Wayne County Fair set to begin July 24

Hundreds of volunteers and numerous youth involved in 4-H are busy making final preparations for the 86th annual Wayne County Fair.

This year's fair begins with entry of exhibits on Wednesday, July 23 and runs through Sunday, July 27.

Wednesday's activities include judging of the exhibits in the 4-H building including foods, child development, home environ-

Thursday's schedule includes the 4-H Horse Show, pee-wee bucket calf show, goat show, dairy show and sheep show.

The Loghoppers' chainsaw artist will have several demonstrations throughout the day. Demonstrations will continue throughout the four-day event.

Following the presentation of colors at 7 p.m. and the disposal of flags, a Sanctioned Tractor Pull with the Nebraska Bush Pullers will take place in front of the grandstand.

Friday will begin with the 4-H Swine Show and feed calf, breeding beef and market beef shows.

The Chamber Coffee will be held at 10 a.m. in the Little Theatre.

Colors da Clown will be available for face painting from 3 to 7 p.m. in the Commercial building.

The 47th annual Free Barbecue will be begin at 6 p.m.

Several activities will take place in front of the grandstand during the barbecue, including the 4-H fashion show, presentation of the Kilroy Award, Farm Bureau Oldest Active Farmer and Ak-Sar-Ben Awards.

The evening's entertainment will be provided by William and Ree.

Cactus Flats will perform in the Beer Garden and a teen dance with Jack Music will be held in the Little Theatre.

Saturday's events begin with the 4-H and Open Class Rabbit Shows and Open Class Beef Show.

Paul Sok poses in front of the Schonbrunn Palace in Vienna.

Sok serves as leader for People to People Ambassador trip

Paul Sok of Winside was selected as a team leader/coach by People to People Student Ambassadors this past winter.

He had an opportunity to spend 10 days in Austria with a U.S. youth wrestling team. To start out, Coach Sok took six athletes from Nebraska (tennis, volleyball, wrestling and bowling) to Vienna.

After they arrived, the athletes were split up into their individual sports groups and transported to different sites in the Vienna area. There were approximately 750 athletes from the United States in attendance.

Coach Sok was assigned as one of three coaches to the wrestling group. He had 32 athletes to work with during a four-day training camp with Rulon Gardner (2000 Heavyweight Olympic Champion and 2004 Bronze Medalist). The trip concluded with the U.S. wrestlers competing in a two-day international tournament with wrestlers from Austria, Poland, Slovenia, Croatia, Germany, the Czech Republic, Hungary and Slovakia. The U.S. team tied for first with Austria during the tournament with 59.5 total points but had to settle for second place after tie-breaker criteria.

"There are no ties/draws in all forms of wrestling-individual or team-wise. We were awarded second place overall because the Austrian team had one more first place finisher than the U.S. team," Sok said.

"I had a great experience and got a chance to meet a number of coaches and athletes from Eastern Europe. Some of the cultural highlights during the trip included touring the Schonbrunn Palace where past Austrian royalty resided and where Mozart played for the Empress Maria Teresa in the 1700's. I was also privileged to have the opportunity to listen to Dr. Gelbard a Holocaust survivor and the chance to tour the concentration camp at Mauthausen in north central Austria," he added.

The group also was able to visit the Belvidere Palace and gardens, a couple of cathedrals, hike along the Danube River and tour the downtown Vienna district. The group went past the OPEC trade center, United Nations Complex and the Austrian Trade Center.

"Most of our meals were traditional Austrian (Wiener Schnitzel and Strudel along with a variety chicken and bratwurst meals.) One of our fun, side trips involved an afternoon at the world famous Prater Amusement Park and a ride on the world's third largest ferris wheel (Built in 1897 and used in the James Bond movie-The Living Daylights)," Sok said. People to People is a United States group that promotes international goodwill, cultural awareness and athletic competition. The organization was originally founded by President Eisenhower.

West Nile Virus season is here

The mosquitoes have once again joined us as we work and play outdoors in Thurston, Wayne, Dixon, and Cedar counties. This means that it is time to think about ways to protect yourself and your loved ones from West Nile Virus (WNV).

Deb Scholten, Health Director of the Northeast Nebraska Public Health Department (NNPHD), reports that the West Nile Virus surveillance program will continue again this year with mosquito monitoring, dead bird collection, and education. The public can help by reporting dead crows, blue jays, magpies, hawks, falcons, eagles, or owls (that are not damaged or decayed) to the NNPHD office at (402) 375-2200 or toll free at 1-800-375-2260.

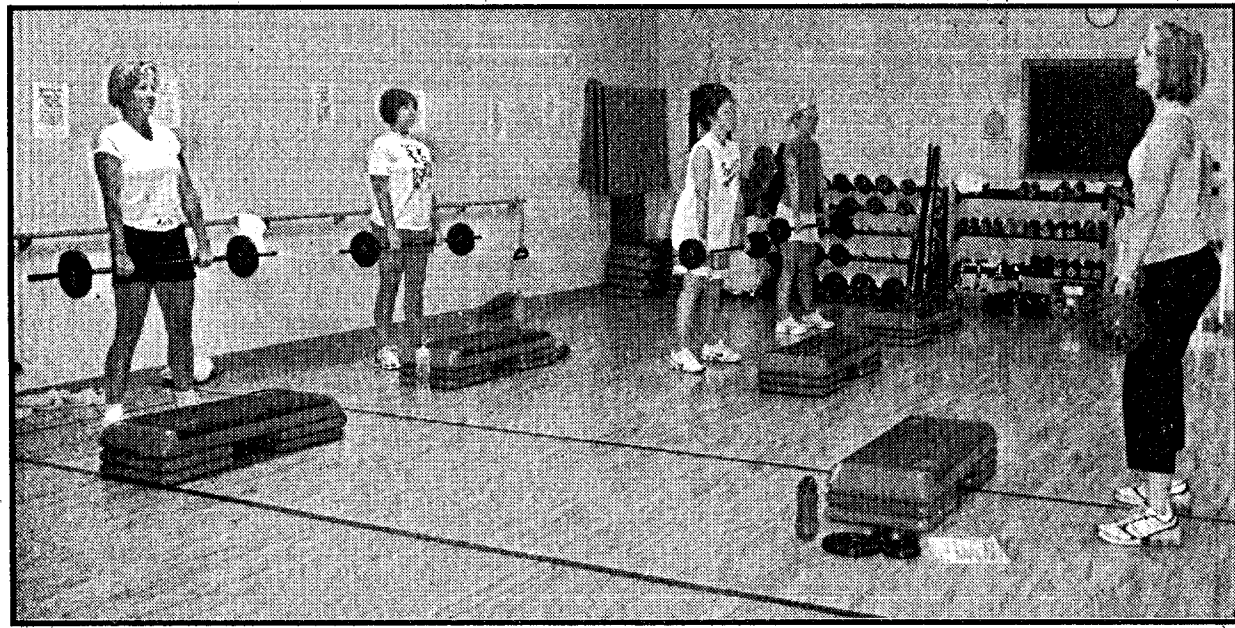

WNV is passed by the bite of a mosquito that has gotten the virus from feeding on an infected bird. Most people with WNV have no symptoms or only mild flu like symptoms such as fever, headache, muscle aches, rash, and swollen glands. Severe symptoms can include high fever, severe headache, stiff neck, muscle weakness, confusion, seizures, and paralysis. Older people and those with weak immune systems are at greatest risk but WNV can affect anyone; see your doctor if you have symptoms. Nebraska had 146 cases of WNV reported in 2007.

Ways to protect against WNV include:
• Stay inside at dusk and dawn, when mosquitoes are most active.
• When you are outside wear long sleeved shirts, long pants, socks and shoes. Use an insect repellent with DEET on bare skin and on clothes; AVOID eyes, nose, mouth, cuts, irritated skin and children's hands. Use products having up to 30 percent DEET for adults and no more than 10 percent for children ages 2 - 12 years. Talk with your doctor or NNPHD about DEET use for children less than 2 years. Do not apply more than three (3) times per day. Wash well with soap and water after coming indoors.
• Get rid of standing water because this is where mosquitoes lay their eggs.
• Repair window and door screens to keep mosquitoes outside.
• Report symptoms of WNV to your doctor.

Happy golfers

Those taking part in this summer's City Rec Golf program at the Wayne Country Club were treated to hot dogs and pop last week at the completion of the program. The event was sponsored by the Wayne Kiwanis Club, as part of the organization's motto, "Young Children, Priority One."

Wellness Center offers body sculpting

Among the classes offered through the Wellness Center at Providence Medical Center in Wayne is Body Sculpting. Classes are taught by Heidi Keller and are "a great addition to your cardio workout." Body Sculpting is designed to define, sculpt and develop muscle tone and strength in all major muscle groups. It uses barbells, resist-a-balls, therabands and free weights. Its goal is to boost metabolism by increasing lean body mass, improve bone density and give participants a sense of achievement. Classes meet twice each week for four weeks. Currently classes are held Monday and Wednesday from 6 to 7 p.m. and Tuesday and Thursday from 6 to 7 a.m. and 9 to 10 a.m. The current session began June 16 and another session will begin Monday, July 28. Class size is limited. Body Sculpting classes are open to Providence Wellness Center members and non-members. For more information or to register for classes, contact the Wellness Center at 375-7927.

The Wayne Community Schools Board of Education met in regular session on July 10. Approved was the hiring of Jeanne Brink as the seventh and eighth grade math/science teacher. Also approved was the resignation of Becky Miller as Title and HAL Coordinator and Maureen Kingston as elementary paraprofessional.

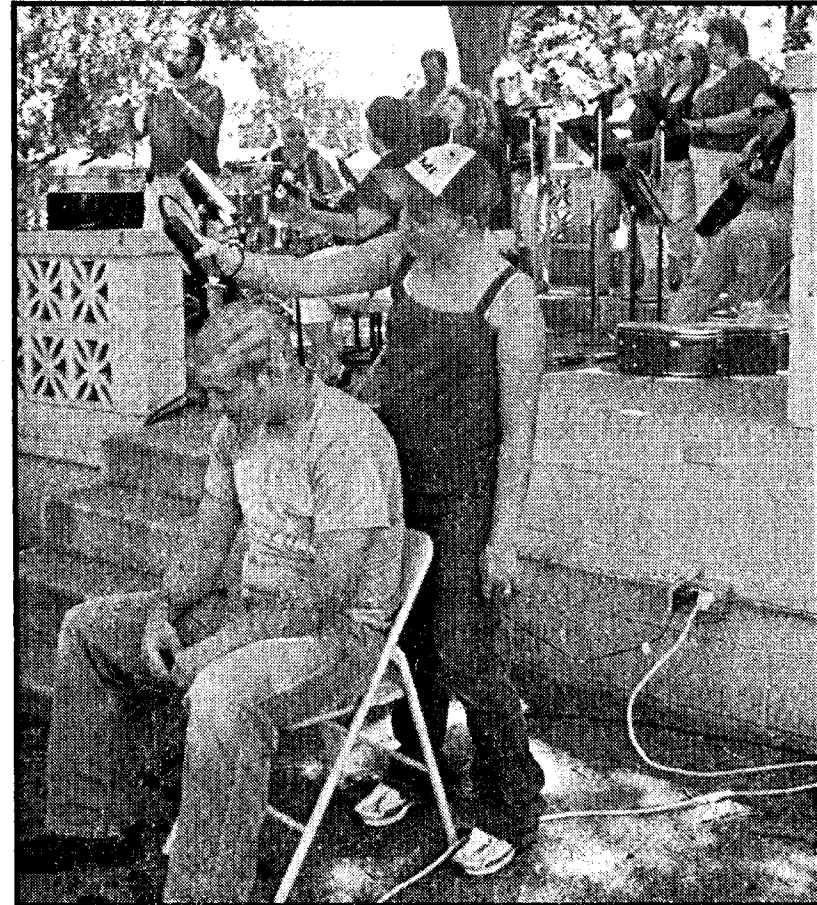

Tuesday, Aug. 5.

First readings of policies #s 3100, 3101, 3104, 3105, 3106, 4004 and 5202 were approved. Future agenda items include going through policies 9,000 - 10,000. Tours will be taken of the Middle School and Elementary buildings. The next regular Wayne Community Schools Board of Education will be held on Monday, Aug. 11 at 5 p.m. at the high school in Wayne.

Recognized was an "Honor Roll" gift of $1,058 to the school from the First National Bank, Bill Dickey, president. The amount was calculated from the number of students named to the honor roll. The board approved a four-year contract for bus service with Mid State School Bus Inc. Rates for the 2008-09 school year will be: regular routes will be billed at $26,362.80 monthly for a period of nine months, activities will be billed at $1.29 per mile and $10.34 per hour sitting time with a minimum of $20.16. Cancelled trips (without 24 hour notice) are $36, in-town shuttle service will be $22.50 round trip, sit time, $10.34 per hour. Dead head miles for additional busses brought in for activities will be billed at $1.15 per mile.

Pennies for Patients (a Leukemia & Lymphoma Society activity) brought in a little over $300 (and an ice cream party for the students). Shannon Gibson, special education teacher, was the coordinator for the school. Carolyn Linster, board member, noted Misty Bear and Jean Dorcey, both special education teachers, were selected to serve as folio reviewers in the Department of Education new process of State accreditation of teacher education programs. They reviewed in Lincoln the Learning Disabilities and Behavior Disorder programs for Peru State College and the UN at Omaha, July 14-16. It was noted there will be a budget workshop at the high school on

Walk off the 'Midway Munchies'

Fairs involve a lot of walking, so those extra fair food calories will burn right off, right? Maybe. It takes 1.5 miles to burn off a bag of cotton candy and three miles for a funnel cake.

Big portions with lots of sugar and fat calories characterize many of the foods traditionally associated with fairs. For many, attending the fair wouldn't be nearly as much fun without those tasty treats. Some may be once-a-year foods, and people may look forward to (insert your favorite food here) at the fair.

So, how much exercise does it take to walk off those favorite fair foods? On average, it takes one mile to burn 100 calories. To visualize how far that is, think approximately 12 city blocks to the mile. While calories per our favorite fair food can vary depending on portion, size, recipe and more, burning off the calories of cotton candy mentioned above could be an 18-block walk.

Following are the approximate distances we need to walk to burn off the calories of some popular midway foods:

- Caramel apple: 3 miles
- Funnel cake, 6-inch diameter: 3 miles
- Corn dog, large: 4.5 miles
- Soft drink, 32 oz.: 2.5 miles
- Cotton candy: 1.5 miles
- Sno-cone: 2.5 miles
- Fried candy bar on a stick: 4.5 miles
- Soft pretzel: 3 miles

This doesn't mean load the picnic basket with celery and carrot sticks before heading to the fair. With a little planning it's possible to have many favorite fair foods. Here's how:

- Quench thirst with a small soft drink instead of the larger sizes. Better yet, buy or bring along bottled water. Save those fair-day calories for something else.
- Split food among several people. For example, share a large funnel cake with friends. Everyone gets a taste but no one gets overloaded.
- Plan times to sit down and eat rather than graze your way from one end of the fair to the other. It's hard to keep track of how much food one's consuming when walking, talking and eating at the same time.

Limitations on foods also is a good option. Select one treat and choose reasonable servings low in sugar and fat for the rest of your foods.

Dress in comfortable shoes to help walk off those calories. Wear a pedometer and see how many steps you can take at the fair. One mile equals about 2,000 steps or around one third of the calories in a typical caramel apple.

Check out all the food booths before making any selections. Imagine a "calorie salary." Enjoy the favorite foods with the majority of the "salary."

Finally, if monitoring those calories wasn't very easy at the fair, return to a more balanced way of eating the next day. A day or two of over eating won't affect weight that much - weeks of it will. Eating 100 extra calories daily can result in a 10 pound weight gain yearly.

TOPS conducts meetings

The Tops NE#200 met twice in recent weeks. On July 2 the group met at the Boardroom of the Providence Medical Center with 11 TOPS and two KOPS members present. The pledges were recited for TOPS and KOPS respectively. There was no secretary's report as she was out of town. Treasurer Tracy Henschke stated that the group reimbursed Paula Haisch for the cost of the veggie and fruit trays for the open house.

Roll call was "What is your favorite part of the 4th of July?" Weekly Stats for TOPS showed Joyce Pippitt as the Best Loser and she will receive her coupon next week. Weekly Stats for KOPS showed Dorothy Nelson was the Best Loser. She will receive her coupon next week.

Monthly Stats for TOPS indicated Tracy Henschke was the Best Loser. She will receive her charm next week. Weekly Stats for KOPS indicated that Lois Spencer was the Best Loser and she received her coupon. Lois also chose a charm for her KOPS monthly best loser of last week.

Joyce Pippitt and Dorothy Nelson received their coupons for their weight losses from last week. Dorothy Nelson's birthday was noted with members singing "Happy Birthday" to her. She thanked the group for her many birthday cards and sympathy cards from the loss of her brother.

Pam Barellmann won the 50 point game and chose a charm for her bracelet. Contest winners from last month's game were for TOPS first place Tracy Henschke and second place was Kay Saul. For KOPS first place was Lois Spencer and second place was Dorothy Nelson.

TOPS and KOPS members shared their silly cards which were enjoyed by all.

Ashfall Fossil Beds State Historic Park featured at Discovery Welcome Center

Featured at the Corps of Discovery Welcome Center south of Yankton during July is an exhibit from the Ashfall Fossil Beds State Historic Park.

In addition to a cast of the skull and jaw of a barrel-bodied Rhino there will be casts of a foot of a three-toed horse. These casts are replicas of actual skeletons found buried in volcanic ash in northern Antelope County near Royal Nebraska. Additional information about Ashfall is also presented in the display.

Ashfall Fossil Beds is open daily through Labor Day. Visitor's this summer will notice foundation trenches and footings being dug much by hand for the new Hubbard Rhino Barn which will be several times larger than the present barn. After Labor Day the fossil area will be closed to visitors while the construction is taking place.

Visit the Corps of Discovery Welcome Center this month and receive your free magnet featuring Ashfall Fossil Beds "A National Natural Landmark" the center is open daily 9-6 p.m. and Ashfall Fossil Beds, only 40 minutes away, is open Monday through Saturday, 9-5 p.m. and Sunday 11-5 p.m.

Government fine tunes Do Not Call List

The Do Not Call registry recently received a fine tuning from the Federal Government. As it was originally conceived in 2003, registrations on the Do Not Call List were only valid for five years. With the date for registrations set to expire this year, Congress passed legislation making all registrations on the Do Not Call List permanent. Now, individuals need only to contact the Do Not Call List administrators if they want to cancel their registration or register a new telephone number.

The Nebraska Public Service Commission said this week that the prohibitions of the Do Not Call Registry extend to automatic dialers used for telemarketing purposes.

The Commission went on to caution that some calls are exempt from Do Not Call limitations such as calls for political messages, charitable fundraising, and commercial contacts where a previous business relationship exists.

Complaints about violations of Do Not Call federal guidelines may be reported online at www.donot-call.gov. The Public Service Commission said it is important for consumers to include as much information about the offending call as possible such as time and date of the call, the company on whose behalf the call was made, and the type or subject matter of the call. "It is difficult to do anything about a call where there is no information," the Commission said.

The toll-free telephone number to make new registrations is 888-382-1222.

Coleen Bressler

Bressler named Dean at NECC

Coleen K. Bressler of Hoskins has begun her new duties as Dean of Administrative Services at Northeast Community College in Norfolk.

She replaces Lynne Koski who was elevated to Vice President of Administrative Services following the retirement of Steve Schram.

Bressler has been Director of Accounting Services at Northeast Community College since 1999. Before that, she was an Accounting Clerk III in the business office at Wayne State College from 1992-1999. Prior to that position, she was an Accounting Clerk II from 1987-1992 and Secretary 1 in the housing office from 1986-1987 at Wayne State.

She holds a bachelor of science degree in business administration/management and a master of business administration with an emphasis in accounting from Wayne State College. A Wakefield native, she was active in several Wakefield civic organizations until moving to Hoskins in 2004.

As the new Dean of Administrative Services, Bressler will be responsible for the administration of the business and accounting functions of Northeast Community College. She will plan, organize and direct all business and accounting functions for the college, including payroll, accounts payable, cashing, banking, accounting receivable, fixed assets, grants, and contracts.

She will also plan, organize and direct financial reporting, purchasing, and ancillary services. Additionally, she will assist in the process of budget control and other administrative duties within the Administration Services Division at Northeast Community College.

Bressler and her husband, Kip, have one daughter, Alissa, a sophomore at Briar Cliff University in Sioux City.

Parking & Driveway Surfaces

Please be reminded the new parking and driveway surface ordinance takes effect on October 1, 2008. City staff has made an attempt to identify those properties around the community which will be affected by this ordinance. Please keep in mind that the list compiled by city staff is not all inclusive.

A mailing was sent out the last week of June to those property owners city staff was able to identify. If you did not receive a letter from the city identifying any specific issues related to your property and you are uncertain if your property will be affected by this ordinance, please feel free to contact my office and I would be happy to visit with you, 402-375-1733.
