Haskell Ag Lab to celebrate 50th anniversary Aug. 14

The University of Nebraska-Lincoln's Haskell Agricultural Laboratory near Concord will celebrate its 50th anniversary on Tuesday, Aug. 14.

A public field day and open house that day will include tours, booths, exhibits and hands-on educational activities for youth and adults.

Six field trips are planned both before and after lunch. They will include the arboretum, organic farming, riparian buffer, crop pest management, crop management and livestock production.

Displays are planned on such topics as building strong families, niche pork production, best practices in grazing management, bug and tree identifications, water testing and the national animal identification system. A shooting sports trailer will be on site, as will UNL Extension's BITmobile. Other hands-on activities will include robotics and Quilt Quest.

A prime rib sandwich lunch will be served at 11:30 a.m. Lunch speakers include J.B. Milliken, president of the University of Nebraska; John Owens, vice chancellor of the university's Institute of Agriculture and Natural Resources; Chuck Hassebrook, NU regent; and District 19 State Sen. Mike Flood.

The Haskell Ag Lab, near Concord, grew out of local interest that ag research be conducted in the region. The Experimental Farm Association took donation of a 320-acre farm from the C.D. Haskell family and turned it over to NU in 1957.

About 10 years ago, the site, originally named the Northeast Nebraska Experimental Farm, was renamed the Haskell Agricultural Laboratory after the donors. The facility continues to conduct research in beef cattle, swine, crop production and crop nutrition, crop pest management and other ag and natural resources issues.

Fun for all

The 2007 Wayne County Fair is now history. Although many conversations during the four-day event revolved around the possibility of rain, the weather for this year's fair was generally more favorable than in the recent past. Above, hundreds of people were on hand for the annual tractor pull. Middle photo, an over-flow crowd took their chances on getting hit with flying mud at the Demo Derby. Directly above, the Ag Olympics provided entertainment for a large number of 4-H'ers on Sunday. At left, Craig Morgan performed in front of the grandstand on Saturday.

Ann Witkowski hugs a Dalit woman. The Dalit are shunned in India and touching the "untouchables" is the highest honor you can give them.

Group spends time with, helps Dalits

This last March, Ann Witkowski of Wayne had the privilege of traveling to north central and northeast India. She traveled with eight others from the Norfolk and surrounding area to meet, be with and care for the Dalit of India. Included in this group were four nurses (one a nurse practitioner), one physician (Dr. John Huescher), a pharmacist, a yoga instructor and a businessman from Hartington.

The Dalit people of India have been the most widely oppressed people in India's history. There is a strong caste system in India. The Dalits are considered to be lower than the lowest caste. The Indian Dalits comprise nearly one fourth of the total population of one billion people and are considered the "outcasts" of Indian society - the "untouchables," those the Hindu scriptures call the "unborn" - translated: it would be better if they had never been born.

The Dalits are denied access to public wells, basic medical services and education. Only 10 percent of Dalit women can read and write and are often sold into bonded prostitution, many as young girls.

"A Christian group, Operation Mobilization, organized our medical trips into the villages," Witkowski said. "This outstanding group of young Indian Christian men and women were a wonderful inspiration to us. Through the Good Shepherd Schools in India, daily they risk their lives to bring education to the Dalit. These young men and women were absolutely inspiring in their commitment to live the Sacred Scriptures."

The purpose of the trip was three fold. The group brought limited medical care to about 3,000 Dalit during their two week stay there. Many of the Dalits had never seen a physician or a nurse before.

"It was heart wrenching to see them walk for miles and stand in line for hours to be seen by us for only a few minutes," Witkowski said. "We found it very frustrating to deliver such limited medical care. The people we saw live in rural areas, they have no access to any medications or follow up care, most of them are preoccupied with getting enough food each day to survive. Chronic conditions such as hypertension, diabetes, AIDS, etc. could not be treated. Much of what we did was give vitamins, antibiotics, worm medicine, Tylenol and give wound care. On the other hand, we provided being present and listening to them. It's difficult for us to imagine but just as important to these people was to have someone pay attention to them, to listen to them, to spend time with them and to touch them - the untouchables!"

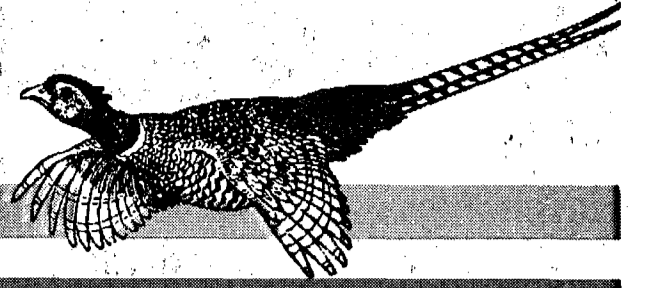

Secondly, the group visited a shelter for abused women and girls and for women taken off the sex trains. The shelter is run by Sister Sheba in Allahabad, India. She takes these women in, provides shelter for them, gives them clothing and food and provides them with a Christian education. The stories of abuse these women tell are unbelievable. Sister Sheba had been an upper caste member, she became a lawyer and then a Catholic nun and was called to care for the abused women of India. "When I met her, I felt as if I was in the presence of a saint," Witkowski said.

The Women's Empowerment Program was their third purpose. Perhaps this was the most touching of all. The women of the rural villages would come for miles to sit on the ground and hear the group speak of Carla Erwin, 56, of Laurel died Monday, July 30, 2007 at Providence Medical Center in Wayne.

Carla Erwin

Services were held Thursday, Aug. 2 at United Methodist Church in Laurel. The Rev. Murry Jay Johnston officiated.

Carla Jo Erwin was born June 21, 1951 at Sioux City, Iowa to Kenneth and Natalie "Susy" (Burns) Wacker. She was baptized and confirmed at the United Methodist Church in Laurel. After graduating from Laurel High School in 1969, she attended and graduated from C.E. School of Business in Omaha. On July 10, 1971 Carla married Jim Erwin at the United Methodist Church in Laurel. The couple lived near Laurel. She was a secretary for the Army Corps of Engineers during the moving of the community of Niobrara, later was the United Methodist Church secretary for many years. She was a Para Professional with Laurel Concord Schools from 1994-2007. She had a special love for her grandchildren and all children. She enjoyed cross stitching, reading, was a former pianist for the Joy Choir, Sunday School Teacher, and Bible School Teacher.

Survivors include her husband, Jim; children, Josh and Carol Erwin of Laurel, Jeff and Kelly Erwin of Norfolk, Jessie and Justin Eriksen of Bennington, and Jonathan Erwin and his fiancée, Sarah Bohuslavsky of Wahoo; Seppo Ewvaraya of Minneapolis, MN; three grandchildren; her mother, Natalie "Susy" Wacker of Laurel, brother, Kevin Wacker of Laurel; aunt, Darlene and Clayton Schroeder of Laurel; and her uncle, Darryl and Ruth Wacker of Orange, Calif.

She was preceded in death by her grandparents, father, Kenneth in 1997 and sister, Jana Wacker in 2001.

Pallbearers were Gary Stapelman, Steve Thompson, Tim Barnes, Brent Johnson, Dan Hoising, Bob Weisenberg and Paul Tedesco.

Burial was in the Laurel Cemetery in Laurel. Hasemann-Schumacher Funeral Home in Laurel was in charge of arrangements.

George Menkens

George C. Menkens, 88, of Lincoln, died Sunday July 29, 2007. A memorial service was held Thursday, Aug. 2 at Rudge Chapel at WYUKA Cemetery, 3600 O Street, Lincoln. The Pastor Grady Strop officiated.

George C. Menkens was born Oct. 15, 1918 at Center to Charles and Anna (Dinsen) Menkens. He attended school at Center, graduated from Niobrara High School, and attended the University of Nebraska. As a young man, he farmed with his family at Center and worked a variety of sales jobs in Sioux City, Iowa. He married Frjeda Berreth on Jan. 30, 1952 in Council Bluffs, Iowa. In the 1950's and 60's, he ran "The Station" on Highway 20 west of Allen. He was the original owner/operator of The Village Inn restaurant in Allen from 1966 until his retirement and subsequent move to Lincoln in 1983. His reputation for making the best cheeseburgers and chili extended far beyond northeast Nebraska. Quite possibly the oldest polio survivor in Nebraska, having contracted the virus in 1922, he was more than a survivor; he was a determined fighter. At the age of four, his doctors said he would never walk again, but he proved them wrong in a matter of months. He enjoyed politics, farming, cribbage and lively debates with friends and family; he loved his family and country, especially the prairies of Nebraska. He was confined to home in recent months, and all the caregivers who came to assist him looked forward to spending time with him.

Survivors include his wife Frieda; daughter, Debra Ceil and Zort Craig Brown of Lincoln; one grandson; one great-grandson; brother and sister-in-law Harry and Charlotte Menkens of Big Fork, Mont.; sister, Ruby Ann and Leonard Roberts of Wakefield; sister-in-law Neva Menkens of Eugene, Ore.; seven nieces and four nephews.

He is preceded in death by his parents; brothers Andrew, Carl and Herbert Menkens and his favorite dogs Tinker, Rags, and Socks.

Condolences and memorials can be sent to the family at 915 South 32nd Street, Lincoln, 68510. Condolences may also be left online for the family at www.wyuka.com <http://www.wyuka.com/>

Honorary pallbearers were Darlene Cuba, Connie Upton, JoAnn Frye, Jan Volwiler, Sheryl Luedtke, Carolyn Filter, Mary Daum, Marilyn Jensen, Marcile Thomas, Joy Herrmann and Betty Echtenkamp.

Active pallbearers were Randy Rogers, Melissa Nissen, Benjamin Nissen, Jacob Nissen, Dallas Hansen and Stanley Stenwall.

Burial was in Greenwood Cemetery in Wayne. Schumacher-Hasemann Funeral Home in Wayne was in charge of arrangements.

Wayne County Sheriff's office investigating criminal mischief at golf course near Wakefield

The Logan Valley Golf Course near Wakefield is the recent victim of several acts of criminal mischief. On the morning of July 24, golf course employees discovered several greens were torn up with damage from golf carts being driven carelessly across them. Post guide markers were torn up and cement structures along with golf ball washers were crushed into with the same type of careless driving.

A couple of buildings on the property were damaged and entered into to gain access to carts that were used to complete the acts of criminal mischief. It is believed that approximately 15 golf carts were used during the time the acts were committed. Preliminary estimates indicate that three carts were totally destroyed. Damage was sustained on several other carts. The total amount of damages is currently being calculated as it becomes apparent to the victims.

The Wayne County Sheriff's Office is investigating this matter and are developing leads for information relating to the discovery of those persons responsible for these acts. Anyone having information about this incident is asked to call the Sheriff's Office in Wayne at 402-375-1911.

Vehicle crash occurs by Laurel

Wayne County Sheriff's Office conducted an investigation of a northbound sports utility vehicle driven by Ashley Behrendt of Ravenna after it went out of control on July 25 about five and one-half miles south of Laurel on Wayne County Road # 572.

The Jeep Cherokee went into the east ditch and rolled over onto its driver's side in the nearby cornfield. The driver was the only occupant and was transported to Providence Medical Center in Wayne by the Laurel Fire and Rescue Ambulance. She was wearing her seat belt at the time. No charges are expected to be filed as a result of the crash and that investigation is complete at this time.

Library to host adult reading program speaker

The Wayne Public Library Summer Reading Program will continue on Monday, Aug. 6, beginning with an all-American picnic. The library will host guest speaker Doug Rung, a retired Social Studies teacher and member of the Speakers Bureau for the Nebraska Humanities Council.

"Travel back with Doug to the 1940's and World War II for stories about local military installation, the people involved with their operations and how the war affected the economy and everyday life of many Nebraskans. Mr. Rung led his community's oral history project and helped to preserve a unique portion of Nebraska through those who recounted their memories of war years. He will have memorabilia from the wars years on display and welcomes comments, stories and questions from the audience," said Rita McLean, Adult Services Librarian.

The August event will begin at 6 p.m. with a picnic. A free-will donation will be accepted to help defray the cost of the food. Help in funding for the program was provided by the Nebraska Humanities Council and the Wayne County United Way.

Reservations for the picnic should be made by 6 p.m. on Friday, Aug. 2 by contacting the library.

For more information, contact the library at (402) 375-3135.

GHCA Immunization Program updates listed

School is just around the corner and it is important to check your child's Immunization Record to see if your child is up to date. Immunizations that are required before a child can attend school include:

- three doses of diphtheria, tetanus and whooping cough (DTAP), with one dose given after the age of four;
- three doses of polio vaccine;
- two doses of measles, mumps and rubella (MMR) vaccine;
- three doses of hepatitis B vaccine, and,
- At least one dose of chicken pox vaccine (Varicella). The number of doses for chicken pox depends on the age of the child. If the child has had the disease, then a documented history from the parent is accepted and vaccination is not required.

Goldenrod Hills Community Action administers all of these immunizations as well as: Tetanus, diphtheria; Tdap - Tetanus, diphtheria and acellular pertussis; Hib - Haemophilus influenzae b; HAV - Hepatitis A requirement; DTAPHBIP - Pediarix (DtaP, Hepatitis B and IPV); Rotavirus - age requirement; MCV4 - Menactra (meningococcal Conjugate); PCV7 - Prevnar (Pneumococcal Conjugate); Influenza - there are age and seasonal guidelines; HPV - Human Papilloma Virus - Gardasil for cervical cancer - VFC, age and gender requirement. Immunization is one of the most effective and cost efficient ways to prevent disease. For every dollar spent on immunization as much as $29 can be saved in direct and indirect health costs. Vaccine-preventable disease levels have been reduced by over 99 percent since the introduction of vaccines.

Goldenrod Hills also offers adult vaccine at the public immunization clinics to anyone 19 years or older. There is a charge associated with each vaccine to help defray the cost of the vaccine and administration. Adult vaccines offered include: adult hepatitis B - series of 3, adult hepatitis A - series of 2, MMR, Tdap and TB testing is also offered.

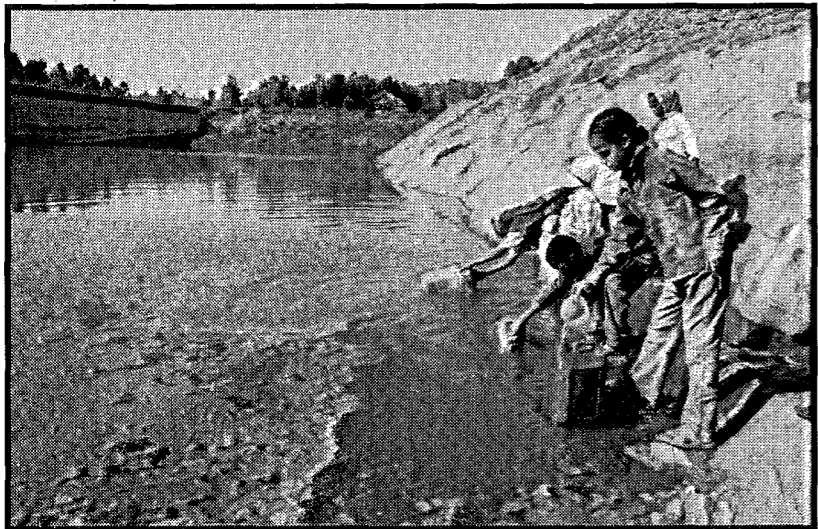

Travels include search for the Ark

Editor's note: This is the 12th in a series of articles written by Dean Jacobs about his travel excursions through Ethiopia.

For 12 long hours our bus wove its way on hairpin turns through the brown mountains of northern Ethiopia as we dashed to Aksum. Aksum was once home to one of the Church.

This is in itself a good reason to come here, but I must admit, I had other reasons, that are more related to my American movie culture than history. Legend has it that the sacred Ark of the Covenant rests in Aksum after it was stolen from King Solomon in Villagers gather water out of the Queen of Sheba bath in Aksum. According to legend, the famous bath is said to have been created some 3,000 years ago.

most powerful kingdoms of the ancient world, the Aksumites, they were the first in the world to put the Christian cross on the coins used in the kingdom back in the fourth century. It is also the holiest city of the Ethiopian Orthodox Israel. The Ark of the Covenant is the most sacred artifact in Jewish history, and it also happens to be the centerpiece in one of the Indiana Jones movies.

After securing my items in my hotel room, I set off to find the solid granite stele, the impressive stones that are some of the few remains of the ancient kingdom 1,600 years ago. These grand billboards from ancient times are a testament to a craftsmanship that outlived a powerful kingdom. Standing next to the tallest stele that shoots 760 feet into the blue sky, I am left with a sense of awe, as to how such a stone was created and erected.

A short walk from there I take a brief look at the huge Queen of Sheba bath that is carved straight down into the red stone. No one knows for sure if she ever took a bath there, but it makes a good story and is impressive just by the pure size of it. It is the end of the dry season, but you can easily see how deep the bath becomes when it fills up with rainwater. As locals fill water jugs for cooking and washing, someone says to me; "be careful these waters are cursed, someone dies here every year."

The bath also serves a holy purpose, once a year the Ark is taken from its resting place and dipped into the water, turning it into holy water before thousands of people jump in, or so says the self-appointed guide standing next to me.

Now it was time to go find the location where the Ark is kept. With the music of Indiana Jones circling through my head, I entered the compound, not before paying the 60 Bir fee ($6.50) of course. In the beginning I'm taken by a guide through the two circular churches I am allowed to enter. The final stop of my tour, the church which houses the Ark. A line from the movie pops into my head, Indy, the Ark isn't like anything you've gone after before.

Only one living person is allowed to see the Ark, a monk who spends most of his time inside the church doing who knows? My guide says to me; "you are very lucky, the only monk who is allowed to see the Ark is outside." I'm shown a few artifacts, old crowns from past kings that really should be in a proper museum. The old monk smiles at me and asks that I don't take his photo. I stick my head through the black iron rod fence that separates us, and he blesses me on the head with the ancient Ethiopian cross he is holding. Close enough for me, I say to myself, a blessing by the monk who cares for the Ark.

I smiled the kind of smile that comes from the fulfillment of a dream, and quietly walked back home weaving my way around camels being pulled by young men as the music from Indiana Jones replayed in my mind one last time.

Wanda Ryden has been working each Saturday on what will soon be her home.

Future homeowner assists with build

Volunteers from Wayne State College and the Logan Creek Chapter of Pheasants Forever helped with construction on the Wayne Area Habitat for Humanity house this past Saturday. The house is being built at 1014 Douglas Street.

On Saturday volunteers continued to finish the roof and started the siding installation. Lunch and snacks were provided to volunteers by WEOPA, the Wayne Educational Office Professionals Association.

mittee recommend the Ryden family to the Wayne Area Habitat for Humanity board of directors.

Roger Meyer, who is a member of the family selection committee, said that there are three criteria used to select a family. First is the need for decent, affordable housing. Second is the ability of the homeowner to pay the mortgage payments. Third is the willingness of the family to partner with Habitat for Humanity. The partnering family needs to be willing to provide "sweat equity" in the construction of the house, as well as take classes to learn about the responsibilities of home ownership. Individuals interested in applying for future Wayne Area Habitat for Humanity housing should contact Ann Witkowski at 375-4509.

Work continues every Saturday in August. Individuals can volunteer a half a day or a full day at the construction site. For more information on volunteer opportunities, contact Kyle Rose at 375-2340.

The Habitat for Humanity house is being built in partnership with the Wanda Ryden family of Wayne. Wanda will be purchasing the house once it is completed, and she helps with the construction every Saturday. Wanda has three children: Adam, age 7, KC, age 17, and Cassie who has been serving in the U.S. Navy for the past five years.

Wanda is getting anxious to move into her new house. She says, "After I get back from working on the house on Saturdays, my son Adam asks if the house is done yet? Wanda has never owned a house before, and has moved many different times during her life. "I'm looking forward to our family finally having roots. I hope this is my last move."

"I am grateful to Habitat for Humanity and to all the volunteers who have helped to build my house," Wanda said. "Ever since I became a mother, I had a dream of owning my own home. Now, my dream is coming true."

Wanda said that she learns something new each week working on her house. "The more I help build, the more it seems like my house," Wanda has never done any major construction work before this house build. "I've been surprised what I've been able to accomplish," she said.

The Ryden family was selected to partner with the Wayne Area Habitat for Humanity chapter after filling out an application, meeting with the Family Selection committee, and having that com-

New physical therapy facility coming to Laurel

The United States Department of Agriculture (USDA) Rural Development has awarded a $100,000 rural economic development grant to Cedar-Knox Public Power District (PPD) for the purpose of establishing a revolving loan fund. Cedar-Knox PPD will contribute $20,000. The initial funds will be loaned to the City of Laurel to construct the Providence Medical Center's physical therapy facility in Laurel that will serve nearly 1,000 rural residents.

"The Cedar-Knox Board of Directors believes that the grant received from USDA Rural Development will result in a substantial increase in productivity of economic resources in rural areas and lead to a higher quality of life for rural citizens," state Jane Albers, Finance/Accounting Director, Cedar-Knox Public Power District.

The physical therapy facility is anticipated to create four part-time jobs and one full time position. As the City of Laurel repays the loan, these monies will be returned to the revolving loan fund for future economic development needs.

"Cedar-Knox Public Power District and the City of Laurel are to be commended for their aggressive rural development accomplishment," stated Dale Wemhoff, area director, USDA Rural Development. "The physical therapy facility in Laurel that will serve nearly 1,000 rural residents will bring needed medical services to the community. Additionally, the revolving loan fund established will assist local businesses far into the future."

Trailer available to coordinate emergency activities

Wayne County Emergency Management recently purchased a travel trailer from Federal surplus stockpiles and plans to create a mobile Emergency Operations Center (EOC) using the vehicle.

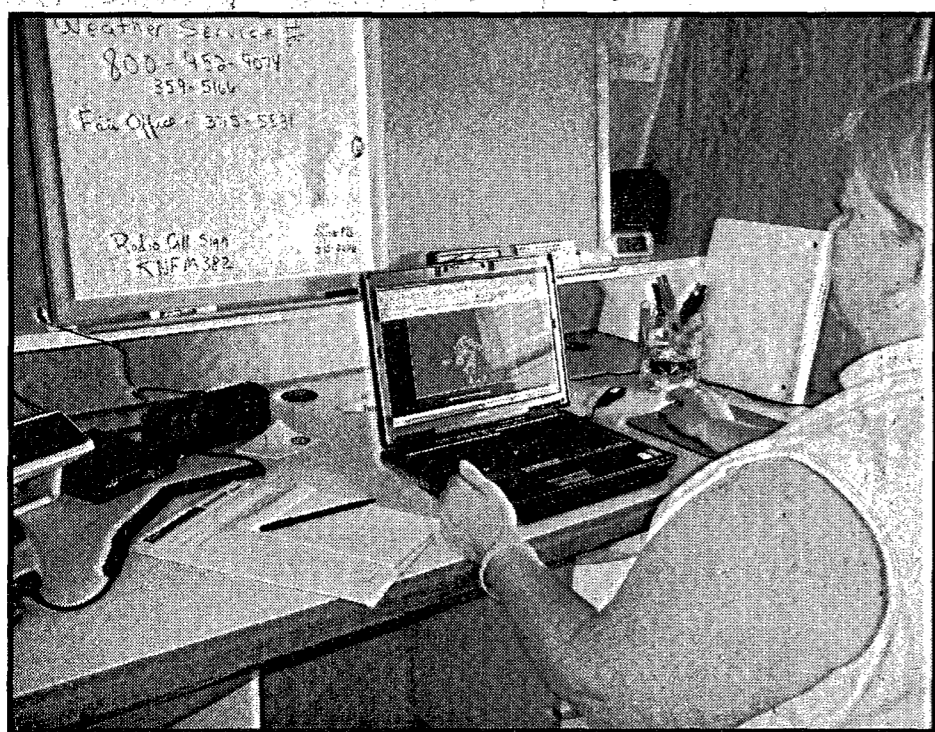

The trailer was recently on display and in use at the Wayne County Fair. Fair-goers were able to visit with Deanna Beckman, Wayne County Emergency Management Director and learn about plans for use of the trailer.

The agency's plans are to make the trailer available to coordinate response and recovery actions and resources for Wayne County and neighboring counties. The EOC gives Wayne County the opportunity to travel to where the need for emergency direction exists.

"An EOC is the physical location where organizations come together during an emergency to coordinate response and recovery actions and resources. These centers may alternatively be called command centers, situation rooms, war rooms, crisis management centers or similar terms. Regardless of the name, the EOC is where information and resources are coordinated,"

The Wayne County Emergency Operational Center was on display and in use at the Wayne County Fair.

At left, Deanna Beckman, Wayne County Emergency Management Director, checks the weather radar during the Wayne County Fair. Officials were able to closely monitor a storm on Thursday that had to potential to affect fair activities. The EOC can be taken to any place where a disaster strikes.

Beckman said.

She noted that the EOC is not an incident command post; rather, it is the operations center where coordination and management decisions are facilitated.

Wayne County is in the design stages of the EOC project. Plans are to have a working communications center within the trailer which will enable the agency to correspond with dispatch and emergency responders on scene.

Radio equipment is a work in progress for the EOC.

"Wayne County Emergency Management looks forward to working with business and the public to design and equip the Wayne County EOC. The agency welcomes all thoughts and ideas on how to serve the community to the fullest extent," Beckman said.

The trailer was purchased by Wayne County, but it can and will be used throughout the area if the need arises.

their rights and their dignity as women. They needed to hear that they do not have to be physically abused, that they do not have to spend long hours in the fields (the labor in the fields is done by the women). Their lives are spent doing manual labor in the fields, spending long hours (longer than the oxen) in the fields.

In these rural farm lands, there is no modern equipment, the women worked with scythes and were winnowing with baskets. In these villages, there is not access to TV, radio and most of the women had not even heard about T.B. or AIDS. These families live in shacks, still get water drawn from open wells (there are a few well pumps), have no bathrooms in their homes and cook with cow dung. The babies are born in their shacks, the infant mortality rate is about 40 percent; most of the mothers and children die of infection. There is slavery of the Dalit women of India that is not heard about in the U.S. It is very real and very sad.

"I knew there was poverty in India but what overwhelmed me was the extensiveness of this poverty," Witkowski said. "I thought I would go into the ghetto in the city to care for these people. What I experienced was seeing poverty not only in the cities but also for untold miles in the rural areas."

The Dalit Freedom Network is an international organization dedicated to serving the Dalits. Their ongoing goal is to provide HOPE for the hopeless as they partner with the Dalits in their quest for social, economic and spiritual freedom by networking human, financial, medical and informational resources.

"We need to continually be praying for the Dalit and keep informed and do what we can for these our brothers and sisters in Christ," Witkowski said. "We here in Wayne can make a difference, not only can we pray for India, we can give financially to Sr. Sheba and to the Good Shepherd Schools, we can go to India, become a team member and we can adopt a little India boy or girl from these villages. Recently a group of high school students from Norfolk raised enough money to build a school in India...they recently returned from India visiting the school they built"

Witkowski ended by saying that the need is great, the help is real and that you can contact her any time for more information."

Customers can find a variety of products at Farm to Market Ag Center Inc., 200 S. Main St. in Wayne, including Kent Feeds for cattle, hogs, sheep, horses, rabbits, goats, poultry, dogs, cats and deer products for hunters. Besides offering feed in sacks, customers can purchase it in bulk. Meyer notes they offer finance to feeders at low interest.

Business hours at Farm to Market Ag Center Inc. are 8 a.m. to 5 p.m., Monday, Wednesday and Friday; 8 a.m. to Noon on Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday. Kelly and Melissa Meyer and his parents, Jerold and Connie Meyer, are the owners. The business opened in January, 2000.

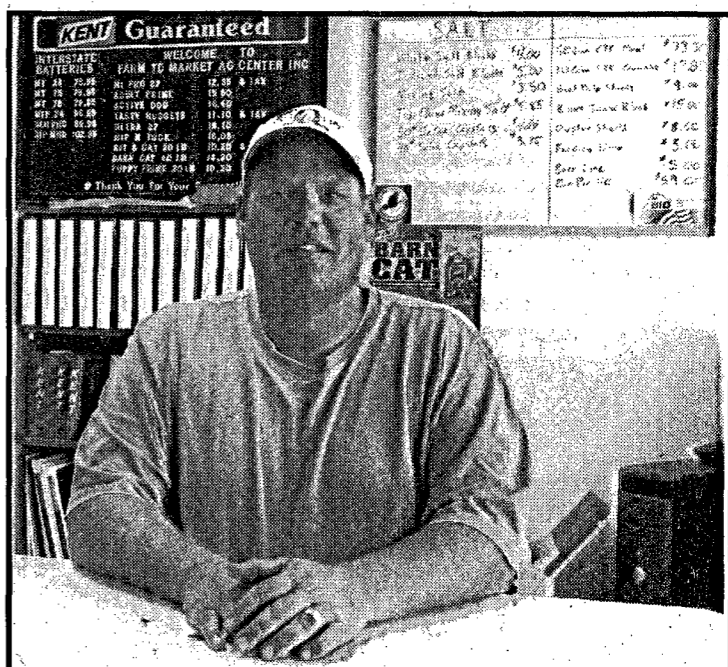

"We offer nutritional services," Meyer said. "We can test feed for nutrition and set up individual rations for each customer's needs."

They also carry a line of show feeds, that is more concentrated for a faster rate of gain. For horses, Meyers carry the Dynasty and Granoline line of horse feeds for newborn to 40 year old horses.

Other products in stock are: vaccines, water softener salt, mixing salt and salt blocks, Energilass Protein tubs and milk replacers.

All kinds of animal care products can be found at Farm to Market Ag Center Inc. Meyer also carries silage inoculants, as well as Interstate Batteries and a corn byproduct called, Mountain Melt. Mountain Melt is a low salt/ethanol ice melter that is safe on equipment, lawns and surfaces. Mountain Melt also has a lower melting point than other melters for colder weather due to the use of the corn byproduct that is like the state of Nebraska uses on the highways.

K & M Seeds is also at 200 S. Main Street; Kelly and Melissa Meyer are the owners. This business started a couple of years ago. Meyer carries corn, soybeans and alfalfa in the Midwest Seeds Genetics

Wayne Juniors finish 2-2 at state tournament

For the second straight season, the Wayne Juniors ended their season among the state's elite American Legion baseball teams.

The team finished 26-12 and advanced to be among the final four teams in the state at the Class B state tournament played in Sidney, starting on July 27.

The Juniors went 2-2 with wins against O'Neill and Sidney and losses to Gretna and Ogallala.

Recaps from Wayne's games at the state tournament include:

Gretna 10, Wayne 1

It wasn't exactly the kind of opening Wayne had hoped for.

Fielding errors haunted the Wayne Juniors, who were last year's state runners up, in the opening game of the Class B state tournament in Sidney as the team fell victim in a 10-1 loss to Gretna on July 27.

Ball handling in the opener proved to be difficult as Wayne committed four errors in the second inning to allow Gretna to plate three runs to take a 3-0 advantage.

Wayne was able to create opportunities to keep the game close with scoring threats in the second, third and fourth innings.

Jacob Zeiss hit a triple to deep center field in the third inning to set up Wayne's first chance to plate a run, but Gretna responded with a pair of quick outs to silence the scoring threat.

A double by third baseman Michael Denklauf to center field gave Wayne another spark in the next inning.

That effort was embellished by Drew Workman and Ryan Pieper, who both reached base off a walk and fielder's choice, respectively.

Gretna's defense then came up big again to stop Wayne.

A leadoff single by Zac Braun followed by double from Zeiss to deep left field in the fourth provided Wayne with yet another opportunity; however, Gretna retired the next three Wayne batters to end the inning.

Gretna plated a fourth run in the fourth inning to take a 4-0 lead, and Wayne responded in the fifth when Mikey Kay reached home as a courtesy runner for Zac Braun, who recorded a single.

Wayne's rally attempt unraveled in the sixth frame as Gretna took advantage of two more Wayne errors and converted three hits into six more runs en route to the 10-1 final score.

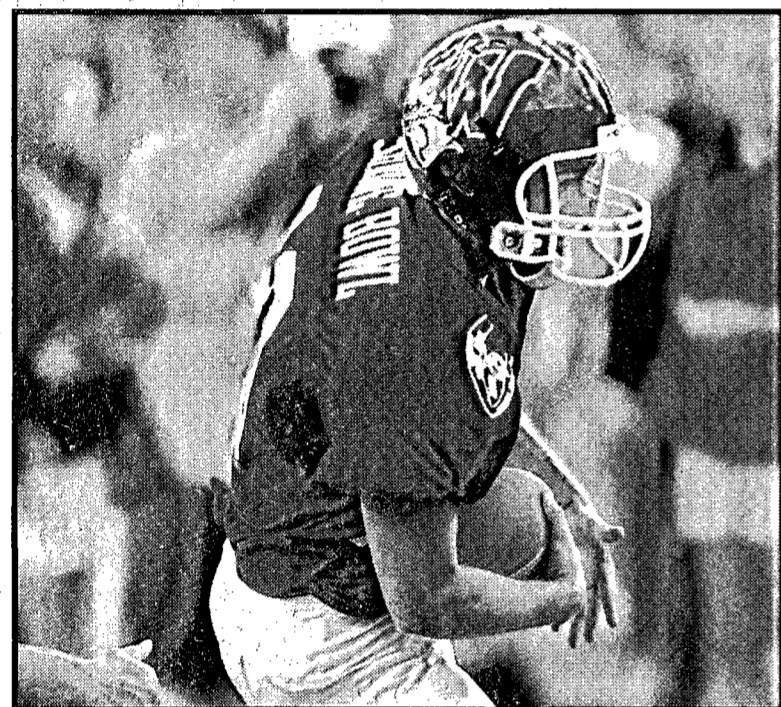

Ryan Pieper took the loss on the mound for Wayne and Jacob Triggs closed out the game in the final inning.

For the offense, Zeiss and Michael each finished with doubles, while Braun added a pair of singles.

Former Wayne High quarterback Nate Finkey carries the ball into the endzone for a North touchdown last Saturday. He was named the most valuable offensive player at the 2007 Nebraska Shrine Bowl game.

Finkey named MVP at Nebraska Shrine Bowl

Recent Wayne High standout athlete Nate Finkey was able to enjoy one final moment in the spotlight to highlight a stellar career for the Blue Devils.

Finkey, who started as quarterback for the North squad in the annual Nebraska Shrine Bowl game at Memorial Stadium on July 29, was named as the offensive player of the game after guiding the North to 10-9 win.

He finished the game with 14 carries for 43 yards and one touchdown, plus orchestrated an impressive 12-play drive in the third quarter that ended with a 36-yard field goal to give the North a one-point lead.

Finkey's touchdown came late in the first quarter off an 11-yard run in a scramble to the corner of the pylon marker on a play that was originally called to be a pass play. In passing, Finkey was 7-of-10 for 82 yards and a pair of interceptions.

Finkey is the son of Kevin Finkey and Tamie Finkey, both of Wayne. Recent Wakefield High graduates Garek Bebee and Jared Miller were also among those who played for the North squad.

Wayne Seniors advance to finals

Class B Area 3 District Tournament

The Wayne Senior Legion baseball team was able to advance to the finals of the Area 3 district tournament, but came up on the short end on a bid for a state tournament berth.

Wayne (18-13) wrapped up the season on July 26 in the district final against Omaha Roncalli after dropping a 10-0 decision in the tournament played at Wayne's Hank Overin Field.

The win advanced the Paragas Law Pride the state tournament that kicks off this weekend in Gretna.

The loss came just 24 hours after Wayne played what had arguably been the best game of the tourney in a 1-0 win against Bennington in an eight inning thriller in the loser's bracket final.

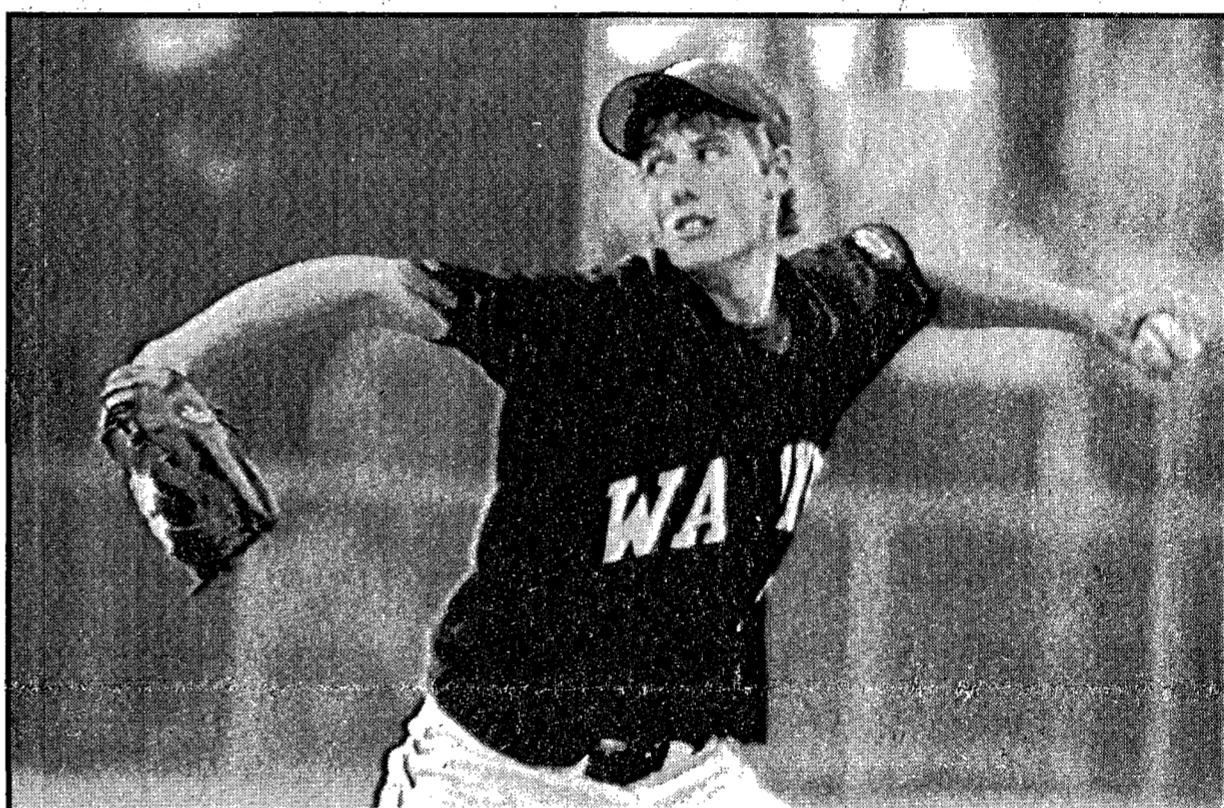

Recaps from Wayne's final two games of the season include:

Wayne 1, Bennington 0

The game was a pitchers duel deluxe.

It took eight innings to determine who would advance to the Class B Area final, but when the dust on the base paths cleared on July 25, Wayne edged Bennington 1-0.

Wayne pitcher Jesse Hill notched 13 strikeouts and allowed only three hits, while Bennington's Kevin Olson struck out nine Wayne batters and allowed four hits in the contest.

Each team had chances to break the deadlock throughout the game.

Bennington created its opportunity in the second frame after they loaded the base with two outs.

Hill then turned away Bennington when he struck out Austin Peck to close out the inning.

Wayne responded in the bottom of the inning after Shaun Kardell led off with a double.

That would be as far as he would advance as he was tagged out at third based following a sacrifice bunt attempt by Bren Vander

Weil.

Cory Harm also recorded a double later in the game, but he was also tagged for an out to end another Wayne scoring threat.

Wayne's winning run came in the bottom of the extra inning when Taylor Racely reached base with Wayne having only one out. Racely was able to scramble to second following a wild pitch and a subsequent groundout by Nathan Summerfield opened the door for Racely to advance to third.

The anticipation built as the next Wayne batter, Matt Sharer, stepped up to the plate and was able to work the count to three balls and one strike. Racely kept close watch as Bennington catcher Craig Jewell missed ball four and Racely sprinted toward home plate to score the game-winning run for Wayne.

Omaha Roncalli 10, Wayne 0

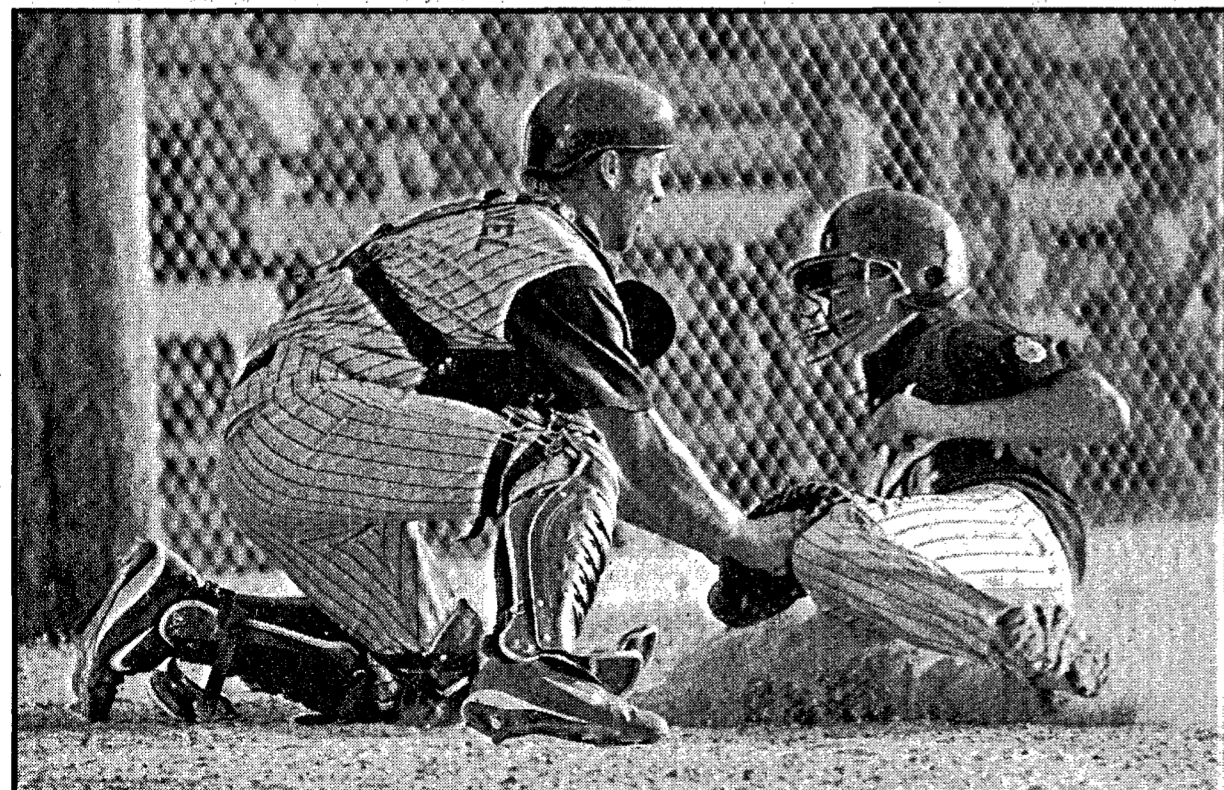

Wayne's second meeting with Omaha Roncalli Paragas Law Pride in the district tournament was almost a carbon copy of the first time they played.

Wakefield set to defend Class C crown at Geneva

Class C Area 3 District Tournament

Wakefield's Jacob Blessing is tagged for an out at home plate by West Point catcher Andrew Wiechman in last Thursday evening's district semifinal in West Point.

Wakefield will have the opportunity to defend its state championship this weekend at the Class C state tourney that begins tomorrow (Friday) in Geneva.

The team secured a tournament berth after sweeping last week's Area 3 district tournament in West Point.

Recaps from last week's semifinal and championship games include:

Wakefield 8, West Point 1

Wakefield took a 5-0 lead before West Point could score a run in an 8-1 Wakefield victory in Game 15 of the Area 3 Class C district tourney.

Offensive leaders for Wakefield included Ben Henderson with three hits, and Tanner Soderberg, Max Greve and Drew Rose with two hits each.

Max Greve went the distance on the mound with a no-hitter than included eight strikeouts.

Wakefield 12, Mount Michael 2

Good things come to those who wait. For defending Class C Senior Legion state champion Wakefield, a return trip to this weekend's state tournament was secured late in the district title game.

Wakefield plated seven runs in the sixth inning to pull away from Elkhorn Mount Michael in the Area 3 district final en route to a 12-2 victory on July 28 at West Point.

Heading into the sixth frame, Wakefield managed to manufacture runs in the second, third and fifth innings to cling to a 4-2 lead over the Mount Michael Knights.

Starting with a pair of base hits by Cory Gustafson and Drew Rose and followed with back-to-back bunts for singles from Colby Henderson and Ryan Klein at the bottom of the batting order, Wakefield's steamroller was firing on all cylinders.

A run batted in by Tanner Soderberg, followed by a double RBI from Luke Henderson were just what the team needed to pull away to a comfortable lead in the sixth inning.

Luke finished the game with three hits and three RBIs, while Joel Nixon went 3-for-4 with a pair of runs to pace the offensive onslaught. Tanner Soderberg was also a key contributor on offense as he batted in three runs and added one of his own.

After going three-up, three-down in the opening inning, Wakefield got on the scoreboard after Luke Henderson singled with a shot to center field.

Gustafson followed with a single to score Henderson, while Drew Rose's bunt single and a throwing error allowed Wakefield to take a 2-0 lead in the top of the second.

Soderberg used a sacrifice bunt in the third and a sacrifice fly in the third and fifth innings, respectively, to allow Joel Nixon to reach home plate to extend the score to 4-1.

Mount Michael's Pat Pick crossed home plate on a Wakefield throwing error in the fourth inning.

Another Wakefield throwing error in the bottom of the fifth allowed the Mike Scholte to score to narrow the Wakefield lead to 4-2.

From there on it was Wakefield in control of the game with seven runs off five hits in the sixth inning, and an additional run in the seventh frame.

Max Greve worked six innings on the mound and threw eight strikeouts, while Luke Henderson pitched the final inning to earn the save.

Wakefield will now face Dannebrog-Cairo-Boelus in the first game of the Class C state tournament in a contest slated for 3 p.m. on Friday, Aug. 3 in Geneva. The tourney runs through Tuesday, August 7.

Sports Notebook

Wayne High athletic forms due

WAYNE — Wayne High athletes in Grades 7-12 are reminded to turn in their physical forms and required paperwork to WHS athletic director Rocky Ruhl as soon as possible. All paperwork must be turned in by Friday, August 10.

Golf tournaments scheduled

WAYNE — The Wayne Country Club will play host to several upcoming events as the season enters the month of August.

The inaugural Marty Summerfield Golf Classic is planned for Friday, Aug. 3, at the Wayne Country Club. The tournament will be a three-person scramble, starting at 10 a.m. Entry fee is $50 per person and proceeds go to benefit the Wayne High School athletic program.

A couples' golf night is slated for Monday, Aug. 6., with a shotgun start at 6 p.m. The event is free for WCC members and $20 for non-members. A potluck dinner will be served after the event.

Two annual tournament dates should also be noted. The boys' and girls' Junior Club Tournament is scheduled for Tuesday, Aug. 7, while the Mens' and Women's Club Championship will be played on Sunday, Aug. 19.

For registration information, contact Troy Harder at the golf course at 375-1152.

Wayne coach leads All-Star team

Wayne High head boys' basketball coach Rocky Ruhl was a member of the coaching state in last weekend's Nebraska Coaches Association All-Star basketball game played at Lincoln North Star High School. Ruhl's Blue team posted a 119-113 win over the Red squad. Winside's Marcus Messersmith and future Wayne State player Marcus Messersmith scored 11 points and was 5-for-7 shooting for the Blue team.

Seniors

The win advanced Roncalli to the Class B tournament in Gretna to play Lexington on Friday, Aug. 3.

Wayne played the game without the services of its regular coaching lineup as head coach Jeff Zeiss and assistant coach Tim Schaefer were in Sidney with the Wayne Juniors team as they prepared for the game of the Class B state tournament.

Roncalli plated three runs in the first inning and tallied three additional runs in the fourth inning and added four more in the fifth frame.

Wayne had a chance to plate a run in the fifth when Harm smacked a team-leading double to left field, however, that was as far as the team was able to advance for the ballgame.

Summerfield, Sharer and Kardell all finished with singles, while Kardell took the loss on the mound for Wayne.

Players commit to Wayne State

One softball and two baseball recruits have recently signed to play at Wayne State College.

Wayne State head softball coach Krista Unger announced that Blaire Kuhl of Logan, Iowa, will join the Wildcat softball program for the 2008 season.

Blaire Kuhl is a multi-sport standout at Logan-Magnolia High School, starting five seasons in softball, four in basketball, three in volleyball and two in cross country.

She was a Second Team All-State selection last season as a junior with a .468 batting average, helping her team reach the state softball tournament for the first time in school history.

She also excels in the classroom with a 3.9 grade point average, receiving numerous academic honors.

Kuhl has also played in five national tournaments with two different ASA softball teams, three with the Omaha Sizzle and two with the Omaha Quakes Black Team.

"Blaire is a tremendous athlete and will add great depth to the Wildcat lineup," commented Unger. "She has great range along with a strong arm and is an offensive threat from both sides of the plate."

Wayne State head baseball coach John Manganaro has announced the addition of two pitchers for the 2008 season.

Signing with the Wildcats were Jared Hegdahl of Howard, S.D., and Matthew Hilligas of Grand Island.

Hegdahl, a 5-11, 200 pound pitcher, transfers to Wayne State after pitching two seasons at Marshalltown Community College in Iowa. Hegdahl struck out 35 batters in 41 innings pitched while recording three wins and one save this past season and ranked ninth in strikeouts in the Iowa Community College Athletic Conference. Hegdahl also pitched for the Nashville Navigators in the Sandlot Baseball League in the summer of 2006.

Hilligas, a 6-0, 180-pound pitcher from Grand Island Senior High School, is a football and baseball standout for the Islanders.

He helped Grand Island to a 22-5 record and a top seed to the Nebraska State High School baseball tournament last spring and became the first Grand Island pitcher to win a game at the state tournament.

For anyone out there who is getting ready for golf playoffs, watch your back! Some easy stretches and play tips may help keep you on the course. First warm up with some light stretching for your back and shoulders. Leaning back with your hands on your hips, raising your club above your head with both hands, and some slow rotations with your back are all good warm-ups for a day of golf.

Bending at your knees and not with your back to setup the tee or pick up a ball can take loads of stress off your body as a whole. Finally, before that first swing start with some light half-swings to get the muscles going and ready for some fun in the sun. Harder named golf coach at Nebraska-Kearney

Amy Harder

Wayne native Amy Harder was named as the new head women's golf coach at the University of Nebraska-Kearney this past week.

Harder spent the past four years playing women's golf at Division I Missouri-Kansas City.

She had 13 top 10 finishes for the Kangaroos and set a new school record for number of career rounds played.

Harder was also involved with the YMCA of Kansas City the last four years, serving as assistant sport director and co-directing the Greater Kansas City golf program.

During her high school days, Harder was twice Class B state runner up.

Her father, Troy, is the PGA professional at the Wayne Country Club and is currently the Wildcats' men's and women's head golf coach.

Wayne 16, O'Neill 9

Wayne remained alive in state tournament play with a win over a familiar foe.

The Juniors scored at least one run in every inning except the first in a 16-9 win over O'Neill in first game in the loser's bracket played on July 29.

After retiring the first three batters in order in the opening inning, Wayne went to work in the second inning starting with a single to center field by Derek Poutre, who plated the first of Wayne's 16 runs.

Tyler Schaefer was the next batter to reach base after being hit by a pitch. Tory Booth batted both base runners in with RBI single to left field. Booth notched a run of his own after Denklau also recorded another RBI base hit to give Wayne a 3-0 lead.

O'Neill closed the gap in the bottom of the second with a two straight walks off Schaefer, who earned the win for Wayne on the mound.

The Irish were then able to load the bases off a hunt, but the Juniors infield tightened up to escape the inning with a 3-2 lead despite to Wayne throwing errors.

Wayne pulled away again in the next inning starting with a double by Triggs, who then advanced to third, and then onward to home plate, thanks to a pair of O'Neill throwing errors. Zeiss was the next batter to reach first to set up the next Wayne scoring flurry.

Facing a full count, Schaefer launched a shot to deep center field for a double to score Zeiss and Poutre and give Wayne a 6-2 lead.

The bottom of the third saw Schaefer allow a base hit and two walks, but Wayne's defensive effort stood strong to keep the Irish at bay.

Wayne extended its lead to 8-2 in the top of the fourth with runs by Denklau and Pieper, but O'Neill batters were able to come up with a pair of doubles and two RBIs to pull shave the Wayne lead to 8-5.

Base hits by Poutre and Schaefer got things on track for Wayne in the fifth, and supporting performances by Booth (1 RBI) and lead-off batter Drew Workman (2 RBIs) helped Poutre, Schaefer and Booth to stretch the Juniors lead to 11-5 after five innings.

The sixth inning was highlighted by a triple from Zeiss, who would score the only run of that frame to give the Juniors a 12-5 lead.

O'Neill refused to let the six-run advantage silence their bats as the team went through 10 batters in the order and plated four runs in the sixth to move the score 12-9 heading into the seventh.

After opening with an early out, Wayne reached base via two walks and a hit batter to set up three more runs with bases loaded.

Zeiss scored Pieper with a single, while Poutre's consistent hits to center field yielded yet another double RBI single to score Triggs and courtesy runner Mikey Kay. Zeiss plated Wayne's final run off a sacrifice fly from Schaefer.

Wayne 10, Sidney 0 (5 innings)

It only took five innings for Wayne to stay alive in state tournament play as the Juniors delivered a 10-0 shutout to eliminate host Sidney from the tourney.

Wayne made an early statement when leadoff batter Drew Workman launched a deep shot along the foul line that was very close to a home run. Workman later reached after being hit by a pitch, but was thrown out at second for Wayne's first out.

The Juniors went back to work with the next batters in the order as Pieper got to first on a fielder's choice while Triggs smacked a single and stole a base to advance to second.

Braun batted in both runners as pounded a standup double put Wayne on the scoreboard.

After a quick three-and-out in the second frame, Wayne notched a successful offensive showing in the second time down the batting order. A single and stolen base by Workman, a single to score Workman by Triggs, another single by Braun, plus an RBI single that Zeiss provided the offensive highlights in Wayne's three-run third inning that extended the lead to 5-0.

A double that brought Workman home along with another single to left field by Zeiss that scored Triggs allowed Wayne to take a 7-0 advantage after four frames.

The Juniors inflicted more pain to end the game by the 10-run mercy rule in the fifth after Wayne loaded the bases with one out and managed to keep the Sidney defensive effort at bay.

A.J. Longe plated his first state tournament run as he scored as a courtesy runner for Braun, while other runs were plated by Workman, who reached on a fielder's choice and Pieper, who ran the count and got on base with a walk.

Denklau pitched a complete game for Wayne with three strikeouts.

The win moved Wayne into Tuesday night's loser bracket semi-final game against Ogallala, who lost to Beatrice 6-1 on Monday evening.

Ogallala 6, Wayne 3

Wayne provided the necessary ingredients for a return trip to the state championship game.

Ogallala, however, seemed to have an answer for everything Wayne came up with.

Wayne was eliminated from the state tourney on July 31 after dropping a 6-3 decision to Ogallala in the loser's bracket final game.

Wayne's season came to a close after Ogallala's Trent Neal smacked a two-run home run over the head of Tory Booth in the top of the seventh inning to quickly turn a one-point game into a 6-3 Ogallala advantage.

Wayne was able to advance Denklau and Workman to the bases off a single and hit batter, respectively, however, Ogallala's defensive effort was strong in the seventh and denied the Wayne rally attempt.

Braun plated Wayne's first run in the second inning off an RBI double by Schaefer to take a 1-0 lead.

Ogallala manufactured two runs in bottom of the next inning to take a 2-1 advantage heading into the fourth frame.

In the top of the sixth, Ogallala added one more run off a Wayne error to move to 3-1.

Wayne knotted the score in the bottom of the inning after Triggs reached home plate off a wild pitch and Braun's courtesy runner Mikey Kay snuck home after taking a base with a balk to tie the score a 3-3.

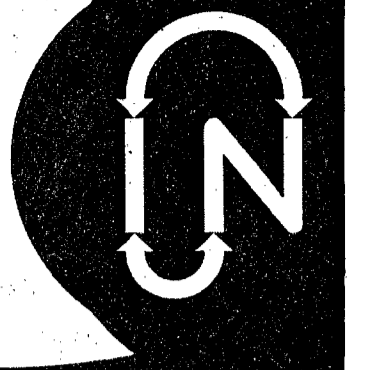

The top of the seventh also saw Ogallala benefit from a Wayne balk and the team was able to plate three runs in the inning, mostly thanks to the two-run homer.

For Wayne's offense, Schaefer finished with a double and an RBI, Braun tallied a pair of singles. Base hits were also credited to Triggs and Denklau.

Pieper had a solid game for Wayne and threw 12 strikeouts.

Those who were part of the Summer Reading program pose for a picture following the awards program.

Summer reading program draws to a close

The Wayne Public Library hosted an awards party for July Session participants of the 2007 Summer Reading Program "Get a Clue @ Your Library!" on July 24.

Ninety-two participants and family members were in attendance. The party included door prizes, cookies and bars, drinks, prizes and recognition of the participants, volunteers and benefactors. At the conclusion, there was a DVD presentation of photographs from the summer events.

"This has been a fun program! Session II had 138 young people, so our total participants this summer was 347," said Julie Osnes, Youth Services Director.

July Session readers went through 2,279 books, for a summer total 6,547 books read. Outside the library's front door, the mascot, Ike, was working his way through a maze.

"For every 50 books read, he was one step closer to the treasure and has now found it. And so have our detectives, great job reading!" Osnes said.

Being a part of programs like this will help foster a life long love of reading, and help develop the positive attitudes toward reading that will give our community's children an edge in future opportunities.

Each active participant received a paperback book, a bookmark, a keychain flashlight and various items and coupons donated by area businesses. In addition, children's names were entered in a drawing each time they read a book, read for one hour or came to a program. A total of 36 special prizes were awarded.

Special prizes awarded from the drawing include:

Read-to-Me Group
Abby Ankeny - Curious George stuffed animal; Ashton Boyer - "Get a Clue" puzzle; Cassidy Brudigam - "Get a Clue" t-shirt; Alex Echtenkamp - Curious George paper monkey set; Maggie Fehringer - spinning light; Owen Frideres - hands free flashlight; Sarah Greenwald - Ike LaRue's bulldog buddy; Blake Heimann - glow in the dark chalk; Matthew Lavicky - Get a Clue t-shirt; Maura Loberg - 2 Adventure Land tickets; Erin O'Reilly - Get a Clue t-shirt; Hope O'Reilly - Get a Clue t-shirt; Jacob Sherman - cube ball; Justin Sherman - $5 Gift Certificate to Jacob's Room.

First through Third Grades
Kelsey Boyer - hands free flashlight; Rachel Brudigam - cube ball; Grace Heithold - spinning light; Kiara Hochstein - brain busters games; Breanna Kalhoff - 1313 Dead End Drive; Marissa Munsell - flashlight; Hattie Phelps - sudoku cube; Mason Reynolds - $5 Gift Certificate to Jacob's Room; Alisha Shelton - Lava Lamp; Jack Tyson - Get a Clue t-shirt; Sarah Wibben - Get a Clue puzzle.

Fourth through Sixth Grades
Wyatt Biggerstaff - Get a Clue t-shirt; Jade Botzger - spinning light; Nathaniel Diaz - Get a Clue t-shirt; Austin Frideres - Clue board game; Abigail Mitchell - Get a Clue t-shirt; Madison Morris - cube ball; Quinton Morris - Bathroom Reader Book; James Ping - Get a Clue t-shirt; Cody Reinert - Get a Clue t-shirt; Matt Urbanec - Get a Clue t-shirt.

Edwin Valkamp was the lucky winner of the Ike LaRue stuffed animal.

Summer Reading Program participants who were unable to attend this Awards Ceremony are encouraged to come into the Library and pick-up their gift packets and prizes as soon as possible.

Several businesses, organizations, and residents showed their support for the Summer Reading Program with donations which went toward supplies for activities and rewards for the participants and volunteers. The library staff would like to express our gratitude to this session's donors:

1st Realty Sales & Management,

Antiques on Main, BankFirst, Dr. Robert Burrows DDS, Carroll Feed and Grain Co., Farmers & Merchants Bank, First National Agency, Inc., Great Dane Trailers, HunTel, KTCH Radio, Magnuson Eye Care, MPM Farms, New York Life - Insurance, Northeast Equipment, Omaha's Joslyn Art Museum, Omaha Royals Baseball Club, Otte Construction, Pamida, Pizza Hut, Schumacher-Hasemann Funeral Home, State National Bank & Trust Co., Vakoc Construction Company/Final Touch, Wayne Kiwanis, Wayne United Way, Wayne Police Department, Zach Propane Service, Inc., Dr. Dan Kaler, DDS, PC, Concord Components, Inc., Movie Gallery, Jacobs's Room, Property Exchange Partners, Kathol, Max & Associates, Midwest Office Automations, Wayne Mercy Medical and the Friends of the Wayne Public Library.

We would also like to thank our many other donors and volunteers, who helped with cookies, serving, registrations, activities, crafts, and book shelving, story readers, Lisa Leseberg, Mary Heithold, Jean Dorcey, Yvonne Greenwald, Jill Walling, Lynelle Schunk, Rachelle McCalla, Lauran Lofgren, Mary Jenkins, Kaye Morris, Carol Wibben, Lynn Vaselaar, Lisa Reynolds, Judy Kruger, Rita McLean, Gerald Kinetobe, Deb Dickey, Buffany DeBoer, Charissa Loftis, Deb Garwood, Bob Carhart, Mark Evetovitch, Thom Osnes, Amy Topp and her 4-H Crew, Genelle Gardner, Maddie Jager, Meg Pierson, Anna Osten, Shannon Connolly, Rebecca Agler, Michaela Belt, Corissa Arickx, Heidi Garvin, Renae Allemann, Burgandy Roberts, Anna Kruger, Emma Osnes, Meg Osnes, Megan Stalling, Megan Wherley, David Headley, and Ashley Burke. And thank you to the Wayne Senior Center for sharing their space with us, as well as the Wayne Herald, KTCH radio, for their assistance in publicizing our programs.

"And finally, I would like to personally thank the library staff for all the last minute stuffing, cutting, organizing and production that makes these programs come off looking great year after year - I know that you know that I couldn't do it without you - and I wouldn't want to try! And thanks to my husband Thom, and my family Emma, Meg and Jack for all they helped with, and all the time they do without, so summer reading stuff gets done. See you next summer everyone!" Osnes said.

USD confers degrees at summer commencement

Nancy (Hoy) McCahren, Ed.D, former executive director of The University of South Dakota Alumni Association and USD professor, gave the keynote address to more than 270 students during the 78th Summer Commencement at The University of South Dakota on Aug. 2. The local candidates for degrees were Rhett J. Psota of Wayne, Master of Arts, Chemistry and Jessica Lane Schroeder of Allen, Bachelor of Science, Communication Disorders.

McCahren, who received her bachelor's degree from The U in 1957 along with her M.A. (1962) and a doctorate in educational administration (1986), delivered remarks to a graduating class of 276 students. A native of Vermillion, McCahren taught English and worked in the Department of Modern Languages at USD for more than 25 years before becoming the Executive Director of The University's Alumni Association in 1990, a position she held until her retirement in 2004.

As one of USD's most ardent boosters, McCahren was the first woman to serve on the USD Athletic Board of Control and she continues her involvement with the school as a volunteer on the Coyote Athletics Sports Hall of Fame Committee. Her life-long interest in Coyote Athletics can be traced back to her youth when her father, Carl "Rube" Hoy served as basketball coach and athletic director at The U.

In 2004, McCahren was honored by the USD Alumni Association with an Alumni Achievement Award and served as Grand Marshal of the Dakota Days Parade. She and her husband, Lee, reside in Vermillion.

Learn how to build a kit car

The automotive technology department at Northeast Community College in Norfolk has scheduled two classes that will teach students how to build a kit car.

The three-credit-hour Kit/Car Assembly class, with course number AUTT1997-01/07F or HawkNet Call #10221, meets Fridays, Aug. 24 - Dec. 7 from 8:30-11:30 a.m. in the Weller Building, Room 110.

In addition to learning how to assemble a complete Cobra-type kit car, students will also learn chassis assembly and fiberglass body construction methods.

Alan Darnall is the instructor of this class with a cost of $219.

Another one-and-a-half credit-hour class, Kit/Car Painting Lab, with course AUTB1991-01/07F or HawkNET Call #12201, meets Tuesdays, Sept. 4 - Dec. 4 from 4:30-8:30 p.m. in the Weller Building, Room 125.

Students will gain hands-on experience in completing a Cobra-type kit car from component assembly to body finish and painting stages in this lab.

Daniel Rose is the instructor of this class with a cost of $109.50.

To register, call Northeast Community College at (402)844-7265 or register online at www.northeastcollege.com

Koeber named Associate Dean

Chuck Koeber has been named Associate Dean of the Fairmount College of Liberal Arts and Sciences at Wichita State University in Wichita, Kan.

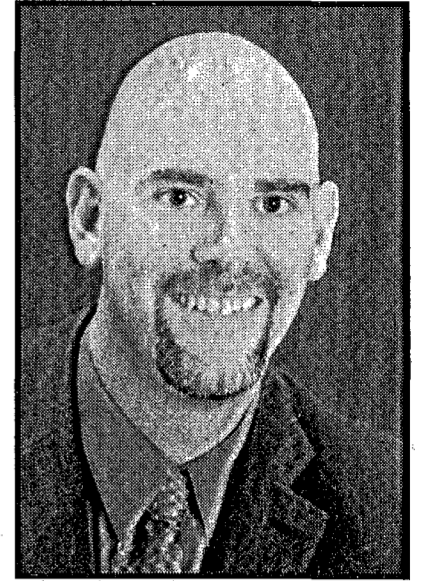

His duties include oversight of state budget accounts and coordination of college class schedules. He is the Dean's Office liaison to the curriculum committee and coordinates the college's certificate programs.

In addition, he will continue to be an Associate Professor of Sociology and teach courses on the Sociology of Globalization, Sociology of Consumer Life and Sociology of Work.

He was most recently Director of the Center for Teaching and Research Excellence at Wichita State University.

On July 20, in a program called "40 under 40," the Wichita Business Journal named him one of the top 40 businessmen in Wichita under the age of 40.

Chuck is the husband of Jerri Koeber, a special education teacher in the Wichita School District. They have a son and a daughter.

Koeber is the son of Bill and Valerie Koeber of Wayne and the grandson of Norma Koeber of Wakefield, formerly of Wayne.

Painting II class set at NECC

Students who have completed the Painting I class at Northeast Community College in Norfolk can take their skills to the next level in a Painting II class planned this fall semester.

The class, with course number ARTS 2750-01/07F or HawkNet Call #10152, is scheduled for Thursdays, Aug. 23 - Dec. 13 from 12:35-3:15 p.m. in the Weller Building, Room 105A.

Students in the three-credit-hour

Painting II class will investigate formal and technical concerns in this class. Subject matter will vary, yet figure study will be emphasized.

Cost of the class, with Michael Lynch as instructor, is $219. ARTS 1750 is a prerequisite class.

To register, call Northeast Community College at (402)844-7265 or register online at www.northeastcollege.com.

Local musicians participate in Masonic All-Star Marching Band

Six area students were among more than 260 high school students from across Nebraska who participated in the 13th annual Masonic All-Star Marching Band, which performed on July 28 during the Shrine Bowl festivities in Lincoln.

Participating from Wayne High School were Eric Carstens, son of Jeff and Mary Carstens; Brett Dorcey, son of Chad and Jean Dorcey; Collin Jeffries, son of Curt and Coleen Jeffries and Abigail Kenny, daughter of Joe and Kelly Kenny of Carroll and participating from Winside High School were Caroline Burris, daughter of Bill and Patti Burris and Dominique Gowler, daughter of Dale and Denise and Gowler.

The band members devoted four days of intense practice starting July 24, to learn the music, marching steps and field formations. The band led the Shrine Bowl Parade down Lincoln's Havelock Avenue on July 28. It also performed at half-time of the 49th annual Shrine Bowl football game in Memorial Stadium on Tom Osborne Field at the University of Nebraska-Lincoln.

The band members were hosted by the Masons of Nebraska and were directed by Brad Weber, Dan Sodomka and Dave Bohnert, band directors from Wayne High School, Aurora High School and Wayne State.

Carstens and Kenny each received a scholarship from Wayne Masonic Lodge No. 120; Dorcey received a scholarship from Wayne Chapter No. 194, Order of the Eastern Star; Jeffries received a scholarship from Liberty Masonic Lodge No. 300 in Lincoln; Burris received a scholarship from Cotner Masonic Lodge No. 297 in Lincoln and Gowler received a scholarship from Lancaster Masonic Lodge No. 54 and Lincoln. The scholarships covered the costs of the camp.

"We demand a lot of the students during the past week," Weber said. "They responded professionally and have worked very hard. That was evidenced by the high-quality shows they performed on July 28. There's no doubt these young musicians are among the best in the state."

Coupled with hard work, the members also participated in a pool party, bowling, dance and had a chance to "just hang out." Many are looking forward to the opportunity to use the instruction provided by the band directors when they return to their respective high school bands.

"The week has been filled with hard work, a lot of fun and great memories," said Dean Skokan,

Grand Master of Nebraska Masons. "An what could be better than making many new friends and performing with them at the half-time of the Shrine Bowl Game? What's most important is the support they provided for the Shrine Hospitals for Children. That's what the Shrine Bowl is all about."

Skokan said the Master Masons of Nebraska individually and collectively exemplify the principles of Masonry. An organization devoted to universally accepted virtues, including morality, belief in God and tolerance, Skokan said Masons also champion patriotism, freedom of religion and freedom of political persuasion. He said the combined philanthropic efforts of Masonic-related organizations contribute in excess of $2 million a day.

Krugman gains valuable hands-on experience

Classes are back in session, and students have returned to campus. But some South Dakota School of Mines and Technology students have returned with more than they left with - valuable experience they gained during the summer through internships and co-ops.

Among those participating in a summer internship was Trevor Krugman of Wayne, a mechanical engineering student. He was employed by Eaton, located in Kearney.

This summer, School of Mines students worked for 113 employers in 27 different states, earning an average of $15.65/hour. In addition to wages, some employers provide housing stipends and relocation expenses that are not included in the salary averages.

Nearly 80 percent of School of Mines graduates gain relevant work experience through internships and co-ops by the time they graduate, giving them the skills employers are looking for, evident in the 98 percent placement rates and salaries of nearly $50,000 that graduates achieve.

Blood Bank's Heroes Unite, It's About Life campaign in full swing

With the Heroes Unite, It's About Life campaign in full swing at the Siouxland Community Blood Bank, many towns are hosting community or employee blood drives and recruiting donors to ensure patients in their area will have blood products when needed.

Your next opportunity to donate in Wayne is on Friday, Aug. 17 from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. at Our Savior Lutheran Church.

The Heroes Unite, It's About Life campaign began May 1st and continues through September 30. With about three months of the Heroes Unite, It's About Life campaign yet to go, many communities still have the opportunity to hold additional blood drives, and potentially affect their ranking a great deal. Community support and participation is integral to the success of this program, as blood donors are working hand in hand with fire, rescue and police units in town to save lives.

"We have witnessed area patients and their families that are experiencing tough times as they deal with illness or injury, and these struggles happen on a daily basis. We, as citizens, can guarantee blood is available when patients need it by supporting a blood drive and participating in Heroes Unite," said Terry Stecker, Director of Operations for Siouxland Paramedics.

To date, the top ten communities include: Nebraska: Wayne, Pender;

Carroll hosts softball tournament

"The Carroll softball tournament was a hot one on Saturday, July 21," said Diana Mason, one of the organizers of the event.

Only four teams competed, but they were very even in the double elimination tournament. The White Dog team ended up winning and donated their winnings back to the ball association.

The four teams involved were: White Dog of Wayne; Orange Crush of Wayne; Farmers State Bank of Carroll and Casey Electric of Wayne.

"We hope to make the tournament an annual affair so be sure to put it on your calendar next year," Davis said.

Top readers announced

In conjunction with the Wayne Public Library's second session of the Summer Reading Program, the top readers have been announced.

Readers could sign up for the number of books read or the amount of time spent reading.

Monster attacks Babcock Memorial Stage Race

Elkhorn Valley Cycling powered by Monster garnered top spots in several classes in the seventh annual Dave Babcock Memorial Stage race July 27 and 28. The stage race consisted of three individual races with combined times determining the overall winner.

The individual events were a road race and time trial, held on the roads northwest of Omaha, and a criterium using the Old Market area in downtown Omaha as its venue. Complete results are available by visiting: www.nencycling.org/resources/EVCC/2007_dbmsr_results_day_2.pdf

The event is promoted by the Nebraska Medical Center/Team Kaos cycling team with all proceeds going to the Dave Babcock Memorial Research Fund.

Dan Schult of Doniphan took home gold in the Men's Category 5 division with top 10 finishes in the road race and criterium. Schult, a time trial specialist, used his huge winning margin in that event to win the overall. Schult is looking to upgrade to Category 4 and said, "I think it's time. I can time trial with the 4's and I am anxious to go to the next level." Alex Waugh of Norfolk, also competed in the Men's Category 5 races.

Richard Hake of Madison, continued his dominance over the Men's Cat 5 55+ division with a 3rd overall in the combined Cat 5 Masters division and 1st in his age group. The Masters finish had a 35+ rider in first, a 45+ rider in second, and a 55+ rider (Hake) in third.

In Men's Category 4, the weekend's largest field with 27 entries, John Spray and Duane Blair, both of Norfolk, strung together consistent performances in all three stages to take 8th and 10th respectively. "I felt better as the race went on," said Spray of his 5th place finish in a brutal 45 minute criterium that saw a good percentage of the field get lapped by the leaders. Blair also used his time trial skill to keep him in contention and overcame a mechanical in the crit to keep his chances alive for the weekend.

Joe Savoie of Omaha, one of the most well-liked riders in Cat 4, gutted out the weekend as did Team Director Dan Spray of Norfolk. Savoie finished 14th and Spray 21st overall. Clayton Spray took home honors in the Kid's Race, racing on the same tough course as his father, Dan Spray, did in the criterium. Logan Schult of Doniphan finished third in the kids race.

NECC to offer nurse aide course

Northeast Community College has scheduled a three-credit-hour Basic Nurse Aide course to begin in late August in South Sioux City.

Basic Nurse Aide, with course number HLTH 1110-01S/07F, begins Monday, Aug. 20 and ends Thursday, Oct. 11. The class will meet every Monday, Tuesday, and Thursday from 8:30 a.m. - noon in Room 111 of Northeast's South Sioux City Education Center at 3309 Daniels Lane in the Westside Business Park.

Students in this three-credit-hour or 76-contact-hour class will learn the skills necessary to administer responsible health care to the ill and aged in nursing homes and long-term care facilities under qualified supervision.

Cost of this three-credit-hour Basic Nurse Aide class is $219 for Nebraska residents. Non-resident tuition and fees are $265.50. Books are not included.

To register, call Pam Miller at Northeast Community College at (402)241-6400.

Wayne County Fair 2007

The photos on this page are a sample of the the activities and events that took place at this year's Wayne County Fair. From patriotic ceremonies each evening, to large crowds, tractor pulls, events for young and old, the traditional demolition derby and barbecue and carnival games and rides, thousands of people from throughout the area found something of interest. More fair photos, as well as 4-H and open class results will be included in the Aug. 9 edition of the Herald.

Main Street Focus

Some of the people we did not have room to acknowledge in our last column that helped with Henoween and the Chicken Show were the City of Wayne workers who transported tables to downtown and then to the park, who made sure that there were garbage containers on all the corners in downtown Wayne and who were generally terrific about helping at both activities.

At our last meeting we found out that the City Council decided not to purchase waste receptacles for the downtown area upon a recommendation from the maintenance department of the city. The maintenance people thought that they were not picking up any more waste on Main Street than when there were receptacles on the light poles. Some people are disappointed, and if you are among those that are disappointed, please let your city council person know your feelings. Downtown looks great and our city maintenance people do a great job policing up and watering the flower containers each morning.

The ballots have been sent for future Board members, not only for the Main Street Board, but also for the Chamber and Wayne Industries Boards. If you are a WAEDI paid up member, you should have received these in the mail and you should get them back to the WAEDI office by the time limit.

In other WAEDI business discussed at our meeting, and a topic we will discuss at greater length at our next meeting, is an assessment of $4,000 to each of the three organizations under the direction of WAEDI. We were told that this was necessary to meet the budget of WAEDI for this year because a number of members from the previous year did not renew their membership. Also there are businesses and organizations who have never joined. There are a number of advantages of having an organization such as WAEDI in our community and all businesses and organizations could surely find a membership that they can afford. If you are not satisfied with WAEDI, why not sit down with their officers and board to discuss your concerns, but don't just walk away from the organization that can have a big impact on our community and aid in its growth and progress. One bit of wisdom that I learned a long time ago from my father was that if you are not satisfied with an organization, get involved and make the changes you think need to be made.

At our last meeting Wes Blecke told us that the Walking Design Workshop with the UNL Architectural professor and students will be held on Wednesday, Aug. 15 from approximately 11:30 a.m. to 1 p.m. It will be a walking workshop around town with comments from the architect and his students about what certain businesses in town can do to improve their "front of business" look.

We also told us about attending the Iowa Main Street Fall Workshop in Council Bluffs with the Nebraska people breaking away for two days and housing in Omaha. This will be held the last week in August and more information is forthcoming on this event.

The Promotions Committee is wrapping up the odds and ends as well as the financial aspects of Henoween. They and all of the Main Street volunteers extend their thanks to Western Watts for the contribution to help pay for the Main Stage Show at Henoween and the Chicken Show. This committee is working with TEAM Wayne on a Ladies Night Out which will be held at the City Auditorium on Monday evening, Oct. 1. Their plans are ambitious and they seem to be putting together a program that will be beneficial and educational to women.

The next meeting of Main Street Wayne will be held at 8 a.m. on Tuesday, Aug. 7 at the Main Street Office in the 200 Block of Main Street. The opening part of the meeting will be the monthly board meeting and this will be followed by the twice monthly All-Hands meeting. All interested people and volunteers are invited.

Capitol View

'Anything can be used against you'

By Ed Howard
Statehouse Correspondent
The Nebraska Press Association

Part of it is that District Judge Kristine Cecava apparently was sick that day. She must have come down with a raging dose of dumb.

That's probably why she forgot what every judge should remember when speaking from the bench.

"Anything you say can and will be used against you in a court of public opinion."

Cecava has been sentenced by the court of public opinion to an indeterminate term of scorn because she was thinking out loud about the wrong stuff when she sentenced self-acknowledged child molester Richard Thompson to intense, supervised probation.

The fact that the Nebraska Court of Appeals recently said Cecava acted within her legitimate authority, under the law, does not carry much weight among the countless jurors in the court of public opinion.

The court of public opinion, as mentioned previously in this space, often dispenses blind injustice. There are no rules of evidence, your opponent can inflame a statewide jury that includes politicians, and there is little chance of rehabilitating a reputation regardless of the facts. Truth is not an absolute defense. Objections from the accused are seldom entertained.

During Thompson's sentencing, Cecava commented about his physical stature, he stands about 5-0, and suggested it could add to his difficulties if sent to the state pen.

Bingo!
The fact that the prosecutor had cut a deal with Thompson, and made no sentencing recommendation, was missed when the bomb went off and shock waves bounced across the nation's talk-show airwaves and headlines.

The fact that the law allowed for Thompson's sentence of probation was virtually overlooked. The facts of the case, the pre-sentence reports that were essential evaluations of Thompson, and the prosecutor's standing silent about sentencing, all contributed to the sentence.

A cry went up among the masses that no child molester should receive probation.

Unfortunately, or otherwise, critics will spend a lot of time throwing philosophical rocks at Cecava - when that time could be much better used by looking to lawmakers.

Without endorsing or condemning the idea, the view from here is that those who want mandatory sentences for whatever sort of crimes need to tell policymakers.

It is easier, and often invigorating, to point at a judge or a lawyer and demand their professional blood with a cry of "There's the problem!"

If the public thinks that judges misinterpret the law, or bend it, it's fine for the public to holler about it. Actually, it's a good idea.

But complaining is no more than a first step when change is the goal.

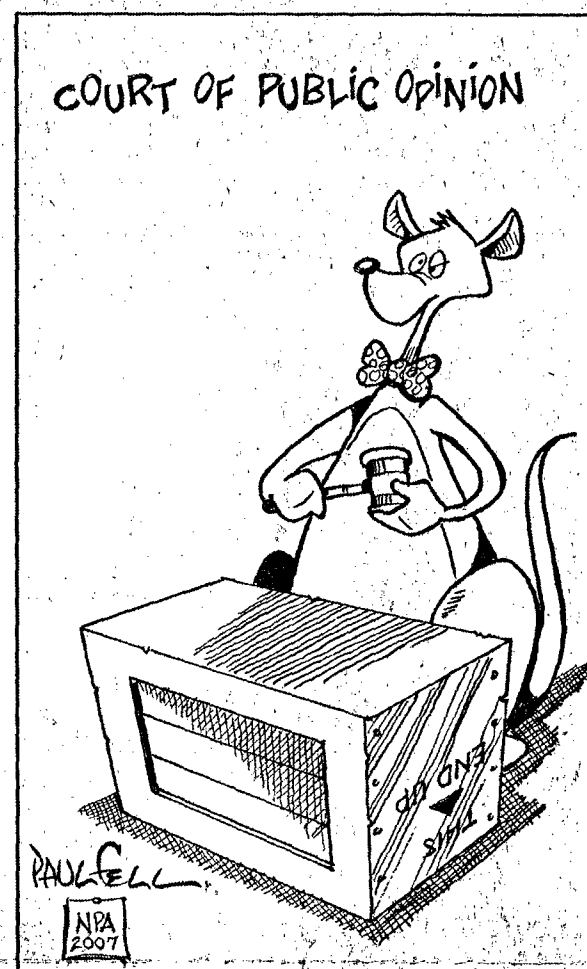

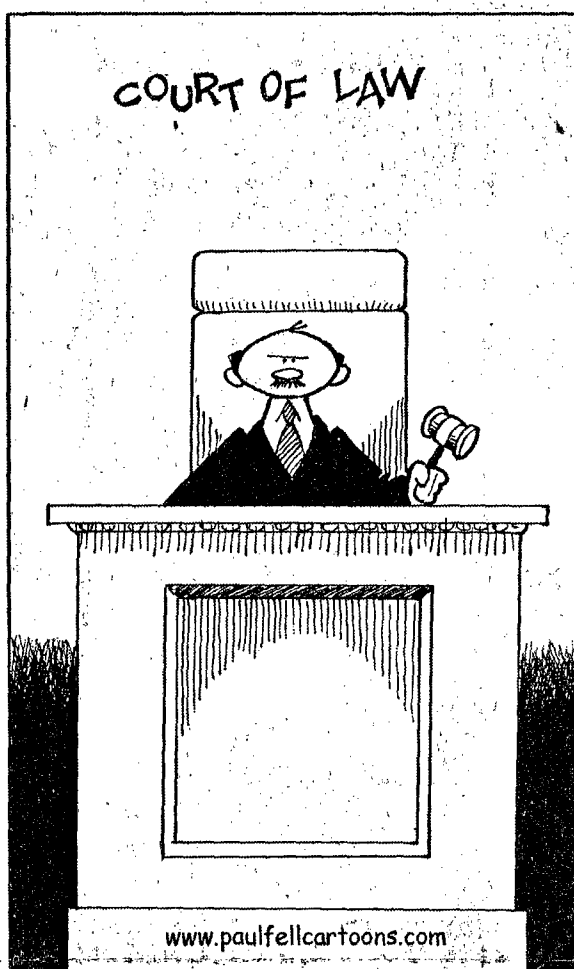

A favorite observation: Democracy is not a spectator sport.

When some among the citizenry want change in public policy, their duty is to take that desire to elected lawmakers.

The complainants might win, and they might lose. Their ideas, whether fine or folly, should be evaluated in the market place of ideas.

Of course, there always is the possibility that some lawmakers will stampede to change any law, regardless of need, in the face of political fear rather than facts.

That's another story, but one still based on the fear of indictment by that often unforgiving court of public opinion.

SBA joins HOBY for second annual Forum

The U.S. Small Business Administration and the Hugh O'Brian Youth Leadership (HOBY) have teamed for a second year to provide an International Business and Entrepreneurship program at HOBY's 2007 World Leadership Congress (WLC).

The second annual youth entrepreneurship forum was presented to 425 high school students who were brought together for an intense nine-day conference that includes leadership, international governance, career development, community service, innovative technology, and business and entrepreneurship as key areas of focus. The WLC youth participants represent each of the 50 U.S. states, and 20 countries.

"The SBA is pleased to partner for a second year with Hugh O'Brian Youth Leadership to help expand the possibilities of entrepreneurship and to build leadership skills that will help to elevate our next generation of world leaders," said Anoop Prakash, associate administrator for the SBA's Entrepreneurial Development arm.

HOBY began in 1958 under the leadership of TV actor and humanitarian Hugh O'Brian with the purpose of providing leadership development opportunities to educate and empower tomorrow's young leaders.

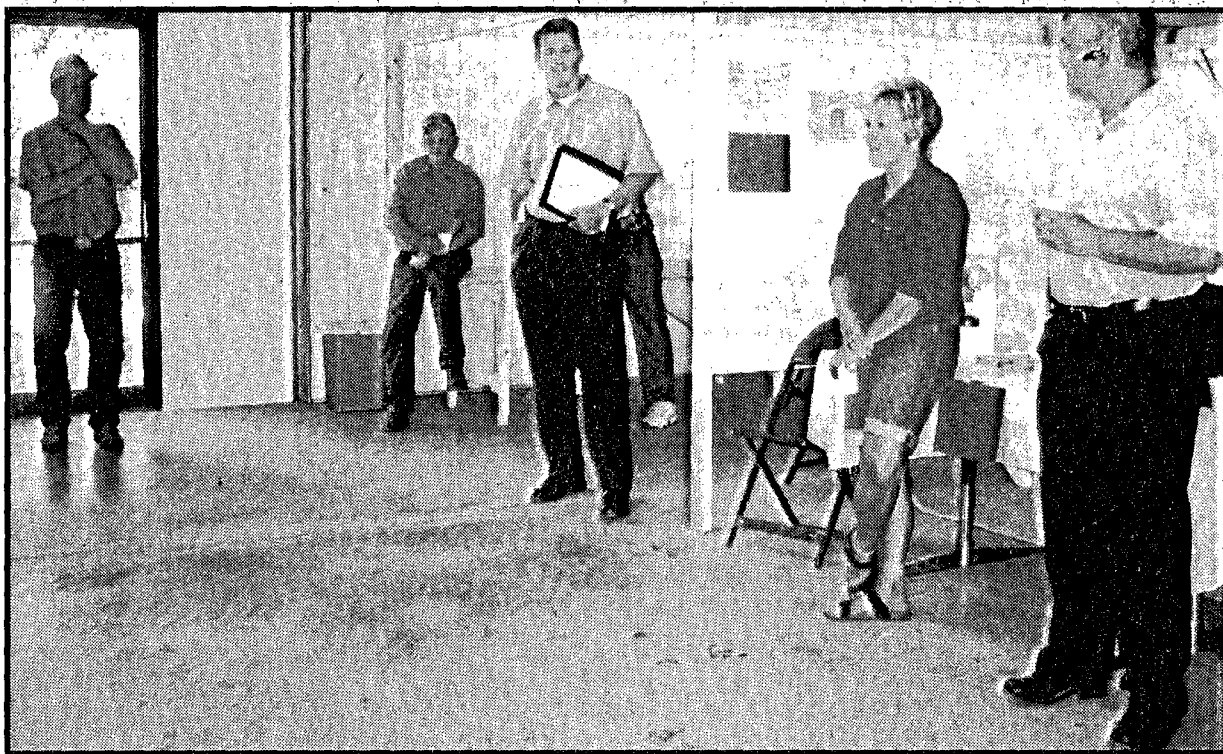

This year's WLC began on July 19, 2007, and continued through July 27, 2007. July 22 was dedicated to the International Business and Entrepreneurship forum, highlighting the cutting-edge business tool used by corporate America - mind mapping - to help tap into the entrepreneurship skills of the youth participants. The one-day session also focused on exploring key issues and opportunities for youth entrepreneurship worldwide.

It included keynote speakers and an interactive panel discussion.

The International Business and Entrepreneurship forum was held at the George Washington University Center for Entrepreneurial Excellence. SBA's participation in this cosponsorship does not constitute an express or implied endorsement of the views, opinions, products or services of any cosponsor or other person or entity. All SBA programs, services and cosponsored activities are extended to the public on a nondiscriminatory basis.

Budget process for fiscal year 2008 explained

By Lois Shelton,
Wayne Mayor

It is once again budget time at the City of Wayne offices.

I know that the process of spending those millions of dollars is not always well understood. The council finds itself with truly little that they can control, so much is tied to personnel costs.

The initial question becomes "can we live on the same property tax asking as the previous year? can we decrease the levy? or do we truly need to generate more funds to maintain the quality of service that the taxpayers have come to expect.

Several years ago the council had determined that the city's portion of the mil levy should be reduced and there was only one way to accomplish that. We went through a very painful process of assessing our staffing levels to determine where we might be over-staffed.

We discovered ways for our employees to assist each other, even in other departments, which allowed us to trim a few positions and create a more efficient operation. Some services may have suffered a bit, but things do get done. We have found the use of independent contractors to be of great value in many areas where there is need of expertise for only short periods of time.

No one enjoys paying taxes, but we all have come to expect that certain services will be provided for us and indeed there are many that only a larger entity can provide. The city is charged with providing for the health and welfare of the public that lives within the corporate limits - things such as police and fire protection, water, sewer and transportation routes. The other services are amenities that could be cut if the budget became restrictive enough.

So, the council is charged with finding that balance between what the taxpayers are willing to spend and what they are willing to give up.

If you are interested in seeing the process in action, mark down Friday evening, Aug. 17 and Saturday, Aug. 18 on your calendars and come listen to the deliberative process as it occurs. You'll learn where you tax dollars go.

Fifty years of agricultural excellence

Greetings Wayne Herald readers! My name is Natalie Sukup, UNL Extension Intern in Cedar County, and student ambassador for the College of Agricultural Sciences and Natural Resources. As the summer comes to an end, which will not be long, important events are approaching. Events that come to mind might be county fairs, school start up and the 50th Anniversary of the Haskell Agricultural Laboratory in Concord. Located one and a half miles east of Concord sits the Northeast Research and Extension Center.

Excellence in research and outreach will soon be honored, as the Haskell Agricultural Laboratory will be celebrating its 50th anniversary on Aug. 14. This significant day marks the start of outreach in research and extension for the 28 counties it serves in northeast Nebraska.

Haskell has undergone many changes to become the valuable resource it is today. Beginning in the early 1950's rural citizens organized the Northeast Nebraska Experimental Farm.

Citizens were soon able to fund the farm by raising money through fundraisers and memberships along with a generous donation of 320 acres of land by Mr. and Mrs. C.D. Haskell of Laurel. This significant resource has been pioneering new frontiers since 1957 when the University of Nebraska - Lincoln obtained possession of the 320 acres of land. Soon after the name was changed to Northeast Nebraska Experiment Station.

Beginning with such programs as forestry and beef cattle research, several programs have been added to diversify the flow of information the center has been able to research and distribute. The 1960's boomed with new extension programs in dairy, soil fertility, farm management and 4-H Youth Development just to name a few. In 1998 the facility was renamed Haskell Agricultural Laboratory in honor of the philanthropic donors. Today, Haskell continues to undergo program enhancing to better reach every need of northeast Nebraska.

After this journey down memory lane, naturally a 50th birthday is reason to celebrate! Haskell will be hosting an unforgettable birthday party, that everyone of all ages is invited to. Events for the whole family begin at 8:30 a.m. and continue late into the afternoon. To hand out just a taste of the "activity birthday cake" available, several tours will be given in the morning including the Arboretum, Riparian buffer, and livestock facilities.

Information will be available on building strong families, organics, grazing, and of course UNL student recruitment. Workshops for kids and adults will be continuing throughout the day including career exploration, Robotics, flower drying and water testing. Influential speakers will include the NU President J.B. Milliken, IANR Vice Chancellor John Owens, NU Regent Chuck Hassebrook and State Senator Mike Flood.

With the opportunity to learn and have fun, it wouldn't be a birthday without gifts, right? Throughout the day 100 trees, Soy doughnuts, Koozies and many other items will be given away. No one will go home hungry from this party with the free Prime Rib lunch, which will be served in conjunction with the activities.

It goes unsaid that outreach is a vital part of growth and understanding in not only our own personal use, but that of thriving businesses, organizations, and the stability of our communities and state.

As a current student of Horticulture at the University of Nebraska - Lincoln, I can greatly appreciate the service that this research center offers. I myself have utilized the resources this facility distributes to the public and strongly encourage others to take advantage of the opportunities they offer. I invite everyone to thank Haskell for 50 years of service by attending the unforgettable free day of fun and celebration. I hope to see you all there!

Winside auxiliary prepare for upcoming events

President Pat Miller presided over the July 9 meeting of the Winside Post #252 American Legion Auxiliary.

Chaplain Adeline Anderson opened with prayer and the nine members in attendance recited the Pledge of Allegiance and the Preamble, followed with singing of "The Star Spangled Banner."

The business meeting was held with the secretary's and treasurer's reports being approved as read.

Pictures of active duty service personnel, their rank, branch of service and their location are needed to go on display at the Winside State Bank.

Beverly Neel reported on the Department Convention with National President JoAnn Cronin from Imperial, Mo. speaking to the delegation and thanking the members for their continued support given on behalf of the "American Legion Family" to Community, Children and Youth and Veterans.

Newly elected Department President is Gayla Schmid of Bellwood, Vice-President Marva Kasl of Dorchester, Historian Carol Ulrich from Wakefield and Chaplain Charlean Wallers of Weeping Water. The Department theme is "God Bless the USA", the symbol is "Uncle Sam" and the membership theme, "Veterans-Our Soul and Inspiration."

The evening meeting continued with installation of the Post #252 Auxiliary officers with Rose Janke as President, Greta Grubbs-Treasurer, Adeline Anderson as Chaplain and Judy Jacobsen as installing officer.

Girls Staters, Heather Wylie and Michaela Staub and their families will be invited to the Monday, Aug. 13 meeting and will join the auxiliary in a salad luncheon.

Greta Grubbs announced the upcoming Saturday, Aug. 13 Winside Community Garage Sale at $10/table to benefit the Auditorium renovation fund.

Rose Janke, Beverly and Laura Neel and Junior members entered a patriotic float in the Hoskins 4th of July parade.

Pat Miller was recognized with "thanks" for her contribution as past President of the Auxiliary. The meeting was adjourned and closed with prayer. Beverly Neel was the lunch hostess.

Briefly Speaking

Summer bridge luncheon held

AREA - The Summer Bridge Club ladies luncheon was held July 31 with 24 attending. Bridge was played at six tables.

Hostesses were Faye Peck and Norma Backstrom. Winners last week were Leslie Hausmann and Sandra Emry, tie for high.

Hostesses next week will be Nancy Jo Powers and Fauneil Bennett. For reservations call Nancy at 375-2391 or Fauneil at 375-3542.

Legion auxiliary conducts July meeting

The Irvin L. Sears Unit #43 met July 2 at the Wayne Vets Club Room.

Past District President Eveline Thompson opened the meeting with colors in place. The POW/MIA flag was placed in the empty chair and prayer was read. Chaplain Shirley Tietgen gave the opening prayer for peace, followed by the Pledge of Allegiance to the flag. The Unit Citation preamble to the Constitution of the American Legion Auxiliary.

Five members answered roll call and there were four guests present, Department Historian Carol Ulrich, Jessica Olson, National Assistant Adjutant Harold E. Thompson, Jr. and Layne Beza, from the AmVets.

The secretary's minutes were read and approved. The treasurer's report was read and filed.

The auxiliary received a thank you card from the Ethel Johnson family for a memorial donation that was given to the church.

Layne Beza from AmVets Post

#22 spoke to the group on the consolidation of all the veterans' auxiliaries to meet together.

Eveline Thompson gave a report on the Department Convention that was held in Columbus in June.

The group voted to change by-law Article IV, Section 4 from seven to "three members shall constitute a quorum at any meeting of the unit." It will be read again at the next two meetings.

Membership Chairman Eveline Thompson reported seven paid-up members for 2008. Membership dues are due at the present time.

Chaplain Shirley Tietgen gave the closing prayer. The members had the Little Red Schoolhouse March for Nurses Scholarship fund.

Past President Eveline Thompson closed the meeting, to re-open Monday, Aug. 6 at 7 p.m. at the Wayne Vets Club.

Jean Lutt served lunch at the meeting. Mabel Sommerfeld will serve at the next meeting.

VFW auxiliary meets in Wayne

Llewellyn B. Whitmore Post #5291 Ladies Auxiliary met July 9 at the Sunnyview Community Room.

President Glennadine Barker called the meeting to order. This was a regular meeting, which was opened in accordance to ritual.

The opening ceremonies were held, after which the minutes were read and approved.

The treasurer's report was read by Treasurer Eveline Thompson.

General Orders No. 1 were read. Excerpts from "The Sparkler" were read, noting that the July Council meeting was to be held in Columbus July 27-28.

Department President Sue Ann Busing's theme this year is "True Patriotism comes from Hearts... We Shall Always Care."

The VFW will give a one hour presentation at the July Council to explain the IRS and how it will affect each Post and Auxiliary.

The auxiliary received a letter from District 3 Secretary Karen Deets with the District 3 minutes.

Kraft Pillow Cleaning will be held Friday, Sept. 14 at the Eveline Thompson residence, sponsored by VFW Auxiliary #5291.

Membership Chairman Eveline Thompson reported that there are 10 paid up members for the year 2008. Membership dues are no due. They are $15 per member. No dues notices are being sent out for national.

The Bingo and Birthday party for the veterans at the Norfolk Veterans Home was held July 25. There were 18 birthdays in the month of July. Those attending were Eddie and Verna Mae Baier, Glennadine Barker, Eveline Thompson and Harold E. Thompson, Jr.

Closing ceremonies were conducted in accordance with ritual. Verna Mae Baier gave the closing prayer.

The next meeting will be held Monday, Aug. 13 at the Sunnyview Community Room at 2 p.m.

The members had a salad luncheon following the meeting.

NECC class to teach parents positive discipline methods

Parents of children up to five years of age will learn positive discipline tactics in a three-session class being offered by Northeast Community College in South Sioux City.

The class, Positive Discipline for Parents of Children Ages 1-5, is set for Thursdays, Aug. 9-23 from 7-8:30 p.m. in Room 118 of the Education Center at 3309 Daniels Lane in the Westside Business Park.

Cobler - Jensen are married in Wyoming

Jessica Cobler of Guernsey, Wyo. and Kevin Jensen of Casper, Wyo., formerly of Winside, were married July 7, 2007 at Bridal Trail, an outdoor waterfall in the mountains.

Dan York officiated at the 2 p.m. ceremony.

Parents of the couple are Lana and Jerry Kramer and the late Bruce Cobler of Guernsey, Wyo. and Wayne and Darlene Jensen of Winside.

Given in marriage by her brother, Creed Cabler, the bride wore a strapless satin gown. The white, floor-length gown was covered with rhinestones. She carried a bouquet of pink and yellow lilies, carnations and baby's breath.

Tiania Jensen of Norfolk, the daughter of the groom, was both flower girl and bridesmaid.

Brian Synder of Casper, Wyo., friend of the couple, was Bestman.

The groom wore a white tuxedo. Following the ceremony a lawn party was held in Casper.

Hosts were friends of the bride from Casper.

The wedding cake was cut by the bride and groom.

Following a wedding trip to Ceyenne, Wyo. and Denver, Colo.,

Mr. and Mrs. Jensen

the couple is at home in Casper.

The bride earned a CED from Eastern Wyoming College in 2001. She is employed with Samuels Jewelry in Casper.

The groom graduated from Wayne High School in 2000. He is employed with Weatherford Drilling and Intervention Service in Casper.

Emergency loans available

Farm Service Agency (FSA) Wayne County Office announced that family farmers in 44 Nebraska counties who suffered physical or production losses due to damages and losses caused by severe storms and flooding that occurred on May 28, 2007 through June 2, 2007 may be eligible for Farm Service Agency (FSA) Emergency (EM) loans.

The 15 Nebraska counties that were declared a disaster area became eligible for disaster assistance due to a Presidential Major Disaster Declaration signed on July 24.

The primary counties named are: Buffalo, Custer, Dawson, Frontier, Greeley, Hayes, Hitchcock, Howard, Kearney, Lincoln, Logan, Loup, Madison, Valley and Wheeler.

In addition, 29 additional Nebraska counties became eligible for this assistance because they are contiguous to one or more of the primary designated counties. These counties are: Adams, Antelope, Blaine, Boone, Brown, Chase, Dundy, Franklin, Furnas, Garfield, Gosper, Hall, Harlan, Holt, Keith, McPherson, Merrick, Nance, Perkins, Phelps, Pierce, Platte, Red Willow, Rock, Sherman, Stanton, Thomas, Wayne and Webster.

Family farmers interested in finding out if they are eligible should contact either Debra Pieper, County Executive Director or Mark Moser, Farm Loan Manager, for information. They can be reached Monday through Friday between 8 a.m. and 4 p.m. at the Farm Service Agency, 709 Providence Road, Wayne, Neb. 68787-1514 or (402) 375-2453, ext. 2.

Emergency loan applications are available and must be submitted through the local FSA county office from any applicant who qualifies for a physical or production loss (at least 30 percent reduction from normal) in a single enterprise from this disaster in the counties. To qualify for an EM loan, an applicant must be an established family farm operator; provide evidence of having suffered a qualifying physical or production loss; be unable to obtain suitable credit from a source other than FSA. The low interest loans may cover up to 100 percent of their actual production losses, up to a maximum amount of $500,000. The applicants must show ability to repay the loan and the loan must be adequately secured. FSA loans for production losses may be used to buy feed, seed, fertilizer, livestock or refinance certain debts. FSA loans for physical losses may be used to repair or replace the property that was damaged for lost.

The current interest rate for EM loans is 3.75 percent. The deadline for submitting applications is March 24, 2008.

In addition to the Emergency (EM) Loan Program, FSA has other Direct or Guaranteed Farm Operating and Farm Ownership Loan Programs, which can be considered in assisting farmers to recover from their losses. Additional information about FSA Farm Loan Programs is available at www.fsa.usda.gov/dafl.

Hansen to be State Fair Grand Marshal

Robert Hansen of Wayne has been selected to serve as Grand Marshal for the Nebraska State Fair parade on Thursday, Aug. 30 as it winds its way through the State Fairgrounds.

A record breaking 289,000 visitors from across the state attended the 2006 Nebraska State Fair. The 11 day fair features more than 500 vendor booths, a free Open Air concert series, five stages of entertainment, livestock shows, agricultural equipment and a showcase of 4-H and FFA livestock and exhibits.

The Wayne County Ag Society made the nomination of Hansen for his service of over 50 years to the Fairboard. His association with the fair began as a young man when he started showing hogs. A lot has changed since then, but Hansen stays current on all the new rules and regulations in showing live-

Looking for area artists for annual art show

The Moorhead Cultural Center is looking for area artists for the annual "Celebrate the Hills Art Show." This year the exhibit begins Aug. 31 through Oct. 28. This popular annual art event invites participants using any medium to enter their work and be eligible for awards. The entry fee of $15 entitles the artist to enter a total of 3 original works. The deadline for registration is Aug. 17. For more information you can contact Paula Greene at 712-884-2631.

The Moorhead Cultural Center is open each Friday, Saturday and Sunday afternoon from 1-4 p.m. or by appointment by calling 712-884-2631. The facility is handicapped accessible, air conditioned and admission is free.

Northeast offices to close Aug. 15 for fall in-service; bookstore open

All offices at Northeast Community College in Norfolk and its education centers in South Sioux City, West Point, and O'Neill will be closed on Wednesday, Aug. 15 from 8 a.m.-1 p.m. so faculty and staff can attend the fall in-service.

However, the college bookstore on the campus in Norfolk will be open.

Grandchildren's baseball games easier and cheaper than going to Kansas City Royals

It's the end of the second month of summer, hopefully, one of the last hot, dry weeks. We did have a shower on Saturday, but we could use a really long rainy day.

The Big Farmer is watching the high school all star basketball game; there are a lot of familiar names playing in it: Marcus Messersmith, Max Froehlich, Austin Wells, Scott Heng, Tyler Peterson from Louisville and Brett Shively. Oh, and coach Rocky Ruhl. It's the last hurrah for these kids before taking off for college and trying to make the team there. Some played in the Shrine football game on Saturday, also.

We were watching a game on Saturday, but it was baseball. Mike has been following the Kansas City Royals much more faithfully since Alex Gordon has been there. He kept their schedule and started talking about maybe taking in a home game. So, Jon got us some tickets and we headed down I-29 on Saturday morning.

I'm out of the habit of traveling on the interstate and the semi trucks bug me, but we made it to Jon's in time for lunch. He drove us to the ball park, thankfully, as all that merging traffic across town makes me nervous. Of course, it makes me nervous to sit in the back seat and watch him drive it, too! I don't know which is worse.

We hadn't been to Kaufmann Stadium since about 1993. It is still one of the most beautiful in the league, with all those fountains. A cold front came in before the start of the game and we were under an

By: Pat Meierhenry

overhang, so it was totally comfortable. There was a good crowd, 27,000, and everyone was having a good time. I do think, though, that some folks come just to eat. And the prices for food and drink make me gasp; in fact, it cost $9 to get in the gate and park! It makes me grateful for Hawks Field.

The lion with the crown showed up in our territory and posed for pictures with the little kids; and the camera man wandered around, trying to catch spectators off guard. He had on a shirt that said "my name is Bob, not hey, camera guy!"

Alex had a great game the night before, with a double, a triple, and a homer. He didn't do that again on Saturday. Sammy Sosa was DH for Texas, and struck out every time he came up to bat. Kansas City pulled it out, 6 to 5.

Then, it was the task of getting out of that parking lot. I again had to clench my teeth and say a few prayers as we headed back onto that giant highway. On Sunday, we decided to come home on Kansas 73. Four lane part of the way, good road, no trucks and lots of scenery. We had never been by the federal prison at Leavenworth; it looks like a huge gray fortress. Crops in Kansas generally look like they have had rain.

We were in Falls City by 6:30, home by 8. We know we are getting old because our own bed felt so good last night. Now, it's time to check the basketball score and take the daily walk. Think I will stick to grandchildren's baseball, though, it's easier to get to and much cheaper.

Livestock Market Report

The Nebraska Livestock Market had a run of 344 fat cattle at Thursday's sale.

Tree problems showing up throughout the area

Due to fairly humid conditions, there are a number of fungal leaf diseases in evergreens and broadleaf trees. In almost all cases, fungicide applications will do little to control the disease at this time of year. Fungicides need to be applied just prior to and during the infection period for foliar diseases, which is usually during rainy spring seasons.

While leaf diseases can cause a large amount of defoliation and make a tree look quite sick, they rarely kill a tree in one season. If control is needed, wait until next spring to apply fungicides. Begin just as the tree is leafing out and repeat applications according to label directions as long as the weather remains wet.

Most fungal leaf diseases cause leaf spots or blighting of foliage. Infected leaves often turn yellow or brown and drop from the tree. As long as the tree retains quite a few healthy green leaves, photosynthesis will continue and trees are not seriously harmed in the long run. The most common leaf diseases are apple scab and cedar apple rust on apple and crabapples; ash rust in green and white ash trees; and anthracnose in walnut, maple and oak trees. There are a number of cultivars of apple and crabapple resistant to these two diseases and these should be planted in place of susceptible cultivars.

and Austrian pine are showing the most needle disease. Each disease is different disease because pathogens are host specific. This means if an Austrian pine growing next to a Spruce is infected with a disease, the disease cannot infect the Spruce and vice versa.

Dothistroma needle blight is common on Austrian pine. It causes needles near the lower half of the tree to turn brown.

On close inspection, you will find red or purple lesions (spots) on the needles and browning will have occurred from the tip of the needle down to a lesion, with the base of the needle remaining green for a short period.

Rhizosphaera needle cast of Spruce causes infected needles to turn yellowish and then a reddish or purplish brown. The disease is more common near the lower half of the tree and one year old needles are usually infected first.

If left uncontrolled, both of these evergreen diseases will slowly work their way up the tree. How quickly this happens depends upon weather conditions. It is wise to control these diseases or the wind-break and ornamental value of these two evergreens will be affected.

The time when fungicides will be effective in reducing these diseases is during spring. The first application should be made when the new shoots are about half grown, usually in May. A second application should be applied three to four weeks following the first.

Industry applauds changes in SBA's Surety Bond Guarantee Program

The U.S. Small Business Administration has taken a number of steps to reinvigorate its Surety Bond Guarantee Program and make it easier for small businesses to obtain bonds. The new rules published in the Federal Register establish a more flexible pricing structure, allowing Preferred Surety Bond Sureties to charge current state rates rather than being locked into rates that, set under and required by the former regulations, had become outdated and unwieldy over time. Corporate surety bonds protect the project owner against financial loss, and in the case of public construction projects, protect taxpayer dollars should the contractor default.

The new rules, published Sept. 26, 2006 in the Federal Register, were designed to improve operation of the agency's surety bond guarantee program and make it easier for sureties and small business concerns to participate. The new rules reduce the frequency of audits previously required of Preferred Surety Bond (PSB) Sureties; obligate SBA to guarantee 90 percent of the loss incurred by a prior approval surety on bonds issued on behalf of small businesses owned and controlled by veterans, and Service-disabled veterans; impose a 60-day deadline for the submission of surety fees to SBA; allow PSB sureties to charge premiums in accordance with applicable state ceilings; delete an existing reference to the expiration of the PSB Program; and allow affiliates of a PSB Surety to participate in the prior approval program.

This rule takes effect July 25, 2007. Industry associations have commended SBA for promulgating the rule and SBA looks forward to encouraging sureties and agents to actively participate in the program.

Through the Surety Bond Guarantee Program, SBA guarantees bid, payment and performance bonds on contracts up to $2 million in value.

SBA also announced it is nearing completion of a new electronic bond application process. Small businesses and surety companies participating in the SBA prior approval program will be able to transmit application forms electronically to help expedite review and approval processes. In the past year SBA re-engineered the claims reimbursement process to shorten the cycle time between submission of a claim for reimbursement by a surety company and payment by the government.

SBA assistance in locating a participating surety company or agent and completing application forms is available online. For more information on SBA's Surety Bond Guarantee Program, go online to <http://www.sba.gov/osg/> for a list of area office contacts and SBA offices near your business or call 1-800-U-ASK-SBA.

Another class, Microsoft Excel Online, with course number OFFT 1520-90/07F or HawkNET Call #11378, will give students an introduction to using a worksheet for decision-making and mathematical calculations. Coan will also teach this class.

Introduction to Internet Online, with course number INFO 1700-90/07F or HawkNET Call #10977 and Diane Becker as the instructor, will teach students about the Internet, electronic mail, and using a web browser to navigate the World Wide Web.

All one-credit classes are $73 each. Students may register online at www.northeastcollege.com. Or, they may call (402)844-7265 to register.

Traffic stop leads to marijuana seizure

A routine traffic stop on Interstate-80 led to the seizure of 105 lbs of marijuana and the arrest of two California residents for Possession of Marijuana with Intent to Deliver.

Around 1:30 a.m. on Tuesday, July 31, a trooper with the Nebraska State Patrol Headquarters Troop - Lincoln stopped an eastbound 1993 Ford Ranger pickup for speeding near mile marker 403 on I-80. The trooper was given consent to search the vehicle.

During the search it was discovered that the bed of the pickup had been altered, and contained a false bed. A further search of the false bed resulted in the discovery of 105 lbs of marijuana. The marijuana was packaged in two-lb bundles.

The driver of the pickup 20-year-old Daniel A. Reynoso of Monte Bell, California and a passenger in the pickup, 25-year-old Samuel Ariel Lopez, of Riverside, Calif., were taken into custody and lodged in the Lancaster County Jail, each on a charge of Possession of Marijuana with Intent to Deliver.

CHEERLEADERS FUNDRAISER

The 2007-08 Allen Cheerleaders are having a fund raiser. They will paint an Eagle in yellow with a blue AHS in the middle of it on your driveway or sidewalk. For a little extra you can get the words football, volleyball, basketball, or cheerleading put under the eagle or a word of your choice (maybe your son or daughter's name and number?)

This year's cheerleaders will be Beth Klaus, Jill Stallbaum, Leah Armour, and Heather Turney. Sponsoring this year are Carla Logue and Megan Kumm. For more information and pricing, please contact a cheerleader or one of the sponsors.

BOSWELL RESIGNS

Kathy Boswell recently resigned after serving 15 years as Dixon County's representative on the Selective Service Board. Each county has one trained person ready to serve on this board, should the military draft ever be reinstated. In that event, the Selective Service Board members would hear appeals from those draftees who feel they could not serve. If anyone in the county is interested in being on this board, contact Kathy.

FILM DROP OFF

The Cash Store is no longer sending in films to be developed. The new location to drop off your film to be processed is the Northeast Housing Initiative Office in the Allen Mini Mall. Their address is 110 E. 2nd Street #4 - Allen Mini Mall. Questions--Contact - Linda or Kellee at 402-635-2078.

NECC class in South Sioux City to explore starting a business

See if you are cut out to own your own business in a two-session, non-credit class being offered by Northeast Community College in South Sioux City.

The class, Starting Your Own Business, with course number DP 0304-08S/07F, meets Tuesday and Thursday, Aug. 14 and 16 from 11:30 a.m.-1 p.m. in Room 109 of the Education Center at 3309 Daniels Lane in the Westside Business Park.

This class will review good business ideas as participants ask themselves if they are willing to change habits to become a business owner. Students will learn that over 95 percent of Americans are either employed or self-employed. The other five percent are either business owners or investors. In this class, participants will learn if they are prepared to be part of that five percent.

Cost is $20 and a lunch is provided. To register, call the Northeast Community College Education Center in South Sioux City at (402)241-6400.

THANK YOU

I would like to thank Wayne Jaycees President Holly Doring, Chadd Frideres, Sandi Wachter, and the chapter for the governorship that I received at Nebraska Jaycee 2nd quarter convention.

I was surprised to say the least, and very honored to receive the highest honor that is given to a Nebraska Jaycee.

I know in my heart that this would not have been possible or deserving without the many members, past and present, in our local chapter, and throughout the state, which have helped me with my projects and events. This award is as much yours as it is mine.

To my family, thank you for always being there. Jaycees are an important part of my life, and words cannot express how I feel that you were there for me as I accepted this, except that I love you all very much.

Yours in Jaycees,
Matt Wachter, Governor #415
 Wayne County Jaycees

Thank You!

We would like to take this opportunity to thank all of our customers of the past 26 years for their support. As most people already know, we have sold our business to Natalie Endicott and we wish her all the best in her new endeavor. We hope that you continue to support her as you have supported us because it is important that young people coming into our community be given all the encouragement that they need to prosper.

We have been blessed to have been in a business where we have had the opportunity to be a part of so many families' lives and help them record their memories. This will be what we will miss the most.

This now opens a new chapter in our lives and we are excited for the change. We are not retiring, but moving on to something new. We look forward to what is in store for us and pray that God blesses all of you as He has blessed us.

Bill and Sue Jammer

SBA approves first loans under new Patriot Express Initiative

The U.S. Small Business Administration (SBA) recently announced that the agency and its network of lenders have already approved more than 20 loans under the Patriot Express Pilot Loan Initiative for military community entrepreneurs, rolled out one month ago.

Patriot Express is a streamlined loan product based on the agency's highly successful SBA Express Program, but with enhanced guaranty and interest rate characteristics.

"We have received a remarkable amount of support for Patriot Express from the lending and military communities since we launched the program one month ago," said SBA Administrator Steven Preston. "It is important for us to support those who have served our country, so I am particularly pleased by the quick turn around time it has taken us to begin processing and approving loans under the new program. This success shows government can work faster and better."

The first three veterans in the nation to be approved and vetted for the Patriot Express Loan guaranteed by the U.S. Small Business Administration are: Loan #1-$350,000 to veteran Matthew J. Lattig of Virginia, to start Charter Advisory Partners, LLC, from Sun Trust Bank of Atlanta, Ga. Loan #2-$100,000 to veteran Waldemar Medina of Connecticut, to start Walt Medina & Associates, LLC, from Webster Bank, National Association of Waterbury, CT. Loan #3-$60,000 to veteran Roger Stone, owner of Full Line Electric LLC, from The Bank of Missouri in Perryville, Mo.

Nearly 375 banks and lending institutions nationwide have already been approved to participate in Patriot Express, including many of SBA's largest lenders. SBA has many lenders in the approval process and continues to receive applications from lenders every day.

Patriot Express loans total more than $2 million dollars in the early stage of this initiative and range from $5,000 to $350,000 in individual loan amounts. Loans have already been approved in California, Connecticut, Florida, Missouri, New Mexico, Oregon, South Dakota, Texas, Virginia and Wyoming. After loan applications are approved by the bank, they are submitted to SBA for approval. Most applications are approved by SBA within 24-hours.

Loans are available up to $500,000 and qualify for SBA's maximum guaranty of up to 85 percent for loans of $150,000 or less and up to 75 percent for loans over $150,000 up to $500,000. For loans above $350,000, lenders are required to take all available collateral to secure the loan and may obtain collateral for smaller loans depending upon individual bank requirements.

Interest rate maximums for Patriot Express loans are the same as those for regular 7(a) loans: a maximum of prime + 2.25 percent for maturities under 7 years; prime + 2.75 percent for 7 years or more; Interest rates can be higher by 2 percent for loans of $25,000 or less; and 1 percent for loans between $25,000 and $50,000.

The Patriot Express initiative builds on the more than $1 billion in loans SBA guarantees annually for veteran-owned businesses, and the counseling assistance and procurement support it provides each year to more than 100,000 veterans, service-disabled veterans and Reserve members.

Patriot Express is available to military community members including veterans, service-disabled veterans, service members leaving active duty, Reservists and National Guard members, current spouses of any of the above, and the widowed spouse of a service member or veteran who died during service, or of a service-connected disability.

The Patriot Express Pilot Loan Initiative can be used for most business purposes. Details on the initiative can be found at www.sba.gov/patriotexpress.

Maskenthine XC Classic planned

Aug. 11 marks the debut of series mountain bike racing in Northeast Nebraska with the inaugural Maskenthine XC Classic, part of the 2007 Nebraska Lottery Pscycowpath MTB Series. The venue for this course will be the beautiful Maskenthine Lake Recreation area, just east of Norfolk and north of Stanton.

The Elkhorn Valley Cycling Club powered by Monster is promoting the race and also serves as the course stewards. The trail system was conceptualized in 2005 with the first phase completed in 2006. The second phase of the project was constructed in early 2007 realizing the goal of nearly five miles of continuous singletrack. The trail has a wide variety of terrain ranging from technical drops and off-camber turns to lung-testing climbs to wide-open prairie sections. Several downhill sections slalom through natural and hand-planted pines.

Those who have ridden at Maskenthine know that the area has always had potential as a destination mountain bike trail. Elkhorn Valley Cycling Club Trail Crew has been busy making that a reality. The trails are fully trimmed and mowed and the singletrack has been developed considerably in recent weeks. New riders to the area will be pleasantly surprised by the variety of terrain and high "enjoyment factor."

Mountain bike races always attract a wide variety of people and philosophies. Attendees range from seasoned veterans of bicycle racing to those looking for a way to interact with nature in a competitive but relaxed atmosphere. The Maskenthine XC Classic will be no exception. Racers vying for season points and prize money will be in attendance while classes for all comers will be held.

The day's schedule and classes are as follows: 10 a.m. (Estimated race time: 30-40 min.) 1. Beginner Men "Open;" 2. Beginner Men Masters 35+; 3. Beginner Men Masters 45+; 4. Beginner Men Clydesdale (200lbs.+) "Open;" 5. Beginner Women "Open;" 6. Junior Men 16-18; 7. Junior Men 13-15; 8. Junior Men 12 and under (children under the age of 10 can compete in the "Kids Race"); 9. Junior Women 16-18; 10. Junior Women 13-15; 11. Junior Women 12 and under (children under the age of 10 can compete in the "Kids Race"); 11:20 a.m. Kids Race (under 10 yrs old, parent/guardian must be present and sign waiver); 12 p.m. (Noon) All

Sport and Expert Fields; 1. Sport Men "Open;" 2. Sport Men Masters 35+; 3. Sport Men Masters 45+; 4. Sport Women "Open;" 5. Sport Men Clydesdale (200lbs.+) "Open;" 6. Singlespeed "Open;" 7. Pro/Semi-Pro "Open;" 8. Expert Men "Open;" 9. Expert Men Masters 35+; 4. Expert Women "Open."

The Kids race is a perennial favorite and all youth are invited to participate. Kids must have a helmet and a functioning bicycle to race. This event is permitted by the National Off Road Biking Association, part of USA Cycling, and trail project funds were granted to the Elkhorn Valley Cycling Club by the International Mountain Biking Association.

Maskenthine Lake Recreation Area, owned and operated by the Lower Elkhorn Valley Natural Resources District, offers modern and primitive campgrounds, picnic areas, running water, modern shower and toilet facilities, boat docks, and a swimming beach. The area is easily accessible via Highway 275 from the Omaha area and by way of Highways 15, 32 and 57 from the Lincoln region. Drive time is under two hours from eastern Nebraska and with highway construction starting to wind down the trip is much more enjoyable.

NECC is site of workshop on basic programmable logic controls

Northeast Community College, Central Community College and the Mechatronics Education Center (MEC) will partner to offer a three-day workshop at Northeast in Norfolk in August.

The workshop, Basic Programmable Logic Controls, is set for Tuesday, Aug. 14 through Thursday, Aug. 16 from 8 a.m. until 5 p.m. in Northeast's Lifelong Learning Center.

Cost of the three-day workshop is $450, but a stipend of $250 is available for each participant through the President's High Growth Job Training Mechatronics grant for qualifying industrial companies. Participant's final cost of $200 includes handouts and certificates of attendance.

Limited to 12 enrollees, this workshop is specially designed for those who use, specify or maintain PLC-based systems such as engineers, maintenance technicians, sales, or application personnel. A prerequisite is basic electricity and general knowledge of machine controls.

Topics of discussion will include generic PLC information, I/O hardware overview, introduction to binary number systems and logic expressions, defining control requirements through flow charts, sequences, truth tables, and I/O listings. Converting relay logic diagrams to PLC commands, use of timers and counters, designing ladder logic programs, PLC system troubleshooting, and controls for motor starters and air valves will also be reviewed.

Pre-registration is required by Tuesday, Aug. 7. Cancellations are also required by that date. Anyone registered who does not submit a cancellation and who does not attend will be asked to pay the full amount.

For more information, call Joe Ferguson at Northeast Community College at (402) 844-7236.

Two-session intro to computer basics for seniors class set at NECC

Northeast Community College in Norfolk has scheduled a two-session class that will introduce seniors to computer basics.

The noncredit Introduction to Computer Basics for Seniors class, with course number DP 0200-13/07F, meets Monday and Thursday, Aug. 20 and 23 from 1-4 p.m. in the Lifelong Learning Center. Joann McKenzie is the instructor of this class with a cost of $27.

This class is specially designed to introduce the student to the basics of computer operation including the keyboard, screen, and programs. Students will learn to use the computer to create a document.

To register, students are asked to call (402) 844-7000.
