By Lynn Sievers
Of the Herald
Wayne County Board of Commissioners met in regular session Tuesday. A number of approvals were made on agenda items.
On road and bridge business, two proposals were received for engineering services for a Federal Aid Soft Match project to replace Bridge C009003210, 3.0 miles south and 0.9 mile west of Winside, 849th Road, Mile 566. The Commissioners approved Mainelli Wagner & Associates, Inc. for $8,400.
The Commissioners also approved an application for final payment from Theisen Construction, Inc. for Soft Match Bridge Project C009001105, Hoskins Northeast, on 563rd Avenue, Mile 849, 1.75 miles east and 1.9 miles north of Hoskins. The amount was $73,223.39.
Discussion was held on National Bridge Inspection (NBI) compliance issues.

Bridges must be load re-rated as of 1/1/09. Cost of re-rating will be shared by bridge owners and soft-match money could possibly be used toward cost. Any new inspectors must have five years actual inspection experience.
The Board approved the audit by Maximus on the Cost Allocation Plan for IV-D Child Support Collections based on actual costs for the fiscal year ending June 30, 2004. The audit is needed so a request can be made for reimbursement of direct and indirect costs based on the results.
Also approved was a two year contract by Cellular One for 12 phones for $210 per month.
The Commissioners approved a proposal by Otte Construction for new windows at the Health and Human Services office building located on Centennial Road in Wayne. The total cost for the project is $5,993.

Meet Eleanor Roosevelt at WSC

Eleanor Roosevelt will make a personal appearance at Wayne State College with the program "Eleanor Roosevelt and the Universal Declaration of Human Rights." The performance, sponsored by the WSC Office of Multicultural Affairs, will be held in the Frey Conference Suite in the student center, Tuesday, Oct. 25, at 7 p.m. Admission is free; donations will be accepted.
"Meet Eleanor Roosevelt: Advocate for Human Rights" features Part IV of a four-part historical portrait presenting the late first lady on the lecture circuit in a personal, informal style. The one-woman show, directed by Josephine Lane of Brookline, Mass. and performed by Elena Dodd of Westminster West, Vt., is co-authored by Lane and Dodd. Following the performance, Dodd will answer questions from the audience.

The program covers Mrs. Roosevelt's experience after her husband Franklin's death, when she was named U.S. delegate to the United Nations and served as chair of the U.N. Commission on Human Rights. Under her leadership, this commission drafted the Universal Declaration of Human Rights, the first international statement of its kind in history.
On Dec. 10, 1948, the declaration was adopted by the U.N. General Assembly. Intended as a statement of principles only, it has achieved the force of law throughout the world. With humor, she shares the experience of struggling for consensus.

WSC hurricane relief effort raises over $3,700

Thanks to the generosity of the entire Wayne State College community — faculty, staff and students — the campus hurricane relief fund drive this fall brought in $3,726.51 for the American Red Cross disaster relief fund to aid the victims of Hurricanes Katrina and Rita.
The relief fund drive, coordinated by the WSC president's office, was held during the month of September. In addition to cash donations, a number of fundraising events took place. These included a concert sponsored by the Wayne State music department; a barn dance and a date auction for an on-campus dinner, both sponsored by residence hall assistants; an original C.D. production, "Cole: Hurricane Katrina Mixtape" by WSC student Jahmal Cole; a KWSC-Radio fund-raiser; and a mission trip to the Gulf Coast by the Campus Crusade for Christ.
In addition, a blood drive co-sponsored by the WSC Biology Club and Rotaract, a student service organization, brought in 146 donors and collected 134 units of blood in the two-day blood drive. Even more impressive, the blood drive included 73 brand new, first-time donors.

"These are fantastic results," said Heather Marreel of the Siouxland Community Blood Bank, "even better than we had hoped. Both of your groups deserve a huge pat on the back for all the hard work they did to make this drive successful."
"The hurricane relief drive on campus demonstrates again the compassion and generosity of our students, faculty and staff," said President Richard J. Collings. "All of the efforts — the contributions and fund-raising events, the trip to the Gulf Coast and the blood drive — will have a positive impact on the lives of the people affected by the hurricanes."

Date set for Legislative forum

The Nebraska Chamber of Commerce and Industry, in cooperation with 32 local Chambers of Commerce across Nebraska, will present 33 Legislative Forums during the months of October and November.
The forum in Wayne is scheduled for Tuesday, Nov. 8 as a breakfast meeting at 7:30 a.m. in the Elkhorn Room in the Student Center on the Wayne State College campus.
The event is being sponsored locally by the Wayne Rotary Club. Each attendee will purchase their breakfast that morning.
State Senator Pat Engel and Nebraska Chamber of Commerce - Industry President Barry Kepney, will give brief presentations, followed by a question and answer session.

A press release from the State Chamber Office states that the economic climate for Nebraska has improved and enactment of the Nebraska Advantage in January was the biggest issue coming out of the last legislative session. The economy continues to expand and Governor Dave Heineman and some senators have indicated that they would be willing to look at tax reductions in the next session.
Many issues will give lawmakers plenty to ponder during the next session. This is also the last session for 20 veteran members and with term limits in full effect, the last session where the majority of members will have four or more years of experience. After the 2006 election, almost half of the body will be freshmen legislators.

"While efforts to improve Nebraska's business climate were successful, the key will be how Nebraska's employers and out-of-state decision makers react to the Nebraska Advantage," Chamber President Kennedy said. "We hope to get the word out that many more businesses can utilize these programs to grow and expand in Nebraska."
For more information on the State Chamber Legislative Forum in Wayne, contact the Wayne Area Chamber of Commerce Office at 375-2240.
The State Chamber is Nebraska's largest statewide business association, comprised of large and small companies and firms, trade associations and local Chambers of Commerce.

Suit filed against City of Wayne by former owner of Riley's

A complaint and request for jury trial has been filed in United States District Court for the District of Nebraska by Charles Haddad of Wayne.

Haddad is filing a suit against the City of Wayne, Lance Webster, individually and in his official capacity as Chief of the Wayne Police Force, Sergeant Marlen Chinn, individually and in his official capacity as a sergeant in the Wayne Police Force, Officer Matt Hoffman, individually and in his official capacity as a Wayne Police officer, and eight un-named individuals.

The un-named individuals are included because the plaintiff believes that discovery may reveal that there were other law enforcement officers working for the defendant (City of Wayne) who may have violated civil rights guaranteed to the plaintiff by the United States Constitution and the Constitution of the State of Nebraska.

According to court records, the case has been filed because the plaintiff (Haddad) had an interest in Riley's L.L.C. which owned a business establishment in Wayne (Riley's) and beginning approximately November, 2001, the defendants (City of Wayne) and each person stated began a practice and pattern of harassing customers at Riley's with the intent to cause Riley's to lose business and to cause the plaintiff to lose money and eventually close Riley's, all to his damage.

The records also state that the plaintiff was charged with violations of law on at least five occasions. The plaintiff without benefit of counsel represented himself at trial in these cases and was acquitted. The charges have been part of a pattern and practice of harassment of the plaintiff. Defendant Webster was told several times of the harassment by Sergeant Chinn and Officer Hoffman but took no action to make it stop.

Continued in the records is that the plaintiff informed officials of the City of Wayne of the harassment by police officers but nothing changed and the harassment continued. The plaintiff alleges his right to equal enforcement of the law, and equal protection guaranteed to him by the 14th Amendment to the Constitution were violated by the defendants.

Court records end by stating that as a result of the continued harassment, the plaintiff was forced to sell his business at a loss and suffered damages as a result. Said damages are approximately $400,000.

The plaintiff requests judgment against the defendants, including: his financial loss of the sale of the business, compensatory damages to be determined by the court, punitive damages to be determined by the court against all defendants except the City of Wayne, costs of this action including reasonable attorney fee, such other and further relief as the court deems just, as a result of the action stated above, the plaintiff has suffered anxiety, mental anguish, humiliation and inconvenience, all to his damage.

In a statement by Haddad, "I am confident that after all of the evidence, which is supported by video and audio recordings and documentation, all of which are supported by countless witness testimonies, including law enforcement officers not connected to the Wayne Police or the City of Wayne, that the people of Wayne and the surrounding public will clearly see a disturbing picture of a Police Department, led by Chief Webster and condoned by the City. They are enforcing laws only on whom they chose and are passing laws specifically attacking a business, individual, or group of American citizens. After the facts are made public, it will show the city of Wayne and the Wayne P.D. believe there are two Constitutions, the United States Constitution and the Wayne Constitution."

Haddad also said, "A suspicious public, who think these types of lawsuits are only about money, should note that my attorney and I tried to resolve this issue many times before litigation, and were only met with arrogance and denials of truth. Finally, a lawsuit of this nature is not always good for a community nor a condemnation of police as a whole. But as the old saying goes, 'sometimes you have to crack a few eggs to make a good cake.' This type of behavior and policy should not have to be tolerated anywhere in a free society, and only good can come from confronting the truth."

Chris Connolly, attorney and spokesman for the City, said "The City does intend to contest the allegations vigorously. There will be more comments made as the case progresses."

Letters

Thanks for care packages

Dear Editor,
 Editor's note: This letter was originally sent to Robert (Bud) Neel, who forwarded it to the Herald.
 Hello Sir. I've been receiving packages from your Vets Post for some time now.
 I received another package the other day with a personal note from you saying you had received no word from me. I apologize for this. I sent a letter several months ago with a picture of me and my co-workers and a thank you note.
 As we were underway at the time, postal service can be some what unreliable.
 I want to reassure you that I have been receiving the packages and am very thankful to you and everyone else involved. A box of snacks can make your day when you've been out to sea for three months.
 I've been on board the Kitty Hawk for about 2 1/2 years and in the Navy for almost four. I'm in the Aviation Intermediate Maintenance Department (AIMD) and am responsible for the trouble shooting and repair of various electronic components from all manner of air craft.

 As the only forward deployed aircraft in the world, we have one of the most strenuous sea rotations in the fleet. While I've enjoyed my time in the Navy, I will be separating in about three weeks and going on inactive reserve status. I will be returning to Georgia to pursue my college education shortly afterwards.
 Once again, I would like to send everyone involved a heart felt thank you from myself and everyone else in my ship for your generosity and support towards the men and women of the armed forces. We truly appreciate the effort and time you all sacrificed to bring a little enjoyment into what at times can be a very stressful environment.
 Thank you all very much.
 Very respectfully,
AT3 Benjamin Alexander

Blood donors appreciated

Dear Editor,
 An estimated eight million people donate blood in the US each year, but the demand for blood is greater than ever as the nation's supply needs constant replenishment.
 Every three seconds, someone needs blood, and every day, approximately 40,000 units of blood are used throughout the country. More than 23 million units of blood and blood components are transfused each year. However, less than five percent of healthy Americans eligible to give blood actually donate each year.
 The Siouxland Community Blood Bank wishes to thank everyone who gave the gift of life during our visits to the Wayne area in September. We registered a total of 121 donors and collected 125 units of life saving blood. We also recruited 8 new donors!

The following donors deserve special recognition for reaching gallon milestones during the month:
 11 Gallons—Melia Hefti
 9 Gallons—Michael Sievers
 8 Gallons—David Braun
 3 Gallons—Larry Johnson
 2 Gallons—Sherrill Bear and Radelle Erleben
 1 Gallon—Marlene Mueller, Joan Shapiro and Lucas Miller
 A special Thank You to the following businesses and churches for allowing us the use of their facilities: Wayne Fire Department and Grace Lutheran Church.
 Donating blood regularly is the only way to guarantee that it will be available when needed. Your participation in the blood drives is greatly appreciated!

Republicans need to make choices

By Ed Howard
 Statehouse Correspondent
 The Nebraska Press Association
 The ranks of Republican voters will grow between now and the 2006 primary election.
 The new Republicans will come in some measure from the ranks of those previously listed among Independent and (can you believe it?) Democratic voters.
 This situation will stem from the gubernatorial primary featuring incumbent Governor Dave Heineman and Congressman Tom Osborne who is serving his third term from the 3rd District.
 The GOP will find itself hosting the cross-over voters for a couple of reasons.

For one thing, the Democrats have yet to field a candidate for their nomination. It doesn't take a political scientist, or any other kind, to understand that situation. A sacrificial lamb is fine for some cultures, and it has its place in the Bible. It is not a role for which many Nebraskans wish to audition.
 For another thing, lots of Osborne detractors and supporters want to cast their franchise for the primary. She is State Treasurer Kate Witek, a former legislator who also has devoted supporters and critics.
 You will remember (correct?) that this column reported during the hazy days of summer that Witek was a likely Osborne sidekick.
 Osborne recently began to criticize Heineman's budget and tax policies. Like almost every challenger in a race for governor, Osborne contends Heineman and the Legislature should have done things differently. Count on Osborne to keep it up.

 Heineman responded by forcefully calling upon Osborne to present his own list of proposed budget cuts.
 Look for Heineman to keep on keepin' on with requests - if not demands - for Osborne to put up his own budget strategy. Neither Osborne, nor any other challenger in any governor's race, is likely to do such a thing.
 The budget for state government operations is thinner than a haute couture model. Further budget reductions of any significance will have to aim at programs - Medicaid and aid to education in particular. That's where the money is, even though much of it goes for mandatory costs.

 Meaningful spending reductions would have to be aimed at Medicaid and other social services, and at the costs of education. Reduce aid to school districts and they will demand ever-greater authority to increase local property taxes.
 Osborne and fellow challenger Dave Nabity are savvy enough to know what President Bush knew when he talked about Social Security revisions, but didn't introduce legislation. If the opposition doesn't have your plan, it cannot hammer on it prior to the election.

 Here is a thought for the Republican Party. A lot of those who register as Republicans for purposes of the May primary might stay in the GOP.
 Then, what?
 What if the presumably moderate (at least) new members begin to represent a faction within the GOP? What if they do, and are perceived as representing an important element within the Republican population.
 Talk about potential for an intra-party battle!

Meth seminar held at WSC

Senator Mike Flood of Norfolk, Brent L and Investigator Millis of the Nebraska State Patrol were among those speaking at a meth seminar on the Wayne State College campus on Oct. 15.
 Senator Flood, a lawyer, radio personality and Nebraska state senator, told his audience that he has seen people sent to the penitentiary who weren't "everyday criminals. They were teachers, laborers and others."
 He noted that the present method of punishing and treating those arrested for meth "isn't working."

"We need to provide long-term treatment. Meth is so addictive and affects everyone," Flood said.
 Brent L., a recovering addict, spoke to those in attendance about his life and said that "learning to live is hard."
 He shared his life story, indicating his addiction began with alcohol and related how he and his family had moved from Norfolk to Colorado and other places in the United States as he tried to deal with his addiction.

 His family often lived in unusual places so they could afford to purchase drugs and he even was involved with the selling of meth.
 He also added that "fear is a big part of addiction, fear of failure and fear of success."
 The seminar was sponsored by the Wayne Student Education of Nebraska (WSEAN).

Senator Mike Flood of Norfolk spoke to members of WSEAN and the public at Wayne State College on the need to reform the current policies for dealing with those addicted to methamphetamine.

Karen and George Holm stand with Tom Kreikemeier of West Point, new owner of K & G Cleaners. Kreikemeier will be picking up dry cleaning at Pac 'N' Save in Wayne.

K & G Cleaners sold

By Lynn Sievers
Of the Herald

George and Karen Holm recently sold their dry cleaning business after being in Wayne for 12 years. Tom Kreikemeier of West Point has taken over K & G Cleaners. The drop off location is Pac 'N' Save and he will pick up on Mondays, 6 p.m., Wednesdays, around 3 p.m., Thursdays, 6 p.m., and Saturdays, noon-3 p.m. There is a two-day turnaround. Anyone with questions can call him at 402-372-2155.

Kreikemeier has been in the dry cleaning business for six years, working at Dave's Dry Cleaning in West Point. Kreikemeier is married. He and his wife, Kristine, have two children, Jordan, 10, and Noah, 8. "I want to keep the same prompt service that people were getting at K & G Cleaners," Kreikemeier said.

Nancy Endicott of Pac 'N' Save said they are glad to be able to help Tom offer dry cleaning services to people in Wayne so they don't have to go out of town. She added, "We think it will be helpful to people to be able to bring their clothing to Pac 'N' Save because of the expanded hours."

Both George and Karen have been pursuing other lines of work. George is manager of Dairy Queen in Wayne and Karen received her associate degree in medical office technology recently. She works with transcriptions at Medquist. They have three children, Frank, a senior at UN-L, Charles, a senior at Wayne High School (who is a foreign exchange student in Germany until July, 2006), and Jennifer, a sophomore at Wayne High.

Thinking about dry cleaning, George notes it takes around 10,000 population to support a dry cleaning business. He said he is appreciative of the customers they had and also of the Wayne Main Street Association helping them about five years ago when their boiler went out. Several members used their muscles and equipment to get a new boiler in so the Holms could stay in business. During that time, Kreikemeier helped them with the dry cleaning until the new boiler was in place. Last October, the two cleaners began working together.

Both Kreikemeier and Holms are members of Iowa and Nebraska Dry Cleaning and Laundry Association. Holm notes belonging to the organization is important as it helps members keep up on new types of fabric as well as new techniques.

The Holms said one of the most enjoyable parts of their business was working with the Presbyterian Church Coat Closet, cleaning coats for them. George noted that Mary Ann and Herman Oetken of Wayne cheered them on in the venture. He added, "We look forward to working in some capacity with their worthwhile project in the future."

"We'd like to thank each individual in person but we can't," George said. "Some people have gone out of their way to help us out. Thanks to all past employees. We have worked with some great people over the years. Four employees worked for K & G Cleaners the entire time they were in business. They include Patricia Krueger, Frank, Charles, and Jennifer Holm; a special thanks to them for hanging in there. We wish Tom well. He does quality work and he is the only one we would leave our business and name with."

The Holms added that while their dry cleaning business is closed at 214 Main Street, they are looking for options. The Skate Shop at the same location is open if someone calls and needs something. If anyone has any questions, they can call George and Karen at 402-375-1327.

Haunted House and Hayride to be Oct. 27-31

The annual WSC haunted house and hayride will be staged by Wayne State College student organizations Oct. 27-31. The haunted house is open each evening from 6:30-11 p.m. Times are subject to the weather. Everyone is welcome. Admission to the haunted house is $6 for adults, $4 for students; children seven and under get in free when accompanied by an adult. The hayride and haunted forest (one activity) is the same price as the haunted house.

"We're planning a bonfire, roasted marshmallows, cookies, hot cider, hot chocolate and no alcohol," said Dr. Stan Gardner, WSC Science Fiction and Fantasy Club advisor. "There's no charge for the marshmallows, but we ask that people bring their own roasting sticks. The cider and hot chocolate will be available for sale. It is a WSC student organization project that we are offering as a community service."

Proceeds from the project will go to support different club activities, such as the Science Fiction Club's literature convention in the spring. In addition, each year a charity is selected to receive a certain percentage of the profits from the event. Last year the Red Cross was the selected charity.

"I have this big empty barn that I don't use for anything, and offered it to the student organizations to use as a community service to provide an opportunity for entertainment," said Gardner. "We first started this back in 1997, and it has been going strong ever since."

The haunted house is located at 2212 N. Centennial Road. Directions from downtown (Main and 7th St. - Dairy Queen) are: go north on Main St. (Highway 15) to Country Club Road (the golf course, 21st St.), turn right and go to the stop sign, turn left to the first barn on the left (second driveway on left). Another route would be to go east (toward Wakefield) on Highway 35 (7th St.), to North Centennial Rd. (Wayne East - Shell Station). Turn left, go north one and one-fourth miles to the barn on the left with the light at the driveway.

"The haunted house is intended for people throughout the entire region to come and have fun and entertainment," said Gardner. "We have a special night just for the youth organizations in the region on Oct. 24. We would be willing to work with other organizations to set up special times, as well."

For more information, please send an e-mail to: ScFantai@wsc.edu or contact Gardner at 375-7257.

The White Dog Pub is sold

By Lynn Sievers
Of the Herald

After 11 years in business, Jim Milliken has sold the White Dog Pub to Bill Melena and Chris Janke, both of Wayne, and Jesse Brodersen of Albion, (formerly of Wayne). Melena will handle all day to day operations. Everything will remain the same for now, including the name of the business. A grand future.

As for family members of the new owners, Melena is single, has two brothers and two sisters, a nephew and three nieces. Brodersen is married to Tracy, and they have a daughter, Abby. Janke is married to Kris, and they have a son, Cal.

Brodersen and Janke will continue working. Brodersen is a golf pro at the golf course in Albion. Janke is a sales manager for an insurance company.

"I am looking forward to being part of a great community," Brodersen said. Janke added, "I am glad to have ownership in a business in my hometown." Melena ended with, "Jim has been a fantastic owner and has taught me a lot. I hope to continue on with what he's done."

Milliken is not originally from Wayne, he grew up in Cape Cod, Mass., but his father was from Wayne. His dad was in the air force and retired in Cape Cod. Jim came here to attend Wayne State College from 1978 - '82. He worked for Jorgensen during that time, Milliken enjoyed Wayne so ended up staying.

Many changes were made during the years Milliken owned the White Dog. During that time, the entire bar and the beer garden were remodeled. He remembers his busiest times were opening day of pheasant season, as well as when the Huskers were playing, and soft ball season. His busiest day every year was during the Chicken Show.

Milliken notes he has met a lot of nice people through the years and has taken a lot of great hunting trips. He is getting ready to go sheep hunting on a trip he won through the Nebraska Game and Parks lottery, Nov. 26- Dec. 18 at Ft. Robinson State Park.

The new owners invite people to stop in to the White Dog to visit and also to take part in the upcoming events which are a pork feed on Oct. 28 and a grand opening/thank-you party on Nov. 5.

opening is planned for Saturday, Nov. 5. There will also be a pork feed on Oct. 28, which is the opening day of pheasant season.

While there will be no changes at this time, Melena notes they plan to continue catering for weddings and parties, and they plan to utilize the beer garden (behind the White Dog).

Milliken noted when he bought the business from Ken Jorgensen, he decided after 10 years he would look around for something else. During those years, Milliken married, Ann, a Wayne State College graduate from McCool Junction. They have a daughter, Paige, 3. "Now, more than ever, I'd like to be home more and spend time with her," Milliken said. He added that he has no immediate plans for the

Winside, Wayne and LCHS harriers head to state

By David W. Carstens

One team and three individual cross country runners from the Wayne Herald coverage will be among those competing at the state cross country meet this Friday at the Kearney Country Club in Kearney.

Wayne High qualified two runners as Sheldon Onderstal and Derek Carroll placed among the top 15 individuals at last Thursday's district C-2 qualifier at Hooper Logan View.

Onderstal, a first-year runner for Blue Devil coach Rocky Ruhl, took eighth in the district race with his finish of 17:32 on the 5,000 meter course, while Carroll, who was a member of last year's state runner-up team, will return to Kearney after his 11th place finish of 17:40.

The Blue Devil boy's squad, who has qualified for state six out of the past eight seasons, finished fourth on Thursday to just miss a team state qualifying mark. WHS finished behind Norfolk Catholic, O'Neill and Columbus Scotus. Wayne finished with 77 team points, while first place Norfolk Catholic and O'Neill tied with 40 points and Scotus tallied a team score of 50.

"I thought the runners competed hard and had their best performances of the year," coach Ruhl said. "We talked about strategy and they executed it the way I asked them to."

Other Wayne High boys' places and finish times were: 24. Max Stednitz 18:48; 34. Reggie Ruhl 19:35; 38. Jared Bethune 19:50 and 39. Bill Smith 19:56.

Wayne's girl's team finished the season with no state qualifiers, which marked the first time in a decade the Blue Devils' girl's team weren't represented by at least one runner at state.

Return trip cut short

Wayne High makes quick exit from state tourney

By David W. Carstens
Of the Herald

Dreams for a third straight state title fell short.

The Wayne High girl's softball team saw their dreams for a three-peat dash after the Blue Devils dropped their first two games in the state softball tournament last Thursday at Seymour Smith Park in Omaha.

Wayne (21-7) was defeated 3-0 by eventual state runnerup Hooper Logan View in the first round game and was edged by Cozad 3-2 in the elimination bracket game later in the day.

"We tried to make it a goal to jump on top of the teams earlier in the games, but it didn't happen," Wayne coach Rob Sweetland said. "If a couple of innings could have been a little different we could have ended 2-0 rather than 0-2."

In the first game, Logan View coach Roni Wobken, a 1986 Wayne High graduate who went on to star at Wayne State, guided her team to a 3-0 shutout win in a game that saw all of its scoring in the third inning.

Logan View's Kelsey Bohling led of the Raiders in the bottom of the third with a stand-up double off Wayne pitcher Mirisa Carroll.

The team was able to load up the bases with a walk and bunt hit from Molly Bartek and took a 1-0 lead when a Carroll pitch glanced off Kristin Ristau.

Ashley Wiles set up the Raider offense with another bunt to increase the lead to 2-0 and Danielle Mowinkel smacked a single to center field to score another run and give the Raiders a 3-0 advantage.

Mowinkel managed to keep Wayne's bats silent until the fourth inning when Wayne attempted a rally after Kayla Wayne High softball team members leave the dugout after the Blue Devils' 3-0 loss to Hooper Logan View in the first round game of the state tournament in Omaha last Thursday.

Hochstein got a single.

It seemed once Wayne got rolling, two outs were already on the board.

"I know it didn't turn out the way we envisioned it, but that's the way that the state tournament goes," Sweetland said. "We hit the ball a lot, we just didn't get the timely hit and we didn't get those hits together to score some runs."

As luck would have it, Hochstein was thrown out while advancing to second. With two outs, Sara Frerichs was able to pick up a single to advance, however Mowinkel forced Carroll to ground out at first for the final out of the fourth inning.

Wayne was only able to muster a Samantha Dunklau single in the next inning and Jean Pieper came close to recording a run after she made it to third after reaching base on a single.

Cozad handed the Blue Devils a 3-2 loss to end Wayne's season in the elimination game played later Thursday afternoon.

WHS trailed 2-0 heading into the fifth inning as two Cozad runners reached base off a pair of walks.

Caitlin Gustafson put Wayne first run on the board in the fifth and freshman Alesha Finkey tied the game in the top of the sixth when she tallied a run off a sacrifice fly from Dunklau.

The Haymakers answered with a go-ahead run in sixth after another walk allowed Cozad to reach base.

Carroll recorded a double for the offense, while Finkey tallied a double. Hochstein finished 2-for-2 for Wayne at the plate.

Sweetland said although Finkey and Hochstein were among those

Wildcats pick up another victory

The Wayne State football team remains in a three-way tie for second place in the Northern Sun conference standings.

The Wildcats (3-5, 3-1) took advantage of six Southwest Minnesota State turnovers by converting those opportunities into 31 points as WSC notched a 38-13 league win at Marshall, Minn., last Saturday.

The win moved the Wildcats in a tie with this Saturday's opponent Concordia-St. Paul and Northern State, who defeated WSC at home on Oct. 8. Winona State leads the NSIC standings heading into play this weekend. The Wildcats take on the Golden Bears at 1:30 p.m. on Saturday.

"It was a big day for our defense," Wayne State coach Dan McLaughlin said. "They were in the right place at the right time."

The Wildcats were able to score points early as junior defender Laron Striplin dashed 78 yards with an interception for a touchdown to put WSC ahead 7-0 with 10:45 left in the first period.

WSC added another score at the 6:54 mark of the first frame when Zach Molacek's 12-yard scamper capped a drive that started after a blocked punt on the SMSU 17-yard line.

The Mustangs answered with two second quarter scores to narrow the 14-0 WSC lead.

Marcus Thomas ran for a 21-yard TD at 12:38 and Ryan Schroeder grabbed a 48-yard reception from Josh Shudlick about three minutes later to draw within a

WHS football improves to 5-2

The Wayne High Blue Devils made one more step closer to a return to the state football playoffs with a crucial home win last Friday evening.

Wayne improved to 5-2 and managed to stop district foe Atkinson West Holt in a 26-19 victory.

After a scoreless first period, Wayne put the first touchdown on the board when Nate Finkey connected with Ransen Broders with just under nine minutes left in the half to give Wayne a 6-0 lead.

Wayne's defense stiffened up on the next West Holt series and a big special teams play gave the Blue Devils a nice dose of momentum. Matt Poehlmann blocked a Husky punt attempt at mid-field and David Loberg ran back a return down the middle of Cunningham Field for a 51-yard touchdown.

West Holt narrowed the lead on a special teams play in the closing minute of the first half when Zane Abner scored on a 77-yard kick-off return and added an extra point attempt to close out the first half with a 14-7 Wayne advantage.

Finkey, who went 17-of-31 passing for 240 yards and two TDs, found Nathan Summerfield on Wayne's next score at 6:55 in the third quarter on a 10-yard touchdown pass.

Reserve quarterback Jesse Hill found Broders on the two-point conversion to put the Blue Devils up 20-7.

Summerfield finished the contest with 11 grabs for 103 yards, while Broders also tallied 103 yards of his six catches on the night.

West Holt refused to give up and mustered a pair of scoring drives that were capped by two short TD runs by Jacob Osborne to add 12 unanswered points to put the Huskies within a point of the Blue Devils.

Wayne gave itself some breathing room with 3:40 left in the game when Finkey went untouched on a quarterback keeper for two yards out on fourth and goal.

The Blue Devils tried the same play for the subsequent two-point conversion attempt but the Huskies foiled the play in front of the goal

Grade 5 team ends season with wins

The Wayne Junior Blue Devil Grade 5 football team held on for a 14-3 overtime victory to improve to 2-3 on the season after downing Sergeant Bluff on Oct. 11.

Layne Hochstein scored first for Wayne on 45-yard touchdown run and quarterback Dan Melena found Eric Schoh on the conversion to give Wayne an 8-0 advantage. Sergeant Bluff tied the game with a score and conversion in the second quarter.

A scoreless second half sent the game into overtime when Drew Carroll scored on a 10-yard run on the first play in the extra frame to take the win.

Carroll was Wayne's leading rusher with 51 yards on seven carries, while Grant Anderson topped the defense with nine stops. Bradley Longe and Schoh added seven and six tackles, respectively.

The team faced Sergeant Bluff again in the league tournament game played on Oct. 15 at Dakota Valley and emerged with a 8-0 win in overtime.

After playing to a scoreless regulation game, Wayne scored on the second play in overtime when Carroll ran the ball in for a five-yard score. The team used a trick play on a quarterback throw back pass as Carroll hit quarterback Danny Melena on the two-point conversion. Wayne was able to hold on for the win when Schoh intercepted a Sergeant Bluff pass on fourth down at the goal line.

"This was a great way to end the season," coach Jeff Zeiss said. "The kids played hard all season and dedicated this game to our injured players Tyler Robinson, Brady Soden and Aaron Svenson. Carroll was Wayne's leading rusher with 85 yards, while four players tallied passing yards in the win.

Longe finished with 30 yards, Melana had 29, Carroll also recorded 30 and Grant Anderson finished with 15.

Defensively, the team was led by Schoh with eight stops and an interception. Anderson added seven tackles, while Carroll had six. Carroll and Melena were each credited with a sack, while Cory Frahm had a fumble recovery.

The team wrapped up the season with a 3-3 record.

point after SMSU missed its second point after kick.

The tables turned in WSC's favor just before the half when junior safety Adam Peterson recovered a fumble and ran 75 yards to give the Wildcats a 21-13 lead at the half.

Peterson also set up the only score of the third period after he intercepted the ball at the Mustang 13-yard line to set up a subsequent nine-yard scamper by Molacek to extend the Wayne State lead.

WSC dominated the final stanza as Dustin Foutch nailed a 35-yard field goal with 6:47 remaining and Molacek scored his third touchdown on a 32-yard run at 4:16 to round out the Wildcat scoring.

who provided highlights in the last game of the season, the real success of this squad has been its team-oriented work ethic.

"I thought Alesha Finkey had a nice hit for a freshman and that will give her something to remember and Kayla competed all the way to the end," Sweetland added. "But really, our whole lineup up this year has been such a total team effort all season long. There really haven't been any individuals on this team at all."

Thursday's game was the final contest for three Blue Devil seniors: Jean Pieper, Kayla Hochstein and Brooke Anderson.

WHS drops home match

Volleyball certainly is a game of momentum. Wayne opened with a two set advantage in its final home contest of the season, but Mid-State conference foe Battle Creek battled back in the next three sets to snap up a win against the Blue Devils last Thursday night.

Wayne won the first two matches 25-23, 25-20, but fell in the closing sets 21-25, 20-25 and 12-15. The loss moved the Blue Devils to 17-7 on the fall campaign.

Three WHS players finished with double-digit kills at the net as Emyln Mann tallied 13 kills and Angie Ahrenholtz and Robyn Heithold has 12 apiece. Jessica Dickey fueled the Blue Devil hitters with 46 set assists.

Mann and Dickey recorded double-doubles for Wayne with 23 and 13 digs, respectively. Michelle Jarvi's 20 digs, plus 20 from libero Melissa Frahm and 11 by Kara Hoeman all highlighted Wayne's defensive effort.

Wayne won the earlier JV game 25-11, 25-17 and took the freshman match 25-23, 25-16.

The Blue Devils travel to O'Neill tonight (Thursday).

Other Wayne High girl's finishers were: 34. Regan Ruhl 19:28 and 39. Becca Dowling 19:28.

Laurel-Concord/Coleridge will have a runner in the girl's Class C race in Kearney as freshman Megan Haahr ran a 15:59 on the 4,000-meter course at Logan View to finish as the top runner in the district.

The team is coached by Paul Timm.

Other times from Laurel-Concord included: Mindee Haahr 18:29 for the girl's team, while Cody Wagge finished with 20:58 and Nick Hansen ran the course in 23:10. Coleridge runner Kellen York finished the race with 25:28.

Winside's girl's team dominated the course as Wildcat runners finished second, third and fourth at last Thursday's D-2 district race at Rolling Hills Country Club near Bloomfield.

The team picked up 23 team points, while Oakland-Craig was second with 40 points.

Amber Aulner was Winside's second-place finisher with 16:41, while Virginia Flee followed with 16:51 and Michaela Staub's fourth place finish time was one second behind at 16:52.

The finish marked the second straight district title for the Wildcats, coached by second-year coach Jennifer Kesting.

"We are really looking forward to state this year after we gained some experience on the course last year," Kesting said.

In last year's race, Staub finished 16th, while Aulner brought home a 19th place finish.

On the district course, Brittany Greunke finished just six seconds out of medalist contention with a 16th-place finish of 17:53, while Jessica Janke clocked a 20:40 and Jacyie Wolslager recorded a 20:53. Winside's boys team tallied 159 team points, but didn't qualify any individual runners for state.

Winside finishers included: 34. Ryan Janke 20:44, 55. Michael Janke 23:38, 56. Andrew Mohr 24:26 and 58. Sam Barg 26:00.

Friday's state cross country schedule includes the Class C girl's race at noon, followed by the boy's Class C race at 1 p.m. The Class D girls hit the course at 2 p.m.

Brendan Dorcey, who has served as a Blue Devil assistant coach, was back last weekend on a break from training with the 189th Transportation Company. West Holt prepared itself for another series after a successful return to its own 42-yard line, but fumbled the ball on the first play of the drive and Finkey recovered for Wayne.

George Sherry started the next series with a first down of a 10-yard gain as Wayne was able to burn a minute off the clock.

The final Wayne series stalled and the Blue Devils punted the ball with just under two minutes left in the game.

Wayne's defensive effort kept the Huskies at bay in the rally effort that ended in a four-down series that stalled at the Wayne 30-yard line with 37 seconds left.

From there, Wayne's offense ran out the clock to pick up the Blue Devils' fifth win of the fall campaign.

Friday's win was especially sweet for assistant coaches Brian Loberg and Brendan Dorcey, who were back for the weekend on a break from duties with the 189th Transportation Company of the Nebraska National Guard who will be deployed for military duty in Iraq. Both coaches had the opportunity to work with the players from the sidelines on Friday night.

The Blue Devils will wrap up the regular season this Friday at home against undefeated district leader, Creighton.

Know Your NASCAR!

NASCAR 101: FLAGS
Long before two-way radios were installed in cars to allow drivers and crews to talk with each other, the only way for racing officials to communicate with drivers during noisy racing action was via the use of colored signal flags.

Nearly every racing series in the United States uses the same combination of flag colors, usually waved by a flagman on a platform at the start/finish line, so drivers know immediately what's happening during the race.

Just like the green, yellow and red signal lights at a traffic intersection, some of the flags communicate racing conditions.

GREEN: The track is clear and cars may proceed at speed. This flag is used to signal the beginning of the race and any restarts.

YELLOW (CAUTION): The track is not clear, slow down and hold your position behind the pace car. This flag is used to signal an accident, debris caused by contact or mechanical failure, or weather-related issues. NASCAR rules allow cars to bunch up behind the leader. In most cases, lead-lap cars restart in the outside lane, while any lapped cars restart to the inside. In addition, a yellow flag during a practice session means cars should go to pits immediately.

RED: The track is unsafe and there is a situation that requires immediate attention. Cars must go to a designated location and stop. This flag is usually waved in cases of heavy precipitation, an accident which requires immediate medical assistance or if the track is blocked. In addition, NASCAR reserves the right to throw a red flag in the closing laps of a race to make sure the event ends under green conditions.

WHITE: There is one lap remaining in the scheduled distance.

CHECKERED: The event has reached its scheduled distance and is complete.

In addition, there are flags that communicate information.

BLACK: Come into the pits immediately for consultation. Normally, this flag is waved at an individual car, either because it has a mechanical problem or has broken a rule. Waved in combination with a red flag signals the end of a practice session.

BLACK WITH WHITE CROSS: Cars that refuse to acknowledge the black flag are shown the flag, which means NASCAR will no longer score them until they come into the pits for consultation.

BLUE WITH YELLOW STRIPE: Pay attention to your mirrors, because a faster car is approaching from behind. Contrary to popular opinion, this flag does not make it mandatory that slower cars must move over for the leader of the race. This flag gets a workout at tracks like Bristol and Martinsville, where traffic becomes a major factor.

YELLOW WITH RED VERTICAL STRIPES: Used only on road courses by corner workers, when waved to signify debris or slippery conditions ahead.

ALLEN — Costly mistakes haunted the Allen Eagles in the final home game of the season in a 48-21 loss to Verdigré last Saturday night.

 Statistically, Allen outplayed the Hawks, but turnovers and penalties in untimely situations stopped the Eagles short of a win.

 A pass play on the next Hawk series gave Verdigré a 14-0 advantage.
 Allen answered with a successful drive that was capped by a four-yard touchdown run by Luke Sachau and an extra point kick to narrow the lead to 14-7.
 Verdigré tallied two more touchdowns before the half and took a 28-7 lead at intermission.

Mattie Burham goes for block against Concordia-St. Paul's Kelsey Kyro in last Friday night's record-setting volleyball match at Rice Auditorium.

WSC volleyball team sets Div. II record in NSIC tussle with Concordia-St. Paul

The Wayne State volleyball team resumed its winning ways with conference home win last weekend. It was a weekend that started off in a big way. NCAA Division II nationally ranked No. 6 Concordia-St. Paul University bettered the Wildcats in a five-set shootout in front of more than 400 fans in Rice Auditorium on Friday night in a match that rewrote the NCAA Division II record books. Even though the game will go down as a loss, it will be the second match that will be most remembered as the 44-42 Golden Bear win set a new Division II record for points in a single game. The previous record was 42-40 a mark that had been matched twice since 2001. WSC opened with a 30-23 win in the first set, but dropped 24-30 and 28-30 decisions in the third and fourth frames. The win improved the Golden Bears to 8-0 in Northern Sun play and 18-4 overall and gave Wayne State its seventh overall and third conference loss. Jacey Kuck Schwarz pounded 20 kills for WSC, followed by Emily Schroeder with 16 and Michelle Eckhardt with 11. Laura Dolezal recorded 39 digs, while Julie Jacobsen accounted for 50 set assists. Concordia University held a slight hitting advantage over WSC, 180-171. The Wildcats were able to get back on the winning track on Saturday afternoon to snap what had been a three-game losing skid in a five-set win against Winona State. The win was hard fought for WSC as the team dropped its opening two sets, 26-30 and 23-30, but came back in dominating fashion, 30-20, 30-17 and 15-13. Eckhardt and Kuck Schwarz each tallied 20 kills to pace the Wildcats at the net, while Schroeder also finished in double digits with 17. Dolezal finished with 32 digs as libero, followed by Schroeder with 26 and Schwarz with 25. Julie Jacobsen handed out 61 set assists. WSC picked up a key North Central Regional win at home on Tuesday evening as the Wildcats topped Augustana College in four games. Scores were 30-16, 27-30, 30-28 and 30-23. Wayne State entered the match ranked fifth in the North Central Region, while Augustana College was eighth. With the match tied at 1-1 and Augustana leading 28-26 in the third game, WSC scored the final four points to earn a pivotal 30-28 win in the third game. The Wildcats used that momentum to jump out to a quick 7-1 lead in the fourth game and went on to the 30-23 win and a 3-1 match victory. Schroeder had a big game for the Wildcats with 17 kills and 28 digs. Kuck Schwarz also recorded a double-double with 10 kills and 19 digs, while freshman Brittany Van Beek contributed 11 kills and nine digs to the Wildcat attack. Dolezal led the WSC defense with 30 digs and senior setter Julie Jacobsen handed out 52 set assists to go with two service aces. She needs just four more service aces to become the school's all-time leader in that category. The Wildcats are now 20-7 on the season and return to Northern Sun Conference play this Friday evening when they host No. 22-ranked Minnesota State University-Moorhead at 7 p.m. in Rice Auditorium. Dolezal earns weekly honor WSC sophomore libero Laura Dolezal picked up her third Northern Sun defensive player of the week award this season earlier this week. In her games last week she tallied 71 total digs, including 39 against conference leader Concordia-St. Paul. Dolezal earned the award two other times this season, on Aug. 29 and Sept. 26.

Wildcats split games on weekend schedule

The weekend road trip to Minnesota resulted in a split. The Wayne State women's soccer team now stands at 7-8-2 after avenging an early season loss on Saturday and falling to the league's top team on Saturday.

WSC tallied a 4-1 win at Concordia-St. Paul in St. Paul, Minn., on Saturday to avenge a home loss to the Golden Bears from earlier this season.

The Wildcats scored early in Saturday's win when Amy Lindstrom fired an unassisted goal at 2:01 to move to a 1-0 lead.

WSC struck again in the ninth minute when Kelly O'Connor scored off an assist from Anne-Marie Lind to take a 2-0 advantage.

Lind added a score of her own; her eighth this season, off an assist from Mary Ann Liebenritt to take a 3-0 lead in the 18th minute of the first half.

Kate Goss recorded Wayne's fourth goal off a penalty kick in the 57th minute of the second half, while the Golden Bears added a late goal en route to the 4-1 final.

WSC held a 19-15 advantage in shots over Concordia University and Wildcat goalkeeper Jamie Anderson recorded seven saves in the win for Wayne State.

The team traveled to No. 21 Winona State on Sunday and dropped a 3-0 decision as Winona State improved to 14-1-1 overall and win ten wins and one tie in league play.

Winona State opened the scoring with an early goal in the fourth minute and added goals in the 79th and 84th minutes to pick up the win. Winona outshot WSC in the contest 19-6 and held a 10-1 advantage in corner kicks over the Wildcats.

Anderson was credited with eight WSC saves and allowed three goals in the loss. Six different Wildcat players were able to get in shots for WSC. The Wildcats (7-8-2, 5-5-1) hit the road again next weekend with visits to Minnesota State-Moorhead on Saturday and Northern State on Sunday.

Junior high teams wrap up season

The Wayne Junior High teams recently concluded their respective football seasons against Hartington Cedar Catholic.

The eighth grade team dropped a 26-6 decision to Cedar on Oct. 13. Derek Poutre scored Wayne's only touchdown on a 30-yard run in the fourth quarter.

The team finished 0-4 on the season.

The seventh grade team capped a 3-1 season with a 40-8 win against Cedar on Oct. 13.

Wayne jumped to a 22-0 halftime lead the Cedar game starting with a 32-yard pass from Jacob Zeiss to Zach Thomsen and a two-point conversion run by Jaime Fernandez.

Zeiss ran in the second Wayne score on a one-yard run to take 15-0 lead. Keegan Dorey connected with Justin Anderson on a four-yard pass play and Zeiss added a two-point conversion run to finish out the first half scoring.

Zeiss added two more touchdowns in the second half off runs of 22 and 96 yards, while Fernandez recorded his second touchdown on a 22-yard run.

The only loss for the squad was a 27-8 defeat by Schuyler on Sept. 29.

WSC rugby teams secure bids to National Playoffs

By Mike O'Brien
 For the Herald

Dominating performances from both rugby teams on Oct. 1 helped WSC secure its third straight National Playoff spot in April which will be held at Oklahoma University.

The Wildcats were also crowned the Great Plains conference champions after the victory.

In the men's game, WSC pounded out a 74-0 victory over Creighton. The Wildcats had a 28-0 cushion heading into the half.

Preston Parker sparked WSC in the second half with a blocked punt which he returned 30 yards for a touchdown. This was part of a 46-point explosion for the Wildcats.

Offensively, the Wildcats were led by Beau Benson with three scores.

The other touchdowns came from Phillip Bartlett, Zach Korth, Brent Newland, Trevin Riley, Jason Kilker, Beau Boryca, Chris Smith and Kyle Ellensohn.

Head coach Darrin Barner expects the men's first round opponent in the National Playoffs will be Texas Tech.

In women's action, WSC cruised to a 62-5 victory over Nebraska-Lincoln.

WSC held a 21-0 halftime lead after two Angela Mathews' touchdowns late in the first half.

Barner decided to switch to a "run and gun" offense in the second half to neutralize the size of the Huskers.

The Wildcat's speed created problems for the Husker defense as they erupted in the second half, scoring 41 points.

Becky Webster, Deb Schinkel, Tiff Shepard, Jessi Gatzmeyer, Cami Jo Kalkowski and Laura Wielechowski also lit up the scoreboard for the Wildcats.

Barner expects the women to play Colorado in the opening round of the National Playoffs.

Broccoli and Bladder Cancer
A study by Harvard and Ohio State Universities revealed that men who ate two or more half-cup servings of broccoli a week had a 44% reduced risk of bladder cancer. There are certain compounds in broccoli that researchers have isolated and believe may help prevent or slow the progress of bladder cancer. In laboratory experiments, these phytochemicals inhibited the growth of human bladder cancer cells. The greatest effect appeared to be on the most aggressive form of bladder cancer studied.

Nelson presses Senate and House to maintain funding for anti-meth measures

Nebraska's Senator Ben Nelson is pressing the Senate and House conferees to the Commerce, Justice and Science Appropriations bill to maintain the boost in funding for the Byrne Grant program that supports the efforts of local law enforcement to combat meth.

Nelson joined with more than 30 colleagues in sending a letter to the key Senators and House members asking for the funding to be protected. The funds are included in the Senate's spending bill that funds the Dept. of Justice's law enforcement grant programs.

"Our state and local law enforcement officials are in a constant struggle against the scourge of meth and other illegal drugs and listening to them over the years is why I have consistently supported funding the fight against meth," said Sen. Nelson. "The Senate restored a commitment to fight this dangerous drug and we need to preserve that funding in the final version of the legislature. We shouldn't be reducing funds to local law enforcement while we continue to ask them to do more in the areas of homeland security and protecting our neighborhoods."

Nebraska has used the Byrne funds to develop and operate nine multi-jurisdictional drug task forces; training for law enforcement officers; implement and upgrade the State's Automated Fingerprint Identification System (AFIS); support for the operation of rural Drug Courts; develop and implement a comprehensive treatment program for drug offenders within the State Dept. of Corrections; train law enforcement officers; develop and operate a Drug Prosecution Unit in the Attorney General's office; and to develop and operate a Drug Prosecution Unit in the Attorney General's office; and to develop and operate the computerized Nebraska Criminal Justice Information System.

According to the Nebraska Crime Commission (NCC), in 2004 Nebraska received $3.6 million in Byrne funds to subgrant to state and local entities for fighting meth and other purposes. The NCC award for 2005 was 2.1 million. As a result of the task force operations, an average of 5,000 individuals are arrested per year for illegal drug activities. The majority of the arrests involve methamphetamine.

The federal resources provided by grant programs like Byrne are vital, particularly for rural communities, to combat the supply and demand of illegal drugs. The Senate's provision provides a modest increase, which restores funding to the previous FY 2003 level, with an offset, by providing level funding for certain Dept. of Justice Administrative costs.

Soaring like an eagle

Motivational speaker Chad Hymas of Rush Valley, Utah recently spoke to students at Wayne Public Schools in two assemblies. Hymas became a quadriplegic in 2001 at the age of 27, and since that time has used his experiences to speak at hundreds of events on turning obstacles into opportunities. He also spoke on the impact of decisions made throughout his life. Among the stories shared with his audiences was that in 2003 he was able to set a world record by wheeling his chair from Salt Lake City, Utah to Las Vegas, Nev., a distance of 513 miles.

Supporting the program

Carstens presented first program of Campus Showcase

Dr. Jeffrey Carstens, assistant dean of students and director of residence life, presented the first program of "Campus Showcase," at Wayne State College for the 2005-06 academic year, Oct. 7, in the

Dr. Jeff Carstens visits with those attending the Campus Showcase program at Wayne State college recently. He explained some of the changes in residence hall life.

Neihardt Hall lobby (north of Hahn Administration Building) on the Wayne State campus.

His presentation, "College residence hall life: past and present," featured several current Wayne State students as well as former students who lived in Neihardt Hall, which celebrated its 75th anniversary last year. A tour of the recently-renovated residence hall followed the presentation.

"Campus Showcase," held the first Friday of most months during the academic year, is part of the college's outreach to the community and region. Each program lasts approximately one hour; a variety of programs have been scheduled for this year. Refreshments will be provided and prize drawings will be held. Although designed for senior citizen appeal, all ages are invited and encouraged to attend. There is no admission charge.

Because parking on campus is limited, a free shuttle service from the Wayne Senior Citizens Center/Public Library at 410 Pearl Street will be provided by the college before and after the event. The shuttle will depart from the Senior Citizens Center/Public Library at approximately 8:45 a.m. and will return immediately following the program. Those wishing to ride the shuttle are asked to park near the south end of the Senior Citizens Center.

Tortilla Heaven coming to Wayne State

"Tortilla Heaven," a one-person play by Celeste Angela Estrada and performed by Comedy Central's award-winning performer Jade Esteban Estrada, will be presented in Ley Theatre in the Brandenburg Education building on campus Thursday, Nov. 3, at 8 p.m.

"Tortilla Heaven" is a comedic, yet very real story of first-, second- and third-generation Mexicans trying to relate to one another. The first-generation lives a humble life making home feel more like home, second-generation abandons his roots in order to assimilate to the big city life and the third-generation tries to understand it all without knowing the language of his people. When generations finally meet, speaking the same language seems to be the easy part of a difficult journey trying to understand why one's family is so different.

This will be Estrada's second appearance at Wayne State College. Last year, he performed a one-act play on campus. The play will be performed in Spanish and English. It is co-sponsored by Latinos Uniting, PRIDE, WSCPEN, International Club, Drama Club, Student Activities Board, Office of Multicultural Affairs, Wayne Lutheran Campus Ministry and Sisters of Notre Dame. There is no admission charge; the public is invited.

For more information, please call 402-375-7321.

Fire Prevention Week

Art Barker is showing the children from Goldenrod Hills Head Start the ladder truck at the Wayne Volunteer Fire Department. He explained that it can extend to reach the top of Bowen Hall at the college. Head Start has been learning about how we keep safe with fire and fire prevention rules.

Special allocation

The Wayne United Way recently presented a check for $600 to the Wayne Association of Congregations and Ministers as a special allocation of the organization's funds. The money will be used to provide assistance to those local residents and transients who request assistance with food, transportation or other necessities. Involved in the check presentation were, left to right, United Way Board members Pastor Bill Koeber, Pastor Cal Kroeker with the Wayne Association of Congregations and Ministers and Shelley Jorgensen.

MDA offers flu shots for people with neuromuscular diseases

As it's been done for several years, the Muscular Dystrophy Assoc. will again provide free flu shots to people with any of the more than 40 neuromuscular diseases in the Association's program. Influenza is much riskier for anyone who has a progressive neuromuscular disease that damages the muscles responsible for lung function. It's particularly dangerous for those with muscular dystrophy, spinal muscular atrophy, amyotrophic lateral sclerosis (Lou Gehrig's disease) and other neuromuscular diseases.

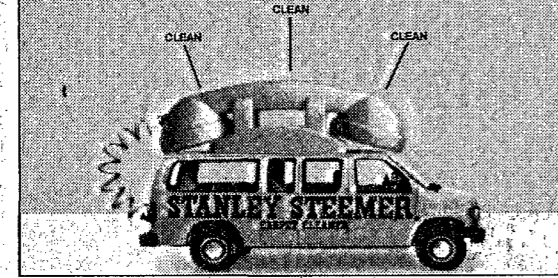

"Respiratory infections caused by a flu virus can become very dangerous for children and adults with neuromuscular diseases whose respiratory function is already weakened," MDA President and CEO Robert Ross said. "For this reason, MDA provides those we serve with free flu shots to reduce their chances of getting a potentially serious illness." MDA provides thousands of free flu shots annually, thanks to funds raised during the Jerry Lewis MDA Telethon, broadcast locally on Labor Day weekend on KM3 and other events held year-round. In Nebraska, MDA maintains three clinics, including one adult clinic and one pediatric clinic locally. For more information about obtaining a free flu shot for someone with a neuromuscular disease, call the MDA office in Omaha at 402-390-2914 or visit www.mdausa.org. MDA is a voluntary health agency providing services, research and professional and public health education. The Association's programs are funded almost entirely by individual private contributors.

More West Nile cases in Nebraska

So far this season, 162 cases of West Nile virus from 41 counties have been reported to the Nebraska Department of Health and Human Services Regulation and Licensure, including one death.

In addition, 97 birds from 33 counties in the state have tested positive for West Nile virus.

Last year, there were 54 cases of the virus reported in the state, with no deaths. In 2003, there were 2,366 cases, with 29 deaths. In 2002, the first year that the virus appeared in the state, Nebraska had 174 cases and eight deaths.

People can take precautions to avoid being bitten by mosquitoes. The virus is transmitted through the bite of a mosquito that has picked up the virus by feeding on an infected bird.

Most people who are infected by a mosquito have no symptoms or only mild flu-like symptoms. Less than one out of 100 people who get bitten by an infected mosquito and become infected will get seriously ill. The risk of serious illness is higher for those age 50 and older.

West Nile fever includes flu-like symptoms such as fever and muscle weakness. Symptoms of West Nile encephalitis include inflammation of the brain, disorientation, convulsions and paralysis.

To avoid mosquito bites, the HHS System recommends that people "fight the bite" during outdoor activities by:

- applying mosquito repellent containing DEET, picaridin or oil of lemon eucalyptus,
- wearing long-sleeved shirts, long pants and socks,
- avoiding going out at dawn and dusk (when mosquitoes are most active), and eliminating standing water to reduce mosquito breeding sites.

Picaridin and oil of lemon eucalyptus are newly approved by the federal Centers for Disease Control and Prevention for the prevention of mosquito bites.

Nebraska celebrating Great Fans Great Sports Week

There are many benefits to involvement in competitive events. The very nature of contests is to push participants to do their best. It is often only through competition that excellence is achieved. Being on a team can also fulfill the need to belong, create a sense of togetherness and build confidence. In celebration of Great Fans.

Great Sports. SM week October 24-30, 1,000 Nebraska residents will be selected to receive "High Five" awards in honor of their outstanding sportsmanship. Area agencies, schools, organizations and businesses are asked to select individuals for the "High Five" awards and report nominees to the UNL-Extension Office in your county.

Those selected may be students, parents, teachers, or community members, and the selection process will be left to each individual group to decide. "High-Five" awards are given when someone sees someone else performing an act that shows respect and responsibility in their actions, and/or catching someone in the act of being a good "sport" in whatever they do.

The sponsoring organization is encouraged to recognize their nominee as a "High Five" sportsmanship award winners during Great Fans. Great Sports. SM week. Those selected will receive a "High Five" award certificate, which can be redeemed at the local extension office for a Great Fans. Great Sports. SM t-shirt, and a chance to win one of five iPods.

The awards will be given out on a first come, first served basis, with a total of 1,000 winners across the state of Nebraska. Nominations must be received by October 30th. Local organizations are also encouraged to plan additional sportsmanship activities during the sportsmanship awareness week.

A High Five Nomination Form for Great Fans. Great Sports. SM as well as other resources can be obtained by calling Sandy Preston at the UNL Extension Office in Dixon County 402-584-2234, Amy

The Wayne Lutheran Campus Ministry at Wayne State College dedicated its new chapel recently with the celebration of Holy Communion, followed by a meal and musical entertainment by Simone Weber, singer-songwriter from Lincoln.

Those involved as worship participants included Rev. Bill Koeber, as they live out their vocation."

The Chapel offers separate sacred space for worship. It provides a quiet place for prayer and reflection, an easily accessible venue for musical, artistic and educational events.

Becki Oetken, a WSC Junior student said, "The opportunities it will create for students are endless."

ported the chapel project with their monetary gifts, volunteer service, and prayers," said Lynette Lentz, WLCM board member.

The chapel was built by Wriedt Construction and many volunteers. Two major contributors of grants for this project include the Gardner Foundation of Wakefield, who gave the generous matching grant which allowed the ministry to begin the project and the National Lutheran Campus Ministry, Inc. who also provided a very generous grant as well. Thrivent Financial for Lutherans matched gifts for the chapel through the Giving Plus program and Wayne-Dixon County Chapter of Thrivent Financial for Lutherans provided funds for the landscaping.

Wayne Lutheran Campus Ministry at WSC is a ministry of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America, Nebraska Synod and Nebraska Lutheran Campus Ministry. Sandra L. Braasch serves as the Campus minister. The chapel is located at 1301 Schreiner Dr. in Wayne.

Simone Weber, a singer-songwriter whose music inspires and compels her listeners, sang at the event. She has been compared to a contemporary Joni Mitchell mixed with the spirit filled approach of Amy Grant and has performed and studied with professionals in New York City, and received her Undergraduate degree at UNL in music.

"The theme of our building campaign is Building Opportunities, Building Hope. These words describe why it is we want a Chapel here. This Chapel will open doors for our students, providing new ministry opportunities for them, and ultimately building their faith and hope in our Lord Jesus Christ as they live their lives. The Chapel will offer a separate sacred space for worship and Holy Communion. It will provide a quiet place for prayer and reflection. It becomes an easily accessible venue for musical, artistic and educational events. The opportunities it will create for students are endless. It is a very important tool for ministering to students at this time in their lives," said Sandra Braasch.

Our Savior Lutheran Church of Wayne, Sandra L. Braasch, Campus minister, Karen Tjarks, Lutheran Vicar at Concordia Lutheran Church and First Lutheran Church of Concord and Allen respectively.

WSC students involved included Becki Oetken, Oliver Warui, Jason Selman, Michelle Waldecker, Eric Boettcher, Shawn Brock, Bul Deng, and WSC graduate Tom Wiseman. Emily Bruflat, a Wayne High School senior, was the accompanist. WLCM board members, Lynette Lentz and Vicki Hingst served as hostesses, and Leslie Hausmann and Warren Hanson, served as ushers.

"For many years having a chapel as part of the WelCoMe House has been a dream and ministry goal...on Sunday it became a reality," Sandra Braasch said at the celebration. The theme of the building campaign was "Building Opportunities, Building Hope." These words describe why a chapel was built. This Chapel will open doors for students, providing new ministry opportunities for them, and ultimately building their faith and hope in our Lord Jesus Christ

Women of the ELCA learn about Tanzania

Twenty-two women of the ELCA World Relief have been used in the met at Our Savior Lutheran Church on Oct. 11. All health kits from Lutheran South - New Orleans, etc. All members are encouraged to make a kit, which will be sent in November.

The group is sponsoring a child from Senegal, Africa. Money is sent to him each month and gifts are sent for his birthday. Lois Youngerman read a letter from him to us.

Mae Greve, who was one of the 16 Nebraska ladies to go to Tanzania last year, gave the program.

The annual income in Tanzania is $250 to $300 per year. These women visited different homes near Mt. Kilimanjaro. Because of the fact that the government does not fund kindergarten there, each church has one.

Phyllis Rahn and Dorothy Wert attended the convention in Kearney in September. While there, they were told of the water shortage in Argentina. Mrs. Wert brought back three bottles of drinking water, symbolic of the problem in Argentina. Three of the groups received these bottles to take home.

Long-term outlook calls for above normal temperatures, precipitation uncertain

The coming winter may be warmer than normal if long-term forecasts hold, but the outlook for much needed moisture is less clear, the University of Nebraska-Lincoln state climatologist said.

Forecasts are calling for above normal temperatures, particularly during December through February, said Al Dutcher, UNL state climatologist.

With high natural gas prices forecast this winter, above normal temperatures might be a good thing from the pocketbook standpoint.

"However, that is the only thing long-term forecasts are hinting at," Dutcher said.

"There are no tendencies for any part of the state to receive above or below normal precipitation. That means there are equal chances for precipitation to be above or below normal in the long-term forecast," he said. Forecasts could change going into winter months. The good news is that precipitation in December, January and February only accounts for seven percent of the state's yearly precipitation total.

"So if there aren't any significant changes in precipitation trends for these months, it is not too much of a concern because we're not losing that much ground," Dutcher said. "What we want to see is precipitation now through November."

The two-month periods of October and November and March and April each account for 4 to 5 inches of the yearly precipitation total.

"It is a critical time right now," Dutcher said. "We want to see four to five inches of liquid precipitation in the next couple of months and ample spring moisture to recharge the soil moisture profile."

Fall storm systems typically do not deliver widespread thunderstorm activity, Dutcher said, but generate more uniform precipitation patterns of 0.5- to 2-inch rains at a time across the state.

"The layer above the earth's surface is more stable at this time of year and we don't see the variances in precipitation like we do in the summer," he said. "In addition, rainfall generally doesn't fall very hard and does a good job soaking into the soil, building up subsoil moisture."

In western Nebraska, Lake McConaughy is seven feet higher than at this time last year. In addition, snow storms already have hit the Rockies this fall.

"Hydrologically, this is good for our lakes and streams," Dutcher said. "We have and could continue to see improvements in Wyoming and Colorado."

So far this year, parts of western Nebraska have received more precipitation than eastern part of the state.

"Western Nebraska has done exceptionally well on precipitation compared to eastern Nebraska, and many places in western Nebraska have higher precipitation totals than places in eastern Nebraska," Dutcher said parts of the western third of the state have received 10 more inches of moisture so far this year compared to the same time frame last year.

Moisture shortages in the eastern third of Nebraska, specifically east central and the extreme south-east, is of concern, especially for dryland crops, he said.

September was unusually dry statewide. However, areas that received late summer rainfall should have ample soil moisture for the winter wheat crop, Dutcher said.

"Wheat fields harvested in July and replanted should have received good rainfall, and wheat fields that were in fallow should be doing even better moisture-wise," he said. "Ample precipitation to keep the upper few inches of the soil profile moist so that proper germination takes place could be of some concern. But once the crop is emerged there still should be ample moisture deeper in the soil profile for good stand development across much of the winter wheat growing areas of the state."

Are You GUILTY?

Are you guilty of deflating our community's economy, slowing street repairs, restricting education or eliminating your child's Little League teams? You are if you don't Shop-At-Home. The dollars you spend right here improve your community, not somebody else's. This theft from our community isn't intentional, but that doesn't relieve the guilt. Sign-up under way for 2006 program

The annual sign-up for the U.S. Department of Agriculture's Direct and Counter-cyclical Program is underway, according to the head of the Wayne County Farm Service Agency.

Debra J. Pieper, county executive director, said enrollment for the 2006 Direct and Counter-cyclical Payment Program began Oct. 1, 2005 and will continue until June 1, 2006.

"Producers have until June 1, 2006 to enroll in the 2006 DCP," Pieper said. "We will accept late applications through Sept. 30, 2006, but we assess a $100 late fee." Producers must sign DCP contracts annually and can choose not to participate in the program in Producers can visit the Wayne County FSA office, or their administratively-assigned center, to complete their 2006 DCP contract. In addition, sign-up can be done online, allowing producers to choose payment options, assign crop shares and sign and submit their contracts from any computer with Internet access. DCP participants can view and print out submitted contract options at any time.

The electronic service saves producers time, reduces paperwork and speeds up contract processing at USDA Farm Service Agency offices. It is available to all producers who are eligible to participate in DCP and who obtain eAuthentication accounts. The service has strict security measures to protect participants' private information. Only federal employees with authorization have access to information submitted electronically.

The electronic service is available at <http://www.fsa.usda.gov/egov/edcp-default.htm>

To access the service, producers must have an active USDA eAuthentication Level 2 account, which requires filling out an online registration form at <http://www.eauth.egov.usda.gov> followed by a visit to the local USDA Service Center for identity verification.

More information on DCP is available at USDA Service Centers and on FSA's Web site at <http://www.fsa.usda.gov>

Surgery is not 'a piece of cake'

Yours truly is hobbling around on crutches this morning, and her brain isn't moving any faster than her body. I just remembered it's Tuesday, and I'd better get something e-mailed pretty soon. Then, I suppose I will need to check messages; they tend to accumulate in a week's time.

Age is catching up, and arthritis is slowing me down, much as I hate to admit it. A couple of years ago, I noticed a "hitch in my get along." With the arthroscope a year and a half ago, I was told there was "bone on bone". That didn't sound good. And this summer, I wasn't moving well at all. When I could no longer go for a walk, my only real exercise, I figured something had to be done. Even grocery shopping was a chore.

I had already taken tons of glucosamine, and had the "chicken comb" injections; nothing was helping. So, I saw the young man who had done the scope and said I was ready for replacement. Last Thursday was the day; and as my friend Mary Corder says, "It wasn't exactly a walk in the park." I used to shudder when I helped with orthopedic surgery; they literally use carpenter's tools. And I had a spinal, so I could hear the guy hammering.

It's kind of like an assembly line. You have a class at the hospital, and you have another one at the surgeon's office. The day after the surgery, you go to "joint camp" in the "club house." The therapists there put you through your paces. The first session isn't much fun, but it gets better. They keep the pain pills coming. And the ice! I wonder how many ice cubes they went through. And, after three days, they send you home; or to an extended care facility. A lot of the older folks were going back to swing beds in their home communities.

By: Pat Meierhenry

Kay stayed with her Dad the whole time I was in the hospital; and that was a blessing. She also hauled her Grandma around, and went to see my aunt, who was in the same hospital, on the same floor. She brought me home, and then left for her house. The second shift arrived; my little sister, who worked on an orthopedic floor, and she brought lasagna and pie.

Today, I have to go to physical therapy, and I'm not looking forward to it. They were a group of sadists after the arthroscope! But it's a necessary evil, and I can't drive as long as I'm taking narcotics. And I am taking narcotics! I love them. I don't like being waited on. It, too, is necessary, I guess. And I try really hard not to live up to the reputation of nurses being bad patients. But I sure will be glad when the next month is over. My patience is being tried. Hopefully, it will all be worth it.

I did get to see the game, wasn't that great? The hospital paid the commercial price to make it available in our rooms. The other neat thing this hospital does is play Brahms' Lullaby on the overhead speaker whenever they have a new baby. And I'm sure I heard that lullaby at least six times on Saturday. They also had a wedding in the chapel that day. A busy place!

We are setting records for warm weather. That bugged me, too; I missed a lot of nice days. At least our rooms were high enough that we could see all the trees turning color. And Mary has been sweeping up leaves from the patio; they are falling fast.

That's all the news from the townhouse now; it's time for a nap!

Final 2004 crop corn and grain sorghum counter-cyclical payments issued

The U.S. Department of Agriculture's Farm Service Agency is issuing final 2004 crop counter-cyclical payments for corn and grain sorghum this month, according to Wayne County FSA County Executive Director Debra J. Pieper. The final payment rate for corn is $0.29 per bushel and $0.27 for grain sorghum.

Final counter-cyclical payments are made at the end of an applicable crop's 12-month marketing year. The 2002 Farm Bill provides for two partial 2004-crop counter-cyclical payments. The first was in October 2004 and the other in February 2005. The final marketing year price for 2004-crop corn is $2.06 per bushel. The final price for grain sorghum is $1.79 per bushel. "Producers who took first and second partial counter-cyclical payments on 2004-crop corn received $0.28 per bushel," Pieper said. "They are due an additional $0.01 per bushel. Producers who took first and second partial payments on grain sorghum received $0.189 per bushel. They are due an additional $0.081 per bushel."

Producers will not receive final 2004-crop counter-cyclical payments for soybeans since effective prices exceed target prices. "Producers who took first and second partial counter-cyclical payments for soybeans were overpaid," Pieper said. Under rules of the 2002 Farm Bill, overpayments will automatically be deducted from future crop year direct and counter-cyclical payments, unless producers made other repayment arrangements with the county office staff before June 15, 2005.

The 2004-crop year overpayments rate is $0.182 per bushel for soybeans.

New program allows growers to enjoy both cash discounts and attractive financing

Farm Credit Services of America (FCSAmerica) announced recently the introduction of a new seed and chemical financing program that will allow growers to take advantage of both cash discounts and attractive financing rates on key input purchases.

"Traditionally, growers have had to choose whether to pay cash and enjoy those discounts, or to finance their purchases at below-market interest rates through programs from various seed and crop protection chemical suppliers," says Preston Kranz, Financial Officer for FCSAmerica. "With our new program, growers in Iowa, Nebraska, South Dakota and Wyoming can enjoy the advantages of both payment options."

"Producers who were overpaid on soybeans might see reductions in their final counter-cyclical payments for corn and sorghum or their 2005 direct DCP payments," she said.

For more information on the direct and counter-cyclical payment programs, visit the Wayne County Farm Service Agency office or the FSA Web site at <http://www.fsa.usda.gov>

Here is how it works: A grower selects seed and crop protection products, borrows funds from FCSAmerica and pays cash to the retailer or retailers for these inputs. If the grower pays off the FCSAmerica loan balance by Feb. 1, 2007, the rate is an attractive 1 percent under prime.

Another key benefit of the FCSAmerica program is that all seed and crop protection products are eligible for financing. "This program offers unlimited product options," says Kranz. "You don't have to select a certain brand of seed or choose from an 'approved' list of crop protection products."

Borrowers using the program must complete an application and submit invoices to document their purchases. The program ends April 30, 2006, but growers will likely want to purchase their inputs earlier to enjoy maximum cash discounts from their suppliers.

For more information, contact an FCSAmerica financial officer or call 1-800-884-FARM.

Farm Credit Services of America is proud to finance the growth of rural America, including the special needs of young and beginning producers. With over 63,000 customers, assets of $8.9 billion and a patronage program, FCSAmerica is one of the largest providers of credit and insurance services to farmers, ranchers, agribusiness and rural residents in Iowa, Nebraska, South Dakota and Wyoming.

ORDINANCE NO. 2005-29 AN ORDINANCE AMENDING CHAPTER 38, ARTICLE IV FIRE DEPARTMENT, BY ADDING SECTION 38-113 ALARM SYSTEMS, SECTION 38-114 EXCESSIVE FALSE ALARMS AND SECTION 38-115 NO LIABILITY ON PART OF CITY; TO PROVIDE FOR THE REPEAL OF CONFLICTING ORDINANCES OR SECTIONS; AND TO PROVIDE FOR AN EFFECTIVE DATE.

BE IT ORDAINED by the Mayor and Council of the City of Wayne, Nebraska:

Section 1. That Chapter 38, Article IV, Section 38-113, Section 38-114, and Section 38-115 of the Wayne Municipal Code be added to read as follows:

Sec. 38-113 Alarm Systems

Alarm systems must incorporate a device that allows an adequate delay before the time at which activation of the system would directly or indirectly signal public safety personnel. This delay is to permit the subscriber to stop a false alarm from being transmitted.

The alarm system shall incorporate a device that limits any exterior signal to a period of time not to exceed sixty (60) minutes in duration. At the expiration of the maximum time permitted, the alarm system shall automatically cease to emit a signal.

Section 38-114 Excessive False Alarms

If any alarm system produces three (3) false alarms in any twelve (12) consecutive months, written notice of that fact shall be given by certified mail or delivery to the subscriber, or other appropriate party (available twenty-four (24) hours a day and seven (7) days a week) at the addresses listed in the most recent such notification for that alarm system. Thereafter, the City Administrator or his/her designated representative shall have the power to require the subscriber to comply with any one (1) or combination of the requirements set forth below as would minimize, in his/her judgment, such false alarms in the future:

A. The subscriber may be charged for the direct and indirect costs to the City of time, labor, equipment, and other services rendered in responding to each subsequent alarm that may be charged a fee, to be adopted by resolution of the Council, per false alarm, whichever is higher. Such charges shall continue for each consecutive false alarm until six (6) consecutive months have elapsed during which no false alarms have been registered, and must be paid within fifteen (15) days after notice thereof is given in the same manner as provided by this section for notice of excessive false alarms.

B. The subscriber may be required to cause the alarm system to comply immediately with the applicable standards referred to in Section 38-113 (those standards otherwise being imposed only on alarm systems installed after enactment of this Article).

C. The subscriber may be required to disconnect the alarm system immediately in such fashion that signals are not emitted so as to notify public safety personnel directly or indirectly through automatic telephone recording devices or to register a signal which is so audible, visible, or in other ways, perceptible outside a protected building, structure, or facility as to notify persons in the neighborhood who may in turn notify public safety personnel of the signal.

Notice of the determination of the City Administrator or his/her designated representative shall be given in the same manner as provided by this section for notice of excessive false alarms.

Section 38-115 No Liability on Part of City

Nothing in this Article nor the existence of any other fact(s) shall be construed to require a response by public safety personnel to an address or location registering an alarm. The City shall neither assume nor bear any liability for its failure to respond to such an alarm signal.

Section 2. All Ordinances or parts of Ordinances in conflict herewith are repealed.

Section 3. This Ordinance shall be in full force and effect after its passage, approval, and publication as provided by law.

PASSED AND APPROVED this 11th day of October, 2005.

Cataracts affect over 80% of our senior citizens. In fact over one million cataract surgeries are performed annually in the U.S. alone.

New technological developments in implants, ultrasonic equipment, lasers, diagnostic testing, and surgical techniques have made cataract surgery one of the most effective procedures today. Currently, over 98% of cataract patients experience significant improvements in vision, without major complications.

Until now, the high cost of this new technology for cataract surgery was only available in the larger surgical facilities. This meant that you would have to travel for a complete eye examination and surgery. Not any longer.

Complete eye care and cataract surgery is now available at Providence Medical Center in Wayne. You don't have to travel outside of your community to have your vision tested for cataracts. With Dr. Willcockson, Dr. Koerber and Dr. Magnuson offering comprehensive diagnostic and surgical services, you now have the most advanced eye care available right here in town.

Call Dr. Koerber or Dr. Magnuson for a complete eye examination and cataract vision screening today. If you would like more information on cataracts for yourself or someone you know who may be experiencing loss of vision, call today for a free informational brochure.
