Ready for the Fair

Hundreds of volunteers, including many 4-H youth and their parents have spent many hours in recent days preparing the Wayne County Fairgrounds for the 88th annual Wayne County Fair. Traditionally, the Monday prior to the fair is designated as Fair Clean Up Day with hundreds flocking to the fairgrounds to complete mowing, trimming, cleaning and organizing for the fair. Following the clean-up members of the Wayne County Agricultural Society provide a picnic supper for those in attendance.

Wakefield man found after search

Family members, friends, fire departments and law enforcement officials spent considerable time Monday evening and into the morning hours of Tuesday searching for Melvin Witt, 73, of Wakefield.

Witt was reported missing to the Dixon County Sheriff's Office at approximately 8:30 p.m. Monday evening after he failed to return home after working in a cornfield on his property.

Brian Fernau, Dixon County Sheriff, said that at the time his office arrived on the scene, approximately 25 family members and friends were already searching the area.

The Dixon County tracking canine was called in to assist, but was unable to locate the track.

Fernau said that the Wakefield and Allen Fire and Rescue Departments assisted with the search through the cornfield where Witt was believed to have gone. Individuals with fourwheelers from Wayne and Emerson were also part of the search.

In addition, the Nebraska State Patrol helicopter was called in to assist with the search. The helicopter is equipped with thermal imaging and night vision equipment.

More than 70 people searched the entire area unsuccessfully until 3 a.m. when the search was called off for the evening.

Volunteers resumed the search at 6 a.m. and Witt was found at approximately 7:45. He was located in a soybean field just outside of the cornfield where the search was conducted.

He was airlifted by Mercy Air Care to Mercy Medical Center in Sioux City, Iowa. His condition has not been released.

"Our office would like to thank everybody who assisted us and took time away from their schedule to help. All help was greatly appreciated," Fernau said.

Fire and rescue workers helped out after an accident involving a dump truck along Highway 15 south of Wayne Friday.

Trucker escapes injury

A Norfolk man driving for Milo Meyer Construction of Wayne escaped serious injury after his truck rolled over along Highway 15 south of Wayne Friday afternoon.

According to the Wayne County Sheriff's Office, Charles Witzel, 46, was driving a dump truck north on the highway about 6

1/2 miles south of Wayne at about 4 p.m. when the truck blew a tire and went into the east ditch, rolling 1 1/2 times.

Witzel was taken to Providence Medical Center by PMC ambulance staff, where he was treated and released. Wayne Fire and Rescue were also called to the scene.

Attorney General taking over case of local burglary

Potential conflict of interest in Sinclair store break-in

By CLARA OSTEN
Of The Herald

The Nebraska Attorney General's Office has been asked to investigate a possible burglary that took place at Sinclair/Daylight Donuts in Wayne sometime late July 21 or early July 22.

Amy Miller, Deputy Wayne County Attorney said no report has been released at this time. She said there is a surveillance video of the incident but she has not seen it.

The alleged burglary may have been committed by a family member of someone on the Wayne Police Department. Additional persons are alleged to have been involved also.

Because of a possible conflict of interest, Miller contacted the Attorney General's Office to conduct the investigation. In turn, the Attorney General's Office has asked the Nebraska State Patrol to initiate an investigation into the incident.

Miller said she is not privileged to the information which will come from the investigation.

City's July sales tax revenue numbers up

By MICHAEL CARNES
Of The Herald

It was a good month for retail sales in Wayne, according to the latest sales tax figures released by the City of Wayne last week.

The city received $44,355.01 in sales tax revenue for sales made in town during the month of May, which marks the second highest July total since the tax was first collected in fiscal year 2000-2001. The city receives revenue two months after sales are made.

The July 2010 numbers were the highest received during that time period since 2004-2005, when the city received $46,365.22. It is only the fourth July in the 10-year history of the sales tax that the city has generated more than $40,000 in sales tax revenue.

The numbers for July pushed the city closer to its first $500,000 plateau of yearly sales tax revenue. The city is ahead of its average projection of $42,544.55, generating an average of $42,738.14 for the first 10 months of the fiscal year.

It is the third consecutive month of improved numbers from the previous year. If the city generates the average amount of revenue that it does during the final two months of the fiscal year, it will finish with just over $503,000 in sales tax revenue for fiscal year 2009-10. If it matches last year's numbers, that total will be closer to $510,000, easily eclipsing last year's record amount of $498,040.10.

Lawrence to headline concert Saturday at Wayne County Fair

The only country music artist to earn a No. 1 album off his own music label will be the feature artist for this year's Wayne County Fair.

In 2006, Tracy Lawrence started his own record label, called Rocky Comfort Records. That year, he put out the album "For The Love," and the first single from the album, "Find Out Who Your Friends Are" spent 41 weeks on the charts before becoming the No. 1 song on the Billboard country singles chart in June of 2007, setting a record for the slowest-climbing No. 1 country hit and second slowest on any Billboard singles chart.

The single's climb was also significant, as it was the first time any artist had reached No. 1 with the first release from a self-owned label.

It is the highlight of a music career that has seen him earn 11 Academy of Country Music and Country Music Association awards. He has sold more than 8 million albums and has 17 No. 1 singles to his credit, including "Sticks And Stones," "If The Good Die Young," "Texas Tornado" and "If You Love Me."

His 2003 hit, "Paint Me A Birmingham," was one of his most successful and most requested singles in his career. The video for the song is a fan favorite, which includes his performance at the Grand Ole Opry. He has also produced songs for movies such as "Maverick" and the Broadway theater production "The Civil War: An American Musical Event."

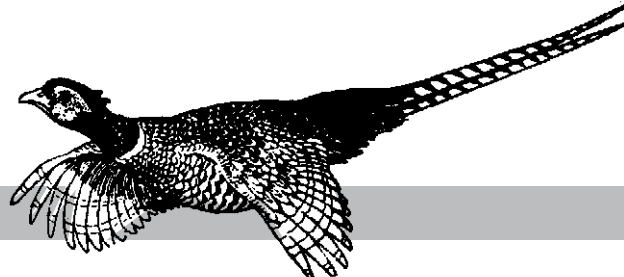

Lawrence has released more than a dozen albums during the course of his career, and is currently on tour in support of his latest CD, "The Rock." Released in May 2009 and produced by Lawrence and Julian King, the album includes the single "Up To Him."

Lawrence will perform Saturday night at the Wayne County Fair. Leafy Spurge Band is the opening act for Saturday's performance, taking the stage at 7:30 p.m. Lawrence will perform at around 8:30 p.m.

Edward Jones ranks highest in investor satisfaction survey

As stated on their website, Edward Jones advisors strive for personal attention and believe in providing one-on-one service," according to the J.D. Power study. "This is evident in their efforts to engage in proactive conversations regarding a multitude of their investors' concerns, including reviewing an existing strategic plan or developing one for a new investor, and initiating discussions regarding portfolio/asset allocation or investment needs."

For the fifth year out of the past six, financial-services firm Edward Jones ranks highest in investor satisfaction with full-service brokerage firms, according to the J.D. Power and Associates 2010 Full Service Investor Satisfaction Study, announced the financial advisors in Wayne.

The study measures overall investor satisfaction with full service investment firms based on seven factors: investment advisor, portfolio performance, account information, account offerings, commissions and fees, website and problem resolution. The J.D. Power and Associates study found that Edward Jones "performed particularly well across the two highest-weighted factors: Investment Advisor and Investment Performance."

Edward Jones' overall score climbed 10 points over last year, when it also was ranked highest among the 12 largest firms rated.

The 2010 Full Service Investor Satisfaction Study is based on responses from 4,460 investors who primarily invest with one of the 12 firms included in the study. The study was fielded in May 2010.

Edward Jones ranked highest in investor satisfaction by J.D. Power and Associates in 2009, from 2005 through 2007, and in a tie in 2002, when the study began. Edward Jones in Canada twice ranked highest in the J.D. Power and Associates Canadian Full Service Investor Satisfaction Study.

Edward Jones provides financial services for individual investors in the United States and, through its affiliate, in Canada. Every aspect of the firm's business, from the types of investment options offered to the location of branch offices, is designed to cater to individual investors in the communities in which they live and work. The firm's 12,000-plus financial advisors work directly with nearly 7 million clients to understand their personal goals - from college savings to retirement - and create long-term investment solutions that emphasize a well-balanced portfolio and a buy-and-hold strategy. Edward Jones embraces the importance of building long-term, face-to-face relationships with clients, helping them to understand and make sense of the investment options available today.

Edward Jones, which ranked No. 2 on FORTUNE magazine's "100 Best Companies to Work For" in 2010, is headquartered in St. Louis. The Edward Jones website is located at www.edwardjones.com, and its recruiting Web site is www.careers.edwardjones.com. Member SIPC.

USDA Rural Development awards funding to 31 Nebraska recipients to assist with energy needs

Thirty-one Nebraska recipients have been selected to receive $502,590 in loans and grants. Funds will be used to make energy efficiency improvements that will promote energy conservation. Projects announced will save 14,922,941,612 BTUs for an annual cost savings of $219,432.

"The energy dollars awarded will greatly benefit ag producers and businesses in rural Nebraska," said Nebraska State Director Maxine Moul, USDA Rural Development. "Through these projects, energy consumption will be reduced thereby making more dollars available to be kept with the ag producers and businesses and for possible reinvestment into Nebraska's rural economy."

The funding was made available through the Rural Energy for America Program (REAP). This program provides opportunities for farmers and rural small business owners to install renewable energy systems and make energy efficiency improvements, as well explore the feasibility of implementing renewable energy projects. Additional information on the Rural Energy for America Program may be found at www.rurdev.usda.gov/ne/Energy_energy_home.htm

Energy projects selected from Nebraska's in-state funding allocation include one local project. Funding is contingent upon the recipient meeting the conditions of the grant and loan agreements.

In Wayne County, Deb Stueckrath of Hoskins will receive a $2,666 grant-Installation of poly membrane over existing commercial roof

SEWER CLEANING NOTICE — July-August, 2010

During the next couple weeks, the City of Wayne Sewer Department will be having sewer mains cleaned in various parts of the City. The majority of the sewer cleaning will take place in the area north of 7th Street and east of Main Street and south of 7th Street and west of Main Street.

In this process, high pressure water is forced through the sewer pipe to clean it. This pushes solid materials to the manholes so they can be removed by vacuuming. This entire process is necessary to keep obstructions out of the sewer system and insure proper drainage of waste.

Residents should be aware that when this process is done, the high pressure water pushes the air in the sewer line which occasionally enters the private sewer lines into homes and businesses. If this happens, it can result in the air exiting through the toilet bowl, shooting the water out of the toilet bowl. This air should exit through the sewer vent of the building, but inadequate venting or location of toilets can cause the air to exit through the toilet.

This is a rare occurrence and keeping the lid closed on the toilet during this time will keep most of the water in the bowl rather than the floor.

If you have any questions about the sewer cleaning process or the areas the sewer main cleaning will take place, you can call the Wastewater Treatment Plant at 375-5250 or City Hall at 375-1733.

Thank you — Garry Poutre — City of Wayne Utilities Superintendent.

Fire training

Firefighters from nine area departments were on hand Sunday for a training and control house burn in Carroll. State Fire Marshall Training instructors from throughout the area conducted the training, which included firefighters going into the house in pairs to learn the proper techniques for containing a structure fire. Following the completion of the training, the firefighters burned the house to the ground to allow the lot to be cleared for other purposes. Departments represented included Carroll, Winside, Hoskins, Wayne, Wakefield, Belden, Randolph, Plainview and Creighton.

Giese wants examination of agreements with DHHS

State Sen. Bob Giese of South Sioux City, called for a special legislative committee to examine the recent decision by the Department of Health & Human Services (DHHS) to not extend out-of-state provider agreements with Ability Building Services (ABS) in Yankton, S.D. and Goodwill Industries in Sioux City, Iowa.

Giese, along with Sen. Cap Dierks of Ewing, met Thursday afternoon with DHHS officials to discuss the decision and seek possible solutions to the pending loss of services for the developmentally disabled in Northeast Nebraska.

Following the meeting with DHHS officials, Giese requested that the Legislature's Developmental Disabilities Special Investigative Committee hold a hearing on the decision within thirty days. The committee was originally formed in 2008 to examine ongoing problems at the Beatrice State Developmental Center (BSDC), but is authorized to investigate placement and quality of care issues for developmentally disabled individuals throughout the State of Nebraska.

In a letter to Omaha Senator Steve Lathrop, who chairs the committee, Giese pointed out that unless further action is taken, services through Goodwill would end on Aug. 30, and services through ABS would end on Oct. 23. "A majority of the families that are being forced to switch providers feel they have nowhere for their loved ones to go," said Giese, "Many of the services being provided at Goodwill and ABS are currently unavailable in Northeast Nebraska, which means that this decision won't just move people back across the river, it will terminate vital services."

In previous media reports, Jodi Fenner, Director of DHHS' Division of Developmental Disabilities, had claimed that contracts with out-of-state providers could not be renewed because DHHS lacked oversight authority at out-of-state facilities. Even if that claim is true, Giese responded that DHHS has made little effort to actually solve the problem. "Rather than cutting off the existing providers, they should be exploring all the options and working with Iowa and South Dakota to get these facilities certified," Giese argued, "Failure to renew these contracts leaves our most vulnerable Nebraskans hanging in the balance."

City to spend weeks ahead cleaning out city's sewer mains

During the next couple weeks, the City of Wayne Sewer Department will be having sewer mains cleaned in various parts of the City.

The majority of the sewer cleaning will take place in the area north of Seventh Street and east of Main Street and south of Seventh Street and west of Main Street.

In this process, high-pressure water is forced through the sewer pipe to clean it. This pushes solid materials to the manholes so they can be removed by vacuuming. This entire process is necessary to keep obstructions out of the sewer system and insure proper drainage of waste.

Residents should be aware that when this process is done, the high pressure water pushes the air in the sewer line, which occasionally enters the private sewer lines into homes and businesses. Local residents assist at Special Olympics

Ameritas employees from the Wayne office were among those who volunteered as part of the Special Olympics in Lincoln.

Jennifer Parker, who helped organize the Wayne volunteers, asked a number of those involved to write brief summaries of their experiences. All have indicated that the opportunity to volunteer was "a wonderful experience" and they would do it again "in a heartbeat."

The following are some of the responses from those taking part.

"Ameritas allows associates eight hours a month for volunteer service. Over 3,000 hours were donated by Ameritas associates before, during and after the National Games in Lincoln.

I think I can speak for everyone that we would all do it again in a heartbeat. Working with the athletes and experiencing how openly they support each other reminded me how some people just get it." — Michelle Renning

"I would like to say that it was a wonderful experience. The best part was being able to interact with the athletes, who were so happy and proud of what they had accomplished. Their smiles were contagious, they just made you feel great to be there!" — Sherry

Popovitz

"It was very touching to see how supportive the families and friends were for the Special Olympics. If you were there by the end of the day you knew who Sara was from Minnesota. Sara had probably the largest fan base of anyone there and when she was performing or even when she was just walking around, you either knew that she had arrived or you knew that they were on their way. They all had shirts with her name on it and they were all very fun to be around and talk to.

"It was also great to see how happy and excited all the Special Olympians were just to be there and talk to you. They really loved everyone coming out to help and even cheer them on.

"It is a great experience that I would do again in a heartbeat." — Laura Neel

"I helped with bowling and as the athletes came in, "Celebration" was playing and the volunteers were clapping their hand and it was so great to see the athletes smiling faces. The bowlers were a terrific group with giving high fives for pins down. At the end, one parent called me over and thanked me for helping and I asked which child was theirs and I had been sitting by him all three games and that was an awesome feeling. It was a terrific time and I would do it all over again!" — Paula Pfeiffer

"I was so honored to be able to have the opportunity to volunteer at such a monumental event. I have to thank Ameritas and the city of Lincoln for giving me the opportunity to be a part of the Special Olympics, but more than that, I want to thank the athletes for letting me join them and be a part of their lives even for that one day!

"I didn't know what to expect and felt it would be so much like any other event that I have volunteered for. Go in, do whatever is asked for me, and go home and feel good about it, but go on with my daily routine. I even had to ask myself when I was getting up at 2:30 in the morning on Wednesday to hit the road at 3:30 so I could be in Lincoln on time for my duties, if I knew what I was getting myself into.

"Although I did not truly know what I was getting myself into at the time, I soon found out and it was the most rewarding experience I have ever had and one I will never forget! I met so many people who are so dedicated to what they do, not only for the once in four year event, but I also got a glimpse into some of their daily lives.

"I met so many of the athletes since I was at the registration table and was able to talk to all of them in that event. Their excitement was evident, but they were so composed and professional and ready to show off their talents. And let me tell you, they had talent and gracefulness.

"I received so many thanks and hugs and gave numerous high fives to this wonderful group of athletes, but if they only knew what they did for me!

"They were so appreciative and so many times I heard coaches and fans and athletes thanking us, the volunteers, for all we do, but I have to thank them. They showed me so much more in that short time and really had a huge impact on why I volunteer.

"It is so hard to put into words, but they showed me, in that brief glimpse of their lives, how they cherish every moment of every day and work so hard for things that so many take for granted. They love their sport and work so hard to be the best they can be. The athletes, fans and the Special Olympics have touched my heart in ways I could never explain and I thank all of them for showing me this and sharing it with me." — Lorinda Hille

"I wasn't sure what to expect... I volunteer for a lot of different activities but never with Special Olympics before. It was an amazing experience.

"The thing that stood out the most was the fact that everyone you came into contact with was so excited about being there. It was great going to a sporting event where all the parents/family, coaches, teammates & officials were so positive & encouraging. I was an "Athlete Escort" in the Track & Field events and it was fun talking with all the athletes before they started their races. We encouraged them to try their best and tried to get them to relax (if they were real nervous).

"I was there only one day but it's been fun to try to follow them through the week to see how some of them have done....It's fun to tell my family... "Hey---I talked with this guy... he just won a gold medal!" — Tracy Henschke

"I would have to say I learned more from the athletes than they learned from me! They were encouraging each other all the time! Their smiles were contagious! It was an awesome experience that I will never forget!" — Jennifer Parker.

Winside girl injured in mishap

A Tuesday evening, July 20 vehicle roll-over accident sent a Winside teenager to the hospital.

According to the Wayne County Sheriff's office, at about 9:30 p.m. a pickup driven by Erin Gray of rural Winside lost control on Wayne County Road 852 about three miles west of Winside and rolled one time after cresting a hill at that location. Gray was alone in the vehicle at the time of the roll-over and was wearing restraints at the time.

The Winside Rescue unit was called to the scene and transported Gray to Faith Regional Health Services in Norfolk for her injuries. The Winside Fire Department also assisted at the scene.

Juniors make final three at state

5-1 loss to Beatrice ends 23-9 campaign

By MICHAEL CARNES
Of The Herald

O'NEILL – Wayne American Legion Juniors coach Jeff Zeiss knew his team would have to jump on Beatrice early if they wanted to stay alive in the Class C American Legion Juniors state tournament Tuesday.

The Juniors had their chances early on at Appleby Field, but left the bases loaded in the first inning and stranded two more runners in the second. And Zeiss' concerns that those missed opportunities would come back to haunt did just that.

A pair of two-run homers off Joey Lenihan put Wayne in a hole that they weren't able to get out of, and they saw their 23-9 season come to an end with a 5-1 loss.

"We had the bases loaded in the first and two on in the second and didn't score, and I told our coaches that could come back to bite us, because you can't do that against a good team like Beatrice," he said. "We had to take advantage of those opportunities, and we didn't."

Wayne was disciplined at the plate and walked five times in the first two innings, but Beatrice got out of both jams and responded with a four-run third inning to put the game out of reach.

"Joey pitched on two days rest and he only gave up five hits, but two were pretty big blows," Zeiss said. "Gage (Rethwsich) came on in relief and pitched well, and that kid really has a rubber arm after pitching seven innings a couple of days before."

Wayne averted the shutout in the fifth when Tony Sinniger singled – one of two hits for Wayne in the game – and later scored on a passed ball.

Wayne battled through the losers bracket after dropping an exciting 2-1 opener to Seward on Saturday.

Both teams got outstanding pitching performances in the tournament opener. Lenihan struck out five and allowed just four hits, but was the tough-luck loser when an error led to a game-winning single by Seward's Bryce Rollin.

Wayne broke a scoreless tie in the top of the fifth when Lenihan, who had a huge tournament at the plate for Wayne, doubled to left center to score Miles Anderson, who started the inning with a line-drive single off Rollin's hip.

Wayne had a chance to score another run in the sixth when Sinniger singled, moved to second on a wild pitch and advanced to third on Keegan Dorcey's groundout. He was left stranded, and Seward came back to tie the game with two hits.

Wayne was one out away from sending the game to extra innings when a bad-hop grounder to Sinniger allowed Seward to get a runner on base. That runner stole second and scored when Rollin took an 0-2 pitch the other way for the game-winning hit.

"It was a great ball game to be involved in, and Seward's pitcher did a fine job with his breaking ball and kept us off balance," Zeiss said. "Joey threw a great game for us and shut them down, and (Rollin) just went out and got a good pitch for the game-winning hit."

Wayne battled back on Sunday against a good Gretna team, coming from behind to post a 6-5 win.

Joey Lenihan had a huge tournament at the plate for Wayne, including a 4-for-4 effort against Gibbon-Shelton. He also pitched well, despite being the tough-luck loser in a 2-1 loss to Seward on Saturday.

Seniors are eliminated in Area 5 tourney

By MICHAEL CARNES
Of The Herald

AURORA – The Wayne American Legion Seniors knew they were in for a tough battle heading into the Class B, Area 5 tournament.

With a thin pitching staff in a balanced seven-team field, Wayne gave it their all, according to coach Jeff Zeiss, and went 2-2 in the tournament to cap a 16-9 summer campaign.

"It was disappointing, but only one team can win its last game," Zeiss said. "Overall, I thought we played well. We didn't have a lot of pitching depth, but the kids really sucked it up and played well, and they felt they could get to the state tournament."

The Seniors got off to a good start Thursday, pounding Neligh 16-3. They broke a 3-3 tie with nine runs in the third inning, then added four more in the fourth to end the game on the 10-run rule.

Wayne strung together four consecutive hits in the third inning after giving up an early 3-0 advantage. Taylor Carroll started things with a two-run single, scoring Alex Onnen and Dustin Stegemann. A.J. Longe followed with a single, and RBI singles by Derek Poutre and Jeff Zeiss continued the surge. Tory Booth followed with a bases-loaded walk and Zac Braun hit a sacrifice fly to cap the big inning.

"It was a good win," Zeiss said. "We haven't played since the league tournament and were concerned about how rusty we were going in, but the kids did well."

The bottom of Wayne's lineup was unusually productive, accounting for half of Wayne's 16 runs. Longe and Mason Wren each scored three times, while Carroll was 2-for-2 with two runs scored and three RBIs.

On Friday, Wayne continued to hit the ball hard, but were unable to put together a big inning as they fell to Central City 5-1.

Nixon masterful in Area 2 finale

By MICHAEL CARNES
Of The Herald

HARTINGTON – Mason Nixon's National Guard unit is deploying for a trip to Afghanistan later this fall, so he provided quite the going-away present for his Wakefield American Legion Seniors teammates.

Nixon tossed a masterful gem Tuesday, throwing a one-hit shutout and striking out 12 to help Wakefield shut out Wisner-Pilger-Beemer 5-0 and win the Class C, Area 2 tournament at Felber Park. The win sends Wakefield to the Class C state tournament, which begins Friday in DeWitt.

Nixon shipped out with the 134th Cavalry out of Beatrice Wednesday morning. He will handle radio communications with the unit as they train later this summer before heading overseas.

He admitted there was a lot of adrenaline pumping as he took the mound for the final time.

"I knew I was leaving tomorrow, so I was just going off a lot of adrenaline," he said. "I know Max Greve was here with me tonight. It's probably why I pitched so well, because he taught me a lot and I felt he was there tonight."

Nixon gave up a leadoff walk in the first and a leadoff single in the third, but was untouchable beyond that. He struck out the side in the second inning and allowed just one runner past first base in the game.

"My fastball was just on tonight, and I got some great support on defense," he said. "We're always good with our defense, and Mr. Eaton is the best coach around."

Coach Paul Eaton said it was an outstanding pitching performance by Nixon.

"He just wanted to go out on a good note, and he had a great performance," he said. "It was really neat to see him and T.J. (Rose) playing catch out there. He did a super job."

Wakefield scored a pair of runs in the third inning, thanks to RBI singles by Chad Clay and A.J. Bormann. Michael Eaton scored Mason Nixon was masterful in leading Wakefield to the Class C American Legion Seniors state tournament, throwing a one-hit shutout and striking out 12 in a 5-0 win over Wisner-Pilger-Beemer.

Winside auxiliary hears honor band report

Roy Reed Unit No. 252, American Legion Auxiliary, Winside NE met on July 12 with five members, President Rose Ann Janke, Secretary Beverly Neel, Treasurer Bonne Wylie, Chaplain Adeline Anderson, Hope Voss and one guest, Beverly Voss, present.

Hope Voss gave an exciting and informative report on her trip to Europe with the Nebraska High School Honor Band honorees. Hope is a recent graduate of Winside Public School and was one of the Unit's 2009 Cornhusker Girls State Citizens and has been a member of Unit 252 for the past five years.

Hope gave a video presentation of the places visited and a very detailed description of the people, places and things seen on the trip. She truly presented an outstanding report in 2-1/2 hours. She narrowed her collection of photographs down for this presentation. We may need to have her back to enjoy more of her European experience.

Hope will be attending Peru

State College this fall majoring in journalism. From the report given this evening, she is well on her way to a great career. Hope states she will go back some day to re-visit where she has been. That is a great inspiration from a young lady to know what she wants in life.

A brief meeting followed the presentation with the Treasurer's report given and accepted as well as the Secretary's minutes of the June 14 meeting.

The Unit did serve lunch at the annual Legion Pitch Tournament on June 19. Members providing the donated food were Bonnie Wylie - potato salad; Evelyn Herbolsheimer - baked beans; Adeline Anderson - dessert bars; Beverly Neel - hamburger for Sloppy Joes and buns; Rose Ann Janke - prepared the meat. A freewill donation netted $99 for the Unit.

The Unit continues to collect 2011 membership dues. To date 40 members have paid, with 31 pending. The National organization will be sending out the official dues notices no later than Aug. 15, 2010. It is hoped that the Unit will be able to collect the remaining dues by Oct. 1, 2010 and put this task behind them. The Unit goal for 2011 is 73 members.

We will need to renew the current 71 members and seek out two new members in order to meet this goal. The Unit has had an All-Time High membership of 75 members as recent as 2008. It is hopeful we may some day have 100 Unit members. Anyone interested in becoming a member may contact any member of the Unit or the Unit Membership Chairman Beverly Neel for more information.

To be eligible females need to be a direct relative of a Veteran who served during World War I and II, Korea, Vietnam, Grenada, Lebanon, Panama and the current Persian Gulf conflict. Having served is not limited to those veterans who served in the country of conflict but any veteran who had at least 24 hours Active duty during any of these time periods.

The Unit could certainly use new members and new ideas. Meeting attendance has been quite low for sometime and having more members would ease the load of decision making and planning from those few who do attend. We need all members' input to succeed.

The annual Legion picnic will be Sunday, Sept. 12 at 5 p.m. The 2010 Cornhusker Girls State Citizens Leslie Milenkovich, Audrey Roberts and Morgan Quinn will give reports of their experiences at Girls State this past June. Additionally, residents of the Norfolk Veterans Home will be attending as well. Auxiliary members are asked to assist The Legion by supplementing their meal with salads, desserts and veggies. Sounds like a great time to be had.

A Department Informational Conference will be held at Weeping Water on Saturday, Oct. 9 at 11 a.m. Additionally, Department President Charleen Walters will host her Homecoming that evening at 5:30 p.m. Members of The Legion Family are encouraged to attend. Department Chairmen will give a preview of their program objectives and provide handouts accordingly.

Madam President Charleen has a quilt raffle going to raise funds for her President's Project of "Assisting All Veterans Across Nebraska." Raffle tickets are $1 each or six for $5. The quilt was created by Barbara (Gallop) Junck of Carroll, formerly of Winside. Tickets are available through Unit Member/Department Americanism Chairman Beverly Neel. Thank you to those Unit members who have already purchased tickets. As you can see our small town has already played a big part in making President Charleen's year a great one.

Hostesses for this evening were Rose Ann Janke and Beverly Neel. Next meeting will be Monday, Aug. 9, 2010 at 5:30 p.m. The family of Elizabeth (Betty) Johnson is requesting a card shower for her 80th birthday, which is Saturday, Aug. 7. She is a former Wayne resident.

Her children are Dale and Karen of Wayne, David Johnson of Aurora, Colo., Donna and Ron Hansen of Lincoln and Dan and Janice Johnson of Norfolk. She has seven grandchildren and seven great-grandchildren.

Cards can be sent to her at 921 Pierce Street, Norfolk, Neb. 68701.

Selena Finn and her 7 year old Paint mare, Stylin Sip of Scotch were the Junior Horsemanship Champions at the 2010 Fonner Park State 4H Horse Exposition. She is a member of the Blue Ribbon Winners 4H Club in Wayne County.

State 4-H Horse Exposition results are listed for Wayne County

The annual State 4-H Horse Expo was held July 11-15 at Fonner Park in Grand Island.

Over 480 youth exhibited their horses with 1135 entries for the show.

Five Wayne County 4-Hers were among the three hundred seventy-two 4-Hers and 760 horses from across the state that participated in the event. Results are as follows:

Selena Finn, daughter of Mike and Lori Finn of Winside, earned champion trophy honors and purple ribbons in both Junior Western Horsemanship and Junior Reining. She stood seventh and received a purple ribbon in Junior Showmanship and also received a purple ribbon in Junior Western Pleasure.

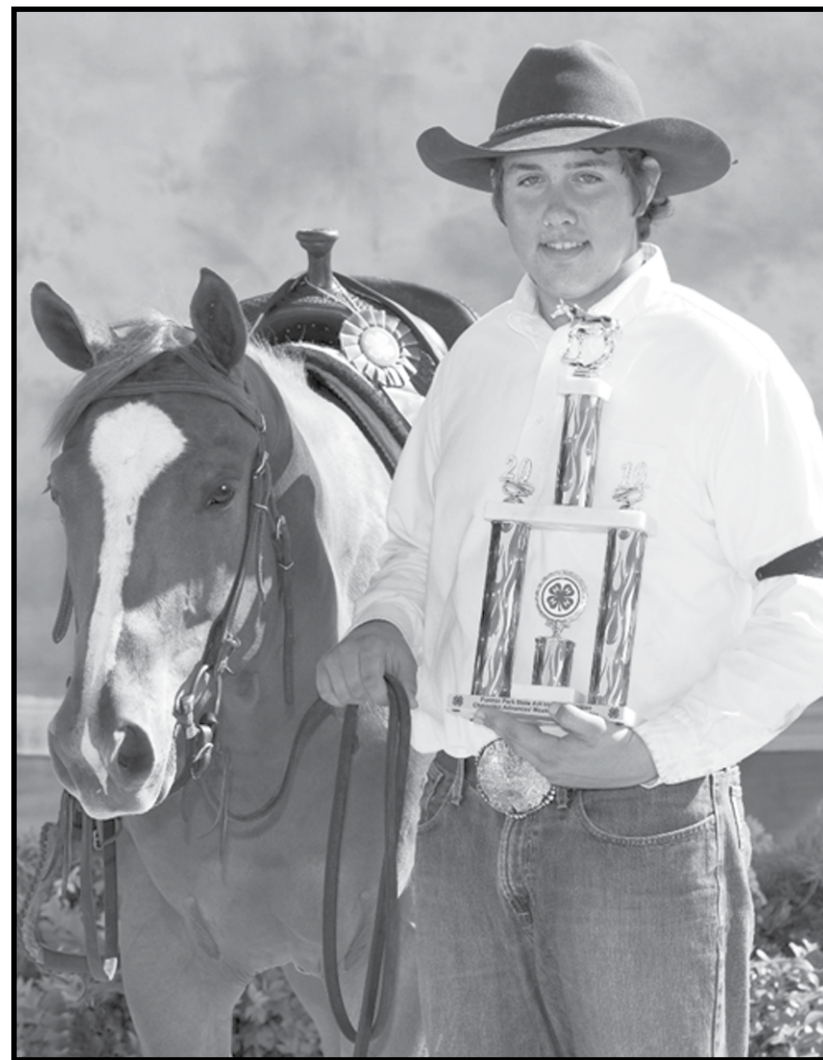

Jaci Jenkins, daughter of Doug and Jana Jenkins of Carroll was the third place finisher and earned a purple ribbon in the Trail Horse class. She received blue ribbons in both Junior Showmanship and Western Horsemanship and a red ribbon in Junior Western Pleasure.

Jake Lundahl, son of Mark and Virginia Lundahl of Wakefield earned a red ribbon in the 2 year old western pleasure class and a white ribbon in 2 year old halter mares.

JoAnne Lundahl, daughter of Mark and Virginia Lundahl of Wakefield received blue ribbons in both the Junior Showmanship and the 2 year old halter gelding's classes. She earned a red ribbon in the 2 year old western pleasure class.

Luke Lundahl, son of Mark and Virginia Lundahl of Wakefield earned a championship trophy in Advanced Western Horsemanship and a purple ribbon in 3 year old western pleasure. His three year old halter gelding received a blue ribbon. He also received a red ribbon in the Trail Horse class and a white ribbon in Senior Showmanship.

Luke Lundahl, and his 3 year old Quarter Horse, "Sweet Chippen Zip" were the Advanced Western Horsemanship Champions at the 2010 Fonner Park State 4H Horse Exposition in Grand Island.

Don't get me started

By: Michael Carnes
Managing Editor

No respect for those who 'represent' us

A reader recently called and asked me about the lack of respect that I seem to display toward those in positions of power within our government.

The caller was particularly concerned with the tone of a recent column I wrote about Congress and the President, which the caller felt was disrespectful for the position these individuals hold. Like them or not, you should at least show some respect for the positions they hold, I was told.

And here is where I, respectfully, disagree with the caller.

There is a reason why I hold nothing back when it comes to expressing my disapproval with the efforts of those "representing" us in Washington. That reason is simple - they are absolutely clueless when it comes to the real world and how their actions and decisions ultimately affect those they were elected to represent. I show no respect, because they have no respect for the real world.

Let's be honest, folks - our nation is drowning in debt right now. By the time you finish this column, several MILLION dollars will have been added to our federal deficit, which now stands at more than $13 trillion. This debt is expanding because we have a President who acts more like a dictator every day, who is being aided by a Congress that thinks nothing of passing insane legislation that only shells out more money (to those who don't deserve it) that our nation does not have. Even if the government went cold turkey right now, it will take at least two generations for us to pay back what we owe. More than a half-century from now, my great-grandchildren will still be paying off the debt first taken on by the Bush regime and accelerated exponentially by the kingdom of Obama.

These people love to tell us how they are looking out for the taxpayers. Is anybody buying any of the garbage these fools are selling?

After all . . .

- both Republicans and Democrats in Congress tell us they're against deficits, and yet we face what is, far and away, the largest deficit in our nation's history (which grew several million dollars more in the past few words).

- both Republicans and Democrats want to lessen our dependence on foreign oil, and yet they continue to throw money at the problem and have nothing to show for it, while our reliance on foreign sources who are less than friendly continues unabated.

- both Republicans and Democrats want to save Social Security, yet more money continues to be "borrowed" from it to take care of other pet projects, to the point that, combined with the influx of Baby Boomers that will further deplete the fund, will mean Social Security will, in all likelihood, be unavailable when we retire in the next 20-30 years.

- both Republicans and Democrats like to point to each other as being the more corrupt party, yet when you break it all down there is very little difference between the greedy, two-faced crooks on the left and the greedy, two-faced crooks on the right. Members of both parties seem to spend more time accepting freebies from lobbyists (or letting them buy drinks until they become intoxicated, as Nebraska Rep. Lee Terry reportedly experienced recently), concocting legally-questionable deals and earmarking pet projects to help secure big donations for their inevitable re-election bids than they do actually operating in an ethical, above-board manner.

With all of that, how can anybody, in their right mind, have any kind of respect for those who "represent" us in Washington? They don't live in our world. They don't operate by our rules. They don't listen to our demands.

In order to get respect, you must give respect. In my opinion, they don't deserve my respect - nor do they deserve the respect of any other American citizen who is paying any sort of attention to the corruption taking place in our nation's capital - because they have no respect for our desires, our goals or our tax dollars.

Thank you for Vets monument

I would like to extend a giant "Thank You" to the Wayne County Veterans Memorial Committee for the masterful monument that has been erected on the east lawn of the Wayne County Courthouse at 510 Pearl Street in Wayne.

Having been involved in the countless hours of discussions, decisions, etc., we have a welcomed tribute to all Veterans of Wayne County. The road has not always been smooth but the pathway to our heart, intent and spirit of this monument has always had our Veterans' best interest at hand.

I continue to receive calls for names to be placed on the monument and they will be added. However, everyone should know that all new etchings will be located on the tablets after all the names that are already etched. We, the Committee, tried endlessly to get names presented far in advance of the completion of this monument. We used print media, radio media, flyers, posting of the list in each community. And yet, we have mis-information on the granite. We are all human and humans, believe it or not, are prone to error now and again. So if you have names you would like to have etched into the granite, I am willing and able to assist you in that manner.

However, if you wish to complain and down grade the work that has been put into this monument, pardon me, but do not call me. I do not want to hear about it. I especially do not want to have to listen to those who feel it is necessary to vent their issues yet will not be bold enough to give their name. Surely, if you wish to belittle the work that has been done and you know me by name, then I ask to know you.

I close with a message received in the mail from one of our city officials: "On Sunday, during the memorial ceremony, with all the dysfunctional, evil and crazy places there are in the world, I knew why I live in Wayne County. I was proud of the Wayne County Veterans for making a prominent and first class place besides our cemeteries, where we can gather and simply be, to remember our veterans and their sacrifices for our way of life. I was proud of the Wayne County citizens for attending the ceremony. Every US generation has to be vigilant against the constant threats to our freedom and every generation to date has met the challenge that they didn't ask for but stepped up and did it right. Please pass this thank you on to the vets and congratulate them for another tough job well done."

Capitol View Nelson limiting GOP options

By ED HOWARD
Statehouse Correspondent
The Nebraska Press Association

LINCOLN - Tip O'Neill, the late and legendary Speaker of the House from Massachusetts, said his father taught him that "All politics is local."

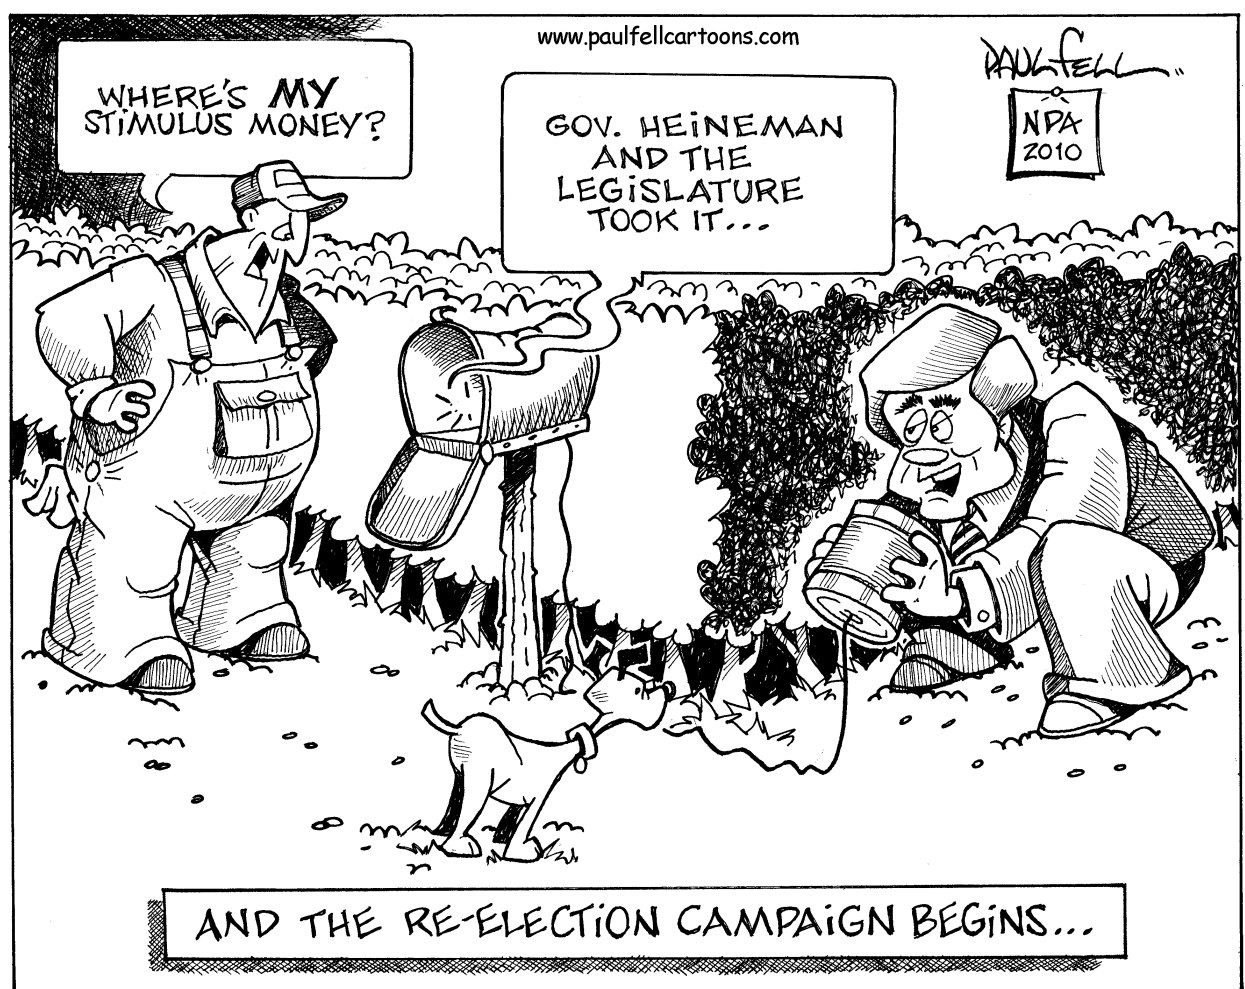

It is an adage with which Sen. Ben Nelson clearly is familiar. The Democrat, who doesn't face re-election until 2012, wants voters to understand how federal spending that he supports in Washington can hold down their local property taxes in Nebraska. And he wants them to believe it should. And he wants Congress to make sure it does.

In equal measure, he wants voters to believe that if sufficient federal dollars haven't made it to the local level, Gov. Dave Heineman and the Legislature are to blame. "Sufficient" is always subject to partisan debate.

Nelson knows Republican Heineman, whose approval ratings are very high, could be his opponent for re-election - and that it's never too early to start campaigning, whether directly or indirectly.

Insisting he wasn't referring only to Nebraska, Nelson said too few stimulus dollars have made it past state capitols to directly assist cities and villages. He said the money shouldn't be hoarded by legislatures "for bailing out state budgets again and again."

It was clearly a shot at Heineman, who successfully urged the Legislature to use huge sums of stimulus dollars to balance state government's budget, thus avoiding higher state tax rates. Note that a substantial portion of that federal money was included in the state's payout of aid to local schools, a program intended to hold down the rate of increase in local property taxes.

Heineman and the Legislature are confronted with a two-year revenue shortfall estimated at $679 million. If Congress sends another bucket of money to the state how would the governor and the Legislature want to use it?

Nelson wants to limit their options. He will urge that Congress give "more direction" to states, with emphasis on seeing that more money goes to local governments.

If, coincidentally, Heineman and the Legislature find themselves forced to increase sales and income tax rates in 2011, and/or make even greater cuts in state programs, well . . . that's life, most especially in politics.

Thus does the issue of local property taxes, from rural hamlets and fields to the mansions of Omaha, find its way into the machinations of policymaking in Washington.

The view from here: It seems odd that a saying which was coined to describe a political reality for state legislators should seemingly apply in a campaign for a seat in the lofty U.S. Senate. The saying is "You get elected by campaigning against property taxes. You get re-elected by opposing higher sales and income tax rates."

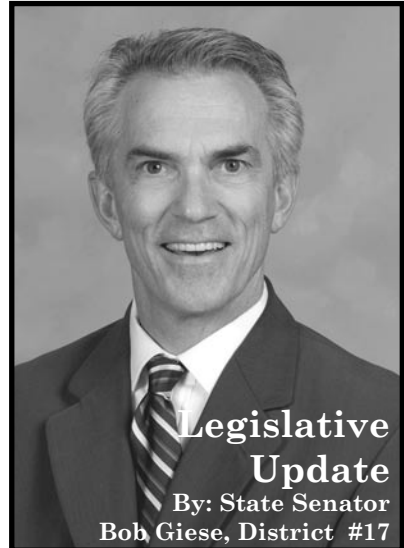

Your Legislative Update

Greetings from the Unicameral! For much of the past month, my office has been trying to find a workable solution for families affected by the recent decision by the Department of Health & Human Services (DHHS) not to extend agreements with out-of-state service providers for developmentally disabled Nebraskans.

If this decision is upheld, residents of District 17 with developmental disabilities that have been receiving services at Ability Building Services (ABS) in Yankton, S.D., and Goodwill Industries in Sioux City, Iowa will no longer have access to facilities that have been available to them for nearly 20 years.

DHHS has expressed their commitment to transitioning those receiving services through Goodwill and ABS to in-state providers, including the recently-announced facility in South Sioux City that will be run by regional provider NorthStar Services. While I do not question the commitment of DHHS and NorthStar to try and fill the gap in services, I continue to oppose the initial decision, which created the gap in the first place. Families affected by the decision are concerned about the effects that this abrupt change in service providers will have on their loved ones, and helping to give these Nebraskans a voice in the process has been my goal throughout this ongoing crisis.

While DHHS has focused almost entirely on the transition to in-state providers, I believe that the fight is far from over for those families who want their loved ones to continue receiving services at the provider of their choosing. That is why I am proud to announce that the Legislature's Developmental Disabilities Special Investigative Committee has scheduled a hearing on Thursday, Aug. 12 at 1 p.m. in Room 1524 of the Nebraska State Capitol in Lincoln to discuss the DHHS decision.

I am hopeful that this hearing will give the affected families the long-overdue opportunity to voice their complaints and share their concerns with my colleagues in the Legislature. The hearing will be open to the public, and anyone wishing to testify or attend in person should contact my office in Lincoln.

As always, I would encourage you to contact me if you have any questions or simply have an opinion on legislation before the Unicameral. Feel free to call my office at (402) 471-2716, send me an e-mail at bgiese@leg.ne.gov, or stop by in person any time you're in Lincoln.

Guard has provided historic legacy of service

Dear Fellow Nebraskans,

This week I want to spotlight a very special group of Nebraskans: the men and women of the Nebraska Army and Air National Guard.

We are in the midst of a very busy and demanding period of time for the Nebraska National Guard. Over the next 12 to 24 months, the men and women of our Nebraska National Guard will be writing another historic chapter to their already impressive legacy of service to their state and nation as they mobilize and deploy again overseas in support of the United States of America.

Right now, approximately 160 members of the Nebraska Army and Air National Guard are already serving overseas in support of Operations Iraqi Freedom and Enduring Freedom. Among these are soldiers of Lincoln's 313th Medical Company who are in the last weeks of their deployment to Iraq, and members of the Nebraska City-based 192nd Military Police Detachment who are just beginning their mission in Iraq. They are joined by members of the Nebraska Air National Guard's 155th Security Forces Squadron, who are currently completing a deployment in the Central Command Area of Operations.

They will soon be joined by many others. Recently, thousands of Nebraskans gathered at

Lincoln's Seacrest Field to wish farewell to more than 300 members of the Nebraska Army National Guard's 67th Battlefield Surveillance Brigade who will soon deploy to Iraq. This was an especially poignant send-off ceremony for soldiers and their families as nearly half are deploying for at least the second time in the last 10 years.

We will also soon be saying farewell to approximately 300 soldiers assigned to the 1st Squadron, 134th Cavalry, who mobilize to support Operation Enduring Freedom at the end of July. These soldiers hail from Lincoln, Fremont, Hastings, and Beatrice and have completed several missions overseas in recent years. They will soon be

4-H offers opportunities for family growth

Becoming involved in children's 4-H activities is a great way for families to grow and develop. Whether parents are attending club meetings or teaching their children about animal care, rock-etry or entrepreneurship, they are helping to build stronger relationships and families.

Research shows that young people need caring relationships with adults to help them grow and develop positively. Parents can build these relationships by becoming involved in their children's 4-

H activities. Grandparents, aunts, uncles and other extended family members should become involved too because they also play important roles in the lives of children. 4-H'ers participate in a variety of individual and group projects, and family members can be a part of these learning experiences. If a participant is enrolled in foods and nutrition, a family member can teach them proper food safety. This can then easily become a part of daily life. Just interacting and communicating can help family members learn more about each other and grow closer.

Families can also benefit from participating in 4-H community service projects. They can help with a food drive by donating some supplies from their own cupboards, asking neighbors for donations or making a cash donation to the local food pantry. What matters is that families do these activities together. Not only will family members have fun, but they will help their community and grow closer together, all at little or no cost.

Families should contact the youth development worker at their local 4-H office for more ideas on how to become involved in 4-H.

Rings attend family wedding

Merle and Donna Ring spent the weekend of July 16-19 with their family to attend the wedding of their step-granddaughter, Sarah Westhed.

The weekend began on Friday evening with the rehearsal and picnic dinner, hosted by the groom's parents, Rick and Janet Sabol of Minot, N.D. The picnic was held at the home of the bride's parents, Dr. Bruce and Elisabeth Ring in Fertile, Minn., which is located 450 miles north of Wayne.

All five of the Ring's children were in attendance, along with many of the grandchildren.

This included Ron and Ruth Ring and their son, Luke, and his wife, Kasey, of Lexington, Ky.; Jane (Ring) and Kerry Jech and their daughter, Amanda and husband, Brian Friberg and son, Gavin; the Jech's sons, Jordan Jech, all of Marshalltown, Iowa and Jeremy and wife, Leah Jech of Cozad; Jeanne (Ring) and Doug Walker, their son, Andrew of Lincoln and daughter, Marine Pfc. Melissa Walker of Camp LeJuene, N.C.; and Krista (Ring) and husband, Brad Sheafe and their daughters, Madison, Britt, Nicole and Kassidy Sheafe of Monticell, Ill.

Also in attendance was their granddaughter, Beth, of Litchfield, Minn. and grandson, Josh and his wife, Rachel and their daughter, Kiera of Savidge, Minn.

The bride's sister, Rachel and her husband, Thomas Stenback and daughter, Yaminah of Upsala, Sweden and her brother, David, of Minneapolis were part of the wedding party.

Adding to the festivities at the picnic on the wooded lawn, a moose happened to wander by a couple of times.

"Everyone in attendance grabbed their cameras and got some great pictures," Donna said.

On Saturday morning, the Rings' children helped Krista celebrate her birthday at the Inn at Maple Crossing (a Bed & Breakfast) at Maple Lake, Minn.

The beautiful wedding was on Saturday, July 17 at Concordia Lutheran Church in Fertile, Minn., officiated by Kerry Jech.

The bride and groom were attended by brothers, sisters and friends.

Many of the flowers from the bride's parents' lawn helped decorate the church sanctuary.

The couple's two nieces, Kiera and Yaminah, dressed in adorable matching dresses were wheeled in in an old fashioned baby buggy and then into the arms of older cousins standing nearby.

The wedding reception was held at Alumni Hall on the campus of North Dakota State University in Fargo, N.D. where the groom is a recent mechanical engineering graduate.

Ron and Ruth were hosts for the reception.

The bride and groom used the theme "A Bicycle Built for Two" and the bride's father, Mark Westhed of Duluth, Minn. and her step-father, Bruce Ring, sang the song "A Bicycle Built for Two" with words adapted to the couple, written by Jeanne and Doug Walker, while the bride's brother, David and brother-in-law rode a bicycle built for two through the hall of Alumni Hall.

Scott and Sarah will reside in Minneapolis where he is employed with Emerson Engineering Co.

MAKING SENSE OF INVESTING

Congregation members at Grace Lutheran Church observed Christmas this weekend.

Grace Lutheran observes Christmas in July

Since a major blizzard cancelled worship services over Christmas in December, it was decided to hold a Christmas Service in July to hear the Christmas message and sing the Christmas hymns.

In addition, December is most likely not even the actual birth time of Jesus. It is more likely that Jesus' birth could have been somewhere between April to June because the shepherds were in the field watching their flocks at night.

"The congregation seemed to really enjoy hearing the Christmas message, singing the hymns and seeing the decorations at a time when we normally don't think about Christmas. The singing seemed to extra robust Sunday, and it was especially fun to see people's faces as they came in church and saw the Christmas decorations," said Pastor Carl Lilienkamp, pastor of Grace Lutheran Church.

Guest Day held at Our Savior

Women of the ELCA entertained about 80 women at their annual Guest Day celebration. Each year an invitation is extended to women in the area and community on a rotation.

The women were treated to an organ presentation from Our Savior Lutheran Church Organist and church Musician Lucas Wickstrom. Director of Lay Ministries Sue Stover assisted Lucas with meditations between each hymn.

The women in attendance joined in singing verses of several songs praising and celebrating Gods hope, joy and love. The presentation ended with a short message centered around the theme from Pastor Kim Stover.

The evening concluded with a light lunch of salad and sandwiches. The theme Share the Light of Christ: "Live, Laugh and Love" was carried out with decorations in the fellowship hall. Table decorations of tissue paper flowers and candles with Christian jokes scattered among the candles.

Each women was treated to a candy treat wrapped in a message of laughter. Twenty scented candles were given away as door prizes.

The women of ELCA will not meet in August but will meet in September. Joy Circle will do Hands On Quilting Sept. 8 at 2 p.m. and Charity Circle will do Lutheran World Relief Health Kits Sept. 15 at 7:30 p.m. Bible Study Circles Rachel will meet at The Oaks on Monday, Sept. 6. at 1:30 p.m., Rebekah at Donella Johnsons on Thursday, Sept. 16 at 2 p.m. and Tabitha Monday, Sept. 27 at Gloria Lesbergs at 7:30.

Visitation and sewing will meet at their usual times and dates.

Leightons to note anniversary

Donavon and Marilyn Leighton of Winside will celebrate their 50th wedding anniversary with an open house on Sunday, Aug. 8 from 2 to 5 p.m.

The event will held at the Winside American Legion and will be hosted by the couple's family.

Donavon Leighton and the former Marilyn Ross were united in marriage on Aug. 13, 1960 at Canonsburg, Penn.

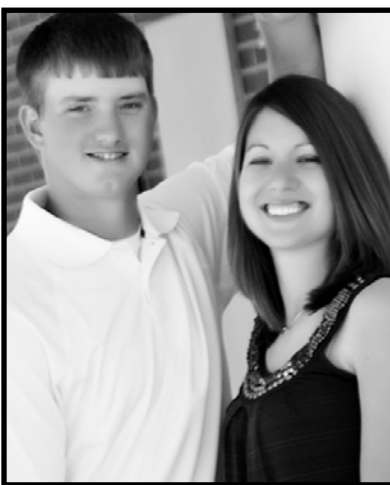

Their children and spouses are Kim Leighton of Lincoln, Kelly Wozny of Norfolk, Kerri and Jeff Jones of Columbus and Kathy and Larry Meyer of Winside. They have seven grandchildren.

Cards will reach the couple at P.O. Box 54, Winside, Neb. 68790.

Mr. and Mrs. Leighton

Engagements

Nolte — Haas

Dick and Pam Nolte of Wayne announce the engagement of their daughter, Jennifer to Tyler Haas, son of Jan Wragge and Dave Haas of Pierce.

Grandparents are Phyllis Nolte and the late Wilbur Nolte of Wayne and Don and Marvene Wragge of Pierce.

The bride to be is a 2006 graduate of Wayne High School and a 2008 graduate of Northeast Community College with an associates degree in horticulture/golf course management. She is currently employed at Glenridge Golf Course in Irene, S.D.

The future groom is a 2006 graduate of Pierce High School and a 2008 graduate of Northeast Community College with an associate degree in golf course management/horticulture. He is the superintendent of Glenridge Golf Course, Irene, S.D.

An Aug. 28 wedding is planned at Grace Lutheran Church in Wayne.

Activities continue at Praise Assembly

Praise Assembly of God held "Sunday in the Park" services in Carroll on July 25. It included the musical ministry of "Living Waters."

This Sunday at Praise Assembly of God Church at 1000 East 10th Street in Wayne will hold Sunday School beginning at 9:30 a.m.

The guest teacher will be Sherry Pfaltzgraff, wife of WSC Staff Accompanist Phil Pfaltzgraff. Sherry has been a Bible teacher for a number of years, specializing in women's study groups and Sunday School teaching.

At 10:30 a.m., Ernest Bratcher will be leading the worship in the morning worship service. Ernest will be a senior at Allen High School this fall and has been working at a camp counselor at Camp Assurance. The church's pastor, Rev. David Stitt will be preaching, continuing in a very effective sermon series called "The Healing of Relationships." Since Sunday is the first Sunday of the month, it is also Communion Sunday at Praise Assembly of God.

Sunday evening at 6:30, the pastor's wife, Dee Stitt, will lead the worship in the weekly "Healing Service." After a time of worship and teaching, the rest of the service is devoted to praying for the needs of people who are present in the meeting.

Last chance for Nebraska farmers to win $2,500 for their communities

Time is running out for Nebraska farmers to win $2,500 to help grow their local communities. America's Farmers Grow Communities ProjectSM, a program sponsored by Monsanto Fund, allows farmers in eligible counties to enter for a chance to win a $2,500 award for their favorite local nonprofit group.

With less than a month left in the application period, Nebraska farmers are being encouraged to enter now if they want a chance to help their communities. Farmers in eligible counties can apply at www.growcommunities.com, or they can call 1.877.267.3332 and apply by phone.

Mark Hesel, a Seward County farmer, recently entered for a chance to win. "I think this is a very good program that gives funds to organizations in need," he said. "Once I became aware of it, I wanted to enter and do anything I could to help the organizations that we support."

In Nebraska, one winner will be drawn from each of the state's 71 participating counties. Monsanto Fund will announce winning farmers and recipient organizations in August 2010. In total, more than $177,000 will be donated to charities throughout Nebraska.

"I chose an FFA chapter in our local school district," Hesel explained. "We need to keep educating young people in agriculture to move ahead for future generations and their success."

Farmers, age 21 and over, who are actively engaged in farming a minimum of 250 acres of corn, soybeans and/or cotton, or 40 acres of open-field vegetables, or at least 10 acres of tomatoes, peppers and/or cucumbers grown in protected culture, are eligible. The application period runs May 1 through July 31, 2010.

The program is open to all qualifying farmers who live in eligible counties in California, Kansas, Nebraska, North Carolina, Ohio, South Carolina and South Dakota, where a minimum of 50,000 acres of corn or soybeans, or 25,000 acres of cotton, or 50,000 acres of vegetables, are planted. No purchase is necessary in order to enter or win.

The new project is part of a broad commitment by Monsanto Fund to support charities in farm communities, in order to highlight the important contributions farmers make every day to our society.
