The Bethany Presbyterian Church (above) in rural Carroll has been in continuous use since 1918 and remains alive (as seen below) in spite of declining membership and resources.

Carroll church is noted as one of state's Fading Places

An area church has been listed by statewide preservation group Heritage Nebraska in its 2010 List of Hidden Treasures and Fading Places.

Bethany Presbyterian Church, located in rural Carroll, was cited by the group in its recent listing of sites.

"We selected eight Fading Places and 13 Hidden Treasures this year as well as recognizing a recurring theme of abandoned schools across the state," J.L. Schmidt, executive director of Heritage Nebraska, said. "The Hidden Treasures are those places that may not yet be on the radar, but they are places worth seeing and most provide things worth doing."

"The Fading Places represent icons of our history that are threatened with extinction through demolition or neglect often brought on by lack of money and vision."

In continuous use since 1918, the Bethany Presbyterian Church is representative of churches in small, often rural communities that face declining membership and resources to maintain them. This northeast Nebraska church lacks indoor plumbing and parishioners rely on rainwater collected in a cistern. Church women still fellowship and quilt in the basement.

The other Fading Places listed include: Burton Bank Building (1885) in Orleans; Carnegie Library Building (1911) in Schuyler; Historic grain elevators (1880-1920) statewide; Industrial Arts Building (1913) UNL campus; Interstate 80 Bicentennial Sculptures (1976) statewide; Lodgepole Opera House (1911); Old Stone House (1876) in Harlan County.

The 13 Hidden Treasures include: Bassett Lodge and Range Café (1949-1951); Bess Streeter Aldrich House and Museum (1922) Elmwood; Downtown Scribner (1871); Downtown Sidney (1870s); Flag Creek Bridge (1924) near Orleans; Mars Historical Area (1865) near Royal; Meadow Grove Federal Credit Union (1905); Oak Ballroom (1937) Schuyler; Old Great Western Sugar Factory Dormitory (1926) Mitchell; Pavelka Farmstead (1905) near Bladen; Pavillion Hotel (1887) in Taylor; Thorpe Opera House (1889) David City; Larsen Tractor Test and Power Museum (1920) in Lincoln.

Old Schools were recognized as an on-going theme, some Hidden (Yost Farm School, 1887, near Red Cloud) and some Fading (Prairie Queen School, 1930, near Milligan and Broadwater School, 1909, in Broadwater).

Judges also noted other churches that are fading: The First Baptist Church (1884) in Red Cloud was the church of Willa Cather's Youth and described in several of her books. The Little Church of Keystone (1908) near Lake Ogallala in Keith County is a National Register property with pews that flip to a protestant altar in one end and a Catholic altar in the other. The Pioneer Chapel (1870) in the Cesky Bratri Cemetery near Milligan is the first permanent house of worship in Fillmore County.

Relay for Life participants hoping to raise $70,000

The 2010 American Cancer Society's Wayne County Relay For Life will take place Friday and Saturday, June 11-12 at the Wayne State College track.

Fourteen groups and organizations have formed teams for this year's event. Many have been conducting fund raisers throughout the year in an attempt to reach the $70,000 goal set for this year. As of early this week, more than $50,000 has been collected, with several other fund-raisers continuing to take place, and additional money will be collected through games and activities during the event.

Following is a tentative schedule for this year's event.

The activities begin with survivor registration at 5 p.m. at the track. The Survivor Meal will be held at the Wayne State College Student Center at 5:30.

The opening ceremony, including the presentation of colors, Celebration of Cancer Survivors and survivors taking the first lap, is scheduled for 7 p.m.

Beginning at 7:30 p.m., there will be food available in the tailgate area of the football field, provided by Northeast Cattlemen's Association and Pizza Hut. A free will offering will be accepted for Relay For Life. A Kid's Carnival will continue until 9 p.m.

The Miss Relay Pageant, where those in attendance vote for their favorite contestant with a donation, will take place at 8 p.m., with the Corporate Sponsorship Recognition and Awards Ceremony scheduled for 9 p.m., along with the playing of Plinko.

The Luminaria Ceremony to remember those who have battled cancer will begin at 10 p.m. Luminaries are available from any team or committee member and will also be sold the night of the event.

Following the luminaria ceremony, a Scavenger Hunt is scheduled for 11 p.m. and the Fight Back Ceremony at midnight. A variety of games will take place from 12:30 a.m. until 5 a.m., when the White Elephant presents are un-wrapped. Closing ceremonies will take place at 6 a.m. on Saturday.

"Everyone is welcome to join us at the Local poker player heading to Vegas

By MICHAEL CARNES
Of The Herald

Imagine a former chiropractor, an accountant, a social worker and a Wayne businessman are sitting around a poker table. Only one of them has yet to win the most coveted prize in poker – a World Series of Poker Main Event bracelet.

Glen Nichols could join the likes of Joe Hachem, Chris MoneyMaker and Jerry Yang – if he plays his cards right – after winning a statewide poker tournament recently in Lincoln.

Nichols won a seat in the Free Poker Network's National Championship, which will be held Thursday, July 1 at Caesar's Palace in Las Vegas. Nichols earned a spot in the state tournament by qualifying through his play in free poker leagues in Norfolk and at Melody Lanes in Wayne.

Nichols said he started playing poker with some buddies in Norfolk about 10 years ago, and when a free poker league started in Norfolk, he started playing tournament poker and developed a solid, conservative style of play.

That style of play served him well at the state tournament. Even with a double stack of 30,000 chips that he earned by qualifying in Norfolk and Wayne, he was one of the shorter stacks when the original field of 86 was whittled down to the final nine players.

"I played really conservative. I think I folded 25 hands before I caught anything," he said. "I just kept picking away and gained enough chips to keep going."

He said he had about 55,000 in chips when he got to the final table, but the cards started coming for Nichols and, as they say in the game of poker, he got on a rush.

Eventually, Nichols was heads-up against the last player standing between him and a championship. His opponent shoved all his chips in the middle, and faced with a tough call with the ace and 10 of clubs, he made the call. His opponent turned over a king and a nine, and Nichols' 10 paired up on the turn to give him the victory.

"It was unreal," Nichols said of the win. "All day long, you set goals of trying to get a certain number of chips or getting to the final table. I was the second-shortest stack,

Time drawing near for Chicken Show

The 30th annual Wayne Chicken Show is only a month away, and organizers continue to make plans and reminisce about shows of the past.

The Chicken Show has always been held the second Saturday of July. Later, Henoween activities were added on Friday night and in recent year's Sunday events have made the celebration a three-day event.

This year's event will be held Friday through Sunday, July 9-11. Although the first Chicken Shows did not have specific themes, in recent years the t-shirt design and theme of the annual event has reflected what is happening in both Wayne and throughout the world.

The following is a list of Chicken Show t-shirt designers, theme and color of shirt (as available).

1981 - 1983: Pearl Hansen, no theme or design listed

1984 - 1988: Marla McCue, no theme or design listed

1989: Marla McCue - Chicken's In Space

1990: Marla McCue - Rock And Roll (Caveman & Wheel / Modern & Wheel)

1991: Marla McCue

1992: Marla McCue - Opera Chicken (High note cracks eggs open) (red shirt)

1993: Marla McCue - Chicken on top of a television (grey shirt)

1994: Marla McCue - Poultry in Motion (white shirt)

1995: Marla McCue - Chickens on the March (royal blue shirt)

1996: Marla McCue - Poli-chicks in '96 (heather grey shirt)

1997: Marla McCue - You Gotta Be Yolkling (purple shirt)

1998: Marla McCue - Under Coop-struction (green shirt)

1999: Marla McCue - Just Fowling Around (teal shirt)

2000: Jolene Klein - Y2Kluck (gold shirt)

Dixon youth struck by semi along Highway 116

A Dixon youth was injured Monday afternoon after being struck by a semi on Highway 116 just south of Dixon.

According to the Nebraska State Patrol, at about 2:45 p.m. on June 7, Justin Peterson, 14, of Dixon was crossing Highway 116 one mile south of Dixon when he was struck by a northbound semi driven by John Kilcoin, 73, of Pierce.

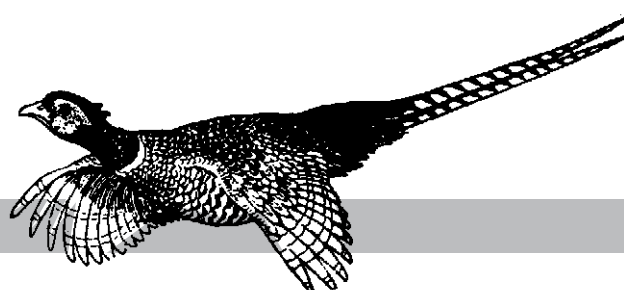

Peterson was taken by Lifeflight helicopter to Mercy Medical Center in Sioux City, Iowa.

No details of the extent of Peterson's injuries have been released.

The accident was investigated by the Nebraska State Patrol with assistance from local law enforcement and fire and rescue departments.

Did You Check Your June Sewer Bill?

The June utility bill is the first bill with the new sewer rate. The water and electricity rate are still the same as the last few years.

The new sewer rate is $5.12 per 1,000 gallons of water used plus a fixed monthly fee of $6.50 for a home with a 3/4 inch water meter. The old sewer rate was $2.90 per 1,000 gallons.

For residences, the gallons billed for June is the monthly average of water you used last December, January and February.

This is based on the assumption that no one is irrigating lawns or gardens at that time of year, and all the water used in your home during those three months goes into the sewer system.

Commercial customers' sewer bills are calculated differently. They are still based on the actual gallons of water used each month minus any water metered separately for irrigation.

Call Melody at the city office with questions about your sewer bill.

Plans are being made for Chicken Days for Friday and Saturday, July 9-10. Workers are needed and can sign up at the club.

The State Madam President will make her official visit during Chicken Days. Workers are needed to construct a float for her.

Serving lunch at the meeting was Mary Wert. Serving at the Monday, June 21 meeting will be Cheryl Henschke.

Information sought on local ancestors

After two years of genealogy research, Brenda Clement is making her first "roots trip," by driving from Seattle to this area.

"I will be there June 22-24. I am interested in learning and sharing information and pictures of the HOLTGREN and NYDAHL families who lived in the Winside, Wayne and Wakefield areas from 1880s - 1940s. Also looking for descendants of brothers Peter and Gust JOHNSON of the same time period," she said.

"My grandmother, Florence Holtgren, taught school near Winside 1911-1914 so also looking for group school pictures during that period. The Holtgren children attended the country school 1 1/2 miles northeast of Winside from 1904-1914. My great grandfather, Claus Holtgren, farmed for Mr. Strahan, who owned a lot of land, from 1892-1904.

WSC students inducted into Honor Society

The STRIDE Student Support Services Program at Wayne State College announced their spring 2010 inductees into Chi Alpha Epsilon National Honor Society.

To be inducted, students must maintain a 3.0 or above cumulative Grade Point Average for two consecutive full-time semesters. Five students were inducted this past semester. They included: Ashley Byers of David City, Danielle Miller of Sioux City, Iowa; Erin Richardson of Onawa, Iowa; Millicent Wolfe of Walthill; and Brooke Wortmann of Hartington.

Three current members of the society received a ruby pin for earning a semester GPA of 3.5 - 3.74. They are: Carra Anderson of South Sioux City, Katrina Leader of Norfolk and Amanda Powell of Tilden. Mallory Foral of Omaha and Zach Kalina of Elkhorn received emerald pins for earning a semester GPA of 3.75 - 3.99. Jaime Johannsen of Omaha received a diamond pin for earning a semester GPA of 4.0.

Three participants in the STRIDE/SSS program received Honor Roll Certificates for earning a cumulative GPA of 3.0 or above for the first time. They will be inducted into the society following another semester with the same requirements. These students are Kendra Cornell of Newport, Courtney Fogle of Elkhorn and Seth Reeve of Runnells, Iowa.

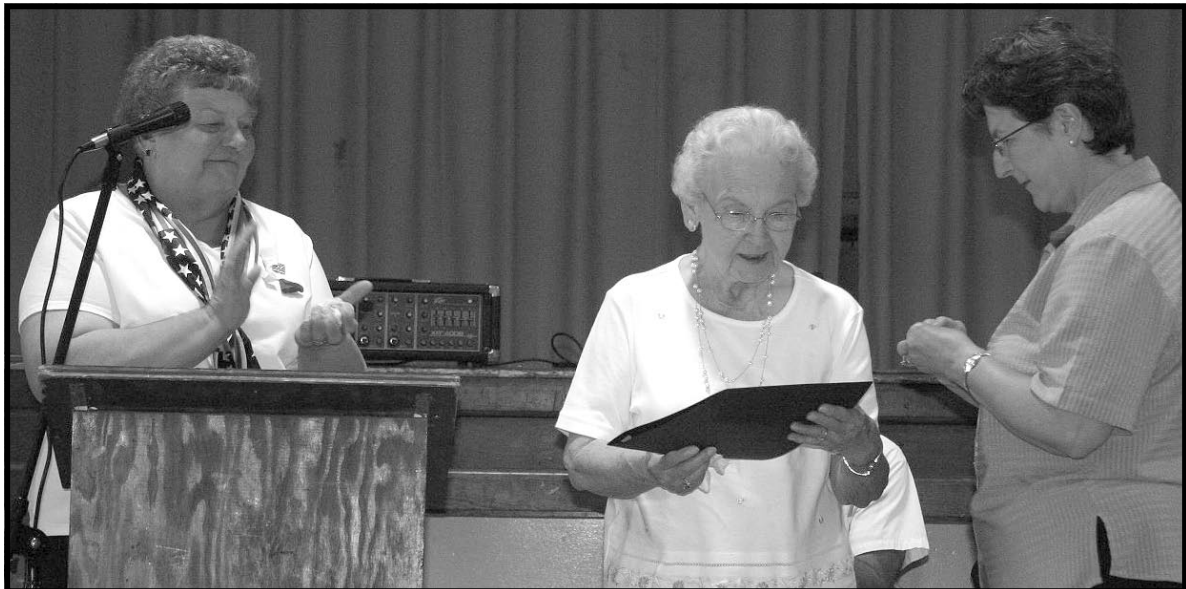

STRIDE is a Student Support Services (SSS) Program at Wayne State. It is an acronym for Students Taking Responsibility in Development and Education. The program offers individual attention with academic and personal support to help students to persist until they earn a college degree. The SSS programs are part of the federal TRIO programs, are funded under Title IV of the Higher Education Act of 1965 and serve 198,057 students nationwide.

Internet poll question

Last week's poll question, "What is your opinion on the state of the economy?" Getting better - 36 percent; getting worse - 50 percent; no change - 14 percent; or I haven't been affected - no responses.

This week's question is "What do you recycle?" Paper only; Paper and aluminum; everything I can; I do not recycle.

Suzanne Gubbels performs an arm stretch on Lacy Maskell as the new physical therapy assistant at Peterson Physical Therapy.

Neighborly connection brings Gubbels to town

BY JOSHUA STUHL
Of The Herald

Just as REO Speedwagon "heard it from a friend," so did Diane Peterson hear of Suzanne Gubbels, PTA (Physical Therapy Assistant).

A neighbor of Diane Peterson, Peterson Physical Therapy, happened to be a friend of Gubbels, a Randolph native, who graduated from Northeast Community College in August 2009 with a degree in physical therapy.

Peterson accepted Gubbels as her PTA in November last year. After seven months of aiding others on the road to rehabilitation, Gubbels feels very comfortable in her role and patients say that she has "the same touch" or knack for finding their tender spots as Peterson herself.

Peterson and Gubbels both have qualifications for soft tissue management, both work considerably with back and neck rehabilitation and share an interest in orthopedics.

Gubbels commutes from Randolph, where she is a volunteer on the EMT Rescue Squad. Gubbels says that her "passion for aiding people is reflected in (her) work."

Peterson Physical Therapy boasts an array of equipment for patient use including the following: a treadmill, parallel bars, a Nustep exercise bike, a set of mini-stairs, a weight-lifting machine and an ultrasound machine. They are equipped to aid patients suffering from a variety of ailments, from slight nerve damage to total joint replacement surgery rehabilitation. Peterson Physical Therapy also has a Licensed Massage therapist on staff for mild discomfort corrections.

Gubbels looks forward to serving members in the Wayne area for years to come. She encourages anyone with bodily discomfort to stop in for a consultation.

Local residents in Dixon chat in the community's new auditorium, which was dedicated Sunday afternoon.

New Dixon auditorium is dedicated

Hundreds of local residents and guests were on hand for the dedication and open house of the Dixon Community Center in Dixon on June 6.

The building replaces the Dixon Auditorium which had served the community in numerous capacities for many years. Several years ago it was determined that it would be too costly to remodel the building so plans for a new building were designed and the old building demolished in October of 2009.

Partial funding for the new building came from a grant of $191,400 which was received by the Village of Dixon in 2008.

A large number of hours of volunteer hours went into completing the new building. Approximately $15,000 was raised by the community for completion of the building.

During Sunday's dedication ceremony's Dixon Mayor Jeff Hartung told the audience "Nebraska is the best place to live. We all work together. The people of Dixon and the surrounding community got this done."

Hartung also spoke of former mayor Johnny Young, who worked to make the building a reality, despite health issues. Young was able to tour the building shortly before his death earlier this year.

The building includes two separate rooms, each capable of holding approximately 200 people. In addition a large kitchen is available to those renting the facility.

A wish list of additional items still needed for the building has been created and these will be purchased as additional funds are available.

The building is now available for rent for receptions, fundraisers and other activities.

Ashes in the Sand Hills is July 8 in Ainsworth

"Ashes in the Sand Hills" is the theme of the ninth annual Sand Hills Discovery "Experience" to be held this year on July 8 at Ainsworth High School.

This educational conference has a great line-up of speakers to inform everyone about this unique region. On Wednesday, July 7 and Friday July 9, there will be optional guided tours available to those participating in Thursday's conference.

Thursday morning, Bob Diffendal will explain "The Ashes in the Sand Hills." The second speaker is state climatologist Al Dutcher, sharing "Climatology in the Sand Hills". Shane Tucker, UN-L highway salvage paleontologist, is the third presenter. He will talk about his work in "Fossils from the Rick Irwin Quarry".

In the afternoon, Stan Lewis will speak about "Fossil Insects from Ash Deposits," and Will Locke from Hastings will give the final presentation, "Rocky Mountains; Headwaters of the Platte River".

The optional tours Wednesday and Friday consist of fossil digs, sand hills lake tour, Dutch oven cooking workshop, tour of prescribed burn sites in the Niobrara valley, youth activities at the Nature Conservancy site, science kits for educators, and a day trip to Royal to visit the Ash Fall Fossil Beds.

College credit is available through Wayne State College. Registration for credit is required in advance. Young people are encouraged to participate. There is no fee for youth if they attend with an adult who has a paid registration.

For complete information about the experience, including times, fees, locations of events, etc. please go to www.sandhills.org, or call the Ainsworth Chamber of Commerce, (402) 387-2740 or (866) 387-2740 or write Sand Hills Discovery at P.O. Box 444, Ainsworth, NE 69210. Half-day registrations are also available.

Significance of Relay For Life is noted

The following is an explanation of the significance of the timing of this year's Relay For Life event, scheduled for Friday and Saturday, June 11-12.

"Relay For Life starts at dusk and ends at the next day's morning. The light and darkness of the day and night parallel the physical effects, emotions and mental state of a cancer patient while undergoing treatment.

"The Relay begins when the sun is setting. This symbolizes the time that the person has been diagnosed as having cancer. The day is getting darker and this represents the cancer patient's state of mind as they feel their life is coming to an end.

"As the evening goes on, it gets colder and darker, just as the emotions of the cancer patient do. The time around 1 to 2 a.m. represents the time when the cancer patients start treatments. They become exhausted, some sick, not wanting to go on, possibly wanting to give up. As a participant, you have been walking and feel much the same way. You are tired, want to sleep, maybe even want to go home, but you cannot. You cannot stop or give up, just as the cancer patient cannot stop or give up.

"The time around 4 to 5 a.m. symbolizes the coming of the end of treatment for the cancer patient. Once again, they are tired, but they know they will make it.

"The sun rising represents the end of treatment for the cancer patient. They see the light at the end of the tunnel and know that life will go on. The morning light brings on a new day full of life and excitement for new beginnings for the cancer patient. As a participant, you will see the brightness of the morning and know that the end of the Relay is close at hand.

"When you leave the Relay, think of the cancer patient leaving their last treatment. Just as you are exhausted and weak, so is that

"Remember, there is no finish line until we find a cure."

The public is invited to take part in the Relay activities throughout the night.

Opening ceremonies are set for 7 p.m. The luminary ceremonies takes place at 10 p.m. and closing comments will be held at 6 a.m. at Memorial Stadium.

Relay For Life include Ameritas, Denise's Angels, Gail's Little Angels, Herman Chiropractic, Kaden's Klassmates, NorthStar Services, PMC Wellness, St. Mary's Fighting For Life, Sisterly Love, Sixth Grade, Wayne Motors/Winning Finish, The Wizards and Zeta Tau Omega.

Backyard landscape tour to benefit local Rotary

The Wayne Rotary Club and Country Nursery have teamed up to offer a Wayne area backyard and landscape tour on Sunday, June 27. Both afternoon and evening tours are available.

Participants will travel by motor coach to visit eight different Wayne properties which have been professionally landscaped by Country Nursery. Landscape designers will describe the projects identifying homeowner goals, challenges encountered, and the materials selected.

Proceeds from the tour will support Rotary International's End Polio Now campaign. Since 1985 more than two billion children worldwide have received the oral polio vaccine and reported cases of the disease have been reduced by 99.8 percent. Today, the disease is seen in only four countries, down from 125 just 20 years ago. Those countries are Afghanistan, India, Nigeria, and Pakistan.

According to Vicky Jones, Wayne Rotary Service Committee Chair, every Rotary club around the world has been asked to organize a fund raising event to support the End Polio Now campaign.

"The Bill and Melinda Gates Foundation awarded Rotary International a $350 million challenge grant which must be matched with $200 million from local clubs.

Because Rotary is an international service organization without religious or political affiliation, Rotary can gain access to conduct immunization clinics where other groups cannot."

The Wayne Rotary Club invites residents to come out on June 27 to get some great backyard ideas, and to support the End Polio Now campaign. Tours times are from 2-5 p.m. and from 6-9 p.m. They begin and end at Country Nursery located two miles east of Wayne.

Tickets are available from Country Nursery at (402) 375-4643. Seating is limited so call if you are interested in attending.

By winning the state tournament, Nichols will play with 24 other players in a national championship tournament on Thursday, July 1. If Nichols wins the 25-seat national tournament, he will get an all-expenses-paid seat in the World Series of Poker's Main Event, which starts Monday, July 5.

The WSOP Main Event is the crown jewel of poker tournaments, where more than 6,000 players are expected to pony up the $10,000 buy-in for an opportunity to win more than $7 million. The tournament has evolved into a two-week marathon where unlikely amateurs end up as household names in the poker world.

The World Series is televised on ESPN, and while Nichols isn't concerned about getting face time on TV, he is excited with the opportunity to possibly rub elbows with some of the game's best players.

"I watch a lot of poker on TV and learned a lot from watching some of those players," he said. "My favorite is Phil Ivey, because he never seems to get upset. He's really cool and calm and almost impossible to read, and it would be awesome to be able to sit at a table with somebody like that."

So long, Big XII

So long, Big 12. We hardly knew ye. The question of whether or not Nebraska will bolt for the Big 10 Conference seems to have shifted from "will they?" to "WHEN will they?" The story has gotten hotter and heavier than a Megan Fox photo shoot, and it is looking more and more like the end of the road for the Big 12 Conference.

For several months, there has been speculation that the Big 10 Conference was going to offer membership to as many as five schools, including Nebraska and Missouri. While Big 10 officials were denying that an offer had been made, it became more clear that they were targeting Nebraska and Missouri in their desire for what would ultimately be a 14- or 16-team super conference.

At this week's Big 12 meetings in Kansas City, much of the talk was centered on expansion and what could be done to keep the conference brethren from jumping ship. Dan Beebe, doing his best impersonation of Kevin Bacon as the cop during the parade riot in the classic comedy "Animal House," tried every-so-desperately to assure everybody that we should remain calm and all is well.

Then came news late Thursday that the Pac 10 Conference was suddenly discussing expansion, and they were going to raid the Big 12 and take three Texas schools, both Oklahoma teams and Colorado. Suddenly, these denials that Nebraska, Missouri and Texas officials were tossing about leaving for greener pastures had sprouted a new pair of legs.

By the end of this week, we may very well know if Husker fans' future road tailgate parties will be held in Ames, Stillwater and Manhattan - or if they move to Minneapolis, Ann Arbor and Iowa City.

Quite honestly, I have mixed emotions about Nebraska jumping ship for the Big 10 Conference. There are a lot of long-standing rivalries that Nebraska has in the Big 12 that will take generations to develop in the Big 10.

There has been a long-standing sense of respect and passion for Nebraska fans when it comes to playing Oklahoma, Kansas, Kansas State and Iowa State have been whipping boys (in football, mostly) all the way back to the days of the Big Eight. Missouri was the closest thing to a true heated rivalry that Nebraska has had (Colorado was a concoction of an insanely jealous Bill McCartney and those who followed him).

Even with the formation of the 14-under girls get late win, 18-under comeback falls shy

By MICHAEL CARNES Of The Herald

The Wayne Dirt Devils found themselves in do-or-die situations Tuesday against Arlington, and one team was able to deliver a victory in the clutch.

The 14-under Dirt Devils scored two early runs, but needed a two-out single by Harris in the bottom of the seventh to come away with a 3-2 win over Arlington in league action at the Wayne Softball Complex.

The 18-under Devils tried to battle back from a six-run deficit, but ran out of gas in the seventh to drop a 9-5 decision to the visitors.

The 18-under team were unable to dig out of an early hole, as they had a hard time finding the gaps against a solid Arlington defense.

"Every time we hit it, it seemed like they were in the right place to make a nice play," coach Kevin Hoffart said. "I was happy that we were starting to hit the ball well,

Wayne teams handle Wakefield

Sinniger throws no-hitter for Juniors, Seniors dominate

By MICHAEL CARNES Of The Herald

WAKEFIELD - Pitching can take you a long way in American Legion baseball, as the Wayne Juniors and Seniors found out in Monday's sweep over Wakefield.

Tony Sinniger threw a four-inning no-hitter in the opener, and Derek Poutre followed with a complete-game five-hitter as the Wayne Juniors and Seniors posted 13-0 and 11-1 wins, respectively, over host Wakefield at Eaton Field.

Sinniger was a late entry into the lineup for the 6-1 (4-0 Ralph Bishop League) Juniors, and he responded by facing just two batters over the minimum while striking out eight.

"Tony wasn't penciled in to start tonight, and I decided before the game to go with him and he threw well," coach Jeff Zeiss said. "He threw a lot of strikes and were able to capitalize on some mistakes offensively."

Wayne drew first blood in the second when Trent Beza singled and scored on Frank Bernal's triple. Bernal scored on a Jordan Baker single, and he and Gage Rethwisch scored on a Miles Anderson single to give Wayne a 4-0 advantage.

Wayne added a single run in the third, then broke the game open with eight runs in the fourth, highlighted by RBI singles from Joey Lenihan and Corey Doorlag.

That was more than enough for Sinniger, who set Wakefield down in order in each of the first three innings, then allowed a pair of walks before striking out Alan Lopez to finish off the four-inning no-no.

Baker finished 2-for-4 with a double, two runs scored and two RBIs to lead Wayne's eight-hit attack.

The nightcap started out as an interesting pitcher's battle between Wayne's hard-throwing ace, Derek Poutre, and Wakefield's young hurler, Peter Bisstis.

It was a matchup of contrasting styles, with Bisstis keeping Wayne's batters on their toes with a variety of curveballs and knucklers, while Poutre tried to quiet Wakefield's offense with a solid power game.

In the end, Poutre was able to keep Wakefield off the scoreboard after giving up an RBI single by B.J. Soderberg, scoring T.J. Rose. Poutre settled down to allow five hits and four walks while striking out three.

"Derek is pitching well for us, and that's the key to this team, pitching and defense," Zeiss said. "It's nice that we scored a lot of runs tonight, but normally we're not going to get that, so it comes down to throwing strikes and Derek did a great job of that."

Poutre's effort drew praise from Wakefield coach Mike Clay.

"He pitched a whale of a ball game and was in control for them," he said. "We were a little tired coming out of the Wahoo tournament over the weekend and had used up a lot of our pitching, and Peter kept them off balance with his stuff and it worked well for a little bit."

(Photos by Michael Carnes) Tony Sinniger (top) threw a no-hitter for the Wayne Juniors in their 13-0 win over Wakefield Monday night. Sinniger struck out eight in the four-inning game. (right) Alex Onnen went 3-for-3 to help the Seniors to an 11-1 win.

With the game tied 1-1 in the third, Wayne took the lead for good when Tory Booth and Alex Onnen singled. Booth scored on Dustin Stegemann's bases-loaded walk, while Onnen followed on a fielder's choice.

Wayne broke the game open in the sixth with a five-run inning, highlighted by a bases-loaded walk by Poutre and Jacob Zeiss' two-run single. Wayne added three more in the sixth, sparked by Onnen's double.

Onnen went 3-for-3 on the night and scored two runs to highlight Wayne's seven-hit effort.

"Alex is young enough to play with the Juniors, but a lot of these kids are his classmates and he wanted to play up, and we really need his left arm in the lineup," Zeiss said.

The win improved Wayne's record to 6-1 overall and 3-1 in the Ralph Bishop League.

WSC men add seven to lineup

Wayne State men's basketball coach Paul Combs announced that seven players will join the Wildcat program for the 2010-11 season.

The seven-member recruiting class signed during the NCAA spring signing period includes junior college transfers Vontrell Seroyer of Ellsworth Community College (Iowa) and Derrell Williams of Wayne County Community College (Mich.), and high school standouts Adol Aluong of Sioux Falls, S.D., Tyler Bauschek of Mukwonago, Wis., Patrick Kurth of Sioux City, Iowa, Terrell Newton of Huron, S.D. and Ryan Rollfzen of Papillion, Neb.

"We are extremely pleased with this incoming recruiting class," Combs said. "They will provide our program with the necessary depth which will make our workouts and practices very competitive. All of these student-athletes will be excellent teammates, as they come from a solid foundation and will represent Wayne State in a first-class fashion on and off the court."

Seroyer is a 5-foot-7 point guard from Milwaukee that will have two years of eligibility with the Wildcats after playing the last two seasons at Ellsworth Community College in Iowa. Seroyer was an All-Region XI first-team selection last season at Ellsworth after averaging 12.4 points, 3.5 assists and 2.5 rebounds per game, shooting 83 percent from the free throw line.

Williams, a 6-foot-4 forward from St. Clair Shores, Mich., will have three years of eligibility with the Wildcats after playing one season at Wayne County Community College in Detroit. Williams averaged 6.8 points, 7.0 rebounds and led his team in steals with 70 (2.6/game), helping WCCC to an 18-10 record.

Aluong is a 6-foot-1 guard from Roosevelt High School in Sioux Falls, S.D., where he earned second-team Class AA All-State honors this past season averaging 10.5 points, 4.6 rebounds and 2.2 assists per game. Aluong helped Roosevelt High School to a fifth-place finish at the South Dakota Class AA Tournament last spring and was a three-year starter and four-year letter winner.

Bauschek, a 6-foot-1 guard from Mukwonago High School in Wisconsin, averaged 17.5 points per game as a senior last spring to earn first-team All-Class 8 Conference honors. He finished his career ranking third in scoring and was in double figures in 57 of the 67 varsity games played over three seasons. Bauschek also earned first-team All-Conference honors as a junior after scoring 15.8 points a contest.

Kurth is a 6-foot-9 center from Sioux City North High School who averaged 8.6 points per game in his senior season, helping the Stars to a 14-9 record and a share of the Missouri River Activities Conference title. Kurth had a career-high 32 points vs. South Sioux City this past season and was a fifth-team All-Northwest Iowa selection as a senior. Kurth

Legion teams split at SSC, Juniors sweep Albion twinbill

The Wayne American Legion Juniors and Seniors saw action this past week, with the two teams getting a split at South Sioux City and the juniors sweeping past Albion.

On Wednesday, June 2, the two teams traveled east to face an improved South Sioux City program. The Juniors came from behind to win 5-2, while the Seniors were outscored 12-4.

In the Juniors game, South Sioux City held a 2-1 advantage in the fourth before Wayne tied the game with a run in the fifth and took the lead for good with two in the sixth.

Wayne spread seven hits out among the bulk of the lineup, with Brady Soden's triple highlighting the attack. Frank Bernal scored two runs and Soden and Tyler Robinson each had RBI's.

Gage Rethwisch threw six solid innings for the winners, allowing six hits and two walks while striking out seven. Drew Carroll worked a scoreless seventh to pick up the save.

In the nightcap, the Seniors got into an early scoring battle with South Sioux City, but couldn't keep up as the home team ended the game on the eight-run rule after five innings.

Zac Braun and Dustin Stegemann both doubled to highlight the Wayne offensive attack, and Alex Onnen had a two-run single to key the four-run outburst.

Onnen was credited with the loss after allowing five runs, three of them earned, on four hits in two innings.

On Sunday, the Wayne Juniors hosted Albion in a doubleheader and had no problems in posting a 16-0, 12-3 sweep.

Joey Lenihan threw a one-hit shutout in the opener, striking out six and allowing no walks. He got plenty of offensive support, as Beza, Miles Anderson and Trent Beza each had two hits. Anderson, Beza, Bernal and Rethwisch each scored two runs, and Anderson and Soden each had three RBI's.

In the nightcap, Wayne jumped on Albion for seven runs in the second, with Robinson's two hits and two runs scored leading the way. Danny Melena scored three runs, while Carroll scored twice.

Ponies improve to 5-0 with wins

The Wayne Ponies improved to 5-0 on the season with a pair of wins last week.

On Thursday, the Ponies traveled to Wakefield and overcame an early deficit to post a 15-1 victory.

Curtis Moeller gave up an RBI double in the first inning, but settled down after that and pitched three solid innings. He struck out six and gave up just one hit while walking nobody before Dylan Sokol came on to finish out the fourth inning.

Moeller was also hot at the plate, going 3-for-4 in the game with a double. He has been hot in the last several games, going 7-for-8 at the plate. Luke Rethwisch also went 3-for-4 in the game.

On Tuesday, Wayne rallied with three runs in the fourth inning and managed to post a 3-1 win over the Norfolk Titans in action Tuesday at Wayne.

Wayne trailed 1-0 in the third before scoring three runs, all with two outs, in the fourth to take the lead for good. The inning was highlighted by an RBI double by Jack Beldt that scored Moeller, who had tied the game with an RBI single.

Grant Anderson had two hits in the contest and Trevor Pecena added a hit as the locals were limited to five hits by a solid pitching effort from the visitors.

Jacob Lutt got the win on the mound, going 4 1/3 innings. He struck out seven, allowed two hits and one walk. Moeller pitched the last 1 2/3 innings to get the save. Wayne's defense turned two double plays in their fifth win of the season.

The 5-0 Ponies host Crofton on Thursday, then travel to Norfolk to take on the Norfolk VFW before returning home next Thursday, June 17, to face Pierce.

12-under girls reach semis after 3-0 pool play effort

The 12-under Wayne Dirt Devils went 3-0 in pool play, but were knocked out in the semifinals of their division of the Dirt Devil Invitational over the weekend.

Wayne opened with a 12-3 win over Pierce in pool play Friday. Danica Schaefer had two hits in the win, while Jade Bottger and Maddie Morris each added hits. Hannah Belt went the distance for the Devils, striking out seven.

In the second game, Wayne beat the Titans 3-1, with Belt and Morris each getting hits in the win. Belt picked up the win on the mound, striking out eight batters in the contest.

The Devils finished off pool play Saturday with a 12-0 win over Humphrey. Shanda Lambert had two hits, while Bottger and Emily Matthes added two hits apiece. Belt struck out seven to get the win.

The Wayne girls were dominated Sunday in their tournament matchup with Sergeant Bluff, as the visitors came away with a 12-0 win. Wayne was limited to one hit, a Kortney Keller single, in the semifinal loss.

The 12-under Dirt Devils posted a pair of wins in league action last week, beating Wisner 5-3 and edging West Point 4-3.

In the win over Wisner on Wednesday, Schaefer had two hits and an RBI and Rylee Bessmer scored two runs to lead the Wayne effort. Belt scattered six hits and two walks and struck out 10 to pick up the win.

"Our girls came up with another big win," coach Alesha Finkey said. "Hannah pitched a great game, and our bats have been strong the last few games and we hope to continue with that."

On Monday, Wayne outlasted

West Point for the win. Lambert doubled and Schaefer had a single to lead the charge. Belt struck out five to get the win, while Keller recorded a pair of strikeouts to earn the save.

Miller came home on a single by Taylor Stowater later in the inning. Wayne had two runners in scoring position in the seventh, but were unable to close the gap to fall to 5-4 on the year.

"I thought we played well," Hoffart said. "We started hitting the ball, which was good because the last time we played (Arlington) we got shut out. We had our chances in the seventh with two on and our four and five hitters coming up, and I think down the road we'll continue to hit the ball well and give teams more of a battle."

Jarvi pitched fairly well in a losing effort, striking out four and allowing seven earned runs and three walks.

"We hang our hat on her and she always pitches well, and I was hopeful that we'd play a little better defense tonight," Hoffart said. "We had a couple of tough plays that, if we make them, it's a closer game."

You couldn't get much closer than Tuesday's opener, which saw the 14-under Dirt Devils lose a two-run lead before winning it in their final at bat.

Wayne scored in the first inning when Jalyn Zeiss singled and scored on Ashton Schweers' single. Schweers came home on McKenna Gibson's double to give the locals an early 2-0 lead.

Arlington battled back with a run in the second and another in the sixth to tie the game. Wayne left a runner in scoring position in the bottom of the sixth, but made up for it in their last at bat.

Alexis Owens led off the inning with a walk, then moved to third after a costly two-out error allowed Schweers to reach base. She moved to second on a steal, and Harris followed with a base hit to left that dropped in front of the outfielder, allowing Owens to come home with the winning run.

The 14-under Dirt Devils play at Logan View on Thursday and compete in the Blair Tournament this weekend. The 18-under squad plays at West Point on Thursday and hosts North Bend on Tuesday at the Wayne Softball Complex.

Big XII

Big 12, an instant rivalry was developed with Texas, who is the one holding all the cards in this game of conference realignment roulette. Texas holds all the power in the conference, a far cry from the days when Nebraska and Oklahoma were the power brokers of the Big Eight.

Now, if the other shoe drops and Nebraska does move to the Big 10, we are going to have to get used to developing new relationships with teams like Minnesota, Iowa and Illinois, among others. There will be potential for great football matchups with Penn State, Ohio State and the team we formerly knew as Michigan. We'll get to listen to Iowa Hawkeye fans tell us how much better of a coach Kirk Ferentz is, then watch Nebraska walk into Iowa City and kick the living snot out of the Fraudeyes (uh, yeah, I'm not a big Iowa fan, in case you haven't picked up on that already).

The clock is ticking for realignment. Even as this column was being written Monday morning, the first dominoes were falling with Boise State expected to accept an invitation to join the Mountain West Conference. This might be the first step in the Mountain West becoming a BCS conference, and you will probably see the weak sisters of the Big 12 (Iowa State, Kansas, Kansas State, Baylor) becoming a part of this conference if (or should we say "when?") the big moves are made.

Absent any miraculous change, I would expect an announcement to be made sometime in the next few days that Nebraska will be heading to the Big 10 Conference. We'll have one year (maybe two) to say our goodbyes to our weak sisters in Lawrence, Manhattan, Ames and Boulder and prepare ourselves for a new opportunity — both financial and athletic — as part of a major shift in conference alignment in major college sports.

RIP, Big 12 (1996-2010).

14-under girls claim first place in tourney

The Wayne Dirt Devils 14-under team ran the table and won their division of the Dirt Devil Softball Invitational over the weekend.

The Devils opened the tournament with a 3-1 win over West Point. The Devils were limited to four hits, but made the most of their offensive efforts to get the win. Sydney Harris had two hits and McKenna Gibson and Abbie Hix added hits to lead the way on offense. Gibson pitched four innings, scattering two hits and striking out three, to get the win while Kendall Gamble worked a scoreless fifth inning to get the save.

Wayne continued playing well in pool play with a 5-1 win over Columbus Lakeview. Wayne had eight hits in the game, with Harris and Jalyn Zeiss each recording two hits. Harris had two runs scored, and Harris and Amanda Hurlburt each had doubles. Gamble struck out 11 and allowed one hit to get the win.

Wayne continued its winning ways in pool play, taking care of Sgt. Bluff 6-1. Skyler Gamble and Emily Leeper each had two hits to lead a six-hit attack, while Gibson and Zeiss added base hits. Gamble threw a complete-game two-hitter, striking out six.

Wayne opened up tournament play with an easy 12-0 win over the Titans, hitting the ball well throughout the game. Leeper and Harris each had two hits and scored two runs, and Victoria Kranz added a double. Gamble threw a no-hitter in the win, striking out five and allowing just three walks.

In the finals, the Wayne bats stayed hot as they dominated the Titans in a 12-0 shutout. Gamble threw her second no-hitter of the day, walking four and striking out seven. Leeper and Gibson each had two hits and Gamble and Hurlburt each added hits for the winners.

Devils 16-under earns runner-up honors

The Wayne Dirt Devils 16-under team earned runner-up honors in their division of the Dirt Devil Invitational over the weekend.

Wayne opened pool play with a 6-1 win over Wakefield Friday evening. Wayne scored four runs in the second inning on hits by Megan Hoffart, Katelyn Matthes and Jenna Pieper, and added two insurance runs in the fourth on a Hannah Gamble home run to take the win. Pieper had two hits to lead the Wayne offense, and Caitlin Fehringer scattered six hits and struck out five to get the win.

Wayne continued its winning ways Saturday with a 4-1 win over the O'Neill Heat. Hoffart tripled to highlight the offensive attack, and Kristin Carroll picked up the win on the mound with two innings of hitless relief work.

In their final pool play game, Wayne came from behind to beat the Yankton Spitfire 6-4. Wayne scored three in the third and three more in the fourth to pick up the victory. Pieper's double in the fourth highlighted the comeback. Carroll picked up the win in relief for the Dirt Devils.

In tournament play Sunday, Wayne beat the Twin River Titans 6-2. Fehringer hit a two-run homer in the first to get Wayne's offense going, and Carroll and Elle Schramm sparked a three-run third inning with hits. Carroll got the win on the mound, allowing two hits and seven strikeouts in 4 1/3 innings of work.

In the championship game, Wayne and the Scribner-Snyder Red Rippers hooked up in a high-scoring affair, but the visitors had a little more down the stretch to edge Wayne 11-9, the Dirt Devils' second championship game loss in as many weeks.

Gamble's double and a single by Hoffart sparked a six-run first inning for Wayne, which came after Scribner-Snyder opened with an eight-run inning of its own. Wayne tied the game at 9-9 in the second on a two-run homer by Lindsy Frahm, but the visitors scored two runs in the third to take the lead for good. Megan Bessmer and Frahm each scored twice for the 13-3 Dirt Devils.

In league action Thursday, Wayne beat Norfolk Kelly's twice in action at Norfolk, winning 7-0 and 5-3.

Frahm went 3-for-3 with a pair of doubles and Courtney Davis added a double to highlight a four-run fifth inning for the Wayne girls. Cassie Miller allowed one hit and struck out seven to get the win.

In the nightcap, Fehringer was 2-for-3 with a home run, Frahm had two doubles and Schramm had two hits to lead the locals. Gamble struck out two and walked five to get the win on the mound.

The 16-under team plays at Wisner on Friday and will compete in the Golden Girls Invite in Norfolk this weekend. They play at Arlington on Monday and finish out a five-day stretch of games at home Tuesday against North Bend.

18-under girls take fifth place in tourney

The 18-under Wayne Dirt Devils went 2-2 during the weekend and finished fifth in their division of the Dirt Devil Invitational.

In pool play Saturday, the Wayne girls beat Ponca 1-0 and lost to Pierce 6-1.

In the Ponca game, Carly Fehring had the game's only RBI, scoring Tia Jech with a single. That was enough for pitcher Shannon Jarvi, who allowed one hit and struck out nine to get the win.

In the Pierce game, Riley Hoffart doubled to lead the Wayne effort.

In tournament play, Wayne lost to Kelly's of Norfolk 7-6 in extra innings, but bounced back to dominate Atkinson 12-2 to take fifth-place honors. Highlights of those games were not available.

10-under girls go 2-2 in tourney

The Wayne Dirt Devils 10-under team went 2-2 in pool play in its division of the Dirt Devil Invitational held over the weekend.

On Friday, the Dirt Devils started the tournament with a matchup against the Scribner-Snyder Red Rippers, and Wayne's comeback effort fell short in a 10-5 loss.

Scribner-Snyder led 6-0 in the third before Wayne battled back, scoring five runs in the third to pull within a run. The visitors put the game out of reach with four runs in the next inning.

Jenna Trenhaile and Jacque Sherman each walked and scored a run to highlight the Dirt Devils' effort. Ashten Gibson struck out 11 and walked one in a losing effort on the mound.

On Saturday, the 10-under team dominated the Norfolk Golden Girls, scoring early and often in a 15-2, three-inning game.

Taylor Gamble scored three runs and Jamie Gamble had two hits and two runs to lead the Wayne effort. Gibson and Kennedy Maly both scored twice. Gibson struck out seven and walked two to get the win on the mound.

On Sunday, the Dirt Devils beat the Titans 11-4 and lost to the Impact 4-1 to finish the tournament in third place.

Maly each had two hits and Gibson, Jamie Gamble, Sherman and Kiara Hochstein each scored two runs. Gibson struck out eight in five innings to get the win.

Against the Impact, Allison Claussen scored the Devils' only run in the third inning, but the Impact scored three runs in the fourth and fifth innings to earn the win. Gibson struck out 10 and walked four in six innings.

In league action Wednesday, Wayne jumped on Wisner early and cruised to an 11-2 win. Maly and Jamie Gamble each scored two runs, Maly homered and Natalie Mullen singled and scored to highlight the Wayne effort. Gibson struck out six and walked four to get the win.

also excels off the court, earning Academic All-Conference honors in golf and basketball.

Newton, a 6-foot-5 guard/forward from Huron, S.D., averaged 16.4 points, 9.8 rebounds, 6.7 assists and 2.2 steals per game in his senior season, helping the Tigers to a 20-5 record and a third-place finish in the South Dakota Class AA state tournament. Newton was a two-time first-team All-State selection and a three-time

All-Eastern South Dakota Conference honoree while scoring over 1,000 points in his career at Huron High School.

Rolfzen is a 6-foot-6 power forward from Papillion-LaVista South High School who led his team in scoring and rebounding as a senior, averaging 14.2 points and 9.5 rebounds per game to earn honorable mention All-Metro Conference and All-State honors. Rolfzen also earned Academic All-State honors.

Goetzinger earns All-American nods

Katie Goetzinger of Wayne State was named to the 2010 Louisville Slugger/National Fastpitch Coaches Association Div. II All-America Team, earning third-team honors.

The junior pitcher from Harlan, Iowa is the fourth player in Wildcat softball history to be named All-American, joining Dee Dee Recic (1983), Teresa Durbala (1985-1986) and Shelle Tomaszkiwicz (1985-1986).

Goetzinger finished this season with a 32-10 record and a 1.11 earned run average. She broke her own single-season school record with 358 strikeouts in 264.1 innings pitched, needing 30 less innings this year to top last year's mark of 347 strikeouts. Goetzinger had 11 shutouts and 25 complete games in 34 starts this season as opponents hit just .161 off Goetzinger this season.

She ranks second in NCAA Div. II in strikeouts, fifth in hits allowed per seven innings (3.95), sixth in wins (32), eighth in strikeouts per seven innings (8) and eighth in shutouts (11) while ranking 11th nationally in ERA (1.11). She was named the NFCA National Pitcher of the Week on April 21 and was voted the 2010 NSIC Pitcher of the Year.

Goetzinger also was selected to the ESPN The Magazine Academic All-America Softball Team, as selected by the College Sports Information Directors of America (CoSIDA). She received second-team All-American Academic honors with a 3.77 grade-point average, majoring in applied human and sport physiology. She is the second softball player in school history to earn Academic All-American honors, joining Heather Conley, who was a second-team Academic All-American selection in 2002.

Goetzinger is a three-time All Northern Sun Conference selection and has received Daktronics and NFCA All-Central Region first-team honors the last two seasons. She was named on the Academic All-District VII second-team last year as a sophomore. She is also a two-time NSIC All-Academic selection.

WSC seventh in all-sport list

Wayne State finished seventh out of 14 teams in the 2009-10 Northern Sun Intercollegiate Conference/U.S. Bank All-Sports Award standings.

The Wildcats' 15 sports accumulated 88.25 points throughout the school year on a points system that gives the winner of each conference title points totaling the number of teams in that sport plus one point.

Minnesota State was a repeat winner of the award after finishing with 152.5 points and five conference titles, followed by Augustana with 147.5 points and six conference championships. Winona State (115), St. Cloud State (111) and Minnesota Duluth (99) rounded out the top five point totals.

Concordia-St. Paul was sixth with 92.5 points followed by Wayne State, University of Mary (75.5), MSU Moorhead (66.5) and Southwest Minnesota State (66) in the top 10. Northern State (61.5), Bemidji State (59.25), Upper Iowa (58.5) and Minnesota, Crookston (19).

Wayne State had three sports finish in a tie for second during the regular season (volleyball, women's basketball and softball) with football finishing in a tie for third for the highest Wildcat team finishes.

Softball team finishes at No. 14

The Wayne State softball team is ranked 14th in the final National Fastpitch Coaches Association Div. II Top 25 poll. It is the highest-ever ranking for a Wildcat softball team.

Wayne State ended the regular season ranked 17th and won the NCAA Central Regional tournament, advancing to the super regionals before falling to Metro State. Wayne State finished the season with a 43-14 record, breaking last year's record of 41 wins in a season.

The Wildcats lose just one senior, center fielder Amy Sandstrom, to graduation.

Keitges earns All-American nod

MARION, Ind. – Erin Keitges, a senior from Allen, earned All-American status for Morningside College during the NAI A Outdoor Track and Field National Championships.

Keitges finished sixth in the women's 3,000-meter steeplechase, recording a time of 11:08.12. A top-six finish was required to earn All-American status.

Area athletes honored by NAIA

Two area athletes earned recognition on the NAIA Scholar Athlete Award list recently.

Kayla Hochstein of Wayne and Luke Henderson of Wakefield were both honored on the list. Both student-athletes are seniors at Doane College. Hochstein is a member of the Tigers' softball team, while Henderson plays baseball at Doane.

First grade students presented a program during the final school assembly.

Character Connections assembly held at Wayne Elementary School

Wayne Elementary School held its Character Connections and Birthday assembly on the last day of school, May 20.

First grade students, under the direction of their teachers, Mrs. Maas, Mrs. Ostrand and Mrs. Thomas, presented a program on the Character Connections word: Perseverance.

The program featured the students reading aloud the classic and much-loved children's book, "The Little Engine That Could." They acted out the story, in which the little engine never gives up. Repeating the phrase, "I think I can, I think I can," she manages to pull the train over the mountain, and successfully deliver the food and toys to the children on the other side.

Students of the Month for May were recognized with certificates and pins. Ms. Sudmann, K-8 Counselor and Character Connections team leader, thanked the members of the team: Mrs. Meyer, Mrs. Maas, Mrs. Jodi Lutt, Mrs. Hansen and Mrs. Hix.

Character Connections Students of the month for May included: Kindergarten: Rockhill — Jose Gonzalez; Meyer — Kiara Krusemark; Heikes — Haley Sukup.

First grade: Thomas — Edwin Espino; Maas — Juan Hernandez; Ostrand — Mackenzie McKenna.

Second grade: Suehl — Kayla Fleming; Jodi Lutt — Victoria Kniesche; Jaixen — Maggie Fehringer.

Third grade: Garvin — Kaleb Fisher; Peg Lutt — Gabi Meyer; Hansen — Tay Guill.

Fourth grade: Hix — Jamie Gamble; Janke — Miranda Fehringer; Wall — Trey Jareske.

Dr. Joseph Dangberg

Dangberg graduates from medical school

Dr. Joseph Dangberg recently graduated from the University of Nebraska Medical Center College of Medicine.

Dangberg, the son of Brad and Connie Dangberg of Wayne, is a 2001 graduate of Wayne High School and a 2005 graduate of Wayne State College where he earned a Bachelor of Chemistry degree.

Joe is married to the former Denise Diediker of Dixon. His grandfather is Paul Dangberg of Wayne.

He will be starting his residency this July at Clarkson Family Medicine in Omaha.

A graduation reception will be held in his honor on Saturday, June 12 at 208 West 11th Street in Wayne. All friends and relatives are welcome to attend.

County officials attend budget seminar

Dean Burbach and James Rabe, Wayne County Commissioners and Debra Finn, Wayne County Clerk, completed a seminar conducted in Kearney on May 27 by the Nebraska Association of County Officials.

The seminar provided county commissioners, supervisors and other county officials specialized training as they prepare budgets.

Attendees heard presentations from the State Auditor's office and other individuals who are involved with budget preparation and the budget process.

Among budget-related topics addressed were a budget overview, budget forms, lid computations, financial cash flow, budget calendar and budget preparation, outcome based budgets and the audit of financial information.

Brent Hass is named 'Student of the Quarter'

Brent Hass, son of Roger and Barb Hass of rural Wisner, and a 2008 Wisner-Pilger graduate, currently is an Ag-Tech student at Southeast Community College-Milford Campus.

Hass was recently selected as "Student of the Quarter" for the John Deere Tech program at SCC-Milford.

The intent of this award is to recognize and honor those students who make an effort to excel academically and to improve their job skills while attending SCC.

Students receiving this honor must have a GPA of 3.0 or higher.

Job skill evaluation includes the following criteria: good attitude toward staff, peers and the college;

good attendance; quality work and the ability to work as a team member.

Hass is sponsored and employed by Northeast Equipment of Wayne.

Youth election workers honored for their service

Nebraska Secretary of State John Gale and the Nebraska Bankers Association honored 145 youths statewide who served as election workers during the May 11 primary election.

Among them were Wayne County youth Drew Loberg, Hannah McCorkindale and Jillian Pierson, all of Wayne.

The youths participated in the Youth Election Service (YES), which is designed to increase interest and involvement in the election system among youths ages 14-18. Each participant will receive a recognition certificate from Gale.

YES participants served in 27 counties and worked over 756 hours.

As part of the program, the Nebraska Bankers Association awarded $50 savings bonds to 10 participants. The winners were picked in geographical drawings.

The winners of the savings bonds are Bradley Hohwieler of Aurora, Tosha Foulk of Giltner, Sarah Spencer of O'Neill, Paige Werner of Chambers, Jay Linton of Dalton, Nicole Hass of Bridgeport, Charles Morris of Beatrice, Deidre Ehrlich of Lincoln, Dru Sauer of Ogallala and Katherine Armstrong of Ogallala.

"We applaud these youth workers for their valuable community service," Gale said. "They performed a great service for our democracy."

In terms of the number of participants, the top counties were Hamilton (26), Richardson (20) and Holt (17).

YES operates for the statewide

June is National Safety Month

Governor Dave Heineman signed an official proclamation on Jun 9, dedicating June as National Safety Month in Nebraska.

"National Safety Month is an opportunity to educate our community about an alarming trend in accidental deaths and promote behaviors that help keep us all safe and healthy, in all aspects of our lives," said Laurie Klosterboer, executive director of the Nebraska Safety Council, the Nebraska Chapter of the National Safety Council.

Although the most current data shows unintentional injuries and unintentional-injury deaths in the United States have recently decreased, the data still remain at unacceptable levels. Motor vehicle crashes, poisonings from unintentional overdoses and falls remain the leading causes of preventable death nationally.

The cost of unintentional injuries to Americans and their employers exceeds $701 billion nationally, or $6,000 per household, and causes great suffering among individuals and their families.

Of special concern are the challenges to safety and health that emerge with current shifts in American demographics, workplaces and mobile technologies.

Motor vehicle crashes remain the nation's leading cause of unintentional-injury death. A major contributing factor leading to this problem is distracted driving. The National Safety Council estimates 28 percent of all motor vehicle crashes are attributable to cell phone conversations or text messaging. (In Nebraska, motor vehicle crashes are also the state's leading cause of unintentional injury death.)

Individual behaviors such as speeding, distracted and impaired driving, and not wearing safety belts contribute to thousands of motor vehicle deaths and devastating injuries each year.

The second-leading cause of unintentional-injury death is poisonings. Of particular concern is the increasing number of poisonings from accidental overdoses of over-the-counter, prescription and illegal drugs. The rate of unintentional poisoning deaths skyrocketed 94 percent from 2001 to 2008, surpassing falls to become the nation's second-lea-

Nearly 100 dancers attended the Memorial Dance hosted by Leather and Lace at the Wayne City Auditorium.

Leather and Lace hosts Memorial Dance

Leather and Lace Dance Club hosted the 27th annual Trails In Single Wheelers Memorial Dance at the City Auditorium.

Ninety-two dancers enjoyed the evening with national caller Jerry Junck cueing round and square dance formations.

The dancers were treated to snacks furnished by the Leather and Lace members. A patriotic theme of decorations adorned the auditorium which were provided by Peggy Krueger a member of Leather and Lace Club.

Dancers from Nebraska, Iowa, Illinois, Kansas, Arizona, Utah, South Dakota, Minnesota and Canada were on hand for the event, as well as several spectators.

Free passes went to Lynn Dorcy and Richard Salmon. Split the Pot went to Rich Christensen, Brent Miller and Dale Preston. Single Wheelers of Norfolk took their banner home.

The birthdays of Connie Kirkpatrick and Peggy Krueger were recognized.

The Leather and Lace Club will not meet for the summer but will reconvene Friday, Sept. 10 with Jam Hayes calling. Bruce and Kathy Fiscus, Connie Kirkpatrick and Vernon Bauermeister will be in charge of lunch with Cinda Brudigam in charge of refreshments. Dancers are reminded to travel to the many local clubs and support their dances for the summer.

RUTH CIRCLE

Concordia Lutheran's Ruth Circle met June 3 at The Oaks in Wayne.

Hosting the afternoon were Betty Anderson and Opal Carlson. There were 11 members present.

Fern Erickson, leader, opened the business meeting with Bedtime Prayers, written by young children.

Reports were accepted. Thank you notes were given to those who helped serve noon lunch on the Church Work Day.

Evonne Magnuson led the Bible Study entitled "Persistence" from the series "Pray Always." Those present learned that the words "silent" and "listen" have the same letters. God always answers prayer with "no, not now" and at other times "grow" when he has something in store for us.

The meeting closed with prayer, the offering was lifted and table grace recited.

Lyla Swanson served refreshments. The WELC Circles will not be held during July and August.

ACTION PLANS

The Action Plans for Concordia's congregation are to gather items for "Health Kits" to be distributed to the world wide disaster areas.

Lutheran World Relief has emptied its store houses and members are asked to start collecting to fill a portion of the greatest needs. The deadline is July 31 for these kits which will be taken to Camp Carol Joy Holling at Ashland. This is the same day as the annual Quilt Auction held there.

HIGH SCHOOL REUNION

The Concord High School reunion was held at the new Dixon City Auditorium on May 29, beginning with a social hour at 4:30 p.m.

There were 88 classmates, spouses and visitors in attendance. Phyllis (Renolds) Salmon, Class of '47, welcomed the group and gave the invocation and table grace.

Following the meal, the Honor Classes were remembered with flowers. Those honored were Avis Norman Anderson and Caroline Gordon, members of the Concord High School Class of 1937.

Pearson of Wayne, Class of '35; Norman Anderson of Wayne and Caroline Gordon of Wakefield, Class of '37; Ruth Johnson of Allen, Class of '38; Evonne Magnuson of Laurel, Class of '40 and those from the classes of 1945, 1950 and 1955.

Dennis Forsberg of the Class of '58 read the correspondence received. A DVD containing the happenings from the past two years was shown.

The School Fight Song was sung and the Pledge of Allegiance recited with Red Skelton. Those in attendance honored the troops, watched the Winter Wonder Scene for the Blizzard of 2009, celebrated the anniversaries and special birthdays of classmates, felt the loss of those beloved classmates who have passed away and closed with the singing of "How Great Thou Art."

A brief business meeting was held concerning the next reunion. It will be held in two years with reservations already committed at Dixon Auditorium. Special thanks were given, followed by the traditional singing of "God Be With You Till We Meet Again."

HANSON COMMISSIONED

Erin Hanson of Alliance graduated from Chadron State College on May 8 with a Bachelor of Arts degree.

In the afternoon she was commissioned as a Lieutenant in the U. S. Army ROTC program. That ceremony was held at Mount Rushmore, S.D.

Erin is the daughter of Allan and Audrey Hanson of Alliance and the granddaughter of Vandelyn Hanson of Concord. She is presently stationed in Guernsey, Wyo.

Vandelyn, Warren and Danita Hanson attended the ceremonies.

State's Democrats unable to provide viable candidate for governor's seat

Do you know who the Democratic candidate for governor is in this state? (Take your time . . . no, really, I've got all day . . .)

Were it not for the recent controversy swirling around the Nebraska Democrat Party, or the fact that their candidate has made two trips to Wayne in recent weeks, you'd have no idea that Mark Laker was that party's candidate for the governor's seat.

In fact, I'll bet that, unless you're a dedicated, hard-line, card-carrying member of that political party, you wouldn't be able to name that party's candidates for governor beyond the last Democrat to hold the office (Ben Nelson).

In recent years, one would think the Democrats in this state were a rag-tag bunch of wandering gypsies. While their recent candidates for the U.S. Senate were political heavyweights with name recognition as former governors (Nelson, J.J. Exon, Bob Kerrey), it seems that the requirement to run for governor as a Democrat in this state, in recent years, is to be the last one to walk through the doors of the Cornhusker Hotel in Lincoln when the party has its convention to decide who will run for the office.

Seriously — outside of the Omaha business community, does anybody know ANYTHING about Mark Laker? All I know about him is the fact that his wife was the school nurse in Gretna during my tenure as editor of the Gretna Guide and News (and I had to confirm that in a phone call with the current editor earlier this week).

Recently, the state's Democrats are in turmoil over Laker's alleged fabricating of donors on his campaign's financial report. While Laker said it was an honest mistake, he is being asked to step aside as the party's candidate by such noteworthy Democrats as Anne Boyle (a former state party chairwoman) and University of Nebraska Board of Regents member Chuck Hassebrook (no word if they are upset about his financial screw-up, or if they just weren't aware that he was a member of the party to begin with).

If recent history is any indication, Laker stands about as much chance of unseating current governor Dave Heineman as I do of becoming the first pick in this month's NBA Draft, regardless of the outcome of his financial misstep. Laker's chances of winning — even before this latest controversy — were slim and none (and Slim had already walked out the door).

In the past two elections for the state's highest office, the Republican candidate has won by margins that make the Nebraska football team's blowouts of Kansas State in the 1970's and 1980's look like last-minute nail-biters. Heineman's first run for the seat in 2006 saw him beat the Democrat challenger, Stormy Dean, by a near 3-to-1 margin. Prior to that, Mike Johanns won his second term as governor over Stormy Dean by a better than 2-to-1 spread. The closest battle a Republican has had to face in recent years was in 1998, when Bill Hoppner managed a whopping (by Nebraska Democrat Party standards, anyway) 46 percent of the vote in his loss to Johanns.

I haven't seen a recent poll of voters in the state, but my guess is that Heineman was at least a 2-to-1 favorite before this latest controversy. If the Democrats abandon Laker, like Boyle and Hassebrook appear to be doing, we could see a record-setting blowout election this November. If the election were held today, Vegas would have the over-under on Heineman's voter percentage somewhere in the low 70's, and I'd bet my house on the over.

It's not as if the Republican candidate has a lock on the job. Heineman's 1 1/2 terms in office have been underwhelming, to say the least. While the state's economy hasn't tanked like those in other states, it's not exactly setting the world on fire, either. And I can't think about his recent promise to further cut our taxes, while staring at a $600 million budget deficit for next fiscal year, without laughing out loud (in fact, I need a few moments to stop giggling after typing that sentence. Hee hee . . . ha ha haahhhh . . . OK, I'm back.).

It makes you wonder how this state's second party — which has had three of its most noteworthy and solid individuals represent the state as governor AND U.S. Senator in recent history — is currently so inept and intent on tripping over its own skirt when it comes to the state's highest office. With a golden opportunity, in this time of incumbent unrest, their sending up of the perpetual "Nobody Of The Week" to serve as the sacrificial lamb against the ho-hum Heineman in this election for governor only strengthens the need for a third-party option in this state.

This state has not had a third-party governor in more than a century, and based on the need for real change, particularly in light of the current options (or lack thereof) available for this November's election, I think it's the perfect time for this state's voters to start looking for a reputable, upstanding, charismatic leader from outside the two main parties to serve in the state's highest office.

At the very least, the Nebraska Democrat Party could provide voters a viable option to consider every once in a while. Based on recent history, though, that may be too much to ask.

Capitol View State will legalize pot — eventually

By ED HOWARD
Statehouse Correspondent
The Nebraska Press Association

LINCOLN — Nebraska will probably legalize medical marijuana.

Let me explain. (And don't run screaming to phone your state senator until you've read the explanation.)

For the most part, tracking the development of major changes in major social and economic policy is a long-term commitment in Nebraska. It takes the kind of patience required for, say, trying to judge the speed with which paint will dry. Or waiting for the repairman to arrive. Or waiting for the next pictures of your new granddaughter to arrive.

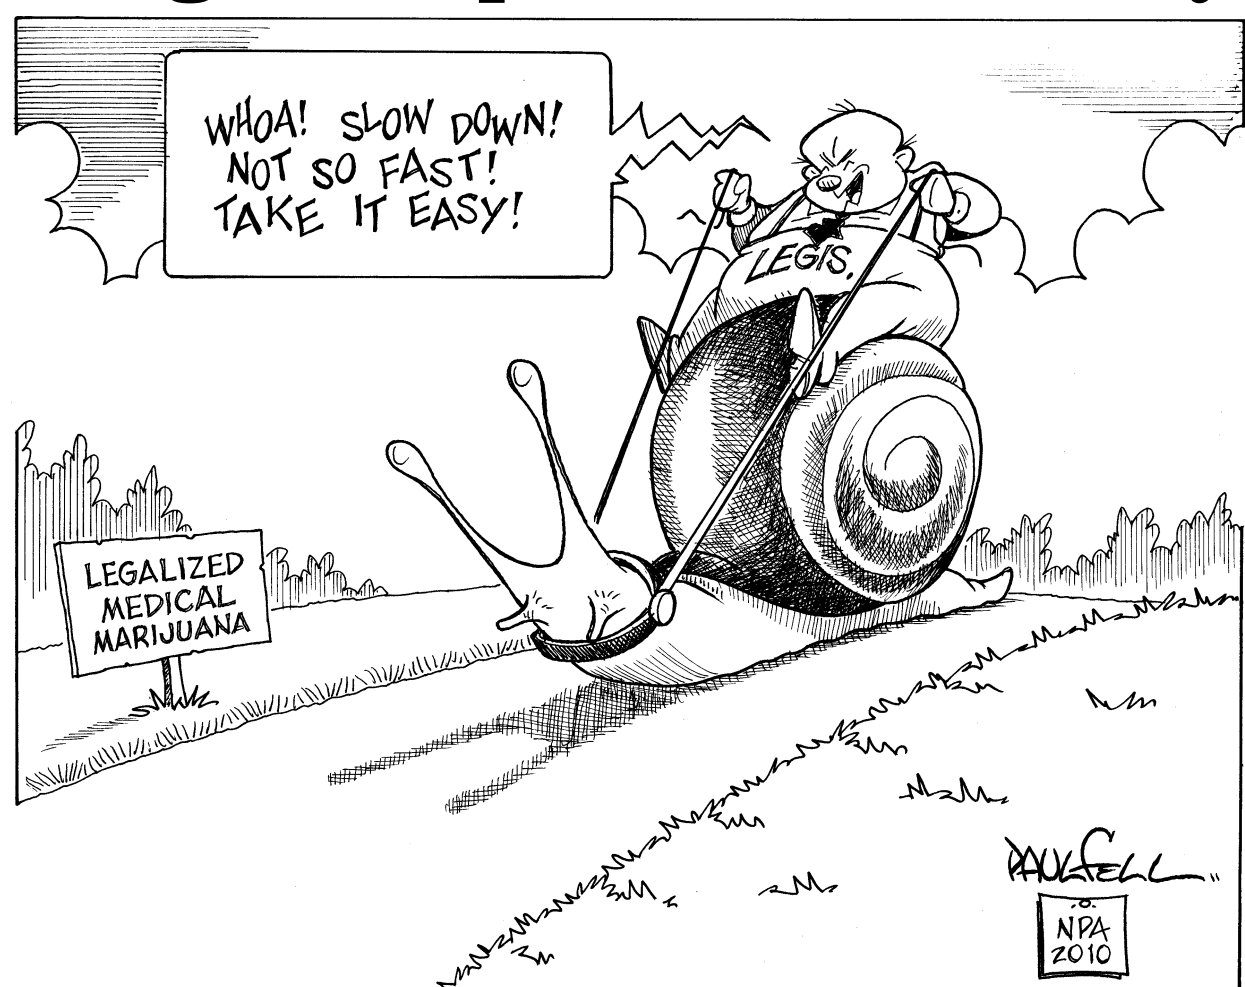

Last week there was a news story about some folks who want the Nebraska Legislature to take a look at legalizing medical marijuana.

A fair and appropriate reaction: "Ha! Fat chance! In your dreams!"

Number me among those who remember when the Legislature debated for years and years and years and years over something as simple as whether Nebraska should have a dove hunting season.

Some opponents argued, with decades of success, that the dove was the biblical bird of peace and ought not have to dodge small pieces of lead traveling at high velocity. In fact, the biblical bird was not the particular aviary at risk, so it seemed to a young reporter that the issue should quickly have been resolved on the basis of reality. But politics is politics and votes are votes and there you have it. There wasn't a dove hunting season until the mid-1970s or thereabouts.

And then there was the issue of the constitution and property tax policy. A reading of the Nebraska Constitution clearly showed that owners of agricultural land were enjoying an enormously good deal on local property taxes until the mid-1980s. That is, it was a good deal compared to what the state constitution plainly required. And it was as obvious as the agriculture-oriented legislative majority, which had no intention of abiding by the constitution. Agricultural interests had the votes to prevail and that was that. Ag land enjoyed its advantages until population shifts gave population centers sufficient legislative muscle to change things. About that time the state Supreme Court said: 'Okay. The Constitution does say what it says. And the heat will fall on the Legislature, anyway.'

THE THING IS, FOR URBAN lawmakers in the 60s and 70s and even into the 80s, the notion of meaningful changes in property tax policy was akin to today's notion of legalizing medical marijuana.

"Ha! Fat chance! In your dreams!"

Whether the issue is shooting at doves, or making property tax policy, or laws governing the sale of liquor (the latter being a lengthy story for another time) the nation's only one-house, officially nonpartisan Legislature will proceed in the methodical tradition that has been the hallmark of the Cornhusker State since the days when settlers actually husked corn, one ear at a time.

Nebraska will, one day, legalize 'medical marijuana.' Give it, say, 15 years — or a few decades more. The criteria: When there is evidence that people are going 'out of state' to buy it, and are paying state and/or local taxes on it, and when its legitimacy has been blessed by federal subsidies. Then it will happen.

And when it does, the next step won't take years and years and years and years. It will be automatic.

Purveyors of medical marijuana will take their place on the bandwagon and lobby for tax exemptions. And those exemptions will be championed in the Legislature by lawmakers who might hope to bring a portion of the medical marijuana industry to Nebraska. It is a staple of policymaking: If you can't beat 'em, at least don't let them Bogart the profits!

Health legislation provides benefits for state

By SEN. BEN NELSON
(D-Neb.)

Our new health law continues to interest Nebraskans, judging by questions I'm being asked during travels around the state, and I'm happy to report there's good news for us this year.

Small business tax credits — The White House recently sent out a report showing some of the improvements that will go into effect pretty soon. For example, 34,300 small businesses in Nebraska could be helped by a new small business tax credit that makes it easier for businesses to provide coverage to their workers and makes premiums more affordable. Small businesses pay, on average, 18 percent more than large businesses for the same coverage and health insurance premiums have gone up three times faster than wages in the past 10 years.

Closing the Medicare Part D donut hole — The law also provides good news for the roughly 23,100 Medicare beneficiaries in Nebraska who hit the donut hole... the gap in Medicare Part D drug coverage. Help is on the way as Medicare beneficiaries in Nebraska who hit the gap this year will automatically be mailed a one-time $250 rebate check beginning in mid-June.

Support for health coverage for early retirees — There's also welcome news for the estimated 9,820 Nebraskans who retired before they were eligible for Medicare and have health coverage through their former employers. Beginning June 1, 2010, a $5 billion temporary early retiree reinsurance program will help stabilize early retiree coverage and help ensure that firms continue to provide health coverage to their early retirees.

New consumer protections in the insurance market — Beginning this September insurance companies will no longer be able to place lifetime limits on health care benefits they'll pay to subscribers. This will ensure that the 1.1 million Nebraska residents with private insurance never have to worry about their coverage running out and facing catastrophic out-of-pocket costs.

Insurance companies will also be banned from dropping people from coverage when they get sick, protecting 127,000 Nebraskans, and insurance companies will not be able to exclude children from coverage because of a pre-existing condition, giving parents across Nebraska a great sense of relief I'm sure.

Extending coverage to young adults — For parents who have older children in college or still living at home, as of September issuers that cover children on their parents' policy must allow children to remain until they turn 26. This improvement will bring peace of mind and good health care to roughly 5,830 individuals in Nebraska.

Affordable insurance for uninsured with pre-existing conditions — $22.6 million federal dollars are available to Nebraska starting July 1 to provide coverage for uninsured residents with pre-existing medical conditions through a new transitional high-risk pool program, funded entirely by the Federal government. The program is a bridge to 2014 when Americans will have access to affordable coverage options in the new health insurance exchanges.

Many Nebraskans have been understandably anxious about the health reform law, but I hope are willing to give it a chance. They're right to withhold judgment, and as these and other changes take place they should see the law benefit many people by bringing costs down and making good quality health care more affordable.

Special Olympics torch to make stop

A Special Olympics Torch Run and Ceremony will occur in Wayne on Monday, July 12.

Wayne State College Professor Jason Karksy is on the planning committee with the Omaha Police Department as well as local law enforcement.

The actual torch run will begin at 3:45 p.m. from the east lot of Wayne State College and the ceremony is at 4 p.m. at the Courthouse Veterans Memorial. In all, the final leg team will comprise around 100 runners including law enforcement, some Wayne State criminal justice students, as well as select Special Olympians.

Local scouts attend Scout Day Camp

Four Bear Scouts and one Webelo Scout from Pack 174 and their families took part in the Cub Scout Day Camp at Lake Babcock near Columbus on June 5.

This year's camp theme "Birthday Bash" emphasized the 100th year of Scouting in America. The five scouts spent the day running obstacle courses, taking part in nature walks, learning about the plant life of Nebraska, learning the scout motto of "Leave No Trace," trying their skills at BB guns and archery, as well as making crafts and playing games.

These scouts completed a nature walk and nature study where they earned about the different types of trees and plant life around Lake Babcock, as well as how to count rings to tell the age of a tree thereby earning some of their achievements for their scouting requirements.

Proceeds from the cub scouts' fall popcorn sale helped to fund this day of adventure.

Any boy ages 6 - 11 interested in joining cub scouts should contact Tami Worner at 375-4809 for more information.

Spring recital

I Pledge My Heart...

This is the second article on the four H's of 4-H. Some of you may know what the four H's of 4-H stand for "Head, Heart, Hands and Health." This article is about the second "H" — Health.

The Heart was part of the very first emblem design which was a three-leaf clover, introduced by O.H. Benson, in the early 1900's. The three "H's" signified Head, Heart and Hands. Through the 4-H program the heart was trained to be true, kind and sympathetic. In the modern day 4-H pledge 4-H members pledge their hearts to greater loyalty.

THE WINSIDE HIGH SCHOOL CLASS OF 1990

Back Row: Jamie Prince, Doree Brogren Johnson, Randy Prince, Cyndi Rohde Petersen, Jenni Topp

The Class of 1990 celebrated their twenty-year class reunion at the Winside American Legion. Of the fifteen graduates, nine attended - with spouses and families - for a total of 34. A meal was catered by Jansen's AK Cafe. We reminisced through yearbooks and a time capsule that was made when the class was in eighth grade. Saturday night, five classmates attended the alumni banquet. Afterwards they met a Jenni Topp's house where they connected on the computer - through the web - and visited with their classmate Gustov Antby from Sweden.

ENERGYWISE
Use less. Spend less. Do more.

SWITCH & SAVE

Installing CFLs means Nebraskans are saving energy and money - and that's helping create a brighter future for everyone.

- CFLs can save an average of $30 or more in energy costs over their lifetime.
- They use 75% less energy than their common light bulb equivalents and last up to 10-times longer.
- CFLs produce 90% less heat than incandescent bulbs.
- They are most cost-effective when used at least 2-3 hours per day.
- CFLs can be recycled. Check in your area for recycling options.

use, the heart is the center of our lives and the 4-H program. 4-H members learn to use their hearts to care about other club members. They make new friends through their 4-H activities whether it's a club meeting, 4-H camp or the fair.

All 4-H volunteers demonstrate caring hearts to their 4-H members. They become a non-parental caring adult their 4-H members can learn from and trust. 4-H volunteers are truly the heart of the 4-H program. Without the true heart of the 4-H volunteer sharing their passion for learning and their willingness to share this information, 4-H would just be a classroom without a teacher.

The final and perhaps best way 4-H members develop their hearts is by helping others. Providing opportunities for service learning helps 4-H members see what they can do for their community and opens their hearts to the needs around them. The H is for Heart as 4-H members strengthen their hearts through caring, friendship, leadership and community service.

Mr. and Mrs. Carstens

Carstens to note golden anniversary

George and Barb Carstens of Hoskins will celebrate their 50th wedding anniversary on Saturday, June 12. A card shower has been requested in honor of the event.

George Carstens and the former Barbara Ave were married on June 12, 1960, at Trinity Lutheran Church in Hoskins.

Their children are Kevin Carstens of Beatrice and Lon and Chris Carstens of Pierce. One son, Keith, is deceased. They have four grandchildren and three great-grandchildren.

Cards can be sent to the couple at 84769 559 Avenue, Hoskins, Neb. 68740.

Roy Reed Unit No. 252, American Legion Auxiliary of Winside met May 10 with six members attending.

Poppy wreaths were made for the seven area cemeteries that the Legion Honor Guard visits on Memorial Day. Poppy displays were placed at the Wayne County Courthouse, The Coffee Shoppe, both in Wayne, and then at Winside displays were at Jensen's AK Café, Winside State Bank and Oberle's Market. Funds raised at these sites will be used for veterans in a variety of ways.

Poppy Day at Winside was set for Saturday, May 22 with volunteers needed to distribute Poppies that morning.

The Auxiliary will host its annual Memorial Day Dinner on Monday, May 31, following the program at the city auditorium and Pleasantview Cemetery. Members were sent postcards asking that they assist with the dinner and provide a salad, or make a monetary donation to the general fund.

The dinner is the Unit's main fundraiser of the year that will allow the Unit to send youth to Cornhusker Girls State each June and also support Veterans projects and events.

The Auxiliary has been asked to serve the noon lunch for The Legion's annual Pitch Tournament on Saturday, June 19 at the Legion Post. Volunteers are needed again for this event.

Junior member Hope Voss is traveling in Europe with members of the Honor Choir from across Nebraska. The Unit made a $25 donation toward her travel expenses. The group is looking forward to having Hope return home and address the Unit on her experiences.

Next Unit meeting will be held on Monday, June 14 at 5:30 p.m. Members are invited to attend. Membership dues are now being accepted. Senior dues are $17 and Junior dues are $3. The auxiliary is always looking for new members with new ideas.

Marilyn Morse served as hostess for the May meeting.

TOPS holds weekly meeting

COMMUNITY RUMMAGES

Allen Community Rummages will be held on Saturday, June 12 in conjunction with the Isom's Love-A-Lop Exotic Animal Swap meet. The Rummages will be scheduled from 8 a.m. - 2 p.m. To be put on the Garage Sale map, please contact Marcia Rastede. These maps will then be available at the area businesses.

FUNDRAISING AUCTION

A slight change of plans - Auctions in Allen will begin at 1 p.m. on Sunday June 13, with the Ray Brownell Estate Auction on Sixth Street in Allen. The Gym Fund Auction at the Fire Hall will follow the Brownell Auction at approximately 2:30 p.m. Greg Rastede will be the auctioneer at both Sunday sales.

Anyone who has items that can be sold on Sunday, June 13, is asked to please bring them to the Fire Hall on Saturday, June 12 from 5 to 7 in the evening or Sunday morning after 9 am. We accept anything from furniture or books, to clothes. Small items should be placed in a box and brought to the Fire Hall.

Also, hot dogs, ice cream, and goodies will be served at the Fire Hall. Money raised will go to the Gym Expansion fund.

PANCAKE BREAKFAST

The Allen Nutrition Center will be having a Pancake Breakfast on Sunday, June 13 at the Allen Senior Center on Main Street. It will be held from 7 am - 1 pm.

LOVE-A-LOP SWAP MEET

The Isom's 20th Annual Love-A-Lop Swap meet will be held June 12 - 13 in Allen. Look for flyers around town for the full schedule of fun events.

DIXON COUNTY MUSEUM

The Dixon County Museum will be open, beginning June 5 from 2 to 4 p.m. for the summer season. All five buildings of the History of Dixon County will be open to all.

The Museum is planning on being open, June through August, each Sunday afternoon 2 to 4 p.m. Members would love to have everyone learn about your beginnings and they would also love to have new members to help keep this history. It is still just $5 a year for membership.

FAMILY REUNION

The Noe and related families reunion will be held Saturday, June 12, at the Allen Fire Hall. Potluck will begin at 11 a.m. Place settings will be furnished. If you have ancestor photos and/or family information, please bring it along. Some rooms have been reserved at the Fairfield Motel, Southern Hills Dr., Sioux City, IA. You will need to call them and change the reservation into your name.

ALLEN BOOK CLUB

Allen Book Club is reading "The Guernsey Literary and Apple Pie Society" by Shaffer and Barrows. The fictional story of German occupied Guernsey Island is told in the form of letters written shortly after WWII. Books are available at the Senior Center. Discussion is planned for Wednesday, June 16 at 2 p.m. at the Senior Center.

EMRY COUSINS' REUNION

The Emry Cousins' Reunion will be held the fourth weekend in June at Ponca State Park this year.

Traditionally the gathering is held on the closest weekend to Lydia Chase Emry's birthday. Her descendants gather every three years to reminisce and meet new cousins. Contact Kathy Boswell for meal reservations and details.

Sleep apnea and sleep problems associated with diabetes

The epidemic of diabetes in the United States is being fueled by multiple medical, social and demographic forces. Among the forces is sleep apnea, which is now recognized as a major contributor to the development of diabetes. In sleep apnea, people stop breathing for periods of 10 seconds or more while they're asleep, sometimes hundreds of times a night. These periods without breathing, known as apnea, both disrupt sleep and lower the level of oxygen in the blood. When breathing restarts after an apnea, it is generally with a loud gasp or snort.

Fifty percent of men with type 2 diabetes have sleep apnea, compared with an estimated 4% of middle aged men overall. Several recent studies have suggested that insulin sensitivity—the body's ability to respond to insulin—decreases as sleep apnea severity increases.

Optimist Club hold general club meeting

The Wayne Optimist Club recently met at The Coffee Shoppe. Bob Wriedt opened the meeting by thanking all those who generously helped with the Celebration of the Arts recently held at Wayne State College and Our Savior Lutheran church.

Over 200 students parents and teachers were treated to a meal at Our Savior Lutheran Church following a musical program at the college. The awards to the outstanding students and teachers in education took place after the meal in the church sanctuary with a power point presentation done by Cindy VonFange and her daughter Jessica.

Doug and Lynette Krie and members catered the meal for the families and teachers.

An election of officers followed with Kim Dunklau elected President; Phyllis Rahn, Secretary and Trish Reifenrath, Treasurer.

Plans were made for the June Golf tournament, July Chicken Days fund raising and the August Punt Pass and Kick event in Wakefield.

The next scheduled meeting will be a picnic at Sunnyview Park for members and families. Bob Wriedt will take care of the grilling and members are reminded to bring their tableware and a salad or dessert. Beverages will be provided.

diabetes during the summer session of Control Diabetes for Life. Learn new strategies by attending "Take Control of Diabetes for Life" where the June 30 session will focus on "Stay Stronger Longer".

Set a goal to take control of your diabetes. Aim for lower blood glucose levels to feel better now and stay healthy for years to come. Wednesday, June 30 topics that will be addressed during the two-hour program include: "10 Ways to Take Control of your Diabetes", Exercise and Strength Training, "Color Your Palate", and "Sleep Apnea/ Sleep Problems".

Team-teaching the program will be Phyllis Heimann, R.N. & Certified Diabetes Educator; Stacie Petersen, R.N. & Certified Diabetes Educator; Mary Clare Stalp, R.D., L.M.N.T., of Franciscan Care Services in West Point and Debra E. Schroeder, UNL Extension Educator in Cuming County. Participants will sample a new recipe for a diabetic appropriate food.

Take Control of Diabetes will be available from 1:30-4:00 p.m. at Our Savior Lutheran Church social room, Wayne.

"Control Diabetes for Life" is a joint project of University of Nebraska-Lincoln Extension, Franciscan Care Services of West Point and cooperating schools. The program is offered free-of-charge. "Control Diabetes for Life" will help participants learn to control diabetes and prolong the onset of complications from the disease.

Participants are asked to pre-register for "Control Your Diabetes for Life" by calling UNL Extension in Wayne County at 402-375-3310. Please register by Monday, June 28, so the proper number of handouts may be prepared. Nebraska School Food Service Association has approved this session for two hours of continuing education credits for food service staff for attending.

Praise Assembly plans special service

This Sunday, June 13, at Praise Assembly of God, Sunday School starts the morning at 9:30 a.m.

Phil Pfaltzgraff (Staff Accompanist at WSC) will continue the Bible Study in the Pilgrims' Psalms (Psalms 120-134). Rev. David Stitt (interim pastor at the church) will be speaking in the worship service which begins at 10:30 a.m. The worship is led by Ernest Bratcher, Marshall Keough and Phil Pfaltzgraff. There is time in each service for prayer for the needs of people and this community.

A prayer meeting begins Sunday evening at 6:30 p.m. This is an hour-long prayer time spent praying for specific requests mentioned by those who attend as well as for the church in this interim time before a pastor is chosen at some point in the future.

All are welcome to attend the weekly activities at the church.

Sunday morning, June 20 will be Communion Sunday at Praise Assembly of God. A gospel music concert will conclude the day with "Dead Men Singing", a southern gospel quartet from Boone, Iowa, presenting the music.

Praise Assembly of God Church is located at 1000 E. 10th Street, just east of Providence Road, in Wayne.

A reminder that there is currently not a Wednesday evening service at the church. Watch the Wayne Herald for announcements of further schedule items for the church.

Hiland-Roberts hosts Dairy Proclamation ceremony

Governor Heineman signed a proclamation declaring June as Dairy Month in Nebraska. A special ceremony was held at Hiland-Roberts in Norfolk on June 3.

Attendees received a tour of the Hiland-Roberts plant, celebrated with a Dairy Farmer Appreciation Lunch and the event culminated with the reading of the official proclamation by Lieutenant Governor Rick Sheehy.

Ginger Langemeier, Assistant Director of Agriculture provided comments along with Carroll dairy farmer Dwaine Junck, Chairman of the American Dairy Association/Dairy Council of Nebraska board and Wayne dairy farmer Doug Temme, President of the Nebraska State Dairy Association.

In attendance were the Nebraska Dairy Princess, Olivia Wolfe of Kearney and Alternate Nebraska Dairy Princess, Chandra Mosel of Neligh.

The 2010 June Dairy Month Proclamation and ceremony marks the 11th consecutive year the Governor has officially proclaimed June as Dairy Month in Nebraska. In 1998, Governor Nelson designated milk as the Official Beverage of Nebraska.

Nebraska's 10 leading agricultural commodities for cash receipts are cattle and calves, corn, soybeans, hogs, wheat, chicken eggs, dairy products, hay, dry beans and sorghum grain. These represent 98 percent of the state's total cash receipts.

The American Dairy Association/Dairy Council of Nebraska contributes to optimal health through leadership in nutrition research and education by encouraging food selection patterns that include dairy foods and other major food categories in accordance with scientific recommendations. The organization also performs advertising, public relations, and retail promotions on behalf of Nebraska dairy producers.

Regional 4-Hers earn recognition for use of communication skills

Several area 4-Hers received awards at the Northeast Regional 4-H Public Speaking Contest held on May 28 at the Northeast Community College Lifelong Learning Center, in Norfolk.

Sixty youth from 20 counties throughout the state competed in their respective age division in the 2010 Regional 4-H Speech competition. Additionally, 32 contestants from 12 counties in the northeast district competed in their respective age division in the 2010 Regional 4-H Public Service Announcement (PSA) competition.

Contestants earn the opportunity to participate in regional competition by winning their age division at the county level. Contestants may compete in one or both categories. In the Junior division (11 years of age and younger), Intermediate division (12 to 13 years of age), and Senior division (14 to 19 years of age), speakers are required to prepare an original speech incorporating some aspect of 4-H in the content. The second category included 4-H members from those age groups recording a 60-second PSA promoting 4-H by using the theme "Meet the Future".

Contestants are awarded purple, blue, or red awards in recognition of their accomplishments in speech or PSA; in addition, the top four individuals in each division received medals. The four winners of the senior division speech and PSA competition are given the opportunity to compete for awards at the State 4-H Public Speaking Contest to be held in Grand Island on Aug. 29 during the Nebraska State Fair.

All youth competing in state competition and staying for awards will receive special awards. The top two speech and PSA winners in State 4-H Public Speaking Contest receive scholarships.

Seniors selected to advance to state competition from the Northeast Regional Competition in the Speech category are:

Hannah McCorkindale, Wayne, Wayne County with her speech titled "The Blood, Sweat, and Tears of 4-H;" Jessica Garcia, Walthill, Cuming County with her speech "It's A Lifestyle;" Jeffrey Wallman, Filley, Gage County with his speech "4-H The Power of Youth;" and Laura Gorecki, Farwell, Howard County, with her speech "A Judge's Worst Nightmare."

Seniors selected to advance to state competition from the Northeast Regional Competition in the PSA category include: Boyd County 4-H members Joslynn Roth of Spencer and Sherry Ruda of Bristow, and Cuming County 4-H members Jonathan Jahnke of Bancroft and Erica Lewis of West Point.

Wayne County results include: Blue Ribbon Junior Public Speaking Winners — Anna Loberg, Wayne and Colton Robinette, Hoskins. Blue Ribbon Intermediate Public Speaking Winners — Sylvia Jager, Wayne and Emma Loberg, Wayne. Purple Ribbon Senior Public Speaking Winner & State Qualifier — Hannah McCorkindale, Wayne.

Public speaking is a communication skill with many career possibilities. Present 4-H members and 4-H Alumni have identified communication skills as some of the most important life skills gained through their 4-H experience. The Nebraska State 4-H communications program is sponsored by the Nebraska Rural Radio Network, which includes KRVN, KNEB, and KTIC. The Northeast Regional contest is conducted by the University of Nebraska-Lincoln Extension 4-H with support from Northeast Community College.

USDA issues final rule for program

USDA Natural Resources Conservation Service (NRCS) has published the final regulations governing the Conservation Stewardship Program (CSP). Authorized in the 2008 Farm Bill, CSP is a voluntary program that offers payments to producers who exercise good land stewardship and want to improve their conservation performance. Changes to the program expand access, increase payment limits, and promote greater environmental benefit while maintaining program goals.

The current enrollment period for CSP has been extended an additional two weeks, now closing June 25, 2010, when applications will be scored, ranked, and funded.

CSP pays participants for conservation performance — the higher the performance, the higher the payment. Producers get credit both for conservation measures they have already implemented and for new measures they agree to add. CSP is offered statewide through a continuous sign-up, with announced cut-off dates for ranking and funding applications.

CSP is available to all producers regardless of operation size, crops produced, or geographic location. Eligible lands include cropland, pastureland, rangeland, non-industrial private forest land, and agricultural land under the jurisdiction of an Indian tribe.

Potential applicants are encouraged to use the CSP self-screening checklist to determine whether CSP is suitable for their operation. The checklist, which highlights basic information about CSP eligibility requirements, contract obligations, and payments, and additional information about CSP, may be obtained from the national CSP Web site at www.nrcs.usda.gov/programs/new_csp/csp.html

To apply, call or visit a local USDA Service Center, listed online at <http://offices.usda.gov>, or in the telephone book under United States Government, Agriculture Department.

Instant communication often leads to stress

I have just spent three days dusting! No, I wasn't dusting that whole time; I kept getting interrupted. But it did take me three days and this house is half the size of the Farm House. Of course, it did not have oak woodwork and kitchen cabinets. It was all painted and did not show the dust until it was really thick.

I think the last time I did a thorough dusting job was before Easter. And I remember Don Meierhenry telling us about how his mom would make him use Old English on all the furniture every Saturday! Every week! Come to think of it, I think I had to dust my mother's stuff every Saturday, also; maybe that is why I hate to dust. And I still haven't done the ceiling fans; and there is one in every room. Maybe tomorrow.

One thing about waiting so long, you can really tell where you have been. I found a couple cobwebs in corners, also. Anyway, I feel very righteous tonight. Now, if I just had all the windows washed.

I read somewhere that there is a couple in Norfolk who have unplugged their computer for the summer; no Internet and no Facebook, not even any e-mail. I remember one school year when we did not watch any television during the week. I really haven't watched much since. And haven't missed it. Somewhere else, I read that if you want to decompress, you need to turn off your cell phone, stop checking e-mail, and quit watching the news on TV. I do all that periodically. Not that many people even have my cell number, so that helps. Although, since I use it for work almost exclusively, I frequently get calls on it when I'm not working! Which can sometimes be a pain. And I can go for a day or two without turning on the computer.

By: Pat Meierhenry

Trouble is, when I do that, I have a ton of forwards. I am often amazed at how long some of this stuff floats around in cyberspace and resurfaces in my in box. Also, a lot of my friends like to send me lovely scenery put to music that is supposed to relax me. It frequently doesn't, depending on what else I have to do after I get through checking the e-mail.

I like to tell the gals at work that when I started in Home Health Care in Norfolk, in 1982, we had one pager for the whole department. Whoever was on call had to carry it. All it did was to let you know that the hospital switchboard was calling with a message from a patient. Then, you had to have a dime and a pay phone to call to retrieve the message; and probably, another dime to call the patient. Or was it a quarter? Either way, it worked. Now, we are almost too available.

Of course, I also like to tell them that rural people did not call unless it was a true emergency; they didn't like to bother us. I'm not sure they believe me, but it's true.

We now live in an age of instant communication, which can be a bit stressful at times. Mostly, though, I guess it's a good thing. At least, I try to tell myself that. Excuse me, I have to answer my cell phone!

Something you're born to do

Everybody has something that they do best. It's something you're born to do. Farming is like that. It's not easy and it's not for everybody.

Some years right at the very last minute a storm comes through, takes a would be bumper crop and flattens it like a pancake. It takes courage to face those odds every year. You have to believe in agriculture to do that.

We believe in it, too. Ag banking...it's what we do best. If you're in agriculture, we would like to be your bank.

Organic wheat plot tour, swine training scheduled

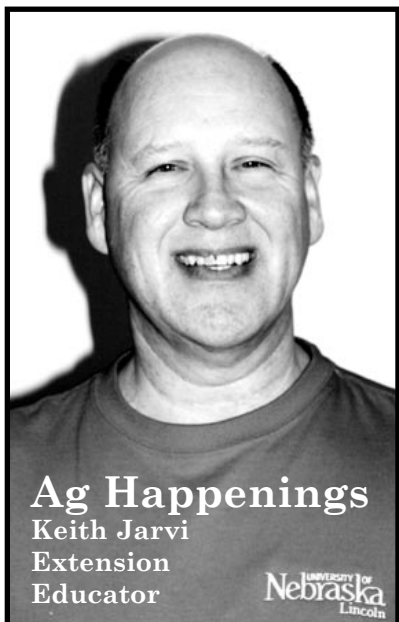

There will be an organic winter wheat variety plot tour at the Haskell Ag Lab east of Concord on Thursday, June 24.

The UNL Wheat Breeding program is working with millers and bakers to select winter wheat cultivars for the organic market with an emphasis on nutritional whole wheat products. Antioxidants, dietary fiber and gluten strength, as well as yield performance and disease resistance, will be discussed for each of the varieties grown on certified organic research land.

Richard Little, UNL Organic Wheat Breeding Specialist, will visit with farmers about experimental wheat lines and released and potential cultivars for organic wheat production. He will discuss fertility issues and how various cultivars perform in a crop rotation.

The tour will also include reviewing an experiment designed to evaluate the period between harvesting winter wheat and planting the subsequent row crop. Several cover crops are compared and the cover crops were subject to several management methods: disk, flaming and crimping to prepare for subsequent row crops. We will demonstrate a "Rodale" design crimper and a flamer. Farmers considering transitioning to an organic production system can see how crop rotations are set-up at each research location and meet with other organic farmers. To register call Pat at 402-584-3837 or email Liz at esarno2@unl.edu

TQA certification by July 1. Some major industry leaders like Tyson will only accept pigs from a farm in which the producers and all employees are certified.

The Nebraska Pork Producers Association (NPPA) and the University of Nebraska Extension are cooperating to assist producers in obtaining the certification. The NPPA is providing the necessary materials free of charge including a DVD that producers must watch and manuals for reference. For PQA Plus certification producers must complete a form which needs to be returned. For TQA certification, the producer must take an exam.

In our area trainings will take place on the evening of Wednesday, June 16, at the Hartington City Auditorium, beginning at 6:30 PM. The PQA Plus certification training will take approximately one hour and the TQA training will take about one hour and 45 minutes with a 50 question multiple choice exam at the end.

Because of the length of the program food and beverages will be provided. If you are unsure of your certification status or would like more information contact Dee Peterson at the Nebraska Pork Producers Association phone 402-472-2563 or email dee@nepork.org.

Contest taking applications

The Wisner Junior Livestock Show will be crowning a Queen for the four-day event. Anyone interested in applying for the title should contact the chairperson, Karen Palmer at 402-529-6455 or 402-372-9000.

The contest is open to any young lady who was enrolled in a Cuming, Burt, Stanton, Wayne, Dodge or Thurston County Livestock 4-H club or FFA.

The new queen will be crowned Thursday evening, June 24, during the rodeo at approximately 6 p.m. and she will be honored throughout the remainder of the Wisner Junior Livestock show.
