the first quarter.

Coach Rocky Ruhl said the team has emerged with a new sense of resolve since its loss to East Butler in the Great Northeast Nebraska Shootout.

"The holiday tournament was both good and bad for the team," he said. "We've become better because of it and they responded well and executed the game plan."

Fink finished the game with a double-double with 13 rebounds, while Adam Munter pulled down six.

Wayne 13 8 13 17 - 51
Norfolk Catholic 4 14 10 12 - 40

Wayne scoring: Bryan Fink 28, Josh Rasmussen 3, Wade Jarvi 6, Nate Summerfield 2, Josh Ruwe 2, Adam Munter 2, Jared Jehle 2, John Whitt 6.

Wayne 44, Boone Central 30

A Bryan Fink three-pointer to break away from a 34-30 Wayne lead with 1:35 left in the game blazed the trail for a 44-30 upset of the state's power point leader and conference rival Boone Central in home action on Dec. 8.

Wayne was 21-of-27 from the charity stripe, including a successful run at the end of the game to put the game out of reach for the Cardinals.

Fink, who led all scorers with 13 points, was 6-of-6 at the line, while John Whitt was a perfect 4-of-4 on the night.

Wayne held a 6-2 lead after the first quarter and a 16-13 advantage at the half and a strong defensive effort limited the high-octane Cardinals to only seven points in the final frame.

Wayne 6 10 12 16 - 44
Boone Central 2 11 10 7 - 30

Wayne scoring: Fink 13, Rasmussen 5, Jarvi 3, Whitt 4, Summerfield 6, Ruwe 3, Munter 3, Jehle 7.

Wayne 66, Laurel-Concord 61 OT

Wayne's biggest win of the week was perhaps its most difficult to attain.

Adam Munter's last second run to the basket and subsequent score to tie at the end of regulation set up an overtime contest with Laurel-Concord in a road tussle on Tuesday.

Bryan Fink brought the team to life in the overtime period with six of his game-leading 26 points to

Wildcats drop NSIC openers

WSC seeks to end current losing streak

The Wayne State women's basketball team dropped to 11-5 overall and 0-2 in conference play after tough road losses to Northern State and Minnesota State Moorhead last weekend.

Northern State 76, WSC 67

The Wildcats fell short in the Northern Sun conference opener with a 76-67 loss to Northern State in Aberdeen, S.D. on Friday.

Northern State outrebounded WSC 39-19 during the game which proved to be a turning point in the Wolves' victory.

"We got kicked on the glass tonight," WSC head coach Ryun Williams said. "I was really disappointed with our lack of toughness, especially on the road. Northern State was more urgent and tougher than we were and we have got to improve defensively."

The Wildcats appeared to be in good shape early and jumped out to a 14-9 lead in the first half, but a scoreless, seven minute stretch in the half allowed NSU to get back into the contest.

Kristen Jennings nailed a three pointer to give WSC a 19-17 advantage with 10:26 left in the first half, however Northern State went on a 13-0 run to hold back WSC and take a 30-19 lead.

The Wildcats couldn't get back in the game and trailed 35-22 at the half.

Northern was able to maintain a healthy, double-digit lead until late in the game when the Wildcats were able to claw back into the game to cut the deficit to single digits en route to the 76-67 final score.

Nicole Gruntorad paced WSC with 19 points while Kristen Humphries recorded 15 points and Erin McCormick finished with 11.

The Wildcats improved from 34 percent shooting from the field in the opening half to connect on 52 percent in the second to finish 21-of-43 for the game.

Northern State 35 41 - 76
Wayne State 22 45 - 67

Wayne State scoring: Erin McCormick 4-10 3-4 11; Nicole Gruntorad 6-8 4-6 19; Ashley Arndorfer 1-7 2-2 5; Kristen Humphries 5-6 5-6 15; Allison Steffen 0-2 2-2 2; Karoline Salazar 1-2 0-0 2; Lauren Gustafson 3-10 0-2 8; Kristen Jennings 1-2 0-0 3; Amanda Covington 0-1 0-0 2. WSC men split weekend games

The Wayne State men's basketball team moved to 5-8 on the season and 1-1 in conference play after splitting road games last weekend.

Northern State 77, WSC 69

Last Friday evening, two milestone performances with Wayne ties took center stage.

Wayne State fell to Northern State 77-69 in the Wildcats' Northern Sun conference opener in action at Aberdeen, S.D.

The win marked the 100th victory as head coach at Northern State for Wolves coach Don Meyer, a Wayne native and was Northern's eighth consecutive win over WSC.

The game also was a landmark for Wayne State senior center Brett Cain who finished the game with nine points to become WSC's 25th player to score 1,000 career points.

The contest was a see-saw affair during the first half as both teams exchanged leads and the Wolves took a 32-30 lead at the half.

A strong showing after intermission by Northern saw the Wolves go on a 13-5 run to build up to a 45-35 advantage with 14:44 left in the game.

The Wildcats were only able to get within five points for the remainder of the contest, while the Wolves managed to cash in on 21 Wayne State turnovers.

Brett Watson had a double-double to lead the Wildcats with 20 points and 11 rebounds, while Dallas Hodges contributed 16 points off the bench.

The Wildcats were 22-of-54 from the field and NSU trailed 24-of-61 on the night.

The win improved the Wolves to 9-3 on the season.

Northern State 32 45 - 77
Wayne State 30 39 - 69

WSC 78, MSU-Moorhead 71

Wayne State overcame a first half slump to pull out a 78-71 road win at Minnesota State-Moorhead in conference action on Saturday night.

WSC was down 34-27 heading into the final four minutes of the first half, but went on a 13-2 run to jump out to a 40-36 lead at intermission.

WSC added to the lead with a 70-60 lead with five minutes left in the contest, but Moorhead limited the Wildcats to only a single basket in the next four minutes of play to close the gap to 72-69 with 1:35 left left in the game. The Wildcats went 6-of-6 free throws in the last minute to seal a 78-71 victory.

"We did a solid job taking care of the basketball and that's what you have to do to win on the road," WSC coach Rico Burkett said. "I thought we played with a lot of toughness and we gutted it out when we needed it the most."

A quartet of WSC players scored in double figures as Brett Cain finished with 19 points, while Brett Watson added 18 points, Dallas Hodges poured in 15 points and Todd Klostermann finished with 10 points.

The Wildcats took care of the basketball and had a season-low eight turnovers in the game.

Wayne State shot 47-percent from the field in the game, and went 24-of-51 on the night. WSC had an excellent showing from the charity stripe and was 23-of-25 for 92 percent on the night.

The Wildcats will be on the road again this week with stops at Winona State on Friday and Concordia-St. Paul on Saturday.

Winside pulled off a feat that few teams have been able to accomplish in recent years.

The Wildcats ended Howells' state record for consecutive meet victories with a strong showing at the Winside Invitational last Saturday.

Winside's wrestling team finished the day with eleven medalists and edged the Bobcats 186-172, while Ainsworth and Randolph finished third and fourth with 112 and 107.5, respectively.

First-place Winside finishes on the day went to Jesse Thies (119), Dewey Bowers (152) and Kass Holdorf (160), while Andrew Sok (125), Jordan Brummels (130), Bo Brummels (135), Dan Morris (145), Bryce Roberts (215) and Cody Lange (275) all claimed runner-up honors.

"It was nice for the team to beat Howells, especially in our own tournament," Winside coach Paul Sok said.

One of the day's closely watched matches was in the 135-pound championship final as Bo Brummels, a two-time state champion, faced Randolph's Casey Gubbels.

Gubbels holds a 4-0 career advantage in matches against Brummels and each meeting has been decided by one point.

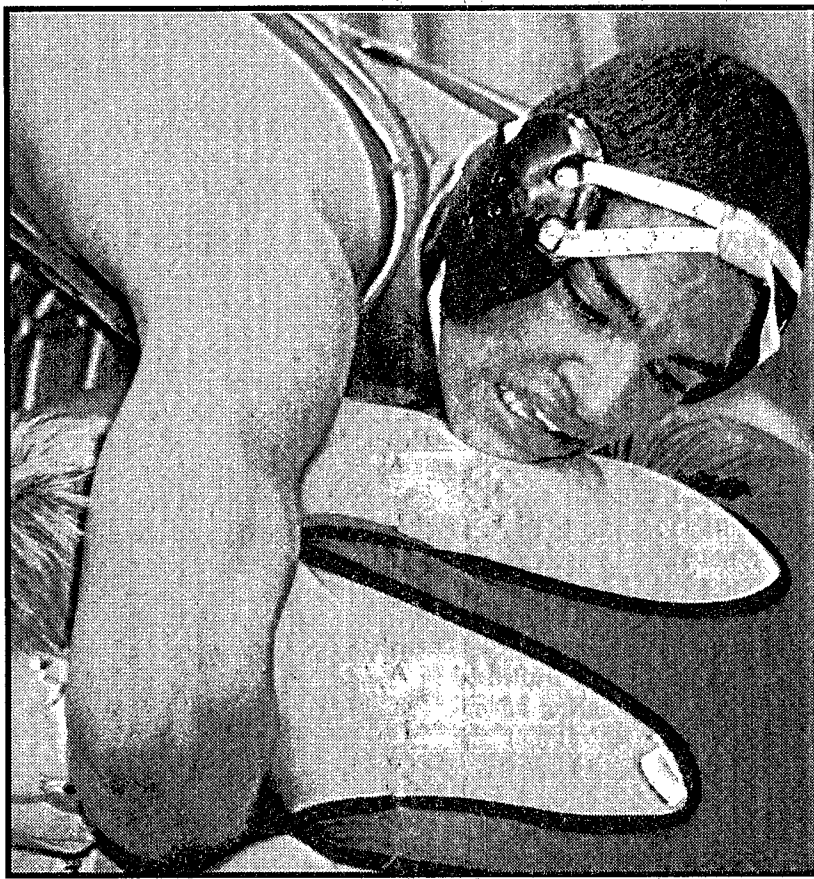

Saturday's meeting was similar to those of the past as Gubbels took a 3-2 win.

Sok said the matchup will play out again this Saturday as both Randolph and Winside are slated to appear at the Battle Creek Invitational.

Jesse Thies' championship came with a 6-4 defeat of Cody Dennis of Osmond.

Dewey Bowers earned the 152-pound title with a 5-2 victory against Ainsworth's Dirk Daily.

Kass Holdorf extended his season record to 14-1 with a championship win when he pinned Osmond's Shawn Vinson in 1:25.

Winside's Kass Holdorf (160) improved to 14-1 and captured first place at Saturday's Winside Invitational.

Laurel-Concord featured three wrestlers at the meet - John Newton, Ben Kniefel and Scott Surber - but early losses kept the Bears out of the team point standings.

Team scores: Winside 186, Howells 172, Ainsworth 113, Randolph 107.5, Osmond 104.5, Newman Grove 71, Oakland-Craig 43, Millard North JV 48, Crofton 40.5, Winside JV 15, Battle Creek 8, Unattached 3, Laurel-Concord 0.

Schuett notches 100 wins

Wayne High wrestlers Dana Schuett (189) and Josh Widner (103) took medalist honors at Saturday's Wisner-Pilger Invitational.

The win gave Schuett his 100th career win and put his season record to 17-0.

Widner's victory was the first of his career and improved his season tally to 13-4.

"We had some young wrestlers perform well, but just didn't get the wins they needed to put them into the medal round," coach Kevin Finkey said.

The wrestlers host South Sioux City at a home dual on Thursday (tonight) and on Saturday the varsity squad travels to Elkhorn and the ninth and tenth grade grapplers head to Pender.

WSC managed to keep things close during most of the contest, but an 18-5 run in the second half allowed the Dragons to control the contest.

Nicole Gruntorad and Kristen Humphries paced WSC with 12 points apiece, while Karoline Salazar came off the bench to deliver 10 points.

Wayne State hits the road again this weekend with a game at Winona State on Friday and a matchup with nationally ranked No. 19 Concordia-St. Paul on Saturday.

guide the team to its fourth straight win.

"I think Laurel-Concord was ready for us and they had a plan," Ruhl said. "Our kids got down and then came back and showed a lot of heart."

The Bears dominated Wayne early in the game and had an 11-point lead before the Blue Devils went on a 10-0 run to get within two points (30-28) at the half.

WHIS outscored Laurel-Concord in the next period 12-9, and hit key free throws in overtime to seal the win.

Fink finished 6-of-6 from the line, while Nate Summerfield and Ben Mohl were also perfect at 2-of-2 apiece.

Josh Hart and Jeff Knudsen were both in double figures for Laurel-Concord with 19 and 16 points, respectively.

The team will be idle until Friday, Jan. 21 when the Blue Devils host Hartington Cedar Catholic, while Laurel-Concord travels to Creighton this Friday.

Hartington Cedar Catholic 50, Laurel-Concord 33

HARTINGTON — Brian Saunders' eight points paced Laurel-Concord but the Bears' effort fell short as Hartington CC held an 18-4 advantage in the third quarter here on Jan. 6.

"We were more out of this game than the score indicated," Bears' coach Clayton Steele said. "Against their scrappy, man-to-man defense, we failed to execute our offense."

Laurel-Concord shot 13-of-31 from the field and was 7-of-14 from the line in the loss.

Eli Schantz and Josh Hart each added seven points for the Bears and Hart and Heath Erwin were credited with five rebounds apiece.

Jan. 7

Ponca 57, Allen 34

PONCA — The Ponca Indians got a quick 19-4 start on Allen before the Eagles slowed the tempo of the game.

The advantage proved to be more than Allen bargained for as Ponca took the 57-34 road win in action last Friday.

Brett Koester led the Eagles with 15 points and seven rebounds.

"Our shooting is still a big disappointment," Allen coach Neil Blohm said. "We need to start shooting with some confidence."

Allen finished the game with a 24-percent average from the field and 35-percent from the line.

Ponca 19 11 18 9 — 57
Allen 4 11 9 10 — 34

Allen scoring: Brett Koester 15, Nathan Sturges 5, Derick Nice 2, Andrew Gensler 8, Chad Oswald 4.

Laurel-Concord 85, Elkhorn Valley 24

LAUREL — Laurel-Concord buried NENAC foe Tilden Elkhorn Valley 85-24 in home court action last Friday.

Jeff Knudsen poured in 14 points to lead the Bears, while 10 other players scored in the contest.

Josh Hart and Brian Saunders each added 11 points.

"We needed this game for confidence," Laurel-Concord coach Clayton Steele said. "We did a lot of things right, and it was a great team effort."

The second half was all Laurel-Concord as Steele's team outscored the Eagles 48-12.

The Bears outrebounded Elkhorn Valley 30-11 and were led by Knudsen with five, and four each from Colten DeLong and Michael Patefield.

Laurel-Concord 14 23 29 19 — 85
Elkhorn Valley 3 9 1 11 — 24

Laurel-Concord scoring: Philip Nelson 8, Brian Saunders 11, Eli Shantz 3, Josh Hart 11, Jeff Knudsen 14, Tim Schroeder 9, Colten DeLong 8, Michael Patefield 2, Tony Jacobsen 7, Heath Erwin 6, Tate Cunningham 6.

Norfolk Catholic 51, Laurel-Concord 40

LAUREL — Laurel-Concord dropped its third consecutive games to move to 4-5 after losing to Norfolk Catholic 51-40 in home action on Jan. 3.

Norfolk Catholic put 21 points on the board in the opening quarter and hit 7-of-8 shots from the charity stripe in the fourth to pick up the win.

Jenny Schroeder established a career-game for Laurel-Concord with 12 points, while senior Angie Allen's Allysa Uldrich had consecutive double-doubles in recent with 10 points and 12 rebounds in each game against Laurel-Concord and Ponca.

Peters added 10 for the Bears.

Hartington Cedar Catholic 47, Laurel-Concord 32

HARTINGTON — A 20-6 third quarter advantage by Hartington Cedar Catholic along with numerous turnovers proved to be a difference-maker in a 47-32 road loss for Laurel-Concord last Thursday.

The Bears opened with an 8-2 advantage in the first quarter, but saw the lead evaporate heading into halftime.

Angie Peters scored 10 points and pulled down eight rebounds for Laurel-Concord, while Makayla Hansen added six points in the Bears' effort.

Jenny Schroeder was credited with five steals on the night.

Hartington CC 2 19 20 6 — 47
Laurel-Concord 8 12 6 6 — 32

Laurel-Concord scoring: Angie Peters 10, Makayla Hansen 6, Lori Pritchard 3, Brittany Thompson 3, Kim Lubberstedt 4, Katie Bloomfield 2, Jenny Schroeder 4.

Jan. 7

Elkhorn Valley 44, Laurel-Concord 34

LAUREL — Laurel-Concord's slow 15-5 start in the opening quarter allowed Tilden Elkhorn Valley to hold a comfortable lead in a 44-34 loss to the Falcons in home action last Friday.

"We played well at times," Laurel-Concord coach Nate Sims said. "Our defense in the third quarter was exceptional, but free throws and missed shots hurt us late in the game."

The Bears limited Elkhorn Valley to only three points in the third quarter, but 13 points in the fourth quarter hurt the upset effort and the team finished 13-of-37 from the field and was 6-of-16 from the charity stripe.

Angie Peters scored 12 points and pulled down 14 rebounds to lead Laurel-Concord.

Elkhorn Valley 15 13 3 13 — 44
Laurel-Concord 5 15 11 5 — 34

Laurel-Concord scoring: Angie Peters 9, Makayla Hansen 3, Lori Pritchard 7, Brittany Thompson 2, Kim Lubberstedt 3, Katie Bloomfield 4, Jenny Schroeder 4, Becky Hoensing 2.

Allen 57, Ponca 34

PONCA — Allen poured on a 19-10 advantage in the fourth quarter to improve to 6-3 with a 57-34 road win against Ponca on Jan. 7.

Samantha Bock led eight Eagle scorers with 19 points, followed by Alissa Koester and Alyssa Uldrich with 10 apiece.

Bock and Uldrich each pulled down 12 grabs to record double-doubles.

The Eagles' 14-3 run late in the game was highlighted with critical baskets by Diana Diediker, Sarah Sullivan and Ulrich and free throws from Bock and Erin Keitges.

Allen coach Lori Koester said shining performances from the bench proved to be key factors in the three-point win.

"It was great to see the intensity from start to finish in this game," she said. "This was a great team win for us."

She also credited the defensive contributions of Brooke Stewart and Codi Hancock.

The Eagles outrebounded Ponca 37-22 and were 11-of-22 from the free throw line.

Allen 15 9 14 19 — 57
Ponca 10 14 20 10 — 54

Jan. 8

Allen 41, Laurel-Concord 34

ALLEN — The first time meeting between Laurel-Concord and Allen in a number of years yielded a competitive ballgame here last Saturday.

Allen jumped out to a 17-5 lead against Laurel-Concord and played aggressive defense to secure a 41-34 win.

Alissa Koester scored 13 points, while Alyssa Uldrich turned out a double-double with 10 points and 12 rebounds.

"Offensively, we played much more poised in our quarter-court offense and that enabled us to look for good shot opportunities," Allen coach Lori Koester said.

The Eagles shot 45 percent from the field (15-of-27) against the Bears.

Conversely, Laurel-Concord had difficulties hitting from the field and only hit 12 of its 45 attempts.

Angie Peters had nine points and 10 rebounds to lead Laurel-Concord, while Lori Pritchard added seven points and four steals.

Allen 17 8 8 8 — 41
Laurel-Concord 8 8 11 7 — 34

Wakefield girls take third at tourney

Win improves team to 8-2

HOMER — Wakefield finished third in the Bob Clough Tournament played here on Friday and Saturday after defeating Emerson-Hubbard 45-31 in the consolation final.

In Friday's opening round game, Katie Jensen scored 12 points and Anna Brownell added 10 as Homer downed the Trojans 42-32.

Jensen achieved a double-double as she contributed 12 rounds for Wakefield.

"We really came out flat on both ends of the floor and couldn't come back in this game," coach Matt Brenn said.

The loss was only the second one for the team this season.

The Trojans were outscored by Homer 24-12 in the second and third quarters and were 9-of-23 from the free throw line.

Simpson earns degree

Erin Simpson of Lincoln graduated from the University of Nebraska at Lincoln on Dec. 18 with a Bachelor of Science in Education and Human Services degree. Her majors included Textiles, Clothing & Design/Journalism and Mass Communications.

Simpson is a 2000 graduate of Wayne High School and the daughter of Ed Simpson of Wayne and Colleen Simpson of Norfolk.

US Bank president Nick Leuschen congratulates these US Bank Award winners at Northeast Community College in Norfolk recently. He is shown shaking hands with Corinne Morris, winner of the US Bank Full-Time Faculty Award for Teaching Excellence. Melissa Elznic, second from right, was presented the US Bank Award for Teaching Excellence, Part-time Credit/Noncredit Faculty. Sharon Samuelson, far right, received the Great Performer, Classified Staff, Award. Not pictured is registrar Kathy Stover, who won the US Bank, Professional/Managerial Staff, Award.

Nick Leuschen presents US Bank Awards at NECC

US Bank president Nick Leuschen presented the US Bank Awards to two faculty and two staff members at Northeast Community College in Norfolk recently during the Spring Semester In-service.

US Bank has presented the awards at Northeast Community College since 1993. The award includes an engraved clock and monetary gift. "US Bank is honored to celebrate these four individuals who go above and beyond their responsibilities to bring quality educations to students at Northeast Community College," Leuschen said. "It is individuals like these that make the institution great. US Bank congratulates them and urges them to continue their exceptional service to the students and the institution."

Northeast registrar Kathy Stover was presented the US Bank Great Performer, Professional/Managerial Association, Award and Sharon Samuelson, executive assistant to the vice president of educational services, received the Great Performer, Classified Staff, Award.

Corinne Morris, speech/debate instructor, was presented the US Bank Full-Time Faculty Award for Teaching Excellence, while Melissa Elznic, adjunct instructor for speech and forensics, was honored with the Part-time Credit/Noncredit Faculty Award for Teaching Excellence.

Stover has been on the staff at Northeast Community College and its predecessor institutions for nearly 25 years. She began as a PBX operator/receptionist, transferred to the registrar's office in 1982, worked as mail-room coordinator from 1990-1994, and then returned to the registrar's office. In 1996, she became acting registrar and later was named registrar.

Samuelson has been employed at Northeast Community College since joining the staff in 1996 as a part-time secretary for the School-to-Work and Tech Prep Programs. That position became full-time in 1998 and she filled it. She has been the executive assistant to the vice president of educational services since 1999.

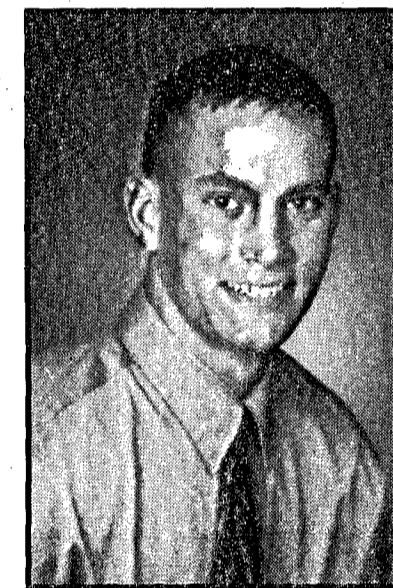

Morris has been a speech instructor and forensics coach at Northeast Community College for the past eight years. She led her forensics teams to the national tournament every year she was their coach. In 2004, she received the Distinguished Service Award from the Nebraska Intercollegiate Forensic Association. She also chaired the Nebraska Transfer Initiative Committee that reviewed speech curricula for the state, served on the National Communication Association, and the statewide community college assessment task force.

Morris has also served on Northeast's Continuous Improvement Task Force, the Transitional English Curriculum Task Force, the General Education Task Force, and the NCAA Steering Committee. She has chaired the NECC Assessment Committee since 2000 and co-chaired the Assessment Task Force since its inception in January 2004. She has also been instrumental in the publication of the seven Learning Curve newsletters at the college.

Morris resides in rural Carroll. Elznic began teaching at Northeast in 1999. She has offered classes in all three summer sessions and taught distance learning and fast-track formats. Last fall she began teaching a public speaking class that is identified in the transfer initiative. She has also served as a forensics tournament judge and coach and this year assumed the full duties of coaching Northeast's forensics team.

Elznic lives in Winside.

Tim McQuistan

McQuistan graduates

Tim McQuistan received his degree from Southeast Community College in December.

The son of Neal McQuistan of rural Pender, Tim received an associate of Applied Science Degree in Agriculture Business and Management Technology.

A 2001 graduate of Pender High School, McQuistan is now employed with ADM, a grain company in Clarkfield, Minn. as an assistant superintendent.

Charter deadline for Sons of the American Legion nears

Sons of The American Legion (SAL) Squadron of Roy Reed Post No. 252, The American Legion in Winside, was chartered in March of 2004.

At that time, the Squadron was advised to keep their "Charter" open for new members and select a closing date. That closing date is April 30, 2005 and there is still time to enroll new members whose names will be placed on the Squadron Charter posted at the Legion Home in Winside.

Membership eligibility is open to "All male descendants, adopted sons and step-sons of members of The American Legion, and such male descendants of Veterans who died in service during: World War I, April 6, 1917 to Nov. 11, 1918; World War II, Dec. 7, 1941 to Dec. 31, 1946; Korean War, June 25, 1950 to Jan. 31, 1955; Vietnam War, Feb. 28, 1961 to May 7, 1975; Lebanon, Aug. 24, 1982 to July 31, 1984; Panama, Dec. 20, 1989 to Jan. 31, 1990 and Persian Gulf War, Aug. 1, 1990 to date of cessation of hostilities as determined by the Government of the United States; during delimiting periods set forth in Article IV, Section I of the National Constitution of The American Legion, or who died subsequent to their honorable discharge from such service, shall be eligible for membership in the Sons of the American Legion. It should be noted that current Legionnaires are eligible for dual membership provided they have a father or grandfather who served during the above dates.

Membership dues are $12 annually with $6 remaining at the Squadron and another $6 sent to the Department to cover Detachment and National dues.

Meetings are held the first Tuesday of the month at 6:30 p.m., prior to The Legion meeting at 8 p.m. Contact with any below-listed member would be appreciated to enlarge the "Charter" membership role.

There are currently 17 chartered members: Commander Daryl Mundil and sons, Kyle and Kevin; Adjutant Robert "Bud" Neel and sons John and James; Finance Officer; Sergeant of Arms, Tim Voss; James Story and Chaplain Shawn Story; Legion Liaison Stan Stenwall, Scott Stenwall, Jeff Jacobsen, Jay Rademacher, Randy Jacobsen, Kevin Kay, Austin Keiser and Colby Keiser. Daryl Mundil, Stan Stenwall and Robert Neel hold dual memberships.

The Squadron has been selling patriotic items to build their financial base. Additionally, they are selling tickets for cash prizes of $100, $50 and $25 to be given away at their Pancake/Omelet Feed on Sunday, March 20 at the Winside Legion Post. All members will have tickets available. Winners need not be present to win.

Questions may be directed to Commander Daryl Mundil at Carroll or Adjutant Bud Neel at 529-3593. Those interested do not have to live in Winside to become a member of the Squadron. Members currently reside in Winside, Carroll, Wayne, Des Moines, Iowa and Gilman City, Iowa.

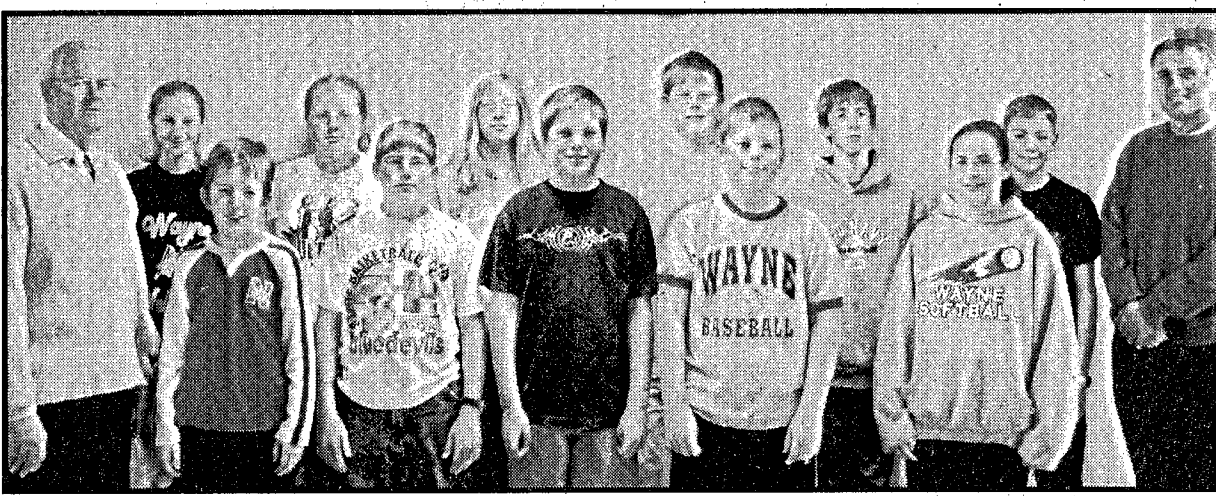

Lutheran High to host open house

Lutheran High Northeast will host an Open House for Parents of Prospects on Tuesday, Jan. 18 at 7:30 p.m.

This open house is designed especially for families who are considering enrollment at Lutheran High in 2005-06. Prospective students are also invited.

For more information, contact the school office at (402) 379-3040.

Lutheran High Northeast opened in August of 1977. Enrollment has grown from 31 to over 140 students.

Geography Bee winners named

Lindsey Costa, an eighth grade student at Wayne Middle School won the school-level competition of the National Geographic Bee on Jan. 7 and a chance at a $25,000 college scholarship.

The second place finisher was Genelle Gardner, also an eighth grader.

The school-level Bee, at which students answered oral questions on geography, was the first round in the 17th annual National Geographic Bee. The Bee is sponsored by the National Geographic Society.

Locally, the Geographic Bee was sponsored by the Wayne Lions Club.

Earlier in the school year, approximately 60 Middle School students took the qualifying test. The purpose of this test was to narrow the field to the top 10 qualifiers. At the Middle School, a three-way tie for 10th place resulted and after that tie was broken, the top 10 students participated in the Jan. 7 Bee.

The school winners, including Lindsey Costa, will now take a qualifying test and if her score is high enough, she will move on to state competition, which will be held in Lincoln on Friday, April 1.

The National Geographic Society will provide an all-expenses-paid trip to Washington, D.C. for state champions and teacher-escorts to participate in the National Geographic Bee national championship on May 24 and 25. The first-place national winner will receive a $25,000 college scholarship and a lifetime membership in the Society.

Krugman named to Dean's list

Trevor Krugman, a student from Wayne, was named to the Dean's List at South Dakota Tech for the Fall 2004 semester.

Krugman is majoring in Mechanical Engineering at Tech, an engineering and science university in Rapid City, S.D.

A total of 375 students qualified for the Dean's List. To qualify for the Dean's List, undergraduate students must earn a grade point average 3.50 or higher for the semester; carry nine or more credit hours and not have any "F" or "Incomplete" grades.

Jensen admitted to Augustana

Augustana College has announced that Rachel Jensen, a senior at Wayne High School, has been Admitted with Distinction.

To be Admitted with Distinction, students must possess a minimum ACT composite of 27 and a minimum GPA of 3.5. Rachel has been invited to participate in the Distinguished Scholars Competition, the College's most prestigious scholarship event. Scholarship awards range from $34,000 to full tuition over four years. In addition, 20 stipends will be awarded for a 10-day international travel experience to Europe.

Augustana, located in Sioux Falls, S.D., is a nationally recognized, selective liberal arts and sciences college of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America.

Raising kind children

Encouraging children to be kind is an important part of raising or caring for children for all adults.

Kind and caring behavior appears early in life and continues across the lifespan. Some examples of caring behavior would be: a toddler comforting a baby doll; a toddler sharing blocks with another child, a preschooler hugging and comforting a crying sibling, an adolescent volunteering to shovel snow for an elderly neighbor or school-aged children collecting canned foods for the local food bank.

Children are learning constantly from the words or actions of the adults around them so it is important to set a good example. A great humanitarian, Albert Schweitzer, suggests three important ways to teach children. The first is by

Amy Topp
Extension Educator
4-H & Youth

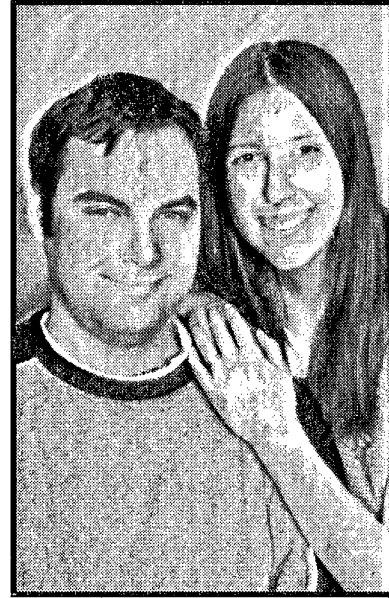

most of us have very busy jobs, you can still involve your children in acts of kindness. By simply helping your neighbor or stray dog, you can demonstrate your concern for others. You can reinforce kindness by explaining to your children why you want them to engage in kind behavior. Research shows that children are likely to comply with adults' wishes when they hear a reasonable and understandable explanation.

Being a good example does not mean you compliment someone on their new dress and then turn around and make fun of them when that person is gone. That shows that saying one thing and doing another is acceptable behavior.

Expressing appreciation for kind behavior is another way to set a good example for your child. By reinforcing their kind behavior, you are showing them their kindness makes a positive difference.

In the end, children need to know that the adults in their lives care about them and others. Children who experience respect and appreciation from adults are more likely to demonstrate caring toward others and to recognize the positive impact of their kindness. SOURCE: Jennifer Mayfield - BNF Educator.

Engagements— Hall - Schlickbernd married in Wayne

Sara Marie Hall and Michael Douglas Schlickbernd, both of Wayne were married Dec. 18, 2004 at First United Methodist Church in Wayne.

Pastor Troy Reynolds and Pastor Mary Tyler Browne, both of Wayne, officiated at the double ring ceremony.

Parents of the couple are Steve and Connie Hall of Wayne and Doug and Diane Schlickbernd of Tekamah.

Musicians for the ceremony included members of A Touch of Brass. Selections included traditional wedding and Christmas music.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride chose a white, satin gown with a semi-cathedral length train. It featured a strapless corset top with crystals and embroidery.

She wore a semi cathedral-length veil and carried a bouquet of white roses, stephanotis, winter berry and flat cedar. The bouquet was made by the bride's mother.

Maid of Honor was Amy Hall of Omaha.

Bridesmaid was Mindy Schlickbernd of Omaha.

The bride's personal attendant was Melissa Kloster of Northglenn, Colo.

The women wore satin navy blue, floor-length gowns and carried bouquets of white roses, flat cedar and winterberry.

Olivia Kloster of Northglenn, Colo. was flower girl.

Dan Seaman of Omaha served as Best Man.

Groomsman was Robert Conklin of Omaha.

Ushers were Gurn Curry of Ponca and Adam Jech of Wayne.

Alyssa Sutherland of Holmen, Wis. and Nicki Schlickbernd of Columbus registered guests.

Felicity and Tia Jech of Wayne were in charge of gifts.

A reception was held at the Frye Conference Suite at the Wayne State Student Center in Wayne following the ceremony.

Hosts were Bob and Pam Curry of Ponca and Bob and Stephanie Liska of Wayne.

Shirley Seaman of Tekamah and Sue Schroeder of Wayne cut and served cake.

Mr. and Mrs. Schlickbernd

Following a wedding trip to Kansas City, Mo., the couple is at home in Wayne.

The bride is a 1996 graduate of Wayne High School and earned a degree in Elementary Education from Wayne State College in 2004. She is employed by Beck Ag Com in Wayne.

The groom graduated from Tekamah-Herman in 1993 and Wayne State College in 1998. He is currently completing his Masters degree at Wayne State.

University of Nebraska Cooperative Extension Crop Management Winter Programs in February and March will provide producers and agribusiness professionals the latest information on weed management, corn rootworm control and digital agronomy.

The training sessions include in-depth information from Institute of Agriculture and Natural Resources faculty and staff, the agricultural industry and others.

For more information or to register visit the Web at <http://ardc.unl.edu/cmwp.htm>, call (402) 624-8000, fax (402) 624-8010, e-mail cdunbar2@unl.edu or contact the ARDC, CMDC Programs, 1071 County Road G, Ithaca, Neb. 68033.

Fees include lunch, refreshment breaks, workshop materials and instruction manuals. Early registration is recommended as some sessions have limited space and preregistration ensures adequate resource materials are available day of workshop.

Program dates, times, locations, titles, discount cost/regular costs and topics follow:

• Feb. 4 and Feb. 11, Corn Rootworm Distance Education Workshop. Day one is from 8:30 a.m.-1 p.m.; day two is from 8:30 a.m.-12:30 p.m.

Locations are at the Agricultural Research and Development Center near Mead, Lifelong Learning Center in Norfolk and at the Adams County Office Building in Hastings. Cost is $35 for the Norfolk and Hastings workshops and $45 at the Mead workshop. Lunch will be available at the Mead workshop.

CCA credits are pending. Participants must attend both days of this distance education workshop. Day one topics include: corn rootworm fundamentals, biology and weather; corn rootworm situations in Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Minnesota, Nebraska and other states; 2004 corn rootworm control efficacy trials, and a question-and-answer session. Day two program includes: issues associated with corn rootworm management including soil insecticides and seed treatments, YieldGard Rootworm corn, adult corn rootworm suppression, variant western corn rootworm, extended diapause, management of corn rootworms in 2005, and a question-and-answer session.

• Feb. 17, Integrated Weed Management. 8:30 a.m.-4 p.m., Agricultural Research and Development Center near Mead, $65 before Feb. 10, $75 after. Participants will learn the scientific principles of integrated weed management and applying them in practical field situations.

Five CCA credits or one graduate college credit will be granted. Workshop participants also will study weed science issues, such as weed management strategies to minimize weed resistance to Roundup. Other topics include: weed biology, growth and ecology; critical period of weed control; weed thresholds; weed shifts; benefits, concerns and risks with herbicide tolerant crops; herbicide efficacy as affected by time of day applications; biologically effective doses; and developing a weed control program.

• Feb. 25, Digital Agronomy for Increased Yields and Profits, West Central Research and Extension Center at North Platte; March 1, Agricultural Research and Development Center near Mead; March 3, Lifelong Learning Center in Norfolk, $65 before Feb. 15, $75 after. This one-day workshop at three locations begins at 8:45 a.m. and ends at 4:30 p.m. with concurrent, hands-on training sessions using the Hybrid-Maize corn production simulation and WeedSOFT weed management programs.

Seven CCA credits have been applied for. Maximum enrollment for this workshop is 30 at each location. A limited number of computers will be available so participants are encouraged to bring their own laptops for the hands-on training. Call (402) 624-8000 for minimum computer requirements.

Participants will learn about trends and emerging opportunities of advanced information technologies for improving crop management decisions to increase yields and profit.

Cooperative Extension is the university's Institute of Agriculture and Natural Resources.

Private pesticide training sessions are scheduled

Private pesticide applicators whose licenses expire in 2005 and those seeking first-time certification can find information on pesticide safety education programs at their local University of Nebraska Cooperative Extension offices.

Licensing as a private applicator allows farmers to purchase and use pesticide classified for restricted use by the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency in their own farming operations.

Extension provides the educational program, while the agriculture department is responsible for licensing. The training fee is $15. An applicator may also certify by self-study for a $20 training fee.

In 2001, the Nebraska Legislature created a state pesticide license fee of $25 for private applicators. The fee covers a three-year license period.

This year's training program includes information on the emerging new disease, soybean rust, which is a great concern for Nebraska producers. Soybean aphids and their identification and management will also be covered.

Other topics include drift reduction nozzles, pesticide residue in tractor cabs, protective pesticide clothing and equipment, corn soil insect management and special emphasis on pesticide laws and regulations and pesticide storage security.

The locations of the sessions in Wayne County are as follows:

Tuesday, Feb. 15: 1 and 7 p.m. at the City Auditorium in Wayne.

Friday, March 11: 1 p.m. at the Legion Hall in Winside.

For additional sites, contact the UNL Extension Office - Wayne County at (402) 375-3310 or check online at <http://pested.unl.edu/pat> where the training sites are listed by county.

Low cost cow-calf meeting to be offered

Low Cost Cow/Calf Production Meetings will be held in the Northeast District during the week of Jan. 18-21, 2005. Each location will address four or five topics during the 2 1/2 hour program.

The purpose of these UNL sponsored meetings is to discuss factors that provide information to help cow/calf producers become profitable. These are no fee, no pre-registration meetings.

The schedule is as follows:
Tuesday, Jan. 18 - 9:30 am in Concord; 2 p.m. in Bloomfield; 7 p.m. in O'Neill.

Wednesday, Jan. 19; 9:30 am in Newman Grove; 2 p.m. in Chambers; 7 p.m. in Primrose.

Thursday, Jan. 20 - 9:30 a.m. in Hartington; 2 p.m. in Columbus; 7 p.m. in Burwell.

Friday, Jan. 21 - 9:30 a.m. in Clarkson; 2 p.m. in Spencer

There are a total of 14 topics that will be addressed by University of Nebraska Extension Educators and Specialists, plus one speaker from the private industry. The topics to be offered are: Buckbrush & Sumac Talk; Cattle Cycle Thoughts; Cattle Numbers; Economical Cow/Calf Strategies; Ethanol By-Products in Range Situations; Grass Finishing, Drug Free, Organic; Pasture Amendments; Picking the Right Bull; Replacement Beef Heifer Systems; Rotation/When to Move Them; Roughage & Energy Use; Round Bale Hay Storage; Ideas; Strategic Planning; Cow/Calf; and Windbreaks for Protection.

The meetings should offer a topic of interest for every cow/calf producer in the area. Those interested may request a flier from the local Extension Office with the dates, locations and topics of all 11 meetings.

THANK YOU

The family of Dorothy E. Meyer extends our thanks to all the wonderful friends, neighbors, and support people for cards, food, memorials, and words of kindness and comfort during this difficult time. We want to thank the Ladies Aid of Immanuel Lutheran Church, rural Wakefield, for providing a wonderful lunch after the memorial service; Ken Dahl for sharing his talent with us; Father Mac for his prayers and support; Sister Hilda of Providence Medical Center for her spiritual assistance; the staff of Providence for their friendship and support; Sister Marlis of Mercy Medical in Sioux City for being there each day with encouragement and spiritual direction; and our sincere gratitude to Pastor Bertrand of Immanuel Lutheran for his friendship, support, and spiritual guidance during Dorothy's illness and her memorial service. We thank all of you for being part of our lives and ask God to bless you always.

A SPECIAL thank you to all who remembered us in any way for our 60th wedding anniversary. Gilbert & Eleanor Raus

Thank you to the Wayne Eagles Club, St. Mary's Church and to all that contributed to our new playground set. We look forward to assembling it this spring and playing on it.
