Seeing red

Red was prominent in Wayne on Friday as the community celebrated "Wear Red Day." Even the statues at Wayne State College were decked out in red to show awareness for heart disease. Wayne State College is currently sponsoring a learning project entitled "The Heart Truth Campaign." Statistics indicate that heart disease is the number one killer of women.

Price set for sidewalk enhancements

By Clara Osten
Of the Herald

In a special meeting with one agenda item, the Wayne City Council voted to establish a set amount to be assessed to property owners for enhancements to be completed in conjunction with the Main Street project this summer.

A Business Improvement District (BID) was formed last year to allow for enhancements during the project and assistance in financing these enhancements. At that time preliminary cost estimates, with funding from the city, were determined to be $28 per linear foot.

Randy Pedersen, who has actively involved with the creation of the BID and contacting property owners to explain the project, told the council that he "sold the project to business owners on an 80-20 (percent) split."

However, in an effort to have a better chance of obtaining grant funding, City Administrator Lowell Johnson, presented the grant information with a 70-30 (percent) split.

Late last fall, the city received a grant of $180,196 from the Nebraska Department of Roads for the project.

Paul Lindner, who has also been involved with the BID, said the enhancements would be "an improvement to the community, and not just the downtown. I feel the city should go with the 80-20 split to show the city is with us to help the downtown."

Bids were opened last week and were very favorable for the project. Because of this, the city will actually receive $178,844, which is 70 percent of the costs allocated to Wayne.

Following discussion, the council voted to set the cost of the enhancements to property owners at $25 per linear foot, rather than at a percentage.

"A dollar amount is better than a percentage, which could change, depending on project changes, or other unknowns," said Council member Betty Reeg.

The $25 per linear foot figure would cost $1,250 to a business owner with 50 feet of frontage. This amount can be financed by the city over a period of 10 years at a current interest rate of four percent.

"This translates into $125 per year, plus interest," said Council member Don Buryanek, who introduced the motion to go with a set fee rather than a percentage.

The council will meet in regular session on Tuesday, Feb. 14 at 7:30 p.m. in council chambers.

Proposed route of pipeline to go through county

A pipeline for crude oil from Canada could run underground through Wayne County.

The proposed route of the "Keystone" pipeline will be along U.S.

Highway 81 through Cedar, Wayne, Stanton, Platte and Colfax counties on its way to the Kansas border and down to refineries in Oklahoma and then east to Illinois.

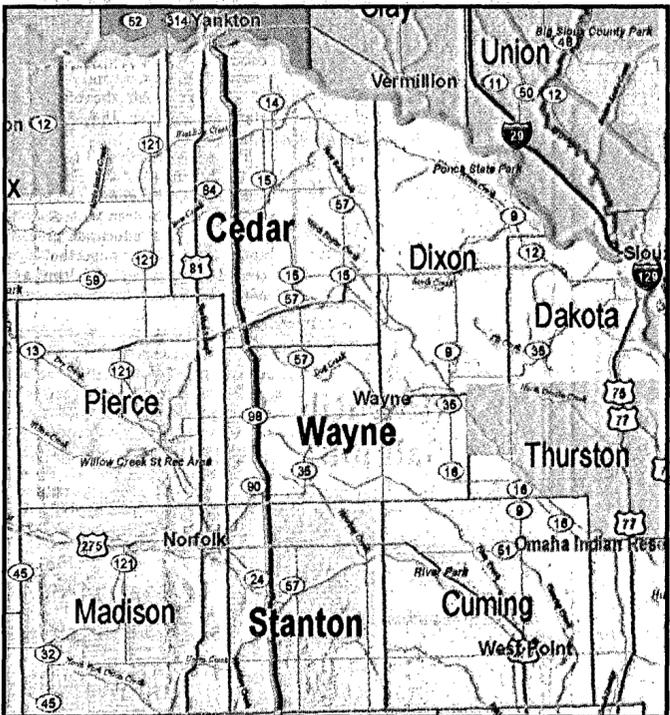

TransCanada Corporation is the company that has secured long term contracts to ship 340,000 barrels of oil a day through the pipeline. TransCanada is now proceeding with the regulatory process and detailed engineering work.

Construction is anticipated to start in 2007.

There will be community meetings and potentially affected landowners will be contacted in the areas affected by the pipeline's route. Meetings were held last year in the Dakotas, Iowa, Missouri and Illinois but not in Nebraska. Earlier it had looked as though the route of the pipeline would go through Iowa and not Nebraska. The final route will be determined over coming months and will take into consideration community and customer input, engineering requirements and the regulatory and permitting process.

In November, an agreement was signed with ConocoPhillips Pipe Line Company committing it to ship crude oil, giving it the right to acquire up to a 50 percent interest in the pipeline. The 1,830 mile pipeline is estimated to cost $2.1 billion. It would be 30 inches in diameter and would be buried four feet deep. There will be right of way easements about 60 feet wide that will be negotiated with land owners.

More information about the project can be found at www.transcanada.com/keystone.

Consolidation of local precincts is approved for election purposes

By Lynn Stevers
Of the Herald

Wayne County Commissioners met in regular session Tuesday at the courthouse in Wayne. A hearing was held on election precinct consolidation of Chapin/Hancock and Winside precincts. Wayne County Clerk Deb Finn noted that they started looking at the consolidation in 2002 as there is supposed to be a minimum of 250 ballots cast in each precinct.

In 2004, there were 224 ballots cast (including absentee and regular ballots) in Chapin/Hancock precincts and 221 at Winside. Other precincts (such as Brenna, Plum Creek and Hunter had come together a couple of years ago).

Two people who help at the polling site in Winside (Bill Burris and Marilyn Morse) expressed their concerns if they will be able to process voters quickly if it becomes too busy because of the merger.

Plus, there's concern with the new Auto Mark voter assist terminal machine taking more time, which could be a problem. Finn told her that people can vote the usual way and do not have to use the machine. The State is providing the machines at polling places for everyone in Nebraska to use but especially so the disabled can vote on their own without help.

Finn said there will be seminars before the election to show people how to run the machines, plus she will have one set up in her office for demonstrations and for absentee ballots.

Commissioners approved the Chapin/Hancock and Winside precincts merger for election purposes effective with the 2006 primary election.

The One and Six Year Road hearing was held. Elizabeth Carlson, highway superintendent, discussed a number of plans for culverts and bridges in Wayne County.

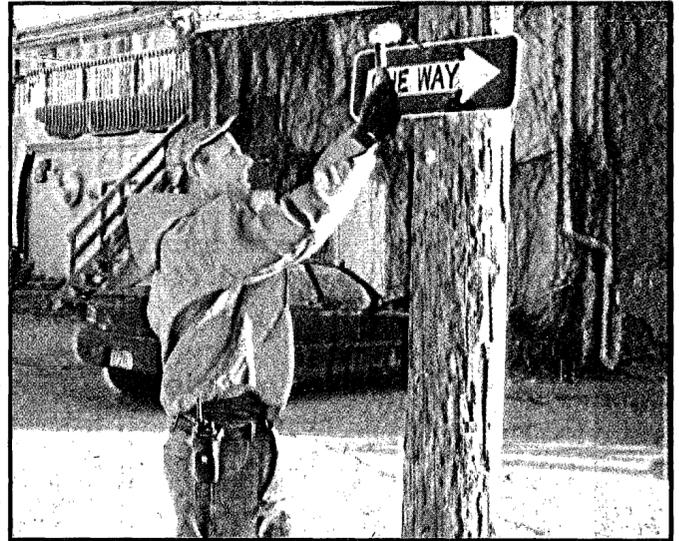

A couple of Wayne County residents were present with concerns in their areas. Mark Wacker was wondering when something could be done with the bridge in his neighborhood, southwest of Wayne. Carlson told him they're having problems getting right of way. She assured him they are doing what they can.

Don Liedman asked when something could be done with the Sholes road as it is bad. Commissioner Bob Nissen noted they realize that and are looking into the situation. Liedman asked if they could look into getting STP funding for the project and Nissen said they would check into it.

Commissioners approved the One and Six Year plan.

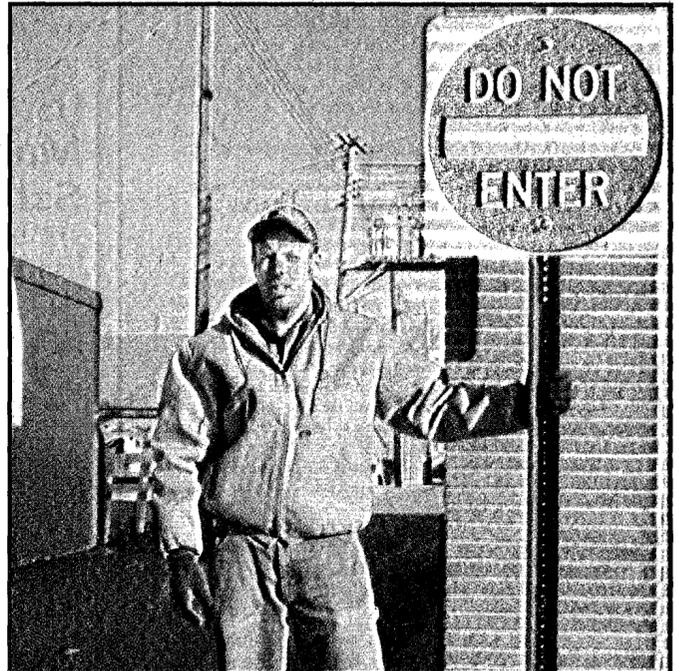

The commissioners approved Mark

Goal is surpassed

Dear Editor,
Once again, Floyd Gleason Unit No. 131, American Legion Auxiliary in Allen has surpassed another milestone in the growth of their unit.
As of Jan. 31, 2006, the Unit is now at 101.220 percent goal with 83 members on board - just eight members from their previous "All-Time High" of 91 members.
Congratulations!

It is indeed awesome to watch this unit week-by-week make strides to strengthen their community and the programs they support. It is the community members who have assisted them in making progress. And for that I thank the community members who have stepped forward with a sincere desire to become a member of the American Legion Family.

Evidently, what Unit members are doing is working for them. Thank you on behalf of the Department of Nebraska for demonstrating courage in locating new members. Please keep your current and new members informed of all events and activities and continue to welcome each of their ideas and support.

This Unit is indeed an example of "Community in small towns builds Hometowns." A special "Thank You" to the editor and staff of the Wayne Herald for publishing our articles and giving us exposure to the community. It is greatly appreciated.

The Membership theme for the Department of Nebraska for 2006 is "Veterans - Our Soul & Inspiration." And, indeed, without America's veterans, we would indeed be a country not working so hard to protect our Freedoms. Thank you veterans in the Allen area and please thank the girls in Unit #131 for a job well done.

Beverly A. Neel,
Department Membership
Chairman

Veterans need help

Dear Editor,
The Nebraska Legislature is working on LB 733, an act relating to crimes and offenses relating to picketing at funerals.

America has a religious organization based in Topeka, Kan. that has been demonstrating at funerals of soldiers killed in the line of duty in the Iraq war. This organization is carrying signs, cameras, megaphones, touting and making snide remarks to the attendees at funerals. This organization believes the deaths are God's punishment for U.S. tolerance toward gays. Signs read "Thank God for Dead Soldiers" and "Thank God for body bags."

The American Legion, Department of Nebraska, is working with senators in Lincoln to amend a state statute prohibiting our fallen soldiers and their families from being recipients of these actions.

The legislatures are only presenting a 100 feet space between the protesters and the funeral attendees. I would like to see more distance and a time period allowed of one hour before and 1-2 hours after the funeral.

Also, the American Legion has a group called the Legion Riders (Patriot Guard) that has started attending these funerals to act as a buffer between the protesters and family members. Thank You, Patriot Guard for honoring our soldiers by performing this task.

Nebraska is not the only state that has legislative action in progress. Legislators in Illinois, Indiana, Missouri, Oklahoma and Kansas are looking at similar bills.

Proposed legislation in Indiana would keep protesters 500 feet from funerals, and make a violation a felony punishable by a three-year prison term and a $10,000 fine.

I believe we have a right to protest, but come on, at a funeral? Let our soldiers be buried with honor and dignity. Our soldiers have a job to do and I believe they are doing an outstanding job.

I would hope everyone who believes in LB 773 being amended to offer some privacy from this small band of religious fanatics at funerals would contact their senators and let your voice be heard.

Senator Engel can be contacted: Senator L. Patrick Engel, Room 2010 State Capital, Lincoln, Neb. 68509; email lengel@unicam.state.ne.us or by phone at (402) 471-2716 or at his home at L. Patrick Engel, 401 East 31st Street, South Sioux City, Neb. 68776 or by phone at (402) 494-3266.

Thanks for donations of blood, the gift of life

Dear Editor,
An estimated eight million people donate blood in the US each year, but the demand for blood is greater than ever as the nation's supply needs constant replenishment.

Every three seconds, someone needs blood, and every day, approximately 40,000 units of blood are used throughout the country. More than 23 million units of blood and blood components are transfused each year. However, less than five percent of healthy Americans eligible to give blood actually donate each year.

The Siouxland Community Blood Bank wishes to thank everyone who gave the gift of life during our visits to the Wayne area in January. We registered a total of 197 donors and collected 195 units of life saving blood. We also recruited 18 new donors!

The following donors deserve special recognition for reaching gallon milestones during the month:

- Connie Upton—eight gallons.
- Greta Grubbs, Art Bruns and Corey Moeller— five gallons.
- Carmen Schutte and Vicki Kleinschmit—four gallons.
- Roy Gramlich and Donovan Leighton— three gallons.
- Nancy Carley, Amy Bengel and Sharon Vogt—two gallons.
- Cynthia Christensen—one gallon.

A special thank you to the following businesses and churches for allowing us the use of their facilities: First National Service Center of Omaha, Grace Lutheran Church, Winside High School, Wayne Fire Department and Great Dane Trailers.

Donating blood regularly is the only way to guarantee that it will be available when needed. Your participation in the blood drives is greatly appreciated!

Impact of tax reductions varies

By Ed Howard
Statehouse Correspondent
The Nebraska Press Association

It is a sign of the economic times. More people are doing the math when tax reductions are proposed by politicians. More often, more people are neither satisfied nor impressed.

The numerical realities of tax reductions, whether state or federal, often disappoint the public at large. This leaves politicians with the job of explaining the big picture.

The big picture shows that a plan which promises to reduce taxes on individuals by $140 million or even $200 million sounds pretty good. And there's no suggestion here that reducing state revenues by such amounts would be a small thing for government to handle.

However: The new element in the big picture seems to be that more individuals realize that most proposed tax cuts would provide little for them, individually. Lots of them, or at least more of them, are making noise about it.

More newspapers look closely these days at what proposed "tax cuts" - especially election-year tax cuts - would mean to readers. What would a person have to do to qualify for sales tax reductions? How many dollars would a planned income tax reduction leave in their pockets? Would those reductions simply mean higher taxes in another form?

Maybe this is a sign of an economy in which individuals aren't doing quite so well. Earnings in terms of increased spending power have been stagnant for a long time, according to federal figures. More people are saying "Where's mine?" when it comes to appreciable tax savings.

In this case, appreciable means savings in amounts that can be felt in one's pockets. A package that offers an "average" tax break of anything under $1,000 - with no strings attached - seems paltry to many "average" folks.

The view from here: The majority of working Nebraskans would regard a real tax cut as one that leaves more money in their paychecks. One that would let them say something like: "Hey! I'm taking home another $40 a month. Let's save for (fill in the blank)."

That kind of tax break is unimaginable in the real world of government.

Office seekers proposing pie-in-the-sky tax cuts and spending reductions are "somewhat more likely these days to find egg on their face; but only somewhat.

The crippling impact that enormous tax and/or spending reductions would have on government services is more likely to be used as a counter to notions of drastic revenue and program reductions.

In addition, far more Nebraskans have come to benefit from government spending in the last 40 years. Programs to help individuals and business - from health care to education to social services to promoting business of all kinds - are part of the state's fabric. It's the old story. People want government to spend less, but not to spend less on them.

Why do you think spending cuts and proposed tax reductions for individuals by those in office are virtually always more modest than those seeking office? Because incumbents know that, if they win, they would be expected to deliver, or at least seek, those cuts - and that getting what they ask for would be a calamity

Note the above rule generally does not apply to promises for tax cuts on big business. Big business supports programs and politicians that provide $$$ help. Much of the electorate is confident that what's good for business is good for them, and that seems to be how the majority votes.

State Legislature has busy week

It was a busy week in the Legislature last week with several bills advanced on the floor and many important issues debated in committee hearings.

Early in the week, the Legislature gave its full support to a proposal by Sen. Burling that would create a tax commission to study the state's tax policy. Previously, the Legislature advanced LB 542 but failed to advance the accompanying appropriation bill that would fund the study. On Monday, we had the opportunity to visit this bill again and not only supported it, but increased the funding from $100,000 to $250,000 to ensure an adequate study is conducted.

LB 542 charges the Tax Policy Reform Commission with studying Nebraska's tax structure, reviewing implications for the future, ensuring the retention of institutional knowledge about the State's tax policy, and providing recommendations for sound tax policy. The legislation also gives the Commission the authority to conduct hearings across the state to receive public input. The Commission will be comprised of 16 members, including eight members of the Legislature, the tax commissioner, and representatives from various sectors of the economy. The bill will take effect immediately upon passage and issue a preliminary report by December 15, 2006.

This Commission is an important first step in truly analyzing our state tax system. I believe we need to do everything we can to make Nebraska a more tax-friendly state by learning how we can fund state and local government and at the same time tax citizens in a more equitable manner.

The Legislature also advanced LB 72, the Security Personnel Licensing Act. The bill had stalled on the floor, but in the last week work went into an amendment that clarified some provisions of the bill. After adoption of the new amendment, the bill advanced with a vote of 32-0.

The Appropriations Committee began hearing agency budget requests. Last year we developed the 2005-2007 budget, but this year agencies are allowed to come before the Committee to request emergency funding. Other committees began addressing some important issues that will soon find their way to the floor. As I told you last week, the Education Committee heard debate on school boundary bills

Capital Happenings

849, Governor Heineman's proposal to reduce income taxes, which was introduced by Sen. Pam Redfield. Many offered testimony of support for this bill. Tax relief in some form will no doubt be a priority for this session.

On a final note, the Nebraska Hospice and Palliative Care Association presented information during a luncheon in January about the importance of advance directives, written health care instructions for when you are unable to speak for yourself, I have already talked with my family about my wishes, and I encourage you to do the same. Doing this certainly takes the burden off your family members during a very difficult time. For more information or to download Nebraska-specific advance directive forms, visit www.NebraskaHospice.org or call 1-800-658-8898. # Zach Long to receive Eagle Scout Zach Long, son of Bill and Diane Long, will be receiving his Eagle Scout Award at a Court of Honor Ceremony on Sunday, Feb. 26.

The event will take place at 2 p.m. at the United Methodist Church.

The Eagle Scout award is the highest rank for Boy Scouts of America.

Zach started his scouting career in first grade when he joined Pack 174. He then joined Boy Scout Troop 174 after receiving his Arrow of Light award. While a Boy Scout, Zach has held troop offices such as Librarian, Patrol Leader, and Senior Patrol Leader.

Zach has helped with many community service projects with his Boy Scout Troop 174. Some of these projects include Kiwanis Pancake Feeds, the Wayne County Fair Barbecue, Wayne Chicken Days, food drives, Relay For Life, parades, flag ceremonies, putting up and taking down the American flags on each grave at Greenwood Cemetery and the monthly paper drives.

He has attended several camps also, such as Camp Eagle near Fremont, Ben Delatour Scout Ranch in Colorado, Camp Butterfield and Scout Jubilee at Mahoney State Park. He will be going to Philmont Scout Ranch in New Mexico in 2006 and Sea Base Scout Ranch in the Florida Keys in 2007.

Some other camping trips around the area have been to Yankton, Ponca State Park and Izaak Walton Lake. Some adventures he has had recently at camps are C.O.P.E., whitewater rafting, rappelling, canoeing, rowing, fishing, archery and rifle shooting.

Zach is a freshman at Wayne High School where he is an honor

the Wayne High School Varsity Bank and Jazz Band.

Swim team has been his summer sport since he was eight years old. He swims at the pool and is a life-guard as well.

He is also a member of the United Methodist Church where he acolytes, ushers, attends UMC Youth Group activities and Sunday School. He has traveled to Australia through a special organization called People to People, which was started by President Dwight D. Eisenhower. Who's Who Among American High School Students has also accepted him.

For his Eagle Scout Project, Zach chose to put signs and mile markers along the new walking trail from Providence Medical Center to Henry Victor Park.

"I would like to thank the City of Wayne for all their help and support in supplying the materials and tools needed, especially Todd Hoeman, who was always willing to help and Lowell Johnson, who offered me this project opportunity. I would also like to say thank you to Graphic Design for making the signs and all the scouts and leaders who helped with the work," Zach said.

"During the trail to the becoming an Eagle Scout, I have received a lot of encouragement and support from Scout leaders, teachers, pastors, coaches, relatives and friends. My dad, Bill Long, deserves a special thank you," he added.

Boy Scout Troop 174 is chartered to Our Savior Lutheran Church and supported by the Wayne Kiwanis Club and Wayne United Way.

WSO Show to be held on Feb. 25 at Wayne City Auditorium

How did a USO type show get started in Wayne America? Right after the 189th Transportation Company left for training to Ft. Reilly, several individuals were discussing some things that could be done to raise money to help the AmVets send packages over to Iraq, take care of loved ones still left here at home, come up with a community-wide event, and some good old fashioned patriotism. The WSO Show was born!

An organizational group was formed and ideas, venues and talents were suggested. Now, after several months of meetings, the conversation on the street has become a reality. Bob Hope, Marilyn Monroe, Glenn Miller

Band, and The Village People may just drop in for this once-in-a-lifetime show, right in Wayne at the City Auditorium on Saturday, Feb. 25 from 7 to 9 p.m.

The show is going to be filmed and sent to the 189th T.C. and other service people who may be away from home, so they can also enjoy this event. The committee is hoping that the Wayne City Auditorium will be filled to capacity with well-wishers who want to be part of the WSO Show. A 30 second to 1 minute video of the families and loved ones will be recorded before the show, a "Honey Do" table will be set up, refreshments will be served during the intermission, and entertainment from the talent in our area will perform.

One hundred percent of the money raised from this event will be donated to keep the packages flowing to the 189th and other service people who are serving abroad. Bud Neel from the AmVets said, "It costs $20 for the postage, just to send a small box to Iraq". It is our hope that this event will raise enough money, so the packages will continue being sent abroad until all of our troops come home safe.

Please mark Saturday, Feb. 25 on your calendar to attend the WSO Show.

WSC Service-Learning awarded institutional grant

Wayne State College's Service-Learning program has been awarded an institutional grant for $20,000 by the Midwest Consortium for Service-Learning in Higher Education (MCSLHE). The grant is made possible through the Corporation for National Service under the Learn and Serve America: Higher Education grant program.

The grant will provide funding for service-learning activities and projects including academic and co-curricular sub-grants, conference travel, and recognition celebrations across the campus for the spring and fall semesters of 2006.

"Since 2000, WSC has received more than $120,000 in grant funding for the service-learning program at Wayne State College," said Dr. Jean Karlen, WSC service-learning coordinator. "The application review committee noted that they were especially impressed with the number of student participants and the continued development of our service-learning program."

During 2005, WSC had approximately 1,000 student service-learning participants, 37 faculty/ staff, in 29 courses, 34 classes, across 14 disciplines, and nearly 50 community partners.

Service-learning is an approach that integrates serving to learn and learning to serve to address specific community needs. In turn, Service-Learning experiences promote and enhances civic responsibility and bring relevancy to curricular and co-curricular projects.

Any community agencies/organizations that are interested in working with a college class or campus organization on a project are encouraged to contact Jean Karlen at jekarle1@wsc.edu or at (402) 375-7042 / 7182.

Furniture part of Surber family business for more than 70 years

By Clara Osten
Of the Herald

In 1934 Ray Surber opened a furniture store at 104 Main Street in Wayne.

With just a minor break, the Surber family has been in the furniture business in Wayne since that time.

"Surber Furniture, as it was known then, was first on Main Street and later moved to Dr. Shupe and Wessel's building at 115 West Third Street. In December of 1958 the building burned and then Ray (my grandfather) built the building at our present location," said Randy Surber, who with his wife, Sarah, his father, Harold, and employee Chad Jensen operate the business.

The original building was 50 x 120 feet and included an apartment for Ray and Leona.

Randy's father Harold was involved with his parents' business from the time he was young and even was involved with the building of the new building. When Ray retired in 1968, Harold and his family moved to Omaha, where he was also involved in the furniture business. The Surbers sold the business to Connie Suhr, but retained ownership of the building.

In 1970, Harold and Marian moved back to Wayne and re-opened the business as Discount Furniture. Harold continues to be a part of the business, doing some of the bookkeeping. Marian also was involved in the bookkeeping asset prior to her death last year.

Since the original building was built, three expansions have been undertaken, bringing the total square footage of the business to 17,000 feet. In 1997, the family incorporated the business and changed the official name to Surber's Discount Furniture.

Randy has also been involved with the business since he was in high school.

Today, Discount Furniture, located on north Highway 15 has grown to include a selection of 400 sofas, 40 bedroom sets, accessories including pictures and lamps and is a "total home furnishings store. We offer all furnishing except appliances and flooring," Randy said.

Special orders can also be made to meet customer needs.

Used furniture sales have been a part of Discount

Furniture since 1987.

"At first, the sales were conducted here at the store. We had actually bought the store at 104 Main, the original location of Surber Furniture, in 1983 and used it as a warehouse for several years, before moving the used furniture to that location," Randy said.

Most of the items for sale at the Annex, as the building is known, is furniture that has been taken in on trade and other pieces are new, clearance pieces of furniture.

"We have lots of good stuff and go through lots of used furniture at the Annex," Randy said.

"Furniture is a broad range industry. The industry is driven by hundreds of manufacturers. Everything we sell is built, we have no put-together items," he added.

Discount Furniture generally sells to customers within a 50 mile radius of the store, although Sarah noted that they have shipped furniture overseas to a family from Nigeria that had attended Wayne State College and were going back to their native country.

Through the years, Randy said he has noted that people want change more often.

"Customers often aren't as interested in quality, but rather see furniture more as a decorative part of their house," he said.

"I would like to thank Wayne and the surrounding community for making our business a huge success and allowing us to grow. We are very pleased to be a part of the community," Randy said.

Randy and Sarah Surber

Discount Furniture is open Monday through Saturday from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. and on Thursday until 8 p.m. The business is closed on Sunday.

For more information on the products available, call 375-1885.

Wayne High teams finish third, fourth

Third and fourth. That's how the Wayne High Blue Devils wrapped up in the highly competitive Mid-State conference basketball tournament in Norfolk last week.

The WHS girls bounced back from a loss to eventual tourney champion Norfolk Catholic with a win over Boone Central on Feb. 4 to take third place honors.

The boys team fell to both Pierce and West Point Central Catholic, respectively, after opening the tournament with a close win over upstart team Battle Creek.

Tournament recaps for the WHS girls tourney games include:

Wayne vs. Norfolk Catholic. Sometimes repeat performances are difficult to pull off, especially when the stakes are for a berth in the conference championship game.

Wayne High fell behind early to Norfolk Catholic in last Thursday's Mid-State conference championship semifinal and lost a 62-45 decision to the Knights.

The loss dropped WHS to 12-6 on the season and set up a meeting with Albion Boone Central in the third-place game on Saturday.

Unlike the first time the teams met this season when Wayne claimed a 63-53 victory, NCHS stepped up its defensive pressure and kept the Blue Devil shooters at bay.

Wayne converted on only two of its 17 attempts from behind the arc as Jean Pieper and Kayla Hochstein each hit a trey in the first half. Pieper was Wayne's leading scorer with 10 points.

The Knights also won the rebounding battle as NCHS pulled down 40 on the night, compared to 28 for Wayne.

The Blue Devils made several runs during the game, including one in the second quarter to get within eight points, but the Knights pulled ahead to a 35-24 at intermission.

Things went downhill for Wayne after the half as NCHS outscored the Blue Devils 16-6 in the third frame.

WHS opened the fourth quarter with a steal and followup basket from Pieper to go on a 12-2 run to trim the score to 53-41, but a pair of NCHS three-pointers allowed the Knights to pull away for good.

Wayne scoring: Renee Theobald 8, Brooke Anderson 2, Jean Pieper 10, Kayla Hochstein 5, Michelle Jarvi 6, Sara Frerichs 4, Kara Hoeman 2, Samantha Dunklau 6.

Wayne vs. Boone Central
Wayne chipped away in the opening moments of the fourth quarter and never looked back to claim a 51-45 win against Boone Central in the third-place game of the Mid-State conference tournament on Saturday afternoon.

WSC indoor team excels once more

Another meet, more broken school records and national provisional marks.

The Wayne State College indoor track teams set five new school records and reached four provisional national qualifying marks in the Division II Challenge held at the Dakota Dome in Vermillion, South Dakota on Feb. 4.

Thrower Katie Wilson set two new school records and improved on her provisional national qualifying marks in the women's shot put and 20-pound weight throw.

Wilson won the 20-pound weight throw with a new school record and personal-best mark of 54-3 — bettering her own school record by nearly two feet. The old mark of 52-4 3/4 was set by Wilson in December of 2005.

The mark currently places her 10th in NCAA Division II. Wilson also placed second in the shot put with a toss of 46'-0", another new school record. The old mark of 45-9 was set by Wilson two weeks ago. The mark also moves her up to seventh in NCAA Division II in the shot put.

Lindsey Stockwell also reached a provisional national qualifying mark in the women's weight throw by placing fourth at 52-10, which is 12th in NCAA Division II. Stockwell would have set a new school record had Wilson not placed ahead of her with her mark of 54-3 1/4.

High jumper Tanna Walford took second with a new season-best mark of 5-6, which moves her up to 7th in NCAA Division II this season.

Rachel Roebke bettered her own school record in the women's 60-meter hurdles with a time of 9.11 seconds in the finals to place fifth. The old school mark of 9.14 was set by Roebke last weekend at the Iowa State Open.

Other top finishers for the women's team included Erin Oswald taking sixth in the 800 meter run (2:20.74) and Nicole McCoy was eighth in the 3,000-meter run at 10:48.38.

The men's team set two new school records at Saturday's meet as freshman Casey Ide won the 1,000 meter run in a time of 2:33.42, edging the old school mark of 2:33.56 set by James Bruhn in 2001. The other new school record was set by freshman Tim Meyer in the 35-pound weight throw with a mark of 47-3, topping the previous record of 46-8 set by Jeremy Eickman earlier this year.

Matt Schneider won the one mile run in a time of 4:24.52 while placing third in the 1,000 meter run at 2:37.79.

Other top finishers included Tim Pilakowski taking third in the 60-meter dash (7.08); Matt Schaffer placed third in the 400 meter dash (1:51.71); Ben Jansen took third in the 800 meter run (1:56.87) and Ben Crabtree finished third in the 3,000-meter run (8:54.10).

The 1600 meter relay team of Kelly Brink, Ryan Williams, Ben Jansen and Matt Schaffer placed third with a time of 3:27.62.

Other top six finishers for Wayne State included: Nathaniel Bergen, fourth in the 1,000-meter run (2:40.57), Nate McIntire fifth in the 800 meter run (1:59.06), Jeremy Eickman fifth in the shot put at 46-8 and Jeremiah Herron ran a personal best 9:02.74 to place sixth in the 3,000-meter run.

Wayne State will host the Wildcat Open on Saturday, Feb. 11 at the WSC Recreation Center with field events starting at 10:30 a.m. Saturday morning.

No. 23 'Cats keep rolling

Balanced scoring and clutch free throw shooting lifted the 25th-ranked Wayne State women's basketball team to their 12th straight win on Feb. 4 with a 68-56 at Southwest Minnesota State in Marshall, Minn.

The Wildcats remain the lone unbeaten team in the NSIC with an 8-0 league mark, while improving to 19-2 overall.

The team now enjoys a full two-game lead over MSU Moorhead and Northern State in the NSIC standings after MSU Moorhead topped Northern State 61-52 in overtime last weekend.

The 12-game win streak by WSC is one shy of the school record set by the 1976-77 team, which went 25-7.

Wayne State led nearly the entire game, but withstood a charge by the host Mustangs in the second half to pick up the win. The Wildcats built a 36-28 halftime lead, thanks to 6 of 13 three point shooting in the first half.

WSC built an 11 point lead at 45-34 early in the second half when the Mustangs made their run at the Wildcats.

SMSU's Betsy Tasca converted a three-point play with 4:01 remaining to cut the WSC lead to 53-49, but Wayne State's Erin McCormick scored five straight points to put WSC in front 58-49 with 1:34 left.

The Wildcats then sealed the win by making 10 of 13 free throws down the stretch to earn the 68-56 win.

McCormick and Lauren Gustafson each finished with 15 points to lead a balanced attack for Wayne State.

Nicole Gruntorad added 13 points for the Wildcats. WSC shot just 37 percent from the field on 21 of 57, but made 18 of 22 free throws for 81.8 percent. The Wildcats won the rebounding battle over SMSU 39-29 thanks to seven rebounds by McCormick and six apiece from Gruntorad, Kristen Humphries and Gustafson.

Wayne State returns home to face Bemidji State Friday evening (Feb. 10) and Minnesota-Crookston Saturday evening (Feb. 11) at Rice Auditorium with game times each night set for 6:00 p.m.

Wayne State	36	32	-	68
SMSU	28	28	-	56

Wayne scoring: Erin McCormick 15, Kristen Humphries 9, Lauren Gustafson 15, Allison Steffen 4, Nicole Gruntorad 13, Kylee McGill 2, Ashley Arnoldorfer 6, Jackie Knievel 2, Amanda Covington 2.

Wildcats on the prowl

The Wayne State College women's basketball team moved up two spots to 23rd in the USA Today/ESPN Division II Top 25 coaches poll released Tuesday afternoon.

WSC is one of three teams from the North Central Region ranked in the top 25 with North Dakota second, St. Cloud State fifth and Wayne State at 23rd.

WSC drops two contests

The Wayne State men's basketball team will seek to break a pesky losing skid this weekend after the Wildcats dropped a pair of contests last week.

Wayne State vs. University of Mary

The University of Mary defeated Wayne State 70-65 in a home loss on Feb. 1.

The University of Mary Marauders will be a future member of the Northern Sun Conference.

The game was close throughout the first half as the two teams exchanged leads and battled through seven ties to find Wayne State leading 35-34 at halftime.

Mary used a 21-10 run to start the second half to build a 55-45 lead following a dunk by John Burriss with 12:55 remaining.

The Marauders built a 58-45 lead, thanks to 12 of 18 three point shooting until the midway point of the second half, with 12:10 remaining before Wayne State slowly chipped away at the Mary lead.

A Dallas Hodges three-pointer with 1:57 remaining cut the Mary lead to three at 62-59, but Mary used a jumper from Jordan Englehardt to go up 64-59, then a three point play by Matt Johnson gave Mary a 68-59 lead with :59 seconds left to secure the win for the Marauders.

Center Matt Rathje led Wayne State with 14 points and seven rebounds. Hodges added 13 points, all in the second half.

The Wildcats shot 44.6 percent from the field on 25 of 56, 8 of 21 from the three point line and 7 of 11 at the free throw stripe.

WSC held a 37-29 advantage in rebounding on the night.

University of Mary	34	36	-	70
Wayne State	35	30	-	65

Wayne State scoring: Matt Rathje 14, Dusty Smith 8, Dallas Hodges 13, David Walters 9, Bryce Caldwell 9, Jonathon Thomas 3, Tim Taylor 2, Tom Sherlock 2, Eric Johnson 3, Joshua Hughes 2.

Wayne State vs. Southwest Minnesota State

Jeremy Van Klompenburg's three-point play with 21 seconds remaining rallied Southwest Minnesota State in a 64-63 win over Wayne State in conference play on Feb. 4, in Marshall, Minn.

Van Klompenburg scored a game-high 22 points, including the final shot for the Mustangs, to help SMSU in the win which handed the Wildcats their fifth straight loss.

It was a game of runs as Southwest Minnesota State took a 31-20 lead with 4:44 left in the first half, but WSC scored the final five points of the first half to cut the Mustangs' 35-26 lead down to 35-31 at halftime.

The Wildcats opened the second half with a 21-7 run to grab a 52-42 lead with 13:05 remaining.

But SMSU scored the next 10 points to tie the score at 52 apiece at the 8:14 mark.

The Wildcats responded with three pointers from Bryce Caldwell and David Walters to go up 58-52 with 5:55 remaining.

WSC held a 63-56 lead with 2:58 remaining after a tip in dunk by sophomore Eric Johnson, but that would be the last time the Wildcats would score in the game.

Van Klompenburg drained a three pointer with 1:56 remaining to make the score 63-59, then hit a jumper with 56 seconds remaining to make it 63-61.

Van Klompenburg then blocked a shot by Caldwell with 34 seconds remaining, giving the Mustangs the ball back and the backup center made a shot with :21 seconds remaining and was fouled, making the free throw to put SMSU in front 64-63.

WSC had a last chance to win the game, however Hodges missed a jumper with 11 seconds left and missed another shot with two seconds remaining as the Mustangs rallied for the 64-63 win.

Wayne State had three players in double figures as Dusty Smith, Caldwell and Walters poured in 11 points apiece.

For Walters, it was a career-high for the Conrad, Iowa, freshman coming off the bench.

The Wildcats shot 45.7 percent from the field on 21 of 46, hitting 12 of 22 three pointers and 9 of 13 at the charity stripe. WSC's top rebounder was Smith with six.

Wayne State will play their final two home games of the regular season next weekend, hosting Bemidji State Friday night (Feb. 10) and Minnesota-Crookston on Saturday night (Feb. 11) at Rice Auditorium with game times 8 pm each night.

SMSU	35	29	-	64

Your local Wireless Solution would like to thank all the fine folks who helped us through our first year. We are fortunate to make it - most small businesses fail during their first year of operation. Because we know we have loyal customers, my partner Chris and I came up with a list of 20 names that have really stuck by us with valid concerns and who kept on keeping on by supporting us and having the loyalty to help us help them.

We have decided, since it is an honor to serve Wayne, that we would honor two of those customers as our 'Customers of the Year.' This years winners, after all the arguments between Chris and I, were selected unanimously. They are Butch Kay and Bob Dickey.

This was a business decision; without going into detail, Mr. Kay has stuck by us through thick and thin. And on a more personal level, the second award must go to Mr. Dickey, who literally gave me the shirt off his back. Really.

So, we would like to invite Butch and Bob to come in to the store for a special Thank You from their Wireless Solution. And we look forward to working with all the fine folks of Wayne and the surrounding communities for another great year.

Thank you Wayne,

Mitchell participates in SDSU Symphonic Band

Known as "the mother of the civil rights movement," Rosa Parks helped move the country forward and end segregation by simply refusing to give up her bus seat. It's a testament to what one person can really do. In honor of Parks, who died Oct. 24, 2005, and in recognition of February as Black History Month, the South Dakota State University Symphonic Band will pay a special tribute to Parks at its winter concert Friday, Feb. 10.

The concert, which is free and open to the public, will begin at 8 p.m. in the Performing Arts Center on campus. Kelly Mitchell of Wayne, a junior at SDSU majoring in human development & family studies, is a member of the band. She plays the horn.

Among other pieces, the band will play a 12-minute composition titled "A Movement for Rosa" written by Mark Camphouse. During the piece, photographs from the civil rights movement will be projected overhead.

"It's a very emotional piece," said Jim McKinney, director of bands.

Stauffer inducted into Phi Kappa Phi

Phi Kappa Phi honor society recently inducted new members at the University of Nebraska at Kearney.

Among those inducted was Heather Stauffer of Wayne.

Eligibility requires an outstanding status as a student enrolled at a college or university with a chapter of Phi Kappa Phi. As a junior, a student must have completed at least 72 credit hours and rank scholastically in the top 7.5 percent of their class.

Seniors, as well as graduate students, must rank in the top 10 percent of their class. Faculty, professional staff and alumni who have achieved scholarly distinction may also be eligible for membership.

The history of Phi Kappa Phi is rooted in 1897 at the University of Maine, where 10 senior students, two faculty members and the school president sought to create an honor society that recognized and honored excellence in all academic disciplines. Today, there are Phi Kappa Phi chapters on the campuses of nearly 300 colleges and universities in the United States, Puerto Rico and the Philippines.

"It was written in honor of Rosa Parks, and since she passed away recently we thought it would be a great tribute to her and her legacy."

Through a simple act of defiance, Parks ignited a bus strike in Montgomery, Ala., that lasted more than a year and led to the U.S. Supreme Court decision outlawing segregation on city buses. That quiet act spurred major social reform across the country.

"Throughout the history of our great nation, we have glorified (and rightly so) various heroes; most frequently presidents, military figures and athletes. But we must not forget heroes who are perhaps less conspicuous but every bit as significant. Rosa Parks, who worked as a tailor's assistant in a men's clothing store, became secretary of the Montgomery NAACP and the impetus to a major social movement," wrote the composer.

According to McKinney, the winter concert is the largest performance of the year for the Symphonic Band. The concert takes place during the South Dakota In-Service Music Conference held Feb. 9 through Feb. 12.

The conference hosts music professionals from all across the state. Approximately 350 music teachers and music professionals will attend during the three-day conference, and about 1,000 elementary, middle school, high school and university students will perform a variety of concerts.

For more information, contact Jim McKinney at (605) 688-4029 or the Music Department at (605) 688-5187.

Meeting to be held on farming

The Nebraska Natural Resources & Conservation Service (NRCS) has added an Organic Transition Incentives Program to the Environmental Quality Incentives Program (EQIP) to provide financial incentives for farmers and ranchers to convert cropland and pasture to certified "organic" status.

To learn more about this program, an information meeting will be held Feb. 10, 9:30 - noon at the Northeast Nebraska Resource Conservation & Development (RC&D) Council office in Plainview. NRCS staff will explain the EQIP application and program process while a local organic farmer will address organic farming concepts, requirements and practices.

For details on the National Organic Program (NOP) rules, visit the USDA's home page: www.usda.gov <<http://www.usda.gov>>, click on "Agriculture", then Organic Certification.

For more information, contact your local NRCS office or Martin Kleinschmit at the Center for Rural Affairs, 402-254-6893.

SAFE WINTER DRIVING TIPS

- Clear snow and ice from windows, lights, windshield wipers, the hood, and the roof of your vehicle, before driving. The windshield-washer-reserve should be filled with a freeze-resistant cleaning solution.
- When you see plows, stay at least 200 feet behind them.
- Leave room for stopping. Brake early and carefully.
- Don't use cruise control. The short touch of your brakes to deactivate the cruise control can cause you to lose control of your vehicle.
- Pay attention. Look ahead to see what other vehicles are doing. That way you will know about any impending road or weather conditions.
- Watch your speed. Even if your car handles well in snow and ice, other drivers' cars may not. Drive according to the conditions: Don't exceed the speed limit and drive slowly in harsh conditions. Don't try to out-drive bad weather.

Fifteen teams from northeastern Nebraska high schools will participate in the Wayne State College Tests of Engineering Aptitude, Mathematics, and Science (TEAMS) competition on Feb. 15 in the Frey Conference Suite in the WSC Student Center. TEAMS is a dynamic academic program and competition that introduces high school students to the world of engineering.

Registered schools include Bancroft-Rosalie, Bloomfield, Clarkson, Madison, Norfolk Senior High, Randolph, Schuyler Central, South Sioux City, Tekamah-Herman, Wakefield, and Wayne High School.

There will be a total of 15 teams participating, with approximately 112 high school students coming to campus. Teams spend several hours each week practicing sample test questions and developing teamwork and problem-solving skills.

Each team will compete at the varsity or junior varsity level in one of nine school-based divisions or in the home school division. Top-scoring teams in each division in each state will be eligible for national ranking, which will be determined by eligible teams, performance on Part II of the two-part test. The top-scoring teams on Part I of the test will be eligible for local awards.

Speakers during the day will be Dr. Richard Reid from South Dakota State University and Dr.

Shashi Kanth from South Dakota School of Mines and Technology. The Northeast Chapter of the Nebraska Society of Professional Engineers provided a corporate donation and is providing volunteers as well. Nucor Detailing Center of Norfolk and Heritage Homes/Heritage Industries of Wayne are providing monetary donations. MacKichan Software of Poulso, Wash. is donating a software prize.

TEAMS involves over 20,000 high school students in this one-day event held annually. The aim of the program is to get students interested in engineering while in high school. TEAMS is being hosted locally by Wayne State College, with South Dakota State University, South Dakota School of Mines and Technology, the Northeastern Chapter of the Nebraska Society of Professional Engineers, and Daktronics Corp. of Brookings, S.D. serving as sponsors.

TEAMS is sponsored nationally by JETS, a national, non-profit organization promoting interest in engineering, science, mathematics and technology. More information about JETS can be found at the Web site: www.jets.org <<http://www.jets.org>>.

FINANCIAL FOCUS

Choose wisely when selecting a college savings plan

Whether you are saving for your children or grandchildren, navigating your way through the maze of college savings programs can be a daunting challenge. While the soaring costs of higher education may be overwhelming, the good news is that there is a wide array of college savings options from which to choose. Research and planning take time, but the truth is a child's college tuition may be one of the largest financial commitments you ever make. By considering the key factors important in your individual situation, you will be able to make solid decisions when planning for education expenses. To choose a program that meets your needs, ask yourself the following questions about each savings option you consider.

Jennifer & George Phelps
Financial Advisors
Certified Financial Planner Practitioners™ between $12,000 and $60,000 ($120,000 for married couples), which is treated as if it was made over a five-year period.

college-age, you will want to shift your funds from riskier stocks to more stable assets such as bonds or short-term reserves. Many 529 plans offer age-based options in which your fund allocation is automatically adjusted to account for the beneficiary's age. At a minimum, you should review your portfolio annually to maintain the appropriate asset allocation for your situation.

What are the plan's investment options? This is an important question if you want to choose your investment provider or select from a range of investment options. With a 529 College Savings Plan, you must use the investment options chosen by the plan sponsor (although some states do have quite a broad selection) and you can only change your investment choices once per calendar year. Other savings options, like the Coverdell Education Savings Account, offer more individual control and flexibility of investment choices. The investor has more control over where and how the money is invested, and this appeals to many people.

Who controls the money in the account? Do you want to retain ownership of the account and the funds or do you want the beneficiary to have control? You'll want to consider your options in the event you may need the funds for a personal emergency as well as evaluate the tax and financial aid implications if the child is the account owner. With a Coverdell Account, if the beneficiary doesn't go to college or use the money for primary or secondary school, you cannot get the money back because the beneficiary owns the account and controls the money. With a UTMA/UGMA (Uniform Transfer to Minors Act/ Uniform Gift to Minors Act) account, the child takes control of the money at the age of majority (18 or 21, depending on the state) and may use the funds for purposes other than education. You'll want to evaluate your own investment goals and financial aid opportunities for the child when determining the most appropriate account owner.

What tax implications should I consider? With both Coverdell Education Savings Accounts and 529 College Savings Plans, earnings grow tax-deferred and distributions are tax-free when used for qualified post-secondary education costs. In addition, 529 College Savings Plans offer the added opportunity to qualify for possible state tax breaks (check with your state-sponsored plan). Income from a UTMA/UGMA account is taxed to the child, making the parents responsible for filing an income tax return each year. Series EE and Series I bonds offer special incentives to college savers. The principal is guaranteed and the interest earned may be completely or partially excluded from federal income tax if used to pay for qualified higher education expenses. One last note - contribution to education funds may reduce your estate tax exposure. Check with a tax professional for details.

What is the contribution limit? For Coverdell accounts the total contributions may not exceed $2,000 a year per beneficiary. No matter how many different people contribute, total contributions per child cannot exceed $2,000. Coverdell Accounts are also subject to income restrictions; if you earn more than $110,000 (single) or $220,000 (married filing jointly), contributions are not allowed. If you are in a position to invest more than $2,000 per year, you can contribute up to $12,000 annually to a 529 Plan without triggering any gift tax. You also have the option to make a lump sum contribution

When choosing an investment strategy, it is important to consider your risk tolerance, savings goals, and time frame. Naturally, you can be more aggressive with your investments in the early stages of saving. As the child moves closer to

What fees and expenses are involved? The fees and expenses associated with college savings vehicles vary greatly - even among the many different state-sponsored 529 plans. Be sure to do your research and be aware of fees or management expenses associated with any type of college saving plan to eliminate surprises.

When planning for your child's education, it pays to understand how to invest your money. As you evaluate options, take your time and make sure you understand all the details. Consider consulting a qualified financial planner who can develop a financial plan that includes college savings strategies to help you best reach your long-term financial goals.

Finding balance in work relationships improves well-being

Relationships in work settings and in one's personal life are a major factor in determining whether life seems manageable and enjoyable.

To minimize the unnecessary stress that often damages relationships, examine personal needs, responsibilities and priorities. Time and energy are necessary to make relationships work, but stress often can deplete both of those resources. Finding balance in life is easier after clarifying values and priorities, reducing unnecessary commitments and setting goals. Consider and rank things based on whether they are important and to whom, whether they are urgent and to whom, and whether necessary at all.

Unnecessary clutter in life comes from some stressor, such as unresolved conflict, bad habits, poor planning skills and unrealistic expectations. When dealing with such things, try to learn from them and seek the support of others. Also be willing to act outside of the comfort zone to change certain behaviors or other habits.

Get a handle on stress in life by first identifying the source of stress. Some ways to control stress include:

- Exercising to physically work off the effects of stress.
- Maintaining a healthy lifestyle and avoiding self-medication or use

- Confiding in a trustworthy person.
- Accepting what can't be changed, such as others' emotions or behavior.
- Organizing without being a perfectionist.
- Making time for recreation and fun.
- Doing something for others.
- Breaking big problems down and tackling one issue at a time.
- Compromising and agreeing to disagree when necessary.

• Getting away for a while. By actively controlling stress, relationships, work and general well-being also will improve. SOURCE: Kathy Bosch, Ph.D., family life specialist.

Good weather to get in the garden

With the warmest early winter on record, we are faced with a couple of challenges.

One is to keep ourselves out of the garden long enough to allow the frost day to pass. In Nebraska the frost free date is around the middle of May and warm season garden crops like beans, cucumbers, melons, peppers, and especially tomatoes should not be planted before that. Planting any of these before May 15, you will risk a frost and them dying. You can plant early if you are willing to spend the time to cover plants on cold nights.

There are many garden plants that can be planted earlier. Beets, cabbage, carrots, lettuce, onion, potatoes, spinach, and radish will do just fine when planted 30 to 60 days before May 15. That means waiting until at least March 15 to begin planting the garden.

Just because you have to wait to plant doesn't mean that you can't get a good head start in preparing the garden. These warm days are great for spreading organic fertilizers like manure or compost. Warm weather also may mean non-frozen soils which can be worked.

If you get the green bug, you can start seeds indoors and get a jumpstart on the season. Plants such as head lettuce, broccoli and tomatoes from seed may not reach their prime harvest size if planted from seed outdoors, so getting them started indoors can give you that flexibility.

A sunny room or back porch with southern exposure will work, but if you don't have a good room you can use grow lights. A simple fluorescent shop light with one warm white bulb and one cool white bulb will give you sufficient quantity and quality of light.

Use peat moss and vermiculite mixes to start plants. Soil has microorganisms that could lend themselves to disease. Choose nearly any kind of container, flats work well for starting then transplanting into larger pots as they grow. Keep the soil moist, you may want to partially cover the soil with plastic wrap to keep them from drying out. When plants are up gently brush them with your hand or use an oscillating fan for a few minutes a day to help the plant get used to out door conditions and become tougher.

Get your garden started early but wait to plant.

Dixon County leaders attend Farm Bureau Conference

Larry Boswell and Court Roberts of Allen, members of the Dixon County Farm Bureau and Don Liedman of Carroll, a member of the Wayne County Farm Bureau, participated in the Nebraska Farm Bureau's 2006 Legislative Conference held Feb. 1-2 in Lincoln.

The members hosted State Senator Pat Engel at an Appreciation Luncheon Feb. 2 which featured remarks by Merlyn Carlson, former Nebraska director of agriculture and now USDA under secretary of Natural Resources and Environment. He discussed initiatives contained in President Bush's State of the Union address and energy, health care and U.S. competitiveness.

Mike Held, administrative director of the South Dakota Farm Bureau, described his state's experience since its Amendment E, similar to Nebraska's I-300, was struck down in 2003. A pre-existing law, "The Family Farm Act," remained in effect, he said. Because it is in statute, rather than the state constitution, it has been amended in the legislature to adapt to changing circumstances, while still placing limits on farmland ownership.

For example, up to 10 shareholders who are "natural persons" can form a business and own farmland, but none of the shareholders can be a publicly traded corporation. Having corporate farming restrictions in statute provides for a "flexible, living law," Held said, compared to a difficult-to-change constitutional amendment.

Mark Pearson, host of the PBS television series "Market to Market," discussed market outlook in 2006 and said while the U.S. is seeing some expansion in hog numbers, hog production is moving out of the U.S.

"The biggest problem facing agriculture is not the farm bill, it's nuisance suits and regulations limiting livestock production. Livestock is the number one way we add value to corn and soybeans," he reminded producers.

On that same topic, Farm Bureau's Craig Head, interim executive director of the new "Alliance for the Future of Agriculture in Nebraska (A-FAN)," discussed A-FAN's plan to assist livestock producers who want to expand a facility.

Ron Hanson, University of Nebraska ag economist, discussed family farm succession issues. Too many times, he said, parents pass on ownership, but not control, to the next generation, which leads to avoidable conflicts. "All succession issues must be resolved to everyone's agreement for a successful transition," he said, and suggested dozens of possible questions families should discuss.

Other presentations at the conference focused on trade and globalization; Nebraska water issues; livestock issues, including animal identification and current state and federal legislation.

Love of singing part of life for many years

As I get older, I often wonder how long I'll be able to sing. I watch George Beverly Shea with admiration, but I don't believe most of us will be able to belt it out as long as he has. When we moved to Murdock, and joined a church south of Louisville, we both went to choir because they had an active one, and because we had always sung in a church choir.

As I think about it, we were in one at the Hoskins church, and Clarence Schroeder was the director. We always called choir practice our "big night out once a week".

Through the years, the Louisville choir dwindled in membership. The stairs to the choir loft are steep and the Big Farmer elected not to climb them, and eventually, we weren't singing, except for Easter and maybe Christmas.

So, I joined the Lincoln Lutheran Choir and drove to Lincoln on Sunday afternoons to practice. Well, I was shocked at the complexity of the music. I sang soprano the first semester, and came home with voice strain every Sunday evening. We learned a lot of sacred choral music, and it was a challenge to prepare for the concert. There are some very experienced singers in this group.

After about five concerts, I wondered why I wanted to work that hard, and spend my Sunday afternoons like that, when I could be home taking naps! And the drive was a factor, too; it took almost an hour because the church we practice in is in southwest Lincoln.

The Farmer's Wife
By: Pat Meierhenry

So, I dropped out. People are always coming and going in this group, because of moves and commitments, and health problems. But I attended the concerts, and they were always impressive.

The concerts are always in this church, and the acoustics are very good. It's a beautiful building, in the traditional style, and the organ is a humdinger. The practice accompanist and the concert organist are both very skilled keyboardists.

Now we live 15 minutes from practice, and I'm still missing singing in a choir. So, I'm back!! We have the third director, a very young man, but he knows his music and how he wants it to sound. One problem, he seems to like John Rutter, who likes to compose music with off-beat rhythms. I'm more of a Bach person, myself. We are doing some of his stuff, too. There are two in Latin, and one in German, which is par for this group. Last week, we started the Passion according to Saint Matthew. Fortunately, this calls for a lot of soloists and the beat is steady.

I sort of have a love-hate relationship with this choir. I love the other members, (and I sing alto now); I know it's good for me to learn this stuff. But I still wonder sometimes why I'm doing it. It's a lot of hard work! There are a dozen rehearsals before we sing for the public; I should be able to "get it" by then. Then I will decide if I'm going back next fall. It does beat the Beatles and the Rolling Stones, that's for sure!

Discover Nebraska 4-H and your connection to the university

Editor's note: February has been designated Nebraska 4-H month. The following is the second in a series of articles on the purposes and benefits of 4-H to Nebraska's youth.

Your children may be too young to attend the University of Nebraska, but they're old enough to benefit from its fun, research-based educational programs offered through Extension 4-H Youth Development.

Nebraska 4-H is for all youth ages 5 to 19 and exists in every county in the state. We have more than 150 projects for youth from all locations and backgrounds. During the past year, current 4-H'ers have: participated for the Senate Republicans in Washington, D.C., designed sophisticated Websites, been recognized by Gov. Heineman for their community service efforts, and had photos featured in a professional calendar. Thousands more have launched rockets, gone on outdoor adventures, received recognition for their achievements, developed communication and leadership skills, and much more.

Because of 4-H's affiliation with the University, the material used in 4-H projects is from this state's only land-grant institution, which means it's unbiased and research-based. And, that means being in a 4-H club is like being in a class at UNL, taught by UNL faculty and staff. These women and men work with trained local volunteers to offer the program to more than 120,000 youth annually.

Investigate Nebraska 4-H and you'll discover programs to fit your family's lifestyle: one-time outdoor education events, traditional clubs that meet monthly, curriculum materials for home-schoolers, summer camps, special events for the whole family, and much more.

We invite you and your child to "Take A Leap, Discover 4-H!" For more information, contact the University of Nebraska-Lincoln Extension Office in your county or visit 4h.unl.edu.

Corn-soybean program planned

On Friday, Feb. 17 beginning at 9 a.m. at the Wayne Community Activity Center, there will be an educational program to address current issues in corn and soybean crops.

There is no cost for the program and for additional information, contact Del Hemsath at 402/584-2234 or John Hay at 402/229-4821.

ORDINANCE 2005-34
AN ORDINANCE OF THE CITY OF WAYNE, NEBRASKA, PROHIBITING ANY PERSON SUBJECT TO THE SEX

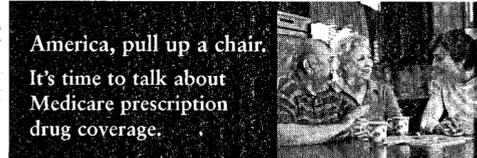

OFFENDER REGISTRATION ACT, TO RESIDE IN CERTAIN AREAS WITHIN THE CITY; PROHIBITING PROPERTY OWNERS FROM RENTING REAL PROPERTY WITHIN CERTAIN AREAS TO PERSONS SUBJECT TO THE SEX OFFENDER REGISTRATION ACT; ESTABLISHING A PENALTY FOR VIOLATION; REPEALING ALL ORDINANCES OR PARTS OF ORDINANCES IN CONFLICT HEREWITH AND PROVIDING A TIME WHEN THIS ORDINANCE SHALL BE IN FULL FORCE AND EFFECT.
BE IT ORDAINED BY THE MAYOR AND COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF WAYNE, NEBRASKA:

Section 1: Findings and Intent.
A. Repeat sex offenders who use physical violence and prey on children are sexual predators who present an extreme threat to the public safety. Sex offenders are extremely likely to use physical violence or to repeat their offenses, and most sex offenders commit many offenses, have many more victims than are ever reported, and are prosecuted for only a fraction of their crimes. This makes the cost of sex offender victimization to society at large, while incalculable, extremely exorbitant.
B. It is the intent of this ordinance to serve the City's compelling interest to promote, protect and improve the health, safety and welfare of the citizens of the City by creating certain areas around locations where children regularly congregate in concentrated numbers where certain sex offenders and sexual predators are prohibited from establishing temporary or permanent residence.
Section 2: Definitions. The following words, terms and phrases, when used in this ordinance, shall have the meanings ascribed to them in this section, except where the context clearly indicates a different meaning:
A. Sex offender shall be anyone defined as any Level 1 offender who has perpetrated against a child under the age of 15 years, or any Level 2 or Level 3 offender defined in the Sex Offender Registration Act (Sections 29-4001 to 29-4713, inclusive, Neb. Rev. Stat.) or any amendments thereto;
B. Permanent residence means a place where the person abides, lodges, or resides for 14 or more consecutive days.
C. Temporary residence means a place where the person abides, lodges, or resides for a period of 14 or more days in the aggregate during any calendar year and which is not the person's permanent address, or a place where the person routinely abides, lodges, or resides for a period of four (4) more consecutive or non-consecutive days in any month and which is not the person's permanent residence.
Section 3: Sex Offender Registration Prohibition: Penalties and Exceptions.
A. Prohibited location of residence. It is unlawful for any person who is subject to the Sex Offender Registration Act to establish a permanent residence or temporary residence within 2,000 feet of any school, designated public school bus stop, licensed day care center, park, playground, library, swimming pool or Community Activity Center.
B. Measurement of distance. For purposes of determining the minimum distance separation, the requirement shall be measured by following a straight line from the outer property line of the permanent residence or temporary residence to the nearest outer property line of a school, designated school bus stop, licensed day care center, park, playground, library, swimming pool or Community Activity Center.
C. Penalties. A person who violates this section shall be punished by a fine not exceeding $500.00.
D. Exceptions. A person residing within 2,000 feet of any school, designated public school bus stop, licensed day care center, park, playground, library, swimming pool or Community Activity Center who does not commit a violation of this section if any of the following apply:
(1) The person was a minor when he/she committed the offense and was not convicted as an adult;
(2) The person is a minor; and
(3) The school, designated public school bus stop, licensed day care center, park, playground, library, swimming pool or Community Activity Center within 2,000 feet of the person's permanent residence was opened after the person established the permanent residence or temporary residence and reported and registered the residence pursuant to the Sex Offender Registration Act.

E. Nonconforming residence. Any sex offender who is currently residing at a residence that is in violation of this ordinance shall be deemed a nonconforming residence. The nonconforming residence will be permitted to continue for a period not to exceed six (6) months, unless sooner terminated for any reason or voluntarily discontinued for a period of thirty (30) days or more. After the six (6) month period expires, the sex offender shall be deemed in violation of the terms of this ordinance.
Section 4: Property Owners Prohibited from Renting Real Property to Certain Sex Offenders: Penalties.
A. It is unlawful to let or rent any place, structure, or part thereof trailer, or other conveyance, with the knowledge that it will be used as a permanent residence or a temporary residence by any person prohibited from establishing such permanent residence or temporary residence pursuant to this ordinance, if such place, structure, or part thereof, trailer or other conveyance is located within 2,000 feet of any school, designated public school bus stop, licensed day care center, park, playground, library, swimming pool or Community Activity Center.
B. A property owner's failure to comply with the provisions of this section shall constitute a violation of this section, and shall subject the property owner to a fine of $500.00 and the City may seek any other relief as otherwise provided by law.
Section 5: That all ordinances or parts of ordinances in conflict herewith are hereby repealed.

Section 6: That this ordinance shall be in full force and effect from and after its passage, approval and publication as provided by law.
PASSED AND APPROVED this 31st day of January, 2006.

WSC students participate in Northeast Nebraska Teacher Academy

The Northeast Nebraska Teacher Academy (NENTA) provides classroom experience for 77 WSC education majors while helping to alleviate a substitute teacher shortage in the area. Local participating students include: Wayne- Mark Evtovich; Allen- Kyle Oswald; Laurel- Lark Rich, and Audrey Victor.

Wayne State College, Educational Service Unit #1 and 17 northeast Nebraska school districts are involved in the program. NENTA began in 2000 as the first and only program of its kind in the nation. Teachers and administrators in the participating schools provide on-the-job mentoring for NENTA substitute teachers.

Additional support and training occurs on campus in a weekly seminar conducted by WSC faculty. Dr. Tim Sharer, WSC associate professor of education, is the program director.

Participating school districts are Allen, Coleridge, Hartington, Laurel-Concord, Leigh, Madison, Norfolk, Omaha Nation at Macy, Ponca, Randolph, South Sioux City, St. Michael's Elementary (South Sioux City), Stanton, Wakefield, Walthill, Wayne and Winslow.

The WSC education majors who participate in the program have at least junior status, have exceeded requirements for local substitute teacher certification and are enrolled in the NENTA seminar for weekly sessions throughout the year for support, review, discussion and reflection about actual on-the-job-situations. NENTA substitutes are paid for substituting and receive mileage payment to offset the cost of driving to area schools.

In addition to the students participating this year, 540 WSC education majors have gained on-site experience during the first five years of the program.

Prior to their first substitute teacher assignments, the students completed training on the art of effective teaching including training by APL Associates of Baldwinsville, N.Y., a nationally recognized organization specializing in teaching success workshops.

Dear Diary
I have found the greatest guy! He's local, has lived here about 8 years on the east side of town. He makes me the greatest meals which are real convenient for my schedule. We share pizza, chicken, mucho nachos and sub sandwiches. We have even shared breakfast together! He is always spoiling by getting me a drink or munchies whenever I get a craving.
He always is sure my car is filled with premium gas and that I have my Shell credit card whenever I go out of town for business or to see my family. He's even told me he would be there for me 24/7!! What a commitment! I think I love Wayne East!

Happy Valentine's Day from the place you love to Stop!
