Local sales tax revenue continues climb

By MICHAEL CARNES Of The Herald

While talk of a shaky economy continues to linger in other parts of the country, things seem to be moving along just fine with businesses in Wayne.

enue showed an increase in monthly sales tax figures in eight of the 11 months completed in fiscal year 2008-2009. August's sales tax revenue numbers, which are based off sales from two months earlier, saw the city collect just under $44,000 in sales tax revenue, compared with $41,687.83 collected one year ago.

"We've stayed pretty steady and haven't really had a bad year," Nancy Braden, city finance director, said. "We've been growing about 2 percent a year with our sales tax revenue over the years."

Braden said the current numbers, recorded during the current recession, remind her of a few years ago when the city's Main Street businesses were limited due to street con-

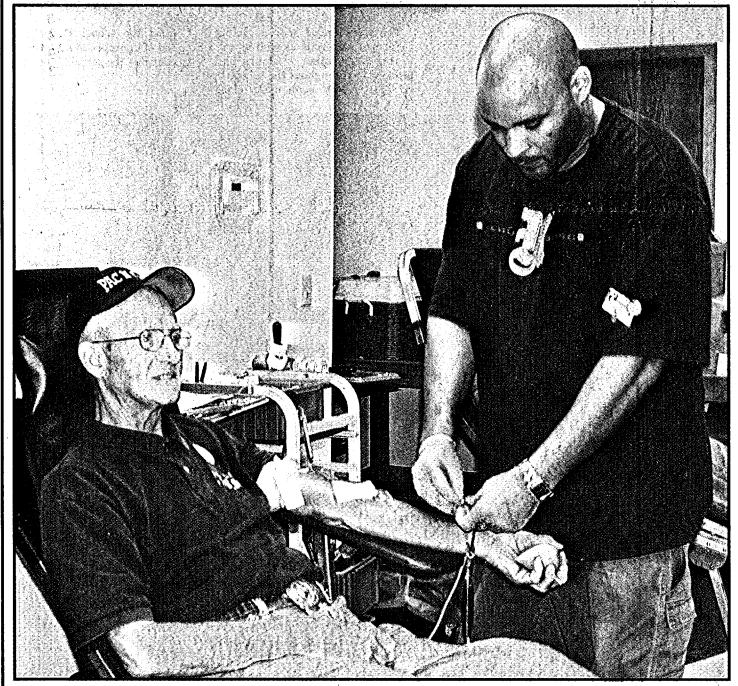

"When we did the Main Street project a couple of years ago, we were able to stay about even in spite of the fact that the streets were closed," she said. "It's a very similar situation to what we're seeing now."

Unemployment hasn't changed much in the A recent check of the city's sales tax rev- area, Braden added, which means people are still spending their money in Wayne.

> The city is on track to eclipse its sales tax revenue of $490,355.63 collected last year. With one month left in the fiscal year, the city has collected $459,562.37 in sales tax revenue.

> The sales tax being collected is split three ways, according to Lowell Johnson, city administrator. All sales tax revenue from the sale of motor vehicles is used for the city's roads and streets. The remaining revenue is split two ways, with 60 percent going to city capital projects - including parks, fire department and other city-related needs - and the remaining 40 percent toward economic development.

Bereuter lecture to be shown at WSC

Bereuter will launch the 2009-10 E.N. Thompson Forum on World Issues on Monday, Sept. 14.

Bereuter's lecture, which originates from the Lied Center for Performing Arts at the University of Nebraska-Lincoln, will be simulcast in several Nebraska communities, including Wayne. It will be broadcast in Room 201 at the Wayne State College

The lecture begins at 7 p.m., and is free and open to the public. Additional speakers in the series will be heard Oct. 6, Nov. 12, Jan. 26, 2009 and April 1, 2009.

The 2009-10 Thompson Forum on "Encountering China" will present speakers from a variety of backgrounds to explore China from diverse perspectives. Bereuter's lecture, entitled "China's Trade and Soft Power Relationships with Asia and the United States-Reason to Worry?" will provide insight into the U.S. trade deficit with China and China's influence on the developing world.

Following 26 years of service to Nebraska in the U.S. House of Representatives, Bereuter became the president of The Asia Foundation, a San Francisco based non-profit, non-governmental organization

Former Nebraska Congressman Doug committed to the development of a peaceful, prosperous, just, and open Asia-Pacific region.

During his congressional career, Bereuter was a leading member of the House International Relations Committee, where he served as vice chairman for six years, chaired the Asia-Pacific Subcommittee for the maximum limit of six years, chaired the Europe Subcommittee immediately before his departure, was ranking minority member of the Human Rights Subcommittee for six years, and had a long tenure on its Subcommittee on Economic Policy and

The series was named in honor of E.N. "Jack" Thompson, who served as president of the Cooper Foundation from 1964 to 1990 and as its chairman from 1990 until his death in 2002. Thompson established the series to promote better understanding of world events and issues for all Nebraskans.

The simulcasts, sponsored by the Nebraska Humanities Council and the local college or university, allow more Nebraskans to have the opportunity to benefit from outstanding speakers and community discussion. Details about the forum are at enthompson.unl.edu.

Red Cross chapter receives third straight award

The Northeast Nebraska Chapter of the American Red Cross received the honor of being named a "Highly Performing Chapter" for the third year in a row recent-

In a letter sent to Executive Director, Lori Carollo, by the CEO and President of the National Red Cross organization Gail McGovern, she stated her congratulations to Lori and the chapter upon receiving this highest award based upon their Chapter Performance Standards score.

McGovern stated, "I know how much work this entails by you and your team in meeting our Red Cross mission every day, while raising and managing the donor dollars. You should be proud of the level of engagement that your Chapter's staff and volunteers have demonstrated in the delivery of mission-critical services of the American Red Cross. Thank you for all you do to further our mission and deliver lifesaving services to our clients."

Achieving this goal each year is something every chapter across the nation strives for; however, less than 10 percent the Red Cross."

This year, the Northeast Nebraska Chapter was the only chapter in their region to receive the award, and only one of two chapters in the state of Nebraska - with the other chapter being in Grand Island.

"I'm extremely proud each year when we get our scorecard report and find out that we reached this highest level of performance. To do this three years in a year Chair and Lori Carollo, is really quite remarkable. And I honestly say this is never an accomplishment of one; this is earned by my staff & Board of Directors who work tirelessly and give so much of their time, and it is also earned by each volunteer who responds to a fire, teaches a class as well as each financial donor who contributes to our chapter to make it this successful," Carollo said.

"The people in Northeast Nebraska continue to be very supportive financially of the American Red Cross and without that support, we would not be able to serve the people in need and carry out the mission of

Rodney Monk
Rodney E. Monk, 67, of Carroll, died Friday, Sept. 4, 2009 at his farm

Services were held Wednesday, Sept. 9 at St. Paul's Lutheran Church in Winside with the Rev. Timothy J.

Steckling officiating. Rodney Earl Monk was born Nov. 14, 1941 to George and Mildred (Boeshart) Monk at Ponca. At an early age, Rod and his parents lived on a farm north of Dixon, and then moved southeast of Laurel where he attended country school. He was confirmed at Immanuel Lutheran Church in Laurel. He graduated from Laurel High School in 1959 after which he began farming. In 1962 he joined the Army Reserve in Norfolk and spent six months at Ft. Leonard Wood, Mo. Rod married Linda Applegate on Feb. 17, 1963 in Norfolk. The couple farmed in the Laurel, Carroll, and Winside areas until his 11 year battle with cancer recently prevented him from working. He was a charter member of the Cornhusker Two-Cylinder Club. Rod loved to restore old two-cylinder John Deere tractors and always said it was a way to relax.

Survivors include his wife, Linda; three children, Carmie and VerNeal Marotz of Winside, Gerald of Pierce and Pam and Curtis Buchholz of Pender; and three grandchildren.

He was preceded in death by his parents; grandparents, George Sr. and Minnie Monk and Charlie and Edith Boeshart.

Honorary pallbearers were members of The Cornhusker Two-Cylinder

Active pallbearers Delbert Claussen, Charlie Morris, Ed Sandahl, Lonnie Fork, David "Buck" Owens and Bob Dowling.

Memorials may be made to Providence Medical Center Hospice or St. Paul's Lutheran Church in Winside.

Burial with military rites was in Elmwood Cemetery at Carroll. Hasemann Funeral Home in Wayne was in charge of arrangements.

The appearance of hamburger or any other meat can't be used to determine doneness, Julie Albrecht, food safety specialist in the University of Nebraska-Lincoln's Institute of Agriculture and Natural Resources, said. Rather, a food thermometer is the only sure way to determine when meat is cooked properly.

The color of hamburger was one of four food myths listed in a report issued by the non-profit Partnership for Food Safety Education in recognition of September being National Food Safety Education Month.

Another myth is that rinsing raw chicken with water will kill bacteria. The only way to kill bacteria in poultry is to cook it to its proper temperature, Albrecht said. Rinsing it under water will promote cross-contamination.

The fourth myth is that hot food should not be put in the refrigerator. Many people leave hot food on the counter to cool it before refrigerating it so as not to heat up the refrigerator, Albrecht said. Perishable food needs to be refrigerated within two hours after being cooked or bacteria will form, she said. Food left outside in heat of 90 degrees or higher should be discarded after one hour.

Area REAP meeting set for Sept. 28 in Wakefield

Two REAP Informational Community meetings will be offered in September by the Center for Rural Affairs' Rural Enterprise Assistance Project Hispanic Business Center in partnership with the Northeast Community College West Point Education Center, and the Wakefield Gardner Public Library.

The meetings will be located in West Point and Wakefield and conducted in Spanish.

The REAP Informational Community meetings will be held Monday, Sept. 21 at the Northeast Community College West Point Education Center, 202 Anna Stalp Avenue in West Point, from 5-6 p.m.; and Monday, Sept, 28 at the Gardner Public Library, 114 West Third Street in Wakefield, from 5-6 p.m.

The Center for Rural Affairs' REAP program provides lending, training, networking, and technical assistance opportunities for start-up and existing small businesses.

Last year, more than $30,000 was raised to benefit children in communities with Runza locations and in the last six years, more than $150,000 has been donated.

Runza Restaurants has been a long time supporter of reading. "Reading is vital to lifelong success and provides an excellent opportunity for families to spend time together," Becky Perrett, Director of Marketing for Runza National, said. "Donating funds for books and promoting literacy dren and the community."

Julie Osnes, Youth Services Librarian, stated, "The funds from this drive will be used to purchase new picture books and new items for the parent's corner. The joy of sharing books is a gift you can give children from the time they are born. It helps create a special bond between parents and children. It introduces art, listening skills, and provides children with a greater variety of experiences to help prepare them for life. We are so grateful to Toni Schrant and the team at Wayne Runza for participating in this fundraiser every year and hope this year will be a record breaker."

making counselors available

Counseling services are available to all members of the community at no cost by Wayne State College.

Appointments may be scheduled in Wayne and in Norfolk. The counselors understand the stress involved in dealing with problems such as grief, worry, family and relationship conflicts, emotional pain, and alcohol and drug abuse. Talking to a professional about these issues can provide support, guidance, and may help to find new solutions.

The HELP Clinic will answer any questions individuals have about the counseling. Call (402) 375-7210 to inquire. If you reach the answering machine, leave your name and phone number and your call will be returned.

Each of the counselors are graduate students in Counseling at Wayne State College, all nearing completion of the Master's degree. They are supervised by Dr. Keith Willis, a Licensed Psychologist and Licensed Alcohol and Drug Counselor.

ReTree Nebraska week is Sept. 19-26

LINCOLN - ReTree Nebraska encourages Nebraskans to celebrate fall's ideal tree-planting weather by participating in ReTree Nebraska Week Sept. 19-26.

"Many people don't know that fall is a great time for planting trees," Jessica Kelling, ReTree Nebraska coordinator, said. "When properly planted, many tree species are able to quickly establish their root systems thanks to fall's lower temperatures and reduced humidity. This allows young trees to prepare for the upcoming winter and gives them a jump start on spring growth."

has lost nearly half its community forest resource since the 1970s.

"We have the opportunity to do something now that will have a positive impact on future generations," Kelling said.

Kelling said Retree Nebraska ambassadors are coordinating local activities in communities across the state in celebration of the event. A list of events is available at www. retreenebraska.unl.edu.

Information about species selection, including ReTree Nebraska's Nine for 2009 - a list of specially selected species for Nebraska land-According to Kelling, Nebraska scapes, and proper planting is also available at www.retreenebraska. unl.edu.

ReTree Nebraska is a 10-year, cooperative initiative to promote the proper planting and care of 1 million trees in communities across Nebraska by 2017. Trees planted within city limits on public and private property, as well as trees planted in certain rural areas. can be counted toward ReTree Nebraska's 1 million tree goal.

ReTree Nebraska is a cooperative effort of the Nebraska Forest Service, Nebraska Statewide Arboretum Inc., University of Nebraska-Lincoln's Department of Agronomy and Horticulture, University of Nebraska Kural Initiative, Nebraska Community Forestry Council and the university's Institute of Agriculture and Natural Resources.

scheduled to appear in Wayne as part of the dedication of the Veterans Memorial on Nov. 14. Since the dedication has been postponed, the discussion was whether to have the band in Wayne for a concert to raise money for the Wayne Veterans Memorial or to drop the idea altogether. Contact will be made with the band and the local Veterans groups before a final decision is made.

Three additional proposals for Q-125 events were then discussed. The first was for a Red Ribbon Month Poster Contest for students

First week of season notes

Time to take a trip around the horn and offer a few quick thoughts on the official first week of the fall sports season:

- Congrats to Wayne State gunslinger Silas Fluellen, who can add the career completions mark to his four-year resume as the Wildcats quarterback.

Wayne State is off to a 2-0 start, thanks in part to the Bellevue native's efforts. He and his teammates will be tested in a big NSIC matchup this weekend with St. Cloud State, which almost upset Div. I-AA Maine on the road last weekend.

- Before Saturday, I was worried how the Husker offense would be without Zac Lee at quarterback. After watching Cody Green's performance late in the game, I'm not worried anymore. The Huskers will be just fine at quarterback the next 3-4 years. Now, if we can just get the receivers to hang on to the ball...

- Kudos to Wayne High coach Rich Rethwisch, who picked up his 100th career win in Friday's 35-0 whitewashing of North Bend.

- Saw the Wayne High girls go toe-to-toe with traditional C2 power West Point Central Catholic at the Wisner-Pilger Invite Thursday, and I like what I see from this team. Sometimes, when you've got a lot of youth, the biggest hurdle to get over is winning the close games against the good teams. This team has the talent, and once they get over that next hurdle, they're going to be a pretty salty bunch to watch.

- Allen did their own rendition of the classic game show "Beat light the area effort. The Clock" Friday, scoring the winning touchdown with four-tenths of a second to win on the road at race, outdistancing teammate Dodge. I would think playing the Jordyn Alexander by 23 seconds defending state champs would be to take first-place honors. Emily enough excitement for Eagle fans Nelson finished fifth and freshman this week, so hopefully the team can wrap up their second win before the final tick.

- If Wayne's cross country teams keep putting their scoring runners in the top seven, Norfolk Catholic's days of ruling the running roost may soon be over. The girls looked solid and the boys are right on pace, so to speak, with the defending state champions.

My first weekend worth of picks wasn't so bad. A 5-5 mark, taking into account some really silly picks (what medication was I on when I wrote that Illinois would beat Missouri? And let's not even talk about Nevada-Notre Dame...)

Here's 10 guaranteed winners for this weekend (again, for entertainment purposes only):

Wayne High 24, Wakefield 14 (Trojans' defense will keep things entertaining.)

Wayne State 27, St. Cloud State 24 (Wildcats will have their hands full with the Huskies.) Nebraska 42, Arkansas State

17 (Arkansas State scored 61 last week...against Mississippi Valley

USC 21, Ohio State 17 (One of two games on the schedule that I'd love to see end in a tie.)

Notre Dame 28, Michigan 24 (And this is the other one...and I'd like to see this one end in a scoreless tie...that's how much I dislike both programs.)

Toledo 31, Colorado 24 (If Colorado can't beat their in-state rivals at home, how can you justify them winning on the road?)

Oregon 41, Purdue 17 (The Oregon kicker will be suspended for the rest of the year for delivering a haymaker to the Purdue mascot.)

TCU 31, Virginia 20 (Virginia lost to William and Mary last week...and Mary was playing quarterback.)

Virginia Tech 42, Marshall 24 (No way the Hokies would be 0-2 coming into the Nebraska game. This is the "Carve This Sucker In Granite" guarantee of the week.) Iowa State 17, Iowa 16 (This one's for football bragging rights in the state of Iowa, which is the equivalent of watching two sunkissed grandmas in the bikini competition at the Crystal Waters ing yards in Laurel-Concord's 31-7 win over Lutheran High Nursing Home in Butte, Montana.) Wayne runners finish strong at Wisner meet

WISNER - Wayne's cross coun- Martha Mitiku placed seventh in try teams came within a point of making it a clean sweep of the team titles in the Wisner-Pilger Invitational.

The Wayne girls put its four scoring runners in the top seven to win the B-C Division by 10 points over Norfolk Catholic, while the Blue Devil boys had their four scorers place in the top seven to finish one point behind the defending Class C state champions.

Laurel-Concord junior Katie Jacobsen was the only area runner to earn a medal as the Bears and Winside competed in the Class D division, Jacobsen completed the course in 16:35 and finished 37 seconds behind the winning runner, Andrea Weeder of Lindsay Holy Family/Newman Grove, to high-

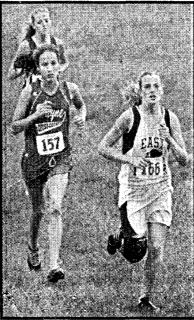

Wayne sophomore Megan Stalling was the medalist in the B-C girls her first varsity race to account for the Wayne scoring.

"Megan and Jordan went 1-2 in our race, and I thought the girls ran very well as a team," coach Rocky Ruhl said. "Our spacing was good for our first four runners, and if we can keep tightening that up our score will be even better.

"The kids gave a good effort and competed hard, and I was happy with the way we performed," he added. "We still have a ways to go and are going to improve a lot, but I liked how we challenged people."

The Blue Devils did just that in the boys' race, keeping things tight with Norfolk Catholic until the very end. The Knights went 1-2-4 with their first three varsity runners, which was just enough to offset the finishes of third, fifth, sixth and seventh for the Blue Devils.

"It was nice to see we got as close as we did to Norfolk Catholic," Ruhl said. "Both teams had a runner out,

Wildcat volleyball team caps week with sweep of Chadron

Johnny Saunders picks up some of his game-high 111 rush-home schedule Monday afternoon at Rice Auditorium in Wayne with a sweep over Chadron State, 25-16, 25-14, 25-17.

WSC has now won six straight contests, improving their record to 7-2 overall.

Junior middle hitter Jennifer Hefner paced the Wildcats in hitting with 13 kills as all 13 players saw action for WSC. As a team, the Wildcats hit a stellar .370 with 44 kills and just 10 hitting errors. Tali Fredrickson and Leigh Connot each recorded 10 digs while Diedra Artz was credited with 29 set assists.

"Chadron State was struggling a bit," coach Scott Kniefl said. "We served aggressive and really limited their options, and when we get free balls and stay on offense the whole time, they were in for a short day."

The win capped a 5-0 week for the Wayne State women, and Kniefl credits the team's ability to change gears after opening the season 2-0 in Colorado Springs,

"Coming back from Colorado, we didn't feel we were playing up to our potential, so we got refocused and had some good practices, and we showed up in St. Cloud and started playing really well," he said.

Wayne State College opened play Friday at the St. Cloud State Volleyball Tournament with a pair of wins,

The Wayne State College volleyball team opened their defeating Missouri S&T 25-19, 25-21, 18-25 and 25-16 and sweeping Upper Iowa 28-26, 25-18 and 25-10.

In the win over Missouri S&T, Hefner and Fredrickson each recorded double-doubles to lead the Wildcats. Hefner accounted for 16 kills and 10 blocks while Fredrickson finished with 12 kills and 10 digs Lea Hartigan added 10 kills, Tessa Wietfeld accounted for 11 digs and Artz handed out 42 set assists.

The Wildcats hit a season-high .418 in rolling to a straight set win over Upper Iowa in the second match of the day. Hartigan had a match-high 17 kills and hit .464 to lead the Wildcats in hitting followed by Fredrickson with 14 kills. Mindy Moody led the Wildcats on defense with 11 digs while Artz was coach Rich Rethwisch wasn't credited with 39 set assists.

"Jen and Lea and Tali really had big weekends for able to open the season with a 35-0 us, and if we have all three of them attacking at that win over North Bend Friday night, high a percentage, we're going to be tough to stop," Kniefl said. "Diedra did a good job distributing the ball with how it happened. and the back row did a good job getting the ball to her, so it was a total team effort."

The Wildcats finished a 4-0 weekend with wins over touchdown gallops in the first peri-Ferris State of Michigan (25-17, 17-25, 25-23 and 25- od, helping the Blue Devils jump 16) and host St. Cloud State (25-20, 25-18 and 25-14).

Fluellen sets another record in 41-0 road win

MOORHEAD, Minn. - Senior quarterback Silas Fluellen put another mark in the Wayne State record books Saturday in leading the Wildcats to a 41-0 shutout over Minnesota State Moorhead Saturday afternoon.

The senior from Bellevue, Neb., competed 21 passes on the day, allowing him to surpass the record of 578 pass completions made by Jaime Jones from 1996-99. The 21 completions on the day brought Fluellen's career total to 580 with at least nine games to go in the 2009 season.

"Obviously there is a reason to celebrate and he's had a great career and is an excellent quarterback for us," coach Dan McLaughlin said. "Some of that is a byproduct of longevity and he's been a starter for four years, so if you're here long enough and are good, you're going to set some records. I'm proud of him. He's done some great things for us.'

Fluellen

The Wildcats racked up 468 yards in total offense, but were a little slow coming out of the chute in posting their first win in Northern Sun Intercollegiate Conference play.

Nick Hope kicked the first of his two field goals on the day late in the first period to give the Wildcats a 3-0 lead, but the Wildcats scored three times in less than three minutes late in the first half to take a 24-point lead into the locker room at the half.

Fluellen hit Frederic Bruno for 23 yards and found Logan Masters on a 27-yard completion to set up a two-yard touchdown run by David Ferris with 3:22 left in the half to make it 10-0. After a Ryan Reeves interception was returned to the Dragons' 19-yard line, Fluellen found Bruno for his first touchdown pass of the day to make it 17-0 with 2:42 left in the half.

The Wayne State defense, which held the Dragons to 224 yards in total offense, shut Moorhead down again, giving the Wildcats the ball at the Moorhead 37-yard line with less than two minutes to go. Fluellen directed a two-play, 37-yard drive that finished with his 24-yard connection to Mit Montgomery to make it 24-0 at intermission.

"We started slow and it took the whole team a while to get going and realize we were in a ball game, but once we did we were OK," McLaughlin said. "We moved the ball pretty well on offense and got See WILDCATS, Page 2B

Bears wake up, post 31-7 victory

By MICHAEL CARNES Of The Herald

LAUREL - Sometimes it's best not to wake a sleep-After jumping out to a quick 14-0 lead, Laurel-

Concord seemed to be struggling on offense in its season opener with Lutheran High Northeast.

It took a dominating Eagle offensive drive early in the second half to wake up the Bears, and they responded with 17 unanswered points in the final period to pull away with a 31-7 win Friday night at Haskell Field.

"We got up 14-0 and didn't want to get into a battle of attrition, but the kids really fought hard and got through that stretch and I was proud of their effort," coach Terry Beair said after the game.

The Bears marched down the field on their first possession and scored on a 4-yard run by Johnny Saunders, who finished the night with 111 yards on 15 carries. Saunders scored again on a 3-yard run late in the period to give the hosts a 14-0 advantage.

After that, it became something of a struggle for the Laurel-Concord team. A missed 37-yard field goal was the closest the Bears would get to the end zone, and Lutheran High Northeast was able to keep things close at intermission.

"They've got some great size and they really buckled down and shut us down a little bit, so we were kind of scrambling," Beair said.

Lutheran High Northeast came out in the second half with a simple quarterback isolation draw that helped them move the ball up the field and cut the Laurel-Concord lead in half.

Eagle quarterback Jordan Coolidge took the snap on five consecutive plays, gaining 39 of the Eagles' 66 yards on their lone scoring drive. He surprised the Bear defense late in that drive on a key fourth-down play where he ran up to the line, then jumped in the air and threw a pass to Brad Schick, who took the ball to the Laurel-Concord 4-yard line. Two plays later, Coolidge closed the drive with a sneak from a yard out to cut the lead to 14-7.

"They did a good job with that, and I'm sure teams we'll face will take note of that," Beair said. "They have some big boys up front and they wedged it at us, and we'll need to correct that because teams like Ponca and Hartington Cedar Catholic have some big boys and they'll want to make us stop that."

That was the Bears' wake-up call, and they responded with a four-play, 65-yard drive to take back the momentum.

Saunders scrambled 18 yards on the first play, then caught a 30-yard pass from senior quarterback Travis

The Wayne State College women's soccer team fell to 0-4 over the weekend with a pair of losses in Durango, Colo.

The Wildcats lost on Saturday to Fort Lewis College 4-0, then dropped a 4-2 decision to Adams State of Colorado on Sunday.

Fort Lewis College scored three goals in the second half to pull away for the shutout, improving to 3-0 on the season. Fort Lewis held a commanding 24-2 edge in shots, including 11-1 in shots on goal, and had five corner kicks to none for WSC.

Bright were credited with shots for the Wildcats. Junior goalkeeper Emily Walker notched seven saves while allowing four goals in playing the entire game for the Wildcats.

defused a bomb in the old "007" movies, there would always be one second left on the clock.

The Allen football team did the British Secret Service one better, leaving four-tenths of a second on the clock after scoring the winning touchdown in a come-from-behind 26-20 win at Dodge Friday night.

The Eagles trailed 20-14 late in the game, but scored two touchdowns in the final two minutes to win their 2009 season opener over a traditional Class D2 power on their home field.

"We responded well when it was necessary and beat a team that's a traditional power. This is a great win for our kids," coach Dave Uldrich said of his team's win. "It says a lot about this team."

The Eagles drew first blood in the opening period on Alex Langseth's 8-yard run, and increased the lead to 14-0 later in the period when Heath Roeber and Cody Stewart connected on the first of three touchdown passes, this one from 60 yards out.

Trailing 20-14 in the fourth, Allen got new life after a 40-yard kickoff return by A.J. Williams. Roeber took the team down the field and connected with Stewart on a 7-yard pass.

A key turnover on the ensuing kickoff gave Allen the opportunity to win the game. A squib kick hit a Dodge player and bounced back to Stewart, who recovered the ball at the Allen 38-yard line. Allen used a 10-play drive, with Roeber and Stewart connecting for the third time with :00.4 showing on the clock, giving Allen the win.

Allen racked up 257 yards in total offense, with Langseth leading the ground game with 57 yards on 16 carries. Roeber added 52 yards on 18 tries and Williams had 48 yards in 13 carries.

Roeber connected on 5-of-11 in passing for 100 yards, with four going to Stewart, who accumulated 91 yards in the air.

Allen's defense limited the Pirates Dodge scored 20 unanswered to 156 yards in total offense. Roeber had 14 tackles and Williams and Cody Logue each had 10 tackles.

"Derek ran really hard for us and didn't go down very easily," Rethwisch said. "He was able to keep his balance, and the offensive line did a superb job giving him some alleys to hit. They were able to get to those second blocks and create some gaps and Derek was able to find them.' The Wayne defense also contributed to the cause, limiting North Bend to 100 yards in total offense and putting a score on the board themselves. Shawn Davie picked off a pass and raced 70 yards for a score in the third period to make it 28-0.

"Randy (defensive coordinator Randy Pospisil) did an excellent job putting things together and getting the kids to play hard defensively," Rethwisch said. "They tackled very well and really got after it and made some good hits, and our defensive coaches did a great job putting things together.'

Rethwisch's son, Gage, capped the scoring with an 18-yard pass to Justin Anderson, putting the finishing touches on his dad's 100th career coaching victory and getting the Blue Devils off to a 1-0 start.

Davie and Jake Zeiss led the Wayne defense with 12 tackles apiece, and Keegan Dorcey picked off two of four interceptions.

Fluellen finished the day 21-of-32 for 290 yards and three touchdowns. Bruno led the Wildcat receiving corps with 123 yards on seven catches, while Pulscher paced the ground game with 48 yards on seven carries.

Defensively, Reeves was the player of the day with six total tackles and two interceptions, while Danie Leacraft and Kyle Gardner each had five total tackles.

The Wildcats will get their first stiff conference test this weekend, as they host St. Cloud State at 1 p.m. at Cunningham Field. "They lost to Maine in overtime and had a touchdown called back that would have won the game for them, so they're a very good team," McLaughlin said. "They're very good and very hungry for that first win, so they're going to come here and play lights out.

"Their wideout is the best we've seen, they're line is a lot bigger and their defense is extremely aggressive," McLaughlin said.

Rough night for Wildcats in 26-0 loss

By LEE KOCH Special to the Herald

ORCHARD - Everything that could go wrong did go wrong, as the Wildcats were on the wrong end of a 26-0 loss to Clearwater/Orchard on the Cyclones' home field Friday

Fumbles, penalties and a lack of execution plagued the Wildcats, who were held to a net 78 yards rushing and 69 yards through the air by the preseason Class D1 No. 10-rated Cyclones.

Neither team was able to cross the goal line in the first period, as defense and penalties on both squads set the tone of the season opener for both teams. Three penalties for illegal procedure stopped the Wildcats on their second possession of the opening quarter, as the teams battled to a stalemate in the center of the field with no penetration by either team deeper out. than the opponents' 23-yard line.

The second quarter started off badly for the Wildcats, as the Cyclones completed a 10-play 58yard drive with 10:17 left in the quarter to take a 6-0 lead.

On their next possession, Cyclone defensive back Skyler Strope stripped the ball from the Wildcat runner on the first play and waltzed into the end zone, giving the host team a 12-0 lead in a span of less than 10 seconds.

The Wildcats mounted their best offensive threat of the first half as Jordan Jaeger hit split end Zach Brokaw with a 36-yard aerial, moving the ball to the Cyclone 12-yard line before an interception in the end zone put an end to Winside's hope of scoring in the first half.

The Cyclones added a pair of third-quarter touchdowns as Strope picked up 43 of his gameleading 102 yards rushing in an 11-play drive, then extended their lead to 26-0 as Cyclone quarterback Calvin Willats picked up his own fullback's fumble and scored the final touchdown from 24 yards

The Wildcats mounted a fiveplay 65 yard drive to the Cyclone 3-yard line before turning the ball over on a fumble as the fourth quarter clock ran down.

The Wildcat offensive effort was led by Kalin Koch with 85 yards rushing on 20 carries, and Zach Brokaw with three receptions for 69 yards. Anthony Nelson added 29 yards on seven carries to the Winside totals.

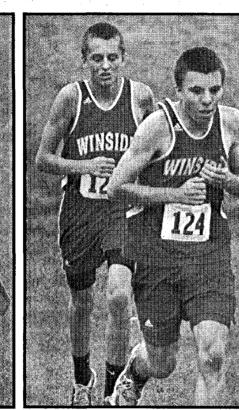

Defensively, the Wildcats were led by Sage Schwedhelm with 14 tackles, Jordan Nelson and Brad Doffin with 12 stops each and Anthony Nelson with 11 tackles. Alec Sindlear had seven stops, including a tackle for a seven-yard loss. Brokaw had an interception return good for nine yards, with Schwedhelm and Jaret Harmer recovering fumbles for Winside.

The Wildcats travel to Howells Friday to face the defending state champion and Class D1 No. 1-rated Bobcats.

a couple of years so it was a good meet to start with."

Cory Foote led the way for the Wayne boys with a third-place effort of 17:50.2. Jordan Barry was fifth, Seth Onderstal placed sixth and Zach Thomsen was seventh to account for Wayne's team total.

"Cory took a bad turn early in the race, but he stayed in it and was able to get third," Ruhl said. "Jordan and Seth really competed hard, and I'm looking for them to get better so we can score well."

In Class D action, the Laurel-Concord girls were led by Jacobsen, who stayed with the lead pack throughout much of the race.

"Katie did really well," Laurel-Concord coach Megan Meyer said. "She was a little slower than last year, but she ran a very consistent race. The Weeder girl and (Crofton's Kristin) Steffen are really good competition for Katie, and she wants to try and beat them. The Steffen girl is a fierce competitor, and they run really well together."

As a team, the Laurel-Concord girls placed fourth with 70 points, five ahead of Oakland-Craig. They did not field a full boys team, but were led by junior Isaac Haahr, who placed 29th.

Winside finished sixth out of seven teams in the Class D boys race and placed sixth out of six in the girls race.

The Hansen brothers were led by senior Paul, who finished 18th with a time of 20:31.5. Twin brother Peter Hansen was two spots back, while sophomore John Hansen finished 22nd.

'I thought Peter and John might be first, based on how practice has gone, but practice doesn't always indicate the final result." Winside coach Jennifer Kesting said. "Paul ran a good, hard race and the boys ran pretty well."

The Winside girls runners came in one after the other, led by Natasha Jensen's 33rd place finish.

"I thought Natasha would have run a better race, but she'll push herself more down the road," Kesting said.

Laurel-Concord will be at the Hartington Invite on Thursday, Wayne will compete at the Norfolk Catholic Invite on Friday, and Winside returns to action Thursday, Sept. 15 at the Wayne Invite.

WSC golfers finish high

Wayne State College opened the 2009 fall men's and women's golf schedules on Friday at the Reiver Fall Classic hosted by Iowa Western Community College in Council Bluffs, Iowa.

The host Reivers shot a 290 team score, six-over-par, to top Wayne State by four shots for the men's team title. Iowa Lakes was third with a 298, followed by Central Community College-Columbus (310), North Iowa Area CC (320) and Iowa Central CC (341).

Junior Adam Fields shot an evenpar 71 to finish fifth overall to lead Wayne State. Michael Phillips tied for seventh with a 73 and Tyler DeJong came in 10th with a 74.

Other WSC finishers included sophomore Tyler Thompson with a 76, Justin Cunningham shot 78 and Jake Hirz 79.

The Wayne State women placed fourth out of 10 teams, shooting a 348. Nebraska-Omaha won the tournament with a 304, easily topping second place Northwestern College. Dana College edged Wayne State by one stroke.

Junior Heather McCabe led a balanced Wildcat effort, shooting an 85 to place 11th out of 61 players. Kelsee Katsampes was one stroke behind at 86, followed by Ali Fuchtman an 88. Paige Barry came in with an 89 and Katie Isom recorded a round of 94.

In the win over Ferris State, Fredrickson finished with a matchhigh 17 kills to go with 14 digs to lead the Wildcats in the win. Hefner added 13 kills with seven blocks while hitting .500 for the match. Hartigan added 11 kills, Connot and Wietfeld accounted for 11 and 10 digs respectively while Artz recorded 42 set assists.

The second match saw Wayne State hit .379 and cruise to the straight-set win. Hartigan led a balanced hitting attack for WSC with 14 kills, followed by Hefner with 13 and Fredrickson 12. Connot accounted for 15 digs to pace WSC defensively while Fredrickson added 10 and Artz accounted for 42 set assists in the win.

Wayne State will be playing at the Rockhurst Tournament in Kansas City, Missouri on Friday and Saturday, which should be an interesting weekend for the Wildcats, Kniefl said.

"It's a chance to play some more quality teams and see where we're at," he said. "We play some region teams here, so it will be an important weekend and we need to take one match at a time."

Area teams battle at Northeast Classic

WISNER - The Wayne High volleyball team posted a 2-3 effort at the Northeast Nebraska Classic over the weekend, leaving coach Joyce Hoskins with a good feeling about her team's hopes for the season ahead.

The Blue Devils went 1-1 in pool play on Thursday, dropping a three-set thriller to traditional Class C2 powerhouse West Point Central Catholic and rebounding for a straight-set win over Oakland-Craig. The Wayne girls stumbled in silver bracket play, finishing the day 1-2 with a win over Scribner-Snyder and losses to Bancroft-Rosalie and North Bend.

The Blue Devils dominated West Point Central Catholic in the first set, then kept wiggling off the hook in the second set after the Bluejays missed four opportunities to close out the second set. Wayne took a 28-27 lead in the second set, but gave up the next three points to tie the match and lost another thrilling heartbreaker in the third set.

"The girls played really hard against West Point, then came back and played well against Oakland-Craig," Hoskins said. "I really think we're just inches away from getting over that hump. Last year was a struggle, and the girls just have to get used to winning again and be a little more consistent in everything we do."

Elisa Robinson had 12 kills and five blocks in the loss, while Erica Sebade added nine kills. Katie Hoskins led the defense with 15 digs and Laura Muren recorded 23 set assists.

In the win over Oakland-Craig, Hoskins had eight kills, five digs and three ace serves to pace the Wayne girls, while Robinson added six kills and Muren put up 12 set assists. Cassie Harm also had five Wayne handled Scribner-Snyder in three sets on Saturday, but couldn't get over the hump against Bancroft-Rosalie and lost a threeset thriller to North Bend, losing the final set 28-26.

"Saturday we couldn't seem to get things going," Hoskins said. "We would play well in spurts and then get in a lull, and some of that is from being young and getting used to new positions. The girls were disappointed that it didn't work out, but they didn't give up at all. We just need to keep improving and focus on the future and continue to get better."

Muren had 17 set assists, Hoskins had 10 kills and Robinson picked up 13 digs in the win over Scribner-Snyder. Hoskins had eight kills and Robinson had six digs in the loss to Bancroft-Rosalie. In the North Bend match, Hoskins had 15 kills and Erica Sebade added 13 in the losing effort. Muren and Robinson each had 10 digs and Muren had 35 assists.

Wakefield rebounds

After struggling through the first day of the Northeast Nebraska Volleyball Classic, the Wakefield girls rebounded to go 3-0 in the Bronze pool to finish the weekend

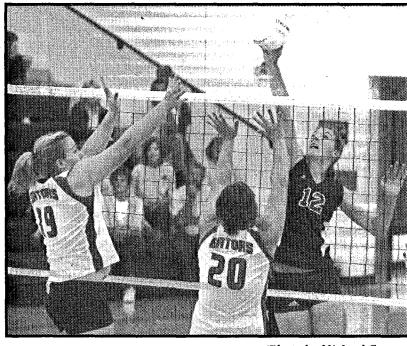

The Trojans lost to Bancroft-Rosalie and Wisner-Pilger in pool play Thursday, but came back to post wins over Pender, Allen and Oakland-Craig to finish first in the Bronze pool during the 12-team

Coach Megan Nixon said that while the scores in Thursday's games were a little one-sided (25-8, 25-12 to Bancroft-Rosalie and 25-9 25-18 to Wisner-Pilger), it was just a matter of getting over some first-match nerves for her team to rebound on Saturday.

"I expected Bancroft-Rosalie to be tough, and we kind of had that deer-in-the-headlights thing with five girls who were playing their positions for the first time," she said. "Bancroft and Wisner are both good clubs, and while we came out kind of nervous, I was happy with how we improved as the night went on."

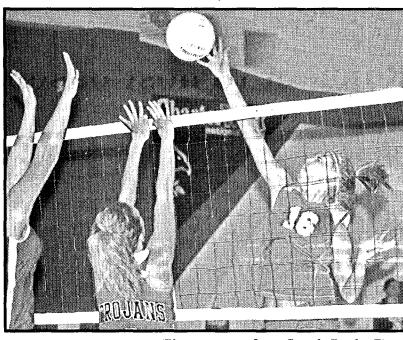

Pender took Wakefield to three sets before the Trojans came away with a 25-22, 22-25, 25-15 win, and that catapulted the Trojans in their straight-set wins over Allen (25-21, 25-9) and Oakland-Craig (25-10, 25-15).

"We made some changes with our rotations that gave us some more options," Nixon said. "We were a

Trojans drop defensive battle

PLAINVIEW - Wakefield had its chances, but couldn't put the ball in the end zone as it came up on the short end of a 7-0 decision in their season opener Thursday at Plainview.

The Piratés scored on a 1-yard run in the first period and managed to make that touchdown stand up, even though the visiting Trojans had the ball inside the Pirates' 20-yard line four different times.

"We had it on their 1-yard line a couple of times and just didn't get it done," coach Mike Clay said of his team's disappointing loss. "We were close several times, but we just couldn't punch it in."

The Trojans showed some promise offensively during the course of the evening. Quarterback Chad Clay hit Tyler Bodlak with a 43-yard pass, and later in the game Clay called his own number and raced 60 yards to the Pirates' 10-yard line, but the Pirates' blitz forced a turnover on the next play to thwart the Trojans' scor-

Defensively, the Trojans did a good job shutting down an oversized Plainview offensive unit.

"I thought we played a very good ball game defensively," Clay said. "We're going to be an undersized team, but defensively we played a great game. The touchdown they scored was after they pinned us deep and forced us to punt out of our end zone.

"I was really impressed with our defensive effort," he added. "We just need to get more consistent on offense and take better care of the ball."

The Trojans will make the short trip west to take on cross-county rival Wayne on Friday at Cunningham Field on the campus of Wayne State College, and Clay knows his team will need to get ready for a tough matchup.

"Wayne has one of the nicest teams they've had in a few years, and Rich (Rethwisch) is a good coach and has been successful wherever he goes," Clay said. "They have good size and speed, and they won last week without Darnell Collins, so he adds another dimension. We're going to have to play very well to have a chance, but our kids will work hard and lay it all out there Friday night."

Lady Bears open season 2-0

Pritchard combined for 23 kills to help the Laurel-Concord girls defeat Randolph in straight sets Thursday, 25-16, 25-20, 25-14.

Dahlquist put down 13 kills and made seven blocks at the net to help the Lady Bears dominate the evening. Pritchard added 10 kills and four digs to provide all-around support to the cause.

This was a good start and finish for us," coach Patti Cunningham said. "The game allowed us to be aggressive, but we have to work through some challenges in order to re-assert ourselves in a dominant fashion."

Emma Engebretsen had a good night at the net with nine kills and four blocks, and also served well by Kastrup's 17 digs, while Nelson

Tuesday's Results

Cassy Miller winces after being hit by a pitch during Wayne's 5-3 loss to Columbus Lakeview on Tuesday.

Columbus Lakeview got two runs finishing 16th. in the eighth inning to win an exciting matchup over the Wayne High Golfers second softball team Tuesday, 5-3.

Wayne trailed 3-1 in the sixth before scoring two runs. Carly Fehringer tripled and scored on a catcher's interference to tie the game and send it into extra

Shannon Jarvi pitched well in a losing effort, scattering five hits and giving up just one earned run. Jessica Calhoon was 2-for-4 with a run scored and Caitlin Fehringer singled, doubled and had an RBI for the 3-3 Blue Devils.

Blue Devils sweep

Wayne dominated South Sioux City in a cross country dual Tuesday at South Sioux City, sweeping the top four positions in both races.

The boys won 10-33 and the girls won 10-38, as Cory Foote and Megan Stalling led their respective teams across the finish line.

Wayne's varsity claimed six of the top seven places in the boys race, with Foote's time of 17:17 leading the way. Seth Onderstal was second at 17:43, followed by Jordan Barry, Zach Thomsen and Andrew Long to round out the top five. Taylor Carroll was seventh.

The girls were as dominant as a team can be, as Wayne claimed the top seven spots in the girls race.

Stalling's time of 17:45 led the way, followed by Jordan Alexander at 18:08. The rest of the top seven including Emily Nelson in third, followed by Martha Mitiku, Taylor Stowater, Kennedy Stowater and Halsey Lutt.

In junior high action, Jared Peterson and Angie Nelson won their respective races. Peterson edged out teammate Tyler Schoh by one second, while Luke Pulfer was third in the boys race. Nelson bested teammate Hannah Kenny by 30 seconds to win the girls race.

Laurel girls second

Katie Jacobsen was the girls medalist at the Hartington Invitational on Tuesday, leading the Lady Bears to a second-place finish.

Jacobsen finished in a time of 16:34.4 to lead the way, as all four Laurel-Concord girls earned medals. Sammie Camenzind placed third, Shelby Rath was seventh and Ana York took 12th.

In the boys' race, Isaac Haahr earned a fourth-place medal with a time of 20:34.8, while freshman Gabe Abts just missed a medal, NELIGH - The Wayne girls golf team shot a 229, nine-hole score at the Elkhorn Valley triangular Tuesday at Antelope Country Club.

The Blue Devils finished behind Elkhorn Valley by 21 strokes but Josh Johnson's troops placed ahead of Battle Creek by five strokes.

Wayne was led by Brittney Peterson with a third-place finish of 51. Lauryn Braun shot a 55, Taylor Burke, 59. Kara Potter carded a 64 and Lisa Temme, 68.

The JV team also competed and shot a 298, led by Burgandy Roberts with a 56. Alexis Reinert fired a 70 and Hannah McCorkindale shot 83. Kaitlin Potter also played and finished with an 89.

Netters fall in five

It was looking like an easy straight-set win for the Wayne High volleyball team, but as quickly as they built a lead, it turned into a disappointing loss.

The Blue Devils dominated the visiting Lady Warriors, then let the lead slip away, allowing Schuyler to escape with a five-set victory, winning 13-25, 20-25, 25-19, 25-19, 15-12.

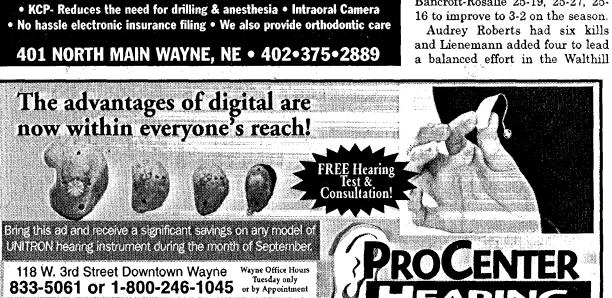

It was a frustrating loss for coach Joyce Hoskins to talk about after the game, as she saw her team's hopes for reaching the .500 mark slip away, dropping the Blue Devils

"We came out and dominated the first two sets, and it really wasn't close at all," she said. "We got back on our heels the third set and we were just out of synch in the fourth. We came out in the fifth set and played a little harder, but we got mentally tired, and sometimes that's going to happen with younger players."

The Blue Devils did get a good effort out of freshman setter Jessica Biermann, who got the start Tuesday and came through with 28 set assists, along with three digs and a kill.

Robinson led the net attack with nine kills, while Schramm added seven and Hoskins and Sebade each put down five. Cassie Harm highlighted the defensive effort with 13 digs, while Robinson, Hoskins and Rachel Gilliland each had eight.

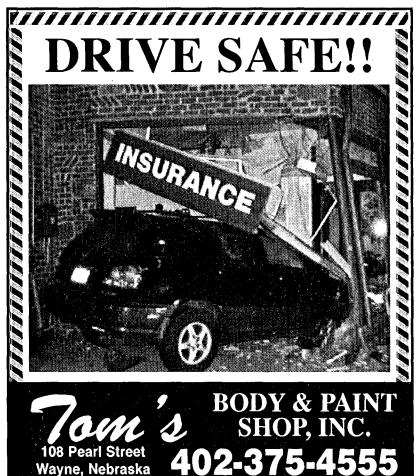

The Wayne freshmen came out on top Tuesday, defeating Schuyler 25-16, 21-25, 15-12. The JV team swept Schuyler by scores of 25-16 and 25-18.

Don't get me started

Proud parents and their marching Husker after the band's first performance of the year. Rumor has it the football team performed successfully that night as well.

Taking great pride in a particular Husker

There were more than 84,000 people in Memorial Stadium Saturday afternoon, and most of those in attendance were focused on the Huskers' season opener with Florida Atlantic.

There were, however, a few of us who came to the first game of the season for the Big Red with a bigger concern - how would the band do?

And, more specifically, how would a certain flag-twirler handle her first performance in front of a crowd 10-12 times bigger than the ones she saw in high school?

My daughter, Kylie, is a secondsemester freshman at UNL, and she is a part of the Cornhusker Marching Band. Her mother, stepdad and I made the trip to Memorial Stadium to watch her perform for the first time.

Now, as is customary when blended families get together for events such as this, my ex and I sat in different parts of the stadium. Part of this is by design (my family has season tickets on one end of found tickets on the opposite end) and part of this is out of necessity (she is easily embarrassed when I start yelling things like "It's the Blackshirt Buffet...all you can eat, bay-bee!" after Ndamukong Suh sacks the quarterback; and when it comes to Husker football, I get a little more charged up than she's willing to deal with).

And yet, even though we were in different parts of the stadium on that beautiful late-summer evening, there is one thing we can easily come together on...we are blessed with an amazing young lady as our daughter.

Looking through my binoculars, it was easy to pick her out of the crowd of 290 band members. The smile she flashes during her proudest, most uplifting moments is one that is instantly recognizable, and I think the lead tuba player could trip and fall into her and it wouldn't knock that wide smile off her face.

She performed her routine with near-flawless precision (mind you, that's my personal assessment...by no means am I an expert in flagtwirling, so I'm sure she will be the first to admit she made some mistakes that average band parents like me aren't aware of) and played her part in helping the band get the fans fired up for the opening

I'm sure we weren't the only band parents in the crowd at Saturday's game. I know that I can make a compelling (and accurate) argument, though, that we were the proudest ones in the stadium. I can't speak for my ex's exact emotions, but I 'm sure she was as awash with excitement while watching our daughter parade around the field, twirling, waving, marching and moving to the rhythm provided by the band as it played the traditional pregame songs as I was.

She first caught the flag-twirling bug before her freshman year at Millard West. She spent that first summer in the yard next to my apartment throwing flags in the air, twirling and catching them in mid-flight. Being a former band geek who wanted to be a jock, it was my first indication that my daughter was going to forego the sports avenue I had hoped she would take and continue our family's long, storied tradition of contributing to our school's athletic endeavors by being a part of the school's marching band.

with a passion that could not be matched by anyone else in the band. She ate, slept and spit flagtwirling. She would show me the entire routine, from start to finish, using a barrage of flag-twirling verbage that couldn't have been more Chinese to me if it had been uttered

And don't get me started on just how big a deal this is to the kids involved in the band. After a week full of covering sporting events, sitting quietly in the stands at an empty football field watching bands perform their routines is not what I would call exciting. But to see these kids give everything they've got to perform a routine that is as tight in precision as a Swiss watch, there's an intensity level that's surprisingly electrifying (and God forbid if one of the flag-twirlers is a step off...my daughter dropped a flag at one event and I found her after the performance crying as if she had missed the game-winning free throw in the finals at the state basketball tournament...and trust me, there's no consoling your child in that moment).

Now, instead of doing it at halftime in front of 6,000 people at a Class A football game, she's doing it in a big house of 80,000-plus that hasn't been anywhere less than full capacity since 1962. And, for all those in the audience, there were three band parents there Saturday who remember all the work, energy and dedication it took for her to get to that point.

After the game, the four of us gathered for the above photo in front of Kimball Hall, and I'm pretty sure it's quite clear, from the looks on our faces, the amount of pride we have in our daughter's talent. Thanks to her, home Husker Saturdays from here on out will have an entirely different meaning

Marine upholds traditions

Statehouse Correspondent The Nebraska Press Association

LINCOLN - Some feelings are incomparable.

Becoming a parent is one. Realizing the safe return of a loved one wounded in war is another. Not just being told they will soon be home. The realization is in seeing them.

The birth of a child, and the return of a warrior, have some things in common.

There is not just a wish, but a tangible need, to look at them and hold them and talk to them. Truth be told, the inclination is to stare endlessly, hug them until they beg for mercy, back up and stare some more, and then talk. And talk.

We're inclined to say some of the same things to infants or infantry. "Let me look at you!" And "Oh, honey. We're so glad you're home!"

And we weep. Cry, sometimes. If you have had either of the experiences being discussed, you know there is a difference.

The advantage with one in uniform, as opposed to swaddling clothes, is that the former can talk

Marine Lance Corporal Richard Weinmaster of Cozad recently came home to America, having served one helluva tour of duty in Afghanistan.

He returned badly wounded, wearing the Navy Cross, and hum-

"I didn't do anything special," Weinmaster said. "Everyone on my left and right would have done the same thing. I was just in the right place at the right time."

He said those things, surrounded by fellow Marines, after the ceremony in which he was decorated with that Navy Cross.

Weinmaster earned the medal, the second-highest military honor a Like her father, she took to it Marine can receive, when his outfit was ambushed last year. An enemy grenade landed near him and his

Despite being severely wounded he rose, regained control of a machine gun, and subjected the enemy to withering fire which eventually forced them to retreat. The medal also came with a promotion to Lance Corporal. He was 19 years old. Weinmaster's family, includ-

For the record: At least two national columnists have suggested Weinmaster could more appropriately have been awarded the Medal of Honor for his heroism.

We'll take this opportunity to recognize Nebraska's latest hero in uniform. And, perhaps it's the nature of the chronic reporter, but we look at Weinmaster's sincere insistence that he "didn't do anything special" and we wish he could participate in a one-question inter-

NEBRASKA

Lance Corporal Weinmaster, what WOULD qualify as something special? The Navy Cross citation proclaimed:

"By his outstanding display of decisive action, unlimited courage in the face of extreme danger, and total dedication to duty Weinmaster reflected great credit upon himself and upheld the highest traditions of the Marine Corps and the United States Naval Service."

The view from here: Standard operating procedure for Marines, perhaps, but it surely sounds special to a great many of his countrymen, particularly in Nebraska.

State Treasurer Shane Osborn, whose heroism as a Navy pilot propelled him into the international spotlight and Nebraska politics, will not seek a second term. Osborn is a Republican.

Former three-term state Sen. Lowell Johnson of North Bend died recently. He was 89. Johnson's district included Fremont. After his legislative service Johnson served more than 10 years on the Public Service Commission, retiring in monument here

Wayne County communities and citizens...remember when you were given the opportunity to select the grounds upon which this monument was to be erected? Remember when you were given the opportunity to select the style of this monument?

I do, and there has been progress made; yet there is a long way to go to have this Veteran's monument complete.

The dedication date of Veteran's Day 2009 is no longer a possibility. They are looking to perhaps Flag Day - June 14, 2010, or perhaps Armed Forces Day - the third Saturday in May. No matter the date I can barely wait to be there to see Old Glory raised majestically to the top of the flagpole to commemorate this most blessed event.

If you do not believe this will be a blessed event you are totally wrong. Our veterans sacrificed greatly for us to call ourselves Americans, and there is no humanly manner in which that debt to our veterans can ever be paid in full. For God and country, our veterans have served, died and come home with multiple emotional and physical injuries.

If you have not taken a drive by or walk by the Wayne County Courthouse in recent weeks, then you do not know that the foundation of this monument is in place, including the lights, landscaping

Support Veterans' and flag poles. These items have this granite bill lies idle without your contributions. been paid in full, except perhaps a bit of electrical work.

> Much of the labor going into this portion of the monument was labor given freely, once again by veterans and citizens of this and surrounding communities. Isn't it amazing that we the citizens of Wayne County have veterans who are so dedicated to this project that they are willing once again to give in sacrifice to see their dreams met?

This is where Wayne County citizens are now needed. Have you noticed what is missing from this monument to date? Yes, you are right, the granite structure which will list the names of Wayne County veterans and have a collage of memorable events of their time in service.

You may ask why has this portion not been erected? The answer is simple...financial instability and lack of funds. To date, $30,000 has been sent to help reduce the $125,000 cost of the granite. Until such time as the remaining portion of this cost is paid, the granite will not be placed and this monument will remain an unfinished task. Veterans never leave anything unfinished, and we citizens of the Wayne County communities can help them out.

I challenge each neighborhood block to conduct a door-to-door campaign and ask that each household contribute $5, $10 or $20 to this cause. For each month that and that account remains open for full payment, it is accruing 18 percent interest thus laboring the ability to get it paid in full. This block campaign will re-introduce you to your long-time neighbors and you just may find out there is a new family on the block as well.

A fund has been established at Farmers and Merchants Bank and Trust in downtown Wayne, America. If you feel your donation is at the level you wish to make a direct deposit to this account, please feel free to do so.

By the time you are reading this article, Labor Day will have passed and Patriot Remembrance Day, Friday, Sept. 11, is here. So to complete your neighborhood campaign please do so no later than Tuesday, Sept. 15. This will allow you to deposit the funds and still give time for payment to be made for October.

This is a most challenging effort you and I are taking, but unless we get this done, this impressive monument dedicated to Wayne County veterans will remain, as it is, unfinished.

Earlier in the year, letters were sent out to citizens of Wayne County. If you have lain your letter aside, then now is a great time to bring it back into focus and make a contribution. Have it ready for your neighborhood campaign. This letter did advise there is an account at State National Bank

Remember, also, as you are giving that once the granite bill is paid in full, there is still the perpetual care of this monument that will need to be given it long after you and I have left our earthly home to reside in our eternal home. The neighborhood campaign can be conducted by the square mile as well, so do not let your imagination linger as we attempt to make this monument ready for a spring/summer 2010 dedication and celebration. Donations of any amount are greatly appreciated.

Thank you for your time, consideration and generosity to our veterans. They have given to us, now it is time we give back a token of our appreciation and love of veterans. God Bless - not every country in this world would allow me to offer up a blessing to you - so be thankful you are an American and we continue to abide by our founding fathers' principles of justice, freedom, loyalty and democracy to all.

Beverly A. Neel Wayne

(EDITOR'S NOTE: We could not agree more that the veterans who have given so much for our freedom should have a memorial in their honor completed as soon as possible. The foundation that is in place at the courthouse will make for a wonderful monument to these brave individuals, and the sooner it is in place the better. We encourage all to assist in this worthy cause.)

Career Coaching workshops return to Northeast Community College

With the start of another academic year, Northeast Community College brings back its "I Can" Career Coaching Workshops later this month.

The free workshop is designed to provide fresh new ideas on how to start over in a new career. The workshop will be offered in three different sessions this fall but participants need to attend only one session.

The first session is Monday, September 21, the second session is Monday, October 26, and the third session is Monday, November 23. All three sessions will be held in the Maclay Building from 5:30-8:30

The sessions will be facilitated by Northeast Counselor Stephanie Brundieck, LCSW, Recruiter Vickie Davis, and Career Services Director Rose Ann Rogers. According to Rogers, this workshop is for those considering a career change or looking for employment after a job layoff. The workshop will also be beneficial to those re-entering the workforce after an absence or those who want to confirm they are on the right career path.

During the workshop, participants will learn to make positive changes, explore careers of interest, and participate in a career assessment. Participants will also examine their likes/dislikes and strengths/weaknesses as they are encouraged to develop the confidence to make a career change.

For more information on the free workshop and to find out the exact room location, contact Rose Ann Rogers at (402)844-7263. She can also be reached by email at roseann@northeast.edu · Find out where the child can store a lunch during the morning. It is important to keep lunches away from heat sources like registers or window sills. If refrigeration isn't provided it's best if the lunch is stored somewhere that can stay cool like a locker or a rack above the coats.

There are other ways to keep food cool. Parents can pack juice containers that will act like an ice block and cool other items in the sack. Freezing gels also are available at many discount store's. These can be purchased and frozen overnight and placed in the container before sending the child off to school. The simplest route might be making the lunch the night before and keeping it in the refrigerator overnight, allowing it to be cold when used the next day.

Depending on microwave accessibility parents may consider sending their child with pre-packaged plastic containers of soup. If the soup is homemade, parents should heat up the soup at home and send it in a small thermos.

There are things that can be purchased that don't need to be cold. Certain packages of tuna allow for children to be able to open the container and mix a mayo packet with the tuna. Fruits and vegetables can be kept at room temperature. Different types of nutritious bars that can be bought and stored.

What is Hospice?

 Hospice is a way of helping people to live out the remaining time of their lives with as much comfort and dignity as possible.

- Hospice is a comprehensive care program for patients and families that emphasizes quality of life and is most effective during the final six months of life expectancy.
- · Hospice is a way to deal humanely and realistically with one of the great challenges of human life. It offers new perspectives on hope and help to patients and families.
- Hospice is a family-oriented program that helps families to care for their loved ones.

Next time we'll explore who qualifies for hospice. It's not just for cancer patients is a great place to start doing something about the hunger and poverty that continue to plague our world. For a few hours and a few miles, friends and neighbors will be coming together to, in the words of I John 3:18: "...love, not in word or speech, but in truth and action."

Plans underway for annual CROP Walk

On Sunday, Oct. 11 at 1:30 p.m., the Wayne Community CROP Hunger Walk will be held to show love and active concern for neighbors in need, near and far.

Registration will begin at 1:15 at Our Savior Lutheran Church. The participants, ranging from newborns to nonagenarians, will be raising funds to change the world in real and measurable ways -providing seeds and tools so that people can grow their own food; digging wells that will bring clean water to villages; helping communities and families rebuild after disaster. Whether it's responding to devastating floods across the central U.S. or the Gulf Coast, or helping a village in Tanzania or Guatemala grow food, CROP Hunger Walks are making a difference.

The letters CROP mean Communities Responding Overcome Poverty.

Bible Give-away to take place at Our Savior

Over 60 new Bibles and Storybook Bibles will be placed into the hands of children and youth this fall at Our Savior Lutheran Church, 421 North Pearl Street in Wayne.

Our Savior is a "Book of Faith Congregation" in the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America. (www. bookoffaith.org) It is the sponsoring organization for After School at the Front Porch, housed at the old Main Street Public Carnegie Library in Wayne.

Rally Sunday on Sept. 13, at 9:15 a.m. will also introduce a new Sunday School curriculum, "Spark!" "Spark!" teaches frequent exploration of God's Word in its rotation-style lessons, including science, cooking, drama, video, music, and games. Teachers have been preparing weekly for the new curriculum. Knowing that children learn in many different ways, the Sunday morning program will be full of variety and creativity.

Member children are encouraged to participate in Rally Sunday activities, but all children in the area are invited to join in and learn the story of God the Father, the "Spark!" at Our Savior.

For more information about Rally Sunday and "Spark!" go to www. oslcwayne.org or call 375-2899 and ask for Sue.

Service times change at Altona

The annual time change for services at First Trinity Lutheran Church of Altona will begin Sunday, Sept. 13.

The new Sunday School and Adult Bible Study year will begin at 8:30 a.m. that day.

This year marks the beginning of the 50th year of Sunday School at First Trinity. All children, ages three and above, in the congregation, as well as the surrounding area, are invited to attend Sunday School.

Divine Worship will follow at 9:30 a.m. Holy Communion will be held the first, third and fifth Sunday.

'Dollars for Collars' Fun Day planned

Church will sponsor a second annual day of worship, fellowship, and fun in support of Seminary Student Jon Gathje.

Jon is in his second year of seminary training for Ordination into the Ministry of Word and Sacrament in the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America. Jon follows in the footsteps of Melissa Erhardt, Randy Rasmussen and many others from Our Savior who have entered min-

Preparation for ministry in the ELCAincludes three years of study in Bible and Bible Languages, Church History, Mission, Counseling, Education, Proclamation, and Church Administration. A fourth year Internship rounds out the Masters of Divinity degree.

Because seminary education takes place at one of eight ELCA seminaries in America requiring a move from one's established home; because summers are used for instruction in Greek and Pastoral Care limiting one's employment opportunities; and because noncredit volunteer work is strongly encouraged during non-class hours, most students do not have opportunities to make the money necessary to pay for seminary education.

Consequently churches such as Our Savior Lutheran Church adopt students and find creative ways to help fund expenses.

This year, Our Savior will host a day of fellowship, fun, food, and worship on Sept. 20 under the theme, "Dollars for Collars." Jon Gathje will be present and has invited fellow students to assist Pastor Stover and Church Musician Lucas Wickstrom with Saturday evening and Sunday morning worship services.

Nebraska's Kids Encouraged to Walk, Bike to School Oct. 7

Join children and adults around the world this Oct. 7 in celebrating International Walk to School Day. Parents, educators and community leaders are encouraged to help celebrate International Walk to School Day by organizing a community event where walkers can meet to walk together along safe routes.

Nebraska schoolchildren and parents can join along with kids at more than 5,000 U.S. schools and 40 nations by walking to school to promote a healthier lifestyle. Walking to school is a great way to be part of a global event to promote health, to identify safer routes for walking or biking and to improve air quality.

The Safe Routes Nebraska Web site, www.SafeRoutesNE.com, has resources for schools and communities, including ideas about how to to the National Walk to School program. The site also allows those participating in International Walk to School Day to register their event and find out what other schools are participating.

Walk to School events are designed to create safer routes for walking and bicycling and to emphasize the importance of issues including the continuing need to increase children's physical activity, pedestrian safety, traffic congestion, concern for the environment and building connections between families, schools and the broader .community.

Statewide Walk to School events are conducted as part of Safe Routes Nebraska, which is a part of the National Safe Routes to School Program. Through the 2005 passage of the Safe, Accountable, Flexible, Efficient Transportation Equity Act: A Legacy of Users, Congress designated $612 million toward developing the National Safe Routes to School Program.

For more information about how to organize or promote a Walk to School Day event, contact Kelly Morgan, Safe Routes Nebraska Program Coordinator, at (402) 476-7331 or kmorgan@sinclairhille.com.

Football season has begun

The last holiday weekend before Thanksgiving, not counting teacher's convention, I guess. We have appreciated the nice weather. We didn't make any new memories at the Fair; although we did have lunch with the governor. We usually head to the Beef Pit at noon; and on Tuesday, Dave Heinemann greeted us at the door and then came in for some of the great prime rib, while visiting with the current and past presidents of Nebraska Cattlemen, Actually, we were joined for good conversation by Vic and Reba Mann.

There is nothing this time of year quite like high school football. And we have a senior at Seward High playing his last season. Thomas plays both ways, and did that in every game last year. The record was not so good. And this year, they play three ranked teams. But last Friday, they were able to avenge a very lopsided score from last year, and it felt so good!

I'm sure I wrote about the horse at Beatrice with the black and orange blanket and the knight (an Orangeman) riding it up and down the sidelines after every touchdown. And there were so many of those! I wanted to shoot that animal by the time we left!

This year, the game was in Seward, at Concordia's nice field, the scene of the one and only victory last year. The horse was there, in a trailer, but of course, they were not going to be allowed to use him on that track.

The weather was perfect, the band sounded great and looked sharp in their uniforms, the popcorn was good, and the Bluejays prevailed, 19-12. It was an exciting game, and the crowd really got into it. That included this Grandma. I did not hear any profanity, and very few discouraging words; just lots of encouragement and positive yells. And when it was over, the players didn't want to leave the field; we all just stood around and "savored the moment," and the scoreboard.

Our Elmwood-Murdock Knights, without the horse, are 2-0 with our former young helper on the acreage at quarterback. So we may have to get to one of those games, too.

Usually, the only way we see Winside play is if they make it to the playoffs in an area around Lincoln, which has happened a couple of times; so here's hoping it does again.

On Saturday, the Big Farmer paid to see NU and was rewarded with a great game there. He has been counting the days! Rationally, moving an oval pigskin ball up and down a 100 yard field sounds kind of dumb, I know, but it's hard not to get excited by it. I also bought Coach Osborne's latest book and am again impressed by that gentle-

I spent Labor Day freezing peaches and making peach pies; doesn't that sound fun? Actually, it wasn't bad; Colorado peaches make it easy, and tasty. Tomorrow, it's back to work as a nurse; one of the regulars has had emergency surgery. I'm beginning to wonder if they are ever going to let me

Educator

We always like to talk about the weather, be it lack or abundance of rainfall, hail, etc. This time of year we always seem to gravitate toward crop development and the risk of a hard freeze before the crops get physiologically mature.

The cool summer has raised some concern in the area with a risk of crops "making it" before the first freeze. I think most of our soybeans will be mature in a couple of weeks, so let's concentrate on corn. In general, with the late April and early May planting dates that we now use for corn, and the 2400 to 2600 GDD corn that we plant, the majority of corn is mature by mid-September. This year we are about 2-3 weeks behind in growing degree day calculations. Even so, for the most part, the odds favor our crops reaching maturity, but with Mother Nature you never

In our area of northeast Nebraska, even with later planted crops, the risk of an early hard freeze stands at less than 20 percent.

North and east of us the risk of freeze damage is greater. Planting delays were common across the eastern Corn Belt this spring and record cold July temperatures have elevated the fall freeze damage risk. Using state agricultural statistics information and production estimates, approximately 1.2 billion of the projected 13.8 billion bushel corn crop has an above average freeze risk. The states at greatest risk are North Dakota, South Dakota, Minnesota, Wisconsin, and Michigan. It will take normal to above normal temperatures and a hard freeze at least two weeks later than normal for these areas to escape significant damage.

The situation this year is similar to last year and it took one of the freeze 7-17 days later than normal, with the remaining two years having a hard freeze 7-14 days earlier than normal. The average hard freeze in this area usually occurs in the 2nd week in October. With normal temperatures, we should be

Life support class offered

The Allied Health Department at Northeast Community College has scheduled two more sessions of an Advanced Cardiac Life Support renewal class in September

The first class, with course number ALHE 0330-01/09F, meets Tuesday, Sept. 15, from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m., at Faith Regional Health Services, West Campus, 2700 Norfolk Ave., in the Nebraska Room. The second session of the same class, with course number ALHE 0330-02/09F, meets Tuesday, Sept. 29, at the same time and in the same location.

This ACLS renewal course is open to those who have completed the ACLS provider course within the past two years and hold a current Basic Life Support card.

The Advanced Cardiac Life Support renewal course reviews the knowledge and techniques used in the definitive management of a cardiac arrest or similar life-threatening emergency. Participation in this course allows the registrants to review didactic material, as well as practice lifesaving techniques and skills under the direction of an instructor in a simulated situation.

Pre-course requirements include the review of the manual and information on the student CD, and completion of an ACLS pre-course self-assessment test. Students are asked to print their test score and bring it to class. Students should also bring their current BLS CPR card.

Linda Douglas, R.N., is the instructor for this course. Cost is $70. The book for the class is available in the Northeast Bookstore. To register for these classes, call (402) 844-7000.

To give you an idea of the size of the challenge, if you wanted to replace all of Nebraska's coal-fired electricity with wind, you'd have to put up several thousand large wind turbines and build hundreds of miles of new transmission lines. That would cost at least $20 billion, making electricity in Nebraska far more expensive and less

No one would seriously propose such a thing, but it does illustrate an important point: striking the right balance to provide abundant, reliable electricity as cleanly and inexpensively as possible is a complicated,

We believe that a combination of electric generating resources is the right answer. Wind will be part of that mix, but it is not the whole answer to our energy challenges We're working hard to bring the right solutions to you, and we urge you to visit www.nnppd.com to learn more

NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING RELATING TO PROPOSED AMENDMENTS TO THE LOWER ELKHORN NATURAL RESOURCES DISTRICT GROUNDWATER MANAGEMENT AREA RULES AND

REGULATIONS The Lower Elkhorn Natural Resources District ("District") will hold a public hearing in compliance with Section 46-743 of Nebraska Revised Statutes on September 22, 2009, at 7:00 p.m. in the Lifelong Learning Center at 601 Fast Benjamin Avenue in Norfolk, Nebraska, The purpose of the hearing is to take public comment on proposed amendments to the District's groundwater management area rules and regulations. The geographic area impacted by these rules is the entire District.

The District is amending its groundwater management area rules and regulations to: A. Limit irrigation growth in the nonhydrologically connected area of the District to protect groundwater supplies and to complement the District's efforts to prevent the Lower Platte Basin from becoming Fully Appropriated. Generally, this proposed amendment includes controls to: (1) limit irrigation growth in the non-hydrologically connected area to no more than 15,000 acres through 2012, averaging 5,000 acres of new irrigation development per year, (2) prohibit the construction of any new well or the expansion of irrigated acres without a variance from the District, (3) establish parameters for the variance process, including application periods and a ranking system, and (4) require the installation of devices for measuring groundwater withdrawals from water

B. Ensure that a variance shall not be granted until the District determines that the activity proposed under the variance will not cause unreasonably increasing damage to surrounding land or other water users in any area where the District has imposed a stay under the authority of Section 46-707(2) of Nebraska Revised Statutes. Generally, this proposed amendment includes additional requirements for the variance application process within an NRD Stay Area to: (1) require the registration numbers of all registered wells, the names and addresses of all landowners and an aerial photo with locations of all wells identified for land within a twomile radius of the water source for the variance application, to be included in the variance application, (2) if the District determines that the variance may cause unreasonably increasing damage to surrounding land or other water users in an NRD Stay Area, the applicant must provide either: (a) additional information relating to the District's evaluation, such as a study that accurately describes the availability of groundwater and potential impacts on existing users or (b) for each water user that may be impacted as identified by the District, a signed, notarized consent form consenting to the groundwater withdrawals of the proposed variance, (3) provide the applicant an opportunity to modify their application to change the location and/or the volume of groundwater withdrawal to lessen the impact on other water users or agree to construct or operate the well in a manner that lessens the impact on other water users, and (4) allow adequate time to consider variance applications within NRD Stay Areas by deferring, if necessary and with the applicant's consent, an application to the next year's application

The full text of the proposed rules and regulations is available at the District office or on the District's website (www.lenrd.org), and is available by request from the District. Any interested person may appear at the hearing and present written or oral testimony concerning this matter. Individuals with disabilities may request auxiliary aids and service necessary for participation by contacting the District by September 18, 2009. Testimony relevant to the purposes of the hearing may also be submitted in writing (prior to the close of the hearing) to the Lower Elkhorn Natural Resource District, 601 E Benjamin Avenue, Suite #101, PO Box 1204, Norfolk, NE 68701. UNMC announces new scholarship for northeast Nebraska nursing students interested in teaching

A new scholarship - providing tuition, fees and a living stipend - is available for students in northeast Nebraska who are interested in a nursing career. The University of the area. This scholarship is the Nebraska Medical Center (UNMC) Excellence Scholarship is designed to develop nurses who want to teach nursing.

"There are not enough nurse educators to teach the next generation of students and provide critical care to patients across Nebraska. This scholarship is the first use of a community fund designed to remedy that," said Ruth Macnamara, Ph.D., associate professor and assistant dean of the UNMC College of Nursing Northern Division, located on the Northeast Community College Campus in Norfolk.

The scholarship would provide UNMC tuition, fees and a living stipend for up to two years and may be extended. It is contingent upon maintaining a GPA of 3.5 and is available to residents of one of the north region counties.

The counties include: Antelope, Boone, Boyd, Brown, Burt, Cedar, Cherry, Colfax, Cuming, Dakota, Dixon, Dodge, Holt, KeyaPaha, Knox, Madison, Nance, Pierce, Platte Rock, Stanton, Thurston, Wayne and Wheeler.

Funding for the scholarship is provided by the Nursing Fund for Excellence, which was established to provide greater student assistance and state-of-the-art equipment. Faith Regional Health Services is a major contributor to the fund, along with hospitals, health agencies and individuals in north and northeast Nebraska.

"The college continues to be in 2010 and will house nursing other academic school years will be impressed with the support it receives from northeast Nebraskans for the new nursing program in initial step in giving back to the community. More use of the funds will follow during the year prior to the opening of the nursing program and building," Dr. Macnamara

The facility, named the J. Paul and Eleanor McIntosh College of Nursing, is scheduled to open programs of UNMC and Northeast Community College. A unique public-private partnership made the project possible. Private donations of $11.9 million funded the project and operating expenses will be provided by the state of Nebraska, Northeast Community College (NECC) and federal funds generated by NECC.

Scholarship applications for the 2009-2010 academic school year can 5515 or e-mail rmacnamara@unmc. be submitted now. Applications for edu accepted on a continual basis. The application is available UNMC's College of Nursing website at http://www.unmc.edu/nursing/243. htm. E-mail form to rmacnamara@ unmc.edu.

For more information, contact Dr. Macnamara at UNMC College of Nursing Northern Division, 985330 Nebraska Medical Center Omaha, NE, 68198-5330. Or call (402) 253-

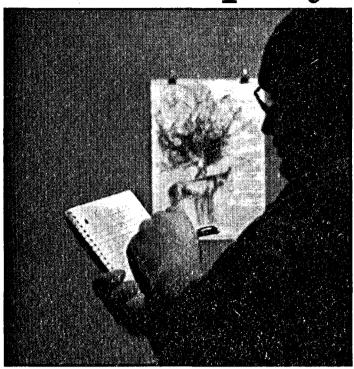

Art exhibit on display

Students at Wayne State College had an opportunity to review works featured in a unique exhibit opening on campus, Aug. 31. WSC's nationally accredited Art and Design Department hosted the international group exhibition, "The Big World," in the Nordstrand Visual Arts Gallery, located in the Peterson Fine Arts Building.

Eleven artists from Asia and the West are represented by two-dimensional works of art and interviewed on DVD by Associate Professor of Art at Oregon State University, Julie Green. The exhibit continues through Sept. 18. Gallery hours are 9 a.m. - 4:30 p.m., Monday through Friday. Visitors are welcome to attend at no charge.

The Big World is fully funded by a 2008 General Research Fund Award from Oregon State University. Viewers are encouraged to spend time with the exhibit, not only observe the artworks but also to view the DVD in the gallery as the artists speak directly about their own work.

The Department of Art and Design at Wayne State College is an accredited institutional member of the National Association of Schools of Art and Design (NASAD).
