Large crowd listens to Expressway update

4. 1. C. C. C. C.

By Clara Osten Of the Herald

Nearly 200 interested persons attended the open house and public hearing on the potential location of a four-lane divided highway (N-35) between Norfolk and South Sioux City.

The public hearing was conducted by The Nebraska Department of Roads, along with the State Highway Commission.

During the open house, those in attendance were able to view maps containing several alternates for the highway and visit with representatives of the Nebraska Department of Roads and the URS Corporation, which completed the environmental impact study for the project.

The proposed project is to improve the almost 70-mile corridor of N-35 that extends from US 275 in or near Norfolk to US 20/ I-29 in or near South Sioux City.

John Kingsbury, Highway Commissioner for District 3 explained to those in attendance that "this is a long process and no parts of the highway have been designed at this time."

"We have determined the corridor, but none of this is final and changes can be made. At this point, we don't know when this project can be funded," he added.

Documents have been prepared on the environmental impact of the highway and the project purpose and need listed.

The purpose of upgrading the N-35 highway is to provide a safer route by flattening hills, eliminating no-passing zones and reducing tight curves; reduce overall travel time across the corridor and improve the reliability of a consistent travel time and better accommodate current and future travel demands.

During the public hearing, three alternatives were discussed, including a 'no build' alternative in which nothing would be done; an alternative that generally follows the current highway while bypassing Norfolk, Wayne, Wakefield and Hubbard and making connections with the communities of Hoskins, Winside, Emerson, Dakota City and South Sioux City and an

Regional disaster exercise planned

The Northeast Nebraska Emergency Managers will conduct a regional, functional disaster exercise on Saturday, February 16. The Emergency Managers of Antelope, Burt, Cedar, Cuming, Dakota, Dixon, Knox, Madison, Pierce, Stanton, Thurston, and Wayne Counties have worked together to conduct an exercise that would impact Northeast Nebraska.

The exercise, focusing on a Foot and Mouth Disease outbreak in the area cattle yards, will be conducted at Wisner-Pilger High School beginning at 9 a.m. on Saturday, Feb. 16. All play for the exercise will be conducted at the high school with five county Emergency Operations Centers simulated from this location.

from the 12 counties, as well as representatives from the Nebraska State Patrol, Nebraska Department of Roads, Nebraska Department of Agriculture, Nebraska Emergency Management Agency, Salvation Army, and Elkhorn/ Logan Valley Public Health Department. ICF International assisted the counties in coordinating and directing of the exercise.

The Northeast Nebraska Emergency Managers invite all media interested to provide the public with information about this exercise. This will be the first time that this area has conducted an exercise in a coordinated effort.

Making history

The Wayne County Democratic Party had a "successful caucus" on Saturday, according Charles Shapiro, Wayne County Democratic chair. He thanked all the citizens who came out to participate in the democratic process. There were 136 voters registered at the caucus with 22 new Democrats registering at the event, and many more in the weeks previous to the caucus. "We want to thank Deb Finn, County Clerk, for helping us with all the details of registering people correctly and making sure things went smoothly." The vote totals for Wayne County indicated that Obama received 81 votes, Clinton 52 votes, and there were three non-voting participants.

Concentration

Kaitlyn Centrone concentrates on her clarinet playing during last week's Wayne High School basketball game. The Wayne High School Pep Band is a regular fixture at nearly all the home games, providing music before and between games. In addition, the band regularly plays the National Anthem for home basketball games.

NECC's ABE program helps students of all ages earn diploma

High school isn't just for kids anymore. A 177 students completed the requirements quick look into any Northeast Community for a Nebraska high school diploma last College Adult Basic Education (ABE) class will quickly reveal students from teenagers to seniors. Those students are working to earn their Nebraska high school diploma by attending the GED (General Education Development) instructional program at Northeast.

Thirty-something Bobbie Pickering of Carroll is a perfect example. She left one of the state's largest high schools many years ago because she failed to pass one very difficult course. Marriage to Dave, two children, and several minimum-wage jobs later, she decided to complete the requirements for a high school diploma through Northeast's program.

"I always wanted to get my GED diploma," she said. "That high school diploma was something missing in my life. I look forward to walking across the stage and receiving recognition for my accomplishments at the GED graduation ceremony in May."

Pickering was among thousands in northeast Nebraska without a high school diploma. According to the U.S. Census Bureau, there are 1,542 individuals over 25 years of age that live within 15 miles of Norfolk with less than a ninth grade education and 2,044 with a 9th-12th- grade education but no high school diploma.

Northeast's ABE program tries to cut the number of those without a high school diploma. The Adult Basic Education program graduates the third largest class in Northeast's 20-county service area. Some year through the program.

Pickering started working on her GED in August of 2006 and finished it in June 2007. Even though she lacked only one course for a high school diploma as a teenager, she was required to complete all five GED sections and successfully pass the test for each section.

After finishing her GED coursework last June, she enrolled at Northeast Community College to major in accounting. She took 15 credit hours last semester and is taking 12 credits this semester. She chose accounting as a major because math always came easy to her. "And I have always wanted some type of accounting job," she said.

She also works part-time as an aide in Northeast's ABE program. She plans to graduate from Northeast in May of 2009.

She said her sons, Tim, 20, and Sheldon, almost 15, never said anything about her not having a high school diploma. "However, Sheldon now teases me about being a college student. He was surprised to see me enroll in college," she said. "He even helps me with my math."

Pickering describes the atmosphere at Northeast Community College as 'homey.' "The instructors make me feel at home here," she said. "They are all helpful and encouraging."

Pickering encourages others that it is never too late to get that high school Northeast Community College is free. For diploma. "Anybody, at any age, can get a more information about the program, call GED here at Northeast," she said. "The Nancy Schultz at (402)844-7254.

When asked what she would tell others thinking about pursuing a GED, she said, "Don't be afraid of starting. You can do it.'

Keeping television free in the all-digital age

The Wayne

Herald

By Nebraska's Senator Ben Nelson

Confusion over a new federal law has prompted many Nebraskans to question whether or not they will lose access to free TV next year. The good news is that TV will stay free - the law may have changed but free TV will remain. Biggest Change

Since Color TV

This is the biggest change in broadcast TV since the advent of color. The Digital Television Transition and Public Safety Act of 2005 requires TV stations to cease broadcasting analog signals effective Feb. 17, 2009, which means analog sets that use rooftop or rabbit ear antennas will no longer be able to get a picture.

While digital TV offers better quality and more channels, the change was ordered to free up valuable analog airwaves for other purposes. Some channels will be auctioned for commercial wireless phone and internet services, and some will be used for improved interoperable communications for first responders.

Older TV Sets Will Still Work

Analog TV sets look different than the sleek, flat Hi Definition TV. and digital sets of today and they can't make the technological leap without some help from a special converter box that plugs into the set to change the digital signal back to analog.

If you have a digital TV set or if you have an analog set but receive programming through cable or satellite service there is no need for a converter box and nothing will change for you when the switch to digital happens.

Many people don't have cable or satellite. The Federal Communications Commission estimates 14 percent of U.S. households - 15.5 million homes - use antennas. Additionally, the National Association of Broadcasters estimates that 40 to 80 million homes that have cable or satellite also have other TV sets that aren't connected to those services and continue to use antennas.

Analog Sets Will Need Converter Boxes

Congress was aware that many people use antennas so $1.5 billion was included to help consumers cover the cost for converter boxes to make sure you continue to get free

Each household is eligible for two $40 coupons, regardless of whether it has cable or satellite service, but after a period of time the coupons will be limited only to households that rely solely on antennas. They expire after 90 days and will be available until March 31, 2009. How To Get Your

Free $40 Coupons

You may apply by telephone, in writing, by fax, or on-line. The toll free telephone number is 1-888-DTV-2009. The address to request an application is DTV Converter, meeting P.O. Box 2000, Portland, Ore. 97208, or you may request a form by sending a fax to 1-877-DTV-4ME2, or on line at www.dtv2009.gov. The National Telecommunications andInformation Administration should begin mailing coupons Feb. 17, when it expects retailers to have converter boxes in stock.

You can also receive more information about the DTV transition on my website: www.bennelson. senate.gov

I hope this column is helpful in informing Nebraskans about the revolutionary changes that are ahead. Judging by some of the calls I have received and a recent survey by the Association of Public Television Stations that found only 51 percent of Americans were aware of the switch to digital, I wanted to do my part to inform the public because no one should lose access to free TV.

to think twice about trying to change their bodies to fit fashion and the pressures of the American culture's unattainable standards of beauty.

The NEDA and the Counseling Center are encouraging people to change the size of their jeans to fit their genes. Everybody, Every Body, deserves to feel comfortable and confident in their clothes! The need for size-acceptance and eating disorders prevention is clear. In the United States, as many as 10 million females and 1 million males are struggling with the devastating, life-threatening effects of eating disorders anorexia and bulimia. Another 25 million suffer from binge eating disorder. An estimated 80 percent of American women are dissatisfied with their bodies.

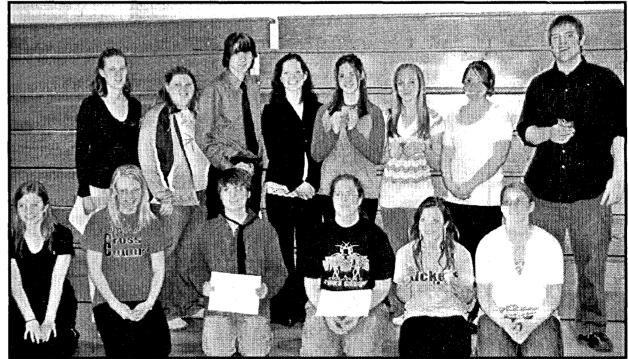

The National Eating Disorders Association, a national nonprofit organization headquartered in Seattle, sponsors this effort to help increase the awareness and prevention of eating disorders such as anorexia, bulimia and binge eating disorder. This event highlights the importance of getting real expectations, real role models, real information and real help while encouraging everyone to be comfortable in their genes by wearing comfortable jeans.

The National Eating Disorders Association established NEDAW in 1987 to help create a world where a person's value is not weighed in pounds on a scale - a world where self-esteem is rooted in character and accomplishments rather than the size of one's jeans. The National Eating Disorders Association works to create a culture that accepts and celebrates diversity in body shapes and sizes. Anyone interested in participating in the Great Jeans Giveaway can call the WSC Counseling Center at 375-7321. Wayne school board approves interlocal agreement with Pender

By Lynn Sievers Of the Herald

Wayne Community Schools Board of Education met in regular session Monday night. On the agenda was discussion on the interlocal agreement with Wayne and Pender schools sharing Wayne Superintendent, Dr. Joseph Reinert. Wayne's board of education approved to accept the interlocal agreement with Pender.

Chris Connolly, legal representative for the Wayne school system, pointed out that the Wayne school board has authority over Dr. Reinert's contract, not Pender school board. Pender school board can provide input to the Wayne school board.

Pender school board members had an interview with Dr. Reinert and last Monday approved Dr. Reinert's contract for 30 percent superintendent with the Pender school system and 70 percent with Wayne's school system. As for sharing other administration, the Pender school board will go with Dr. Reinert's suggestions and another interlocal agreement will be needed if that comes to reality.

In other business, Adam Welton will put in extra duty to be an assistant musical coach helping

Speech students compete at David City Invitational

Members of the Wayne High School Speech team took part in the David City Invitational held at Schuyler High School on Feb. 9.

Results are as follows: the Duet Team of Katie Kietzmann and Brett Dorcey, 12th; Katie Kietzmann, eighth in Humorous Prose; Erin Zink, eighth inInformative; Joe Whitt, sixth in Persuasive; Maddie Jager, fifth in Informative, and Heidi Garvin, fourth in Extemporaneous.

"Extra special congratulations to Joe Whitt, who captured his first championship of the season in Entertainment," said Head Coach Dwaine Spieker.

As a team, Wayne finished fourth out of 23 schools.

Mrs. Anderson. (This was in the negotiated agreement approved by the board last September).

The board approved the following: National School Board Association membership dues of $1,450 and Waddell & Reed, Inc. information sharing agreement for 430 (b) contract (sheltered money from salaries and retirement accounts) exchange.

On pre-scheduled communication from the public, Brian Gibson spoke on special education, saying at the last school board meeting it was stated that special education cost the Wayne school system $390,000 last year. After checking into numbers, he found while the number of students overall has decreased in the Wayne school system, the numbers in special education has not as that has increased from 112 to 132 in the last five years.

Gibson asked if sharing the superintendent would help eliminate any RIF (Reduction in Force) positions and how much money sharing the superintendent would save the district? Dr. Reinert answered that it will save the district around $45,000.

Also speaking was Mary Kranz. She asked about the July 1, 2008 starting time for Dr. Reinert's contract. If secondary local agreements may be coming, does that give enough time? Dr. Reinert said it does give enough time and that Pender probably is looking at other areas to share.

Administration reports were given including: Peg Lutt, curriculum director, who noted that in legislation, changes are occurring but one thing that is staying the same is that schools continue to have to prepare assessment portfolios. Schools are not having less required of them but more. For example, LB1157 changes provisions but instead of having three grade levels tested for statewide assessment, there will be seven grades to test. Mark Hanson, high school principal, said the juniors finished their statewide writing exams and they are anxious to see how they have done. (Grades four and eight also took part in the statewide writing exams).

Daryl Schrunk, elementary school principal, told the board their learning WEB team has been (and will be) visiting area schools looking at technology to bring back ideas to Wayne. He said the elementary school will give a presentation at the NETA spring conference, April 24-25. Tim Krupicka, Middle School principal, stated WEB has purchased another presentation projector in their building. Kelly Ballinger, SPED director, said they added four new students recently, making the total 130 students they are serving.

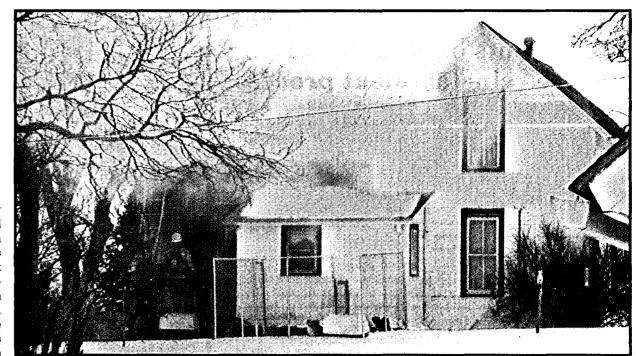

Kelly Kenny, Wayne school board member, noted she and Dr. Reinert met with two people from the school bus company to discuss ways to cut costs. Two more board members, Dr. Jeryl Nelson and Dr. Jodi Pulfer, will join efforts in discussion with the bus company in further meetings.

The first reading of policy 1208 (order of business for regular meetings) was approved. Also approved was the amending of some of the wording of the Voluntary Reduction in Force (VRIF), appendix A and a change in Appendix B to add a lump sum payment of 25 percent of salary added to the options.

Communication from the public included Jill Sweetland commending the board on the interlocal agreement of sharing the superintendent with Pender school but she wanted to know if that helps the RIF situation. Dr. Pulfer said it should help save close to $50,000 but they have received their state aid calculation now and they thought that amount was going $50,000 but found it is going down nearly $100,000. So, they can't say at this time what will happen.

Executive session was held on personnel review. The next regular meeting of the Wayne Community Schools Board of Education will be held on Monday, March 10 at 6 p.m. at the high school in Wayne.

Editor's note: Pender school board also approved the interlocal agreement on sharing the superintendent with Wayne at their meeting which was also on Monday night.

House fire

The Wayne Volunteer Fire Department responded to a house fire on West First Street on Feb. 7. No one was injured in the blaze and a damage estimate has not yet been determined. The Northeast Nebraska Chapter of the American Red Cross provided assistance to the resident of the home by providing immediate shelter needs. They will also be available for future needs if necessary.

Tradition continues

The Wayne Kiwanis Club held its annual Pancake Feed on Sunday at the Wayne City Auditorium. The event has been held every year since 1962 and funds generated have been used for various youth-oriented projects in the community. Assisting the Kiwanians were Wayne Boy Scouts and members of Circle K at Wayne State College.

alternative that would require more new construction to the north and west of Wayne and east/northeast of Emerson.

Representatives from the communities along the proposed route spoke in favor of the project during the public hearing.

A number of land and homeowners who would be affected by the expressway spoke against taking away their property and questioned whether the current Highway 35 could be widened into a four-lane.

Kingsbury told the crowd that while nothing is definite at this point, safety is the major concern and the proposed alternative would provide for greater safety.

It was also noted during the public hearing that the Highway 275 four-lane project from Omaha to Norfolk has been on-going since 1988 and due cuts in funding, has not been completed at this time.

At the present time, a one mile portion of the project, from US 275 to Norfolk Avenue is set to be completed first and in the next five years, a 3.8 mile section of the project from Norfolk Avenue to Nucor Road (560th Avenue) is scheduled to be completed at a cost of $14 million. Estimated cost of funding for the remainder of the project is $220 million. All interested persons have 10 days to submit written comments about this project to Kevin Dugan, Public Hearings Officer, NDOR Communications Division, PO Box 94759, Lincoln, Neb. 68509-4759.

Department of Motor Vehicles implements on-line driver license reinstatement process

The Department of Motor Vehicles Manager of Nebraska gov said, "we announced that it has established an on-line procedure for the reinstatement of driver licenses.

4A

"Driver license reinstatement is a service that we deliver only in our main Lincoln office. We had several requests to put new staff into existing county facilities in an attempt to distribute the service statewide. Rather than add new staff, we chose to turn to technology to help us", said Beverly Neth, DMV Director. "We worked with the state's portal provider, Nebraska gov, to develop and implement our On-line Driver License Reinstatement Service."

Individuals whose driver licenses have been suspended or revoked can now go on-line at www.dmv. state.ne.us and access specific information pertaining to exactly what must be done to reinstate their driving privileges. The site also allows the individual to use a credit card to pay the required reinstatement fee to the DMV.

Hoffman, General Brent

are dedicated to expanding our online capabilities in furtherance of Nebraska's e-government goals. We are working closely with the DMV and other state agencies to develop several other on-line services - stay tuned."

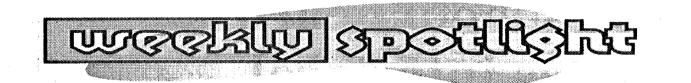

Annually, approximately 60,000 driver licenses are suspended and revoked in Nebraska. Revocations and suspensions occur for a variety of reasons, including such things as failure to appear in court, driving without motor vehicle insurance and driving under the influence. Annually, about 50,000 drivers

"Our goal is to make it easier for people to find out what they need to do to reinstate, so that they may be more inclined to reinstate as soon as possible", said Kathy Hraban, DMV Financial Responsibility Program Manger. First National Bank of Wayne continues long tradition of 'Banking on Relationships'

By Lynn Sievers Of the Herald

First National Bank of Wayne is at their new location, 411 E. 7th Street, since November when it moved from 3rd and Main Streets. The bank's original charter to become First National Bank of Wayne is dated Sept. 8, 1885. Prior to that the bank was known as Logan Valley Bank, which originated in LaPorte. With the move to their new location, First National Bank of Wayne, the oldest bank in Wayne County, is now the newest.

First National Bank of Wayne was designed as a One Stop Financial Center for the convenience of the customers as it offers not only banking services but is also the home for First National Insurance Agency as well as Investment Centers of America. Gary Boehle and Steve Muir are agents for the insurance agency where complete insurance services are offered including auto, home, life, health, farm, business, crop and long term care. The telephone number at First National Insurance Agency is 402-375-2511.

Rod Hunke is the Representative for Investment Centers of America, member NASD, SIPC, a registered broker dealer. Hunke is a licensed registered representative with Investment Centers of America which offers retirement planning, stocks and bonds, annuities, estate planning, life insurance, mutual funds and college funds. The telephone number for Investment Centers of America is 402-375-2541.

The bank offers some of the longest banking hours in Wayne as well as five ATMs located throughout the community of Wayne to serve banking needs. The five ATMs are located at 7th and Main Streets, the main bank, Wayne State College, Quality Foods Center and Wayne East. They also have the only depository ATMs in town.

The telephone number at the main office is 402-375-2525. The lobby

The bank also offers Internet Banking services 24-7 to assist their customers with their banking needs. Other services offered at the bank include: personal checking accounts, commercial accounts, savings accounts, CDs, retirement accounts, ATM-debit card, VISAchecking card, safe deposit boxes, notary public, personal loans, farm phone banking.

"The new First National Bank of Wayne building was constructed with the customers and growth in mind," said Bill Dickey, First National Bank of Wayne president. "We wanted to create a warm, inviting environment for our customers to do their banking. We invite people to stop in for a cup of coffee and to feel the difference at First National Bank. It is not only the bank's goal to offer all the modern and convenient banking services its customers are accustomed to but to also provide an atmosphere for people to come in to visit and take a few minutes to relax."

Area residents are invited to stop in and see the layout which offers all the comforts of home. Some of the features in the bank are a children's corner complete with table and chairs, books and toys, a coffee bar where fresh fruit, goodies and beverages are available, as well as a big screen television to follow current markets and breaking news, a large community room with a spacious kitchen designed for catering, a customer service area designed to demonstrate online banking and Internet access and more.

Along one wall is a memorabilia display case where the original national charter from Sept. 8, 1885 is kept, as well as a list of original shareholders, the official OCC examiners report dated May 30, 1888, a photograph of John T. Bressler, first president, old ledgers and journals from the 1880s, several types of banks for saving coins given through the years, a photograph of the softball championship team the bank had in the 1980s and much, much more.

The new main bank building was designed with the customers in mind. They wanted to provide a convenient, easily accessible facility with a lot of parking available. The First National Bank of Wayne has been "Banking on Relationships" since 1885 and it is their goal to continue in this rich tradition.

WSC football inks 18 recruits on signing day

Wayne State College head Coach and letter winner in basketball and Omaha, Neb. (Burke H.S.) Dan McLaughlin announced on Feb. 6 that 18 high school players have signed national letters of intent to attend WSC and continue their football careers with the Wildcats

The 2008 class included 11 recruits from Neb., two from Fla., two from Ill and one from Ariz. and Iowa.

The players recruited include six offensive linemen, two defensive linemen, two wide receivers, two quarterbacks, two linebackers, two slot backs, one defensive back and one running back.

"The 2008 WSC football recruiting class is short on numbers but long on talent," McLaughlin said.

The Wildcats lost six seniors from the 2007 team that finished 7-5, which was the first winning season for the Wildcats since 1995.

"With only six graduating seniors from our Mineral Water Bowl team, our staff was looking to address specific needs, rather then numbers." McLaughlin said. "We truly believe that this class accomplishes that."

WSC finished second in the NSIC with a 7-2 conference record, and fell to Missouri Western 20-13 in the Mineral Water Bowl.

The Wildcats appearance marked just the second time in 91 years of Wildcat football a post-season bowl game.

Listed below are the players who have signed national letters of intent with the Wildcat:

Taylor Baumert

6-1, 205 Quarterback Pawnee City, Neb. (Pawnee City

H.S.) -Baumert a three time All-District selection holds nearly every offensive record at Pawnee City High School. He helped Pawnee City

Blue Devils send three to Omaha in search of gold

By Casey Schroeder

The Wayne Blue Devils wrestling team finished ninth out of 12 teams at the B-2 District Wrestling Meet at Omaha Skutt Catholic last Friday and Saturday.

Wayne qualified three wrestlers who will start competition today, with hopes of achieving Saturday's final round.

> Onderstal picked up his first win through a bye, while his other wins included a 10-1 major decision over Schyuler's Israel Almazon and Platteview's Michael Roth with a 16-10 decision.

The final Wayne wrestler who earned a birth to state was Derick Dorcey (160 7-7-12).

Dorcey finished fourth as he finished districts with a 3-2 record.

The 160 pound wrestler received a bye in his first match but went on to pin Mount Michael Benedictine's Adam Prusa at 1:46, and Schuyler's Alex Critser with a pin at 2:53.

Other Wayne wrestlers who competed but failed to qualify for the State Championship tournament include Garrett Vawser (103), Ryan Dowling (112), Roman Roberts (119), Jordan McDonald (140), Riley Mcmanus (145) and Drew Loberg (171).

"I"m real pleased coming out of this district to have three qualifiers." head coach Greg Vander Weil said.

Team Results: Omaha Skutt Catholic 288.50, Boys Town 166, Plattsmouth 154, Schuyler 108, Gretna 94, Omaha Gross Catholic 88.50, Platteview 76, Blair 53, Wayne 32, Wahoo/Cedar Bluffs 23, Omaha Roncalli Catholic 9, Mount Michael Benedictine 4.

Winside qualified five wrestlers for the Nebraska State Wrestling Championships in Omaha.

The tournament begins today and will conclude on Saturday, with the finals round being televised on the Nebraska Educational Television channel.

Winside finished fourth in the 19 team D-2 District meet held in Stanton.

Winside's district is consistently considered one of the toughest of the small school meets and this year had the most team entries of any of the Nebraska wrestling districts.

Wildcat head coach Paul Sok was pleased with his team's finish but felt they could have finished higher in the team standings.

nament. Our goal going into the meet was to finish in the runner-up spot," Sok said. "We ended up fourth, just 9 points out of second. Having nine guys win matches was a major factor for us."

Tucker Bowers (160 4-0) led the Winside qualifiers with a gold medal finish pinning all four opponents including a pin of Greg Brandl of Stanton in his finals match.

Bowers is the last of a long line of family tradition that has represented the Wildcats at the state wrestling tournament as the Bowers' family run at state began in the early 1970s

Bowers will follow his dad Robert, a 1975 State Champion and brother Dewey who won a State Championship 2006.

Jordan Brummels (145 3-1) placed second losing his championship finals match to NSWCA Class D No. 1 ranked Jared Gubbels of Randolph in a 6-2 decision, that ended closer than the final score indicated.

The D-2 district crowd applauded the pair of top-rated Class D wrestlers in the 145 pound weight class with a standing ovation at the end of the match.

Brummels will also be the last of a long line of Winside wrestlers, as Brummels dad Bradley was a State Runner-Up in 1976 and Brummels brother T.J. earned a silver medalist for Norfolk High in 1994 and 1995, while brother Bo won the gold medal three times from 2003 through 2005. Cory Brummels was match with a 13-4 major decision over Trenton Brichacek of West Point C.C.

Koch also will be seeking a second state medal following the path set by his dad (Winside Assistant Coach) Mark who was the Wildcats first four time medal winner and a state champion in 1982.

Jared Brockmann (285 3-1) finished third in his weight class with a fifty second pin over opponent Preston Smith of Neligh- Oakdale.

Brockmann finished the tournament with a 3-1 record winning by pin in three of his four matches. Ethan Taylor (189 2-2) earned his trip to the state meet by finishing fourth in his weight bracket. Taylor lost his bronze medal match by pin at the 2:25 mark to Wyatt Wallin of Newman Grove. "We have five qualifiers that can score points for the team down in Omaha so that is a real plus," Sok said.

"Tucker had a strong tournament finishing in the top spot while Jordan Brummels lost to arch rival Jared Gubbels in a close finals match. Kalin Koch and Jared Brockmann did an excellent job of bouncing back and taking third place after tough, close decision losses in the semis while Ethan Taylor battled back to qualify at 189."

Also wrestling for the Wildcats Koch won his third place medal but not qualifying were: Ethan Thies (103 2-2), Dylan Pesek (112 0-2) Peter Hansen (12 0-2), Cody Wylie (135 0-2), Zach Brokaw (140 3-2), Anthony Nelson (152 0-2), Jordan Nelson (171 2-2) and Chase Landenberg (215 3-2)

"It was very difficult not having Chase (Langenberg) qualify. He had beaten two of the qualifiers during the season but it was not to be at districts," Sok said. "On the bright side, we had four of our freshmen and sophomores end their season in the heartbreak round which will help set the stage for them and the team next year."

Team Scores: Howells 192 ,Randolph 135, Neligh-Oakdale 134, Winside 125.5, Stanton 108, Newman Grove 84.5, Pope John Greeley-Wohlbach-Cedar 75.5, Rapids 69.5, West Holt 63, Ponca 53.5, Scribner-Snyder 45, Pender 44, Clearwater-Elgin 42, Osmond 38.5, Fullerton 33, Archbishop Bergan 30, West-Point C.C 30, Elkhorn Valley 15.5, Lindsay Holy Family/Humphrey St. Francis 9.5.

"Joe is a good cross country and middle distance runner," Brink said. "He has competed against some of the best runners in the state.'

In 2007 Chebul finished 18th at the Class A State Cross Country Meet, while helping his team finish seventh.

Chebul, also was named Bellevue Leader Runner of the Year and MVP of his team. In track and Field, he participated in the 3200 meter relay team that earned fifth place last spring.

Meyer, a three year letter winner in both track and cross country signed his letter of intent with WSC to compete in cross country and track.

At Papillion-LaVista South Meyer was a two-time state qualifier in cross country, while also competing in the Class A State Track and Field Meet last spring as a junior.

Meyer missed a medal at the Class A Cross Country Meet as a junior and senior, placing 16th and 17th respectively.

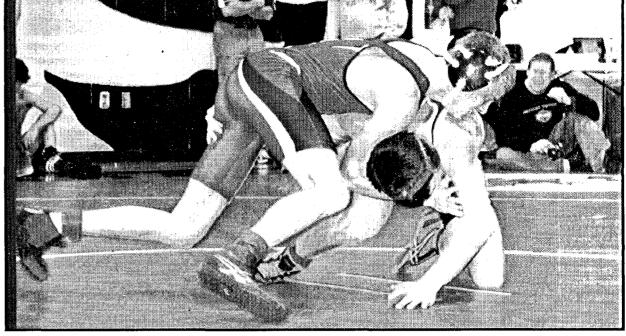

"Adam has had a successful high school career and I think he is only going to get better in college,' Brink said.

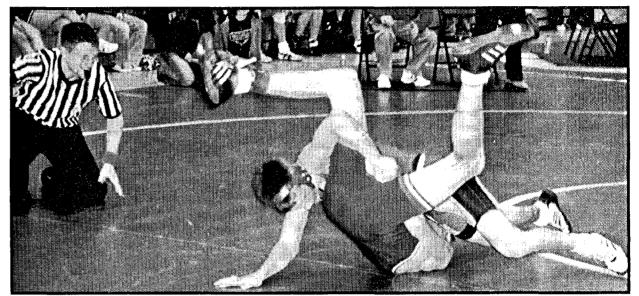

Finalizing Brink's recruiting class is Pierson, a two-year letter winner at Papillion-LaVista who signed to run track for the Wildcats.

Last spring Pierson ran a leg on the 1600 meter relay team that earned sixth at the Class A State Track and Field Meet.

Along with having a successful career in track, Pierson lettered two years in football.

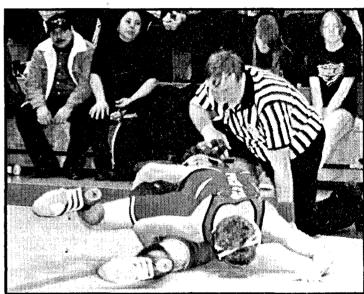

"Zach is a good sprinter and hard worker," Brink said. "He had high goals set for himself and I think that will help in his success at the college level.'

37 win over Neligh-Oakdale.

Thursday night's battle pitted the fifth-ranked Bears against the eighth-ranked Class C-1 Gators. Coming in as slight underdogs, the Bears held their own and challenged Wisner-Pilger repeatedly.

"The boys played very hard," Bears head coach Shannon Benson said. "We knew coming in that it was going to be a battle to the end." In the first half while both teams had relative success on defense, it was the offensive play by the Bears that kept them in contention with the Gators.

"We give a different look for a lot teams, than what they have seen before," Benson said.

While the Bears' look may have caught the Gators off guard, it wasn't enough as Wisner-Pilger took a 26-22 lead into halftime.

Down by four going into the third quarter, Wisner-Pilger's defense went into lock down mode and limited the Bears to five third quarter points.

Overall the third quarter proved

Trailing by six, the Bears put together an aspiring performance in the fourth quarter, rallying back and coming within three.

In the final stretch of the game, Laurel-Concord fell short, and Wisner-Pilger snuck away with a 43-40 win.

"The boys fought all the way to the end," Benson said. "They gave everything they had."

Heath Erwin led all Bears against the Gators with 20 points, while Ezra Schantz pitched in a 12 point effort.

On Friday night the Bears returned to their dominant old selves and crushed Neligh-Oakdale 64 - 37

"We came out doing just what we wanted to do," Benson said. "We asked the guys to run the floor and get all the rebounds."

Laurel-Concord jumped out to an early 20-10 first quarter led, while adding another 18 points in the second quarter to take a 38-15 halftime lead.

"I asked them to be a threat...score ter points.

Ahead 54-25, Laurel-Concord kept on pace and never missed a beat in the fourth quarter as the Bears scored an additional 10 points and an uplifting 64-37 victo-

"We were able to get into a nice rhythm," Benson said. "I was very happy that the guys were rewarded for their hard work tonight and all season long."

Senior Jesse Hill combined for 46 points in the Blue Devils recent wins over Madison and West Point C.C.

Wayne defeated the Dragons 65-56 Friday night, and then hit the road Saturday and returned home with a 69-60 victory over the Blueiavs.

In Friday night's game against the visiting Dragons, Wayne had an effective first quarter as the Blue Devils leaped out to a 13-5 lead with 3:13 left in the quarter.

The Dragons responded to Wayne's call by scoring 10 points in the remainder of the quarter.

"Playing Madison for the second time in a week made things interesting," head coach Rocky Ruhl said. "They played well."

With a one point lead going into the second quarter Wayne found its rhythm in the second quarter and to score 21 points, while holding the Dragon to 14.

"We valued our possessions to make sure they didn't get the lead," Ruhl said.

As Wayne began the third quarter they led 37-29.

WSC Women go 2-0 in final home stretch

Wayne State College's women basketball team improved to 17-7 over the weekend along with claiming sole possession of the NSIC after two weekend home wins.

The Wildcats defeated Winona State 68-62 on Friday at Rice Auditorium and then returned to the court Saturday to claim a 57-44 victory over Upper Iowa.

In the Friday night's contest both teams got off to a slow start as both teams had little success shooting the ball.

WSC held the Warriors to a 28.6 percent shooting average in the first 20 minutes of regulation and closed out the half with a four point 29-25 lead.

As both teams sputtered on offense in the first half, the 'Cats came out strong in the second half and put together an offensive drive were the Wildcats led by as many as 13 points.

"It took our offense a little while to get going," Wildcat head coach-Ryun Williams said. "But once we made some shots, the ladies were great!"

In the second half, the Wildcat women hit 48.1 percent of their shots from the field, and were an impressive 12 of 16 from the free throw line.

While the 'Cats offense did its part to secure a win, it was the steldown the Warriors as Winona State only hit 35.5 percent of their shots in the second half.

"I was very pleased with our intensity and execution...we defended all their sets well and were extremely disruptive," Williams said.

Teresa Case led the Wildcats with 17 points in the 68-62 win, while Laquisha Cook and McGill added 13 and 12 points respective-

Saturday night the Wildcat women returned to action at Rice Auditorium, and ended their final home game with a 57-44 win over the Upper Iowa Peacocks.

In the first half the Wildcat women led by as many as five points in part of several Peacock turnovers.

As Upper Iowa continually gave the ball away, WSC capitalized on several occurrences to take a 22-20 led into halftime.

While the Wildcats held a two point lead the Peacocks could have easily been ahead as WSC had a horrific first half.

WSC was 32.4 percent from the field and by halftime were 0-10 from the three point line.

In the second half Upper Iowa took a 29-27 lead, before the 'Cats used an 11-0 run to take control of the game.

With a 38-29 lead, the Wildcats continued to build their lead as seven points in the final minutes of action.

Statistically the 'Cats improved in the second half however, it was still ugly.

WSC ended the game shooting 36.9 from the field, and were only 2 of 19 from three point land.

"We just had a bad night shooting the ball...we are not going to complain," Williams said. "Getting a win and only shooting 10 percent from the three against a zone is something else."

Cook led the Wildcats with a game- high 24 points while McGill recorded a double-double with 13 points and 11 rebounds.

Wayne State will return to the road on Saturday, as they travel to Southwest Minnesota State for a 6 p.m. game.

as the Dragons hunkered down on defense and pressured the Blue Devils.

The Dragons defense, as aggressive as it was, ended up being too much as the Blue Devils hit eight of eight free throws in the quarter that helped them secure the 65-56 win.

Hill led the Blue Devils with 19 points.

"Our starters did a nice job," Ruhl said.

On the road, Wayne went into West Point with a stigma surrounding them.

According to Ruhl, Wayne had never won at West Point C.C. since the Blue Devils joined the Mid-States Conference.

The Blue Devils changed the course of history Saturday night and came up with a big win against an overly aggressive and physical team

"We were very patient and executed our offense well."

West Point in the first half trailed the entire way as Wayne scored 18 points in each quarter and ended the half with a five point 35-31 lead.

The Blue Devils in the first took care of the ball, as Wayne only had two turnovers in the half.

Allen Eagles sweep Bees and Bluejays

By Casey Schroeder

After a two game losing skid the Allen Eagles rebounded and went 3-0 in last weeks action.

The Eagles defeated Bloomfield 45-29 on Thursday, and blewout Walthill 75-31 on Saturday.

In Saturday's win the Eagles were tested throughout most of the first quarter before the Eagles finished out the first quarter with a three point run to take a 14-11 lead.

"Walthill came to play as they shot the ball really well in the first quarter," Allen head coach Matt Hingst said.

After a brief struggle, the Eagles hit the Bluejays hard with a potent dose of offense that resulted in 18 points and a 34-15 lead.

"Once we figured out who their shooters were we would contest every shot and eventually shut them down."

While Walthill struggled in the first half, things only got worse for the Bluejays in the second half.

Allen added 20 points in the third quarter, before closing out Walthill with 21 fourth quarter points

As Walthill failed to equally pressure the Eagles, Allen ended the game with four diffrent players who reached double digits and propelled the Eagles to the 75-31 win.

Prior to the Eagles' blowout of the Bluejays, Allen took to the court on Thursday night and 45-29.

Bloomfield in the second quarter responded to the Eagles' and outscored Allen by a margin of 17-12 as the Eagle squad found themselves in foul trouble.

Down by two at the start of the third quarter the Eagles turned up the intensity on defense and held the Bees to four third quarter points while reclaiming a 31-25 advantage.

In the final quarter with Bloomfield handicapped due to foul trouble, Allen took advantage of the situation and scored 14 points enroute to the 45-29 win.

Against the Bees, Drew Diediker led the Eagles offense with 19 points, while William Gnat added 12

"It had been nice all season...that it seems we always have someone or two step up and have a good game," Hingst said.

Allen will conclude its regular season play on Feb. 15 as the Eagles will look for a win over the Winnebago Indians.

By Casey Schroeder

The Wayne State men's basketball team finished out their final home stand going 1-1 after a 82-60 loss to Winona State on Friday and a 68-67 win against Upper Iowa on Saturday.

Wayne State is currently third in the NSIC and has an overall record of 14-10.

On Friday night the Wildcats took to the court against the thirdranked Winona State Warriors.

The Warriors got off to an excellent first half start as the Wildcats failed to contest the Warriors.

With the Wildcats providing little to no opposition, Winona State took a 50-33 lead into the half.

WSC responded early in the second half, scoring the first five points to come within 12 points of the Warriors, before Winona State pulled away.

After the 'Cats early second half push, the Warriors went on a 14-2 scoring run, that resulted in a 64-40 lead.

With 7:23 left on the clock, Winona State led 72-49.

The Wildcats showed resiliency and a sense of pride however, the Warriors' success only continued as Winona State closed out the Wildcats with an 82-60 win.

Wayne State was 38.7 percent from the field against Winona State, while the Warriors were an even 50 percent.

WSC was led by Jamar Diggs and Jonathon Thomas in scoring with 14 points each.

With a loss under their belts, the Wildcats returned to action Saturday night and edged out Upper Iowa 68-67.

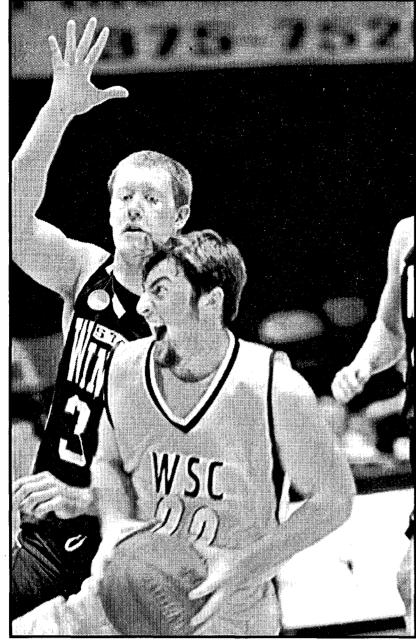

Prior to a second half rally, WSC trailed all of the first half due in part to the Peacocks success from the three point line.

Upper Iowa was 80 percent from the three point line by halftime and controlled a 40-27 lead.

In the second half the Peacocks maintained their lead until the final nine minutes of play when the Wildcats surmounted a comeback.

Throughout the final nine minutes of the half WSC rallied back, and with :38 left on the clock and took their first lead of the night after a layup by Thomas.

"We really played with a sense of urgency in the last ten minutes of the game," WSC assistant coach Matt Murken said. "We played a great game, but had a great 10 minutes."

WSC Junior guard David Walters goes up with the ball in Friday night's game against Winona State.

Trailing by one point, the 'Cats road again this weekend as they regained possession and found Bryce Caldwell who took a 17 foot shot for the win.

Caldwell failed to convert his shot however, Thomas grabbed the rebound and scored.

With that clock at 7.1 seconds Upper Iowa took one final attempt to win the game, but failed to due so as the Peacocks turned the ball over giving the 'Cats the 68-67 home win.

"We challenged our guys, and our guys sucked it up," head coach Rico Burkett said.

No cure for turnovers in Blue Devil loss to Gators

By Casey Schroeder

Devil girls were dealt a bad dose of turnover medicine as Wisner-Pilger defeated the Blue Devils 58-36 in the semi-final round of subdistricts at Norfolk High.

"Its tough to lose, especially when you aren't ready to be done, I wasn't ready myself," head coach Courtney Maas said.

Wayne finished their season with an overall record of 13-9.

In the first quarter the squads battled back and forth for a lead as both teams equally matched each other.

Down by one with 15 seconds left on the clock Nicole Rauner connected from the three point line to give the Blue Devils a 13-12 lead.

After a close first quarter both teams continued their struggles, as the turnover bug consumed the gym at Norfolk High

The Blue Devils had several chances early on to hold their lead but had little success as Wisner-Pilger took a 17-12 lead with 6:19 left on the clock.

In the third quarter the Gators Tuesday night the Wayne Blue outscored the Blue Devils by a margin of eight points, and held on for

> "They knew who our shooters were and took them away," Maas said.

> The final quarter for Wayne turned out like the previous three.

> The Gators continued to dominate the boards and overall tempo, while forcing the Blue Devils to give up several opportunities to regain control.

Allen's Keitges qualifies for NAIA National Championship

Morningside College sophomore and Allen native Erin Keitges recently qualified for the NAIA National Championships at the Buena Vista University NAIA Challenge indoor track and field meet on Feb. 8 at Storm Lake, Iowa.

Keitges won the 5000-meter run with a school-record time of 18:20.42 which qualified her for the NAIA National Championships.

The former Eagle also placed sixth in the 1000-meter run with a time of 3:20.74.

WSC's Cook named NCAA Division II player of week

Wayne State College junior guard Laquisha Cook was named the Nebraska NCAA Division II Women's Basketball Player of the Week Monday afternoon.

It's the second time Cook has received the award this season.

The Houston, Texas native, averaged 18.5 points and 7.0 rebounds per game in home wins over Winona State and Upper Iowa.

Cook scored 13 points and grabbed seven rebounds in Friday's 68-62 win over Winona State and added a game-high 24 points with seven rebounds in Saturday's 57-44 victory against Upper Iowa.

Cook has helped the Wildcats to a 17-7 record and leads WSC in scoring with 15 points per game.

Highlights of the Blue Devils

The eighth grade team will now direct their attention towards Wayne Basketball Development Association action that will end in early April

The remainder of the quarter found both teams in a heated contest with the Gators taking a 21-19 lead with under three minutes left.

In the final stretch of the half Wayne managed to rally back before the Gators went on a four point scoring run, that ended with Wisner-Pilger ahead 27-26.

If the previous two quarters seemed ugly for Wayne things were only about to get worse.

The Gators came out in the third quarter and kicked up the intensity to pressure the Blue Devils.

With 4:40 left in the third quarter and the Blue Devils down by five the Gators went on a 11 point scoring run, that was finally ended by a score from Michelle Jarvi.

HAVING MORE RETIREMENT ACCOUNTS NOT THE SAME AS HAVING MORE MONEY.

Many investors won't put all their retirement savings at a single broker because they believe it's far too risky. Actually, there may be more risk in having multiple accounts. Without a single focus, it can be difficult to keep track of your investments and to see if you're properly diversified.* At the very least, multiple accounts usually mean multiple fees.

Bringing your accounts to Edward Jones could help solve all that. Plus, one statement makes it easier to see if you're moving toward your goals.

*Diversification does not guarantee a profit, nor does it protect against loss

To learn why consolidating your retirement accounts to Edward Jones makes sense, call your local financial advisor today.

Blue Cross and Blue Shield of Nebraska offers free generics

Blue Cross and Blue Shield of Nebraska is offering the majority of its customers* the opportunity to receive free generic drugs during January, February and March, 2008. During this three-month period, eligible members* and their covered family members who have a prescription filled for a generic drug will pay nothing out of pocket at participating pharmacies.

The Free Generics campaign is designed not only to help members with their health care costs but also to underscore the health insurer's endorsement of the safety and effectiveness of generic prescription drugs.

"Using generic drugs whenever they are available and appropriate can save our members a considerable amount of money, but generics continue to be underutilized," said Clint Williams, Pharm. D., Blue Cross and Blue Shield of Nebraska's director of Pharmacy. "The Free Generics campaign gives our members an even greater incentive to explore available and appropriate generic drugs."

Generic drugs offer the same

How it works-Under the Free Generics Program, Blue Cross and Blue Shield of Nebraska will waive the copay/coinsurance for generic drugs for eligible members* Jan. 1 through March 31, 2008. If the member is already taking a generic prescription drug, he will pay nothing for his refills at participating RxNebraska retail pharmacies or through the PrimeMail mail service program. If the member is currently taking a brand name drug, he should ask his doctor if a generic drug is available and appropriate and if so, request a new prescription as soon as possible. Again, if the prescription is filled with a generic at a participating pharmacy or through PrimeMail, the copay/coinsurance will be waived Jan. 1 through March 31, 2008.

Information at your fingertips-Blue Cross and Blue Shield of Nebraska developed a special website, www.genericsfromneblues.com to provide more information about •Customers covered under a Medicare Supplemental, Medicare Part D (MedicareBlue Rx) or Medicare PPO plan. Medicare Supplemental customers aren't eligible to participate because these plans do not include benefits for prescription drugs. Customers covered under Medicare Blue Rx or Medicare PPO aren't eligible to participate because these plans are governed by a seven-state regional body - this isn't solely a BCBSNE plan.

•Individuals covered under the Comprehensive Health Insurance Pool (CHIP). This isn't a BCBSNE plan; the company administers it for the State of Nebraska.

• Employees of groups that do not use BCBSNE's pharmacy program (prescription drug benefits are provided/administered by another carrier.

•Federal Employee Program (FEP) members. This program's pharmacy benefits aren't provided by BCBSNE.

• Customers covered under a plan age for prescription drugs. One associate degree nursing program Broadway, 33rd floor, New York example: The BlueBasics individual plan enables members to take advantage of pharmacy discounts BCBSNE had negotiated, but does not pay benefits for prescription drugs.

Each March and April, Nebraska features the world's largest concentration of Sandhill Cranes when more than 500,000 cranes converge with ten million ducks and geese in the Platte River Valley as they make their journey north. Fossil records indicate cranes have gathered in Nebraska for more than nine million years. The Platte Valley provides a perfect stopping point, with farmlands and wet meadows offering an abundance of food to generate the energy necessary to continue on to their northern breeding grounds with many going as far as Siberia.

In 2003 Bluebirds Across Nebraska hosted a festival along with the North American Bluebird Society in the Central Platte River Valley. Birders from across the United States and Canada converged on Kearney, proving to be one of the largest birding festivals ever assembled in Nebraska. This years festival in Kearney, March 6-9, promises to be even bigger and more exciting. Highlights of the Great Plains Sandhill Crane and Bluebird Festival include birding trips to view Sandhill Cranes, Prairie Chicken Leks, numerous waterfowl in Nebraska's Rainwater Basin and prairie dog towns where burrowing owls and ferriginous hawks may be seen. There will also be a cultural journey through local attractions in and near Kearney. A variety of birding workshops will be offered.

On Saturday, March 8, guest speakers will provide presentations on bluebirds, cranes, and much more. Julie Zickfoose, Bill Thompson III, Kevin Berner, Al Batt, Keith Radel, Keanna Leonard and Ron Cisar make up the informative and talented slate of speakers.

For more details about this exciting festival and to reserve a place at the event, visit Bluebirds Across Nebraska at www.bbne.org, or write for information to Bluebirds Across Nebraska, P.O. Box 61757, Lincoln, Neb. 68506, (402) 334-8691 ing and connecting the research to best practice for children birth to age eight.

In the morning workshop, "Moving to Learn", participants will be able to recognize the connection between learning and movement. "Children must truly move in order to learn well, and adults need practical strategies for developing purposeful movement experiences that work in indoor and outdoor settings," said Julie Rose, from the Dimensions Foundation. The workshops will focus on effective techniques for providing preschool and elementary children movement opportunities that can help them in three areas: gaining body control, gaining knowledge about the world. and having positive outlets for emotional expression.

The afternoon workshop, entitled "Joyful Movement" is focused on the adult leader in early childhood settings. It is meant to assist adults to enjoy music inspired by nature, to slow down, relax, breathe, and move freely. This is significant because the more adults are able to develop this comfort and awareness themselves, the more we will be able to support children in developing that same awareness

Looking Ahead in Wayne Capitol View

The Wayne

By Lowell Johnson, City Administrator

City Council meeting

The next regular City Council meeting will be held Tuesday, Feb.19 at 5:30 p.m. in the council room.

What Makes Wayne Different? Thousands of small towns are investing in jobs and wealth creation for their future. Thousands aren't.

Here are observations about all of us from Don Holbrook, who has had great success in matching communities with companies that stayed and created long term jobs and wealth for the company and the community:

1) Communities have a right to die if they are unwilling or unable to make the changes needed to survive.

2) The new power of "place" is where people want to live, work and play and where others want to visit.

3) Companies will locate where intelligence and knowledge is found.

4) Communities should do whatever is legally possible to reduce locally generated costs to its employers, enabling them to be as profitable as possible and expand. 5) Leaders in a region must provide a vision.

6) World class communities constantly seek catalyst projects to challenge existing paradigms while taking calculated visionary risk. Next Week

Greenbelt exemptions hard to define

By Ed Howard Statehouse Correspondent The Nebraska Press Association

It might be one of the most vague enactments in the history of the Legislature.

The law intended to limit socalled greenbelt exemptions for agricultural operations is virtually certain to finds its way to the Nebraska Supreme Court.

Disclaimer: This correspondent is among the citizenry involved in legal wrangling over a greenbelt designation. Legal questions surrounding the law include whether it is so vague as to be unconstitutional. County boards and assessors around the state have no discernable standards to follow in deciding what qualifies as an agricultural operation, with property that should be valued as ag land for tax purposes. Seemingly contradictory results have inevitably occurred. On appeal, by government or the taxpayer, the state Tax Equalization and Review Commission has authority to create its own set of standards.

Committee, Sen. Ron Raikes of Lincoln. Higher property tax revenues mean more money for the ever-increasing budgets of local school districts and other entities.

was spearheaded by the chairman of the Legislature's Education require those who circulate initiative and referendum petitions in Nebraska to be at least 18 years old and residents of the state. Equally if not more important is a provision that would bar petition backers from paying circulators on a per signature basis.

was considering a bill that would

Nebraskans can propose enactment or repeal of laws and provisions of the constitution by gathering sufficient signatures to place them on the statewide ballots.

Critics argue that some circulators have been aggressive, and failed to follow some requirements of state law, in order to gather more signatures and thus collect more money. An example of the latter: Numerous incidents have been reported in which circulators failed, or were unable, to accurately describe the provisions of the question proposed for a statewide vote.

thought it? Nebraska could count for a little something in the fight for the Democratic presidential nomination. The battle between U.S. Sens. Hillary Clinton and Barack Obama is so close that the state's comparatively piddling number of delegates are worthy of some attention.

Obama to Omaha. Mrs. Obama to Lincoln. Chelsea to Lincoln.

As for November, attention from presidential nominees is less likely. Nebraska is the Big Red state in more than football. Republicans and Democrats historically put Nebraska in the guaranteed-forthe-Republican column. Before, during and after presidential election years.

If Nebraska were to go into the Democratic column, in any presidential election year, talking heads would explode and newspaper pundits would call it the biggest thing since FDR carried the state in winning his first term.

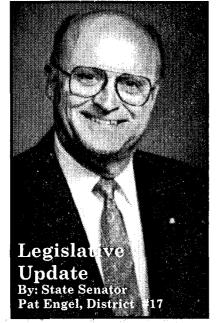

Update presented from Legislature

The public hearing was held this past week on LB 878, which provides that elected officials could only be recalled for malfeasance in office, misfeasance in office, or nonfeasance in office.

I offered an amendment at the public hearing that would add a fourth grounds for recall - that of conviction of a crime involving an act of dishonesty or a false statement. The registered voter seeking the recall would be required to submit a statement alleging facts which, if true, establish one of the specified grounds for recall.

LB 878 also establishes a judicial review process, in which an official who is subject to a recall could file an action in the district court to challenge the sufficiency of the allegations in the statement. The court would presume the allegations in the statement to be true and would determine whether the allegations establish the existence of one of the specified grounds for recall.

Jo Dee Adelung, the mayor of Nebraska City, testified in support of LB 878. She told of her personal experience with the recall process. The recall efforts were aimed at viblost and lower data conflicts and by those who don't get their way. No elected official will please everyone all of the time. Elected officials should not have to worry about being recalled for simply doing their job.

Recall petitions divide communities, disrupt governmental services and are very difficult on the official and their family. Even if the elected official has done nothing wrong, their reputation is blemished and oftentimes the abuse is also targeted on family members and their place of business. We cannot let recalls run rampant or we may find ourselves faced with a lack of qualified candidates willing to commit to public service. I am not trying to eliminate recall, but I am proposing that we limit such efforts to legitimate reasons. If LB 878 is advanced from the Government Committee, I have pledged to make it my priority bill. The Legislature passed several bills this past week, including LB 39, which places new restrictions petition circulators. It would on require circulators to be paid per hour rather than per signature. It also would require circulators to be electors in Nebraska. The legislation was introduced in response to abuse of the petition process during the last election. The petition process was intended to be a method for Nebraskans to amend the constitution and not for out-of-state interests to come in and promote their agenda. The Nebraska Supreme Court just ruled that electrocution is cruel and unusual punishment and therefore unconstitutional. Electrocution is Nebraska's only means of carrying out the death penalty. The day before the ruling, the Judiciary Committee advanced LB 1063 to the floor of the Legislature on a 6-1 vote. It would repeal Nebraska's death penalty, replacing it with a sentence of life in prison without the possibility of parole. This issue is bound to be the most controversial issue facing senators this session If you have any comments on the issues currently before the Legislature, I welcome your input. I can be reached at District #17, P.O. Box 94604, State Capitol, Lincoln, Neb. 68509, my e-mail address is lengel@leg.ne.gov and my telephone number is (402) 471-2716.

One-time state Tax Commissioner Bill Peters recently withdrew as the attorney representing Lancaster County in cases before TERC. Peters said that, unless the county had backed off its position denying some greenbelt designations, he would have had to argue both sides of the same question before the commission, since he was representing a county board that had both denied and affirmed greenbelt appeals in cases that involved analogous fact situations.

The greenbelt law, authored by the late Sen. Jerome Warner of Waverly, was intended to protect rural property from being taxed at its market value, as urban development crept out from towns and cities. Interestingly, the statute aimed at hiking taxes on nonagricultural acreages amended the law defining agriculture, not the greenbelt law.

Inconsistencies and contradictory decisions by county boards have led to appeals to TERC. And the entire law is destined to face judgment before the state Supreme Court. The law aimed at reclassifying some rural property in order to collect higher property taxes her decision to hire a city administrator (based upon a unanimous vote of the city council), which had taken place three years earlier. The city administrator position was part of her platform when she successfully ran for re-election. The recall effort was not successful, but she explained emotionally what she and her family went through during those three months. She related that much misinformation and untruth is circulated during the petition process and that she felt that she had to respond to every false accusation. Ms. Adelung also explained how her community is having a difficult time recruiting people to run for the open mayor and city council positions, as they have seen what she has went through. Ironically, Ms. Adelung was selected as the Elected Official of the Year one year after the recall attempt.

Ed Matney, the Dakota County Attorney, also testified in support of LB 878 at my request. He talked of his recent experience going through an unsuccessful recall attempt. He described recall as a vehicle for defamation of public officials. He endorsed the judicial review portion of LB 878, as he felt that it could be used as a filter, to weed out frivolous attempts at recall.

Rodney Storm, the city administrator in Blair, told the Government Committee members about a recent incidence with their local Airport Authority. When one member of the Authority found that he couldn't get his way, he took out recall petitions on the members voting the other way, going so far as taking one out on himself, so that an election could be held to replace the majority of the members.

I believe that the recall process should only be used for legitimate reasons. The intent of recall was to rid public office of corruption and misconduct. The current recall process is being abused. There have been recall efforts for personality

NECC plans one-session class on Autism

Northeast Community College in South Sioux City will present a one-session workshop later this month for parents and caregivers with a special interest in Autism.

The class, Autism 101, with course number EC 0300-03S/08S, meets Thursday, Feb. 21, from 6:30-9:30 p.m. at the Iowa Nebraska Bank, 21st and Dakota Avenue in South Sioux City.

Free to participants, this workshop is also sponsored by the Northeast Early Childhood Professional Partnerships and the Nebraska Autism Spectrum Disorders Network.

The class will cover characteristics and early intervention, environmental supports, communication, social skills, and behavior. Organizers note this is a great way to network with other parents and caregivers.

2008 Nebraska Severe Weather Awareness Poster Contest open to Nebraska fourth grade students

The springtime severe weather season is quickly approaching and that means it's time for the annual Nebraska Severe Awareness Poster Contest.

The 2008 contest, sponsored by Nebraska Association of Emergency Management, the National Weather Service and the Nebraska Emergency Management Agency, is part of the annual Severe Weather Awareness Week effort produced by emergency mandirectors agement across Nebraska.

The poster contest is open to all fourth-grade students in Nebraska public and private schools as well as home-schooled fourth-grade students.

Teachers are encouraged to have their students participate while teaching them about the hazards of severe weather in Nebraska. While not specifically designed to promote tornado awareness, tornadoes are the most common theme chosen for the posters. Lightning and flooding, which are also products of severe thunderstorms, are also good topic choices.

Baby boomer parents: unplug the ATM!

Have you turned into an ATM machine for your teenagers or young adult children? While most of us are inclined to do all we can to give our kids a helping hand, sometimes this can go too far. As a result, a number of parents today find themselves playing the role of financial supporter to their children well into their kids' adult lives. This can put a strain on parents, but it also may not be doing children a favor in the long-run, either.

Children need to have a good understanding about money - how to earn it, how to invest it and how to manage it for the long run. This raises a serious question - are parents handing over too much money to their children?

Think about the level of financial support you provide to your child, whether they are still teenagers or younger or even if they have reached adulthood. It is becoming more common these days for adult children to look for some kind of backing from parents, whether it be asking for money or saving on rent and moving back in with mom and dad. Is it the ATM Generation?

boomers Although baby arguably are the most prosperous generation in our nation's history, they face a number of financial challenges. Saving enough for retirement is a significant hurdle for most, but on top of that, many are finding that children remain dependent on them well into their own adult lives.

The Money Across Generations SM study conducted for Ameriprise Financial by GfK Roper Public Affairs, makes clear that a large percentage of boomer parents have a difficult time cutting the financial strings.

The study shows that two-thirds of boomer parents are helping adult children pay off college loans or tuition, more than half are contributing to the purchase of a new car and one-third help their adult children deal with living costs ranging from a home mortgage to utility payments.

There is no doubt that financially supporting children is commonplace for boomer parents. After all, some of the most notable expenses in life such as housing, cars and education, have become extremely expensive, and parents often want what's best for their kids

How much of a favor are you doing by providing a constant source of supplemental income to your children? If you are a parent who continues playing the role of a personal "ATM," will your kids truly be able to handle money on their own?

Lesson learned?

Financial backing even for adult children can result in some immediate security for boomer offspring, but the long-term damage of teaching self-reliance may be a downside. Ask yourself how your adult children will react if the ATM is unplugged, and they truly have to go-it alone. Will young adults who were used to having access to money when they really needed it (thanks to mom and dad) find themselves in a financial bind without that safety net? By giving your children too much financial support, they may be more susceptible to facing bankruptcy in the future because they couldn't properly manage their financial affairs. Have their spending habits become too dependent on a source of money that has nothing to do with their own ability to earn?

Determine whether your own retirement plans are being put at risk by using too much of your savings or income to help pay bills for your kids. That could result in a financial shortfall for you later in life and possibly postpone retirement.

Start the conversation

The Money Across Generations study makes it clear that younger generations are doing a better job of discussing family discussions about financial matters. However, there is still a lot of work to be done. Only four out of ten baby boomer parents say they have regular conversations about money and finances with their families. The number is even smaller among parents of baby boomers, but over 50% percent of the children of baby boomers say that it happens.

Sometimes, giving money may seem easier than talking about it. However, children, whether they are teenagers or adults, can use a little financial reality check from their parents, especially if they are used to leaning on mom and dad for significant financial support.

Good money habits start young. The sooner your children learn that, the better off they are likely to be in the long run and the more money you are likely to accumulate for retirement.

Consult a financial advisor to discuss your retirement goals. A financial advisor may help you determine a savings plan that suits your needs.

Johnson - Lerseth are wed in Wayne ceremony

United in marriage on Dec. 1, 2007 at First United Methodist Church in Wayne were Cena Johnson and Harley Lerseth.

The Rev. Doyle Burbank-Williams officiated at the 5 p.m. ceremony.

Parents of the couple are Bruce and Yleen Johnson of Wayne and Philip and Edna Lerseth of Beresford, S.D. Grandparents of the couple are Grace Peters of Laurel, Russell and Ruth Johnson of Battle Creek and Eleanor Bass of Beresford, S.D.

Organist was Coleen Jeffries of Wayne and soloist was Troy Peters of Ainsworth, cousin of the bride.

The bride was escorted down the isle by her father. She wore a fulllength satin gown with a bateau neckline and long, fitted semisheer sleeves. The dropped waistline bodice and sleeves were adorned with alcenon lace encrusted with sequins and pearls. The hemline of the full gahters skirt was accented with beaded lace trim continuing into the semi-cathedral train, featuring cutout beaded applique accents. She wore a scalloped edge veil with beaded trim attached to a crown of pearls, sequins and beads.

Matron of Honor was April Taylor of Dakota Dunes, S.D., friend of the bride.

Bridesmaids were Heather Lerseth of Groton, S.D. and Heidi Merriman of Beresford, S.D., sisters of the groom.

The bridesmaids wore pink, ankle-length georgette dresses featuring a cowl neckline and a ruffle asymmetrical hemline.

Tom Merriman of Beresford, brother-in-law of the groom, served as Best Man.

Groomsmen were Glenn Johnson and Lee Johnson, brothers of the bride, both of Wayne.

Ushers for the ceremony wer Kevin Peters of Wayne, Kevin Lingenfelter of Norfolk and Chad Luschen of Emerson, cousins of the bride and Nathan Falk of Omaha, cousin of the groom.

Candlelighters were Emily Koester of Laurel, cousin of the bride and Kirsten Ustad of Beresford, S.D., friend of the groom

The bride's personal attendants were her cousins, June Koester of Laurel and Diane Peters of Wayne. Guest book attendant was Kristin Van Maanen of Orange City, Iowa, cousin of the bride.

Floral attendants were Maureen Osbahr of Wakefield, aunt of the bride and Shirley Baas of Wichita, Kan., aunt of the groom.

Program attendants were cousins of the bride, Beth Romer of Ames, Iowa, Renae Brenner of Mr. and Mrs. Lerseth Wayne City Auditorium following the ceremony.

Host couples were Craig and Lindy Hellyer of Davenport, Iowa, friends of the bride and Don and Ilene Lerseth of Beresford, S.D., cousins of the groom.

Live music was provided by members of The University of South Dakota's music department.

Candid photographers for the event were Elaine Lingenfelter of Norfolk, aunt of the bride, and Dennis Ross of Wichita, Kan. friend of the bride.

Cake servers were Barb Black of Yankton, S.D., Carolyn Driewer of Norfolk, Ann Ross of Wichita, Kan., all friends of the bride and Janet Falk of Omaha, aunt of the groom.

Punch servers were Michelle Lingenfelter of Norfolk and Kylev Lingenfelter of Battle Creek, cousins of the bride.

Reception attendants were Jennifer Johnson and Rachel Johnson of Wayne, cousins of the bride, Kathy Burke and Kathy Janke, both of Wayne and Linda Schoenberner of Gayville, S.D., friends of the bride and Aimee Sorensen of Vermillion, S.D., friend of the couple.

The bride is employed at USD as Distance Learning Program Manager. The groom is engaged in Carlson will be joining a group farming.

The couple traveled to the Hawaiian Islands and now reside in Vermillion, S.D.

The Crusaders will be performing in Wakefield on Sunday, Feb. 24.

Crusaders coming to perform at Wakefield not the Crusaders. This gospel group has been singing together for 40 years, the same four people, and they are coming to Wakefield.

The Crusaders will be presenting a concert at Wakefield Covenant Church on Sunday, Feb. 24 at 7 p.m. There is no charge to attend, but a free-will offering will be taken.

As teenagers in the mid-60's, the Crusaders grew to be one of the Midwest's best-known gospel groups. In the 70's they started traveling full-time, sharing the stage with other nationally known southern gospel groups, like the Blackwood Brothers and the Stamps Quartet. Today, because of "their powerful presentation and the resurgence in popularity of gospel music," their music and message is in its greatest demand. Their unique blend of praise and worship songs and southern gospel music appeals to all ages.

Prior to the concert there will be a soup supper. Proceeds from the supper will go to the Concrete for Christ Mission Trip to Reynosa, Mexico. Vicki Foote and Ellen

Movie Night planned at Wakefield church

Evangelical Covenant Church in Wakefield will be having "Amazing Grace Movie Night" on Sunday, Feb. 17, beginning at 6 p.m.

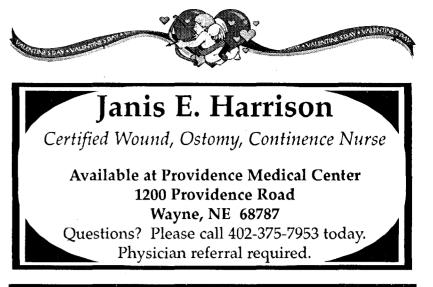

The film is based on the life of anti-slavery pioneer William Wilberforce. Wilberforce was a member of parliament, navigating the world of 18th century backroom politics to end the slave trade in the British Empire.

Elected to the House of Commons at the age of 21, and on his way to a successful political career, Wilberforce, over the course of two decades, took on the English establishment and persuaded those in power to end the inhumane trade of slavery.

All area residents are invited to "come and bring a friend to view this compelling movie."

There is no charge or offering to attend this movie and free popcorn will served. The church is located at 802 Winter Street . in Wakefield.

Research documents mountain lion mobility

Wildlife biologists at the University of Nebraska-Lincoln have determined that a young male mountain lion struck on I-80 near Gretna in 2005 moved hundreds of miles across the state from the northwest. The finding is important in helping determine how the animals, rare in Nebraska, occasionally make their way into the state and end up far from home.

The mountain lion, found dead along the interstate in Sarpy County in November 2005, probably came out of the Black Hills of South Dakota, concluded Larkin Powell and Viviane H'naux, wildlife ecologists at the University of Nebraska-Lincoln. As it made its way across northeast Nebraska, it drank water and ate prey such as deer, which became part of the growing tissue of its claw.

Earlier research at UNL's School of Natural Resources found that the state's water has a distinctive chemical signature in different places. Powell and H'naux built on that research, analyzing samples of the claw to see where the animal was when it ate and drank. They found that the chemical signature varied from the claw's tip, the oldest part, to its root, the newest part, and by comparing it to the chemical patterns found in water and deer across the state, they inferred its origin and migration route. The mountain lion likely travthrough northeasterneled Nebraska, possibly along the Missouri or Elkhorn rivers, and probably not along the Platte River, before it arrived in the Gretna area, H'naux concluded.

"The results of this study give us a glimpse into the behavior of an exceedingly rare animal in Nebraska that wouldn't have been possible otherwise," said Scott Taylor, wildlife research section leader in the Nebraska Game and Parks Commission. "The public is very interested in the status of mountain lions in the state, and this study helps shed some muchneeded light on how they occasionally make their way to eastern Nebraska."

"The fact that we could do this is very exciting," said Jim Douglas, wildlife division administrator of Game and Parks. "We've had a lot of mountain lion confirmations, but they have such a large home range, I joke that we don't know if we've got 50 mountain lions or one on a motorcycle. You could have a mountain lion confirmation in Chadron, and a week later, another in Niobrara. It could be the same mountain lion."

The research also helps provide scientific evidence that animals' range creeps, Douglas said.

"People think sometimes because 1991. The Cougar Network, on-line we translocate animals like bighorn sheep from Montana to Nebraska that that's what's going on. But armadillos are showing up on the south border of Nebraska. Some animals don't move a long way, but their range shifts slightly over time," Douglas said.

But young male mountain lions can and do cover a lot of ground. Powell said the steady change in the chemical composition of sections of the claw "shows it wasn't someone's pet, because then the chemical content should be constant across the claw. And it wasn't raised somewhere else and released here, because then there would have been a jump in the chemical signature."

Instead, Powell said, the pattern of gradual change in the claw's chemical content is consistent with young male lions' drive to find a territory of their own. Mountain lions exist in the wild in South Dakota, Wyoming, Colorado and Oklahoma, and sometimes need more space.

Hunting and habitat destruction eliminated mountain lions from the eastern United States, including Nebraska, in the late 1800s and early 1900s, but they have gradually been making their way east again since 1990, with the first confirmed sighting in Nebraska in at www.easterncougarnet.org, documents mountain lions' return to their former habitat. "Mountain lion," "cougar," and "puma" all refer to Puma concolor. Bobcats are a separate species.

Most sightings in Nebraska have been in the north and west parts of the state, with a substantial cluster in Dawes County, said Sam Wilson, a Game and Parks biologist. The few confirmed sightings in the east are exceptions.

"Before 2004, we'd only had one confirmed mountain lion observation [in Dawes County]," he said. "Since 2004, there have been 14. The confirmations in the Pine Ridge area have really risen in the past few years. It seems like it would be good mountain lion habitat, and it's logical if we assume they're dispersing from South Dakota. There's not a lot of people, there's a lot of deer, and it's rugged."

In the unlikely event that someone encounters a mountain lion, Game and Parks offers several tips (http://www.ngpc.state.ne.us/ wildlife/mountainlion.asp), including backing away slowly and calmly, and picking up children to make sure they don't run. In the highly unlikely event of a mountain lion attack, experts recommend fighting back.

Beware of dangers associated with falls were last week, I'm convinced that one of the most important ways of them. (Including wearing helmets protecting them is to prevent falls. I've recently become aware of this danger with the falls of two good friends.

Tuesday morning: Birthday, President Lincoln, you are still my favorite.

One, a male, was taking a basket of clothes up the stairs to the second floor bedroom when he fell backwards and hit his head at the bottom. This prompted hospitalization, long term care for therapy, and a stair glide installed in the home.

The second, a woman, tripped on some stairs and hit her head on carpet that was laid over concrete. Fortunately, all the subsequent bleeding took place over the skull, not under; but they were prepared to do burr holes. This, too, resulted in hospitalization, then a period of time in a rehab hospital, and out patient therapy still in progress.

As she will tell you, she remembers names and events, but not objects. Well, I think all of us at a the rehab process has come a long certain age might be having trouble with all of these; but when talk-

There is an article in this morning's paper about falls, and how often a fall precipitates a downward spiral for elderly folks. I've decided that it's much better to break a hip than a head! Hips recover very quickly these days, but brains are a different matter.

One thing researchers have learned about preventing falls is that dehydration can be a risk factor. And many older people do not drink enough water. So, that's a simple thing to do. Of course, it requires more trips to the bathroom, but that keeps our legs stronger!

Well, that's my health lecture for tle tennis ball. Be careful on the ice! Maybe we should all be wearing helmets when we leave our

Rotary International celebrates 103rd anniversary

Rotary International is the world's first service club organization. Its more than 1.2 million members volunteer their time and talent to further the Rotary motto, Service Above Self. The world's first service club, the Rotary Club of Chicago, was formed on Feb. 23,1905 by Paul P. Harris, an attorney who wished to capture in a professional club the same friendly spirit he had felt in the small towns of his youth. The Rotary name derived from the early practice of rotating meetings among members' offices.

Rotary's popularity spread, and within a decade, clubs were chartered from San Francisco to New York to Winnipeg, Canada. By 1921, Rotary clubs had been formed on six continents. The organization adopted the Rotary International name a year later.

As Rotary grew, its mission expanded beyond serving club members' professional and social interests. Rotarians began pooling their resources and contributing their talents to help serve communities in need. The organization's dedication to this ideal is best expressed in its motto: Service Above Self.

By 1925, Rotary had grown to 200 clubs with more than 20,000 members. The organization's distinguished reputation attracted presidents, prime ministers, and a host of other luminaries to its ranks - among them author Thomas Mann, diplomat Carlos P. Romulo, humanitarian Albert Schweitzer, and composer Jean Sibelius.

There are many reasons to join a local Rotary club: Networking: An original goal of Rotary was to allow club members to meet periodically build GOODWILL and BETTER and they will again raise money for collecting food for the food panty us at Tacos & More at 7 a.m. every and enlarge their circle of business and professional acquaintances. As members of the oldest service club in the world, Rotarians represent a cross-section of their community's business owners, executives, managers, political leaders, and professionals - people who make decisions and influence policy.

Service: Club members have many opportunities for humanitarian service, both locally and internationally. Service programs address concerns such as health care, hunger, poverty, illiteracy, and the environment. Rotarians regularly experience the fulfillment that comes from giving back to the community.

Friendship: Rotary was founded on fellowship, a cornerstone that continues to attract members today. Rotarians enjoy camaraderie with like-minded professionals, and club projects provide opportunities to develop enduring friendships. Club members who travel have friendly contacts in almost every city of the world.

Family: Rotary sponsors some of the world's largest exchange and educational programs. Rotary clubs provide innovative training opportunities and mentoring for young leaders, and they involve family members in a wide range of social and service activities.

Ethics: Encouraging high ethical standards and respect for all worthy vocations has been a hallmark of Rotary from its earliest days. In their business and professional lives.

Way Test: Of the things we think, say or do 1. Is it the TRUTH? 2. Is Kids. TeamMates will again be an FRIENDSHIPS? 4. Will it be BEN-EFICIAL to all concerned?

Leadership: Rotary is an organization of successful professionals. Team-building, fundraising, public speaking, planning, organization, and communication are just some of the leadership skills that club members can exercise and enhance. Being a Rotary leader provides further experience in motivating, inspiring, and guiding others.

The Wayne Rotary Club has had a very successful and rewarding year and has been busy with many community and international activities.

Rotary is very involved in literacy in the United States and around the world, so the Wayne Rotary Club purchased dictionaries, so every third grader in nine of the surrounding towns had a dictionary of their very own. The Rotary members who delivered the dictionaries in the Wayne School system as well as the other eight towns came back with many heartwarming stories to tell about the response from the children and teachers from each of the schools.

Youth activity involvement is very important to the Wayne Rotary Club and they work with the WSC Rotaract Club, assist with the Middle School Cross Country Run, judge floats during the WSC Homecoming parade, sponsor Students of the Month at the Wayne Middle School, clean the garden area at Rotary's Centennial Project at the Middle School, pack-Rotarians abide by The Four- age meals for Kids Against Hunger, and donate to Mission: Military it FAIR to all concerned? 3. Will it important part for the Rotary Club this great project.

A scholarship fund was set up last year with the WSC Foundation the Wayne Rotary Club, please join 4698. to give to a Rotaract member as well as an annual scholarship, which is given to a Wayne High graduate each year.

Black History Month activities continue at NECC

Black History Month activities continue at Northeast Community College in Norfolk with two special presentations that are free and open to the public.

Dr. Spencer and Vivian Davis of Bellevue will present a program, "Understanding Emancipation: Abraham Lincoln and Sojourner Truth," on Wednesday, February 20, at 11 a.m. in the Cox Activities Center Theater. The Nebraska Humanities Council (NHC) will provide major funding for this program. The NHC receives support from the National Endowment for the Humanities, the Nebraska State Legislature, the Nebraska Cultural Endowment, and private donations.

According to the Nebraska Humanities Council, Abraham Lincoln and Sojourner Truth met only once during a brief meeting in the White House in 1864. That meeting serves as the premise for a dialogue between Lincoln and Truth that reveals the complicated path to and beyond the Emancipation Proclamation.

The presentation is in period costume with Spencer Davis portraying Lincoln and Vivian Davis portraying Truth. The dialogue is preceded by a historical introduction by Spencer Davis and followed by a question-and-answer period with the Davis's.

Dr. Davis is on the arts and science faculty at Peru State College.

Plainview author Dennis Vossberg will also present at Northeast on Tuesday, February 26, at 3:30 p.m. at the Multicultural Club's International Coffee in the Hawks' Landing in the Student Center. He will discuss Black homesteaders, mostly ex-slaves, who settled in the Sandhills of southern Wheeler County, Nebraska, in the 1880's.

He has chronicled their activities in his book, Hector's Bliss, Black Homesteaders at Goose Lake, Nebraska. The book is about the Hector Dixon family, former slaves who settled about 35 miles south of O'Neill. Vossberg, a retired, 31-year employee of the Internal Revenue Service (IRS), studied area libraries, courthouse records, census rolls, newspaper microfilm, cemetery documents, and history books, and conducted personal interviews for nearly two years for his book.

Bruning to ask about reconsidering decision

Attorney General Jon Bruning the court to reconsider it." recently announced that he will file a motion to reconsider a Nebraska Supreme Court ruling. In the ruling, the court says electrocution is cruel and unusual punishment under Nebraska's constitution.

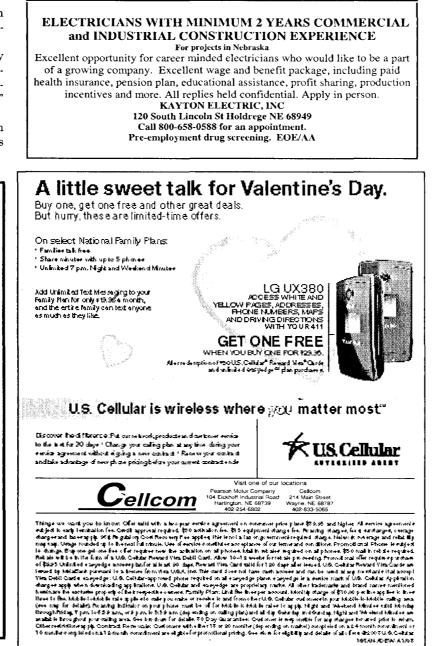

"I'm surprised and disappointed with the ruling and think the court is mistaken," said Bruning. "I think the decision is incorrect as a matter of law, and we intend to ask

The court's ruling strikes down the state's only method of execution.

"Nebraskans overwhelmingly support the death penalty and justice demands our state has a constitutional method of execution," Bruning said.

Bruning also said he agrees with Chief Justice Michael Heavican's dissenting opinion on the issue.

466.7 acres of good Dixon County Farmland

FARMLAND AUCTION

The owners of the Ann and John Meyer Farm located just East of Dixon, Nebraska, will sell at public auction, for cash, on March 4th, 2008, at 2:00 o'clock p.m., at the Laurel City Auditorium, Laurel, Nebraska

LOCATION: From the 1st intersection North of Dixon on Highway 116 go 3 miles East or from the Junction of Highways 20 & 116 go 3 miles South on Highway 116 and 3 miles East or go 7 miles straight East of Laurel on the Dixon road.

DESCRIPTION: The North Half of Section 11, and the Southwest Quarter of Section 11, in Township 28 North, Range 4 East of the 6th P.M., Dixon County, Nebraska, less railroad right-of-way and less highway right-of-way, comprising 466.7 acres, more or less;

DP V day 1811		142 SL 15 Dome Ster 142 This	77.5	150.5 etux 1545

TAXES: The 2007 taxes on the farm were $11,027.26

COUNTY ASSESSOR AND FSA DATA: Farmland: 466.0 acres. Cropland: 402.2 acres. Corn Base: 206.4 acres with a 72 bu. direct and countercyclical yield. Soybean Base: 94.5 acres with a 26 bu. direct and countercyclical yield. Wheat Base: 23.6 acres with a 30 bu. direct and countercyclical yield. Oats Base: 18.3 acres with a 51 bu. direct and countercyclical yield. Barley Base: .3 acres with a 38 bu. direct and countercyclical yield. Direct payment for 2007 was $4,790.00.

IMPROVEMENTS: The acreage consists of a cozy 3-bedroom home with a beautiful fireplace in family room along with a very nice machine shed (approx.) 96 ft. x 40 ft. with cement floor, electricity and water; barn (approx.) 38 ft. x 26 ft.; old hog house (approx.) 40 ft. x 18 ft.; 5 storage bins that are approximately 3000 bu. each. Further information regarding the acreage and residence available upon request.

Most of this farm lays very nice and is a very good producer. There is a nice dam for good fishing upon the premises and a few areas of timber that offer excellent deer hunting.

Interested parties are encouraged to come upon the premises to gain a better view of the lay of the land. Stop by the residence in the northwest corner of the farm and let John Meyer know that you want to drive upon the premises.

For the 2007 crop year there were 222.9 acres of corn planted; 72.1 acres of alfalfa; 39.4 acres of oats; along with 30.4 acres of ground in the CRP program which comes out in September of 2008 and in addition there was 37.4 acres of pasture. All of the pasture has been previously farmed. Buyer will assume the terms of the CRP contract which pays $66.00 per/acre.

Purchaser will pay 15% of the purchase price on date of sale and sign a sales contract agreeing to pay the balance on or before April 1, 2008. Title insurance showing merchantable title will be furnished. Possession will be given to the buyer on the closing date after the purchase price has been paid in full. Seller will pay the 2007 and prior real estate taxes. The right to reject all bids is reserved. Additional terms and conditions announced on the date of sale will take precedent over the above information. The above information is believed to be correct but not guaranteed and buyers are urged to make their own independent investigation.

NOTICE Notice is hereby given that on February 1, 2008, the Northeast Nebraska Public Power District (Northeast NE PPD) filed a Petition to amend paragraph 7, 8, and 13 of its Charter with the Nebraska Power Review Board (PRB). On January 22, 2008, the Northeast Nebraska PPD's Board of Directors approved a resolution to amend the paragraphs set forth below. All other portions of the charter will remain unchanged. For purposes of this Notice only, the proposed language to be added to the charter has been underlined; while overstrikes appear over the existing language to be removed from the charter.

The proposed amendments to paragraph 7, 8, and 13 of the Charter for the Northeast NE PPD as set out in the District's petition are as follows:

"7. Towns and villages included in the restated charter area include the following: Osmond. Hoskins, Carroll, Winside, Concord, Dixon, Martinsburg, Newcastle, Obert, Maskell, Ponca, Waterbury, Allen, Hubbard, Jackson, Homor Emerson, and Thurston

8. Cities, towns and villages included within the geographical boundaries of the District, but are not a part of the charter area include the following: Foster, Pierce, Wayne, Wakefield, and Emercen Homer.

13. The Board of the Directors of the District shall consist of nine members, with one director for each of the nine subdivisions. The names and addresses of the members of the Board of Directors of this district who shall serve until their successors are elected and gualified and the subdivision each shall serve are as follows:

Bid specifications for contract services were reviewed. After an extended discussion, the board decided to open lawn mowing, and lawn spraying bids for the courthouse, and for the Health and Human Services buildings on March 4th at 1:30 p.m.. Bids for cleaning the courthouse, and cleaning the Health and Human Services building will be opened on March 4th at 2:00 p.m

Motion by Wurdeman, second by Rabe to recess the Board of Commissioners meeting and convene as Board of Equalization.

The Board of Commissioners meeting reconvened at 1:32 p.m.

Motion by Rabe, second by Wurdeman for the commissioners, County Attorney Pieper, and Clerk Finn to enter closed session at 1:33 p.m. for personnel purposes. Roll call vote: Rabeaye, Wurdeman-aye, Nissen-aye; motion carried.

Motion by Rabe, second by Wurdeman to reconvene open session at 1:47 p.m. Roll call vote: Rabe-aye, Wurdeman-aye, Nissen-aye; motion carried.

Pat Shanahan of Stock Auction Company asked the county to consider using their services to sell used equipment. Citing the value of good maintenance records, Shanahan said the machines bring at least wholesale, as proven by Antelope, Stanton and Jefferson counties.

Tax foreclosure sales to be conducted on March 7th were discussed with County Attorney Pieper. Motion by Rabe, second by Wurdeman to authorize the county to bid in the delinquent taxes on the tax foreclosure sale. Roll call vote: Rabe-aye, Wurdeman-aye, Nissen-aye; motion carried.

February 5, 2008

The Wayne County Board of Equalization convened at 11:30 a.m. on Tuesday, February 5, 2008. Those in attendance included Chairman Wurdeman, Members Nissen and Rabe, and Clerk Finn.

Advance notice of this meeting was published in the Wayne Herald, a legal newspaper, on January 24, 2008

A current copy of the Open Meetings Act was posted in the meeting room and accessible to the public.

The minutes of the January 15, 2008, meeting were approved as printed in the Commissioner's Record.

The agenda was approved

A public hearing to review tax exempt applications on real and personal property convened at 11:35 a.m. Motion by Rabe, second by Nissen to remove the late filling penalty applied to St John's Lutheran Church in Wakefield. Roll call vote: Rabe-Aye, Nissen-aye, Wurdeman-aye; motion carried.

Assessor Reeg reviewed the tax exempt applications, recommending the board deny the Habitat for Humanity application as the house has now been sold, and deny the Trinity Lutheran Church parsonage at Altona application as the parsonage is being rented. Reeg recommended approval of the remaining applications. Motion by Nissen, second by Rabe to approve Reeg's recommended action on all tax exempt applications. Roll call vote: Nissen-aye, Rabe-aye, Wurdeman-aye; motion carried.

The public hearing was adjourned. Debra Finn, Wayne County Clerk STATE OF NEBRASKA

Roll call was answered by Chairman Nissen, Members Wurdeman and Rabe, and Clerk Finn

Advance notice of this meeting was published in the Wayne Herald, a legal newspaper, on January 24, 2008.

A current copy of the Open Meetings Act was posted in the meeting room and accessible to the public.

The agenda was approved.

The minutes of the January 15, 2008, meeting were approved as printed in the Commissioner's Record.

Wayne County Emergency Manager Deanna Beckman was appointed Wayne County's representative to the 12 county North East Planning, Exercise, Training (PET) and Interoperable Communications Region established by the State of Nebraska. Each region is responsible for interoperable communications planning and system implementation, disaster planning, and other programs as prescribed by state and federal authorities. Beckman was appointed on motion by Wurdeman, second by Rabe. Roll call vote: Wurdeman-aye, Rabe-aye, Nissen-aye; motion car-

A "Meet and Greet" media event for emergency management is scheduled for February 12th at the First National Bank in Wayne.

A Simcell emergency management exercise for the North East Region is scheduled for Saturday, February 16th in Wisner.

Projects included in the One and Six Year Road Improvement Plan were reviewed. Highway Superintendent Elizabeth Carlson requested the board submit any changes to her as soon as possible. A public hearing for the plan is scheduled for Tuesday. February 19th at 10:00 a.m. in the courthouse meeting room.

A two-week bridge inspector course is scheduled in March/April; Carlson asked if she should attend, a consensus was not reached.

Carlson reported receiving a Flood Hazard Boundary Map/Flood Insurance Rate Map dated March 18, 2008, as the official map to be used in determining areas of special flood hazard. Motion by Wurdeman, second by Rabe to approve a resolution adopting the new maps for participation in the national flood insurance program. Roll call vote: Wurdeman-aye, Rabe-aye, Nissen-ave; motion carried.

An engineering proposal from Calhoun-Burns and Associates for a federal aid project to replace Bridge No. C009003305, 2.0 miles west and 7.6 miles south of Wayne were discussed. The board was concerned with the cost estimate. Motion by Rabe, second by Wurdeman to reject the proposal. Roll call vote: Wurdeman-aye, Rabe-aye, Nissen-aye; motion carried.

An application for placement of a utility line in county road right of way was discussed. The tile company will be contacted to discuss concerns as to where the tile machines start and stop. Northeast Nebraska Public Health Department Director Deb Scholten presented the 2006-

07 Annual Progress Report. Scholten reported they are responsible for the core functions of public health, and they have done extensive planning work.

Barbara Greve was reappointed to a three-year term on the Northeast Nebraska Area Agency on Aging Advisory Council on motion by Wurdeman, second by Rabe. Roll call vote: Wurdeman-aye, Rabe-aye, Nissen-aye; motion carried.

PUBLIC HEARING NOTICE LOWER ELKHORN NATURAL RESOURCES DISTRICT

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 21, 2008 7;00 P.M. AT THE LIFELONG LEARNING CENTER IN NORFOLK, NEBRASKA

Notice is hereby given that the Lower Elkhorn Natural Resources District (NRD) will hold a public hearing on Thursday, February 21st, 2008, at its monthly Information, Planning and Programs Subcommittee meeting, which begins at 7:00 p.m., at Suite 101 of the Lifelong Learning Center, 601 East Benjamin Avenue, Norfolk, Nebraska. The purpose of the hearing is to receive public comment on the amendment to the NRD Groundwater Management Area Rules and Regulations: 1) to remove the requirement for approved flow meters to have a flow rate readout; and 2) to no longer allow people to remove a flow meter from the pipeline for off-season storage.

Both oral and written testimony will be accepted at the hearing on February 21st, 2008. Written testimony may also be submitted by mail to the Lower Elkhorn NRD, P.O. Box 1204, Norfolk, NE 68702, or delivered to the Lower Elkhorn Natural Resources NRD office, Suite 101 in the Lifelong Learning Center, on the Northeast Community College Campus, at 601 East Benjamin Avenue, in Norfolk, Nebraska. Written testimony will be accepted until 5:00 p.m. CST, Wednesday, February 27th, 2008.

The Groundwater Management Area Rules and Regulations enforce policies established in the NRD's Groundwater Management Plan, which was adopted by the NRD Board of Directors and approved by the Nebraska Department of Natural Resources in 1996. The contents of the Groundwater Management Plan include the NRD reservoir life goal, which is to "provide an adequate supply of acceptable quality groundwater to forever fulfill the reasonable groundwater demands within the NRD for domestic, municipal, agricultural, industrial, wildlife and other uses deemed beneficial by the NRD Board" as well as information about groundwater and its use in the NRD, and the goals, policies, objectives and programs of the NRD Board of Directors to achieve the reservoir life goal. No changes are proposed for the NRD Groundwater Management Plan.

Copies of the proposed amendments to the NRD Rules and Regulations are available for viewing at the NRD office at 601 E. Benjamin Avenue, Suite 101, in Norfolk, Nebraska, and on the NRD's website at www.lenrd.org.

The NRD Groundwater Management Area was formed in 1997, and includes the entire NRD as well as the following aquifers:

1. Ogallala Group and overlying deposits. 2. Niobrara Formation and overlying deposits,

3. Dakota Group and overlying deposits, 4. All other aquifers supplying groundwater for beneficial uses.

No changes are proposed for the geograph and stratigraphic boundaries of the Groundwater Management Area.

Current Groundwater Management Area Rules and Regulations require water well permits for new and replacement wells that are designed to pump more than fifty (50) gallons per minute within the entire Groundwater Management Area, and no changes are proposed for water well permit regulations.

The following is a general description of the proposed amendments to the NRD Groundwater Management Area Rules and Regulations, which apply to the entire NRD: 1. Currently, the Lower Elkhorn Natural Resources District has approved one flow meter for use in the district. The lowest reading this meter will measure accurately is 50 gallons per minute. Recently, wells have been drilled and equipped with variable speed pumps so that the owners could set their own pumping rates, which includes rates below 50 gallons per minute. That is below the working range of the approved flow meter. Meters that will work in that range do not have gallon per minute flow rate readouts. Since we are most interested in the total water pumped, the Lower Elkhorn Natural Resources District proposes to modify the rules and regulations to eliminate the requirement for a gallon per minute readout, and only require the totalizer readout. This will allow the Lower Elkhorn Natural Resources District to approve meters for wells that will pump both above and below 50 gallons per minute accurately. This change appears on page 14, or in Rule 11 C. (c), and in the definition of flow meter on page 3, definition number 21 of Rule 2, of the Groundwater Management Area rules and regulations.

2. The Lower Elkhorn Natural Resources District also proposes to not allow meter removal for off-season storage, since tampering with the meter will be difficult to detect if off-season removal of the meter is allowed. That change is on page 14, in Rule 11 B (e) of the Groundwater Management Area rules and regulations. Please contact Rick Wozniak at the Lower Elkhorn NRD, (402) 371-7313, if you have questions.

ORDINANCE NO. 2008-1

AN ORDINANCE OF THE CITY OF WAYNE, WAYNE COUNTY, NEBRASKA AMENDING SECTION 22-31 OF THE WAYNE CITY MUNICIPAL CODE TO LEVY AN OCCUPA-TION TAX ON MOBILE TELECOMMUNICA-TION SERVICES; REPEALING ALL ORDI-NANCES OR PARTS OF ORDINANCES IN CONFLICT HEREWITH; PROVIDING A TIME WHEN THIS ORDINANCE SHALL BE IN FULL FORCE AND EFFECT.

BE IT ORDAINED by the Mayor and Council of the City of Wayne, Nebraska; SECTION 1. That Section 22-31 of the

Wayne City Municipal Code be amended to read as follows, to-wit

§ 22-31 Occupation Tax: Telephone Companies and Telecommunications Companies.

Revenue Measure sions of this section are enacted solely as a revenue measure of the city.

C. Mobile Telecommunications Services, defined. As used in this section, mobile telecommunications services shall mean a wireless communication service carried on between mobile stations or receivers and land stations, and by mobile stations communicating among themselves, and includes: (1) Both one-way and two-way wireless communications services; (2) a mobile service which provides a regularly interacting group of base, mobile, portable, and associated control and relay stations, whether on an individual, cooperative, or multiple basis for private one-way or twoway land mobile radio communications by eligible users over designated areas of operation; and (3) any personal communications service.

D. Amount of Tax: Federal and State Governments, Exempt. An occupation tax is levied and imposed in the amount of five percent (5%) of the annual gross receipts of the telephone company or telecommunications company receiving local exchange telephone services and intrastate message toll service from subscribers within the corporate limits of the City and each customer receiving mobile telecommunications services that originates and terminates within the state to a customer with a place of primary use within the corporate limits of Wayne, Nebraska. No part or portion of the tax provided for the article shall be levied upon or assessed against telephone service or mobile telecommunications services to the United State Government, the government of the State, the City or any of their departments.

E. Monthly payments; due dates. The payment of any occupation tax levied and imposed by the provisions of this article shall be made in monthly payments. Each monthly payment shall be due fifteen (15) days immediately following the termination of each month.

F. Statement to be filed. Every person coming within the provisions of this article shall, on or before the fifteenth day of the month, immediately following the termination of each calendar year, file with the City Clerk, a full, complete and detailed statement of customers for the preceding three (3) calendar months, omitting therefrom the appropriate exceptions and exemptions, if any. All statements shall be duly verified as true and correct and sworn to by the manager of managing officer of such person.

G. City's right to inspect. The City shall have the right at any time and all times during business hours to inspect, through the comptroller or some other office appointed by the City Council, the books and records of any person coming under the provisions of this article for the purpose of ascertaining the correctness of the required statement

H. Failure to file statement: interest and penalty. In the event any person coming under the provisions of this article shall refuse, fail or neglect to furnish or file the required statement at the time or times specified, the occupation tax of the preceding three (3) calendar months shall draw interest at the rate of one (1) percent per month after due and payable, and in addition thereto, a penalty of five (5) percent for the failure to file. I. Interest and penalty on delin-quent payments. All delinquent payments shall draw interest at the rate of one (1) percent per month; and, if delinquent for six (6) months or more, penalty of five (5) percent shall be added thereto in addition to the interest charge.

J. Collection of tax by civil action. In case any person shall fail to make payment of the occupation tax as required by this article, the City shall have the right and may sue any such person or persons in any court of competent jurisdiction for the amount of the occupation tax due and payable and may recover judgment against such person for the amount due, together with interest and penalties, and may have cution the
