Collaborative team presents plan to enhance economy, create jobs

In an effort to maintain and improve the economy in and around Wayne, a ninemember Collaborative Team, composed of three members each from the Wayne Chamber of Commerce, Main Street Wayne and Wayne Industries, has introduced before the Wayne City Council a detailed plan to support economic development initiatives in Wayne and the surrounding area.

The collaborative team met with the Wayne City Council at a meeting-of-thewhole on May 12 and again on June 14 and presented a vision for economic development for this city of some 5,000 residents and the surrounding region.

Recognizing the unique nature of this rural community, and the opportunities that currently exist for economic development and job growth, the proposed plan focuses on:

• Creating a Wayne Economic Development Association composed of the combined memberships of the Wayne Chamber of Commerce, Main Street and Wayne Industries - complete with an equitable investment structure.

• Hiring an Economic Development Specialist to guide the efforts of the association's Governing Board, which is composed of two members selected from the Wayne Chamber, two from Main Street and two from Wayne Industries. Also, two members are to be appointed from the membership of the Wayne City Council and one member from the Wayne County Commissioners. • The three organizations (Chamber,

Main Street and Industries) will continue to exist, offering the services and functions the area-wide community has come to expect and enjoy.

er sirens in Wayne were activated shortly after 10 p.m. because of a potentially severe storm approaching Wayne.

Wayne Communications Center personnel were watching the radar image of the approaching storm and contacted the National Weather Service office in Valley to get a real time update because of information coming from Cedar County. The National Weather Service recommended that Carroll storm spotters be sent out because of a lot of circulation within the clouds, accompanied by possible 70 mph

In addition, this storm cell was moving very quickly towards Carroll and Wayne and there had been unconfirmed citizen reports of possible tornados north of

The Communications Center used the new cable TV intercept capability to notify the community of the approaching storm immediately after the weather alert sirens were blown. This message directed the public to tune in to local radio and television stations for further storm related

Wayne Police Chief Lance Webster said Monday's siren activation resulted numerous calls to the dispatch center. He said they received between 25 and 30 telephone calls from citizens wanting to know why the sirens were blown, including complaints that the sirens scared small children. County Commissioners listen to discussions

By Lynn Sievers Of the Herald

Wayne County Commissioners met Tuesday at the courthouse in Wayne. One agenda item was Highway Project Manager Scott Brummond of Nebraska Department of Roads discussing a proposal to use North Centennial Road and East 21st Street as a detour around construction next year on Hwy 15, north of Wayne.

mately 300 feet north of Discount Furniture with curb and gutter. He said the project will be done in seven phases which will take some time to finish.

Brummond told the commissioners this wasn't an official request at this time but wanted to know if they knew of any concerns. Kelvin Wurdeman, chairman for the Commissioners, asked if it would be concrete or asphalt and if they could asphalt the hill on 21st St. as that is a problem area to keep gravel on, etc. Brummond said they would look into that.

Brummond noted they are looking at April, 2006 or when college is out as a possible start date for the project. The job will start a little south of 13th Street.

Also on the agenda was Deb Scholten, director of Northeast Nebraska Public Health Department, who let the Commissioners know of a juvenile services aid grant application and asked for their signatures. She told them while the health See TEAMS, Page 4A départment doesn't get into juvenile ser-

She noted there was a meeting some time ago with four counties (Wayne, Cedar, Dixon and Thurston) and later they started working with Cedar County who had a parents group going. She told the Commissioners that she and Kelly Heithold, community health specialist, Brummond noted the State wants to put went to the Panhandle recently to observe n three lanes north of Wayne to approxi- the model they have. She noted how impressive the Panhandle Partnership is. Scholten said in order to attract more funding, a comprehensive plan is needed and they are working on that. She is also planning on Joan Francis, an independent consultant who lives in Kimball, coming here to meet with all individuals, organizations and agencies who work with youth. She wanted to know if the Commissioners would participate in the meeting with Francis, which they said they would. At the meeting, Francis will explain how to work with several children's programs.

The Commissioners also chose representation on Wayne Area Economic Development Association Governing Board. Wayne Commissioner Myron Miller will be on that board with Bob Nissen (another commissioner) as alternate. Wayne Eagles Club celebrates mortgage burning and being in Wayne 28 years

By Lynn Sievers Of the Herald

The Wayne Eagles Club is planning a mortgage burning celebration for members on Saturday, June 25. The building at 119 Main Street in Wayne was bought in Nebraska Boys Ranch. Every year the January, 1977 and 104 charter members were installed (62 men and 40 women) on ject. May 1, 1977. Eagle Clubs are national and international non-profit organizations with the motto, "People Helping People."

Looking back, Robert and Elizabeth Carlson of Blair were interested in starting an Eagles Club in Wayne. So, they bought the building which had been the ASCS office and earlier the CO-ED Theatre. Through ads and a home show, the couple showed what they had to offer. Lynn and Jan Gamble were the first ones to sign up as members at the home show. Wendell and Ruth Korth of Wayne, who had lived in Blair for awhile, helped Carlsons start the organization. First local presidents were Larry Test and Florence Koplin.

From the beginning, the organization has always had fundraisers to raise money for local needs, such as Relay for Life, W.E.B., North Star, Wayne County Fair prizes, Muscular Dystrophy, American Red Cross, Wayne Fire Department, St. Jude's Bike-A-Thon, Tower School, Close-up, Wayne High School Aerie and Auxiliary Scholarship, Multiple Sclerosis Walk-A-Thon, March of Dimes, TeamMates $1500 donation recently, Rainbow Riders, Wayne Nebraska; 1957: inaugurated nationwide Elementary School playground equipment, "jobs after 40" program; 1959: established

Some of the activities the Wayne Eagles have for local giving include Soup suppers, Potato bakes, Monthly steak frys, Watkins parties, Hunters breakfasts, Smokers, Ice cream socials, Pool leagues, Chicken Show card tournament and meal, etc.

Nationally, the Wayne Eagles have given to the Art Ehrmann Cancer Fund, Jimmy Durante Childrens Alliance, Max Baer Heart Fund, Golden Eagle Fund, Diabetes Fund, and City of Hope Kidney Fund.

Thinking about the first Eagles Club, it was formed in February, 1898, in Seattle, Wash, and was named Seattle Order of Good things. The name was later changed to Fraternal Order of Eagles with the bald eagle as the emblem. A grand aerie was formed in April, 1898. Some milestones of Eagle progress include: 1904: first public ty. plea for Mother's Day; 1911: sponsored America's first Workman's Compensation

In 1923: Eagles sponsored America's first old age pension law; 1935: supported enactment of social security law; 1941: dedicated Eagles dormitory at Boy's Town

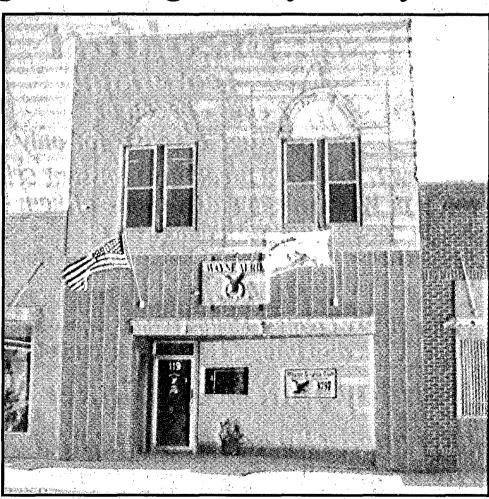

Wayne Senior Center, Providence Medical Max Baer Heart Fund; 1960: dedicated Center (nearly $20,000 to them for various Eagle Hall at Home on the Range for Boys in North Dakota; 1967: establishment of Jimmy Durante Children's Fund; 1980: Eagles Bob Hope High School dedicated at Hughen School, Port Arthur, Texas; 1984: $405,000 donated to Eagles Truman Cardiovascular Lab at Research Medical Center, Kansas City. President Truman was a life-time Eagle member.

In 1985: Eagles marked $1 million in donations to St. Jude's Hospital; 1986: contributions to Eagles Max Baer Heart Fund Research Lab at Sutter Medical Research Foundation reached $600,000; 1989: Eagles launched petition drive to make desecration of the American Flag a Federal crime; 1995: The Fraternal Order of Eagles donated $50,000 for the Eagle Alcove of the Franklin Delano Roosevelt Memorial, Tidal Basin, Washington, D.C. Roosevelt was a life-time member of the Fraternal Order of Eagles. 1998: $1,000,000 given to charities at Grand Aerie Convention.

Remembering Jim Exon

By Ed Howard Statehouse Correspondent The Nebraska Press Association

Jim Exon's life was the political equivalent of a cabaret and, from beginning to end, his final sendoff was a celebration of his life, his times and his love of people, politics and America.

In death, it seemed that Exon's legend was officially certified by family and friends with all manner of backgrounds.

A list of Exon's acquaintances, a document sufficient to blow the circuits of most computers, would make as fine a cast of characters as ever walked the pages of a Damon Runyon story.

The eulogies offered for Exon were beautiful, capturing his personality and dedication as a husband, grandfather, great grandfather and phenomenal political suc-

A proud, albeit conservative, Democrat, Exon never lost an election. He was victorious in five consecutive statewide campaigns - two for governor and three for the United States Senate. This, in a state that is traditionally as Republican as Italy is Catholic.

While solemnity was in the air as Exon's casket was wheeled toward the Capitol rotunda, that mood was altered more than a little when the band (no kidding) struck up the Battle Hymn of the Republic, dropped in several bars of Dixie and at times played both with a hint of jazz-ma-tazz.

The politically correct crowd that might shudder at the thought of Dixie should remember: Abraham Lincoln expressed his love of that tune during a time when he was working toward a charitable reunification with the southern states."

Let it also be said that no Nebraska politician, and not many in the whole of the USA, could have exited the mortal world with more style than Exon, whose political Franklin D. Roosevelt led the roots went all the way back to the Great Depression and FDR.

As the service ended, Exon was taken from the Capitol with an aura that was anything but funereal. It was worthy of the man whose personality was even taller and wider than his unmistakable physical stature. It was big and joyous, despite circumstances.

A raucous version of Happy Days Are Here Again bounced through the halls of the ornate Capitol, as Exon's casket rolled toward the huge north entrance of the Tower on the Plains. That tune was the anthem of New Deal Democrats, as nation out of the Depression while collecting four consecutive victories in his White House campaigns.

It occurred to this observer that Exon might have been smiling from the Great Beyond - doing the oftmentioned, unique laugh that amused and confounded so many as he bowed out of the Capitol scene with musical fanfare that would do justice to any whistle-stop campaign through the rural Plains country that he loved so well.

One could almost imagine his flag-draped casket as a campaign train, carrying Exon toward whatever comes next, in the sure and certain knowledge that he would be campaigning for something when he got there.

And, what might Exon say to whomsoever greets him at the Pearly Gates, if Pearly Gates there

How about something similar to what he said on the floor of the United States Senate in his farewell speech. Exon was talking about his Nebraska constituency, but he could have been talking to whatever judge or judges might occupy the bench in the aforementioned Great Beyond "I may not always have been right, but I was convinced that I was! That's about all I believe Nebraskans ever expected of me."

Trail project continues in Wayne

Next council meeting

The next council meeting will be Tuesday, June 28 at 6 p.m., The council will meet as a committeeof-the-whole to discuss the economic development re-organization and funding proposal and at 7:30 p.m. in regular session in the council meeting room at 306 Pearl Street. Wayne Pedestrian Trail

You will see a survey crew from Olsson Associate around town again this week working on the construction design for the Phase II trail to be built in 2006. Wayne applied for 80 percent cost share from state funding in 2003 and the funding was approved by the Nebraska Department of Roads, but Congress did not appropriate money that year. Last fall we were notified by the Department of Roads that the Wayne project will be funded. The Lower Elkhorn NRD has also again agreed to participate with cost share for construction. We will bid out the project this fall for construction in 2006.

The bold line on the city map shows the entire trail system when complete. The portion east of Main Street is built and the portion west of Main will be built in 2006. You will note the dotted line section in the area of the cemetery. That final location to cross Highway 35 will need to be approved by the Department of Roads. The trail through the fairgrounds winds around the buildings, including the St. Mary's building. The section along Grainland Road will be on the street right-of-way on the side. The section going west from the WSC campus will be in the 30 foot right-of-way to Sherman.

Trail location maps with finer detail are available from Chanelle in the city office. Tornado Sirens

Our dispatchers received some at the Lutt farm last season, our complaint calls right after the policy is to err on the side of soundsirens were sounded on Monday night. Just a reminder that nature ing in dangerous weather when a tornado could be present but has not been confirmed. 🤒 On Monday night, fire department spotters were called out and the Weather Bureau notified dispatchers that circling clouds were seen but no tornado seen by radar. There is no perfect system but you'll hear the sirens more often with our more aggressive approach.

Democracy comes with price Dear Editor.

I would like to commend the spiritual leaders of our community for practicing their constitutional rights by expressing their concerns over certain types of adult entertainment.

It reminds me of why democracy works, and of the blessings God has given us to live in the USA, where our views and feelings can be expressed freely without fear.

However, when people blame these legal forms of entertainment for demeaning sex or for tearing you can do to help prevent alcohol Strategies, •A Motivational the fabric of marriage and love, it reminds me of the days when people blamed rock and roll music, movies and people of color for our societal ills.

· We all know democracy carries a price. We have to tolerate and accept things which we may not agree with and put our faith in humanity to evolve. When Christ walked the Earth, he offered us a choice, a path and love and he even washed a prostitute's feet, not only to show the lesson of forgiveness, but that everyone's life matters.

It concerns and saddens me, that people who represent the spiritual choose to decide which part of democracy they wish to use and which part they seek to destroy. This same principle of freedom to express one's view is not separate from freedom of choice. This same freedom also allows them the freedom of religion without persecu-

This can only lead me to wonder if these people are blind to the reasons why morality continues to diminish in our society, when drugs are as easy to buy as cigarettes, and yes, in Wayne, or a certain business in town promotes bingedrinking as their calling card, and as you know, binge drinking is the number one contributor to alcoholism in teens, or that we live in a community that does little or nothing to reach out to young minds and people of different ethnicities, or that our government, at all levels, continues to become more and more corrupt.

Instead of preaching how people should live their lives, how they should think, or how they should act, lead by example, respect the constitution and respect the sepapulse of our community would ration of church and state and then not only will you gain the respect of younger people and those who have been turned off by your selective politicking, but you may actually strengthen their faith and revive their souls and values so they will make good decisions and choose not to attend the events you talk of, because they simply won't find them fun or interesting, which will then put these types of businesses out of business.

Passing laws to forbid these types of entertainment is fine by me, but attaching this entertainment to society's ills and ignoring the real problems in front of you, simply because of a local business's reputation, established by lies and jealousy, and choosing to ignore all the good things the business brings to the community, is simply wrong! Most importantly, however, attacking the right of freedom of choice, to elevate one's standing, is religious fanaticism!

either. What's a sports fan to do in summer?

Get out of the house and take in a game or two down at the ball park, of course.

I had a blast watching the final round of the Nebraska Juniors at the Wayne Country Club last Thursday.

Troy Harder, WCC golf pro and grounds superintendent Ken Dahl were excellent hosts and it was fun following the action.

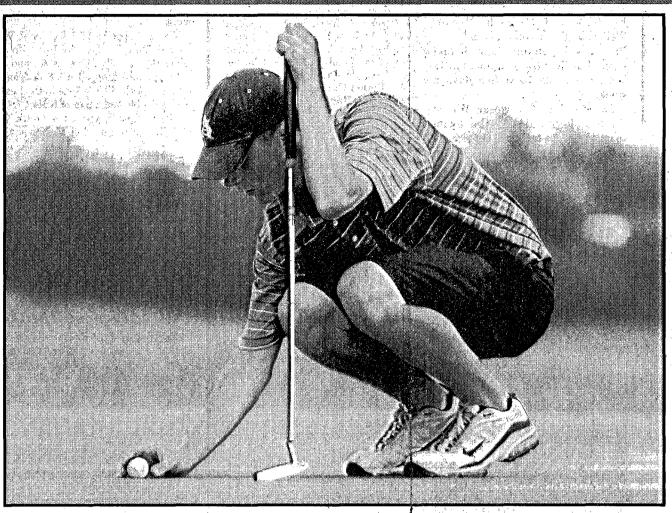

The course is looking fantastic this season with the abundant spring rains we've experienced in our corner of the state.

On Father's Day, I had the opportunity to watch a movie called "Big Fish" which is a movie everyone should watch, and being able to watch it with my dad was all the more special.

The "big fish in the small pond" saying provides the foundation for the movie and it has lots of fantasy in the show to provide doses of comedic relief.

The treasure of the film is where the son and father meet on common ground at the end of the show and the tradition carries on with the son's children.

Vacation time beckons, so until next week, stay cool and enjoy summer.

Coatman wins Juniors title at the Wayne Country Club

Putting game proves to be a difference-maker

By David W. Carstens Of the Herald

Once Mike Coatman got on roll, he was difficult to stop. Mike Coatman of Lincoln defeated McCook's Brandon Crick 6 and 5 in the 36-hole final of the Nebraska Junior Match Play Championship last Thursday at the Wayne Country Club.

The event was sanctioned by the Nebraska Golf Association. After a morning of see-saw play that saw numerous lead changes, Coatman emerged on Thursday afternoon with a win on the second hole and added to his lead to go 5-up with birdies on the fourth, fifth, ninth and tenth holes.

Coatman finished the match on the par-5 13th hole with a birdie to close out Crick 6 and 5.

Both golfers said that Coatman's birdie on the fourth hole proved to be the match's turning point.

"That putt got me going. I really can't explain how I feel right now," Coatman said as he held the silver championship cup. "This is my first big summer win and I just can't explain it."

Crick, who maintained a strong performance since claiming co-medalist honors in last Monday's stroke play qualifier, said his putting game caused him grief all day on Thursday.

"I just couldn't get a putt to fall all day and Mike's 15footer on No. 4 swung things his way," Crick said.

In Wednesday's action, Crick was a 3 and 2 winner in the morning quarterfinal over Kearney's Ben Porter. He then defeated Lincoln's Austin Andersen in the semifinal,

In his semifinal match against Anderson, Crick grabbed a quick three-up advantage by winning three of the first six holes that included a birdie on the 340 yard, par-4 first hole and never relinquished the lead, eventually closing out Andersen on the 17th hole.

Coatman was two holes down to Gross in his semifinal match with three remaining before winning the final three holes to win 1-up.

Each player was presented with a crystal trophy as a finalist, while Coatman was also presented with the traveling trophy cup.

Nebraska Golf Association executive director Craig Ames also presented a special recognition to the Wayne Country Club for hosting the event.

Olson places high at national meet

Wayne resident Randy Olson is logging some serious road miles once again this summer.

Olson, 57, will be competing nationally this summer in several events. He qualified, along with 41 other Nebraska athletes, to participate in the Senior Olympics held in Pittsburgh, Penn., last week. While in at the national meet, he competed in the 100-meter dash, long jump and high jump. Olson was the only representative from Nebraska in track and field in the 55-59 years level. In the 100, he placed 15th with a time of 13.39. He picked up a fifth-place ribbon in the long jump with a jump of 15-9 3/4 feet and took ninth in the high jump with his completion of 4-6 feet. Olson's next effort will be at the Cornhusker Games on July 16th in Lincoln where he will compete in the long jump, 50-meter dash,

In late July, he will travel to Colorado Springs, Colo., to participate in the State Games of America in the triple jump, 110 high hurdles, 50-meter dash, long jump, 110 high hurdles, and the high jump.

In August, Olson will attend the Nebraska Senior games in Kearney where he hopes to retain the record he set in softball throw last year in addition to competing in his other events.

Wayne played two games at South Sioux City on Monday.

In the opener, which didn't count on season records, Wayne lost an 8-5 decision. Jacob Nissen had a pair of hits, two runs and a double to pace Wayne. In the nightcap, a grand slam home run by South Sioux City in the bottom of the seventh sealed a 12-8 win. Hill picked up the loss on the mound for Wayne, while Shaun Kardell lead the Wayne offense with a pair of runs, an RBI and a double.

Shawn Jenkins had two hits and drove in three batter, while Sam Kurpgeweit had two hits, a single and two RBIs.

Daily exercise can help you look and feel younger and reduce the risk of heart disease, diabetes and even cancer. Much of what goes wrong in the body with aging is due to lack of use and not wear and tear. Researchers recommend 30 minutes of exercise 5 days a week. If Phil Griess R.P. you watch TV, get up during commercials and walk around the house, go up the stairs or march in place. Doing this during a 2 hour program will fulfill the recommended 30 minutes for the day. Be sure to check with your doctor before starting any exercise program.

Shapiro wins award

The United States Achievement the school. Academy has announced that Nathan A. Shapiro of Wayne has been named a United States National Award winner in Band.

He was also named an All-American Scholar which requires a 3.3 GPA or above.

This award is a prestigious honor very few students can ever hope to attain. In fact, the Academy recognizes fewer than 10 percent of all

Nathan Shapiro

American high school students. Nathan, who graduated from Wayne High School in May, was nominated for this national award

His name will appear in the United States Achievement Academy Official Yearbook, which is published nationally.

. Nathan will be attending the University of Nebraska at Lincoln this fall in the E.N. Thompson Scholars Learning Community.

"Recognizing and supporting our youth is more important than ever before in America's history. United Certainly, States Achievement Academy winners should be congratulated and appreciated for their dedication to excellence and achievement," said Dr. George Stevens, Executive Director of the United States Achievement Academy.

The Academy selects USSA winners upon the exclusive recommendation of teachers, coaches, counselors and other qualified sponsors and upon the Standards of Selection set forth by the Academy. The criteria for selection are a student's academic performance, interest and aptitude, leadership qualities, responsibility, enthusiasm, motivation to learn and improve, citizenship, attitude and cooperative spirit, dependability and recommendation from a teacher or director.

Nathan is the son of Charles and Joan Sudmann Shapiro. His grandparents are Henry Sudmann of Wayne, Edith Shapiro of Ossining, N.Y. and Bernard Shapiro of by Brad Weber, band instructor at Anderson, S.C.

the Sioux City Country Club. This award banquet recognized volunteer blood donors who reached 10, 15, 20, 25, 30, 35 and 40 gallon donation levels from January 1, 2004 to March 15, 2005.

Guest speaker for the event was Irene Mueller, a former blood drive coordinator from Pender, who also was a blood recipient. Irene used many units of blood during her surgery and shared her story at the of many patients" said Janette Twait, CEO of the Siouxland Community Blood Bank. "These donors donated a total of 15,600 pints of blood which in itself is remarkable".

Blood donors were recognized from many communities. The local communities were: Allen, Carroll, Wakefield, Wayne. Ten gallon blood donors recognized were Donna Stalling, Allen; Milton Owens, Carroll; Michael

We go towards what we focus on, what's wrong and focus on what is

If you want your children to do Since you can only focus on one better you don't point out what thing at a time and you go towards they did wrong, you focus on their what you can focus on, where do strengths. As adults, we all know you want to spend your energy? we try harder for a boss who focus-As a parent, how do you get past es on our accomplishments instead

Amy Topp Extension Educator 4-H & Youth

Remember, we go toward what we focus on, so if we as parents are contantly focusing on what is wrong, where are our children going to focus? Exactly. On what is wrong? Which child will do better in a basketball game, one who is focusing on not making a mistake or one who is focusing on the ball? Every day this week, ask your child forward focus questions. It might be slow going at first, but keep at it.

Some examples of forward focus questions are:

 What is the best thing that happened to you today?

 What did you do better today than you've ever done before?

• What was special about - the party, the concert, special speaker, • Why is (friend, event, situta-tion) special to you? What do you think we should

How can we solve this prob-

• What do you think would hap pen if we did it this way?

HEALTH FACTS

From your Local Homecare Nurses Coronary Artery Disease (CAD) occurs when arteries that supply blood to the heart muscle become hardened and narrowed due to the build-up of plaque on the inner walls or linings of the arteries. This causes decreased oxygen and blood flow to the heart muscle. When blood flow and oxygen are cut off you can experience angina, which is chest pain or discomfort and/or a heart attack. Over time, CAD can weaken your heart muscle and contribute to heart failure and/or changes in the normal rhythm of your heart beat. CAD is the most common type of heart disease. It is the leading cause of death

Passion. This is the single best word I have for riding horses. Really, it takes more than just passion; it takes patience, hard work and perseverance. Being in 4-H for six years has really taught me a lot about these things and even more. Without 4-H, I wouldn't have been able to show my true passion for horses. With horses you have the power to teach them something new, and that is an awarding expe-

The 4-H Teen Supremes in need to learn from your mistakes. I events, such as western pleasure, reining, barrel racing, pole bending, showmanship, horsemanship, tail and western riding.

This year, with the encouragement of some great mentors, who were former 4-Hers and my present 4-H leader who is involved with horses, I have taken on the challenge of working with a twoyear-old horse so I can compete in the snaffle bit class at the State 4-H Show in Grand Island.

Being involved with 4-H has given me confidence, not just in 4-H but in other activities as well. I have learned that it never hurts to ask questions, and seek advice from others, and then to be able to pass on what I have learned to a younger 4-H member is what I think 4-H is really about, learning to help others and building your own confidence at the same time. Though I have been involved in other activities such as fashion, cooking, and art while I've been in 4-H, I really think that horses are what have built my confidence and taught me life-long values.

4-H is a rewarding experience and I would encourage any younger people who are interested to join. I

Poehlman named as US National Award winner

The United States Achievement Academy has announced that Todd Poehlman of Wayne has been named a United States National Award winner in Band.

This award is a prestigious honor very few students can ever hope to attain. In fact, the Academy recognizes fewer than 10 percent of all American high school students.

Todd, who attends Wayne High School, was nominated for this national award by Brad Weber, band director at the school.

His name will appear in the Cake servers were Patty Potts of United States Achievement Academy Official Yearbook, which is published nationally.

"Recognizing and supporting our youth is more important than ever The bride is presently a K-12 before in America's history. Certainly, ${f United}$ Achievement Academy winners should be congratulated and appreciated for their dedication to excellence and achievement," said Dr. Following a wedding trip to George Stevens, Executive Director of the United States Achievement Academy.

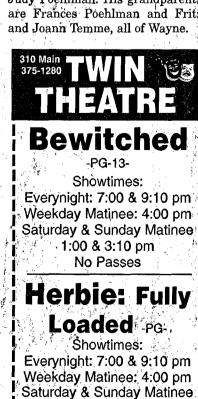

The Academy selects USSA winners upon the exclusive recommendation of teachers, coaches, counselors and other qualified sponsors and upon the Standards of Selection set forth by the Academy.

Todd Poehlman

The criteria for selection are a student's academic performance, interest and aptitude, leadership qualities, responsibility, enthusiasm, motivation to learn and improve, citizenship, attitude and cooperative spirit, dependability and recommendation from a teacher or director.

Todd is the son of Richard and Judy Poehlman. His grandparents are Frances Poehlman and Fritz

Midsummer Crop Diagnostic Clinic Offered in Mead

MEAD, Neb. -- Agribusiness professionals and crop producers will take a close-up look at field conditions, research and techniques at the University of Nebraska-Lincoln's midsummer Crop Management Diagnostic Clinics July 14-15.

The UNL Extension clinics begin each day with 7:30 a.m. registration at the Agricultural Research and Development Center near Mead and start at 8 a.m. Participants can attend one or both of the clinics as subject matter will be different

Topics on July 14 include: corn plant distribution -- population, twin rows and equidistance; corn rootworm technology; hands-on crop scene investigation (CSI); diagnostic lab update; Liberty Link vs. Roundup Ready weed control system; relay cropping

- wheat and soybeans; and soybean rust. Topics on July 15 include: occasional tillage for improvement of no-till systems and crop nutritional disorders; managing irrigation for maximum profits; root dynamics; corn nitrogen credits; hands-on crop scene investigation; nutrient management tools; and water optimizer software demonstration.

Presenters include UNL extension educators and specialists.

Early registration is recommended to reserve a seat and resource materials. Cost for attending one clinic is $130 for those registering by July 7 and $180 after. Cost for attending both clinics is $225 before July 7 and $275 after.

Certified Crop Advisor credits are anticipated with 2 in crop management, 4 in crop protection for July 14, 2 in nutrient management and 4 in soil and water management for July 15. For more information or to register, contact the ARDC at CMDC Programs, 1071 County Road G, Ithaca, NE 68033, call (800) 529-8030, fax (402) 624-8010, e-mail cdunbar2@unl.edu or visit the Web at http://ardc.unl.edu/training.htm.

Other summer Crop Management Diagnostic Clinics include late season training Aug. 24 and yield monitor training Sept. 7. UNL Extension is in the Institute of Agriculture and Natural Resources.

BE IT ORDAINED by the Mayor and the Council of the City of Wayne, Nebraska: ... Section 1. That Sections 78-251 through 78-262.05, Chapter 78, Article V, Division 2 of Wayne Municipal Code are amended as fol-TRAFFIC AND VEHICLES $ 78-251

DIVISION 2. DRIVING UNDER THE INFLU-ENCE OF ALCOHOLIC LIQUOR OR DRUGS*

Sec. 78-251. Driving under influence of alcoholic liquor or drug; penalties. (1) It shall be unlawful for any person to operate or be in the actual physical control of any motor vehicle: (a) While under the influence of alcoholic liquor or of any drug; (b) When such person has a concentration of eight-hundredths of one gram or more by weight of alcohol per 100 milliliters of his or her blood; or (c) When such person has a concentration of eight-hundredths of one gram or more by weight of alcohol per 210 liters of his or her

(2) Any person who operates or is in the actual physical control of any motor vehicle while in a condition described in subsection (1) of this section shall be guilty of a crime and upon conviction punished as provided in sections 78-252.02 to 78-

State law reference -R.R.S. 2004. § 60-6,196 Sec. 78-252. Driving under influence of alcoholic liquor or drugs; implied consent to submit to chemical test; when test administered; refusal; penalty. (1) Any person who operates or has in his or her actual physical control a motor vehicle in this state shall be deemed to have given his or her consent to submit to a chemical test or tests of his or her blood, breath, or urine for the purpose of determining the concentration of alcohol or the presence of drugs in such blood,

(2) Any peace officer who has been duly authorized to make arrests for violations of traffic laws of this state or of ordinances of the city may require any person arrested for any offense arising out o acts alleged to have been committed while the person was driving or was in actual physical control of a motor vehicle while under the influence of alcoholic liquor or drugs to submit to a chemical test or tests of his or her blood, breath, or urine for the purpose of determining the concentration of alcohol or the presence of drugs in such blood, breath or urine when the officer has reasonable grounds to believe that such person was driving or was in the actual physical control of a motor vehicle in this state while under the influence of alcoholic liquor or drugs in violation of section 78-251.

(3) Any person arrested as described in subsection (2) of this section may, upon the direction of a peace officer, be required to submit to a chemical test or tests of his or her blood, breath or urine for a determination of the concentration of alcohol or the presence of drugs. If the chemical test discloses the presence of a concentration of alcohol in violation of subsection (1) of section 78-251 the person shall be subject to the administration revocation procedures provided in R.R.S 2004, §§ 60-498.01 to 60-498.04 and upon conviction shall be punished as provided in section 78-252.02 to 78-252.04. Any person who refuses to submit to such test or tests required pursuant to this section shall be subject to the administrative revocation procedures provided in R.R.S 2004, §§ 60-498.01 to 60-498.04 and shall be guilty of a crime and upon conviction punished as provided in sections

78-252.02 to 78-252.04. (4) Any person involved in a motor vehicle accident in this state may be required to submit to a chemical test of his or her blood, breath or urine by any peace officer if the officer has reasonable grounds , to believe that the person was driving or was in actual physical control of a motor vehicle on a public highway in this state while under the influence of alcoholic liquor or drugs at the time of the accident. A person involved in a motor vehicle accident subject to the implied consent law of this state shall not be deemed to have withdrawn consent to submit to a chemical test of his or her blood, breath or uring by reason of leaving this state. If the person refuses a test under this section and leaves the state for any reason following an accident, he or she shall remain sub ject to subsection (3) of this section and R.R.S. 2004, § 60-498.02 upon return.

(5) Any person who is required to submit to a chemical blood, breath or urine test or tests pursuant to this section shall be advised that refusal to submit to such test or tests is a separate crime for which the person may be charged.

(6) Refusal to submit to a chemical blood, breath or urine test or tests pursuant to this section shall be admissible evidence in any action for a violation of section 78-251, a violation of state law, or any city ordinance enacted in conformance with such section.

State law reference - Similar provisions,

R.R.S. 2004, §60-6,197. Sec. 78-252.01. Driving under influence of alcoholic liquor or drug; second and subsequent violations; restrictions on motor vehicles. Upon conviction for a second or subsequent violation of section 78-251 or 78-252, the court shall impose either of the following restrictions on all motor vehicles owned by the person so convicted:

(1)(a) The court shall order the motor vehicle or motor vehicles immobilized at the owner's expense for a period of time not less than five days and not more than eight months and shall notify the Department of Motor Vehicles of the period of immobilization. Any immobillized motor vehicle shall be released to the holder of a bona fide lien on the motor vehicle executed prior to such immobilization when possession of the motor vehicle is requested as provided by law by such lien holder for purposes of foreclosing and satisfying such lien. If a person tows and stores a motor vehicle pursuant to this subdivision at the direction of a peace officer or the court and has a lien upon such motor vehicle while it is in his or her possession for reasonable towing and storage charges, the person towing the vehicle has the right to retain such motor vehicle until such lien is paid. For purposes of this subdivision, immobilized or immobilization means revocation or suspension, at the discretion of the court, of the registration of such motor vehicle or motor vehicles, including the license plates: and (b)(i) Any immobilized motor vehicle shall be released by the court without any legal or physical restraints to any regis tered owner who is not the registered owner convicted of a second or subseguent violation of section 78-251 or 78-

252 if an affidavit is submitted to the court by such registered owner stating that the affiant is employed, that the motor vehicle subject to immobilization is necessary to continue that employment, that such employment is necessary for the well-being of the affiant's dependent children or parents, that the affiant will not authorize the use of the motor vehicle by any person known by the affiant to have been convicted of a second or subsequent violation of section 78-251 or 78-252, that affiant will immediately report to a local law enforcement agency any unauthorized use of the motor vehicle by any person known by the affiant to have been convicted of a second or subsequent conviction of section 78-251 or 78-252, and that failure to release the motor vehicle would cause undue hardship to the affi-

(ii) A registered owner who executes an affidavit pursuant to subdivision (1)(b)(i) of this section which is acted upon by the court and who fails to immediately report an unauthorized use of the motor vehicle which is the subject of the affidavit is quilty of a crime and upon conviction will be fined up to $500.00, with a mandatory minimum fine of $100.00, and may not file any additional affidavits pursuant to subdivision (1)(b)(i) of this

(iii) The Department of Motor Vehicles shall adopt and promulgate rules and regulations to implement the provisions of subdivision (1) of this section; or

(2) As an alternative to subdivision (1) of this section, the court shall order the installation of an ignition interlock device on each of the owner's motor vehicles if the owner was sentenced to an operator's license revocation of at least one year and has completed at least one year of such revocation. No license reinstatement may occur until sufficient evidence is presented to the Department of Motor Vehicles, that an ignition interlock device is installed on each vehicle and that the applicant is eligible for use of an ignition interlock device. The installation of an ignition interlock device shall be for a period not less than six months commencing upon the end of such year of the operator's license revocation. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, if the owner was convicted of a second or subsequent violation of section 78-251 or 78-252, no ignition interlock device shall be ordered by any court or state agency under any circumstances until at least one year of the operator's license revocation shall

(C) Any conviction under a law of another . state if, at the time of the conviction under the law of such other state the offense for which the person was convicted would have been a violation of section 78-252;

(b) Prior conviction includes any conviction under R.R.S. 2004 §§ 60-6,196, 60-6,197, or 60-6,198, or any city ordinance enacted in conformance with any of such sections, as such sections or city ordinances existed at the time of such conviction regardless of subsequent amendments to any of such sections or city ordinances; and (c) Twelve-year period means the period computed from the date of the prior offense to the date of the offense which resulted in the conviction for which the sentence is being imposed. (2) In any case charging a violation of section 78-251 or 78-252, the prosecutor or investigating agency shall use due diligence to obtain the person's driving record from the Department of Motor Vehicles and the person's driving record from other states where he or she is known to have resided within the last twelve years. The prosecutor shall certify to the court, prior to sentencing, that such action has been taken. The prosecutor shall present as evidence for purposes of sentence enhancement an authenticated copy of a prior conviction in another state. The authenticated copy shall be prima facie evidence of such prior conviction. (3) For each conviction for a violation of section 78-251 or 78-252, the court shall, as part of the judgment of conviction, make a finding on the record as to the number of the convicted person's prior convictions. The convicted person shall be given the opportunity to review the record of his or her prior convictions, bring mitigating facts to the attention of the court prior to sentencing, and make objections on the record regarding the validity of such prior convictions.

Any person convicted of a violation of section 78-251 or 78-252 shall be punished as fol-

(1) If such person has not had a prior conviction, such person shall be imprisoned for a maximum of 60 days and fined $500.00, with a mandatory minimum sentence of seven days imprisonment and a $400.00 fine; and the court shall, as part of the judgment of conviction, order such person not to drive any motor vehicle for any purpose for a period of six months from the date ordered by the court and shall order that the operator's license of such person be revoked for a like period. Such revocation shall be administered upon sentencing, upon final judgment of any appeal or review, or upon the date that any probation is revoked.

If the court places such person on probation or suspends the sentence for any reason, the court shall, as one of the conditions of probation or sentence suspension, order such person not to drive any motor vehicle for any purpose for a period of sixty days from the date ordered by the court unless otherwise authorized by an order issued pursuant to section 78-262.05, and such order of probation shall also include, as one of its conditions, the payment of a four-hundred-dollar fine;

(2) If such person has had one prior conviction, such person shall be imprisoned for a maximum of 90 days and fined $500.00, with a mandatory minimum sentence of 30 days imprisonment and a $500.00 fine; and the court shall, as part of the judgment of conviction, order such person not to drive any motor vehicle for any purpose for a period of one year from the date ordered by the court, shall order that the operator's license of such person be revoked for a like period and shall issue an order pursuant to sed tion 78-252.01 with respect to all motor vehicles owned by such person. Such orders shall be administered upon sentencing, upon final ludgment of any appeal or review, or upon the date that any probation is revoked. If the court places such person on probation or suspends the sentence for any reason, the court shall, as one of the conditions of probation or sentence suspension, order such person not to drive any motor vehicle for any purpose for a period of one year from the date ordered by the court unless otherwise authorized by an order issued pursuant to section 78-262.05 and shall issue an order pursuant to section 78-252.01 respect to all motor vehicles owned by such person, and such order of probation shall also include, as conditions, the payment of a five-hundreddollar fine and either confinement in the city or county jail for five days or the imposition of not less than two hundred forty hours of community service;

(3) If such person has had two prior convictions, such person shall be imprisoned for a maximum of one year and fined $600.00, with a mandatory minimum sentence of 90 days imprisonment and a $600.00 fine; and the court shall, as part of the judgment of conviction, order such person not to drive any motor vehicle for any purpose for a period of fifteen years from the date ordered by the court, shall order that the operator's license of such person be revoked for a tike period, and shall issue an order oursuant to section 78-252.01 with respect to all motor vehicles owned by such per-"son. Such orders shall be administered upon sentencing, upon final judgment of 13 service: and (4) If such person has had three or more prior convictions, such person shall be imprisoned for a maximum of five years and fined $10,000, or both, with no mandatory minimum sentence, and the court shall, as part of the judgment of conviction, order such person not to drive any motor vehicle for any purpose for a period of fifteen years from the date ordered by the court, shall order that the operator's license of such person be revoked for a like period, and shall issue an order pursuant to section 78-252.01 with respect to all motor vehicles owned by such person. Such orders shall be administered upon sentencing, upon final judgment of any appeal or review, or upon the date that any probation is revoked. The court shall also sentence such person to serve at least ten days imprisonment in the city or county jail or an adult correctional facility.

If the court places such person on probation or suspends the sentence for any reason, the court shall, as one of the conditions of probation or sentence suspension, order such person not to drive any motor vehicle for any purpose for a period of one year from the date ordered by the court and shall order that the operator's license of such person be suspended for a like period unless otherwise authorized by an order issued pursuant to 78-262.05 and shall issue an order pursuant to section 78-252.01 with respect to all motor vehicles owned by such person, and such order of probation shall also include, as conditions, the payment of a $1,000.00 fine and either confinement in the city or county jail for 10 days or the imposition of not less than 480 hours of community service. (5) Sentences of imprisonment for subsections (1), (2), and (3) under this section shall be served in the county jail except that in the following circumstances the court may, in its discretion, order that such sentences be served in institutions under the jurisdiction of the Department of Correctional Services:

(a) If the sentence is to be served concurrently or consecutively with a term for conviction of a felony; or (b) If the Department Correctional Services has certified as provided in R.R.S. § 28-105 as to the availability of facilities and programs for short-term prisoners and the sentence is for a term of six months or more; and (6) All sentences of imprisonment under subsection (4) of this section for one year or more shall be served in institutions under the jurisdiction of the Department of Correctional Services. Sentences of imprisonment under subsection (4) of this section for less than one year shall be served in the county jail except as provided in this subsection. If the Department certifies that it has programs and facilities available for persons sentenced to terms of less than one year, the court may order that any sentence of six months or more be served in any institution under the jurisdiction of the Department. Any such certification shall be given by the Department to the State Court Administrator, who shall forward copies thereof to each judge having juris diction to sentence under subsection (4)
