False fire alarm issue discussed

By Clara Osten
Of the Herald

In a meeting that lasted more than four hours, the Wayne City Council listened to a jail feasibility study, learned about the definition of 'blighted and substandard' and discussed fines for fire alarms that turn out to be false.

Prior to the regular meeting, the council met with the Wayne County Commissioners and listened to the results of a jail feasibility study which was presented by Dan Williamson.

Williamson gave the council and commissioners a packet with information on his findings in such areas as current jail usage, projections for the next 20 years and projections for costs to the county/city with a jail and without a jail.

He told the council that the average stay for an inmate in Wayne County is 12.4 days and stated he likes the current system being used of "arrest, process and bond out." This keeps jailing costs down.

Currently, the Wayne County, Wayne Police Department and Nebraska State Patrol arrestees go to the Wayne County jail system and most often use the Pierce County jail.

Williamson said that should the county decide to build a jail, it would take 18-24 months to build and it should "be run as a very competitive business. The director would need to be aggressive toward getting

Ray and Jessica Olson

Olson was forced to leave New Orleans

By Clara Osten
Of the Herald

Calling it a 'silver lining,' Jessica Olson will have one family member closer to home, thanks to Hurricane Katrina.

Jessica's son, Ray, a 2003 graduate of Wayne High School, is currently a junior at Loyola University in New Orleans. Her husband, Leif, and daughter, Katie, recently left Wayne with the 189th Transportation Company of the Nebraska National Guard.

Ray was to start classes in New Orleans on Monday, Aug. 29. However, on Saturday, Aug. 27 he and the eight others who lived in the same house with him, were told to leave the area.

"Loyola is uptown, near the Garden District, in New Orleans. My house is about a mile from the school and I live on the second floor, so I'm not really worried about water hurting my stuff," Ray said.

He noted that the area he lives in wasn't flooded as badly as other parts of town. He has talked to several people in New Orleans since leaving, but most are gone so he does not know the status of his belongings.

When Ray left New Orleans, he and several others traveled to Daphne, which is the home of his girlfriend's family. It is a small town outside of Mobile, Ala., which is about 2 1/2 hours from New Orleans.

"We packed enough clothes for three days, but ended up staying there for a week and a half. At that time, the school announced it would be closed," Ray said.

At that time, Ray was forced to make a decision on what to do in the immediate future.

Ray said one of the reasons he and his friends packed lightly is that the area in which he lives has not been hit by a hurricane since 1965 and they had been in New Orleans last year during Hurricane Ivan. Olson flew out of Pensacola, Fla. because the Mobile, Ala. airport was still closed and flew into Kansas City where his mother picked him up.

"The University of Nebraska said they would take students from the hurricane area. Although there is no way to get my records, I will be able to match classes as closely as possible to what I was going to take. I will be living with my friend Kyle Triggs while I am in Lincoln," Ray said.

He started classes on Sept. 12 and said he will have some catching up to do as classes at the University started on Aug. 22.

Ray also said another Loyola student is taking classes at UNL and he hopes to be in contact with her soon.

Jessica said that since people have learned of her situation, they have been very generous.

"Ray's car is in a parking garage in New Orleans and we have no way to get it. Glen's Auto Body has very generously loaned us a car to use for two months. We can't thank them enough," she said.

She also said that after being interviewed by a UNL newspaper, a woman in California learned of Ray's situation and offered him an apartment in Lincoln for the semester.

Ray had a job in the French Quarter of New Orleans and is hoping to find a job in Lincoln while he is here.

Ray plans to return to New Orleans when he is able to and will return to classes at Loyola when he is able.

Jessica is "thrilled Ray is safe and glad to have him closer to home, even if it just for a short time. I hope I will be able to see him more often."

Ray said he would rather be in New Orleans, but "I'm glad to be in a comfortable environment."

Main Street Focus

Congratulations to the Collaboration Committee whose individual members contributed so much time, energy and talent to pull together the Chamber, Wayne Industries and Main Street Wayne to form the Wayne Area Economic Development Corporation, Inc. (WAEDC).

We are optimistic that many of their members who now sit on the Board of WAEDC will continue the work of placing economic development in the Wayne area in the forefront. In the viewpoint of this correspondent, this action was need to pull the community together to move in the same direction.

Hats off goes to all the Main Street Wayne volunteers who were responsible for the awards that the Main Street Program captured at last week's Nebraska Lied Main Street Annual Fall Conference. Much more will be written about these awards in another article in today's paper so be sure to read about them and the success they bring to Wayne. A fine group of Main Street volunteers attended the conference and learned a great deal about the various operations and strength of the Main Street Program in Nebraska and in the United States.

It was a pleasure to hear the presenters talk about the various facets of Main Street and to give examples of how Main Street is succeeding in Nebraska and in the United States. Nebraska Main Street has many partners and provides many opportunities for its programs to get help and advice. Maxine Moul of the Nebraska Community Foundation and a Nebraska Main Street Board member told us how to capitalize on the use of the Nebraska Community Foundation. R. James Pearson, Transportation Enhancement Program Administrator with the Nebraska Department of Roads, explained the department's partnership with Main Street. The UNL School of Architecture explained how we can use them for help with our store fronts - the Dean, Dr. Wayne Drummond, is the president of the Nebraska Main Street Board.

But the proudest moment was when Lt. Governor Rick Sheehy spoke at the Awards Dinner. You could hear the pride in his voice and see it in his face as he read a statistical analysis of the Nebraska Lied Main Street Program. I wasn't able to capture all the statistics he provided, but because he repeated the following two statistics, I will share them with you. In the 10 years of the program, total community reinvestment went from $5 million to $52 million and total investment per $1 spent for local Main Street Programs is $16.89 - how about those figures to prove the worth of Main Street Programs in Nebraska? No wonder he was so proud of the money the state is investing in keeping the Nebraska Lied Main Street Program alive.

In future articles I will get into more detail about some of these programs that we were exposed to at the conference. I will address the help with storefronts in the next article because I am sure that there are merchants in Wayne who would use this program if they knew more about it. Tourism in Nebraska and especially in our downtown areas was a major part of the conference. We were lucky to have Todd Kirshenbaum who is with the Nebraska Department of Economic Development, Division of Travel and Tourism and David Snitily, founder and president of Snitily Carr Advertising Agency. They shared with us numerous travel and tourism stats and ideas for events and travel packages for our towns.

In addition, we got to see the best of Gothenburg and Lexington through walking tours. Gothenburg is one of the oldest Main Street Programs in Nebraska and they have made great progress in their community. Lexington has been a Main Street Program for three years and they are making progress - this is a town to visit to see how they have redone their Main Street and to get ideas for doing alleyways.

In closing, I would like to tell everybody that we are getting a new business on Main Street. Locating on the east side of the 100 block of Main Street will be Plain Jane's, a craft store. Many of us know Jane and area familiar with the wonderful crafts she makes and sells and we are excited that she has chosen Main Street for her new store. She anticipates being opened by WSC Homecoming weekend. One of the things we did notice in Gothenburg and Lexington was the number of home-grown businesses they had - stores that many of our own citizens can think about possibly starting in Wayne. How about a new and used book store? Is this the only college town I lived in that didn't have a bicycle shop? Anyone ready to open a Radio Shack store? Got any other ideas and need some help? Contact Chuck Parker and Tony Kochenash, co-chairs of our Economic Restructuring Committee - they will be glad to help.

The upcoming primary elections will serve more than one purpose for Nebraskans.

The University of Nebraska football season will end in January. If you are a pessimist, go ahead and figure it will end prior to the New Year.

Either way, electioneering will increase by degrees when 2008 arrives.

The campaigns, particularly the scrap for the GOP nomination for governor, will offer a diversion for those whose mental health might be improved by finding something to criticize other than Big Red football and Coach Bill Callahan.

What if Nebraska goes to a bowl and wins?

It doesn't matter. Callahan and Athletic Director Steve Pederson will get knocked because NU didn't go to a bigger bowl game.

The reason campaigns as therapy could take hold? Mostly because former Nebraska football coach Tom Osborne wants the Republican nomination for governor. So does incumbent Governor Dave Heineman. Osborne is leaving his post as Congressman for the 3rd District.

A recent poll showed Osborne's huge lead over Heineman among Republican voters has diminished. It could be a close race.

Might Osborne get "nostalgia votes" if Nebraska has another lousy football season?

Could Heineman successfully argue that governors, like quarterbacks, are usually better when they have had some experience?

How long will it take for editors and readers to threaten violence upon reporters who continuously stretch their imaginations to come up with football analogies for the campaign?

Whatever the nature of the campaign, Osborne is likely to be a draw for some voters. As in his days as mentor to the Huskers, it isn't likely that many voters will be ambiguously about him.

Nebraskan Shane Osborn might be thinking more seriously about seeking the GOP nomination for the U.S. Senate.

The same poll of Republicans showed Osborn running not far from former Attorney General Don Stenberg among Republican voters. Osborn was the Navy pilot who landed his plane safely in China after a mid-air bumping by a Chinese fighter jet.

Osborn previously said he was interested in a Senate post. Still, he has not declared his candidacy.

A good many municipalities continue to tighten the budget belt in order to hold the line on local tax rates, or limit any tax increases that are necessary to meet mandated needs.

The mayor of North Platte imposed a city hiring freeze on the same night that some taxpayers showed up as the city council prepared to finalize the town's next budget.

The mayor said he would look for additional cuts in operating expenses.

In Alliance, the sheriff of Box Butte County was told he would not get the new motor vehicles and budget increases he sought.

Commissioner budget decisions previously forced layoffs in the sheriff's department and the offices of the county attorney, treasurer and assessor.

The county board was not moved by the sheriff's assertion that some of his department's vehicles were in such bad shape that they represent a danger to deputies.

A recent survey showed that Nebraskans are paying more for gasoline than other states in the region.

U.S. Senator Ben Nelson has called for a federal probe into whether there has been profiteering in the wake of Hurricane Katrina.

Katrina cleanup

Dear Editor,
Here are some things I learned on the Internet between Sept. 5 and Sept. 10:

1) Haliburton, who has made huge profits on contracts in Iraq, has already been awarded three Katrina cleanup contracts.

2) The billions appropriated by Congress for Katrina cleanup must, by law, be administered by FEMA. FEMA's director Brown was previously fired because he was "a disaster" when he tried to run Arabian horse shows. (Can this be much harder than, say, running the Wayne Chicken Show?)

3) The White House has issued an Executive Order suspending application of the minimum wage law during Katrina cleanup operations. In short, more money for Haliburton!

Thanks for the support

Dear Editor,
On Sept. 5, 2005, the Wayne Eagles Auxiliary and the Wayne Volunteer Firemen held the second annual "Fill the Boot" event to benefit the Muscular Dystrophy Association.

This event was held at the Pamida parking lot from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. I am pleased to announce that they had another incredible day of giving from the Wayne community and raised over $1,300. Last year's event raised $1,000.

Our son, Zachary, has Duchenne Muscular Dystrophy and receives assistance from the Muscular Dystrophy Association in the form of clinic visits every six months, MDA summer camp and research to find a cure for his disease. Our family is very grateful for the support of this community and the many volunteers who put forth time and energy to make this event a success. Thank you to everyone who stopped to make a donation of help with this event in any way.

Zachary appeared on the Jerry Lewis MDA telethon in Lincoln on Labor Day; therefore, we were unable to attend the event in Wayne. He held his own fund raising campaign and collected $452 in pledges which he presented to MDA at the telethon. Thank you to all of our friends, relatives, neighbors and co-workers who made a donation to Zach and helped him raise such an incredible amount of money.

With everything going on in the world, it is nice to know you can still count on so many individuals to donate to the Muscular Dystrophy Association. We continue to hope for a cure to Duchenne Muscular Dystrophy and the many other neuromuscular diseases that affect so many people. Your donations may answer our prayers for a cure.

Sincerely,
Joel, Shelly, Zachary and Gunnar Jorgensen,

Goodwill offers thanks

Dear Editor,

Heroes are everywhere

Dear Editor,
If you watch television it is easy to get the impression that "heroes are make believe. The amazing thing is that heroes surround you every day. They are the people who are rolling up their sleeves and donating blood.

Giving blood is a life saving miracle. Ask anyone who has received it. Every day volunteer blood donors ensure that patient needs are being met, one donation at a time. Without volunteer blood donors, countless lives would be lost.

The Siouxland Community Blood Bank wishes to thank everyone who gave the gift of life during our visits to the Wayne area in August. We registered a total of 153 donors and collected 146 units of life saving blood. We also recruited 13 new donors!

The following donors deserve special recognition for reaching gallon milestones during the month: 12 gallons-H. Harley Greve; nine gallons-Dorothy Cull and Lonnie Ehrhardt; seven gallons-Donald Hyspe; six gallons-Carol Willers; five gallons-Deborah Litchfield; four gallons-Leon Svoboda, Sharyn Hofer, Joann Driesen and Steven Bogaard; three gallons-Jennifer Nelson and Julie Moeller; two gallons-Shelly Schultz and Dallas Dorey; one gallon-Carol Sharpnack and Marvene Ekberg.

A special Thank You to the following businesses and churches for allowing us the use of their facilities: First National Service Center, Ameritas Group, Winside Public Library, City of Wayne Employees, Wayne Fire Department, Michael Foods of Wakefield and Wakefield Christian Church.

Donating blood regularly is the only way to guarantee that it will be available when needed. Your participation in the blood drives is greatly appreciated!

Sincerely,

Hurricane relief benefit concert set for Sept. 19

The public is invited to attend a Hurricane Katrina benefit concert Monday, Sept. 19 at 8 p.m. in Ramsey Theatre on the Wayne State College campus.

The concert, organized by the Wayne State music department, will feature instrumental and vocal selections by Wayne State students, faculty and community members.

Vocal selections performed by the WSC madrigal singers and choir will include works by Ralph Vaughan Williams, Henry Purcell, Randall Thompson and Aaron Copland, among others. Both groups are directed by Ron Lofgren.

The Dixieland band features Tracy Anderson, David Bohnert, Linda Christensen, Frank Gazda, Keith Kopperud, Jay O'Leary and Brad Weber, who also directs the group. The WSC Wildcat marching band is directed by Bohnert; Gazda is the assistant director. Also performing will be Emily Brufat, who will play a piano solo featuring the music of George Gershwin.

"The idea for the concert came about when some of the music faculty were discussing the plight of those affected by the hurricane," said Lofgren. "Someone mentioned the benefit concert Harry Connick, Jr. had just announced, and we started thinking that perhaps we could do the same thing here. The idea was presented to the rest of the faculty, who enthusiastically jumped on board. It was only natural to designate the Red Cross as the beneficiary of the donations."

Admission is free, but a collection will be taken for the American Red Cross. Checks should be made payable to the American Red Cross Disaster Relief Fund.

"Blue Devil" Night presented at 6 p.m. that evening by the WSC admissions office for Wayne High School juniors, seniors and their parents will conclude in time for those who wish to attend the benefit concert.

Other Wayne State College hurricane relief activities include a fund drive coordinated by the president's office, which has raised more than $2,100 to date; a date auction for a benefit dinner coordinated by Wayne State residence hall assistants (RAs); and a clothing and supplies drive by students and staff members in WSC residence halls.

This year's budget is $380,673 less than taxed last year. One reason is an increase in valuation from $336 million to $358 million and a reduction in the bond payment due to refinancing the bond.

Supt. Dr. Joe Reinert noted teacher wage negotiations are not settled yet but he feels there is enough in the budget to take care of an increase.

Kelly Kenny took oath to be the new Wayne Community Schools Board of Education member. She replaces Richard Metteer who moved to Lincoln. She will complete a three year term vacated by Metteer.

Several personnel were hired: Jane Ahmann, part time special education paraprofessional, Kay Domsch, full time kitchen staff, Kristine Fink, speech coach assistant, Tom Karch, part time kitchen staff.

The board voted on and approved the 2005-06 budget. They also voted on and approved the tax request.

Monetary gifts were received and acknowledged from Pamida Foundation for elementary school supplies, and also from Hillier-Herman Chiropractic Clinic for elementary school supplies.

Future agenda items include discussion on ACT testing, and a review of the draft on High Ability Learners (HAL).

The next regular meeting of the Wayne Community Schools Board of Education will be held Monday, Oct. 10 at 7 p.m. at the Wayne High School.

ordinance. Wayne State College President Dr. Richard Collins spoke to the council and said the college has been working on the problem of false alarms from the college for some time and an ordinance would not solve anything.

He said the college currently has two things happening, "every college has kids pulling alarms and an electronic system glitches."

Wayne Fire Chief Tom Mittel said that from Jan. 1 through Aug. 23, Wayne State College had 30 alarms, 20 of which had some cause and 10 which were 'phantom.'

"This means the system is not working 33 percent of the time."

Mittel also noted that due to the frequency of calls, the moral of the department has declined. He said Fireman's Association has made a request that fines be implemented for those having more than three false alarms in a six-month period.

The council also amended the city zoning map to allow for a request from Dave Zach to rezone property at Fourth and Logan Streets from R-3 to B-3.

Zach plans to construct a laundry mat similar to the one he currently owns at Sixth and Windom Street. The laundry mat Zach currently owns on South Main Street would be converted to be a part of Zach's plumbing and heating business.

A liquor license was granted to William Melena who recently purchased the White Dog Pub.

The council listened to a presentation by Brian Kesting on a sound system for the council chambers that would allow for broadcast of council meetings.

He gave some estimates of costs and was asked to check into having some of the equipment put in on a trial basis.

The council also waived the three readings and created a handicapped parking stall on the west side of First Presbyterian Church.

The council will next meet in regular session on Tuesday, Sept. 27.

City Administrator Johnson told the council that the proposed ordinance was copied from a Kearney ordinance.

Considering the costs and benefits of credit as a college student

Credit can be a blessing or a hindrance. Establishing a credit history is important and being without a credit card can be limiting. You can't reserve a hotel room, purchase on-line or over the telephone. However, if you let your credit use get out of hand, you could be suffering the consequences for years to come.

When you go to college for the first time, you will be bombarded with hundreds of offers for quick credit, promising free airfare, gas and much more. It may be difficult to resist the lure of immediate accumulation of the things you would like to have. As a student, it can be difficult to know how much credit you can manage.

Remember that credit card companies make most of their money from interest. (That's the money you pay for the convenience of carrying a balance.) Many students get into serious financial trouble by mismanaging credit. Some will drop out of school or will spend the first several years of their new careers paying off debt instead of establishing a new home and life.

If you and your parents plan for you to use a credit card you need to establish your limit and a strategy for use before you receive the card. Steps to managing your credit effectively include: Own only one card. Set your minimum balance low ($500) to help control your spending. Never get a second card to pay the balance on the first. Don't charge more than you can afford to pay off each month.

Consider your available funds. Will you be able to pay the entire balance each month. Consider keeping the card for emergency uses only. Watch the costs of credit. Be sure you know the Annual Percentage Rate and how it is calculated. Shop around for the best deal. Read the fine print carefully. Avoid unnecessary charges. Late payment and overlimit fees can add hundreds of dollars.

Avoid maxing out your credit lines. Spending up to your limit suggests that you overspend. Pay bills promptly and pay more than the minimum. Protect your card from theft.

Save receipts and review them every month. Check to be sure that all credit charges are accurate. Keep a record of your charge as you go, so your balance will not be a surprise when your bill comes.

Close accounts you are not using. Open, unused accounts are still considered as a part of your available credit limit because you could use it any time. If it appears that you have more credit than your current income and credit history qualifies you for, you could be considered as a high credit risk. Some of your credit options could be canceled or result in higher interest charges. Too many credit cards can affect your ability to get car loans, student loans, mortgages or to rent an apartment.

Read and understand about credit card insurance offers. Consider carefully if the cost of the insurance equals the benefits.

Credit Tip - While cash advances can look attractive, keep in mind that interest usually accrues from the moment you accept the cash. If you add in the transaction fees and the higher interest charges for cash advances, they can be more expensive than you anticipated.

Consider being a volunteer

Providence Hospice at Providence Medical Center is providing a 12-hour Hospice training course to the general public who may be interested in becoming a hospice volunteer. The training course will be provided with four sessions of three hours each on the following dates: Oct. 6, 13, 20 and 27 on Thursday evenings at Providence Medical Center in Wayne.

Hospice Care is provided to anyone with terminal illness, which is determined by their physician. Hospice is an alternative program of care for terminally ill patients and their families with a Holistic approach. When the quantity of life is limited, Hospice care emphasizes the quality of life remaining by focusing on providing physical, medical, spiritual, emotional, and supportive care to the patient and family who wish to remain at home or reside in the nursing home. This is accomplished through a team of professionals and trained volunteers.

The volunteers are an important part of the team approach, which also consists of the physician, nurses, dietician, social worker/counselor and chaplain. Volunteers help provide the care and support to relieve some of the burdens of those involved during this time. Hospice Volunteers may provide their support by visiting patients and families giving friendship, relieving family members for a short time and assisting with errands.

Anyone interested in Hospice Care or training to become a volunteer should contact Providence Hospice, Terri Munter at 375-4288 to receive further information.

Mirada, Calif. The pastor of Saddleback Church is the author of "The Purpose Driven Life," which has been studied extensively throughout the Christian world.

Nebraska Synod Bishop David L. deFreese will preach the Friday night worship service and lead Bible study on Saturday morning. Pastor Linda Witte Henke of Aurora, Colo. will deliver the Sunday morning sermon. Nancy Christian of Minnesota, retiring vice-president, will represent the Women of the ELCA Executive Board.

A variety of workshop choices will be available Friday and Saturday, afternoons. Saturday evening will feature a "Spice of the Spirit Variety Extravaganza." Women attending have been invited to perform.

Chief business of the convention will be election of officers for 2005-2007. Reports will be received from the recent Triennial Gathering at San Antonio, Texas at which the theme for 2005-2008 triennium, "Act Boldly," was introduced.

A butterfly lights beside us like a sunbeam. And for a brief moment, its glory and beauty belong to our world... But then it flies on again, And though we wish it could have stayed we feel so lucky to have seen it.

Your family and friends love and miss you.

Remembering those affected by Hurricane Katrina and 9/11

Well, the Black Shirts are back, thank goodness! Saturday night's game was like old times as far as the defense was concerned. The other side of the team has a lot to prove. We also enjoyed the volleyball games again; those girls are awesome!

The chance of our church was stuffed with back packs and school supplies, quilts, and all kinds of other items. There had been a large cash collection, and both pastors were scheduled to leave yesterday for Baton Rouge, pulling a U-Haul. Renting that, and paying for gas, would cost about $500. That was covered by more cash in a basket at the back of the room. And that is just one group. We were in Louisville one day last week, and a group of 20 was collecting items and making plans for a trip.

My friend Carolyn in Houston tried to volunteer at the AstroDome and was told there were enough there already. A forwarded e-mail states that things were orderly, quiet, and moving well inside that facility.

Airlifting people out without telling them where they were going seems rather harsh; I had to smile when one lady arriving in Omaha said she had never heard of it; another one in Arizona was complaining that her nose was dry. I'm betting most of these folks have never been out of their parish, let alone in any of these states taking them in.

There were 9/11 memorials, touching as usual. We chose to stay indoors and watch them on the TV. A very inspiring document-

The Farmer's Wife
By: Pat Meierhenry

tary interviewed the family of a New York fireman who perished in the towers. They have organized and sponsored a "tunnel to the towers" run every year, and have raised one million dollars for children's charities.

On the news, there was a child story about Brady Beran, the football player who sustained a serious head injury in a game last fall. He is still going to therapy every day, and he has the monotone voice that often accompanies that kind of thing. But it is a miracle he is alive, and in school, with goals for the future.

I choose to focus on the positive stories, and there are lots of them. A letter to the editor today thanks the guys from OPPD who restored her power. I know that a contingent left immediately, and were sleeping on cots outside a motel room, forty guys sharing a bathroom! But I guess at least they could flush, which would make a huge difference. Amazing how we take those small things for granted.

And I've learned that New Orleans was in a better location when it was founded; it's due to the engineering that has gone on since that has caused it to be in such a tenuous state. We seem to think we can improve on Mother Nature, and seem to get into a lot of trouble when we do.

Finally, on Sunday, we learned that Dr. Oswald Hoffman, the voice of the Lutheran Hour for over 30 years, had gone to heaven. I grew up, and our kids grew up, listening to his booming voice and his delightful humor. He was born at Scribner, so we can claim him as another native son who did well. He will be missed.

Snakes are looking for shelter

Fall is a time when nature signals wildlife to look for a place to stay for the winter. Most wildlife have their own homes to go to for the winter, but as humans, we have some nice places for a few creatures to use for the winter.

One of those looking for a winter home during the fall are the snakes. One of the common snakes found in gardens and lawns are garter snakes. Garter snakes are nonpoisonous and are protected by law. This protection is commonly unknown by most folks, so purposely killing a snake can be illegal. Be sure to check with your local game conservation officer on regulations for dealing with problem snakes.

Keeping snakes out of the house is hard, but with a few preventative measures, the number can be reduced. The first practice is to reduce any environment that can be a habitat for mice and rats which includes wood piles, brush piles or junked machinery areas. Heavy mulched areas that provide a cool, damp place can be an attraction for snakes as well. Food invites snakes to come into an area, reduce the food supply and reduce the snakes. In addition, look around the house for holes in the foundation where snakes can enter and spend the winter under the house.

The snakes might migrate up into the house through pipe openings in early spring. These uninvited guests can cause a lot of excitement for anyone in the house. If a snake is found in the house, one can pile up some wet towels in a room and the snake will find this cool, damp place to hide. Find someone who is not afraid of the snake, and remove the pile of towels along with the snake. The same can be done outside with burlap sacks to attract snakes and remove the whole pile of sacks with a scoop shovel and take to another area for release. Glue boards can be used if set properly.

Del Hemsath
Extension Educator

One must be careful as to not catch family pets or other creatures in the glue board. Vegetable oil can be used to release a desirable animal as the oil counteracts the glue.

The other option is to contact someone who is familiar with trapping, they might be able to help with the snakes and other unwanted visitors in your home.

Remember that snakes are natural predators and help with control of the more undesirable visitors to your home area. If you have a snake and need to identify it, the school of natural resources has a website that is very helpful, it is located at <http://snrs.unl.edu/herp-neb/snake/basicsnakekey.html>.

For more information, contact the local extension office.

4-H Trail ride coming soon

Do you like to ride horses? How about riding through some of Nebraska's most scenic country? Then plan now to bring your horse and come to the 2005 annual 4-H Trail Ride and ride through the hills and trees of the Nebraska National Forest near Halsey. This weekend of horse back riding will be held Oct. 8 and 9.

The weekend includes four two-to-four-hour trail rides, steak barbecue, cowboy entertainment, craft making, cowboy breakfast and inspirational services and a fundraising auction. Participants have several choices for lodging that includes camping at the trailhead, staying in cabins at the Nebraska 4-H Camp, camping in nearby campgrounds or in local motels.

For the non-horseback riders, wagons pulled by teams are available. Wagon riders will ride along many trails through the trees and hills as well.

Proceeds from the trail ride go to the Nebraska 4-H Foundation to help support many 4-H activities and events.

For more information and registration information, please call Sue Ferguson at: 402-472-4748 or your local University of Nebraska - Lincoln Extension office. Complete information can also be found at: <http://4h.unl.edu/foundation/trail-ride.htm>. The deadline for registration is Sept. 21, 2005.

What can you make out of old barns? Terry and Judi Buol of Norfolk can tell you, as their business name is Recycled Barns. They are the featured artist at the Northeast RC&D Office in Plainview for the months of September and October. ## Swine extension program increases resources for producers Technology has played a crucial role in the success of a fledgling University of Nebraska-Lincoln and Iowa State University joint swine extension program, participants say.

The cooperative effort, launched a year ago, has allowed the two universities to share swine experts, lending expertise in areas previously less covered in each state. In this introductory year, the experts were able to lay the foundation for sharing resources efficiently, said Mike Brumm, the UNL Extension swine specialist involved in the agreement.

"It's been a learning experience for both universities," said the Institute of Agriculture and Natural Resources specialist at UNL's Haskell Agricultural Laboratory near Concord. "We learned we can save travel time in a variety of ways, such as by doing Web casts. Because we've become an electronic society, we can do a lot from here to contribute in Iowa and vice versa."

Tools such as distance learning networks and video conferencing have made the experts more available to pork producers and extension in each state, Brumm said.

Brumm lends his expertise in finished pigs and Iowa State swine veterinarian Locke Karriker contributes his medical knowledge. Brumm called this a "cross-fertilization" of assets that allows ideas to flow immediately between states.

"The agreement leverages the things we're already doing (for) a wider audience, which is more efficient in the long run," Karriker said. "It broadens the number of people we can be effective with, and the two universities can share rather than compete for the same resources."

As a result of the universities' combined efforts plus technology tools, a four-state Pork Bridge program will begin in December. The program, headquartered in Iowa and directed by Brumm, is an outreach to pork producers in Nebraska, Iowa, South Dakota and Minnesota.

Producers can sign up to receive a CD-ROM every other month that will allow them to participate via a toll-free number in an hour-long meeting about growing finished pigs. Topics will include how to keep pigs eating in hot weather, ventilation controllers, biosecurity and more, Brumm said.

"Pork Bridge is designed for people who work in pig barns, people who normally wouldn't get to attend meetings because they're taking care of pigs," said Brumm, who came up with the program.

In addition to laying the groundwork for broad-scale meetings, the joint effort allows local and area extension staff to offer programs for youth and adult audiences involving extension swine experts from either state as needed.

The initial five-year agreement, which took effect July 1, 2004, could lead toward increased multi-state extension activities. In years to come, the universities can build on the precedent of the debut year, Karriker said.

"I'm glad we could establish a foothold," he said. "In general, I not only enjoyed the joint program, but I felt like it's been effective. Moving forward, there's an enormous opportunity for expansion."

The experts have set up aggressive schedules to reach each state in 2005-2006 and expect a productive year with increased producer contact, they said.

"Like anything else, the second year is always better than the first because we'll know what to expect," Brumm said.

For more information about the joint swine extension program, including information about Pork Bridge, contact Brumm at (402) 584-2818 or e-mail mbrumm1@unl.edu. To contact Karriker or other Iowa specialists, call (515) 294-2283 or e-mail karriker@ias-state.edu.

WSC football comes close to win

Improvement is starting to show for the Wayne State football team as it remains in the hunt for its first win of the season. Missouri-Rolla edged the Wildcats (0-3) 22-21 last Saturday evening at Allgood-Bailey Stadium in Rolla, Mo.

"The players gave us a chance to win," WSC coach Dan McLaughlin said. "That was the positive and most important thing."

One of the bright spots in the game; McLaughlin said, was the efforts of third-string quarterback Travis Dietz.

Dietz, a true freshman from Indianola, Iowa, came into the game in the second quarter as the Wildcats trailed 13-0 to the Miners. He replaced starting signal caller Sean McLaughlin, who left the game with an injury, after the first series after he twisted his ankle in a hole on the playing field.

UMR (3-0) opened the scoring early in the first quarter when Evan Gray found Brandon Landry to take a 7-0 lead.

Marc Armbruster connected on field goals of 23 and 40 yards in the second quarter to put the Miners in front 13-0.

WSC put its first points on the board with 4:19 left in the first half when Dietz scored on a five-yard run to narrow the score to 13-7.

"Travis (Dietz) has been our scout team quarterback and on Saturday night he played really, really well," McLaughlin said.

UMR extended its lead with another field goal from 23 yards out to go up 16-7 over the Wildcats.

The Wildcats added another score on the final play of the first half when Dietz found Marque McCray on a 77-yard pass play, which gave UMR a 16-14 advantage at the half.

WSC grabbed the lead shortly after intermission when Laron Striplin intercepted a pass and ran 55 yards to paydirt to extend the lead to 21-14.

Missouri-Rolla constructed a 15-play, 75-yard drive late in the third quarter and got the go-ahead score on an eight-yard pass from Evan Gray to Phil Shin to claim a 22-21 advantage.

WSC was able to put itself in a position to win when the Wildcats blocked a Missouri-Rolla field goal attempt late in the fourth quarter.

Upset special: Wayne downs WPCC

Tuesday night at West Point. The first word from Coach Hoskins was "Wow."

"I am so excited to see the team play so well," she said. "They never gave up and just went out and played hard."

Tuesday's win brought back many memories as Wayne downed WPCC two years ago, fresh off its win at the Wakefield Tournament.

Wayne takes first at Wakefield tourney

Two times in three seasons. The Wayne High volleyball team captured its second title during the past three seasons in the eight-team Wakefield Invitational in Wakefield after matches played on Thursday and Saturday.

Wayne downed Wakefield, last year's winner, in the championship game in a comeback effort.

Wayne also had its share of struggles in the championship match play-in game against Hartington Cedar Catholic on Saturday morning.

"I was pleased with the team how we came back against HCC and Wakefield," Wayne coach Joyce Hoskins said. "They are both great teams and I was proud of how they played together."

Wayne and Wakefield each went undefeated in pool play on Thursday as both teams posted back-to-back straight-set wins.

Wayne disposed of Stanton 25-10, 25-10 in the opener as Kara Hoeman paced the Blue Devils with four kills, while Michelle Jarvi, Emlyn Mann, Angie Ahrenholtz and Robyn Heithold each tallied three hits.

said the 25-22, 25-20 win against Lutheran High provided tools that will help the team gain valuable experience.

"The win was an important step on the way to becoming a competitive team," she said. "Becoming more consistent in all aspects of the game has to be the primary focus of the team."

Katlyn Dahlquist and Brittany Thompson smacked five and six kills, respectively, to lead the Bears.

Designated libero player Becky Hoelsing finished with six digs for the defense, while Kim Lubberstedt helped the offense with her 18 set assists.

L-C fell to Cedar Catholic 25-22, 25-16 in the nightcap as the girls found themselves having to make adjustments to counter HCC's fast-moving offense.

"We played well against an aggressive hitting team for part of the match, both creating and capitalizing on their mistakes," Cunningham said. "HCC ran a quicker offense than our first two opponents, making our front line ineffective defensively."

She added that the Bears' ball control off serve received continued to be an area of concern for her squad this season.

Bressler nailed nine kills for Wakefield in the win, while Nelson provide 15 set assists in the match. Becky Vraspir's six blocks paced the Trojan's defensive effort.

Mann was Wayne's defensive leader with 12 digs, while Ahrenholtz provided the offensive firepower with six kills for the Blue Devils.

Wayne earned a spot in the championship match with a hard-fought win against Cedar Catholic.

Wayne opened with a 25-23 squeaker, but fell 21-25 in the second set. The third set was all Blue Devils as Wayne posted a 25-16 win.

Dickey played a key role in the win with 25 set assists and four digs. Her favorite benefactors were Hoeman and Mann, who recorded nine kills each to lead Wayne's hitters. Frahm and Michelle Jarvi also helped the defensive effort with six digs each.

The championship game was another three-set match that saw Wayne take the first and third set.

Wayne took advantage of the a slow Wakefield start in the opening frame and posted a 25-10 advantage.

The Trojans bounced back in the second with a 25-20 win, but Wayne stayed in the game throughout the third match to post a 25-22 win and claim the tourney title.

Alissa Bressler jumps for an ace serve for Wakefield in tourney action on Thursday.

Wayne recorded its second win on Thursday with 25-7, 25-12 victory over Winside.

Hoeman was Wayne's hitting leader with four kills while Jessica Dickey added 17 more set assists to finish with 34 total assists on the night.

Winside was led by three kills from Jessica Hansen and a pair of ace serves from Josie Longnecker.

Wakefield's Thursday matches included wins against Winside and Stanton.

Alissa Bressler pounded eight kills and added three key blocks as the Trojans disposed of Winside 25-14, 25-10 in straight sets. Amanda Nelson dished out 15 of her 26 set assists on Thursday in the win.

Winside's offense was paced by three kills from Hansen and two each by Cassie Prince and Lisa Oberle.

Things got a little more dicey for Wakefield in the second match of the night as Nelson sustained an injury later in the 25-20, 25-19 win against Stanton.

"The girls held together and still pulled out a win," coach Cheryl Greve said.

Bressler led the team with eight kills, three blocks and added three aces from the service line to lead the Trojans.

Laurel-Concord finished 2-2 in Thursday's pool action including a straight-set win against Lutheran High Northeast and a two-set loss at the hands of Hartington Cedar Catholic.

WSC volleyball battles through a tough schedule

Even though the Wayne State Wildcat volleyball team woke up Wednesday morning now 10-3 on the season, there's plenty to look forward to as the team now begins to focus on conference play after playing what could arguably be one of the toughest schedules in NCAA Division II.

The team dropped its second and third matches of the season to No. 5-ranked Minnesota-Duluth and No. 3 Nebraska-Kearney in action this week.

The Wildcats picked up a pair of wins at the Super 8 North Central Regional Crossover Tournament in Aberdeen, S.D. last Saturday, but fell to Duluth in first round action on Friday.

The team dropped a five-set heartbreaker to Minnesota-Duluth in the Wildcats' opening match Friday afternoon at the tournament.

The Wildcats lost the first two games to the Bulldogs 22-30 and 16-30, then won the next two games 30-23 and 31-29 before falling in the fifth game 11-15.

Senior middle hitter Jacey Kuck Schwarz had 18 kills to pace the Wildcats in hitting.

Emily Schroeder and Michelle Eckhardt each contributed 11 kills to the WSC attack.

Sophomore libero Laura Dolezal had 27 digs to lead the defense while Ashley Vogt added 18.

Senior setter Julie Jacobsen handed out 50 set assists.

UMD outhit WSC in the match 186 to 113.

"I was very pleased with our team's competitiveness to come back from two sets down and not give up against the fifth-ranked team in the country," WSC head coach Scott Kneiff said. "We struggled early with our serve receive, but our defense came around and got us back into the match."

The Wildcats swept North Dakota in their first match of the day on Saturday 30-23, 30-21 and 31-29, then defeated St. Cloud State 30-26, 30-19 and 30-27.

In the North Dakota win, Jacey Kuck Schwarz pounded out 19 kills to lead Wayne State's hitting attack.

Emily Schroeder added 17 kills with Michelle Eckhardt finishing with 12. Setter Julie Jacobsen dished out 56 set assists while sophomore libero Laura Dolezal had 27 digs.

"Jacey (Kuck Schwarz) and Emily (Schroeder) had strong matches for us," WSC head coach Scott Kneiff said. "I thought the team played well together and did some good things."

The Wildcats used more balanced hitting to pick up the win over St. Cloud State as Schwarz had 15 kills, Eckhardt 13 and Schroeder 12.

Dolezal finished with a team-high 14 digs while Jacobsen accounted for 40 set assists and two service

Shawna Robinson

In the late 1980s and early 1990s, Shawna Robinson was more than just a pretty face behind the wheel. Born a racer, Shawna drove anything from snowmobiles to diesel trucks competitively until she began to race in NASCAR sanctioned events.

In 1988 she made her NASCAR debut finishing third in the Charlotte/Daytona Dash Series Florida 200 at Daytona International Speedway. Robinson was the first woman ever to win a NASCAR Touring event when she took home the checkered flag at New Asheville Speedway in 1989, her rookie season.

The same year she won her first race in what is now the Goody's Dash Series, she also captured the Charlotte/Daytona Dash Series' Most Popular Driver Award and Rookie of the Year honors. Robinson repeated as the Series' most popular driver in 1989, becoming only the second driver to win the award in consecutive years. NASCAR Winston Cup standout Michael Waltrip is the other, who he accomplished the feat in 1982 and 1983.

In her first two years in NASCAR, Shawna started all 30 races in the Charlotte/Daytona Dash Series winning three of them and finishing in the top 10 a remarkable 21 times.

In 1991 Shawna moved into NASCAR's Busch Series' Grand National Division. The crown jewel of Robinson's NASCAR Busch Series career came three years later at Atlanta Motor Speedway. Shawna became the first and only woman ever to win the pole position in the NASCAR Busch Series with a track record of 174.330 mph. The weekend wasn't all roses for Robinson though, on the first lap of the race Mike Wallace shoved alongside of Robinson's car, making it three abreast in the third turn. Wallace's car disrupted the air around Robinson's causing her to come into contact with Joe Nemechek. Robinson's best finish in a NASCAR Busch Series race was 19th just a little less than a year before her last series race in 1995.

Shawna temporarily retired as a driver with her first pregnancy. While she married and raised a family, she was still involved in NASCAR as an interior decorator in the Charlotte, N.C. area, where many of her clients are NASCAR drivers and car owners. Robinson returned to the sport in 2000 driving a Ford for Tomar Winston Cup car owner Michael Kravitz in the ARCA RE/MAX Series, where she finished in the top-10 in points in 2001.

In 2002, Robinson made seven Winston Cup starts. Her best finish was 24th at the Daytona 500 in February. She had four finishes of fifth or worse and finished the year 52nd in the Winston Cup standings.

Wynot 44, Allen 10

ALLEN — A sluggish start proved to be costly for the Allen Eagles on Friday night as visiting Wynot downed the host team 44-10.

"We did not start the game with emotion of intensity," Allen coach Dave Uldrich said. "Wynot flat beat us up throughout the first quarter. After we made up our minds to step up, it was an excellent effort. Give Wynot their due, they came in and took care of business."

The Blue Devils took the first possession of the game and drove down the field and finished with a touchdown and PAT to take an 8-0 lead.

Wynot scooped up an Allen fumble on its next possession and added another touchdown to up the score to 24-0 at the end of the first quarter.

Wynot added one more score on a five-yard pass play in the second frame to take a 30-0 lead at the half.

The Eagle offense drove down the field after intermission but was only able to muster three points off a 28-yard field goal by Sam Verduyn.

Allen added its sole touchdown of the night with just under four minutes left in the game when Scott Wilmes rushed capped of a successful rushing drive with a touchdown from two yards out and Verduyn added an extra point to round out the Eagles' scoring.

Allen's offense was able to generate 246 yards and allowed 336 from the Blue Devils.

Luke Sachau was the rushing leader for the Eagles with 77 yards, while Wilmes added 68 yards.

Kyle Sperry nets three Eagle grabs for 28 yards, while Chad Oswald haul two two for 26.

Defensively, Sachau led the charge with 12 tackles, while Josh Malcom, Derek Hingst and Michael Bock each finished with 11 apiece.

Allen (1-1) will host Walthill on Saturday night for a 7 p.m. kickoff.

LCHS 19, Randolph 0

LAUREL — Laurel-Concord used a punishing ground game to dispose of its western rival in a 19-0 shutout of Randolph last Friday evening.

Three rushing touchdowns, including one in the final seven seconds of the game highlighted what L-C coach Terry Bear considered a quality win over a team that defeated O'Neill in its season opener.

"This was a good win," he said. "The main factor in this game was our defense as we shut down

Allen's Carla Rastede hammers down a kill in the Eagles' against Ponca in recent triangular action.

Randolph's offense and kept them scoreless."

Randolph managed several trips in Bear territory but the LCHS defensive unit rose to the occasion and denied the Cardinals a scoring opportunity.

Scot Surber gave L-C the lead heading into the half with a three-yard scamper to the north endzone to put the Bears up 7-0.

After a series of turnovers in the third quarter, L-C quarterback Heath Erwin found paydirt on an option play to run in the Bears' second touchdown from 34 yards out.

Laurel-Concord put an exclamation point on the win when Justin Hart ran in a 20-yard touchdown with seven seconds left in the game.

Tony Jacobsen finished the game as L-C's leading rush with 100 yards, while Erwin had 82 on the night.

"Tony Jacobsen ran well," Bear said. "Our offensive line gave us a lot of time to make decisions and they played very well."

Other rushing leaders included Surber with 71 yards, Andrew Gothier with 51 and Hart with 31.

The Bears generated 383 total yards, with 335 on the ground and 48 through the air.

Nic Roeder led the way for the LCHS defense with 12 stops.

The Bears will host Plainview on Friday in what's expected to be another tough challenge.

"We will need to put together another strong defensive week," Bear said. "On the offense, we need to put together a passing game to help our running game."

Wynot 44, Winside 7

HOWELLS — Winside played five time defending state champion Howells even, but that was before the Bobcats put the first points on the scoreboard with 34 seconds left in the first quarter.

The difference in team depth started showing in the second quarter as Howells, the winner of 52 consecutive games wore down the Wildcats in a 44-7 win over the Winside visitors on Friday night.

Justin Nathan and Josh Staub led the Wildcat defensive effort with 11 tackles each and Jared Thies and Colby Langenberg added seven stops apiece.

Cody Lang was held to six stops on the night as the Bobcats double and triple teamed the Wildcat nose guard the entire game.

Mark Hawkins accounted for 39 yards on 3 pass catches in addition to his 4 punts for 120 yards.

Jordan Brummels completed 6-of-5 passes for 59 yards in the Wildcat losing effort.

Head coach Mark Koch said he felt his team played a good game against the Class D-1 No. rated Bobcats.

Haglund scored his first score

WHS football improves to 2-0 with big road win

Wayne overcame a 26-7 first half deficit to pick up a 34-32 road win against North Bend Central to move to 2-0 heading into this Friday's Homecoming game.

"This game was definitely a tale of two halves," Wayne high coach Kevin Finkey said. "We started the game slowly, without a lot of emotion and ourselves trailing after the first series."

North Bend scored first on a 58 yard run but Wayne answered as Nate Finkey threw back-to-back pass completions before turning in a 50-yard touchdown run to tie the game and a Nick Klassen kick to take the lead.

North Bend rattled off three more touchdowns before the half to take a 26-7 lead to the locker room

After a productive halftime meeting, Wayne scored 29 answered points in the second half to turn back North Bend.

Josh Fink led the offensive charge with 170 rushing yards after the break as the Blue Devil option game was on track with 225 yards in the second half.

George Sherry scored Wayne's first touchdown of the second half with a 20 yard run.

Nate Finkey added a 30-yard score in the third to narrow the North Bend lead to 26-20.

Finkey connected with Ranson Broders on a five-yard touchdown pass, plus another pass on the two-point conversion to allow Wayne to overtake North Bend.

Josh Fink added another touchdown in the fourth quarter, but the extra point attempt fell short as Wayne scored its final points of the night.

The Blue Devils allowed one North Bend score late in the game, but thwarted the two-point try to take the win.

Fink was Wayne's leading rusher with 184 yards, while Finkey tallied 151 on the ground.

Nate Summerfield picked up 110 yards receiving as Wayne passed for 223 yards.

Wayne will face Madison (1-1) in Friday night's Homecoming game at Cunningham Field at Wayne State College. Kickoff will be at 7 p.m.

"Madison plays well," coach Finkey said. "They are big and we can't afford to spot them 20 points before we start to play."

At the 28 minute mark and 30 minute mark, Stephanie Connolly scored both goals to give the Wolves a 4-0 halftime lead.

Greenwood Cemetery Board meets

The Greenwood Cemetery Board of Trustees met Sept. 9 to discuss several agenda items.

The group is continuing to try to find a cooperative solution to the City Walking Trail and how it will effect the cemetery property. The city administrator and mayor were present and heard comments and suggestions from each of the five board members present.

The city administrator related that the city fully understands the board's responsibility to the Association members. They will use the comments for discussion with the Trail Committee. The topic was tabled for further consideration at a later meeting.

The Board also acknowledged with appreciation the help the city has given with major maintenance projects.

Other agenda items included replacement of a section of the north roadway, the possibility of buying a computer and software for cemetery business, financial matters and finding volunteer help with some of the work that needs to be done on the cemetery grounds.

The Cemetery Board continues to seek comments, advice and information from Association members and the public about Greenwood Cemetery.

"It is not an easy task to keep the cemetery operations running at an even pace. Although financial restrictions keep us from doing all the things that need to be done, we continue to try to plan and move ahead with pressing projects. We appreciate the comments and support, both financial and physical, many folks have given us," said Steve Gross, one of the members of the board.

Greenwood Cemetery was founded in 1883 and formed as an Association by 25 persons residing in Wayne County. The original portion of the cemetery was platted at that time. The Cemetery has since grown to nearly 40 acres of space for the interment and remembrance of loved ones.

Anyone who would like more information about Greenwood, its history, rules and regulations, pricing structure or management is asked to contact Steve Gross at 375-4245 or any of the other board members.

Siouxland Community Blood Bank protecting donors identity

Siouxland Community Blood Bank strives to protect the safety of our community's blood supply as well as the safety and identification of their blood donors. With identity theft becoming a national issue, Siouxland Community Blood Bank is taking extra steps to ensure this will not become a local issue.

The Siouxland Community Blood Bank no longer asks for a volunteer blood donor's social security number as part of the identification process to donate blood. In the past, the identification contained the donor's name and one of the following three items: photo, date of birth and social security number.

Currently acceptable forms of I.D. are: any state driver's license, any state official ID card, U.S. Government-issued ID (i.e. Military, Bureau of Indian Affairs, Bureau of Citizenship and Immigration Services), school I.D. with picture, school mug book (i.e. yearbook or other public photograph rosters), passport, work I.D. with picture, birth certificate or an donor I.D. card (SCBB or other providers).

Identity theft concerns many individuals as well as blood bank facilities. Congress is taking a strong look at this growing issue, but it is a concern. "Our blood center is taking an active role to help safeguard donors against identity theft or fraud," said Janet Twait, CEO of the Siouxland Community Blood Bank. All steps taken by SCBB have been put in place to ensure the personal safety and privacy of donors, as well as a safe blood supply. We need to know that every donor is properly identified to verify donation requirements and if the need should arise to contact them.

To further their compliance for donor I.D., all donors will be required to present an I.D. at the time of registration. Positive donor identification is a requirement of the American Association of Blood Banks each and every time a donor donates. The Siouxland Community Blood Bank also requires a donor to show I.D. each and every time they register to donate blood. To donate blood, a donor must present their I.D., they are then registered into the computer system and their information is verified if previously registered. The donor then fills out a health questionnaire and has their vital signs taken. Questions relating to high risk behavior are included in the questionnaire. Donor records are handled exclusively by authorized personnel trained to deal with confidential information. Thorough testing of each blood donation is also performed in the laboratory. Tests for HIV, West Nile virus, Hepatitis B, Hepatitis C, Syphilis, along with many others are included to ensure the safety of the blood supply.

Currently, the Siouxland Community Blood Bank provides blood services to 35 hospitals in Iowa, Nebraska and South Dakota. The blood bank conducts drives in over 120 communities in the tri-state region.

For more information about the Siouxland Community Blood Bank or blood drives in your area, call 712-252-4208 or visit their website at www.siouxlandbloodbank.org.

Power drive

Wayne High School students work on their electric car during Saturday's Power Drive competition at the First Bankcard Center. A total of 14 cars competed, from nine high schools and one college. Several of the cars in the competition were state championship cars in the high school ranks from the spring season. In the time trials, North Platte was first with a time of 29.59 seconds on the .4 mile track. In the competition, Bancroft's S20 car was first with 102 laps; Wayne State was second with 99 laps and North Platte was third with 98 laps. Wayne High School was sixth overall in what was the last race of the season. Some of the cars involved in Saturday's competition will be on display at this weekend's car show in West Point.

Knights of Columbus support Katrina Relief

The Knights of Columbus Supreme Council has announced the largest disaster relief effort in its history.

The Order has pledged a minimum of $2.5 million in financial assistance and will match any funds beyond that donated to the Knights of Columbus Katrina Relief Fund over the next 60 days.

Of that money, $250,000 will be immediately distributed to Catholic Charities in affected areas, and $1.25 million will be used in the immediate future to assist those displaced and made indefinitely homeless. An additional $1 million will be set aside and used to rebuild the estimated 130 Catholic schools destroyed or seriously damaged by the storm and its aftermath.

"We are asking all of our councils and assemblies in the U.S. and Canada to become active in this relief effort within 60 days either through cash donations or volunteer efforts," said Supreme Knight Carl A. Anderson. "We are also asking our members to support the collection appeal of the United States Council of Catholic Bishops, and are looking into the possibility of establishing a job bank for those displaced."

Many Knights of Columbus in local councils near the affected areas are volunteering their homes, council halls, and personal time and supplies to those affected. These efforts, local and national, will expand in the days ahead. Member of the order in the US and Canada, and the general public are asked to donate to this effort.

Donors in the United States should make checks payable to Knights of Columbus Charities USA, Inc. and send them to: Knights of Columbus Charities USA, Inc. Gift Processing Center, PO Box 9028, Pittsfield, MA 01202-9028 Attn: Hurricane Katrina Relief.

Donations can also be dropped off to Ron Gentrup at State National Bank in Wayne.

Fish & Soy Oils May Cut Heart Attack Risk

A recent study found that the omega-3 fatty acids in both fish oil and soy oil supplements reduced risk of sudden heart attack in elderly people. The study revealed that heart rate variability (HRV), a key measure of healthy heart function, improved "quickly and significantly" in participants that were 60 and older. While more research is needed, experts say that consuming fish once a week is one way to start getting the benefits of omega-3. Consult with your doctor or pharmacist regarding your need for supplements.
