Schoh steps down as Wayne State AD

Chance to be close to family leads him to Winona State

By MICHAEL CARNES
Of The Herald

Eight years ago, Eric Schoh fulfilled a goal of his to become an athletic director at a NCAA Div. II school when he accepted the position at Wayne State College.

Now, he's going to get the chance to do the job he loves, and do it a lot closer to home.

On Friday, Schoh was introduced as the new athletic director at Winona State University in Winona, Minn. He takes over for Larry Holstad, who retired after 15 years in the position. The 43-year-old Schoh begins his duties at his new job on Monday, June 11.

It was a rejection at another Northern Sun Conference institution that led Schoh to Wayne, America, and a chance to step into a position he had wanted for some time.

"I was a finalist for the job at Southwest Minnesota State and didn't get it, and Butch Raymond had just left there to become (NSIC) commissioner," Schoh said. "Curt (Frye) knew Butch and called him and asked him about the rejects, and Butch said, 'the best reject I know is Eric Schoh.'"

At the time, Schoh was associate athletic director for development at Cal State-Bakersfield, but was looking to move back closer to the Midwest, where his family resides. Frye contacted the LaCrescent, Minn., native about the position, and upon visiting the Wayne State campus, Schoh immediately saw some good things about the campus.

"I had a chance to look at the facilities and meet the people, and I could tell right away this was going to be a really good fit," he said. "I thought we were capable of competing for conference titles, and also for regional and national titles. I wanted to be somewhere where I could be successful, and this felt like a good fit."

Schoh said he had been on campus while working at the University of South Dakota, attending the NCAA men's basketball regional that Wayne State hosted in 2000. After getting a really good look at the place, he saw some good things and the need for some improvements, some of which were already taking place.

"My first fall here, I met Regg Swanson, who had this grand idea for a training room that would be one of the best in Div. II, and as I sat and listened to him I realized this is something that's going to happen and it's going to be really nice," he said.

The new training room helped open up an opportunity to upgrade the school's weight room, which was moved to Memorial Stadium. Upgraded locker rooms, coaches offices and other improvements have helped give the college's athletic department something it can really be proud of, Schoh said.

"We don't have the scholarship dollars that some schools in the Northern Sun have, so we have to take advantage of what we have and our facilities have gotten a lot better," he said. "I think we're at the top end of Div. II as far as where facilities are, and the wheels are in motion to put turf on the football field, widen the soccer field and put in a new track. A lot has to happen there, but it's part of the master plan of the campus, so I think we're in good shape to see those things here and it's going to get even better." During Schoh's tenure, he has also had the opportunity to hire some outstanding coaches who have helped take Wayne State places it has never been before.

Dan McLaughlin was hired as football coach and has guided Wayne State to a Div. II playoff appearance and the best five-year record in the conference. See SCHOH, Page 3A

Relay For Life event gets underway Friday

The following is an explanation of the significance of the timing of the events surrounding the American Cancer Society's Relay For Life, which began in 1985.

The event began in Tacoma, Wash. after Dr. Gordy Klatt, a Tacoma colorectal surgeon wanted to enhance the income of his local American Cancer Society office. He decided to personally raise money for the fight by doing something he enjoyed - running marathons. That year, he ran for 24 hours and raised $27,000 for the cause.

Eventually, the event was condensed to a 12-hour event and Relays are now held across the United States and in 18 other countries around the world.

"Relay For Life starts at dusk and ends at the next day's morning. The light and darkness of the day and night parallel the physical effects, emotions and mental state of a cancer patient while undergoing treatment.

"The Relay begins when the sun is setting. This symbolizes the time that the person has been diagnosed as having cancer. The day is getting darker and this repre-

LAUREL - It's been almost 50 years in the making, but Don Grella finally has his Purple Heart.

The Laurel native whose helicopter was shot down over Vietnam in 1965, formally and posthumously received his Purple Heart during a special recognition at Laurel's annual Memorial Day ceremony Monday morning at Laurel-Concord

High School. The award was presented to Grella's sister, Shirley Haase, by Maj. Gen. Roger Lempke.

The award was actually received by Haase earlier this year, but a formal ceremony was arranged and allowed the community to share in the joy of seeing one of its own honored with the combat medal.

"It was good to get it done and it was nice to have a formal presentation in Laurel,"

Verdell and Katherine Lund

Verdell "Dell" Bernard Lund and Katherine E. Lund, long-time residents of Wakefield, are being brought home for burial on Saturday, June 2. Katherine died on Oct. 8, 2011 in Fort Collins, Colo. Verdell died Oct. 5, 2004 in Loveland, Colo.

Dell was born to Benjamin and Elizabeth (Hypes) Lund on May 27, 1915 in Wakefield. He graduated from Wakefield High School in 1932.

Katherine was born in Plankinton, S.D. on Sept. 15, 1914 to Robert and Catherine Culton. She grew up in Council Bluffs, Iowa where she also graduated from high school and attended business college.

On Sept. 25, 1937 Katherine and Dell were married. They farmed near Wakefield, and later took over the family farm where they raised pigs, milked cows and raised corn and other crops. Katherine was a wonderful cook and baked many cookies, bread rolls, pies and cakes for the four boys, Dell, Grandpa Ben and many relatives and friends. She also was an accomplished seamstress and made all of her own clothes. They lived here until they retired from the farm in 1971. After traveling for a year they moved to Fort Collins, Colo. where they lived until their deaths.

Survivors include one son, Charles and Penny Lund of Fort Collins; daughters-in-law, Sharon Lund and Jane Tanner; sister, Gwen Gerlinger of Hastings, Mich.; grandchildren, Yvonne, Keith Curtis, Dawn, Denise, Stephanie, Nicole and Karin and 24 great-grandchildren.

They were preceded in death by their parents; sons, Gary, Daniel and Sonny; and grandchildren, Katherine and Brent.

Graveside services will be Saturday, June 2 at 1 P.M. at Wakefield Cemetery. Bressler-Munderloh-Smith Funeral Home of Wakefield, Nebraska is in charge of arrangements.

Memorial gifts may be made to Disabled American Veterans.

Hammer is spiritual director

Deborah Hammer of Our Savior Lutheran Church in Wayne was certified as a spiritual director by Nebraska Synod ELCA Bishop David deFreese in a May 22 ceremony held in Omaha. Looking Ahead in Wayne

By LOWELL JOHNSON,
City Administrator

City Council Meetings
Regular City Council meetings are at 5:30 p.m. on the first and third Tuesdays of each month in city hall at Third and Pearl Streets.

It's Budget Time
Local, regional and state governments are working on their budget for next year. Wayne's budget has four main parts:

1) Capital Projects, such as streets, park improvements, water and sewer projects, and buildings. There are always more projects to build than funding available. The mayor and council prioritize these at the annual strategic planning retreat and again in the budget process. We seek grant funding to build capital projects before spending local tax or utility funds. Wayne has been pretty aggressive and has received over $20 million in grants and outside funding for capital projects in the last 30 years.

2) Government General Fund: This covers operational costs for streets, parks, library, senior center, city recreation program, swimming pool, activity center, office buildings and operations, police department, fire department, civil defense.

Our annual budget for these has averaged about $2.8 million over the last few years. Over the last 15 years, the city has levied between $575,000 and $635,000 in property taxes per year to help pay these operating costs. The remaining $2.2 million is raised through occupation taxes, $800,000 in state aid and fees.

3) Utility Departments: The water, sewer and electrical departments are operated as separate non-profit agencies. The utility rates are reviewed each year and set to cover operating expenses, capital improvements and maintain a cash reserve.

4) Wayne Airport: The airport is outside the city limits but owned by the city. The Wayne Airport Authority is operated by separately elected officials. State law requires us to levy city property taxes to help fund airport operation. About $70,000 from the city property taxes each year goes to the airport budget. The airport authority has successfully used a few thousand local dollars to match and secure millions of dollars in federal aviation tax fund grants to make airport improvements in recent years.

Taylor Swift to honor fallen Marine in next music video

By CLARA OSTEN
Of the Herald

Music celebrities often get fan letters and requests from admirers.

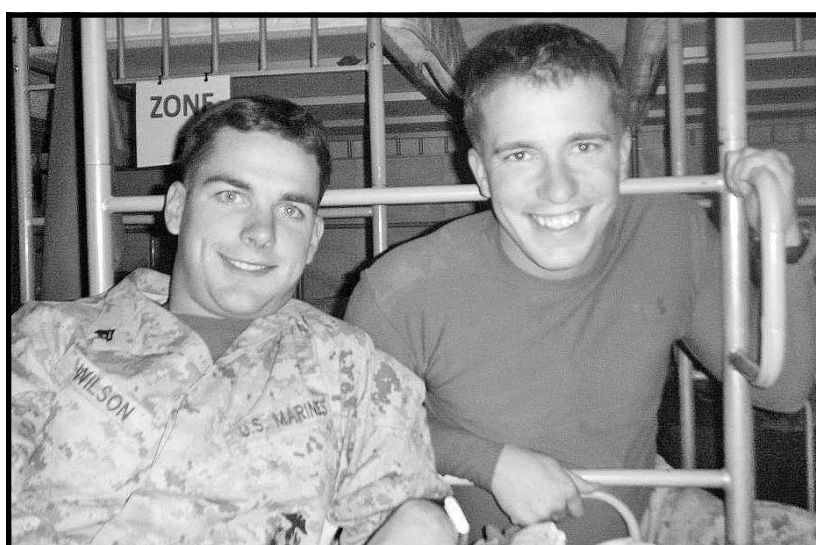

However, a recent request to country singer Taylor Swift was somewhat out of the ordinary.

Josh Marrell, who served a tour of duty in Afghanistan with U.S. Marine Sgt. Wade Wilson, made a YouTube request to Swift after Wilson was killed in a military incident in Afghanistan on May 11.

Marrell, a student at the University of Nebraska-Lincoln, is from Hooper. He and Wade served together from May to November of 2010 and Marrell learned of Wilson's admiration for Swift, noting that Wilson often slept with a picture of Swift by his bed.

Marrell put together a YouTube video entitled "A Fallen War Hero's Love for Taylor Swift," explaining that Wilson was a huge Taylor Swift fan and asking others to pay their respects to his friend's family.

Not only did Swift see the video, she contacted the family the night of the visitation and asked if she could wear Wilson's dog tags when she produces her next video.

Josh Marrell (right) contacted Taylor Swift about Sgt. Wade Wilson (left), who admired the singer, after Wilson was killed in a military incident in Afghanistan. Swift will wear Wilson's dog tags in her next music video.

"I have been amazed by the number of hits the video has had. There have been more than 40,000 views in all and I have been contacted for interviews by several television stations in Texas. Fox also contacted me for an interview," Marrell said.

He noted Swift's response to his request is "cool."

"It is nice to see musicians who are still down to earth.

Marrell's sister, Abi, is a Wayne State College student and has encouraged everyone to check out the video as "these Marines mean the world to me."

Driving event to pass through Wayne

The 20th annual Nebraska Rod and Custom Association (NRCA) 600 mile Tour Nebraska driving event will be held on Saturday and Sunday, June 2-3 in northeast Nebraska.

This is a road TOUR in classic, antique and special interest vehicles. The Tour route this year will go through or near 30 towns and villages including, Wayne.

The Tour Nebraska route changes every year as organizers work to showcase the special attractions of Nebraska to members, while bringing a classic car show to the area.

Spectators can hear the sound of the vehicles coming five miles away, and, it will take more than 20 minutes for the Tour to go by.

Anyone who had a vehicle they wish they had never sold, will most likely see a similar one in this tour. More than 325 vehicles have pre-registered for Tour Nebraska which is a "traveling parade" of 15 miles or more. With drivers and passengers, over 700 people will participate. Pre-tour arrangements have been made at scheduled stops and as much as possible, the tour utilizes local law enforcement to help prevent congestion. The estimated value of the vehicles that the group will be driving is $6.5 million.

"From our first Tour in 1993 we have decorated our vehicles with small American flags - patriotism is not something that is new or trendy for our members. Our previous tours have covered over 10,000 miles of roads in Nebraska promoting not only our association but also the many wonders of Nebraska to our members," said Gary Hedman, president of the Nebraska Rod and Custom Association.

The group will begin this year's tour at the D-Vent Center in Norfolk at 7 a.m. on Saturday, June 2 and travel through Hadar, Pierce, Osmond, Creighton, Center, Verdigré, Niobrara and into South Dakota and back into Nebraska and travel through Wayne at approximately 3 p.m. and travel back to Norfolk for Day 1 of the event.

On Sunday, the tour will leave Norfolk and travel to the southwest and end up at York, traveling a total of nearly 600 miles on the two-day event.

sents the cancer patient's state of mind as they feel their life is coming to an end.

"As the evening goes on, it gets colder and darker, just as the emotions of the cancer patient do. The time around 1-2 a.m. represents the time when the cancer patients start treatments. They become exhausted, some sick, not wanting to go on, possibly wanting to give up. As a participant, you have been walking and feel much the same way. You are tired, want to sleep, maybe even want to go home, but you cannot. You cannot stop or give up, just as the cancer patient cannot stop or give up.

"The time around 4-5 a.m. symbolizes the coming of the end of treatment for the cancer patient. Once again, they are tired, but they know they will make it.

"The sun rising represents the end of treatment for the cancer patient. They see the light at the end of the tunnel and know that life will go on. The morning light brings on a new day full of life and excitement for new beginnings for the cancer patient. As a participant, you will feel the brightness of the morning and know that the end of the Relay is close at hand.

"When you leave the Relay, think of the cancer patient leaving their last treatment. Just as you are exhausted and weak, so is that person after treatment.

"Remember, there is no finish line until we find a cure."

Evening activities begin at 6:30 p.m. with Survivor Registration.

Opening activities, including a Survivor Lap and Caregivers Lap, begin at 7 p.m.

Food provided by Northeast Nebraska Cattlemen and Pizza Hut will be available for a freewill offering beginning at 7:30 p.m.

One of the more popular events of the Relay, the Miss Relay Pageant featuring male contestants vying for the title by attempting to raise the most money for Relay, begins at 8 p.m.

The Luminaria Ceremony to remember those who have lost the battle with cancer and celebrate those who continue to battle, will begin at 10 p.m.

A midnight Fight Back ceremony with Diane Roeber sharing her cancer story is also scheduled.

Numerous games and activities are planned throughout the night as walkers continue to circle the track.

The closing ceremony is scheduled for 6 a.m. when the total amount raised for this year's Relay is announced.

The public is invited and encouraged to attend any or all of this year's Relay For Life.

Haase said after the ceremony. "There had been an offer to do one in Omaha, but I said it needs to be here because that's where the people who knew Don are, so I was very grateful that Gen. Lempke was willing to come and do that."

It was a long journey for Haase to bring her brother's remains home after his helicopter was shot down on a mission in the fall of 1965. After 44 years of exhaustive efforts, her brother's remains were finally found in the summer of 2009 and brought back for burial in Laurel's cemetery on the west edge of town later that fall.

Thanks to a Vietnam villager's testimony, Haase determined that there was evidence her brother and his crew all died during combat, which qualified them for the Purple Heart.

But cutting through the red tape proved to be a challenge. After being denied by the Army Board of Correction of Military Records in the spring of 2010, her appeal was granted in the fall of 2011 and she finally received the medal in late February.

Haase credited the work of Gen. Lempke, who helped her jump through all the hoops she needed to get her brother the honor he long deserved.

"He helped me put together the application and helped me fine-tune my appeal before we sent it in," she said. "He was here for the funeral and at the group burial at Arlington, so it was nice that he was able to come here and present the medal."

After almost a half-century of work, Haase finally feels a certain sense of peace knowing that her brother is home and has been properly honored for his service to his country.

"I think everyone thought that it would be right to think that getting his remains home would be closure, but this was one last thing I felt I needed to do, because I felt Don had earned this and the whole crew deserved this and it needed to happen," she said. "It was just something that he deserved."

Relay donation

Pam Albin, representing Wayne County Relay for Life, accepts a donation from Sandra Bartling, Providence Medical Center Foundation President, for $1,165.23 to Wayne County Relay For Life. "A Wayne County Relay For Life account was created in our foundation years ago. Over time the balance has continued to grow and this year we are pleased to be able to donate over $1,000 to Wayne County Relay for Life," said Bartling. "We urge everyone to become involved with Relay For Life activities."

run of success in school history. Softball coach Krista (Unger) Wood led the softball team to the super regionals in 2010. Scott Kneif has made the volleyball program a consistent top 10 team in Div. II and earned the school's first-ever No. 1 ranking in any sport. Women's basketball coach Chris Kielsmeier has led his team to back-to-back conference titles and the school's first-ever Elite Eight appearance earlier this year.

All but one of the nine current head coaches at Wayne State were hired by Schoh, and he said the credit goes to the coaches who have made their programs successful.

"I'm very proud of the staff we've hired here," he said. "They're great people, and that's one of the tough things about leaving. These people work hard and are driven by results, both competitively and academically."

He said he's also proud of the student-athletes who have represented Wayne State during his tenure.

"It's been really neat to have student-athletes, both current and former athletes, reach out to me and tell me how much they appreciated how I helped them," he said. "It makes you feel proud to know the work you've done has had a good influence on young people."

With all that going for him, it made the decision to take the Winona State job a difficult one. The one overriding factor, Schoh said, was simple - family.

"It was a special day at the news conference to have my wife, my mom and my aunt there," he said. "My parents still live in LaCrescent, and it was a very emotional day, but that's how much it means to be around my family. It's a special deal - I get to do what I love to do at a great institution and be near my family. If that's not a perfect setting, then I don't know what is, but to do that, I have to leave a great institution, a great community and great people."

Leaving Wayne State is going to be hard for Schoh, mainly because of the people of Wayne and Wayne State College who are so passionate about the school and the athletic

Barry is WSC interim AD

Wayne State College president Curt Frye announced Wednesday afternoon that Mike Barry will serve as interim athletic director until the position opened with the resignation Friday of Eric Schoh is filled.

This is Barry's third tenure as interim athletic director. The longtime associate director of athletics has been with the college for more than 20 years, first as women's basketball coach and for the past 14 years as director of sports and recreational facilities. He has been associate director of athletics for the past 12 years.

Frye told The Wayne Herald that the athletic director position has been posted on the school's website and on the NCAA jobs website, as well as other sports-related publications.

"We're cranking on it right now," he said Tuesday afternoon. "Our goal is to have the position filled before the start of fall camps at the end of July or the first part of August. It's an aggressive schedule, but we're going to work hard at it."

programs there.

"The people of Wayne made this a much more difficult decision than I ever thought it would be," he said. "It's a credit to them and how much they care about this place and the support they've shown the last eight years."

"Nothing was done here because of Eric Schoh," he added. "It was done because people shared a goal and a vision and worked together, and I'll always be indebted to the people who were part of that. There are a lot of good people here, and this place will continue to thrive."

Sports year over already? It can't be . . .

It's over? Already? This can't be – we just started football season and saw the Wayne High softball team wallop the two-time defending Class B champions on their home field last week. And there's a big game for the Wildcats with the defending national champions from Minnesota Duluth who haven't lost a conference game in forever.

The 2011-2012 sports season can't be done yet. Nine months hasn't gone by that quickly, has it?

Sadly enough, it has – the 2011-2012 sports season is now nothing more than a memory. The area athletes have given their all, tallied up the wins and losses, and have left us with an interesting school year worth of sports to look back on.

There were some great memories that we'll remember about the 2011-2012 school year. Here's 10 that leap to The Bleacher Bum's mind (in reverse order):

10. New coaches aplenty – Area schools are seeing a lot of coaching changes for the coming year, including at Wayne High, where it looks like I'll have to have a day-long training session to break in the new coaches.

The Blue Devils replaced coaches in football (Rich Rethwisch), volleyball (Joyce Hoskins) and wrestling (Tony Lawrence) for 2012-2013, and they are not alone. Winside is replacing coaches in football (Tim Manzer), girls basketball (Manzer) and volleyball (Brooke DeBolt), while Wakefield is looking for a new wrestling coach with Travis Volk departing for South Sioux City.

At this writing, I'm not aware of any other coaching changes among our area schools, but if they are, I'll let you know.

9. Wildcats volleyball – It's becoming a frustrating old hat for coach Scott Kneifl and the Wayne State volleyball team. The Wildcats backed up their school-record run in 2010 with a very solid 2011 campaign, only to be ousted once again in the first round of regionals.

The Wildcats lost some key senior leaders this year, but Kneifl – who is the best college volleyball coach in the state NOT named John Cook – has a good mix of recruits and returning talent back next year. Making regionals, however, will be a challenge with the changes in regional alignment that have the NSIC tied in with the MIAA and Great American Conference. These three conferences combined to take up more than a third of the top 25 spots in the final poll last year, so making regionals next year would be even more impressive in 2012 than the job they did in 2011.

From The Bleachers

8. Another trip to state cross country – Wayne High's cross country program is as much a fixture at the state meet as the rolling fairways at Kearney Country Club. The Blue Devil boys made it back again this year, with senior Quentin Jorgensen notching another top 10 finish to cap a very impressive running career.

Next year's team will face some challenges, as the loss of some key seniors this year will require some younger kids to work hard in the summer and step up next fall. If they do, the traditional trip to Kearney the last Friday in October will continue.

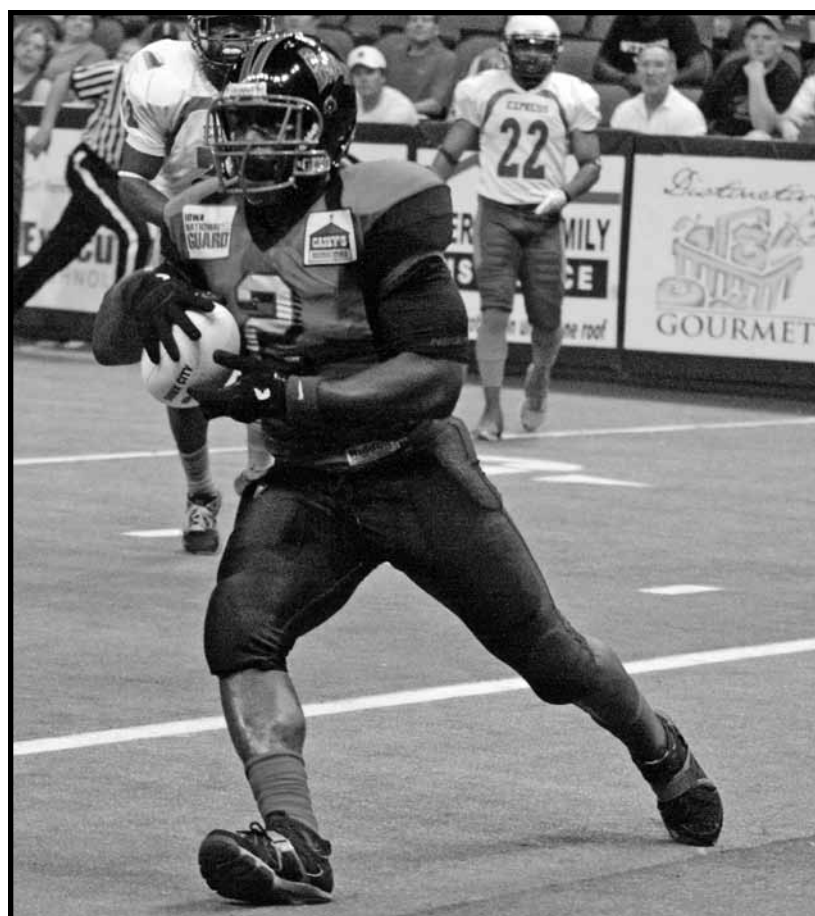

7. Winside wrestlers make top 10 . . . again – Another time-honored tradition in the area is seeing the Winside wrestlers on the leaderboard in the Class D division at the state tourney.

The Wildcats had just six qualifiers this year, but certainly made the most of the weekend, getting Forrest Jones into the finals and riding three medalists to a fifth-place finish. Considering the Wildcats had their smallest lineup in recent memory with just seven varsity spots taken, they competed very well throughout the season.

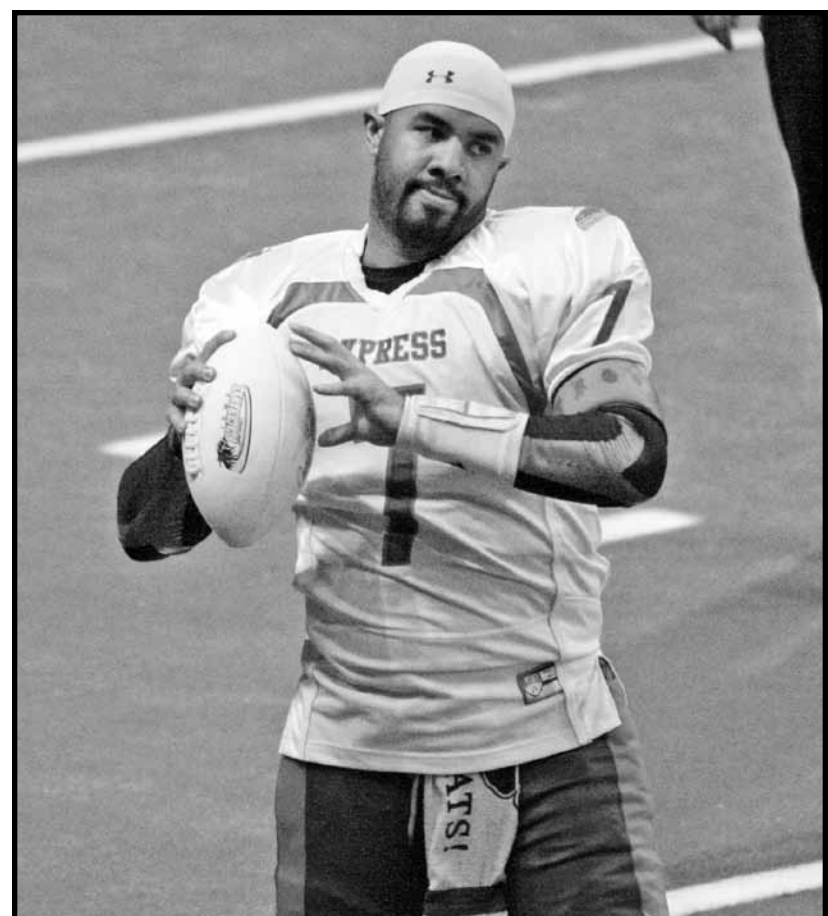

6. Three in a row for Winside volleyball – For the third year in a row, the Winside volleyball team made it to the Class D1 state tournament, only to fall victim to one of the eventual finalists in the opening round.

This was probably the most impressive of the three straight trips this team made, mainly because of the challenge of meshing the returning talent with a new coach. Teresa Watters, who did a fantastic job building the program and leading the team to state in 2009 and 2010, stepped aside after her family adopted a child, leaving the program in the hands of rookie coach Brooke DeBolt.

DeBolt did a great job maintaining the team's focus and leading them to state, and now she will be stepping aside to coach girls basketball. See BLEACHERS, Page 2B

Indoor game features seven WSC alums

The atmosphere could not have been more different from a Saturday afternoon at Bob Cunningham field.

The 15-minute introduction of each player on the Sioux City Bandits' roster was in stark contrast to the way the Wayne State Wildcats take the field on game day, and that is without the parade of vehicles from local Sioux City auto dealerships that preceded them.

Additionally, there was no marching band, no raucous Wayne State student section, the game was indoors and the field only 50 yards long. But as the Sioux City Bandits and Council Bluffs Express vied for first place in the American Professional Football League, a virtual Wildcat football alumni weekend was also set to take place.

The rosters would have seemed familiar to anyone who has followed Wayne State football over the past four years. In total, there were seven former Wildcats suited up for arena action at the Tyson Events Center in Sioux City on Saturday night, some of whom were seeing

Former Wildcats play, coach together with Sioux City Bandits

Of The Herald

The Sioux City Bandits have a definite Wayne State influence in their championship football team, and it's not limited to the five former Wildcats who suit up for the defending APFL champions.

Head coach Erv Strohbeen and offensive coordinator Jarrod DeGeorgia are both Wayne State alums and have spent a lot of time in football together, dating back to their playing days with the Wildcats in the mid 1990's.

The two were Wildcats when DeGeorgia was making his mark as one of the school's most prolific quarterbacks.

"Erv and I have been together since 1995 when he was my center," DeGeorgia said after the Bandits' latest win, a 49-16 pasting of the Council Bluffs Express. "We also played together with the Sioux City Attack and the Bandits until I retired in 2005, so we've been together a long time."

Strohbeen not only played with DeGeorgia, but played for him during a nine-year stint with the Bandits, two of which with DeGeorgia as head coach. The two have been coaching together for most of the past three seasons, with DeGeorgia serving as Strohbeen's offensive coordinator since late in the

Bunchek, Brungardt are AA's

PUEBLO, Colo. – Nicole Brungardt and Ross Bunchek both get the opportunity to add their names to the list of NCAA Div. II All-Americans at Wayne State College.

Both seniors earned All-American honors at the NCAA Div. II National Track and Field Championships last weekend, as both came away with top-eight finishes to end their careers as All-Americans.

Both have earned All-American honors in indoor track and field, but added outdoor honors to their resumes, with Bunchek placing seventh in the men's hammer throw and Brungardt finishing eighth in the women's 100-meter dash.

On Thursday, Bunchek recorded a top throw of 205 feet, 7 inches in his third preliminary throw to advance to the finals. He was ranked third in the nation going into the competition, and his mark held up to help him earn his second outdoor All-American honor, to go with two indoor All-American nods he earned in the weight throw.

Brungardt qualified for Saturday's finals after running a preliminary time of 11.89 seconds on Thursday, finishing sixth in the preliminary heats. She had come into the meet ranked 14th in the nation, but reached the finals with a chance to earn All-American honors.

Chris Rager of South Sioux City, shown teeing off on the 10th hole, won the rain-shortened championship flight at Sunday's Wayne Men's Amateur Open, firing a two-under par 70 to win by one shot.

Mother Nature gets last laugh at Open

By KEVIN PETERSON
Of The Herald

The annual Wayne Men's Amateur Open was held Sunday at Wayne Country Club with nearly 125 participants taking part.

Sixty-six golfers competed in the championship division in one of the strongest fields in recent history. Unfortunately, Mother Nature – who was not signed up to play – played a role as weather shortened the tournament to just 18 holes instead of the customary 27 for the low 32 scores over the first 18 holes.

South Sioux City's Chris Rager fired a two-under par 70 to claim championship honors, while Wayne's Joey Baldwin carded a one-under par 71 to finish in the runner-up spot. Ryan Sturm, formerly of Wayne, was third at an even par 72, edging Wayne's Doug Rose by way of tie-breaker. Wayne State alum Jake Hirz finished fifth with a 73 and Wayne's Mike Varley was sixth at 74.

Tyson Bodlak of South Sioux City placed seventh at 75, with Tyler Vacek of Omaha, Alex Salmon of Lincoln, Mitch Holgate of Homer, Adam Fields of Alta, Iowa, Murray Krambeer of Bellevue and Gregg Vannahme of Omaha following in order with 75's. Jason Peterson of Omaha, Bill Erickson of Alta, Iowa each shot 76's, with Nate Salmon of Lincoln, Riley Meuret of Brunswick and Nick Swaney of Blair each carding 77's to round out the top 18 placers.

Sam Prue won the first flight with a 75, edging Wayne's Brad Hansen by tie-breaker. Bruce Schrage was third with a 77 and Jason Claussen, fourth at 79. Dave Anderson of Laurel won the second flight with a one-under par 71, while Tim Carlson fired a 79 for second place. Chad Johnson and Ron Spike each carded 81's to tie for third. Bill Ellis was the third flight winner with an 80, while Mike Bentjen of Wayne finished second at 80, edging Wayne's Reggie Yates with the same score. Kelly Hansen was fourth with an 81.

Kirk Mortensen won the fourth flight with an 82, while Wayne's Duane Blomenkamp finished second with an 83. Max McDonald was third with an 84 and Wayne's Rusty Parker was fourth with an 85. Travis Havlovic won the fifth flight at 84, followed by Rod Doenhofer with an 85 and Wayne's Bill Sharpe at 86. Matt Blomenkamp was fourth with an 87.

The sixth flight was won by John McMenamin with an 83, followed by Burke Nonnan at 89 and John Penn at 92. James Doenhofer was fourth at 92. The final flight was won by Wayne's Craig Walling with an 87, followed by Rich Rethwisch with an 88. Tim Schrage was third with a 91 and Ken Loberg of Wayne was fourth at 96.

Kaje Maly makes the throw to first for the Wayne Juniors during their 2-1 loss to Dodge in the Memorial Day Classic at Hank Overin Field. Grant Anderson trails the play.

Juniors beat Ponca, Columbus to start 2-1

The Wayne American Legion Juniors are off to a 2-1 start after splitting their two games in the annual Memorial Day Classic at Hank Overin Field.

The Juniors opened the tournament with a 2-1 loss to Dodge in a tough pitcher's battle. Jalen Barry pitched well in a losing effort, striking out six and limiting Dodge to just three hits.

Wayne scored their only run in the top of the fifth when Jake Lutt came home on a wild pitch. Dodge answered with a run in the bottom of the fifth and managed to make that lead stand up.

Wayne bounced back with an 8-4 win over the Columbus Reds later Saturday. The Juniors got a good pitching performance once again, this time from Lutt, who struck out nine and limited the Reds to just four hits. Offensively, Joe Burrows had two hits and Barry had a two-run double to highlight the Wayne effort.

Wayne opened the season with a high-scoring battle at Ponca, coming away with a 15-8 victory.

Wayne scored five runs in the first, four more in the fourth and six in the fifth to win the high-scoring battle. Curtis Moeller and Jack Belt each scored three runs, Burrows had three RBIs and Grant Anderson picked up the win on the mound.

The 2-1 Juniors are back in action Monday at West Point and Wednesday at home against Hooper.

Devil 10-unders go 3-2

The Wayne Dirt Devils 10-under softball team went 3-2 and reached the semifinals of the Lakeview Invitational over the weekend.

On Saturday, Wayne opened with a 13-2 win over the Norfolk Golden Girls, scoring 10 runs in the first two innings and cruising to the easy win. Tori Kniesche struck out eight batters to pick up the win. Sydney Biggerstaff led the offensive effort with a 2-for-3 performance, scoring twice and driving in two runs. Erin O'Reilly was 2-for-2 with an RBI.

Wayne won their second game in pool play with a 15-6 win over Columbus Lakeview, overcoming a 5-0 first-inning deficit. Kniesche struck out seven and was 2-for-2 with two RBIs in the win. Biggerstaff had three hits, scored three times and drove in three runs, while Avianna Doring was 2-for-2 with an RBI and two runs scored.

ed Wayne its first loss of the weekend in a 12-0 decision. Doring got the team's only hit against a very tough Grand Island pitcher. Kniesche struck out seven in a losing effort.

In Sunday's tournament play, Wayne opened with a 6-3 win over the Columbus Fire & Ice. Wayne got out to a quick 6-1 lead and held on as a Columbus rally came up short. Kniesche struck out 11 in the circle to get the win, and Biggerstaff, Doring and Maysn Dorey all had hits.

The Dirt Devils faced the Stingers a second time in the semifinals, and the result was much the same as Grand Island came away with an 11-0 win. Wayne kept the game close early before Grand Island erupted for nine runs in the third inning to come away with the win. O'Reilly, Doring and Kniesche all had hits.

5. Bunchek one of nation's best throwers - Wayne State senior hammer thrower Ross Bunchek made his best effort on college track's biggest stage earlier this spring when he finished second in the Drake Relays. His throw was not only good enough to beat all but one of 24 NCAA Div. I competitors, but may land him a spot in next month's Olympic Trials in Eugene, Ore.

The Drake Relays as the only meet Bunchek did not win in the hammer throw this season, and finished off his career with an All-American effort in Pueblo, Colo.

4. Wayne softball undefeated regular season - There was little room for error for the Wayne High softball team last season. As the smallest fish in the Class B pond, and playing a Class C-heavy schedule, they weren't going to be able to come up on the short end of the scoreboard very often and expect to make it to state.

They kicked off the season with a very impressive win over the two-time Class B champion Blair Bears, pulling off the win on Blair's home field. That kick-started what would become an undefeated regular season and another state tournament for Wayne.

3. Girls golf surprise silver medalists - Wayne High's girls golf team had its ups and downs during the fall, but put it all together and just the right time, dominating their district and finishing as the state runner-up team in the Class C girls golf tournament.

An all-senior lineup led the charge, with Taylor Burke and Caitlin Potter coming away as medalists. Brittney Peterson was a four-time state qualifier and a four-time district medalist to cap an outstanding high school career.

2. Blocked kick upends No. 1 Bulldogs - After getting lit up for 700 yards and 41 points by Nebraska-Kearney in their home opener, Wayne State's return home after a win at Southwest Minnesota State appeared to be a dubious task.

Defending national champion and top-ranked Minnesota Duluth was coming to town, bringing with it a 31-game conference winning streak and a perfect 10-0 mark against Wayne State in the series history.

The Wildcats defense rose to the occasion, however, and Aaron Konicek blocked a Bulldog punt, which was scooped up by Kevin Paulsen and returned 36 yards for what proved to be the game's only touchdown as the Wildcats upset the Bulldogs, 7-0.

1. The Elite Eight for the first time - I'm sure you are absolutely stunned that the No. 1 story of the 2011-2012 sports year was Wayne State women's basketball making it to the Elite Eight in NCAA Div. II.

There were a lot of expectations on this year's team, and they more than met those expectations - they dominated the NSIC in the regular season and the conference tournament for a rare title sweep, racked up the No. 1 seed for regionals and hosted for the first time in team history, won the regional title and earned the trip to San Antonio for the Elite Eight.

This team was, without a doubt, the story of the year in the area. Their accomplishments gave all of us a ton of wonderful memories that we'll look back on years from now with a great deal of enthusiasm.

Brungardt came through with an eighth-place finish in a school-record time of 11.70 seconds. The mark was better than her 11.81 effort at the Northern Sun Conference championships earlier in the month.

Three other Wildcats competed in the NCAA meet. Wayne native Carly Fehringer did not record a throw in Thursday's hammer throw, and placed 12th out of 18 competitors in the shot put with a best mark of 46 feet, 2 1/2 inches in her second trip to nationals in that event.

Emily Wells also threw in the hammer throw, finishing 15th with a best effort of 164 feet, 10 inches. Senior Paige Pollard was forced to withdraw from the heptathlon, due to an injury, and was unable to run in the 400-meter hurdles.

Dirt Devil 18's sweep to first place finish at Vermillion

A five-game sweep of a tournament in Vermillion, S.D. highlighted a 7-0 start for the Wayne Dirt Devils 18-under softball team.

In pool play Saturday, the Dirt Devils went 3-0, beating the Dakota Bandits (8-0), Norfolk Impact (2-1) and Yankton Black Diamonds (6-3). They posted wins over the Black Diamonds (10-0) and Bandits (12-1) to take the first-place trophy.

In Saturday's action, Wayne opened with an easy win over the Bandits, riding the six-strikeout, one-hit pitching of Kristin Carroll. Jalyn Zeiss highlighted the home team's effort at the plate, going 2-for-3 with a double.

The Dirt Devils' closest game of the weekend was a one-run win over the Norfolk squad. McKenna Gibson got the win in the circle, scattering six hits and striking out three. She helped her own cause with a triple, while Sydney Harris went 2-for-2 at the plate.

The Dirt Devils closed out pool play Saturday with a win over the Yankton squad. Carroll picked up her second win of the day in the circle, striking out five Diamond batters. Zeiss was 2-for-4 at the plate, while Harris went 2-for-3 to lead the Dirt Devils' offensive effort.

Wayne broke out the big bats for the semifinals on Sunday, needing just five innings to beat the Yankton Black Diamonds for the second straight day. Gibson earned her second win of the weekend with the four-hit shutout, striking out two. Zeiss had the game's big hit with a three-run homer to highlight her 3-for-4 game at the plate, while Carroll was 3-for-3 with a double.

It was all Wayne in the championship game, as the Dirt Devils exploded at the plate with six batters each recording at least two hits. Gibson and Caitlin Fehringer both went 3-for-4 in the win and Victoria Kranz was 3-for-3, while Zeiss, Harris and Alexis Owens each had two hits. Carroll pitched the win, allowing three hits.

In league action Thursday, the Dirt Devils took two games from the Norfolk Impact in league action at Norfolk, winning 9-0 and 7-3.

In the opener, Carroll allowed one hit and struck out five. Zeiss had a big night at the plate, recording three hits, two of them triples, and adding four RBIs and two runs. Fehringer had two hits and an RBI.

In the nightcap, Emily Leeper had two hits and two RBIs, while Abbie Hix had a two-run triple to help Wayne get the sweep. Gibson pitched the win, allowing two hits and two walks while striking out seven.

The Wayne Dirt Devils will play host to their own tournament this weekend at the Wayne Softball Complex and Wayne State College.

12-under Devils 3-2 at Lakeview

The Wayne Dirt Devils 12-under softball team went 3-2 in the Lakeview Invitational last weekend in Columbus.

Wayne opened play Saturday with an easy 20-0 win over the Grand Island Illusion. The Dirt Devils scored 12 runs in the first inning and added eight more in the second to put the game away.

Taylor Gamble was 2-for-4 with four RBIs and six stolen bases, while Ashten Gibson was 3-for-3 with a homer, five RBIs and four thefts. Abby Ankeny went 2-for-2. Gibson got the win, striking out five and walking two while allowing no hits in the three-inning game.

Wayne suffered their first loss with a 6-0 defeat by the Seward Jazz. The game was close until the fifth, when Seward erupted for four runs to put the game out of reach. Gibson pitched all five innings, allowing five hits and two walks.

Wayne got back on the winning track, posting a 10-1 win over the Lakeview Lightning. Wayne broke open a close game with five runs in the fifth inning to go on to the win. Gibson struck out 10 and allowed no hits. Gamble and Jenna Trenchhaile each had two hits and Gibson homered and scored twice.

Wayne opened bracket play with a 13-3 win over the Grand Island Fire & Ice. Kennedy Maly had three hits and six RBIs, while Gamble, Gibson and Jamie Gamble each had two hits and two RBIs and scored three times apiece. Gibson struck out three and allowed four hits.

The team ran into the Seward Jazz for the second time, and the Jazz were once again victorious with a 13-0 win. Gibson was tagged for 10 hits and struck out four in the losing effort for the 4-2 Dirt Devils.

Seniors get summer campaign started with high-scoring wins

The Wayne American Legion Seniors got the summer off on the right foot with a pair of wins to open the 2012 campaign.

On Wednesday, the Seniors erupted for seven runs in the sixth inning to break a 4-4 tie and go on to a 13-4 win over Ponca in action at Ponca.

The big blow in the seven-run fifth came off the bat of Bradley Longe, who broke a 4-4 tie with a three-run homer after walks to Danny Melena and Gage Rethwisch and a Joey Lenihan sacrifice. The blast catapulted the Wayne offense after Ponca had tied the game with two runs in the fourth inning.

Rethwisch picked up the win on the mound as a trio of Wayne hurlers each pitched two innings. Lenihan got the start, with Tony Sinniger coming in on relief.

Offensively, Lenihan and Drew Carroll each had two hits, Sinniger had a double and two RBIs, and Frank Bernal had a bases-clearing triple to highlight Wayne's eight-hit attack.

Wayne got one of two games in Sunday in their annual Memorial Day tournament at Hank Overin Field. The Wayne squad dominated Dodge in an 18-1 game, while their scheduled matchup with Atkinson was rained out.

Wayne jumped on Dodge pitching early, scoring nine runs in the first inning. Eight different players recorded at least one hit in the game, with Carroll, Rethwisch, Trent Beza and Miles Anderson each recording two hits. Rethwisch had a pair of triples and scored three runs, while Lenihan and Bernal also scored three runs apiece.

Corey Doorlag went the distance in the five-inning game for Wayne, striking out nine and allowing three hits and a walk.

Bandits

2010 season.

"He was my quarterback in college and my quarterback here, so we've known each other forever," Strohbeen said. "He knows his stuff, and he played behind Kurt Warner when he was with the Iowa Barnstormers in the old Arena League.

"We're best buddies on and off the field, and it's fun to coach with your buddies. This is a close-knit group of guys."

That sense of camaraderie has spilled over into the team, and the coaches' connections with Wayne State College have helped them build a team that has won 22 consecutive games, including the 2011 American Professional Football League championship.

"Wayne State always has good players," De-

Georgia said. "Erv has worked really well with coach (Dan) McLaughlin and gotten some good players, and it's kind of had a snowball effect. You have to credit Erv for working with coach McLaughlin on that."

Strohbeen said a lot of the Bandits' success has come because of the team's ability to bring in some of Wayne State's better players.

"The last time we were competitive, we had a lot of Wayne State guys on the team, and these guys have all bonded together," he said. "When I was playing, we had six or seven Wayne State guys playing with us and we had a lot of success."

A number of the former Wayne State players are still living in the area, which helps make it possible for them to hang around and contribute to the Bandits' success.

"I know (Frederick) Bruno is still finishing school and Nick Hope is an insurance agent, and these guys all still live in the area and drive in from Wayne or Norfolk or wherever to come and play," Strohbeen said.

That continuity, and the connections between the two former Wildcats-turned-coaches, is a big reason for the team's 22-game winning streak.

"We have a lot of veterans back from last year's championship team," DeGeorgia said. "I think 25 of the 28 guys on our roster were here last year, so our camaraderie was a lot stronger and we were able to be off and running the first day of practice."

each other from opposing sidelines for the very first time.

Former Wayne State quarterback Silas Fluellen, running back Mario Melvin and defensive back LaRon Striplin suited up for Council Bluffs, while wide receiver Frederick Bruno, kicker Nick Hope and offensive linemen Joe Bundy and Nehemiah Blackburn took the field for the hometown Bandits.

The differences between college football and the arena game don't end with more ornate pre-game festivities. The smaller field, around which there is a padded five-foot high wall in lieu of an out of bounds line, makes for a much faster game predicated on big plays as opposed to long, methodical drives.

"You can't think, you just have to react. You'll think a guy is open but a corner will come from the backside and make a play on the ball," Fluellen said. "Anyone can make a play on the ball, even defensive linemen."

Apart from a smaller game where everything develops much more quickly, there is the idea of playing football as a job that players have to adjust to; a concept that Melvin felt the rigors of his time at Wayne State prepared him for, noting that college football was every bit as much of a job as what he does now.

Melvin is a first-year player in the APFL, and having former teammates around has made the faster game seem a little more familiar.

"Silas was my college quarterback, so that makes things a lot easier," Melvin said. "We run a lot of the same zone reads here that we did in Wayne, so we already had our mesh down."

The reunion of former teammates, who were seen exchanging words and helmet taps at various points throughout the game, did a lot to ease the tensions of a game that, at times, was more than a little chippy.

"College football has a lot more rivalries, but that's what this is turning out to be," Striplin said after the game.

While bittersweet for the Express, who lost 49-16, both Melvin and Fluellen maintained that playing against their former teammates added an element that is often conspicuously and unfortunately missing from modern sport - fun.

"Win or lose, it was a fun experience," Melvin said.

The two teams meet again on June 8 in Council Bluffs, and will both be headed to the playoffs after that where, as per a guarantee from Melvin and Fluellen, they will be seeing each other once more in the APFL championship game.

WSC eighth in all-sport race

Wayne State finished eighth in the Northern Sun Conference/U.S. Bank All Sports Competition this season.

Wayne State won one conference title this year, winning the women's basketball title. Baseball finished third, volleyball was fourth and football tied for fourth.

Augustana edged out Minnesota State for the overall title.

Didgets Blue splits first two

The Wayne Didgets baseball team split its first two games of the season, losing to Pender 3-2 in eight innings and dominating Stanton 12-1.

In the Pender game, Cole Hobza had a bunt single and scored in the third inning, and Jacob Kneif pitched five scoreless innings. Kallan Herman also pitched well, but Pender was able to get a run across in extra innings to get the win.

Against Stanton, Kneif and Tyrus Eischeid combined on a one-hitter, striking out 16 batters. Isaac Braun hit a two-run homer, Shea Sweetland doubled and scored twice, and Herman was 2-for-3 with three RBIs.

WSC softball signs transfers

Wayne State softball coach Krista Wood announced the signing of softball transfers Michelle Thille and Kylee Simpson for the 2012-13 season.

Thille, a California native, comes to Wayne State from Iowa Lakes Community College, where she was a second-team All-Conference selection, hitting .395 with eight doubles and five triples. The second baseman was first-team All-Conference and All-Region and second-team All-Academic as a freshman.

Simpson, a transfer from Iowa Western Community College, earned All-Region honors while helping her team to a 48-20 record and a regional title. She batted .314 and was named Academic All-Region first-team and an NFCA All-American Scholar Athlete. She is also a California native and plays outfield.

Wayne State has 36 on academic All-NSIC team

Wayne State had 36 athletes listed on the Northern Sun Conference Spring All-Academic Team announced last week.

To be eligible, a student-athlete must be on the varsity traveling team and have a cumulative grade-point average of 3.20 or better, and must also be a sophomore or older with one full year completed at the school.

Wayne State athletes listed are as follows:

Baseball - Braulio Acosta, Jerad Barth, Justin Beranek, Mike Bisenius, Cris Ely, Tyler Hohenstein, Tadd Johansen, Brett Keim, Taylor MacDonell, C.J. Nolen, Trevor Reeves, Jake Ritzdorf, Mike Servais, Taylor Simmonds, Austen Wisroth.

Men's Track - Nathan Boggess, Mickey Doerr, Matt Peter, Dominique Samuel, Jason Schaaf, Alex Timperley, Greg Tracy.

Women's Track - Sidney Blum, Nicole Brungardt, Madeline Glesinger, Brianne Hoffstetter, Mackenzie Masching, Darian Mochizuki, Paige Pollard.

Softball - Kristen Martinson, Vicki Nielsen, Kassie Nurlon, Kallee Pfeiffer.

Women's Golf - Emily Dillon, Tabi Evans.

Men's Golf - Tyler Thompson.

LWML set for meeting June 29-30

Members of the Lutheran Women's Missionary League (LWML) Nebraska North District will be heading to Norfolk June 29-30, for their 36th biennial convention.

The convention site is Lutheran High Northeast at 2010 North 37th St. in Norfolk. Being good stewards, members are asked to bring their own bag this year as the district will not provide any at convention. As good Lutherans we want to reduce, reuse and reform.

Beautiful Feet - Sharing Good News is the convention theme based on scripture verses Isaiah 52:7 and Romans 10:15. The servant events will be Friday morning and all will be on-site. Some of the servant events will be a blood drive, making foot jewelry, foot washing, quilt tying, and assembling Mercy Meals. On Friday evening there will be a special 70th anniversary dinner with entertainment.

The Rev. Russell Sommerfeld, President of the Lutheran Church-Missouri Synod Nebraska District, will be the Proclaimer at the Eucharistic worship service on Saturday morning, June 30.

This service is open to the public. Then, mid-morning on Saturday the interest sessions will be held. They include: God's Mission in Slovakia, Mission Trip to Haiti, Ready Feet Share the Gospel in Poland, God's Mission to People Who are Hurtling, An Opportunity to Care for Our Military Families, Heart to Heart Sisters, LWML 101, and a Bible Study.

While at the convention, members will have the opportunity to hear from a variety of speakers. The keynote speaker is Deb Burma, Christian author and speaker. Gary Thies, Mission Central located in Mapleton, Iowa, is one of the mission speakers. Lois Anderson, LWML Treasurer, is our national LWML representative. These are just some of the speakers who will address the members at the convention.

The LWML members of the Nebraska North District are bringing "Gifts from the Heart" to be given to the chosen organizations of The Wesley Center Crisis Nursery and Bright Horizons.

Emily Matthes slides home to score a run for the Wayne Dirt Devils 14-under team in action Tuesday against Arlington.

14-under Devils beat Arlington, 6-4

The Wayne Dirt Devils 14-under team got a solid pitching performance from Hannah Belt and some timely hitting to post a 6-4 win over Arlington in action Tuesday at the Wayne Softball Complex.

The Dirt Devils scored five runs in the second inning and held off an Arlington comeback effort in the fifth that saw the visitors score three runs to make the game interesting.

Coach Alisha Finkey said her team's offense has shown improvement early in the season.

"The bats have come a long way since day one, and the girls have been improving every day," she said. Nicole Craft was 2-for-3 with two RBIs in the game, including a key two-run triple in the second inning that helped fuel Wayne's winning rally. Ryle Bessmer was 3-for-3 with three runs scored, Danica Schaefer was 2-for-3 with a run scored and Kortney Keller had an RBI single and scored as well.

Belt pitched a solid game for the Dirt Devils, allowing five hits and striking out 14 Arlington batters to get the win.

The Dirt Devils went 2-2-1 in tournament play in Vermillion, S.D. over the weekend. They will compete in the Dirt Devil Invitational this weekend at the Wayne Softball Complex.

Stover accepts Term Call at church in Lilburn, Ga.

Rev. Kim A. Stover, formerly of Kearney, has accepted a Term Call from All Saints Lutheran Church, Lilburn, Ga.

Stover is a 1994 graduate of Trinity Lutheran Seminary, Columbus, Ohio and was ordained Aug. 14, 1994. He has served ELCA churches in Ohio, and Hildreth and Wayne in Nebraska. He received training from the National Association of Lutheran Interim Pastors (NALIP). His most recent Interim Call assignment was with St. Paul's Lutheran Church (ELCA) of Durham, NC. Intentional Interim pastors provide the full range of pastoral care ministry for congregations while assisting leaders and members with specific issues and goals prior to the call of a new pastor. In a Term Call, an Interim Pastor serves for a specific term of up to two two-year terms during which the call process is not engaged.

All Saints Lutheran Church was formed Reformation Sunday, Oct. 25, 1981 as a mission start of the American Lutheran Church. Gwinnett County, in which the church is located, was in recent history one of the fastest growing counties in America. It is known for its exceptional public school system and is the home of the world's largest Hindu Temple.

Pastor Stover is a 1969 graduate of Ravenna High School. He is married to Susan (Warrick). Prior to seminary training, Rev. Stover worked as an elementary school teacher and in sales, including nine years with Abbott Nutritionals, Chicago, Ill.

Don't get me started

By: Michael Carnes

Al-Jazeera is set to launch sports network in U.S.

School's out and the kids have nothing to do? Sit them down with this week's run-through of the "Bits and Pieces" file:

- From the "If Al Qaeda gets the rights to the Super Bowl, the terrorists have won" department: Al-Jazeera, the mouthpiece of the radical Muslim movement, is launching two sports channels in the United States later this summer.

This is great news . . . now we'll be able to get Major League Baseball highlights of teams other than the New York Jihadist Yankees and the Boston Capitalist Pigs Red Sox, live on the Al-Jazeera Sports Network..

- My worst nightmare, realized by somebody else: a Lincoln man was arrested for indecent exposure after being found walking down a street wearing only a brown T-shirt.

My second-worst dream, also realized by somebody else: a Missouri man interrupted a baseball game between the St. Louis Cardinals and Philadelphia Phillies when he streaked naked into the outfield.

- I'm pretty sure these two guys didn't ask their spouses if they needed anything else before making a recent stop at Wal-Mart.

Two Omaha men managed to shoplift 20 packages of meat and 120 cans of beer out of the store recently. They snuck a bunch of empty grocery bags in, took the items into the infant department, bagged them and walked out with about $268 worth of product.

If anybody in northwest Omaha invites you to a barbecue this summer, be careful - you could be arrested for consumption of stolen brats and Budweiser.

- In a related story, an ice cream van was vandalized in Omaha and almost $400 worth of ice cream sandwiches, popcicles and other frozen treats.

So if that barbecue with the brats and beer includes a frozen treat for dessert . . . it really may be in your best interests to stay away.

- This month's winner of the "Lunatic nutjobs and their pets" award goes to the guy in Dubuque, Iowa, who was recently charged with drunken driving.

While that might not be newsworthy, the passengers in the vehicle at the time of the arrest were a little unusual: his two pets - a parrot and a zebra.

The man claimed he occasionally takes his pets into the local bar near where he was arrested, adding that he thinks somebody who came to see the animals notified police of his state of intoxication.

No word yet as to whether the parrot will testify on his owner's behalf.

- If you are like me and enjoy a weekend fall afternoon clicking back and forth between football games, I have some sad news to report: the man who invented the remote control has died.

Eugene Polley invented the first television remote control in 1955 for Zenith. He went on to earn 18 U.S. patents in his 47-year career as an engineer. Without him, couch potatoes would actually have to get up off their fat fannies and bounce back and forth between "SportsCenter" updates and "Storage Wars."

I'm not sure about how it was in your house, but I held down the channel-changing job for a number of years in my house when I was a kid. Thanks to Mr. Polley, I was able to move on to more important pursuits of the time - riding my bike and playing baseball in the empty lot. (I realize these activities are almost completely foreign to today's youth . . . trust me, though - they were much simpler and enjoyable times than camping out all day in front of the Xbox.)

- And finally, we have breaking news from the "Doctors know what causes this now" department: A 33-year-old man is seeking help from the state of Tennessee in helping him make his child support payments.

And before you get all hot and bothered about the nerve of this guy, consider his situation - he's got some mouths to feed - 30 of them, in fact. You read that right, folks - the guy has fathered 30 children by 11 different mothers and is unable to make ends meet while working a minimum-wage job.

He told the court, back in 2009, that he did not intend to have any more children. Of course, that was back when he only had 21 mouths to feed. He has somehow found time to sire nine more youngins in the past 36 months.

If ever there were a case for state-sponsored vasectomies, I'm thinking this would be the one.

Letters

Thanks for help on food drive

The letter carriers of Wayne would like to thank everyone who helped make our food drive a success.

A special thanks to the Postal Service, area churches, KTCH and the Campbell's Soup company. Thanks also to Arnie's Ford Mercury and Grace Lutheran Church for putting a message on their signs.

We were able to collect about 600 pounds of food for the local food pantry. We appreciate all who were able to donate to the food drive.

Fischer must avoid Kerrey KO

By ED HOWARD
Statehouse Correspondent
The Nebraska Press Association

LINCOLN - It was just a tad surprising when Republican Deb Fischer turned down the chance to debate Democratic rival Bob Kerrey at the Cornhusker Boys and Girls State gathering in Lincoln.

Getting on stage with Kerrey this early in their race for the U.S. Senate would have given Fischer a chance to size up her far more experienced rival. And even if the outcome hadn't been particularly good for her . . . so what? It's a long way from June to November.

Kerrey, who served one term as governor and two in the Senate, has offered one particularly worthwhile suggestion for the coming contest.

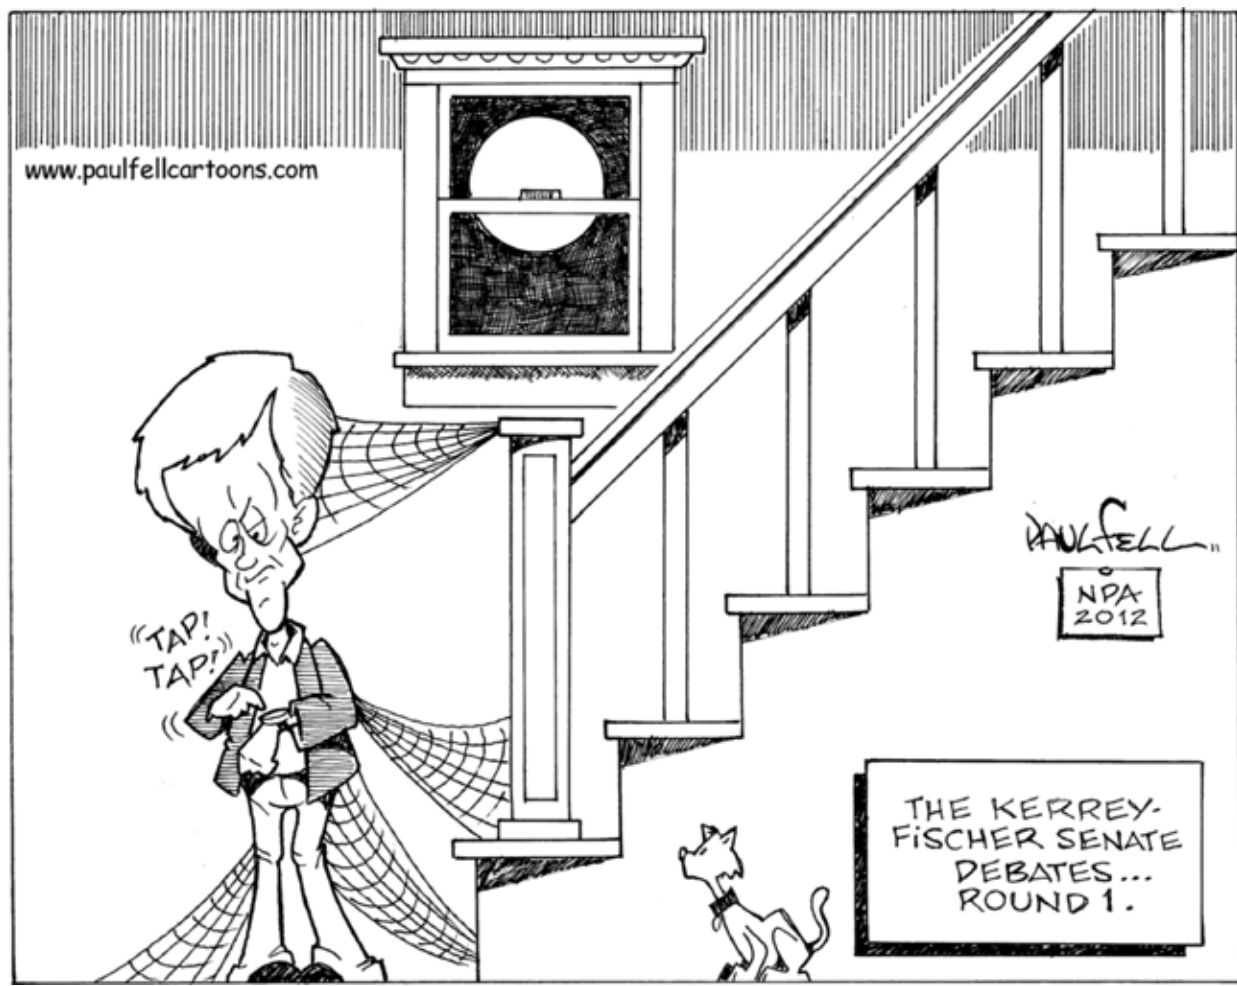

He has challenged Fischer to three Lincoln-Douglas style debates - one in each congressional district. Kerrey wants a two-hour format in which the candidates would speak and ask each other questions.

The view from here: This debate format should be standard in every House, Senate and gubernatorial election. It takes the talking heads out of the equation and makes it more difficult for politicians to duck the issues by blabbering until their time runs out. And if it was good enough for Abe Lincoln . . .

Kerrey has called for seven debates, the same number the Republicans held during their primary season.

At this stage, it seems Fischer's camp might content itself with letting endless advertising dollars do most of the talking, and Kerrey bashing.

This contest is going to be influenced by tens of millions of dollars in television and radio ads from both sides and obviously only a small fraction of that money will come from Nebraskans. It is virtually certain to be the most expensive Nebraska political race. That's not surprising, since it is also one of the contests that will determine which party controls the U.S. Senate next year.

With Karl Rove and a bunch of super PACs pitching for Fischer, the tone of much of the advertising is a well established given. At this writing, they'd already spent some $260,000 for one anti-Kerrey ad that criticized him for saying some good things about the bank bailout that was supported by Republican President George Bush.

And even before Kerrey announced he would run (after he announced he wouldn't run) the GOP was on him like body odor because he had lived so many years in New York, serving as president of the New School university.

Kerrey wants debates that will let him get into topics like entitlement reforms, healthcare and foreign policy, contrasting his knowledge and experience with that of a state senator/rancher from the Sandhills.

If this were a prize fight, Kerrey would be cast in the role of the underdog slugger. He needs to score a lot of points. And Fischer's job would be obvious - don't fight his fight. Just keep jabbing and jabbing . . . and stay away from him. He's scored a lot of knockouts.

Legislative Update

Remembering two area fallen soldiers

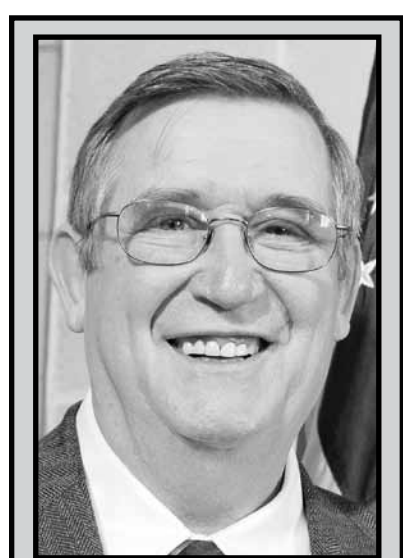

The untimely passing of two of District 17's finest is the focus of this "newsletter."

It is with great sadness that I report the death of Captain Matthew Justin Meyer, United States Air Force, son of Terry and Karen Meyer of Wayne. On Saturday, May 19, Captain Meyer was laid to rest with full military honors in his hometown of Wayne, following funeral services at the Wayne Airport hangar. We extend our condolences to his wife, Christina, parents Terry and Karen Meyer, brother Jonathan and Diane Meyer, sister Elizabeth and Abe Schoenherr, nephews Caleb and Ben; grandparents Edna Meyer and Lorn and June Beardshear, and in-laws Lynda and Mike Roberts.

I must also report the passing of Commander Marsha (Heineman) Hanly, United States Navy, daughter of Don and Sharon Heineman of Pender. Commander Hanly will be laid to rest on Saturday, May 26, at Rosehill Cemetery in Pender with full military honors. We extend our condolences to her husband Scott Hanly, their children Avery and Mason, her parents Don and Sharon Heineman, brothers Matthew and Mark, sister Melissa, grandmother Helen Heineman, in-laws, nieces and nephews.

I am sure that I speak for all of us when I say "Thank You" to the families for the service of these fine young people. Both Matthew Meyer and Marsha (Heineman) Hanly are great examples of those who choose to serve our Nation. I was not privileged to know either, but I am very proud that they served from District 17 in Nebraska.

This letter is being written on Friday, May 25, just ahead of the Memorial Day weekend. It is proper that we reflect not only on these two good people, but also on others we have lost from Northeast Nebraska and from across our Nation. Let us always remember FREEDOM IS NOT FREE and must NEVER be taken for granted.

Congratulations to the 614 high school graduates of 2012 in District 17. The graduates have a future ahead that will demand their attention and dedication to make

Nebraska, as well as America, an even better place than existed on their respective graduation date. We can only wish the best for these young adults and attempt to assist and guide them in their endeavors. Whether they aspire to higher education, serving in the military, gaining full-time employment, travel or any of the other opportunities before them, we wish them well. No matter what avenue these young adults choose to travel, we extend a "Thank You" to their parents and teachers, as well as siblings and friends, for bringing them this far in life. The world is out there for each of these young adults to "Make a Difference."

The Primary Election in Nebraska has been wrapped up and I extend a hearty "Thank You" to constituents across District 17 who took the time to go to the polls and exercise their privilege to vote. It is truly the best method by which to make your voice heard. It is sad that while we have young men and women serving in far away and dangerous places, so few of us that they protect, take advantage of the opportunity to vote.

Our office remains open through the interim and we welcome you to stop in for a visit should you be in Lincoln. We are located in Room 1117 on the south side of the Capitol. To contact our office, you may call (402) 471-2716 or e-mail at dbloomfield@leg.ne.gov.

Memorial Day Program

The Memorial Day Program was held on Memorial Day, May 28, at the East View Cemetery. Members of the Floyd Gleason Post 131 of the American Legion and Auxiliary of Allen held the Memorial Service. Legion Commander Scott Morgan opened the service, followed by a Memorial Day Prayer by Legion Chaplain Don Turney. The MIA/POW Flag posting was by Tom Turney.

The Allen High School quartet of Morgan Bathke, Lindsey Sullivan, Samantha Sullivan, and Lindsey Jones, sang the National Anthem. The 2011 Girls Stater, Christina Gregerson, gave the History of the Poppy, followed by the 2011 Boys Stater, Kyle Finnegan, with the Gettysburg Address.

The Memorial Day message was given by the First Lutheran Church Pastor Sarah Ruch. Dean Chase, Legion Member, read the Roll Call of the Dead; followed by Linda Sorensen, auxiliary chaplain, who gave a Memorial Prayer/Inspirational Story. Tom Turney followed with the Floral Tribute. The Salute of the Dead, was led by Robert Kumm. Allen band members Lindsey Jones and Samantha Sullivan played Taps.

The benediction was given by Pastor Sarah Ruch.

Virginia Wheeler Scholarship

The recipient of the 2012 Virginia Wheeler Scholarship was Kyle Finnegan. Kyle was this year's Class of 2012 valedictorian and is the son of Ron and Carol Finnegan.

Recycle your used toner and ink jet cartridges, fusers and cell phones.

Why Recycle?

- ♻ Did you know? Over 350 million cartridges are thrown into our landfills annually. That's over 29 million cartridges a month.
- ♻ Each discarded laser cartridge adds approximately 3.4 pounds of metal and plastic waste to our landfills - waste that will take as long as 1,000 years to decompose.
- ♻ More than 3 quarts of oil are used to produce each laser cartridge. The plastic used in each printer cartridge takes more than 10 centuries (that's 1000 years!) to decompose.

Pack foods safely for summer picnics

Food safety always is a necessity, but especially during picnics in the summertime because hot temperatures cause foodborne bacteria to multiply rapidly and can cause foodborne illness. Be prepared and follow food safety guidelines when on summer outings.

When packing food, keep cold foods at 40 degrees Fahrenheit or cooler to prevent bacteria growth. Those foods should be kept in a sturdy, insulated cooler, surrounded with ice or frozen gel packs. People can freeze their own blocks of ice with clean milk cartons or plastic containers to use in the cooler. Place the gel packs or homemade ice containers between foods. Do not set food containers on top of ice. Keep foods in waterproof containers, plastic wrap or aluminum foil so they don't get soggy.

When transporting the cooler, put it in the passenger area of a car, not the trunk because temperatures in trunks can reach temperatures up to 150 degrees Fahrenheit. Take a blanket to put over the cooler once at the picnic site and place it in a shaded area to help keep the food cold. Do not open the cooler until it is time to eat.

If serving hot foods, make sure they remain at 140 degrees Fahrenheit or higher to prevent bacteria growth. Hot foods cooked just before going to the picnic or take-out food can be carried hot. Wrap them in towels or newspaper and place them inside a box or heavy paper bag. Either keep hot foods warm on a grill or use them within one hour.

If cold foods can't be kept cold and hot foods hot, take foods that don't need special refrigeration or heating: chips, crackers, peanut butter, unopened cans of fruit, unopened cans of meat, peanut butter and jelly sandwiches, fresh fruit, dried fruits, nuts, cookies and cakes.

If water will be available for use on the picnic, bring soap. Also, pack moist towelettes and hand sanitizer in case the picnic site doesn't have hand washing facilities. Bring plenty of utensils and dishware for each dish to prevent contamination. For easy clean-up, consider bringing disposable plates and plasticware instead.

IMPORTANCE OF DENTAL RADIOGRAPHS (X-RAYS)

While some patients may be concerned about potential risks from too much exposure to radiation, x-rays are a necessary part of the dental health process and are safe when performed following the standard guidelines for radiology. Radiographs allow dentists to see and interpret signs of disease or potential problems in the teeth that are not visible through direct observation. X-rays are used to discover abscesses (pus-pockets), cysts and tumors. They help dentists locate impacted, un-erupted or extra teeth and determine congenitally missing teeth. Radiographs demonstrate the presence or degree of periodontal (gum) disease, and help to pinpoint the location and severity of cavities. Foregoing x-rays could result in an inaccurate diagnosis or incomplete treatment. Usually, patients will be given a series of x-rays that serve as a frame of reference for future changes. The time frame between x-rays, the type of x-rays and number of follow-up x-rays will be determined by your dentist's assessment of your needs and the condition of your mouth. Growth and development are additional factors taken into account with young children. At Bright Smiles Family Dental we have a digital x-ray system in place which means that there is less radiation and Dr. Braun is able to more accurately diagnose decay and other conditions. In turn this means fewer x-rays are needed and we can enlarge, and focus in on certain parts of the x-ray. We can also send these x-rays to specialists and other offices should the need arise which eliminates taking them again. Prior to taking an x-ray a lead apron is placed on our patients, a thyroid collar is used for children's x-rays and any of our adult patients may use it should they choose to. Our staff has had the required training to take adequate and accurate x-rays and will take every precaution to keep you safe.

Dreaming Up the Ideal Retirement Is Your Job. Helping You Get There Is Ours.

It's simple, really. How well you retire depends on how well you plan today. Whether retirement is down the road or just around the corner, the more you work toward your goals now, the better prepared you can be.

Preparing for retirement means taking a long-term perspective. We recommend buying quality investments and holding them because we believe that's the soundest way we can help you work toward your goals. At Edward Jones, we spend time getting to know your retirement goals so we can help you reach them.

Sidney Chapman and Lorna Maxon, Kelsey Heggemeyer and Erin O'Reilly and Emily Matthes and Lindy Sandoz played duets.

Special recognition was given to students receiving superiors and trophies at the National Federation Auditions.

Trophies are awarded on a point system and those receiving 15-point trophies were: Sabrina Hochstein, Sean Hochstein, Anna Lundahl, Kate Lundahl, Shane O'Donnell and Erin O'Reilly.

Thirty-point trophies were awarded to Joe Burrows, Joel Litchfield, Andrea Torres, and Elisabeth Torres.

One-year superior certificates were awarded to Treyton Blecke, Kelsey Heggemeyer, Kallan Herman, Sean Hochstein, Faith Junck, Ky Kenny, Kate Lundahl, Hope O'Reilly and Sarah Wibben.

Two-year consecutive superiors certificates were awarded to Amelia Blankenau, Megan Forsberg, Lindsey Kallhoff, Ben Klein, Emily Longe and Kate Schultz.

Three-year consecutive superiors were awarded to Anna Lundahl, Shane O'Donnell, Erin O'Reilly, and Elisabeth Torres.

A four-year consecutive superior was awarded to Breanna Kallhoff.

Five-year consecutive superiors were awarded to JoAnne Lundahl and Emily Matthes.

Six-year consecutive Superiors was awarded to Andrea Torres.

Students taking part in the NMTA included Joe Burrows, Sean Hochstein, Sabrina Hochstein, Breanna Kallhoff, Emily Matthes, Lindy Sandoz and Kate Schultz.

The nine senior students were honored for their years of piano study. They are Sawyer Jager, Joel Litchfield, Luke Lundahl, Katelyn Matthes, Cassy Miller, Brittney Peterson, Jenna Pieper, Burgandy Roberts and Elle Schramm.

Several students were unable to attend. Certificates and treats were given students.

First Trinity Lutheran Church to host Vacation Bible School

First Trinity Lutheran Church of Altona will hold Vacation Bible School Thursday, Friday and Saturday, May 31 through June 2.

On May 31 and June 1, the Bible School will begin at 6 p.m. and conclude at 8:30 p.m. On Saturday, June 2, activities begin at 9:30 a.m. and conclude at 3 p.m.

The theme for this year's Vacation Bible School is "The Tree of Life," from Pax Domini Press.

All children, ages three and above, are invited to attend this year's Vacation Bible School. The Bible School will be held jointly with St. John's Lutheran Church, Pilger, and will be held at First Trinity of Altona.

For more information, contact any of the following (402) 396-3247; (402) 529-3845 or (402) 640-2233. Carpooling of rides from Pilger is available.

A joint worship service will be held at First Trinity of Altona on Sunday, June 3 at 10:30 a.m. (Note change of time from regular worship service). There will be no Sunday School that day only.

A joint potluck dinner will be held following the service.

Children in each of the congregations, as well as those in the community are invited to attend.

Pie experts

Wayne County 4-Hers met Friday, May 18 at the Wayne Elementary School kitchen to make pies. Making the 87 pies were Rhonda Kittle, Emily Claussen, Emma Loberg, Judy Poehlman, Allison Echtenkamp, Erin O'Reilly, Gretchen O'Reilly and Kayla Fleming. The pies are frozen, then baked each morning of the Wayne County Fair, then sold at the 4-H Food Stand. The 2012 Wayne County Fair is scheduled for July 26-29.

Those involved in the plant identification contest included (front) Elizabeth Kment, Becca Kment, Alison Perrigan, Sarah Perrigan, (back) Laura Greunke, Laura Perrigan, Stephanie Sorensen, Katherine Perrigan, Rachel Sorensen, and Wayne Ohnesorg, Northeast Nebraska Master Gardener Coordinator.

Plant identification contest conducted

As part of the 20th annual North-east Nebraska Master Gardener plant fair, a youth horticulture plant identification contest was held.

Area youth were invited to participate in the competition. A total of nine youth participated with five in the junior division, two in the intermediate division, and two in the senior division. Each contestant was asked to identify 50 plants.

Becca Kment of Plainview placed first in the junior division with Sarah Perrigan of Norfolk placing second and Laura Perrigan of Norfolk placing third.

In the intermediate division, Katherine Perrigan of Norfolk finished in first place with Stephanie Sorensen of Plainview placing second. For the senior division, Rachel Sorensen of Plainview placed first and Laura Greunke of Winside placed second.

Organizers extended a thank you to Mulch N More and Don Liedman for providing additional plants.

Bruflat earns advanced degree

Emily Bruflat was awarded the Master of Sacred Music degree from Luther Seminary at its commencement exercises held May 20 at Central Lutheran Church in Minneapolis, Minn.

The Master in Sacred Music degree is designed to educate church musicians theologically for service in the church as professional pastoral musicians.

Emily is the daughter of Alan and Madge Bruflat of Wayne. She is Director of Worship and Music Ministries at Bethlehem Lutheran Church in Bayport, Minn.

Scardino a grad from Peru State

Peru State College (PSC) awarded 417 students their degrees at the college's 2012 Commencement Ceremony on May 5.

Among those earning degrees was Chadd Scardino of Wayne, who received a Bachelor of Science, Computer/ Management Information Systems degree.

During ceremonies, Peru State College President Dan Hanson said, "As they embark on new careers, advance in current jobs or pursue advanced degrees, we hope our graduates remember fondly the role Peru State faculty, staff and administrators played in their success. We congratulate them on being part of the legion of Bobcat alumni who have made this institution great for 145 years and wish them all the best for a bright and successful future. It's been great to have each one as a student at Peru State."

Looking back on graduation

Well, tomorrow should about be the end of the graduation exercises. Lincoln Public Schools run an amazing marathon at Pershing Auditorium for all six high schools. It must take an enormous amount of planning and organization.

One of the more interesting developments since our kids graduated is the practice of having the receptions on a completely different day, so that guests can get to more. I do remember my friend, Virginia, in Pierce, doing a breakfast brunch at her church on the day of graduation, but most of us did cake and sandwiches after the ceremony.

Obviously, Jon is very proud of this daughter, as are we. You have already heard me extolling her talent. But we are equally proud of Alex, Sue's youngest, who graduated from Seward on the 13th. There were over one hundred grads, and the whole thing took 35 minutes! The principal had told them they were going for a record, and I think they got it.

Alex would be considered a nerd, but he has a great personality, too. He is amazing with computers. Thus, among 32 applicants, he has been accepted into the Raikes School at UNL. Jeff Raikes is a local boy (from Ashland) who worked for Microsoft. He is now head of the Gates Foundation. And he endowed a computer/business school, complete with a wonderful dorm, to help those who are skilled in technology learn business techniques, also. Probably something Mark Zuckerberg could have used.

It's a full ride, so it's worth a LOT. And one of his classmates will be Sawyer Jager from Wayne. Their parents knew each other from 4-H; another small world example.

By: Pat Meierhenry

Alex was the mute king in Once Upon A Mattress, after being the sound technician for the other musical productions. He plays a mean drum, and even had his own band. He earns his spending money at the local theater. I think the Seward Rivoli is a lot like the Wayne Majestic, and even though I've only seen one movie there, The Bugeaters, I'm sure it's just as appreciated.

To add to the fun this month, Danica, Jon's youngest, was Sarah Brown in Guys and Dolls, Jr., at Norris Middle School. In fact, it was the day before Alex's graduation, AND the same day as his reception. Somehow, with Jon's help, we got to both.

We missed eighth grade graduation at Christ Lutheran in Norfolk, but Jacey was one of the top students there; plus, she was awarded a Choral award. You can imagine, this Grandma is thrilled with all the musicians in this family. She has already tried out and made the Dance Team at Lutheran High Northeast.

So, I have a ready-made place to brag about my grandkids, and I just took advantage of it. BUT, I noticed at both ceremonies, the kids without the gold ribbons around their necks had parents who were just as proud. When it's your kid, you get a rush, no matter if he's at the top of the heap, or the bottom. He made it, that's what counts.

Both commencements featured student speakers, who kept it short and snappy. The ceremony at Norris graduated over 180, and did it in just under one hour. In reality, all the aunts and uncles and such did not come to hear some speaker, who often says somewhat the same things that have been said already, many times.

However, I hear from a good source that Mike Flood was the speaker at Lutheran High, and that Governor Heinemann was a surprise guest. So, that had to make a memorable graduation, one the students will remember.

Just one more comment, and I will close. What some people think is appropriate to wear to a commencement never ceases to amaze me. Among the suits and ties were jeans, some not in very good condition; shorts, and hoodies. I think it shows a lack of respect, and maybe we need a dress code for graduations? That's this old ladies' take, anyway. Congrats, grads, and good luck!

Application to be ready in June

LINCOLN – A state parks mobile application being developed by the Nebraska Game and Parks Commission is expected to be ready for public use by the end of June.

It is the first phase of a Game and Parks application that will let smart phone users connect to the outdoors while on the go. Commissioners were given a staff report on the project at their May 25 meeting in Blair.

The second and third phases of the application, which will be known as the Nebraska Game and Parks Outdoor Guide, will be fish and game, and permits, respectively.

The free application, which will be available at iTunes and the Android Marketplace, will deliver real-time information, as well as access to guides, regulations and information about Game and Parks properties.

The commissioners heard the following other staff reports:

Habitat Programs – A recap of the 2011 accomplishments shows that projects in 86 counties encompassed 84,432 acres on 180 wildlife management areas, and 5,461 landowners received technical assistance. Affected habitat included 66,068 grassland acres, 9,005 wetland acres, 6,775 cropland acres and 2,584 woodland acres. Also, 17,008 acres were treated with prescribed fire, 22,441 were treated with prescribed grazing/haying, and 16,534 were treated for invasive trees. The Open Fields and Waters Program had 631 landowners and 272,031 acres enrolled.

Cabela's Wanna Go Fishing for Millions? – This contest, which could award an angler up to $2 million for catching a tagged fish, got underway May 5 and continues through July 8. The promotion takes place in the 19 states that are home to a Cabela's store. Ten Nebraska lakes contain tagged fish. To be eligible for prizes, anglers first must register at www.cabelas.com/fishformillions.

Niobrara River Activity – A draft of the Niobrara Confluence and Ponca Bluffs Land Protection Plan will be prepared jointly by the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service and the National Park Service late this summer.

Create a Commercial for Critter Conservation Contest – It was announced that Crete High School was the overall winner in the contest. People had been invited to create a commercial featuring Nebraska's animals and plants that helps people appreciate wildlife and highlight the importance of the Nebraska Wildlife Conservation Fund. The winning entries can be viewed at NebraskaWildlifeFund.com.

Family Fishing Nights – These events, part of the agency's plan to recruit, develop and retain anglers to reverse declining trends in angler participation, invite families to fish at locations where Game and Parks provides instruction, equipment and bait.

High School Fishing Clubs – Game and Parks is working to expand high school fishing, now in its second year in Nebraska. The 2012 state tournament will be July 28 at Summit Lake.

Stable flies; ankle biters from Hell

Personally, my most hated insect is the stable fly. This blood-feeding beast is known by many names, most unprintable, but they are commonly referred to as ankle-biters, a reference to their favored feeding site, and sand flies, which refers to their habit of ruining a day at the beach. The name stable fly comes from their common occurrence in horse and livestock pens.

Due to recent moisture and poorly managed grass clippings and compost piles in urban centers, these flies are gaining quickly in numbers and are biting humans and pets in the backyard. The flies look much like a common house fly, but have a biting proboscis or beak which extends directly outward from the head. They are fast fliers, usually bite low on the leg, on feet and ankles, although any bare skin is fair game to them. On pets, especially dogs, they prefer to feed on ears and noses, drawing visible blood, and on livestock they tend to feed on lower legs, causing horses and cattle to stomp.

A damp organic matter mixture is what they prefer to breed in. In dog kennels and stables, the mix of fresh manure and bedding straw is an ideal breeding area. Hundreds of stable fly maggots can sometimes be found in such unlikely places like the undersides of lawn mowers, so clean accumulated clippings clinging around the blade housing. Spreading and drying out of clippings and compost will reduce breeding. Also, proper composting methods, which maintain active decomposition which in turn generates sufficient heat, will stop fly breeding almost completely. Untended trash receptacles where food scraps are thrown can breed many flies, including house flies.

As usual, the best first step in control of insects is to eliminate the breeding areas mentioned above. Stable flies can go from egg to maggot to adults in less than 2 weeks in warm weather, so regular maintenance of breeding areas is critical. For human protection, wearing long pants and dark socks will help deter bites. Deet products may help but these biters are very persistent. They laugh at sonic repellants, which don't work on anything anyway, are not attracted to UV light zappers, and sneer at citronella.

Ointments which contain an insecticide are available from your local veterinarian or hardware store, and these can be used to treat dog's ears and prevent stable fly feeding. Spraying shady vertical walls and vegetation where flies rest near kennels and buildings with a residual insecticide like permethrin will reduce activity as well. Residual sprays should remain effective for 7-10 days if not washed off by rain or exposed to direct sunlight.

For livestock, along with residual sprays on buildings, area or knock-down sprays which are insecticides with short residual action can be applied as fogs or mists into fly inhabiting areas. The small droplets are effective in killing the flies they contact. These sprays are efficient if a number of horses are kept in paddocks around the stables. Some insecticides can be applied directly to animals with power sprayers if a number of horses are involved and if good holding and working facilities are available.

If only a few animals are involved, the insecticide can be applied with hand sprayers, hand sponging or washing, or by aerosol or mist applications. Horses perspire and perspiration quickly breaks down insecticides, so almost daily treatments are needed for effective fly control. Insecticide applications should be concentrated on the head, neck, chest, legs, withers and back. Good luck!

THANK YOU

Dave Bloomfield for Legislature

A Message from SENATOR DAVE BLOOMFIELD THANK YOU to the voters of District 17 for your generous support in the May 15 Primary Election. It is greatly appreciated.

Paid for by Dave Bloomfield for Legislature Committee, PO Box 243, South Sioux City, NE 68776

Words fall short in expressing our appreciation for the support, love and compassion shown to our family as we faced the loss of our son, husband, brother, uncle and friend, Matt. The abundant outpouring of cards with kind words, monetary support for the Scholarship formed in Matt's memory, food and supplies provided to our family, help from many to turn a hangar and airport property into a church and parking lot for a day, refreshments after the memorial service, emergency/fire protection necessary in order to land Matt's T-6 at our airfield, and the presence of everyone who attended the celebration of Matt's life was uplifting and comforting for all of us. We are blessed to be part of a community that genuinely cares for one another and we are humbled and honored by the sincere concern for our well-being. Thank you for your prayers and for your support as we move forward. God bless you all.

SEWER CLEANING NOTICE

During the weeks of June 4th and 11th, 2012. the City of Wayne Sewer Department will be having sewer mains cleaned in various parts of the City. Included in this will be the area between Nebraska St. and Providence Rd. on the east side of Wayne and the areas of Oak Dr., the Knolls and Grainland Road on the west side of Wayne. Other areas may be done as well.

In this process, high pressure water is forced through the sewer pipe to clean it. This pushes solid materials to the manholes so they can be removed by vacuuming. This entire process is necessary to keep obstructions out of the sewer system and to insure proper drainage of waste.

Residents should be aware that when this process is done, the high pressure water pushes the air in the sewer line which occasionally enters the private sewer lines into homes and businesses. If this happens, it usually results in the air exiting through toilet bowls, shooting the water out of the toilet bowl. This air should exit through the sewer vent of the building, but inadequate venting or location of toilets can cause the air to exit through the toilet. This is a rare occurrence, and keeping the lid closed on the toilet during this time will keep most of the water in the bowl rather than on the floor.

If you have questions please call the City office at 375-1733.
