Survivor lap

Cancer survivors from throughout the area walked the first lap of the 10th annual Wayne County Relay For Life on Friday night. Despite windy conditions earlier in the day, participants were able to enjoy nearly ideal weather throughout the event. Activities lasted until 6 a.m. on Saturday morning when those in attendance took a lap around the track, signifying the first lap of next year's event. More photos can be found throughout today's edition of the Herald.

Former Wayne High graduate teaching in Texas and also playing professional football

Dustin Schmeits, a 2000 graduate of Wayne High School and son of Tim and Teresa Schmeits of Wayne, is teaching school in Texas while at the same time, playing professional football. The former Wayne student teaches and coaches football and basketball at Beck Junior High in Katy, Texas while playing in the IFL with the Katy Ruff Riders. As part of the Ruff Riders, he is in intense professional football competition at Merrell Center on weekends in the spring and early summer.

While at Wayne High, Schmeits played with the Blue Devils and later for the University of Nebraska-Kearney as a six foot, 185 pound receiver. After graduating, he wanted to start his coaching career and figured his playing days were done but found that the Alief schools had a program where they recruited teachers and paid them to move.

Wanting to get into coaching, he and his wife decided to go to Texas where Schmeits landed a job with Beck Junior High coaching seventh-grade football and basketball and teaching sixth-grade social studies. Both he and his wife liked the community, settled in and became part of a church group there.

Last December, Schmeits heard about the Ruff Riders tryouts. Each player had to pay $50 and provide workout clothes. Schmeits had kept in shape so decided to try out. He had always enjoyed playing football and thought it would be fun.

Heritage Nebraska to hold public meeting in Wayne

Northeast Nebraska residents interested in historic preservation and downtown revitalization will meet in Wayne on Monday, June 16 to learn about Heritage Nebraska.

The 7 p.m. meeting at the Northeast Nebraska Public Power District Community Meeting Room at 1410 W. Seventh Street is being sponsored by the Mountains/Plains Office of the National Trust for Historic Preservation and the Nebraska Lied Main Street Program. The meeting is free and open to the public. Anyone interested in historic preservation is encouraged to attend.

"We are taking advantage of the National Trust Partners in the Field program to expand the mission of the Main Street Program to encompass a more diverse set of historic resources that exist outside the downtown commercial core of most Nebraska communities," said Main Street Director J.L. Schmidt. "To accomplish this, a new umbrella organization called Heritage Nebraska will be created to continue the partnerships and work of the Nebraska Main Street Program to revitalize downtowns while adding new staff to provide advice and assistance to more broadly help communities save historic places," he said. Main Street has been working in communities under 50,000 residents since 1994 to promote the National Trust Main Street Center Four-Point Approach T of design, organization, promotion and economic restructuring. Across the country, statewide and local preservation nonprofits have been working to save historic places, revitalize neighborhoods, advocate for good preservation policy and educate the public about preservation and cultural heritage.

The northeast Nebraska meeting is the second of five statewide to explain the joint effort, Schmidt said. The Heritage Nebraska board has already been formed and have adopted by-laws and is working on the process to become an official Nebraska non-profit and a recognized statewide preservation organization working with the National Trust, he said.

"Citizen input is important to the process," Schmidt said. "That is why we have scheduled meetings for all four corners of the state." Future meetings in McCook, Gering and Hastings are also scheduled.

The fury of Mother Nature can be seen as one of the tornadoes that touched down in and around Kearney is forming.

Beckman assists after tornadoes cause damage in and around Kearney

By Lynn Sievers
Of the Herald

Wayne County Emergency Manager Deanna Beckman was among a group of emergency managers and public safety officials asked to assist in doing damage assessments after tornadoes touched down in and around Kearney on May 29. Also helping from this area was Pat Foust, Dakota County emergency manager.

In Kearney, Beckman and Foust were responsible for assessments from 25th to 39th Streets, west to east. Starting out, the two walked the first 30 blocks and later did windshield assessments. The area they were in hadn't received the worst damage. What they saw was limited minor structural damage, some uprooted trees, shingles blown off and gutters torn down. Good Samaritan Hospital complex and the north annex of the hospital were hit the hardest.

After working in Kearney, Beckman and Foust were asked to report to Platte Center, where flooding had occurred. They found Platte Center and Platte County emergency management officials were directing a very well organized effort.

"I learned a lot from watching," Beckman said. "It is good to see training and planning put to use. It was great seeing the communities pull together."

As the water receded, major clean-up was needed. There were 50 to 70 homes and an estimated 10 businesses with water damage and so much mud that fire trucks had to be used to clean up the main street. The park was completely under water and after the water was gone, the fence around the ball diamond was filled with cornstalks and debris.

After Platte Center, Nebraska Emergency Management officials asked Beckman and Foust to go to Schuyler. Evacuations had already taken place and local officials were waiting for the flood waters to recede. Beckman notes she has been helping in volunteer efforts with emergencies for years. Originally from Norfolk, she was active in working with the fire departments and with the Red Cross.

"I have always loved to help people and have been involved in disaster work for a long time," Beckman said.

Through the years, Beckman has helped after the tornadoes struck at Jackson and at Coleridge, after fire damage in Valentine and after Hurricane Katrina in New Orleans.

"Disaster preparation is very important," Beckman said. "Having an emergency kit on hand provides some assurance that you will be able to meet immediate needs until first responders can get to you after disaster strikes. We have emergency planning pamphlets in the lobby of the courthouse or people can stop by my office in the court services building next to the courthouse to pick one up."

Norma Elizabeth Denkinger was born Dec. 25, 1910 on a farm near Newell, S.D. to Jesse and Mildred (Gaily) Lewis. She attended school in Newell, Longmont, Colo., Fullerton, graduated from Genoa High School, and attended Nebraska Wesleyan and Wayne State College. She taught the first and second grades in Palmer and then second grade at Genoa, her home town. She met Fred Denkinger while attending summer school at Wayne State College and they were married Aug. 22, 1943 at Genoa. The couple lived in Wayne. She was a member of Our Savior Lutheran Church. She started the Sunday Nursery School Class at Redeemer Lutheran Church, sang in the choir, was Sunday School Superintendent, and a 50 year member of the Order of the Eastern Star.

Norma is survived by a step-daughter, Virginia Nelson of Wayne; step-son, Don and Judy Denkinger of Norfolk, six grandchildren; 10 great-grandchildren; four great-great-grandchildren; nieces and nephews.

She was preceded in death by her parents; husband, Frederick George Denkinger in 1985; a brother, James Lewis and a step-son, Ed Denkinger. Pallbearers were Luke Magdanz, Nick Calvin, Noah Calvin, Dan Denkinger, Colby Denkinger and Wayne Magdanz.

Memorials may be made to Our Savior Lutheran Church in Wayne. Burial was in Greenwood Cemetery in Wayne. Hasemann-Schumacher Funeral Home in Wayne was in charge of arrangements.

Cooking class offered at RC&D office

Ranae Wacker of Plainview is trying something new, she is going to teach a cooking class at the RC&D office in Plainview. Ranae and husband Tim enjoy cooking and trying new and easy recipes and she would like to share what they have learned with the public.

Ranae has been teaching art at the Plainview Public School for the last 19 years and been involved with Klown Karnaval, Chamber, plays and many other Plainview activities. This leaves her little time to prepare traditional meals so she has learned to do many quick and easy meals.

Come share the fun with Ranae and her husband Tim on June 18 time 7 p.m. at the RC&D Office.

The public is invited to stop by the RC&D office located at 702 E. Park in Plainview on Highway 20 at any time. The office is open Monday Through Friday from 8 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. For more information call the RC&D office in Plainview at 402-582-4866.

Norfolk Classic Cycling Weekend draws record participation

Nightly thunderstorms didn't deter a record number of racers from attending the third annual Norfolk Classic Cycling Weekend held June 7 and 8 in and around Norfolk.

Promoted by the Elkhorn Valley Cycling Club and sponsored by the Monster Energy and the Norfolk-Madison County Convention and Visitor's Bureau, the weekend's events including the Norfolk Classic Road Race and the Nebraska State Championship Criterium. Nearly perfect daytime weather both days set the stage for a terrific weekend of racing marred only by an unfortunate crash midway through the last race of the weekend.

Saturday's road race saw 74 riders roll to the starting line in Stanton prior to heading out onto the 32 mile race loop. After a short neutral roll out, the riders headed east into increasingly steep hills before a long downhill section back to the beginning of the race loop. Category 5 men, Category 4 women and Juniors completed one loop while all other racers had to ride two circuits before the final sprint back to the start/finish line.

The Category 1/2 field saw Chris Spence and Ian Gray, both of Team Kaos, ride off the front maintaining the lead for most of the race. Spence crossed the line ahead of Gray. Rounding out the field were Kevin Burke (Lincoln Industries-Highgear), Marc Walter (Independent Fabrication-Powerade), and Matt Landen (Team Kaos).

In Category 3, 17-year-old Olympic speed skating hopeful Colton Barrett (MNJRC) of S. Saint Paul, Minnesota took the win ahead of John Vondracek (Team Kaos) and Ryan Heine (The Hub Cycling Team). The Women's Open field was cut short when a crash in the field on lap two took out Bike Master's Roaxzanne Abbott, leaving Janna Vavra (Yankee Hill Veterinary Clinic/Team FIRE) in position for an uncontested win ahead of Linda Stevens.

Other class winners were Paul Webb - Category 4, Joe Hamlin - Masters 35+, Mark Brackenbury - Masters 45+, Rich Pearson - Masters 55+, Nick Zeimet - Category 5, Kim Carveth - Category 4 Women, and Jeremy Eisenhauer - Junior Male.

After thunderstorms and tornadoes ripped through Nebraska

Saturday night, the Nebraska State Championship Criterium was held Sunday in downtown Norfolk. Competitors were allowed to enter more than one race which led to some riders leaving with multiple medals.

First off was the combined Masters race. Joe Hamlin took his second win of the weekend taking first in the combined field and first in Master 35+. Following Hamlin were Greg Shimonek of the Midwest Cycling Community, Jeff Elam (Central Plain Cycling), Vondracek (45+ winner), and Joe Savoie (Elkhorn Valley Cycling pwr by Monster). The 55+ category winner was Fred Galata who crossed the line in ninth place overall. State Champions were Shimonek, Vondracek, and Galata.

The Cat 5/Junior race pitted Zeimet (EVCC/The Bike Way) against Barrett who left the remainder of the field in chase mode the entire race. The two lapped the field, most of it more than once. Zeimet won the Cat 5 race and was State Champion.

The combined Women's field saw Sydney Brown (Team Revolution) run away with the race, with Morgan Chaffin (Team Kaos) second, Sara Bickerstaff third and Vavra fourth. Jamie Bachmann (Elkhorn Valley pwr by Monster) taking fifth and first Cat 4 women. Brown and Bachmann were State Champions.

Unexpected train traffic which compromised one of the last corners of the course caused some turmoil in the combined 1/2/3 race. Midway through the race, trains caused the race to be stopped only to be restarted again once the course was clear. In the end it was Landen, Gray, Spence, Shimonek (Category 3 winner), and Brackenbury (2nd in Category 3). State champions were Landen and Shimonek.

The last race of the day was the Category 4 race which saw Bryan Redemske (Team Kaos) jump out to an early lead. The field then regrouped and raced as a pack for some time until a crash between the last two corners of the course took out Michael Miles and Sean Kennedy (Team Kaos). Miles' helmet was crushed by his impact with the concrete and his injuries appeared significant enough to cause him to be transported from the venue by ambulance. Miles reported later that he sustained no

Noxious weed tour set

Dixon County is the site of this year's no-fee Noxious Weed Tour on Wednesday, June 18. Registration and refreshments are in the Newcastle Fire Hall from 8:30 - 9:30 a.m.

Tour highlights include stops at herbicide plots that were established in 2000 on Musk and Plumeless thistle, Leafy Spurge and Canada thistle. An RSVP is requested to ensure there's enough food for everyone to 402-635-2129 or via email to dixoncoweed@dnmc.net by Monday, June 16.

Following lunch a release of biological control insects will be made on Leafy Spurge. This is a new endeavor being done through the Northeast Nebraska Weed Management Area which is funded in part by a grant from the Nebraska Environmental Trust Fund.

Thanks to several willing landowners this is the seventh tour being held at these plots. They've been glad to assist others interested in learning more about the most effective controls for these noxious and invasive weeds.

The tour is sponsored by the following entities: Northeast Nebraska Weed Management Area, Dixon County Weed Control, Dow AgroSciences' senior sales representative Lonnie Wann, and Doug Haller, vegetation management specialist for BASF.

Inspections conducted during Roadcheck 2008

Five-hundred and seventy-seven Level one, 28 Level two, and 171 Level three inspections were conducted by Troopers with the Nebraska State Patrol Carrier Enforcement Division during "Roadcheck 2008," a special enforcement designed to raise public awareness of commercial vehicle safety throughout the United States, Canada and Mexico.

During the three day effort which began June 3, and ended June 5, Troopers checked vehicles and their drivers at inspection sites along major highways. In addition, roving patrols also inspected vehicles and drivers traveling other highways.

A level one inspection is a comprehensive check of the vehicle and its driver. Level two inspections involve the driver and a walk-around check of the vehicle. Level three inspections involve the driver only.

Six-hundred and five vehicles were inspected, 165 of those vehicles were taken out of service (not allowed to continue on the road). Vehicles are placed out of service for violations relating to bad brakes, or tires, or other problems that pose immediate safety risks. In addition, 33 drivers were taken out of service (not allowed to continue driving). Drivers are taken out of service for violations to include No Commercial Driver's License (CDL).

Campbell to be kidney donor

More than a year ago Todd Campbell of Wayne received a letter that will result in major changes in his life.

Stanton County man arrested after pursuit

A Stanton County, Nebraska man is in the Pierce County Jail after a pursuit. At approximately 9:24 a.m. on June 10, two miles south of Wayne on Highway 15, a trooper with the Nebraska State Patrol Troop B Headquarters-Norfolk attempted to stop a 1993 Ford Bronco for expired license plates. The driver refused to stop and the trooper initiated a pursuit. The pursuit encompassed 35 miles in both Wayne and Stanton Counties before ending when the driver drove the vehicle into a cornfield where it stalled.

The driver of the vehicle, 36-year-old Christopher Rutledge, of Stanton County was lodged in the Pierce County Jail on charges to include Flight to Avoid Arrest, and Driving Under Suspension.

His cousin, David Vagenas, is in need of a kidney transplant and Todd will be traveling to California to donate one of his kidneys later this month.

David is currently completing his senior year of high school and is scheduled to graduate on Saturday, June 14. He was able to play varsity basketball and attend all of his classes through the school year.

In March of 2007 Todd received a letter from his aunt, Cindy Vagenas (David's mother), telling of David's health issues.

He decided immediately that he was going to pursue the possibility of being a kidney donor.

"Early on, I started to see this journey was not one I would handle alone. When it came time for my first round of labs, the people at Providence Medical Center were more than willing to help get everything completed. Their normal costs for the blood draws were waived. I gave them at least 20 total vials of blood and 2000 cc's of urine (24 hours worth). Everything was normal... except one lab, which just happened to be one of the most important. My creatinine level (directly related to my kidney function) was a little too high," Todd said.

Further testing was required and Todd traveled to the University of Nebraska Medical Center in Omaha.

"By the end of the day, my test results were in and the doctor from UNMC personally called the Kidney Coordinator to tell her my kidney function was completely normal. I had passed and from that moment on, there was no faltering in my spirit," Todd said.

In early April of this year Todd received a phone call from the Kidney Coordinator informing him that he was approved for the donation.

David's family is very appreciative of the gift Todd is giving their son and also of the support Todd is receiving from his employer, Ameritas, and its employees.

"Due to the fact that the Kidney Transplant Program is a Federal Government Program, we have been given strict guidelines on what we can and can not do for Todd and his family. Other than plane fare and the cost of taking care of Todd while he is recuperating in our home, we are not permitted to "financially benefit" the Campbell's. Doing so would risk losing this opportunity for David," Cindy said.

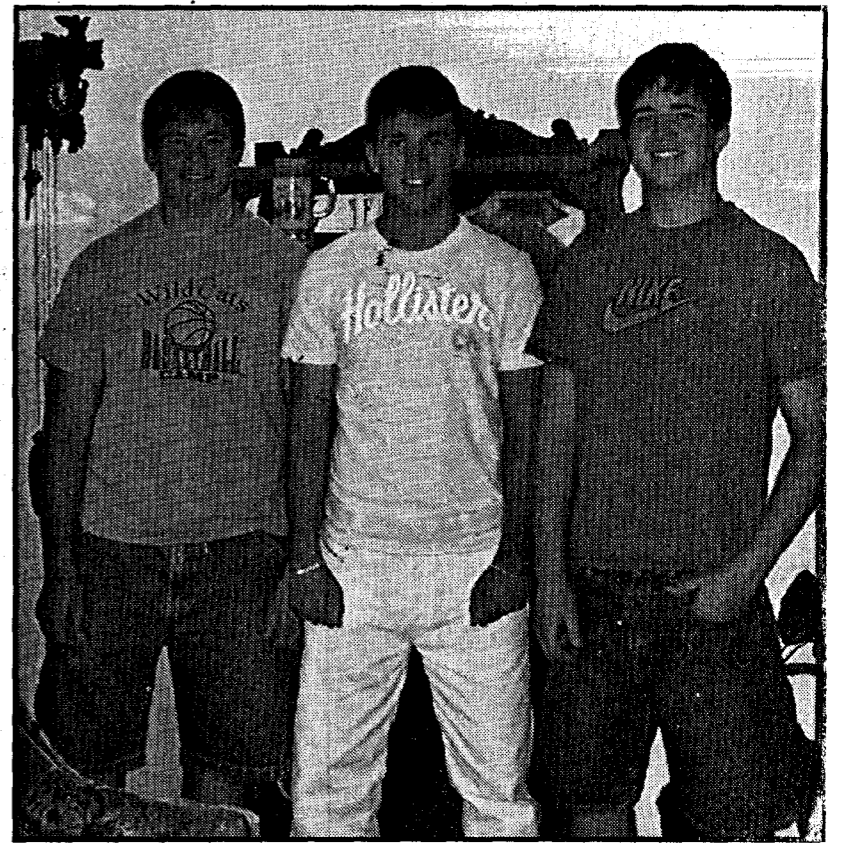

A number of activities and fundraisers have taken place among the Ameritas employees to assist the Campbell family.

Todd and his wife, Karen will fly to California on June 19. The actual surgery is scheduled for Tuesday, June 24.

Their children, Morgan, 17, Ian, 12, and Mikayla, 10, will stay with relatives while their parents are in California. Karen plans to return to Wayne as soon as Todd's health permits it. Todd will remain in California until he receives permission from his doctors to fly.

Of the upcoming surgery, Todd said, "I have made decisions over the last 15 years that have contributed to my place, today; Life decisions that enabled me to even be considered for donation. I am humbled. I feel I have been in preparation and I'm ready. My greatest thanks to David... for teaching me what we are all capable of."

Cards may be sent to Todd while he is recuperating in care of his uncle and aunt, Michael and Cindy Vagenas, 9909 Mangos Drive, San Ramon, Calif. 94583.

On June 3, 2007 Tobias Grunert from Berlin, Germany, left northeast Nebraska after spending the academic year living with the John Mangels family and attending Winside High School.

On May 9, 2008 Tobi returned for a 12-day visit. Arriving in Winside after being awake en-route for over 23 hours, he immediately began attending graduation receptions and meeting up with many friends. During his visit here Tobi attended graduation at Winside, along with many receptions; the school's Awards Night Banquet and State Track Meet in Omaha with his many friends and "brothers" Aaron and Seth Mangels.

He greatly enjoyed the track meet as he competed in last year's State Track Meet in both the 4 x 100 relay and 4 x 400 relay team.

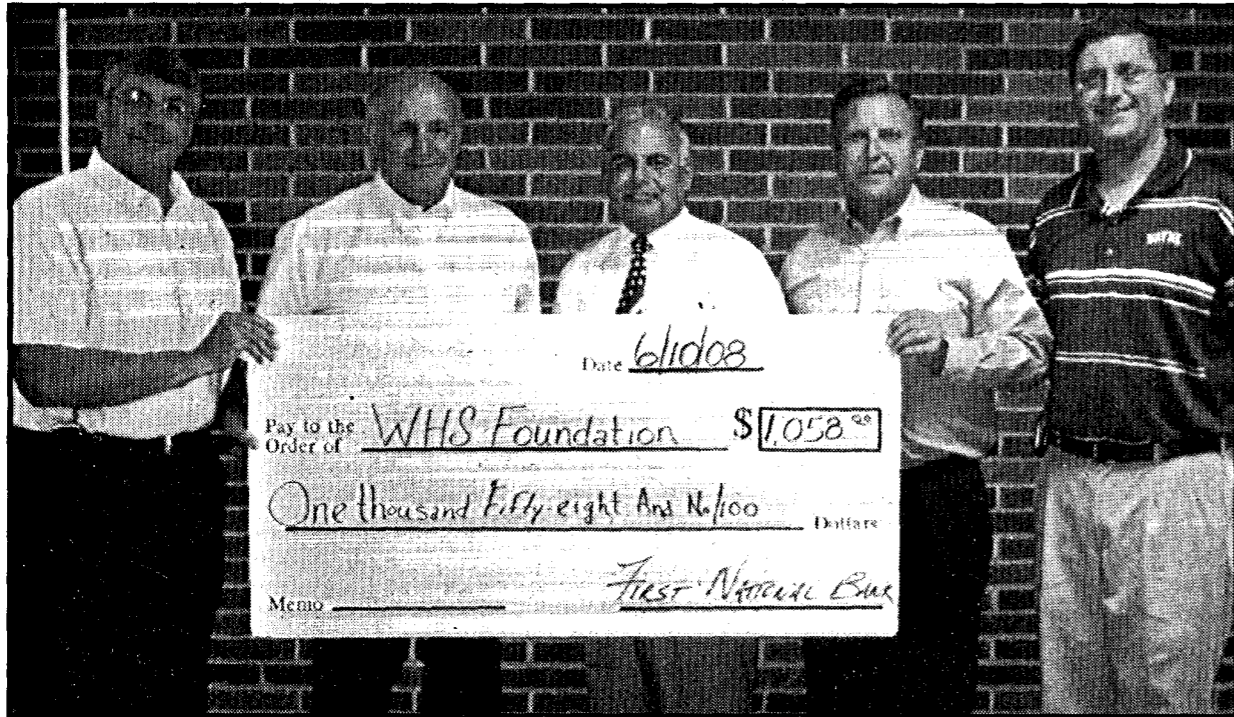

"I wanted to run so bad," Tobi said of the meet.

During the past year in Germany, Tobi returned to his school where he will complete his regular schooling in July. They have no formal graduation ceremonies in Germany so Tobi fondly remembers his graduation from Winside High School.

He will continue his studies with pre-university classes in August.

Gasoline prices in Germany are around $8 per gallon and Tobias says talk is of making a speed limit on the Autobahn through Germany, which is not a popular topic with this 18 year old newly licensed, German driver.

The Mangels enjoyed their guest being "home" and look forward to future visits with Tobias and his family.

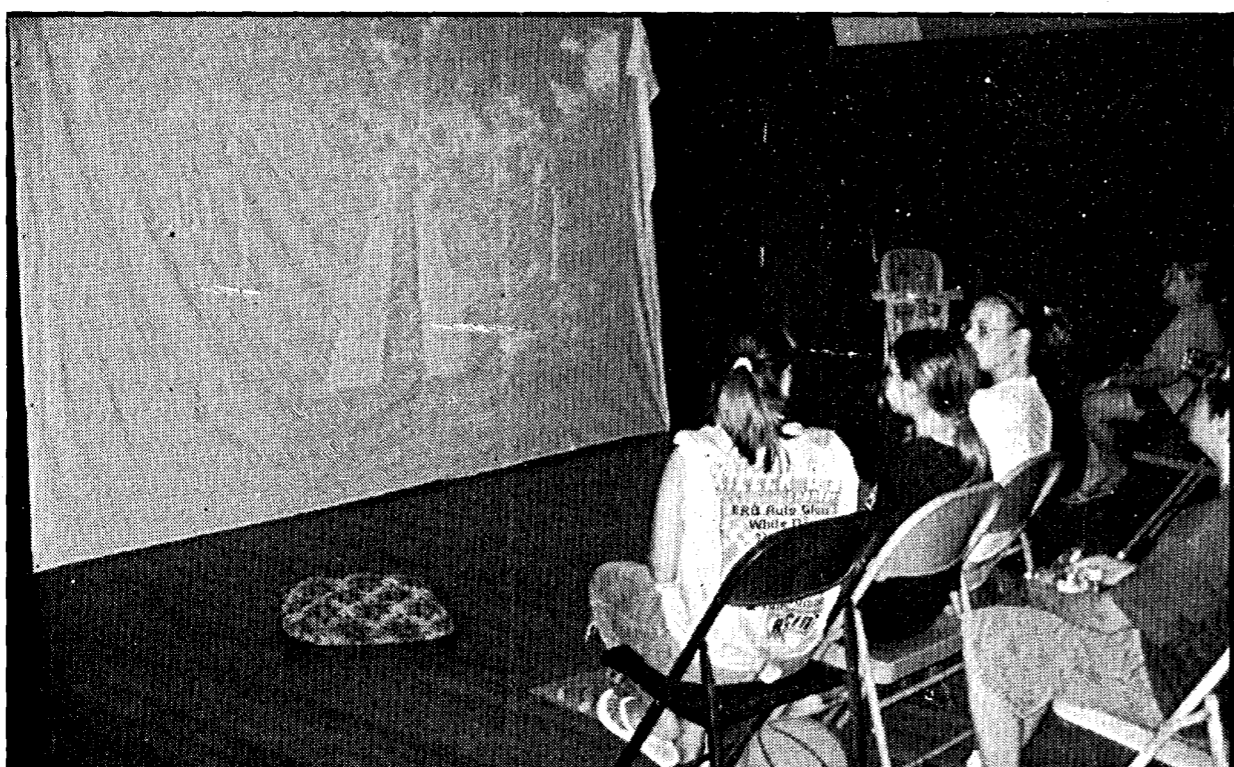

Foundation donation

First National Bank of Wayne recently made a contribution to the Wayne Schools Foundation. The money represents the number of students who were named to the honor roll for the 2007-08 school year. Involved in the check presentation were, left to right, Tim Krupicka, Middle School Principal; Bill Dickey with First National Bank, Dr. Joe Reinert, Wayne Schools Superintendent, Mark Hanson, Wayne High School Principal and Daryl Shrunck, Wayne Elementary School Principal.

Raising funds

Shannon Peterson, center, above, accepts a donation from Dean Burbach during last weekend's fundraiser for the Carroll Library/ Senior Center. A book sale, bake sale and luncheon were held in the morning and a movie was shown that evening (below). An effort has begun to raise funds to move a modular building from the Wayne School to Carroll. Additional funds are needed before the project is completed.

Oelsligle gift is valuable learning tool for NECC

A recent gift to Northeast Community College from Ron and Janell Oelsligle of Tilden provided a year-end learning experience for students enrolled in the electrical construction and control (ECC) program.

The Oelsligles donated a Whisper 500, three-kilowatt, wind generator to the college this spring. Before the academic year ended, Northeast students rebuilt the generator and erected it near the Arlo Wirth Building on the Norfolk campus. After installation, it was wired to provide power to operate the lights in the freshman ECC lab in the Wirth Building.

"This donation proved to be a great learning tool for our students," said R.J. Bichlmeier, ECC instructor. "During the installation process, our students had to determine the proper size of conductors and overcurrent protection and then install them."

"The class also installed a transfer switch," he continued. "That transfer switch allows us to obtain power from the utility company when winds are calm."

Bichlmeier said the wind generator will continue to be used in several different classes. Students will be taught set up and installation, along with the proper connection of a wind generator to existing wiring systems.

He said students will also learn the proper care and maintenance of a wind generator system, including the batteries and inverter. Future classes will include site selection for generator installation and the proper sizing or kilowatt needs for different locations.

"We really appreciate donations like this," Bichlmeier said. "It helps us to keep up with future trends. As more and more importance is put on wind-generated electricity, it is imperative that our students are familiar with it."

According to Lyle Kathol, Northeast dean of applied technology, the Northeast ECC program has included some instruction on wind-generated power for some time. Plans are to expand that instruction. Another wind generator is in the new and expanded budget for the applied technology department.

"We would be remiss if we were not offering instruction on wind-generated power," he said. "As it becomes more popular, demand will grow for employees who have some knowledge or experience working with it."

For more information about Northeast's electrical construction and control program, call Kathol at (402)844-7215.

Officer Jessica Bolles of the Wayne Police Department stands with Nebraska First Lady Sally Ganem after the recent award ceremony in Lincoln.

Officer Bolles earns M.A.D.D Award

On June 10, Officer Jessica Bolles of the Wayne Police Department was one of 13 officers from across the state of Nebraska to receive an Outstanding Law Enforcement Award from the Nebraska chapter of Mothers Against Drunk Driving.

Officer Bolles, who is assigned to Wayne State College during the school year, earned one of two education awards for her efforts to educate college students on the dangers of high risk behavior, including underage drinking and driving while intoxicated.

Wayne Police Chief Lance Webster said Officer Bolle's presence on the Wayne State Campus has had a very positive effect on the relationship between the college community and the police department.

The award ceremony was held at the Holiday Inn Downtown, in Lincoln and Nebraska First Lady Sally Ganem and Cathey Wise, MADD National were special guests.

Dustin Schmeits gets close to his cheering section while playing professional football with the Ruff Riders.

He found out in a hurry that it was intense. He hadn't played football for a couple of years but had a good day and they offered him a contract, which he hadn't expected to happen.

Schmeits ended up pulling a hamstring and missing the first three games. In the home opener, though, he caught three passes for 15 yards. He currently has six receptions for 31 yards and one touch down. Schmeits has his own cheering section as several of his students come to watch him, he has a couple students from Beck as ball boys and part of his church group cheers him on. He notes he appreciates all of the support.

Even though Schmeits is glad to be playing in the IFL, he has no plans to move on to the NFL but does want to move up in coaching. Schmeits likes Texas high school football because it's top quality. He feels high school football in Texas is a lot different than in Nebraska because it's more intense and there is spring football in Texas. He feels high school football there is more like college football. He likes Katy High football and has scouted for the high school coaches a couple of times, which really impressed him. He notes there is a tradition, which is something that can't be coached.

Schmeits isn't the only Ruff Rider professional football player with Nebraska ties as Jamal Lord of the Nebraska Cornhuskers, is also a receiver on the team.

"Playing football at Wayne High taught me about the importance of hard work," Schmeits said. "Coach Murtaugh instilled in us that heart is often the better measure of a team and a man, than talent. He taught us that great things come to those who work hard and I feel because of hard work I have many blessings in my life. I feel I am where I am today because of my family, God, former coaches and teachers and the great foundation for life I received as a Blue Devil."

Schmeits is happy to be playing for the Riders. He added that he had an idea of what he was getting himself into as he had seen some indoor games, which were very fast because the field is so small and the fans are so close. Schmeits compares it to sitting courtside to the NBA.

School board hires new kindergarten teacher

By Lynn Sievers
Of the Herald

Wayne Community Board of Education met in regular session Monday night. Agenda items including information on personnel. Lisa Meyer was hired as the kindergarten teacher. It was also noted that last summer SPED para-professionals worked 248 total hours but this year, they will work 295 hours as there has been an increase in special needs.

Discussion on bids and contracts included school board member Jeryl Nelson stating that with the Mid State School Bus, Inc. contract for 2008-09 and the rising price of gas, they are looking at a shorter time frame than four years. The representative from Mid State School Bus, Inc. was unable to be in attendance so the issue was tabled until the next meeting.

Superintendent Dr. Joe Reinert told the board there is a bid from the Village of Carroll for $18,000 for the school's modular building. He noted fundraising is ongoing to raise the needed amount to purchase the building for a library and to move and install it. The board approved the bid.

Also discussed was the lift/elevator in the high school. An architect's view is that an elevator is a better choice than the chair lift, which is very slow, but realizes the cost is much more (cost for a lift is estimated around $40,000 and estimated cost for an elevator is around $200,000). Dr. Reinert noted they have $100,000 that could be used towards the project. It was noted the Foundation could help with funds as well as parents and fundraisers. School Board President Kaye Morris voiced her concerns of how they would pay for the project.

The board welcome Misty Bear as the new SPED coordinator.

Committees were discussed and board member Jodi Pulfer noted the Foundation is in need of a volunteer. If anyone is interested in being a member of the Foundation they are asked to call Jodi Pulfer at 402-375-2285.

A Bio Metric ID system for the school lunch program and library at the cost of $14,000 was disussed. By scanning their fingers, students will be able to go through the lunch line and also check out books in the library. There will be two options offered, which is keypad numbers or the scan at point of sale. Parents will be receiving a letter informing them they can opt out of the scanning portion of the Bio Metric ID system and use the number system if they wish. The board approved the Bio Metric ID system as long as there are the two options.

Future agenda items include a presentation on the bus contract, discussion on raising substitute teacher pay (which is currently $85 per day) and an update on the elevator.

Executive session was held to discuss personnel.

A budget meeting is set for Tuesday, Aug. 5 at 8:30 a.m. at Wayne High School.

The next regular meeting of the Wayne Community Board of Education is Monday, July 14 at 5 p.m. at Wayne High School.

Rick Heiden, left, with Faller Landscape in York was at Greenwood Cemetery last week to plant 21 trees throughout the cemetery. At right is Paul Otte, President of the Wayne Cemetery Association. The Association provided 50 percent of the funds for the project.

Wayne County Fair establishes website

The Wayne County Fair has gone high tech and has established an official website.

Wayne Public Library will host JoAnn McKenzie who created the site and who will provide tutorial sessions how to access and use it. Three dates and times have been scheduled: Wednesday, June 18 at 4 p.m., especially for seniors and again that evening at 6:30; sessions on Thursday, June 19 and Monday, July 1 also at 6:30 p.m.

The demonstrations will be held at the Wayne Senior Center. All meetings are free and open to the public. No registration is required.

The website will have all the information available on daily schedules, entertainment dates and time, 4-H registration and activities, fair history and many other links that will provide up-to-date information necessary for anyone involved with the fair.

The website address is www.thewaynecountyfair.com. The library's public access computer lab is open Monday through Saturdays during the summer.

Trees replaced at Greenwood Cemetery

Twenty-one new trees are now adorning Greenwood Cemetery, thanks to the efforts of the Cemetery Association and a grant from the Lower Elkhorn Natural Resources District (LENRD).

In recent years a number of trees at the cemetery have had to be removed due to Pine Wilt disease.

The new trees consist of 13 evergreen trees and eight deciduous trees. They were planted throughout the cemetery last week by crews from Faller Landscape in York.

The LENRD provides specifications and guidelines for community forestry projects including project design and implementation, tree removal and types of planting stock.

The total cost for the project, including the cost of the trees, planting and removal of old trees was just under $5,000. The LENRD grant paid for 50 percent, while the remaining 50 percent was paid for by donations to the Greenwood Cemetery Association.

Anyone wishing to make a contribution to the project may do so by sending a donation to Greenwood Cemetery Association, c/o Accounting Plus, 100 South Pearl Street, Wayne, Neb. 68787.

"Helping each other is very important and emergency managers going to other communities is part of that," Beckman said. "I see it as a learning tool for me. Shannon Jarvi guided Wayne to two wins from the pitcher's mound this weekend at the Golden Girls Tournament.

Wayne 16-and-under crowned Golden Girls Tournament Champs

By Casey Schroeder

After going 3-0, it would be hard not to argue that the Wayne 16-and-under Dirtdevils were the more superior of the teams at this weekend's 2008 Golden Girls Softball Tournament in Norfolk, Neb.

After all, Wayne handed out losses with ease.

In game one of Saturday's tournament, Wayne notched up their first tournament win as they defeated the Sioux Falls Diamonds 3-0.

"This was a very nice win for us," Wayne 16-and-under head coach Nate Wall said.

Jessica Calhoon led the Dirtdevils to the win with two singles and a pair of runs while teammates Shannon Jarvi and Carly Fehringer both recorded one hit each.

Jarvi (8-4-1) was tagged with the win as she gave up three hits and two walks while striking out five batters in five innings pitched.

After the 3-0 shutout against Sioux Falls, Wayne stayed on the beaten path with a 6-0 win over the Oakland Dirty Dozen in game two.

Calhoon once again guided

Wayne from home plate with three hits (all singles) and two runs.

"Jessica continues to get things started at the top for us," Wall said.

Aiding Calhoon at the plate was Riley Hoffart, who had two hits (both singles), two runs and an RBI, while Jarvi rounded things out for the Dirtdevils with two hits (both singles) and an RBI.

Pitcher Bayli Ellis improved to 3-1 from the pitcher's mound as she gave up no hits or runs, and only allowed one walk while striking out 12 in six innings of work.

Following Wayne's win over Oakland, the Dirtdevils continued their success as they downed the Pierce Pacers 5-0 in game three.

"What a day," Wall said. "Three games in a day and no runs were given up."

Lindsi Frahm secured her spot in the stat book with three hits (all singles) and an RBI while Jordan Alexander, Hoffart and Ellis all contributed one hit.

Jarvi resumed her duties as pitcher for the Dirtdevils and earned the win as she allowed just two hits while striking out nine in six innings of action.

Wayne Seniors record back-to-back shutouts over league foes

By Casey Schroeder

The Wayne Senior baseball team improved to 6-3 overall and 3-0 in league play following a pair of recent road wins in which offense was hampered and defense shined.

Wayne began their streak of shutouts with a 12-0 decision over Pierce on Friday night.

While the score may indicate that Wayne coasted to the win over Pierce, that wasn't the case as both teams remained deadlocked at 0-0 heading into the fifth inning.

It was only after a little push by Wayne, that the boys in blue returned one runner to home plate for a score and the 1-0 lead.

With the lead in hand, Wayne continued their success in the sixth inning with an 11 run effort that was further highlighted by a pair of home runs by Jesse Hill and Heath Erwin.

"We finally got untracked in the fifth and sixth innings," Wayne Senior head coach Jeff Zeiss said. "Jesse and Heath sparked us with their three run home runs."

Also adding additional spunk to the Wayne offense in the win over Pierce was Nathan Summerfield, Drew Workman and Sam Kurpgeweit who all added one hit each.

Hill was tagged with the pitching win, as he allowed just one hit while striking out nine in six innings of work.

"Jesse as always pitched a great game," Zeiss said.

Following the debacle in Pierce, Wayne returned to action on June 6 and dealt out a 4-0 shutout win over South Sioux City.

Offensively, Wayne was led by Hill who had two hits (one single and one double) and an RBI while Taylor Racely added a solo hit and two runs.

Shawn Jenkins was credited with the win from mound as he gave up four hits while striking out three batters in six innings pitched.

The Wayne Seniors will look to continue their recent streak of shutouts as they square off against Pender on Friday, June 13 at 8 p.m.

Poor weather propels 14-and-under Dirtdevils to second place finish at Golden Girls Tournament

By Casey Schroeder

Aluminum bats and lightning are a deadly combination, especially if you are the Wayne 14-and-under girls' softball team who recently finished second in the 2008 Golden Girls Softball Tournament in Norfolk, Neb.

The Dirtdevils were crowned runners-up only after they got off to a great start against the Columbus Fire and Ice 13's on Saturday morning.

Wayne edged Columbus 7-6 and were driven to the win by the duo of Caitlin and Carissa Fehringer.

Caitlin Fehringer led Wayne with a pair of triples while Carissa Fehringer contributed a double.

"Caitlin and Carissa really came through with big hits in clutch situations," Wayne 14-and-under head coach Rachel Robbins said.

Kristin Carroll was awarded the win from the pitcher's mound as she worked five innings and allowed only three hits, three walks and four runs while striking out seven batters.

Following Wayne's win over Columbus, the Dirtdevils stayed on course and handed down a 5-2 loss to the Lincoln Rockers.

Caitlin Fehringer again led Wayne with two hits, one run and two RBI's. Elle Schramm also found success at home plate as she added one hit, one run and an RBI.

Carroll tallied her second pitching win of the day as she gave up three walks and three runs to go with eight strikeouts in five innings of work.

"Strikeouts were a huge component to our win against the Rockers," Robbins said.

With everything going as planned and a tournament title within sight, everything was brought to an abrupt halt by poor weather at the start of the fourth inning in game three against the Golden Girls.

Wayne was awarded the win following a 5-2 lead and were guided by the bats of Hannah Gamble, Courtney Davie and Schramm who all posted doubles in the win.

"Our hitting pulled through and we had a lot of great hits that drove runs in for the win," Robbins said.

Carroll was marked with the pitcher's win as she gave up just two hits while striking out two in three innings of action.

Wayne will travel to Osmond, Neb. on Friday, June 13 for a doubleheader with games starting at 6 and 7:30 p.m.

Brummels and Peter headed to 8-Man All-Star Classic

Pinnacle Bank, in conjunction with the Nebraska Eight Man Football Coaches Association (NEMFCA) is pleased to announce the dates of the upcoming Pinnacle Bank Nebraska/Kansas 8-Man All-Star Classic.

This unique state-to-state rivalry game will feature 24 of the top 8-Man All-Stars from both Kansas and Nebraska. The Pinnacle Bank Nebraska/Kansas 8-Man All-Star Classic will be held in Crete, Neb. at Doane College on June 28 at 7 p.m.

Tickets cost $5 for adults, $3 for students and children under five are admitted for free.

Nearly 1,200 fans from Nebraska and Oklahoma attended the first ever 8-man All-Star game in 2006 that was held in Miami, Okla.

"It was such a success that we have decided to make this an annual event," NEMFCA President Andy Vrbka said. "This year we are pleased with the opportunity to partner with Kansas."

The All-Star game was designed to reward and honor the finest players by exposing their skills in hopes of increasing their chances of playing football at a higher level.

Eight-man football has been strong in Kansas and Nebraska for decades. Several 8-man players from both states have continued to play at major colleges throughout the years.

"Kansas and Nebraska are the leaders in the nation when it comes to Eight-man football," Vrbka said.

"It's exciting to see the top athletes from each of these football states come together and compete. We'll see some incredible talent and athleticism."

"The NEMFCA has worked very hard to make this an exciting opportunity for the players and because of the support from Pinnacle Bank and Pinnacle Agency, we will be able to do that," Vrbka said.

"Pinnacle Bank has a strong commitment to supporting the communities they serve and with over 48 locations across the state of Nebraska, their commitment is significant. We are pleased to be partnering with Pinnacle Bank for this event."

Four coaches from each of the Kansas and Nebraska 8-man Football Associations will guide and train the 48 players through their four day stay in Crete leading up to the All Star game.

Brummels and Peter to play in Sertoma 8-man All-Star Game

Jordan Brummels and Matt Peter, both of Winside have been selected to play in the upcoming Sertoma 8-man All-Star Game that will be held at Hastings College's Tom Osborne Athletic Complex in Hastings, Neb. on Saturday, June 21.

Brummels, who accounted for 3,700 all purpose yards during his career as a Wildcat will resume duties as quarterback for one last time and will be taking snaps from Peter who will anchor the East squad's offensive line at center.

Courtney Davie recorded a double and an RBI in the Dirtdevils' 5-2 win over the Norfolk Golden Girls.

Wayne Blue Ponys split doubleheader with South Sioux City on June 3

By Casey Schroeder
Despite going 1-1 against South Sioux City on June 3 and dropping to 3-1 overall, the Wayne Ponys Blue team remains optimistic as they are currently 2-0 in league play and are the only unbeaten team in the South Division of Ralph Bishop League.

Tony Sinniger who went two for three and added two RBIs in the win. Following Wayne's game one win, South Sioux City returned the favor in game two by posting a 13-7 win over the boys in blue. Offensively, Wayne was guided in the loss by Alex Onnen who had one triple and two RBIs. Wayne will return to action on Saturday, June 14 as they compete in the two day Wakefield Wooden Bat Tournament in Wakefield.

Wayne Juniors use 12 seventh inning runs to chalk up win over Pierce

By Casey Schroeder

Prior to the start of the sixth inning on Friday, June 6 the Wayne Junior baseball team trailed Pierce 7-2 and the outlook for a road win looked rather grim.

However, upon the conclusion of the sixth inning Wayne used six runs to take an 8-7 lead and set the stage for what turned out to be a dynamic seventh inning in which 12 runs were scored and a 20-7 win was secured.

"We trailed 7-2 heading into the sixth inning and then our bats came alive," Wayne Junior head coach Jeff Zeiss said.

Offensively, Wayne saw Zac Braun lead the way with five hits, two runs, three RBIs and one walk.

"I don't recall in my 17 years of coaching that we have had a player hit for the cycle like Braun," Zeiss said. He is hitting well over .800 for the season."

Additional big hitters for Wayne included Tory Booth who added two hits (one double and one home run), two runs and 3 RBIs while Mason Wren contributed one home run.

Pitcher Derek Poutre was tagged with the win as he allowed six hits, one walk and two runs while striking out three.

After coming off a 20-7 win over Pierce on Friday night, Wayne took to the road on June 9 and were handed a 5-1 loss by South Sioux City.

Poutre paved the way for the Junior boys with a double and one run while Jacob Paustian left his mark on the competition with a solo hit and an RBI.

Braun was recorded the pitching loss for Wayne, as he gave up eight hits, two earned runs to go with one lone strikeout.

The Wayne Juniors will look to get back on track as they travel to Pender for a 6 p.m. game on Friday, June 13.

NSAA Believers & Achievers banquet held on June 3

The state-wide program designed by U.S. Bank and the Nebraska School Activities Association to give recognition to Nebraska's future leaders, held its 10th annual scholarship banquet on June 3 at the Cornhusker Hotel in Lincoln.

The festivities highlighted the nine-month process that began last Oct. when the first Believers & Achievers were announced.

From the 48 finalists, eight received $500 scholarships from U.S. Bank to the college or university of their choice.

The eight scholarships were presented to the Believers & Achievers who demonstrated outstanding academic achievement, participated in NSAA activities and were involved in school and community projects during their high school career.

In addition to the scholarship presentations, Mitch Knudson of Laurel-Concord High School joined several other Believers & Achievers who were recognized for the 2007-08 school year at the banquet.

18-and-under Dirtdevils go 1-1 in recent action

By Casey Schroeder

After minor mishap against West Point, the Wayne 18-and-under Dirtdevils are back in business as they returned home and defeated Logan View 7-4.

The Dirtdevils who are currently 7-2 overall suffered their second loss of the season following a 2-1 road loss to West Point on June 5.

"Wayne fell to a solid team," 18-and-under head coach Jean Pieper said. "The 18's hit the ball hard, but could not find the holes."

Wayne was led by Alesha Finkey in the loss to West Point, as Finkey had one hit and an RBI.

Finding additional success from home plate was Cali Rethwisch who recorded two bunts and a lone run for the Dirtdevils.

Pitcher Mirisa Carroll did her part from the pitcher's mound, but was tagged with the loss as she allowed two hits, four walks and one earned run while striking out only seven batters in seven innings worked.

Following the brief lapse against West Point, Wayne returned home to the Wayne Softball Complex on June 6 and handed down a 7-4 loss to Logan View.

Finkey again shined for the Dirtdevils with a two hit (one single and one double) performance that was further highlighted by two runs and two stolen bases.

Also finding equaled success for Wayne was Carroll and Rethwisch who both walked away from the game with two hits each.

Carroll was tagged with the pitching win for Wayne as she pitched seven innings and gave up only two walks, two earned runs on five hits while also recording nine strikeouts. After splitting a pair of games, Wayne will look for a needed win on Thursday, June 12 as they host North Bend at 6:30 p.m.

Wayne 10-and-under marked as team to beat

By Casey Schroeder

With a league record of 3-1 and an overall mark of 11-2 the Wayne 10-and-under girls' softball team appear to be the team to beat.

However, at this juncture in the season few teams have been successful except for one, West Point I who handed Wayne their first league loss of the season following a 9-1 outing on June 5 in West Point.

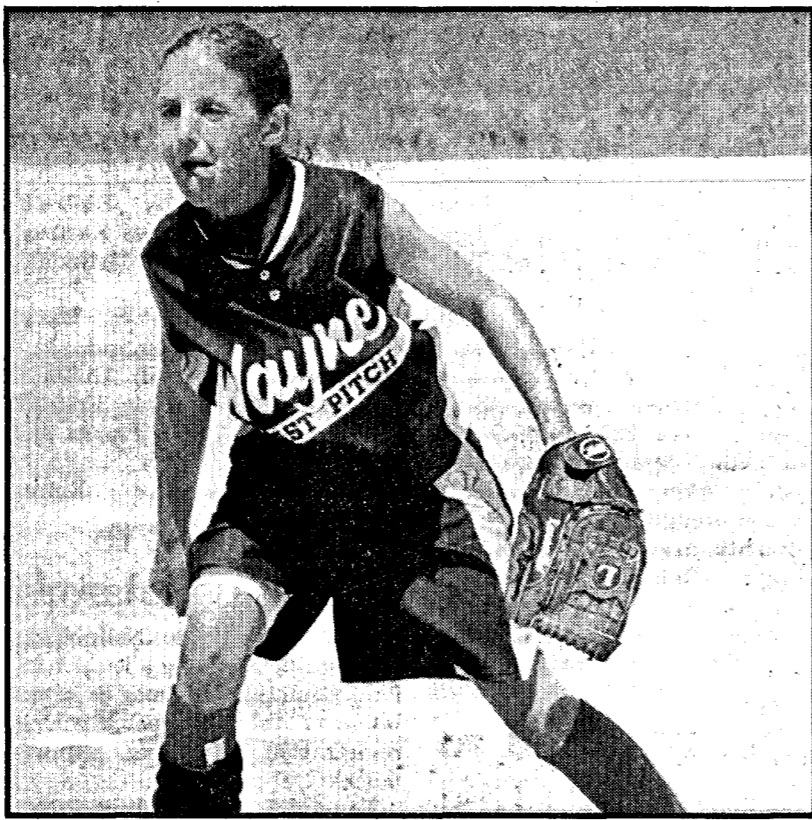

McKenzie Rusk recorded Wayne's lone hit of the day, as she belted out one solo for the Dirtdevils in the loss.

The small but mighty Rachel Rauner (10-2) was tagged with her second pitching loss of the season as she gave up nine runs while striking out 11 batters in six innings of work.

Following the Dirtdevils' brief derailment on the road against West Point I, Wayne was soon back on track as they returned home to Wayne on June 6 and defeated West Point III 8-2.

Wayne was led from within the batter's box by Rauner who had two hits (both singles) and a run while Kayla Schunk threw some additional fuel into the fire with one hit, one run and an RBI.

Rauner (11-2) recorded the defensive win for Wayne as she Rachel Rauner struckout 18 batters over a two game span, which included 11 against West Point I on June 5.

allowed two earned runs and four walks to go with seven strikeouts in four innings of pitching.

The 10-and-under Dirtdevils will look to stay on track as they compete against Bancroft at the Wayne Softball Complex on Friday, June 13 at 6 p.m.

12-and-under Dirtdevils go 2-0 against Dodge

By Casey Schroeder

The Wayne 12-and-under girls' softball team improved to 11-5 overall and 4-1 in league play following a 12-2 win over Dodge at the Wayne Softball Complex on June 9.

Jalyn Zeiss propelled the Dirtdevils' offense with two hits (both doubles) while teammates Alexis Owens and McKenna Gibson both added a single hit.

Kendall Gamble was tagged with the win from the pitcher's mound as she worked four innings and gave up just two hits and three walks while striking out four batters.

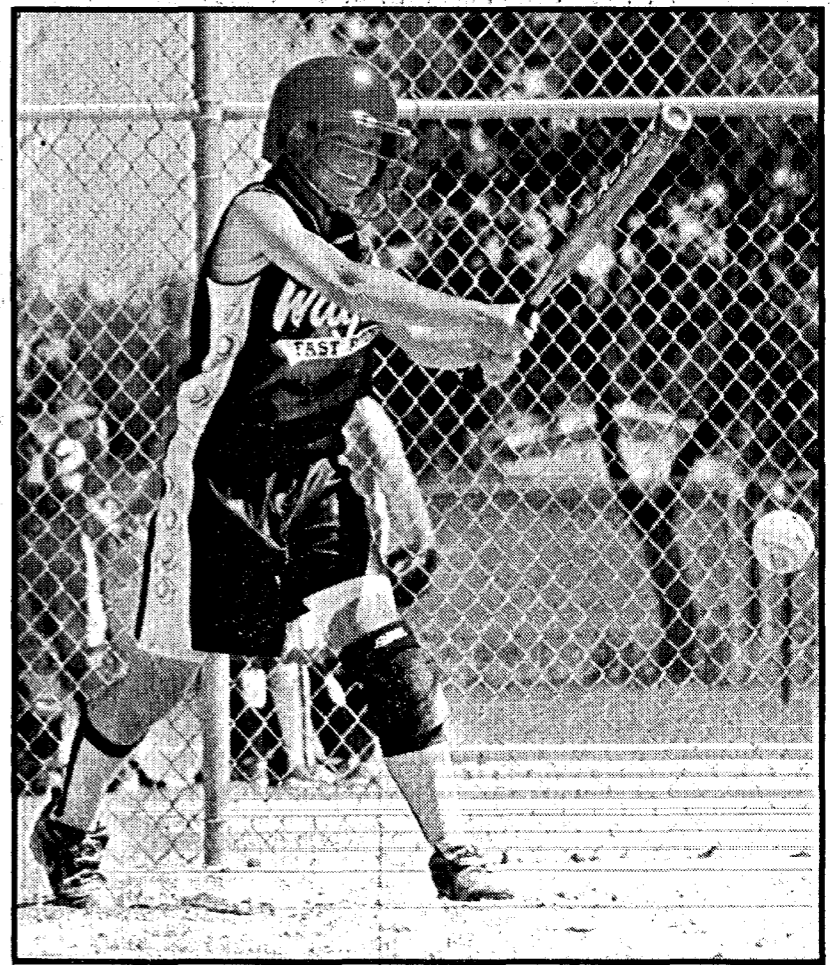

Prior to Wayne's demoralizing 12-2 win over Dodge on Monday night, the Dirtdevils took to the road on June 3 and snuck away with a 4-2 road win.

Zeiss highlighted the Dirtdevil offense with a pair of singles and was further complimented by Ashton Schweers who added a double.

Finding additional success from the batter's box was Abbie Hix and Lauren Gilliland who both contributed solo hits.

Gamble pitched a complete game for the Dirtdevils and secured the win as she struckout 10, while also allowing just one hit and six walks.

The Dirtdevils will resume action on Thursday, June 12 as McKenna Gibson had one hit in the Dirtdevils 12-2 win over Dodge on June 9 at the Wayne Softball Complex.

they host Columbus at the Wayne Softball Complex with games scheduled to start at 6:30 and 8 p.m.

Roebke earns ESPN The Magazine Academic Honor

On June 6, Wayne State College announced that senior Rachel Roebke was named to the ESPN The Magazine Academic All-District VII Women's Track and Field/Cross Country Second Team as voted on by sports information directors from across the country.

Roebke is a native of Seward, Neb., who maintained a 3.99 grade point average in sports management during her senior season.

She was an NCAA Division II national qualifier in both indoor and outdoor track this past year for the Wildcats. Roebke placed second in the NSIC in the 55-meter hurdles (8.14 seconds) and was the NSIC champion in the 100-meter hurdles (14.26 seconds) during the conference's outdoor championships that were held May 9-10 in Wayne.

She just missed making the finals in the 100-meter hurdles at the NCAA Division II Outdoor Championships on May 22-24 in Walnut, Calif., as she finished 10th with a time of 14.36 seconds.

In addition to her success in outdoor track and field, Roebke placed 11th in the 55-meter hurdles (8.76 seconds) at the NCAA Division II Indoor Nationals in Mankato, Minn. on March 13-14.

Roebke finished her WSC career as a two-time national qualifier in both indoor and outdoor track and field and she was a five-time NSIC hurdles champions who won the 55-meter indoor hurdles in 2006 and 2007 while also winning the 100-meter hurdles outdoor NSIC titles in 2006, 2007 and 2008.

ASK THE TRAINER

"How do I know if I am using enough weight when I lift?"

Research performed at Grand Valley State University and Wayne State College has shown when individuals lift on their own they are unlikely to use enough weight to cause an increase in strength or muscle. The results of this particular study showed men and women used a weight below 60% of their one-repetition maximum (1RM) when given no direction or guidance. This is inadequate since exercisers must use a minimum intensity range of 60-75% 1RM to see improvements in strength or muscle tone.

The bottom line is you should be using a minimum repetition range of 10-16 and selecting a weight heavy enough to fatigue the muscle. This is a good start, but an effective program will contain many adjustments to volume, intensity, and rest. This is why consulting an exercise professional can be very beneficial. When left to self-select intensity, many new and experienced lifters fall short, become discouraged, and may even quit. For these people, a simple consultation and adjustment in intensity can keep them on track and happy with their progress.

Always consult your physician before beginning any exercise program.

Former WSC pitcher Schumacher is drafted by San Diego Padres

Former Wayne State College pitcher Nick Schumacher was drafted by the San Diego Padres on Friday, June 6 in the 28th round of the 2008 Major League Baseball First-Year Player Draft.

The right hander from Nebraska City, Neb. was the 855th overall pick of the 50-round draft and it marked the second straight season that a WSC pitcher was drafted as Travis Mortimore was taken last year in the 21st round by the Seattle Mariners.

Schumacher finished with a 13-2 record and a 2.36 ERA for the Wildcats this season. He received First Team ABCA/Rawlings All-American honors while being named the Central Region Pitcher of the Year and 2008 Pitcher of the Year.

He was also named a Third Team All-American by Daktronics (Sports Information Directors) and the National Collegiate Baseball

Writers Association. Schumacher was tied with five other pitchers for the most wins by a NCAA Division II pitcher this season and set a new single season record for wins at WSC, as he broke the old mark that was set by Nate Miller in 2004.

In addition, Schumacher closed out his WSC career with a record of 30-9 which matched the school record for career wins that was held by Brady Borner (1998-2001). In 91.2 innings pitched this season, Schumacher allowed just 75 hits and 30 runs (24 earned) with 96 strikeouts.

The Wildcats finished the 2008 season with a 40-13 record. WSC captured the NSIC regular season title for a fifth straight season and advanced to the NCAA Tournament for a fifth consecutive year and the sixth time in the last eight years.

Others receiving votes: Pittsburgh-Johnstown 10, W. Va. State 10, Mesa State 6, Concord 6, Bellarmine 6, Kutztown 4, Belmont Abbey 4, Grand Valley State 4, Northern Ky. 2, Erskine 2, Southern Ind. 2, Southern Conn. State 2, Montaville 2, Ga. Wayne White Ponys drop two against Hartington

The Wayne White Pony boys' baseball team dropped two tough games to Hartington on June 10.

Wayne lost their first game to Hartington 6-0 and were offensively led by Bradley Longe who had one double while Ben Braun and James Ping added singles.

In game two, Wayne put together a solid all-around effort as Hartington snuck by the White team 5-4.

Wayne was led by Tyler Robinson, Ezra Broderson and Braun who all had doubles.

Aiding Wayne in the near win was Eric Schoh and Steven Sherman who both added singles.

NECC plans CPR instructor update class next week

Jessica Kranz

Jessica Kranz recognized

The United States Achievement Academy has announced that Jessica A. Kranz of Wayne has been recognized by the United States Achievement Academy as a student of excellence in Band.

This is an honor very few students can hope to attain. The Academy recognizes fewer than 10 percent of all American high school students.

Jessica, who attends Wayne High School, was nominated for this honor by Brad Weber, a teacher at the school. Her name will appear in the United States Achievement Academy's Official Yearbook, which is published nationally.

"Recognizing and supporting our youth is more important than ever before in America's history. Certainly, United States Achievement Academy students should be congratulated and appreciated for their dedication to excellence and achievement," said Dr. George Stevens, Founder of the United States Achievement Academy.

The Academy recognizes students upon the exclusive recommendation of teachers, coaches, counselors and other qualified sponsors and upon the Standards for Selection set forth by the Academy. The Standards for Selection include academic performance, interest and aptitude, leadership qualities, responsibility, enthusiasm, motivation to learn and improve, attitude and cooperative spirit, dependability and recommendation from a qualified sponsor.

Jessica is the daughter of Dr. William and Mary Kranz of Wayne.

Letters sent to potential violators

More than 10,000 Nebraskans will soon be receiving a letter notifying them that they may be in violation of Nebraska motor vehicle registration or titling requirements.

The letters mailed June 9, are being sent by the Nebraska State Patrol in conjunction with the Nebraska Department of Motor Vehicles (DMV) and the Department of Revenue and are the result of a more than two-month long investigation by the Auto Fraud Division of the Nebraska State Patrol. The investigation resulted in a list of Nebraska residents who have potentially registered their vehicles illegally in the states of Iowa and South Dakota.

"Our goal in this investigation is voluntary compliance," said Investigative Services Major Dave Sankey. "Numerous Nebraska residents have already taken the initiative to make sure their vehicles are properly licensed and titled in the state. The letter encourages those remaining, to check to ensure they are following Nebraska law when it comes to registering their motor vehicles."

The DMV and the Department of Revenue has estimated citizens failing to properly title and register their vehicles are costing the state of Nebraska upwards of $11,000.

Those receiving a letter are encouraged to refer to the Nebraska Department of Motor Vehicle's website at www.dmv.state.ne.us/dvr/mvreg/vehreg.html or contact the County Treasurer's office in their county of residence.

Local named to President's List

Lenoir-Rhyne College in Hickory, N.C. has announced the President's and Dean's Lists for the 2008 spring semester.

Among those named to the President's list is Andrea Mae Stover of Wayne.

Qualifying students for the President's List must have a cumulative grade point average of 3.9 or better on a 4.0 scale, provided the student carried at least 12 hours of letter-graded courses.

Qualifying students for the Dean's List must have a cumulative grade point average of 3.5 or better, provided no grade was below a "C" and the student carried at least 12 hours of letter-graded courses.

Sarah Monahan is recognized

The United States Achievement Academy has announced that Sarah Monahan of Wayne has been recognized by the United States Achievement Academy as a student of excellence in English.

This is an honor very few students can hope to attain. The Academy recognizes fewer than 10 percent of all American high school students.

Sarah, who attends Wayne High School, was nominated for this honor by Sylvia Ruhl, a teacher at the school. Her name will appear in the United States Achievement Academy's Official Yearbook, which is published nationally.

"Recognizing and supporting our youth is more important than ever before in America's history. Certainly, United States Achievement Academy students should be congratulated and appreciated for their dedication to excellence and achievement," said Dr. George Stevens, Founder of the United States Achievement Academy.

Northeast Nebraska tourism honors communities, elects new directors

The Northeast Nebraska Travel Council held its annual banquet on May 29 at the St. Michael's Historic Complex in Tarnov. The Council awarded three annual awards and also elected new boards for the year.

Speakers for the evening included Barbara Chamness, of Windmills across Nebraska and Karen Kollars, agri-tourism consultant for the Nebraska Division of Travel and Tourism. Kollars spoke of farms, ranches, hunting and outdoor recreation businesses in Nebraska. Chamness then spoke on the effort to bring together local Nebraska artists and communities for rural tourism and revitalization projects. The Swedish Cleaning Ladies of Wausa provided entertainment for the evening.

The Klown Doll Museum of Plainview was recognized with the "Outstanding Northeast Nebraska Attraction Award." Lee Warneke received the award for the community of Plainview. The museum represents the generosity of Nebraska donors of clowns, as well as the many volunteers who have helped the progress of the collection.

The Shannon Trail and its 16 communities, in partnership with the Ashfall Fossil Beds State Historic Park and Ponca State Park, were recognized with the "Outstanding Northeast Nebraska Tourism Partnership Award."

Irene Fletcher

Shirley Kehne of the Shannon Trail and Rick Otto of Ashfall National Historic Park received the award for the attractions.

Lee Myers, of the Wisner Community Development received the "Northeast Nebraska Travel Council President's Award" for his contributions to the organization.

The council also elected new officers for the upcoming year.

Irene Fletcher of Wayne Area Economic Development was elected to serve as president. Ruthie Galitz of the Elkhorn Valley Museum in Norfolk will be vice president. Judy Boardman of Diamond B Trout Resort in Orchard was elected secretary. Lee Myers was elected treasurer. Current NENTC president Chris Amundson, of Nebraska Life Magazine in Norfolk, will move to the past president board position. Also elected was Donna Goodier of the South Sioux City County Visitors Bureau, as board member at large.

The council also welcomed two new counties to the organization at the banquet. Boyd County, where Spencer is located, will now be included in the NENTC region to bring the total counties represented by the council to 20. The Highway 12 Outlaw Trail runs through Boyd County, and several historic sites are located on the trail, such as the White Horse Ranch, in Naper. Holt County, where O'Neill and Atkinson are located, was also welcomed into the council. Attractions in Holt include the Goose Lake Wildlife Management Area and events that celebrate Irish heritage, in O'Neill, Nebraska's Irish capital.

"We're very excited to welcome these counties into our organization. Tourism is an ongoing effort, and with these counties Northeast Nebraska have much to offer," Amundson said.

The next regular NENTC meeting will be held at 6:30 p.m. on Thursday, July 24, in Battle Creek, at Goodies Restaurant. The public is invited to attend.

Programs available in Wayne

June is Homeownership Month

June is Homeownership Month and Wayne Community Housing Development Corporation (WCHDC) and the City of Wayne can help in a number of ways.

Recently, a resolution was passed, approving an agreement between the City of Wayne and WCHDC to establish the Energy Saver Program and provide for cost-sharing, using a set aside of city of Wayne Energy Saving Incentive Funds if a family is purchasing a home through Wayne Community Housing Development Corporation's Purchase/Rehab/Resell Program in the city of Wayne.

WCHDC will provide the limited set aside incentive funds to the P/R/R program households for 50 percent cost share with a maximum of $2,000 per house for the installation of any of the following energy saving practices to meet the 2000 National Energy Code for: attic insulation, attic ventilation, wall insulation, electric heat pump, electric entrance box, thermal windows and large species shade trees. Funds for the Energy Saver

Program are very limited and are on a first come, first serve basis and must be approved by the City.

The Purchase/Rehab/Resell Program, which utilizes HOME funds from the Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) to provide down payment assistance to any homebuyers who meet the income eligibility requirements and wish to purchase an older single-family residence needing some rehabilitation.

WCHDC works with eligible homebuyers to identify older housing stock that needs improvement to bring it in line with current housing standards. WCHDC will purchase the property, perform the necessary improvements in cooperation with the family's wishes and resell the residence to the family with down payment assistance to help make first mortgage financing possible.

The maximum amount of assistance allowed by PRR is $20,000 or up to 20 percent of the final sale price of the rehabbed residence, whichever is less. In general, the average purchase price for a home under this program is $85,000, thus the HPRR loan would be $17,000. The applicant is required to provide a minimum of $500 cash investment.

The PRR assistance is a deferred, 0 percent interest loan, due upon resale of the home. All PRR applications will be approved on a first-come, first-serve basis.

The Purchase/Rehab/Resell program is open to any household whose gross income projected for the upcoming year does not exceed 80 percent of the median household income for Wayne County.

A second aspect of income eligibility is qualification for first mortgage financing. A letter of commitment is required from the lender and housing ratio should not exceed 30 percent and the debt to income ratio should not exceed 38 percent.

Applicants are required to secure their own home loan for the remaining balance of the sale price through a first mortgage lending institution. Applicants who qualify for this program may also be eligible for first mortgage funding through USDA-Rural Development direct loan programs and other first-time homebuyer programs.

Other requirements include that the home requires a minimum of $1,000 in improvements to qualify for this program. It must also be single-family residential property within the service area of WCHDC. No property or portion thereof assisted through the program may be retained for rental purposes of any kind.

Property chosen must be priced so that the necessary improvements can be funded and the final sale price remains under the maximums set forth by this program and/or HUD.

Applicants must complete a homebuyer education course as defined by the WCHDC prior to the closing date on any home purchase. It is recommended that applicants complete this course prior to beginning the search for a home. This course provides information which is helpful to the homebuyer.

Applicants for assistance shall not currently own or have any interest in other real property used for residential purposes.

2008 income limits are:
Household-Size Total Household Income

Household-Size	Total Household Income
1	$38,000
2	$43,487
3	$48,875
4	$54,312
5	$58,687
6	$63,000
7	$67,375
8	$71,687

The complete Purchase/Rehab/Resell guidelines, applications and program information is available through the WCHDC office located in the Wayne Area Chamber of Commerce building at 108 West 3rd, Wayne, Neb. 68787 or call (402) 375-5266.

The City of Wayne also offers alley improvement which consists of necessary grading and placing of rock of which the owner pays for one-half the cost of rock used in the alley.

Also offered is a Retree Wayne, a program to encourage property owners to plant shade trees on their private property in order to reduce energy costs within the City of Wayne. Each owner will be reimbursed for 100 percent of the purchase price up to $50 per tree. Following is a list of species: Oaks, Maples (excluding Silver Maple), Lindens, Sycamore and Hackberry.

Other species of large shade trees may be acceptable but must be approved by calling 375-1300 first. Steps to take to apply for Retree Wayne are: Call Diggers Hotline, purchase and plant your trees, fill out information and return application to the City Clerk's office. City personnel will visit the planting site to verify the location and type of trees planted. A check for reimbursement up to $50 per tree will be mailed to the owner.

Anyone with questions about the information provided can contact the WCHDC office located in the Wayne Area Chamber of Commerce building at 108 West 3rd, Wayne, Neb. 68787, or call (402) 375-5266, real estate companies and lenders.

Elected officers

Finn attends budget seminar

Debra Finn, Wayne County Clerk, completed a seminar at Kearney recently. The event was sponsored by the Nebraska Association of County Officials.

The seminar provided county commissioners, supervisors and other county officials specialized training as they prepare county budgets.

Attendees heard presentations from the State Auditor Mike Foley's office and other individuals who are involved with budget preparation and the budget process.

Among the budget-related topics addressed were a budget overview, budget forms, lid computations; financial cash flow; budget calendar and budget preparation; the budget process and the audit of financial information.

Locks of Love

For the second time in her life, 10-year old Danica Schaefer has contributed 12 inches of her hair to Locks of Love. She had her hair cut last week by Wendy Ping at the Undercut. The hair is used to make hairpieces for children.

Knights of Ak-Sar-Ben announce 2008 Good Neighbor Award winners

The Knights of Ak-Sar-Ben Foundation and the Omaha World-Herald have announced the 64th annual Good Neighbor Award recipients. The Good Neighbor awards recognize individuals from Nebraska and western Iowa who have performed neighborly acts and deeds unselfishly without personal gain.

Later this year, award winners will be recognized at their county fairs with a certificate and Good Neighbor lapel pin.

The 2008 Ak-Sar-Ben Good Neighbor Award recipients from this area are Chuck and Trudy Peters of Dixon. Chuck and Trudy, have coached and helped the Dixon softball team for over 25 years without pay. They have set up practices, scheduled games and tournaments, taken care of field and maintained the concession stand.

The Good Neighbor Award program is just one of several recognition programs the Foundation offers as part of its mission "to build a more prosperous Heartland, where communities can flourish and every child can succeed."

Blood Bank makes stop in Wayne

The Siouxland Community Blood Bank conducted a blood drive on June 2 at Our Savior Lutheran Church in Wayne.

A total of 10 donors registered and 10 units were collected. One new donor was also recruited.

Everyone deserves to be recognized for giving the gift of life and the following is a list of donors:

Randall Bargholz, DeAnn Behlers (two gallons), Michael Jo. Belt, Michaela L. Belt, Holly K. Doring, Jordan Eberhardt, Kandyce A. Frerichs, Heidi A. Garvin, Jeryl L. Nelson (six gallons) and Scott D. Steele.

"The Siouxland Community Blood Bank exists to make a difference in people's lives by providing a safe and dependable blood supply to area hospitals. Thank you to all the volunteers and donors who made this drive successful," said Jamie Wickham with the Siouxland Community Blood Bank.

New presidents

Recently elected presidents of the Wayne Eagles 3757 Auxiliary and Aerie are Jessica Olson and Mike Sievers. They were installed at a recent meeting and will serve the respective offices for the coming year.

Former resident graduates in California

Cassandra (Cassie) Stratton, daughter of Jeffrey Stratton and stepdaughter of Chameen Stratton of Pleasanton, Calif. and granddaughter to Don and Vicki Jacobsen (1947 - 2003) of Wayne, will graduate from Foothill High School on June 13.

Jeff relocated his family to California in 1998 after living in Wayne for most of his life.

In high school, Cassie has been involved in the Student Leadership Academy during her four years and has gained the respect and recognition from her classmates and teachers.

She has also been involved in a variety of clubs including: Uganda Club (aids in building schools and collecting funds for those less fortunate in Africa), Alzheimer's Awareness Club (visit retirement homes and provide awareness on campus about the disease). Cassie was nominated for Who's Who Among Students Award which is a national organization recognizing students who go above and beyond the call of duty, showing commitment to their school and community.

Outside of high school, Cassie graduated from the Barbizon School of Modeling where she learned poise, confidence and basic modeling and skin care techniques which she's been able to apply to many aspects of her life. She has been accepted to California State University, Northridge where she plans on working towards a BS in Business Administration beginning this fall.

Relay 2008 — Celebrate. Remember. Fight Back.

The 10th annual Wayne County Relay For Life was a huge success, raising more than $70,000 for the American Cancer Society's effort to find a cure for cancer. This year's event also included more than 1,000 luminaries lining the track at Wayne State College. Clockwise, from directly below, luminaries spelled out the word "Hope," Denise's Angel's team raised more than $10,000 for the Relay; Jana Anderson spoke during the "Fight Back" ceremony; silent auction baskets were part of the fund-raising effort; team members took turns walking and visiting during the 11-hour walk; members of Kaden's Klassmates took part in the opening ceremonies; games of all types took place throughout the night; survivors released balloons following completion of the opening lap; members of the 18 teams involved in the event walked the first lap of the evening; Vicky Skokan, the original chair of the event, agreed to have her head shaved if the fundraising goal was met.

Be prepared for summer storms

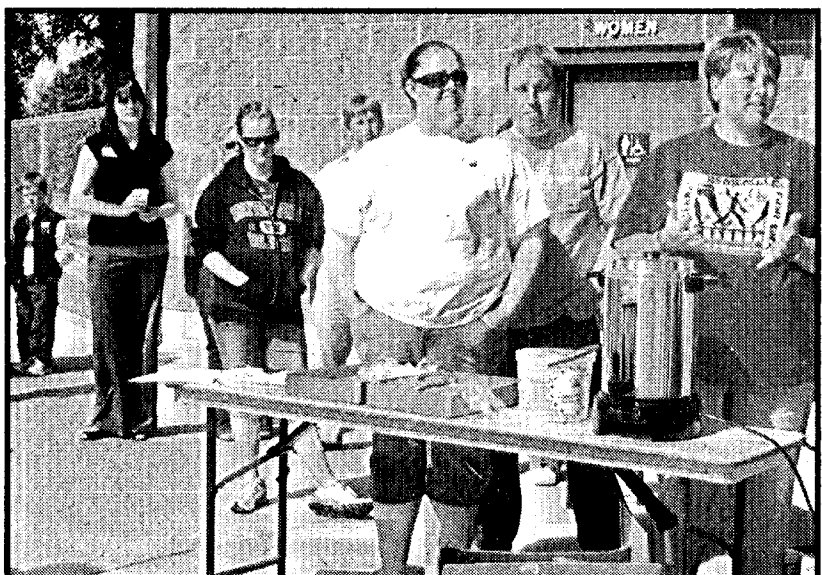

Dear Editor,
Tornado season is here, and our community has the chance right now to take some simple steps that can save lives if we are threatened this year by a storm.
The disaster relief workers at the Northeast Nebraska Chapter of the American Red Cross work hard in this community every day to provide relief for those whose lives have been torn apart by disasters. However, in addition to helping after a disaster, the Red Cross mission calls for us to play an equally important role in preparing communities BEFORE disaster strikes so that families can learn ways to stay safe when facing the annual tornado season.
We know that our region is at risk every year, so it is particularly vital that we work to keep our families safe by preparing for tornado season now. Taking a few moments to discuss some simple, common-sense preparedness steps with your family can save your life and the lives of the ones you love.
•Creating and practicing a Home Tornado Plan: Pick an uncluttered place where family members could seek shelter: a basement, a center hallway, bathroom, or closet on the lowest floor.
•Assembling a Disaster Supplies Kit: Kits should contain a first aid kit and essential medications, canned food and manual can opener, bottled water, flashlights and a battery-powered radio with extra batteries and other emergency items for the whole family.

•Heeding Storm Warnings: Listen to your local radio and TV stations for updated storm information. A tornado WATCH means a tornado is possible in your area. When a tornado WARNING is issued, go to the safe place you picked to protect yourself from glass and other flying objects. If you are outside, hurry to the basement of a nearby sturdy building or lie flat in a ditch or low-lying area. If you are in a car or mobile home, get out immediately and head for safety.
•Preparing for High Winds: Make trees more wind resistant by removing diseased and damaged limbs, then strategically removing branches so that wind can blow through. Install permanent shutters on your windows and add protection to the outside areas of sliding glass doors. Strengthen garage doors and unreinforced masonry. Move or secure lawn furniture, outdoor decorations or ornaments, trash cans, hanging plants and anything else that can be picked up by wind and become a projectile.
For more information on tornado preparedness, contact the Northeast Nebraska Chapter of the American Red Cross at 402-375-5209 or go online to www.redcross.org.

Goal is achieved

Dear Editor,
What a great year the members of Anton Bokemper Unit No. 81, American Legion Auxiliary in Wakefield are having.
The Unit has reached 100 percent Goal with 98 members. Continued community support would help foster greater success. Congratulations! The Unit is within 22 members of setting a new "All-Time High" membership.
Recruiting and retaining members are the two most important factors in the growth of any organization. But the main factor to achieving either is that the members are involved, take a dedicated interest in the programs they support and publicize their activities and events to the public in exchange for continued support from the public. Were it not for the volunteer members who make up every Auxiliary Unit nationwide this organization would be sorely missed in their respective communities.
The Auxiliary is here in support of the local American Legion, the Sons of the American Legion and together they create a "Family" of "Service, Not Self" to Veterans, Children & Youth and the Community. This Unit exemplifies a true commitment and dedication to the aims and purposes of The American Legion, the American Legion Auxiliary and Sons of the American Legion in carrying out programs in Americanism, Patriotism, Community Service, Education, Child Welfare and more. Community support lends itself to these organizations, which allows them to continue to grow and prosper in their programs.

On behalf of the Department of Nebraska, Department President Gayla Schmid of Bellwood, and myself, Congratulations to Unit No. 81 - Wakefield for this accomplishment and for giving back to your community.
Beverly A. Neel,
Membership Chairman

Relay For Life

Sarah Claussen, co-chair of the Wayne County Relay For Life, spoke during last week's Chamber Coffee. She explained the Relay and where the funds raised go in efforts to find a cure for cancer.

Attorney General's office issues legal opinion on private property rights and petitioners

The Attorney General's Office issued a legal opinion on private property rights and petition circulators. The opinion was requested by Speaker of the Legislature Mike Flood of Norfolk.
"Speaker Flood asked our office for clarification on whether or not petition circulators and blockers have a right to remain on private property after being asked to leave," said Attorney General Jon Bruning. "The answer is no, and the law is clear. Private property owners have a right to restrict who comes on their property."

Both Speaker Flood's Office and the Attorney General's Office have received phone calls from concerned citizens and businesses. As the July 4 deadline for signatures approaches, the situation may become more contentious. Circulators and blockers may become more aggressive in where and how they gather signatures.
"The initiative process is an important tool for Nebraskans, but both sides need to act within the confines of the law," Bruning said.

Capitol View

Determining the role of the lobbyist

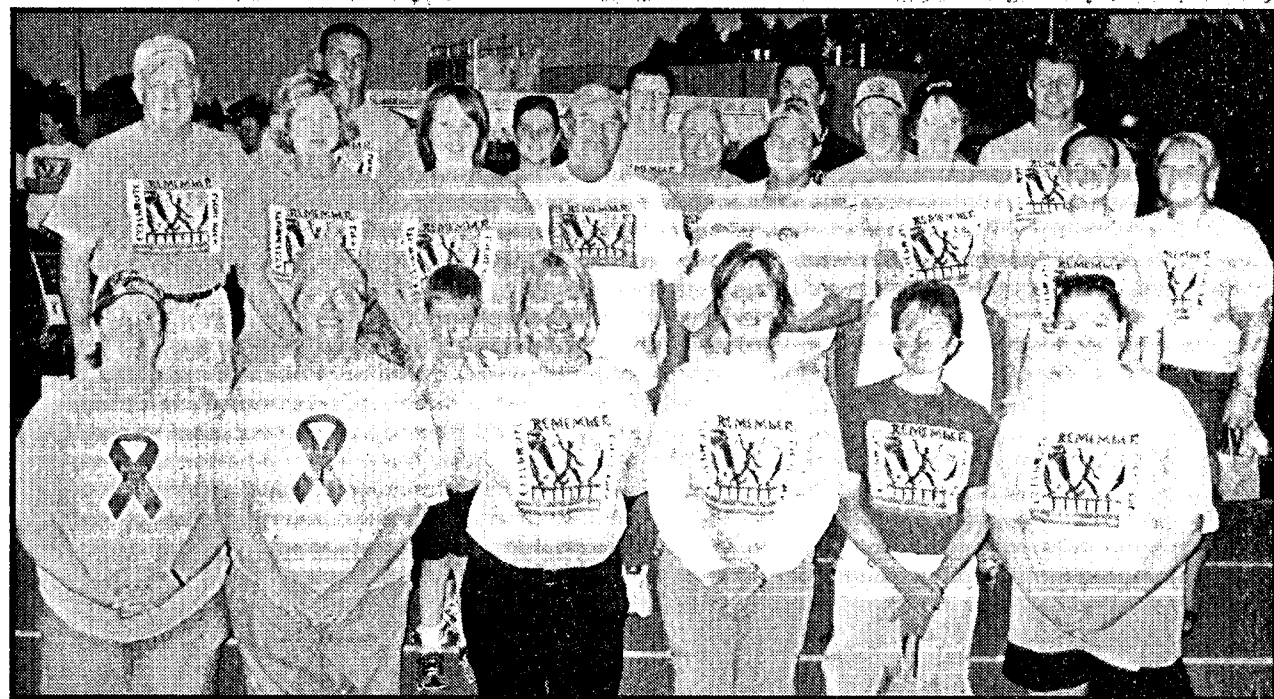

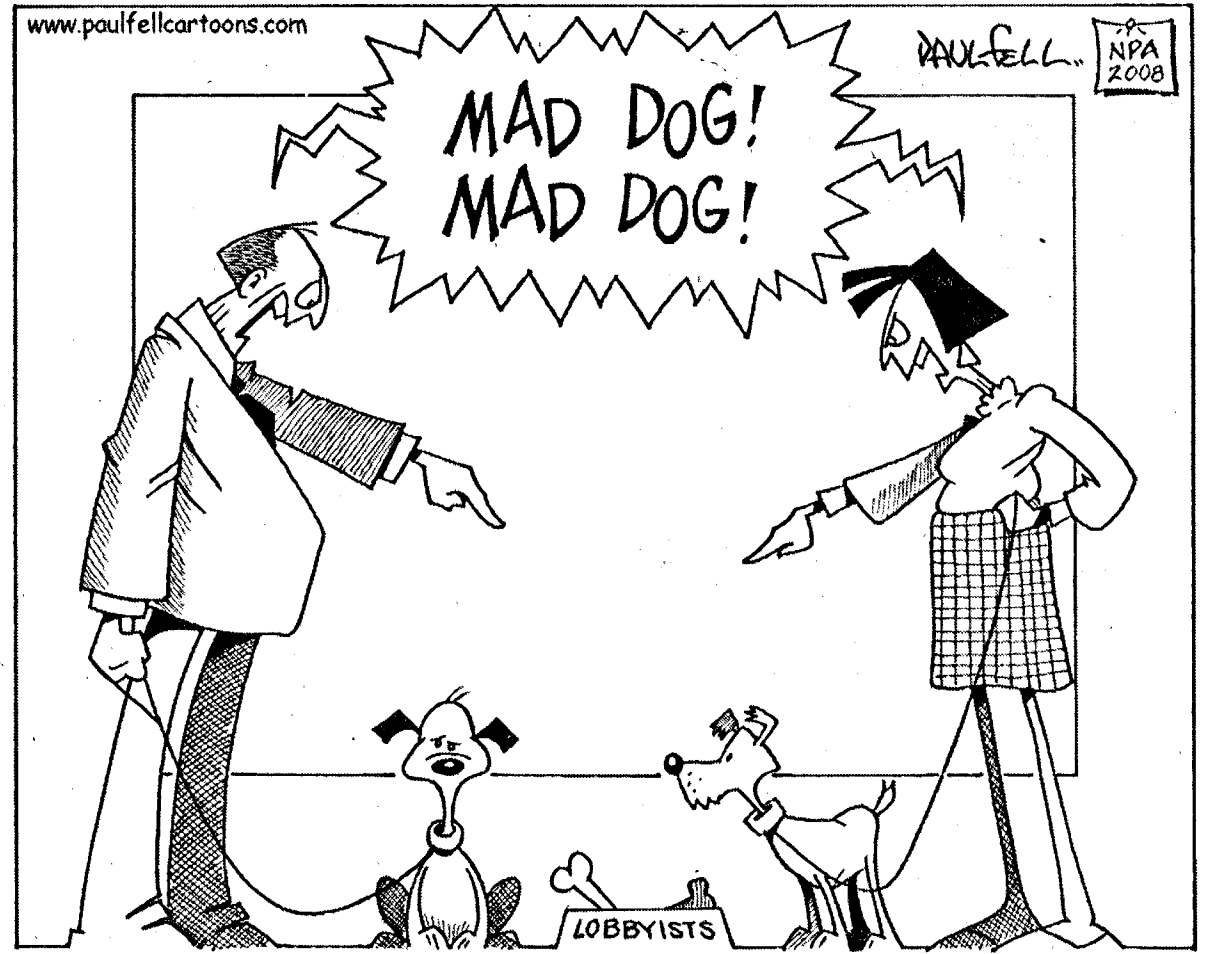

By Ed Howard
Statehouse Correspondent
The Nebraska Press Association

Never fails.
Mention "lobbyists" or "lobbying" and at least some of the people can be depended upon to go ballistic.
Mention that millions and millions of taxpayer dollars have been spent over the years to lobby the Legislature. Some of those same people will turn purple before starting to shake, rattle and roll their eyes.
Every few years a news story reminds the public that such spending is common among local governments and various government entities and associations. They range from school districts to natural resources districts, to associations of law enforcement agencies, public health organizations and many others.
More than one-half million dollars was spent that way during the 2008 legislative session.
Some taxpayers are insulted by the very notion of one entity of government hiring a lobbyist to influence another entity of government.
How could it be justified?
It's one of those things requiring an explanation beginning with: "You probably have to see it to really understand it."
Does it annoy you to think your city is chipping in money so that it, together with lots of other cities, can try to convince lawmakers and the governor to send more state dollars to schools, so that increases in local property taxes can be minimized or (hope against hope) reduced a tad?
What if county officials have their lobbyist in Lincoln working to put more money into repairing some raggedly county highways; the sort that knock the front end of your truck out of line, and thus do unkindness to your own rear end?

I once quoted a woman who told me: "I want my local officials to do something for me, not go down there to Lincoln and lobby state senators!"
She absolutely rejected the fact (and it is fact) that sometimes the former is dependent upon the latter.
Of course, it is equally true that various elements of government, including some agencies, are regularly asking the Legislature for permission to take more money out of your pocket, via higher taxes, fees or whatever else they can think of - and they can think of a lot!

What's to be remembered is that it remains the job of the Legislature, and the governor, to evaluate requests and recommendations, whether from individual citizens or the people who run the University of Nebraska system. It is their job, and within their authority, to decide who spends what, and who pays for it. They are to evaluate the information put before them by organizations and individuals, often represented by lobbyists, and decide what to do.
That lobbyists represent powerful interests, which can sometimes grant or withhold political support, is always an issue. But remember: A lobbyist is not a source of power - a lobbyist represents power. Take away the lobbyist and the power would still be there.

Final note: We are always interested when some person, or group of persons, assert that lobbying should be banned by law. The fact is that lobbying is a constitutional right, protected by the First Amendment to the U.S. Constitution. Lobbying can be regulated in all manner of ways, but it can't be banned.

Relay Supporters

The corporate sponsors (top photo) of this year's Relay For Life were recognized on Friday evening. They include four sponsors who have been part of the event for the entire 10 years of its existence - Stadium Sports, State National Bank, Providence Medical Center and the Wayne Herald. Also recognized were The Wizards. The team, which consists of members of Wayne Public Schools, has had a team each of the last 10 years. A number of other individuals and teams were also recognized for their fund-raising efforts this year. More than $70,000 was raised by this year's participants.

FINANCIAL FOCUS

Retiring Early

Most of us fantasize about being able to retire at a young age. For a number of Americans, it is not just a fantasy, but a reality. A few even manage to do it by the time they reach their 30s. There are different ways that people approach an early retirement strategy, but one aspect is consistent for most - it requires careful planning.

The appeal of early retirement is obvious. Along with having more free time, fewer demands and reduced stress, you also benefit from the advantage of still being in the prime of your health. A benefit of leaving fulltime work well before a traditional retirement age is the ability to do more physically than if they wait until age 65 or later to retire.

Like most other aspects of life, one of the biggest concerns in plotting out an early retirement strategy is how to pay for it. This becomes even more significant when you consider that Americans today enjoy longer life expectancies than ever before. For instance, if you manage to retire in your 50s, you could easily spend three-to-four decades in retirement, possibly longer than the span of time you spent working fulltime.

Setting priorities

One thing is almost certain when it comes to early retirement - you need to take action to make your dreams a reality. First, you must commit yourself to saving as much as you can during your working years in order to meet your financial goals for an extended retirement. The sooner you plan to retire, the more serious you need to be about saving.

This means making sacrifices in your current lifestyle: work you do retire.

For many people, expenses can easily be kept lower in retirement. However, those who want to take advantage of the free time to travel or pursue hobbies will be spending more on those pursuits in retirement than was the case in their working years.

As you grow older, healthcare costs become a major concern. This too will need to be accounted for in your planning process. So will the fact that inflation will eat away at the value of your savings. If the cost of living goes up by an average of 4 percent per year, your expenses will double in less than 20 years. Keep in mind that if you retire before age 62, you will not have the option of tapping Social Security benefits until that time. Also, by not earning an income in the years leading up to a more traditional retirement age, your Social Security payments will be lower in the future, had you kept working.

The option of early retirement can be open to just about anybody, as long as you plan ahead. Some people manage to live on just a few hundred dollars per month once they retire. Most of us will need more than that, but early retirement is not just for the wealthy. A number of hard-working Americans who have been diligent about saving, wise with their investments and realistic about their lifestyle have managed to leave the working world behind at a relatively young age. They've begun pursuing the rest of their life while there is a lot of it left to live. A financial advisor may help you identify and create a financial plan, including early retirement.

Rachel Tietz is Merlin Brondum Memorial Scholarship recipient

Rachel Tietz, a Winside native and a student at BryanLGH College of Health Sciences - School of Nurse Anesthesia, has been selected to receive the Merlin Brondum Memorial Scholarship for 2008.

The $2500 scholarship is awarded annually in memory of Merlin Brondum, and has continued with contributions of the Pender Community Hospital, Pender Community Health Care Foundation, Pender Mercy Medical Clinic, and Mercy Medical Center.

Merlin worked at Pender Community Hospital for 27 years, most of which were as Director of the Laboratory. He died in 2003 after a brief illness and will be remembered by the PCH staff as a friend and family member.

The scholarship committee makes its decision based on health care experience, academic performance, financial need, career objective in a rural area, and community contributions.

Tietz is currently pursuing a Master's Degree in Nurse Anesthesia. She graduated from UNMC - Lincoln with a Bachelor of Science in Nursing in 2003. Her career goal of working in a rural community is reinforced by being raised on a farm in rural Nebraska.

"Getting healthcare providers to return to a rural setting is still challenging today. I believe this commitment begins with education and involvement within communities." Tietz also states in her application, "I strive each day to give patients the best possible health care experience."

Tietz has been involved in many college service and academic activities and brings work experience in Cardiac and Medical/Surgical Intensive Care areas. She is currently residing in Lincoln with her husband, Brent, and daughter, Carleigh.

Previous recipients of the scholarship are Melissa Lake, Brianna Tonjes and Jessica Karas.

Supermarket Savings: 16 tips that can total big bucks

It's possible to save money shopping for groceries without cooking everything from scratch, packing your purse with coupons, or purchasing foods in season.

Here are 16 easy tips that can total big bucks. An example is given for each with the potential savings from: (1) spending less and/or (2) avoiding uneaten food (and lost grocery money).

The possible grand total you might save is given at the end of this article. Prices are rounded to the nearest 50 cents and may vary by store and region.

1. Keep a grocery list. Gas for an extra trip to the store easily can add a dollar or more to your grocery bill. And the less you shop, the less likely you will make an impulse purchase. Keep a grocery list where it's easily accessible, such as on the fridge and remember to take it with you to the grocery store. Stick to your list for added savings, but do stay flexible if you encounter a sale.

Example:

(1) Gas to drive four miles for an extra trip to the store: $1 (or more!).

(2) Impulse purchase of snack crackers at the store: An additional $2.50 spent.

Card shower requested for Slagle anniversary

Rollie and Lavonne Slagle of Laurel will observe their 55th wedding anniversary on Tuesday, June 17.

A card shower has been requested in honor of the occasion.

Their family includes Jim and Julie Slagle of Laurel, Mike and Julie Slagle of Osmond and Chuck and Cindy Suing of Laurel. Two sons, Gale and Dan, are deceased. They also have 13 grandchildren and eight great-grandchildren.

Rollie Slagle and Lavonne Laase were married June 17, 1953 in Cuming County.

Cards may be sent to the couple at 501 West Second Street, Laurel, Neb. 68745.

2. Garbage check. We lose money whenever we toss food because it spoiled before we got around to eating it. If leftovers get the "heave ho" because they're left too long, we're putting money in the garbage can. Make planning to avoid tossing foods a priority.

Consider: If wilted lettuce is a frequent occupant of your garbage can, serve more salads at the beginning of the week. If extra mashed potatoes get tossed because they've lingered too long in the fridge, make less next time. Or recycle them as potato patties, shepherd's pie or potato soup within a day or two of making them. Some other ideas: Use ripe bananas in banana bread; add juice to smoothies or make popsicles; freeze leftovers for another meal.

Example: Tossing a half bag of "tired" lettuce: $1.

3. Avoid shopping when hungry. Everything looks good on an empty stomach. And, it's all too easy to buy something to tide us over in the car until we make it home. Eating before going shopping not only helps forestall impulse buys, it may save calories. If you're shopping with your kids, feed them in advance, as well.

Example: Buying an energy bar at the grocery store to tide you over until you get home: $1.50 more spent.

4. Brown bag it. If you normally eat out at noon, consider brown bagging it at least one day a week. The typical fast food meal out easily can cost $5 or more. Take food left over from the evening meal to work the next day. A peanut butter sandwich and a piece of whole fruit quickly can be packed from foods on hand.

Example: (1) Eating a sack lunch once a week: Save $2.50 (or more).

(2) Eating a sack lunch 5 days a week: Save $12.50 (or more).

5. Coupon common sense. Use coupons only for foods you normally would eat, rather than for "extras." Don't miss out on poten-

Open house to honor Wally and Janet Bull

An open house will be held for Wally and Janet Bull of Wayne in observance of their 50th wedding anniversary.

The event will be held Sunday, June 15 from 2 to 4 p.m. at the First National Bank Community Room, 411 East Seventh Street in Wayne.

The couple was married Feb. 9, 1958.

There family includes Cindy and Andy Swenson of Fargo, N.D., Sandy and Ted Baack of Wayne, Kristy and Paul Smejkal of Minnetonka, Minn. and Debby and Randy Kinney of Lincoln. They also have six grandchildren.

Frauendorfer — Jorgensen

Tonisha Frauendorfer and Adam Jorgensen of Norfolk have announced their engagement.

The bride-to-be is the daughter of Randy and Kim Frauendorfer of Newman Grove. Her grandparents are LaVern and the late Tom Kennedy of Newman Grove and Ron and Donna Frauendorfer of Humphrey. She graduated from Newman Grove High School in 2001 and Wayne State College in 2006 with a bachelor's degree in psychology. She is currently employed as the Community Treatment Aid Coordinator at Meadows Behavioral Health in Columbus.

The future groom is the son of Steve and Gwen Jorgensen of Norfolk, formerly of Wayne. He is the grandson of Kearney and the late Carol Lackas of Belden and the late George and Adaline Jorgensen of Carroll. He graduated from Wayne High School in 2001 and earned a bachelor's degree in Social Sciences from Wayne State College. He is currently employed by Volkman Plumbing and Heating and Mosaic.

The couple is planning a July 19, 2008 wedding at Lindsay Holy Family Catholic Church in Lindsay.

Walters — Lindsay

Jewell Nadia Walters and Dr. Cory Ray Lindsay have announced the plans to exchange vows on July 27, 2008 at the Thomas Center in Gainesville, Fla.

The bride-to-be is the daughter of Edith Walters of Tortola, British Virgin Islands. She will graduate from the University of Florida College of Medicine in December of 2008 with her Ph.D. in biochemistry.

Her fiance is the son of Archie and Virginia Lindsay of Laurel. He is a 1998 graduate of Laurel-Concord High School. He earned his B.S. in Biological Sciences from Wayne State College in December of 2002 and received his doctorate at the University of Florida College of Medicine and Shands Cancer Center studying breast cancer and chemotherapy resistance. He is now working on the faculty in the Cancer Research Center at Gainesville, Fla.

'Friendship Trek'

Friendship Trek was the theme for Vacation Bible School at Grace Lutheran Church in Wayne, this year. In the mornings from May 27 through May 31, about 50 children met to learn about Jesus, our Forever Friend. Each morning began and closed with a devotion, which included music and a short DVD skit. Bible Stories, snacks, crafts and games highlighted the lesson of the day. Pastors Pasche and Lilienkamp, along with 30 teachers, guides and helpers, donated their time, energy and knowledge to this year's Bible School adventures.

Lutheran Women gather in Norfolk for convention

Nebraska District North Lutheran Women's Missionary League (LWML) was in session June 6-7 for the 34th Biennial Convention held at Lutheran High Northeast in Norfolk.

There were over 400 women, men and children in attendance. They came from all over northeast Nebraska - from the Omaha and the Missouri River Valley to Valentine, from the Nebraska/South Dakota border to the Platte River.

They came to work, serve and praise God as stated in their convention theme "We are God's Workmanship" and based on Ephesians 2:10, "For we are God's Workmanship, created in Christ Jesus to do good works, which God prepared in advance for us to do."

LWML is a mission-based organization of the Lutheran Church - Missouri Synod. As such, the women chose mission grants to "serve the Lord with gladness!" Their mission grant goal for the 2008-09 biennium is $71,500. This goal is reached through the prayers of the LWML and mite giving.

Wayne Zone women display the baby quilt that was donated as part of "Gifts from the Heart" at the LWML Biennial Convention.

Mites are pennies, nickels, dimes and quarters (and dollars) the LWML gather and dedicate to God's service.

Some of the Nebraska-based mission grants selected include:

- Feed God's Hungry Children - Kids Against Hunger, Norfolk ($7,500).
- Revitalizing Rural and Urban Congregations and Schools in the Nebraska District - Nebraska District LCMS ($7,000).
- IC Mission Church, A mission church of Peace Lutheran, Columbus ($5,000).
- 100 Camperships to Camp Luther, Schuyler ($6,500).
- Fremont Area Building Family Boutique, Fremont ($6,000).
- Hispanic Mission Outreach Program, Omaha ($4,500).

Mission grants also include $20,000 in scholarships for future church workers in the Nebraska District North who are attending Synod colleges and universities throughout the United States.

Young Women Representatives (YWR) is a program of the LWML to encourage, mentor and teach the young women of The Lutheran Church - Missouri Synod "to continue in their walk with God and to serve Him with gladness."

There were four YWR's in attendance and they chose their own mission grant. What the YWR's chose as their mission grant was Scholarships for the Themba Trust-Siyathemba Girl's High School of Dirkiendrop, South Africa.

Elections were also part of the convention business.

Elected to four-year terms were: Glenna Gutz of Plainview, Vice

Savings

tial sources of valuable coupons. Check your grocery receipt - sometimes there are great coupons on the back that help save money. Also, if you have access to a computer, check online for coupons. For starters, check the Web site of the store where you shop or of products you use. Often the Web site address for many foods is given on the product label.

If possible, shop on double or triple coupon days when a store increases the value of coupons. Grocery store loyalty cards may be another source of savings, offering in-store discounts to cardholders.

Example:

(1) NOT buying that NEW dessert mix: Save $2.

(2) Using two 50-cent coupons for items you DO use: Save $1.

6. Check expiration dates. Avoid buying a food that is past its prime. If it's on sale and near its expiration date, use it soon.

Example: Avoid dumping a half gallon of soured milk down the drain: Save $2.50.

7. Small scale experiments. Before trying a new food, buy the smallest size of package. If your family doesn't like the food, you won't be stuck with a big box of it.

Example: Limit your purchase of an exotic spice you discover your family won't eat to a small container: Save $1.50.

8. Costly convenience foods. How much time do you really save when you buy a convenience food? It takes just a few seconds to mix your own sugar and cinnamon rather than buying it pre-mixed. Microwaving a bowl of regular oatmeal rather than pouring hot water over a pre-measured package adds only a few minutes.

You're likely to save by cutting fruits and veggies yourself. Plus, the pre-cut ones won't keep as long. Example: Buying a carton of old-fashioned or quick oatmeal that provides 30 servings vs. buying three boxes instant oatmeal that contain 10 packets each: Save $5.50.

9. Staple food stock up. Invest in staple foods when they're on sale. Buying a boatload of bananas (and other perishable foods) isn't a very good long-term investment. Stocking up on staple items such as reduced-price canned tuna, tomato sauce or mandarin oranges can be. Remember to check expiration dates.

Example: Stocking up on 10 cans of food reduced by 20 cents apiece: Save $2.

10. Bulking up when the price is right and you can use it. First, do the math and check if you actually do save by buying a larger package. The cost of two foods of the smaller size may be a better price than the larger one. Plus, will you use the food while the flavor is still tasty? Always check it out and if the larger size meets your criteria, go for it.

Example: Buying a five-pound bag of rice instead of a one-pound bag: Save $1.50.

11. Store brand savings. Store brands are comparable in nutrition to name brands. And, taste-wise, there may be little difference. In some comparisons, they have been preferred over the name brands.

Some store brands may vary more in size, color, or texture than the name brands. However, this may be unimportant, depending on their use. A less than perfect appearing vegetable may be just fine if used in a casserole or soup.

Example: Buying just two store brands and saving 50-cents on each: Save $1.

12. Prevent food flops. Check preparation methods for unfamiliar foods. Perhaps that tropical fruit looked enticing at the store. However, if you're not sure how to prepare it or where to find more information once you bring it home, think again. Or, that new cut of meat - do you slowly roast it or can it be grilled? Either way, find out or risk having a food flop.

Often the produce person or the meat manager at the store can give you some tips. Many produce departments have books with descriptions of all the items, what they taste like, how to prepare them, etc.

Example: Purchasing a bag of self-rising flour without reading the directions and discovering it won't work in your recipes: Lose $2.50

13. Beware of snack attacks. Unless you're fairly active and need the calories, enjoy snacks, such as chips, cookies, candy, etc. in limited amounts. You'll save money and may lose unwanted pounds at the same time.

Example: Buying one less bag of chips weekly: Save $2.

14. Shop the specials. Plan your menus around sale items, especially more expensive purchases, such as meat. A dollar saved is even better than a dollar earned, as you don't have to pay taxes on it.

Buying several packages of meat when it is on sale and freezing it may save quite a bit. "It is safe to freeze meat or poultry directly in its supermarket wrapping but this type of wrap is permeable to air," advises the U.S. Dept. of Agriculture and Inspection Service (USDA/FSIS). "Unless you will be using the food in a month or two, over wrap these packages as you would any food for long-term storage using airtight heavy-duty foil, (freezer) plastic wrap or freezer paper, or place the package inside a (freezer) plastic bag." If you plan to repack family packs into smaller amounts, USDA/FSIS also recommends using these materials.

While raw ground meat maintains optimum quality in the freezer for three to four months, larger pieces of meat like steaks or chops will maintain optimum quality for four to 12 months, according to USDA/FSIS. At 0 degrees F, frozen foods remain safe indefinitely. The safest way to thaw meat is in the refrigerator on a plate on the bottom shelf so it doesn't drip on other foods.

Example: Buying meat on sale: Save $2.

15. Think before you drink: Buy a reusable water bottle and fill it with tap water. Your investment soon will pay for itself. Limit consumption of soft drinks and fancy coffees.

Example: Drinking tap water vs. buying a 12 pack of bottled water: Save $4.

16. "Checkout" temptation. OK, you've almost made it to the finish line ... don't stumble now as you approach the checkout lane. As you're waiting in line, think twice before buying some last-minute temptation.

Example: Resist that magazine with the latest diet: Save $3.50.

GRAND TOTAL: The more of these tips you can use and the more foods you can use them with, the more you can save. Case in point: If you were able to use each of the preceding examples in one shopping trip, you could save as much as $40 a week.

Multiply that by 52 weeks and the savings would be ... TA DA! ... over $2,000 yearly!

President of Human Care; Erma L'Heureux of Madison, Vice President of Christian Life; Jan Von Seggern of Columbus, Vice President of Communication; Karen Peters of Plainview, Recording Secretary; Judy Bohn of West Point, Financial Secretary and the Rev. William Engebretsen of Laurel, Counselor.

Elected to the Nominating Committee, a two year-term, were Shirley Stoltenberg of Atkinson, chair; Joan Plummer of Columbus, Jolene Stockamp of Fremont, Patricia Mattes of Allen and Betty Bohac of Norfolk.

LWML women brought "Gifts from the Heart." These included 340 paper items, 111 cleaning supplies, 265 towels, 509 baby items, 15 boxes of baby towels/clothing,

2,008 adult toiletries, 402 quilts and $440 in cash. "Gifts from the Heart" items were donated to Mission Congregations in the Nebraska District, Agape Pregnancy Center, Birthright, Norfolk Rescue Mission and Orphan Grain Train. The Lutheran Women's Missionary League, with a membership of over 250,000 is the official women's organization of The Lutheran Church-Missouri Synod. The LWML focuses on affirming each woman in her relationship with Christ to enable her to be in ministry among the people of the world. For over 65 years the organization has been encouraging and equipping women to live out their Christian lives in active mission ministries and to financially support global missions.

Wanted ... Church news

The Wayne Herald would like to print information and schedules from area churches.

All information submitted to the Herald by Monday at 5 p.m. (delivered to the Herald office) or emailed by 8 a.m. on Tuesday will be included in that week's edition of the paper.

Articles may be mailed to P.O. Box 70, Wayne, Neb. 68787 or emailed to clara@wayneherald.com

The Herald thanks its readers and area ministers for their cooperation in our effort to keep informed on the happenings at various churches.

Thirty members of the descendants of Heinrich and Maria (Mindemann) Koehlmoos and Deitrich and Maria (Biermann) Stuthman gathered for a reunion on May 25 at St. John's Lutheran Church Social Hall in Pilger.

Relatives attended from Columbus, Fremont, Norfolk, Omaha, Pilger, Wayne and Wisner in Nebraska and Rapid City, S.D., Topeka, Kan., St. Paul, Minn. and Las Vegas, Nev.

Traveling the farthest were Beth Young of Rapid City, S.D., Larry and Ladean Rinker of Topeka, Kan., Deon Stuthman of St. Paul, Minn. and Eldon Stuthman of Las Vegas, Nev.

The youngest persons in attendance were Madison and Liberty Dexter of Pilger, daughters of Wendy Dexter.

The oldest person present was Leonda Nelson of Wayne.

It was voted to have another Koehlmoos-Stuthman reunion in two years at St. John's in Pilger with a potluck at noon. All are asked to bring pictures of cars they may have owned.

TOPS holds meetings

The following is a report of the recent TOPS meetings in Wayne. The group met for the May 21 meeting at PMC in the Boardroom with 10 TOPS and two KOPS members present. Pledges were recited for the both groups as ordered by Leader Twilla Kessinger. Roll Call was "Were you successful or did you fail in the challenge of a loss of two pounds in this month." Secretary Paula Haisch read the past weeks minutes and they were corrected with the time change of the open house. Tracy Henschke gave the treasurer's report. Weekly Stats for TOPS indicated that the Best Loser was Tracy Henschke and she received her coupon. Tracy earned her 19th charm. Weekly Stats for KOPS noted that the Best loser was Diane Uhing and she received her coupon. There were no birthdays or anniversaries. Jeannine Wriedt read an article suggesting we don't use any white refined flour or sugar in our cooking or baking. Discussions continued for the Open House with Kathy and Rod Young attending, along with old members and visitors. Flyers will be put up around town with the information of the Open House at The Oaks on Wednesday, June 25 from 6:30-7:30 p.m. with refreshments. The group met again on May 28 at PMC in the Boardroom with 11 TOPS and three KOPS members present. Pledges were recited for the TOPS and KOPS as ordered by Leader Twilla Kessinger. Roll Call was "Were you successful or did you fail in the challenge of a loss of two pounds in this month." Secretary Paula Haisch was not present so there was no secretary report given. Tracy Henschke presented the treasurer's report. Weekly Stats for TOPS showed that the Best Loser was Joann Stoltenberg and she received her coupon. Weekly Stats for KOPS was No Best loser. There were no birthdays or anniversaries. A correction was made to the previous minutes and was corrected by the secretary when typing the minutes. Discussions continued as to the Open House with Kathy and Rod Young attending along with old members and visitors. Wakefield TOPS group will join us in this endeavor. Flyers will be put up around town with the information of the Open House at The Oaks on June 25. Jeannine Wriedt has the June contest entitled "Flag Day" and the rules are to color a stripe on the flag red if you have a Loss or a Turtle; receive a star for eating at least five servings of fruits and veggies daily. Star for exercising 20 minutes daily. Star for a food chart and a star for contacting a fellow member. TOPS NE#200 met for the June 4 meeting at PMC in the boardroom with 11 TOPS and three KOPS members present. Pledges were recited for both groups. Roll Call was "bring a short poem, recipe, or encouragement for the meetings in June." Secretary Paula Haisch read the past weeks minutes and they were corrected with the time change of the open house. Tracy Henschke gave the treasurer's report. Weekly Stats for TOPS showed Jeannine Wriedt as the Best Loser and she received her coupon. Weekly Stats for KOPS noted that the Best Loser was Diane Uhing and she received her coupon. Monthly Stats for TOPS showed that the Best Loser was Tracy Henschke and she earned a charm. Monthly Stats for KOPS showed that the Best Loser was Dorothy Nelson and she earned a charm. There were no birthdays but members voted to give Harlan and Beverly Ruwe a photo album for their 50th anniversary and family trip this summer. It was presented by Tracy Henschke at the end of the meeting. May contest winners were Darlene for TOPS and Dorothy Nelson for KOPS. The snow contest ended with the last snowfall on May 10 and Paula Haisch had the date May 2. Lois Spencer won the two pounds monthly loss challenge and both will receive a prize next week. TOPS International is offering a new and revised copy of "The Choice of Mine" for $10 plus postage. The group voted to purchase copies for those who want copies. The club will pay postage. Mattheah Barelman requested a cash donation for her Vacation Bible School for Christian epileptic children.

BUSY TOWN ON SATURDAY

There are several events going on in Allen this Saturday, June 14. A community-wide auction will be held at the Allen Fire hall at 11 a.m. Allen Graduates Ryan Kraemer and Greg Rastede will be the auctioneers for the event. They will accept anything from toys, to knick knacks, to furniture, appliances, farm equipment, and used vehicles. If you think someone might want to buy it, we will sell it! If you have a high value and would like to give half of the proceeds to the gym and keep half, this can be arranged. You are asked to place small items in boxes and bring everything to the Firehall Friday, June 13 between 2 and 8 p.m. If this doesn't work, or if you need help with a large item, please contact Kathy Boswell.

A Quilt that was made by the ladies of the Senior Nutrition Center in 1983 has been donated to be auctioned off at the Gym Fundraising Auction on June 14. The Quilt was originally won by Carol Jean Stapleton and she has donated it back for a good cause. The quilt was hand-painted and hand-quilted.

The thirteen ladies who worked on each square signed their name adding a special touch to the quilt

Those ladies were: Inez Jackson, Virginia Wheeler, Connie Lundahl, Erma Koester, Loyola Carpenter, Sylvia Whitford, Joyce Schroeder, Elizabeth Anderson, Fran Anderson, Fern Benton, Ella Isom and the only surviving two are Joanne Kahn and Fern Hansen.

Swap Meet - The auction will be in conjunction with the Love-A-Lop Swap meet held June 14 and 15 at Mike and Val Isom's. There are a lot of things going on at the Isom's swap meet. They will be having games and contests for kids both Saturday and Sunday. The meet starts Saturday, 8 a.m. until dark and Sunday 8 a.m. until 3 p.m.

The community wide rummages will be held on Saturday. Look for signs and maps that will be available at Allen businesses.

Alumni Volleyball Tournament will be held on Saturday, June 14 at the Allen gym. Games will begin at 9:15 a.m.

Rummage, craft, and bake sale, hosted by Gasser Post 5435, will be held in front of Mini mall from 8 a.m. - 1 p.m.

On Sunday, the Senior Center is having a Pancake Breakfast on Sunday, June 15 from 7 a.m. - 1:30 p.m.

BIBLE SCHOOL

Community Vacation Bible School will go this year from Sunday, June 15 until Thursday, June 19. Bible School will be held at the Allen school and each night it will run from 5:30 - 8:30 p.m. with the Bible School closing program on Thursday at 8 p.m. The Theme this year is "Power Lab - Discovering Jesus Miraculous Power."

DIXON CO. MUSEUM HOURS

The Dixon County Museum began its summer hours on June 7. The Museum will be open Sundays from 2 - 4 p.m. from June through August or by appointment. The museum is filled with memories and old artifacts and will be expanding to include a history of railroads in Dixon County. In fact, if you have train memories or were told stories of others riding the rails, please share them with Gloria Oberg at gloriao@cedarwb.net. A wall of memories is being created along with a model railroad display. With the gift of the former Farm Bureau building, the museum complex now boasts five separate buildings, including a one-room school house, a machinery display, obituary files, and pioneer home living rooms.

COMMUNITY CLUB

The Allen Community Club will meet on Monday, June 16. The meal is scheduled for 6:30 p.m. with the meeting at 7 p.m. at the Village Inn. The group will be a touring of the Siouxland Ethanol at Jackson on July 21. Anyone wishing to come on the tour with the Allen Community Club members is invited to do so.

ALLEN BOOK CLUB

The Allen Book Club will meet on Wednesday, June 18 at the Senior Center at 2 p.m. The book being discussed will be "Wish You Well" by David Baldacci. Everyone is invited to attend.

SENIOR CENTER

Friday, June 13: Ham, twice baked potatoes, green beans, pears, bread, and milk.

Storm-related incident

A large tree in the 100 Block of Lincoln Street was broken by high winds on June 5. The broken portions of the tree were removed from the street and sidewalk by members of the Wayne Public Works Department. The immediate Wayne area has been, for the most part, spared of the severe weather that has hit other parts of the state in recent days.

Lane Grone

Graduates with honors

Lane Grone, grandson of Edward (deceased) and Dorothy Grone of Wayne, graduated as Valedictorian of his class from Parkview Christian School in Lincoln on May 18. His parents are Dan and Charlotte Grone. Dan is a 1973 graduate of Wayne High School.

Lane received a Canfield and Pepsi Scholarship to attend UNL and is planning to major in business and finance. While at Parkview, he was active in all sports, band and speech.

Money for Life! Course set at NECC

Northeast Community College in Norfolk has scheduled another session of a popular class that can help participants gain complete control of their income and spending.

Money for Life!, with Course No. FINP 0102-04/08F, is scheduled for Monday, June 30, from 6-9 p.m. in the Lifelong Learning Center. Jeff Meyer is the instructor. He also teaches the Debt-Free Living and Crouching Taxes, Hidden Profits workshops at Northeast.

This Money for Life! workshop will teach students how to develop their own written, fool-proof, cash-flow management plan. Whether they earn $15,000 or $350,000 a year, participants can learn to gain complete control of their income and where it goes.

After attending this workshop, participants will learn to pre-fund every expense, even the unexpected, plan, track, compare and adjust every expense, and implement a household cash flow system that makes communicating easy and fun. Participants will also learn to spend less than they make and eliminate debt or invest for the future, use credit cards without ever increasing debt, and successfully manage their income in today's cashless electronic society.

Participants will also develop their own net worth statement and develop their own personalized cash flow management plan that will show them how to spend every dollar of income before the month starts.

Cost of the course is $27. There is a $74 required materials fee that includes a 215-page textbook/workbook. Materials fee can be paid to the instructor at the class.

To register, call (402)844-7000.

Storms cause destruction throughout area

There has been an e-mail circulating that says Jay Leno is quoted as remarking: "With hurricanes, earthquakes, floods, and tornadoes, is this really a good time to take 'one nation, under God' out of our pledge of allegiance?" No kidding!

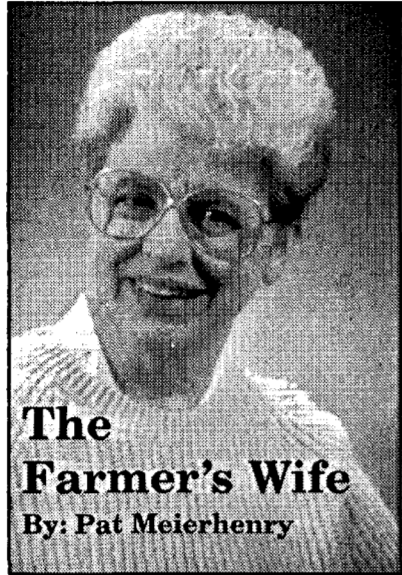

It seems that every day we hear about more destruction. China has had aftershocks, Myanmar is still bucking aid workers, Millard got hit with a tornado in the middle of the night with no advance warning, and my cousin in Lake View, Iowa, says they are being flooded again. He writes that Des Moines spent millions after the '93 flood to shore up their protection, and now the flood crest is predicted to be much higher.

We drove to Norfolk on Friday, past flooded fields and ditches full of water. Thankfully, Winside seems to have gotten less rain, and in gentler form, but my heart goes out to those who will need to replant. As my cousin says, it will have to be short season corn and the yield will be much less.

Farmers continue to be at the mercy of nature, no matter how high the price of grain goes. And my brother in South Carolina sent a distress message last night that said they are still dry and the heat is in the triple digits. Of course, his "farm" is 40 acres, and he "farms" it with a little Ford tractor.

At least everything still standing is nice and green. But I still hear chain saws periodically, and there are a lot of tree stumps around town.

The Farmer's Wife
By: Pat Meierhenry

We were in Norfolk for the annual dance recital at the Johnny Carson theater. That is always such a spectacle. The dancers have so much rhythm and enthusiasm. I told Jacey that here I was worrying about a few Latin words I have to remember, and she remembers all the moves, jumps, and turns for eight songs.

The last number featured a bunch of the fathers, in western garb, doing a little dance to a country song. It was a crowd pleaser, for sure.

We almost didn't find a place to stay in Norfolk! The florist said she had three weddings and two funerals (wasn't that the title of a movie?) And I had forgotten about the cattleman's ball at Albion; apparently, quite a few of those attendees stayed in Norfolk. With the recital, the town was jumping.

It makes me wonder how long we will still go to these events; will we stop when gas hits $5? I honestly cannot tell that the traffic is any less around here. I know I thank my stars every day that we are close to the grocery, the drug store, and Tabitha. After driving 30 miles to work for 45 years, it's a treat to be close to everything. I guess our farthest trip is to church, and that's about five miles. Of course, it often takes us fifteen minutes to get there, depending on the lights.

As you can guess, these two country people are adjusting to town life! But, always, this time of year, I long for the country, and I bet I always will.

Corn industry is focus of 'Corn Week' programs on NET Television

NET Television will present Corn Week, a look at how it's grown and how it's used.

During the week of June 15, NET Television will air three programs focusing on corn. "Independent Lens: King Corn" shows how an acre of Iowa corn is subsidized and how it drives our fast-food nation. "Corn State: A Dialogue" looks at the role of corn in Nebraska's economy and issues facing the future of the crop in our state. Finally, "The Ethanol Maze" studies the short and long-term impact of ethanol on Nebraska's economy.

"King Corn," airing Sunday, June 15, at 8 p.m. CT on NET1 and NET-HD, repeating Friday, June 20, at 6 p.m. CT on NET2, is a personal documentary about how we eat and how we farm. Ian Cheney and Curt Ellis, best friends from college, move to the Iowa town that was once home to their great-grandfathers. With the help of friendly neighbors, genetically modified seeds, nitrogen fertilizers, powerful herbicides and one acre of Iowa farmland, they plant and grow a bumper crop of America's most productive grain.

The future of Nebraska's corn industry and how the crop impacts all of us, whether we live on a farm or in the city, is the focus of the NET Television production "Corn State: A Dialogue," following the Sunday broadcast of "King Corn" at 9:30 p.m. CT on NET1 and NET-HD. "Corn State" repeats on NET2 on Thursday, June 19, at 8:30 a.m. CT; Friday, June 20, at 7:30 p.m. CT; and Thursday, June 26, at 8:30 a.m. CT.

"Corn State: A Dialogue" is a 30-minute panel discussion hosted by NET Television Senior Producer Mike Tobias. Guests include Greg Ibach, director of the Nebraska Department of Agriculture; Michael Kelsey, executive vice president of the Nebraska Cattlemen; and Creighton University Economics Professor Ernie Goss.

Nebraska is the number three corn producing state in the nation, producing nearly 1.5 billion bushels last year. The NET Television production examines the major role corn plays in Nebraska's economy, how this is changing and who is impacted. It also compares the number of acres of corn planted in Nebraska to the acres of other crops and explores the direction the corn industry will take in upcoming years.

Continuing NET Television's Corn Week programming is "The Ethanol Maze," premiering Thursday, June 19, at 9 p.m. CT on NET1 and NET-HD. It repeats Saturday, June 28, at 1 p.m. CT and Sunday, June 29, at 11 a.m. CT on NET2.

NET1, NET2 and NET-HD are part of NET Television, a service of NET. For a complete program schedule, visit NET's Web site at netNebraska.org/television.

SENIOR CENTER NEWS

Twelve Concord-Dixon Seniors met at the Center on June 6 and traveled to the Allen Senior Center for the noon luncheon. A delicious meal was enjoyed. Eleven members returned to the Center for the regular business meeting. President Roy Stohler presided. Reports from the Secretary and Treasurer were accepted. Revitalization plans were discussed and a board meeting was scheduled for Monday, June 9 at 9:30 a.m. at the Center.

Thank you notes are to be sent to Mary Garvin and Arlyce Carlson for the extra cleaning done at the Center.

Velma Dennis and Heldegard Thomas signed their annual "Conflict of Interest" statements. The "Whistleblower" policy was described. Motion was made, seconded and carried to adopt the policy.

An invitation was received for the 30th anniversary open house for the NNAA on June 19. Anyone interested in attending should let Roy know of your wishes.

The Center Board will sign the acceptance of Grant Award #1735 in the amount of $2050.

Saturday, Aug. 30 is the Concord Village 125th year celebration. Senior citizens have been asked and it was decided to hold their Annual Pie Day in conjunction with the celebration. It was also discussed of maybe serving coffee and rolls the same day. The next meeting will be held on Friday, July 11, instead of July 4. They will go to the Wayne Senior Center. Let Shirley Stohler know by July 8 if you plan to attend.

Betty Bothwell reported on the "Exercise Program" with 13 participants.

Motion was made, seconded and carried to allow $200 towards a dehumidifier for the Center.

May and June birthdays were recognized.

Rozanne Hintz held a "Blood Pressure" clinic.

RUTH CIRCLE

The Ruth Circle met on June 5 with nine members present. Leader, Verlyn Anderson, opened the business meeting with "A Prayer". The minutes were approved.

Discussion was held about the "Birthday Tea Party" to be held on Thursday, July 17. If you have a vintage hat and a pair of white gloves, you are asked to wear them. The Dorcas Circle is in charge of the afternoon.

Evonne Magnuson thanked the group for the visitation coffee served the evening before Wallace's funeral.

Ideas were discussed about the September Guest night.

Evonne then led the Bible Study, "Water, Water, Everywhere" taken from the series, Come to the Water, the first session. A bowl and pitcher of water were the focal point and we learned that the Bible is "all wet," focusing on what it means to live a baptismal life. Water is all around and within us. We studied scripture from the Book of Genesis, Exodus and Matthew, linking the waters of creation to the waters of baptism.

The meeting closed with prayer, offering prayer and table grace. Vandelyn Hanson served refreshments.

The next meeting will be held in conjunction with the Birthday party on Thursday, July 17.

Harrison presents research

Janis Harrison of Thurston recently returned to her clinics at Providence Medical Center in Wayne, Pender Community Hospital, St. Francis Memorial Hospital in West Point and Oakland-Mercy Hospital after presenting two research abstracts in San Diego, Calif.

The abstracts were accepted by the Symposium on Advanced Wound Care and displayed as poster presentations.

Harrison attended the Third Congress of the World Union of Wound Healing Societies in Toronto June 4-8 where six of her abstracts have been accepted for presentation to wound doctors, specialists and researchers from around the world.

Following that, she will be attending the Wound Ostomy, Continence Nursing Society's 40th annual Conference in Orlando, Fla. June 21-25 where one of her research abstracts has been accepted for dressing innovation.

Ms. Harrison is a RN, BSN who graduated from the WebWOC program offered by Metropolitan State University of Minneapolis.

As a Certified Wound Ostomy Continence Nurse, Harrison is a specialist in healing chronic wounds, assisting those with colostomies, urostomies, ileostomies and assisting those with continence issues.

She does business as Harrison W.O.C. Services, L.L.C. and is soon to be featured on the WebWOC's Internet web site.

Homeowners, renters and businesses are urged to prepare for disaster before it strikes

As several states recover from the destruction and loss of life caused by recent tornadoes, floods and wildfires, and other areas prepare for the beginning of the 2008 Atlantic Hurricane Season, the U.S.

Small Business Administration is urging the public to develop an emergency plan before the disaster hits.

"Every threat, from wind storms, floods and wildfires, to power outages and computer system failures, reminds us to be proactive when it comes to planning strategies to survive a disaster and recover quickly," said SBA Deputy Administrator Jovita Carranza. "The catastrophic events of the last few years demonstrate the need for preparedness at the individual level, to diminish the risk to life and property."

The SBA stands ready to help communities recover in the aftermath of a disaster. Following the Gulf Coast Hurricanes of 2005, the SBA approved more than $5 billion in disaster loans to 102,700 homeowners and renters in the region. Businesses in the area were approved for 16,780 business disaster loans worth $1.6 billion.

During the past two years the SBA has been preparing to respond to major disasters by reengineering the Disaster Assistance program with a significant focus on customer service, direct accountability, and new technologies that have quadrupled processing capacity. In June 2007 the agency completed its Disaster Recovery Plan, which includes procedures to better handle future catastrophic disasters, and has begun testing this plan through simulations conducted with outside experts.

Disasters strike in all seasons. Since Oct. 1, the SBA has responded to 137 declared disasters, including those for drought. Of those, 118 are open at present.

Disaster preparedness for homes and businesses should include:

- A solid emergency response plan. Find evacuation routes from the home or business and establish meeting places. Make sure everyone understands the plan beforehand. Keep emergency phone numbers handy. Business owners should designate a contact person to communicate with other employees, customers and vendors. Ask an out-of-state friend or family member to be your "post-disaster" point of contact - a person to call to provide information on your safety and whereabouts.

- Adequate insurance. Disaster preparedness begins with having adequate insurance coverage—at least enough to rebuild your home or business. Homeowners and business owners should review their policies to see what is or isn't covered. Businesses should consider "business interruption insurance," which helps cover operating costs during the post-disaster shutdown period. Flood insurance is essential. To find out more about the National Flood Insurance Program, visit the Web site at www.floodsmart.gov.

- Making copies of important records. It's a good idea to back up vital records and information saved on computer hard drives, and store that information at a distant offsite location. Computer data should be backed up routinely. Copies of important documents and CDs should be stored in fire-proof safe deposit boxes offsite.

- Protection of windows, doors and roofing. Installing impact-resistant window and door systems, or simple plywood shutters installed before the storm hits can enhance their ability to resist impacts from wind-borne debris. Hire a professional to evaluate your roof to make sure it can weather a major storm.

- A "Disaster Survival Kit." The kit should include a flashlight, a portable radio, extra batteries, a first-aid kit, non-perishable packaged and canned food, bottled water, a basic tool kit, plastic bags, cash, and a disposable camera to take pictures of the property damage after the storm.

More preparedness tips for businesses, homeowners and renters are available on the SBA's Web site at www.sba.gov/services/disasterassistance/disasterpreparedness/index.html. The Institute for Business and Home Safety (www.ibhs.org) also has information on protecting your home or business. To learn more about developing an emergency plan, visit www.ready.gov or call 1-800-BE-READY to receive free materials.

The SBA makes low-interest loans to homeowners, renters and non-farm businesses of all sizes. Homeowners may borrow up to $200,000 to repair or replace damaged real estate. Individuals may borrow up to $40,000 to cover losses to personal property.

Non-farm businesses and non-profit organizations of any size may apply for up to $1.5 million to repair or replace disaster damaged business assets and real property. Small businesses that suffered economic losses as a direct result of the declared disaster may apply for a working capital loan up to $1.5 million, even if the property was not physically damaged.

To learn more about the SBA's disaster assistance program, visit the Web site at <http://www.sba.gov/services/disasterassistance/index.html>.

Sand Creek Post & Beam contributes to Arbor Day Foundation and community

Sand Creek Post & Beam is working with the National Arbor Day Foundation to help with reforestation.

"We are enjoying our association with such a fine organization" said Jule Goeller, co-owner and CFO of Sand Creek Post & Beam. "Since we began our partnership with the Arbor Day Foundation in July of last year, we have provided almost 700 lodge pole pine or douglas fir trees in our customers' names."

The Arbor Day Foundation website notes that "the trees they plant provide habitat and food for wildlife, restore beauty to the landscape, clean rivers and stream, and provide enjoyment for recreational activities like camping, hiking, and fishing. Over the course of 50 years, a single tree can generate $31,250 of oxygen, provide $62,000 worth of air pollution control, recycle $37,500 worth of water, and control $31,500 worth of soil erosion control."

Sand Creek Post & Beam is also working with surrounding communities to donate their scrap wood pieces. They have provided wood pieces for school shop classes in Allen, Pender, Wakefield, and Wisner-Pilger as well as the Pilger Purple Ribbon and Wayne 4-H groups in Nebraska. The Nebraska Bluebird Association is also a recipient of the wood pieces which are used for new bluebird houses.

According to Cal Wiechman, Operations Manager of Sand Creek Post & Beam, "we're glad to have an outlet for the wood. The pieces are very useful sizes and if someone can use them we're happy to work with them. If any local non-profit groups are interested, we would like to hear from them. Our Cleveland, Ga. plant has not found an outlet yet, but we are looking into it and hope to find some local groups soon."

Sand Creek Post & Beam has a nationwide presence with over 135 barns throughout the country in 34 states.

"Our customers are building a variety of structures from our kits; everything from a small barn or garage, horse barn, business office, and hunting lodge, to a complete home. Post and beam construction is very versatile and the beauty of the wood is highlighted in these buildings," said Len Dickinson, co-owner and President of Sand Creek Post & Beam.

With an emphasis on quality and customer satisfaction, Sand Creek Post & Beam takes great pride in providing traditional barn kits that are functional, flexible, powerful and aesthetically pleasing.

UNMC Health Science Meet hosts students from schools

Sixty-three eighth-grade students from 34 schools across Nebraska attended the University of Nebraska Medical Center's 16th annual Health/Science Meet June 5-7, for an educational and fun experience.

The meet's goal is to inspire students, especially those from rural communities, to pursue careers in health care. The students qualified for the meet by submitting science projects in regional science competitions earlier in the year.

The expense-paid meet exposes students to the health professions, medical research and patient care. Events include hands-on science activities, presentations about a variety of health science disciplines, touring UNMC, a team science competition and entertainment.

Students interested in applying to attend next year's eighth-grade Health/Science Meet should contact their science teacher, school counselor or principal in the fall.

Area students taking part in the event include Kyle Finnegan of Newcastle and Olivia Schneiders of Dixon, students at Allen Consolidated Schools and Sawyer Jager, Quentin Jorgensen and Burgandy Roberts, all of Wayne, students at Wayne Middle School.

Get Moving! Boost your mood and think light and healthy meals for summer

Getting out for a walk or riding a stationary bike is good for your body. It's also good for your mental health.

Exercise has long been known to be able to elevate mood and decrease feelings of anxiety and stress. Exercise is a double bonus for people with diabetes. It can help improve your mood and improve blood glucose levels. During aerobic exercise, like swimming, walking or dancing, your body releases endorphins. These substances boost feelings of well-being and improved mood.

You may respond with I wish I could exercise more or even exercise period. We all find that as our body ages, exercise limitations also increase. Stacie Petersen, Certified Diabetes Educator and R.N. will discuss and demonstrate a variety of exercise options for the aging body during the next session of "Control Diabetes for Life." The June 25 session will focus on Summertime Diabetes Self Management.

When it is hot and heavy outside, you certainly do not want to eat hot and feel heavy inside. Every time you heat up the oven, you turn your kitchen into a hot box. Start by choosing meals that can bring you comfort and help you keep it cool at the same time. There are lots of ways to do this and they will be explored during the June session of Control Diabetes for Life. You can cook on top of the stove, toss it on the grill and even do quick tricks with the microwave. It's the fresh, light time, yet lazy time of year. Take advantage of it and focus on healthy, self management of your diabetes.

Many times during spring and summer we are tempted to try the latest diets because they promise easy and quick weight loss. Mary Clare Stalp, R.D., will discuss wise food selection ideas including ice cream for those diagnosed with diabetes.

Set a goal to take control of your diabetes. Aim for lower blood glucose levels to feel better now and stay healthy for years to come. Wednesday, June 25, topics that will be addressed during the two-hour program include: Scoop on Ice Cream, Flavor Up Your Foods, Dental Health, and Exercise for the Aging Body.

Participants will receive new recipes for a diabetic appropriate food. In addition to Petersen, team-teaching the program will be Phyllis Heimann, R.N. & Certified Diabetes Educator; Mary Clare Stalp, R.D., all of Franciscan Care Services in West Point and Debra E. Schroeder, UNL Extension Educator in Cuming County.

Control Diabetes for Life will be available Wednesday, June 25, via satellite from 1:30 - 4 p.m. at the Wayne County Courthouse.

"Control Diabetes for Life" is a joint project of University of Nebraska-Lincoln Extension and Franciscan Care Services of West Point. The program is offered free-of-charge. "Control Diabetes for Life" will help participants learn to control diabetes and prolong the onset of complications from the disease.

Participants are asked to pre-register for "Control Your Diabetes for Life" by calling their local Extension office 402-375-3310. Please register by Monday, June 23, so the proper number of hand-outs may be prepared. Nebraska School Food Service Association has approved this session for two hours of continuing education credits for food service staff for attending.

Take control of your diabetes for life! Start by attending the June 25 distance education program.

A Tribute to Milo Meyer
*Death beckoned him with outstretched hands
And whispered softly of "an Unknown Land" --
But he was not afraid to go
For though the path he did not know,
He took Death's Hand without fear
For He who safely brought him here
Had told him He would lead the way
Into Eternity's Bright Day... and so he did not go alone
Into the "Valley That's Unknown" --
He gently took Death By the Hand
And journeyed to "The Promised Land"...*

Thank you very much for the many expressions of love and sympathy -- cards, memorials, beautiful flowers, plants, food, visits, hugs and sharing memories. All of these remind us of the wonderful community of family, neighbors and friends we have. Also thanks to Fr. Mark for the beautiful service, to the Wayne Veterans Honor Detail and to the Ladies at St. Mary's for the lunch. May God Bless you all.

REAL ESTATE AUCTION
Monday, June 23, 2008 - 6:30 p.m.
LOCATION OF AUCTION: 306 Miner St., Winside, NE

LEGAL DESCRIPTION: The North Half of Lot 8 and all of Lot 9, Block 7, Bressler & Patterson First Addition to Winside, Wayne County, Nebraska.

GENERAL DESCRIPTION: A 1,200 square foot 2 to 3 bedroom home that has vinyl siding and an asphalt roof. The dwelling consists of 2 bedrooms, a computer room, kitchen, living room with fireplace, bathroom and utility room. The home has a newer Amana natural gas forced air furnace and central air conditioning. There is also a small utility shed situated on the lot.

LOT SIZE: 75'x150'

TERMS: 10 percent of the purchase price payable the day of auction. Balance due on delivery of title insurance and a personal representative's deed which shall occur on or before July 23, 2008.

POSSESSION: Full possession of the home will be given on or before July 23, 2008.

REAL ESTATE TAXES: The seller will pay the 2007 and all prior real estate taxes. The 2008 taxes will be prorated as of date of possession. The 2007 taxes were $486.34.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION: Call the Bill Blank Agency at Madison, Nebraska. 454-2500.

FOR INSPECTION: Call Dave or LeNell Quinn at 286-4561

COMMENT: The interior of this home needs a lot of work, but it has a lot of possibilities. It appears to be a good solid home that needs some TLC. If you are in the market for a fixer-upper, make your plans to attend this auction and buy this home at a price you determine. The entire property sells in "As Is" Condition.
