Winside woman meets Red Hat Society founder

By Dianne Jaeger, Winside Correspondent

While on a recent vacation to southern California, Dianne Jaeger of Winside had a real "red hat" thrill. She visited the Red Hat Society Imperium and Hatquarters in Fullerton, Calif. and met Sue Ellen Cooper, Queen Mother and founder of the Red Hat Society.

"For those of you living under a rock who don't know what 'Red Hatters' are, let me explain," Dianne said.

Six years ago, in 1997, for the 55th birthday of a dear friend, Sue Ellen Cooper presented her with a red hat and a copy of the poem, "Warning," written by Jenny Joseph.

Mrs. Cooper intended for her friend to hang the hat on a hook next to the framed poem, as a decorative reminder to loosen up as she got older.

Other friend liked the idea so the gifts continued.

In 1998, Sue Ellen and four of her friends dressed in purple, as the poem suggests, with red hats and went out for tea. They had such a great time, they called themselves the "Red Hat Society" and decided to continue getting together for no other reason than to have a good time. Another friend decided to start a group in Florida and they became sister chapters. After a wire service picked up a story about them from a local newspaper and a national magazine, the Red Hat Society began growing by as many as 500 chapters a week. Today, there are over 17,000 chapters covering all 50 U.S. states and at least 20 other countries.

There are only a couple of requirements to become a member. You must be at least 50, wear purple and red and want to have fun. And, it would seem there is a whole world of women meeting those require-

Employers to meet Wayne State students at Career Fair

The 2005 Career Fair will be held at the Wayne State College student center on Tuesday, Feb. 8, from noon to 3:30 p.m. This annual event is sponsored by the WSC Career Services Office.

Approximately 90 employers from throughout the region will be in attendance, offering students information and answering questions that students may have about their companies. Some employers may interview the same day as the fair while others may schedule interviews at their place of employment.

The Career Fair provides the opportunity for students to find part-time, summer, Co-op/internship, and full-time employment opportunities with local and regional companies and summer camps.

All Wayne State College students and alumni are welcome and encouraged to attend. There is no admission charge.

For more information, please contact Jason Barelman, Career Services at (402) 375-7327 or (402) 375-7425.

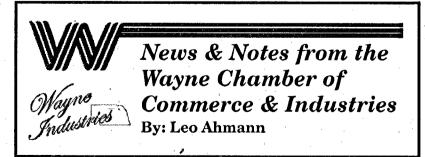

'Teamwork . . . The Foundation to Our Sucess' Chamber banquet is a success

I'm not sure if it is politically correct to say an event is a success, if you are the sponsor. Be that as it may, thanks to everyone who helped in making the Annual Wayne Area Chamber of Commerce Banquet last Sunday, a success.

There is an incredibly large number of people to thank...the ladies of the Chamber's Special Events Taskforce, Vicki Meyer, Administrative Chamber Assistant, Marie Janke of our office staff, everyone who purchased a ticket, all of the Wayne State College staffs who assisted, (John Sinniger and Jo Reynolds of Chartwells, Derek Anderson, Student Center Manager and his staff), the businesses who contributed to our Silent Auction (thanks also to bidders and buyers, we met our goal !), Flowers/ Wine-The Diamond Center and The Wayne Greenhouse for beautiful flower arrangements (and also for their contributions to the Silent Auction), Jim Milliken from The White Dog Pub, and to Emily Bruflat for the wonderful piano music. To anyone I may have omitted, my apologies.

Recognition was also given to outgoing Chair of the Board Galen Wiser, and he passed the gavel to incoming Chair Joe Reinert. Outgoing Board members also recognized were John Sinniger, Phyllis Spethman, and Jack Hill. Great choices all. A thank you to those who served on the selection committees.

It was a pleasure to listen to the Governor talk to everyone in attendance. His folksy, non-political overwhelming speech, began the evening so very well. It is my hope that those that wanted to meet him, had a chance to do so. This is a good place for me to thank Curt Frye, VP and Dean of Students at WSC, for his last minute assistance Sunday afternoon.

It may seem a bit tedious to you, as you read through the thank complete a task, it also includes thanking a team member after they've done a great job. There are many people working for Wayne in the public eye, with just as many working behind the scenes to continue to make Wayne a great place to live, work, shop and have fun.

Time to shift gears and look ahead... Feb. 3, State Chamber's Legislative Caucus in Lincoln ...April 1- 2, Business Expo (the since 1997) ...our first Legislative Forum on Monday April 18 with the State Senators...and the 25th Anniversary Celebration Chicken Show on July 8-9. We are always looking for volunteers to assist us with the Chicken Show. We will also be contacting businesses, as in the past, for sponsorships for different events. The State Tourism Division and the Department of Economic Development, firmly believe and instruct people throughout the state, that tourism is part of economic development. Our Chicken Show is something to be very proud of and hopefully people will embrace that and assist in this year of our celebration of 25 years. That number alone says volumes about the commitment from people of this community.

A reminder that Food Checkout Day is Monday February 7th.. the day when most Americans have earned enough disposable income to take care of their food for a year. You'll see representatives of our Ag Taskforce at our local grocery stores to help you register for food certificates compliments of the Wayne County Farm Bureau and our local banks.

Chamber Bucks have changed color...but don't panic if you have the green ones with the seal. They are still good until June 30.

I've run long this week...so I best close. The Chamber continues to work for you...so don't hesitate in asking for our assistance. Until next time...

A Chamber hats off in salute to Laura Gamble, Citizen of the Year, Deb Whitt of WSC, our Educator of the Year, and to the Kiwanis Club's Junior Citizen of the Year, Molly

Letters

Thank yous extended. Dear Editor.

I wanted to write this letter so that I could thank all those people who were responsible for making the Citizen of the Year Award so special for me.

Anytime you receive an award like this, it is special. When you have people there that you love and respect, it makes it even better.

As I looked in the audience there were so many people that have and continue to influence my life every day. I wish I could name them all, but I'm afraid I would forget somebody. These are the people who have gotten me where I am at today.

A special thanks goes to all those people who nominated and voted for me. Without them, this award would not have been made possible. As I looked at past winner, I felt honored to be a part of this group. I was especially honored to receive the award from past winner, Leon Meyer. Thanks, Leon.

The town of Wayne has been very good to me. From St. Mary's School and Church, to the public school system and Wayne State College, I feel I have received the best education there is. To all those who have employed me and worked with me through the years, from Popo's to Providence Medical Center, I have learned so much and this has made me a better person.

I have worked with so many great people who have taught me many things, I want to say thank you to all of them.

I want to thank my entire family who support me by either babysitting or helping with some of the projects. To my husband, who was always there for me and got roped into quite a few projects. I'd like to thank all of my friends who were there for me and cringed every time my name came up on caller ID because they knew

I was calling for a reason. Last, but not least, I want to thank my parents who instilled in me that helping others and getting involved is the right thing to

In 2006, the highway will be widened from the south end of Main Street to Seventh Street. There aren't as many trees that will come down for this project, but there are three very special ones that will. In front of the old library, there are three Sycamore trees. You'll know them by their beautiful white branches against the blue sky. These trees are probably getting close to 100 years old since the library was built in 1912. Sycamore trees can live up to 500-600 years in their natural setting. Two tree experts have looked at these trees and have said they are healthy and in good shape.

There are very few Sycamore trees in Nebraska and points westward of the Missouri River. Wayne has four of them, but not for long.

I am told all kinds of reasons they need to come down, but I feel there are other options to explore.

I hear a sewer will be built under the street and their roots may be damaged. Can we look into other options as to where that sewer could go? I know there will not be parking along that section of Main Street. This would affect the people of the Baptist Church and Our Savior Lutheran. By removing the trees, parking could be created for five or six cars. Should we sacrifice these natural treasures for a few extra parking places?

When I brought these concerns to my councilman, he was very helpful and interested in what I was saying. The TEAM 15 group was very nice in hearing my concerns, as was Lowell Johnson, our city administrator. However, I was told I was the ONLY one who cared, because not one single councilman had heard any concerns from other people. I believe there are other people who care, but are just not aware of what is all going to take place with this highway project.

If you care, if you want other options to be explored, and if you want to try to save the Sycamore trees, PLEASE contact any councilman and Lowell Johnson at City Hall, as well as the property owners (Our Savior Lutheran Church). Let them know you care. We must act quickly as time is running out to make changes to the highway plans. Once the Sycamore trees are gone, their beauty, their uniqueness, their grace and their heritage will be lost to the community of Wayne forever.

Capitol View Who would win Osborne-Heineman race?

By Ed Howard

Statehouse Correspondent The Nebraska Press Association

Tired of all that nasty negativity that rolls around every election vear?

Do you want to see the sort of civility in campaigning that would be worthy of a Miss Congeniality award, figuratively speaking?

Well, if Rep. Tom Osborne takes on Republican Gov. Dave Heineman next year, you might very well get your wish.

Osborne, as everyone has known since approximately forever, is interested in being governor. Heineman would like to be elected in his own right, having backed into the job when Gov. Mike Johanns became U.S. Secretary of Agriculture.

What if they face one another in the Republican primary? The odds of such would be practically nil in a Heineman - Osborne race.

First, "Osborne's not like that," as his friends and legions of admirers like to say. That's true but, heck, the guy doesn't need to be critical of anyone to retain that 3rd District seat. So long as he is alive and wants the job it would appear to be his for the asking.

Second, Heineman is plenty tough but he also is plenty savvy about Nebraskans. He knows that one ought not to attack Osborne in any traditional sense.

Questioning Osborne ability or intelligence or integrity would be like suggesting that Bob Devaney didn't go to heaven. You'd be more likely to get shot than elected!

The most likely route for Heineman - at this writing - would be to emphasize his experience in Statement.

The old: "Tom Osborne is a great fellow who has contributed great service to this state in Washington, where he has gained experience and etc., etc., and some more etc. and "It would be a shame, a veritable shame, if we, and the nation, were to lose his service there!"

Osborne's campaign could consist of making himself available, with an in-person and TV campaign that could consist of: "Dave is a nice guy. I sure don't have anything against him, you know. I'd like to try the governor's job because I think we might be able to get some things done. I think I could work with everyone in the Legislature and I guess I have a sense of what Nebraskans want."

3A

The two guys could share a slogan:

"I'm not running against my opponent, I'm running for the governor's office."

Attention Wayne Homeowners! Do not be deceived

The "Rental Property Ordinance" (2005-2) may have an impact on YOU. This is not an ordinance that is designed solely for landlords orproperty investors. This is an ordinance that applies to any homeowner who has a roommate or who may have to rent out their home. If passed, here's how the ordinance will work determine whether or not your home meets specific standards to qualify as a "conversion" rental property.

If standards are met, the city will issue you a compliance certificate and you can legally have roommates (maximum 2). If standards are not met, you will need to upgrade your home in order to use. In addition, every time there have roommates. If upgrades can't be made the city will take any steps appropriate to terminate this unlawful use of your home. 2. Single-family rental property is now called "category three." Before you can rent out your home again. you will need to register it with the city and pay $50 for an inspection. do. My parents were great role models and continue to be. I hope my kids will feel this way about me, as they get older.

To wrap things up, I would just like to encourage everyone to get involved in their community, whether it is volunteering at school or joining a civic organization (Wayne has some great ones). You get to meet new people, make new friends and the rewards are endless.

Wayne is a great community and it can only get better when everyone pitches in and does their part. Keep up the good work you do, Chamber of Commerce and I am looking forward to serving as the Citizen of the Year!

Laura Gamble, 2004 Citizen of the Year

Can we keep the trees? Dear Editor,

How high does the Sycamore grow? If you cut it down, then you'll never know.

I am writing this letter to express my concern about something that happened in the past and is going to happen again in 2006.

Remember when all those big trees were cut down along Highway 35 in Wayne a few years ago? Yes they were replaced, but with small, decorative trees, not the big beautiful canopy type that was there to begin with. We all knew it was going to happen, but were shocked when it was done. Who knew what an impact the loss of those trees would have on Wayne. History indeed does repeat itself, but it is the wise that learn from past mistakes.

Letters Welcome

Letters from readers are welcome. They should be timely, brief (no longer than one type-written page, double spaced) and must contain no libelous statements. We reserve the right to edit or reject any letter.

Speech team competes in several meets recently

The Wayne High School Speech Serious Prose, the OID team fifth, team has competed at several events during the past month.

"We have a young team this year, but we also have veterans like Ashley Gentrup, Adam Wert, and Emily Bruflat that our novices would do well to emulate," said Dwaine Spieker, coach of the team.

On Jan. 8 the team traveled to Battle Creek for the Battle Creek Invitational.

Results from that meet included: Maddie Jager received fifth in Novice Informative while the OID team of Maddie Jager, Jenny Holm, Adam Wert, Ryan Lewon, and Kel Gahagen took home third place.

Winning runner-up honors were Adam Wert in Extemporaneous and Ashley Gentrup in Serious Prose.

Heidi Garvin took top honors in Novice Extemporaneous, and Emily Bruflat, who received three straight perfect scores and first place in Poetry.

The Pierce Invitational was held Jan. 15.

In JV action, Kel Gahagen was sixth and Heidi Garvin fifth in Entertainment; Renae Allemann brought home fourth place honors in JV Persuasive while Jenny Holm gathered fourth in Serious Prose. Maddie Jager and Heidi Garvin won third place in Informative and Extemporaneous respectively; and Megan Powell was runner-up in Serious Prose.

In the Varsity portion of the event, Emily Bruflat took sixth in Poetry, Ashley Gentrup sixth in Library to host special events

Two special events will take place at the Wayne Public Library next week.

On Tuesday, Feb. 8, the public is invited to drop by the library between 4 and 6 p.m. to celebrate Mardi Gras with the staff.

A craft will be available for children and refreshments and beads will be handed out at the front desk.

On Thursday, Feb. 10, the library will host a Valentine card craft from 4 to 6 p.m. Supplies will be provided.

Everyone in the community is invited to stop by and design a hand-made Valentine card for someone special. Those attending are encouraged to use their own ideas or check out the library's sample cards for suggestions.

and Ashley Gentrup fourth in Serious Prose.

The highlight of the day came when Wayne swept the top three places in Extemporaneous: Adem Rudin third. Deniz Rudin second. and Adam Wert champion.

The team traveled to Stanton for competition on Jan. 29.

In Junior Varsity competition, Maddie Jager received sixth in Informative, Renee Alleman fifth in Persuasive, and Erin Zink fourth in both Poetry and Informative.

In Varsity action, Heidi Garvin was sixth in Extemp., Ashley Gentrup fifth in Serious Prose, and Deniz Rudin third in Extemp. Winning runner-up honors were Ashley Gentrup in Entertainment and Adam Wert in Extemporaneous.

Emily Bruflat gathered top honors in Poetry.

Competing with less than half of a full varsity team, Wayne finished fourth in team competition.

Renovation takes place at park

Anyone who has visited or driven past Bressler Park in recent weeks may have noticed some missing trees.

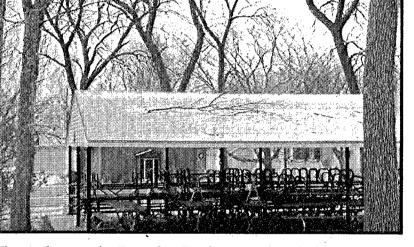

The City of Wayne Park Department is in the process of rémoving several dead or dying trees in the park. Several of these trees are nearly 100 years old and are decaying from the inside out.

The trees that appear to be in the worst condition are being removed first. Trees are also being selected for removal based on the potential for property destruction near the bathrooms and shelter houses.

Some areas will have most of the large trees removed in order to allow planting of smaller trees where they will have access to sunlight and be away from danger should a larger tree fall.

"The goal is to reforest the park

Several trees in Bressler Park near the shelters will be removed to prevent property damage.

in some areas while creating some open spaces where children can play games in others," said Joel Public Works Hansen, Superintendent for the City of Wayne.

Trees will be replanted near the bathrooms, the shelter-houses and playground equipment to provide shade in those areas.

"This process is based on the recommendations of the Nebraska Forest Service from a city-wide tree inventory completed in 2002 and should provide a quality community forest for generations to come,' Hansen added.

City personnel plan to continue this process over a number of years to insure that the park does not become totally devoid of large trees at any given time.

Volunteer blood donors recognized

The Siouxland Community Blood Bank observed January as "National Volunteer Blood Donor Month" last week in Wayne.

This annual, month-long observance provides the Siouxland Community Blood Bank an opportunity to pay tribute to past and present blood donors, and to extend an invitation to donate blood.

The Siouxland Community Blood Bank counts on community members to help prepare for the blood needs of tomorrow by encouraging volunteer blood donations.

"The seasons continue to change, but one thing remains the same, the need for blood," said Janette Twait, CEO. "There's no better time to donate than National Volunteer Blood Donor Month. Donating blood saves lives and without the generosity and commitment of donors, there simply would not be enough blood for many patients," she added.

The next opportunity to donate in Wayne is on Thursday, Feb. 24 from 8:30 a.m. to 3 p.m. at the Fire Hall.

To be eligible to donate, individu- bloodbank.org als must be at least 17 years of age; however, there is no upper age limit as long as the donor is in good health.

In addition, donors need to weigh over 110 pounds and not have donated whole blood in the past 56 days. A photo I.D. is required at the time of registration.

Wakefield, Allen girls post first round victories

By David W. Carstens Of the Herald

All five of the girls basketball teams in the Wayne Herald coverage area competed in conference tournament action at various venues around Northeast Nebraska starting last Saturday.

Game summaries for the first and second round games of the Mid State, NENAC and Lewis and Clark conference teams include:

Mid-State Tournament (first round) Jan. 31

Norfolk Catholic 57, Wayne 36 NORFOLK — Offensive rebounds proved to be the difference as Wayne lost its opening round game of the Mid State conference tournament 57-36 to Norfolk Catholic.

The Knights outrebounded Wayne 38-24 in the game and used that advantage in the fourth quarter when Norfolk Catholic successfully converted a number of its 13 rebounds into baskets.

The Knights outscored Wayne 21-7 in the final frame en route to a 57-36 win.

Wayne had been able to stay within striking distance of the Knights in the opening three quarters of Monday night's contest.

Wayne's scoring leaders were Michelle Jarvi and Sara Frerichs who scored 10 points each.

Two standout high school athletes announced on Wednesday morning that they plan to continue their football careers close to home.

Wayne High's Dana Schuett and Kyle Gardner of Wakefield signed national letters-of-intent to play for Wayne State at special signing ceremonies at their respective high schools.

Schuett said a determining factor in chosing Wayne State was the energy new football coach Dan McLaughlin brings to the program.

"He's an excellent coach and determined to improve the football team," Schuett said. Schuett is a four-year letter winner in football and wrestling and is expected to earn his fourth letter in track this spring.

As a running back, Schuett racked up more than 1,700 career rushing yards during his four years on the Blue Devil football team.

He was also a contributor on the Blue Devil defensive unit with 371 career tackles, including a combined 121 solo stops his junior and senior season.

Schuett's teammates picked him as the team's most valuable player during his junior and senior years, and voted him as team cocaptain both seasons.

Schuett earned several postseason awards after helping the Blue Devils qualify for state football playoffs last season.

His awards included All-District first team, Huskerland Prep "Diamond in the Rough" award, and honorable mention All-State team member by the Omaha World-Herald and Lincoln Journal Star.

Gardner has also been a major contributor to the success of his team at Wakefield for the past several seasons as the Trojans have finished 7-2, 5-3 and 8-1 over the past three fall campaigns.

"I really like Coach McLaughlin and am excited that things are going to turn around (at WSC)." Gardner said.

Like Schuett, Gardner is expected to close out his career a fouryear letterman in three sports as he has excelled in football, basketball and track.

As a middle linebacker, Gardner recorded 126 tackles last fall and 99 stops his junior year.

He's earned All-District honors both his junior and senior years. and was named as an honorable mention selection by the World-Herald and Journal Star this past season.

His team selected him as most valuable defensive player and most valuable team leader last fall, as well as naming him as a team captain.

As of press time, WSC was expected to announce the names of additional signees by later in the day on Wednesday.

The Wildcats dropped to 7-11 on the season after a 97-95 overtime road loss to Southwest Minnesota State last Saturday. Wayne State put eight points on the board, but the Mustangs evened the score and went on a 10-3 run to take a 33-21 lead at the 12:40 mark in the first half. The Wildcats were able to chip away at the lead and only trailed 40-37 at intermission.

SWSU held the lead for most of the second half, but WSC was able to tie the game at 86-all with 57 seconds left in regulation.

With just seconds remaining, Wayne State's Brett Watson nailed a layup to send the game into overtime.

A three-pointer by Southwest in overtime secured the lead for the Mustangs, while a Watson three point attempt in the closing seconds fell short to drop the Wildcats to 3-4 in conference play.

Todd Klostermann had a game high 29 points and 17 rebounds for WSC, while Watson finished with 19 points, Dallas Hodges with 13 and Derek Archer scored 11 for the Wildcats.

The Wildcats will face the ball team slipped in its two recent Mustangs again this Saturday in a road games at Southwest home contest at Rice Auditorium at SW Minn. State

Wayne State women lose close road game

The Wayne State women's basketball team dropped a close 67-58 road game to Southwest Minnesota State in Marshall, MN last Saturday evening.

The Mustangs used a 44-27 rebounding performance to its advantage to secure a win against WSC.

Wayne State had limited opportunities to go to the foul line as the Wildcats visited the charity stripe only three times, but went 3-of-3 in their three attempts.

The Wildcats were paced by Kristen Humphries who tallied 17 points and eight rebounds.

Double-digit outings were also turned in by Allison Steffen with 13

Jan. 27 games Wakefield 38. Laurel-Concord 34 WAKEFIELD - The outcome of the game wasn't decided until the final minute. Wakefield overcame several Laurel-Concord runs that saw the Bears hold a 15-9 advantage in the final quarter to finish the game with a 38-34 defensive battle here last Thursday evening.

"It was a very hard fought game by both teams," Wakefield coach Mike Clay said.

Cory Gustafson finished with 11 points to lead the Trojans, while senior Jeff Knudsen tallied 18 for Laurel-Concord.

"We had a nice effort to come back in the fourth quarter as we had two or three opportunities to tie up the game," Laurel-Concord coach Clayton Steele said. "Unfortunately, we couldn't get it done."

Turnovers also haunted the Bears as Laurel-Concord gave the Trojans 15 possessions during the contest.

ALLEN - Allen came out of the gates with a 16-7 first quarter lead and kept rolling in a 51-44 home win against Emerson Hubbard last Friday.

"The boys came out as a team and did what it took to win this game," coach Matt Hingst said. "We executed offensively and played a very hard team defense."

Derick Nice (14), Brett Koester (12) and Nathan Sturges (10) all scored in double digits in the Eagle win.

Josh Hart takes to the air for a Laurel Concord score in Saturday's opening round NENAC tourney game at Tilden.

Andrew Gensler was credited with four steals in the win, while he and Brett Koester were also rebounding leaders with five grabs each.

Herald Correspondent Coach Paul Sok's Winside wrestling team had to settle for a third place finish behind Class B No. 2 rated Cozad and No. 9 rated Valentine at the Ainsworth Invitational last Saturday.

Wildcat efforts, hindered by five first round byes, were further damaged with Kass Holdorf being injured causing the Winside wrestler to default his match to his finals competitor from Valentine.

Winside placed 9-of-11 wrestlers in the finals with Bo Brummels and Cory Lange winning gold medals for the Wildcats.

"This was our toughest meet of the season due to the fact that in many of the weights there were at least 5-6 individuals with solid winning records," Sok said.

The veteran Wildcat coach also pointed out that giving up three weight classes did not help the cause but at the same time the team managed to place nine in the top four.

Brummels defeated Justin Lemmer of Cozad rated No. 2 at 140 pounds in the Class B coaches poll while Lange pinned his finals opponent Matt Spain of Valentine in the second period.

Silver medalists for the Wildcats included Jesse Thies who defaulted his gold medal match due to illness, Dewey Bowers who lost a 2-1 decision to Cody Gillispie of Amherst on a last second takedown and Holdorf.

Andrew Sok, who lost his semifinal match to Joel Plaster - the No. 1- rated Class B coaches poll wrestler from Cozad - and finished third as did Jordan Brummels with a second period pin of Chance McIntosh of Sargent.

Dewey Bowers, who lost two matches by a single point, and Dan Morris were fourth place medal winners for the Wildcats.

Local hoops event scheduled

WAYNE - Applications are now being accepted for the tenth annual Affiliated Foods/Wayne State youth basketball tournament planned for Saturday, April 2, at Rice Auditorium and the WSC Recreation Center.

The tourney has been expanded to 10 divisions this year, with the addition of fourth grade boys/girls to go along with the previous fifth, sixth, seventh and eighth grade girls and boys division.

The entry fee is $75 per team based on a 10player roster and teams with more than 10 players should add $5 per extra player. Entry deadline is March 18.

Participating teams are guaranteed at least two games with medals awarded to the top three teams in each division. For information, contact tournament director Allison Kruger at the WSC women's basketball office at 375-7122 or by email at alkruge1@wsc.edu.

Jr. High teams host tourney

WAYNE - The Wayne Junior High basketball eighth grade boys team finished third and the seventh grade team took second in last weekend's W-Club Tournament.

The eighth grade team lost to Pierce 35-26 in the first round of the four-team tourney as Ryan Pieper and Zac Braun scored 12 and 11 points, respectively, for Wayne.

The team held off West Point Guardian Angels for a 42-36 win in the second round to finish third as Drew Workman and Jacob Triggs scored eight points apiece to lead in a game that saw balanced scoring from Wayne's offense.

The seventh grade team took second-place honors in the tournament with a win against Pierce and a loss in the championship game with Norfolk Catholic.

Derek Poutre poured in 14 points as Wayne edged Pierce 24-20 in the first game of the W-Club tourney last Saturday.

Norfolk Catholic topped Wayne in the championship game 46-29. Poutre scored nine points, while Geoff Nelson added six to lead Wayne.

Last Thursday, the squads traveled to Bancroft-Rosalie and were swept in both road contests.

Workman's six points paced Wayne, while Triggs added five more for the Blue Devils, who dropped a 36-22 decision to Bancroft-Rosalie.

The seventh grade team lost 22-7 and was led by Cory Foote with three points.

The teams will host Norfolk Catholic at home tonight (Thursday) and travel to Laurel-Concord on Feb. 8.

Laurel fifth grader wins state contest

Jade Cunningham, a fifth-grade student at Laurel-Concord School, was crowned state champion in the girls 10-11 year old age division at the Nebraska Elks Association State Hoop Shoot finals held last Saturday at Hastings College in Hastings.

Cunningham, the daughter of Toby and Patti Cunningham of rural Laurel, made 17-of-26 shots from the foul line to win the title.

She will advance to competition at the National Elks Regional finals to be held in Denver on March 5.

She represented the Norfolk Elks Lodge.

In school, she is an "A" student and is active in volleyball, softball, basketball and enjoys horse riding.

After the competition, all state shooters and their families were hon-card with 11 points each. "I was very happy with our intensity throughout the game," Wayne coach Rocky Ruhl said. "Our third quarter was better than in our last two games and the kids came out and performed to their ability and stayed steady throughout the game."

The Blue Devils took a 22-5 lead in the first quarter and outscored the Cadets 34-20 in the second half.

Wayne won the rebounding battle inside 38-17 and was led by Ruwe with six and Fink and John Temme with five boards apiece.

Fink was a perfect 6-of-6 from the charity stripe, while Ruwe went 3-of-4 for the Blue Devils who finished 9-of-11 from the line.

The counselors are supervised by Dr. Keith Willis, the Chair of the Counseling & Special Education Department at Wayne State College and Dr. Debi Bonds, Interim Instructor of the Counseling and Special Education Department at Wayne State College.

"The counselors understand the stress involved in dealing with problems such as grief, worry, family and relationship conflicts, emotional pain and alcohol and drug abuse," said Dr. Willis.

Talking to a professional about these issues can provide support, guidance and may help to find new solutions.

The counselors who are associated with the Help Clinic this semester include:

Larry Wilson. He received his Bachelor of Arts Degree from a position as Director of Youth & Education at St. Paul's Lutheran Church in Cheyenne, Wyo. He then took a position as Director of Youth & Family Ministry at Our Savior Lutheran Church in Wayne. He has also worked as a Community Treatment Aide at Maplewood Behavioral Health.

Wilson is currently working as a Residential Mental Health Specialist for Omni Behavioral Health in Columbus and sports stringing for the Columbus Telegram.

Jessie Sutter. She is a graduate of the Wayne State College Human Service Counseling program and attending WSC to earn her MSE in Counseling. She is employed as a case manager for Nebraska AIDS Project. She has previous experience working Service Counseling from Wayne State College in December of 2003. She has worked with students from the Creighton Upward Bound program in addition to volunteering as a mentor for activities with the American Legion Organization. Her experience includes working as a youth instructor with young women who are dealing with difficult situations.

Beth Oswald. She completed an undergraduate degree in sociology and Women's Studies from Goshen College in Indíana. She has worked with individuals with developmental disabilities and dual diagnosis for the past 15 years, both directly and in supervisory positions. She assisted with the preparation of behavior management programs for clients who were hoping to develop more effective living skills.

The Help Clinic is available to answer any questions about counseling. It can be reached at (402) 375-7210. Anyone reaching an answering machine is encouraged to leave a name and phone number and the call will be returned.

Presentation on Lewis and Clark planned in Laurel

Merriwether Lewis and William Clark were trained and conditioned to be keen observers.

Their voyage of discovery in 1804-06 resulted in uncovering a world of information about America. However, the science of Geology was not recognized and accepted until later, Perhaps the crew understood little of the lay of the land.

If a geologist had gone with Lewis and Clark, it would have been someone just like Dr. Robert Diffendal.

Diffendal, a University of Nebraska Geologist, followed the Lewis and Clark trail up the Missouri, charting the geological

Tax credits are available to eligible Nebraskans

Nebraskans lost millions of dollars in federal tax credits last year because they didn't ask for them. If a person had a paying job in 2004, either full or part-time, or children under 17, he/she might qualify.

"We don't want people to miss out on a tax credit that they've truly earned," said Betty Medinger, administrator of the Office of Economic Assistance in the Nebraska Health and Human Services System (HHSS). "This is an opportunity for these dollars to support hard-working Nebraska families and further circulate through our local economies." The Federal tax credits include:

•Earned income tax credit - up to 4,300

•Child tax credit - up to $1,000 per child

•Child and dependent care tax credits - up to $2.100

These tax credits are geared towards low to middle income families. HHSS is partnering with community organizations to provide free tax preparation assistance. Volunteer staffed tax preparation sites are set up across the state. Eligible individuals can go there and get their taxes prepared free of charge.

Library hosts After Hours pizza party

The Wayne Public Library hosted an After Hours Teen Pizza Party on Jan. 28 for young adults who are frequent users of the library.

The idea was to have a diverse group of teens together to colaborate on what would draw them to the library. The young adults also had a chance to preview over 20 new materials for the teen corner and give their imput on what other new items should be purchased. The group had the chance to become the core of a Teen Advising Teens group that would review materials in the Young Peoples section of the library and provide local opinion of materials.

Each book, or movie will be reviewed and given a rating. A copy of the review and rating will be placed inside the cover. The idea being, as numbers in the group. increase, library will become a more appealing place to be, and allow the teens to advise and mentor each other.

The Wayne Public Library was awarded an $1,150.00 Youth Grant for Excellence from the Nebraska Library Commission for their Teen Space project on Dec. 10, 2004. With these funds a new Teen Corner has been outfitted with new furniture and signs which were unveiled at the party.

> Students interested in using the program should call: 402-375-7590 or 402-375-7591.

If a student drives their own vehicle and then is unable to drive, they may call the Wayne Police Department to notify them without receiving a parking citation on city streets only.

The Toward Responsible Use of Substances Today (TRUST) Coalition began in the fall of 2002 to work toward creating a Safe Ride Program. The TRUST Coalition is composed of a number of devoted people from the campus and community interested in reducing problems associated with alcohol and drug abuse.

The Safe Ride Program and TRUST Coalition are not intended as encouragement for WSC students to drink. They were created with the goal of providing all students with a safe mode of transportation during the evening hours. This effort is intended to join others and make this type of safety available to more individuals. Many other college and university campuses already have Safe Ride programs.

Funding for the program is provided by the WSC Foundation and the Dean of Students Office.

Please direct questions about the Wildcat Wheels Pilot Project 2005: A WSC Safe Ride Program to Curt Frye, WSC Vice President and Dean of Students, at 402-375-7213.

Looking ahead to Valentine's Day

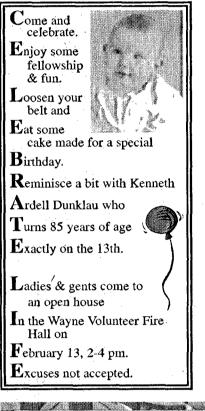

By Ruth Vonderohe, Extension Educator

celebrating Valentine's Day, let your creative juices flow. Here are some ideas that may spark fresh thinking on ways to honor this important day of caring and love.

• Why not shy away from expensive gifts? The spirit of Valentine's Day is often best expressed in heartfelt gestures of thoughtfulness and love-a romantic walk in the moonlight, a surprise phone call, a short note of appreciation, a homemade gift or card.

• Plan ahead. Set aside a few extra hours before Valentine's Day to mail some cards or plan special activities for the week of February 14th.

• Be flexible. If it isn't convenient to celebrate on February 14th, you can do so any number of days before or after.

• Why not call a young couple This year as you look forward to you know and offer to babysit so they can enjoy a romantic evening together?

• If you are fortunate enough to have parents who are still living, touch base with them and express your affection and appreciation.

• If you have physical or financial limitations, remember that a gift of loving thoughts, or a prayer, or a brief Happy Valentine's Day! phone call can be a wonderful way to observe this special day.

• Try this: Spend a little time in a quiet place. Breathe easily and focus on the here and now. Become quiet enough that you can feel, and maybe even hear, your heart beating. Then ask yourself, "What in my heart of hearts would I love to do?" Take good notes.

• Remember those who are alone. Whatever their age, Valentine's Day can be painful for those who have no one to celebrate with. Consider organizing a gathering for elderly singles in your immediate community. Or invite a small group of singles over for dinner and conversation.

• Start a new Valentine's Day tradition: For example, donate time or money to a local soup kitchen or food pantry. Or ask permission to visit folks at a nearby nursing home. Invite a friend to join you and pick up some little heart candies or small non-food gifts, maybe Relations Specialist, UKy.

ones that you and your family have made together. Distribute your gifts with heartfelt smiles, warm handshakes, and a big hug when that seems appropriate.

These are just a few suggestions to spark your own creativity. In addition to adding your own thoughts, why not brainstorm unique and enjoyable ways to cel-ebrate Valentine's Day with a loved one or a small group of friends? It could be fun and there is no telling what interesting possibilities you might dream up.

The symbol of Valentine's Day is the heart-a reminder of the heart's wisdom, and of the universal need to give and receive love. Toward the end of her long life, author Helen Nearing spoke of the overarching importance of love in our lives. Her words are a fitting tribute to the many and varied gestures of love through which we celebrate Valentine's Day: "Love is the source, love is the goal, and love is the method of attainment. A network of love crisscrosses the globe. The delicate shining lines form a tenuous web from one end of the world to the other. There are so many threads of love in the world, so much love going on, for and from so many people. To partake of love and to give love is the greatest of life's rewards."

Macular degeneration is a disease that blurs the sharp central vision you need for "straight ahead" activities, such as sewing, reading and driving. Macular degeneration affects the macula or the part of the eye that allows you to see fine detail. The disease may progress slow or fast and may lead to loss of vision in both eyes. Macular degeneration is the leading cause of vision loss in Americans 60 years of age and older.

Stop in at The Wayne Herald to pick up pictures brought in for ads or stories.

The UNL Extension Board - Wayne County meeting will be held on Tuesday, Feb. 8 at 7:30 p.m. at Geno's in Wayne.

The meeting is open to the public. An agenda is available at the Extension Office at 510 Pearl Street in Wayne.

Briefly Speaking

Minerva Club meets at Senior Center

AREA — The Minerva Club met Jan. 24 at the Senior Center with Margaret Anderson as hostess.

Roll call was answered by recalling a snow experience. Minutes were read and approved.

Old business included discussion on planting the flowerbeds at the library. Donna Hansen will head that project. Connie Glassmeyer will chair the library bulletin board committee for June.

Hollis Frese read historic moments from the secretary's book of 1988. She also read a Christmas letter from Mrs. Pat Prather of Tarkio, Mo., a former member of the Minvera Club.

A card was signed for Joyce Mitchell.

Margaret Anderson's historical highlight report was on the Statue of Liberty, a gift from France. She interspersed her report with antidotes of her mother leaving Sweden, alone, at the age of 14, to sail to America. On arrival, she registered at Ellis Island and then took a train to Chicago, where she lived with relatives.

The next meeting will be Monday, Feb. 14 at the home of Twyla Lindsay.

Women's Club learns about antiques

WAYNE - The Wayne Women's Club met Jan. 14 in the North Meeting Room of the City Auditorium with Pat Janke from Antiques on Main as a guest.

Mrs. Janke assessed the value of items brought to the meeting by members of the club.

Hostesses were Earlyne Murray and Opal Harder.

The next meeting will be Friday, Feb. 11 at 2 p.m. in the North Meeting Room of the City Auditorium. Julie Claybaugh will present the program on dolls.

NEBRASKA HEALTH AND HUMAN SERVICES SYSTEM

Nebraska Concealed Carry Bill, LB 454, is before the Nebraska Legislature in 2005. ...the right of the people to keep and bear arms shall not be infringed." So said the wise mer who drew up the U.S. Constitution.

LB 454 is page after page of violent infringements of the 2nd Amendment to the U.S. Constitution. It is, in its entirety, an unconstitutional item of legislation.

LB 454 can be corrected by removing all words through line 23 on page 15. Lines 24 and 25 on page 15 should be retained. Those deleted lines can be replaced by these words "The 2nd Amendment to the Constitution of the United States of America is confirmed, to wit; the right of the people to keep and bear arms shall not be infringed ... " Nebraska statutes that prohibit carrying concealed handguns are repealed. The voice of the people must be heard. Contact your state senator.

Siouxland Blood Bank stresses need for donations

In awareness of American Heart Month, the Siouxland Community Blood Bank reminds everyone how important volunteer blood donations are to cardiac patients and many others requiring blood transfusions.

National statistics show that on average, a heart surgery patient receives six units of blood during their procedure. Take this time to express your awareness by donating blood today.

Kettle campaign was well supported

The Salvation Army, Wayne unit has issued a thank you to the Wayne community for the support of the Christmas Kettle Campaign which raised $768.98.

Money is used in the Wayne community for emergency housing, prescription and utility needs.

"We are grateful to Pamida and Pac 'N' Save for allowing us to ring and to Prime Stop and Bomgaars for allowing counter top kettles," said the Rev. Mary Browne, chair of the local Salvation Army.

Groups that provided ringers during the campaign include the First Church of Christ, First United Methodist Churches of Wayne and Carroll, Our Savior Lutheran Church, the Wayne Rotary Club and the Fraternal Order of Police.

Members of the Wayne Salvation Army committee are Beverly Etter, Ilene Nichols, Police Chief Lance Webster and Rev. Browne.

The Salvation Army also receives funds from the Wayne United Way.

Memories are shared

The Wayne

More memories of Johnny. In 1982, we heard that Johnny was coming back to Norfolk to film a nostalgic video of his childhood home. I still have a copy of it and will have to hunt it out and replay it. I hesitate to do so because it makes me nostalgic, too!

AND DESCRIPTION OF THE OWNER OWNE

It featured the car he drove in high school, because Clyde Means had purchased it and restored it. We saw him hanging from that dreadful Broken Bridge, southwest of Norfolk. And we laughed at his handwritten efforts as guided by Miss Faye Gordon, who had been his teacher way back when.

Since I had suffered through Palmer Penmanship, I could emphasize. And these days, I wish everyone could have a year of Palmer; Maybe then we could read handwriting. Not that handwriting is considered very important these days.

Miss Faye Gordon was one of the "old school." When I finally met her, she was in her 80s and had experienced the dreaded broken hip. She lived in an apartment with steps but it had not occurred to her to move from it. She was regal, dignified, white hair in an updo, and very gracious. I soon became one of her devoted fans. And I loved it when her star pupil surprised her on her 100th birthday, when she was finally living in an assisted living facility.

I had some teachers just like Miss Gordon at Waco High. There French.

was Margaret Foster, who guided us through Silas Marner and Shakespeare. Margaret did marry and have a family; her son, Hub, was the sports director at the York Daily News for years. After retiring from that, he put together "Fun Tours," and my Mom and many of my York county relatives enjoyed them. His son, Dr. Bill Foster, is now associated with Orphan Grain Train.

Another lady in the mold of Miss Gordon was Mary Hall Thomas, our choral music teacher and algebra instructor. Research today indicates that musicians are better at math. She certainly was an example of that. I just know I didn't have to take remedial math in nursing school. She also spoke

These teachers did not have discipline problems in their classes. They expected us to respect them and we did. Of course, it probably helped that had we ever been a problem in school, we would have been in deeper trouble at home.

When I moved to Cass county, I still met a few teachers like Miss Gordon. One who comes to mind was Mrs. Puls, a short, whitehaired woman who belonged to our church and always wore a hat to services. She was still substituting in area schools 10 years ago, and one mother confided to me that Mrs. Puls never had trouble maintaining order in her class room either.

A common factor was normal training in high school, and then years of summer school to obtain the degree. There was also a love of teaching and a concern for young people.

When Johnny received the Kennedy Center award a few years ago, the UNL Marching Band participated on stage and he seemed very pleased.

Just two months ago, I visited the Elkhorn Valley Museum in Norfolk and listened to a Carson mannequin deliver a monologue. He's standing in front of curtains just like the ones in his studio. They were owned by Marie Huck, the butterfly lady, and given to the museum after her death. As always, he made me smile. He has been missed, and will be even more so now.

RC&D Council meets

The RC&D Council met Jan. 24 in Plainview for their regular monthly meeting with 25 present. Duane Fanta, President conducted the session and welcomed two new board members, Rhonda Kneifl of Newcastle and Rod Garwood, of Wayne. Following the regular order of business the Council spent time preparing their operating budget for 2005.

Four new projects were adopted: Plainview Historical Museum is seeking assistance with grants for maintenance and upgrading their facility; Scrap Tire '05 will assist five counties on applying for DEQ amnesty day grants to collect scrap tires; Local Products Online will advance the work of the Rural Storefront project to better define strategies and opportunities for marketing via the Internet; the Artists 2005 project will again focus on local artisans to showcase their talent in the RC&D meeting room.

Donna Christiansen provided an update on the Waste Computer Collection project. A DEQ grant is being developed for funds to assist in proper disposal of obsolete computers and their peripherals. If awarded the collections, one in Pierce and one in Hartington, would take place in late summer.

The 2005 annual plan of work was reviewed and approved. This is the Council's agreement with the Natural Resources Conservation Service to carry out the mission and goals of the RC&D.

Julie Joyce, Bob Porter and Donna Christiansen reported on the Western RC&D Association conference they attended this month in Casper, Wyo. Nebraska will host the 2006 conference in Kearney.

The next meeting is February 28, 6:30 p.m. at the RC&D office in Plainview. All are welcome and encouraged to attend.

by March 7, 2005,

For the program to continue, it must be approved by a majority of voters who also represent a majority of the volume represented in the referendum.

The Lamb Checkoff Program is authorized by the Commodity Promotion, Research and Information Act of 1996. This program provides for assessments on the sale of lamb and lamb products and for an industry board to carry out promotion, research and information programs designed to increase the demand for lamb and lamb products.

The referendum is mandated by the Act and requires that the Secretary of Agriculture conduct a referendum either before its going into effect or within three years after assessments first begin under an order. The order provides that the referendum be held within three years after assessments first begin. Assessments began July 1, 2002. AMS oversees the activities of the program.

The procedures and notice of the referendum will be published in the Dec. 27, 2005 Federal Register.

LRP insurance offers singleperil price-risk protection to feeder cattle, fed cattle and hog producers. Livestock producers are able to protect against declining prices by purchasing an insurance contract with a specified coverage price. If market prices fall below the specified coverage price, an indemnity is paid to the producer. The meeting will also feature an update on the Livestock Premises Identification Number program in Nebraska.

Improving profitability for corn and soybeans will be the main topic at a producers meeting on Monday, Feb. 14, beginning at 9 a.m., at the Haskell Ag Lab.

Topics include variety selection techniques, soil stewardship, soybean rust, soybean aphids, planters, combine adjustments and sprayer nozzle selection. Cost of the program is $20 payable at the door but a phone-in registration at 584-2234 by Monday, Feb. 7 for lunch count is needed.
