Joshua Ford, a member of the 189th T.C. was killed in Iraq on July 31. He would have been starting back to college at Wayne State. He loved art and took classes there before he left with the 189th. One of Ford's teachers at WSC contacted his girlfriend, Michelle Frohlich, recently and gave her two paintings that Ford never picked up. "Josh would love having a scholarship in his name because he really loved helping people," Frohlich said.

As for the 189th coming back, "It was hard to watch them come home on Saturday," Frohlich said. "I met Ben Marksmeier (who was with Ford when he died) for the first time on Saturday and that was emotional. I introduced myself but wasn't ready to talk to him about it yet. He said if I'm ever ready to talk, to let him know. He seems like a great guy. I may talk to him someday."

Frohlich continued that one of her best girlfriends came back with the unit and she tackled her. She notes she's friends with several members of the 189th and having their support helps, as well as having support from the community.

Community Theatre to present 'The Fantasticks'

The sounds of Broadway are coming to Wayne as "The Fantasticks," Broadway's longest-running musical, will be presented by Wayne Community Theatre on Friday, Saturday and Sunday, Nov.

17, 18 and 19 at Ley Theatre on the campus of Wayne State College.

Friday and Saturday performances will begin at 7:30 p.m. and Sunday's will begin at 2 p.m. The show, which stars area actors and singers, is based loosely upon Romeo and Juliet, and portrays two young lovers (played by Kyle Mundil of Carroll and Liza Landrie of Omaha) whose love is forbidden by their feuding parents (Jim Lindau and Carolyn Harder.)

John Dunning of Wayne plays the mysterious "El Gallo" who leads the two youths astray with the help of some out-of-work actors (Dan Baddorf and Blair Sommerfeld).

"We have some of the finest performers of the area in this show," said Mollie Spieker, who with Deniel Parker is directing the show. Spieker noted that this show was performed daily in New York City for decades.

"The plot is funny and bitter-sweet, romantic and action-packed...plus it has beautiful poetry and catchy music. It's a timeless fable about love that is nostalgic and universal at the same time."

Spieker also said that in addition to the work of the cast, there are many people in the area donating time and talent from set-building, to painting, costuming and publicity. "This is really a community show," she said. "There are many people working behind-the-scenes to ensure a quality production. This is a great opportunity for Wayne to have this sort of entertainment available."

Tickets are available at the WAEDI office in Wayne as well as State National Bank's First Street location. Quantities are limited so early purchase is encouraged.

Approval given for purchase of former dump site

By Clara Osten
Of the Herald

Noting that the city was responsible for the property, the Wayne City Council voted to move forward with the purchase of approximately 4.5 acres of property northeast of Wayne.

The property is currently owned by Virgil O. Kardell and Verna M. Kardell and was used by the city of Wayne as a dump site in the 1960's and 70's.

City Administrator Lowell Johnson told the council that the city would remain responsible for any future contaminants and that before anyone would purchase any of the adjoining land, a Phase II Environmental Assessment would need to be completed. The study is necessary to determine if there is any hazardous material going into Logan Creek, which runs next to the property.

Kent Franzen, representing Wayne Industries, told the council that Wayne Industries would pledge $5,000 to help the city offset the costs of the study.

Wayne Industries is currently working toward the purchase of 50.93 acres of land adjacent to this property.

In a related item, the council tabled passage of a resolution which would allow the city to loan the money for the purchase of the property to the Community Development Agency, which would in turn loan the money to Wayne Industries for the purchase. The procedure is being recommended by the city's auditors for clearer accounting purposes.

"With regret" the council accepted the resignation of Tracy Keating as Coordinator of the Wayne Senior Center.

Keating has served in this position for 1/2 years and was commended for her work.

During Tuesday's meeting Keating presented an update on activities at the Senior Center and noted that the facility "had its best year ever. This is a good Senior Center."

The council unanimously gave its approval of specifications for a snow blower for the city.

Garry Poutre told the council he had done research on various models and visited other communities with snow blowers similar to the one he recommends the city purchase.

The council approved a request for a geo-thermal well using a pump and injection well in Fairway Estates. The "well" does not draw any water out of the ground, but instead circulates water in inclosed tubes to take advantage of ground temperatures.

Also approved was a request for $7,000 in additional funds to be loaned by the Community Development Agency for expenses related to the purchase of the 21 acres in the Western Ridge Development Area.

The council also gave second reading approval to the ordinance which would allow for the annexation of Western Ridge Area.

George Ellyson, Chief Inspector/Planner gave an update on the status of zoning violation complaints against the Robert Woehler property on Fairgrounds Avenue.

Ellyson said that two zoning violations and one code violation had been reported and a letter has been sent to Woehler outlining the timeline for compliance.

Mayor Lois Shelton made several appointments during Tuesday's meeting, including Dr. Jim Lindau, Police Chief Lance Webster, Mayor Lois Shelton, Council President Doug Sturm and Dr. Wayne Wessel to the Board of Health and Dean Newton to the Accessibility Committee. In addition, Lowell Johnson, Betty McGuire, Norma Backstrom, Betty Reeg and Lois Shelton will serve on the Senior Center Director Interview Committee.

The council's next regularly scheduled meeting is Tuesday, Nov. 14 at 7:30 p.m. in the council chamber.

Two vehicles were damaged in a hit and run on Oct. 30.

Information needed on Wayne hit and run incident

The Wayne Police Department is investigating a hit and run accident that happened near Fairgrounds Avenue and Main Street on Oct. 30 between 10:55 and 11:15 a.m.

Two cars parked on the north side of the Northstar Services building were damaged in the accident. One, a blue Nissan Sentra owned by Dianne Pingel, was hit so hard the bumper was knocked off of the car. The second car, a white Ford Taurus owned by Renee Wragge of Laurel, was also damaged.

Evidence at the scene suggests the suspect vehicle was traveling westbound on Fairgrounds before jumping the curb and striking both parked cars. It is possible the suspect vehicle was backing up at the time of the accident.

The Police Department is seeking help from the public in solving this crime. If anyone saw anything suspicious at the time of this accident or if someone has information that may help solve this crime, contact the Wayne Police Department at (402) 375-2626 or email a tip to police@cityofwayne.org.

Wayne Habitat for Humanity selects family for second build and Adam will be providing sweat equity and buying the house that will be built at 1014 Douglas.

Wayne Area Habitat for Humanity is partnering with the Ryden family to build the organization's second home in Wayne. Wanda Ryden and her sons K.C.

Ryden grew up in Lincoln and is presently working at Chartwell's Food Service on the Wayne State College campus. She also has a daughter who is currently serving in the U.S. Navy and is stationed in Italy.

Construction on the house is planned to begin in April of 2007. Much of the work will be accomplished on Saturdays over the following months. Some site preparation has already been accomplished through the help of the city of Wayne and Leonard Jones.

The previous family selected for the second Wayne Area Habitat for Humanity house could not continue the partnership due to changes in their family obligations.

Wayne Area Habitat for Humanity partnered with the McCoy family to build their first Wayne house in April of 2003. Most of the construction of that first house was completed in less than one week. Wayne Area Habitat for Humanity was supported by the city of Wayne, area churches, civic organizations, the Wayne State College Habitat for Humanity campus chapter, and Wayne area residents who collectively made the first blitz-build a reality.

Donations towards the second house are being accepted by the organization.

According to Jeff Carstens, a member of the fund-raising committee, "Approximately half of the funds needed for the second Habitat house in Wayne have already been raised. The formal fund raising campaign will begin soon and continue through the spring of 2007. The community, churches and businesses in the Wayne area have generously supported local Habitat for Humanity efforts. I'm confident this support will continue as more Habitat houses are built in the Wayne area."

'Transition from Military to Civilian Life' topic at conference

Wayne Police Chief Lance Webster recently attended the International Association of Chiefs of Police annual convention in Boston. Webster, who has been police chief for 11 years, said this is the first time he has attended the I.A.C.P. convention.

The specific classes that Webster said were the most beneficial were dealing with National Guard members returning to active police duty and dealing with a Pandemic Flu epidemic. Both topics are very timely and relevant to issues facing Wayne today.

With the return of the 189th need to make a smooth transition from military life to civilian life is very important. Webster said the training he received will help the police department make Officer Gerald Klinefelter's transition from military duty back to police work much smoother.

Webster said because of the work the City of Wayne and Wayne County and others are doing on the Pandemic Flu issue with the Northeast Nebraska Department of Public Health the specific training from the Surgeon General's Office and the Center for Disease Control was very beneficial.

Wildcats lose Egg Bowl game to Concordia

Concordia University-St. Paul held on for a 27-24 Northern Sun Conference football win over Wayne State on Oct. 29 in the 18th annual Egg Bowl Game played at Cunningham Field in Wayne.

Wayne State slipped to 4-5 overall and 4-3 in the NSIC.

The tightly-contested game featured five lead changes as neither team led by more than six points.

Wayne State scored on their opening series of the game as redshirt freshman Nick Hope made a 22-yard field goal with 8:35 remaining in the first quarter to give the Wildcats an early 3-0 lead.

Concordia-St. Paul responded with a field goal of their own as Brody Johnson booted a 36-yard field goal to tie the score at 3-3 with 2:33 left in the first quarter.

Wayne State countered moments later as Zach Molacek scored on an eight-yard run to cap a four-play, 75 yard drive to give the Wildcats a 9-3 lead following a failed PAT kick with 1:00 left in the first quarter.

Concordia-St. Paul took the next drive down the field to take their first lead of the game as Golden Bears quarterback Kole Goodchild scored on a seven-yard run to culminate a 12 play, 66 yard drive to put CSP in front 10-9 with 10:36 remaining in the first half.

WSC took the next drive and moved the ball to the CSP 16-yard line, but Hope's 33-yard field goal was blocked by Concordia-St. Paul's Antonio Brown to stop the scoring threat.

The Golden Bears then drove to the WSC two-yard line and settled for a Brody Johnson 20-yard field goal to give CSP a 13-9 lead with 1:37 left in the first half.

Wayne State put together a strong drive in the final 90 seconds to take the lead at halftime as freshman quarterback Silas Fluellen found freshman wide receiver Logan Masters in the left corner of the end zone on a 170yard scoring pass to cap a nine-play, 74 yard drive with one second remaining in the first half.

A two-point pass conversion from Fluellen to Brian Chapman gave WSC a 17-13 lead at halftime.

In the third quarter, Concordia-St. Paul regained the lead by scoring on their first drive of the second half as Aaron Cawthorn scored on a four-yard run with 7:29 left in the third quarter to give the Golden Bears a 20-17 edge over the Wildcats.

WSC took the ensuing drive and marched to the CSP 22-yard line, however Hope's 38 yard field goal hit the left upright and kept the score 20-17.

After holding the Golden Bears, WSC got the ball back at their own 18-yard line and marched 82 yards in 11 plays to regain the lead as Fluellen completed a six yard scoring pass to Josh Peterson to give Wayne State a 24-20 lead with 9:22 left in the game.

After CSP mishandled the ensuing kickoff to start at their own one-yard line, the Golden Bears drove 99 yards on the Wildcats in just five plays to regain the lead as Goodchild found Tyrone Ruffin on a 42-yard scoring strike to put the Golden Bears ahead 27-24.

WSC had the ball two more times in the fourth quarter, but was stopped on downs at the CSP 45 and the CSP 49 yard line as the Golden Bears' defense

Football Playoff Roundup

Wakefield 28, West Point Central Catholic 7

Wakefield rode the horse that's led them to a perfect season so far. The undefeated Trojans (9-0) used a punishing ground game to secure a 28-7 C2 state football playoff win against West Point Central Catholic at Eaton Field in Wakefield last Thursday night.

Using the talents of a strong line and a running attack from four different backs and a tough defensive effort that produced three blue turnovers, Wakefield earned its second straight trip to the second round of the playoffs.

The Trojans were scheduled to play the next game at Heartland High School, near Henderson, on Wednesday (yesterday) after Heartland edged out a 21-20 win against Scribner-Snyder in other first round action.

"We outplayed them and we did what we had to do and that's a credit to our kids," Wakefield head coach Justin Smith said following the contest that saw the Trojans rack up 431 yards of total offense.

The Trojans made a statement in their opening series with a six-minute, 65-yard drive that ended with a one-yard touchdown run by Ryan Klein and an extra point kick by Usvaldo Reyes.

Sometimes game breaks go in one team's favor and the Trojans benefited on an official's ruling later in the opening from when Mason Nixon scooped up a muffed punt and returned it to the end zone.

Even though rules dictate that there's no advancement on muffed punts, officials indicated that punt had been fumbled by Central Catholic's Ethan Hunke even though it was apparent that he didn't have control of the ball.

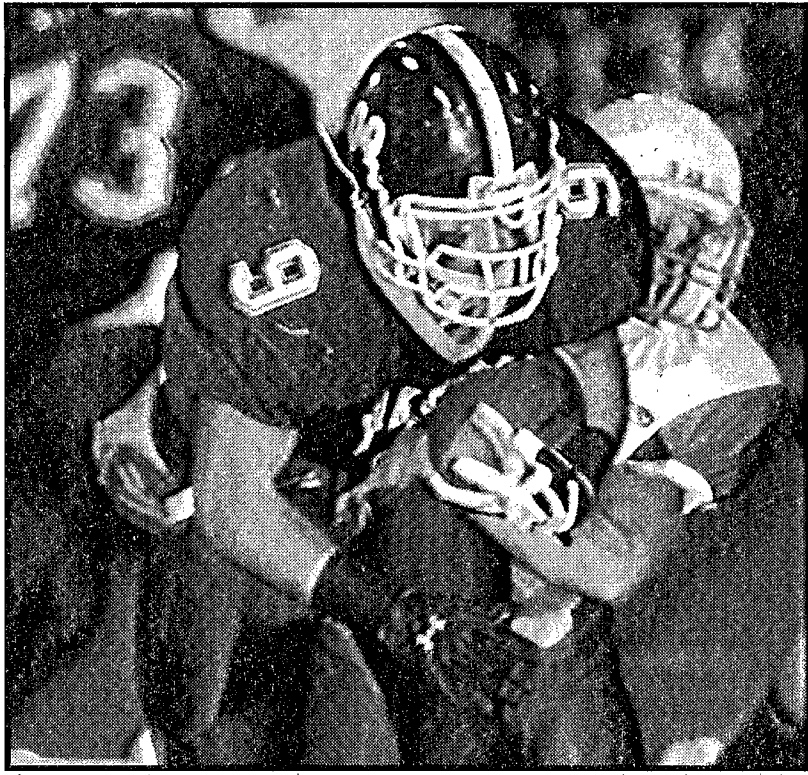

"We were fortunate to get in there and make some big plays and we were on the fortunate end of a bad call on that muffed punt," Smith said. He added that he wasn't about to argue over the call.

The touchdown stood and Reyes added his second extra point kick off the evening to give the Trojans a 14-0 lead heading into the final minute of the first half.

Wakefield had yet another opportunity to add another score before the break, the Trojan effort fell short.

Another chance was created for the Trojans after Hunke was picked off and Wakefield put together a 56-yard drive that was capped by quarterback Joel Nixon's 39-yard rushing touchdown and one more Reyes kick at the 4:49 mark in the third frame.

A determined Central Catholic team was able to generate an inspired drive following the Wakefield touchdown and get the ball down inside the Trojan 15-yard line. A big defensive play, in the form of an interception by Ben Henderson, snuffed out the scoring threat.

The Bluejays were able to get on the scoreboard with 5:14 left in the fourth quarter when Hunke reached pay dirt on an eight-yard touchdown scamper.

Wakefield responded with a 44-yard run by senior fullback Tim Haglund and Reyes' fourth extra point kick of the night to round out the evening's scoring with 3:19 left in the contest.

Haglund led the Trojans' foursome of leading rushers with 10 carries for 118 yards, while Nixon tallied 101 yards on his 10 attempts. Klein finished the game with 68 yards on the ground and Paul Moody contributed 64 to Wakefield's 363 rushing yards.

Nixon went 6-11 for 68 yards and no interceptions and his favorite target was Henderson who had three grabs for 37 yards. Drew Rose caught a couple of passes for 22 yards.

The Trojans had entered their seventh playoff in school history and were seeking to be the first Wakefield team to escape the second round losses that stopped short the squad's postseason play in 2005 (a 31-14 loss to eventual state champion Plainview) and 1988, when the team fell to Spencer-Naper, 12-0.

Laurel-Concord 18, Plainview 0

It seemed for almost every miscue Plainview made, the Bears seized the opportunity.

Laurel-Concord shutout the defending Class C2 champion in the opening round of the state football playoffs in Plainview with an 18-0 road win last Thursday evening.

Both teams tried to establish their respective ground games early as evidenced in the scoreless first quarter.

When Plainview tried to go to its aerial attack in the second frame, it was the Bear defense that paved the way

LCHS got things rolling on defense when Tony Jacobsen ran back a 30-yard interception return to the Plainview five yard line.

Two plays later, Brian Saunders ran in a two-yarder for LCHS' first touchdown with 7:49 left in the half. The Michael Patefield kick was good and LCHS took a 7-0 lead.

It didn't take long for the Bears to claw out another TD as Plainview fumbled the kickoff return and Heath Erwin scooped up the loose ball at mid-field.

Erwin connected with Jacobsen for a 10-yard scoring strike and Tyler Petersen ran in a crucial two point conversion to give the Bears a 15-0 lead with just under five minutes before halftime.

The second half saw more defensive pressure by the Bears and was highlighted when Eli Schantz pulled down two interceptions to stop Plainview drives.

Michael Patefield kicked a 25-yard field goal with 3:06 left in the game to push the game out of reach for the only scoring in the second half.

The win advanced LCHS for a meeting with Oakland-Craig (8-1) for a home contest scheduled last night (Nov. 1).

Winside 34, Dorchester 13

Winside jumped out to a 28-0 halftime lead over host Dorchester then held on for a 34-13 victory as the Wildcats advanced to the second round of the Class D-1 State Football Playoffs.

Jordan Brummels scored on a 34 yard run on the 'Cats first offensive possession while Tucker Bowers returned a Longhorn punt blocked by Zach Jaeger 8 yards on the next series of plays giving Winside a quick 14-0 lead in the afternoon contest.

Brummels ran for 114 yards on 14 carries and completed six passes for 140 yards, while accumulating 289 all purpose yards in the game. Brummels added a fourth quarter, seven-yard scramble to pay dirt and a 61-yard pass completion to Kalin Koch to his offensive performance.

Koch carried the football 13 times for 88 yards and scored from 22 yards out in the second quarter in addition to a pair of receptions good for 65 yards.

Dewey Bowers gained 67 yards on 21 carries and was on the receiving end of a 23-yard Brummels pass. Bowers' 14 tackles led the Wildcat defensive effort that held the Longhorns to 17 yards rushing.

Jared Roberts caught a pair of passes good for 23 yards with Tucker Bowers picking up 19 yards on his lone reception.

Jake Kander was successful on four-of-five extra point attempts on the day.

Roberts was in on nine tackles and added three pass break ups and a 20 yard interception return of an errant Longhorn pass to the Wildcat defensive effort.

Travis Brockman and Chase Langenberg shared a quarterback sack with each recovering a fumble. Brockman was in on 11 stops with Langenberg contributing five tackles in the game.

Zach Jaeger added a fumble recovery and seven tackles to his punt block while Brummels added a 25-yard return of an interception to the Wildcats defensive effort.

The Wildcat offense had their best showing of the year running for 269 yards and passing for 140 yards resulting in 476 all purpose yards.

Winside (8-1) advanced to play Nebraska City City Lourdes Central Catholic at Winside on Wednesday, Nov. 1 (yesterday afternoon).

Falls City Sacred Heart 60, Allen 19

Speed can be a destructive force.

The Allen Eagles concluded their second state football appearance in school history with a 60-19 loss at Falls City Sacred Heart on Oct. 26.

Despite a hard-hitting performance by AHS, it was precision play execution that proved to be the downfall for Allen, who finished the season at 5-4.

The Irish opened the scoring as Michael Gruber ran in a touchdown from 24 yards out. FCHS added a conversion run to take an 8-0 lead.

Allen responded with a drive that was capped by a Luke Sachau 25-yard run, however the PAT attempt failed to bring the score to 8-6.

The Irish then scored 14 unanswered points in the first quarter and 22 more before intermission to take a 44-6 lead at the half.

The Eagles took the opening kickoff after the halftime break and put together a 70-yard drive that ended with a short touchdown jaunt by William Gnat to up the score to 44-12.

Allen's scoring remained quiet until the fourth quarter when quarterback Chris Blohm connected with Michael Bock on a nine-yard pass play. Corey Klug added an extra point kick to wrap up the scoring at 60-19.

FCHS outyarded the Eagles 466-219 and Allen was led by Sachau with 110 yards on 23 carries.

Blohm threw for 9-of-18 for 85 yards.

Defensively, Sachau and Chase each recorded 13 tackles, while Sachau and Ross Rastede each had a fumble recovery.

"We played a very impressive Sacred Heart team," Allen coach Dave Uldrich said. "Their combination of tremendous speed and good size made them hard to defend. They deserved to win, but we don't apologize for who we are and how we played."

Four Eagles closed out their high school football careers after the game: Luke Sachau, Chris Blohm, Ross Rastede and Derek Hingst.

YRAA Pilot Training Scholarship

The Yankton Regional Aviation Association (YRAA) announces the opening for applications for the YRAA Pilot Training Scholarship. The $500 scholarship was established in May, 2005 and is one way for the YRAA to promote general aviation in southeastern South Dakota and northeastern Nebraska.

The YRAA has 104 members from towns ranging from Yankton to Vermillion, Wayne, Hartington, Bloomfield, Creighton, Springfield, Tyndall, Wagner, Parkston, Scotland, Menno, Volin and Wakonda.

The scholarship will be given to a "wannabe student" pilot or student pilot. The success of this program is in part dependent upon the receipt of good quality nominees. The deadline for submitting an application for the award is Dec. 1, 2006. The application form for the YRAA Pilot Training Scholarship Award can be requested from Steve Hamilton, 303 Golf Lane, Yankton, SD 57078 or email skyhawk@mchsi.com or call 605-665-8448.

The following are the criteria for the scholarship:

1. The applicant must be at least 16 years old. Applicants who have soloed will be given priority consideration.
2. The applicant must complete the "YRAA Pilot Training Scholarship Application," sign it and submit it to YRAA President by Dec. 1, 2006. (YRAA President Denny Martens, 607 Sterling Street, Vermillion, SD 57069). If the applicant is less than 18 years old, the applicant's parent or guardian must sign the application.

3. The applicant must write a letter stating why they deserve the YRAA Pilot Training Scholarship, sign the letter and submit it to the YRAA president. The letter should describe the applicant's interest in aviation and future plans after achieving their pilot's license. The letter should also include accomplishments of the applicant as they apply to aviation such as Young Eagles flight, ACE Camp participation, aviation education program participation or membership in aviation clubs or organizations such as AOPA, EAA, Civil Air Patrol, etc.
4. The applicant is encouraged to have people submit letters of recommendation.
5. The selectee must pass a Third Class Physical Examination conducted by an Aviation Medical Examiner, at the applicant's expense, before receiving scholarship funds.
6. The funds are to be used exclusively for obtaining a pilot's license (CFI fees, aircraft rental, aviation fuel, etc). The YRAA will pay 50 percent of the charges for flight training as it is billed by a CFI or FBO. The selectee is responsible for the other 50 percent of the charges.
7. The scholarship funds must be expended within 12 months of the time of the award.
8. The training must be conducted at a Yankton Regional Airport: Wayne, Bloomfield, Creighton, Hartington, Parkston, Wagner, Vermillion or Yankton.
9. A copy of the flight training charges should be mailed to the YRAA Treasurer as the training progresses. The YRAA will pay up to a total of $400. The final $100 will be paid after the scholarship selectee provides a one-page typed summary/story about their training experience (total $500) (see criteria #10).
10. The scholarship selectee shall report in a one-page typed summary/story to the YRAA president about their training experience within one year after receiving the award.

TeamMates Program begins new school year

The Wayne TeamMates program has begun a new school year with several activities for both mentors and mentees.

A Mentor meeting was held at Godfather's on Oct. 19. Rick Chavanu, owner of Godfather's, donated the pizza and pop for the meeting.

Jill Walling, Coordinator of the Wayne TeamMates program, spoke to the mentors in attendance and the group discussed common concerns and shared success stories.

A TeamMates Fishing Event was held Oct. 29 at Izaak Walton Lake. "It was a beautiful day and we had a great turnout!" Walling said. Greg Vander Weil, a TeamMates mentor, helped coordinate the event with Jill Walling.

There were 14 mentees and 12 mentors and their families in attendance. The SOS Ministry from Journey Christian Church provided the snacks and drinks for the fishing outing.

There are currently 23 high school students involved in the TeamMates program, 16 students at the Middle School, and one from the elementary school, for a total of 40 matches in the program.

The program is continuing to grow and there is a need for more adults to volunteer to be mentors.

The Wayne TeamMates program is partially funded by the Wayne United Way and the group participated in the rally at the beginning of October.

Fantastic drug plan?

Dear Editor,
Recently (Oct. 20), President Bush was quoted as saying the Medicare drug plan is "a fantastic program."
I agree that it is fantastic, but not for the same reasons: I was recently notified that the 2007 premium for my Part D coverage with Blue Cross and Blue Shield (the least expensive option) will increase 58 PERCENT from this year. There are other adjectives than "fantastic" I would use to describe this shocking price rise, but none are fit for printing in a family newspaper.

Perhaps it's time people think about voting for candidates who will fix this giveaway plan created by the Bush administration and the Republican Congress for the drug and insurance companies.

Lie detectors and debates

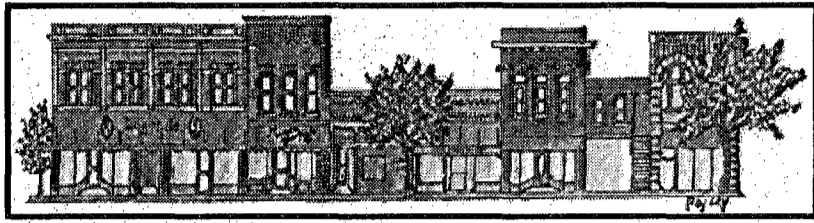

By Ed Howard
Statehouse Correspondent
The Nebraska Press Association

It was only a matter of time. The only question was where it would happen.
Some politician somewhere was bound to suggest a debate in which the participants would be wired to lie detectors.
The view from here was that such a campaign gimmick would be proposed by a politico seeking an elected office that would send him to Washington. If truth were water back there, the Potomac would have run dry while Abe Lincoln was still in knee pants.

Main Street Focus

All the Main Street Wayne officers and volunteers send their sincere thanks to the soldiers of the 189th and their families for their efforts in serving their country and for fighting terrorism in Iraq. We are glad you are home safely and we missed you in our Northeast Nebraska communities. Welcome home.
Much of this week's All-Hands meeting on Tuesday morning was occupied by various observations on the trip made to Torrington, Wyo. to visit the operations of Torrington's cooperative clothing department store. Apparently all those that made the trip have returned with a greater feeling that we can accomplish this kind of cooperative venture in Wayne.

you an overview of these committees and their work, so that if any of our citizens are interested in participating as volunteers, you will know some of the intricacies of the committee.
Currently, most of the committee work is geared toward the Holiday Season. The Design Committee will be screening several offers of Christmas trees so that arrangements can be made to move a tree to Seventh and Main for decorating and display. The Promotions Committee is busy planning the holiday activities for Dec. 7 and the WAEDI office is completing a letter that will be sent to individuals and groups throughout the community inviting them to participate.

This group meets Wednesday mornings in the North Room of the City Auditorium at 8 a.m. Anyone who is interested can join this group by just showing up. As they move on to the next level of this project, they would appreciate more help and input from various community members.
On Nov. 8, the State Historical Society will be in town to talk to us about what we need to do to get downtown Wayne designated a Historical District. The meeting will be held at the City Auditorium and will be held around the lunch hour. The WAEDI office will release more info on this as we get closer to the date. On Tuesday, Nov. 28, the Nebraska Lied Main Street Program will be conducting a Leadership Training Program from 5 to 8:30 p.m. in the Main Street Office. More info will be forthcoming in our next articles.

To refresh your memories, Fantasy Forest will take place with the Rotary Soup and Pie Supper held that Thursday evening, Dec. 7. Any community group wishing to display a tree should be prepared to place and decorate your tree the day before, Dec. 6. Any group is invited to participate and to decorate the tree. The "Parade of Lights" will also take place that night, followed by "Living Windows." Again, we invite any group or individuals to participate in the parade and living window displays. Check your generators and lights now, make your plans and call Irene at the WAEDI office to tell her what you are up to.
In closing, we would like to remind you that all groups are welcomed to participate, whether it's an elementary school group or college group, whether you are preschooler or senior citizen, join us in making this year's Holiday activities a success.

The Main Street Park has been emptied and a new building will soon rise in this location. If you haven't noticed, there are several new businesses in downtown Wayne with several more projected to move from the planning stage to the reality stage. The brick and sidewalk is going into its final stages and we shall soon see the electrical contractors installing the new poles and lights on Main Street. Some of the concrete work at the south end of Main Street will not be completed until the spring and possibly not until the highway work is started and completed at the south end of town.

Ballots have been sent out by the WAEDI office for the election of three new board members to the Main Street Wayne Board. The elected officials will be installed at the annual meeting which is held in January. Main Street operates with four permanent committees, the Organization, Promotion, Economic Restructuring and Design Committees. All these committees will be needing new volunteers and in some cases new chair persons will be needed. In our next few articles, we will attempt to give

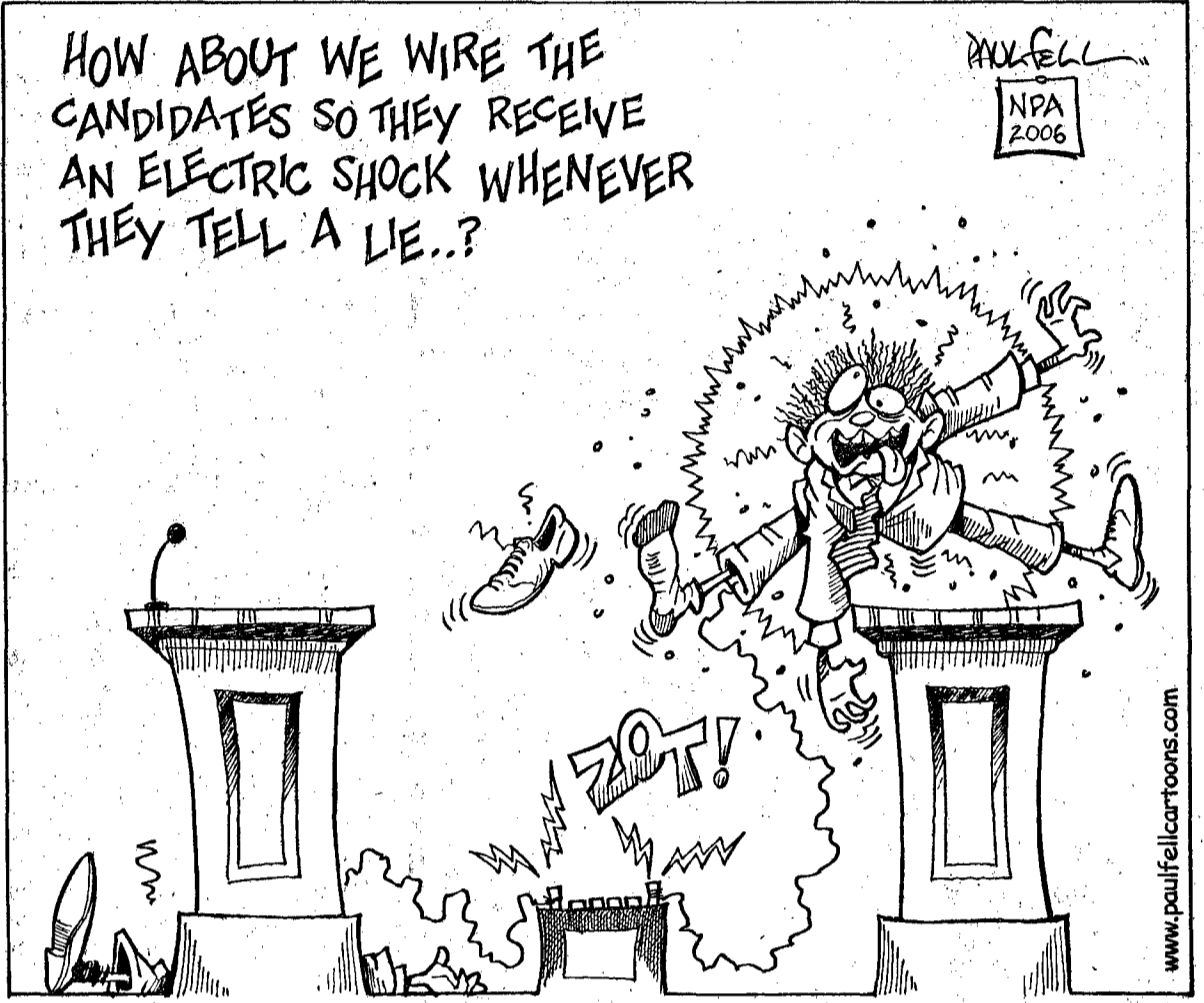

The idea, however, has been offered by police Sergeant Randy Adams, a cop in Cozad who is running against longtime Dawson County Sheriff Gary Reiber.

There are lots of reasons why the on-the-scene, up-to-the-minute lie detector test is a bad idea; not the least of which is that people can be trained to overcome the function of the machine, and that candidates in a debate situation aren't likely to have normal heart and respiratory rates.

None of the impracticalities, however, should disqualify the lie detector gimmick from living up debates for national office, whether congress, the senate or the White House.

Test results per se wouldn't necessarily be interesting. The entertainment value would be had via the spin doctors who would comment on them later.

First guy: "Paula, what's obvious here is that our candidate was morally outraged when asked about sleeping with the teddy bear his grandmother gave him 50 years ago. Naturally, the machine exploded! This was a woman who braved

Say Thanks by Voting

The patriots adopted the Constitution in 1789. It is our agreement to live together in this country and to make our own rules and then follow them. We have established a number of government bodies to serve us: public schools, states, cities, Natural Resource Districts. When you see the people who are on the ballot for election for these bodies, tell them thanks for caring and for the volunteer time and personal risk they will take to deal with problems, make decisions for the future and over see daily operations.

Why Buy a Landfill?

The city council has agreed to buy a small parcel of property that is a former city landfill site. The site was used by the City of Wayne in the 60's and 70's and was properly closed and covered according to NDEQ regulations at the time. Current regulations require this former dump site to be domed with soil and seeded to a heavy sod forming grass to minimize rainfall infiltration. The city cannot sell the site and shift responsibility for potential future contamination away to someone else.
The council's choice has been to pay a perpetual lease rate forever and maintain the property or to purchase the site for a one time cost. The land became available for sale as part of a larger land sale and the council chose to take possession of the site.

Wendy's High School Heisman Award winners honored at State Banquet

The Wendy's High School Heisman state finalists and their schools were honored Oct. 28 in Lincoln, at the Wendy's High School Heisman Awards banquet. The following students were recognized as the state's top winners from a field of 20 state finalists.

Nathan Summerfield

Among those listed as finalists was Nathan Summerfield, a senior at Wayne High School. Nathan is the son of Marty and Cheryl Summerfield.

The annual banquet honored all 20 Nebraska state finalists who excel in athletics, academics and community service.

Laura Wiebelhaus of Hartington High School and Shane Mathis of Mitchell Junior-Senior High School were named to state winners.

As the top state winners, the two represented Nebraska in the Upper U.S. Region. Regional winners will be selected to represent the Upper U.S. Region at the Wendy's National High School Heisman awards ceremony Dec. 8 in New York City, prior to the NCAA Heisman Trophy ceremony. Students, educators, family and friends heard remarks from the banquet's keynote speaker, Governor Dave Heineman. The Wendy's High School Heisman Program began 13 years ago in a partnership between Wendy's International, the National Association of Secondary School Principals and the Downtown Athletic Club of New York City to honor students based on accomplishments in athletics, scholarship and community service. To be eligible for the WSHS Program, student-athletes must be high school seniors, have maintained at least a "B" grade point average, participated in one of 32 sports officially sanctioned by the National Federation of State High Schools Association and taken an active role in community-oriented projects.

Involved in helping with the soup luncheon fund-raiser at WSC were, left to right, Randy Bertolas, Janet Schmitz, Cara Watchorn, Lisa Nelson and Laura Dendinger.

Cancer awareness fund-raiser a great success

On Oct. 25, a soup luncheon was held in Connell Hall to raise funds for the Every Woman Matters foundation, a state cancer awareness organization that provides financial aid to women for breast and cervical cancer exams and check-ups.

The luncheon raised over $300. "What I am most proud of," said event organizer Lisa Nelson, "is that faculty, staff, and students from many different departments and organizations all worked together to make this event a success."

Chartwell's donated the soup, Pi Gamma Mu donated pizza, and several staff members donated pink frosted cupcakes. Members of honor societies Pi Gamma Mu, Gamma Theta Upsilon, and Cardinal Key along with SHAPE, the Explorers Club, and WSC Service-Learning all helped with serving and clean-up. Professors Laura Dendinger, Mike Marek, and radio workshop students helped spread the word about the event with a press release and campus radio PSA's.

Professor Tammy Evetovich prepared an informative slide show that ran while those in attendance ate their lunch. The presentation highlighted a not widely known form of cancer called Inflammatory Breast Cancer (IBC).

Lisa Nelson expressed special thanks to Dr. Randy who sent out the call for help, and to "all who donated time or money to make the event so successful, especially Linda Teach who coordinated cupcake preparation. Special thanks also go out to Cara Watchorn, Mark Polenske, and Meagan Remund and many others too numerous to mention who were all exceptional contributors to this event"

If you were unable to attend the luncheon but would like to donate to Every Woman Matters, please send your contributions to Lisa Nelson in Connell Hall. Donations will continue to be accepted until Nov. 6.

Wayne State Choir to perform Nov. 9

The Wayne State College Choir will present a fall concert on Thursday, Nov. 9, at 7:30 p.m. in Ramsey Theatre, located in the Peterson Fine Arts Building on the WSC campus. The 64-voice ensemble is directed by Ronald R. Lofgren, D.M.A. and accompanied by pianist Linda Christensen, Ph.D. The concert is presented without charge. The public is encouraged to attend.

"We have an exciting and talented group of students in choir this year," said Lofgren. "The music we are doing this fall is most challenging."

The concert will include Randall Thompson's Alleluia, a beloved staple of choral repertoire since it was composed in 1940 and Alleluia by Alan Hovhaness. Hovhaness is an American composer of Armenian heritage.

A set of three-part songs by Claude Debussy will include Dieux qu'il la fait bon regarder!, Quant j'ai ouy le taurin and Yver, vous n'estes qu'un villain.

Cantate, Sing to the Lord by Noël Goemanne is a rhythmic selection for the concert. John Rutter is a British composer who was born in 1945. The choir will be performing three selections by him. Blow, Blow, Thou Winter Wind was published in 1975 and is one of Rutter's first pieces popular in this country. The other selections are A Gaelic Blessing and The Willow Tree.

The final two selections of the concert continue the international flair with Tango to Evora, an arrangement by Jon Washburn of an instrumental piece originally written by the Canadian Celtic musician Loreena McKennitt. It was used in the soundtrack of The Burning Times, a documentary about European witch-hunts of the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries. Evora is a historical city located in Portugal.

The concert will end with Draavidian Dithyramb by Victor Paranjoti, a composer and choral conductor of Indian and Western classical music and folk music.

Nov. 14 designated as World Diabetes Day

The American Diabetes Association (ADA) has announced that Nov. 14 has been designated as "World Diabetes Day." The American Diabetes Association is working with the International Diabetes Federation to observe "Diabetes Care for Everyone." If current trends continue, according to the ADA, one in three Americans, and one in two minorities, born in 2000, will develop diabetes in their lifetime.

The Every Woman Matters Program involves diabetes education in their program objectives and provides diabetes screening as part of the services they provide. The Nebraska Health and Human Services Every Woman Matters Program Annual Report states that, "6.2 percent of women reported that they have been told by a doctor that they have diabetes."

Since the program began in 1992, 292 new cases of Diabetes have been diagnosed. Type 1 diabetes is usually first diagnosed in children or young adults. In this form of diabetes, the immune system attacks the cells that make insulin in the pancreas and destroys them. The pancreas then makes little or no insulin, and cells can't take sugar from your blood. Someone with type 1 diabetes takes insulin shots or uses an insulin pump.

Type 2 diabetes is the most common form of diabetes. People can develop it at any age - even during childhood. Type 2 diabetes begins when your body can't use insulin properly, and there is too much sugar in your blood. At first the pancreas keeps up with the added demand by making more insulin. Over time it can't make enough insulin.

For more information on diabetes and other women's health issues, please contact the Every Woman Matters Program at Goldenrod Hills Community Action at (402) 529-3513 or (800) 445-2505

Barg earns Eagle Scout award

Sam Barg, son of Gene and Linda Barg of Winside, was honored at an Eagle Scout Court of Honor on Sept. 24.

The ceremony was held at the Roy Reed Post #252 of the American Legion in Winside. The members of Winside Boy Scout Troop 3179, Michelle Carlson, Lorna Brockmann and Scout Troop Leader Joni Jaeger participated in the ceremony.

Barg had his Eagle Scout Board of Review of Review on July 11, 2006. At that time he was informed that he had completed all qualifications for the Eagle Scout rank. The Court of Honor was held to swear him in as an Eagle Scout and present him with an Eagle Scout scarf, slide and badge. During the ceremony Barg presented his parents with miniature Eagle Scout pins designated for Mom and Dad.

The Eagle Scout rank is the highest rank a boy can achieve in the Boy Scouts of America organization and only about four percent of Boy Scouts attain this rank.

Barg joined the Boys Scouts of America in 2001. During his career he earned 32 merit badges, camped 49 nights, hiked 15 miles, cycled 100 miles and put in 37 service hours.

A Scout must complete a community service project before becoming an Eagle Scout. Barg completed a directory for the Pleasant View Cemetery just west of Winside which can be found on the internet a <http://nntc.net/winsidecemetery> as well in hard copy form at the Lied Winside Public Library. Along with the directory he put row markers at the cemetery to aid in locating grave sites. He was responsible for planning the project, contacting those people that could give permission for him to do the project, arranging to get the information needed for the directory and recruit help in getting it put on the internet as well as putting it in print for the library and doing the cement work at the cemetery.

Along with the many friends who were present for the Court of Honor Barg received letters of congratulation from President and Mrs. George Bush, Vice President Dick Cheney, Governor Dave Heinemann, Lt. Governor Rick Sheehy, Congressman Jeff Fortenberry, Senator E. Benjamin Nelson, Congressman Tom Osborn, Nebraska Secretary of State John A. Gale, Nebraska State Treasurer Ron Ross, The American Legion National Commander Paul A. Morn, The American Legion Nebraska State Department Commander Jerry Landkammer, Boy Scouts of America National President W. F. Cronk, Boy Scouts of America Mid American Council Executive Lloyd E. Roitstein and Sons of the American Revolution Nebraska Society President John T. Parsons.

A 'can do attitude' wanted

The "Can Do Club" met recently. The goal of the group is for a "can do" attitude to become infectious in organizations, institutions and governments in Northeast Nebraska and beyond. Getting others to adopt a "can do" way of thinking, doing business, or just being positive would do great things for the region.

If you're interested in displaying a "can do" attitude, want to be on an email list for potential events and activities or attend "can do" functions, call the RC&D office at 402-582-4866 or email info@north-eastrd.org.

Founding club members are the Northeast Nebraska RC&D Council, University of Nebraska Cooperative Extension/Knox and Antelope Counties, Knox County Economic Development Agency, and the Center for Rural Affairs.

Raking Leaves

There's a lot to love about fall: crisp air, football games, and even those leaves piling up on your front lawn. That's because raking leaves gives you a perfect opportunity to get outside, get some fresh air, and get in a workout all at the same time. Not to mention that your yard will look great when you're done.

To make it easier on your body, here are some leaf raking tips:

1. Pay attention to your raking posture.
2. Form a wide base of support with your feet.
3. Hold the rake slightly toward the end of the handle with one hand and three-quarters of the way down the handle with the other.
4. Try not to twist your spine, instead move your whole body (think of a rotating chair).
5. Try to stand as straight as you comfortably can.

People try to rake on one side of their body, which increases the risk of injury due to doing the same movement over and over. To avoid an overuse injury, try switching sides every few minutes. Take your time. Don't try to rake the whole yard at once. What you don't get done today will still be there tomorrow. For questions or to set up an appointment please call 375-7937.

Design and Decorating Inspiration making scents of it safely...

We have recently been highlighting the multitude of uses for candles in decorating for the upcoming holiday season and year round! A candle can add a wonderful warm ambiance and an inviting fragrance to your holiday decorating. A lit candle can also present a fire hazard and we would be remiss in not including candle safety into our discussion.

The National Fire Protection Association lists these tips for candle safety.

- * Extinguish all candles when leaving the room or going to sleep.
- * Keep candles away from items that can catch fire, like clothing, books and curtains.
- * Use candle holders that are sturdy, won't tip over easily, are made from a material that cannot burn, and are large enough to collect dripping wax.
- * Keep candles and all open flames away from flammable liquids.
- * Keep candle wicks trimmed to one-quarter inch and extinguish taper and pillar candles when they get to within two inches of the holder. Votives and containers should be extinguished before the last half-inch of wax starts to melt.
- * During power outages, avoid carrying a lit candle. Use flashlights!

Within the last few years a growing number of products have become available for "flameless" candle use which are especially helpful in homes with children, pets or the elderly. Many offices and dorm rooms will not allow a lit candle as well. Electric candle warmers allow you to use a standard jar candle and warm the wax to release the fragrance without lighting the wick. Our Bridgewater Warmups are specifically designed for warmers and do not include a wick. Our showroom also stocks flameless tea lights and pillars that are battery energized.

Visit our showroom to discover all the options to add the "warmth" of candles to your home...safely.

University of Nebraska-Lincoln Extension assistants, educators and specialists were recognized this month for their achievements and contributions with 2006 UNL Extension awards.

Barbara Ogg, extension educator in Lancaster County, received the Distinguished Educator award. Ogg's primary duties involve coordinating Lincoln's biosolids program. Since 1992, this program has saved more than $4 million in landfill tipping fees with more than 250,000 tons of biosolids safely applied to farm land. With a doctorate degree in entomology, Ogg also has taken the extra initiative to fulfill an increasing demand for urban pest management extension education, such as an award-winning head lice video and termite education.

"Market Journal" was honored with the Excellence in Team Programming award. A weekly 30-minute TV program on the NET and DISH networks, "Market Journal" provides useful, hands-on information to farmers and ranchers to supplement their educational activities in the ever-changing business and technology environment. Creators Doug Jose, farm management specialist, and Jim Randall, communications specialist-electronic media coordinator, are the nucleus of "Market Journal" as the regular host and producer. Also on the team are Jim Smith, electronic media engineer; Cheryl Griffith, project coordinator; Al Dutcher, state climatologist; Betty Castan, project assistant and Mike Kamm, communications specialist/electronic media. Regular analysts include Darrell Mark, livestock marketing specialist; Al Prosch, Pork Central educator; Paul Burgener, ag economics research analyst; Dave Aiken, water law specialist; Brad Lubben, ag economist and Nebraska ag producers Roy Smith and Mike Briggs. Segments in marketing, risk management and ag policy are regular features. Keith Glewen, UNL extension educator, received the Chester I. Walters Extra Mile award. Glewen is an innovator of numerous educational programs, including the Nebraska Soybean and Feed Grains Profitability Project, UNL Extension Crop Management Diagnostic Clinics, Crop Management Winter Programs, Soybean Management Field Days, Solutions Days, Nebraska No-Till Conference and the Nebraska Soybean and Machinery Expo. In addition to these statewide programs, Glewen also targets the needs of Saunders County residents, providing programming at both the state and county level.

Mary Loftis, extension assistant, 4-H youth development in Burt County, received the Extension Assistant award. In addition to outstanding general leadership and support of a successful and growing youth development program, Loftis also has built an effective school enrichment program in all school districts in Burt County, annually reaching 300 to 400 students. She has effectively delivered a Medicare educational program and has been particularly active in radon educational programming.

Extension New Employee awards were presented to Marty Cruickshank, extension assistant in Lancaster County, and Jennifer Rees, assistant extension educator in Clay County.

Rees has developed a balanced education program while establishing her reputation as an expert plant pathologist in south central Nebraska. She is a member of the soybean rust work group in which she presented at 20 winter meetings to nearly 1,200 producers, developed an economics table for producers to use before treating rust and co-authored a UNL Extension NebFact. She also made presentations at several other education programs, including the Women in Ag Conference and the Crop Protection Clinics.

County 4-H team in August 2003, Cruickshank has made major impacts in all of the program areas for which she is responsible. These include the horse, poultry, rabbits and 4-H School Enrichment Embryology programs.

Cruickshank's leadership has inspired a steady increase in the 4-H horse program to an all-time high of 1,500 entries at the Lancaster County Fair, while her embryology program taught 3,635 children in 165 classrooms.

The Distinguished Specialist award was presented to Terry Mader, beef specialist at UNL's Haskell Agricultural Laboratory. Mader has focused his extension program around his research interests. Recently, Mader has focused on stress response of feedlot cattle to environmental conditions. As a result of his heat stress in feedlot cattle research and extension efforts, it has been estimated that Mader prevented between $10 and $27 million in losses during the 2005 heat wave.

Area patients thankful for donors

With the Thanksgiving holiday quickly approaching, we can be thankful for many things such as friends, family and neighbors. Without the continuing support of blood donors, patients would not have a chance for another tomorrow. Your next opportunity to donate in Wayne is Tuesday, Nov. 14 from 1 to 6 p.m. at the Grace Lutheran Church.

People live such busy lives and yet taking time to give one unit of blood can make the difference between life and death to a patient in the hospital. It is essential that blood and blood products are available when necessary. Not only for treatment of accident cases, hemophiliacs and cancer patients, but for the use of routine surgeries. These occurrences do not stop or slow down during the holidays.

season gets busy, however that means an increased chance for unfortunate accidents that would require blood transfusions, and during the holidays, donations aren't as consistent to be relied on. It is necessary to have the commitment of the donors to ensure that our blood supply is sufficient," said Janette Twait, CEO.

The community blood supply needs over 1500 individuals to donate blood each week with the Siouxland Community Blood Bank to keep up with the needs of the 35 area hospitals in Iowa, Nebraska and South Dakota. The need for blood affects all of us. Nine out of ten of us will need blood some time in our lives, and one out of every ten hospital patients requires a transfusion. Help make a difference in the lives of others by donating today.

To be eligible to donate blood individuals must be at least 17 years of age; however there is no upper age limit as long as the donor is in good health. In addition donors need to weigh over 110 pounds and have not donated whole blood in the past 56 days. A photo I.D. is required at the time of registration.

For more information contact the Siouxland Community Blood Bank or blood drives in your area, call 712-252-4208, 1-800-798-4208 or visit their website at HYPERLINK "http://www.siouxlandbloodbank.org"

Roundup Ready weeds?

No, weeds are not quite roundup ready but, some are resistant. Resistance to roundup has been found in many other states. Glyphosate-resistant weeds in the United States include: waterhemp, lambsquarters, giant ragweed, common ragweed, palmer amaranth and marehail (horseweed). In Nebraska, marehail is the only one currently showing resistance.

Understanding resistance is the most important step to controlling resistant marehail. Roundup ready soybeans are genetically modified so they have the ability to tolerate glyphosate herbicide and survive being sprayed. Resistant marehail on the other hand has developed the ability to survive label rates of the glyphosate herbicide. For example the label rate of glyphosate may give you 90+ percent control of non resistant weeds, it would take 3-6 times the label rate to get the same control of resistant weeds. Applications above the label rate are illegal and so control of resistant weeds will have to be done by other pesticide chemistries.

The continuous application of glyphosate year after year to the same fields is the mechanism that led to resistance. Eventually after many years of continuous use, the populations of weeds that did not die from low rates reproduced and over time higher and higher rates were needed to kill resistant weeds. Breaking the cycle is the key to control.

Different herbicides have different chemistries and thus differ in how they kill plants. This is known as Mode Of Action. Glyphosate's mode of action is inhibition of amino acid synthesis causing plant death. 2,4-D another common herbicide is a plant hormone and causes uncontrolled growth leading to plant death. The herbicide label will have information on mode of action. To combat resistance make sure you use herbicides with different modes of action either in tank mix together, in rotation, or as soil active herbicides. When you take this approach weed populations will not be able to "get used to" one type of herbicide. Application of herbicide mixes as well as use of soil applied herbicides that use different modes of action will keep resistant weed populations low and keep glyphosate tolerant crops a viable option.

Agriculture

Enjoying watching sports this season

The trees in our neighborhood are a gorgeous mix of red, yellow and orange. We should definitely be called The Tree Planters State. Roger Welsch says in his latest book that of all the contributions Nebraska has made, Arbor Day is the best!

I don't mind orange leaves, but I've had enough of orange football jerseys for a while! In fact, when I arrived at Dorchester last Wednesday afternoon and learned they not only wear orange, but are the Longhorns, I had an awful foreboding. Turns out, I didn't have to worry.

Winside's football coach was a teammate of Jon's and its current players are children of people who were just ahead of our kids in school. Naturally, we follow the team's progress in the good old Wayne Herald. So, when we read that they were in a play-off game just an hour from us, we talked about finally seeing them in action. The weather forecast wasn't promising but it was an afternoon game, so I took a chance. I don't know when I enjoyed a football game so much. Keep in mind I've watched a lot of junior high games the past few years. And, NU had just suffered a two point loss to Texas. The quarterback is speedy, the center is steady, the line is tough and the backs can scramble. Plus, we have a kicker! You can't ask for anything more. These Longhorns were corralled. Plus, WHS alumni were all over the place. I admit it was cold. I had on extra socks, my faithful red cap and gloves and I always have a blanket in the car. But the company on the bleachers entertained as only mothers of high school players can and laughter keeps you warm, right?

I've not seen the movie Friday Night Lights, but I knew immediately it was about high school football. I didn't know where Dorchester's football field was, but I just looked for the lights, even in the afternoon.

Whatever happens this Wednesday, it's been a good season for the Wildcats.

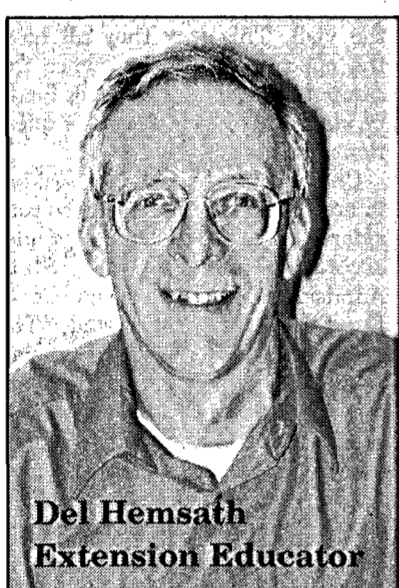

By the way, the Cards finally winning the Series made the week complete. We won't talk about the game in Oklahoma! At least the Husker volleyball team is still unbeaten.

Musk thistle control during October

Timing is everything for the most effective control of problem weeds and that's particularly true with musk thistle control. October to early November is one of the best times to use herbicides.

Did you have musk thistles this year? If so, walk out into those infested areas this week. With our recent rains, one should find many thistle seedlings. Most musk thistle seedlings this fall will be in a flat, small, rosette growth form, and they are very sensitive now to certain herbicides. Spray this fall and get good control of thistles this fall so they will not be a bigger problem next year. Spraying can be done until the ground freezes as the musk thistle plant will withstand the frost temperatures and still be actively growing.

The herbicides 2,4-D, and Ally

Del Hemsath
Extension Educator

both control musk thistle that is growing actively, so they can be used now. As the weather gets cold, add a little Banvel to the 2,4-D for better thistle control. Another herbicide that works fairly well late in the fall before soils freeze is Curtail.

If the temperatures turn cold (less than 50 degrees) and you aren't sure whether your thistle plants will absorb these herbicides, use Tordon 22K because Tordon has a lengthy soil residual that will continue to work even next spring if musk thistle plants currently are dormant due to drought or cold. All these herbicide treatments cost between $4 and $9 per acre. Redeem and Transline also work like Tordon, but they're a bit more expensive.

Give some thought now to musk thistle control during October and November. Your pastures can be cleaner next spring.

Organic farmer advisory meetings are scheduled for November

A series of University of Nebraska-Lincoln organic farmer meetings will be offered in November near Mead, Clay Center and Concord.

The meetings will give organic and potential organic farmers and Kids and Critters 4-H Club holds meeting

Kids and Critters met on Oct. 8 at Winside in the Methodist Church basement.

The meeting was called to order and the Pledge of Allegiance and the 4-H Pledge were recited. Roll was taken and the treasurer's report was given. Minutes of the last meeting were read and the time for meeting was amended.

Announcements for achievement program, livestock committee meeting, teen supreme's and a handout for meeting dates were given.

There was a motion to leave the dues the same as last year. Club goals were set for the new year. Courtney Petzoldt did a presentation on a mammal display, and Brittany Wurdeman did a presentation on her rabbit project. The meeting was adjourned.

The next meeting will be Nov. 5 at 2 p.m. at the Legion Hall in Winside.

commercial gardeners an opportunity to hear about research efforts being made at the university's research sites. Farmers can discuss their ideas about potential research projects for organic and alternative farming, said Liz Sarno, UNL Extension educator and organic project coordinator.

"We want your input and we want to hear your concerns," Sarno said. "Come and be part of the process of creating a 21st century vision of alternative farming."

Meetings are from 10 a.m.-1 p.m.

Dates and locations are:

- Nov. 8, August N. Christenson Research and Education Building, UNL's Agricultural Research and Development Center near Mead.

- Nov. 15, South Central Agricultural Laboratory near Clay Center.

- Nov. 20, Haskell Agricultural Lab near Concord.

Lunch will be served at the meetings. Call (402) 584-3837 to make lunch reservations at the Mead and Concord locations and (402) 762-4403 to make reservations at the Clay Center location.

The meeting also will discuss Adjusted Gross Revenue-Lite crop insurance for organic production, a whole-farm revenue protection plan of insurance. AGR-Lite offers an opportunity to insure that farm-raised crops such as organic commodity crops, vegetables, orchards, animals and animal products are eligible for protection.

The university also is working to develop online organic production workshops farmers can view at home or at local extension offices. Farmers are invited to weigh in on what topics should be addressed.

Campus visit crucial when selecting a college

Michael Jacobsen of Laurel may have attended a different university if he had not visited Wayne State College and learned that freshmen students were able to work on their own research projects immediately. For Jacobsen, research was one of the key points when choosing a college.

"During my visit, I found out I could start right away in the lab working on my own project idea and interacting with other researchers. Within a week of graduating from high school, I was doing just that at Wayne State College," said Jacobsen, a senior majoring in biology, chemistry and computer science.

Peru State College Admission Director Micki Willis said, "The campus visit is the single most important part of the college search process. You can only learn so much from brochures and videos. Once students spend time on campus, they will know if they can see themselves as a student at that school."

A 2004 research study conducted by Carnegie Communications for the Nebraska State College System indicated that parents were the number one group that influences students when making the college decision. The second was friends followed by teachers and guidance counselors.

"We encourage students to bring their parents or friends along for the visit. This way they all have the opportunity to experience the campus atmosphere and ask faculty, staff and current students' questions," Willis said.

Chadron State College, located in northwest Nebraska, can be considered remote by some people, according to Chadron State Admissions Director Tena Cook. For this reason, Cook said, "The campus visit is particularly crucial. A student or their family members may have certain feelings toward a college prior to the visit based on outside influences or experiences. During a personal visit, they are able to make decisions based on first-hand experience."

Cook added that a campus visit provides the student with a chance to be a part of the college atmosphere for a short time. Sometimes it only takes one small occurrence to make a college become the place they want to attend.

"One time I gave a personal tour to a student the day before Thanksgiving. Her family was in town for the holiday and couldn't make it back another time to tour. She later attended Chadron State and told me she always remembered that Wednesday tour I gave her family," Cook said.

Willis added, "Treat discovering the right college like shopping for the perfect car. Make sure to do your research, quiz the sales people, and take a test drive. Without visiting a college, students may end up choosing the wrong college."

Honey Sunday slated for Nov. 12

Local volunteers are expected to participate in the distribution of honey for Honey Sunday in Norfolk on Sunday, Nov. 12. The Arc of Norfolk is organizing the door-to-door campaign in Norfolk and several local communities will participate on Sunday, Nov. 5.

Proceeds from Honey Sunday assist The Arc of Norfolk in its work for and with children and adults with developmental disabilities and their families.

"Our goal is to raise funds by distributing 2,000 bottles of honey in the Norfolk area," said Honey Sunday Chairperson Ruth Markhofer.

Arc members and friends are working to sell honey in the communities of Wayne, Randolph, Pierce, Stanton, Osmond, Plainview, Madison, Meadow Grove and Battle Creek. A number of community groups are participating in the event, including area church youth groups, student organizations and service organizations.

The Honey Sunday project is a fundraising project of The Arc of Nebraska and has been in operation in locations across Nebraska for more than 40 years. It's a fundraiser that local Arc chapters raise the money for their local budgets; honey distributed in this area benefits the programs and services of The Arc of Norfolk.

Honeybees offer a parallel to the work of The Arc of Norfolk. A honeybee may spend an entire lifetime to produce one and a half teaspoons of honey. It takes many, many bees working together to produce honey. In the same way, it takes many, many parents, siblings and friends working together to effect significant change and improve the lives of children and adults who experience mental retardation and other developmental disabilities.

The services of The Arc of Norfolk are essential to Norfolk because The Arc has long been a leader in the establishment of community-based services for children and adults with developmental disabilities. Nebraska is home to an estimated 47,000 people with developmental disabilities. The Arc's role as an advocacy organization has been successful in ensuring a higher quality of life for many Nebraskans who experience developmental disabilities.

Persons interested in volunteering for Honey Sunday are encouraged to contact The Arc of Norfolk at 379-1160 or Ruth Markhofer at 371-4162. The Arc of Norfolk is a United Way Agency, advocating for the rights of citizens with developmental disabilities and their families.

The School District approved an excess levy for fifteen cents per one hundred dollars of valuation for a total levy of one dollar and twenty cents per one hundred dollars of taxable real estate value for a term of three years. This passed in a public vote, which this petition is intending to rescind. By voting YES you are agreeing that the excess levy of fifteen cents per hundred dollars of valuation would be rescinded, or in other words, the total levy would be one dollar and five cents ($1.05) per one hundred dollars of taxable real estate value. A NO vote means you do not agree to rescind the school districts tax override and the excess levy of fifteen cents per one hundred dollars of valuation would stand. The total levy of one dollar and twenty cents ($1.20) per one hundred dollars of taxable value for a term of three years then applies. <input type="radio"/> Yes rescind the override <input type="radio"/> No do not rescind the override

(5) Except when an elementary attendance center fails to meet the provisions of subdivision (4)(b) of this section, the school board of any Class II, III, IV, or V school district shall not take action to close an elementary attendance center or to change the elementary grades offered at an elementary attendance center unless public notice has been given that the school board is considering such action on or before January 1 of the school year preceding the first school year for which the elementary attendance center would be closed or the grades offered would be changed. (6) The temporary relocation of some or all of the students to an alternate elementary attendance center for a period not to exceed two years shall not constitute the closing of an elementary attendance center or a change in the grades offered at such elementary attendance center. An alternate elementary attendance center pursuant to this subdivision shall not be subject to subdivision (1), (2), (3), or (4) of this section. The grades offered at the alternate elementary attendance center shall include any grade for which a student could enroll and receive education at the elementary attendance center for the specified school year, and (7) For purposes of this section: (a) Elementary attendance center means a building in which education was offered by a school district in one or more of the grades kindergarten through grade four; (b) Resident elementary student means a student who will be attending school in an elementary grade in the school year in which the elementary attendance center would otherwise be closed or the grades offered would otherwise be changed and who resides within the boundaries of the school district which contains the elementary attendance center; and (c) Resident student means a student who resides within the boundaries of the school district which contains the elementary attendance center. Sec. 41. Section 79-556, Reissue Revised Statutes of Nebraska, is amended to read: 79-556. The annual school meeting of each Class I school district shall be held at the schoolhouse, if there is one, or at some other suitable place within the district on or before the second Monday of August of each year. The officers elected as provided in sections 79-472 and section 79-565 shall take possession of the office to which they have been elected at the first meeting of the board following its election, and the school year shall commence with that day. Sec. 42. Section 79-611, Reissue Revised Statutes of Nebraska, is amended to read: 79-611. (1) The school board shall either provide free transportation or pay an allowance for transportation in lieu of free transportation as follows: (a) When a student in grades kindergarten through eight attends an elementary school in his or her own district and lives more than four miles from the public schoolhouse in such district; and (b) When a student in grades kindergarten through eight is required to attend an elementary school outside of his or her own district and lives more than four miles from such elementary school; (c) When a student attends a secondary school in his or her own Class II or Class III school district and lives more than four miles from the public schoolhouse. This subdivision does not apply when one or more Class I school districts merge with a Class VI school district to form a new Class II or III school district on or after January 1, 1997; and (d) When a student, other than a student in grades ten through twelve in a Class V district, attends an elementary or junior high school in his or her own Class V district and lives more than four miles from the public schoolhouse in such district. (2) The transportation allowance which may be paid to the parent, custodial parent, or guardian of students qualifying for free transportation pursuant to subdivision (1) of this section shall equal two hundred eighty-five percent of the mileage rate provided in section 81-1176, multiplied by each mile actually and necessarily traveled, on each day of attendance, beyond which the one-way distance from the residence of the student to the schoolhouse exceeds three miles. (3) Whenever students from more than one family travel to school in the same vehicle, the transportation allowance prescribed in subsection (2) of this section shall be payable as follows: (a) To the parent, custodial parent, or guardian providing transportation for students from other families, one hundred percent of the amount prescribed in subsection (2) of this section for the transportation of students of such parent's, custodial parent's, or guardian's own family and an additional five percent for students of each other family not to exceed a maximum of one hundred twenty-five percent of the amount determined pursuant to subsection (2) of this section; and (b) To the parent, custodial parent, or guardian not providing transportation for students of other families, two hundred eighty-five percent of the mileage rate provided in section 81-1176 multiplied by each mile actually and necessarily traveled, on each day of attendance, from the residence of the student to the pick-up point at which students transfer to the vehicle of a parent, custodial parent, or guardian described in subdivision (a) of this subsection. (4) The board may authorize school-provided transportation to any student who does not qualify under the mileage requirements of subsection (1) of this section and may charge a fee to the parent or guardian of the student for such service. An affiliated high school district may provide free transportation or pay the allowance described in this section for high school students residing in an affiliated Class I district. No transportation payments shall be made to a family for mileage not actually traveled by such family. The number of days the student has attended school shall be reported monthly by the teacher to the board of such public school district. (5) No more than one allowance shall be made to a family irrespective of the number of students in a family being transported to school. If a family resides in a Class I district which is part of a Class VI district and has students enrolled in any of the grades offered by the Class I district and in any of the non-high school grades offered by the Class VI district, such family shall receive not more than one allowance for the distance actually traveled when both districts are on the same direct travel route with one district being located a greater distance from the residence than the other. In such cases, the travel allowance shall be prorated among the school districts involved. (6) No student shall be exempt from school attendance on account of distance from the public schoolhouse. Such agreement shall be signed by all the districts involved; (b) For reorganizations pursuant to section 3 of this act, all certificated employees from the Class I school district who have not been allocated pursuant to subdivision (1)(a) of this section shall be allocated to the reorganized district receiving the assets and liabilities of the Class I school district; (c) All certificated employees from the district or districts who have not been allocated pursuant to subdivision (1)(a) or (b) of this section shall be totaled and allocated among the reorganized districts based upon the proportion of students transferring to the reorganized district; (e) All certificated employees from the district shall be treated equally in the allocation regardless of seniority. Staff shall not be given the option to choose the reorganized district in which to relocate. Random selection shall be utilized to allocate individual employees among all reorganized districts; and (d) (e) Once the selection and allocation is completed, employees from the district or districts shall retain years of service from the previous district for purposes of seniority. Within each reorganized district, employees from the receiving district shall not have priority over transferring employees. All reduction-in-force laws and policies shall apply. (2) For unifications, staff not electing retirement pursuant to section 79-855 or Staff Development Assistance pursuant to section

79-856 shall be allocated prior to the effective date of the unification in compliance with an agreement signed by all participating districts. For any local system's territory which is affected by a recertification of a Class I district's taxable valuation, the Property Tax Administrator shall compute and recertify the adjusted valuation to each local system and the department on or before February 1, 2006. (2) On or before October 10, the Property Tax Administrator shall compute and certify to the State Department of Education the adjusted valuation for the current assessment year for each class of property in each school district and each local system for state aid to be certified for the following school fiscal year. The adjusted valuation of property for each school district and each local system, for purposes of determining state aid pursuant to the Tax Equity and Educational Opportunities Support Act, shall reflect as nearly as possible state aid value as defined in subsection (3) of this section. The Property Tax Administrator shall notify each school district and each local system of its adjusted valuation for the current assessment year by class of property on or before October 10. Establishment of the adjusted valuation shall be based on the taxable value certified by the county assessor for each school district in the county adjusted by the determination of the level of value for each school district from an analysis of the comprehensive assessment ratio study or other studies developed by the Property Tax Administrator, in compliance with professionally accepted mass appraisal techniques, as required by section 77-1327. On or before January 1, the Property Tax Administrator shall enter a written order modifying or declining to modify, in whole or in part, the adjusted valuations and shall certify the order to the State Department of Education. Modification by the Property Tax Administrator shall be based upon the evidence introduced at hearing and shall not be limited to the modification requested in the written objections or at hearing. For purposes of this subsection, clerical error means transposition of numbers, allocation of value to the wrong school district, mathematical error, and omitted value. (6) On or before June 30 of the year following the certification of adjusted valuation pursuant to subsection (2) of this section, any local system or county official may file with the Property Tax Administrator a written request for a nonappealable correction of the adjusted valuation due to changes to the tax list that change the assessed value of taxable property. Upon the filing of the written request, the Property Tax Administrator shall require the county assessor to recertify the taxable valuation by school district in the county on forms prescribed by the Property Tax Administrator. The recertified valuation shall be the valuation that was certified on the tax list, pursuant to section 77-1613, increased or decreased by changes to the tax list that change the assessed value of taxable property in the school district in the county in the prior assessment year. On or before the following July 31, the Property Tax Administrator shall approve or deny the request and, if approved, certify the corrected adjusted valuations resulting from such action to the State Department of Education. (7) No injunction shall be granted restraining the distribution of state aid based upon the adjusted valuations pursuant to this section. (8) A school district whose state aid is to be calculated pursuant to subsection (5) of this section and whose state aid payment is postponed as a result of failure to calculate state aid pursuant to such subsection may apply to the state board for lump-sum payment of such postponed state aid. Such application may be for any amount up to one hundred percent of the postponed state aid. The state board may grant the entire amount applied for or any portion of such amount. The state board shall notify the Director of Administrative Services of the amount of funds to be paid in a lump sum and the reduced amount of the monthly payments. The Director of Administrative Services shall, at the time of the next state aid payment made pursuant to section 79-1022, draw a warrant for the lump-sum amount from appropriated funds and forward such warrant to the district. Sec. 47. Section 79-1022, Revised Statutes Supplement, 2004, is amended to read: 79-1022. (1) On or before June 15, 2009 March 1, 2006, and on or before February 1 for each year thereafter, the department shall determine the amounts to be distributed to each local system and each district pursuant to the Tax Equity and Educational Opportunities Support Act and shall certify the amounts to the Director of Administrative Services, the Auditor of Public Accounts, and each district. The amount to be distributed to each district from the amount certified for a local system shall be proportional based on the weighted formula students attributed to each district in the local system. On or before June 15, 2009 March 1, 2006, and on or before February 1 for each year thereafter, the department shall report the necessary funding level to the Governor, the Appropriations Committee of the Legislature, and the Education Committee of the Legislature. Certified state aid amounts shall be shown as budgeted non-property-tax receipts and deducted prior to calculating the property tax request in the district's general fund budget statement as provided to the Auditor of Public Accounts pursuant to section 79-1024. (2) Except as provided in subsection (3) of this section and section 79-1033, the amounts certified pursuant to subsection (1) of this section shall be distributed in ten as nearly as possible equal payments on the last business day of each month beginning in September of each ensuing school fiscal year and ending in June of the following year, except that when a school district is to receive a monthly payment of less than one thousand dollars, such payment shall be one lump-sum payment on the last business day of December during the ensuing school fiscal year. (3) For school fiscal year 2002-03, except as provided in subsection (9) of section 79-1016 and section 79-1033, the amounts certified pursuant to subsection (1) of this section shall be distributed according to the payment schedule in this subsection on the last business day of each month listed, except that when a school district is to receive ten thousand dollars or less, such payment shall be one lump-sum payment on the last business day of December. The amount distributed each month shall be equal to the amount certified pursuant to subsection (1) of this section multiplied by the applicable percentage; rounded to the nearest cent. The percentages are: (a) For September, October, November, and December, seven and seven-tenths percent; (b) For January, February, March, and April, ten percent; and (c) For May and June, fourteen and six-tenths percent. Sec.

48. Section 79-1026, Reissue Revised Statutes of Nebraska, is amended to read: 79-1026. On or before June 15, 2009 March 1, 2006, and on or before February 1 for each year thereafter, the department shall determine and certify to each Class II, III, IV, V, or VI district an applicable allowable growth rate carried out at least four decimal places for each local system as follows: (1) The department shall establish a target budget level range of general fund operating expenditure levels for each school fiscal year for each local system which shall begin at twenty percent less than the local system's formula need and end at the local system's formula need. The beginning point of the range shall be assigned a number equal to the maximum allowable growth rate established in section 79-1025, and the end point of the range shall be assigned a number equal to the basic allowable growth rate as prescribed in such section such that the lower end of the range shall be assigned the maximum allowable growth rate and the higher end of the range shall be assigned the basic allowable growth rate; and (2) For each school fiscal year, each local system's general fund operating expenditures shall be compared to its target budget level along the range described in subdivision (1) of this section to arrive at an applicable allowable growth rate as follows: If each local system's general fund operating expenditures fall below the lower end of the range, such applicable allowable growth rate shall be the maximum growth rate identified in section 79-1025. If each local system's general fund operating expenditures are greater than the higher end of the range, the local system's allowable growth rate shall be the basic allowable growth rate identified in such section. If each local system's general fund operating expenditures fall between the lower end and the higher end of the range, the department shall use a linear interpolation calculation between the end points of the range to arrive at the applicable allowable growth rate for the local system. Sec. 49. Section 79-1027, Reissue Revised Statutes of Nebraska, is amended to read: 79-1027. No district shall adopt a budget, which includes total requirements of depreciation funds, necessary employee benefit fund cash reserves, and necessary general fund cash reserves, exceeding the applicable allowable reserve percentages of total general fund budget of expenditures as specified in the schedule set forth in this section.

10,000.01 and over	20

On or before February 5, 2009 March 1, 2006, and on or before February 1 each year thereafter, the department shall determine and certify each district's applicable allowable reserve percentage. Each district with combined necessary general fund cash reserves, total requirements of depreciation funds, and necessary employee benefit fund cash reserves less than the applicable allowable reserve percentage specified in this section may, notwithstanding the district's applicable allowable growth rate, increase its necessary general fund cash reserves such that the total necessary general fund cash reserves, total requirements of depreciation funds, and necessary employee benefit fund cash reserves do not exceed such applicable allowable reserve percentage. Sec. 50. Section 79-1028, Revised Statutes Supplement, 2004, is amended to read: 79-1028. (1) A Class II, III, IV, V, or VI school district may exceed the local system's applicable allowable growth rate for (a) expenditures in support of a service which is the subject of an agreement or a modification of an existing agreement whether operated by one of the parties to the agreement or an independent joint entity or joint public agency, (b) expenditures to pay for repairs to infrastructure damaged by a natural disaster which is declared a disaster emergency pursuant to the Emergency Management Act, (c) expenditures to pay for judgments, except judgments or orders from the Commission of Industrial Relations, obtained against a school district which require or obligate a school district to pay such judgment, to the extent such judgment is not paid by liability insurance coverage of a school district, (d) expenditures to pay for sums agreed to be paid by a school district to certificated employees in exchange for a voluntary termination of employment, or (e) expenditures to pay for lease-purchase contracts approved on or after July 1, 1997, and before July 1, 1998, to the extent the lease payments were not budgeted expenditures for fiscal year 1997-98. (2) A Class II, III, IV, V, or VI district may exceed its applicable allowable growth rate by a specific dollar amount if the district projects an increase in formula students in the district over the current school year greater than twenty-five students or greater than those listed in the schedule provided in this subsection, whichever is less. Districts shall project increases in formula students on forms prescribed by the department. The department shall approve, deny, or modify the projected increases.

The department shall compute the district's estimated allowable budget per pupil using the budgeted general fund expenditures found on the budget statement for the current school year divided by the number of formula students in the current school year and multiplied by the district's applicable allowable growth rate. The resulting allowable budget per pupil shall be multiplied by the projected formula students to arrive at the estimated budget needs for the ensuing year. The department shall allow the district to increase its general fund budget of expenditures for the ensuing school year by the amount necessary to fund the estimated budget needs of the district as computed pursuant to this subsection. On or before July 1, the department shall make available to districts which have been allowed additional growth pursuant to this subsection the necessary document to recalculate the actual formula students of such district. Such document shall be filed with the department under subsection (1) of section 79-1024. (3) A Class II, III, IV, V, or VI district may exceed its applicable allowable growth rate by a specific dollar amount if construction, expansion, or alteration of district buildings will cause an increase in building operation and maintenance costs of at least five percent. The department shall document the projected increase in building operation and maintenance costs and may allow a Class II, III, IV, V, or VI district to exceed the local system's applicable allowable growth rate by the amount necessary to fund such increased costs. The department shall compute the actual increased costs for the school year and shall notify the district on or before July 1 of the recovery of the additional growth pursuant to this subsection. (4) A Class II, III, IV, V, or VI district may exceed its applicable allowable growth rate by a specific dollar amount if the district demonstrates to the satisfaction of the department that it will exceed its applicable allowable growth rate as a result of costs pursuant to the Retirement Incentive Plan authorized in section 79-855 or the Staff Development Assistance authorized in section 79-856. The department shall compute the amount by which the increased cost of such program or programs exceeds the district's applicable allowable growth rate and shall allow the district to increase its general fund expenditures by such amount for that fiscal year. (5) A Class II, III, IV, or V district may exceed its applicable allowable growth rate by the specific dollar amount of incentive payments or base fiscal year incentive payments to be received in such school fiscal year pursuant to section 79-1011. (6) For school fiscal year 2006-07, a Class II or III school district that has been exempt from the transportation requirements of subdivision (1)(c) of section 79-611 due to the school district's status as a Class VI school district in a prior school fiscal year may exceed its applicable allowable growth rate by an amount equal to anticipated transportation expenditures necessary to meet new transportation requirements. The department shall approve, deny, or modify the anticipated transportation expenditures. The department shall compute the actual transportation expenditures necessary to meet new transportation requirements for school fiscal year 2006-07 and shall, if needed, modify the local system's applicable allowable growth rate for the ensuing school fiscal year. Sec. 51. Section 79-1031.01, Reissue Revised Statutes of Nebraska, is amended to read: 79-1031.01. The Appropriations Committee of the Legislature shall annually include the amount necessary to fund the state aid certified to school districts on or before May 1, 2009 March 1, 2006, and on or before February 1 for each ensuing school year thereafter in its recommendations to the Legis-

The primary high school district shall be the one Class II, III, IV, V, or VI school district or the unified system with which the greatest share of the Class I district's assessed valuation is affiliated or of which such share is a part for the school fiscal year immediately preceding the school fiscal year for which the primary high school district determination is made. The department shall certify to all school districts and all county clerks the primary high school district for each Class I district. Sec. 53. Section 79-1083.03, Reissue Revised Statutes of Nebraska, is amended to read: 79-1083.03. For school fiscal years prior to school fiscal year 2006-07: (1)(a) If the primary high school district designated pursuant to section 79-1083.02 is a Class VI district, the Class I district's total allowable general fund budget of expenditures minus the special education budget of expenditures shall be determined by the school board of such Class VI district and shall be certified to the Class I district on or before June 24, 2009; and on or before March 1 each year thereafter for the following school fiscal year; and (b) The Class VI primary high school district shall certify the total allowable general fund budget of expenditures minus the special education budget of expenditures for the Class I district to the State Department of Education on or before August 1, 2009; and on or before April 20, each year thereafter. (2) If the primary high school district is not a Class VI district, the Class I district's total allowable general fund budget of expenditures minus the special education budget of expenditures shall be determined by the department as follows and certified on or before June 15, 2009; and on or before February 1 each year thereafter: for the following school fiscal year: (a) The total allowable general fund budget of expenditures minus the special education budget of expenditures for the Class I district in the school fiscal year immediately preceding the school fiscal year for which the budget is prepared shall be divided by the formula students in the Class I district as defined in section 79-1003, and the result shall be increased by the applicable allowable growth rate for the primary high school district's local system for the ensuing school fiscal year calculated pursuant to section 79-1026 as determined on or before June 15, 2009; and on or before February 1 each year thereafter; of the school fiscal year immediately preceding the school fiscal year for which the budget is prepared; (b) The total allowable general fund budget of expenditures minus the special education budget of expenditures for the primary high school district in the school fiscal year for which the budget is prepared shall be divided by the formula students as defined in section 79-1003 in the primary high school district weighted by the grade weighting factors contained in subdivision (1)(a) of section 79-1007.01, and the result shall be multiplied by the kindergarten through grade eight formula students as defined in section 79-1003 weighted by the grade weighting factors contained in subdivision (1)(a) of section 79-1007.01 to calculate the total allowable general fund budget of expenditures minus the special education budget of expenditures for kindergarten through grade eight in the primary high school district. The total allowable general fund budget of expenditures minus the special education budget of expenditures for kindergarten through grade eight shall be divided by the kindergarten through grade eight formula students without weighting. The result shall be increased by the applicable allowable growth rate for the primary high school district's local system for the ensuing school fiscal year calculated pursuant to section 79-1026 as determined on or before June 15, 2009; and on or before February 1 each year thereafter; of the school fiscal year immediately preceding the school fiscal year for which the budget is prepared; (c) The amounts calculated in subdivisions (2)(a) and (2)(b) of this section shall be summed and the result divided by two to arrive at the total allowable general fund budget of expenditures minus the special education budget of expenditures per formula student for the Class I district; and (d) The total allowable general fund budget of expenditures minus the special education budget of expenditures per formula student for the Class I district shall be multiplied by the formula students as defined in section 79-1003 for the Class I district as used by the department for certification of the ensuing school fiscal year's state aid, and the result shall be the total allowable general fund budget of expenditures minus the special education budget of expenditures for the Class I district for the ensuing school fiscal year except as provided in subsection subdivision (3) of this section; (3)(a) The school board of the Class I district may, on or before July 1, 2009; and on or before March 10, each year thereafter; submit a request to exceed the total allowable general fund budget of expenditures minus the special education budget of expenditures to all the school boards of the high school district or districts with which the Class I district is affiliated or of which it is a part. For Class I districts to exceed the total allowable general fund budget of expenditures minus the special education budget of expenditures, the total general fund budget of expenditures request shall be approved by high school districts, including the primary high school district, such that the portions of the Class I district that are affiliated with or part of the approving high school districts comprise at least two-thirds of the assessed valuation of the Class I district. Such request shall specify the total general fund budget of expenditures, broken down by expenditures for special education, for regular education, and for special grant funds as defined in section 79-1003, for which the Class I district seeks authority; and (b) The high school district shall approve or deny the request on or before July 15, 2009; and on or before April 10 each year thereafter following the receipt of such request and shall forward written notification to the Class I district of approval or denial. A request for additional budget authority shall be considered approved if (i) no action is taken by the high school district or (ii) the high school district fails to send written notification to the Class I district of the denial of a request for additional budget authority; (4) The school board of a Class I district may, after October 15 of each year, amend the general fund budget of expenditures (a) by increasing the special education budget of expenditures, (b) for any special grant funds as defined in section 79-1003 received any time during a school fiscal year, or (c) for current fiscal year expenditures the board deems essential if the expenditures could not reasonably have been anticipated at the time the budget for the current year was adopted. PROPOSED BY INITIATIVE PETITION INITIATIVE MEASURE 423

A vote "FOR" will amend the Nebraska Constitution to impose a state spending limit based upon a calculation involving previous appropriations, the inflation rate and population change in Nebraska.

A vote "AGAINST" will not amend the Nebraska Constitution to impose such a state spending limit.

Shall the Nebraska Constitution be amended to limit state spending based upon a calculation involving previous appropriations, the inflation rate and population change? The Legislature could seek voter authorization to exceed the spending limit. Appropriations subject to the limit would not include emergency appropriations and appropriations of monies from the federal government, monies from non-governmental entities, proceeds from the sale of property, monies dedicated to pro-rata taxpayer relief and refunds, monies from user charges, income from certain permanent funds such as endowment and pension funds, and surplus funds held in reserve. Taxpaying resident could enforce the spending limit.

TEXT OF PROPOSED INITIATIVE MEASURE 423

Proposed Constitutional Amendment Language (Changes indicated in Bold)

To amend Article III, Section 22 of the Constitution of Nebraska.

Article III

§ 22. Appropriations for state; deficiencies; bills for pay of members and officials

(1) Each Legislature shall make appropriations for the expenses of the Government. And whenever it is deemed necessary to make further appropriations for deficiencies, the same shall require a two-thirds vote of all the members elected to the Legislature. Bills making appropriations for the pay of members and officers of the Legislature, and for the salaries of the officers of the Government, shall contain no provision on any other subject.

(2) For any state fiscal year that commences on or after January 1, 2007, the Legislature shall be subject to a state spending limit that is the greater of:

(a) the total amount appropriated in the preceding fiscal year increased by a percentage amount equal to the result obtained by adding the inflation rate plus the percentage change in state population for the calendar year in which the immediately preceding fiscal year began; or
(b) the state spending limit for the previous fiscal year.

(3) A total fiscal year appropriation may only exceed the state spending limit under the following circumstances:

(a) Two-thirds of the members of the Legislature must first approve the total appropriations budget and its referral to the voters,
(b) A majority of voters casting ballots at a statewide election vote affirmatively to authorize the Legislature to exceed the state spending limit, and,
(c) the ballot question provides the voters the following options:

(i) I authorize the Legislature to exceed the State Spending Limit for [insert fiscal year] by [insert total amount of proposed fiscal year spending above the state spending limit].
(ii) I do not authorize the Legislature to exceed the State Spending Limit.

Respectfully submitted,

John Gale

(4) For purposes of this section: (a) "inflation rate" means the change during a calendar year, expressed as a percentage, in the consumer price index for the Midwest region, incorporating all goods and services for all urban consumers, as officially reported by the Bureau of Labor Statistics of the United States Department of Labor, or its successor index.

(b) Percentage change in state population a calendar year shall be determined by measuring the percentage change in the annual federal census estimate of Nebraska for a calendar from the annual federal census estimate for the immediately preceding year, and such number shall be adjusted every decade to match the federal census.

(5) A total fiscal year appropriation shall include every legislative appropriation authorizing an expenditure of funds from the state treasury within a specific fiscal year, with the following exceptions:

(a) Money received directly or indirectly from the federal government;
(b) Money awarded or donated to a state agency or institution by a nongovernmental entity;
(c) Proceeds from the sale of property at real market value to non-governmental entities.
(d) Monies dedicated to pro-rata taxpayer relief or refunds.

(e) Appropriations funded by user charges or fees to the extent that such charges or fees do not exceed the approximate cost to the state of providing such goods or services, and the purchase by the user is wholly discretionary.
(f) Monies that are income earned on moneys in permanent endowment funds, trust funds, deferred compensation funds or pension funds and that are credited to such funds.

(g) Surplus funds may be designated by the Legislature to be held in a budget reserve fund to provide funding when state revenues fall below the state spending limit. Appropriations from any such fund shall remain subject to the state spending limit and no such monetary designation may cause the total amount of funds available for this purpose to exceed twelve percent of the allowable state spending limit for the fiscal year in which the designation is made;

(h) Appropriations made subject to an emergency declared by a three-fourths vote of all the members of the Legislature and the declared emergency stems from an unexpected, immediate and significant threat to public health or safety may exceed the state spending limit. A shortfall in anticipated revenue shall not constitute an emergency. If a court of competent jurisdiction in a final order rules that any emergency appropriation violates this section, the state spending limit under subdivision (2)(a) of this section shall be reduced by that amount in the next fiscal year;

(6) Any taxpaying resident of Nebraska shall have standing to enforce the provisions of this section. It is the intent of the voters in amending this section that legal interpretations that restrain growth in government spending are favored over interpretations that do not restrain such spending. If a court of competent jurisdiction in a final order shall adjudge any category of legislative appropriation exempt from this Article, the state spending limit shall be reduced accordingly and the remaining provisions shall be in full force and effect.

Respectfully submitted,
