Street plan discussed

By Clara Osten
 Of the Herald

The street projects that could be completed in the next six years were approved during Tuesday's meeting of the Wayne City Council.

Joel Hansen, Certified Street Superintendent, presented a list of projects to be completed in 2007 and in each of the upcoming years.

Both Hansen and City Administrator Lowell Johnson stressed that even though the projects are listed in a specific year, they may not be completed. The factors determining completion include funding and community input.

Hansen noted that the street improvement plan is a "planning document" and also spoke on the guidelines for the city receiving state and federal highway allocations. Indications are that the new highway bill being debated at the federal level could reduce the amount of money available to the city of Wayne.

Listed in the 2007 schedule of projects include the completion of the Main Street (Highway 15) project in downtown Wayne, asphalt overlay on Sherman Street from West Seventh Street to West 11th Street and from West Fourth Street to West Fifth Street, an extension of Oak Drive on the north side of Highway 35 in conjunction with development of that area, the Lage Subdivision south of Fairgrounds Avenue and work on 150 feet of Folk Street from South Nebraska Street to the west.

Future projects on the list include a pedestrian underpass on West Seventh Street between the Community Activity Center and Oak Drive, complete reconstruction of East 10th Street from Main Street to Windom and work on Schoolview Drive from West Fourth Street to West Fifth Street.

Council members approved a change order for the painting of the west water tower.

Resolution 2007-6 was given unanimous approval, allowing the city to move forward with the purchase of a fire truck and equipment.

Council member Doug Sturm said "we need the truck" and noted that the members of the Wayne Volunteer Fire Department specifications committee were aware of the department's needs.

An interlocal agreement was approved between the city and Wayne State College for use of the Rugby field.

City Administrator Johnson said he

Valentine fun

Snow and sub-zero temperatures did not stop these artists from attending the Wayne Public Library's Valentine Day party. Children took advantage of a snow day at the Wayne Schools to visit the library and construct Valentines for their "sweethearts." The Valentine activity is just one of many taking place at the library during the month of February.

Hill hired as high school guidance counselor

By Lynn Sievers
 Of the Herald

Wayne Community Schools Board of Education met in regular session Monday night. Among agenda items the board took action on was the hiring of Mrs. Melody Hill as high school guidance counselor.

Also on the agenda was Diana Davis and Dr. Pat Arneson with discussion on computer classes in the Wayne school system. Davis recently took a look at the computer classes in grades 7 - 12 for state requirements. Wayne Community Schools requires students to take at least one year of computer classes. State requirement is 27 weeks of keyboarding and only 18 weeks were required in the Wayne School district.

Two issues Davis was checking into was to realign course titles and modify 7 - 12 content. With Intro to Keyboarding offered now in the fourth grade and keyboarding in the Middle School, there is more chance for students to get the computer skills they need. Also, students can take business applications courses in ninth grade. There is an elective also, which is business applications II.

Dr. Pat Arneson, an instructor at Wayne State College and member of the State Department of Education took a look at the Wayne Community School system and found a strong business department that exceeds state standards. Dr. Arneson noted that the Wayne Schools system is lucky to have both Davis and Annette Rasmussen, who are both certified in Nebraska Curriculum standards.

Peg Lutt, curriculum director, discussed the 2007-'08 school calendar and how staff requests were taken into consideration. Dr. Reinert, superintendent, noted the biggest change in the calendar is dismissal at 2 p.m. on Mondays for students (buses will also run at that time). The early dismissals on Mondays will allow teachers inservice hours so they do not have so many out of school hours to put in. Board members approved the 2007-'08 calendar as presented.

Faculty reports included Mark Hanson, high school principal, informing the board they decided to not go ahead with Senior Exit class because too many questions

Jess enjoys fun and sun thanks to Kids Wish Network

Jess Gibson is an adorable little guy with a contagious smile! This special boy is a huge hockey fan and loves to collect all kinds of hockey memorabilia. Some of Jess's other favorite activities include playing games on his PS2, horseback riding and playing with his toy tractors and cars. Jess is also crazy about the color green and loves chocolate pudding! While Jess is a typical six-year-old in many ways, there are some things about him that make him unique from his peers. Born prematurely, Jess suffers from a condition known as periventricular leukomalacia. This condition is very similar to cerebral palsy with spastic quadriplegia. Essentially, the blood in Jess's brain did not circulate properly before birth. Jess's mobility is highly compromised and he is unable to sit up or walk independently. He has been in and out of the hospital much of his young life and has endured numerous and painful surgeries. Jess has recently undergone a hip surgery. Jess attends frequent physical and occupational therapy sessions. In addition, he suffers from a respiratory disorder and often needs to use a nebulizer.

Not long ago a friend referred Jess's mother, Shannon to Kids Wish Network, an organization that grants wishes to children with life-threatening illnesses. After all that Jess had been through, Shannon was hopeful that her brave son would qualify for a wish with the charity. She submitted Jess's name and completed the application process. The entire family was later delighted to learn that Jess had indeed been approved. This special boy didn't hesitate when asked for his number one wish: he wanted to go to Disney World!

Kids Wish Network wish coordinator, Lora, immediately began the arrangements to make Jess's dream come true. She not only secured airline tickets to Florida and theme park passes to the many parks there, she also booked accommodations, made dinner reservations for the family at area restaurants, arranged for spending money and more. Before Jess knew it, he was on a plane headed to Orlando.

Soon after arriving in the Sunshine State, Jess and his family checked into the beautiful Royal Plaza Hotel in Downtown Disney. After a warm welcome and settling in, Jess was ready to go. Armed with an itinerary full of things to do, he headed for the parks.

During his exciting stay, Jess hit just about every park he could get to, including the Animal Kingdom, Epcot, the Magic Kingdom and Sea World. Shannon said that by far, Sea World was a favorite for Jess and his sisters.

"They loved feeding the dolphins and petting them. It was great!" And at the Magic Kingdom, Jess enjoyed a very special meet and greet with the most famous mouse of all. "Jess totally loves Mickey Mouse" said Shannon. "He couldn't get enough of him." Jess also had a blast meeting some of his other favorite Disney characters in person and riding some of the rides.

The family returned home tired, but with plenty of wonderful memories. Shannon said it was an amazing experience for her special son. "Talk about the trip of a lifetime! The parks were wonder-

NSP warns of electronics scam

The Nebraska State Patrol is urging citizens to be aware of a fraudulent scam involving the reshipping of expensive electronic equipment. Two north-central Nebraska women recently became the victims of such a scheme.

Investigators say a suspect used the internet to establish relationships with the two women. Once the relationships were established, the suspect had high dollar electronic equipment shipped to the women for reshipping out of the country.

According to investigators the suspect used credit card information fraudulently obtained from a woman in Pennsylvania to make internet purchases of the electronic equipment. The equipment was ordered by the suspect, and shipped directly to the two women in Nebraska.

The women, who live in North Loup and Scotia, were unaware of the methods used to buy the equipment and were convinced by the suspect, the merchandise needed to be repackaged before it could be shipped to him overseas. The repackaged items were being shipped to an address in Ghana.

"This individual preyed on the vulnerability of these two women," said Troop C, Investigative Services Lt. Dennis Leonard. "He established a relationship, and gained their confidence. In doing so, he was able to engage them in criminal activity without their knowledge, by convincing them they were helping a friend with a business transaction."

Nebraska residents are reminded never to respond to email or phone requests asking them to confirm, update or provide account or personal information.

For additional information on scams and identity theft, visit the Nebraska Attorney General's website at www.ago.state.ne.us or call the Attorney General's Consumer Protection Division at 1-800-727-6432.

Jay Collier, director of WSC college relations, spoke to local Rotarians recently about his life and about his position at Wayne State College.

Director of WSC college relations gives presentation at recent Rotary Club meeting

Jay Collier was a recent speaker at a Wayne Rotary Club meeting. Collier is director of college relations at Wayne State.

Prior to his position at WSC, Collier was a copy editor and designer at Inland Valley Daily Bulletin in Ontario, Calif. and copy editor/designer at Los Angeles Times and in public relations at Pitzer College in Claremont, Calif. Collier received his education at Colorado State. His master's and bachelor's of arts degrees are in Early Modern European history.

Collier's wife, Jane, is a graphic designer but is currently at home full-time with their three sons who are ages 9, 4 and 1. He is originally from a small town in Georgia and Jane is from small towns in Minnesota and Colorado.

At Wayne State, his job duties include handling communications, media relations, campus publications such as the alumni magazine and some web content.

Collier added some humor to his presentation. Following are 10 things he has learned since moving to Wayne.

1. Stop signs are for wimps. Here in Wayne, you better know the right-of-way rule.

2. Sloppy Joes are Taverns. Unless you're in some parts of Iowa, then they're called Mair-Rites. Or they could be called Loose Meats.

3. The strange glow to the north of town is not an illusion. You really can see the Northern Lights here occasionally.

4. If you speed, the Nebraska State Patrol will catch you.

5. Gravy is a generic term for any sauce poured over something. Here at this fine establishment (Tacos and More), they asked me if I wanted gravy on my burrito. I declined, only to learn that I did want gravy because what they really meant is ranchero/green sauce.

6. Keep one hand free for waving while driving.

7. When drivers raise a finger at you here, it's not the same one they wave at you in California.

8. There's no difference between zero degree and 10 below. It's just cold. Unless the wind's blowing. Then it's cold.

9. A feed (spaghetti feed, omelet feed, soup feed) is a fundraiser. Everyone in town goes and the food's usually great.

10. The setting sun may be Cornhusker Red, but the rising sun is Wayne State gold.

Wayne Rotary Club meets every Wednesday morning at 7 a.m. at Tacos & More in Wayne. A new speaker is scheduled each week. Anyone with questions about Rotary can call Darrell Miller, Wayne Rotary Club president at 375-4698.

Wakeup call

Our community will say goodbye for the final time Friday to a businessman who had a tremendous impact on Wayne.

As most of us who knew Marty Summerfield struggle to find meaning to this tragedy we should keep in mind one thing, never ever take anything for granted.

Maintaining a healthy heart and lifestyle has taken front and center stage again and this time it needs to be a wakeup call for many of us. Life is precious and invariably short. Therefore, it's imperative to heed this wakeup call.

Rotary's weekly meeting on Wednesday had a focus on Cardiac Rehab with Teri Beza from Providence Medical Center doing an outstanding job of educating Rotarians about the signals of heart disease and how important it is to be checked regularly, especially when genetics point to possible problems.

A friend of mine told me the other day that people will do a proficient job over the next several weeks of cutting back on habits that affect the heart in an ill way but human nature will revert them back to their normal lifestyles...and he's probably right. Much similar with New Year's resolutions.

Those that answer the call every year with annual physicals and check-ups, cudos to you, job well done and keep up the good work.

The remainder of us that don't do this, hang on the phone's ringing, H-E-L-L-O, just a second, IT'S FOR YOU!

No ordinary day

Tuesday was supposed to be just another ordinary day. The day before Valentine's Day, one day closer to Spring and a myriad of other normal Tuesday activities at work.

Ordinary as it turned out, would have been an outstanding alternative to what transpired as the community of Wayne suffered the tragic loss of a true ambassador and long before we should have.

Marty Summerfield passed away shortly after 7 a.m. and news of the tragedy reached my phone just before nine. So much for ordinary. Numbness ran rampant throughout the newspaper office and men's coach Greg McDermott (now the Iowa State head coach for those that don't follow athletics) and he always offered a helping hand in any capacity to booster clubs both at Wayne High and Wayne State.

The truth is Marty loved Wayne. I know this for a fact because he told me countless times. This former Iowa boy gave his heart and soul to this community after his collegiate experience at Wayne State College.

He loved raising his family in this community but his role went far beyond the boundaries of our city limits. He had a way with words. He made you feel welcome to our community which is why he spent countless hours helping to find ways to recruit business and/or industry to Wayne.

He had a passion to see that our community always did its best to rise to the top. He was a true ambassador—an official messenger with a special mission.

His passion didn't stop there. He also loved the game of golf and to be quite frank, he was pretty darn good. But you see, the beauty of this guy on the golf course wasn't just his smooth swing, it was the comfort you felt playing the game of golf with him. He loved being on the course. It didn't matter if you had a single digit handicap such as himself, or if you had a handicap in the upper 30's, his demeanor was the same toward you. It was about comradery with fellow golfers.

Ordinary did not describe the likeness of Marty Summerfield. Extraordinary seems much more fitting as his personality was exceptional when it came to marketing this community in every way.

This is the time where Faith, Family and Friends need to play a vital role in getting through this time of grief. Many folks feel the key is to celebrate Marty's life through anecdotes and other means, and by all means that is great...BUT, it is also fine to mourn, the loss of this man.

I wonder how that golf match in heaven is going right now between Marty and Bob.

'Local control' is now statewide war cry

By Ed Howard
Statehouse Correspondent
The Nebraska Press Association

There was a time when the words "local control" would likely conjure a single issue in the minds of those familiar with the Legislature.

"Local control" was a war cry to be heard whenever there was a move, or even a suggestion, having to do with merging the state's smallest school districts - the Class I districts that were recently dissolved by the Legislature.

Urban lawmakers often argued that when their rural colleagues took up the "local control" rallying cry, what they really meant was "We have a good tax shelter, leave us alone!"

Times and population centers changed. The unthinkable occurred.

The "local control" standard still arises on other matters of social and political import.

Legislators are considering a measure that would regulate smoking throughout the state.

Any law that might issue from the Tower on the Plains would center on the obvious: workplace smoking, public buildings and private businesses. Lincoln has a strict local smoking ordinance. Omaha has one, but it provides some temporary exemptions for standalone bars, a race track and some other places.

The notion of state government determining when and where the populace could use tobacco, outside private homes, still seems Orwellian to some. Critics view it not only as a matter that should be left to "local control" of communities, but often as something that should be entirely up to the individual.

What was, unthinkable most often becomes thinkable when government is faced with unavoidable realities, and/or public demand.

The health risks associated with smoking - directly or through secondhand exposure to smoke - have been acknowledged by most of us, and our governments.

Once society has a compelling interest in regulating an activity ("compelling interest" is a legal term) for the public good, the courts generally acknowledge that government has authority to do it.

A third area of potential change in an area close to the hearts of Nebraskans has to do with the system used by the citizenry to put issues on the statewide ballot.

Nebraska is among the minority of states that provide for direct democracy through a system of initiative and referendum petitions.

The Legislature is regularly involved in debate over how best to facilitate the petition process without putting too great a burden on those who would use it. That debate continues in the 2007 session.

One element of the debate: Should petition backers be allowed to hire nonresidents to gather petition circulators? Should it be illegal to pay circulators on a per-signature basis? Critics say the per-signature approach sometimes leads to overly aggressive efforts, or fraud.

There is also a philosophical question at issue in the petition process, having to do with the origins of proposed changes in law or the state constitution.

Some are concerned with a move in recent years, by groups or individuals in other states, to finance petition efforts in Nebraska and elsewhere in the country. Critics are troubled by the specter of one person or group being able to drive debate on public policy in several states, simply by dint of big bank account.

It is hard to fathom such ventures ever being frowned upon by the courts. If Nebraskans take an interest in an idea, and are willing to mount work to put it before the voters, it would seem they are entitled to go unfettered in their effort - providing that they comply with the law.

Initiative petitions topic of debate for legislators

For the next several weeks, senators will continue meeting as a legislative body in the morning and dividing into committees for public hearings in the afternoons. During the third week in March, the hearing process will conclude and senators will begin meeting in all-day sessions.

Two of the mornings this past week were spent discussing a proposed constitutional amendment that would change the number of signatures required on initiative petitions. Under LR 8, the number of signatures required for the enactment of a law is decreased from seven percent to four percent of the registered voters in the state. At the same time, the number of signatures required to amend the constitution is increased from 10 percent to 15 percent of registered voters.

The intent behind LR 8 CA was to make it more difficult for well-financed outside groups to come into our state and attempt to change our constitution. As a trade-off, the signatures required to change a state law are lowered, as such attempts are usually made by Nebraskans through grass-root efforts.

I believe in the initiative process. I have often stated that the people are the second house of our Unicameral Legislature. However, I personally believe that the constitution should be regarded as a highly respected document and that it should be very difficult to 35 percent of the total votes cast at such election.

Legislative Update
By: State Senator Pat Engel, District #1

An amendment was offered to revert the number of signatures required back to a percentage of those who voted at the last gubernatorial election compared with the current requirement of a percentage of registered voters. This is how it was done prior to a court ruling. Other amendments were offered to lessen the decrease in proposed signatures for an enactment of law and to require the same number of signatures for a referendum as it takes to suspend the law. This amendment stemmed from the Class I issue, where enough signatures were collected to place the repeal of LB 126 on the ballot, but not enough to suspend the law from going into effect. None of the proposed amendments were successful.

After much discussion, LR 8 failed to advance on a 20-22 vote. I voted in support of its advancement for the reasons already discussed. I think some senators were concerned that this change might infringe on the rights of Nebraskans. I, however, feel that we have to protect our constitution from national groups with national agendas.

The Education Committee spent two afternoons listening to testimony pertaining to the Omaha Public Schools boundary issue. The bill brought forth by the majority of the superintendents from the metro area contained a flaw in the funding provisions, in that it shifted state aid from school systems outside the 11 metropolitan school districts to those metropolitan districts. The metro superintendents stated that it was not intentional and are working on a remedy. It is now up to the Education Committee to decide which proposal(s) to advance to the floor of the Legislature for debate by the entire body. The Governor has recently come out in support of the plan offered by the metro superintendents.

I encourage you to contact me to inform me of your opinions on the various issues before the Legislature. I can be reached at District #17, P.O. Box 94604, State Capitol, Lincoln, Neb. 68509, my telephone number is (402) 471-2716, my fax number is (402) 479-0917 and my e-mail address is lengel@leg.ne.gov.

At age 49, Marty was the picture of the proud father as he celebrated with friends the recent news of his son Nate receiving numerous scholarship offers for his prowess in the classroom. He spent countless hours reminiscing about recent basketball games the Blue Devils played as Nate's senior year winds down with one regular season contest left before the start of sub-districts.

Marty was always amidst conversations about Wayne State athletics and was very close friends with current women's basketball coach Ryun Williams. He also spoke often with former Wildcat Daryl Schunk, elementary school principal, gave an update on the laptop grant he put together for the elementary school. If the school gets the grant, a teacher in each grade will get a laptop, scanner, printer, projector and digital camera to use at school. He also noted he is involved in the Safe Routes to School grant which will tie in city pedestrian trails and the routes to the Community Activity School and to the school.

Tim Krupicka, Middle School principal, noted the eighth grade has been chosen to take assessment tests in reading and math. Four students will take writing assessments. Sixteen schools were chosen to participate. He also noted the Carnival is set for March 23 in the Middle School gym.

Kelly Ballinger, SPED director, said staff member Jean Dorcey gets a Pat on the Back for emptying the lost and found box in a learning experience for her students that involved a trip to the laundromat.

In Athletic Director Rocky Ruhl's absence, Dr. Reinert gave an update on the bleachers in the high school gym. He said tear down of the old bleachers should start in May with installation done by the end of June. Dr. Reinert noted they hope for funding from the Foundation and they will borrow the remaining amount. He added they are looking for corporate sponsorship from some large vendors for logos on the floor.

Dr. Reinert discussed school enrollment and noted that the numbers are staying about the same, which is better than some of the area schools. In the Wayne school system, state aid is down $700 from last year as compared to around $250,000 to $300,000 for some schools. He added land value is up which affects the amount of state aid received.

Board members approved the second reading of policy 4101 (personnel-classified-vacation) and first reading of policy 6010 (graduation requirements).

The next meeting of the Wayne Community Schools Board of Education is set for Monday, March 12 at 7 p.m. at Wayne High School.

Wayne State College to host expert Terry Arndt

The Wayne State College Career Services office will host expert Terry Arndt in the Frey Conference Suite in the Student Center on Thursday, Feb. 22 from noon to 1 p.m. There is no admission charge.

In 1999, Arndt started Life After Graduation, LLC as a resource to help college students and recent graduates learn about the tools and information to help achieve academic, financial and career success.

Eight years later, Arndt has worked with more than 500 colleges, employers and education-based organizations <http://www.lifeaftergraduation.com/content/our-customers/our-customers.htm>. His publications have been read and utilized by more than one hundred thousand college students and recent graduates across the country.

Like most college students, Arndt faced the struggles of transitioning into and out of college on his own. He grew up in a small farming community and has firsthand experience with the culture shock of moving to a large college campus. Arndt's presentation covers how to deal with roommates, how do you make yourself known in a class of hundreds of other students, what's the most effective way to take notes, what major should you declare, how do you land and succeed in your first job and how do you get yourself out of debt.

Arndt has interviewed professionals in a variety of fields and discovered that there were common keys to success. After years of research, he condensed his findings into simple concepts that the average person could apply to life to achieve academic, financial and career success.

Play tough, kid...

In the Press Box by David W. Carstens

Like many of you in the community, Tuesday was a day where focusing on the tasks at hand was nearly impossible.

Since taking this job nearly three years ago, there has been no bigger supporter and friend of mine than Marty Summerfield.

The news of Marty's untimely passing on Tuesday morning left us all in shock.

Marty was one of the first community people I met and was a constant at almost every single game I've attended since my arrival here.

Today our community mourns his passing and our prayers rest with his family.

I'm certainly going to miss visits with Marty about everything under the sun.

As we struggle to make sense of things this week, I remember one thing he would often say to players on the court who were playing under obvious pain.

"Play tough, kid."

I've often wished we would have the following sentence attached to our birth certificate.

— Life isn't fair, no guarantees and tomorrow may never come —

We all have to exist with those brutal realities, unfortunately.

Our best defense, however, is to play tough.

That's going to be something I remember of my all-too short time of knowing Marty.

"Play tough, kid..."

For all of us here, our thoughts and prayers are with the Summerfield family in this difficult time.

Eight area wrestlers qualify for state

After a competitive two-day district tournament on Feb. 9-10, eight wrestlers from the Wayne Herald coverage area will advance to the state tournament.

Wayne High and Winside will both send three grapplers to the mats at Qwest Center Omaha, while Wakefield will end what's been a long state tournament drought — 27 years to be exact — with two Trojan grapplers headed to the state tournament that begins Thursday (today) and runs through Saturday.

Wayne will send first-time qualifiers Jordan McDonald (140) and Nick Klassen (171) along with returning 215-pounder Bren Vander Weil to the Class B tournament.

McDonald (23-16) placed fourth at last week's Class B-2 district tournament in Schuyler after losing a 17-4 decision to Mike Corritore of Omaha Skutt in the consolation finals.

Klassen (22-19) also placed fourth last week's after he lost to Shawn Dvorak of Pierce 10-2 in the consolation final match.

Wayne's top finisher was Vander Weil (31-5) who took third after he pinned Brandon Hilger of Blair in 1:40.

The last time Wakefield competed in the state tournament was 1980 when the Trojans sent six grapplers to the state mat.

Wakefield discontinued its wrestling program the following year that mats at the school were rolled up until the program was reinstated there in the 2000-2001 season.

The Trojans will be represented by T.J. Rose (103) who enters the tourney with a 18-8 record and placed third at the C-2 district tournament at Norfolk Catholic after downing Nathan Merchen of Crofton 8-6 in the consolation final.

Dex Driskell (31-4) was crowned district champion with an 8-3 decision over Michael Stelling in the 189-pound final.

The Winside wrestling squads' 1-2-3 punch of Jordan Brummels, Tucker Bowers and Kalin Koch led the Wildcats to a fifth place finish in the D-2 district tournament at Stanton.

This trio of wrestlers has been the mainstay of the youngest Winside wrestling squad in head coach Paul Sok's 27-year tenure with the Wildcats. Brummels (135) kept the Wildcat string of district gold medal winners alive with a 6-4 decision over Andrew Clause of Palmer, while Bowers finished as the silver medal winner in the 152 pound division losing to Chad Brester of Howells.

Koch finished in third place by beating Tyler Wichman for the second time in the two day tournament by an 8-1 decision in the 135 pound bracket.

The loss of defending state champion Dewey Bowers at 152 pounds will probably prevent the Wildcats from once again finishing among the elite of the

Subdistrict play opens for Wayne High

Seniors shine in first round win over Battle Creek

The opening game of subdistricts proved to be a thriller for the Wayne High Blue Devil girls' basketball team.

Wayne improved to 14-8 and advanced to the subdistrict final on Thursday (tonight) to take on Norfolk Catholic after downing Battle Creek 44-42 on Feb. 13.

Senior Sara Frerichs scored 11 of her game-leading 13 points, including 7-of-8 from the charity stripe, in the fourth quarter to lead Wayne to the first round win.

Frerichs also came up big defensively as she forced two steals in the fourth quarter.

"It's always tough to play a team three times in one season," Wayne coach Courtney Maas said. "I didn't feel that we played the best, but we played well the fourth quarter."

Wayne took their final lead when the team's other senior, Regan Ruhl hit a jumper off the glass with 10 seconds to give the Blue Devils a 44-42 lead in the see-saw battle.

Ruhl finished the night with 12 points, including a pair of treys.

Free throws made all the difference for WHS in the final frame as Frerichs and Samantha Dunklau combined to hit 9-of-10 attempts at the line.

"Free throws are what won us the game," Maas added. "We shot free throws well and I thought the girls persevered through a rough day with no school and a tough situation in Wayne."

The Blue Devils advance to play No. 1-seed Norfolk Catholic in the subdistrict final at 7 p.m. tonight at Norfolk High School.

Michelle Jarvi led the team with 13 points.

The WSC Wildcat mens' basketball team produced a split in its final road trip of the regular season.

Recaps of WSC's weekend include:

Wayne State 84, Upper Iowa 72

Junior guard Bryce Caldwell hit six three-pointers and scored a game-high 24 points to lead Wayne State in an 84-72 victory over Upper Iowa on Feb. 9, in Fayette, Iowa.

The two teams exchanged baskets for the first seven minutes of the game.

Then it was Caldwell time as he connected on four three pointers in a span of 2:30 to help the Wildcats go on a 15-0 run to take a 27-12 advantage with 10:27 remaining in the first half.

Upper Iowa was able to cut the Wayne State lead to just six points at that break 43-37.

In the second half, Wayne State was able to extend the lead to 10 points with 8:11 remaining in the game after a lay up by Jonathon Thomas.

From that point on, the Peacocks could only get to within seven points the rest of the way as the Cats prevailed 84-72.

Caldwell led all scorers with 24 points including shooting 6 of 8 from long range. Thomas had 14 points and nine rebounds, while David Walters contributed with 12 points.

WSC shot an impressive 28-of-48 (.583) from the field including 57.9 percent from behind the arc (11-of-19).

Winona State 80, Wayne State 72

NCAA Division II top-ranked Winona State held off a late Wayne State rally for an 80-72 conference win on Feb. 10 in Winona, Minn.

The host Warriors record their 45th straight win dating back to last season and improved to 23-0 overall this season and 14-0 in the NSIC.

With the exception of two ties and two early lead changes in the first 3:30, Winona State led the entire game and held a double-digit lead for much of the night.

The Warriors had a 13-point lead in the first half, 31-18 with 9:23 to

Wayne State women keep streak alive with pair of NSIC road wins

The final road trip of the season was successful for the Wayne State womens' basketball team.

The Wildcats posted two wins last weekend to improve to 15-9 on the season and 8-7 in league play.

Recaps for last weekend's games include:

Wayne State 64, Upper Iowa 63

Senior forward Erin McCormick sank a jumper with two seconds remaining in regulation to lift Wayne State past Upper Iowa 64-63 in Northern Sun action on Feb. 9, in Fayette, Iowa.

Wayne State took an early 10-4 lead in the first half after senior guard Lauren Gustafson made a lay up with 12:59 remaining.

Upper Iowa responded and took the lead 22-21 with 5:51 to go in the first half when Ashley Martin hit a three pointer.

The Wildcats scored the final four points of the first half to take a 32-29 advantage into the locker room.

WSC built a nine point lead early in the second half, 47-38 with 14:23 left in the game, but the Peacocks went on a 10-3 run to close the gap to just one point, 54-53 with 7:29 left in the game. W

With 2:28 remaining, UIU's Andrea Downs connected on a lay up to give the Peacock's their first lead of the second half 61-60.

Andrea Schoepf sank two free throws for the 'Cats with 2:17 remaining to regain the lead 62-61. Downs then sank another jumper to give Upper Iowa the lead 63-62 with just over one minute to play.

After a Wildcat missed shot, the Peacocks used all 30 seconds on the shot clock but came up empty with 11 seconds remaining in the game.

That set up the game winning shot as Gustafson hit McCormick who connected on a jumper with two seconds left to win the game.

The win by the Wildcats avenged an earlier loss to Winona State, 69-65 in Wayne on January 5, and was the fourth straight win for Wayne State.

The Wildcats set the tone early in the game, taking a 12-2 lead with 14:04 remaining in the first half. Winona State got as close as four points, 13-9 with 10:36 to go in the first half, but the Wildcats never let the host Warriors get any closer as WSC built a 35-25 lead at halftime and continued to pull away from Winona State in the second half, building a lead as big as 28 points, 63-35, before settling for the 65-42 win.

Junior backup center Amanda Covington led a balanced scoring attack for Wayne State with 17 points on 7 of 9 shooting from the field.

Sophomore forward Kylee McGill added 12 points and seven rebounds while senior guard Lauren Gustafson nearly recorded a triple double with 10 points, eight rebounds and eight assists. The 'Cats made 27 of 51 shots from the field for 52.9 percent. WSC was just 4 of 15 from the three point line and 7 of 9 at the charity stripe.

Winona State's lone double figure scorer was Amanda Reimer, who recorded 16 points and 10 rebounds, to lead the Warriors. The Warriors shot just 27 percent from the field on 16 of 59 shooting. WSU was 3 of 14 from the three point line and 7 of 10 at the free throw line.

Wayne State won the rebounding battle over Winona State 40-29. Gustafson's eight caroms led Wayne State while Reimers' 10 boards paced Winona State.

Wayne State will play their final three games of the conference schedule at home, starting this Saturday night when the Wildcats welcome Southwest Minnesota State to Rice Auditorium for a 6:00 p.m. matchup.

However, Winona State used a three pointer by senior guard Zach Malvik, a steal and dunk by Jonte Flowers and a pair of free throws by Malvik down the stretch to hold off Wayne State for the 80-72 win.

Senior guard Dallas Hodges led Wayne State in scoring with 19 points to go with six assists.

Caldwell finished with 16 points, followed by Jonathon Thomas with 11 points and 12 rebounds.

Occupational • Physical • Speech

A common question asked is what is the difference between Physical Therapists and Occupational Therapists. While both types of therapists may develop exercise programs for clients, they each have specialized areas of treatments. Physical therapists work on getting people back to the same physical level they used to be, or help people adapt and function with a disability.

P.T.s help their clients improve joint motion, strengthen their muscles and learn how to manage transfers and ambulation without injury. While Physical Therapists tend to work with the large muscle groups, helping their clients move safely through their environment, Occupational Therapists tend to work with smaller muscle groups, helping clients function safely in their daily lives.

O.T.s work to help clients regain, recover or maintain their daily living skills, and provide assistive devices such as splints or special cookware to make these daily tasks easier. Overall, Occupational Therapists focus on helping client's function in everyday life. This means helping them learn new or better ways to perform the activities necessary for home and or work. For answers to any questions you may have, contact a therapist at Providence Medical Center by calling 402-375-7937.

Wayne bowlers compete at tourney

A first-year program got a first-hand experience at what the future could hold.

The Wayne girls' and boys' high school bowling teams both qualified for last weekend's state bowling tournament in Lincoln and coach Shane Guill said it was definitely a positive experience for the program that just wrapped up its first season as an organized sport.

Even though the state tournament and regular season play are regulated by the Nebraska High School Bowling Federation and the finals will be broadcast on Nebraska Public Television's NET2 channel on Feb. 18, the sport isn't included among those sanctioned by the Nebraska School Activities Association.

It's offered as a non-school sport for high school-age students, as an extension of junior leagues that are increasing in popularity at bowling centers across the state.

Wayne's team is coached by Shane Guill, with assistance from Dusty Baker.

Wayne competes against several area town leagues in the district that includes Wisner-Pilger, Crofton, Plainview and Tilden Elkhorn Valley.

Varsity team members for the Wayne boys' team include Taylor Carroll, Dawson Olnes, Jason Olnes, Michael Denklau, Jeremy Loberg, Tyler Holcomb and Jake Nissen.

Members of the girls' varsity team include Ashley Kudrna, Amanda Kudrna, Samantha Denklau, McKenzie Sommerfeld, Carly Pilger and Michaela Belt.

Wayne also has a junior varsity boys' team.

Team members of the JV boys' squad include Tory Booth, Jake Paustain, Josh Fink, Josh Doorlag and Phil Anderson.

Wayne entered the boys' tournament last weekend as an eighth seed and lost to St. Paul in the first round of the single elimination tourney.

The girls' were seeded at seventh and downed Ravenna, but lost to eventual state champ, Elkhorn Valley.

Wayne JVs win contests

The Wayne High Junior Varsity boys' basketball team improved to 10-6 on the season after recent games with Madison (Feb. 9) and West Point Central Catholic (Feb. 10).

Shaun Jenkins paced the team with 12 points and Jacob Triggs added 11 as WHS downed Madison with a 60-41 road win.

Jenkins also led the team with 13 points as the Blue Devils defeated West Point Central Catholic 47-38 in a home victory.

Winside third graders each hold the dictionary they received from the Wayne Rotary Club. Rotarian Vicky Jones, far left, handed out the books. Their teacher is Lynne Wacker.

Wayne Rotary Club giving a dictionary to each third grader in area schools

The Wayne Rotary club is presenting a new dictionary to every third grade student in the Wayne-Carroll, Wayne St. Mary's, Winside, Wisner-Pilger, Pender, Emerson-Hubbard, Wakefield, Allen, and Laurel-Concord elementary schools.

The goal of this program is to assist students to complete the school year as good writers, active readers, and creative thinkers by having their own personal dictionary. They have targeted the third grade and are striving to put give every third grade student in the U.S. their own dictionary. To date there have been 4.4 million dictionaries distributed. This is being done with the assistance of individuals and organizations such as Rotary. The Wayne Rotary views this as a very worthwhile project and has been encouraged by the positive response from school faculties and administration. Because of the response, this is strongly being considered as an ongoing annual project.

Nebraska RX access; a prescription to control drug costs

A press conference on LB 699, the Nebraska RX Access Act; and states' efforts to bargain for lower drug prices was held Feb. 15 at the State Capitol in Lincoln. A m o n g those present were State Senator Steve Lathrop; Mike Saxl, former Speaker of the House, Maine Legislature and AARP State Director Connie Benjamin.

Discussion included why Americans who don't have drug coverage pay the highest prices for prescription drugs in the world. AARP believes that everyone should have access to the most effective drugs at the best price.

LB 699, the Nebraska RX Access Act, would empower the state to negotiate lower drug prices in Medicaid. The bill would allow low and middle-income Nebraskans who don't have insurance to buy their prescriptions for the same discounted price that Medicaid pays. LB 699 would save the State of Nebraska millions of dollars every year in Medicaid spending on prescription drugs. Nebraska is one of only six states to not use a preferred drug list and other tools to bargain for cheaper drug prices in Medicaid.

LB 699 would use the most effective cost savings tactic employed by every insurance company, many foreign governments and now 44 states to obtain the best prescription drug prices on behalf of their clients and citizens.

February is American Heart Month

Goldenrod Hills Community Action Every Woman Matters Program would like to remind everyone February is American Heart Month. Did you know that February is American Heart Month and not because of Valentine's Day? Every year since its congressional approval in 1963, the President has issued a proclamation to this effect, to help raise public awareness of heart disease.

What comes to mind when you hear the phrase "heart attack?" People of a certain age may think of Redd Foxx's portrayal of Fred Sanford of "Sanford and Son." In the 1970s, Foxx could be seen regularly on TV clutching his chest as he faked a heart attack and shouted to his deceased wife, "This is the big one! Hang on, Elizabeth, I'm coming to join you!"

This may have made for funny television, but that type of scene plays right into society's misconception that only elderly men suffer from heart disease or stroke. Here's a statistic for you: While heart disease and stroke kill one in every 3.7 men, one in 2.4 women lose their lives to heart disease and stroke. They are the No.1 and No. 3 killers of women. By way of comparison, breast cancer kills one in 29 women.

Perhaps even more staggering is the fact that a majority of women don't know how deadly heart disease and stroke are.

Knowledge is power, but how many women take the time to find out what we need to know? That's why Goldenrod Hills Community Action Every Woman Matters Program is celebrating American Heart Month which aims to educate women so that they can lead longer and healthier lives.

For more information contact the Every Woman Matters Program at Goldenrod Hills Community Action or the American Heart Association at www.americanheart.org

Bruning announces $1.8 million settlement with Schering-Plough Corporation for Medicaid fraud

Attorney General Jon Bruning announced that the state of Nebraska has recovered $1.8 million from pharmaceutical manufacturer Schering-Plough Corporation to settle allegations that it improperly marketed and distributed several of its products. These actions caused overpayments by Nebraska Medicaid.

"This office won't stand by while companies manipulate the drug market for personal gain at the expense of taxpayers," Bruning said.

Schering, a pharmaceutical manufacturer based in Pennsylvania, faced allegations that it offered lower rebates to Medicaid for the allergy drug Claritin and for the Potassium supplement K-Dur than it offered to certain private insurance companies.

The company also allegedly improperly marketed a medication called Temodar, which was approved by the Food and Drug Administration for the treatment of a certain type of brain cancer. Schering allegedly marketed it as a treatment for other types of brain cancer and caused Medicaid to pay for improper prescriptions.

Finally, Schering allegedly paid kickbacks to doctors to induce them to prescribe hepatitis drugs PEG-Intron and Rebetrone and bladder cancer medication Intron-A, although lower-cost alternatives were available. Losses to Medicaid programs throughout the United States were in excess of $80 million.

Under the terms of Nebraska's settlement, the state recovered more than $1.8 million for the Nebraska Medicaid program. On Feb. 2, nearly $850,000 of that amount was paid directly to the state. Nebraska Medicaid received $327,956 of that amount for restitution and interest and $521,245 in penalties and interest will be deposited in the Nebraska Common Schools Fund. The balance of the $1.8 million settlement was paid to the federal government to reimburse its share of the Nebraska Medicaid program's costs.

Nebraska's settlement was part of a $435 million settlement negotiated by the National Association of Medicaid Fraud Control Units comprised of 47 states and the District of Columbia. In the settlement, Schering paid state and federal governments $255 million in damages and penalties to Medicaid and federal healthcare programs.

Schering is also required to enter into a Corporate Integrity Agreement with the Inspector General of the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services, in order to monitor the company's operations and ensure compliance with the law in the future.

America Saves Week is Feb. 27 - March 4, 2007

The first National America Saves Week is Feb. 27 to March 4. It offers each of us a chance to improve savings and money skills. This is a great opportunity to evaluate how you are doing and make changes to reduce debt and/or increase savings. The place to start is a budget or spending plan. A spending plan is deciding how to use your income to cover your expenses. This is a simple concept, but a challenging task for most of us. Budgeting can help you achieve your goals by looking at how you want to spend your money. Specifically, budgeting can help you save for the things you want. It will help you live within your income and know where your money is going. Most budgeting plans also include a savings and investment category. If you don't budget for savings and deposit the amounts budgeted, you will probably find it difficult to save. Failure to save leads to doing without or borrowing money and making interest payments. That will cut into what you can spend on other things.

Regardless of what system you use to classify your expenses, you should observe a few basic guidelines. Keep similar expenses in the same category. Set up enough different categories so that you have a meaningful record for your expenses. Do not group too many different expenses into a catchall category. Keep the number of categories small enough to make bookkeeping simple. Listed below are some budget categories and items that may be included in them. Some of these will fit your family, others may not and can be deleted. Add or divide categories if needed.

1. Food (food eaten at home, food away from home, snacks, coffee breaks, school lunches, garden costs)
2. Housing (house payments or

3. Utilities (gas, electricity, garbage pickup, water, television cable, telephone, cell phone, internet connection)
4. Housing Operation or Household Expenditures (laundry supplies, storage rental, paper goods, stationary, postage, cleaning supplies, pest control, safe deposit box rent, home insurance, property taxes, yard care, hired help)
5. Household Repairs (roof, painting, plumbing)
6. Health (medical and hospital insurance premiums, doctor and dentist bills, medicine, eyeglasses, hearing aids, first aid supplies, treatments or therapy, transportation to receive medical care)
7. Equipment and Furnishings (furniture, rugs, curtains, pictures, vases, mirror, appliances, kitchen utensils, bedding, linens, china, silver, glassware, equipment repair)
8. Transportation (car purchase, car expenses - gas, oil, repairs, tires, licenses, insurance, maintenance, taxes - parking fees, bus, plane or train tickets, taxi fares or rentals)
9. Clothing (ready to wear, footwear, cleaning and repair, sewing supplies, accessories, alterations)
10. Personal Care (haircuts, beauty shop, allowances, cosmetics, toiletries, shaving supplies and other personal care items)
11. Gifts (to include wrapping paper, flowers, cards)
12. Contributions (charitable donations, i.e. church, civic and educational organizations)
13. Education (school supplies, books and supplies, magazines, newspapers, lessons)
14. Business (union dues, professional dues, business licenses and insurance, tools required for the job)
15. Child Care (babysitting, day-care)
16. Recreation (social club dues,

17. Pet (food, licenses, supplies, veterinarian fees)
18. Banking & Credit Cost (fees for service & interest charged on any credit purchase)
19. Insurance (life, disability, liability - insurance not included in other categories)
20. Savings and Investments (might include savings for emergency fund as well as for goals or could have a separate category)
21. Miscellaneous (legal fees, income taxes)

America Saves Week is Feb. 27 to March 4. Use it to start your savings plan or reduce your debt to begin savings. You can find additional hints on budgeting through www.paydowndebt.unl.edu.

The Season of Lent begins next week

While it looks like the Season of Winter in the northern hemisphere, in the church it will soon look like the Season of Lent.

As Advent was a time of preparation for Christmas, Lent is a time of preparation for Holy Week, Good Friday, and Easter morning. The mood and movement of Lent is unique. The color of Lent is purple. Lent is a more solemn time, dedicated to renewal and spiritual cleansing. Many traditions veil or drape crosses, pictures and statues in the church through the days of Lent.

The Season of Lent begins on Ash Wednesday, three days after Transfiguration Sunday, the last Sunday of Epiphany and the Christmas Cycle. This year, Ash Wednesday falls on Feb. 21. The preferred color for Ash Wednesday is the color of dark ashes that reminds us of our formation by God from the dust of the earth and our eventual return to dust in death. "Ashes to ashes, dust to dust."

Lent, from the Latin "spring," is a time to reflect on Christian baptism and its basis in the death and resurrection of Jesus. It is a time for rebirth and renewal in preparation for the time of Easter. The origin of the observation of Lent is found first in the ancient preparation Passover, the Pascha. This weeklong fast associated with Holy Week was then extended to six weeks or 40 days. These forty days are the total of six weeks plus the four weekdays prior to the first Sunday in Lent. Sundays are not counted in the forty days. This 40 days remind us of other biblical "40s" such as the days and nights it rained on Noah; the years the Israelites wandered in the wilderness; the days Jesus spent in that same wilderness after his baptism by John and prior to the initiation of his ministry. The final week of Lent begins with the Sunday of the Passion: Palm Sunday. The week concludes with The Three Days: Maundy Thursday, Good Friday and The Easter Vigil.

The most distinctive feature of the Sunday of the Passion is the procession with palms. This tradition originated in the church in Jerusalem during the fourth century. The oldest Greek and Latin liturgical texts understand the branches as symbols of hope, life and victory. The hero's welcome accorded Jesus was seen as anticipating his impending victory over death.

The week remembers Jesus' celebration of the Passover, his betrayal, persecution, trial and crucifixion. The intensity of Jesus' suffering is upheld during this time — as dreadful as it is, it is not to be denied. Suffering, especially the suffering of a crucifixion, once thought to be a curse, is not outside the realm of God's redemptive power. It takes much faith to embrace this idea, and that is the faith we see in Jesus.

"O Sacred Head now wounded, with grief and shame weighed down, now scornfully surrounded with thorns, thine only crown. O sacred head, what glory, what bliss till now was thine! Yet, though despised and gory, I joy to call thee mine.

Many Christian churches will hold mid-week Lenten services beginning Feb. 21 through March 28. Holy Week begins Sunday, April 1 with Easter Sunday April 8.

Our Savior Lutheran Church will open its doors each Wednesday, Feb. 28 through March 28, for a fellowship meal at 6 p.m. and worship at 7. All are welcome.

Among those performing at Our Savior's "Music and Muffins" will be James O'Donnell, left, and John Gallop III.

Our Savior to host 'Music and Muffins'

Our Savior Lutheran Church will be hosting "Music and Muffins" on Sunday, Feb. 18.

Ragan is an interim voice instructor and Gallop is a graduate student at Wayne State College.

In addition, James O'Donnell will be performing on trumpet with Vera Hummel on the organ.

Our Savior to celebrate 'Fat Tuesday' on Feb. 20

The staff of Our Savior Lutheran Church, Wayne will host a Fat Tuesday Pancake Feed for the general public on Tuesday, Feb. 20, from 5 to 7 p.m.

Pastor Bill Koeber, Director of Lay Ministries Sue Stover, Director of Worship and Music Sherie Lundahl, Business Manager Margaret Hanson, Administrative Assistant Kris Robinson and Senior Pastor Kim Stover are hosting the meal in the social hall at Our Savior for the fun of it.

"After all, it is Fat Tuesday, a traditional time for enjoying a simple feast before the fasting of Lent," Pastor Stover said.

Lent begins Wednesday, Feb. 21. Our Savior will observe Ash Wednesday with a service of confession and forgiveness at 7 p.m.

A free will offering will be accepted, the proceeds to go to Lutheran Disaster Response, a joint effort of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America and the Lutheran Church Missouri Synod.

Lutheran Disaster staffer Michael Nevergal visited Our Savior in January and told of efforts to assist persons still homeless and jobless after the 2005 Hurricane Katrina. Nevergal stated that at the present rate of recovery, nearly a decade of work must be done. Recent assistance projects include recovery from the tremendous ice storm here in Nebraska this past December.

LDR is funded entirely through contributions specific to LDR. LDR has volunteer coordinators in most states who serve as a contact person in the event of a major disaster. Currently, OSLC is seeking such an area coordinator.

For more information on LDR, go to: <http://www.elca.org/disaster>. A special link for kids is included on the home page or <http://www.elca.org/disaster/kids/default.asp>

Good Reasons Why It Pays To Shop

- 1 Your local merchants usually have the same merchandise as their big city counterparts, but maintain a lower overhead. These savings get passed on to you in the form of lower prices.
- 2 Gas, tolls and parking, may make that out-of-town bargain, more than you bargained for.
- 3 Shopping locally makes returns and exchanges easier.
- 4 You'll save time and avoid large crowds.
- 5 Every dollar you spend in your hometown goes back into your local economy to help fund schools, roads, and other services where YOU live — not in some other town.

'Take care of your heart, physically, spiritually and emotionally'

"The North Wind doth blow, and we shall have snow!" I think Tuesday is going to be a good day to stay home and finish that novel. It wasn't so cold today, but the ice early this morning was treacherous.

I've been thinking of some important things to say for Valentine's day, and I think it's all been said before. But it's also Random Acts of Kindness Week, which makes more sense to me. So, I started my day at work by offering to do a 9 a.m. visit for another nurse because I could see she was running behind. Now, wasn't that nice of me? Actually, I work with such a great team, that is a common thing any week. And I appreciate that.

But the February issue of Reader's Digest has an interesting article on marriage and I read all those articles; have for years, and I always learn something. I'm not saying I always apply what I learn, but I always learn something. This one makes the point that it takes up to twenty positive statements to outweigh the harm done by one negative one, or by a steely squint or impatient "humph." The author suggests we build up our "love balance" and make the good stuff a priority.

Some other quotes I found very appropriate were: "we are all a little weird and life's a little weird, and when we find someone whose weirdness is compatible with ours, we join up with them and fall in mutual weirdness and call it love."

The Farmer's Wife
By: Pat Meierhenry

Or: "love puts the fun in together, the sad in apart, and the joy in the heart."

"Where there is love there is life." Dr. Menninger is supposed to have said, "Love cures people-both the ones who give it and the ones who receive it."

I believe there is a world of truth in that statement: I find that doing something for someone else is a sure cure for depression. One book I read said "be kinder than necessary because everyone you meet is fighting some kind of battle."

It's also Heart Month. I went to a heart workshop on Saturday, and one cardiologist reminded us that more women die annually of heart disease than the next nine diseases together! That includes breast cancer. So, my new resolution is not to worry about losing weight, but to get more activity in every day. I'm no longer running up and down all the stairs in a big old farm house, or scooping snow, or walking to the mailbox. I really appreciate not having to clean out feed bunks in this stuff, but I have to get moving! So, wear red and take care of your heart, physically, spiritually, emotionally. Practice random acts of kindness and do yourself a favor. It's good for you!

And the news today tells us something they did not even mention on Saturday; three naps a week will also prevent heart disease. Now, that's my kind of preventive medicine!

Something you're born to do

Everybody has something that they do best. It's something you're born to do. Farming is like that. It's not easy and it's not for everybody.

Some years right at the very last minute a storm comes through, takes a would be bumper crop and flattens it like a pancake. It takes courage to face those odds every year. You have to believe in agriculture to do that.

We believe in it, too. Ag banking...it's what we do best. If you're in agriculture, we would like to be your bank.

Two crop related programs being planned

A corn/soybean update will be presented on Monday, Feb. 19 at the Haskell Ag Lab near Concord.

The update will cover topics of fertilizing corn with the new UNL nitrogen recommendations, using the latest computer program for irrigation efficiency, discussion about the northern corn rootworm diapause, continuous corn update and other general discussion.

The program begins at 9 a.m. with registration with the presentations beginning at 9:30 and the program ends at 3 p.m. Calling in registration at 584-2234 by Friday, Feb. 16 would help with the meal count. There is no cost for the program and lunch is provided by Quist Seed Sales from Laurel.

The second program will be Tuesday, Feb. 20 at Laurel City Auditorium beginning at 1:30 p.m.

This program will cover the topics related to usage of ethanol by-products. Major changes are coming in ethanol production with three major plants close to this area. Cow calf operations can use the by-products effectively with some planning and knowledge. This program is being sponsored by UNL extension and the local Farm Bureau. There is no cost for this program and no pre-registration is required. A second presentation will be held at Jackson Legion Hall beginning at 6:30 p.m. that day with the same topics being presented.

Those interested are asked to call the Dixon or Dakota county office with additional questions about either program.

CONCORDIA COUPLES/SINGLES

Concordia Couples/Singles met on Feb. 11 with four couples in attendance. President Marlen Johnson led the business meeting.

Plans to purchase a new TV and DVD for the church were tabled until later.
Randall Carlson gave the program with devotions from Luke 6. Valentine articles were read pertaining to the country school valentine box, the history of St. Valentine, and the legend of the 'lace' valentine pierced by an arrow. Interesting items were read about President Lincoln, his many failures, and about his wife Mary Todd and their three boys. President Washington's special prayer was read and information about his wife, Martha, who also served as a nurse and a teacher. The March meeting will be held on the 11th with an all congregation bowling party at the Hillside Bowl in Laurel. A no-host lunch was served.

NECC plans two advanced digital camera classes

Just in time for spring photo opportunities, Northeast Community College has scheduled two more sessions of a class that can help digital photographers take their skills to the next level of creativity using their own cameras.
Focus on Digital Cameras II, with course number DP 0300-03/07S, is scheduled for Thursday, March 1, from 6:30-9:30 p.m. in the Lifelong Learning Center on the Northeast campus in Norfolk. Students may also take the same class, with course number DP 0300-04/07S, on Tuesday, March 13 from 6:30-9:30 p.m. in the same location.
These noncredit workshops are designed for those who already have a digital camera, have used it for some time and would like to advance their skills. Instructor Chris Mannel will teach students how to take better pictures first and then learn the unique concepts and functions that digital cameras offer.
Students should bring their cameras and accessories to the class. Cost of this class is $10. To register, call (402)844-7000.

Bills lower RX drug costs for the uninsured and target drug company marketing practices

During the 2007 legislative session, AARP Nebraska will fight for measures to give uninsured Nebraskans access to lower-cost prescription drugs and rein in drug company marketing practices that pressure health care providers into prescribing the most expensive brand name drugs.
"Nebraskans of all ages should have access to affordable prescription drugs. With prescription drug costs growing much faster than the ability of consumers to afford them, uninsured Nebraskans have no protection from rampant price increases," said AARP State President Sunny Andrews. "Furthermore, health care practitioners are under tremendous pressure from drug companies to prescribe higher cost brand name drugs that are no more effective than cheaper brand name or generic alternatives."
AARP Nebraska has named the following bills as this year's top legislative priorities for the association:
•LB 699, the Healthy Nebraska RX Card Program Act, allows uninsured individuals who meet income guidelines to buy prescription drugs at the same discounted prices Medicaid pays. An estimated 13 percent of Nebraskans lack health insurance. The bill would save the state's Medicaid program millions of dollars annually on drug expenditures by establishing a preferred drug list (PDL) and negotiate lower drug prices in Medicaid through participation in a multi-state purchasing pool or other mechanism. A PDL is a list of recommended drugs generally chosen for effectiveness and price.

•LB 451 prevents drug companies from obtaining information about the prescribing practices of doctors and other health care providers. That information is used to target marketing efforts to doctors who are prescribing lower cost drugs.
•LB 675 requires drug companies to report their expenses in marketing drugs to doctors and others. This bill aims to shed light on drug company marketing practices that attempt to influence which drugs medical providers prescribe.
Other key legislative proposals that AARP Nebraska strongly supports address identity theft, funding for home- and community-based long-term care services, the homestead exemption and retired teacher pensions, Andrews said.
They include:
•LB 190 empowers consumers to limit access to their credit reports and provides important protections against identity theft. The bill would establish a "security freeze" that could be lifted by consumers for a $5 fee if they wanted to provide their credit report to a particular entity.
•LB 321, the appropriations bill, contains a one percent increase in state funding for in-home long-term care services for the elderly. In-home care is usually less costly than nursing homes, is the option that consumers overwhelmingly prefer and has played a key role in containing Medicaid long-term care costs.

•LB 687 excludes non-taxable Social Security income in determining eligibility for the homestead exemption. This would effectively set the income eligibility for the property tax relief at $34,000 for an elderly single person and $44,000 for an elderly couple.
•LB 596 improves pension benefits for the oldest retired teachers who draw the smallest teacher pensions and have received minimal cost of living increases over the years.

NECC to open series of eBay classes

The first in a series of four eBay classes will begin Thursday, March 1, at the Northeast Community College Education Center in West Point.
JoAnn McKenzie, a certified eBay specialist, will teach this class with a cost of $28.85.
McKenzie will also teach a one-session class, eBay: Opening An Online Store, on Thursday, March 15, from 6-9 p.m. at the West Point Education Center in Room 102. Cost is $14.45.
Students will be taught to maximize their success on eBay with eBay Stores, the leading comprehensive e-commerce solution. eBay sale and eBay store is ideal for those who do not want to be tied down to an auction format.
Participants will be taught to showcase their listings in their own customizable eBay storefront, and boost sales with marketing tools that keep buyers coming back. They will also be taught to build their own brand in minutes with easy-to-use setup and templates. Economical listings for longer durations with Store Inventory and tracking and optimizing performance with advanced reporting tools will also be reviewed.

Students should be familiar with buying and selling on eBay and computer literate to take this class.
Other eBay classes planned at West Point this spring include eBay: Beyond the Basics Thursday, April 5 and 12, and eBay: Your Business, Thursdays, April 19 and 26. More information about those classes will be released at a later date.
To register, call Northeast Community College in West Point at 1-888-794-6322.

Dixon County leaders attend Farm Bureau Legislative Conference

Herlan Hingst, Court Roberts, Debbie Barg and Kathy Boswell, members of the Dixon County Farm Bureau, participated in the Nebraska Farm Bureau's 2007 Legislative Conference, held Feb. 7-8 in Lincoln.
Conference speakers included John Himmers, assistant vice president for industry relations for the U.S. Meat Export Federation.

Himmers discussed the impact of red meat exports on farmers' bottom line.
"Essentially, we are sending 15 out of every 100 hogs outside the U.S. right now and hopefully, we'll get back to 10 percent of the cattle numbers exported outside the U.S. in the near future," he said. "A lot of time that we're exporting are under-utilized cuts like the liver, stomachs and portions that we don't traditionally eat here in the U.S. But we are able to add value by finding other markets that are willing to pay a premium for these types of items."

Dr. Brad Lubben, University of Nebraska-Lincoln public policy specialist, discussed the 2007 farm bill. The shift to a Democratic-controlled Congress is not as significant for this issue as the change in leadership of the Senate and House agriculture committees, he said.
"The biggest shift may be that we went from two chairs from southern states, Virginia and Georgia, to two chairs now representing upper Midwestern states, Minnesota and Iowa. So we have a different take on commodity programs, specifically in relation to payment limitations and issues like that," Lubben said.

Other conference sessions featured Speaker of the Legislature Mike Flood, giving his perspective on the 2007 session of the Unicameral; Bob Kuzelka of the UNL School of Natural Resources, discussing consumptive use of water; and Joseph Bast, president of the Heritage Institute, presenting global warming and environmental issues and an appreciation luncheon featuring remarks from Governor Dave Heinemann on current state issues.

PSC seeks applications for board

Applications are currently being accepted for a vacancy on the Nebraska Internet Enhancement Fund Advisory Board, which assists the Nebraska Public Service Commission with implementation of the Nebraska Internet Enhancement Fund (NIEF) grant program, which was established by the Legislature in 2001.

The vacancy is for a member to represent local telecommunications exchange providers. The vacancy is due to the resignation of member Phil Bryant of Great Plains Communications in Blair. Bryant resigned from "Great Plains" to accept a job out of state.

Money for the Fund comes from the proceeds from the lease of dark or unused fiber optic lines by publicly-owned utilities.

The seven-member advisory board includes two representatives of municipal government, one person employed in economic development, two representatives of local telephone exchange companies, one Internet service provider, as well as a member of the Public Service Commission. The advisory board reviews grant applications and recommends the amount of funding for each grant, prioritizes distribution of available funds and makes recommendations for regulatory or legislative changes to the Commission regarding the administration and distribution of the Nebraska Internet Enhancement Fund.

Advisory board positions are unpaid. Applicants should submit a statement of interest in advisory board membership and the applicant's qualifications by March 15 to Nichole Underhill, Nebraska Public Service Commission, P. O. Box 94927, Lincoln, Neb. 68509-4927.

A very special and heartfelt thank you for all the lovely get well cards and Christmas greetings that I received recently. Mail time is the highlight of my day.

Your thoughtfulness is very much appreciated. God's blessings.

The Reunion Heart

Since Heaven has become your home I sometimes feel that I'm alone; and though we now are far apart you hold a big piece of my heart.

I never knew how much I'd grieve when it was time for you to leave, or just how much my heart would ache from that one fragment you would take.

God let this tiny hole remain reminding me we'll meet again, and one day all the pain will cease when He restores this missing piece.

For Jesus heals each tiny part that holds your memory in my heart.

The family of Richard W. Jenkins wishes to extend a heartfelt thank you to everyone for their support, comfort, words of encouragement and many acts of kindness during his lengthy illness and time of passing.

The cards, personal visits, phone calls, flowers, plants, gifts, and memorials from family, neighbors, friends, local businesses, former employers, coworkers, and Richard's former accounts were truly overwhelming, but greatly appreciated.

The past 5+ years have been an incredible journey where we have experienced the true goodness of so many people, their expertise and devotion to their profession. We extend a grateful thank you to the following:

The EMT Units of Carroll and Winside, as well as the ambulance service of Providence Medical Center; the doctors, nurses and staff of Wayne Mercy Medical Clinic; Dr. David Felber and Gary West, PA; Marcile Thomas; Providence Medical Center Inpatient nurses and staff; Joan West and Outpatient Services, Oncology nurses and staff; The Cancer Support Group; Leslie Schulz, Jill Belt and Kiley Zabokrtsky and the Palliative Care Group; Terry Munter and the Home Health Care and Hospice Group; Mercy Medical Center; Dr. Barry Purves; Dr. David Wagner; Dr. Jim Case; Dr. Stephen Kahanic, Dr. Gregory Nadan, Dr. Yat Hong Lau, radiology technicians and oncology nurses, Sister Janet Schumacher, Brenda Winkler and the other staff of the June E. Nylen Cancer Center, Sioux City.

Thank you to Sister Cecilia, Pastor Bill Koeber and Pastor Timothy Steckling for their prayers and visits in the hospital and to our home. A special thank you is extended to Pastor Steckling for his inspiring message during Richard's Memorial Service and to Connie Oberle, Heather Steckling and Barbara Crowe for the beautiful music. The tribute to Richard by the American Legion Post 252 with the flag service, the gun salute and the playing of taps was so moving and Richard would have been so proud.

The work ethic and talents of Darrel Rahn and Curt and Coleen Jeffries and Tami and Jeremy to produce the DVD tribute in an incredibly short period of time were deeply appreciated, as was the delicious lunch served by the Ladies of St. Paul's Lutheran Church.

Finally, thanks to Dan Krugman, Scott Hasemann and Diane Wurdinger of Hasemann-Schumacher Funeral Home for carrying out Richard's wishes with their attentive care and guidance.

Sincerely,
Patricia Jenkins, Tami Reynolds, Jeremy Jenkins, Zita Jenkins & John Jenkins

The Impact of One Life

When a stone is dropped into a lake, it quickly disappears from sight—but its impact leaves behind a series of ripples that broaden and reach across the water. In the same way, the impact of one life lived for Christ will leave behind an influence for good that will reach the lives of many others.
